(1) Divide the amount of funding for the special education local plan area computed for the 1997–98 fiscal year pursuant to Section

56836.09 by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(2) Add the amount computed in paragraph (1) to the inflation adjustment computed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 56836.08 for the 1998–99 fiscal year.

(b) Commencing with the 1999–2000 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the amount of funding per unit of average daily attendance for each special education local plan area for the fiscal year in which the computation is made:

(1) For the 1999–2000 fiscal year, divide the amount of funding for the special education local plan area computed for the 1998–99 fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 56836.08 by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the 1998–99 fiscal year.

(2) For the 2000–01 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, divide the amount of funding for the special education local plan area computed for the prior fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 56836.08 by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the prior fiscal year.

56836.11. (a) For the purpose of computing the equalization adjustment for special education local plan areas for the 1998–99 fiscal year, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas:

(1) Total the amount of funding computed for each special education local plan area pursuant to Section 56836.09 for the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(2) Total the number of units of average daily attendance reported for each special education local plan area for the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(3) Divide the sum computed in paragraph (1) by the sum computed in paragraph (2) to determine the statewide target amount for the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(4) Add the amount computed in paragraph (3) to the inflation adjustment computed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 56836.08 for the 1998–99 fiscal year to determine the statewide target amount for the 1998–99 fiscal year.

(b) Commencing with the 1999–2000 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, to determine the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas, the superintendent shall multiply the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance computed for the prior fiscal year pursuant to this section by one plus the inflation factor computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238.1 for the fiscal year in which the computation is made.

56836.12. (a) For the purpose of computing the equalization adjustment for special education local plan areas for the 1998–99 fiscal year, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the amount that each special education local plan area that has an amount per unit of average daily attendance that is below the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance may request as an equalization adjustment:

(1) Subtract the amount per unit of average daily attendance computed for the special education local plan area pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 56836.10 from the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 56836.11.

(2) If the remainder computed in paragraph (1) is greater than zero, multiply that remainder by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(b) Commencing with the 1999–2000 fiscal year, through and including the fiscal year in which equalization among the special education local plan areas has been achieved, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the amount that each special education local plan area that has an amount per unit of average daily attendance that is below the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance may request as an equalization adjustment:

(1) Add to the amount per unit of average daily attendance computed for the special education local plan area pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 56836.10 for the fiscal year in which the computation is made the inflation adjustment computed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 56836.08 for the fiscal year in which the computation is made.

(2) Subtract the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (1) from the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 56936.11 for the fiscal year in which the computation is made.

(3) If the remainder computed in paragraph (2) is greater than zero, multiply that remainder by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the prior fiscal year.

56836.13. Commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year, through and including the fiscal year in which equalization among the special education local plan areas has been achieved, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the amount available for making equalization adjustments for the fiscal year in which the computation is made:

(a) Determine the amounts of funds equal to the increase in federal funds, if any, appropriated in the annual Budget Act for the purposes of equalizing funding for special education local plan areas pursuant to this chapter. The increase shall be computed by subtracting the amount of federal funds available to the state pursuant to Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.) for the fiscal year in which the computation is made from the amount available to the state from those funds for the prior fiscal year.

(b) Subtract the amount computed in subdivision (a) from the amount of funds provided for increased costs to the state in administering the special education program.

(c) Add to the amount in subdivision (b), the amount of additional funds, if any, appropriated in the fiscal year for which the computation is made in the annual Budget Act for the purposes of equalizing funding for special education local plan areas pursuant to this chapter.

56836.14. Commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year, through and including the fiscal year in which equalization among the special education local plan areas has been achieved, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the actual amount of the equalization adjustment for each special education local plan area that has an amount per unit of average daily attendance that is below the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance:

(a) Add the amount determined for each special education local plan area pursuant to Section 56836.12 for the fiscal year in which the computation is made to determine the total statewide aggregate amount necessary to fund each special education local plan area at the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas.

(b) Divide the amount computed in subdivision (a) by the amount computed pursuant to Section 56836.13 to determine the percentage of the total amount of funds necessary to fund each special education local plan area at the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas that are actually available for that purpose.

(c) To determine the amount to allocate to the special education local plan area for a special education local plan area equalization adjustment, multiply the amount computed for the special education local plan area pursuant to Section 56836.12, if any, by the percentage determined in subdivision (b).

56836.15. (a) In order to mitigate the effects of any declining enrollment, commencing in the 1998–99 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, the superintendent shall calculate allocations to special education local plan areas based on the average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the fiscal year in which the computation is made or the prior fiscal year, whichever is greater. However, the prior fiscal year average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area shall be adjusted for any loss or gain of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area due to a reorganization or transfer of territory in the special education local plan area.

(b) If in the fiscal year for which the computation is made, the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area are based is greater than the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area were based in the prior fiscal year, the special education local plan area shall be allocated a growth adjustment equal to the product determined by multiplying the amounts determined under paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) The statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas determined pursuant to Section 56836.11.

(2) The difference between the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area are based for the fiscal year in which the computation is made and the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area were based for the prior fiscal year.

(c) If in the fiscal year for which the computation is made, the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area are based is less than the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area were based in the prior fiscal year, the special education local plan area shall receive a funding reduction equal to the product determined by multiplying the amounts determined under paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) The amount of funding per unit of average daily attendance computed for the special education local plan area for the prior fiscal year.

(2) The difference between the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area are based for the fiscal year in which the computation is made and the number of units of average daily attendance upon which allocations to the special education local plan area were based for the prior fiscal year.

Article 2.5. Computation of Adjustment

56836.155. (a) For the 1998–99 fiscal year, prior to calculating the apportionment in Article 2 (commencing with Section 56836.06), the superintendent shall perform the following calculation:

(1) Determine for each special education local plan area the number of pupils with exceptional needs with the special disabilities specified in subdivision (b) for pupils residing in the special education local plan area based on the April 1996 pupil count.

(2) Determine for each special education local plan area the total reported incidence of all disabilities for pupils of age 3 to 22 years, inclusive, excluding pupils in placements as described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(3) Determine the statewide total of reported incidence of special disabilities determined pursuant to paragraph (1).

(4) Determine the statewide total reported incidence of all disabilities determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the superintendent shall use the count of all pupils with exceptional needs of age 3 to 22 years, inclusive, exclusive of placements in paragraph (1) and inclusive of the disabilities in paragraph (2).

(1) Pupils in state operated programs, nonpublic schools, and out-of-home placements.

(2) Pupils with low-incidence disabilities of autistic, hard of hearing, deaf, visually impaired, deaf, blind, and severe orthopedic impairment, except that, for the purposes of subdivision (a), pupils in the disability category of orthopedic impairment shall be used in the absence of special education local plan area counts of only severe orthopedic impairment. To the count of low-incidence disabilities, also add pupils in the disability category of traumatic brain injury.

(c) Calculate, for each special education local plan area, the reported incidence of special disabilities as a percentage of its total reported incidence of all disabilities by dividing the amount in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) by the amount in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). The percentage amount is to be expressed to the accuracy of one hundredth of a percentage point.

(d) Calculate the statewide total of reported incidence of special disabilities as a percent of the statewide total incidence of all disabilities by dividing the amount in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) by the amount in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a). The percent amount is to be expressed to the accuracy of one hundredth of a percentage point.

(e) For each special education local plan area whose percentage of special disabilities calculated pursuant to subdivision (c) is greater than the statewide percent of special disabilities pursuant to subdivision (d), determine the number of excess pupils in the special education local plan area as follows:

(1) Multiply the statewide percent of special disabilities calculated in subdivision (d) by the count by the special education local plan area of all disabilities determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(2) Subtract the amount calculated in paragraph (1) from the count by the special education local plan area of special disabilities determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). Round this number to the nearest whole number.

(f) Multiply the number of excess pupils calculated in subdivision (e) by one thousand dollars ($1,000). This is the amount that each special education local plan area having excess pupils is to receive as a special disabilities adjustment in the 1998–99 fiscal year and that is to be included in the total amount of funding received by the special education local plan area pursuant to Section 56836.08.

Article 3. Licensed Children's Institutions

56836.16. (a) For the 1980–81 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the superintendent shall apportion to each district and county superintendent providing programs pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 56155) of Chapter 2 an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the costs of master contracts with nonpublic, nonsectarian schools and agencies to provide special education instruction, designated instruction and services, or both, to pupils in licensed children's institutions, foster family homes, residential medical facilities, and other similar facilities funded under this chapter, and (2) the state and federal income received by the district or county superintendent for providing these programs. The sum of the excess cost, plus any state or federal income for these programs, shall not exceed the cost of master contracts with nonpublic, nonsectarian schools and agencies to provide special education and designated instruction and services for these pupils, as determined by the superintendent.

(b) The cost of master contracts with nonpublic, nonsectarian schools and agencies that a district or county office of education reports under this section shall not include any of the following costs that a district, county office, or special education local plan area may incur:

(1) Administrative or indirect costs for the local education agency.

(2) Direct support costs for the local education agency.

(3) Transportation costs provided either directly, or through a nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency master contract or individual services agreement for use of services or equipment owned, leased, or contracted, by a district, special education local plan area, or county office for any pupils enrolled in nonpublic, nonsectarian schools or agencies, unless provided directly or subcontracted by that nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 56366.

(4) Costs for services routinely provided by the district or county office including the following, unless the board grants a waiver under 56101:

(A) School psychologist services other than those described in Sections 56324 and 56363 and included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(B) School nurse services other than those described in Sections 49423.5, 56324, and 56363 and included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(C) Language, speech, and hearing services other than those included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(D) Modified, specialized, or adapted physical education services other than those included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(E) Other services not specified by a pupil's individualized education program or funded by the state on a caseload basis.

(5) Costs for nonspecial education programs or settings, including those provided for individuals with exceptional needs between the ages of birth and five years, inclusive, pursuant to Sections 56431 and 56441.8.

(6) Costs for nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency placements outside of the state unless the board has granted a waiver pursuant to subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 56365.

(7) Costs for related nonpublic, nonsectarian school pupil assessments by a school psychologist or school nurse pursuant to Sections 56320 and 56324.

(8) Costs for services that the nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency is not certified to provide.

(9) Costs for services provided by personnel who do not meet the requirements specified in subdivision (l) of Section 56366.1.

(10) Costs for services provided by public school employees.

(d) A nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency shall not claim and is not entitled to receive reimbursement for attendance unless the site where the pupil is receiving special education or designated instruction and services is certified.

56836.17. (a) The superintendent may reimburse each district and county office of education providing programs pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 56155) of Chapter 2 for assessment and identification costs for pupils in licensed children's institutions, foster family homes, residential medical facilities, and other similar facilities who are placed in state-certified nonpublic, nonsectarian schools.

(b) Actual costs under this section shall not include either administrative or indirect costs, or any proration of support costs.

(c) The total amount reimbursed statewide under this section shall not exceed the amount appropriated for these purposes in any fiscal year. If the superintendent determines that this amount is insufficient to reimburse all claims, the superintendent shall prorate the deficiency among all districts or county offices submitting claims.

56836.18. (a) The superintendent shall establish and maintain an emergency fund for the purpose of providing relief to special education local plan areas when a licensed children's institution, foster family home, residential medical facility, or other similar facility serving individuals with exceptional needs opens or expands in a special education local plan area during the course of the school year which impacts the special education local plan area, or when a pupil is placed in a facility for which no public or state-certified nonpublic program exists within the special education local plan area in which the pupil's individualized education program can be implemented during the course of the school year and impacts the educational program.

(b) The special education local plan area in which the impaction occurs shall be responsible for submitting a written request to the superintendent for emergency funding. The written request shall contain, at a minimum, all of the following:

(1) Specific information on the new or expanded licensed children's institution, foster family home, residential medical facility, or other similar facility described in subdivision (a), including information on the new unserved or underserved pupils residing in the facility, or specific information relating to the new unserved or underserved pupils residing in those facilities.

(2) The identification of the steps undertaken demonstrating that no public special education program exists within the special education local plan area capable of programmatically meeting the needs of the identified pupils.

(3) A plan from the special education local plan area describing the services to be provided.

(c) The superintendent shall approve, modify, or disapprove the written request for emergency funding within 30 days of the receipt of the written request and shall notify the special education local plan area administrator, in writing, of the final decision.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that appropriations necessary to fund these emergency situations shall be included in the Budget Act for each fiscal year.

Article 4. Nonpublic, Nonsectarian School Contracts

56836.20. (a) The cost of master contracts with nonpublic, nonsectarian schools and agencies that a special education local plan area enters into shall not include any of the following costs that a special education local plan area may incur:

(1) Administrative or indirect costs of the special education local plan area.

(2) Direct support costs for the special education local plan area.

(3) Transportation costs provided either directly, or through a nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency contract for use of services or equipment owned, leased, or contracted, by a special education local plan area for any pupils enrolled in nonpublic, nonsectarian schools or agencies, unless provided directly or subcontracted by that nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 56366.

(4) Costs for services routinely provided by the special education local plan area including the following, unless the board grants a waiver under Section 56101:

(A) School psychologist services other than those described in Sections 56324 and 56363 and included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(B) School nurse services other than those described in Sections 49423.5, 56324, and 56363 and included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(C) Language, speech, and hearing services other than those included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(D) Modified, specialized, or adapted physical education services other than those included in a master contract and individual services agreement under subdivision (a) of Section 56366.

(E) Other services not specified by a pupil's individualized education program or funded by the state on a caseload basis.

(5) Costs for nonspecial education programs or settings, including those provided for individuals with exceptional needs between the ages of birth and five years, inclusive, pursuant to Sections 56431 and 56441.8.

(6) Costs for nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency placements outside of the state unless the board has granted a waiver pursuant to subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 56365.

(7) Costs for related nonpublic, nonsectarian school pupil assessments by a school psychologist or school nurse pursuant to Sections 56320 and 56324.

(8) Costs for services that the nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency is not certified to provide.

(9) Costs for services provided by personnel who do not meet the requirements specified in subdivision (l) of Section 56366.1.

(10) Costs for services provided by public school employees.

(b) A nonpublic, nonsectarian school or agency shall not claim and is not entitled to receive reimbursement for attendance unless the site where the pupil is receiving special education or designated instruction and services is certified.

56836.21. (a) The State Department of Education shall administer an extraordinary cost pool to protect special education local plan areas from the extraordinary costs associated with single placements in nonpublic, nonsectarian schools. Funds shall be appropriated for this purpose in the annual Budget Act. Special education local plan areas shall be eligible for reimbursement from this pool in accordance with this section.

(b) The threshold amount for claims under this section shall be the lesser of the following:

(1) One percent of the allocation calculated pursuant to Section 56836.08 for the special education local plan area for the current fiscal year for any special education local plan area that meets the criteria in subdivision (a) of Section 56212.

(2) The State Department of Education shall calculate the average cost of a nonpublic, nonsectarian school placement in the 1997–98 fiscal year. This amount shall be multiplied by 2.5, then by one plus the inflation factor computed pursuant to Section 42238.1, to obtain the alternative threshold amount for claims in the 1998–99 fiscal year. In subsequent fiscal years, the alternative threshold amount shall be the alternative threshold amount for the prior fiscal year multiplied by one plus the inflation factor computed pursuant to Section 42238.1.

(c) Special education local plan areas shall be eligible to submit claims for costs of any nonpublic, nonsectarian school placements exceeding the threshold amount on forms developed by the State Department of Education. All claims for a fiscal year shall be submitted by November 30 following the close of the fiscal year. If the total amount claimed by special education local plan areas exceeds the amount appropriated, the claims shall be prorated.

Article 5. Low Incidence Funding

56836.22. (a) Commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year, and for each fiscal year thereafter, funds to support specialized books, materials, and equipment as required under the individualized education program for each pupil with low incidence disabilities, as defined in Section 56026.5, shall be determined by dividing the total number of pupils with low incidence disabilities in the state, as reported on December 1 of the prior fiscal year, into the annual appropriation provided for this purpose in the Budget Act.

(b) The per-pupil entitlement determined pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be multiplied by the number of pupils with low incidence disabilities in each special education local plan area to determine the total funds available for each local plan.

(c) The superintendent shall apportion the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (b) to the special education local plan area for purposes of purchasing and coordinating the use of specialized books, materials, and equipment.

(d) As a condition of receiving these funds, the special education local plan area shall ensure that the appropriate books, materials, and equipment are purchased, that the use of the equipment is coordinated as necessary, and that the books, materials, and equipment are reassigned to local educational agencies within the special education local plan area once the agency that originally received the books, materials, and equipment no longer needs them.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that special education local plan areas share unused specialized books, materials, and equipment with neighboring special education local plan areas.

Article 6. Program Specialists and Administration of Regionalized Operations and Services

56836.23. Funds for regionalized operations and services and the direct instructional support of program specialists shall be apportioned to the special education local plan areas. As a condition to receiving those funds, the special education local plan area shall assure that all functions listed below are performed in accordance with the description set forth in its local plan adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 56205:

(a) Coordination of the special education local plan area and the implementation of the local plan.

(b) Coordinated system of identification and assessment.

(c) Coordinated system of procedural safeguards.

(d) Coordinated system of staff development and parent education.

(e) Coordinated system of curriculum development and alignment with the core curriculum.

(f) Coordinated system of internal program review, evaluation of the effectiveness of the local plan, and implementation of a local plan accountability mechanism.

(g) Coordinated system of data collection and management.

(h) Coordination of interagency agreements.

(i) Coordination of services to medical facilities.

(j) Coordination of services to licensed children's institutions and foster family homes.

(k) Preparation and transmission of required special education local plan area reports.

(l) Fiscal and logistical support of the community advisory committee.

(m) Coordination of transportation services for individuals with exceptional needs.

(n) Coordination of career and vocational education and transition services.

(o) Assurance of full educational opportunity.

(p) Fiscal administration and the allocation of state and federal funds pursuant to Section 56836.01.

(q) Direct instructional program support that may be provided by program specialists in accordance with Section 56368.

56836.24. Commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year and each year thereafter, the superintendent shall make the following computations to determine the amount of funding for the purposes specified in Section 56836.23 to apportion to each special education local plan area for the fiscal year in which the computation is made:

(a) For the 1998–99 fiscal year the superintendent shall make the following computations:

(1) Multiply the total amount of state General Fund money allocated to the special education local plan areas in the 1997–98 fiscal year, for the purposes of Article 9 (commencing with Section 56780) of Chapter 7, as that chapter existed on December 31, 1998, by one plus the inflation factor computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238.1 for the 1998–99 fiscal year.

(2) Divide the amount calculated in paragraph (1) by the units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(3) To determine the amount to be allocated to each special education local plan area in the 1998–99 fiscal year, the superintendent shall multiply the amount computed in paragraph (2) by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the 1998–99 fiscal year, except that a special education local plan area designated as a necessary small special education local plan area in accordance with Section 56212 and reporting fewer than 15,000 units of average daily attendance for the 1998–99 fiscal year shall be deemed to have 15,000 units of average daily attendance, and no special education local plan area shall receive less than it received in the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(b) For the 1999–2000 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the superintendent shall make the following calculations:

(1) Multiply the amount determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) by one plus the inflation factor computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238.1 for the current fiscal year.

(2) Multiply the amount determined in paragraph (1) by the number of units of average daily attendance reported for the special education local plan area for the current fiscal year, except that a special education local plan area designated as a necessary small special education local plan area in accordance with Section 56212 and reporting fewer than 15,000 units of average daily attendance for the current fiscal year shall be deemed to have 15,000 units of average daily attendance.

56836.25. Funds received pursuant to this article shall be expended for the purposes specified in Section 56836.23.

SEC. 66. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

"Sec. 612. STATE ELIGIBILITY.

(a) In general.--A State is eligible for assistance under this part for a fiscal year if the State demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the State has in effect policies and procedures to ensure that it meets each of the following conditions:

[Language Omitted]

(5) LEAST RESTRICTIVE ENVIRONMENT-

(A) IN GENERAL-To the maximum extent appropriate, children with disabilities, including children in public or private institutions or other care facilities, are educated with children who are not disabled, and special classes, separate schooling, or other removal of children with disabilities from the regular educational environment occurs only when the nature or severity of the disability of a child is such that education in regular classes with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily.

(B) ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENT-

(i) IN GENERAL-If the State uses a funding mechanism by which the State distributes State funds on the basis of the type of setting in which a child is served, the funding mechanism does not result in placements that violate the requirements of subparagraph (A).

(ii) ASSURANCE-If the State does not have policies and procedures to ensure compliance with clause (i), the State shall provide the Secretary an assurance that it will revise the funding mechanism as soon as feasible to ensure that such mechanism does not result in such placements.

[Language Omitted]"

(16) PERFORMANCE GOALS AND INDICATORS—The State—

(A) has established goals for the performance of children with disabilities in the State that—

(i) will promote the purposes of this Act, as stated in section 601(d); and

(ii) are consistent, to the maximum extent appropriate, with other goals and standards for children established by the State;

(B) has established performance indicators the State will use to assess progress toward achieving those goals that, at a minimum, address the performance of children with disabilities on assessments, drop-out rates, and graduation rates;

(C) will, every two years, report to the Secretary and the public on the progress of the State, and of children with disabilities in the State, toward meeting the goals established under subparagraph (A); and

(D) based on its assessment of that progress, will revise its State improvement plan under subpart 1 of part D as may be needed to improve its performance, if the State receives assistance under that subpart.

(17) PARTICIPATION IN ASSESSMENTS—

(A) IN GENERAL-Children with disabilities are included in general State and district-wide assessment programs, with appropriate accommodations, where necessary. As appropriate, the State or local education agency—

(i) develops guidelines for the participation of children with disabilities in alternate assessments for those children who cannot participate in State and district-wide assessment programs; and

(ii) develops and, beginning not later than July 1, 2000, conducts those alternate assessments.

(B) REPORTS-The State educational agency makes available to the public, and reports to the public with the same frequency and in the same detail as it reports on the assessment of nondisabled children, the following:

(i) The number of children with disabilities participating in regular assessments.

(ii) The number of those children participating in alternate assessments.

(iii) (I) The performance of those children on regular assessments (beginning not later than July 1, 1998) and on alternate assessments (not later than July 1, 2000), if doing so would be statistically sound and would not result in the disclosure of performance results identifiable to individual children.

(II) Data relating to the performance of children described under subclause (I) shall be disaggregated—

(aa) for assessments conducted after July 1, 1998; and

(bb) for assessments conducted before July 1, 1998, if the State is required to disaggregate such data prior to July 1, 1998.

[Language Omitted]"

"Sec. 616. WITHHOLDING AND JUDICIAL REVIEW

(a) WITHHOLDING OF PAYMENTS-

(1) IN GENERAL-Whenever the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State educational agency involved (and to any local educational agency or State agency affected by any failure described in subparagraph (B)), finds—

(A) that there has been a failure by the State to comply substantially with any provision of this part; or

(B) that there is a failure to comply with any condition of a local educational agency's or State agency's eligibility under this part, including the terms of any agreement to achieve compliance with this part within the timelines specified in the agreement; the Secretary shall, after notifying the State educational agency, withhold, in whole or in part, any further payments to the State under this part, or refer the matter for appropriate enforcement action, which may include referral to the Department of Justice.

(2) NATURE OF WITHHOLDING-If the Secretary withholds further payments under paragraph (1), the Secretary may determine that such withholding will be limited to programs or projects, or portions thereof affected by the failure, or that the State educational agency shall not make further payments under this part to specified local educational agencies or State agencies affected by the failure. Until the Secretary is satisfied that there if no longer any failure to comply with the provisions of this part, as specified in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), payments to the State under this part shall be withheld in whole or in part, or payments by the State educational agency under this part shall be limited to local educational agencies and State agencies whose actions did not cause or were not involved in the failure, as the case may be. Any State educational agency, State agency, or local educational agency that has received notice under paragraph (1) shall, by means of a public notice, take such measures as may be necessary to bring the pendency of an action pursuant to this subsection to the attention of the public within the jurisdiction of such agency."

[Language Omitted]"

(2) State and local education agencies are required to abide by federal laws that are in effect.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only if the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.), as amended by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 (105 P.L. 17), is not further amended or repealed, and this section is repealed upon any further amendment or repeal of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.), as amended by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 (105 P.L. 17).

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that this section be reenacted to incorporate any changes to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.), as amended by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 (105 P.L. 17), as soon as possible after the amendment of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.), as amended by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 (105 P.L. 17).

SEC. 67. (a) The Office of the Legislative Analyst, in conjunction with the Department of Finance and the State Department of Education, shall conduct a study to gather, analyze, and report on data that would indicate the extent to which the incidence of disabilities, that are medically defined or severe and significantly above-average in cost, or both, are evenly or unevenly distributed among the population of special education local plan areas. The Office of the Legislative Analyst shall contract for both the development of the request for proposal for the study and for the study itself. The Office of the Legislative Analyst, the Department of Finance, and the State Department of Education, shall submit a report of the contractor's findings and recommendations no later than June 1, 1998, to the Governor and the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the California State Senate and the California State Assembly. The report shall include, if feasible and appropriate, a method to adjust the funding formula contained in Chapter 7.2 (commencing with Section 56836) of Part 30 of the Education Code in order to recognize the distribution of disabilities that are medically defined or severe and significantly above-average in cost, or both, among the special education local plan areas. The report shall use the definition of severe orthopedic impairment developed by the State Department of Education pursuant to Section 70.

(b) There is hereby appropriated to the State Department of Education for transfer to the Office of the Legislative Analyst for the 1997–98 fiscal year the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) from supplemental federal special education grant funds for Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. The funds are only to be used for the purpose of contracting for the request for proposal and study in subdivisions (a) and (b) and for the purpose of paying any necessary overhead associated with the supervision of the independent contracts. Provision 1 of Item 6110-161-0890 of the 1997–98 Budget Act on funds received over the amount of federal funds budgeted shall only apply to the balance of supplemental federal special education grant funds for Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act remaining after the appropriation made by this subdivision is deducted from that supplemental funding.

(c) Of the amount needed to fully fund the equalization formula in Article 2 (commencing with Section 56836.06) of Chapter 7.2 of Part 30 of the Education Code as it read on January 1, 1998, fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) shall be available for an adjustment to that formula pursuant to the results of the study required pursuant to Section 67. The amount actually required to fully fund the adjustment enacted by an act of the Legislature subsequent to the results of the study shall be funded in whole in the 1998–99 fiscal year if eighty million dollars ($80,000,000), or more, in federal funds becomes available, or proportionately less if less federal funds are available, during years of equalization carried out pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 56836.06) of Chapter 7.2 of Part 30 of the Education Code. At the time an adjustment is enacted, the formula in Article 2 (commencing with Section 56836.06) of Chapter 7.2 of Part 30 of the Education Code shall also be amended in an act other than the Budget Act to reduce the full funding level by the total cost of the adjustment which may be more or less than fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) such that the total cost of the formula in Article 2 (commencing with Section 56836.06) of Chapter 7.2 of Part 30 of the Education Code plus the adjustment shall equal the cost of the equalization formula as it existed before enacting the adjustment. The adjustment shall be enacted to amend or replace the formula established in Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 56836.155) of Chapter 7.2 of Part 30 of the Education Code and shall not be enacted in addition to the formula established in that article.

SEC. 68. (a) The Office of the Legislative Analyst, the Department of Finance, and the State Department of Education shall conduct a study, in consultation with the other interested parties, of nonpublic school and nonpublic agency costs as compared to the cost of public school placements, the cause of continuing increases in nonpublic school and agency costs, and recommendations for cost containment. In carrying out this study the Office of the Legislative Analyst shall examine the impact on nonpublic school and nonpublic agency costs of children residing in out-of-home placements, and of mediation and due process hearings. The Office of the Legislative Analyst may contract with an independent party to conduct this study on behalf of the Office of the Legislative Analyst. The Office of the Legislative Analyst shall submit a final report of its findings and recommendations on or before May 1, 1998, to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Senate and the Assembly of the California Legislature.

(b) There is hereby appropriated to the State Department of Education for transfer to the Office of the Legislative Analyst for the 1997–98 fiscal year the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) from supplemental federal special education grant funds for Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. The funds are only to be used for the purpose of conducting the study in subdivision (a). Provision 1 of Item 6110-161-0890 of the 1997–98 Budget Act on funds received over the amount of federal funds budgeted shall only apply to the balance of supplemental federal special education grant funds for Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act remaining after the appropriation made by this subdivision is deducted from that supplemental funding.

SEC. 69. (a) The State Department of Education shall convene a working group to develop recommendations for improving the compliance of state and local education agencies with state and federal special education laws and regulations. These recommendations shall define how the State Department of Education and local education agencies will assure and maintain compliance of special education laws and regulations in providing services to individuals with exceptional needs. Final recommendations shall include, but not be limited to, state compliance training and technical assistance, state review and monitoring of local compliance, the state complaint process and timetable, state corrective action and follow up, and local and state agency sanctions for noncompliance.

(b) The working group shall include members representing the State Board of Education, the State Department of Education, county offices of education, school districts, special education local plan areas, the Special Education Advisory Commission, the State Department of Education administrative hearing office, the federal Office of Civil Rights or Office for Special Education Programs, organizations advocating for, or consisting of, individuals with exceptional needs and their families, parents of individuals with exceptional needs, and organizations representing school teachers and other support services staff serving individuals with exceptional needs. It is the intent of the Legislature that the working group convened by the State Department of Education shall include a balance of members representing state and local education agencies and employees, and members representing individuals with exceptional needs and their families.

(c) The State Department of Education shall submit a report of the working group's recommendations no later than September 1, 1998, to the Governor and the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Senate and the Assembly of the California Legislature.

SEC. 70. On or before January 1, 1998, the State Department of Education shall develop a definition of severe orthopedic impairment for use in the application and distribution of low-incidence funding in the 1998–99 fiscal year.

SEC. 71. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act provides for offsetting savings to local agencies or school districts that result in no net costs to the local agencies or school districts, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 72. Funding for this bill, except as provided in Sections 67 and 68 of this bill, shall be contingent upon the enactment of an appropriation in the annual Budget Act.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

SECTION 1. Section 2550.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

2550.3. Each county superintendent of schools, as a condition of apportionment, shall report separately to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, not later than September 1, 1997, what portions of attendance in the schools and classes maintained by the county superintendent that was reported for the 1996–97 school year pursuant to Section 41601 consisted of absences excused pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 46010.2 and to Section 46015, as those sections read on July 1, 1996.

Each report shall be prepared in accordance with instructions and on forms prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

SEC. 2. Section 2550.4 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 2550.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

2550.4. (a) Effective July 1, 1998, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make one-time adjustments to the revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance of each county office of education for those programs which, prior to July 1, 1998, were authorized in Section 46010 as it read on July 1, 1996, to include certain absences in reports of attendance made pursuant to Section 41601. Those one-time adjustments shall apply for the 1998–99 fiscal year, and for each fiscal year thereafter, but not for any year prior to

1998–99, and shall be accomplished by revision of the prior fiscal year revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance calculated for those programs, as follows:

(1) Determine revised revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance for the 1996–97 fiscal year for each of the programs. Each revised revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall equal funding received for the program for the 1996–97 fiscal year that is directly attributable to the original revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance, divided by the attendance, excluding absences excused pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 46010 as it read on July 1, 1996, reported pursuant to Section 41601 for that program in the 1996–97 fiscal year.

(2) For the 1996–97 and 1997–98 fiscal years, recalculate the revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance for each program to reflect the revision in the revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance determined pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) The calculation made pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be used for apportionment purposes for either of those years or for adjustments for those years.

(b) If any county superintendent of schools demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction that, because of extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the county office of education, the amount of absences excused in one or more county office programs in fiscal year 1996–97 pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 46010 as it read on July 1, 1996, was significantly lower than it would ordinarily have been in comparison to the amount of actual attendance in fiscal year 1996–97, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make a compensating adjustment, consistent with the provisions of Section 2 of the Education Code, in the calculation set forth in this section.

SEC. 4. Section 42238.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42238.7. The governing board of each school district, as a condition of apportionment, shall report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, not later than September 1, 1997, the portion of the attendance in the schools and classes maintained by the district that was reported for the 1996–97 school year pursuant to Section 41601 that consisted of absences excused pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 46010.2 and to Section 46015, as those sections read on July 1, 1996.

SEC. 5. Section 42238.8 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 42238.8 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42238.8. (a) Effective July 1, 1998, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make one-time adjustments to the revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance of each school district for those programs which, prior to July 1, 1998, were authorized in Section 46010 as it read on July 1, 1996, to include certain absences in reports of attendance made pursuant to Section 41601. Those one-time adjustments shall apply for the 1998–99 fiscal year, and for each fiscal year thereafter, but not for any year prior to 1998–99, and shall be accomplished by revision of the prior fiscal year revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance calculated for those programs, as follows:

(1) Determine revised revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance for the 1996–97 fiscal year for each of the programs. Each revised revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall equal funding received for the program for the 1996–97 fiscal year that is directly attributable to the original revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance, divided by the attendance, excluding absences excused pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 46010 as it read on July 1, 1996, reported pursuant to Section 41601 for that program in the 1996–97 fiscal year.

(2) For the 1996–97 and 1997–98 fiscal years, recalculate the revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance for each program to reflect the revision in the revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance determined pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) The calculation made pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be used for apportionment purposes for either of those years or for adjustments for those years.

(b) If the governing board of any school district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction that, because of extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the school district, the amount of absences excused in one or more district programs in fiscal year 1996–97 pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 46010 as it read on July 1, 1996, was significantly lower than it would ordinarily have been in comparison to the amount of actual attendance in fiscal year 1996–97, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make a compensating adjustment, consistent with the provisions of Section 2 of the Education Code, in the calculation set forth in this section.

SEC. 7. Section 46010 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46010. (a) The total days of attendance of a pupil upon the schools and classes maintained by a school district, or schools or classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools during the fiscal year shall be the number of days school was actually taught for not less than the minimum schooldays during the fiscal year less the sum of his or her absences.

(b) The absence of a pupil from school or class shall be excused for the purposes of Section 48260 if that absence was:

(1) Due to his or her illness.

(2) Due to quarantine under the direction of a county or city health officer.

(3) For the purpose of having medical, dental, optometrical, or chiropractic services rendered.

(4) For the purpose of attending the funeral services of a member of his or her immediate family, so long as the absence is not more than one day if the service is conducted in California and not more than three days if the service is conducted outside California.

(5) For the purpose of jury duty in the manner provided for by law.

"Immediate family," as used in this subdivision, has the same meaning as that set forth in Section 45194 except that references therein to "employee" shall be deemed to be references to "pupil."

(c) For purposes of reporting pupil attendance for any purpose to an agency of the federal government, the phrase "total days of attendance of a pupil" shall be defined only as set forth in subdivision (a).

SEC. 8. Section 46010.2 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 46010.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

46010.2. For the purpose of determining "changes in enrollment" pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, as required by subdivision (d) of Section 41204, the total days of attendance by pupils in schools and classes maintained by a school district shall, in the 1997–98 fiscal year, be separately determined both as if subdivision (b) of Section 46010, as it read in the 1997–98 fiscal year, did and did not apply. The days of attendance figure resulting from the application of subdivision (b) of Section 46010 shall be used in calculating average daily attendance for comparison with average daily attendance in the 1996–97 fiscal year. The days of attendance figure determined without applying subdivision (b) of Section 46010 shall be used in calculating average daily attendance for comparison with average daily attendance in the 1998–99 fiscal year.

SEC. 10. Section 46010.5 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

48216. (a) The county office of education or the governing board of the school district of attendance shall exclude any pupil who has not been immunized properly pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 120325) of Part 2 of Division 105 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The governing board of the district shall notify the parent or guardian of the pupil that they have two weeks to supply evidence either that the pupil has been properly immunized, or that the pupil is exempted from the immunization requirement pursuant to Section 120365 or 120370 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The governing board of the district, in the notice, shall refer the parent or guardian of the pupil to the pupil's usual source of medical care to obtain the immunization, or if no usual source exists, either refer the parent or guardian to the county health department, or notify the parent or guardian that the immunizations will be administered at a school of the district.

SEC. 11. Section 46015 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Sections 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

CHAPTER 856

An act to repeal, add, and repeal Article 13 (commencing with Section 18841) of Chapter 3 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 13 (commencing with Section 18841) of Chapter 3 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 13 (commencing with Section 18841) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 13. Designations to the California Military Museum Fund

18841. (a) Any individual may designate on the tax return that a contribution in excess of the tax liability, if any, be made to the California Military Museum Fund, which is established by Section 18842. That designation is to be used as a voluntary checkoff on the tax return.

(b) The contributions shall be in full dollar amounts and may be made by the signatory on an individual return or individually by each signatory on a joint return.

(c) A designation shall be made for any taxable year on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable. In the event that payments and credits reported on the return, together with any other credits associated with the taxpayer's account, do not exceed the taxpayer's liability, the return shall be treated as though no designation has been made. If the amount available for designation is insufficient to satisfy the total amount designated, the amount designated shall be adjusted to correspond to the amount available for designation. In the event that no designee is specified, the contribution shall be transferred to the General Fund, after reimbursement of the direct actual costs of the Franchise Tax Board for the collection and the administration of funds under this article.

(d) In the event a taxpayer designates a contribution to more than one account or fund listed on the tax return, and the amount available for designation is insufficient to satisfy the total amount designated, the contribution shall be allocated among the designees on a pro rata basis.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to include a space labeled the "California Military Museum Fund" to allow for the designation permitted. The forms shall also include in the instructions information that the contribution may be in the amount of one dollar ($1) or more and that the contribution shall be used to operate the California Military Museum. It is the intent of the Legislature that tax returns for taxable years during which this article remains in effect shall include a space for the California Military Museum Fund.

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 of Part 10 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

18842. There is in the State Treasury the California Military Museum Fund to receive contributions made pursuant to Section 18841. The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of both the amount of money paid by taxpayers in excess of their tax liability and the amount of refund money which taxpayers have designated pursuant to Section 18841 to be transferred to the California Military Museum Fund. The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the California Military Museum Fund an amount not in excess of the sum of the amounts designated by individuals pursuant to Section 18841 for payment into that fund.

18843. All money transferred to the California Military Museum Fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be allocated as follows:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(b) To the California Military Museum for the operation of the museum as provided by Section 179 of the Military and Veterans Code.

18844. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes that date.

(b) If, in any calendar year, the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for taxable years beginning in 1998, or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c) for subsequent taxable years, as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. The Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with the 1999 calendar year, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, these rules shall be given full force and effect, and shall be maintained as adopted by the Judicial Council on April 23, 1997.

68651. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the superior court or the municipal court from adopting rules and procedures on the implementation of its labor relations with a recognized employee organization, provided the rules and procedures are not contrary to, or inconsistent with, the obligations and duties of the courts as provided in this chapter and Rules 2201 to 2210, inclusive, of the California Rules of Court.

68652. Where the language of Rules 2201 to 2210, inclusive, of the California Rules of Court is the same or substantially the same as that contained in Sections 3500 to 3510, inclusive, it shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with judicial interpretations of the same language.

68654. Except as required pursuant to Section 5 of Article VI of the California Constitution, any agreements reached pursuant to negotiations held pursuant to Rules 2201 to 2210, inclusive, of the California Rules of Court are binding on the parties and may be enforced pursuant to Section 1085 or 1103 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In the event that a court, a court employee, or an employee organization believes there has been a violation of this chapter or Rules 2201 to 2210, inclusive, of the California Rules of Court, that party may petition the court of appeal for relief.

68655. It is the purpose of this chapter to effectuate the establishment within the judicial branch of an equitable and effective method of resolving potential conflicts in matters affecting the interests of the trial courts and their personnel, and meeting the ongoing needs of the trial courts, their personnel, and the harmonious operations thereof.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 860

An act to add Sections 42249.6 and 42249.65 to the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42249.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42249.6. (a) Any and all of the school districts listed in subdivision (c) may be funded, for a voluntary desegregation program, of the kind discussed in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 42249.

(b) (1) The district shall submit to the Department of Finance for approval an estimated claim no later than November 30 of the first fiscal year in which funding for its voluntary desegregation program is claimed and a report, which shall include all of the following:

(A) Certification that the desegregation plan is being implemented and an itemization of program expenditures to date.

(B) Certification that the district has met the match requirement.

(2) The Department of Finance shall review any estimated claim submitted pursuant to this section and include its estimate of approvable claims in budget estimates for both the current and next budget year. It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for the first year of program operation be provided as soon as practical following the first year of operation, and that funding for the second and subsequent years of program operation be included in the Budget Act for the appropriate year.

(c) This section shall be applicable only to the Grant Union High School District, the Lynwood Unified School District, and the Sausalito Elementary School District.

(d) This section shall become operative only if an appropriation is made for its purpose in the annual Budget Act or in another measure.

SEC. 2. Section 42249.65 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42249.65. (a) Any and all of the school districts listed in subdivision (b) may be funded, for a voluntary desegregation program of the kind discussed in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 42249.

(b) This section shall be applicable only to the Allensworth-Richgrove Districts Collaborative, the Carlsbad Unified School District, and the San Dieguito Union High School District.

(c) This section shall become operative only if an appropriation is made for its purpose in the annual Budget Act or in another measure.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that, due to the unique fiscal circumstances of the Grant Union High School District, the Sausalito Elementary School District, the Allensworth-Richgrove Districts Collaborative, the Carlsbad Unified School District, the Lynwood Unified School District, and the San Dieguito Union High School District a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, and the enactment of this special statute is therefore necessary.

CHAPTER 861

An act to amend Section 42249 of, and to add Section 42249.8 to, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42249 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42249. (a) Any school district, or group of school districts in collaboration, that maintains a voluntary program designed to remedy the harmful effects of racial segregation may, if the program meets the criteria of this section, present a claim for reimbursement for the costs of the program to the Commission on State Mandates for review. The commission may, for claims approved under this section, include the claims in a subsequent claims bill.

(b) Any claim presented to the Commission on State Mandates pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be subject to the following restrictions:

(1) A district shall not be reimbursed for a higher percentage of the total costs, as defined in paragraph (2), of the program than the average percentage reimbursement of total program costs received by eligible school districts from the state pursuant to Section 42243.6 for the 1981-82 fiscal year.

(2) The total costs of voluntary programs eligible for reimbursement pursuant to this section shall not exceed 1980-81 fiscal year funding levels.

(3) Programs eligible for reimbursement pursuant to this section shall be limited to the following:

(A) Voluntary pupil assignment or reassignment.

(B) Magnet schools or magnet centers.

(C) Transportation of pupils to alternative schools or programs of their choice.

(D) Racially isolated minority school staff development, instructional materials and supplies, and other programs to combat the harmful effects of racially isolated minority schools. Racially isolated minority school programs shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(i) New and creative parent training and involvement programs.

(ii) Instructional programs to increase achievement in language arts, mathematics, and science.

(iii) Reduction in classroom size (pupil/teacher ratio).

(iv) Necessary support staff.

(v) An evaluation component to determine the effectiveness of the racially isolated minority school programs.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that there shall be no reduction of funding for racially isolated minority schools.

SEC. 2. Section 42249.8 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42249.8. (a) Commencing with the 1996–97 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the East San Jose group of school districts in collaboration may be funded for its voluntary desegregation program, of the kind discussed in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 42249, in the Budget Act for the fiscal year that is the first fiscal year in which the voluntary desegregation program is in operation if the district meets the following requirements:

(1) The collaboration has commenced operation of a voluntary desegregation program, of the kind described in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 42249, on the first day of school in the first fiscal year, but no sooner than the 1996-97 fiscal year, in which funding for its voluntary desegregation program is claimed.

(2) The voluntary desegregation program, of the kind discussed in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 42249, is approved by the Controller.

(b) (1) The collaboration shall submit to the Department of Finance for approval an estimated claim no later than November 30 of the first fiscal year in which funding for its voluntary desegregation program is claimed and a report, which shall include all of the following:

(A) Certification that the desegregation plan is being implemented and an itemization of program expenditures to date.

(B) Certification that the district has met the match requirement.

(2) The Controller shall not release funding to the district prior to approval from the Department of Finance.

(c) As used in this section, the “East San Jose group of school districts in collaboration” means a coalition of school districts, composed of Alum Rock Union Elementary School District, Berryessa Union Elementary School District, Eastside Union High School District, Franklin-McKinley Elementary School District, Mt. Pleasant Elementary School District, and Oak Grove Elementary School District, that share resources to combat the detrimental effects of racial segregation.

(d) This section shall be implemented for those fiscal years for which the Director of Finance certifies, in writing, to the Secretary of State that sufficient funding has been appropriated for its purpose in the annual Budget Act or in another measure.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Integration programs are designed to improve the ethnic balance of schools and to alleviate the harmful effects of racial isolation.

(b) Current policy does not allow school districts to change their base years for the purposes of computing reimbursements for voluntary desegregation programs to accommodate program growth. However, entirely new voluntary desegregation programs designed to address current problems should be approved.

(c) In an effort to prevent costly legal battles and the likely result of a court-ordered program, a collaboration of East San Jose school districts have combined efforts to implement a more efficient and effective desegregation program. That desegregation program has been in existence since 1996.

(d) School districts that act in good faith under current law should not be penalized for their efforts.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow the East San Jose group of school districts in collaboration to receive:

(1) Additional reimbursement for the costs of any voluntary desegregation program for any fiscal year prior to the 1996–97 fiscal year.

(2) More than four-fifths of the actual costs of the district's voluntary desegregation program approved by the Controller for any fiscal year.

(3) Reimbursement for any costs that are not approved within the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 4. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the Eastside Union High School District has operated a voluntary desegregation program that was initiated in the 1982–83 fiscal year.

(b) The voluntary desegregation program operated by the East San Jose group of school districts, as authorized pursuant to Section 2 of this act, shall replace the voluntary desegregation program that was previously operated by the Eastside Union High School District.

(c) The base fiscal year for all state reimbursement computations for the voluntary desegregation program operated by the East San Jose group of school districts shall be the first full year of operation of the voluntary desegregation program following the 1995-96 fiscal year.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that, due to the unique circumstances of the voluntary desegregation program of the East San Jose group of school districts in collaboration, a general statute within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California

Constitution cannot be made applicable, and the enactment of Section 2 of this act as a special statute is therefore necessary.

CHAPTER 862

An act to add Section 42247.5 to the Education Code, relating to school desegregation.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42247.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42247.5. (a) For the purposes of Section 42247.1, the "Administrative Recommendations and Action Plans for Implementing a Voluntary Desegregation Plan in the Sacramento City Unified School District," adopted February 29, 1988, and as subsequently amended, shall be the latest adopted desegregation plan for the Sacramento City Unified School District.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 42247, commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, reimbursements for voluntary desegregation authorized pursuant to Sections 42243.9, 42247, and 42249 to the Sacramento City Unified School District shall not exceed the amount in excess of one-fifth of the audited desegregation costs approved by the Controller and actually incurred in the 1990–91 fiscal year, reduced by the federal desegregation reimbursement of three million ninety-six thousand nine hundred eighty-nine dollars ($3,096,989) received in the 1990–91 fiscal year, adjusted pursuant to Section 42247.2, provided that the school district has contributed in the prior fiscal year not less than one-fifth of the audited costs approved by the Controller that fiscal year. The audited costs actually incurred in the 1990–91 fiscal year includes expenditures for the Sacramento City Unified School District's federal magnet program.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the Sacramento City Unified School District to receive any of the following:

(1) Additional reimbursement for the costs of its voluntary desegregation program for any fiscal year prior to the 1998–99 fiscal year.

(2) More than four-fifths of actual costs of the district's voluntary desegregation program approved by the Controller for any fiscal year.

(3) Reimbursement for any voluntary desegregation program costs for which the district receives federal funding.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to recognize that the "Administrative Recommendations and Action Plans for Implementing a Voluntary Desegregation Plan in the Sacramento City Unified School District," adopted February 29, 1988, and as subsequently amended, is the latest adopted desegregation plan of the school district, to declare the intent of the Legislature that any proposed plan of the school district that was previously used for the purposes of Section 42247.1 no longer be used for that section, and to use the 1990–91 fiscal year, as the first full year of operation of the Sacramento City Unified School District under that plan, as the base year for the purpose of computing the amounts that the district may be reimbursed for the costs of its voluntary desegregation program.

SEC. 3. The Sacramento City Unified School District is currently operating a voluntary desegregation program. The costs for the program exceed the state's funding allowance because existing law holds the district to a maximum based upon the 1984–85 fiscal year, a year when the district had only begun to plan its programs. In contrast, existing law permits school districts commencing their programs following the 1984–85 fiscal year to have their reimbursement based upon the first full year of program operation. In order for the Sacramento City Unified School District to be reimbursed based upon the first full year of program operation, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting the act to, commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, set the base fiscal year for all state reimbursement calculations for the district's voluntary desegregation program at the 1990–91 fiscal year. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the expenditures for the district's federal magnet program shall be included in the 1990–91 base fiscal year. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the costs claimed by the district be subject to an audit of the expenditures in accordance with the standards and procedures for audits of voluntary and court-ordered desegregation programs issued by the Controller.

SEC. 4. Section 1 shall not become operative unless and until funding has been provided through the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that due to the unique circumstances set forth in Sections 2 and 3 of this act regarding the Sacramento City Unified School District, a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 863

An act to amend Sections 56839.1 and 57103 of, and to add Section 57093 to, the Government Code, relating to local government organization.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

SECTION 1. Section 56839.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56839.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 57077 and 57087, the commission shall authorize the conducting authority to order (1) the consolidation of districts, (2) dissolution, (3) merger, or (4) the establishment of a subsidiary district, or (5) a reorganization that includes any of these changes of organization without an election, except that an election shall be held in each affected city or district if there are written protests as follows:

(1) Where the proposal was not initiated by the commission, and where an affected city or district has not objected by resolution to the proposal, a written protest has been submitted that meets the requirements specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 57081.

(2) Where the proposal was not initiated by the commission, and where an affected city or district has objected by resolution to the proposal, a written protest has been submitted that meets the requirements specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (b) of Section 57093.

(3) Where the proposal was initiated by the commission, and regardless of whether an affected city or district has objected to the proposal by resolution, a written protest has been submitted that meets the requirements of Section 57092.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the commission shall not authorize the conducting authority to order a merger or establishment of a subsidiary district without the consent of the affected city.

(c) This section shall not apply to any proposal for a change of organization or reorganization that is submitted to the commission before January 1, 2003, where the Goleta Sanitary District or the Goleta West Sanitary District is an affected district. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the following special circumstances:

The voters of the Goleta Sanitary District previously voted against a proposed consolidation with the Goleta West Sanitary District by a margin of two to one. More recently, a reorganization proposal was submitted to the commission in Santa Barbara County that would have combined the Goleta Sanitary District and the Goleta West Sanitary District under circumstances where no opportunity for confirmation by the Goleta Sanitary District voters would be available. In light of the issues that were raised in connection with these earlier consolidation and reorganization proposals, a five-year moratorium on the application of Section 56839.1 to proposals affecting the Goleta Sanitary District or the Goleta West Sanitary District is necessary to ensure an opportunity for voter confirmation.

SEC. 2. Section 57093 is added to the Government Code, to read:

57093. (a) Notwithstanding Section 56839.1 and Section 57089, for any proposal for the dissolution of one or more districts and the annexation of all or substantially all of their territory to another district, the conducting authority shall order the change of organization or reorganization subject to confirmation by the voters if the conducting authority finds either of the following:

(1) In the case of inhabited territory, that a petition requesting that the proposal be submitted to confirmation by the voters has been signed by either of the following:

(A) At least 25 percent of the number of landowners within any affected district within the affected territory who own at least 25 percent of the assessed value of land within the territory.

(B) At least 25 percent of the voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within, or owning land within, any affected district within the affected territory.

(2) In the case of a landowner-voter district, that the territory is uninhabited and a petition requesting that the proposal be submitted to confirmation by the voters has been signed by at least 25 percent of the number of landowners within any affected district within the affected territory, owning at least 25 percent of the assessed value of land within the territory of that district.

(b) The petition shall be filed with the conducting authority within 30 days after the public hearing required pursuant to this chapter has been held.

(c) If a petition that meets the requirements of this section has been filed, the conducting authority shall approve the proposal subject to confirmation by the voters of each district that has filed such a petition. The voter confirmation requirements set forth in subdivision (a) shall not apply to any proposal initiated by the commission under Section 56375 or where each affected district has consented to the proposal by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of its board of directors.

SEC. 3. Section 57103 of the Government Code is amended to read:

57103. In any resolution ordering a change of organization or reorganization subject to the confirmation of the voters, the conducting authority shall call an election:

(a) Within the territory of each city or district ordered to be incorporated, formed, disincorporated, dissolved or consolidated.

(b) Within the entire territory of each district ordered to be merged with or established as a subsidiary district of a city, or both within the district and within the entire territory of the city outside the boundaries of the district.

(c) If the clerk certifies a petition pursuant to Section 57087.5 or 57087.7, within the territory of the district ordered to be merged with or established as a subsidiary district of a city.

(d) Within the territory ordered to be annexed or detached.

(e) If ordered by the commission pursuant to Section 56849 or 56850, both within the territory ordered to be annexed or detached and within all or the part of the city or district which is outside of the territory.

(f) If the election is required by Section 57093, separately within the territory of each affected district that has filed a petition meeting the requirements of Section 57093.

CHAPTER 864

An act to add and repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 90530) of Chapter 11 of Part 55 of the Education Code, relating to teacher recruitment, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4 (commencing with Section 90530) is added to Chapter 11 of Part 55 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 4. Teacher Recruitment Program

90530. (a) The California Center on Teaching Careers is hereby established for the purpose of recruiting qualified and capable individuals into the teaching profession. From funds appropriated for that purpose, the California State University shall establish and administer the center, with the concurrence of representatives of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, the State Department of Education, the University of California, and independent institutions of higher education as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 66010. For the purposes of this subdivision, "concurrence" means agreement on all of the following:

(1) The priorities, goals, and general objectives of the duties set forth in Section 90531.

(2) The order in which the duties specified in this chapter are undertaken.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that activities of the California Center on Teaching Careers be implemented with the active involvement of local education agencies whenever appropriate.

90531. The duties of the California Center on Teaching Careers shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Developing and distributing statewide public services announcements.

(b) Developing and modifying and distributing effective recruitment publications.

(c) Providing information to prospective teachers regarding requirements for obtaining a teaching credential.

(d) Providing specific information to prospective teachers regarding admission to and enrollment into conventional and alternative teacher preparation programs.

(e) Creating or expanding a referral data base for qualified teachers seeking employment in the public schools.

(f) Developing and conducting outreach activities to high school pupils as well as to college students.

90532. It is the intent of the Legislature that the funds appropriated by the state in this bill for the purposes of this article be matched dollar-for-dollar by funds from other sources, including, but not limited to, federal programs, local sources, private sector sources, and other state programs.

90533. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing, in consultation with the Legislative Analyst, shall conduct an evaluation of the program established by this article on or before March 1, 2002, and the Legislative Analyst may include that evaluation in the analysis of the 2002–03 Budget Bill prepared by the Legislative Analyst.

90534. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2008, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2008, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the unappropriated balance of federal funds received by the state pursuant to the federal Goals 2000: Educate America Act (P.L. 103-227) to the California State University, without regard to fiscal year, for the support of the California Center on Teaching Careers established pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 90530) of Chapter 11 of Part 55 of the Education Code.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that ongoing support for the California Center on Teaching Careers established pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 90530) of Chapter 11 of Part 55 of the Education Code be appropriated in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to begin recruiting qualified individuals into the teaching profession, at the earliest possible time in an effort to alleviate the shortage of credentialed teachers that California will be experiencing over the next several years, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 865

An act to add and repeal Section 42285.3 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 10, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The Plumas Unified School District operates a total of 14 schools, of which five meet the strict geographical and size restrictions required for necessary small school funding under Article 4 (commencing with Section 42280) of Chapter 7 of Part 24 of the Education Code.

(2) Unfortunately, the Plumas Unified School District does not meet the requirement of 2,501 or fewer average daily attendance set forth in Article 4 (commencing with Section 42280) of Chapter 7 of Part 24 of the Education Code (the district had 3,684 ADA in the 1995–96 school year), and is thus ineligible for necessary small school funding.

(3) In previous years, Plumas Unified School District received considerable funding from federal Forest Reserve revenues and was able to use these funds to subsidize the operation of these five small schools. However, these federal Forest Reserve funds, which have dropped from a high of two million eight hundred thousand dollars ($2,800,000) in 1992–93 to one million seven hundred thousand dollars ($1,700,000) in 1995–96, are expected to decline further to approximately one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000) in 1996–97, and to continue to descend thereafter.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide a method through which the Plumas Unified School District, and any other similarly situated school districts, would be eligible to receive apportionments pursuant to the schedules for a "necessary small school" and a "necessary small high school," as set forth in Article 4 (commencing with Section 42280) of Chapter 7 of Part 24 of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. Section 42285.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42285.3. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 42280 or any other provision of law, a unified school district that is the only school district in a county, that has received more than two million seven hundred thousand dollars ($2,700,000) in federal Forest

Reserve funds in the 1992–93 school year and less than one million three hundred thousand dollars ($1,300,000) in federal Forest Reserve funds in the 1996–97 school year, and that has fewer than 4,501 units of average daily attendance in the 1997–98 school year or in subsequent school years shall be eligible to receive apportionments pursuant to the schedules for a "necessary small school" and a "necessary small high school," as set forth in this article, for up to the total number of schools in the district that would have met the criteria for classification as a necessary small school or a necessary small high school in the 1996–97 fiscal year, if the district had fewer than 2,501 units of average daily attendance in the 1996–97 fiscal year, except that this section shall not apply in any school year in which an otherwise eligible school district receives more than two million dollars ($2,000,000) in federal Forest Reserve funds.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

CHAPTER 866

An act to add Chapter 4.6 (commencing with Section 84600) to Title 9 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4.6 (commencing with Section 84600) is added to Title 9 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.6. ONLINE DISCLOSURE ACT OF 1997

84600. This chapter may be known and may be cited as the Online Disclosure Act of 1997.

84601. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The people of California enacted one of the nation's most comprehensive campaign and lobbying financial disclosure laws when they voted for Proposition 9, the Political Reform Act of 1974, an initiative statute.

(b) Public access to campaign and lobbying disclosure information is a vital and integral component of a fully informed electorate.

(c) Advances in technology have made it viable for disclosure statements and reports required by the Political Reform Act to be filed online and placed on the Internet, thereby maximizing availability to the public.

84602. To implement the Legislature's intent, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Fair Political Practices Commission, notwithstanding any other provision of this title or any other provision of the Government Code, shall do all of the following:

(a) Develop an online filing process for use by persons and entities specified in Sections 84604 and 84605 required to file statements and reports with the Secretary of State's office pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100), and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 86100). As part of that process, the Secretary of State shall define a nonproprietary standardized record format or formats using industry standards for the transmission of the data required of those persons and entities specified in subdivision (a), and which conforms with the disclosure requirements of this title. The Secretary of State shall hold public hearings prior to development of the record format as a means to ensure that affected entities have an opportunity to provide input into the development process. The format or formats shall be made public no later than September 1, 1999, to ensure sufficient time to comply with the requirements of this chapter.

(b) Accept test files, from software vendors and others wishing to file reports electronically, for the purpose of determining whether the file format is in compliance with the standardized record format developed pursuant to subdivision (a) and is compatible with the Secretary of State's system for receiving the data. A list of software and service providers who have submitted acceptable test files shall be published by the Secretary of State and made available to the public. Acceptably formatted files shall be submitted by a filer in order to meet the requirements of this chapter.

(c) Develop a system that provides for the online transfer of the data specified in this section utilizing telecommunications technology, which assures the integrity of the data transmitted, and creates safeguards against efforts to tamper with or subvert the data.

(d) Make all the data filed online available on the largest, nonproprietary, nonprofit, cooperative public network of computer networks in an easily understood format that provides the greatest public access. The data shall be made available free of charge and as soon as possible after receipt. All late contribution and late independent expenditure reports, as defined by Sections 84203 and 84204, respectively, shall be made available online within 24 hours of receipt. The data made available shall not contain the street name and building number of the persons or entity representatives listed on the electronically filed forms.

(e) Develop a procedure for filers to comply with the requirement that they sign under penalty of perjury pursuant to Section 81004.

(f) Maintain all filed data online for 10 years after the date it is filed, and then archive the information in a secure format.

(g) Provide assistance to those seeking public access to the information.

(h) Consult with the Department of Information Technology and implement sufficient technology to seek to prevent unauthorized alteration or manipulation of the data. The online disclosure system shall not become operative until the Department of Information Technology approves the system.

(i) Provide the commission with necessary information to enable it to assist agencies, public officials, and others, with the compliance and administration of this title.

(j) Report to the Legislature on the implementation and development of the online filing and disclosure requirements of this chapter. The report shall include an examination of system security, private security issues, software availability, compliance costs to filers, and other issues, relating to this chapter, recommending appropriate changes if necessary. In preparing the report, the commission may present to the Secretary of State and the Legislature its comments regarding this chapter as it relates to the duties of the commission and suggest appropriate changes if necessary. There shall be one report due before the system is operational as set forth in Section 84603, and one due no later than June 1, 2001.

84603. The Secretary of State, once all state-mandated development, procurement, and oversight requirements have been met, shall make public their availability to accept reports online. Any filer may then commence voluntarily filing online any required report or statement that is otherwise required to be filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100) or Chapter 6 (commencing with 86100) of this title.

84604. (a) The Secretary of State shall implement an online disclosure program in connection with the 2000 state primary election and the lobbying activities specified in paragraph (4). ### CHAPTER 5. THE GAMBLING CONTROL ACT

Article 1. General Provisions

19800. This chapter shall be known, and may be cited, as the "Gambling Control Act."

19801. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The longstanding public policy of this state disfavors the business of gambling. State law prohibits commercially operated lotteries, banked or percentage games, and gambling machines, and strictly regulates parimutuel wagering on horseracing. To the extent that state law categorically prohibits certain forms of gambling and prohibits gambling devices, nothing herein shall be construed, in any manner, to reflect a legislative intent to relax those prohibitions.

(b) Gambling can become addictive and is not an activity to be promoted or legitimized as entertainment for children and families.

(c) Unregulated gambling enterprises are inimical to the public health, safety, welfare, and good order. Accordingly, no person in this state has a right to operate a gambling enterprise except as may be expressly permitted by the laws of this state and by the ordinances of local governmental bodies.

(d) It is the policy of this state that gambling activities that are not expressly prohibited or regulated by state law may be prohibited or regulated by local government. Moreover, it is the policy of this state that no new cardroom may be opened in a city, county, or city and county in which a cardroom was not operating on and before January 1, 1984, except upon the affirmative vote of the electors of that city, county, or city and county.

(e) It is not the purpose of this chapter to expand opportunities for gambling, or to create any right to operate a gambling enterprise in this state or to have a financial interest in any gambling enterprise. Rather, it is the purpose of this chapter to regulate businesses that offer otherwise lawful forms of gambling games.

(f) Public trust that permissible gambling will not endanger public health, safety, or welfare requires that comprehensive measures be enacted to ensure that such gambling is free from criminal and corruptive elements, that it is conducted honestly and competitively, and that it is conducted in suitable locations.

(g) Public trust and confidence can only be maintained by strict and comprehensive regulation of all persons, locations, practices, associations, and activities related to the operation of lawful gambling establishments and the manufacture or distribution of permissible gambling equipment.

(h) All gambling operations, all persons having a significant involvement in gambling operations, all establishments where gambling is conducted, and all manufacturers, sellers, and distributors of gambling equipment must be licensed and regulated to protect the public health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of this state as an exercise of the police powers of the state.

(i) To ensure that gambling is conducted honestly, competitively, and free of criminal and corruptive elements, all licensed gambling establishments in this state must remain open to the general public and the access of the general public to licensed gambling activities must not be restricted in any manner, except as provided by the Legislature. However, subject to state and federal prohibitions against discrimination, nothing herein shall be construed to preclude exclusion of unsuitable persons from licensed gambling establishments in the exercise of reasonable business judgment.

(j) In order to effectuate state policy as declared herein, it is necessary that gambling establishments, activities, and equipment be licensed, that persons participating in those activities be licensed or registered, that certain transactions, events, and processes involving gambling establishments and owners of gambling establishments be subject to prior approval or permission, that unsuitable persons not be permitted to associate with gambling activities or gambling establishments, and that gambling activities take place only in suitable locations. Any license or permit issued, or other approval granted pursuant to this chapter, is declared to be a revocable privilege, and no holder acquires any vested right therein or thereunder.

(k) The location of lawful gambling premises, the hours of operation of those premises, the number of tables permitted in those premises, and wagering limits in permissible games conducted in those premises are proper subjects for regulation by local governmental bodies. However, consideration of those same subjects by a state regulatory agency, as specified in this chapter, is warranted when local governmental regulation respecting those subjects is inadequate or the regulation fails to safeguard the legitimate interests of residents in other governmental jurisdictions.

(l) The exclusion or ejection of certain persons from gambling establishments is necessary to effectuate the policies of this chapter and to maintain effectively the strict regulation of licensed gambling.

(m) Records and reports of cash and credit transactions involving gambling establishments may have a high degree of usefulness in criminal and regulatory investigations and, therefore, licensed gambling operators may be required to keep records and make reports concerning significant cash and credit transactions.

19801.2. The Legislature further finds and declares as follows:

Appropriate regulation of banking and percentage games or of gambling devices consistent with public safety and welfare would require, at a minimum, all of the following safeguards:

(a) The creation of an adequately funded gambling control commission with comprehensive powers to establish minimum standards and technical specifications for gambling equipment and devices.

(b) The creation of an adequately funded law enforcement capability within state government to inspect, test, and evaluate gambling equipment and devices and modifications thereto.

(c) An appropriation by the Legislature to sufficiently fund a full-time commission and law enforcement capability with responsibilities commensurate with the expanded scope of gambling.

(d) The enactment of necessary regulations setting forth standards and procedures for the licensing of persons connected with the manufacture, sale, and distribution of equipment and devices in this state.

(e) The enactment of standards related to the trustworthiness and fairness of equipment and devices, upon the commission's recommendation to the Legislature.

(f) The enactment of statutory provisions governing the importation, transportation, sale, and disposal of equipment and devices, upon the commission's recommendation to the Legislature.

(g) The enactment of statutes providing for appropriate inspection and testing of equipment and devices, upon the commission's recommendation to the Legislature.

19802. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this chapter, to provide uniform, minimum standards of regulation of permissible gambling activities and the operation of lawful gambling establishments.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to preclude any city, county, or city and county from prohibiting any gambling activity, from imposing more stringent local controls or conditions upon gambling than are imposed by this chapter or by the board, from inspecting gambling premises to enforce applicable state and local laws, or from imposing any local tax or license fee, if the prohibition, control, condition, inspection, tax, or fee is not inconsistent with this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the responsibility of local law enforcement agencies to enforce the laws of this state, including this chapter.

19804. (a) In any action for declaratory or injunctive relief, or for relief by way of any extraordinary writ, other than an action initiated pursuant to Section 19922, wherein the construction, application, or enforcement of this chapter, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, or any order of the division or the board issued pursuant thereto, is called into question, a court shall not grant any preliminary or permanent injunction, or any peremptory writ of mandate, certiorari, or prohibition, in connection therewith, except as follows:

(1) Upon proof by clear and convincing evidence that the division or the board is abusing or threatens to abuse its discretion.

(2) Upon proof by clear and convincing evidence that the division or the board is exceeding or threatens to exceed its jurisdiction.

(b) No temporary injunction or other provisional order shall issue to restrain, stay, or otherwise interfere with any action by the division or the board except upon a finding by the court, based on clear and convincing evidence, that the public interest will not be prejudiced thereby, and no such order shall be effective for more than 15 calendar days.

(c) Nothing herein shall be construed to relieve a petitioner's obligation to exhaust administrative remedies.

(d) In an action for relief of any nature wherein the construction, application, or enforcement of this chapter, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, or any order of the division or board issued pursuant thereto, is called into question, the party filing the pleading shall furnish a copy thereof to the division. The copy shall be furnished by the party filing the pleading within 10 business days after filing.

19814. (a) Each board member shall receive a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day spent in attendance at meetings scheduled by the chairperson of the board for the purpose of fulfilling the duties of the board pursuant to this chapter, and shall be reimbursed for traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of official duties.

19815. (a) The board shall have an executive secretary appointed by the board. A person is ineligible for appointment as executive secretary or deputy executive secretary if, within two years prior to appointment, the person, or any partnership or corporation in which the person is a principal, was employed by, retained by, or derived substantial income from, any gambling establishment, whether or not a controlled gambling establishment.

(b) The executive secretary shall receive the annual salary established by the board and approved by the Department of Personnel Administration. The executive secretary shall be the board's executive officer and shall carry out and execute the duties as specified by law and by the board and, for that purpose, the executive secretary may appoint staff and clerical personnel. It is the intent of the Legislature that the employment of assistants and clerical personnel as provided by this subdivision shall not be accomplished by any reduction in the reasonably necessary staffing level of the division.

19816. (a) The division shall furnish to the board all equipment, supplies, and office space that may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the board's functions.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19817. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code applies to meetings of the board.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19818. The executive secretary of the board may appoint no more than two attorneys as counsel to the board. However, in lieu of representation by the attorneys appointed pursuant to this section, the board may request representation by the Attorney General in any proceeding before any court.

19820. (a) The division shall maintain a file of all applications for licenses under this chapter, together with a record of all action taken with respect to those applications. The file and record shall be open to public inspection.

(b) The division and board may maintain files and records as they deem appropriate. Except as provided in this chapter, the records of the division are exempt from disclosure under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) Except as necessary for the administration of this chapter, no member of the board and no official, employee, or agent of the board or division, having obtained access to confidential records or information in the performance of duties pursuant to this chapter, shall knowingly disclose or furnish the records or information, or any part thereof, to any person who is not authorized by law to receive it. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (k) of Section 1798.24 of the Civil Code, a court shall not compel disclosure of personal information in the possession of the division to any person in any civil proceeding wherein the division or the board is not a party, except for good cause and upon a showing that the information cannot otherwise be obtained. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of personal information that would otherwise be exempt from disclosure.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19821. (a) All files, records, reports, and other information in possession of any state or local governmental agency that are relevant to an investigation by the division conducted pursuant to this chapter shall be made available to the division as requested. However, any tax information received from a governmental agency shall be used solely for effectuating the purposes of this chapter. To the extent that the files, records, reports, or information described in this section are confidential or otherwise privileged from disclosure under any law or exercise of discretion, they shall not lose that confidential or privileged status for having been disclosed to the division.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19822. (a) The division and the board are responsible for all of the following:

(1) Assuring that licenses, approvals, and permits are not issued to, or held by, unqualified or disqualified persons, or by persons whose operations are conducted in a manner that is inimical to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(2) Assuring that there is no material involvement, directly or indirectly, with a licensed gambling operation, or the ownership or management thereof, by unqualified or disqualified persons, or by persons whose operations are conducted in a manner that is inimical to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(3) Investigating the qualifications of applicants before any license is issued, and investigating any request for any approval or permission that may be required pursuant to this chapter.

(b) For purposes of this section, “unqualified person” means a person who is found to be unqualified pursuant to the criteria set forth in Section 19848, and “disqualified person” means a person who is found to be disqualified pursuant to the criteria set forth in Section 19850.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19822.1. (a) The responsibilities of the division include, without limitation, all of the following:

(1) Monitoring the conduct of all licensees and other persons having a material involvement, directly or indirectly, with a gambling operation or its holding company, for the purpose of ensuring that licenses are not issued or held by, and that there is no direct or indirect material involvement with, a gambling operation or holding company by ineligible, unqualified, disqualified, or unsuitable persons, or persons whose operations are conducted in a manner that is inimical to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(2) Investigating suspected violations of this chapter or laws of this state relating to gambling, including any activity prohibited by Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 319) or Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 330) of Title 9 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

(3) Investigating complaints that are lodged against licensees, or other persons associated with a gambling operation, by members of the public.

(4) Initiating, where appropriate, disciplinary actions as provided in this chapter.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19823. (a) The division shall have all powers necessary and proper to enable it fully and effectually to carry out the policies and purposes of this chapter, including, without limitation, the power to do all of the following:

(1) Require any person to apply for a license or approval as specified in this chapter.

(2) For any cause deemed reasonable by the division, deny any application for a license, permit, or approval provided for in this chapter, or limit, condition, or restrict any such license, permit, or approval.

(3) Approve or disapprove transactions, events, and processes as provided in this chapter.

(4) Take actions deemed to be reasonable to ensure that no ineligible, unqualified, disqualified, or unsuitable persons are associated with controlled gambling activities.

(5) Take actions deemed to be reasonable to ensure that gambling activities take place only in suitable locations.

(6) Grant temporary licenses or approvals on appropriate terms and conditions.

(7) Institute a civil action in any superior court against any person subject to this chapter to restrain a violation of this chapter. An action brought against a person pursuant to this section does not preclude a criminal action or administrative proceeding against that person by the Attorney General or any district attorney or city attorney.

(8) Approve the play of any controlled game, including placing restrictions and limitations on how a controlled game may be played.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19823.1. (a) In addition to other powers and duties specified in this chapter, the board may grant, deny, revoke, suspend, or impose conditions, restrictions, or limitations on licenses, permits, or approvals as provided in this chapter.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19825. (a) The division has all powers necessary and proper to enable it to carry out fully and effectually the duties and responsibilities of the division specified in this chapter. The investigatory powers of the division include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Upon approval of the director, and without notice or warrant, the division may take any of the following actions:

(A) Visit, investigate, and place expert accountants, technicians, and any other person, as it may deem necessary, in all areas of the premises wherein controlled gambling is conducted for the purpose of determining compliance with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(B) Visit, inspect, and examine all premises where gambling equipment is manufactured, sold, or distributed.

(C) Inspect all equipment and supplies in any gambling establishment or in any premises where gambling equipment is manufactured, sold, or distributed.

(D) Summarily seize, remove, and impound any equipment, supplies, documents, or records from any licensed premises for the purpose of examination and inspection. However, upon reasonable demand by the licensee or the licensee’s authorized representative, a copy of all documents and records seized shall be made and left on the premises.

(E) Demand access to, and inspect, examine, photocopy, and audit all papers, books, and records of an owner licensee on the gambling premises in the presence of the licensee or his or her agent.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (1), upon obtaining an inspection warrant pursuant to Section 1822.60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the division may inspect and seize for inspection, examination, or photocopying any property possessed, controlled, bailed, or otherwise held by any applicant, licensee, or any intermediary company, or holding company.

(3) The division may investigate, for purposes of prosecution, any suspected criminal violation of this chapter. However, nothing in this paragraph limits the powers conferred by any other provision of law on agents of the division who are peace officers.

(4) The division may do both of the following:

(A) Issue subpoenas to require the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, records, documents, and physical materials.

(B) Administer oaths, examine witnesses under oath, take evidence, and take depositions and affidavits or declarations. Notwithstanding Section 11189 of the Government Code, the division, without leave of court, may take the deposition of any applicant or any licensee. Sections 11185 and 11191 of the Government Code do not apply to a witness who is an applicant or a licensee.

(b) (1) Subdivision (a) shall not be construed to limit warrantless inspections except as required by the California Constitution or the United States Constitution.

(2) Subdivision (a) shall not be construed to prevent entries and administrative inspections, including seizures of property, without a warrant in the following circumstances:

(A) With the consent of the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the premises.

(B) In situations presenting imminent danger to health and safety.

(C) In situations involving inspection of conveyances where there is reasonable cause to believe that the mobility of the conveyance makes it impractical to obtain a warrant, or in any other exceptional or emergency circumstance where time or opportunity to apply for a warrant is lacking.

(D) In accordance with this chapter.

(E) In all other situations where a warrant is not constitutionally required.

19827. (a) Without limiting any privilege that is otherwise available under law, any communication or document from, or concerning, an applicant, licensee, or registrant is absolutely privileged under any of the following circumstances:

(1) It was made or published by an agent or employee of the division or board in the proper discharge of official duties or in the course of any proceeding under this chapter.

(2) It was required to be made or transmitted to the division or board, or any of their agents or employees by law, regulation, or subpoena of the division or the board.

(3) It was made or transmitted to the division for the purpose of causing, or during the course of, an investigation conducted pursuant to this chapter. No statement, and no publication of any document, described in this subdivision, shall impose liability for defamation or constitute a ground for recovery in any civil action.

(b) If any document or communication provided to the division contains any information that is privileged pursuant to Division 8 (commencing with Section 900) of the Evidence Code, or any other provision of law, that privilege is not waived or lost because the document or communication is disclosed to the division or the board or to any of their agents or employees.

(c) The division, the board, and their agents and employees shall not release or disclose any information, documents, or communications provided by an applicant or licensee that are privileged pursuant to Division 8 (commencing with Section 900) of the Evidence Code, without the prior written consent of the applicant or licensee, or pursuant to lawful court order after timely notice of the proceedings has been given to the applicant or licensee. An application to a court for an order requiring the division or the board to release any information declared by law to be confidential shall be made only upon motion made in writing on not less than 10 business days' notice to the division, and to all persons who may be affected by the entry of the order.

19828. Every district attorney, and every state and local law enforcement agency, shall furnish to the division, on forms prepared by the division, all information obtained during the course of any substantial investigation or prosecution of any person, as determined by the division, if it appears that a violation of any law related to gambling has occurred, including any violation of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 319) or Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 330) of Title 9 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

19829. There is an investigative account within the Gambling Control Fund. All funds received for the purpose of paying expenses incurred by the division for investigation of an application for a license or approval under this chapter shall be deposited in the account. Expenses may be advanced from the investigative account to the division by the director.

Article 3. Regulations

19830. (a) The division may adopt regulations for the administration and enforcement of this chapter. To the extent appropriate, regulations of the division shall take into consideration the operational differences of large and small establishments. The board may adopt regulations relating to its internal procedures that may be required and that are not inconsistent with this chapter.

(b) Subject to subdivision (d), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to the following regulations of the division, if adopted within 90 days after the effective date of this chapter:

(1) Regulations described in subdivisions (a), (b), (e), (g), (h), (i) to (n), inclusive, (p), and (q) of Section 19834.

(2) Regulations adopted for the purpose of implementing Section 62 of the act that enacted this chapter.

(c) Any regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be filed with the Secretary of State and shall be effective immediately upon that filing.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be valid after September 1, 1998, unless the regulation has been subsequently readopted by the division in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, subject to all of the following:

(1) This subdivision does not apply to a regulation that is exempted from Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) of Chapter 3.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, by operation of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

(2) If, prior to September 1, 1998, the division has mailed a notice described in Section 11346.4 of the Government Code with respect to a regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b), the regulation shall not cease to be effective pursuant to this subdivision until the earlier of one of the following events:

(A) The readopted regulation is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11349.3, or subdivision (e) of Section 11349.5, of the Government Code.

(B) The readopted regulation has been disapproved by the Office of Administrative Law and the time within which a request for review may be filed pursuant to Section 11349.5 of the Government Code has expired.

(C) The readopted regulation is disapproved by the Office of Administrative Law, and the Governor transmits a decision pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11349.5 of the Government Code affirming the disapproval.

19834. The regulations adopted by the division shall do all of the following:

(a) With respect to applications, registrations, investigations, and fees, the regulations shall include, but not be limited to, provisions that do all of the following:

(1) Prescribe the method and form of application and registration.

(2) Prescribe the information to be furnished by any applicant, licensee, or registrant concerning, as appropriate, the person's personal history, habits, character, associates, criminal record, business activities, organizational structure, and financial affairs, past or present.

(3) Prescribe the information to be furnished by an owner licensee relating to the licensee's gambling employees.

(4) Require fingerprinting or other methods of identification of an applicant, licensee, or employee of a licensee.

(5) Prescribe the manner and method of collection and payment of fees and issuance of licenses.

(b) Provide for the approval of game rules and equipment by the division to ensure fairness to the public and compliance with state laws.

(c) Implement the provisions of this chapter relating to licensing.

(d) Require owner licensees to report and keep records of transactions, as determined by the division, involving cash or credit. The regulations may include, without limitation, regulations requiring owner licensees to file with the division reports similar to those required by Sections 5313 and 5314 of Title 31 of the United States Code, and by Sections 103.22 and 103.23 of Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and any successor provisions thereto, from financial institutions, as defined in Section 5312 of Title 31 of the United States Code and Section 103.11 of Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and any successor provisions.

(e) Provide for the receipt of protests and written comments on an application by public agencies, public officials, local governing bodies, or residents of the location of the gambling establishment or future gambling establishment.

(f) Provide for the disapproval of advertising by licensed gambling establishments that is determined by the division to be deceptive to the public. Regulations adopted by the division for advertising by licensed gambling establishments shall be consistent with the advertising regulations adopted by the California Horse Racing Board and the Lottery Commission. Advertisement that appeals to children or adolescents, or offers gambling as a means of becoming wealthy is presumptively deceptive.

(g) Govern all of the following:

(1) The extension of credit.

(2) The cashing, deposit, and redemption of checks or other negotiable instruments.

(3) The verification of identification in monetary transactions.

(h) Prescribe minimum procedures for adoption by owner licensees to exercise effective control over their internal fiscal and gambling affairs, which shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for all of the following:

(1) The safeguarding of assets and revenues, including the recording of cash and evidences of indebtedness.

(2) Prescribing the manner in which compensation from games and gross revenue shall be computed and reported by an owner licensee.

(3) The provision of reliable records, accounts, and reports of transactions, operations, and events, including reports to the division.

(i) Provide for the adoption and use of internal audits, whether by qualified internal auditors or by certified public accountants. As used in this subdivision, "internal audit" means a type of control that operates through the testing and evaluation of other controls and that is also directed toward observing proper compliance with the minimum standards of control prescribed in subdivision (h).

(j) Require periodic financial reports from each owner licensee.

(k) Specify standard forms for reporting financial conditions, results of operations, and other relevant financial information.

(l) Formulate a uniform code of accounts and accounting classifications to ensure consistency, comparability, and effective disclosure of financial information.

(m) Prescribe intervals at which the information in subdivisions (j) and (k) shall be furnished to the division.

(n) Require audits to be conducted, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, of the financial statements of all owner licensees whose annual gross revenues equal or exceed a specified sum. However, nothing herein shall be construed to limit the division's authority to require audits of any owner licensee. Audits, compilations, and reviews provided for in this subdivision shall be made by independent certified public accountants licensed to practice in this state.

(o) Restrict, limit, or otherwise regulate any activity that is related to the conduct of controlled gambling, consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(p) Define and limit the area, games, and equipment permitted, or the method of operation of games and equipment, when, at the request of a sheriff or district attorney, the division determines that local regulation of these subjects is insufficient to protect the health, safety, or welfare of residents in geographical areas proximate to a gambling establishment.

(q) Prohibit gambling establishments from cashing checks drawn against any federal, state, or county fund, including, but not limited to, social security, unemployment insurance, disability payments, or public assistance payments.

However, a gambling establishment shall not be prohibited from cashing any payroll checks or checks for the delivery of goods or services that are drawn against a federal, state, or county fund.

19834.5. (a) The division shall not prohibit, on a statewide basis, the play of any game or restrict the manner in which any game is played, unless the division, in a proceeding pursuant to this article, finds that the game, or the manner in which the game is played, violates a law of the United States, a law of this state, or a local ordinance.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the powers of the division in a proceeding against a licensee pursuant to Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 19920).

(c) No regulation prohibiting a game or the manner in which a game is played shall be deemed to be an emergency regulation.

19834.6. The division shall not prohibit, on a statewide basis, the placing of a wager on a controlled game by a person at a gaming table, if the person is present at the table and actively participating in the hand with a single seated player upon whose hand the wagers are placed.

19835. (a) The division, by regulation, shall provide for the formulation of a list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from any gambling establishment. The list may include any person whose presence in the establishment is determined by the division to pose a threat to the interests of this state or to controlled gambling, or both.

(b) In making the determination described in subdivision (a), the division may consider, but is not limited to considering, any of the following:

(1) Prior conviction of a crime that is a felony in this state or under the laws of the United States, a crime involving moral turpitude, or a violation of the gambling laws of this or any other state.

(2) The violation of, or conspiracy to violate, the provisions of this chapter relating to the failure to disclose an interest in a gambling establishment for which the person is required to obtain a license, or the willful evasion of fees.

(3) A notorious or unsavory reputation that would adversely affect public confidence and trust that the gambling industry is free from criminal or corruptive elements.

(4) An order of exclusion or ejection from a racing inclosure issued by the California Horse Racing Board.

(c) The division shall distribute the list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from any gambling establishment to all owner licensees and shall provide notice to any persons included on the list.

(d) The division shall adopt regulations establishing procedures for hearing of petitions by persons who are ejected or excluded from licensed premises pursuant to this section or pursuant to Section 19835.5.

(e) The board may revoke, limit, condition, or suspend the license of an owner, or fine an owner licensee, if that licensee knowingly fails to exclude or eject from the gambling establishment of that licensee any person included on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected.

19835.5. (a) A licensee may remove from his or her licensed premises any person who, while on the premises:

(1) Is a disorderly person, as defined by Section 647 of the Penal Code.

(2) Interferes with a lawful gambling operation.

(3) Solicits or engages in any act of prostitution.
(4) Begs, is boisterous, or is otherwise offensive to other persons.
(5) Commits any public offense.
(6) Is intoxicated.
(7) Is a person who the division, by regulation, has determined should be excluded from licensed gambling establishments in the public interest.
(b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed, expressly or impliedly, to preclude a licensee from exercising the right to deny access to or to remove any person from its premises or property for any reason the licensee deems appropriate.
19836. This article shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

Article 4. Licensing

19840. Every person who, either as owner, lessee, or employee, whether for hire or not, either solely or in conjunction with others, deals, operates, carries on, conducts, maintains, or exposes for play any controlled game in this state, or who receives, directly or indirectly, any compensation or reward, or any percentage or share of the money or property played, for keeping, running, or carrying on any controlled game in this state, shall obtain, and thereafter maintain a valid state gambling license, key employee license, or work permit, as specified in this chapter. In any criminal prosecution for violation of this section, the punishment shall be as provided in Section 337j of the Penal Code.
19840.5. (a) The owner of a gambling enterprise shall apply for and obtain a state gambling license.
(b) Other persons who also obtain a state gambling license, or key employee license, as required by this chapter, shall not receive a separate license certificate, but the license of every such person shall be endorsed on the license that is issued to the owner of the gambling enterprise.
19841. (a) An owner of a gambling enterprise that is not a natural person shall not be eligible for a state gambling license unless each of the following persons individually applies for and obtains a state gambling license:
(1) If the owner is a corporation, then each officer, director, and shareholder, other than a holding or intermediary company, of the owner. The foregoing does not apply to an owner that is either a publicly traded racing association or a qualified racing association.
(2) If the owner is a publicly traded racing association, then each officer, director, and owner, other than an institutional investor, of

5 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the publicly traded corporation.

(3) If the owner is a qualified racing association, then each officer, director, and shareholder, other than an institutional investor, of the subsidiary corporation and any owner, other than an institutional investor, of 5 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the publicly traded corporation.

(4) If the owner is a partnership, then every general and limited partner of, and every trustee or person, other than a holding or intermediary company, having or acquiring a direct or beneficial interest in, that partnership owner.

(5) If the owner is a trust, then the trustee, every beneficiary, and, in the discretion of the division, the trustor of the trust.

(6) If the owner is a business organization other than a corporation, partnership, or trust, then all those persons as the division may require, consistent with this chapter.

(7) Each person who receives, or is to receive, any percentage share of the revenue earned by the owner from gambling activities.

(8) Every employee, agent, guardian, personal representative, lender, or holder of indebtedness of the owner who, in the judgment of the division, has the power to exercise a significant influence over the gambling operation.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19842. (a) The division, by regulation or order, may require that the following persons register with the division, apply for a finding of suitability, or apply for a gambling license:

(1) Any person who furnishes any services or any property to a gambling enterprise under any arrangement whereby that person receives payments based on earnings, profits, or receipts from controlled gambling.

(2) Any person who owns an interest in the premises of a licensed gambling establishment or in real property used by a licensed gambling establishment.

(3) Any person who does business on the premises of a licensed gambling establishment.

(4) Any person who is an independent agent of, or does business with, a gambling enterprise as a ticket purveyor, a tour operator, the operator of a bus program, or the operator of any other type of travel program or promotion operated with respect to a licensed gambling establishment.

(5) Any person who provides any goods or services to a gambling enterprise for compensation that the division finds to be grossly disproportionate to the value of the goods or services provided.

(6) Every person who, in the judgment of the division, has the power to exercise a significant influence over the gambling operation.

(b) If a publicly traded corporation is engaged in activities described in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a), the division may require the corporation and the following other persons to apply for and obtain a license or finding of suitability:

(1) Any officer or director.

(2) Any owner, other than an institutional investor, of 5 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the corporation.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19844. (a) Every key employee shall apply for and obtain a key employee license.

(b) Licenses issued to key employees shall be for specified positions only, and those positions shall be enumerated in the endorsement described in subdivision (b) of Section 19840.5.

(c) No person may be issued a key employee license unless the person would qualify for a state gambling license.

(d) No person may be issued a key employee license unless the person is a resident of this state.

19846. (a) Every person who, by statute or regulation, is required to hold a state license shall obtain the license prior to engaging in the activity or occupying the position with respect to which the license is required. Every person who, by order of the division, is required to apply for a gambling license or a finding of suitability shall file the application within 30 calendar days after receipt of the order.

19847. (a) Any person who the division determines is qualified to receive a state license, having due consideration for the proper protection of the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of the State of California and the declared policy of this state, may be issued a license. The burden of proving his or her qualifications to receive any license is on the applicant.

(b) An application to receive a license constitutes a request for a determination of the applicant's general character, integrity, and ability to participate in, engage in, or be associated with, controlled gambling.

(c) In reviewing an application for any gambling license, the division shall consider whether issuance of the license is inimical to public health, safety, or welfare, and whether issuance of the license will undermine public trust that the gambling operations with respect to which the license would be issued are free from criminal and dishonest elements and would be conducted honestly.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19848. No gambling license shall be issued unless, based on all of the information and documents submitted, the division is satisfied that the applicant is all of the following:

(a) A person of good character, honesty, and integrity.

(b) A person whose prior activities, criminal record, if any, reputation, habits, and associations do not pose a threat to the public interest of this state, or to the effective regulation and control of controlled gambling, or create or enhance the dangers of unsuitable, unfair, or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of controlled gambling or in the carrying on of the business and financial arrangements incidental thereto.

(c) A person that is in all other respects, qualified to be licensed as provided in this chapter.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19848.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a person shall be deemed to be unsuitable to hold a state gambling license to own a gambling establishment if the person, or any partner, officer, director, or shareholder of the person, has any financial interest in any business or organization that is engaged in any form of gambling prohibited by Section 330 of the Penal Code, whether within or without this state.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a publicly traded racing association, a qualified racing association, or any person who is licensed pursuant to paragraphs (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 19841.

19850. (a) The division shall deny a license to any applicant who is disqualified for any of the following reasons:

(1) Failure of the applicant to clearly establish eligibility and qualification in accordance with this chapter.

(2) Failure of the applicant to provide information, documentation, and assurances required by this chapter or requested by the director, or failure of the applicant to reveal any fact material to qualification, or the supplying of information that is untrue or misleading as to a material fact pertaining to the qualification criteria.

(3) Conviction of the applicant for any crime punishable as a felony.

(4) Conviction of the applicant for any misdemeanor involving dishonesty or moral turpitude within the 10-year period immediately preceding the submission of the application, unless the applicant has been granted relief pursuant to Section 1203.4, 1203.4a, or 1203.45 of the Penal Code.

(5) Association of the applicant with criminal profiteering activity or organized crime, as defined by Section 186.2 of the Penal Code.

(6) Contumacious defiance by the applicant of any legislative investigatory body, or other official investigatory body of any state or of the United States, when that body is engaged in the investigation of crimes relating to gambling; official corruption related to gambling activities; or criminal profiteering activity or organized crime, as defined by Section 186.2 of the Penal Code.

(7) The applicant is less than 21 years of age.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19851. (a) The division shall deny a gambling license with respect to any gambling establishment that is located in a city, county, or city and county that does not have an ordinance governing all of the following matters:

(1) The hours of operation of gambling establishments.

(2) Patron security and safety in and around the gambling establishments.

(3) The location of gambling establishments.

(4) Wagering limits in gambling establishments.

(5) The number of gambling tables in each gambling establishment and in the jurisdiction.

(b) In any city, county, or city and county in which the local gambling ordinance does not govern the matters specified in subdivision (a), any amendment to the ordinance to govern those matters is not subject to Section 19950.1.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19852. (a) In addition to other grounds stated in this chapter, the division shall consider denying a gambling license for any of the following reasons:

(1) If issuance of the license with respect to the proposed gambling establishment or expansion would tend unduly to create law enforcement problems in a city, county, or city and county other than the city, county, or city and county that has regulatory jurisdiction over the applicant's premises.

(2) If an applicant fails to conduct an economic feasibility study that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the division that the proposed gambling establishment will be economically viable, and that the owners have sufficient resources to make the gambling establishment successful. The division shall hold a public hearing for the purposes of reviewing the feasibility study.

(3) If issuance of the license is sought in respect to a new gambling establishment, or the expansion of an existing gambling establishment, that is to be located or is located near an existing school, an existing building used primarily as a place of worship, an existing playground or other area of juvenile congregation, an existing hospital, convalescence facility, or near another similarly unsuitable area, as determined by regulation of the division, which is located in a city, county, or city and county other than the city, county, or city and county that has regulatory jurisdiction over the applicant's gambling premises.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "expansion" means an increase of 25 percent or more in the number of authorized gambling tables in a gambling establishment, based on the number of gambling tables for which a license was initially issued pursuant to this chapter.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19852.1. A publicly traded racing association or a qualified racing association shall be allowed to operate only one gaming club, and the gaming club shall be located on the same premises as the entity's racetrack.

19853. (a) Application for a state license or other division action shall be made on forms furnished by the division.

(b) The application for a gambling license shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the proposed licensee.

(2) The name and location of the proposed gambling establishment.

(3) The gambling games proposed to be conducted.

(4) The names of all persons directly or indirectly interested in the business and the nature of the interest.

(5) A description of the proposed gambling establishment and operation.

(6) Any other information and details the division may require in order to discharge its duty properly.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19853.5. The division shall furnish to the applicant supplemental forms, which the applicant shall complete and file with the division. These supplemental forms shall require, but shall not be limited to requiring, complete information and details with respect to the applicant's personal history, habits, character, criminal record, business activities, financial affairs, and business associates, covering at least a 10-year period immediately preceding the date of filing of the application.

19854. (a) An applicant for licensing or for any approval or consent required by this chapter, shall make full and true disclosure of all information to the division as necessary to carry out the policies of this state relating to licensing, registration, and control of gambling.

19855. (a) An application for a license shall be accompanied by the deposit of a sum of money that, in the judgment of the director, will be adequate to pay the anticipated costs and charges incurred in the investigation and processing of the application. The director shall adopt a schedule of costs and charges of investigation for use as guidelines in fixing the amount of any required deposit under this section.

(b) During an investigation, the director may require an applicant to deposit any additional sums as are required by the division to pay final costs and charges of the investigation.

(c) Any money received from an applicant in excess of the costs and charges incurred in the investigation or the processing of the application shall be refunded pursuant to regulations adopted by the division. At the conclusion of the investigation, the director shall provide the applicant a written, itemized accounting of the costs and charges so incurred.

19856. (a) Within a reasonable time after the filing of an application and any supplemental information the division may require, and the deposit of any fee required pursuant to Section

19855, the division shall commence its investigation of the applicant and, for that purpose, may conduct any proceedings it deems necessary. To the extent practicable, all applications shall be acted upon within 180 calendar days of the date of submission of a completed application. If an investigation has not been concluded within 180 days after the date of submission of a completed application, the division shall provide the applicant with a conditional license. Issuance of a conditional license creates no vested right to the issuance of a state gambling license, and the applicant retains the burden of proving his or her qualifications for that license.

19857. (a) A request for withdrawal of any application may be made at any time prior to final action upon the application by the director by the filing of a written request to withdraw with the division. The division shall not grant the request unless the applicant has established that withdrawal of the application would be consistent with the public interest and the policies of this chapter. If a request for withdrawal is denied, the division may go forward with its investigation and may act upon the application as if no request for withdrawal had been made. If a request for withdrawal is granted with prejudice, the applicant thereafter shall be ineligible to renew its application until the expiration of one year from the date of the withdrawal. Unless the division otherwise directs, no fee or other payment relating to any application is refundable by reason of withdrawal of an application.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19858. (a) The division may either deny the application or grant a license to an applicant who it determines to be qualified to hold the license.

(b) When the division grants an application for a license or approval, the division may limit or place restrictions thereon as it may deem necessary in the public interest, consistent with the policies described in this chapter.

(c) Prior to denying a license or issuing a license with limitations, conditions, or restrictions, the director, or the director's designee, shall meet with the applicant, or the applicant's duly authorized representative, and inform the applicant generally of the basis for the denial, limitations, conditions, or restrictions.

(d) If a license is denied, the director shall prepare and serve on the applicant a written statement of reasons for the denial.

(e) Within 10 business days after the division mails a notice of action on an application, the applicant may file a written objection thereto with the board. Upon receipt of a timely objection, in proper form, the board shall meet to consider the application. The meeting shall commence within 30 days after the filing of the written objection.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19858.5. (a) The board meeting described in Section 19858 shall be conducted in accordance with regulations of the board and as follows:

(1) Oral evidence shall be taken only upon oath or affirmation.

(2) Each party shall have all of the following rights:

(A) To call and examine witnesses.

(B) To introduce exhibits relevant to the issues of the case.

(C) To cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matters relevant to the issues, even though the matter was not covered on direct examination.

(D) To impeach any witness, regardless of which party first called the witness to testify.

(E) To offer rebuttal evidence.

(3) If the applicant does not testify in his or her own behalf, he or she may be called and examined as if under cross-examination.

(4) The meeting need not be conducted according to technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses. Any relevant evidence may be considered, and is sufficient in itself to support a finding, if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule that might make improper the admission of that evidence over objection in a civil action.

(b) Nothing in this section confers upon an applicant a right to discovery of the division's investigative reports or to require disclosure of any document or information the disclosure of which is otherwise prohibited by any other provision of this chapter.

19858.7. (a) No member of the board may communicate ex parte, directly or indirectly, with any applicant, or any agent, representative, or person acting on behalf of an applicant, or any agent or employee of the division, upon the merits of an application for a license, permit, registration, or approval while the application is pending disposition before the division or the board.

(b) No employee or agent of the division, applicant, or any agent, representative, or person acting on behalf of an applicant, and no person who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of a proceeding to consider an application for a license, permit, registration, or approval may communicate ex parte, directly or indirectly, with any member of the board, upon the merits of the application while the application is pending disposition before the board.

(c) The receipt by a member of the board of an ex parte communication prohibited by subdivision (b) may provide the basis for disqualification of that member or the denial of the application. The board shall adopt regulations to implement this subdivision.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "ex parte" means a communication without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate in the communication.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19859. No license may be assigned or transferred either in whole or in part.

19860. (a) Subject to subdivision (b) of Section 19840.5, the division or the board, as the case may be, shall issue and deliver to the applicant a license entitling the applicant to engage in the activity for which the license is issued, together with an enumeration of any specific terms and conditions of the license if both of the following conditions have been met:

(1) The division or the board is satisfied that the applicant is eligible and qualified to receive the license.

(2) All license fees required by statute and by regulations of the division have been paid.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19861. An owner's gambling license shall be posted at all times in a conspicuous place in the area where gambling is conducted in the establishment for which the license is issued until it is replaced by a succeeding license.

19862. (a) Subject to the power of the division or the board to deny, revoke, suspend, condition, or limit any license, as provided in this chapter, a license shall be renewed annually by the division from the date of issuance, upon proper application for renewal and payment of state license fees as required by statute or regulation.

(b) An application for renewal of a gambling license shall be filed by the owner licensee with the division no later than 120 calendar days prior to the expiration of the current license, and all license fees shall be paid to the division on or before the expiration of the current license. The division shall act upon any application for renewal prior to the date of expiration of the current license, and shall provide, by regulation, for notifying licensees of impending license expiration dates. Upon renewal of any owner license, the division shall issue an appropriate renewal certificate or validating device or sticker.

(c) Unless the division determines otherwise, renewal of an owner's gambling license shall be deemed to effectuate the renewal of every other gambling license endorsed thereon.

(d) In addition to the penalties provided by law, any owner licensee who deals, operates, carries on, conducts, maintains, or exposes for play any gambling game after the expiration date of the gambling license is liable to the state for all license fees and penalties that would have been due upon renewal.

(e) If an owner licensee fails to renew the gambling license as provided in this chapter, the division may order the immediate closure of the premises and a cessation of all gambling activity therein until the license is renewed.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19862.5. The failure of an owner licensee to file an application for renewal before the date specified in this chapter may be deemed a surrender of the license. A license has not been renewed within the meaning of this section until all required renewal fees have been paid.

19863. (a) Neither an owner licensee, nor a California affiliate of an owner licensee, shall enter into, without prior approval of the division, any contract or agreement with a person who is denied a license, or whose license is suspended or revoked by the division, or with any business enterprise under the control of that person, after the date of receipt of notice of the action by the division.

(b) An owner licensee or an affiliate of the owner licensee shall not employ, without prior approval of the division, any person in any capacity for which he or she is required to be licensed, if the person has been denied a license, or if his or her license has been suspended or revoked after the date of receipt of notice of the action by the division. Neither an owner licensee, nor a California affiliate of an owner licensee, without prior approval of the division, shall enter into any contract or agreement with a person whose application has been withdrawn with prejudice, or with any business enterprise under the control of that person, for the period of time during which the person is prohibited from filing a new application for licensure.

(c) (1) If an employee who is required to be licensed pursuant to this chapter fails to apply for a license within the time specified by regulation, is denied a license, or has his or her license revoked by the division, the employee shall be terminated in any capacity in which he or she is required to be licensed and he or she shall not be permitted to exercise a significant influence over the gambling operation, or any part thereof, upon being notified of that action.

(2) If an employee who is required to be licensed pursuant to this chapter has his or her license suspended, the employee shall be suspended in any capacity in which he or she is required to be licensed and shall not be permitted to exercise a significant influence over the gambling operation, or any part thereof, during the period of suspension, upon being notified of that action.

(3) If the owner licensee designates another employee to replace the employee whose employment was terminated, the owner licensee shall promptly notify the division and shall require the newly designated employee to apply for a license.

(d) An owner licensee or an affiliate of the owner licensee shall not pay to a person whose employment has been terminated pursuant to subdivision (c) any remuneration for any service performed in any capacity in which the person is required to be licensed, except for amounts due for services rendered before the date of receipt of notice of the action by the division. Neither an owner licensee, nor an affiliate thereof, during the period of suspension, shall pay to a person whose employment has been suspended pursuant to subdivision (c), any remuneration for any service performed in any capacity in which the person is required to be licensed, except for amounts due for services rendered before the date of receipt of notice of the action by the division.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a contract or agreement for the provision of services or property to an owner licensee or an affiliate thereof, or for the conduct of any activity at a gambling establishment, which is to be performed by a person required by this chapter or by the division to be licensed, shall be terminated upon a suspension or revocation of the person's license.

(f) In any case in which a contract or agreement for the provision of services or property to an owner licensee or an affiliate thereof, or for the conduct of any activity at a gambling establishment, is to be performed by a person required by this chapter or by the division to be licensed, the contract shall be deemed to include a provision for its termination without liability on the part of the owner licensee or its duly registered holding company upon a suspension or revocation of the person's license. In any action brought by the division to terminate a contract pursuant to subdivision (c) or (e), it shall not be a defense that the agreement does not expressly include the provision described in this subdivision, and the lack of express inclusion of the provision in the agreement shall not be a basis for enforcement of the contract by a party thereto.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19864. (a) With regard to a person who has had his or her application for a license denied by the division, all of the following shall apply:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the person shall not be entitled to profit from his or her investment in any business entity that has applied for or been granted a state license.

(2) The person shall not retain his or her interest in a business entity described in paragraph (1) beyond that period prescribed by the division.

(3) The person shall not accept more for his or her interest in a business entity described in paragraph (1) than he or she paid for it, or the market value on the date of the denial of the license or registration, whichever is higher.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as a restriction or limitation on the powers of the division specified in this chapter.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

(2) The rights and privileges acquired by the holders of different classes of authorized securities, including debentures.

(3) The terms on which securities are to be offered.

(4) The terms and conditions on all outstanding loans, mortgages, trust deeds, pledges, or any other indebtedness or security device.

(7) Bonus and profit-sharing arrangements.

(8) Management and service contracts.

(9) Options existing, or to be created, in respect of their securities or other interests.

(10) Financial statements for at least three fiscal years preceding the year of registration, or, if the corporation has not been in existence for a period of three years, financial statements from the date of its formation. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and audited by a licensee of the State Board of Accountancy.

(11) Any further financial data that the division, with the approval of the board, may deem necessary or appropriate for the protection of the state.

(12) An annual profit-and-loss statement and an annual balance sheet, and a copy of its annual federal income tax return, within 30 calendar days after that return is filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

19871. (a) No corporation is eligible to receive a license to own a gambling enterprise unless the conduct of controlled gambling is among the purposes stated in its articles of incorporation and the articles of incorporation have been submitted to and approved by the division.

(b) Beginning July 1, 1998, the Secretary of State shall not accept for filing any articles of incorporation of any corporation that include as a stated purpose the conduct of controlled gambling, or any amendment thereto, or any amendment that adds this purpose to articles of incorporation already filed, unless the articles have, or amendment has, been approved by the division.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19872. (a) If at any time the division denies a license to an individual owner of any security issued by a corporation that applies for or holds an owner license, the owner of the security shall immediately offer the security to the issuing corporation for purchase. The corporation shall purchase the security so offered, for cash in an amount not greater than fair market value, within 30 calendar days after the date of the offer.

(b) Beginning upon the date when the division serves notice of the denial upon the corporation, it is unlawful for the denied security owner to do any of the following:

(1) Receive any dividend or interest upon any security described in subdivision (a).

(2) Exercise, directly or through any trustee or nominee, any voting right conferred by any security described in subdivision (a).

(3) Receive any remuneration in any form from the corporation for services rendered or for any other purpose.

(c) Every security issued by a corporate owner licensee shall bear a statement, on both sides of the certificate evidencing the security, of the restrictions imposed by this section.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19873. (a) To the extent required by this chapter, officers and directors, shareholders, lenders, holders of evidence of indebtedness, underwriters, agents, or employees of a corporate owner licensee shall be licensed individually. The corporation shall require these persons to apply for a gambling license, and shall notify the division of every change of corporate officers, directors, or key employees within 10 business days after the change. An officer, director, or key employee who is required to apply for a license shall apply for the license within 30 calendar days after he or she becomes an officer, director, or key employee.

(b) The corporation shall immediately remove any officer or director required to apply for a license from any office or directorship if any of the following apply to that officer or director:

(1) He or she fails to apply for the license within 30 calendar days after becoming an officer or director.

(2) He or she is denied a license.

(3) His or her license is revoked.

(c) If the license of any officer or director is suspended, the corporation, immediately and for the duration of the suspension, shall suspend that officer or director.

(d) If any shareholder who is required to apply for a gambling license fails to apply for the license within the time required, the shareholder shall be deemed to have been denied a license for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 19872.

(e) If any person, other than an officer, director, or shareholder, who is required to apply for a gambling license fails to do so, the failure may be deemed to be a failure of the corporate owner licensee to require the application.

Article 6. Licensing of Limited Partnerships

19880. In addition to the requirements of Section 19841, in order to be eligible to receive a gambling license to own a gambling enterprise, a limited partnership shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Be formed under the laws of this state.

(b) Maintain an office of the limited partnership in the gambling establishment.

(c) Comply with all of the requirements of the laws of this state pertaining to limited partnerships.

(d) Maintain a ledger in the principal office of the limited partnership in California that shall meet both of the following conditions:

(4) The terms and conditions on all outstanding loans, mortgages, trust deeds, pledges, or any other indebtedness or security device.

(5) The extent of the holding in the limited partnership of all underwriters, and their remuneration as compensation for services, in the form of salary, wages, fees, or otherwise.

(7) Bonus and profit-sharing arrangements.

(8) Management and service contracts.

(9) Options existing or to be created.

(10) Financial statements for at least three fiscal years preceding the year of registration, or, if the limited partnership has not been in existence for a period of three years, financial statements from the date of its formation. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and audited by a licensee of the State Board of Accountancy in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

(11) Any further financial data that the division reasonably deems necessary or appropriate for the protection of the state.

(12) An annual profit and loss statement and an annual balance sheet, and a copy of its annual federal income tax return, within 30 calendar days after the return is filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

19881. No limited partnership is eligible to receive a license to own a gambling enterprise unless the conduct of gambling is among the purposes stated in the certificate of limited partnership.

19882. (a) The purported sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, or other disposition of any interest in a limited partnership that holds a gambling license, or the grant of an option to purchase the interest, is void unless approved in advance by the division.

(b) If at any time the division denies a license to an individual owner of any interest described in subdivision (a), the division shall immediately notify the partnership of that fact. The limited partnership, within 30 calendar days from the date it receives the notice from the division, shall return to the denied owner of the interest, in cash, the amount of his or her capital account as reflected on the books of the partnership.

(c) Beginning upon the date when the division serves a notice of denial upon the limited partnership, it is unlawful for the denied owner of the interest to do any of the following:

(1) Receive any share of the revenue or interest upon the limited partnership interest.

(2) Exercise, directly or through any trustee or nominee, any voting right conferred by that interest.

(3) Receive any remuneration in any form from the limited partnership, for services rendered or for any other purpose.

(d) Every certificate of limited partnership of any limited partnership holding a gambling license shall contain a statement of the restrictions imposed by this section.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19883. (a) To the extent required by this chapter, general partners, limited partners, lenders, holders of evidence of indebtedness, underwriters, agents, or employees of a limited partnership that holds or applies for a license to own a gambling enterprise shall be licensed individually. The limited partnership shall require these persons to apply for and obtain a gambling license. A person who is required to be licensed by this section as a general or limited partner shall not hold that position until he or she secures the required approval of the division. A person who is required to be licensed pursuant to a decision of the division shall apply for a license within 30 days after the division requests him or her to do so.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

Article 7. Restrictions on Certain Transactions

19900. (a) Except as may be provided by regulation of the division, the following security interests shall not be enforced without the prior approval of the division and compliance with regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b):

(1) In a security issued by a corporation that is a holder of a gambling license in this state, other than the security of a publicly traded racing association where a creditor acquires control of the security by forfeiture.

(2) In a security issued by a holding company that is not a publicly traded corporation.

(3) In a security issued by a partnership that is a holder of a gambling license in this state.

(b) The division shall adopt regulations establishing the procedure for the enforcement of a security interest. Any remedy provided by the regulations for the enforcement of the security interest is in addition to any other remedy provided by law.

19901. It is unlawful for any person to sell, purchase, lease, hypothecate, borrow or loan money, or create a voting trust agreement or any other agreement of any sort to, or with, any licensee in connection with any controlled gambling operation licensed under this chapter or with respect to any portion of the gambling operation, except in accordance with the regulations of the division.

19902. When any person contracts to sell or lease any property or interest in property, real or personal, under circumstances that require the approval or licensing of the purchaser or lessee by the division pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19842, the contract shall not specify a closing date for the transaction that is earlier than the expiration of 90 calendar days after the submission of the completed application for approval for licensing. Any provision of a contract that specifies an earlier closing date is void for all purposes, but the invalidity does not affect the validity of any other provision of the contract.

19903. When any person contracts to sell or lease any property or interest in property, real or personal, under circumstances that require the approval or licensing of the purchaser or lessee by the division pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19842, the contract shall contain a provision satisfactory to the division regarding responsibility for the payment of any fees due pursuant to any subsequent deficiency determinations made under this chapter that shall encompass any period of time before the closing date of the transaction.

19904. The purported sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, or other disposition of any security issued by a corporation that holds a gambling license, or the grant of an option to purchase that security, is void unless approved in advance by the division.

19905. Every owner licensee that is involved in a transaction for the extension or redemption of credit by the licensee, or for the payment, receipt, or transfer of coin, currency, or other monetary instruments, as specified by the division, in an amount, denomination, or amount and denomination, or under circumstances prescribed by regulations, and any other participant in the transaction, as specified by the division, shall, if required by regulation, make and retain a record of, or file with the division a report on, the transaction, at the time and in the manner prescribed by regulations.

19906. This article shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

Article 8. Work Permits

19910. The Legislature finds that to protect and promote the health, safety, good order, and general welfare of the inhabitants of this state, and to carry out the policy declared by this chapter, it is necessary that the division ascertain and keep itself informed of the identity, prior activities, and present location of all gambling enterprise employees and independent agents in the State of California, and when appropriate to do so, approve persons for employment in gambling establishments as provided in this article.

19910.4. No person under the age of 21 years shall be eligible for a work permit and no permit shall be issued to a person under the age of 21 years.

19910.5. (a) (1) A person shall not be employed as a gambling enterprise employee, or serve as an independent agent, except as provided in paragraph (2), unless he or she is the holder of one of the following:

(A) A valid work permit issued in accordance with the applicable ordinance or regulations of the city, county, or city and county in which his or her duties are performed.

(B) A work permit issued by the division.

(2) An independent agent is not required to hold a work permit if he or she is not a resident of this state and has registered with the division in accordance with regulations.

(b) A work permit shall not be issued by any city, county, or city and county to any person who would be disqualified from holding a state gambling license for the reasons stated in paragraphs (3) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 19850.

(c) The division may object to the issuance of a work permit by a city, county, or city and county for any cause deemed reasonable by the division, and if the division objects to issuance of a work permit, the work permit shall be denied.

(1) The division shall adopt regulations specifying particular grounds for objection to issuance of, or refusal to issue, a work permit.

(2) The ordinance of any city, county, or city and county relating to issuance of work permits shall permit the division to object to the issuance of any permit.

(3) Any person whose application for a work permit has been denied because of an objection by the division may apply to the division for an evidentiary hearing in accordance with regulations.

(d) Application for a work permit for use in any jurisdiction where a locally issued work permit is not required by the licensing authority of a city, county, or city and county shall be made to the division, and may be granted or denied for any cause deemed reasonable by the division. If the division denies the application, it shall include in its notice of denial a statement of facts upon which it relied in denying the application.

(e) An order of the division denying an application for a work permit, including an order declining to issue a work permit following review pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), is subject to the procedures described in Sections 19858, 19858.5, and 19858.7.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19911. (a) The division may issue an order summarily suspending a person's work permit, whether issued by a city, county, or city and county, or by the division, upon a finding that the suspension is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, or general welfare. The order is effective when served upon the holder of the permit.

(b) The order of summary suspension shall state facts upon which the finding of necessity for the suspension is based. For the purposes of this section, the order of summary suspension shall be deemed an accusation.

(c) An order of summary suspension shall be signed by the Attorney General or by the Chief Deputy Attorney General.

(d) The person whose work permit is summarily suspended has a right to a hearing to commence not more than 30 calendar days from the date of service of the suspension.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19912. (a) The board may revoke a work permit or, if issued by the licensing authority of a city, county, or city and county, notify the authority to revoke it, and the licensing authority shall revoke it, if the board finds, after a hearing, that a gambling enterprise employee or independent agent has failed to disclose, misstated, or otherwise misled the division with respect to any fact contained in any application for a work permit, or if the board finds that the employee or independent agent, subsequent to being issued a work permit, has done any of the following:

(1) Committed, attempted, or conspired to do any acts prohibited by this chapter.

(2) Engaged in any dishonest, fraudulent, or unfairly deceptive activities in connection with controlled gambling, or knowingly possessed or permitted to remain in or upon any premises any cards, dice, mechanical devices, or any other cheating device.

(3) Concealed or refused to disclose any material fact in any investigation by the division.

(4) Committed, attempted, or conspired to commit, any embezzlement or larceny against a gambling licensee or upon the premises of a gambling establishment.

(5) Been convicted in any jurisdiction of any offense involving or relating to gambling.

(6) Accepted employment without prior division approval in a position for which he or she could be required to be licensed under this chapter after having been denied a license or after failing to apply for licensing when requested to do so by the division.

(7) Been refused the issuance of any license, permit, or approval to engage in or be involved with gambling or parimutuel wagering in any jurisdiction, or had the license, permit, or approval revoked or suspended.

(8) Been prohibited under color of governmental authority from being present upon the premises of any licensed gambling establishment or any establishment where parimutuel wagering is conducted, for any reason relating to improper gambling activities or any illegal act.

(9) Been convicted of any felony.

(b) The board shall revoke a work permit if it finds, after hearing, that the holder thereof would be disqualified from holding a state gambling license for the reasons specified in paragraph (5) or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 19850.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any powers of the division with respect to licensing.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19913. (a) The fee for an initial work permit issued by the division shall be not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250). The fee for renewal of a work permit shall be no more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

Article 9. Conditions of Operation

19915. (a) It is the policy of the State of California to require that all establishments wherein controlled gambling is conducted in this state be operated in a manner suitable to protect the public health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of the state. The responsibility for the employment and maintenance of suitable methods of operation rests with the owner licensee, and willful or persistent use or toleration of methods of operation deemed unsuitable by the division or by local government shall constitute grounds for license revocation or other disciplinary action.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19915.5. No person under the age of 21 years shall be permitted to enter upon the premises of a licensed gambling establishment, or any part thereof, except the following:

(a) An area, physically separated from any gambling area, for the exclusive purpose of dining. For purposes of this subdivision, any place wherein food or beverages are dispensed primarily by vending machines shall not constitute a place for dining.

(b) Restrooms.

(c) A supervised room, as defined by regulation, that is physically separated from any gambling area and used primarily for the purpose of entertainment or recreation.

Any area of a gambling establishment to which a person under the age of 21 years may have access under this subdivision shall have an entrance that shall not require the entrants to enter upon or pass through the gambling floor. All persons under the age of 21 years shall be restricted to the entrance specified in this subdivision.

(d) Effective January 1, 1999, no license shall be renewed with respect to a gambling establishment that is operated as of the effective date of this chapter unless the establishment has complied with this section.

19916. No owner licensee shall operate a gambling enterprise in violation of any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter.

19917. No owner licensee shall operate a gambling enterprise in violation of any governing local ordinance.

19918. (a) Each owner licensee shall maintain security controls over the gambling premises and all operations therein related to gambling, and those security controls are subject to the approval of the division.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

Article 9.5. Disciplinary Actions

19920. (a) The division shall make appropriate investigations as follows:

(1) Determine whether there has been any violation of this chapter or any regulations adopted thereunder.

(2) Determine any facts, conditions, practices, or matters that it may deem necessary or proper to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or any regulation adopted thereunder.

(3) Aid in adopting regulations.

(4) Secure information as a basis for recommending legislation relating to this chapter.

(b) If, after any investigation, the division is satisfied that a license, permit, finding of suitability, or approval should be suspended or revoked, it shall file an accusation with the board in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19921. (a) The division may issue any emergency orders against an owner licensee or any person involved in a transaction requiring prior approval that the division deems reasonably necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, or general welfare.

(b) The emergency order shall set forth the grounds upon which it is based, including a statement of facts constituting the alleged emergency necessitating the action.

(c) The emergency order is effective immediately upon issuance and service upon the owner licensee or any agent of the licensee registered with the division for receipt of service, or, in cases involving prior approval, upon issuance and service upon the person or entity involved, or upon an agent of that person or entity authorized to accept service of process in this state. The emergency order may suspend, limit, condition, or take other action in relation to the license of one or more persons in an operation without affecting other individual licensees, registrants, or the licensed gambling establishment. The emergency order shall remain in effect until further order of the division or final disposition of any proceeding conducted pursuant to subdivision (d).

(d) Within two calendar days after issuance of an emergency order, the division shall file an accusation with the board against the person or entity involved. Thereafter, the person or entity against whom the emergency order has been issued and served is entitled to a hearing that, if so requested, shall commence within 10 business days of the date of the request if a gambling operation is closed by the order, and in all other cases, within 30 calendar days of the date of the request. On application of the division, and for good cause shown, a court may extend the time within which a hearing is required to be commenced, upon those terms and conditions that the court deems equitable.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19922. (a) Any person aggrieved by a final decision or order of the board that limits, conditions, suspends, or revokes any previously granted license or approval, made after hearing by the board, may petition the Superior Court for the County of Sacramento for judicial review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure and

Section 11523 of the Government Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the standard set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply for obtaining a stay of the operation of a board order. In every case where it is claimed that the findings are not supported by the evidence, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in light of the whole record.

(b) The court may summarily deny the petition, or the court may issue an alternative writ directing the board to certify the whole record of the division in the case to the court within a time specified. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in the court, but, if an alternative writ issues, the cause shall be heard on the whole record of the division as certified by the board.

(c) In determining the cause following issuance of an alternative writ, the court shall enter judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the order of the board, or the court may remand the case for further proceedings before, or reconsideration by, the board.

(d) This section provides the exclusive means to review adjudicatory decisions of the board.

Article 10. Penalties

19930. Any person included on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected from a gambling establishment pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor if he or she thereafter knowingly enters the premises of a licensed gambling establishment.

19932. (a) A person under the age of 21 years shall not do any of the following:

(1) Play, be allowed to play, place wagers at, or collect winnings from, whether personally or through an agent, any gambling game.

(2) Loiter, or be permitted to loiter, in or about any room wherein any gambling game is operated or conducted.

(3) Be employed as an employee in a licensed gambling establishment except in a parking lot, coffee shop, restaurant, business office, or other similar room, as determined by regulations, wherein no gambling activity or activity directly associated with gambling takes place.

(4) Present or offer to any licensee, or to an agent of a licensee, any written, printed, or photostatic evidence of age and identity that is false, fraudulent, or not actually his or her own for the purpose of doing any of the things described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive.

(b) Any licensee or employee in a gambling establishment who violates or permits the violation of this section, and any person under 21 years of age who violates this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Proof that a licensee, or agent or employee of a licensee, demanded, was shown, and acted in reliance upon bona fide evidence of majority and identity shall be a defense to any criminal prosecution under this section or to any proceeding for the suspension or revocation of any license or work permit based thereon. For the purposes of this section, "bona fide evidence of majority and identity" means a document issued by a federal, state, county, or municipal government, or subdivision or agency thereof, including, but not limited to, a motor vehicle operator's license or an identification card issued to a member of the armed forces, that contains the name, date of birth, description, and picture of the person.

19933. (a) Any person who willfully fails to report, pay, or truthfully account for and pay over any license fee imposed by this chapter, or willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat the license fee or payment thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(b) Any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter for which a penalty is not expressly provided, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

19933.5. (a) Except as specified in subdivision (c), this section applies to any person or business that is engaged in controlled gambling, whether or not licensed to do so.

(b) Any person or business described in subdivision (a), with actual knowledge of the requirements of regulations adopted by the division pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 19834, that knowingly and willfully fails to comply with the requirements of those regulations shall be liable for a monetary penalty. The board may impose a monetary penalty for each violation. However, in the first proceeding that is initiated pursuant to this subdivision, the penalties for all violations shall not exceed a total sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). If a penalty was imposed in a prior proceeding before the board, the penalties for all violations shall not exceed a total sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). If a penalty was imposed in two or more prior proceedings before the board, the penalties for all violations shall not exceed a total sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(c) This section does not apply to any case where the person is criminally prosecuted in federal or state court for conduct related to a violation of Section 14162 of the Penal Code.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19934. Any person who willfully resists, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the division or the board or any of their agents or employees in the performance of duties pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

Article 11. Revenues

19940. (a) All fines and penalties collected pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in a special account in the General Fund, and, upon appropriation, may be expended by the Department of Justice to offset costs incurred pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a), all fees and revenue collected pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the Gambling Control Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, five million four hundred thousand dollars ($5,400,000) of the funds deposited in the Gambling Control Fund shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the Department of Justice each fiscal year, commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year, for expenditure by the division and board exclusively for the support of the division and board in carrying out their duties and responsibilities under this chapter.

19941. (a) Every application for a license or approval shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) All fees for issuance or renewal of a state gambling license or key employee license shall be assessed against the gambling license issued to the owner of the gambling enterprise. Except as provided in subdivision (c), the annual fee for the issuance and renewal of that gambling license shall be determined by the division pursuant to the following schedule:

(1) For a license authorizing one to five tables, inclusive, at which games are played, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each table.

(2) For a license authorizing six to eight tables, inclusive, at which games are played, four hundred fifty dollars ($450) for each table.

(3) For a license authorizing 9 to 14 tables, inclusive, at which games are played, one thousand fifty dollars ($1,050) for each table.

(4) For a license authorizing 15 to 25 tables, inclusive, at which games are played, two thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($2,150) for each table.

(5) For a license authorizing 26 to 70 tables, inclusive, at which games are played, three thousand two hundred dollars ($3,200) for each table.

(6) For a license authorizing 71 or more tables at which games are played, three thousand seven hundred dollars ($3,700) for each table.

(c) Without regard to the number of tables at which games may be played pursuant to a gambling license, if, at the time of any license renewal, it is determined that the gross revenues of an owner licensee during the licensee's previous fiscal year fell within the following ranges, the annual fee for renewal of the license shall be as follows:

(1) For a gross revenue of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) to four hundred ninety-nine thousand nine hundred ninety-nine dollars ($499,999), inclusive, the amount specified by the division pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(2) For a gross revenue of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) to one million nine hundred ninety-nine thousand nine hundred ninety-nine dollars ($1,999,999), inclusive, the amount specified by the division pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b).

(3) For a gross revenue of two million dollars ($2,000,000) to nine million nine hundred ninety-nine thousand nine hundred ninety-nine dollars ($9,999,999), inclusive, the amount specified by the division pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (b).

(4) For a gross revenue of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, the amount specified by the division pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b).

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the fee for renewal of a gambling license shall not be less than the amount specified in subdivision (b).

(e) (1) No later than July 1, 2000, the Attorney General shall review the fee schedule set forth in this section and make a recommendation to the Legislature concerning the reduction or increase in the fee amounts, if any.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that the revenue derived from the total of all issuance and renewal fees collected during each fiscal year not exceed five million four hundred thousand dollars ($5,400,000). If, at the end of any fiscal year prior to July 1, 2000, the division determines that the total of all issuance and renewal fees collected during that fiscal year exceeded the amount appropriated by the Legislature pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 19940, the excess shall be refunded to all owner licensees within 180 calendar days after the close of the fiscal year, by way of a pro rata distribution.

(f) The division may provide for payment of the annual gambling license fee on an annual or installment basis.

(g) For the purposes of this section, each table at which a game is played constitutes a single game table.

19942. (a) The division, by regulation, shall establish fees for special licenses authorizing irregular operation of tables in excess of the total number of tables otherwise authorized to a licensed gambling establishment, for tournaments and other special events.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19944. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to restrict or limit the power of any city, county, or city and county to fix, impose, and collect a license tax.

Article 12. Local Governments

19950. This chapter shall not prohibit the enactment, amendment, or enforcement of any ordinance by any city, county, or city and county relating to licensed gambling establishments that is not inconsistent with this chapter. On and after the effective date of this chapter, no city, county, or city and county shall issue a gambling license with respect to any gambling establishment unless one of the following is true:

(a) The gambling establishment is located in a city, county, or city and county wherein, after January 1, 1984, an ordinance was adopted by the electors of the city, county, or city and county, in an election conducted pursuant to former Section 19819 of the Business and Professions Code, as that section read immediately before its repeal by the act that enacted this chapter.

(b) The gambling establishment is located in a city, county, or city and county wherein, prior to January 1, 1984, there was in effect an ordinance that expressly authorized the operation of one or more cardrooms.

(c) After the effective date of this chapter, a majority of the electors voting thereon affirmatively approve a measure permitting controlled gambling within that city, county, or city and county.

(1) The measure to permit controlled gambling shall appear on the ballot in substantially the following form:

"Shall licensed gambling establishments in which any controlled games permitted by law, such as draw poker, low-ball poker, panguine (pan), seven-card stud, or other lawful card games or tile games, are played, be allowed in __________? Yes ________ No ________."

(2) In addition, the initial implementing ordinances shall be drafted and appear in full on the sample ballot and shall set forth at least all of the following:

(A) The hours of operation.

(B) The games to be played.

(C) The wagering limits.

(D) The maximum number of gambling establishments permitted by the ordinance.

(E) The maximum number of tables permitted in each gambling establishment.

19950.1. (a) On or after the effective date of this chapter, any amendment to any ordinance that would result in an expansion of gambling in the city, county, or city and county, shall not be valid unless the amendment is submitted for approval to the voters of the city, county, or city and county, and is approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. An ordinance may be amended without the approval of the electors one time on or after the effective date of this chapter to expand gambling by a change that results in an increase of less than 25 percent with respect to any of the matters set forth in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (5), and (6) of subdivision (b). Thereafter, any additional expansion shall be approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. This subdivision does not apply to a licensed gambling establishment with five or fewer tables.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "expansion of gambling" means, when compared to that authorized on January 1, 1996, or under an ordinance adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19851, whichever is the lesser number, a change that results in any of the following:

(1) An increase of 25 percent or more in the number of gambling tables in the city, county, or city and county.

(2) An increase of 25 percent or more in the number of licensed card rooms in the city, county, or city and county.

(3) An increase of 25 percent or more in the number of gambling tables that may be operated in a gambling establishment in the city, county, or city and county.

(4) The authorization of any additional form of gambling, other than card games, that may be legally played in this state, to be played at a gambling establishment in the city, county, or city and county.

(5) An increase of 25 percent or more in the hours of operation of a gambling establishment in the city, county, or city and county.

(6) An increase of 25 percent or more in the maximum amount permitted to be wagered in a game.

(c) The measure to expand gambling shall appear on the ballot in substantially the following form:

"Shall gambling be expanded in ________ beyond that operated or authorized on January 1, 1996, by ________ (describe expansion)? Yes ________ No ________."

19950.2. (a) On and after the effective date of this chapter, neither the governing body nor the electors of a county, city, or city and county that has not authorized legal gaming within its boundaries prior to January 1, 1996, shall authorize legal gaming.

(b) No ordinance in effect on January 1, 1996, that authorizes legal gaming within a city, county, or city and county may be amended to expand gaming in that jurisdiction beyond that permitted on January 1, 1996.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2001, and as of that date is repealed.

19951. No city, county, or city and county may grant, or permit to continue in effect, a license to deal, operate, carry on, conduct, maintain, or expose for play any controlled game to any applicant or holder of a local license unless the applicant or local licensee is an owner licensee as defined in this chapter. However, the issuance of a state gambling license to a person imposes no requirements upon the city, county, or city and county to issue a license to the person.

Article 13. Miscellaneous Provisions

19956. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this chapter, for any reason, is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, that judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this chapter and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances, but shall be confined to the operation of the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment was rendered and to the person or circumstances involved.

19957. This act is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of the people of the State of California, and shall be liberally construed to effectuate those purposes.

19958. For the purposes of Section 3482 of the Civil Code, the issuance of a state gambling license shall not be construed to authorize any conduct or activity other than the conduct of controlled gambling.

Article 14. Additional Restrictions Related to Fair Elections and Corruption of Regulators

19959. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that there is a compelling governmental interest in ensuring that elections conducted pursuant to Section 19950 are conducted fairly and that electors in those elections are presented with fair and balanced arguments in support of and in opposition to the existence of gambling establishments. Large contributions by gambling operators or prospective gambling operators who will be financially interested in the outcome of the election often unfairly distort the context in which those elections take place.

(b) In California, in other states, and in other countries, there is ample historical evidence of the potential for revenues derived from gambling to be used to corrupt political officials in the regulation or prosecution of crimes related to gambling activities, embezzlement, and money laundering.

(c) This article is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state.

19959.5. (a) A member of the board, the executive secretary of the board, the director of the division, and any employee designated by regulation of the division for purposes of this section, shall not, for a period of three years after leaving office or terminating employment, for compensation, act as agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person by making any formal or informal appearance, or by making any oral or written communication, before the board or the division, or any officer or employee thereof, if the appearance or communication is for the purpose of influencing administrative action, or influencing any action or proceeding involving the issuance, amendment, awarding, or revocation of a permit, license, or approval.

(b) A member of the board shall not solicit or accept campaign contributions from any person, including any applicant or licensee.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19960.2. (a) The division shall, by regulation, provide for the denial, suspension, or revocation of an application or license for the knowing and willful violation of any law or ordinance committed after January 1, 1998, and within three years prior to the submission of the license or renewal application, or any time thereafter, with respect to campaign finance disclosure or contribution limitations applicable to an election that is conducted pursuant to Section 19950.

(1) The remedies specified herein are in addition to any other remedy or penalty provided by law.

(2) Any final determination by the Fair Political Practices Commission that the applicant did not violate any provision of state law within its jurisdiction shall be binding on the division.

(3) Any final determination by a city or county governmental body having ultimate jurisdiction over the matter that the applicant did not violate an ordinance with respect to campaign finance disclosure or contribution limitations applicable to an election conducted pursuant to Section 19950 shall be binding on the division.

(b) Every applicant for a gambling license, or any renewal thereof, shall file with the division, at the time the license application or renewal is filed, the following information:

(1) Any statement or other document required to be filed with the Fair Political Practices Commission relative to an election that is conducted pursuant to Section 19950, or former Section 19819, as that section read immediately prior to its repeal by the act that enacted this chapter, within three years of the date on which the application is submitted.

(2) Any statement or other document required to be filed with any local jurisdiction respecting campaign finance disclosure or contribution limitations applicable to an election that is conducted pursuant to Section 19950, or former Section 19819, as that section read immediately prior to its repeal by the act that enacted this chapter, within three years of the date on which the application is submitted.

(4) A report of any other significant involvement by the applicant or licensee in an election that is conducted pursuant to Section 19950, or former Section 19819, as that section read immediately prior to its repeal by the act that enacted this chapter, within three years of the date on which the application is submitted.

(c) The division shall adopt regulations to implement this section.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this chapter, deletes or extends that date.

19960.4. It is the intent of the Legislature that if any provision of this article is adjudged by a court to be invalid because of any conflict or inconsistency with the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code), as amended, that judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate any other provision of this chapter and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances, but shall be confined to the operation of the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment was rendered and to the person or circumstances involved.

(n) Require audits to be conducted, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, of the financial statements of all owner licensees whose annual gross revenues equal or exceed a specified sum. (q) Prohibit gambling establishments from cashing checks drawn against any federal, state, or county fund, including, but not limited to, social security, unemployment insurance, disability payments, or public assistance payments. (c) No regulation prohibiting a game or the manner in which a game is played shall be deemed to be an emergency regulation.

19834.6A. The commission shall not prohibit, on a statewide basis, the placing of a wager on a controlled game by a person at a gaming table, if the person is present at the table and actively participating in the hand with a single-seated player upon whose hand the wagers are placed.

19835A. (a) The commission shall, by regulation, provide for the formulation of a list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from any gambling establishment. The list may include any person whose presence in the establishment is determined by the commission to pose a threat to the interests of this state or to controlled gambling, or both.

(b) In making the determination described in subdivision (a), the commission may consider, but is not limited to considering, any of the following:

(3) A notorious or unsavory reputation that would adversely affect public confidence and trust that the gambling industry is free from criminal or corruptive elements.

(4) An order of exclusion or ejection from a racing inclosure issued by the California Horse Racing Board.

(c) The commission shall distribute the list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from any gambling establishment to all owner licensees and shall provide notice to any persons included on the list.

(d) The commission shall adopt regulations establishing procedures for hearing of petitions by persons who are ejected or excluded from licensed premises pursuant to this section or pursuant to Section 19835.5A.

(e) The commission may revoke, limit, condition, or suspend the license of an owner, or fine an owner licensee, if that licensee knowingly fails to exclude or eject from the gambling establishment of that licensee any person included on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected.

19835.5A. (a) A licensee may remove from his or her licensed premises any person who, while on the premises:

(1) Is a disorderly person, as defined by Section 647 of the Penal Code.

(2) Interferes with a lawful gambling operation.

(3) Solicits or engages in any act of prostitution.

(4) Begs, is boisterous, or is otherwise offensive to other persons.

(5) Commits any public offense.

(6) Is intoxicated.

(7) Is a person who the commission, by regulation, has determined should be excluded from licensed gambling establishments in the public interest.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed, expressly or impliedly, to preclude a licensee from exercising the right to deny access to or to remove any person from its premises or property for any reason the licensee deems appropriate.

19836A. This article shall become operative on the occurrence of one of the events specified in Section 66 of the act that added this section to the Business and Professions Code.

Upon renewal of any owner license, the commission shall issue an appropriate renewal certificate or validating device or sticker.

SEC. 62. (a) For the purposes of this section, “provisional license” means a license that is either granted by operation of law pursuant to this section, or is issued by the Director of the Division of Gambling Control pursuant to this section, and authorizes the holder to own and operate a gambling establishment, as defined by the Gambling Control Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code), as enacted by this act. The issuance of a provisional license creates no vested right to the issuance of a state gambling license. A provisional license is held subject to all terms and conditions under which a state gambling license is held pursuant to the Gambling Control Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code), as enacted by this act.

(b) (1) Every person possessing a valid registration, issued pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, and which expires as of January 1, 1998, shall be deemed, as of January 1, 1998, to hold a provisional license to conduct those activities authorized by the registration.

(2) (A) Every owner of a gaming club who possesses a valid registration issued pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, if the license has expired as of January 1, 1998, shall be deemed to hold a provisional license to own, manage, or operate all or a part of another gambling establishment, or of other gambling establishments, if all of the following conditions are satisfied with respect to the other gambling establishment or establishments:

(i) The gambling establishment, on January 1, 1998, was owned by a person holding a provisional license pursuant to this subdivision.

(ii) Acquisition of the ownership interest is completed no later than June 30, 1998.

(iii) The applicant has deposited all moneys as required pursuant to Section 19855 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act.

(iv) The applicant has deposited with the division a license fee calculated as the amount specified for the appropriate level of operation in subdivision (a) of Section 19941 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act.

(B) A provisional license granted in respect to a gambling establishment by operation of subparagraph (A) shall expire on July 30, 1998, unless, on or before that date, the holder of the provisional license files an application for a gambling license with respect to that gambling establishment under the Gambling Control Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code), as enacted by this act.

(3) Until a provisional licensee is summoned pursuant to subdivision (e), no other state gambling license and no key employee license shall be required in connection with the operation that is owned, managed, or operated by a person holding a provisional license. Nothing in this paragraph shall relieve any person who, on or after the effective date of this act, acquires an ownership interest in a gambling establishment, from the provisions of Section 19840 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act. Upon payment of the fees described in this section, the provisional license shall be valid until the earlier of the following events:

(A) December 31, 1998.

(B) The granting or denial of an application for a gambling license.

(c) Until July 1, 1998, the Director of the Division of Gambling Control may issue a provisional license to any person who submitted a completed application for registration pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, if all of the following are true:

(1) The director determines that the applicant is not disqualified based on any of the reasons for which an application for registration could have been denied or revoked under former Section 19809 or 19810 of the Business and Professions Code as those sections read immediately prior to repeal by this act.

(2) The applicant has paid all fees required pursuant to Section 19855 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act, less any fees paid pursuant to Section 19808 of the Business and Professions Code, as that section read immediately prior to its repeal by this act.

(3) The applicant has deposited with the division a license fee calculated as the amount specified for each level of operation in subdivision (b) of Section 19941 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act.

(d) Every person holding a provisional license pursuant to subdivision (b), who desires that the provisional license be converted to a gambling license under the Gambling Control Act enacted by this act shall, no later than January 31, 1998, deposit with the Division of Gambling Control a license fee calculated as the amount specified for the appropriate level of operation in subdivision (b) of Section 19941 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act.

(e) (1) Commencing July 1, 1998, the Division of Gambling Control shall summon persons holding provisional licenses for the purpose of applying for gambling licenses under the Gambling Control Act enacted by this act. Thereafter, except as otherwise provided herein, the license application process shall proceed as an initial application for licensure in accordance with the provisions of the Gambling Control Act, including the advance deposit of fees for investigation of the application or applications, if any.

(2) The division shall not require an applicant who holds a provisional license pursuant to subdivision (b) to furnish, in connection with an application for licensure, information or documentation that is presently in the possession of the Department of Justice by virtue of having conducted a prior investigation of the applicant pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act.

(f) If an application for a gambling license is granted, and upon payment of the fees specified in the Gambling Control Act, a gambling license may be issued to the owner of a gambling enterprise, to expire not later than 12 months thereafter. If this license is issued prior to December 31, 1998, the licensee shall be entitled to a credit, if any, for the fee paid pursuant to subdivision (d).

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 19847, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that every natural person who, on December 31, 1997, holds a valid and unexpired registration issued pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, is suitable for licensure pursuant to this act.

(h) If an application for a gambling license is denied, the applicant shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of the fee paid pursuant to subdivision (d), and any unused deposit of investigative fees.

(i) If the Division of Gambling Control does not, prior to December 31, 1998, summon a person holding a provisional license for the purpose of applying for a gambling license, the division, upon request of the holder of the provisional license, and upon payment of the fees specified in the Gambling Control Act, shall extend the provisional license until December 31, 1999. Thereafter, the process described in subdivisions (e), (f), and (g) shall apply in similar fashion.

(j) No application for a state gambling license may be submitted to the Division of Gambling Control prior to July 1, 1998. It is the intent of the Legislature that the division and the Gambling Control Board shall be fully operative by July 1, 1998.

SEC. 63. All administrative or judicial proceedings that were initiated pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, and that are not concluded prior to the effective date of this act, shall continue and shall be governed by those provisions until concluded.

SEC. 64. Sections 19852 and 19852A of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act, shall not apply in a situation where the initial or subsequent annual renewal licensure of any gambling establishment with respect to which, on December 31, 1997, all persons who were required to be registered pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, as it read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, possessed a current and valid registration. However, Sections 19852 and 19852A shall apply to any annual renewal licensure under the Gambling Control Act, if the application therefor includes an application for expansion, as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 19852 and subdivision (b) of Section 19852A of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act.

SEC. 65. All unencumbered funds remaining in the special account in the General Fund established pursuant to former Section 19818 of the Business and Professions Code, as that section read immediately prior to its repeal by this act, effective January 1, 1998, shall be transferred to the Gambling Control Fund created by Section 19940 of the Business and Professions Code, as enacted by this act.

SEC. 66. Sections 4 to 52, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on the earlier of the following events:

(1) January 1, 1999.

(2) The date of enactment of a statute appropriating funds for the funding of the Division of Gambling Control created by Section 15001 of the Government Code and the California Gambling Control Commission created by Section 19810 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 4 of this act.

SEC. 66.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Division of Gambling Control and the California Gambling Control Board created by this act have every power conferred by Sections 1 to 3, inclusive, of this act until the Governor, by executive order, declares that the California Gambling Control Commission is prepared to assume the responsibilities and exercise the powers conferred by Sections 4 to 52, inclusive, of this act.

SEC. 67. The California Gambling Control Board and the Department of Justice shall jointly prepare a written report setting forth the expenditures of fees and revenue collected pursuant to this act on and after January 1, 1998. The report shall be submitted to the Senate Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review, the Assembly Committee on Budget, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee on or before April 1, 1998.

SEC. 68. Section 58.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 186.9 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill 195. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 186.9 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after Assembly Bill 195, in which case Section 58 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 69. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

On or before January 1, 2000, the office of the Legislative Analyst shall evaluate the available reports.

68652. The Supreme Court shall offer to appoint counsel to represent all state prisoners subject to a capital sentence for purposes of state postconviction proceedings, and shall enter an order containing one of the following:

Members of the board shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses incidental to their duties. The first members of the board shall be appointed no later than February 1, 1998.

(d) The executive director shall meet the appointment qualifications of the State Public Defender as specified in Section 15400.

However, nothing in this section is intended to prohibit the hiring of counsel under a flat-fee arrangement.

(b) The Supreme Court may raise the guideline limitation on investigative and other expenses allowable for counsel to adequately investigate and present collateral claims to up to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) without an order to show cause.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that payments to appointed counsel be made within 60 days of submission of a billing.

SECTION 1. This act shall be known, and may be cited, as the Environmental Cleanup and Fee Reform Act of 1997.

SEC. 2. Section 25143 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143. (a) The department may grant a variance from one or more of the requirements of this chapter, or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, for the management of a hazardous waste if all of the following conditions apply:

(1) One of the following conditions applies:

(A) The hazardous waste is solely a non-RCRA hazardous waste or the hazardous waste or its management is exempt from, or is not otherwise regulated pursuant to, the federal act.

(B) The requirement from which a variance is being granted is not a requirement of the federal act, or the regulations adopted to implement the federal act.

(C) The department has issued, or is simultaneously issuing, a variance from the federal act for the hazardous waste management pursuant to subdivision (c).

(2) The department makes one of the following findings:

(A) The hazardous waste, the amount of the hazardous waste, or the hazardous waste management activity or management unit is insignificant or unimportant as a potential hazard to human health and safety or to the environment, when managed in accordance with the conditions, limitations, and other requirements specified in the variance.

(B) The requirements, from which a variance is being granted, are insignificant or unimportant in preventing or minimizing a potential hazard to human health and safety or the environment.

(C) The handling, processing, or disposal of the hazardous waste, or the hazardous waste management activity, is regulated by another governmental agency in a manner that ensures it will not pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health and safety, and the environment.

(D) A requirement imposed by another public agency provides protection of human health and safety or the environment equivalent to the protection provided by the requirement from which the variance is being granted.

(3) The variance is granted in accordance with this section.

(b) (1) The department may grant a variance upon receipt of a variance application for a site or sites owned or operated by an individual or business concern. The individual or business concern submitting the application for a variance shall submit to the department sufficient information to enable the department to determine if all of the conditions required by subdivision (a) are satisfied for all situations within the scope of the requested variance.

(2) The department may also grant a variance, on its own initiative, to one or more individuals or business concerns. If the variance is granted to more than one individual or business concern, the department, in granting the variance pursuant to this paragraph, shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(A) The department shall make all of the following findings, in addition to the findings required pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a):

(i) That the variance is necessary to address a temporary situation, or that the variance is needed to address an ongoing situation pending the adoption of regulations by the department.

(ii) That the variance will not create a substantive competitive disadvantage for a member or members of a specific class of facilities. This finding shall be based upon information available to the department at the time that the variance is granted.

(iii) That there are no reasonably foreseeable site-specific physical or operating conditions that could potentially impact the finding made by the department pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). This finding shall be supported by substantial evidence in the record as a whole, and shall be based upon both of the following:

(I) The types of hazardous waste streams, the estimated amounts of hazardous waste, and the locations that are affected by the variance. The estimate of the amounts of hazardous waste that are affected by the variance shall be based upon information reasonably available to the department.

(II) Due inquiry, with respect to the hazardous waste streams and management activities affected by the variance, regarding the potential for mismanagement, enforcement and site remediation experience, and proximity to sensitive receptors.

(B) The variance shall not be granted for a period of more than one year. A variance granted pursuant to this paragraph may be renewed for one additional one-year period, if the department makes a finding that the variance has not resulted in harm to human health or safety or to the environment and that there has been substantial compliance with the conditions contained in the variance.

(C) The department shall issue a public notice at least 30 days prior to granting the variance to allow an opportunity for public comment. The public notice shall be issued in the California Regulatory Register, to the department's regulatory mailing list, and to all potentially affected hazardous waste facilities and generators known to the department. The department shall, upon request, hold a public meeting prior to granting the variance. In granting the variance and in making the findings required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and subparagraph (A), the department shall consider all public comments received.

(D) The department shall not grant a variance pursuant to this paragraph from the definition of, or classification as, a hazardous waste, or from requirements pertaining to the investigation or remediation of releases of hazardous waste or constituents.

(E) The authority of the department to grant or renew variances pursuant to this paragraph shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends that date. This subparagraph shall not be construed to invalidate any variance granted pursuant to this paragraph prior to the expiration of the department's authority.

(c) (1) In addition to the variance authorized pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), the department, after making one of the findings specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), may also grant a variance from the requirements of the federal act in accordance with the provisions of Sections 260.30, 260.31, 260.32, and 260.33 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor federal regulations, regarding the issuance of variances from classification of a material as a solid waste or variances classifying enclosed devices using controlled flame combustion as boilers.

(2) This subdivision shall take effect on the date that the department obtains authorization from the Environmental Protection Agency to implement those provisions of the federal act that are identified in paragraph (1).

(d) Each variance issued pursuant to this section shall be issued on a form prescribed by the department and shall, as applicable, include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Information identifying the individuals or business concerns to which the variance applies. This identification shall be by name, location of the site or sites, type of hazardous waste generated or managed, or type of hazardous waste management activity, as applicable.

(2) As applicable, a description of the physical characteristics and chemical composition of the hazardous waste or the specifications of the hazardous waste management activity or unit to which the variance applies.

(3) The time period during which the variance is effective.

(4) A specification of the requirements of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter from which the variance is granted.

(5) A specification of the conditions, limitations, or other requirements to which the variance is subject.

(e) (1) Variances issued pursuant to this section are subject to review at the discretion of the department and may be revoked or modified at any time.

(2) The department shall revoke or modify a variance if the department finds any of the following:

(A) The conditions required by this section are no longer satisfied.

(B) The holder of the variance is in violation of one or more of the conditions, limitations, or other requirements of the variance, and, as a result of the violation, the conditions required by this section are no longer satisfied.

(C) If the variance was granted because of the finding specified in subparagraph (C) or (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the holder of the variance is in violation of one or more of the regulatory requirements of another governmental agency to which the holder is subject and the violation invalidates that finding.

(f) Within 30 days from the date of granting a variance, the department shall issue a public notice on the California Regulatory Register.

SEC. 2.5. Section 25143 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143. (a) The department may grant a variance from one or more of the requirements of this chapter, or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, for the management of a hazardous waste if all of the following conditions apply:

(B) The variance shall not be granted for a period of more than one year. A variance granted pursuant to this paragraph may be renewed for one additional one-year period, if the department makes a finding that the variance has not resulted in harm to human health or safety or to the environment and that there has been substantial compliance with the conditions contained in the variance.

(C) The department shall issue a public notice at least 30 days prior to granting the variance to allow an opportunity for public comment. The public notice shall be issued in the California Regulatory Register, to the department's regulatory mailing list, and to all potentially affected hazardous waste facilities and generators known to the department. (E) The department may grant or renew variances pursuant to this paragraph only until January 1, 2002, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends that date. This subparagraph shall not be construed to invalidate any variance granted pursuant to this paragraph prior to the expiration of the department's authority.

(c) (1) In addition to the variance authorized pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), the department, after making one of the findings specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), may also grant a variance from the requirements of the federal act in accordance with the provisions of Sections 260.30, 260.31, 260.32, and 260.33 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor federal regulations, regarding the issuance of variances from classification of a material as a solid waste or variances classifying enclosed devices using controlled flame combustion as boilers.

(c) For purposes of this section, "dispose" and "disposal" include "disposal," as defined in Section 25113, including, but not limited to, "land treatment," as defined in subdivision (n) of Section 25205.1.

(d) Each operator of an authorized hazardous waste facility, at which hazardous wastes are disposed, shall collect a fee from any person submitting hazardous waste for disposal and shall transmit the fees to the State Board of Equalization for the disposal of those wastes. The operator shall be considered the taxpayer for purposes of Section 43151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. (2) In the event of a dispute regarding the responsibility for a mischaracterization, misrepresentation, or other error, for which additional payment of disposal fees are due, the State Board of Equalization shall assign responsibility for payment of the fee to that person, or those persons, it determines responsible for the mischaracterization, misrepresentation, or other error, provided that the person, or persons, has the right to a public hearing and comment, and the procedural and substantive rights of appeal pursuant to Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(3) Any generator, transporter, or owner or operator of a disposal facility shall report to the department and the State Board of Equalization any information regarding any such mischaracterization, misrepresentation, or error, which could affect the disposal fee, within 30 days of that information first becoming known to that person.

(g) The State Board of Equalization shall deposit the fees collected pursuant to this section in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, for expenditure by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

25174.6. (a) The fee provided in Section 25174.1 shall be calculated pursuant to the requirements of this section with regard to the manner in which the hazardous waste exists at the time of disposal in this state. (i) For waste that is a non-RCRA hazardous waste, a fee of four dollars ($4) per ton.

(ii) For waste that is no longer a hazardous waste, a fee of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per ton.

(2) For all other RCRA hazardous waste not subject to paragraph (1), the following fees shall be paid for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste, disposed of in this state:

(A) If the RCRA hazardous waste is disposed of in compliance with land disposal restriction treatment standards adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency in Part 268 (commencing with Section 268.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations at the time of disposal, a fee of thirty-two dollars ($32) shall be paid per ton.

(i) For waste that is a non-RCRA hazardous waste, a fee of twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) per ton.

(ii) For waste that is no longer a hazardous waste, a fee of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per ton.

wastes disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in this state, at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility per month, if the hazardous wastes are not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (5):

(A) For a hazardous waste that is a non-RCRA hazardous waste at the time of disposal, other than asbestos, that is generated in a remedial action, a removal action, or a corrective action taken pursuant to this chapter, Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10), or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), or generated in any other required or voluntary cleanup, removal, or remediation of a hazardous substance or non-RCRA hazardous waste, a fee of one dollar ($1) per ton.

(4) For each ton, or fraction thereof, for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in this state, at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, that results from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and the overburden from the mining of uranium ore, and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (5), a fee of ten dollars and fifty cents ($10.50) per ton.

(5) A fee of two hundred dollars ($200) per ton shall be paid for each ton, or fraction thereof, of the following types of hazardous wastes disposed of in this state:

(A) Hazardous waste that is extremely hazardous waste at the time of disposal.

(B) Hazardous waste that is a restricted hazardous waste listed in subdivision (b) of Section 25122.7 at the time of disposal.

(b) The amount of fees payable to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be calculated using the total wet weight, measured in tons or fractions thereof, of the hazardous waste in the form in which the hazardous waste exists at the time of disposal, or application to land using a land disposal method, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as that section read on January 1, 1998. However, the weight of any nonhazardous reagents or treatment additives added to the hazardous waste, after it has been submitted for disposal, for purposes of rendering the hazardous waste less hazardous, shall not be included in those calculations.

(B) Where the person who is responsible for the release is unable to pay for the cost of corrective action to address the release. For purposes of this subparagraph, the inability of a person to pay for the cost of corrective action shall be determined in accordance with the policies of the Environmental Protection Agency for the implementation of Section 9605 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(C) Where the person responsible for the release is unwilling to perform corrective action to address the release. For purposes of this subparagraph, the unwillingness of a person to take corrective action shall be determined in accordance with the policies of the Environmental Protection Agency for the implementation of Section 9605 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(D) Where the release is part of a regional or multisite groundwater contamination problem that cannot, in its entirety, be addressed using the legal remedies available pursuant to this chapter and for which other releases that are part of the regional or multisite groundwater contamination problem are being addressed using the legal remedies available pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300).

(E) Where an order for corrective action has already been issued against the person responsible for the release, or the department and the person responsible for the release have, prior to January 1, 1996, entered into an agreement to address the required cleanup of the release pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300).

(F) Where the hazardous waste facility is owned or operated by the federal government.

(2) The authority granted under this section to a unified program agency is limited to the issuance of orders to correct releases from, and violations of the requirements of this chapter listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 25404 occurring at, a unified program facility within the jurisdiction of the CUPA, and is subject to the provisions of Section 25404.1.

(A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) and Section 25187.7, within the jurisdiction of a CUPA, the unified program agencies shall be the only local agencies authorized to issue orders under this section to correct releases from, and violations of the requirements of this chapter listed to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 25404 occurring at, a unified program facility.

(B) The CUPA shall annually submit a summary report to the department on the status of orders issued by the unified program agencies under this section and Section 25187.1.

(3) An order issued pursuant to this section shall include a requirement that the person take corrective action with respect to hazardous waste, including the cleanup of the hazardous waste, abatement of the effects thereof, and any other necessary remedial action. An order issued pursuant to this section that requires corrective action at a hazardous waste facility shall require that corrective action be taken beyond the facility boundary, where necessary to protect human health or the environment. The order shall incorporate, as a condition of the order, any applicable waste discharge requirements issued by the State Water Resources Control Board or a California regional water quality control board, and shall be consistent with all applicable water quality control plans adopted pursuant to Section 13170 of the Water Code and Article 3 (commencing with Section 13240) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code and state policies for water quality control adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Water Code existing at the time of the issuance of the order, to the extent that the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer determines that those plans and policies are not less stringent than this chapter and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer also may include any more stringent requirement that the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer determines is necessary or appropriate to protect water quality. Persons who are subject to an order pursuant to this section include present and prior owners, lessees, or operators of the property where the hazardous waste is located, present or past generators, storers, treaters, transporters, disposers, and handlers of hazardous waste, and persons who arrange, or have arranged, by contract or other agreement, to store, treat, transport, dispose of, or otherwise handle hazardous waste.

(4) In an order proposing a penalty pursuant to this section, the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer shall take into consideration the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation, the violator's past and present efforts to prevent, abate, or clean up conditions posing a threat to the public health or safety or the environment, the violator's ability to pay the proposed civil penalty, and the prophylactic effect that imposition of the proposed penalty would have on both the violator and the regulated community as a whole.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), "hazardous waste facility" includes the entire site that is under the control of an owner or operator engaged in the management of hazardous waste.

(c) Any order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be served by personal service or certified mail and shall inform the person so served of the right to a hearing.

(d) (1) Any person served with an order pursuant to subdivision (c) who has been unable to resolve any violation or deficiency on an informal basis with the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer may, within 15 days after service of the order, request a hearing by filing with the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer a notice of defense. The notice shall be filed with the office that issued the order. A notice of defense shall be deemed filed within the 15-day period provided by this subdivision if it is postmarked within that 15-day period. If no notice of defense is filed within the time limits provided by this subdivision, the order shall become final.

(2) If a person served with an order pursuant to subdivision (c) chooses to resolve the content, terms, or conditions of the order directly with the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer and does not file an administrative or judicial appeal, the person may request, and the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer shall prepare, a written statement, that the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer shall amend into the order, that explains the violation and the penalties applied, including the nature, extent, and gravity of the violations, and that includes a brief description of any mitigating circumstances and any explanations by the respondent. Any amendment to include the written statement prepared pursuant to this subdivision does not constitute a new order and does not create new appeal rights.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (f), any hearing requested under subdivision (d) shall be conducted within 90 days after receipt of the notice of defense by an administrative law judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings of the Department of General Services in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer shall have all the authority granted to an agency by those provisions.

(f) Any provision of an order issued under subdivision (a), except the imposition of an administrative penalty, shall take effect upon issuance by the department or unified program agency if the department or unified program agency finds that the violation or violations of law associated with that provision may pose an imminent and substantial endangerment to the public health or safety or the environment, and a request for a hearing shall not stay the effect of that provision of the order pending a decision by the department under subdivision (e). However, in the event that the department or unified program agency determines that any or all provisions of the order are so related that the public health or safety or the environment can be protected only by immediate compliance with the order as a whole, then the order as a whole, except the imposition of an administrative penalty, shall take effect upon issuance by the department or unified program agency. A request for a hearing shall not stay the effect of the order as a whole pending a decision by the hearing officer under subdivision (e). Any order issued after a hearing requested under subdivision (d) shall take effect upon issuance by the department or unified program agency.

(g) A decision issued pursuant to this section may be reviewed by the court pursuant to Section 11523 of the Government Code. In all proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall uphold the decision of the department, authorized unified program agency, authorized local health officer, or authorized local public officer if the decision is based upon substantial evidence in the whole record. The filing of a petition for writ of mandate shall not stay any corrective action required pursuant to this chapter or the accrual of any penalties assessed pursuant to this chapter. This subdivision does not prohibit the court from granting any appropriate relief within its jurisdiction.

(h) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (i) and (j), all administrative penalties collected under this section shall be placed in a separate subaccount in the Toxic Substances Control Account and shall be available only for transfer to the Site Remediation Account or the Expedited Site Remediation Trust Fund and for expenditure by the department upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(i) Fifty percent of the penalties collected from actions brought by unified program agencies, local health officers or designated local public officers pursuant to this section shall be paid to the city or county whose unified program agency, local health officer, or designated local public officer imposed the penalty, and shall be deposited into a special account that may be expended to fund the activities of the unified program agency, local health officer, or designated local public officer in enforcing this chapter pursuant to Section 25180, after the director determines that the local agency enforcement of this section is fair and reasonable.

(j) Fifty percent of the penalties collected from actions brought by unified program agencies, local health officers, or designated local public officers pursuant to this section shall be paid to the department and deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account for expenditure by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, in connection with activities of unified program agencies, local health officers, or designated local public officers.

SEC. 14.5. Section 25187.9 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 25192 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25192. (a) All civil and criminal penalties collected pursuant to this chapter or Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 25249.5) shall be apportioned in the following manner:

(1) Fifty percent shall be deposited in the Hazardous Substances Account in the General Fund.

(2) Twenty-five percent shall be paid to the office of the city attorney, city prosecutor, district attorney, or Attorney General, whichever office brought the action, or in the case of an action brought by a person under subdivision (d) of Section 25249.7 to that person.

(3) Twenty-five percent shall be paid to the department and used to fund the activity of the CUPA, the local health officer, or other local public officer or agency authorized to enforce the provisions of this chapter pursuant to Section 25180, whichever entity investigated the matter that led to the bringing of the action. If investigation by the local police department or sheriff's office or California Highway Patrol led to the bringing of the action, the CUPA, the local health officer, or the authorized officer or agency, shall pay a total of 40 percent of its portion under this subdivision to that investigating agency or agencies to be used for the same purpose. If more than one agency is eligible for payment under this paragraph, division of payment among the eligible agencies shall be in the discretion of the CUPA, the local health officer, or the authorized officer or agency.

(b) If a reward is paid to a person pursuant to Section 25191.7, the amount of the reward shall be deducted from the amount of the civil penalty before the amount is apportioned pursuant to subdivision (a).

(G) The surface impoundment is used to contain non-RCRA hazardous waste that meets the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

(b) The department shall adopt regulations specifying standardized hazardous waste facilities permit application forms that may be completed by a non-RCRA Series A, B, or C treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility, in lieu of other hazardous waste facilities permit application procedures set forth in regulations. The department shall not issue permits under this section to specific classes of facilities unless the department finds that doing so will not create a competitive disadvantage to a member or members of that class which were in compliance with the permitting requirements which were in effect on September 1, 1992.

(c) The regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include all of the following:

(1) Require that the standardized permit notification be submitted to the department on or before October 1, 1993, for facilities existing on or before September 1, 1992, except for facilities specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (g). The standardized permit notification shall include, at a minimum, the information required for a Part A application as described in the regulations adopted by the department.

(2) Require that the standardized permit application be submitted to the department within six months of the submittal of the standardized permit notification. The standardized permit application shall require, at a minimum, that the following information be submitted to the department for review prior to the final permit determination:

(A) A description of the treatment and storage activities to be covered by the permit, including the type and volumes of waste, the treatment process, equipment description, and design capacity.

(B) A copy of the closure plan as required by paragraph (13) of subdivision (b) of Section 66270.14 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(G) Documentation of compliance, if applicable, with the requirements of Article 8.7 (commencing with Section 25199).

(3) Require that a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit comply with the liability assurance requirements in Section 25200.1.

(4) Specify which of the remaining elements of the permit application as described in subdivision (b) of Section 66270.14 of the California Code of Regulations shall be the subject of a certification of compliance by the applicant.

(5) Establish a procedure for imposing an administrative penalty pursuant to Section 25187, in addition to any other penalties provided by this chapter, upon an owner or operator of a treatment or storage facility that is required to obtain a hazardous waste facilities permit and that meets the criteria for a Series A, B, or C permit listed in subdivision (a), who does not submit a standardized permit notification to the department on or before the submittal deadline specified in paragraph (1) or the submittal deadline specified in paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (g), whichever date is applicable, and who continues to operate the facility without obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization from the department after the applicable deadline for submitting the notification to the department. In determining the amount of the administrative penalty to be assessed, the regulations shall require the amount to be based upon the economic benefit gained by that owner or operator as a result of failing to comply with this section.

(6) Require that a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit comply, at a minimum, with the interim status facility operating requirements specified in the regulations adopted by the department, except that the regulations adopted pursuant to this section may specify financial assurance amounts necessary to adequately respond to damage claims at levels that are less than those required for interim status facilities if the department determines that lower financial assurance levels are appropriate.

(d) (1) Any regulations adopted pursuant to this section may be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(2) On and before January 1, 1995, the adoption of the regulations pursuant to paragraph (1) is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare.

(e) The department may not grant a permit under this section unless the department has determined the adequacy of the material submitted with the application and has conducted an inspection of the facility and determined all of the following:

(1) The treatment process is an effective method of treating the waste, as described in the permit application.

(2) The corrective action plan is appropriate for the facility.

(3) The financial assurance is sufficient for the facility.

(f) (1) Interim status shall not be granted to a facility that does not submit a standardized permit notification on or before October 1, 1993, unless the facility is subject to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (g).

(2) Interim status shall be revoked if the permit application is not submitted within six months of the permit notification.

(3) Interim status granted to any facility pursuant to this section and Sections 25200.5 and 25200.9 shall terminate upon a final permit determination or January 1, 1998, whichever date is earlier. This paragraph shall apply retroactively to facilities for which a final permit determination is made on or after September 30, 1995.

(4) A treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility operating pursuant to interim status which applies for a permit pursuant to this section shall pay fees to the department in an amount equal to the fees established by subdivision (e) of Section 25205.4 for the same size and type of facility.

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), a facility treating used oil or solvents, or which engages in incineration, thermal destruction, or any land disposal activity, is not eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this section.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), an offsite facility treating solvents is eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The facility exclusively treats solvent wastes, and is not required to obtain a permit pursuant to the federal act.

(ii) The solvent wastes that the facility treats are only the types of solvents generated from dry cleaning operations.

(iii) Ninety percent or more of the solvents that the facility receives are from dry cleaning operations.

(iv) Ninety percent or more of the solvents that the facility receives are recycled and sold by the facility, excluding recycling for energy recovery, provided that the facility does not produce more than 15,000 gallons per month of recycled solvents.

(B) A facility that is eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this paragraph is also eligible for the fee exemption provided in subdivision (d) of Section 25205.12 for any year or reporting period prior to January 1, 1995, if the owner or operator complies with the notification and application requirements of this section on or before March 1, 1995.

(C) A facility treating solvents pursuant to this paragraph shall clearly label all recycled solvents as recycled prior to subsequent sale or distribution.

(D) Notwithstanding that a facility eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this paragraph meets the eligibility requirements for a Series C standardized permit specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), the facility shall obtain and meet the requirements for a Series B standardized permit specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(E) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, for purposes of this paragraph, if the recycled material is to be used for dry cleaning, "recycled" means the removal of water and inhibitors from waste solvent and the production of dry cleaning solvent with an appropriate inhibitor for dry cleaning use. The removal of inhibitors is not required if all of the solvents received by the facility that are recycled for dry cleaning use are from dry cleaners.

(3) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), an owner or operator with a surface impoundment used only to contain non-RCRA wastes generated onsite, that holds those wastes for not more than one 30-day period in any calendar year, and that meets the criteria specified in paragraphs (i) to (iii), inclusive, may submit a Series C standardized permit application to the department. A surface impoundment is eligible for operation under the Series C standardized permit tier if all of the following requirements are met:

(i) The waste and any residual materials are removed from the surface impoundment within 30 days of the date the waste was first placed into the surface impoundment.

(ii) The owner or operator has, and is in compliance with, current waste discharge requirements issued by the appropriate California regional water quality control board for the surface impoundment.

(iii) The owner or operator complies with all applicable groundwater monitoring requirements of the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(B) A facility that is eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this paragraph is also eligible for the fee exemption provided in subdivision (d) of Section 25205.12 for any year or reporting period prior to January 1, 1996, if the owner or operator complies with the notification and application requirements of this section on or before March 1, 1996.

(h) Facilities operating pursuant to this section shall comply with Article 4 (commencing with Section 66270.40) of Chapter 20 of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(i) (1) The department shall require an owner or operator applying for a standardized permit to complete and file a phase I environmental assessment with the application. However, if a RCRA facility assessment has been performed by the department, the assessment shall be deemed to satisfy the requirement of this subdivision to complete and file a phase I environmental assessment, and the facility shall not be required to submit a phase I environmental assessment with its application.

(2) (A) For purposes of this subdivision, the phase I environmental assessment shall include a preliminary site assessment, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 25200.14, except that the phase I environmental assessment shall also include a certification, signed, except as provided in subparagraph (B), by the owner, and also by the operator if the operator is not the owner, of the facility and an independent professional engineer, geologist, or environmental assessor registered in the state.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), the certification for a permanent household waste collection facility may be signed by any professional engineer, geologist, or environmental assessor registered in the state, including, but not limited to, such a person employed by the governmental entity, but if the facility owner is not a governmental entity, the engineer, geologist, or assessor signing the certification shall not be employed by, or be an agent of, the facility owner.

(3) The certification specified in paragraph (2) shall state whether evidence of a release of hazardous waste or hazardous constituents has been found.

(4) If evidence of a release has been found, the facility shall complete a detailed site assessment to determine the nature and extent of any contamination resulting from the release and shall submit a corrective action plan to the department, within one year of submittal of the standardized permit application.

(j) The department shall establish an inspection program to identify, inspect, and bring into compliance any treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility which is eligible for, and is required to obtain, a standardized hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to this section, and which is operating without a permit or other grant of authorization from the department for that treatment or storage activity.

(k) A treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility authorized to operate pursuant to a hazardous waste facilities permit issued pursuant to Section 25200, which meets the criteria listed in subdivision (a) for a standardized permit, may operate pursuant to a Series A, B, or C standardized permit by completing the appropriate permit modification procedure specified in the regulations for such a modification.

SEC. 17. Section 25201.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201.9. (a) Upon the written request of any person, the department may enter into an agreement with that person pursuant to which the department will perform consultative services for the purpose of providing assistance to the person, or any facility owned or operated by the person, in complying with this chapter, Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), and any regulations adopted pursuant to those provisions. The agreement shall require the person to reimburse the department for its costs of performing the consultative services pursuant to Article 9.2 (commencing with Section 25206.1). The agreement may provide for some or all of the reimbursement to be made in advance of the performance of the consultative services.

(b) The consultative services performed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be over and above the routine functions of the department, and may include, but need not be limited to, onsite inspections, regulation and compliance training, and technical consultation.

(c) Any reimbursement received for assistance in complying with this chapter pursuant to this section shall be placed in the Hazardous Waste Control Account for disbursement in accordance with Section 25174. Any reimbursement received for assistance in complying with Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) shall be deposited in the Toxic Substances Control Account for expenditure in accordance with Section 25173.6.

(d) The consultative services shall be provided subject to available staff and resources as determined by the department, and may include, but need not be limited to, onsite inspections, regulation and compliance training, and technical consultation.

(e) In scheduling limited onsite inspections, priority shall be given to businesses with fewer than 50 employees.

(f) (1) The staff of the department providing consultation pursuant to this section shall not initiate an administrative or civil enforcement action, except as specified in subdivision (g), for violations identified during a limited onsite inspection conducted pursuant to an agreement at a facility which does not require a permit pursuant to the federal act.

(2) The staff of the department shall require the owner or operator to correct any identified deficiencies and violations in accordance with a schedule for compliance or correction issued by the department.

(g) If class I violations, as defined in regulations adopted by the department, are identified during a limited onsite inspection, or an owner or operator refuses or fails to correct any deficiencies or violations within the timeframe specified in the schedule for compliance or correction issued by the department pursuant to subdivision (f), the department may undertake any further inspection, investigation, or enforcement action authorized by law.

(h) The failure of the department to discover any particular deficiencies or violations during a limited onsite inspection shall not preclude the department, or any other agency, from undertaking a subsequent enforcement action to address any deficiencies or violations should they be discovered at a later time.

(i) Nothing in this section is intended to limit the authority of the department to refer criminal violations to the Attorney General, a district attorney, a county counsel, or a city attorney.

(j) Other than as expressly provided in this section, nothing in this section is intended to limit or restrict the authority of the department under any other provision of this division.

(k) This section shall become operative only if the department adopts regulations defining “class I violations.”

(1) The requirement for a generator to submit a notification to the department under Sections 25144.6, 25200.3, and 25201.5 and the regulations adopted by the department pertaining to a permit-by-rule.

(2) The requirement to pay a fee pursuant to Section 25201.14 or 25205.14.

(b) To be eligible for an exemption pursuant to this section, the generator shall meet all of the following requirements:

(A) The pretreatment program of the publicly owned treatment works that regulates the generator.

(B) An inspection program that meets the requirements of Section 25201.4 and that inspects the generator for compliance with the requirements of this section.

(2) The generator meets all other requirements of this chapter and the department’s regulations pertaining to permit-by-rule, conditional authorization, or conditional exemption, whichever is applicable.

(3) The generator's activity or unit that is eligible for operation under a permit-by-rule or a grant of conditional authorization or conditional exemption is within the scope of the hazardous waste element of the unified program, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 25404.

(7) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 20 times the base rate.

(d) The base rate established pursuant to subdivision (b) was the base rate for the 1997 calendar year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, during the prior fiscal year, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the Department of Industrial Relations or by a successor agency.

(e) The establishment of the annual operating fee pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(f) The following materials are not hazardous wastes for purposes of this section:

(1) Hazardous materials which are recycled, and used onsite, and are not transferred offsite.

(2) Aqueous waste treated in a treatment unit operating, or which subsequently operates, pursuant to a permit-by-rule, or pursuant to Section 25200.3 or 25201.5. However, hazardous waste generated by a treatment unit treating waste pursuant to a permit-by-rule, by a unit which subsequently obtains a permit-by-rule, or other authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3 or 25201.5 is hazardous waste for purposes of this section.

(g) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(h) (1) The amendment of this section made by Chapter 1125 of the Statutes of 1991 does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

(2) The amendment of subdivision (a) of this section made by Chapter 259 of the Statutes of 1996 does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

SEC. 21. Section 25205.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.6. (a) On or before November 1 of each year, the department shall provide the board with a schedule of two digit SIC codes, as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 25501, as established by the United States Department of Commerce, that consists of the types of corporations that use, generate, store, or conduct activities in this state related to hazardous materials, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 25501, including, but not limited to, hazardous waste.

(b) Each corporation of a type identified in the schedule adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall pay an annual fee, which shall be set at two hundred dollars ($200) for those corporations with 50 or more employees, but less than 75 employees, three hundred fifty dollars ($350) for those corporations with 75 or more employees, but less than 100 employees, seven hundred dollars ($700) for those corporations with 100 or more employees, but less than 250 employees, one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) dollars for those corporations with 250 or more employees, but less than 500 employees, two thousand eight hundred dollars ($2,800) for those corporations with 500 or more employees, but less than 1,000 employees, and nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) for those corporations with 1,000 or more employees.

(c) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid by each corporation that is identified in the schedule adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and shall be deposited in the Toxic Substances Control Account. The revenues shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25173.6.

(d) For purposes of this section, the number of employees employed by a corporation is the number of persons employed in this state for more than 500 hours during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the fee is due.

(e) The fee rates specified in subdivision (b) are the rates for the 1998 calendar year. Beginning with the 1999 calendar year, and for each year thereafter, the board shall adjust the rates annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living during the prior fiscal year, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the Department of Industrial Relations or by a successor agency.

(f) Pursuant to paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of Section 104 of the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9404(c)(3)), the state is obligated, as authorized by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 25351, to pay specified costs of removal and remedial actions carried out pursuant to the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601, et seq.). The fee rates specified in subdivision (b) are intended to provide sufficient revenues to fund the purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 25173.6, including appropriations in any given fiscal year of three million three hundred thousand dollars ($3,300,000) to fund the state's obligation pursuant to paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of Section 104 of the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9404(c)(3)). If the department determines that the state's obligation under paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of Section 104 of the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9404(c)(3)) will exceed three million three hundred thousand dollars ($3,300,000) in any fiscal year, the department shall report that determination to the Legislature in the Governor's Budget. If, as part of the Budget Act deliberations, the Legislature concurs with the department's determination, the Legislature shall specify in the annual Budget Act those pro rata changes to the fee rates specified in subdivision (b) that will increase revenues in the next calendar year as necessary to fund the state's increased obligations. However, the Legislature shall not specify fee rates in the annual Budget Act that increase revenues in an amount greater than eight million two hundred thousand dollars ($8,200,000) above the revenues provided by the fee rates specified in subdivision (b). Any changes in the fee rates approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act pursuant to this subdivision shall have effect only on the fee payment that is due and payable by the end of February in the fiscal year for which that annual Budget Act is enacted.

(g) This section does not apply to nonprofit corporations primarily engaged in the provision of residential social and personal care for children, the aged, and special categories of persons with some limits on their ability for self-care, as described in SIC Code 8361 of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 Edition.

(3) This subdivision does not apply to any application or request submitted to the department prior to July 1, 1998. Any person who submitted such an application or request shall pay the applicable fee, if not already paid, for the application or request as required by this chapter as it read prior to January 1, 1998, unless the department and the applicant or requester mutually agree to enter into a reimbursement agreement in lieu of any unpaid portion of the required fee.

(b) The department shall assess a fee equal to the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action program described in the application for a standardized permit pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 25201.6, and in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action work undertaken at the facility pursuant to that corrective action program.

(c) Any reimbursements received pursuant to this section shall be placed in the Hazardous Waste Control Account for appropriation in accordance with Section 25174.

(d) (1) In lieu of entering into a reimbursement agreement with the department pursuant to subdivision (a), any person who applies for a new permit, a permit for postclosure, a renewal of an existing permit, or a class 2 or class 3 permit modification may instead elect to pay a fee as follows:

(A) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a land disposal facility shall pay one hundred four thousand one hundred eighty-seven dollars ($104,187) for a small facility, two hundred twenty-two thousand one hundred eighty-three dollars ($222,183) for a medium facility, and three hundred eighty-one thousand six hundred two dollars ($381,602) for a large facility.

(D) A person submitting an application for a standardized permit for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility, as specified in Section 25201.6, shall pay thirty-two thousand fifty-two dollars ($32,052) for a Series A standardized permit, twenty thousand eleven dollars ($20,011) for a Series B standardized permit, and five thousand three hundred thirty-two dollars ($5,332) for a Series C standardized permit. The board shall assess the fees specified in this subparagraph, in accordance with paragraph (2), based upon the classifications specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25201.6 at the facility pursuant to that corrective action program.

(E) (i) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a transportable treatment unit shall pay sixteen thousand three hundred twenty dollars ($16,320) for a small unit, thirty-seven thousand six hundred fifty-seven dollars ($37,657) for a medium unit, and seventy-five thousand three hundred seventeen dollars ($75,317) for a large unit.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), the fee for any application for a new permit, permit modification, or permit renewal for a transportable treatment unit, that was pending before the department as of January 1, 1996, shall be determined according to the type of permit authorizing operation of that unit, as provided by subdivision (d) of Section 25200.2 or the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25200.2. Any standardized permit issued to the operator of a transportable treatment unit after January 1, 1996, that succeeds a full hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department prior to January 1, 1996, in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 25200.2 or the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25200.2, shall not be considered to be a new hazardous waste facilities permit.

(F) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a postclosure permit shall pay a fee of ten thousand forty dollars ($10,040) for a small facility, twenty-two thousand five hundred ninety-six dollars ($22,596) for a medium facility, and thirty-seven thousand six hundred fifty-seven dollars ($37,657) for a large facility.

(G) A person submitting an application for one or more class 2 permit modifications, including a class 2 modification to a standardized permit, shall pay a fee equal to 20 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 40 percent for each application, except that each person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications for a land disposal facility or an incinerator shall pay a fee equal to 15 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 30 percent for each application.

(H) A person submitting an application for one or more class 3 permit modifications, including a class 3 modification to a standardized permit, shall pay a fee equal to 40 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 80 percent for each application, except that a person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications for a land disposal facility or an incinerator shall pay a fee equal to 30 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 60 percent for each application.

(I) A person who submits an application for renewal of any existing permit shall pay an amount equal to the fee that would have been assessed had the person requested the same changes in a modification application, but not less than one-half the fee required for a new permit.

(J) A person who submits a single application for a facility that falls within more than one fee category shall pay only the higher fee.

(2) The fees required by paragraph (1) shall be assessed by the board upon application to the department. For a facility operating pursuant to a grant of interim status, the submittal of the application shall be the submittal of the Part B application in accordance with regulations adopted by the department. The fee shall be nonrefundable, even if the application is withdrawn or denied. The department shall provide the board with any information that is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account.

(3) The amounts stated in this subdivision are the base rates for the 1997 calendar year. Thereafter, the fees shall be adjusted annually by the board to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, during the prior fiscal year, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the Department of Industrial Relations, or a successor agency.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5), for purposes of this section, and notwithstanding Section 25205.1, any facility or unit is "small" if it manages 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, "medium" if it manages more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, and "large" if it manages 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year.

(5) For purposes of subparagraph (F) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision and paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 25205.4, any facility or unit is "small" if 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste remain after closure, "medium" if more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste remain after closure, and "large" if 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste remain after closure.

(e) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any variance granted pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 66263.40) of Chapter 13 of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(f) Subdivisions (a) and (d) do not apply to a permit modification resulting from a revision of a facility's or operator's closure plan if the facility is exempted from fees pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25205.3, or if the operator is subject to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 25205.2.

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4), subdivisions (a) and (d) do not apply to any permit or variance to operate a research, development, and demonstration facility, if the duration of the permit or variance is not longer than one year, unless the permit or variance is renewed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department.

(2) For purposes of this section, a "research, development, and demonstration facility" is a facility which proposes to utilize an innovative and experimental hazardous waste treatment technology or process for which regulations prescribing permit standards have not been adopted.

(3) The exemption provided by this subdivision does not apply to a facility which operates as a medium or large multiuser offsite commercial hazardous waste facility and which does not otherwise possess a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200.

(4) The fee exemption authorized pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be effective for a total duration of not more than two years.

(h) Subdivisions (a) and (d) do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any variance issued to a public agency to transport wastes for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste collection facility, or to transport waste from a household hazardous waste collection facility, which receives household hazardous waste or hazardous waste from conditionally exempted small quantity generators pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218).

(2) A permanent household hazardous waste collection facility.

(3) Any variance issued to a public agency to conduct a collection program for agricultural wastes.

(i) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), the department shall not assess any fees or seek any reimbursement for the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing any preliminary site assessment in conjunction with a hazardous waste facilities permit application.

(j) The changes made in this section by the act adding this subdivision do not require amendment of, or otherwise affect, any agreement entered into prior to July 1, 1998, pursuant to which any person has agreed to reimburse the department for the costs incurred by the department in processing applications, responding to requests, or otherwise providing other services pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 27. Section 25205.15 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.15. (a) Except for the first four manifests used in a calendar year by a business with less than 100 employees, and except as provided in subdivision (b), the department shall impose a fee of twelve dollars ($12) for each California Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifest form used on or before June 30, 1998, by any person in the following manner:

(1) The Governor may, in his or her discretion, order the department to refund three-quarters of the amount of manifest fees paid on manifests used during the 1991 calendar year.

(2) On and after the 1992 calendar year, for all manifests used on or before June 30, 1998, the manifest fee shall be assessed on all manifests used in the calendar year ending prior to the start of the fiscal year in which the billing occurs.

(b) The manifest fee for any manifest that is used on or before June 30, 1998, solely for wastes that are to be recycled is six dollars ($6) and the total amount of manifest fees paid in a calendar year for these manifests shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each hazardous waste identification number issued either by the department or the Environmental Protection Agency.

(c) On and after June 30, 1998, in addition to any fees to cover printing and distribution costs, the department shall impose a manifest fee of seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) for each California Hazardous Waste Manifest form used after June 30, 1998, by any person, in the following manner:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), on and after July 1, 1998, the department shall bill generators for each California Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifest form, manifest number, or electronic equivalent used after June 30, 1998. The billing frequency specified by the department may range from monthly to quarterly, with the payment by the generator required within 30 days from the date of receipt of the billing, and shall be determined based on consultation with the regulated community. In preparing the bills, the department shall distinguish between manifests used solely for recycled hazardous wastes and those used for nonrecycled hazardous wastes.

(2) On July 1, 2000, the department shall determine if revenues from the manifest fee as collected pursuant to paragraph (1) will equal or exceed one million seven hundred thousand dollars ($1,700,000) for the 1999–2000 fiscal year. If the department determines that the manifest fee revenues will not equal or exceed one million seven hundred thousand dollars ($1,700,000) for the 1999–2000 fiscal year, the manifest fee shall instead, commencing July 1, 2000, be collected at the time of original sale of the manifest or distribution of manifest numbers or electronic equivalent to users by the department for all manifests that will be used after June 30, 1998.

(3) The manifest fee shall not be collected on the use of California Hazardous Waste Recycling Manifests that are used solely for hazardous wastes that are recycled.

(4) On or before June 30, 1998, the department shall implement a system for the use of manifests that, after that date, distinguishes between recycling manifests used solely for hazardous wastes that are to be recycled and general manifests that may be used for transporting waste for any purpose.

(5) If a person uses a recycling manifest that is designated for recycled hazardous wastes for other types of hazardous waste, the person shall pay the manifest fee provided for in this subdivision and an additional error correction fee of twenty dollars ($20) per manifest, as required pursuant to Section 25160.5. However, the department shall provide the manifest user with a reasonable opportunity to notify the department of any incorrect use of the recycling manifest and provide the department with the appropriate manifest fee payment without additional fines, penalties, or payment of the error correction fee.

(6) The department may adopt regulations to implement and administer the manifest fee system imposed pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) (1) The department shall expend the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) from the manifest fees deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, to cover the one-time costs of implementing changes to the hazardous waste manifest tracking system during the 1998–99 fiscal year.

(2) On and after July 1, 1999, commencing with 1999–2000 fiscal year and annually thereafter, the department shall expend, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, not less than one million fifty thousand dollars ($1,050,000) from the manifest fees, deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, to establish a program to encourage hazardous waste generators to implement pollution prevention measures. The program shall be administered pursuant to administrative and expenditure criteria to be established by the Legislature.

(e) The manifest fees shall be deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account and be available for expenditure, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

SEC. 28. Section 25205.16 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.16. (a) (1) The department may impose an annual verification fee upon all generators, transporters, and facility operators with 50 or more employees that possess a valid identification number issued either by the department or by the Environmental Protection Agency. The fee charged shall be one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for each generator, transporter, and facility operator with 50 or more employees, but less than 75 employees; one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175) for each generator, transporter, and facility operator with 75 or more employees, but less than 100 employees; two hundred dollars ($200) for each generator, transporter, and facility operator with 100 or more employees, but less than 250 employees; two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) for each generator, transporter, and facility operator with 250 or more employees, but less than 500 employees; two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each generator, transporter, and facility operator with 500 or more employees. However, no generator, transporter, or facility operator shall be assessed fees pursuant to this section that exceed, in total, five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(2) The generator, transporter, or facility operator subject to the fee shall submit payment of the fee within 30 days from the date of receiving a notice of assessment from the department. The notice shall be sent once during each fiscal year to each holder of a valid identification number. The fee imposed by this section shall be deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account and be available for expenditure, upon appropriation by the Legislature. For purposes of this section, “employee” shall have the same meaning set forth in Section 25205.6.

(b) The department shall establish an identification number certification system to biennially verify the accuracy of information related to generators, transporters, and facilities authorized to treat, store, or dispose of hazardous waste. However, if the number of identification numbers issued since the previous certification exceeds 20 percent of the active identification numbers, the department may implement an annual certification. The system shall include only verification of all of the following information:

(1) The name, mailing address, facsimile number, fictitious business name, federal employer number, State Board of Equalization identification number, SIC code, and phone number of the firm or organization engaged in hazardous waste activities.

SEC. 29. Section 25205.18 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.18. (a) If a facility has a permit or an interim status document which sets forth the facility's allowable capacity for treatment or storage, the facility's size for purposes of the annual facility fee shall be based upon that capacity, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(b) If a facility's allowable capacity changes or is initially established as a result of a permit modification, or a submission of a certification pursuant to subdivision (d), the fee that is due for the reporting period in which the change occurs shall be the lower fee until December 31, 1994. After that date, the fee that is due for the reporting period in which a change occurs shall be the higher fee.

(d) A facility may reduce its allowable capacity below the amounts specified in subdivision (a) or (c) by submitting a certification signed by the owner or operator in which the owner or operator pledges that the facility will not handle hazardous waste at a capacity above the amount specified in the certification. In that case, the facility's size for purposes of the annual facility fee shall be based upon the capacity specified in the certification, until the certification is withdrawn. Exceeding the capacity limits specified in a certification that has not been withdrawn shall be a violation of the hazardous waste control law and may subject a facility or its operator to a penalty and corrective action as provided in this chapter, including, but not limited to, an augmentation pursuant to Section 25191.1.

(e) This section shall have no bearing on the imposition of the annual postclosure facility fee.

SEC. 31. Article 9.2 (commencing with Section 25206.1) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 9.2. Cost Reimbursement

25206.1. For purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meaning:

(a) "Direct costs" means the costs to the department of processing applications, responding to requests, or providing other services, for which the applicant or requester is required to reimburse the department pursuant to those provisions specified in Section 25206.2, that can be specifically attributed to a particular cost objective, including, but not limited to, sites, facilities, and activities.

(b) "Indirect costs" means the costs to the department of activity that is of a common or joint purpose benefiting more than one cost objective and not readily assignable to a single cost objective.

(c) "Pro rata" means the general administrative costs expended by central service agencies to provide centralized services to state agencies, as defined in the State Administrative Manual.

25206.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the department shall comply with this article when recovering costs for processing applications, responding to requests, or providing other services, for which the applicant or requester is required to reimburse the department for its costs pursuant to Sections 25149.3, 25179.7, 25200.1.5, 25201.9, 25205.7, 25222.1, 25233, and 25234. For purposes of this article and Sections 25149.3, 25179.7, 25200.1.5, 25201.9, 25205.7, 25222.1, 25233, and 25234, the department's costs include direct costs, indirect costs, and pro rata costs, as defined in Section 25206.1.

(b) For the purposes of recovering the department's costs pursuant to those provisions listed in subdivision (a), the department shall establish and implement policies and procedures that include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Within 14 days following receipt of an application or request for which charges are to be assessed, or a later date as may be mutually agreed upon, the department and the applicant or requester shall hold a project planning meeting. Within 30 days from the date of the planning meeting, or within 30 days from the date that a complete application or request is received by the department, whichever is later, or by a later date mutually agreed upon, the department shall provide the applicant or requester an estimate that includes all of the following information:

(A) A detailed description of the work to be performed or services to be provided.

(B) The estimated billing rates for all classes of employees expected to work on the project. The department may adjust its billing rates not more than once every six months. Any adjustment in billing rates or other charges, including, but not limited to, pro rata costs and indirect costs, shall operate prospectively.

(C) An estimate of all expected charges to be billed to the applicant or requester, to the extent that the department can project its time and costs in advance. The department may adjust this estimate subsequent to commencement of the project based on analysis of new information that supports the adjustment, including, but not limited to, such circumstances as a change in the scope of the original work, additional work that is needed to ensure protection of human health or safety or of the environment, or other circumstances that arise that require substantially more time and effort than was originally anticipated to complete the work. An adjustment may only be made after providing written notice and a detailed explanation of the change to the applicant or requester.

(2) The department shall adopt a billing system and procedures that include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Billing rate and indirect cost rate schedules by employee job classification.

(B) Standardized work task descriptions.

(C) Issuance of invoices at least quarterly, and to the extent practicable, within 60 days from the date of completion of work for which the charge is assessed.

(D) The inclusion of sufficient detail with each invoice so that the applicant or requester can relate the items on the invoice to the benefits received and to the estimate or charges provided pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1). Invoices shall be supplemented with statements of any changes in rates and a detailed justification for any such changes.

(E) Upon request and within a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 working days to the extent practicable, providing the applicant or requester with access to time records and other materials supporting the invoice.

(F) The review of invoices for accuracy and appropriateness by a member of the department staff who has direct knowledge of the work or service performed.

(G) The mailing of invoices to the contact person identified by the applicant or requester.

(H) The development of policies and procedures for resolving disputes regarding charges billed pursuant to this section. The department shall ensure that the party responsible for resolving a dispute is not also responsible for, or performing, the work for which the charges are assessed. A person disputing an invoice shall notify the department in writing of the dispute and the reasons for the dispute within 45 days from the date of the invoice.

(I) The development of a concise statement of its cost reimbursement policies and billing procedures, and making those policies and procedures, the dispute resolution policies and procedures, and other program guidance and policies readily available to any person requesting them.

(c) This article does not require amendment of, or otherwise affect, any agreement entered into prior to July 1, 1998, pursuant to which any person has agreed to reimburse the department for the costs incurred by the department in processing applications, responding to requests, or otherwise providing other services pursuant to those provisions listed in subdivision (a).

25206.3. The department shall take all of the following actions with regard to the tracking of indirect costs:

(a) Ensure that pro rata costs are allocated appropriately to all departmental activities, so that the department's program will only bear those pro rata costs in proportion to the benefits received by those persons subject to the reimbursement requirements specified in Section 25206.2.

(b) Routinely include operating expenses in the indirect costs and allocate those expenses using processes that ensure that the department's program only bears indirect costs in proportion to the benefits received by those persons subject to the reimbursement requirements specified in Section 25206.2.

(c) Exclude from indirect costs, the costs of grant development and administration, fee administration, contract development and administration, and public and governmental inquiries.

25206.4. The department shall establish rates for indirect costs that are specific to each program and shall review and update the indirect cost rates based upon increases or decreases in the amounts of grants received by the department, department reorganizations, and other relevant factors, but not less than once every six months, based upon the previous 12 months of expenditure data. The department shall apply the indirect cost rates prospectively and shall not make retroactive adjustments in those rates.

25209.7. (a) Every owner or operator of a land treatment unit subject to this article shall pay an annual fee to the department which shall be equivalent to 2 percent of the land disposal fee due under Section 25205.4. This fee shall be in addition to the annual hazardous waste facility fee and shall be due at the same time as the facility fee.

(b) The department may, by regulation, increase or decrease the amount of the fees specified in subdivision (a) if the department finds that the amounts charged do not reflect the cost of providing services under this article.

SEC. 34. Section 25221 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25221. (a) Any person as owner, lessor, or lessee who (1) knows, or has probable cause to believe, that a significant disposal of hazardous waste has occurred on, under, or into the land which he or she owns or leases or that the land is within 2,000 feet of a significant disposal of hazardous waste, and (2) intends to construct or allow the construction on that land of a building or structure to be used for a purpose which is described in subdivision (b) of Section 25232 within one year, shall apply to the department prior to construction for a determination as to whether the land should be designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property pursuant to Section 25229.

The addition of rooms or living space to an existing single-family dwelling or other minor repairs or improvements to residential property which do not change the use of the property or increase the population density does not constitute the construction of a building or structure for purposes of this subdivision.

(b) Any person who, as owner, lessor, or lessee, knows or has probable cause to believe that land which he or she owns or leases is a hazardous waste property or a border zone property, may apply to the department for a determination as to whether the land should be designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property pursuant to Section 25229.

(d) Subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) do not apply to any land on which a determination has previously been made pursuant to Section 25222.1 or 25229, unless either of the following has occurred since that determination:

(1) A significant new disposal of hazardous waste has occurred on, under, or into the land.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for any hazardous substance that is an illegal controlled substance, a precursor of a controlled substance, or a material intended to be used in the unlawful manufacture of controlled substances, upon notice that the hazardous substance requires a removal action, the department shall take removal action with respect to that hazardous substance. The department may expend funds appropriated from the Illegal Drug

Money deposited in the Hazardous Substance Clearing Account pursuant to this section are available to pay the principal of, and interest on, bonds sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385).

SEC. 46.5. Section 25395 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25395. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), this chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

(b) On January 1, 1999, the Department of Finance shall submit a report to the Secretary of State that states whether the principal of, and interest on, the bonds sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385) have been paid and the General Fund has been reimbursed for any and all amounts that were expended therefrom to pay the principal of, and interest on, those bonds. If the report states that the bonds have not been paid and the General Fund has not been reimbursed, then, notwithstanding subdivision (a), Article 1 (commencing with Section 25300), Article 2 (commencing with Section 25310), Article 3 (commencing with Section 25330), Article 4 (commencing with Section 25340), Article 6 (commencing with Section 25360), Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385), and this article, shall not be repealed and shall remain in effect until the date specified in subdivision (c).

(c) If the articles specified in subdivision (b) remain in effect after January 1, 1999, pursuant to subdivision (b), on the date when the principal of, and interest on, the bonds sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385) have been paid and the General Fund has been reimbursed for any and all amounts that were expended therefrom to pay the principal of, and interest on, those bonds, the Department of Finance shall submit a report to the Secretary of State containing that information. The articles specified in subdivision (b) shall be repealed on the date that the report is submitted.

SEC. 47. Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404.5. (a) (1) Each certified unified program agency shall institute a single fee system, which shall replace the fees levied pursuant to Sections 25201.14 and 25205.14, and which shall also replace any fees levied by a local agency pursuant to Sections 25143.10, 25287, 25513, and 25535.2, or any other fee levied by a local agency specifically to fund the implementation of the provisions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404. Notwithstanding Sections 25143.10, 25201.14, 25205.14, 25287, 25513, and 25535.2, a person who complies with the certified unified program agency's "single fee system" fee shall not be required to pay any fee levied pursuant to those sections.

(2) The governing body of the certified unified program agency shall establish the amount to be paid by each person regulated by the unified program under the single fee system at a level sufficient to pay the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the certified unified program agency and by any participating agency pursuant to the requirements of subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3.

(3) The fee system may also be designed to recover the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the certified unified program agency, or a participating agency pursuant to the requirements of subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3, in administering provisions other than those specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, if the implementation and enforcement of those provisions has been incorporated as part of the unified program by the certified unified program agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25404.2, and if the single fee system replaces any fees levied as of January 1, 1994, to fund the implementation of those additional provisions.

(4) The amount to be paid by a person regulated by the unified program may be adjusted to account for the differing costs of administering the unified program with respect to that person's regulated activities.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the single fee system instituted by each certified unified program agency shall include an assessment on each person regulated by the unified program of a surcharge, the amount of which shall be determined by the secretary annually, to cover the necessary and reasonable costs of the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, and the State Water Resources Control Board in carrying out their responsibilities under this chapter. The secretary may adjust the amount of the surcharge to be collected by different certified unified program agencies to reflect the different costs incurred by the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, and the State Water Resources Control Board in supervising the implementation of the unified program in different jurisdictions, and in supervising the implementation of the unified program in those jurisdictions for which the secretary has waived the assessment of the surcharge pursuant to subdivision (d). The certified unified program agency may itemize the amount of the surcharge on any bill, invoice, or return which the agency sends to a person regulated by the unified program. Each certified unified program agency shall transmit all surcharge revenues collected to the secretary on a quarterly basis. The surcharge shall be deposited in the Unified Program Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund and which may be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, by the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, and the State Water Resources Control Board for the purposes of implementing this chapter.

(c) Each certified unified program agency and the secretary shall, before the institution of the single fee system and the assessment of the surcharge, implement a fee accountability program designed to encourage more efficient and cost-effective operation of the program for which the single fee and surcharge are assessed. The fee accountability programs shall include those elements of the requirements of the plan adopted pursuant to Section 25206 which the secretary determines are appropriate.

(d) The secretary may waive the requirement for a county to assess a surcharge pursuant to subdivision (b), if both of the following conditions apply:

(1) The county meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The county submits an application to the secretary for certification on or before January 1, 1996, that incorporates all of the requirements of this chapter, and includes the county's request for a waiver of the surcharge, and contains documentation that demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the secretary, both of the following:

(i) That the assessment of the surcharge will impose a significant economic burden on most businesses within the county.

(ii) That the combined dollar amount of the surcharge and the single fee system to be assessed by the county pursuant to subdivision (a) exceeds the combined dollar amount of all existing fees that are replaced by the single fee system for most businesses within the county.

(B) The application for certification, including the information required by subparagraph (A), is determined by the secretary to be complete, on or before April 30, 1996. The secretary, for good cause, may grant an extension of that deadline of up to 90 days.

(C) The county is certified by the secretary on or before December 31, 1996.

(D) On or before January 1, 1994, the county completed the consolidation of the administration of the hazardous waste generator program, the hazardous materials release response plans and inventories program, and the underground storage tank program, referenced in paragraphs (1), (3), and (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 25404, into a single program within the county's jurisdiction.

(E) The county demonstrates that it will consolidate the administration of all programs specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, and that it will also consolidate the administration of at least one additional program which regulates hazardous waste, hazardous substances, or hazardous materials, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 25404.2, other than the programs specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, into a single program to be administered by a single agency in the county's jurisdiction at the time the county's certification by the secretary becomes effective.

(2) The secretary makes all of the following findings:

(A) The county meets all of the criteria specified in paragraph (1).

(B) The assessment of the surcharge would impose a significant economic burden on most businesses within the county.

(C) The combined dollar amount of the surcharge and the single fee system to be assessed by the county pursuant to subdivision (a) would exceed the combined dollar amount of all existing fees that are replaced by the single fee system for most businesses within the county.

(D) The waiver of the surcharge for those counties applying for and qualifying for a waiver, and the resulting increase in the surcharge for other counties, would not, when considered cumulatively, impose a significant economic burden on businesses in any other county which does not apply for, or does not meet the criteria for, a waiver of the surcharge.

(e) The secretary shall review all of the requests for a waiver of the surcharge made pursuant to subdivision (d) simultaneously, so as to adequately assess the cumulative impact of granting the requested waivers on businesses in those counties that have not applied, or do not qualify, for a waiver, and shall grant or deny all requests for a waiver of the surcharge within 30 days from the date that the secretary certifies all counties applying, and qualifying, for a waiver. If the secretary finds that the grant of a waiver of the surcharge for all counties applying and qualifying for the waiver will impose a significant economic burden on businesses in one or more other counties, the secretary shall take either of the following actions:

(1) Deny all of the applications for a waiver of the surcharge.

(2) Approve only a portion of the waiver requests for counties meeting the criteria set forth in subdivision (d), to the extent that the approved waivers, when taken as a whole, meet the condition specified in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d). In determining which of the counties' waiver requests to grant, the secretary shall consider all of the following factors:

(A) The relative degree to which the assessment of the surcharge will impose a significant economic burden on most businesses within each county applying and qualifying for a waiver.

(B) The relative degree to which the combined dollar amount of the surcharge and the single fee system to be assessed, pursuant to subdivision (a), by each county applying and qualifying for a waiver exceeds the combined dollar amount of all existing fees which are replaced by the single fee system for most businesses within the county.

(C) The relative extent to which each county applying and qualifying for a waiver has incorporated, or will incorporate, upon certification, additional programs pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25404.2, into the unified program within the county's jurisdiction.

(f) The secretary may, at any time, terminate a county's waiver of the surcharge granted pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (e) if the secretary determines that the criteria specified in subdivision (d) for the grant of a waiver are no longer met.

SEC. 47.5. Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404.5. (a) (1) Each certified unified program agency shall institute a single fee system, which shall replace the fees levied pursuant to Sections 25201.14 and 25205.14, except for transportable treatment units permitted under Section 25200.2, and which shall also replace any fees levied by a local agency pursuant to Sections 25143.10, 25287, 25513, and 25535.2, or any other fee levied by a local agency specifically to fund the implementation of the provisions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404. Notwithstanding Sections 25143.10, 25201.14, 25205.14, 25287, 25513, and 25535.2, a person who complies with the certified unified program agency's "single fee system" fee shall not be required to pay any fee levied pursuant to those sections, except for transportable treatment units permitted under Section 25200.2.

(2) The governing body of the certified unified program agency shall establish the amount to be paid by each person regulated by the unified program under the single fee system at a level sufficient to pay the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the certified unified program agency and by any participating agency pursuant to the requirements of subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3.

(3) The fee system may also be designed to recover the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the certified unified program agency, or a participating agency pursuant to the requirements of subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3, in administering provisions other than those specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, if the implementation and enforcement of those provisions has been incorporated as part of the unified program by the certified unified program agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25404.2, and if the single fee system replaces any fees levied as of January 1, 1994, to fund the implementation of those additional provisions.

(4) The amount to be paid by a person regulated by the unified program may be adjusted to account for the differing costs of administering the unified program with respect to that person's regulated activities.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the single fee system instituted by each certified unified program agency shall include an assessment on each person regulated by the unified program of a surcharge, the amount of which shall be determined by the secretary annually, to cover the necessary and reasonable costs of the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, and the State Water Resources Control Board in carrying out their responsibilities under this chapter. The secretary may adjust the amount of the surcharge to be collected by different certified unified program agencies to reflect the different costs incurred by the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, and the State Water Resources Control Board in supervising the implementation of the unified program in different jurisdictions, and in supervising the implementation of the unified program in those jurisdictions for which the secretary has waived the assessment of the surcharge pursuant to subdivision (d). The certified unified program agency may itemize the amount of the surcharge on any bill, invoice, or return that the agency sends to a person regulated by the unified program. Each certified unified program agency shall transmit all surcharge revenues collected to the secretary on a quarterly basis. The surcharge shall be deposited in the Unified Program Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund and which may be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, by the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, and the State Water Resources Control Board for the purposes of implementing this chapter.

(c) Each certified unified program agency and the secretary shall, before the institution of the single fee system and the assessment of the surcharge, implement a fee accountability program designed to encourage more efficient and cost-effective operation of the program for which the single fee and surcharge are assessed. The fee accountability programs shall include those elements of the requirements of the plan adopted pursuant to Section 25206 that the secretary determines are appropriate.

(d) The secretary may waive the requirement for a county to assess a surcharge pursuant to subdivision (b), if both of the following conditions apply:

(1) The county meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The county submits an application to the secretary for certification on or before January 1, 1996, that incorporates all of the requirements of this chapter, and includes the county's request for a waiver of the surcharge, and contains documentation that demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the secretary, both of the following:

(i) That the assessment of the surcharge will impose a significant economic burden on most businesses within the county.

(ii) That the combined dollar amount of the surcharge and the single fee system to be assessed by the county pursuant to subdivision (a) exceeds the combined dollar amount of all existing fees that are replaced by the single fee system for most businesses within the county.

(B) The application for certification, including the information required by subparagraph (A), is determined by the secretary to be complete, on or before April 30, 1996. The secretary, for good cause, may grant an extension of that deadline of up to 90 days.

(C) The county is certified by the secretary on or before December 31, 1996.

(D) On or before January 1, 1994, the county completed the consolidation of the administration of the hazardous waste generator program, the hazardous materials release response plans and inventories program, and the underground storage tank program, referenced in paragraphs (1), (3), and (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 25404, into a single program within the county's jurisdiction.

(E) The county demonstrates that it will consolidate the administration of all programs specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, and that it will also consolidate the administration of at least one additional program that regulates hazardous waste, hazardous substances, or hazardous materials, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 25404.2, other than the programs specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, into a single program to be administered by a single agency in the county's jurisdiction at the time that the county's certification by the secretary becomes effective.

(2) The secretary makes all of the following findings:

(A) The county meets all of the criteria specified in paragraph (1).

(B) The assessment of the surcharge would impose a significant economic burden on most businesses within the county.

(C) The combined dollar amount of the surcharge and the single fee system to be assessed by the county pursuant to subdivision (a) would exceed the combined dollar amount of all existing fees that are replaced by the single fee system for most businesses within the county.

(D) The waiver of the surcharge for those counties applying for and qualifying for a waiver, and the resulting increase in the surcharge for other counties, would not, when considered cumulatively, impose a significant economic burden on businesses in any other county that does not apply for, or does not meet the criteria for, a waiver of the surcharge.

(e) The secretary shall review all of the requests for a waiver of the surcharge made pursuant to subdivision (d) simultaneously, so as to adequately assess the cumulative impact of granting the requested waivers on businesses in those counties that have not applied, or do not qualify, for a waiver, and shall grant or deny all requests for a waiver of the surcharge within 30 days from the date that the secretary certifies all counties applying, and qualifying, for a waiver. If the secretary finds that the grant of a waiver of the surcharge for all counties applying and qualifying for the waiver will impose a significant economic burden on businesses in one or more other counties, the secretary shall take either of the following actions:

(1) Deny all of the applications for a waiver of the surcharge.

(2) Approve only a portion of the waiver requests for counties meeting the criteria set forth in subdivision (d), to the extent that the approved waivers, when taken as a whole, meet the condition specified in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d). In determining which of the counties' waiver requests to grant, the secretary shall consider all of the following factors:

(A) The relative degree to which the assessment of the surcharge will impose a significant economic burden on most businesses within each county applying and qualifying for a waiver.

(B) The relative degree to which the combined dollar amount of the surcharge and the single fee system to be assessed, pursuant to subdivision (a), by each county applying and qualifying for a waiver exceeds the combined dollar amount of all existing fees that are replaced by the single fee system for most businesses within the county.

(C) The relative extent to which each county applying and qualifying for a waiver has incorporated, or will incorporate, upon certification, additional programs pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25404.2, into the unified program within the county's jurisdiction.

(f) The secretary may, at any time, terminate a county's waiver of the surcharge granted pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (e) if the secretary determines that the criteria specified in subdivision (d) for the grant of a waiver are no longer met.

SEC. 48. Section 25416 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25416. (a) All studies and community information programs conducted pursuant to this section shall be done only if either subdivision (b) applies or if funds are available without restructuring the department's funding priorities. The department shall conduct these studies and information programs in the following manner:

(1) The department shall, except as provided in subdivision (b), and in conjunction with the local health officer, the State Department of Health Services, and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment, conduct or contract for epidemiological studies to identify and monitor health effects related to exposure to hazardous materials, as defined in Section 66084 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations. A study may be conducted in any area of the state identified by the department or the local health officer as a site of potential exposure to hazardous materials, including, but not limited to, any of the following areas:

(A) All communities located near hazardous waste disposal facilities.

(B) In all communities containing hazardous substance release sites listed pursuant to Section 25356 or listed pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.).

(C) In all areas around the location of major generators of hazardous waste.

(D) In all other areas identified by local health officers or the State Department of Health Services as possible locations of public exposure to hazardous materials.

(2) The department, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment, shall determine which epidemiological studies are to be conducted pursuant to this section based on the potential for public exposure to hazardous materials. Studies in areas near Class I hazardous waste disposal facilities, as defined in Section 2531 of Title 23 of the California Code of Regulations, shall be given the highest priority for funding. If a hearing is conducted pursuant to Section 25149 and the hearing officer determines that there is a significant potential for endangerment to the public as a result of the suspected or actual release of a hazardous material, the department shall give priority to conducting an epidemiological study for that facility.

(3) If a local health officer determines that a study should be conducted pursuant to this section because of a potential public exposure to hazardous materials, the local health officer may request that the department initiate or contract for a study pursuant to this section by demonstrating to the department that there is sufficient evidence that justifies the need for a study. The department shall respond to the local health officer's request within 90 days.

(4) A local health officer may contract with qualified persons or firms to produce the epidemiological studies specified in paragraph (1).

(5) The design and methodology of any study conducted pursuant to this section shall be reviewed and approved by the department, the State Department of Health Services, and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment prior to the initiation of the study.

(6) In any county in which hazardous waste disposal facilities are located and in all other counties in which the State Department of Health Services identifies significant actual or potential public exposure to hazardous materials, the department shall, in conjunction with the local health officer, conduct or contract for a community information program with respect to sites of potential exposure to hazardous materials identified under paragraph (1) to do all of the following:

(A) Organize and conduct educational programs for local physicians and other health professionals on the effects of exposure to hazardous materials and reporting requirements.

(B) Disseminate information to high risk populations on the health effects of exposure to hazardous materials.

(C) Conduct public forums on the health effects of exposure to hazardous substances and methods of limiting exposure.

(7) Paragraph (6) does not apply to hazardous substance release sites listed on the National Priorities List for which the Environmental Protection Agency has assumed lead responsibility for community relations.

(b) If a county is authorized to impose a license tax pursuant to Section 25149.5 for revenue purposes, the department may require the county to provide funding for carrying out epidemiological studies or the community information program concerning the hazardous waste facility subject to the license tax. The department shall provide the county with technical assistance to conduct an epidemiological study pursuant to this subdivision. The department may exempt a county from the requirements of this subdivision if the county demonstrates to the department that the revenue potential from the facility would not be adequate to conduct an epidemiological study or community information program. When considering a county request for an exemption, the department shall consider the regulatory costs and responsibilities of the county related to that facility.

(c) The department shall expend funds from the Toxic Substances Control Account, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to conduct studies and community information programs in counties containing a hazardous substance release site listed pursuant to Section 25356. The department shall expend funds from the Hazardous Waste Control Account, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to conduct all other studies and community information programs conducted pursuant to this section, except as provided in subdivision (b).

SEC. 49. Section 43053 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43053. The fees imposed pursuant to Sections 25205.2, 25205.5, 25205.7, and 25205.14 of the Health and Safety Code shall be administered and collected by the board in accordance with this part.

SEC. 50. Section 43054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43054. The fees imposed pursuant to Section 25205.6 of the Health and Safety Code shall be administered and collected by the board in accordance with this part.

SEC. 51. Section 43055 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 52. Section 43101 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43101. Every person, as defined in Section 25118 of the Health and Safety Code, who is subject to the fees specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25173.6 of the Health and Safety Code, subdivision (a) of Section 25174 of the Health and Safety Code, Section 105190 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 25205.14 of the Health and Safety Code shall register with the board on forms provided by the board.

SEC. 52.5. Section 43152.16 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

43152.16. (a) The board shall issue refunds, if directed to do so by the department, upon making the certification specified in subdivision (d), for some, or all, of the fees imposed pursuant to Sections 25205.5 and 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code, for hazardous waste generated in 1997.

(b) The board may issue a refund only to a generator who received a credit pursuant to Section 43152.7 or 43152.11 for fees paid for hazardous waste generated in 1996.

(c) The refund made to a generator pursuant to this section shall not exceed the generator's credit for hazardous waste generated in 1996, or exceed the generator's fee paid to a certified unified program agency in 1997, whichever amount is less.

(d) The board may issue refunds pursuant to this section only if the department certifies that funds for these refunds are available.

SEC. 53. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Section 25385.8 of the Health and Safety Code requires that five million dollars ($5,000,000) be transferred annually from the Hazardous Substance Account to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund to be held in reserve and provides that money deposited in the Hazardous Substance Clearing Account may be used only to pay the principal of, and interest on, the bonds issued and sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25285) of Chapter 6.8 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 25358.8 of the Health and Safety Code, Item 4260-016-826 of the Budget Act of 1991 (Chapter 118 of the Statutes of 1991) directed the Controller, upon approval of the Department of Finance, to transfer not less than twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) from the Superfund Bond Trust Fund to the General Fund to balance the budget for the 1991–92 fiscal year. In accordance with the Budget Act of 1991, the Controller transferred twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) from the Superfund Bond Trust Fund to the General Fund on June 2, 1992.

(3) The transfer of funds described in paragraph (2) will cause a shortfall in funds needed to repay the principal of, and interest on, the bonds issued and sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385) of Chapter 6.8 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code beginning with the 1998–99 fiscal year. Because of the impending shortfall, the Legislature finds that the General Fund should reimburse the Superfund Bond Trust Fund for the money transferred pursuant to Item 4260-016-826 of the Budget Act of 1991, plus interest at the applicable State Surplus Money Investment Fund interest rate, for all periods during which the General Fund had use of the funds and until the Superfund Bond Trust Fund is fully reimbursed.

(b) The following amounts shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund to pay the principal of, and interest on, the bonds issued and sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25285) of Chapter 6.8 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000) shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund on or before August 1, 2000.

(2) Three million three hundred thousand dollars ($3,300,000) shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund on or before August 1, 2001.

(3) Three million one hundred thousand dollars ($3,100,000) shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund on or before August 1, 2002.

(4) Two million nine hundred thousand dollars ($2,900,000) shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund on or before August 1, 2003.

(5) The amount needed to repay the remainder of the funds transferred pursuant to Item 4260-016-826 of the Budget Act of 1991, plus all interest accrued since the date that the transfer took place, shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Superfund Bond Trust Fund on or before August 1, 2004.

SEC. 54. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, Sections 1 to 10, inclusive, Sections 13 to 18, inclusive, Sections 22, 23, and 25, and Sections 28 to 53, inclusive, of this act shall become operative July 1, 1998.

(b) The amendments to Sections 25205.4, 25205.5, 25205.6, 25205.14, and 25205.15 of the Health and Safety Code made by Sections 19, 20, 21, 26, and 27 of this act shall become operative January 1, 1998. The repeal of Sections 25174.2, 25174.6, and 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code by Sections 11, 12, and 24 of this act shall become operative January 1, 1998. The addition of Section 25174.6 to the Health and Safety Code made by Section 12.3 of this act shall become on operative January 1, 1998.

(c) The addition of Sections 25174.2 and 25174.6 to the Health and Safety Code made by Sections 11.5 and 12.5, respectively, of this act shall become operative on January 1, 2001.

(d) (1) Sections 25174.2 and 25174.6, as added to the Health and Safety Code by Sections 11.5 and 12.5, respectively, of this act, shall initially apply to the disposal fee for January 2001. Section 25174.6, as added to the Health and Safety Code by Section 12.3 of this act, shall apply to the disposal fees for calendar years commencing January 1, 1998, January 1, 1999, and January 1, 2000.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, the disposal fee for January of any year means the fee that is due and payable to the State Board of Equalization by April 30 of that year pursuant to Section 43151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(e) (1) The amendments to Section 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 19 of this act shall initially apply to the annual facility fee for 1998.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, the annual facility fee for any year means the fee that is due and payable by February 28 of the following year, pursuant to Section 43152.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, including all prepayments that are due during that year.

(f) (1) The changes in the annual fees specified in Section 25205.14 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 26 of this act shall initially apply to the annual fee for 1998.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision "the annual fee for 1998" means the fee that is due and payable by February 28, 1999, pursuant to Section 43152.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, including all prepayments that are due during 1998.

(g) (1) The amendments to Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 20 of this act and the repeal of Section 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 24 of this act shall initially apply to the generator fee and the surcharge for 1998.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "the generator fee and the surcharge for 1998" means the fee and surcharge that are due and payable by February 28, 1999, pursuant to Sections 43152.7 and 43152.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, including all prepayments that are due during 1998.

(h) (1) The amendments to Section 25205.6 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 21 of this act shall initially apply to the environmental fee for 1998.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision "the environmental fee for 1998" means the fee that is due and payable by February 28, 1999, pursuant to Section 43152.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(i) On July 1, 1998, any assets, obligations, and encumbrances of the Site Remediation Account shall automatically be transferred to the Toxic Substances Control Account in the General Fund.

SEC. 55. The calculation of the surcharge, described in subdivision (b) of Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to be assessed for the 1998–99 fiscal year and for subsequent fiscal years shall reflect the changes in Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 47 of this act.

SEC. 56. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25143 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill 1157. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998,

(2) each bill amends Section 25143 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1157, in which case Section 25143 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 1157, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 57. Section 47.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill 1357. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1357, in which case Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 1357, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 47.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 47 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 58. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the amendments to Section 25192 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 15 of this act furthers the purposes of the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986 (Proposition 65), as enacted by the voters on the November 4, 1986, general election.

SEC. 59. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 871

An act to amend Sections 13143 and 17920.8 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to building standards.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13143 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13143. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the State Fire Marshal, with the advice of the State Board of Fire Services, shall prepare, adopt, and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 and shall prepare and adopt other regulations establishing minimum requirements for the prevention of fire and for the protection of life and property against fire and panic in any building or structure used or intended for use as an asylum, jail, mental hospital, hospital, home for the elderly, children's nursery, children's home or institution not otherwise excluded from the coverage of this subdivision, school, or any similar occupancy of any capacity, and in any assembly occupancy where 50 or more persons may gather together in a building, room, or structure for the purpose of amusement, entertainment, instruction, deliberation, worship, drinking or dining, awaiting transportation, or education. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 for the purposes described in this section. Regulations adopted pursuant to this subdivision and building standards relating to fire and panic safety published in the California Building Standards Code shall establish minimum requirements relating to the means of egress and the adequacy of exits from, the installation and maintenance of fire extinguishing and fire alarm systems in, the storage and handling of combustible or explosive materials or substances, and the installation and maintenance of appliances, equipment, decorations, security bars, grills, grates, and furnishings that present a fire, explosion or panic hazard, and the minimum requirements shall be predicated on the height and fire-resistive qualities of the building or structure and the type of occupancy for which it is to be used. The building standards and other regulations shall apply to auxiliary or accessory buildings used or intended for use with any of the occupancies mentioned in this subdivision. Violation of any building standard or other regulation shall be a violation of the provisions of this chapter.

In preparing and adopting building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13, and in preparing and adopting other regulations affecting public schools, the State Fire Marshal shall also secure the advice of the State Department of Education. No regulation adopted by the State Fire Marshal shall conflict with any rule, regulation, or building standard lawfully adopted or enforced by the Department of General Services pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 or Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) of Chapter 1 of Part 49 of the Education Code.

In addition to any other requirements for location of exit signs or devices in any building or structure used or intended for use as an asylum, jail, mental hospital, hospital, home for the elderly, children's nursery, children's home or institution not otherwise excluded from the coverage of this subdivision, school, or any similar occupancy of any capacity, and in any assembly occupancy where 50 or more persons may gather together in a building, room, or structure for the purpose of amusement, entertainment, instruction, deliberation, worship, drinking or dining, awaiting transportation, or education, the State Fire Marshal shall adopt building standards pursuant to this section establishing minimum requirements for the placement of distinctive devices, signs, or other means that identify exits and can be felt or seen near the floor. Exit sign technologies permitted by the model building code upon which the California Building Standards Code is based, shall be permitted. These building standards shall be adopted before July 1, 1998, and shall apply to all newly constructed buildings or structures subject to this subdivision for which a building permit is issued, (or construction commenced, where no building permit is issued) on or after January 1, 1989.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) and Section 13143.6, facilities licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 which provide nonmedical board, room, and care for six or fewer ambulatory children placed with the licensee for care or foster family homes and family day care homes for children, licensed pursuant to Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.50) of Division 2, with a capacity of six or fewer and providing care and supervision for ambulatory children or children two years of age or younger, or both, shall not be subject to the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 13100) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 13140) of this chapter or regulations adopted pursuant thereto. No city, county, or public district shall adopt or enforce any requirement for the prevention of fire or for the protection of life and property against fire and panic with respect to structures used as facilities specified in this subdivision, unless the requirement would be applicable to a structure regardless of the special occupancy. Nothing in this subdivision shall restrict the application of state or local housing standards to those facilities, if the standards are applicable to residential occupancies and are not based upon the use of the structure as a facility specified in this subdivision.

"Ambulatory children," as used in this subdivision, does not include nonambulatory persons, as defined in Section 13131, and relatives of the licensee or the licensee's spouse.

(c) The State Fire Marshal shall adopt building standards establishing regulations providing that all school classrooms constructed after January 1, 1990, not equipped with automatic sprinkler systems, which have metal grills or bars on all their windows and do not have at least two exit doors within three feet of each end of the classroom opening to the exterior of the building or to a common hallway used for evacuation purposes, shall have an inside release for the grills or bars on at least one window farthest from the exit doors. The window or windows with the inside release shall be clearly marked as an emergency exit, in accordance with regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 2. Section 17920.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17920.8. In addition to any other requirements for location of exit signs or devices in hotels, motels, or apartment houses, the State Fire Marshal shall adopt building standards establishing minimum requirements for the placement of distinctive devices, signs, or other means that identify exits and can be felt or seen near the floor. Exit sign technologies permitted by the model building code upon which the California Building Standards Code is based, shall be permitted. These building standards shall apply to all newly constructed occupancies subject to this section for which a building permit is issued, or construction is commenced, where no building permit is issued on or after January 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 872

An act to add Sections 8709.2, 8709.3, and 8709.4 to the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that the fences described in subdivision (a) of Section 8709.3 of the Water Code be removed from state maintenance areas under the jurisdiction of the Reclamation Board at no cost to the state. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Water Resources shall provide proactive information on encroachments to local planning departments in counties that have regulated floodplains.

SEC. 2. Section 8709.2 is added to the Water Code, to read:

8709.2. “Water side of levee” means the area on the levee slope between the edge of the crown nearest the water to the water side levee toe.

SEC. 3. Section 8709.3 is added to the Water Code, to read:

8709.3. (a) Fences that are designed to give way during high water events shall not be allowed on the water side of a levee. Fences on the water side of a levee that are partially or wholly under water during high water events, and that are located within state maintenance areas within city limits under the jurisdiction of the board, shall be constructed so as to be removable by the permittee in segments during times of high water events as the water level rises up the levee.

(b) The permittee shall remove the segments of the fence during times of high water events.

(c) The board shall adopt emergency regulations necessary to implement this section in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The adoption of emergency regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare.

SEC. 4. Section 8709.4 is added to the Water Code, to read:

8709.4. (a) Before taking action to remove or modify encroachments on levees, channels, and other flood control works pursuant to powers granted by this part or standards adopted pursuant to this part, the board shall make one of the following findings, based on substantial evidence, regarding the encroachment’s impact on public safety:

(1) The encroachment presents an imminent threat to the structural integrity of the levee, channel, or other flood control work.

(2) The encroachment significantly impairs the functional capability of the levee, channel, or other flood control work to fulfill its particular intended role in the overall flood control plan.

(b) Routine maintenance that includes the removal or modification of fences, gates, and vegetation on the levee structure and other flood control structures is not subject to subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 873

An act to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 850) to Title 3 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 850) is added to Title 3 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY ACCEPTANCE ACT

850. The definitions set forth in Section 25260 of the Health and Safety Code govern the construction of this chapter. In addition, the following definitions apply for purposes of this chapter only:

(a) "Actual awareness" means actual knowledge of a fact pertaining to an obligation under this chapter, including actual knowledge of a release exceeding the notification threshold. Only actual awareness possessed by those employees or representatives of an owner of a site who are responsible for monitoring, responding to or otherwise addressing the release shall be attributable to the owner. Only actual awareness possessed by those employees or representatives of a potentially responsible party who are responsible for monitoring, responding to, or otherwise addressing, the release shall be attributable to the potentially responsible party.

(b) "Commitment statement" means a written statement executed by the notice recipient which recites expressly the language specified in Section 854.

(c) "Mediation" means an informal process in which the disputing parties select a neutral third party to assist them in reaching a negotiated settlement in which the neutral third party has no power to impose a solution on the parties, but rather has the power only to assist the parties in shaping solutions to meet their interests and objectives.

(d) "Negative response" means a written response by the recipient of a notice of potential liability indicating that the recipient will not undertake any response action, or a deemed negative response pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 851 in the event of the recipient's failure to respond.

(e) "Neutral third party" means an experienced professional, such as an attorney, engineer, environmentalist, hydrologist, or retired judge, who has served as a mediator.

(f) "Notice of potential liability" means a notice, sent by the owner of the site, stating that a release that exceeds the notification threshold has occurred at the site and that the owner believes that the recipient of the notice is a responsible party with respect to the release. The notice of potential liability shall describe the location of the site and the nature of the release.

(g) "Notice recipient" means any one of the following:

(1) A person who receives a notice of potential liability pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 851.

(2) A person who provides a release report pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 851.

(3) A person who offers a commitment statement to the owner of a site pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 851.

(h) "Notification threshold" means any release of such a magnitude that:

(1) The release is the subject of a response action which has been ordered by, or is being performed by, an oversight agency; or

(2) The release is impeding the ability of the owner of the site to sell, lease, or otherwise use the site.

(i) "Operation and maintenance" means any activity as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25318.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(j) "Oversight agency" means any agency, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 25260 of the Health and Safety Code, that has jurisdiction over a response action performed in connection with a release that is the subject of a notice of potential liability. Subject to any other limitation imposed by law, an oversight agency retains full discretion as to when it exercises jurisdiction over a site.

(k) "Reasonable steps," as used in subdivision (a) of Section 851, means the least expensive means available to ascertain the potentially responsible parties. If the owner cannot otherwise identify any apparent, potentially responsible parties, then "reasonable steps" includes:

(1) Conducting a title search; and

(2) Reviewing all environmental reports in the owner's possession of which the owner has actual awareness pertaining to the site.

(l) "Release" means the release, as defined in Sections 25320 and 25321 of the Health and Safety Code, of a hazardous material or hazardous materials.

(m) "Release report" means a notice sent by a responsible party to the owner of the site stating that a release has occurred on the site which is likely to exceed the notification threshold. The release report shall describe the location of the site and the nature of the release.

(n) "Remedial action" means any action as defined in Section 25322 of the Health and Safety Code.

(o) "Removal action" means any action as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25323 of the Health and Safety Code.

(p) "Response action" means any removal actions, including, but not limited to, site investigations and remedial actions, including, but not limited to, operation and maintenance measures.

(q) "Responsible party" means any person who is liable under state or local law for taking action in response to a release.

(r) "Site" means any parcel of commercial, industrial, or agricultural real property where a hazardous materials release has occurred.

(s) "Written action" means any official action by any oversight agency where the oversight agency has expressly exercised its cleanup authority in writing, pursuant to the oversight agency's procedures, directing a response action at the site.

851. (a) An owner of a site who has actual awareness of a release exceeding the notification threshold shall take all reasonable steps as defined in subdivision (j) of Section 850 to expeditiously identify the potentially responsible parties. The owner shall, as soon as reasonably possible after obtaining actual awareness of the potentially responsible parties, send a notice of potential liability to the identified potentially responsible parties and the agency, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 25260 of the Health and Safety Code, that the owner believes to be the appropriate oversight agency. For any release exceeding the notification threshold of which the owner has actual awareness that occurred prior to, but within three years of, the effective date of this section, the notice shall be given on or before December 31, 1998.

(b) A potentially responsible party who has actual awareness of a release which is likely to exceed the notification threshold shall as soon as reasonably possible after obtaining actual awareness of the release provide the owner of the site where the release occurred with a release report. For any release exceeding the notification threshold of which the potentially responsible party has actual awareness that occurred prior to, but within three years of, the effective date of this section, the release report shall be given on or before December 31, 1998. A potentially responsible party may issue, at the potentially responsible party's option, a commitment statement to the owner of the site within 120 days of the potentially responsible party's issuance of a release report. The fact that a release report is issued shall not constitute an admission of liability and may not be admitted as evidence against a potentially responsible party in any litigation.

(c) When a notice of potential liability is issued, a notice recipient shall respond to the owner, in writing, and by certified mail, return receipt requested, within 120 days from the date that the notice of potential liability was mailed. The notice recipient's response shall be either a commitment statement or a negative response. The notice recipient's failure to submit the written response within the 120-day period, or failure to strictly comply with the form of the written response, as provided in Section 854, shall be deemed a negative response. The owner may agree in writing to extend the period during which the notice recipient may respond to the notice of potential liability. An extension of up to 120 days shall be provided if the notice recipient commits to do a site investigation, the results of which shall be provided to the owner and the oversight agency.

(d) (1) The common law duty to mitigate damages shall apply to any failure of the owner of a site to give a timely notice of potential liability when the owner is required to give this notice pursuant to this chapter. Where an owner fails to mitigate damages by not giving a timely notice of potential liability, the owner's damage claim shall be reduced in accordance with common law principles by the amount that the potentially responsible party proves would have likely been mitigated had a timely notice of potential liability been given.

(2) Common law principles shall apply to the failure of the potentially responsible party to issue a timely release report. Where a potentially responsible party fails to give a timely release report, the potentially responsible party, in accordance with common law principles, shall be responsible to the owner of the site, for damages that the owner proves are likely caused by such failure to provide a release report.

(3) Any party who argues the applicability of this subdivision carries the burden of proof in that regard.

(4) Nothing in this section is intended to create a new cause of action or defense beyond that which already exists under common law.

(5) Subdivisions (a) and (b), and paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision, shall not apply when the party to whom a notice of potential liability or release report is owed already possesses actual awareness of the information required to be transmitted in such notice of potential liability or release report.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the requirements of this chapter shall not apply to a site listed pursuant to Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code for response action pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code or to a site where an oversight agency has issued an order or entered into an enforceable agreement pursuant to any authority, including, but not limited to, an order or enforceable agreement entered into by a local agency, the Department of Toxic Substance Control, the State Water Resources Control Board, or a regional water quality control board pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10), Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), Chapter 6.85 (commencing with Section 25396), or Chapter 6.11 (commencing with Section 25404) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, or pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

(2) The requirements of this chapter shall apply if either of the following applies:

(A) The order or enforceable agreement is issued or entered into after the owner accepts a commitment statement.

(B) The Department of Toxic Substance Control, State Water Resources Control Board, or regional water quality control board that issued the order or entered into an enforceable agreement consents in writing to the applicability of this chapter to the site.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature for this chapter to resolve disputes between, and affect the rights of, private parties only. Nothing in this chapter shall affect the authority of the Department of Toxic Substance Control, the State Water Resources Control Board, a regional water quality control board, or any other oversight agency.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any time prior to accepting a commitment statement, the owner may provide the notice to the notice recipient that the provisions of subdivision (c), paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), and Sections 852 and 854, shall not apply to the site, in which case the provisions of subdivision (c), paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), and Sections 852 and 854 shall not apply to the site and the owner and notice recipient shall be entitled to pursue all other legal remedies and defenses authorized by law.

852. (a) Within 45 days after issuance of the commitment statement, the owner may transmit to the notice recipient by certified mail, return receipt requested, an executed copy of the commitment statement, indicating its acceptance. If the owner does not execute the commitment statement, the commitment statement shall be deemed to have been rejected upon expiration of the 45-day period. A notice recipient has no obligation with respect to the provisions of a rejected commitment statement.

(b) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, or unless the owner or the notice recipient has elected not to proceed with the mediation, if the owner rejects the commitment statement, the owner and notice recipient shall participate in a mediation process prior to the commencement of any litigation which pertains to a release covered by the commitment statement. The mediation process shall be supervised by a neutral third party mutually agreed upon by the owner and the notice recipient in order to mediate a mutually agreeable settlement between the owner and notice recipient of all issues related to the release.

(2) Either the notice recipient or the owner may elect not to proceed further with the mediation process at any time prior to completion of those proceedings.

(3) To the extent a mutually agreeable settlement is reached which allocates the liability and assigns the rights and obligations of the owner and notice recipient in a manner different from or inconsistent with this chapter, the settlement shall supersede the terms of this chapter pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 853. If a settlement of all issues cannot be reached within 90 days after the owner's rejection of the commitment statement, the neutral third party shall declare the mediation process unsuccessful and terminate the process. The owner and notice recipient may mutually agree to extend the mediation process but shall communicate any such extension in writing to the neutral third party. If the party issuing the commitment statement fails, for any reason, to participate in the mediation within 90 days of the rejection of the commitment statement, the owner may proceed with litigation.

(4) After the termination of an unsuccessful mediation process, the parties shall be free to litigate or otherwise resolve their respective claims. The parties may mutually agree to the terms of the commitment statement at any time after the termination of an unsuccessful mediation process, in which case this chapter shall govern the rights and obligations of the parties.

(5) Any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled for 90 days following issuance of a notice of potential liability, a release report, or a commitment statement.

(6) Any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled from the time the owner rejects a commitment statement until the termination of the mediation process. If mediation is not commenced within 90 days after the owner's rejection of the commitment statement, the tolling of the statute of limitations shall terminate unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

(7) Unless the owner and notice recipient agree otherwise, the fees and costs of the neutral third party shall be borne equally by the notice recipient and the owner.

(c) Upon taking effect, the commitment statement shall have all of the following results:

(1) The commitment statement shall constitute a binding promise that the notice recipient will undertake any response action as required by an oversight agency through a written action, directed to the owner or notice recipient, in connection with the release that is the subject of the notice of potential liability or release report. The commitment statement shall not create any obligations with respect to releases occurring after the commitment statement is signed, or with respect to any other release that is not the subject of the notice of potential liability.

(2) The commitment statement shall constitute a binding promise that the owner shall provide reasonable site access to the notice recipient to take any action that is reasonably necessary or appropriate to conduct a response action. This grant of access shall not affect the rights of the owner if the notice recipient's activities onsite result in physical damage to the site which the notice recipient fails to repair within a reasonable period after completion of all onsite activities. Unless otherwise ordered by the oversight agency, the notice recipient shall take all reasonable steps to avoid interfering with the owner's use of the site.

(3) Except for civil actions seeking damages for personal injury or wrongful death, once a commitment statement has been accepted, the court shall stay any action brought by the owner of the site against the notice recipient that issued the commitment statement, including, but not limited to, actions in trespass, nuisance, negligence, and strict liability, which arise from or relate to a release for which a commitment statement has been issued. The stay shall be effective for a period of not more than two years from the date of acceptance of the commitment statement, but only so long as the site response action is proceeding to the satisfaction of an oversight agency. The stay shall not apply to any civil action that is based on fraud, failure to disclose, or misrepresentation related to any transaction between the owner of the site and the notice recipient, to any civil action for breach of the commitment statement, or to any civil action which is unrelated to the release. The owner and notice recipient may elect to extend the period of the stay by written agreement.

(4) In an action by an owner who has accepted a commitment statement against the notice recipient who issued the commitment statement, and which arises from or relates to a release for which a commitment statement has been issued, only the following damages shall be recoverable to the extent otherwise authorized by law:

(A) Damages for personal injuries or wrongful death caused by the release.

(B) Damages for breach of a commitment statement.

(C) Damages from the failure of a prospective purchaser to perform under a sales contract because of the release, where such failure to perform occurs prior to the issuance of the commitment statement.

(D) Damages for the lost use of the property prior to the issuance of a commitment statement caused by the release.

(E) Recovery of costs of investigating and responding to the release where such costs are incurred prior to the issuance of the commitment statement.

(F) Remedies for any breach of a preexisting contract entered into prior to the acceptance of a commitment statement.

(G) Damages for lost rents and any other damages recoverable under law associated with lost use of the site caused by any notice recipient during site response action activities.

(5) An owner may obtain rescission of a commitment statement if a notice recipient repudiates its obligations under the commitment statement, in which case Sections 852 and 854 shall no longer apply to the site.

(6) The notice recipient and owner shall copy each other with respect to all correspondence and proposed workplans to and from the oversight agency that relate to the site.

(d) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the authority of an oversight agency under the law to bring an administrative, criminal, or civil action against either a notice recipient or the owner, nor does it compel any action on the part of the oversight agency.

(e) At any time after the commitment statement is accepted, either the owner or the notice recipient may file an action against the other for material breach of rights and obligations associated with the commitment statement. Subject to the stay provided for in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the parties may litigate these claims in the same action as any other claims they may have in connection with the release that is the subject of the commitment statement.

(f) Whenever a notice recipient issues a commitment statement, the following notice shall be provided in 14 point boldface type if printed or in boldface capital letters if typed:

“THIS FORM WAS DEVELOPED AS PART OF A PROCESS ENACTED BY THE CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE TO PROVIDE OWNERS OF PROPERTY AND POTENTIALLY RESPONSIBLE PARTIES AN ALTERNATIVE TO LITIGATING DISPUTES OVER CONTAMINATION. IT IS YOUR OPTION AS TO WHETHER YOU SIGN THIS FORM OR OTHERWISE PARTICIPATE IN THIS PROCESS. IF YOU CHOOSE NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PROCESS, YOU SHOULD NOTIFY THE PARTY WHO SENT YOU THIS FORM. THIS FORM INVOLVES A TRADEOFF WHEREBY EACH PARTY ACQUIRES AND RELINQUISHES CERTAIN RIGHTS. UNDER THIS FORM, THE PROPERTY OWNER GETS THE ASSURANCE THAT THE POTENTIALLY RESPONSIBLE PARTY IS OBLIGATED TO PERFORM INVESTIGATORY AND CLEANUP ACTIONS IN THE EVENT THAT GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES ELECT TO REQUIRE THESE ACTIONS. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE PROPERTY OWNER FOREGOES CERTAIN CLAIMS ASSOCIATED WITH RESIDUAL CONTAMINATION THAT GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES ALLOW TO REMAIN IN PLACE ON THE PROPERTY. IF YOU ELECT NOT TO SIGN THIS FORM, THE PROCESS DEVELOPED BY THE LEGISLATURE CONTEMPLATES THAT YOU WILL ATTEMPT TO MEDIATE ANY DISPUTES REGARDING THE CONTAMINATION. HOWEVER, MEDIATION IS NEITHER MANDATORY NOR BINDING. IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE PROCESS, YOU MAY WISH TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY.”

(g) Any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled for two and one-half years from the date of acceptance of the commitment statement. If at the end of two years from the date of acceptance of the commitment statement an oversight agency has not issued a written action directed to the owner or notice recipient, the owner has 60 days in which he or she may terminate the commitment statement; and, in this event, it shall have no further force or effect. In the event the owner terminates the commitment statement, subdivision (c) shall no longer apply to the site and shall no longer govern the rights and obligations of the owner or notice recipient.

853. (a) Neither the failure to issue a commitment statement nor its issuance shall be construed as an admission that the recipient of the notice of potential liability is liable under any federal, state, or local law, including common law, for the release that the party agrees to investigate or respond. Neither the failure to issue a commitment statement nor the contents of the commitment statement shall be admissible evidence in any proceeding, as defined in Section 901 of the Evidence Code, except that the contents of the commitment statement shall be admissible evidence in an action to enforce the commitment statement to the extent that such contents would be admissible under other applicable law.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall subject a notice recipient to any damages, fines, or penalties for a failure to make a written response, either positive or negative, to a notice of potential liability.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall subject the owner of a site to any damages, fines, or penalties for a failure to send a notice of potential liability pursuant to Section 851. Failure by the owner of a site to send a notice of potential liability of a release in a timely fashion shall not be deemed to create any liability for the owner under a theory of negligence per se.

(d) Nothing in this chapter imposes an affirmative duty on the owner of a site, or any potentially responsible party, to discover, or determine the nature or extent of, a hazardous materials release at the site. This chapter does not affect such an affirmative duty to the extent it is imposed by any other law.

(e) Subject to the defenses specified in Section 101(35) and 107(b) of the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Secs. 9601(35) and 9607(b)), a cause of action is hereby established whereby a notice recipient may recover from any responsible party any reasonable response costs for conducting a response action as may be approved or overseen by an oversight agency or as incurred pursuant to a commitment statement. Liability among responsible parties shall be allocated based upon the equitable factors specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25356.3 of the Health and Safety Code. No third-party beneficiary rights are created by a commitment statement, except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 854. This cause of action applies to costs incurred prior to enactment of this subdivision. However, no recovery may be obtained under this subdivision for costs incurred more than three years prior to the filing of litigation to recover those costs. The cause of action established pursuant to this subdivision shall not apply against a current or former owner of a site unless that owner operated a business that caused a release being addressed by a response action at the site and the costs incurred by the notice recipient were in response to a release caused by the owner.

(f) Nothing in this chapter shall affect or limit the rights of an owner under preexisting contract. Nothing in this chapter shall affect or limit the right of a notice recipient and owner to agree to an allocation of liability or to an assignment of rights and obligations that is different from or inconsistent with this chapter. Such agreements shall supersede the terms of this chapter.

(g) Nothing in this chapter shall make a notice recipient a responsible party, beyond the obligations the notice recipient undertakes pursuant to this chapter.

(h) Nothing in this chapter shall apply to causes of action for wrongful death or personal injury. However, the pleading of a cause of action for wrongful death or personal injury shall not affect the applicability of this chapter to other causes of action in the same civil action.

854. A commitment statement shall be executed in substantially the following form:

| COUNTY OF ________STATE OFCALIFORNIA | NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OFGOVERNMENT IMPOSED SITEINVESTIGATION AND/ORREMEDIAL ACTION ORDERS("COMMITMENT STATEMENT") |

(a) The undersigned notice recipient is aware of, or has received a notice of potential liability pursuant to, Section 851 of the Civil Code ("notice of potential liability") in connection with a release of hazardous materials at a parcel of property ("site") having the following legal description: (Insert description here)

(b) The undersigned notice recipient and the undersigned owner of the site and the owner's successors, heirs, and assigns agree, upon the proper and timely execution and delivery of this commitment statement, to abide by the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 850) of Title 3 of Part 2 of Division 2 in connection with the release that is the subject of the notice of potential liability.

(c) The undersigned notice recipient hereby commits to undertake any response action as required by an oversight agency through a written action, directed to the owner or notice recipient, in connection with the release that is the subject of the notice of potential liability or release report. This commitment runs with the land and binds, in addition to the current owner of the site, all of the owner's successors in interest, including current and future lenders having a security interest in the site.

(d) The owner of the site and the owner's successors, heirs, and assigns agree, upon the proper and timely execution and delivery of this commitment statement, to all of the following:

(1) The undersigned notice recipient or the party's designee shall be allowed such access to the site as may be required to perform its obligations under this commitment statement, provided that the undersigned notice recipient shall be liable for any physical damage it causes in conducting a response action, which the notice recipient fails to repair within a reasonable period after completion of all onsite activities.

(2) The parties, their successors, heirs, and assigns shall provide each other with copies of any communication or correspondence with an oversight agency in connection with the release of hazardous materials at the site.

(3) Provided that the undersigned notice recipient performs all of its obligations under this commitment statement, and except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (c) and (e) of Section 852 of the Civil Code, no claim for damages, accruing after the acceptance of the commitment statement, shall be brought against the undersigned notice recipient by the owner of the site or by the owner's successors, heirs, and assigns.

(e) The contents of this commitment statement shall be inadmissible evidence in any proceeding, as defined in Section 901 of the Evidence Code, except in an action to enforce this commitment statement to the extent that such contents would be admissible under other applicable law. This commitment statement may be enforced fully by the owner of the site and all parties identified in paragraph (b). There are no third-party beneficiary rights created by this commitment statement.

(f) The owner of the site shall provide a copy of this commitment statement to any prospective purchaser or lessee of the site until this commitment statement is terminated or until all response actions have been completed in accordance with the commitment statement.

CHAPTER 874

An act to add Section 1812.5 to the Water Code, relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1812.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

1812.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) This section is an extraordinary measure being taken only because the proposed transfer of conserved water from the Imperial Irrigation District to the San Diego County Water Authority is a matter of statewide interest in that it addresses a significant need for water in the southern state through the conservation of water now being consumed there. The Legislature further finds and declares that this section is not to be regarded as setting a precedent for any other legislative action.

(2) California's use of Colorado River water is limited to its basic annual apportionment of 4.4 million acre-feet, plus one-half of any excess or surplus water from the Colorado River. However, California continues to use up to 5.3 million acre-feet by relying on surpluses and apportioned, but unused water within the Colorado River Basin, which is not a reliable water supply. The Secretary of the Interior has strongly urged California to develop a plan to enable it to live within its basic apportionment of 4.4 million acre-feet from the Colorado River.

(3) It is of vital state interest that every effort be made to ensure that the Colorado River Aqueduct continues to operate at its full capacity at fair and reasonable terms in order to minimize statewide disruptions from diminishing Colorado River supplies.

(4) Negotiations assisted by the director are underway in 1997 between the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California and the San Diego County Water Authority for the development of a long-term wheeling agreement whereby the San Diego County Water Authority would use the Colorado River Aqueduct to wheel conserved water from the Imperial Irrigation District.

(b) The director shall assist the Colorado River Board and the six California water agencies that derive water from the Colorado River in developing a plan to ensure that California can live within its entitlement of 4.4 million acre-feet of water annually and to ensure that the needs of southern California for Colorado River water are met.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, with regard to the proposed transfer of conserved water from the Imperial Irrigation District to the San Diego County Water Authority, using the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California's water conveyance facilities, including the Colorado River Aqueduct, if the San Diego County Water Authority and the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California have not reached an agreement in principle on the terms and conditions of the transfer of conserved water using the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California's water conveyance facilities on or before August 15, 1997, the director shall issue a formal recommendation within 30 days from that date, with regard to the appropriate terms and conditions of the transfer.

(2) The director, in issuing a recommendation regarding appropriate terms and conditions of the transfer, shall make those determinations prescribed by Section 1812.

(3) If the director's recommendations prescribed by Section 1812 are unacceptable to either the San Diego County Water Authority or the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, that party may request a formal mediation process. If both parties agree to participate in the formal mediation process, the parties shall commence mediation within one month after the mediation request is made. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, the director shall appoint a mediator or the director may serve as mediator. The San Diego County Water Authority and the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California shall reimburse the state for any General Fund money used in mediation entered into pursuant to this paragraph.

(d) No action taken pursuant to this section shall injure any legal user of water, and there shall be no shifting of costs for actions taken pursuant to this section to water users in any county in the State of California.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special statute is necessary and that a general statute cannot be made applicable, within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, because of unique circumstances applicable to the transfer of conserved water from the Imperial Irrigation District to the San Diego County Water Authority, using the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California's water conveyance facilities. In order to ensure that the transfer is concluded in a timely manner, thereby providing necessary water to the San Diego area, a special statute is needed and a general statute cannot be made applicable.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate, on or before August 15, 1997, an agreement to transfer conserved water from the Imperial Irrigation District to the San Diego County Water Authority, using the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California's water conveyance facilities, including the Colorado River Aqueduct, thereby assuring an efficient redistribution of water resources, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 875

An act to amend Sections 42847, 42889, and 48653 of, and to add Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 48100) to Part 7 of Division 30 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42847 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42847. If waste tires are cleaned up, the effects of the tires are abated, or, in the case of threatened pollution or nuisance, other necessary remedial action is taken by any governmental agency, the person or persons who unlawfully stored, stockpiled, or accumulated the waste tires or who unlawfully permitted the storage, stockpile, or accumulation of waste tires or who threatened to cause or permit the unlawful storage, stockpile, or accumulation of waste tires shall be liable to that governmental agency to the extent of the reasonable costs actually incurred in cleaning up the waste, abating the effects thereof, or taking other remedial actions. The amount of those costs shall be recoverable in a civil action by, and paid to, the governmental agency and the board to the extent of the latter's contribution to the cleanup costs from available funds. The board shall seek recovery of its costs if that recovery is feasible.

SEC. 2. Section 42889 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42889. The money in the fund shall, upon order of the Controller, be drawn therefrom for the payment of refunds under this chapter. The balance of the money in the fund shall be appropriated in the annual Budget Act to the board for expenditure for the following purposes:

(a) To pay the costs of administration of this chapter, not to exceed 5 percent of the total revenue deposited in the fund annually.

(b) In addition to payments authorized by subdivision (a), to pay the costs of administration associated with collection, making refunds, and auditing revenues in the fund, not to exceed 3 percent of the total revenue deposited in the fund, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 42885.

(c) To pay the costs associated with operating the tire recycling program specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 42870).

(d) To pay the costs associated with the development and enforcement of regulations relating to the storage of waste tires.

(e) To pay the costs of cleanup, abatement, or other remedial action related to the disposal of used whole tires.

(f) To make studies and conduct research directed at promoting and developing alternatives to the landfill disposal of used whole tires.

(g) To pay the costs associated with a statewide shredding program at authorized landfills and solid waste transfer stations.

(h) To pay the offsetting costs associated with a purchase preference granted by the state for materials manufactured from recycled tires, not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) annually.

(i) To pay the cost associated with implementing and operating a waste tire hauler program pursuant to Chapter 19 (commencing with Section 42950).

(j) To pay the costs associated with implementing and operating the Farm and Ranch Solid Waste Cleanup and Abatement Grant Program established pursuant to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 48100) of Part 7.

SEC. 3. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 48100) is added to Part 7 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. FARM AND RANCH SOLID WASTE CLEANUP AND ABATEMENT GRANT PROGRAM

48100. (a) The legislature hereby finds and declares that illegal disposal of solid waste on property owned by innocent parties is a longstanding problem needing attention and that grants provided under this chapter will support the cleanup of farm and ranch property.

(b) On or before January 1, 1999, the board shall establish a farm and ranch solid waste cleanup and abatement grant program under which cities and counties may seek financial assistance for the purposes of cleaning up and abating the effects of illegally disposed solid waste pursuant to this chapter.

(c) (1) The Farm and Ranch Solid Waste Cleanup and Abatement Account is hereby created in the General Fund and may be expended by the board, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, for the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The following funds shall be deposited into the account:

(A) Money appropriated by the Legislature from the Integrated Waste Management Fund, the California Tire Recycling Management Fund, or the California Used Oil Recycling Fund to the board for the grant program.

(B) Notwithstanding Section 16475 of the Government Code, any interest earned on the money in the account.

(3) The board may expend the money in the account for both of the following purposes:

(A) To pay the costs of implementing this chapter, which costs shall not exceed 7 percent of the funds available for the grant program.

(B) To make payments to cities and counties for grants authorized by this chapter.

(4) Upon authorization by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, the sum of all funds transferred into the account from other funds or accounts shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) annually.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the grant program shall be funded from the following funds:

(A) The Integrated Waste Management Fund.

(B) The California Tire Recycling Management Fund.

(C) The California Used Oil Recycling Fund.

48101. (a) The grant program shall be established to make grants available to cities and counties for the purposes described in subdivision (b) of Section 48100 in an amount not to exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year for any single city or county, and not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for any single cleanup or abatement project. Administrative costs of the city or county shall not exceed 3 percent of the grant.

(b) The board shall give priority to the provision of grants to cities and counties that have established innovative and cost-effective programs designed to discourage the illegal disposal of solid waste and to encourage the proper disposal of solid waste in permitted solid waste disposal facilities.

(c) A grant agreement between the board and a city or county may provide for, but is not limited to, all of the following provisions:

(1) Site-specific cleanup and removal of solid waste that is illegally disposed on farm or ranch property.

(2) Comprehensive, ongoing enforcement programs for the cleanup and removal of solid waste that is illegally disposed of on farm or ranch property.

(3) Waiver of tipping fees or other solid waste fees at permitted solid waste facilities for solid waste that was illegally disposed of on farm or ranch property.

(d) (1) Until such time that the board adopts regulations for the grant program pursuant to Section 48103, any fine levied on, or abatement order issued against, a farm or ranch property owner by a local enforcement agency or other local agency prior to January 1,

1998, if the fine has not been paid or the abatement order fulfilled as of January 1, 1998, or levied or issued, as the case may be, on and after January 1, 1998, but prior to adoption of the regulations, as a result of solid waste disposed of on the owner's ranch or farm property shall be stayed if (1) the local agency makes a decision that the property owner was not responsible for the dumping or (2) the property owner has filed a written appeal of the local agency's decision to the board and the board's decision on the matter is pending.

(2) On and after the adoption of grant program regulations by the board, any fines levied on, or abatement orders issued against, a farm or ranch owner by the local enforcement agency or other local agency as the result of solid waste disposed of on the owner's farm or ranch property, regarding which the owner has made application to a city or county for a grant under this chapter, shall, upon the owner's written request to the local enforcement agency or other local agency, be stayed if (1) the local agency makes a decision that the property owner was not responsible for the dumping or (2) the property owner has filed a written appeal of the local agency's decision to the board and the board's decision on the matter is pending.

48102. No farm or ranch property owner shall be eligible for a grant pursuant to this chapter if it is determined by the city or county that the owner was responsible for the illegal disposal of the solid waste.

48103. (a) The board shall adopt regulations to implement this chapter.

(b) The regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall include criteria for grant eligibility and shall establish a process that is open and accessible to the public under which grant applications may be reviewed, ranked, and awarded. The regulations shall also develop a process for a farm or ranch property owner to appeal a city's or county's determination of responsibility pursuant to Section 48102.

(c) If a local agency denies a grant application, it shall notify the farm or ranch property owner in writing as to why the application was denied.

(d) Nothing in this section is intended to prevent a farm or ranch property owner from receiving reimbursement for solid waste cleanup or abatement costs under the grant program or pursuant to any other law.

48104. (a) Each year, as part of the annual report required to be submitted pursuant to Section 40507, the board shall report to the Governor and the Legislature on the actions it has taken under the grant program and the number of illegal disposal sites that have been cleaned up and abated pursuant to the grant program.

(b) On or before January 1, 2001, the board shall review the grant program and report to the Governor and the Legislature on its costs and effectiveness in cleaning up and abating solid waste illegally disposed of on farm or ranch property. The report shall include all of the following information:

(1) The number of sites that have been cleaned up in each county.

(2) The types of solid waste cleaned up.

(3) The number of sites not approved for the grant program, and the reasons for that disapproval.

(4) The number of participant cities and counties.

(5) The types of property on which solid waste has been cleaned up or abated.

48105. All solid waste collected by a city or county as a result of cleanup or abatement under the grant program shall be recycled or reused to the maximum extent feasible and cleanup or abatement activities shall be conducted in compliance with existing laws governing the handling of solid wastes, hazardous wastes, liquid wastes, or medical wastes, as appropriate.

48106. Nothing in this chapter is intended to relieve any party who is responsible for the generation or illegal deposition of the solid waste from liability for removal costs if the party can be identified. Farm or ranch property owners whose property is the subject of solid waste cleanup or abatement under this chapter and who are not responsible for the generation or deposition of the solid waste shall not be subject to any cost recovery action for cleanup or abatement costs borne by cities or counties or the board under this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 48653 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48653. The board shall deposit all amounts paid pursuant to Section 48650 by manufacturers, civil penalties, or fines paid pursuant to this chapter, and all other revenues received pursuant to this chapter into the California Used Oil Recycling Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the money in the fund is to be appropriated solely as follows:

(a) Continuously appropriated to the board for expenditure for the following purposes:

(1) To pay recycling incentives pursuant to Section 48651.

(2) To provide a reserve for contingencies, as may be available after making other payments required by this section, in an amount not to exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(3) To make block grants for the implementation of local used oil collection programs adopted pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 48690) to cities, based on the city's population, and counties, based on the population of the unincorporated area of the county, in a total annual amount equal to ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or half of the amount which remains in the fund after the expenditures are made pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, and subdivision (b), whichever amount is greater, multiplied by the fraction equal to the population of cities and counties which are eligible for block grants pursuant to Section 48690, divided by the population of the state. The board shall use the latest population estimates of the state generated by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance in making the calculations required by this paragraph.

(4) For expenditures pursuant to Section 48656.

(b) The money in the fund may be expended by the board for the administration of this chapter and by the department for inspections and reports pursuant to Section 48661, only upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

(c) The money in the fund may be transferred to the Farm and Ranch Solid Waste Cleanup and Abatement Account in the General Fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, to pay the costs associated with implementing and operating the Farm and Ranch Solid Waste Cleanup and Abatement Grant Program established pursuant to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 48100).

(d) Appropriations to the board to pay the costs necessary to administer this chapter, including implementation of the reporting, monitoring, and enforcement program pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 48631, shall not exceed three million dollars ($3,000,000) annually.

(e) The Legislature hereby finds and declares its intent that the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) should be annually appropriated from the California Used Oil Recycling Fund in the annual Budget Act to the board, commencing with fiscal year 1996–97, for the purposes of Section 48655.

CHAPTER 876

An act relating to earthquake protection.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the San Marino High School in Los Angeles County is located near the Raymond Hill Fault.

(b) The San Gabriel County Water District shall not enlarge or construct any water storage facility system that is uphill of, and within 1,000 feet of, the San Marino High School unless, after receipt of payment for the filing fee pursuant to Section 6300 of the Water Code, the Division of Safety of Dams of the Department of Water Resources certifies in writing that the facility meets the requirements normally applied to facilities approved pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Water Code. Section 6028 of the Water Code shall apply to any determination made by the Division of Safety of Dams pursuant to this section.

(c) In the event that the Division of Safety of Dams approves an application for approval of the water storage facility without requiring substantive changes in the design of the facility, the City of San Marino and the San Marino Unified School District shall jointly reimburse the San Gabriel County Water District for the full amount of the application filing fee. If the Division of Safety of Dams requires substantive facility changes, no such reimbursement shall be required.

(d) This section shall apply to the enlargement or construction of any water storage facility system, including any enlargement or construction that commenced prior to January 1, 1998.

(e) Any decision or certification made by the Division of Safety of Dams pursuant to this section shall be final and not subject to judicial review, unless it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that the decision or certification was arbitrary and capricious.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district are the result of a program for which legislative authority was requested by that local agency or school district, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code and Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 877

An act to amend Section 8700 of, and to add and repeal Article 5 (commencing with Section 52760) of Chapter 11 of Part 28 of, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8700 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8700. The Legislature finds and declares that, throughout the state and nation, there is a growing public awareness of the benefits derived from a healthy environment and a healthy economy, and that the citizens of the State of California expect the educational institutions of this state to provide students with educational materials that are balanced and objective in their coverage of the current scientific and economic research on environmental and ecological issues to enable students to better address and assess environmental issues as we enter the 21st century.

SEC. 2. Article 5 (commencing with Section 52760) is added to Chapter 11 of Part 28 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 5. The Life Sciences and Conservation Education Project of 1998

52760. (a) The Life Sciences and Conservation Education Project of 1998 is hereby established to provide pupils in grades 6, 7, and 8 with opportunities to increase their understanding of biological sciences and the interdependence of living things, through the study of biological conservation and public policy issues. This project shall be administered by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and shall consist of a statewide competition in which each public elementary school and junior high school or middle school in California that is attended by pupils in grade 6, 7, or 8 is encouraged to do both of the following:

(1) Begin a classroom project to educate fellow pupils and the community about the various benefits that a specific local wildlife species, river, creek, wetland, or other natural resource provides the local community. If applicable, the classroom project shall identify any impacts to the natural resource.

(2) Develop a plan for cooperative action to resolve the identified impacts in order to conserve the natural resource.

(b) Exemplary projects shall be selected for special recognition by the panel established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 52762.

52761. (a) Each elementary school and junior high school or middle school participating in the project shall submit to the superintendent a proposal, which shall include all of the following:

(1) A description of the plant, animal, river, creek, wetlands, or other natural area that the pupils have selected.

(2) A description of strategies that the pupils plan to use to educate other pupils and members of the community about the various benefits of a specific local wildlife species, river, creek, wetland, or other natural area and to identify any impacts to that natural resource. Strategies may include, but need not be limited to, exhibits, art work, public education forums, media events, oral presentations, drama, and writing projects.

(3) An action plan designed to monitor and promote the conservation of the selected wildlife species or natural area, while seeking collaborative ways to resolve the identified impacts.

(b) Each participating school shall select a wildlife species or natural area based on the close proximity of the plant, animal, river, creek, wetlands, or other natural area, the feasibility of studying it, and the effectiveness of the course of action that might occur to preserve the species or area.

(c) Pupils shall be encouraged to use appropriate local and state resources, including science faculty and students in postsecondary education institutions and educational materials that are balanced and objective in their coverage of the current scientific and economic research on environmental and conservation issues, to obtain information to assist them in the selection of wildlife species or natural areas and the development of their proposals.

(d) School faculty and any advisers to pupils engaged in a wildlife or natural area conservation project pursuant to the Life Sciences and Conservation Education Project of 1998 shall ensure that pupils gain a full understanding and appreciation of the rights and responsibilities of public and private property owners under the Constitutions of the United States and California. Any projects or strategies undertaken pursuant to the Life Sciences and Conservation Education Project of 1998 shall respect the rights of private landowners and shall strive to build cooperative relationships within the community to protect local wildlife populations or natural areas.

(e) Pupils participating in the Life Sciences and Conservation Education Project of 1998 shall not as part of the project engage in activities for the purposes of influencing legislative or administrative action.

52762. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall do all of the following:

(a) Develop and distribute, to each school district and county office of education that operates an elementary school or junior high school or middle school that is attended by pupils in grade 6, 7, or 8, the forms and guidelines necessary to submit a proposal as described in Section 52761. The guidelines shall include, but need not be limited to, a list of local and state resources that may be of assistance to participating pupils, and the criteria that will be used to select exemplary proposals for special recognition.

(b) Establish a panel of three teachers and one pupil to review and select exemplary proposals submitted by classes participating in the program.

(c) Develop and distribute certificates of commendation for members of the panel established pursuant to subdivision (b), certificates of recognition for all schools that submit a proposal, and certificates of commendation for proposals that are selected as exemplary. To the extent feasible, the superintendent shall, in addition, issue a press release to publicize the competition, make the exemplary proposals available for distribution to other public schools, and disseminate information about the Life Sciences and Conservation Education Project of 1998 to appropriate science or environmental education organizations and publications.

52764. (a) This article shall become inoperative on June 30, 2001, and, as of January 1, 2002, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

(b) This article shall not become operative unless and until the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies, in writing, to the Secretary of State that sufficient funds for its implementation have been appropriated in the annual Budget Act or other legislation.

CHAPTER 878

An act to add Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 8500) to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 8500) is added to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12. METROPOLITAN TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

8500. Except when the context otherwise requires, the definitions given in this chapter govern the construction of this chapter.

8501. As used in this chapter, the following definitions have the following meanings:

(a) "Commission" means the Metropolitan Transportation Commission created by Title 7.1 (commencing with Section 66500) of the Government Code.

(b) "Region" means the region comprising the commission's jurisdiction, prescribed by Section 66502 of the Government Code.

(c) "Bonds" means indebtedness and securities of any kind or class, including bonds, notes, bond anticipation notes, and commercial paper.

8502. The commission may impose, in addition to any other tax authorized by this division, a tax on the privilege of selling within the region, motor vehicle fuel, as defined by Section 7304. The tax shall not apply to motor vehicle fuel used to power aircraft. The tax shall be levied at a rate established by the commission, but not exceeding ten cents ($0.10) per gallon. Commencing on January 1 of the year following the election approving the tax, the tax may be imposed for a period not to exceed 20 years.

8503. (a) Prior to imposing the tax, the commission shall adopt a regional transportation expenditure plan for the revenues derived from the tax. The regional transportation expenditure plan shall describe specific proposed transportation projects and the estimated cost of each project.

(b) The regional transportation expenditure plan shall also meet the following minimum objectives and criteria:

(1) Project expenditures shall reflect an equitable distribution of revenues throughout the region with not less than 95 percent of revenues from each county, based on population, being invested over the 20-year life of the tax in projects attributable to that county. In addition, during every five-year period, no less than 80 percent of the revenues from each county, based on population, invested during that period shall be invested in projects attributable to that county. The commission shall allocate any accrued interest according to the same formula. At the time of the development of the expenditure plan, the commission shall use population data from the most recent United States census, and shall take into account estimated increases in population over the 20-year period projected by the Association of Bay Area Governments.

(2) Projects included in the expenditure plan shall be consistent with the commission's regional transportation plan, a congestion management program, or a countywide transportation plan. The commission shall, in prioritizing projects in the expenditure plan, give additional consideration to projects where local land use policies reduce dependence on single-occupant motor vehicle travel. The expenditure plan development process shall include consultation with cities, counties, transit operators, congestion management agencies, and other interested groups.

(3) Cost estimates for each project shall be prepared by the commission, in consultation with project sponsors, and verified by an independent cost-estimating firm retained by the commission for that purpose. Estimates of other funding required to complete any project shall be based on an estimate of funds reasonably expected to be available during the 20-year period commencing with the year that the tax is initially imposed.

(4) To be eligible for inclusion in the expenditure plan, a project shall meet at least one of the following regional transportation needs:

(A) Fund maintenance and rehabilitation of local streets and roads, sidewalks, or bicycle routes, or close a gap in the local street and road system.

(B) Fund capital or operating expenses of public transit systems.

(C) Fund rail extension projects in the commission's Resolution 1876, Tier I funding plan, dated February 26, 1992, as contained in the commission's regional transportation plan.

(D) Provide an alternative to single occupancy automobile travel.

(E) Improve safety on specific roadway segments where accident or fatality rates exceed the expected rate for those segments over a multiyear timeframe, including, but not limited to, expansion or realignment of the roadway.

(F) Improve the operational efficiency of the existing roadway system without a physical expansion of the system. However, expansion projects to reconfigure existing interchanges are eligible for inclusion in the plan.

(G) Fund implementation of the requirements of the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-336), or those requirements as revised, on public transit systems and other transportation-related facilities.

(H) Fund seismic retrofitting of transportation facilities, except toll bridges.

(I) Fund intermodal freight or passenger facilities.

(J) Fund transportation enhancement activities, as defined in subsection (a) of Section 101 of Title 23 of the United States Code.

(K) Defray interest costs and other expenses associated with the issuance of revenue bonds or revenue anticipation notes.

(5) If not otherwise available, sufficient funding shall be included in the cost estimates and expenditure plan presented to the voters to operate and maintain each included project for the duration of the tax.

8504. Following the adoption by the commission of a regional transportation expenditure plan, the board of supervisors of each county and city and county in the region shall, upon the request of the commission, submit to the voters at a local election consolidated with a statewide primary or general election specified by the commission, a measure, adopted by the commission, authorizing the commission to impose the tax throughout the region. The commission shall reimburse each county and city and county in the region for the cost of submitting the measure to the voters. These costs shall be reimbursed from revenues derived from the tax if the measure is approved by the voters and from any available funds of the commission if the measure is not approved. The board of supervisors of a county or city and county may elect not to submit the measure adopted by the commission to the voters if it submits an alternative countywide transportation funding measure to the voters at the same election.

8505. Upon approval of the measure by the margin of voters within the region voting at a local election as determined necessary by the California Constitution or other applicable statutory provisions, the commission may impose the tax in all counties in the region in which the measure appeared on the ballot.

8506. The commission shall contract with the State Board of Equalization for the administration of any tax imposed under this chapter, and the board shall be reimbursed for its actual cost in the administration of the tax and for its actual cost of preparation to administer the tax based upon an independent audit.

8507. The State Board of Equalization shall adopt the necessary rules and regulations to administer the tax.

8508. After deducting its cost of administering the tax, the State Board of Equalization shall periodically transmit the net revenues to the commission as promptly as possible. Transmittal of those revenues shall be made at least twice in each calendar quarter.

8509. The net revenues received by the commission shall be expended only in accordance with the regional transportation expenditure plan adopted pursuant to Section 8503, except that the commission may deduct from those revenues funds to reimburse it for expenses incurred in the initial implementation of this chapter, and thereafter, its cost of administration, not to exceed 1 percent of annual net revenues.

8510. In order to be eligible for funds derived from the tax, project sponsors shall comply with all applicable commission rules and regulations including, but not limited to, those adopted pursuant to Section 66516 of the Government Code and Sections 99244 and 99246 of the Public Utilities Code. In consultation with cities, counties, transit operators, congestion management agencies, and other interested groups, the commission shall also develop and implement a program to ensure that project sponsors expend funds derived from the tax in an efficient and effective manner. No operating or maintenance funding provided from the tax shall be used to supplant any funds within the discretionary control of the recipient agency that are used for existing transportation operating or maintenance activities.

8511. The commission's regional transportation expenditure plan shall include a process of ensuring periodic public review of the progress of the regional transportation expenditure plan and citizen oversight.

8512. The commission may, by a two-thirds vote, amend the regional transportation expenditure plan after a minimum of two public hearings in accordance with Section 8511. Any amendment shall comply with all of the requirements for the plan prescribed by this chapter.

8513. (a) If requested to do so by the commission in its resolution calling for an election, the board of supervisors, as part of the ballot proposition to approve the imposition of the tax, shall include authorization for the commission to issue bonds for capital outlay expenditures as may be provided for in the ordinance expenditure plan payable from the proceeds of the tax.

(b) The maximum bonded indebtedness that may be outstanding at any one time shall be an amount equal to the sum of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, but not to exceed the estimated proceeds of the tax, as determined by the plan. The amount of bonds outstanding at any one time does not include the amount of bonds, refunding bonds, or bond anticipation notes for which funds necessary for the payment thereof have been set aside for that purpose in a trust or escrow account.

(c) The proposition shall set forth each of the following:

(1) The actual percent of the tax.

(2) The duration of the tax if the plan specifies a time limit.

(3) The amount of bonds, if any, payable from the proceeds of the tax.

(4) The commission as the agency imposing the tax.

(5) The appropriations limit of the commission, pursuant to Section 4 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(d) The sample ballot to be mailed to the voters, pursuant to Section 13303 of the Elections Code, shall be the full proposition, as set forth in the ordinance calling the election, and the voter information handbook shall include the entire ordinance expenditure plan.

8514. (a) The bonds authorized by the voters concurrently with the approval of the tax may be issued at any time by the commission and shall be payable from the proceeds of the tax. The bonds shall be referred to as "limited tax bonds."

The bonds may be secured by a pledge of revenues from the proceeds of the tax.

(b) The pledge of the tax to the limited tax bonds authorized under this chapter shall have priority over the use of any of the tax for "pay-as-you-go" financing, except to the extent that this priority is expressly restricted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

8515. Limited tax bonds shall be issued pursuant to a resolution adopted at any time by a two-thirds vote of the commission. Each resolution shall provide for the issuance of bonds in the amounts as may be necessary, until the full amount of bonds authorized have been issued. The full amount of bonds may be divided into two or more series and different dates of payment fixed for the bonds of each series. A bond need not mature on its anniversary date.

8516. (a) A resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds shall state all of the following:

(1) The purposes for which the proposed debt is to be incurred, which may include all costs and estimated costs incidental to, or connected with, the accomplishment of those purposes, including, without limitation, engineering, inspection, legal, fiscal agent, financial consultant and other fees, bond and other reserve funds, working capital, bond interest estimated to accrue during the construction period and for a period not to exceed three years thereafter, and expenses of all proceedings for the authorization, issuance, and sale of the bonds.

(2) The estimated cost of accomplishing those purposes.

(3) The amount of the principal of the indebtedness.

(4) The maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not be beyond the date of termination of the imposition of the tax.

(5) The maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed the maximum allowable by law.

(6) The denomination or denominations of the bonds, which shall not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(7) The form of the bonds, including, without limitation, registered bonds and coupon bonds, to the extent permitted by federal law, and the form of any coupons to be attached thereto, the registration, conversion, and exchange privileges, if any, pertaining thereto, and the time when all of, or any part of, the principal becomes due and payable.

(b) The resolution may also contain any other matters authorized by this chapter or any other law.

8517. The bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum allowable by law, payable at intervals determined by the commission, except that the first interest payable on the bonds, or any series thereof, may be for any period not exceeding one year, as determined by the commission.

8518. In the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, the commission may also provide for the call and redemption of the bonds prior to maturity at the times and prices and upon other terms as specified. However, no bond is subject to call or redemption prior to maturity, unless it contains a recital to that effect or unless a statement to that effect is printed.

8519. The principal of, and interest on, the bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States at the office of the treasurer of the commission, or at other places as may be designated, or at both the office and other places at the option of the holders of the bonds.

8520. The bonds, or each series thereof, shall be dated and numbered consecutively and shall be signed by the chairperson or vice chairperson of the commission and the auditor-controller of the commission, and the official seal, if any, of the commission shall be attached.

The interest coupons of the bonds shall be signed by the auditor-controller of the commission. All of the signatures and seal may be printed, lithographed, or mechanically reproduced.

If any officer whose signature appears on the bonds or coupons ceases to be that officer before the delivery of the bonds, the officer’s signature is as effective as if the officer had remained in office.

8521. The bonds may be sold as the commission determines by resolution, and the bonds may be sold at a price below par, whether by negotiated or public sale.

8522. Delivery of any bonds may be made at any place either inside or outside the state, and the purchase price may be received in cash or bank credits.

8523. All accrued interest and premiums received on the sale of the bonds shall be placed in the fund to be used for the payment of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, and the remainder of the proceeds of the bonds shall be placed in the treasury of the commission and applied to secure the bonds or for the purposes for which the debt was incurred. However, when the purposes have been accomplished, any money remaining shall be either (a) transferred to the fund to be used for the payment of principal of, and interest on, the bonds or (b) placed in a fund to be used for the purchase of the outstanding bonds in the open market at prices and in the manner, either at public or private sale or otherwise, as determined by the commission. Bonds so purchased shall be canceled immediately.

8524. (a) The commission may provide for the issuance, sale, or exchange of refunding bonds to redeem or retire any bonds issued by the commission upon the terms, at the times, and in the manner which it determines.

(b) Refunding bonds may be issued in a principal amount sufficient to pay all, or any part of, the principal of the outstanding bonds, the premiums, if any, due upon call and redemption thereof prior to maturity, all expenses of the refunding, and either of the following:

(1) The interest upon the refunding bonds from the date of sale thereof to the date of payment of the bonds to be refunded out of the proceeds of the sale of the refunding bonds or to the date upon which the bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to call or agreement with the holders of the bonds.

(2) The interest upon the bonds to be refunded from the date of sale of the refunding bonds to the date of payment of the bonds to be refunded or to the date upon which the bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to call or agreement with the holder of the bonds.

(c) The provisions of this chapter for the issuance and sale of bonds apply to the issuance and sale of refunding bonds.

8525. (a) The commission may borrow money in anticipation of the sale of bonds which have been authorized pursuant to this chapter, but which have not been sold or delivered, and may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes therefor and may renew the bond anticipation notes from time to time. However, the maximum maturity of any bond anticipation notes, including the renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of delivery of the original bond anticipation notes.

(b) The bond anticipation notes, and the interest thereon, may be paid from any money of the commission available therefor, including the revenues from the tax. If not previously otherwise paid, the bond anticipation notes, or any portion thereof, or the interest thereon, shall be paid from the proceeds of the next sale of the bonds of the commission in anticipation of which the notes were issued.

(c) The bond anticipation notes shall not be issued in any amount in excess of the aggregate amount of the bonds which the commission has been authorized to issue, less the amount of any bonds of the authorized issue previously sold, and also less the amount of other bond anticipation notes therefor issued and then outstanding. The bond anticipation notes shall be issued and sold in the same manner as the bonds.

(d) The bond anticipation notes and the resolutions authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions, or limitations which a resolution of the commission may contain.

8526. Any bonds issued under this chapter are legal investment for all trust funds; for the funds of insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, and trust companies; and for state school funds; and whenever any money or funds may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within the state, that money or those funds may be invested in the bonds issued under this chapter, and whenever bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within the state may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public money, the bonds issued under this chapter may be so used. The provisions of this chapter are in addition to all other laws relating to legal investments and shall be controlling as the latest expression of the Legislature with respect thereto.

SEC. 2. Pursuant to Section 17579 of the Government Code, the Legislature finds that there is no mandate contained in this act that will result in costs incurred by a local agency or school district for a new program or higher level of service which require reimbursement pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 48225.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

48225.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil who holds a work permit to work for a period of not more than five consecutive days in the entertainment or allied industries shall be excused from school during the period that the pupil is working in the entertainment or allied industry for a maximum of up to five absences per school year.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil shall be excused from school in order to participate with a not-for-profit performing arts organization in a performance for a public school pupil audience for a maximum of up to five days per school year provided the pupil's parent or guardian provides a written note to the school authorities explaining the reason for the pupil's absence.

(b) A pupil absent from school under this section shall be permitted to complete all assignments and tests missed during the absence that can be reasonably provided and, upon satisfactory completion, shall be given full credit therefor. The teacher of any class from which a pupil is absent shall determine, pursuant to the regulations of the governing board of the school district, or the county board of education, what assignments the pupil shall make up and in what period of time the pupil shall complete those assignments. The tests and assignments shall be reasonably equivalent to, but not necessarily identical to, the tests and assignments that the pupil missed during the absence.

(c) A pupil absent pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall receive instruction during the period of the absence from a studio teacher certified by the Labor Commissioner holding credentials as defined in Section 11755 of Title 8 of the California Code of Regulations. The instruction shall be offered between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. for pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 to 6, inclusive, and between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. for pupils in grades 7 to 12, inclusive. The school district or county superintendent of schools shall accept the work done by the pupil and the grades given to the pupil on that work and shall provide the pupil with credit for the instruction the pupil received from that teacher.

(d) At the request of a pupil excused from school pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the pupil may be permitted to enroll in a work experience program of the school district and shall receive appropriate academic credit for that work experience.

(e) This section shall apply to all pupils, whether a pupil is enrolled in regular classes or special education classes, a regional occupational program or center, or a program of independent study, or any other program of the school district or county superintendent of schools.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 880

An act to add Section 3482.1 to the Civil Code, relating to nuisance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3482.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3482.1. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Person" means an individual, proprietorship, partnership, corporation, club, or other legal entity.

(2) "Sport shooting range" or "range" means an area designed and operated for the use of rifles, shotguns, pistols, silhouettes, skeet, trap, black powder, or any other similar sport or law enforcement training purpose.

(3) "Indoor shooting range" means a totally enclosed facility designed to offer a totally controlled shooting environment that includes impenetrable walls, floor and ceiling, adequate ventilation and lighting systems, and acoustical treatment for sound attenuation suitable for the range's approved use.

(4) "Nighttime" means between the hours of 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person who operates or uses a sport shooting range in this state shall not be subject to civil liability or criminal prosecution in any matter relating to noise or noise pollution resulting from the operation or use of the range if the range is in compliance with any noise control laws or ordinances that applied to the range and its operation at the time construction or operation of the range was approved by a local public entity having jurisdiction in the matter, or if there were no such laws or ordinances that applied to the range and its operation at that time.

(2) A person who operates or uses a sport shooting range or law enforcement training range is not subject to an action for nuisance, and a court shall not enjoin the use or operation of a range, on the basis of noise or noise pollution if the range is in compliance with any noise control laws or ordinances that applied to the range and its operation at the time construction or operation of the range was approved by a local public entity having jurisdiction in the matter, or if there were no such laws or ordinances that applied to the range and its operation at that time.

(3) Rules or regulations adopted by any state department or agency for limiting levels of noise in terms of decibel level which may occur in the outdoor atmosphere shall not apply to a sport shooting range exempted from liability under this section.

(c) A person who acquires title to or who owns real property adversely affected by the use of property with a permanently located and improved sport shooting range may not maintain a nuisance action with respect to noise or noise pollution against the person who owns the range to restrain, enjoin, or impede the use of the range where there has been no substantial change in the nature of the use or the range. This section does not prohibit actions for negligence or recklessness in the operation of the range or by a person using the range.

(d) A sport shooting range that is in operation and not in violation of existing law at the time of the enactment of an ordinance described in subdivision (b) shall be permitted to continue in operation even if the operation of the sport shooting range at a later date does not conform to a new ordinance or an amendment to an existing ordinance if there has been no substantial change in the nature or use of the range. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of a local agency to enforce any term of a conditional use permit.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this section, this section does not prohibit a local public entity having jurisdiction in the matter from regulating the location and construction of a sport shooting range after the effective date of this section.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this section, this section does not prohibit a local public entity having jurisdiction in the matter from requiring that noise levels at the nearest residential property line to a range not exceed the level of normal city street noise which shall not be more than 60 decibels for nighttime shooting. The subdivision does not abrogate any existing local standards for nighttime shooting. The operator of a sport shooting range shall not unreasonably refuse to use trees, shrubs, or barriers, when appropriate, to mitigate the noise generated by nighttime shooting. For the purpose of this section, a reasonable effort to mitigate is an action that can be accomplished in a manner and at a cost that does not impose an unreasonable financial burden upon the operator of the range.

(g) This section does not apply to indoor shooting ranges.

(h) This section does not apply to a range in existence prior to January 1, 1998, that is operated for law enforcement training purposes by a county of the sixth class if the range is located without the boundaries of that county and within the boundaries of another county. This subdivision shall become operative on July 1, 1999.

Sec. 1472 et seq.), on the basis of the household's ratio of housing costs to household income shall be deemed eligible for a grant pursuant to this chapter notwithstanding the department's calculation of the ratio of housing costs to income utilizing different and additional housing cost factors.

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000) appropriated as Item 2240-104-0927 in the Budget Act of 1997, shall be allocated for the following purposes:

The department may waive any requirements of Section 50517.5 of the Health and Safety Code and any regulations promulgated thereunder that are inconsistent with prompt and effective implementation of the demonstration programs described in this item. The demonstration programs shall be as follows:

(C) The department shall submit a report on or before January 1, 1999, and on or before each January 1, thereafter, to the Legislature on the administration and implementation of the demonstration programs. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(i) The number and type of housing units.

(ii) The cost of the housing units.

(iii) The department's administrative costs and budget for implementation and management.

(iv) Details of the implementation and success of the various components of the projects.

(b) The department shall use funds appropriated for purposes of subparagraphs (A) and (B) to maximize other local, state, federal, or private funds and may waive the requirement that the sponsor make a contribution if the department determines that the sponsor does not have the capability to make the contribution.

(c) Of the funds appropriated for the purpose authorized in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a), no more than two hundred seventy thousand dollars ($270,000) may be expended in any fiscal year for costs of administering the programs authorized thereby.

(10) Targeted case management services for children with an individualized education plan (IEP), an individualized family service plan (IFSP), or an individualized health and support plan (IHSP) provided on or after July 1, 1997.

(g) Local educational agencies may, but need not, provide any or all of the services specified in subdivision (f).

(h) For the purposes of this section, "local educational agency" means the governing body of any school district or community college district, the county office of education, a state special school, a California State University campus, or a University of California campus.

(i) Any local educational agency provider enrolled to provide service pursuant to this section on January 1, 1995, may bill for targeted case management services for children with an individualized education plan (IEP), an individualized family service plan (IFSP), provided on or after January 1, 1995, or an individualized health and support plan (IHSP), provided on or after July 1, 1997.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, a community college district, a California State University campus, or a University of California campus, consistent with the requirements of this section, may bill for services provided to any student, regardless of age, who is a Medi-Cal recipient.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14132.06 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1294. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 884

An act to add Article 10.1 (commencing with Section 25211) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 42167 and 42175 of, and to add Section 42175.1 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Discarded major appliances are solid waste managed pursuant to the California Integrated Waste Management Act of 1989 (Division 30 (commencing with Section 40000) of the Public Resources Code), including the provisions of that act governing metallic discards (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 42160) of Part 3 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code) unless the major appliances are removed from the solid waste stream for the purposes of recycling. However, those major appliances may contain hazardous materials that become hazardous waste when released or removed from the appliance in the discard process.

(b) To avoid hazardous waste contamination of soil and groundwater and contamination of reusable materials derived from metal scrapyards and shredders, and to avoid the illegal disposal of any hazardous waste released or removed from a major appliance, it is in the interests of the state to ensure that those materials are removed from major appliances before they are crushed for transport or transferred to a shredder or baler for recycling and are managed in compliance with Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) Any materials that require special handling are required to be removed from major appliances as specified in Section 42175 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 2. Article 10.1 (commencing with Section 25211) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 10.1. Management of Hazardous Wastes Removed From Discarded Appliances

25211. For purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meaning:

(a) "Major appliance" has the same meaning as defined in Section 42166 of the Public Resources Code.

(b) "Materials that require special handling" has the same meaning as defined in Section 42167 of the Public Resources Code.

25212. (a) Any person who, pursuant to Section 42175 of the Public Resources Code, removes from a major appliance any material that requires special handling, that is a hazardous waste under this chapter, is a hazardous waste generator and shall comply with all provisions of this chapter applicable to generators of hazardous waste.

(b) All materials that require special handling that have been removed from a major appliance pursuant to Section 42175 of the Public Resources Code, and that are hazardous wastes, shall be managed in accordance with this chapter.

(c) (1) The department or a local health officer or other public officer authorized pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180), including, when applicable, a certified unified program agency (CUPA) or a unified program agency within the jurisdiction of a CUPA, shall incorporate the regulation of materials that require special handling that, when removed from major appliances, are hazardous wastes into the existing inspection and enforcement activities of the department or the local health officer or other public officer.

(2) The department, local health officers, or other public officers shall coordinate their activities as needed to identify and regulate materials that require special handling that, when removed from major appliances, are hazardous wastes that are transported from one jurisdiction to another.

25213. (a) To implement subdivision (c) of Section 25212, the department shall, based on reasonably available information, develop a statewide list of appliance recyclers, used appliance dealers, solid waste facilities, metal scrapyards, and others who may remove, or do business with those who remove, from major appliances, materials that require special handling. The department shall notify persons on the list of the requirements of this chapter and the steps that will be required to be taken to comply with this chapter.

(b) The department shall transmit a copy of the Appliance Recycling Guide, published by the California Integrated Waste Management Board, and any other materials determined to be necessary by the department to ensure compliance with this chapter, to the following persons and agencies:

(1) Persons who apply for a generator identification number indicating that they are involved with any activities regulated pursuant to this article.

25214. The department shall make information available upon request regarding the implementation of this article, including, but not limited to, the list of persons notified pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25213, the list of persons identified pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25213, information on inspection and enforcement, and other information pertaining to the record of compliance with this article, subject to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

SEC. 3. Section 42167 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42167. "Materials that require special handling" means all of the following:

(a) Sodium azide canisters in unspent airbags that are determined to be hazardous by federal and state law or regulation.

(e) Mercury found in switches and temperature control devices in major appliances.

SEC. 4. Section 42175 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42175. Materials that require special handling shall be removed from major appliances and vehicles in which they are contained prior to crushing for transport or transferring to a baler or shredder for recycling.

SEC. 5. Section 42175.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

42175.1. Any hazardous material that becomes a hazardous waste when released or removed from any major appliance shall be managed pursuant to Article 10.1 (commencing with Section 25211) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or because a local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 885

An act to add Chapter 3.1 (commencing with Section 13825.1) to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to youth, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In order to take a more balanced, preventive, and comprehensive approach for reducing crime and violence in California, it is the intent of the Legislature that resources be increased for programs that are designed with the input of, or carried out by, various elements of certain communities with high levels of gang and criminal activity, for purposes of targeting and preventing at-risk youth from participating in gangs, criminal activity, and violent behavior.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) While overall crime is declining, juvenile crime is rising. The United States Justice Department reported in 1996 that juvenile arrests for serious crimes grew by 46 percent from 1983 to 1992, while murders committed by juveniles during this period more than doubled.

(b) The problem of youth violence will, without active intervention, increase as the juvenile population is projected to grow substantially by the next decade. By the year 2010 the number of juveniles who are 15 to 17 years of age is expected to increase 31 percent. Although illegal drug use among high school seniors had declined significantly during the 1980's, it began rising in 1992. Juvenile arrest rates for weapons-law violations increased 103 percent between 1985 and 1994, while juvenile killings with firearms quadrupled between 1984 and 1994. Handguns were used in two-thirds of the youth homicides involving guns over a 15-year span. In 1994, 82 percent of juvenile murderers used guns. The number of juvenile homicide offenders in 1994 was about 2,800, nearly triple the number in 1984. Most offenders were 15 years of age or older. In addition, juveniles tend to murder strangers more than one-third of the time, while adults tend to murder family and those they know.

(c) Some project that the increase in the crime rate will be larger among Black and Latino juveniles, with a 17 percent increase among Black teens and a 30 percent increase among Latino teens.

(d) The adult arrest rate is 2,000 per 100,000 adults, while the juvenile arrest rate among 10 to 17 year olds is 2,800 per 100,000 juveniles.

(e) The juvenile felony arrest rate for 15 to 19 year olds is 2,900 per 100,000 juveniles, while the adult felony arrest rate for 20 to 30 year olds is 1,500 per 100,000 adults. The felony arrest rate reaches its highest peak in the 15 to 19 year-old group and the adult arrest rate continues to drop dramatically as the years in age increase.

(f) About half of all persons arrested in California in 1992 were between the ages of 11 and 24.

(g) Those who are more likely to be killed by firearms than any other age group, are teenagers, 18 to 19 years of age.

(h) California spends a significant percentage of its budget on punishment and incarceration efforts in relation to the resources it spends for prevention efforts.

(i) In responding to crime, violence, and gangs, the Office of the Legislative Analyst estimated that state and local governments spent about 13.8 billion dollars in the 1992–93 fiscal year in related costs for law enforcement (6.5 billion dollars), corrections (4.8 billion dollars), courts (1.4 billion dollars), prosecution (7 million dollars), and public defense (4 million dollars).

(j) The inmate population will increase from 140,000 to 209,500 by the year 2000 and will exceed 300,000 by the year 2005. The Department of Corrections estimates that the cost of operating the prison system will increase by about 1.4 billion dollars by the 1998–99 fiscal year, 3 billion dollars by the 2003–04 fiscal year, and 5.7 billion dollars in the 2026–27 fiscal year and annually thereafter.

(k) California allocates insufficient funding for crime and violence prevention efforts. The state's largest providers of prevention programs are the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, the State Department of Education, the State Department of Social Services, and the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs which received a total of approximately seventy-eight million four hundred thousand dollars ($78,400,000) in the 1995–96 fiscal year.

(l) The United States Justice Department has estimated that crime costs 490 billion dollars per year in the form of stolen or damaged property, loss of productivity to society, loss of work time, costs to operate the criminal justice system, including police, prosecution, courts, probation, incarceration, and parole costs, medical costs, and the pain and suffering of crime victims. Although the costs of crime and violence can be quantified, to a large degree, in monetary terms, it is the intangible results of crime and violence, for example, fear, intolerance, and isolation, that contribute in tremendous part to the decay of individuals, relations, values, and society. This destruction carries a price tag that may never be paid.

(m) The health-related costs of crime and violence are enormous. For example, the average cost to treat a gunshot victim in California in 1993 was approximately twenty-five thousand eight hundred eighty-three dollars ($25,883). It cost seven hundred three million dollars ($703,000,000) in direct medical care in 1993 to treat wounded gunshot victims and gunshot fatalities. Over 80 percent of the medical care provided to gunshot victims in California, approximately five hundred sixty-nine million dollars ($569,000,000), was uncompensated cost that was passed on to the public in 1995. In 1993, the average loss in productivity and quality of life per gunshot in California was over two million four hundred thousand dollars ($2,400,000), while total firearm-related injuries and fatalities in 1993 indirectly cost Californians over 16.9 billion dollars in lost productivity and quality of life.

(n) Various prevention and intervention programs currently are providing services and activities that are effectively reducing gang and criminal activity and violent behavior in the communities in which they are operating. Successful prevention and intervention programs appear to incorporate some or all of the following elements or components: (1) identify risk factors for crime and violence, (2) use protective factors for reducing and preventing crime and violence, (3) implement community guidelines for prevention and intervention, (4) target at-risk youth, (5) target certain geographical areas, (6) contain a mentoring component, and (7) link the community with law enforcement, schools, service providers, and local government.

SEC. 3. Chapter 3.1 (commencing with Section 13825.1) is added to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.1. THE CALIFORNIA GANG, CRIME, AND VIOLENCE PREVENTION PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

13825.1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program.

13825.2. The California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program shall be administered by the Department of Justice for the purposes of reducing gang, criminal activity, and youth violence to the extent authorized pursuant to this chapter in communities with a high incidence of gang violence, including, but not limited to, the communities of Fresno, Glendale, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Oakland, Riverside, Santa Ana, Santa Cruz, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Jose, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Monica, and Venice. The department shall also consider communities that meet any one of the following criteria:

(a) An at-risk youth population, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 13825.4, that is significantly disproportionate to the general youth population of that community.

(b) A juvenile arrest rate that is significantly disproportionate to the general youth population of that community.

(c) Significant juvenile gang problems or a high number of juvenile gang-affiliated acts of violence.

13825.3. All funds made available to the Department of Justice for purposes of this chapter shall be disbursed in accordance with this chapter to community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies that comply with the program requirements of Section 13825.4 and the funding criteria of Section 13825.5 of this chapter.

(a) Funds disbursed under this chapter may enhance, but shall not supplant local, state, or federal funds that would, in the absence of the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program, be made available for the prevention or intervention of youth involvement in gangs, crime, or violence.

(b) The applicant community-based organization or nonprofit agency may enter into interagency agreements between it and a fiscal agent that will allow the fiscal agent to manage the funds awarded to the community-based organization or nonprofit agency.

(c) Before April 15, 1998, the department shall prepare and file administrative guidelines and procedures for the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program consistent with this chapter.

(d) Before July 1, 1998, the department shall issue a "request for funding proposal" that informs applicants of the purposes and availability of funds to be awarded under this chapter and solicits proposals from community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies to provide services consistent with this chapter.

(e) The department shall conduct an evaluation of the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program after two years of program operation and each year thereafter, for purposes of identifying the effectiveness and results of the program. The evaluation shall be conducted by staff or an independent body that has experience in evaluating programs operated by community-based organizations or nonprofit agencies.

(f) After two years of program operation, and each year thereafter, the department shall prepare and submit an annual report to the Legislature describing in detail the operation of the program and the results obtained from the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program receiving funds under this chapter. The report shall also list the full costs applicable to the department for processing and reviewing applications, and for administering the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program.

13825.4. Community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies that receive funds under this chapter shall utilize the funds to provide services and activities designed to prevent or deter at-risk youth from participating in gangs, criminal activity, or violent behavior.

(a) These prevention and intervention efforts shall include, but not be limited to, any of the following:

(1) Services and activities designed to do any of the following:

(A) Teach alternative methods for resolving conflicts and responding to violence, drugs, and crime.

(B) Develop positive and life-affirming attitudes and behaviors.

(C) Build self-esteem.

(2) Recreational, educational or cultural activities.

(3) Counseling or mentoring services.

(4) Economic development activities.

(b) Funds allocated under this chapter may not be used for services or activities related to suppression, law enforcement, incarceration, or other purposes not related to prevention and deterring gangs, crime, and violence.

(c) Services and activities provided with funds under this chapter shall be used for at-risk youth who are defined as persons from age five to 20 and who fall into one or more of the following categories:

(1) Live in a high-crime or high-violence neighborhood as identified by local or federal law enforcement agencies.

(2) Live in a low-economic neighborhood as identified by the U.S. Census or come from an impoverished family.

(3) Are excessively absent from school or are doing poorly in school as identified by personnel from the youth's school.

(4) Come from a socially dysfunctional family as identified by local or state social service agencies.

(5) Have had one or more contacts with the police.

(6) Have entered the juvenile justice system.

(7) Are identified by the juvenile justice system as being at-risk.

(8) Are current or former gang members.

(9) Have one or more family members living at home who are current or former members of a gang.

(10) Are identified as wards of the court, as defined in Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(d) In carrying out a program of prevention and intervention services and activities with funds received under this chapter, community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies shall do all of the following:

(1) Collaborate with other local community-based organizations, nonprofit agencies or local agencies providing similar services, local schools, local law enforcement agencies, residents and families of the local community, private businesses in the local community, and charitable or religious organizations, for purposes of developing plans to provide a program of prevention and intervention services and activities with funds provided under this chapter.

(2) Identify other community-based organizations, nonprofit agencies, local agencies, and charitable or religious organizations in the local community that can serve as a resource in providing services and activities under this chapter.

(3) Follow the public health model approach in developing and carrying out a program to prevent, deter or reduce youth gangs, crime or violence by (A) identifying risk factors of the particular population to be targeted, (B) implementing protective factors to prevent or reduce gangs, crime or violence in the particular community to be serviced, and (C) designing community guidelines for prevention and intervention.

(4) Provide referral services to at-risk youth who are being served under this chapter to appropriate organizations and agencies where the community-based organization or nonprofit agency can readily identify a need for counseling, tutorial, family support, or other types of services.

(5) Provide the parents and family of the at-risk youth with support, information, and services to cope with the problems the at-risk youth, the parents, and the family are confronting.

(6) Involve members of the at-risk target population in the development, coordination, implementation, and evaluation of their program of services and activities.

(7) Objectively evaluate the effectiveness of their services and activities to determine changes in attitudes or behaviors of the at-risk youth being served under this chapter towards gangs, crime, and violence.

13825.5. To be eligible for funding under this chapter, community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies shall submit a request for funding proposal in compliance with this chapter to conduct a program that meets the requirements of Section 13825.4. The Department of Justice shall establish the minimum standards, funding schedules, and procedures for awarding grants that shall take into consideration, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) A demonstrated showing of at least two years of experience in administering a program providing prevention or prevention and intervention services that have positively affected the attitudes or behaviors of at-risk youth, as defined in this chapter, toward gangs, crime, or violence.

(b) New programs, services, or staff that would augment the existing programs, services, and activities already being provided the community-based organization or nonprofit agency.

(c) The size of the eligible at-risk youth population that would be served by the community-based organization or nonprofit agency.

(d) The likelihood that the program will continue to operate after state grant funding ends.

(e) The ability of the community-based organization or nonprofit agency to objectively evaluate itself and a demonstrated showing of its plan to evaluate itself if funds are awarded. For purposes of this chapter, community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies do not include libraries, community service organizations, and city, county, and state-operated departments of parks and recreation.

13825.6. Funding for the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program shall be subject to the following:

(a) Up to 2 percent of the amounts appropriated in the Budget Act shall be transferred each year upon the approval of the Director of Finance, for expenditure as necessary for the Department of Justice to administer this program.

(b) Up to 3 percent of the amounts appropriated in the Budget Act shall be transferred each year upon the approval of the Director of Finance, for expenditure as necessary for the department to provide technical assistance to community-based organizations and nonprofit agencies providing services under this chapter. Nothing in this chapter precludes the department from providing technical assistance services through an independent agency or organization.

SEC. 4. The sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice to implement the California Gang, Crime, and Violence Prevention Partnership Program, as established by this act.

CHAPTER 886

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1997 (Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1997), relating to state government, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

On this date I have signed AB 1188.

Assembly Bill No. 1188 would restore funding for various departments that was vetoed from the Budget Act of 1997 pending enactment of legislation for a mandatory testing program for all pupils in grades 2 through 11.

I am signing AB 1188, however, I am reducing the appropriations by a total of $6,054,000 because these projects are not a sufficient priority to justify their funding.

I am eliminating the $37,000 appropriation made in Section 2 from the Environmental License Plate Fund to the Department of Conservation for farmland mapping in Mendocino County.

I am eliminating the $80,000 appropriation made in Section 4 from the Environmental License Plate Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation to fund a grant to the City of Redondo Beach to refurbish ponds and paths in Wilderness Park.

I am reducing the appropriations made in Section 5 by a total of $750,000 from the Public Resources Account of the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation. Subsection (d) would appropriate $500,000 to the City of Maywood to acquire land for a regional park and recreation facility. Subsection (e) would appropriate $250,000 to the City of Clearlake for the construction of a new senior center.

I am reducing the appropriations made in Section 6 by a total of $132,000 from the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation. Subsection (c) would appropriate $100,000 to the City of San Jose for the Vietnamese Cultural Heritage Garden. Subsection (d) would appropriate $32,000 to the Youth Garden Alliance for a community garden in Mendocino County.

I am eliminating the $2,000,000 appropriation made in subsection (a) of Section 14 from the General Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (Proposition 98) to fund expansion of the California School Paraprofessional Teacher Training Program.

I am eliminating the $55,000 appropriation made in subsection (b) of Section 14 from the Federal Trust Fund to the Teacher Credentials Fund to fund the costs of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing in administering the California School Paraprofessional Teacher Training Program.

I am eliminating the $3,000,000 appropriation made in Section 16 from the Air Pollution Control Fund to the State Air Resources Board to fund stationary source air pollution control activities. This section is duplicative of Section 32 of AB 1571, and is therefore, unnecessary.

CHAPTER 887

An act to add Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 53125) to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 41136 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local agencies, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 53125) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 6.5. Local Nonemergency Telephone System Pilot Program

53125. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the efficient and effective use of the "911" emergency telephone system has recently been compromised by an increase in nonemergency calls to that number. The Legislature further finds and declares that these nonemergency calls can burden the "911" system, diverting "911" call-takers and radio dispatchers from true emergencies. For these reasons, the Legislature finds and declares that a need exists to implement procedures to limit the use of the "911" system to true emergencies, and to provide citizens with an alternative phone system for nonemergencies. The purpose of the pilot program is to assess whether the establishment of a "311" nonemergency telephone system will substantially decrease the use of the "911" system for nonemergencies.

(b) The Division of Telecommunications of the Department of General Services shall conduct a pilot program to evaluate alternative means to reduce the use of the "911" telephone number for nonemergency assistance. The pilot program shall consist of the following two approaches:

(1) The use of a "311" telephone number as a means of reaching local public safety agencies for nonemergency assistance.

(2) Improved marketing of the use of and access to existing nonemergency telephone numbers for nonemergency assistance, which may include, but shall not be limited to providing decals for each individual telephone within the study area, which include the nonemergency telephone numbers of public safety entities serving the area in which the telephone is located.

(c) The pilot program shall be implemented as soon as the Division of Telecommunications determines that it is practicable to do so, but in no event later than July 1, 1998. The division may select one or more locations to implement the pilot program, and shall, to the extent possible, select areas with comparable characteristics to serve as a study area for one of the two approaches specified in subdivision (b) to permit reasonable comparisons of the two alternative approaches, and is encouraged to share the costs of the pilot program with the local agency or agencies. Participation in the pilot program shall be on a voluntary basis on the part of the local agency or agencies. The division shall assess the effectiveness of each of the two approaches specified in subdivision (b) by evaluating the following factors:

(1) The overall impact of each of the two approaches specified in subdivision (b) on the "911" system.

(2) The costs associated with the establishment, operation, and maintenance of either approach specified in subdivision (b).

(3) The difficulties associated with appropriately routing emergency calls placed to the "311" telephone number or the existing nonemergency telephone number.

(4) The staffing requirements for "311" operators as compared to "911" dispatchers.

(5) Whether the use of either the "311" number or the existing nonemergency telephone number has caused confusion to the public, particularly with respect to the mistaken use of either "311" or the existing nonemergency telephone number instead of "911" by children.

(d) The pilot program shall be deemed to have demonstrated the success of either approach specified in subdivision (b) if the assessment required by subdivision (c) finds that the "311" telephone number or the existing nonemergency telephone number does not create confusion with the "911" program and finds that either approach specified in subdivision (b) has contributed to:

(1) Reducing "911" calls.

(2) Improving answer time for "911" calls.

(3) Reducing unanswered "911" calls.

(4) Reducing nonemergency "911" calls.

(e) The division shall submit a report to the Governor and the Legislature on the results of the pilot program and its assessment and comparison of each approach specified in subdivision (b) by July 1, 1999.

(f) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 2000.

SEC. 2. Section 41136 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

41136. Funds in the State Emergency Telephone Number Account shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be spent solely for the following purposes:

(a) To pay refunds authorized by this part.

(b) To pay the State Board of Equalization for the cost of the administration of this part.

(c) To pay the Department of General Services for its costs in administration of the "911" emergency telephone number system.

(d) To pay bills submitted to the Department of General Services by service suppliers or communications equipment companies for the installation and ongoing expenses for the following communications services supplied local agencies in connection with the "911" emergency phone number system:

(1) A basic system.

(2) A basic system with telephone central office identification.
(3) A system employing automatic call routing.
(4) Approved incremental costs.
(e) To pay claims of local agencies for approved incremental costs, not previously compensated for by another governmental agency.
(f) To pay claims of local agencies for incremental costs and amounts, not previously compensated for by another governmental agency, incurred prior to the effective date of this part, for the installation and ongoing expenses for the following communication services supplied in connection with the "911" emergency phone number system:
(1) A basic system.
(2) A basic system with telephone central office identification.
(3) A system employing automatic call routing.
(4) Approved incremental costs. Incremental costs shall not be allowed unless the costs are concurred in by the Communications Division.
(g) To pay the Telecommunications Division of the Department of General Services for the costs associated with the pilot program authorized by Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 53125) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the State Emergency Telephone Number Account to the Division of Telecommunications of the Department of General Services for the purposes of implementing Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 53125) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, as added by Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the burden placed on the "911" emergency telephone system by nonemergency calls and the potential threat to the public safety posed by that burden, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately in order to determine as soon as possible whether the establishment of a "311" nonemergency telephone system will substantially decrease the use of the "911" system for nonemergencies.

CHAPTER 889

An act relating to education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

On this date I have signed Assembly Bill No. 1587 with the following reductions.

AB 1587 would restore funding, for various K-12 projects, pending enactment of legislation for a mandatory testing program for all pupils in grades 2 through 11.

I am signing AB 1587, however, I am reducing the appropriations by a total of $1,010,000. Previously these funds were vetoed from AB 1578 (Chapter 299, Statutes of 1997). The specific reductions are as follows:

I am reducing Section 1 by eliminating subdivision (e) which allocates $10,000 to the Los Angeles Unified School District for an extended learning program at the Telfair Elementary School. This project should be funded at the local district level with one-time funds.

I am reducing Section 1 by eliminating subdivision (g) which allocates $1,000,000 to be allocated to school districts for upgrading playground facilities. Districts have received sufficient one-time revenues to fund this need from local resources.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of ten million two hundred twenty-four thousand dollars ($10,224,000) is hereby appropriated in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) (1) Seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for allocation to the California Museum Foundation in the 1997–98 fiscal year. Funds appropriated in this subdivision shall be used on a one-time basis for a variety of educational services and programs to enhance children's appreciation and understanding of African-American history, culture, and the visual arts. The Legislature finds and declares that these programs serve an essential educational purpose as a resource for public elementary and secondary schools and are offered to public school pupils and others. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that, notwithstanding Section 41202 of the Education Code, the appropriation made by this paragraph shall be counted towards the state's obligation for minimum funding of the public school system under Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(2) For the purposes of making the computations required by Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, the appropriation made by paragraph (1) shall be deemed to be "General Fund revenues appropriated for school districts," as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 41202 of the Education Code, for the 1995–96 fiscal year, and included within the "total allocations to school districts and community college districts from General Fund proceeds of taxes appropriated pursuant to Article XIII B," as defined

Notwithstanding Section 41205 of the Education Code, the Legislature finds and declares that 100 percent of this appropriation shall be used only for direct instructional services pursuant to Section 41205 of the Education Code and shall be applied to the state's obligation to provide funding to school districts for purposes of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

To be eligible for a grant a school district shall do both of the following:

CHAPTER 890

An act to add Section 1260 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1260 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1260. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any member of the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation that is subject to Section 5914 of the Corporations Code, who negotiates the terms and conditions of a sale or transfer of assets, as described in Section 5914 of the Corporations Code, is prohibited from receiving, directly or indirectly, any salary, compensation, payment, or other form of remuneration from the for-profit corporation or entity or mutual benefit corporation following the close of the sale or other transfer of assets. This prohibition shall not apply to any reimbursement or payment made to a member of the board of directors, who is a physician or other health care provider, for direct patient care services provided to patients covered by a health insurer, health care service plan, employer, or other entity that provides health care coverage, and that is owned, operated, or affiliated with the purchasing for-profit corporation or entity, provided that the amounts payable for the services rendered are no greater than the amounts payable to other physicians or health care providers providing the same or similar services.

For the purpose of this section, "direct patient care services" mean health care services provided directly to a patient, and do not include services provided through an intermediary. Further, in order to qualify for the exemption in this subdivision, the direct patient care services must be health care services that are regularly provided by other physicians or other health care providers in the community who are also receiving reimbursements or payments from the same health insurer, health care service plan, employer, or other entity that is owned or operated by, or affiliated with, the purchasing for-profit corporation or entity.

(b) After a period of two years following the close of the sale or other transfer of assets, a person who was a member of the board of directors of the nonprofit corporation who is prohibited from receiving any remuneration from the for-profit corporation or entity or mutual benefit corporation under subdivision (a) may enter into usual and customary business transactions with the for-profit corporation or entity or mutual benefit corporation so long as the following facts are established:

(1) Prior to authorizing or approving the transaction, the representative of the for-profit corporation or entity or mutual benefit corporation considered and in good faith determined after reasonable investigation under the circumstances that the corporation could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances.

(2) The for-profit corporation or entity or mutual benefit corporation, in fact could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances.

(c) Any person who is a member of management of the nonprofit corporation and who presents information or opinions to the board regarding the sale or other transfer of assets as described in subdivision (a) that are relied upon, or considered by, any of the board members in making decisions regarding the sale or transfer, may make a written affirmative declaration that he or she will not work for, or receive any form of remuneration from, the for-profit corporation or entity or the mutual benefit corporation in the future.

(d) In making any decision regarding the sale or other transfer of the nonprofit corporation's assets, as described in Section 5914 of the Corporations Code, the board of the nonprofit corporation is prohibited from substantially relying on any information presented by any person to whom subdivision (c) applies who has not made a written affirmative declaration pursuant to subdivision (c). This subdivision shall not apply to any person whose only role in the sale or transfer is to provide to the nonprofit corporation exclusively factual information about the nonprofit corporation, community, financial status, or other similar data.

(e) In performing those duties of a director set forth in subdivision (d), the board of directors may contract with independent counsel, accountants, financial analysts, or other professionals whom the board believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented, to review and evaluate information and advice presented by an employee who has not signed an affirmative declaration pursuant to subdivision (c). Any director who substantially relies on information and advice presented by such an independent professional shall be deemed to have not violated subdivision (d).

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the high number of sales of nonprofit hospitals that are currently pending and expected to take place in California, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately in order to ensure the protection of the community's financial interest in the assets of the nonprofit hospital and the community's interest in maintaining access to quality hospital care.

CHAPTER 891

An act to amend Section 2982 of the Civil Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2982. Every conditional sale contract subject to this chapter shall contain the disclosures required by Regulation Z whether or not Regulation Z applies to the transaction. In addition, to the extent applicable, the contract shall contain the other disclosures and notices required by, and shall satisfy the requirements and limitations of, this section. The disclosures required by subdivision (a) may be itemized or subtotaled to a greater extent than as required by that subdivision and shall be made together and in the sequence set forth in that subdivision. All other disclosures and notices may appear in the contract in any location or sequence and may be combined or interspersed with other provisions of the contract.

(a) The contract shall contain the following disclosures, as applicable, which shall be labeled "itemization of the amount financed":

(1) (A) The cash price, exclusive of document preparation fees, taxes imposed on the sale, pollution control certification fees, and the amount charged for a service contract.

(B) The fee to be retained by the seller for document preparation.

(C) The fee charged by the seller for certifying that the motor vehicle complies with applicable pollution control requirements.

(D) Any donation made to a high polluter repair or removal program.

(E) Taxes imposed on the sale.

(F) The amount charged for a service contract.

(G) The total cash price, which is the sum of subparagraphs (A) to (F), inclusive.

(2) An itemization of the amounts to be paid to any public officer for license, certificate of title, motor vehicle smog impact fee, and registration.

(3) The aggregate amount of premiums agreed, upon execution of the contract, to be paid for policies of insurance included in the contract, excluding the amount of any insurance premium included in the finance charge.

(4) The amount of the state fee for issuance of a certificate of compliance, noncompliance, exemption, or waiver pursuant to any applicable pollution control statute.

(5) A subtotal representing the sum of the foregoing items.

(6) The amount of the buyer's downpayment itemized to show the following:

(A) The net agreed value of the property being traded in.

(B) The amount of any portion of the downpayment to be deferred until not later than the due date of the second regularly scheduled installment under the contract and which is not subject to a finance charge.

(C) The amount of any manufacturer's rebate applied or to be applied to the downpayment.

(D) The remaining amount paid or to be paid by the buyer as a downpayment.

(7) The amount of any administrative finance charge, labeled "prepaid finance charge."

(8) The difference between item (5) and the sum of items (6) and (7), labeled "amount financed."

(b) No particular terminology is required to disclose the items set forth in subdivision (a) except as expressly provided in that subdivision.

(c) If payment of all or a portion of the downpayment is to be deferred, the deferred payment shall be reflected in the payment schedule disclosed pursuant to Regulation Z.

(d) If the downpayment includes property being traded in, the contract shall contain a brief description of that property.

(e) The contract shall contain the names and addresses of all persons to whom the notice required under Section 2983.2 and permitted under Sections 2983.5 and 2984 is to be sent.

(f) (1) Where the contract includes a finance charge determined on the precomputed basis, the contract shall identify the method of computing the unearned portion of the finance charge in the event of prepayment in full of the buyer's obligation and contain a statement of the amount or method of computation of any charge that may be deducted from the amount of any unearned finance charge in computing the amount that will be credited to the obligation or refunded to the buyer. The method of computing the unearned portion of the finance charge shall be sufficiently identified with a reference to the actuarial method if the computation will be under that method. The method of computing the unearned portion of the finance charge shall be sufficiently identified with a reference to the Rule of 78's, the sum of the digits, or the sum of the periodic time balances method in all other cases, and those references shall be deemed to be equivalent for disclosure purposes.

(2) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the simple-interest basis but provides for a minimum finance charge in the event of prepayment in full, the contract shall contain a statement of that fact and the amount of the minimum finance charge or its method of calculation.

(g) (1) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the precomputed basis and provides that the unearned portion of the finance charge to be refunded upon full prepayment of the contract is to be determined by a method other than actuarial, the contract shall contain a notice, in at least 10-point boldface type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. Because of the way the amount of this refund will be figured, the time when you prepay could increase the ultimate cost of credit under this agreement. (4)

If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement.”

(2) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the precomputed basis and provides for the actuarial method for computing the unearned portion of the finance charge upon prepayment in full, the contract shall contain a notice, in at least 10-point boldface type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: “Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. (4) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement.”

(3) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the simple-interest basis, the contract shall contain a notice, in at least 10-point boldface type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: “Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time. (4) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement.”

(h) The contract shall contain a notice in at least 8-point boldface type, acknowledged by the buyer, that reads as follows:

“If you have a complaint concerning this sale, you should try to resolve it with the seller.

Complaints concerning unfair or deceptive practices or methods by the seller may be referred to the city attorney, the district attorney, or the Department of Motor Vehicles, Division of Investigations and Occupational Licensing, P.O. Box 93289, Sacramento, California 94232-3890, or any combination thereof.

After this contract is signed, the seller may not change the financing or payment terms unless you agree in writing to the change. You do not have to agree to any change, and it is an unfair or deceptive practice for the seller to make a unilateral change.

Buyer’s Signature”

(i) (1) The contract shall contain an itemization of any insurance included as part of the amount financed disclosed pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and of any insurance included as part of the finance charge. The itemization shall identify the type of insurance coverage and the premium charged therefor, and, if the insurance expires before the date of the last scheduled installment included in the repayment schedule, the term of the insurance shall be stated.

(2) If any charge for insurance (other than for credit life or disability) is included in the contract balance and disbursement of any part thereof is to be made more than one year after the date of the conditional sale contract, any finance charge on the amount to be disbursed after one year shall be computed from the month the disbursement is to be made to the due date of the last installment under the conditional sale contract.

(j) (1) Except for contracts in which the finance charge or portion thereof is determined by the simple-interest basis and the amount financed disclosed pursuant to paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) is more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), the dollar amount of the disclosed finance charge shall not exceed the greater of:

(A) (i) One and one-half percent on so much of the unpaid balance as does not exceed two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225), $1^1/_6$ percent on so much of the unpaid balance in excess of two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) as does not exceed nine hundred dollars ($900) and $^5/_6$ of 1 percent on so much of the unpaid balance in excess of nine hundred dollars ($900) as does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500); or

(ii) One percent of the entire unpaid balance; multiplied in either case by the number of months (computed on the basis of a full month for any fractional month period in excess of 15 days) elapsing between the date of the contract and the due date of the last installment; or

(B) If the finance charge is determined by the precomputed basis, twenty-five dollars ($25); or

(C) If the finance charge or a portion thereof is determined by the simple-interest basis:

(i) Twenty-five dollars ($25) if the unpaid balance does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), (ii) fifty dollars ($50) if the unpaid balance exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000) but does not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), or (iii) seventy-five dollars ($75) if the unpaid balance exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(2) The holder of the contract shall not charge, collect, or receive a finance charge which exceeds the disclosed finance charge, except to the extent (A) caused by the holder's receipt of one or more payments under a contract which provides for determination of the finance charge or a portion thereof on the 365-day basis at a time or times other than as originally scheduled whether or not the parties enter into an agreement pursuant to Section 2982.3, (B) permitted by paragraph (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 226.17 of Regulation Z, or (C) permitted by subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 2982.8.

(3) If the finance charge or a portion thereof is determined by the simple-interest basis and the amount of the unpaid balance exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), the holder of the contract may, in lieu of its right to a minimum finance charge under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1), charge, receive, or collect on the date of the contract an administrative finance charge not to exceed seventy-five dollars ($75), provided that the sum of the administrative finance charge and the portion of the finance charge determined by the simple-interest basis shall not exceed the maximum total finance charge permitted by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1). Any administrative finance charge which is charged, received, or collected by a holder shall be deemed a finance charge earned on the date of the contract.

(4) When a contract provides for unequal or irregular payments, or payments on other than a monthly basis, the maximum finance charge shall be at the effective rate provided for in paragraph (1), having due regard for the schedule of installments.

(k) The contract may provide that for each installment in default for a period of not less than 10 days the buyer shall pay a delinquency charge in an amount not to exceed in the aggregate 5 percent of the delinquent installment, which amount may be collected only once on any installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default. Payments timely received by the seller under an extension or deferral agreement shall not be subject to a delinquency charge unless the charge is permitted by Section 2982.3. The contract may provide for reasonable collection costs and fees in the event of delinquency.

(1) If the finance charge was determined on the precomputed basis, the amount required to prepay the contract shall be the outstanding contract balance as of that date, provided, however, that the buyer shall be entitled to a refund credit in the amount of the unearned portion of the finance charge, except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4). The amount of the unearned portion of the finance charge shall be at least as great a proportion of the finance charge, including any additional finance charge imposed pursuant to Section 2982.8 or other additional charge imposed because the contract has been extended, deferred, or refinanced, as the sum of the periodic monthly time balances payable more than 15 days after the date of prepayment bears to the sum of all the periodic monthly time balances under the schedule of installments in the contract or, if the contract has been extended, deferred, or refinanced, as so extended, deferred, or refinanced. Where the amount of the refund credit is less than one dollar ($1), no refund credit need be made by the holder. Any refund credit may be made in cash or credited to the outstanding obligations of the buyer under the contract.

(2) If the finance charge or a portion thereof was determined on the simple-interest basis, the amount required to prepay the contract shall be the outstanding contract balance as of that date, including any earned finance charges which are unpaid as of that date and, if applicable, the amount provided in paragraph (3), and provided further that in cases where a finance charge is determined on the 360-day basis, the payments theretofore received will be assumed to have been received on their respective due dates regardless of the actual dates on which the payments were received.

(3) Where the minimum finance charge provided by subparagraph (B) or subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (j), if either is applicable, is greater than the earned finance charge as of the date of prepayment, the holder shall be additionally entitled to the difference.

(4) The provisions of this subdivision shall not impair the right of the seller or the seller's assignee to receive delinquency charges on delinquent installments and reasonable costs and fees as provided in subdivision (k) or extension or deferral agreement charges as provided in Section 2982.3.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of a contract to the contrary, whenever the indebtedness created by any contract is satisfied prior to its maturity through surrender of the motor vehicle, repossession of the motor vehicle, redemption of the motor vehicle after repossession, or any judgment, the outstanding obligation of the buyer shall be determined as provided in paragraph (1) or (2); provided further that the buyer's outstanding obligation shall be computed by the holder as of the date the holder recovers the value of the motor vehicle through disposition thereof or judgment is entered or, if the holder elects to keep the motor vehicle in satisfaction of the buyer's indebtedness, as of the date the holder takes possession of the motor vehicle.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, any information required to be disclosed in a conditional sale contract under this chapter may be disclosed in any manner, method, or terminology required or permitted under Regulation Z, as in effect at the time that disclosure is made, except that permitted by paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 226.18 of Regulation Z, provided that all of the requirements and limitations set forth in subdivision (a) of this section are satisfied. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the disclosure in that contract of additional information required or permitted under Regulation Z, as in effect at the time that disclosure is made.

(n) If the seller imposes a fee for document preparation, the contract shall contain a disclosure that the fee is not a governmental fee.

(o) No seller may impose an application fee for a transaction governed by this chapter.

(p) The seller or holder may charge and collect a fee not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15) for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiated order of withdrawal, or share draft issued in connection with the contract, if the contract so provides or if the contract contains a generalized statement that the buyer may be liable for collection costs incurred in connection with the contract.

(q) The contract shall disclose on its face, by printing the word "new" or "used" within a box outlined in red, that is not smaller than one-half inch high and one-half inch wide, whether the vehicle is sold as a new vehicle, as defined in Section 430 of the Vehicle Code, or a used vehicle, as defined in Section 665 of the Vehicle Code.

THERE IS NO COOLING OFF PERIOD

California law does not provide for a "cooling off" or other cancellation period for vehicle sales. Therefore, you cannot later cancel this contract simply because you change your mind, decide the vehicle costs too much, or wish you had acquired a different vehicle. After you sign below, you may only cancel this contract with the agreement of the seller or for legal cause, such as fraud.

CHAPTER 892

An act to amend Sections 998 and 2101 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 9402, 9403, 9404, 9405, 9406, and 9407 of, and to repeal Section 5114 of, the Commercial Code, to amend Section 721 of the Evidence Code, and to amend Sections 12583 and 68616 of the Government Code, relating to civil law.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 998 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

998. (a) The costs allowed under Sections 1031 and 1032 shall be withheld or augmented as provided in this section.

(b) Not less than 10 days prior to commencement of trial or arbitration (as provided in Section 1281 or 1295) of a dispute to be resolved by arbitration, any party may serve an offer in writing upon any other party to the action to allow judgment to be taken or an award to be entered in accordance with the terms and conditions stated at that time.

(1) If the offer is accepted, the offer with proof of acceptance shall be filed and the clerk or the judge shall enter judgment accordingly. In the case of an arbitration, the offer with proof of acceptance shall be filed with the arbitrator or arbitrators who shall promptly render an award accordingly.

(2) If the offer is not accepted prior to trial or arbitration, within 30 days after it is made, whichever occurs first, it shall be deemed withdrawn, and cannot be given in evidence upon the trial or arbitration.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, a trial or arbitration shall be deemed to be actually commenced at the beginning of the opening statement of the plaintiff or counsel, and if there is no opening statement, then at the time of the administering of the oath or affirmation to the first witness, or the introduction of any evidence.

(c) (1) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award, the plaintiff shall not recover his or her postoffer costs and shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer. In addition, in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court or arbitrator, in its discretion, may require the plaintiff to pay a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in preparation for trial or arbitration of the case by the defendant.

(2) (A) In determining whether the plaintiff obtains a more favorable judgment, the court or arbitrator shall exclude the postoffer costs.

(B) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting subparagraph (A) to supersede the holding in Encinitas Plaza Real v. Knight, 209 Cal. App. 3d 996, that attorney's fees awarded to the prevailing party were not costs for purposes of this section but were part of the judgment.

(d) If an offer made by a plaintiff is not accepted and the defendant fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court or arbitrator, in its discretion, may require the defendant to pay a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in preparation for trial or arbitration of the case by the plaintiff, in addition to plaintiff's costs.

(e) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award, the costs under this section, from the time of the offer, shall be deducted from any damages awarded in favor of the plaintiff. If the costs awarded under this section exceed the amount of the damages awarded to the plaintiff the net amount shall be awarded to the defendant and judgment or award shall be entered accordingly.

(f) Police officers shall be deemed to be expert witnesses for the purposes of this section; plaintiff includes a cross-complainant and defendant includes a cross-defendant. Any judgment or award entered pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be a compromise settlement.

(g) This chapter does not apply to an offer which is made by a plaintiff in an eminent domain action.

(h) The costs for services of expert witnesses for trial under subdivisions (c) and (d) shall not exceed those specified in Section 68092.5 of the Government Code.

(i) This section shall not apply to labor arbitrations filed pursuant to memoranda of understanding under the Ralph C. Dills Act (Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

SEC. 2. Section 2101 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2101. (a) Notices of liens, certificates, and other notices affecting federal tax liens or other federal liens must be filed in accordance with this title.

(b) Notices of liens upon real property for obligations payable to the United States and certificates and notices affecting the liens shall be filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real property subject to the liens is situated.

(c) Notices of federal liens upon personal property, whether tangible or intangible, for obligations payable to the United States and certificates and notices affecting the liens shall be filed as follows:

(1) If the person against whose interest the lien applies is a corporation, a limited liability company, or a partnership whose principal executive office is in this state, as these entities are defined in the internal revenue laws of the United States, in the office of the Secretary of State.

(2) If the person against whose interest the lien applies is a trust that is not covered by paragraph (1), in the office of the Secretary of State.

(4) In all other cases, in the office of the recorder of the county where the person against whose interest the lien applies resides at the time of filing of the notice of lien.

SEC. 3. Section 5114 of the Commercial Code, as amended by Chapter 497 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 9402 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9402. (1) A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the names of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor, and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A certified copy of a financing statement or security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if the original thereof was filed in this state.

(a) Collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state or when the debtor's location is changed to this state. The financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor's location was changed to this state under such circumstances.

(b) Proceeds under Section 9306, if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. The financing statement must describe the original collateral.

(c) Collateral as to which the filing has lapsed.

*Where appropriate substitute either "The above timber is standing on . . . . ." or "The above mineral or the like (including oil and gas or accounts will be financed at the wellhead or minehead of the well or mine located on . . . . ."

(4) A financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party, or by the secured party alone in the case of an amendment pursuant to subdivision (7). An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this division, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "financing statement" means the original financing statement and any amendments.

(5) A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subdivision (5) of Section 9103, or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (Section 9313) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility, must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be recorded in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of a record owner. A financing statement filed as a fixture filing (Section 9313) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility must also recite either that it is filed as a fixture filing or that it covers goods which are or are to become fixtures.

(6) A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its recording if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The goods are described in the mortgage by item or type.

(b) The goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real estate described in the mortgage.

(c) The mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records.

(d) The mortgage is duly recorded.

No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

(7) A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or names of partners. Where the debtor so changes his or her name or in the case of an organization its name, identity or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement or an appropriate amendment to the filed financing statement is filed before the acquisition of the collateral by the debtor. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of or consents to the transfer.

(8) A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading. A financing statement filed as a fixture filing (Section 9313) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility is not effective if it does not recite that it is to be recorded in the real estate records and either that it is filed as a fixture filing or that it covers goods which are or are to become fixtures.

(9) A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section creates a security interest only to the extent of the interest of the debtor.

(10) No person or entity acting for or on behalf of the parties to a financing statement shall incur any liability for the consequences of recording a financing statement in the real estate records, and no action may be brought or maintained against that person or entity as a result of the recordation.

SEC. 5. Section 9403 of the Commercial Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 656 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

9403. (1) Presentation for filing of a financing statement, tender of the filing fee and acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this division.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (6), a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of such five-year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. Upon such lapse the security interest becomes unperfected unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse. Upon lapse of a fixture filing, it is deemed to have been ineffective as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party of record within six months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subdivision (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured p arty of record, identify the original statement by file number thereof and state that the original statement is continued. A continuation statement filed to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (Section 9313) is not effective unless the following requirements are met:

(a) If the debtor did not have an interest of record in the real estate as of the date of the filing of the original statement, the continuation statement shall contain the name of a record owner of the real estate as of the date of the filing of the original statement.

(b) The continuation statement shall contain substantially the following statement: "This continuation statement is filed to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed as a fixture filing"; provided, that such statement shall clearly indicate the intent to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement as a fixture filing.

Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subdivision (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. The filing officer may remove a lapsed financing statement and related filings from the files and destroy them immediately if he or she has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after one year after the lapse. The filing officer shall so arrange matters by physical annexation of financing statements to continuation statements or other related filings, or by other means, that if he or she physically destroys the financing statements of a period more than five years past, those which have been continued by a continuation statement or which are still effective under subdivision (6) shall be retained. The filing officer shall not destroy a financing statement and related filings as to which he or she has received written notice that there is an action pending relative thereto.

(4) Except as provided in subdivision (7) a filing officer shall mark each financing statement with a consecutive file number and with the date and time of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statement according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in this statement. The filing officer shall mark each continuation statement with the date and time of filing and shall index the same under the file number of the original financing statement.

(5) The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data (subdivision (1) of Section 9407) for an original financing statement, an amendment or a continuation statement shall be twenty dollars ($20) if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be thirty dollars ($30).

(6) If the debtor is a transmitting utility (subdivision (5) of Section 9401) and a filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement is filed. A real estate mortgage which is effective as a fixture filing under subdivision (6) of Section 9402 remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.

(7) A financing or continuation statement covering collateral described in paragraph (b) of subdivision (1) of Section 9401 or filed as a fixture filing shall be recorded and indexed by the filing officer in the real property index of grantors under the name of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement. A financing or continuation statement so recorded and indexed and containing a description of real property affected thereby shall constitute constructive notice from the time of its acceptance for recording to any purchaser or encumbrancer of the real property of the security interest in such collateral.

(8) The amendments to subdivision (3) of this section, as enacted by the Legislature at the 1997–98 Regular Session, shall become operative June 1, 1998.

(9) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 9403 of the Commercial Code, as added by Section 5.5 of Chapter 656 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

9403. (1) Presentation for filing of a financing statement, tender of the filing fee and acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this division.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (6), a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of such five-year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. Upon such lapse the security interest becomes unperfected unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse. Upon lapse of a fixture filing, it is deemed to have been ineffective as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party of record within six months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subdivision (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party of record, identify the original statement by file number thereof and state that the original statement is continued. A continuation statement filed to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (Section 9313) is not effective unless the following requirements are met:

(a) If the debtor did not have an interest of record in the real estate as of the date of the filing of the original statement, the continuation statement shall contain the name of a record owner of the real estate as of the date of the filing of the original statement.

(b) The continuation statement shall contain substantially the following statement: "This continuation statement is filed to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed as a fixture filing"; provided, that such statement shall clearly indicate the intent to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement as a fixture filing.

Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subdivision (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. The filing officer may remove a lapsed financing statement and related filings from the files and destroy them immediately if he or she has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after one year after the lapse. The filing officer shall so arrange matters by physical annexation of financing statements to continuation statements or other related filings, or by other means, that if he or she physically destroys the financing statements of a period more than five years past, those which have been continued by a continuation statement or which are still effective under subdivision (6) shall be retained. The filing officer shall not destroy a financing statement and related filings as to which he or she has received written notice that there is an action pending relative thereto.

(4) Except as provided in subdivision (7) a filing officer shall mark each financing statement with a consecutive file number and with the date and time of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statement according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in this statement. The filing officer shall mark each continuation statement with the date and time of filing and shall index the same under the file number of the original financing statement.

(5) The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data (subdivision (1) of Section 9407) for an original financing statement, an amendment or a continuation statement shall be five dollars ($5) if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be ten dollars ($10).

(6) If the debtor is a transmitting utility (subdivision (5) of Section 9401) and a filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement is filed. A real estate mortgage which is effective as a fixture filing under subdivision (6) of Section 9402 remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.

(7) A financing or continuation statement covering collateral described in paragraph (b) of subdivision (1) of Section 9401 or filed as a fixture filing shall be recorded and indexed by the filing officer in the real property index of grantors under the name of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement. A financing or continuation statement so recorded and indexed and containing a description of real property affected thereby shall constitute constructive notice from the time of its acceptance for recording to any purchaser or encumbrancer of the real property of the security interest in such collateral.

(8) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2000.

SEC. 7. Section 9404 of the Commercial Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 656 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

9404. (1) Whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party of record must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor a statement that he or she no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. If the affected secured party of record fails to send such a termination statement within 10 days after proper demand therefor he or she shall be liable to the debtor for all actual damages suffered by the debtor by reason of such failure, and if the failure is in bad faith for a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) The filing officer shall mark each such termination statement with the date and time of filing and shall index the same under the name of the debtor and under the file number of the original financing statement. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the financing statement and related filings, the filing officer may remove the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement and destroy them, or if he or she has no such record, he or she may remove them from his or her files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement and destroy them.

(3) The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data (subdivision (1) of Section 9407) for a termination statement shall be twenty dollars ($20) if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be thirty dollars ($30).

(4) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 7.5. Section 9404 of the Commercial Code, as added by Section 6.5 of Chapter 656 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

9404. (1) Whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party of record must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor a statement that he or she no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. If the affected secured party of record fails to send such a termination statement within 10 days after proper demand therefor he or she shall be liable to the debtor for all actual damages suffered by the debtor by reason of such failure, and if the failure is in bad faith for a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) The filing officer shall mark each such termination statement with the date and time of filing and shall index the same under the name of the debtor and under the file number of the original financing statement. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the financing statement and related filings, the filing officer may remove the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement and destroy them, or if he or she has no such record, he or she may remove them from his or her files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement and destroy them.

(3) The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data (subdivision (1) of Section 9407) for a termination statement shall be five dollars ($5) if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be ten dollars ($10).

(4) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2000.

SEC. 8. Section 9405 of the Commercial Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 656 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

9405. (1) A secured party of record may by a writing release his or her security interest in all or a part of the collateral covered by a filed financing statement. A statement of release is sufficient if it is signed by the secured party of record, contains a statement describing the collateral being released, the name of the debtor, and the file number of the original financing statement.

The statement shall be signed by the secured party and shall give the name and mailing address of the assignee, the names of the assignor secured party and the debtor, the file number of the original financing statement, and, if the assignment is less than a full assignment of all of the security interest in all of the collateral covered by the filed financing statement, a description of the collateral affected by the assignment.

(2) The filing officer shall mark each such statement of assignment with the date and time of filing and shall index the same under the name of the debtor and under the file number of the original financing statement.

(3) A statement of assignment may be filed at the time of the filing of the financing statement, in which event the filing officer shall first file the financing statement and index the assignment under the name of the debtor and under the file number given the financing statement. An assignment endorsed on the financing statement before it is filed with the filing officer need not be indexed by the filing officer.

(4) The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data (subdivision (1) of Section 9407) for a separate statement of assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the Secretary of State shall be twenty dollars ($20) or, if such a statement otherwise conforms to the requirements of this section, thirty dollars ($30).

(6) Wherever in this code reference is made to the secured party of record it means the secured party named in the original financing statement or, if a statement of assignment has been filed, or an assignee has been named in the financing statement before it is filed, the assignee of the security interest in the collateral affected. Any continuation statement, amendment to a financing statement, termination statement, statement of release or statement of assignment signed by one other than the secured party of record as to the collateral affected thereby shall be ineffective for any purpose except as between the parties thereto.

(2) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue his or her certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and time stated therein, any presently effective financing statement naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment thereof and if there is, giving the date and time of filing of each statement and the names and addresses of each secured party therein. Upon request, the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed financing statement or related filings. If the filing officer is a county recorder, the fee for a certificate for each name searched shall be set by the filing officer in an amount that covers actual costs, but that, in no event, exceeds fifteen dollars ($15), and the fee for copies shall be in accordance with Section 27366 of the Government Code. If the filing officer is the Secretary of State, the certificate shall be issued as part of a combined certificate pursuant to Section 9409 of the Commercial Code, and the fee for the certificate and copies shall be in accordance with that section.

(3) Fees to be charged by the Secretary of State for daily or less frequent summaries or compilations of filings, which he or she may furnish, shall be sufficient to pay at least the actual cost of that service. Fees shall be determined by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Department of Finance. These summaries or compilations may be in the form of microfilm copies or any other form as may be provided for the required information.

(2) The publication has been admitted in evidence.

15100.5. Except as otherwise provided by law, the governing board of the Peralta Community College District may, when in its judgment it is advisable, order the county superintendent of schools to call an election to be conducted pursuant to this chapter and submit to the electors of the district the question of whether the proceeds of previously authorized but unissued bonds of the district may be used for a purpose or purposes in addition to the purposes for which the previously approved bonds were authorized by the electors.

The governing board may, by order entered into its minutes, call for an election to expand the purposes of prior authorized but unissued bonds either as a single proposition on the ballot or combined with the question of issuing new bonds of the district for any purpose or purposes permitted by law.

If two-thirds of the votes cast on the question of expanding the purposes for which the proceeds of previously authorized but unissued bonds of the district may be used, or the combined question of expanding the purposes for which the proceeds of previously authorized but unissued bonds of the district and issuing newly authorized bonds of the district, are in favor of the proposition, the district may use the proceeds of the previously authorized but unissued bonds for the expanded purposes and may issue newly authorized bonds, as the case may be.

(b) The words to appear in the sample ballot in satisfaction of the requirements of subdivision (a) are as follows:

“Approval of Measure ________ does not guarantee that the proposed project or projects in the ________ School District that are the subject of bonds under Measure ________ will be funded beyond the local revenues generated by Measure ________. The school district’s proposal for the project or projects may assume the receipt of matching state funds, which could be subject to appropriation by the Legislature or approval of a statewide bond measure.”

(2) Some believe that a streamlining of the approval process set forth in this chapter is necessary to efficiently provide the children of the state with needed classrooms in the most expeditious and cost-effective manner. Some expect that other savings can be achieved by increased standardization of plans for school design and construction and the appropriate use of portable classrooms.

(c) A county superintendent of schools who desires to lease portable classrooms shall have prepared for the board's use performance specifications for portable classrooms and bids for their construction that can be solicited from more than one responsible bidder.

(d) No portable classroom shall be made available to a county superintendent of schools unless the county superintendent of schools furnishes evidence, satisfactory to the board, that the county superintendent of schools has no other facility available for rental, lease, or purchase in the geographic service area that is economically or otherwise feasible.

(e) If at any time the board determines that a lessee's need for particular portable classrooms that were made available to the lessee pursuant to this chapter has ceased, the board may take possession of the portable classrooms and may lease them to other county superintendents of schools or, if there is no longer a need for portable classrooms, the board may dispose of them to public or private parties in the manner it deems to be in the best interest of the state.

SEC. 86. Section 17042 is added to the Education Code, to read:

17042. (a) The board, by the adoption of rules, shall provide for the manner of determining the area of adequate school construction existing in an applicant school district at the time of application. Those rules shall define and provide for the method of determining building areas that are to be included in, in whole or in part, or to be excluded from, the area of existing adequate school construction. Any building to which Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of Chapter 1 of Part 23 of Division 3 of Title 2 does not apply shall not be considered adequate school construction for the purpose of determining the maximum total building area per attendance unit.

The board may make exceptions to the provisions of this section, or to the rules adopted pursuant thereto, if it determines that the exception or exceptions will be for the benefit of pupils affected.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter, the area of adequate school construction existing in an applicant school district does not include any of the following:

(1) Any portable classroom made available to the district under Chapter 25 (commencing with Section 17785).

(2) In any school operated on a year-round schedule, any building area that has been in continuous use during the preceding five-year period primarily for the operation of any preschool program or programs.

(5) Any classroom acquired or constructed for the purpose of operating a community day school pursuant to Section 48660, if the classroom is not located on a regular elementary, middle, junior high, or senior high school site.

(c) The board may make exceptions to this section, or to the rules adopted pursuant thereto, if it determines that the exception or exceptions will be for the benefit of pupils affected.

(1) Identify by grade level all teaching stations existing in the school district or, where appropriate, the attendance area, as of January 1, 1993. For the purposes of this section, "teaching station" means any space that was constructed or reconstructed to serve as an area in which to provide pupil instruction.

(2) Determine the maximum pupil loading figure for each grade level pursuant to the district pupil loading standards in effect on January 1, 1993. For the purposes of this section, the "district pupil loading standards" are those pupil loading standards in effect in a school district on July 1, 1992, as a result of actions including, but not necessarily limited to, the execution of a collective bargaining agreement or the adoption of a district policy by the governing board of the school district. In no event may this figure be more than the maximum pupil loading standards established by the board, or less than three pupil units lower than those maximum pupil loading standards.

(3) Multiply the figure determined under paragraph (2) for each grade level by the number of teaching stations for the particular grade level, as determined under paragraph (1).

(4) Multiply the product determined under paragraph (3) by the maximum area allowance established for that grade level under this article.

(5) The sum of these computations for each grade level, as determined under paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, shall be the total area of adequate school construction existing in the district or attendance area pursuant to this formula.

(b) For purposes of this section, a school district that is participating in a class size reduction program set forth in this code, other than the Class Size Reduction Program (Ch. 6.10 (commencing with Section 52120) of Part 28), shall use the pupil loading standard established pursuant to that program.

(c) The area of existing adequate school construction calculated under this section shall not include, in any school operated on a year-round schedule, any teaching station that has been in continuous use during the preceding five-year period primarily for the operation of a preschool program or programs.

However, the guidance provided by the bay commission is advisory and the conservancy shall have the responsibility for making program decisions. Any acquisition of real property using funds authorized pursuant to this chapter shall be from willing sellers if the land is actively farmed or ranched. Any acquisition of real property by the conservancy pursuant to this chapter shall be from willing sellers.

(b) The conservancy shall, at least biennially, report to the Legislature on its progress in addressing the goals, priority areas, and concerns referenced in subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, any funds that are received or disbursed for purposes related to addressing those goals, priority areas, and concerns.

(2) The California Coastal Commission and the Los Angeles Regional Water Quality Control Board shall seek to enter into an agreement with the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the United States Army Corps of Engineers for those federal agencies to participate in the preparation of the long-term management plan, and, on or before January 1, 1999, shall prepare and submit to the Legislature a report indicating the status of that agreement.

CHAPTER 898

An act to amend Section 33492.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 2.1 to Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Treasure Island Conversion Act of 1997.

SEC. 2. Section 33492.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33492.5. (a) In any community in which a military base is located, the Base Closure Commission has voted to close that military base, and the action of the Base Closure Commission has been sustained by the President and Congress of the United States, a project area may be adopted pursuant to the following requirements:

(1) If the project area is located entirely within the boundaries of a city, or city and county, then the redevelopment agency of the city, or city and county, may adopt the redevelopment project area pursuant to this part as modified by this chapter.

(2) If the project area is located entirely within the unincorporated area of a single county, then the county redevelopment agency may adopt the redevelopment project area pursuant to this part as modified by this chapter.

(3) If the project area includes property within the jurisdictions of two or more cities, or two or more counties, or a city and a county, or any combination of the foregoing, then all of the cities and counties the jurisdictions of which include property within the boundaries of the military base and any other territory to be included within the redevelopment project area may enter into a joint powers agreement, an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 33210, or other appropriate agreement for the purpose of creating a redevelopment agency and adopting a project area pursuant to this part as modified by this chapter.

(b) A redevelopment agency to which this chapter is applicable may adopt a project area either pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to other relevant provisions of this part.

SEC. 3. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature with the enactment of this act to provide a means for mitigating the serious economic effects of the closure of Naval Station Treasure Island on the City and County of San Francisco, its surrounding communities, and the State of California by vesting a single entity with redevelopment authority over the property and, with respect to that portion of the property subject to the public trust for navigation, commerce, and fisheries, the power to administer the trust.

(1) That property known as Naval Station Treasure Island, which includes Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island, was selected for closure and disposition by the Base Realignment and Closure Commission in 1993, acting under Public Law 101-510 and its subsequent amendments, and is scheduled for operational closure on October 1, 1997. The conversion of Naval Station Treasure Island to productive civilian reuse presents unique redevelopment issues which would be best addressed by an agency created specifically for that purpose.

(2) All former and existing tide and submerged lands on the Naval Station, including all of Treasure Island and portions of Yerba Buena Island, will be subject to the public trust for navigation, commerce, and fisheries upon their release from federal ownership. In the absence of legislative action, this property would automatically be brought under the jurisdiction of the Port of San Francisco pursuant to, and subject to the terms and requirements of, the Burton Act (Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968).

(3) Certain buildings and other structures constructed on Treasure Island during the period of federal ownership were built for nontrust purposes and are not adaptable for trust related uses. These buildings and structures are in various stages of their useful lives, some having been constructed only a few years prior to the scheduled closure. The conversion of the lands underlying these buildings and structures to trust uses in the future should proceed in a manner that will enable the people of this state to benefit from the substantial investments made in these structures without hindering the overall goal of preserving the public trust.

(4) Treasure Island also contains hangars that were built for maritime aviation purposes. These structures may be utilized for trust uses in the future, but no trust related use has been identified for them in the near term.

(5) The creation of a single public agency that is vested with both redevelopment authority and the power to administer the trust will facilitate the conversion of Naval Station Treasure Island to productive civilian reuse and is in the best interests of the people of this state.

SEC. 4. For the purposes of this act:

(a) "Property" means that property commonly known as Naval Station Treasure Island, which includes Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island, and is more particularly described as follows:

EXCEPTING THEREFROM those lands described in the Executive Order dated November 6, 1850, for Yerba Buena Island (Goat Island) situated upland from the Ordinary High Water Mark of San Francisco Bay.

(b) All of the State of California's right, title, and interest, acquired by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to the Trust Property, together with all improvements, facilities, rights, privileges, and appurtenances connected therewith or in any way appertaining thereto, is hereby granted in trust to and vested in the Authority, subject to the terms and conditions specified in this act. The lands shall be held by the Authority and its successors in trust for the benefit of all the people of the state for purposes of commerce, navigation, and fisheries, and for other public trust purposes, as more particularly provided in this act.

(c) There is reserved in the people of the State of California the right to hunt and fish in and over the waters on the Trust Property, together with the right of convenient access to the waters over the Trust Property for those purposes.

(d) There is excepted from the grant made in subdivision (b) and reserved to the State of California all subsurface mineral deposits, including oil and gas deposits, together with the right of ingress and egress on the Trust Property for exploration, drilling, and extraction of such mineral, oil, and gas deposits. Those mineral rights, including the right of ingress and egress, shall not be exercised in a manner that would disturb or otherwise interfere with any lease, franchise, permit, or license of or on the Trust Property; provided, however, that any lease, franchise, permit, or license of property contain a provision specifying at least one point from which and the manner in which the right of ingress or egress to said subsurface deposits may be exercised, which point or points may be outside the area of the leasehold, franchise, permit, or license, provided the point or points are adequate to permit the rights reserved to the state to be exercised.

(e) There is also excepted from the grant made in subdivision (b) any property or interest in property, whether real or personal, owned by or under the jurisdiction or control of the Department of Transportation. The Trust Property shall remain subject to any requirements of the Department of Transportation for future rights-of-way, easements, or material for the construction, location, realignment, expansion, or maintenance of bridges, highways, or other transportation facilities without compensation, except as follows:

(1) Compensation shall be made to the Authority for any property taken that was originally acquired by the Authority for valuable consideration.

(2) In the event improvements, betterments, or structures have been placed upon the Trust Property by the Authority, compensation shall be made to the Authority for the value of the improvements, betterments, or structures taken.

(3) Holders of a lease, franchise, permit, or license to use or occupy a portion of the Trust Property which has been taken pursuant to this section shall be given the same compensation that they would receive under an eminent domain proceeding.

(f) In the management, conduct, operation, and control of the Trust Property or any improvements, betterments, or structures thereon, the Authority or its successors shall make no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges for any use or service in connection therewith.

(g) The State of California shall have the right to use without charge any transportation, land, or storage improvements, wharves, slips, betterments, or structures, constructed upon the Trust Property, for any vessel or other watercraft, aircraft, or railroad owned or operated by the State of California.

SEC. 7. The Authority shall have complete power to use, conduct, operate, maintain, manage, administer, regulate, improve, lease, and control the Trust Property and to do all things necessary in connection therewith which are in conformance with the terms of this act and the public trust for commerce, navigation and fisheries upon which the lands are held, including, without limitation, all of the following:

(a) Acquiring, exchanging, and conveying real and personal property of every kind necessary for the full or convenient exercise of its powers, consistent with the public trust and subject to the limitations of this act.

(b) Constructing, erecting, maintaining, repairing, operating, developing, and regulating all improvements, utilities, facilities, equipment, piers, parking areas, streets, highways, bridges, pedestrian ways, landscaped areas, public buildings, public assembly and meeting places, convention centers, parks, museums, playgrounds, and public recreation facilities, including, without limitation, public golf courses, marinas, restaurants, hotels, commercial recreation facilities, entertainment facilities and attractions, and any other works, buildings, facilities, utilities, structures, and appliances incidental to or necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of the purposes of the public trust and this act, or or about the Trust Property.

(c) Promoting the public use of the Trust Property and encouraging private investment in the development of the Trust Property for the foregoing uses in the public interest, through advertising or such other means as may be reasonable and appropriate.

(d) Providing services reasonably necessary to the carrying out of the foregoing uses and purposes. As to any service which the Authority is authorized to perform pursuant to the provisions of this act, the Authority may contract for the performance of such services by the City and County of San Francisco or any agencies thereof, including the Port Commission.

SEC. 8. (a) The Authority shall not at any time grant, convey, give, or alienate the Trust Property, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm, or corporation, except that the Authority may grant franchises, permits, privileges, licenses, easements, or leasehold interests (collectively referred to as "leases" hereinafter) thereon for limited periods, not to exceed 66 years.

(b) Any leases for use of the Trust Property shall be solely for uses that are consistent with or ancillary to the purposes of the public trust for commerce, navigation and fisheries, provided that leases may be granted for other uses where the Authority makes the following determinations:

(1) There is no immediate trust related need for the property proposed to be leased.

(2) The proposed lease is of a duration of no more than five years and can be terminated in favor of trust uses as they arise; except that the existing hangars, or portions thereof, may be leased for up to five years without a right of termination in favor of trust uses.

(3) The proposed lease prohibits the construction of new structures or improvements on the subject property that could, as a practical matter, prevent or inhibit the property from being converted to any permissible trust use should the property become necessary therefore.

(4) The proposed use of the leased property would not interfere with commerce, navigation, fisheries, or any other existing trust uses or purposes.

SEC. 9. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, existing buildings or structures on the Trust Property which are incapable of being devoted to trust purposes may be used for other purposes, consistent with the reuse plan for the Trust Property, for the remaining useful life of such buildings or structures. Buildings and structures on the Trust Property that are incapable of being devoted to trust purposes are those constructed for nontrust purposes while the Trust Property was under federal ownership, including, but not limited to, the existing housing units, the brig, the building proposed for use as a police academy, and the school.

(b) The Authority and the State Lands Commission shall, by agreement, establish the remaining useful life of the buildings and structures described in subdivision (a), either individually or by category, provided that in no case shall the useful life of any building or structure be deemed to extend less than 25 years or more than 40 years from the effective date of this act.

(c) The maintenance and repair of any of the existing buildings or structures described in subdivision (a), and any structural or other alterations necessary to bring such buildings or structures into compliance with applicable federal, state, and local health and safety standards, including, but not limited to, seismic upgrading, shall be permitted, provided such activities will not enlarge the footprint or the size of the shell of such buildings or structures.

SEC. 10. (a) All money received or collected by the Authority from or arising out of the use or operation of the Trust Property, including all revenues derived from leases, permits, franchises, privileges, licenses, easements, and rights to use or occupy the Trust Property, shall be deposited by the Authority into a special fund to be maintained by the Authority (the Treasure Island Trust Fund). The money in or belonging to the Treasure Island Trust Fund may be used only for uses and purposes consistent with the public trust for navigation, commerce, and fisheries.

(b) An annual statement of financial conditions and operations shall be prepared by the Authority and submitted to the State Lands Commission each year on or before October 1. The statement shall include a statement of all revenues and expenditures related to trust lands and trust assets, including obligations incurred but not yet paid.

SEC. 11. (a) The Authority may exchange certain portions of the Trust Property with any state agency, political subdivision, person, entity, or corporation, or the United States or any agency thereof, for other lands, whenever the Authority determines and the State Lands

Commission adopts a resolution declaring and finding all of the following:

(1) The portions of the Trust Property to be exchanged have been filled and reclaimed, are cut off from access to the waters of San Francisco Bay, are no longer needed or required for the promotion of the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fisheries, and constitute a relatively small portion of the lands originally granted to the City and County of San Francisco under the Burton Act (Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968).

(2) The lands to be acquired by the Authority have a value equal to or greater than the value of the lands for which they are to be exchanged and are useful for the particular trust purposes authorized by this act.

(3) No substantial interference with trust uses and purposes will ensue by virtue of the exchange.

(b) Upon adoption of the resolution by the State Lands Commission, the lands granted by the Authority shall thereupon be free from the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fisheries, and the lands received in exchange shall be held subject to the public trust and to the terms of this act.

(c) Exchanges made pursuant to this section are hereby found to be of statewide significance and importance, and, therefore, any ordinance, charter provision, or other provision of local law inconsistent with this section shall not be applicable to the exchange.

SEC. 12. If the Authority is dissolved, by operation of law or otherwise, the Trust Property, together with any and all improvements thereon, and the management, conduct, and operation of and jurisdiction over the Trust Property, shall revert and be conveyed to and vest in the City and County of San Francisco, acting by and through its Port Commission, subject to the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fisheries, and the requirements of the Burton Act (Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968), and the remainder of the property shall be conveyed to the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 13. (a) The state reserves the right to amend, modify, or revoke any and all rights to the Trust Property granted to the Authority under this act.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term “bonds” includes, without limitation, lease revenue bonds and other bonds, lease financing arrangements, and certificates of participation.

(c) No amendment, modification, or revocation, in whole or in part, of the transfer of the Trust Property in trust provided for in this act shall impair or affect the rights or obligations of third parties, including the holders of bonds or securities, lessees, lenders for value, holders of contracts, conferring the right to the use or occupation of, or the right to conduct operations upon or within, the Trust Property, arising from leases, contracts, or other instruments lawfully entered into prior to the effective date of such amendment, modification, or revocation.

(d) In the event, at the effective date of any such amendment, modification, or revocation, there are in effect any such leases, contracts, or other instruments, the state may, at its option exercised by and through the State Lands Commission, succeed to the interest in any such instrument of the Authority; otherwise the interest of the Authority in any instrument then in effect shall continue during the term or other period of time during which the instrument shall remain in effect, and provided further that in any event all bonds or securities issued by the Authority and payable out of revenues of the Trust Property shall continue to be so payable, directly or indirectly, and secured in all respects as provided in the proceedings for their issuance, and the revenues of the property shall be pledged and applied to the payment of such bonds or securities in all respects as though no amendment, modification, or revocation had taken place.

SEC. 14. Section 2.1 is added to Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968, to read:

2.1. This act shall not apply to the property commonly known as Treasure Island, nor to those portions of the property commonly known as Yerba Buena Island consisting of former or existing tide and submerged lands and more particularly described in Section 6 of Assembly Bill No. 699 of the 1997–98 Regular Session.

SEC. 15. The Legislature finds and declares that, because of the unique circumstances applicable only to the lands within the City and County of San Francisco described in this act, relating to the closure of Naval Base Treasure Island, a statute of general applicability cannot be enacted within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Contitution. Therefore, this special statute is necessary.

CHAPTER 899

An act to add Section 13181 to the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) In 1992, California's coastal waters supported seven ocean-dependent industries, including commercial fishing, tourism, and shipping-related commerce that contributed $17,300,000,000 to the California economy and employed 370,000 persons in the state.

(2) The health of the state's coastal waters is threatened by various anthropogenic discharges to coastal waters.

(3) It is in the interest of the health and economic well-being of the people of the state to minimize the contamination of the state's coastal waters. Sound water quality management decisions require a solid base of information collected from a variety of sources. Most existing monitoring programs are designed to measure the impacts of point source pollutant loads.

(4) With certain limited exceptions, the majority of California's waterways and small estuarine systems are not monitored by the state on a regular basis. Monitoring programs are conducted by other entities, but no overall inventory of these efforts is currently available for the entire California coast. Improved monitoring, or in some cases improved coordination of existing programs, will be necessary for the State of California to achieve a systematic understanding of nonpoint source pollution and to measure the effect of efforts to reduce this water pollution source.

(5) Monitoring requirements for measuring the discharge of storm water into the marine environment are poorly developed, limiting the ability of the state to evaluate the extent to which storm water is a source of contaminants in the marine environment or to assess the cumulative effectiveness of the many mitigation activities that are being required by the California regional water quality control boards.

(6) Results from regional monitoring programs, such as the Southern California Bight Project and the San Francisco Estuary Regional Monitoring Program, have been promising and those monitoring programs should serve as models for the monitoring of coastal waters by the state.

(b) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Coastal Waters Ambient Water Quality Monitoring Program be established for the purposes of undertaking an inventory of existing water quality monitoring efforts, and that the information resulting from that undertaking be used to develop and implement a comprehensive water quality monitoring program for coastal watersheds, streams, bays, estuaries, and coastal waters.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that a cost-effective system be developed for monitoring the discharge of contaminants into the state's coastal waters and that a wet weather flow toxic chemicals investigation be undertaken in significant urban and rural estuaries to provide a basis for estimating mass discharges.

SEC. 2. Section 13181 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13181. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Coastal waters" means waters within the area bounded by the mean high tide line to the three-mile state waters limit, from the Oregon to the Mexican borders.

(2) “Coastal watersheds” means the watersheds of tributary waters that drain to the ocean and significantly influence coastal water quality.

(b) (1) To the extent that funds are available for that purpose, the state board shall prepare and complete on or before January 1, 2000, an inventory of existing water quality monitoring activities within state coastal watersheds, bays, estuaries, and coastal waters. The information generated by preparing the inventory shall be made available as a report, and as an Internet-based index, that is available to the general public. A summary of the results shall be made available to the Legislature. The inventory shall include, but not be limited to, descriptions of all of the following:

(A) The sources of monitoring data, including federal, state, and local governments, the private sector, citizen groups, and nonprofit organizations.

(B) The monitoring methods being used by these sources.

(C) The location of the monitoring sites.

(D) Existing efforts to investigate the discharge of nonvolatile organic pollutants, including trace metals and nontarget organic chemicals, through storm drains into Santa Monica Bay, San Francisco Bay, Humboldt Bay, and San Diego Bay.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state board shall carry out paragraph (1) by contracting with institutions with expertise in coastal water quality monitoring, which may include the Southern California Coastal Water Research Project and the San Francisco Estuary Institute, to undertake the inventory.

(c) (1) To the extent that funds are available for that purpose, the state board, not later than January 1, 2001, shall prepare and submit to the Legislature a report that proposes the implementation of a comprehensive program to monitor the quality of state coastal watersheds, bays, estuaries, and coastal waters and their marine resources for pollutants, including, but not limited to, bacteria and viruses, petroleum hydrocarbons, heavy metals, and pesticides, as defined in Section 12753 of the Food and Agricultural Code. The proposed program shall utilize information available through the sources identified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), as appropriate, and shall avoid the duplication of existing and ongoing monitoring efforts to the extent feasible. The proposed program shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) To the extent possible, a determination regarding the extent to which existing water quality objectives, sediment quality guidelines, tissue contaminant burden guidelines, and health standards are being met. Where information is not available to make this determination, the report shall identify methods for determining this information.

(B) To the extent possible, a determination regarding the sources of pollution in areas where objectives, standards, and guidelines are not being met. Where information is not available to make this determination, the report shall identify methods for determining this information.

(C) Methods for determining the degree of improvement or degradation in coastal water quality over time with respect to these objectives, guidelines, and standards.

(D) To the extent possible, estimates of the total discharges of pollutants into state coastal watersheds, bays, estuaries, and coastal waters from all sources.

(E) Standard protocols for sampling and data collection methods, to maximize the usefulness of the data resulting from the program.

(F) Recommendations for a standard format for reporting monitoring results to maximize access to and use of the data.

(G) The estimated costs of implementing the program and the proposed schedule of implementation.

(H) A description of the method by which the state board shall provide biennial reporting to the public on water quality within the state's coastal watersheds, bays, estuaries, and coastal waters, and recommended actions that should be undertaken to maintain and improve water quality in those areas.

(I) A description of the method by which the state board shall develop a system for monitoring mass contaminant discharges, including, but not limited to, heavy metals, PCBs, PAHs, and pesticides from storm water at the point of discharge. The system shall provide for the appropriate frequency of monitoring for each specific contaminant. The system shall be designed to identify the relative contribution of contaminants in storm water to the overall anthropogenic discharges into near coastal waters. To the extent possible, the system shall be designed to determine the effectiveness of best management practices in reducing the discharges of contaminants to near coastal waters.

(2) The state board shall consult with the San Francisco Estuary Institute and the Southern California Coastal Water Research Project to prepare the report. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state board may carry out paragraph (1) by contracting with institutions with expertise in coastal water quality monitoring, including, but not limited to, the Southern California Coastal Water Research Project and the San Francisco Estuary Institute, to prepare the report. The state board or its contractors shall convene workshops, symposia, and other professional and scientific meetings for the purpose of developing a consensus on the part of regulatory agencies and dischargers with regard to the appropriate methods to be used to monitor water quality on a statewide basis.

(d) The state board shall not use more than 5 percent of the funds allocated to implement subdivisions (b) and (c) for the administrative costs of the contracts permitted under those provisions.

CHAPTER 900

An act to amend Sections 130051, 130051.5, 130051.9, 130051.17, and 130051.18 of, to add Section 130051.28 to, and to add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 130600) to Division 12 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) In order to protect the integrity of the board of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (hereafter MTA) and sustain the confidence of the people of Los Angeles County, it is necessary to do all of the following:

(1) Articulate specific standards and guidelines to assure that those entrusted with public authority avoid conduct that undermines respect for the MTA.

(2) Provide a comprehensive statement of pertinent laws and regulations, ethical principles, considerations, and obligations governing the conduct of board members and their staff and provide a comprehensive and unified statement of ethical principles, considerations, and obligations to sustain the public trust in the MTA.

(3) Enhance the understanding of the laws and ethical principles that create the obligations of MTA board members and their staff.

(4) Establish positive, effective, and comprehensive guidance for the conduct of MTA board members and their staff.

(b) MTA board members enter into a special trust relationship with the people of Los Angeles County involving legal and moral obligations. One aspect of these obligations requires that those entrusted with public authority unfailingly demonstrate that they are worthy of the public's respect and committed to maintaining the absolute integrity of government.

(c) The people of Los Angeles County need and deserve an agency whose commitment to pursuing public interest outweighs any competing personal or political considerations.

(d) No code of conduct can anticipate all situations nor can it prescribe behaviors that are appropriate to most situations.

(e) Board members and their staff must exercise discretion and judgment to adhere to the spirit of the Code of Conduct codified by this act in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 130600) of Division 12 of the Public Utilities Code. It is essential to recognize that an act is not ethical simply because it is legal and conduct is not proper simply because it is permissible. Board members should be willing to do more than the law requires and less than it allows. Strict compliance is not necessarily enough, and attempts to evade or circumvent ethics laws and rules are improper. All actions, decisions, and votes should be made on their merits, objectively and without party, regional, or ideological bias.

(f) The Code of Conduct views the obligations of the MTA board members and their staff in a positive way. The statements of ethical standards and specific sanctions to enforce them are not driven by negative assumptions about the character of those who serve on the board. Instead they reflect the need for clarity and a commitment to the noble dimension of democratic government.

SEC. 2. Section 130051 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051. The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority consists of 14 members, as follows:

(a) Five members of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

If the number of members of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors is increased, the authority shall, within 60 days of the increase, submit a plan to the Legislature for revising the composition of the authority.

(b) The Mayor of the City of Los Angeles.

(c) Two public members and one member of the City Council of the City of Los Angeles appointed by the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles.

(d) Four members, each of whom shall be a mayor or a member of a city council, appointed by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee. For purposes of the selection of these four members, the County of Los Angeles, excluding the City of Los Angeles, shall be divided into the following four sectors:

(1) The North County/San Fernando Valley sector.

(2) The Southwest Corridor sector.

(3) The San Gabriel Valley sector.

(4) The Southeast Long Beach sector.

The League of California Cities, Los Angeles County Division, shall define the sectors. Every city within a sector shall be entitled to vote to nominate one or more candidates from that sector for consideration for appointment by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee. A city's vote shall be weighted in the same proportion that its population bears to the total population of all cities within the sector.

The members appointed pursuant to this subdivision shall be appointed by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee upon an affirmative vote of its members which represent a majority of the population of all cities within the county, excluding the City of Los Angeles.

The members selected by the city selection committee shall serve four-year terms with no limitation on the number of terms that may be served by any individual. The city selection committee may shorten the initial four-year term for one or more of the members for the purpose of ensuring that the members will serve staggered terms.

(e) If the population of the City of Los Angeles, at any time, becomes less than 35 percent of the combined population of all cities in the county, the position of one of the two public members appointed pursuant to subdivision (c), as determined by the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles by lot, shall be vacated, and the vacant position shall be filled by appointment by the city selection committee pursuant to subdivision (d) from a city not represented by any other member appointed pursuant to subdivision (d).

(f) One nonvoting member appointed by the Governor.

SEC. 3. Section 130051.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051.5. Every member of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority is subject to Section 87100 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 130051.9 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051.9. (a) The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority shall appoint a full-time chief executive officer who shall act for the authority under its direction and perform those duties delegated by the authority.

(b) The chief executive officer shall be appointed to a term of four years and shall be removed from office only upon the occurrence of one or both of the following:

(1) A two-thirds majority of the members of the authority votes for removal.

(2) The chief executive officer violates a federal or state law, regulation, local ordinance, or policy or practice of the authority, relative to ethical practices, including, but not limited to, the acceptance of gifts or contributions.

(c) The chief executive officer shall approve and award all contracts for construction, and that approval shall be based upon the lowest responsible and responsive bid submitted.

(d) The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority shall appoint a general counsel and board secretary.

SEC. 5. Section 130051.17 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051.17. (a) Prior to the approval of any contract by the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority, or by any organizational unit of the authority, the authority shall adopt an ordinance comparable to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 89500) of Title 9 of the Government Code, which regulates the acceptance of gifts by members of the authority, members of the board of an organizational unit, and designated employees, as defined by Section 82019 of the Government Code, of the authority. The ordinance shall prohibit any designated employee of the authority from accepting gifts with a total value of more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) in a calendar year from any single source.

(b) The ordinance shall require the limitations on receiving gifts by members of the authority, and members of the board of an organizational unit who are not elected local officials to be substantially comparable to those specified by Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 89500) of Title 9 of the Government Code.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "gift" has the same meaning as defined in Section 82028 of the Government Code.

(d) (1) Payments, advances, or reimbursements, for travel, including actual transportation and related lodging and subsistence which is reasonably related to a governmental purpose, or to an issue of local, state, national or international public policy, is not prohibited or limited by this section if either of the following apply:

(A) The travel is in connection with a speech given by a member, member of the board of an organizational unit, or designated employee, the lodging and subsistence expenses are limited to the day immediately preceding, the day of, and the day immediately following the speech, and the travel is within the United States.

(B) The travel is provided by a government, a governmental agency, a foreign government, a governmental authority, a bona fide public or private educational institution, as defined in Section 203 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or a nonprofit charitable or religious organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or by a person domiciled outside the United States which substantially satisfies the requirements for tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Gifts of travel not described in paragraph (1) are subject to the limits in this section.

(3) Paragraph (1) applies only to travel which is reported on the recipient's statement of economic interest.

(4) For purposes of this section, a gift does not include travel which is provided by the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

(5) (A) The policy shall specify appropriate penalties for violations by employees including, but not limited to, personnel action.

(B) The policy shall specify appropriate penalties for violations by members of the authority, and the members of the board of an organizational unit who are not subject to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 89500) of Title 9 of the Government Code, which shall include, but not be limited to, removal from office by the appointing authority.

SEC. 6. Section 130051.18 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051.18. Prior to the approval of any contract by the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority, or by any organizational unit of the authority, the authority shall adopt and implement an ordinance for the regulation of lobbying which shall include, at a minimum, the provisions of this section.

(a) For purposes of this section, the following terms are defined as follows:

This prohibition applies regardless of whether the individual accepts, solicits, or directs the contribution for himself or herself or on behalf of any other candidate or committee.

(c) MTA board members or their staff or agents shall not solicit political contributions from other employees or contractors while on duty and shall not coerce those contributions.

(d) MTA board members or staff or agents shall not, directly or indirectly, knowingly solicit political funds or political contributions from other officers or employees of the MTA or from persons on the employment lists of the MTA. Nothing in this section prohibits an MTA officer or employee from communicating through the mail or by other means requests for political funds or contributions to a significant segment of the public which may include officers or employees of the MTA.

(e) Prior to rendering any decision on an entitlement for use pending before the MTA, each board member who received a contribution within the preceding twelve months in an amount of more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) from a party, subcontractor to a party, or from any participant shall disclose that fact on the record of the proceeding.

(h) Board members and their staff shall not use MTA employees to solicit campaign contributions from MTA contractors, potential contractors, or other MTA employees. MTA employees and contractors and potential contractors may make contributions on their own.

(i) No board member or member of his or her staff shall make, participate in making, or in any way attempt to use his or her official position to influence a contract decision if the board member has willfully or knowingly received a contribution in an amount of more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) within the preceding 12 months from a party or his or her agent, or from any participant, or his or her agent, if the board member knows or has reason to know that the participant has a financial interest in the matter under deliberation. In that case the individual shall disclose the nature of his or her interest before he or she participates in the decision. For the purposes of this subdivision, the fact that a board member's vote is necessary to break a tie does not make his or her participation legally required.

130705. (a) Board members or their staff shall not engage in any employment, activity, or enterprise that is inconsistent, incompatible, or in conflict with the duties of an MTA officer.

(b) Board members or their staff shall not use the MTA's facilities, equipment, supplies, badge, prestige, or influence for private gain.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

SECTION 1. Section 13350 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13350. (a) The department immediately shall revoke the privilege of any person to drive a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of any of the following crimes or offenses:

(1) Failure of the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury or death to any person to stop or otherwise comply with Section 20001.

(2) Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used, except as provided in Section 13351, 13352, or 13357.

(3) Reckless driving causing bodily injury.

(b) If a person is convicted of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23170, 23175, or 23175.5, or a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23190, including a violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 192 of the Penal Code as provided in Section 193.7 of that code, the court shall, at the time of surrender of the driver's license or temporary permit, require the defendant to sign an affidavit in a form provided by the department acknowledging his or her understanding of the revocation required by paragraph (5), (6), or (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352, and an acknowledgment of his or her designation as an habitual traffic offender. A copy of this affidavit shall be transmitted, with the license or temporary permit, to the department within the prescribed 10 days.

(c) The department shall not reinstate the privilege revoked under subdivision (a) until the expiration of one year after the date of revocation and until the person whose privilege was revoked gives proof of financial responsibility as defined in Section 16430.

SEC. 2. Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13352. (a) The department shall immediately suspend or revoke, or record the court-administered suspension or revocation of, the privilege of any person to operate a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 or subdivision (a) of Section 23109, or upon receipt of a report of a judge of the juvenile court, a juvenile traffic hearing officer, or a referee of a juvenile court showing that the person has been found to have committed a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 or subdivision (a) of Section 23109. If any offense in this section occurs in a vehicle defined in Section 15210, the suspension or revocation specified below shall apply to the noncommercial driving privilege. The commercial driving privilege shall be disqualified as specified in Section 15300. For purposes of this section, suspension or revocation shall be as follows:

(1) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23160, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of six months if the court orders the department to suspend the privilege, or if the court does not grant probation. If the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430, the department shall issue the restricted license upon receipt of an abstract of record from the court pursuant to Section 1803 certifying that the court has granted probation to the person on conditions which include the condition specified in subdivision (b) of Section 23161. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion of a program described in Section 23161.

(2) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23180, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of one year. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion of a program described in Section 23161.

(3) Except as provided in Section 13352.5, upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23165, the privilege shall be suspended for 18 months. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion of a program described in Section 23166.

(4) Except as provided in Section 13352.5, upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23185, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of three years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license and until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages, and until the person gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion of a program described in Section 23166.

(5) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23170, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of three years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person files proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion, subsequent to the most recent underlying conviction, of one of the following programs: an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or a program specified in Section 8001 of the Penal Code. The court shall advise the person at the time of sentencing that completion of one of the programs authorized by this paragraph is required in order to become eligible for a California driver's license. The court shall also advise the person that after the completion of 24 months of the revocation period, the person may apply to the court for an order granting a restricted driver's license, subject to the following conditions:

(A) The person has satisfactorily completed, subject to the current underlying conviction, either of the following:

(i) A licensed 18-month program pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(ii) The initial 18 months of a licensed 30-month program, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) The person agrees, as a condition of the restriction, to continue satisfactory participation in the 30-month program, if applicable, and to have installed and maintained, as described in Section 23246, an ignition interlock device. The court shall require proof of installation of the device before issuing an order granting a restricted license. Once the order granting a restricted license is issued, all maintenance requirements in Section 23246 apply and the driver becomes subject to the prohibitions and penalties provided in Section 23247.

(C) The person provides proof of responsibility to respond in damages.

(D) The person has not applied for and received an order in conjunction with the current underlying conviction or a prior conviction for violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153, if the prior conviction was within the previous seven years.

(E) Any individual convicted of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23170 may also, at any time after sentencing, petition the court for referral to an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Unless good cause is shown, the court shall order the referral.

(6) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23190, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of five years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license and until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion, subsequent to the most recent underlying conviction, of one of the following programs: a 30-month program, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment or, if not available, an 18-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or a program specified in Section 8001 of the Penal Code. The court shall advise the person at the time of sentencing that completion of one of the programs authorized by this paragraph is required in order to become eligible for a California driver's license. The court shall also advise the person that after the completion of 24 months of the revocation period, the person may apply to the court for an order granting a restricted driver's license, subject to the following conditions:

(A) (i) The person has satisfactorily completed, subject to the current underlying conviction, the 18-month program or the initial 18 months of a licensed 30-month program, as applicable, pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(ii) The person agrees, as a condition of the restriction, to continue satisfactory participation in the 30-month program, if applicable, and to have installed and maintained, as described in Section 23246, an ignition interlock device. The court shall require proof of installation of the device before issuing an order granting a restricted license. Once the order granting a restricted license is issued, all maintenance requirements in Section 23246 apply and the driver becomes subject to the prohibitions and penalties provided in Section 23247.

(iii) The person provides proof of responsibility to respond in damages.

(iv) The person has not applied for and received an order in conjunction with the current underlying conviction or a prior conviction for a violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153, if the prior conviction was within the previous seven years.

(B) Any individual convicted of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23190 may also, at any time after sentencing, petition the court for referral to an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Unless good cause is shown, the court shall order the referral.

(7) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23175 or 23175.5, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of four years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license and until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion, subsequent to the most recent underlying conviction, of one of the following programs: an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or a program specified in Section 8001 of the Penal Code. The court shall advise the person at the time of sentencing that completion of one of the programs authorized by this paragraph is required in order to become eligible for a California driver's license. The court shall also advise the person that after the completion of 24 months of the revocation period, the person may apply to the court for an order granting a restricted driver's license, subject to the following conditions:

(A) The person has satisfactorily completed, subject to the current underlying conviction, the initial 18 months of a licensed 30-month program pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) The person agrees, as a condition of the restriction, to continue satisfactory participation in the 30-month program, if applicable, and to have installed and maintained, as described in Section 23246, an ignition interlock device. The court shall require proof of installation of the device before issuing an order granting a restricted license. Once the order granting a restricted license is issued, all maintenance requirements in Section 23246 apply and the driver becomes subject to the prohibitions and penalties provided in Section 23247.

(C) The person provides proof of responsibility to respond in damages.

(D) The person has not applied for and received an order in conjunction with the current underlying conviction or a prior conviction for violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153, if the prior conviction was within the previous seven years.

(E) Any individual convicted of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23175 may also, at any time after sentencing, petition the court for referral to an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Unless good cause is shown, the court shall order the referral.

(8) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 23109 punishable under subdivision (e) of that section, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of 90 days to six months, if and as ordered by the court.

(9) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 23109 punishable under subdivision (f) of that section, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of six months, if the court orders the department to suspend the privilege. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages.

(b) For the purpose of paragraphs (2) to (9), inclusive, of subdivision (a), the finding of the juvenile court judge, the juvenile traffic hearing officer, or the referee of a juvenile court of a commission of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 or subdivision (a) of Section 23109, as specified in subdivision (a) of this section, is a conviction.

(c) Each judge of a juvenile court, juvenile traffic hearing officer, or referee of a juvenile court shall immediately report the findings specified in subdivision (a) to the department.

(d) A conviction of an offense in any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or Canada which, if committed in this state, would be a violation of Section 23152, is a conviction of Section 23152 for purposes of this section, and a conviction of an offense which, if committed in this state, would be a violation of Section 23153, is a conviction of Section 23153 for purposes of this section. The department shall suspend or revoke the privilege to operate a motor vehicle pursuant to this section upon receiving notice of that conviction.

(e) Whenever the driving privilege is restricted, suspended, or revoked pursuant to this section, the department shall not issue a restricted driver's license or reinstate the driving privilege unless the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and maintains that proof for three years. If, at any time during that three-year period, a person who is required to maintain that proof fails to maintain that proof, the department shall suspend that person's driving privilege until the proof of ability to respond in damages is again given to the department.

SEC. 3. Section 14601.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601.2. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for a conviction of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation.

(b) Except in full compliance with the restriction, no person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is restricted pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 23152) of Chapter 12 of Division 11, if the person so driving has knowledge of the restriction.

(c) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be conclusively presumed if mailed notice has been given by the department to the person pursuant to Section 13106. Knowledge of restriction of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the court to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(d) Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than six months and by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), unless the person has been designated an habitual traffic offender under subdivision (b) of Section 23170, subdivision (b) of

Section 23175, or subdivision (b) of Section 23175.5, in which case the person shall, in addition, be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3.

(2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), unless the person has been designated an habitual traffic offender under subdivision (b) of Section 23170 or subdivision (b) of Section 23175, in which case the person shall, in addition, be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3.

(e) If any person is convicted of a first offense under this section and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(f) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 30 days.

(g) If any person is convicted of a second or subsequent offense which results in a conviction of this section within seven years, but over five years, of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(h) Nothing in this section prohibits a person who is participating in, or has completed, an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 12500.

SEC. 4. Section 14601.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601.3. (a) It is unlawful for a person whose driving privilege has been suspended or revoked to accumulate a driving record history which results from driving during the period of suspension or revocation. A person who violates this subdivision is designated an habitual traffic offender.

For purposes of this section, a driving record history means any of the following, if the driving occurred during any period of suspension or revocation:

(1) Two or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of two pursuant to Section 12810.

(2) Three or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of one pursuant to Section 12810.

(3) Three or more accidents within a 12-month period that are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16000.

(4) Any combination of convictions or accidents, as specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, which results during any 12-month period in a violation point count of three or more pursuant to Section 12810.

(b) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be conclusively presumed if mailed notice has been given by the department to the person pursuant to Section 13106. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(c) The department, within 30 days of receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court or accident report which results in a person being designated an habitual traffic offender, may execute and transmit by mail a notice of that designation to the office of the district attorney having jurisdiction over the location of the person's last known address as contained in the department's records.

(d) (1) The district attorney, within 30 days of receiving the notice required in subdivision (c), shall inform the department of whether or not the person will be prosecuted for being an habitual traffic offender.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any habitual traffic offender designated under subdivision (b) of Section 23170, subdivision (b) of Section 23175, or subdivision (b) of Section 23175.5, who is convicted of violating Section 14601.2 shall be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e).

(e) Any person convicted under this section of being an habitual traffic offender shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days and by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) Upon a second or any subsequent offense within seven years of a prior conviction under this section, by imprisonment in the county jail for 180 days and by a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(3) Any habitual traffic offender designated under Section 193.7 of the Penal Code or under subdivision (b) of Section 23170, subdivision (b) of Section 23175, subdivision (b) of Section 23175.5, or subdivision (d) of Section 23190 who is convicted of a violation of Section 14601.2 shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for 180 days and by a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000). The penalty in this paragraph shall be consecutive to that imposed for the violation of any other law.

SEC. 5. Section 23159 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23159. (a) If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153, and at the time of the arrest leading to that conviction that person willfully refused a peace officer's request to submit to, or willfully failed to complete, the chemical test or tests pursuant to Section 23157, the court shall impose the following penalties:

(1) If the person is convicted of a first violation of Section 23152, notwithstanding any other provision of subdivision (a) of Section 23161, the terms and conditions of probation shall include the conditions in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23161.

(2) If the person is convicted of a first violation of Section 23153, the punishment prescribed in this article shall be enhanced by an imprisonment of 48 continuous hours in the county jail, whether or not probation is granted and no part of which may be stayed, unless the person is sentenced to, and incarcerated in, the state prison and the execution of that sentence is not stayed.

(3) If the person is convicted of a second violation of Section 23152, punishable under Section 23165, or a second violation of Section 23153, punishable under Section 23185, the punishment prescribed in this article shall be enhanced by an imprisonment of 96 hours in the county jail, whether or not probation is granted and no part of which may be stayed, unless the person is sentenced to, and incarcerated in, the state prison and execution of that sentence is not stayed.

(4) If the person is convicted of a third violation of Section 23152, punishable under Section 23170, the punishment prescribed in this article shall be enhanced by an imprisonment of 10 days in the county jail, whether or not probation is granted and no part of which may be stayed.

(5) If the person is convicted of a fourth or subsequent violation of Section 23152, punishable under Section 23175 or 23175.5, the punishment prescribed in this article shall be enhanced by imprisonment of 18 days in the county jail, whether or not probation is granted and no part of which may be stayed.

(b) The willful refusal or failure to complete the chemical test required pursuant to Section 23157 shall be pled and proven.

SEC. 6. Section 23175.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

23175.5. (a) A person is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or by imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail and by a fine of not less than three hundred ninety dollars ($390) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) if that person is convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153, and the offense occurred within 10 years of any of the following:

(1) A prior violation of Section 23152 that was punished as a felony under Section 23175 or this section, or both.

(2) A prior violation of Section 23153 that was punished as a felony.

(3) A prior violation that was punished as a felony under Section 191.5 of the Penal Code or paragraph (1) or (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 192 of the Penal Code. (b) Any person convicted of a violation of Section 23152 that is punishable under this section shall be designated an habitual traffic offender for a period of three years, subsequent to the conviction.

The person shall be advised of this designation under subdivision (b) of Section 13350.

SEC. 7. Section 23206.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23206.5. (a) If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 and the offense was a second or subsequent offense punishable under Section 23165, 23170, 23175, 23175.5, 23185, or 23190, the court shall require that any term of imprisonment that is imposed include at least one period of not less than 48 consecutive hours of imprisonment or, in the alternative and notwithstanding Section 4024.2 of the Penal Code, that the person serve not less than 10 days of community service.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code, unless the court expressly finds in the circumstances that the punishment inflicted would be cruel or unusual punishment prohibited by Section 17 of Article I of the California Constitution, no court or person to whom a person is remanded for execution of sentence shall release, or permit the release of, a person from the requirements of subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, any work-release program, weekend service of sentence program, diversion or treatment program, or otherwise.

(c) For purposes of this section, "imprisonment" means confinement in a jail, in a minimum security facility, or in an inpatient rehabilitation facility, as provided in Part 1309 (commencing with Section 1309.1) of Title 23 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(d) This section shall become operative only if, and upon the date of the certification by, the Department of Motor Vehicles to the Secretary of State that California has submitted a completed application for federal Title 408 grant programs funds pursuant to that Part 1309.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

(A) A victim of any felony may request to be notified, by the district attorney's office, of a pretrial disposition.

(B) If it is not possible to notify the victim of the pretrial disposition before the change of plea is entered, the district attorney's office or the county probation department shall notify the victim as soon as possible.

(C) The victim may be notified by any reasonable means available.

Nothing in this paragraph is intended to affect the right of the people and the defendant to an expeditious disposition as provided in Section 1050.

SEC. 2. Section 1191.16 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1191.16. The victim of any crime, or the parents or guardians of the victim if the victim is a minor, or the next of kin of the victim if the victim has died, who choose to exercise their rights with respect to sentencing proceedings as described in Section 1191.1 may, in any case where the defendant is subject to an indeterminate term of imprisonment, have their statements simultaneously recorded and preserved by means of videotape, videodisc, or any other means of preserving audio and video, if they notify the prosecutor in advance of the sentencing hearing and the prosecutor reasonably is able to provide the means to record and preserve the statement. If a video and audio record is developed, that record shall be maintained and preserved by the prosecution and used in accordance with the regulations of the Board of Prison Terms at any hearing to review parole suitability or the setting of a parole date.

SEC. 3. Section 3043.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3043.2. (a) In lieu of personal appearance at any hearing to review the parole suitability or the setting of a parole date, the Board of Prison Terms may permit the victim, his or her next of kin, or immediate family members to file with the board a written, audiotaped, or videotaped statement expressing his or her views concerning the crime and the person responsible. The statement may be personal messages from the person to the board made at any time or may be a statement made pursuant to Section 1191.16, or a combination of both. The board shall consider any statement filed prior to reaching a decision, and shall include in its report a statement of whether the person would pose a threat to public safety if released on parole.

(b) Whenever an audio or video statement is filed with the board, a written transcript of the tape shall also be provided by the person filing the statement.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the prosecutor from representing to the board the views of the victim, his or her immediate family members, or next of kin.

(d) In the event the board permits an audio or video statement to be filed, the board shall not be responsible for providing any equipment or resources needed to assist the victim in preparing the statement.

SEC. 4. Section 3043.25 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3043.25. Any victim, next of kin, or members of the victim's immediate family who have the right to appear at a hearing to review parole suitability or the setting of a parole date, either personally as provided in Section 3043, or by a written, audiotaped, or videotaped statement as provided in Section 3043.2, and any prosecutor who has the right to appear pursuant to Section 3041.7, shall also have the right to appear by means of videoconferencing, if videoconferencing is available at the hearing site. For the purposes of this section, "videoconferencing" means the live transmission of audio and video signals by any means from one physical location to another.

SEC. 5. Funding for implementation of this act shall be contingent upon the appropriation of funds for this purpose in the Budget Act.

CHAPTER 903

An act to amend Section 664 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youth.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 664 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

664. (a) The district attorney or the attorney of record for the minor may issue, and upon request of the probation officer, the minor, or the minor's parent, guardian, or custodian, the court or the clerk of the court shall issue, and, on the court's own motion, the court may issue, subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers at any hearing regarding a minor who is alleged or determined by the court to be a person described by Section 601 or 602.

(b) When a person attends a juvenile court hearing as a witness upon a subpoena, in its discretion, the court may by an order on its minutes, direct the county auditor to draw his or her warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the witness for witness fees in the amount and manner prescribed by Section 68093 of the Government Code. The fees are county charges.

(c) (1) The court shall use whatever means are appropriate, including, but not limited to, the issuance of a subpoena, if appropriate, to require the presence of the parent, parents, or guardian of a child at the detention, jurisdictional, and disposition hearings regarding a minor who is alleged or determined by the court to be a person described by Section 601 or 602 unless the court determines that it would be in the best interests of the child for the parent to not attend or the court finds that it would impose a hardship upon the parent or guardian to attend. Any parent or guardian who does not attend a hearing pursuant to a subpoena under this section is guilty of contempt unless the court excuses, for good cause, the parent or guardian from attending the hearing or the court finds that the parent or guardian has a satisfactory excuse for not attending.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "parent" includes a foster parent.

CHAPTER 904

An act to amend Section 5164 of the Public Resources Code, relating to parks and recreation.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5164 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5164. (a) A county or city or city and county or special district shall not hire a person for employment, or hire a volunteer to perform services, at a county or city or city and county or special district operated park, playground, recreational center, or beach used for recreational purposes, in a position having supervisory or disciplinary authority over any minor, if the person has been convicted of any offense specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (g) of Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code, or any offense specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g) of Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code. However, this section shall not apply to a misdemeanor conviction under paragraph (3) of subdivision (g) of Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code unless the person has a total of three or more misdemeanor or felony convictions specified in Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code within the immediately preceding 10-year period.

(b) (1) To give effect to this section, a county or city or city and county or special district may screen, pursuant to Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code, any such prospective employee or volunteer, having supervisory or disciplinary authority over any minor, for the person's criminal background.

(2) Any local agency requests for Department of Justice records pursuant to this subdivision shall include the prospective employee's or volunteer's fingerprints, which may be taken by the local agency, and any other data specified by the Department of Justice. The request shall be made on a form approved by the Department of Justice. No fee shall be charged to the local agency for requesting the records of a prospective volunteer pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 2. If Senate Bill 720 of the 1997–98 Regular Session, which would appropriate money to fund local programs that enhance the ability of local law enforcement to provide fingerprint identification, is enacted and becomes effective on January 1, 1998, any fees that are charged a local agency pursuant to Section 9250.19 of the Vehicle Code for requesting the records of a prospective volunteer who will perform services at a county or city or city and county or special district operated park, playground, recreational center, or beach used for recreational purposes, in a position having supervisory or disciplinary authority over any minor, shall be waived.

CHAPTER 905

An act to add Chapter 7.1 (commencing with Section 25620) to Division 15 of, and to add and repeal Section 25620.9 of, the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 371 of, to add Sections 383.5 and 384 to, and to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 445) to Chapter 2.5 of Part 1 of Division 1 of, and to add and repeal Section 380 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the purpose of revenues collected by electrical corporations pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 381 of the Public Utilities Code is to assist in-state operation and development of existing and new and emerging renewable resource technologies, and to secure for the state the environmental, economic, and reliability benefits that development and continued operation of those new and emerging technology resource facilities will provide. The transition period for restructuring California's electrical services industry, as generally provided for in Chapter 854 of the Statutes of 1996, poses a unique set of circumstances for these particular public goods programs, making it necessary, therefore, to provide legislative guidance for the reasonable allocation of revenues collected pursuant to Section 381 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) (1) The Legislature further finds and declares that, to accomplish the financial transactions intended by Chapter 854 with respect to the in-state operation and development of existing and new and emerging renewable resource technologies, it is necessary for the state to act in a fiduciary capacity for the disbursement of revenues collected by electrical corporations for those purposes.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that state agencies acting in such a fiduciary capacity in the disbursement of revenues collected by electrical corporations specifically for renewable resource technologies shall not exercise administrative discretion in the disbursement of those revenues that is inconsistent with the allocation mechanisms authorized by this act or the authority under which those revenues are otherwise collected.

SEC. 2. Chapter 7.1 (commencing with Section 25620) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.1. PUBLIC INTEREST ENERGY RESEARCH, DEMONSTRATION, AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

25620. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is in the best interests of the people of this state that the quality of life of its citizens be improved by providing environmentally sound, safe, reliable, and affordable energy services and products.

(b) To improve the quality of life of this state's citizens, it is proper and appropriate for the state to undertake public interest energy research, development, and demonstration projects that are not adequately provided for by competitive and regulated energy markets.

(c) Public interest energy research, demonstration, and development projects should advance energy science or technologies of value to California citizens and should be consistent with the policies of Chapter 854 of the Statutes of 1996.

(d) The commission should use its adopted "Strategic Plan for Implementing the Research, Demonstration, and Development Provisions of AB 1890" to ensure compliance with policies and provisions of Chapter 854 of the Statutes of 1996 in the administration of public interest energy research, demonstration, and development programs.

25620.1. (a) The commission shall develop, implement, and administer the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Program, which is hereby created. The program shall include a full range of research, development, and demonstration activities that, as determined by the commission, are not adequately provided for by competitive and regulated markets.

(b) The program shall consist of a balanced portfolio that addresses California's energy and environmental needs, technology opportunities, and system reliability. To achieve balance, the commission shall actively solicit applications for the underrepresented subject areas of end-use energy efficiency, renewable technologies, and environmental enhancements. The portfolio shall include the relevant core subject areas of environmental enhancements, end-use efficiency, environmentally-preferred advanced generation technologies, renewable technologies, and other strategic energy research, including public interest system reliability research, demonstration, and development not adequately addressed by the Public Utilities Commission. The portfolio shall be reviewed annually by the commission through a public process. That annual review process shall consider technology status, development barriers, and expected benefits.

(c) The term "award," as used in this chapter, may include, but is not limited to, contracts, grants, loans, and other financial agreements designed to fund public interest research, demonstration, and development projects or programs.

25620.2. (a) The commission shall administer the program in a manner that is consistent with the purposes of Chapter 854 of the Statutes of 1996, and shall ensure that the program meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Demonstrates a balance of benefits to all sectors that contribute to the funding under Section 381 of the Public Utilities Code.

(2) Addresses key technical and scientific barriers.

(3) Demonstrates a balance between short-term, mid-term, and long-term potential.

(4) Ensures that research currently, previously, or about to be undertaken by research organizations is not unnecessarily duplicated.

(b) To ensure the efficient implementation and administration of the program, the commission shall do both of the following:

(1) Develop procedures for the solicitation of award applications for project or program funding, and to ensure efficient program management.

(2) Evaluate and select programs and projects, based on merit, that will be funded under the program.

(c) To ensure the success of electric industry restructuring in the transition to a new market structure and to implement the program, the commission shall adopt regulations, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 11342 of the Government Code, in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) Prepare a preliminary text of the proposed regulation and provide a copy of the preliminary text to any person requesting a copy.

(2) Provide public notice of the proposed regulation to any person who has requested notice of the regulations prepared by the commission. The notice shall contain all of the following:

(A) A clear overview explaining the proposed regulation.

(B) Instructions on how to obtain a copy of the proposed regulations.

(C) A statement that if a public hearing is not scheduled for the purpose of reviewing a proposed regulation, any person may request, not later than 15 days prior to the close of the written comment period, a public hearing conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 11346.8 of the Government Code.

(D) A deadline for the submission of written comments.

(3) Accept written public comments for 30 calendar days after providing the notice required in paragraph (2).

(4) Certify that all written comments were read and considered by the commission.

(5) Place all written comments in a record that includes copies of any written factual support used in developing the proposed regulation, including written reports and copies of any transcripts or minutes in connection with any public hearings on the adoption of the regulation. The record shall be open to public inspection and available to the courts.

(6) Provide public notice of any substantial revision of the proposed regulation at least 15 days prior to the expiration of the deadline for public comments and comment period using the procedures provided in paragraph (2).

(7) Conduct public hearings, if a hearing is requested by an interested party, that shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 11346.8 of the Government Code.

(8) Adopt any proposed regulation at a regularly scheduled and noticed meeting of the commission. The regulation shall become effective immediately unless otherwise provided by the commission.

(9) Publish any adopted regulation in a manner that makes copies of the regulation easily available to the public. Any adopted regulation shall also be made available on the Internet. The commission shall transmit a copy of an adopted regulation to the Office of Administrative Law for publication, or, if the commission determines that printing the regulation is impractical, an appropriate reference as to where a copy of the regulation may be obtained.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this subdivision provides an interim exception from the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code for regulations required to implement Sections 25621 and 25622 that are adopted under the procedures specified in this subdivision.

(11) This subdivision shall become inoperative on January 1, 2000, unless a later enacted statute deletes or extends that date. However, after January 1, 2000, the commission shall not be required to repeat any procedural step in adopting a regulation that has been completed before January 1, 2000, using the procedures specified in this subdivision.

25620.3. The commission may, consistent with the requirements of Section 25620.2, provide awards to any individual or entity proposing a public interest research, demonstration, and development project or program.

25620.4. (a) To the extent that intellectual property is developed under this chapter, an equitable share of rights in the intellectual property or in the benefits derived therefrom shall accrue to the State of California.

(b) The commission may determine what share, if any, of the intellectual property, or the benefits derived therefrom, shall accrue to the state. The commission may negotiate sharing mechanisms for intellectual property or benefits with award recipients.

25620.5. (a) The commission may solicit applications for awards, using a sealed competitive bid, competitive negotiation process, multiparty agreement, single source, or sole source method.

(b) A sealed bid method may be used when goods and services to be acquired can be described with sufficient specificity so that bids can be evaluated against specifications and criteria set forth in the solicitation for bids.

(c) The commission may use a competitive negotiation process in any of the following circumstances:

(1) Whenever the desired contract is not for a fixed price.

(2) Whenever project specifications cannot be drafted in sufficient detail so as to be applicable to a sealed competitive bid.

(3) Whenever there is a need to compare the different price, quality, and contractual factors of the bids submitted.

(4) Whenever there is a need to afford bidders an opportunity to revise their proposals.

(5) Whenever oral or written discussions with bidders concerning the technical and price aspects of their proposals will provide better projects to the state.

(6) Whenever the price of the contract is not the determining factor.

(d) The commission may establish multiparty and interagency agreements with other entities to advance a defined research, development, and demonstration project purposes. The commission shall be a party to those agreements and shall share in the roles, responsibilities, risks, investments, and results of the agreement.

(e) The commission may choose from among two or more business entities capable of supplying or providing goods or services that meet a specified need of the commission. The cost to the state shall be reasonable and the commission shall only enter into a single source contract with a particular entity if the commission determines that it is in the state's best interests.

(f) The commission, in accordance with subdivision (g), may select projects on a sole source basis when the cost to the state is reasonable and when, in consultation with the Department of General Services, the commission makes any of the following determinations:

(1) The proposal was unsolicited and meets the evaluation criteria of this chapter.

(2) The expertise, service, or product is unique.

(3) The urgency of the need for the information or deliverable is such that a competitive solicitation would frustrate timely performance.

(4) The contract funds the next phase of a multiphased proposal and the existing agreement is being satisfactorily performed.

(5) When it is determined by the commission to be in the best interests of the state.

(g) The commission shall not utilize a sole source basis for a project pursuant to subdivision (f), unless both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The commission, at least 30 days prior to taking an action pursuant to subdivision (f), notifies the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, in writing of its intent to take the proposed action.

(2) The Joint Legislative Budget Committee either approves or fails to disapprove the proposed action within 30 days from the date of notification required by paragraph (1).

(h) The commission shall submit quarterly reports to the Legislative Analyst and to the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the Legislature that review bills relating to energy and public utilities. The reports shall contain an evaluation of the progress and status of the implementation of this section.

(i) The provisions of this section are severable. If any provision of this section or its application is held to be invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

25620.6. The commission, in consultation with the Department of General Services, may purchase insurance coverage necessary to implement an award. Funding for the purchase of insurance may be made from money in the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Fund created pursuant to Section 384 of the Public Utilities Code.

25620.7. The commission may contract for, or through interagency agreement obtain, technical or administrative services support to reduce the overhead and administrative costs of implementing the program. Funding for this purpose shall be made from money in the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Fund.

25620.8. The commission shall prepare and submit to the Legislature an annual report on awards made pursuant to this chapter. The report shall include information on the names of award recipients, the amount of awards, and the types of projects funded, an evaluation of the success of any funded projects, and any recommendations for improvements in the program. The commission shall establish procedures for protecting confidential or proprietary information and shall consult with all interested parties in the preparation of the annual report.

25620.9. (a) Not later than January 1, 1999, the commission shall designate a panel of independent experts with special expertise in public interest research, development, and demonstration programs. The panel shall conduct a comprehensive evaluation of the program established pursuant to this chapter. The evaluation shall include a review of the public value of programs established pursuant to this chapter, and shall evaluate factors including, but not limited to, the monetary and nonmonetary benefits to public health and the environment of those programs, and the benefits of those programs in providing funds for technology development that would otherwise not be funded.

(b) Not later than March 31, 2000, the panel designated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall submit a preliminary report to the Governor and to the Legislature on its findings and recommendations on the implementation of the program established pursuant to this chapter. The panel, not later than March 31, 2001, shall submit a final report to the Governor and to the Legislature, including any additional findings and recommendations regarding implementation of the program.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 371 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

371. (a) Except as provided in Sections 372 and 374, the uneconomic costs provided in Sections 367, 368, 375, and 376 shall be applied to each customer based on the amount of electricity purchased by the customer from an electrical corporation or alternate supplier of electricity, subject to changes in usage occurring in the normal course of business.

(b) Changes in usage occurring in the normal course of business are those resulting from changes in business cycles, termination of operations, departure from the utility service territory, weather, reduced production, modifications to production equipment or operations, changes in production or manufacturing processes, fuel switching, including installation of fuel cells pending a contrary determination by the California Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in Section 383, enhancement or increased efficiency of equipment or performance of existing self-cogeneration equipment, replacement of existing cogeneration equipment with new power generation equipment of similar size as described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 372, installation of demand-side management equipment or facilities, energy conservation efforts, or other similar factors.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to exempt or alter the obligation of a customer to comply with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 119075) of Part 15 of Division 104 of the Health and Safety Code. Nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation on the ability of residential customers to alter their pattern of electricity purchases by activities on the customer side of the meter.

SEC. 4. Section 383.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

383.5. (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) “In-state renewable electricity generation technology” means biomass, solar thermal, photovoltaic, wind, geothermal, small hydropower of 30 megawatts or less, waste tire, digester gas, landfill gas, and municipal solid waste generation technologies, as described in the report, defined in paragraph (2), including any additions or enhancements thereto, that are produced in facilities located in this state and placed in operation after September 26, 1996, or that were operational prior to that date, and that are also certified under Section 292.2904 of Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations as a qualifying small power production facility either located in California, or that began selling electricity to a California electrical corporation prior to September 26, 1996, under a Standard Offer Power Purchase Agreement authorized by the California Public Utilities Commission.

(2) "Report" means the Policy Report on AB 1890 Renewables Funding (March 1997, Publication Number P500-97-002) submitted to the Legislature by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(b) (1) Forty-five percent of the money collected pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 381, up to two hundred forty-three million dollars ($243,000,000), shall be used for programs that are designed to improve the competitiveness of existing in-state renewable electricity generation technology facilities, and to secure for the state the environmental, economic, and reliability benefits that continued operation of those facilities will provide.

(2) Any funds used to support in-state renewable electricity generation technology facilities pursuant to this subdivision shall be expended in accordance with the provisions of the report, subject to all of the following requirements:

(A) Funding for existing renewable electricity generation technologies shall be grouped into three technology tiers, as follows:

(i) Twenty-five percent of the money, up to one hundred thirty-five million dollars ($135,000,000), shall be used to fund first tier technologies, including biomass, solar thermal, and whole waste tire technologies.

(ii) Thirteen percent of the money, up to seventy million two hundred thousand dollars ($70,200,000) shall be used to fund second tier wind technologies.

(iii) Seven percent of the money, up to thirty-seven million eight hundred thousand dollars ($37,800,000), shall be used to fund third tier technologies, including geothermal, small hydropower, digester gas, landfill gas, and municipal solid waste technologies.

(B) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall establish a cents per kilowatthour production incentive, not to exceed the payment caps per kilowatthour established in the report representing the difference between target prices and the market clearing price for electricity, if sufficient funds are available. If there are insufficient funds in any payment period to pay either the difference between the target and market price or the payment caps, production incentives shall be based on the amount determined by dividing available funds by eligible generation. The target price for Tier 1 technologies shall not be based on less than four cents ($0.04) per kilowatthour. The market clearing price for electricity shall be the energy prices paid to nonutility power generators as provided in Section 390.

(C) Funding for each type of existing in-state renewable electricity generation technology shall be reduced each year during the period from January 1, 1998, to January 1, 2002, to encourage the development of increasingly competitive technologies.

(D) Facilities that are eligible to receive funding pursuant to this section shall be certified in accordance with the requirements set forth in the report and may not receive payments for any electricity produced that has any of the following characteristics:

(i) Is sold under a fixed energy price payment under a long-term contract with an existing in-state electrical corporation.

(ii) Derives from utility-owned facility that is receiving, or is eligible to receive, recovery of above-market facility costs through a competitive transition charge.

(iii) Is used onsite, sold to customers in a manner that excludes competitive transition charge payments, or is otherwise excluded from competitive transition charge payments.

(c) (1) Thirty percent of the money, up to one hundred sixty-two million dollars ($162,000,000), collected pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 381, shall be used for programs designed to foster the development of new in-state renewable electricity generation technology facilities, and to secure for the state the environmental, economic, and reliability benefits that continued operation of those facilities will provide. Funds to further the purposes of this subdivision may be committed for multiple years.

(2) Any funds used for new in-state renewable electricity generation technology facilities pursuant to this subdivision shall be expended in accordance with the report, subject to all of the following requirements:

(A) Funds shall be allocated for proposed projects based on a competitive solicitation process whereby production incentives, not to exceed one and one-half cents ($.015) per kilowatthour, are awarded to the lowest bidders, provided that not more than 25 percent of the funds allocated pursuant to paragraph (1) may be awarded to a single project.

(B) Funds expended for production incentives shall be paid over a five-year period commencing on the date that a project begins electricity production, provided that the project shall be operational prior to January 1, 2002.

(C) The amount of funds expended shall be increased for each successive year during the period from January 1, 1998, to January 1, 2002, as fewer projects are expected to be funded during the first few years after funding becomes available.

(D) Facilities that are eligible to receive payments from the New Renewable Resources Account created pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 445 of the Public Utilities Code shall be certified as specified in the report and may not receive payments for any electricity produced that has any of the following characteristics:

(i) Is sold under an existing long-term contract with an existing in-state electrical corporation if the contract includes fixed energy or capacity payments.

(ii) Is used onsite and is sold to customers in a manner that excludes competitive transition charge payments, or is otherwise excluded from competitive transition charge payments.

(iii) Is produced by a facility that is owned by customer-owned electricity generating systems.

(E) Eligibility to compete for funds or to receive funds shall not be contingent upon the location or nature of the power purchaser.

(3) Repowered wind projects shall be eligible for funding under this subdivision if the new investment is at least 80 percent of the value of the repowered facility.

(d) (1) Ten percent of the money collected pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 381, up to fifty-four million dollars ($54,000,000), shall be used for a multiyear, consumer-based program to foster the development of emerging renewable technologies in distributed generation applications. Funds to further the purposes of this subdivision may be committed for multiple years.

(2) Any funds used for emerging technologies pursuant to this subdivision shall be expended in accordance with all of the following requirements:

(A) Funding for emerging technologies shall be provided through a competitive, market-based process that shall be in place for a period of not less than four years, and shall be structured so as to allow eligible emerging technology manufacturers and suppliers to anticipate and plan for increased sale and installation volumes over the life of the program.

(B) The program shall provide monetary rebates, buydowns, or equivalent incentives, subject to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), to purchasers, lessees, lessors, or sellers of eligible electricity generating systems. Incentives shall benefit the end-use consumer of renewable generation by directly and exclusively reducing the cost of the eligible system, or the cost of electricity produced by the eligible system. Incentives shall be issued on the basis of the rated electrical capacity of the system measured in watts. The amount of the per-watt incentive shall decline over the term of the program, with a corresponding increase in the amount of total electrical capacity eligible for the incentive, thereby encouraging the manufacturers and suppliers of eligible systems to reduce system costs. Incentives shall be limited to a maximum percentage of the system price, as defined by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the maximum incentive percentage shall decline over the term of the program, as shall the per-watt incentive, in amounts to be determined by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(C) Eligible distributed emerging technologies are photovoltaic, solar thermal electric, fuel cell technologies that utilize renewable fuels, and wind turbines of not more than ten kilowatts rated electrical capacity per customer site, provided that the technologies meet the emerging technology eligibility criteria contained in the report prepared by State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission. Eligible electricity generating systems are intended primarily to offset part or all of the consumer's own electrical energy demand, and shall not be owned by electrical corporations or publicly owned utilities, be located at a customer site that is not receiving distribution service from existing in-state electrical corporations. Not less than 60 percent of the available incentive funds shall be reserved for systems of 10 kilowatts rated electrical capacity or smaller, and not less than 15 percent of the funds shall be reserved for systems of 100 kilowatts rated electrical capacity or smaller. All eligible electricity generating system components shall be new and unused, and shall not have been previously placed in service in any other location or for any other application. Systems and their fuel resource shall be located on the premises of the end-use consumer of the electricity produced, and all eligible electricity generating systems shall be connected to the utility grid in California.

(D) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall also determine, in collaboration with industry and consumer interests, if a program provision limiting the amount of funds available for any single project is warranted, and determine how federal, state, or other funds or incentives not related to this section that are already available, or that may become available for eligible electricity generating systems, may impact the availability of funds allocated under this section, if at all. The emerging renewable technologies program shall be implemented not later than March 31, 1998, and incentives shall be available for eligible electricity generating systems that are placed in service after January 1, 1998, in accordance with the program provisions developed by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission. However, projects placed in service after January 1, 1998, and prior to September 1, 1998, shall not be subject to limits, if any, that may be determined by the commission, pursuant to this subparagraph.

(e) Fifteen percent of the money collected pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 381, up to eighty-one million dollars ($81,000,000), shall be used for programs designed to provide customer credits for purchases of renewable energy produced by certified energy providers, to disseminate information regarding renewable energy technologies, to promote purchases of renewable energy, to help develop a consumer market for renewable energy, and to help develop a consumer market for renewable energy technologies, as provided in the report, subject to the following requirements:

(1) (A) Fourteen percent of the money, up to seventy-five million six hundred thousand dollars ($75,600,000), shall be expended to provide customer credits for purchases of renewable energy produced by certified energy providers. Customer credits shall be awarded to California retail customers located in the service territory of an investor-owned utility that is subject to Section 381 who purchase qualifying renewable electric power through transactions traceable to specific generation sources by any auditable contract trail or equivalent that provides commercial verification that the electricity source claimed has been sold not more than once to a retail customer. Credits may be given without regard to whether the power supplier is also receiving funds under any other subdivision of this section.

(B) Credits awarded pursuant to this paragraph may be paid directly to energy marketers, aggregators, or generators if those persons or entities account for the credits on the recipient customer's utility bills. Credits shall not exceed one and one-half cents ($.015) per kilowatthour. Credits awarded to members of the combined class of customers, other than residential and small commercial customers, shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per customer in 1998 and 1999. Thereafter, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall determine by January 10 of each year the average customer incentive rebate level paid over the preceding calendar year. In the event that the payments have remained at the one and one-half cents ($.015) per kilowatthour cap over the preceding calendar year, the one thousand dollars ($1,000) per customer cap shall be removed for that calendar year, except that in no event shall more than fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) of the total customer incentive funds be awarded to members of the combined class of customers other than residential and small commercial customers.

(C) Funding for credits pursuant to this paragraph shall be increased for each successive year during the period from January 1, 1998, to January 1, 2002, to encourage the increasing use of those credits.

(D) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall develop interim criteria and procedures for the certification of energy providers and for the identification of energy purchasers who are eligible to receive funds pursuant to this paragraph through a process consistent with this paragraph. Such criteria and procedures shall apply only to funding eligibility and shall not extend to other renewable marketing claims.

(2) One percent of the money, up to five million four hundred thousand dollars ($5,400,000), shall be expended to promote renewable energy and to disseminate information on renewable energy technologies, including emerging renewable technologies, and to help develop a consumer market for renewable energy and for small-scale emerging renewable energy technologies.

(f) (1) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall adopt guidelines governing the funding programs authorized under this section, at a publicly noticed meeting offering all interested parties an opportunity to comment. Substantive changes to the guidelines shall not be adopted without at least 10 days' written notice to the public. The public notice of meetings required by this paragraph shall not be less than 30 days. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any guidelines adopted pursuant to this section shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(2) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall, in collaboration with eligible emerging technology industry stakeholders and consumer interests, complete the emerging technology program design, as outlined in subdivision (d), and implement its provisions.

(3) Awards made pursuant to this section are grants, subject to appeal to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission upon a showing that factors other than those described in the guidelines adopted by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission were applied in making the awards and payments. Any actions taken by an applicant to apply for, or become or remain eligible and certified to receive, payments or awards, including satisfying conditions specified by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall not constitute the rendering of goods, services, or a direct benefit to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(g) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall report to the Legislature on or before May 31, 2000, and on or before May 31 of every second year thereafter, regarding the results of the mechanisms funded pursuant to this section. Reports prepared pursuant to this section shall include a description of the allocation of funds among existing, new and emerging technologies; the allocation of funds among programs, including consumer-side incentives; and the need for the reallocation of money among those technologies. The reports shall also address the allocation of funds from interest on the accounts described in this section, money in the accounts described in subdivision (e) of Section 381, and money included in the accounts pursuant to Section 385. Notwithstanding paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 383 or subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 383.5, money may be reallocated without further legislative action among existing, new, and emerging technologies and consumer-side programs in a manner consistent with the report.

SEC. 5. Section 384 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

384. (a) Funds transferred to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to this article for purposes of public interest research, development, and demonstration shall be transferred to the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. The fund is a trust fund and shall contain money from all interest, repayments, disencumbrances, royalties, and any other proceeds appropriated, transferred, or otherwise received for purposes pertaining to public interest research, development, and demonstration. Any appropriations that are made from the fund shall have an encumbrance period of not longer than two years, and a liquidation period of not longer than four years.

(b) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall report annually to the appropriate budget committees of the Legislature on any encumbrances or liquidations that are outstanding at the time the commission's budget is submitted to the Legislature for review.

SEC. 6. Article 5 (commencing with Section 445) is added to Chapter 2.5 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

Article 5. Collection and Disposition of Fees for Renewable Energy Technologies

445. (a) The Renewable Resource Trust Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury.

(b) The following accounts are hereby created within the Renewable Resource Trust Fund:

(1) The Existing Renewable Resources Account.

(2) New Renewable Resources Account.

(3) Emerging Renewable Resources Account.

(4) Customer-Side Renewable Resource Purchases Account.

(c) The money in the fund may be expended for the state's administration of this article only upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 383, that portion of revenues collected by electrical corporations for the benefit of in-state operation and development of existing and new and emerging renewable resource technologies, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 381, shall be transmitted to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission at least quarterly for deposit in the Renewable Resource Trust Fund. After setting aside in the fund money that may be needed for expenditures authorized by the annual Budget Act in accordance with subdivision (c), the Treasurer shall immediately deposit money received pursuant to this section into the accounts created pursuant to subdivision (b) in proportions designated by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the current calendar year. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the money in the fund and the accounts within the fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission without regard to fiscal year for the purposes enumerated in Section 383.5.

(e) Upon notification by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, the Controller shall pay all awards of the money in the accounts created pursuant to subdivision (c) for purposes of furthering the purposes of subdivision (c) of Section 383.5. The eligibility of each award shall be determined solely by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission based on the procedures it adopts under subdivision (f) of Section 383.5. Based on the eligibility of each award, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall also establish the need for a multiyear commitment to any particular award and so advise the Department of Finance. Eligible awards submitted by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to the Controller shall be accompanied by information specifying the account from which payment should be made and the amount of each payment; a summary description of how payment of the award furthers the purposes of subdivision (c) of Section 383.5; and an accounting of future costs associated with any award or group of awards known to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to represent a portion of a multiyear funding commitment.

(f) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission may transfer funds between accounts for cash-flow purposes, provided that the balance due each account is restored and the transfer does not adversely affect any of the accounts. The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall examine the cash-flow in the respective accounts on an annual basis, and shall annually prepare and submit to the Legislature a report that describes the status of account transfers and repayments. Any other unallocated funds in any account shall remain in the respective account, and be available for the purposes of this section until December 31, 2001. After that date, money may be reallocated without further legislative action among existing, new, and emerging technologies and consumer-side programs in a manner consistent with the report described in subdivision (a) of Section 383.5.

(g) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall, on a quarterly basis, report to the Legislature on the implementation of this article. Those quarterly reports shall be submitted to the Legislature not more than 15 days after the close of each quarter and shall include information describing the awards submitted to the Treasurer pursuant to this article, the cumulative commitment of claims by account, the relative demand for funds by account, a forecast of future awards, and other matters the commission determines may be of importance to the Legislature.

(h) The Department of Finance, commencing March 1, 1999, shall conduct an independent audit of the Renewable Resource Trust Fund and its related accounts annually, and provide an audit report to the Legislature not later than March 1 of each year for which this article is operative. The Department of Finance's report shall include information regarding revenues, payment of awards, reserves held for future commitments, unencumbered cash balances, and other matters that the Director of Finance determines may be of importance to the Legislature.

SEC. 7. Section 380 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

380. (a) To recognize the potential for microgeneration facilities to enhance reliability, power quality, and to provide other demonstrable benefits to the electric transmission or distribution system, an electrical corporation shall waive the otherwise applicable standby charge for each eligible customer.

(b) The cumulative load for which a waiver is authorized pursuant to this section shall not exceed 1 megawatt (1MW) total, and shall be located in the service territory of the electrical corporation.

(c) For purposes of this section, "electrical corporation" means an electrical corporation that, as of December 20, 1995, served at least four million customers, and that was also a gas corporation that served less than four thousand customers.

(d) For purposes of this section, "eligible customer" means a customer who has installed a microgeneration facility as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 331 on or after 90 days from the effective date of this section if that facility meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Is operated in parallel with the electrical corporation's transmission and distribution system.

(2) Is subject to the electrical corporation's standby tariff.

(3) Is in full compliance with the best available control technology (BACT).

(e) To implement the provisions of this section, an electrical corporation as defined in subdivision (b) shall, not later than 90 days from the effective date of this section, file with the commission appropriate revisions to the standby tariff schedule.

(f) Any waiver granted pursuant to this section shall expire on June 30, 2000.

(g) This section shall remain in effect until June 30, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before June 30, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. (1) The district complies with the provisions of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 374.

(2) The district receives no direct or indirect benefit pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 374 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) The commission shall, within 30 days from the effective date of this section, assess the viability of the request for an allocation that is authorized pursuant to this section in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 374, to determine if the request is consistent with the criteria previously applied by the commission in its decision of March 26, 1997, regarding the implementation of Section 374 of the Public Utilities Code (Docket No. 96-IRR-1890).

(c) For purposes of achieving an orderly, equitable phasein of all authorized allocations within the service territory of the electrical corporation in which the district is located, the commission, in accordance with subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 374 of the Public Utilities Code, may make adjustments to the phasein of allocations that have been previously authorized.

CHAPTER 906

An act to amend Section 502.01 of, and to add and repeal Chapter 5.7 (commencing with Section 13848) of Title 6 of Part 4 of, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 502.01 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

502.01. (a) As used in this section:

(1) “Property subject to forfeiture” means any property of the defendant that is a telecommunications device as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 502.8, or a computer, computer system, or computer network, and any software or data residing thereon, if the telecommunications device, computer, computer system, or computer network was used in committing a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 502 or Section 502.7 or 502.8, or was used as a repository for the storage of software or data obtained in violation of those provisions. If the defendant is a minor, it also includes property of the parent or guardian of the defendant.

(2) “Sentencing court” means the court sentencing a person found guilty of violating subdivision (c) of Section 502 or Section 502.7 or 502.8, or, in the case of a minor found to be a person described in Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of a violation of those provisions, the juvenile court.

(3) “Interest” means any property interest in the property subject to forfeiture.

(4) “Security interest” means an interest that is a lien, mortgage, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract.

(5) “Value” has the following meanings:

(A) When counterfeit items of computer software are manufactured or possessed for sale, the “value” of those items shall be equivalent to the retail price or fair market price of the true items that are counterfeited.

(B) When counterfeited but unassembled components of computer software packages are recovered, including, but not limited to, counterfeited computer diskettes, instruction manuals, or licensing envelopes, the “value” of those components of computer software packages shall be equivalent to the retail price or fair market price of the number of completed computer software packages that could have been made from those components.

(b) The sentencing court shall, upon petition by the prosecuting attorney, at any time following sentencing, or by agreement of all parties, at the time of sentencing, conduct a hearing to determine whether any property or property interest is subject to forfeiture under this section. At the forfeiture hearing, the prosecuting attorney shall have the burden of establishing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the property or property interests are subject to forfeiture. The prosecuting attorney may retain seized property that may be subject to forfeiture until the sentencing hearing.

(c) Prior to the commencement of a forfeiture proceeding, the law enforcement agency seizing the property subject to forfeiture shall make an investigation as to any person other than the defendant who may have an interest in it. At least 30 days before the hearing to determine whether the property should be forfeited, the prosecuting agency shall send notice of the hearing to any person who may have an interest in the property that arose before the seizure.

A person claiming an interest in the property shall file a motion for the redemption of that interest at least 10 days before the hearing on forfeiture, and shall send a copy of the motion to the prosecuting agency and to the probation department.

If a motion to redeem an interest has been filed, the sentencing court shall hold a hearing to identify all persons who possess valid interests in the property. No person shall hold a valid interest in the property if, by a preponderance of the evidence, the prosecuting agency shows that the person knew or should have known that the property was being used in violation of subdivision (c) of Section 502 or Section 502.7 or 502.8, and that the person did not take reasonable steps to prevent that use, or if the interest is a security interest, the person knew or should have known at the time that the security interest was created that the property would be used for a violation.

(d) If the sentencing court finds that a person holds a valid interest in the property, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) The court shall determine the value of the property.

(2) The court shall determine the value of each valid interest in the property.

(3) If the value of the property is greater than the value of the interest, the holder of the interest shall be entitled to ownership of the property upon paying the court the difference between the value of the property and the value of the valid interest.

If the holder of the interest declines to pay the amount determined under paragraph (2), the court may order the property sold and designate the prosecutor or any other agency to sell the property. The designated agency shall be entitled to seize the property and the holder of the interest shall forward any documentation underlying the interest, including any ownership certificates for that property, to the designated agency. The designated agency shall sell the property and pay the owner of the interest the proceeds, up to the value of that interest.

(4) If the value of the property is less than the value of the interest, the designated agency shall sell the property and pay the owner of the interest the proceeds, up to the value of that interest.

(e) If the defendant was a minor at the time of the offense, this subdivision shall apply to property subject to forfeiture that is the property of the parent or guardian of the minor.

(1) The prosecuting agency shall notify the parent or guardian of the forfeiture hearing at least 30 days before the date set for the hearing.

(2) The computer or telecommunications device shall not be subject to forfeiture if the parent or guardian files a signed statement with the court at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing that the minor shall not have access to any computer or telecommunications device owned by the parent or guardian for two years after the date on which the minor is sentenced.

(3) If the minor is convicted of a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 502 or Section 502.7 or 502.8 within two years after the date on which the minor is sentenced, and the violation involves a computer or telecommunications device owned by the parent or guardian, the original property subject to forfeiture, and the property involved in the new offense, shall be subject to forfeiture notwithstanding paragraph (2).

(f) If the defendant is found to have the only valid interest in the property subject to forfeiture, it shall be distributed as follows:

(1) First, to the victim, if the victim elects to take the property as full or partial restitution for injury, victim expenditures, or compensatory damages, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 502. If the victim elects to receive the property under this paragraph, the value of the property shall be determined by the court and that amount shall be credited against the restitution owed by the defendant. The victim shall not be penalized for electing not to accept the forfeited property in lieu of full or partial restitution.

(2) Second, at the discretion of the court, to one or more of the following agencies or entities:

(A) The prosecuting agency.

(B) The public entity of which the prosecuting agency is a part.

(C) The public entity whose officers or employees conducted the investigation resulting in forfeiture.

(D) Other state and local public entities, including school districts.

(E) Nonprofit charitable organizations.

(g) If the property is to be sold, the court may designate the prosecuting agency or any other agency to sell the property at auction. The proceeds of the sale shall be distributed by the court as follows:

(1) To the bona fide or innocent purchaser or encumbrancer, conditional sales vendor, or mortgagee of the property up to the amount of his or her interest in the property, if the court orders a distribution to that person.

(2) The balance, if any, to be retained by the court, subject to the provisions for distribution under subdivision (f).

SEC. 2. Chapter 5.7 (commencing with Section 13848) is added to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.7. HIGH TECHNOLOGY THEFT APPREHENSION AND PROSECUTION PROGRAM

13848. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to provide local law enforcement and district attorneys with the tools necessary to successfully interdict the promulgation of high technology-related crime. According to the federal Law Enforcement Training Center, it is expected that states will see a tremendous growth in high technology crimes over the next few years as computers become more available and computer users more skilled in utilizing technology to commit these faceless crimes.

(b) Funds provided under this program are intended to ensure that law enforcement is equipped with the necessary personnel and equipment to successfully combat high technology crime which includes the following offenses:

(1) White-collar crime, such as check, automated teller machine, and credit card fraud, committed by means of electronic or computer-related media.

(2) Theft involving the electronic transfer of funds, unauthorized access to intellectual property, theft of software, and resale of stolen computer hardware.

(3) Remarking and counterfeiting of computer hardware and software.

(4) Theft and resale of telephone calling codes, theft of wireless communication service, and theft of cable television services by manipulation of the equipment used to receive those services.

(5) Laundering of illegal profits through computer networks and electronic banking transfers.

(6) Eavesdropping into or capture of e-mail systems, law enforcement dispatch systems, and wireless or wireline communication networks.

(7) Electronic terrorism through the creation of viruses, disabling of communication systems or power networks, unauthorized manipulation of data bases, or theft of funds committed by means of the penetration of electronic fund transfer systems.

(c) This program is also intended to provide support to law enforcement agencies by providing technical assistance to those agencies with respect to the seizure and analysis of computer systems used to commit crimes.

13848.2. (a) There is hereby established in the Office of Criminal Justice Planning a program of financial and technical assistance for law enforcement and district attorneys' offices, designated the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program. All funds appropriated to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for the purposes of this chapter shall be administered and disbursed by the executive director of the office in consultation with the High Technology Steering Committee as established in Section 13848.6 and shall to the extent feasible be coordinated with federal funds and private grants or private donations that are made available for these purposes.

(b) The Executive Director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning is authorized to allocate and award funds to counties in which high technology theft crime units are established in compliance with Section 13848.4.

(c) The allocation and award of funds under this chapter shall be made on application executed by the district attorney or county sheriff and approved by the board of supervisors for each county that is a participant of a high technology theft apprehension and prosecution unit.

(d) In identifying program areas that will be eligible for competitive application during the 1998–99 fiscal year for federal funding pursuant to the Edward Byrne Memorial State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance Programs (Subchapter V (commencing with Section 3750) of Chapter 46 of the United States Code), the Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall include, to the extent possible, an emphasis on high technology crime by selecting funding areas that would further the use of federal funds to address high technology crime and facilitate the establishment of high technology multijurisdictional task forces.

(e) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall allocate any increase in federal funding pursuant to the Anti-Drug Abuse Act (Public Law 100-690) for the 1998–99 fiscal year to those programs described in subdivision (d).

13848.4. (a) All funds appropriated to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for the purposes of this chapter shall be deposited in the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program Trust Fund, which is hereby established. The fund shall be under the direction and control of the executive director. Moneys in the fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be expended to implement this chapter.

(b) Moneys in the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program Trust Fund shall be expended to fund programs to enhance the capacity of local law enforcement and prosecutors to deter, investigate, and prosecute high technology-related crimes. After deduction of the actual and necessary administrative costs referred to in subdivision (f), the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program Trust Fund shall be expended to fund programs to enhance the capacity of local law enforcement, state police, and local prosecutors to deter, investigate, and prosecute high technology-related crimes. Any funds distributed under this chapter shall be expended for the exclusive purpose of deterring, investigating, and prosecuting high technology-related crimes.

(c) Ten percent of the funds shall be used for developing and maintaining a statewide data base on high technology crime for use in developing and distributing intelligence information to participating law enforcement agencies. Any funds not expended in a fiscal year for these purposes shall be distributed to regional high technology theft task forces pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) Any regional task force receiving funds under this section may elect to have the Department of Justice administer the regional task force program. The department may be reimbursed for any expenditures incurred for administering a regional task force from funds given to local law enforcement pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall distribute funds in the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program Trust Fund to eligible agencies pursuant to subdivision (b) in consultation with the High Technology Steering Committee established pursuant to Section 13848.6.

(f) Administration of the overall program and the evaluation and monitoring of all grants made pursuant to this chapter shall be performed by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, provided that funds expended for these functions shall not exceed 5 percent of the total amount made available under this chapter.

13848.6. (a) The High Technology Steering Committee is hereby established and shall be composed of one representative of the high technology manufacturing industry, one representative of the wireless phone industry, one representative of the multichannel video industry, one representative of the Internet industry, and one member of the local law enforcement community for each area in which a regional task force will be situated. Each of these groups may appoint an appropriate representative of their office or organization to serve on the committee.

(b) The executive director, in consultation with the High Technology Steering Committee, shall develop specific guidelines and administrative procedures for the selection of projects to be funded by the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program, which guidelines shall include the following selection criteria:

(1) Each regional task force that seeks funds shall submit a written application to the committee setting forth in detail the proposed use of the funds.

(2) In order to qualify for the receipt of funds, each proposed regional task force submitting an application shall provide written evidence that the agency meets either of the following conditions:

(A) Has a regional task force devoted to the investigation and prosecution of high technology-related crimes that is comprised of local law enforcement, state law enforcement, and prosecutors, and has been in existence for at least one year prior to the application date.

(B) Has had on a regular basis during the three years immediately preceding the application date local law enforcement members who have actively investigated and prosecuted cases of suspected high technology theft.

(3) In order to qualify for funds, a regional task force shall be comprised of local law enforcement and prosecutors from at least two counties. The proposed task force shall also have at least one investigator assigned to it from a state law enforcement agency. Each task force shall be directed by a local steering committee composed of representatives of participating agencies and members of the local high technology industry.

(4) Additional criteria that shall be considered by the steering committee in awarding grant funds shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) The number of high technology theft cases filed in the prior year.

(B) The number of high technology theft cases investigated in the prior year.

(C) The number of victims involved in the cases filed.

(D) The total aggregate monetary loss suffered by the victims, including individuals, associations, institutions, or corporations, as a result of the high technology theft cases filed, and those under active investigation by that task force.

(5) Each regional task force that has been awarded funds authorized under the High Technology Theft Apprehension and Prosecution Program during the previous grant-funding cycle, upon reapplication for funds to the committee in each successive year, shall be required to submit a detailed accounting of funds received and expended in the prior year in addition to any information required by this section. The accounting shall include all of the following information:

(A) The amount of funds received and expended.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 12 (commencing with Section 1915) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 12. Tattoo Removal

1915. (a) The Department of the Youth Authority shall purchase, after a competitive bidding process, two medical devices that utilize a laser to remove a tattoo from a person's skin. The department shall determine, in consultation with the Office of Criminal Justice Planning and, if Senate Bill 980 of the 1997–98 Regular Session is enacted, the Peace Process Task Force, the placement of the two medical devices pursuant to the following guidelines:

(1) One of the medical devices shall be located within Los Angeles County and the other shall be located within one of the following counties: Alameda, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, and Santa Cruz.

(2) Possible sites may include: a licensed health facility, a licensed health clinic, an educational institution, or a probation office. The department may enter into an agreement with a licensed health facility to permit the health facility to use the medical device when it is not needed for tattoo removal pursuant to this section if the health facility provides tattoo removal services pursuant to this section free of charge.

(3) The medical devices shall remain the property of the state. However, they shall be used in conjunction with the tattoo removal program pursuant to this section for the functional life of the medical devices.

(b) Candidates for tattoo removal shall be screened by community groups recommended by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning and, if Senate Bill 980 of the 1997–98 Regular Session is enacted, the Peace Process Task Force. A male candidate for tattoo removal shall have a tattoo on his lower arm, hand, neck, or head. A female candidate for tattoo removal shall have a tattoo that would be visible in a professional work environment. To be eligible for participation, the presence of the tattoo must be deemed to present either a threat to the personal safety of, or an obstacle to the employability of, the candidate. Priority shall be given to candidates who have a job offer that is contingent upon removal of the tattoo. At the discretion of the organization that screens a candidate, a candidate for this tattoo removal may be required to complete 20 hours of supervised public service work in order to participate in this program. Parental consent shall be required before the tattoo of any person under 18 years of age is removed.

(c) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning and, if Senate Bill 980 of the 1997–98 Regular Session is enacted, the Peace Process Task Force, shall solicit the pro bono services of physicians to participate in the program in order to increase the number of individuals served.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that at least 200 tattoo removals shall be performed at each of the two locations by January 1, 1999. By January 1, 2000, community groups that participate in this program shall report to the Department of the Youth Authority on the number of tattoo removals performed and the success of the program in assisting individuals join the work force. By March 1, 2000, the Department of the Youth Authority shall report these findings to the Legislature.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature to expand these pilot programs as rapidly as possible to other areas of the state where there is gang violence and where there are active community-based gang violence prevention programs.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to the Department of the Youth Authority for the purchase of two medical devices that utilize a laser to remove a tattoo from a person's skin and, with any funds that remain after the purchase, for the compensation of any qualified health care professionals who perform the tattoo removal with the purchased medical devices or who provide tattoo removal services in a cost-effective and proven program.

CHAPTER 908

An act to add and repeal Title 5.5 (commencing with Section 13760) of Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to firearms, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 5.5 (commencing with Section 13760) is added to Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

TITLE 5.5. ILLEGAL FIREARM CONFISCATION PILOT PROJECT

13760. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the problem of violence caused by the use of firearms is becoming increasingly serious and that an increasing percentage of the incidents of firearm violence involve the use of illegal firearms.

(b) In establishing the pilot project pursuant to this title, it is the intent of the Legislature to support increased efforts by local law enforcement agencies to take illegal firearms off the streets.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that greater enforcement of existing laws against the unauthorized carrying of concealed weapons could reduce gun crime. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to dedicate those law enforcement officers participating in the pilot project established pursuant to this title to gun detection and proactive patrol.

(d) It is the further intent of the Legislature that, in order to maximize patrol in "hotspot" areas, each officer participating in this pilot project be required to answer only high priority calls, defined as crimes in progress or life-threatening emergencies.

13761. There is hereby established a four-year pilot project in the County of Fresno and the County of Los Angeles to implement a local law enforcement program to confiscate illegal firearms.

13762. The Department of Justice shall determine geographic "hotspots," in consultation with local law enforcement agencies, on the basis of the following criteria:

(a) Number of drive-by shootings.

(b) Number of homicides.

(c) Number of rapes.

(d) Number of gun-related crimes.

The Department of Justice shall select one or more of these "hotspots" as the target of the pilot project established pursuant to this title.

13763. Any funds appropriated for the purpose of implementing the pilot project established pursuant to this title may be used for the following purposes:

(a) Overtime pay for peace officers.

(b) Hiring additional peace officers.

(c) Purchasing additional patrol units.

13764. By January 1, 2002, the Department of Justice, in consultation with the appropriate law enforcement agency in the participating county, shall prepare and submit to the Governor and the Legislature a report evaluating the success of the pilot project.

Criteria to be considered for determining the success of the pilot project shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Measurable increase in the number of illegal firearms retrieved within the hot-spot areas.

(b) Measurable decrease in the number of offenses committed using illegal firearms.

(c) Measurable decrease in the overall crime rate within the hot-spot areas as compared to crime statistics for the same area prior to the pilot project.

13765. This title shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The sum of one hundred ninety-eight thousand dollars ($198,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice for the 1997–98 fiscal year to implement the pilot project authorized by Title 5.5 (commencing with Section 13760) of Part 4 of the Penal Code, as added by Section 1 of this act.

CHAPTER 909

An act to add Section 601.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youths, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 601.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

601.5. (a) Any county may, upon adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors, establish an At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program designed to assess and serve families with children who have chronic behavioral problems that place the child at risk of becoming a ward of the juvenile court under Section 601 or 602. The purpose of the program is to provide a swift and local service response to youth behavior problems so that future involvement with the justice system may be avoided.

(b) The At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program shall be designed and developed by a collaborative group which shall include representatives of the juvenile court, the probation department, the district attorney, the public defender, the county department of social services, the county education department, county health and mental health agencies, and local and community-based youth and family service providers.

(c) The At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program shall include one or more neighborhood-based Youth Referral Centers for at-risk youth and their families. These Youth Referral Centers shall be flexibly designed by each participating county to serve the local at-risk youth population with family assessments, onsite services, and referrals to offsite services. The operator of a Youth Referral Center may be a private nonprofit community-based agency or a public agency, or both. A center shall be staffed by youth and family service counselors who may be public or private employees and who shall be experienced in dealing with at-risk youth who are eligible for the program, as described in subdivision (d). The center may also be staffed as a collaborative service model involving onsite youth and family counselors, probation officers, school representatives, health and mental health practitioners, or other service providers. A center shall be located at one or more community sites that are generally accessible to at-risk youth and families and shall be open during daytime, evening, and weekend hours, as appropriate, based upon local service demand and resources available to the program.

(d) A minor may be referred to a Youth Referral Center by a parent or guardian, a law enforcement officer, a probation officer, a child welfare agency, or a school, or a minor may self-refer. A minor may be referred to the program if the minor is at least 10 years of age and is believed by the referring source to be at risk of justice system involvement due to chronic disobedience to parents, curfew violations, repeat truancy, incidents of running away from home, experimentation with drugs or alcohol, or other serious behavior problems. Whenever a minor is referred to the program, the Youth Referral Center shall make an initial determination as to whether the minor is engaged in a pattern of at-risk behavior likely to result in future justice system involvement, and, if satisfied that the minor is significantly at risk, the center shall initiate a family assessment. The family assessment shall identify the minor's behavioral problem, the family's circumstances and relationship to the problem, and the needs of the minor or the family in relation to the behavioral problem. The assessment shall be performed using a risk and needs assessment instrument, based on national models of successful youth risk and needs assessment instruments and utilizing objective assessment criteria, as appropriate for the clientele served by the program. At a minimum, the assessment shall include information drawn from interviews with the minor and with the parents or other adults having custody of the minor, and it shall include information on the minor's probation, school, health, and mental health status to the extent such information may be available and accessible.

(e) If the Youth Referral Center confirms upon assessment that the minor is at significant risk of future justice system involvement and that the minor may benefit from referral to services, the Youth Referral Center staff shall work with the minor and the parents to produce a written service plan to be implemented over a period of up to six months. The plan shall identify specific programs or services that are recommended by the center and are locally available to the minor and the family as a means of addressing the behavior problems that led to the referral. The plan may include a requirement that the minor obey reasonable rules of conduct at home or in school including reasonable home curfew and school attendance rules, while the service plan is being implemented. The plan may also require, as a condition of further participation in the program, that a parent or other family member engage in counseling, parenting classes, or other relevant activities. To the extent possible given available resources, the staff at the Youth Referral Center shall facilitate compliance with the service plan by assisting the minor and the family in making appointments with service providers, by responding to requests for help by the minor or the parent as they seek to comply with the plan, and by monitoring compliance until the plan is completed.

(f) (1) The caseworker at the Youth Referral Center shall explain the service plan to the minor and the parents and, prior to any referral to services, the minor and the parents shall agree to the plan. The minor and the parents shall be informed that the minor's failure to accept or to cooperate with the service plan may result in the filing of a petition and a finding of wardship under Section 601.

(2) With the cooperation of the collaborative group described in subdivision (b), the Youth Referral Center shall review youth and family services offered within its local service area and shall identify providers, programs, and services that are available for referral of minors and parents under this section. Providers to which minors and parents may be referred under this section may be public or private agencies or individuals offering counseling, health, educational, parenting, mentoring, community service, skill-building, and other relevant services that are considered likely to resolve the behavioral problems that are referred to the center.

(g) (1) Unless the probation department is directly operating and staffing the Youth Referral Center, the probation department shall designate one or more probation officers to serve as liaison to a Youth Referral Center for the purpose of facilitating and monitoring compliance with service plans established in individual cases by the center.

(2) If, upon consultation with the minor's parents and with providers designated in the service plan, the supervising caseworker at the center and the liaison probation officer agree that the minor has willfully, significantly, and repeatedly failed to cooperate with the service plan, the minor shall be referred to the probation department which shall verify the failure and, upon verification, shall file a petition seeking to declare the minor a ward of the juvenile court under subdivision (a) of Section 601. No minor shall be referred to the probation department for the filing of a petition under this subdivision until at least 90 days have elapsed after the first attempt to implement the service plan. No minor shall be subject to filing of a petition under this subdivision for a failure to complete the service plan which is due principally to an inability of the minor or the family to pay for services listed in the service plan.

(3) If, within 180 days of the start of the service plan, the minor and the family have substantially completed the service plan and the minor's behavior problem appears to have been resolved, the center shall notify the probation department that the plan has been successfully completed.

(h) If a petition to declare the minor a ward of the juvenile court under subdivision (a) of Section 601 has been filed by the probation officer under this section, the court shall review the petition and any other facts which the court deems appropriate in relation to the minor's alleged failure to comply with the service plan described in subdivision (e). Based upon this review, the court may continue any hearing on the petition for up to six months so that the minor and the minor's parents may renew their efforts to comply with the service plan under court supervision. During the period in which the hearing is continued, the court may order that the minor and the parent cooperate with the service plan designed by the Youth Referral Center, or the court may modify the service plan or may impose additional conditions upon the minor or the parents as may be appropriate to encourage resolution of the behavior problems that led to the filing of the petition. The court shall, during the period of continuance, periodically review compliance with the extended service plan through reports from the probation officer or by calling the parties back into court, based upon a review schedule deemed appropriate by the court.

(i) The juvenile court of any county participating in the At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program shall designate a judicial officer to serve as a liaison to the program in order to participate in the development of the program and to coordinate program operations with the juvenile court. The liaison judicial officer may be designated by the juvenile court as the principal judicial officer assigned to review and hear petitions filed under this section, or if the court does not elect to designate a principal judicial officer to hear these cases, the juvenile court shall take steps to train or familiarize other judicial officers reviewing or hearing these cases as to the operations, procedures, and services of the At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) to the County of San Diego for support of a pilot At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program as described in Section 601.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which sum shall be allocated in equal amounts between private nonprofit and publicly administered early intervention providers.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 656.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

656.2. (a) In any case in which a minor is alleged to have committed an act that would have been a felony if committed by an adult, the probation officer shall inform the victim of the rights of victims to submit a victim impact statement. If the victim exercises the right to submit a victim impact statement to the probation officer, the probation officer shall include the statement in his or her social study submitted to the court pursuant to Section 706 and, if applicable, in his or her report submitted to the court pursuant to Section 707. The probation officer also shall advise those persons as to the time and place of the disposition hearing to be conducted pursuant to Sections 702 and 706 and any fitness hearing to be conducted pursuant to Section 707.

The probation officer shall also provide the victim with information concerning the victim's right to an action for civil damages against the minor and his or her parents and the victim's opportunity to be compensated from the restitution fund. The information shall be in the form of written material prepared by the Judicial Council and shall be provided to each victim for whom the probation officer has a current mailing address.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the persons from whom the probation officer is required to solicit a statement pursuant to subdivision (a) shall have the right to attend the disposition hearing conducted pursuant to Section 702 and to express their views concerning the offense and disposition of the case pursuant to Section 706 and to attend any fitness hearing conducted pursuant to Section 707.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any case in which a minor is alleged to have committed an act subject to a fitness hearing under Section 707, the victim shall have the right to be informed of all court dates and continuances pertaining to the case, and shall further have the right to obtain copies of the charging petition, the minutes of the proceedings, and orders of adjudications and disposition of the court that are contained in the court file. The arresting agency shall notify the victim in a timely manner of the address and telephone number of the juvenile branch of the district attorney's office that will be responsible for the case and for informing the victim of the victim's right to attend hearings and obtain documents as provided in this section. The district attorney shall, upon request, inform the victim of the date of the fitness hearing, the date of the disposition hearing, and the dates for any continuances of those hearings, and shall inform the court if the victim seeks to exercise his or her right to obtain copies of the documents described in this subdivision.

Where the proceeding against the minor is based on a felony that is not listed in Section 676, a victim who obtains information about the minor under this subdivision shall not disclose or disseminate this information beyond his or her immediate family unless authorized to do so by a judge of the juvenile court, and the judge may suspend or terminate the right of the victim to access to information under this subdivision if the information is improperly disclosed or disseminated by the victim or any members of his or her immediate family. The intentional dissemination of documents in violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500). Documents released by the court to a victim pursuant to this section shall be stamped as confidential and with a statement that the unlawful dissemination of the documents is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(d) Upon application of the district attorney for good cause and a showing of potential danger to the public, the court may redact any information contained in any documents released by the court to a victim pursuant to this section.

(e) For purposes of this section, "victim" means the victim, the parent or guardian of the victim if the victim is a minor, or, if the victim has died, the victim's next of kin.

SEC. 2. Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707. (a) In any case in which a minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he or she was 16 years of age or older, of any criminal statute or ordinance except those listed in subdivision (b), upon motion of the petitioner made prior to the attachment of jeopardy the court shall cause the probation officer to investigate and submit a report on the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for a determination of unfitness. Following submission and consideration of the report, and of any other relevant evidence which the petitioner or the minor may wish to submit, the juvenile court may find that the minor is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law if it concludes that the minor would not be amenable to the care, treatment, and training program available through the facilities of the juvenile court, based upon an evaluation of the following criteria:

(1) The degree of criminal sophistication exhibited by the minor.

(2) Whether the minor can be rehabilitated prior to the expiration of the juvenile court's jurisdiction.

In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing, and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at the hearing.

(b) Subdivision (c) shall be applicable in any case in which a minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he or she was 16 years of age or older, of one of the following offenses:

In making a finding of fitness, the court may consider extenuating or mitigating circumstances in evaluating each of the above criteria. In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at the hearing.

(A) The degree of criminal sophistication exhibited by the minor.

In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing, and no plea that may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at the hearing.

(X) Carjacking, in which the minor personally used a firearm.
(e) This subdivision shall apply to a minor alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he or she had attained the age of 14 years but had not attained the age of 16 years, of the offense of murder in which it is alleged in the petition that one of the following exists:
(1) In the case of murder in the first or second degree, the minor personally killed the victim.
(2) In the case of murder in the first or second degree, the minor, acting with the intent to kill the victim, aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, solicited, requested, or assisted any person to kill the victim.

(3) In the case of murder in the first degree, while not the actual killer, the minor, acting with reckless indifference to human life and as a major participant in a felony enumerated in paragraph (17) of subdivision (a) of Section 190.2, or an attempt to commit that felony, aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, solicited, requested, or assisted in the commission or attempted commission of that felony and the commission or attempted commission of that felony or the immediate flight therefrom resulted in the death of the victim.

Upon motion of the petitioner made prior to the attachment of jeopardy, the court shall cause the probation officer to investigate and submit a report on the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for a determination of unfitness. Following submission and consideration of the report, and of any other relevant evidence which the petitioner or the minor may wish to submit, the minor shall be presumed to be not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law unless the juvenile court concludes, based upon evidence, which evidence may be of extenuating or mitigating circumstances, that the minor would be amenable to the care, treatment, and training program available through the facilities of the juvenile court based upon an evaluation of each of the following criteria:

In making a finding of fitness, the court may consider extenuating or mitigating circumstances in evaluating each of the above criteria. In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at the hearing.

(f) Any report submitted by a probation officer pursuant to this section regarding the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for a determination of unfitness shall include any written or oral statement offered by the victim, the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, or if the victim has died, the victim's next of kin, as authorized by subdivision (b) of Section

656.2. Victims' statements shall be considered by the court to the extent they are relevant to the court's determination of unfitness.

(4) Pupils in grades 11 and 12.

(5) Students enrolled in any community college, California State University, or University of California program.

(k) The sole purpose of this section is to assess the performance of state and federal employment and training providers and programs in preparing Californians for the work force. Collection and use of social security numbers pursuant to this section shall be consistent with the requirements of Section 7 of the federal Privacy Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-579) and Section 405(c)(2)(C) of Title 42 of the United States Code. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, or any other provision of law, the social security number of any person obtained pursuant to this section is not a public record, and shall not be disclosed except for the purpose of this section. Information obtained pursuant to this section shall not be sold or distributed to any entity without prior consent from the individual, or his or her parent or guardian, with respect to whom the information is gathered. This subdivision does not prohibit the exchange of information with other governmental departments and agencies, both federal and state, that are concerned with the administration of work force development programs. Neither the subcommittee nor an operating entity under contract to the subcommittee, as the case may be, may make public any information that could identify an individual or his or her employer.

(l) An education and training program that requires information gathered by the education and job training report card program shall use the report card program and shall not initiate automated matching of records in duplication of methods already in place as a result of the report card program.

(m) Funding for the development and maintenance of the education and job training report card program shall be made available on a shared basis by the programs the report card program is measuring, to the extent authorized by federal and state law. The subcommittee, or the operating entity under contract to the subcommittee, shall have the authority to assess each of the programs with an appropriate share of the costs of the report card program. Administrative funds currently used for program followup activities for the identified programs shall be redirected for this purpose, if authorized by federal law.

(n) The state council shall apply for any federal waivers that may be necessary to implement this section.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Governor request a waiver from the United States Department of Labor on restrictions under regulations adopted pursuant to the federal Job Training Partnership Act that limit work experience under the act's summer youth employment and training program to placements in public or private nonprofit organizations in order to increase the coordination between the summer youth employment training program and the state's school-to-career program.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add and repeal Section 1596.7925 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to child day care facilities.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1596.7925 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1596.792, to read:

1596.7925. (a) In addition to the exempt settings set forth in Section 1596.792, as a three-year pilot program in Orange County, this chapter and Chapters 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90) and 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) do not apply to an extended day care program that is operated by an individual, organization, or other entity pursuant to a contract with a public school, or a school district, provided that the contracting school district ensures that the program meets all of the following conditions:

(1) The program is operated on a schoolsite that is in current use by the public school or school district that has contracted for the extended day care program.

(2) The contracting school or school district has ensured that employees of the extended day care program operator have had a criminal background check performed by the Department of Justice and a Child Abuse Index Clearance and the results have been returned to the school or school district.

(3) Individuals employed by the program to serve as program supervisors are over the age of 18.

(4) The contract with the public school or school district shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(B) A requirement that the contractor shall comply with the child-to-staff ratios otherwise applicable by law to extended day care programs.

(C) A requirement that the contractor shall comply with the sign-in and sign-out regulations otherwise applicable by law to extended day care programs.

(5) All classrooms or portable classrooms utilized by the extended day care program shall comply with the Field Act (See Section 17281 of the Education Code).

(6) The requirements of Section 45125 of the Education Code shall apply to programs operated under this section.

(7) This section does not require all public schools or school districts that contract for the provision of extended day care services in Orange County to operate the program pursuant to this section. The public school or school district may elect to have the program operate pursuant to the licensing exemption set forth in this section or, in the alternative, may require pursuant to the contract that the program operate subject to all licensure requirements otherwise applicable to extended day care programs.

(b) A school district contracting with a child care program pursuant to this section shall ensure that an annual evaluation of the health and safety of the children in the child care program is conducted by a consultant or organization that is independent of the school district and of the child care program. The results of the independent evaluation shall be reported annually, by December 31, to the Department of Social Services, the Assembly Human Services Committee, and the Senate Health and Human Services Committee.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2001, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2001, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 917

An act to amend Section 8481 of the Education Code, relating to human services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

SECTION 1. Section 8481 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 270 of the Statutes of 1997, is amended to read:

8481. (a) Subject to appropriation in the annual Budget Act, for the purpose of the program in this article, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may allocate funds for the establishment of school-based schoolage before and after school programs that include homework and tutoring assistance, improve literacy skills, and provide recreational activities, as well as facilitate the transition from welfare to work by providing child care for schoolage children and potential employment for welfare recipients who are parents of children enrolled in schoolage child care programs.

(b) A before and after school program, whether public, private, or school district operated, in collaboration with other local governmental agencies, may apply to the State Department of Education for funding under this article. A before and after school program that receives funding pursuant to this article may participate in any other grant programs that fund literacy and technology activities.

(c) In order to achieve the goals of assisting children in learning, providing parents with employment and parenting skills, providing a safe environment for children, and helping prevent crime in neighborhoods, a program funded under this article shall be a collaborative effort with a school district, and may also include collaboration with any combination of the following: other school districts, community college districts, counties, cities, community-based organizations, not-for-profit organizations, the local agency that provides the Even Start Family and Head Start literacy programs or their equivalent programs, and the private sector.

(d) In selecting programs for funding under this article, the department shall use the standards set forth in Section 8463 and all of the following criteria:

(1) Programs shall have demonstrated experience in implementing quality before or after school child development programs.

(2) Programs shall demonstrate the inclusion of a strong literacy component.

(3) Programs shall demonstrate a working collaboration with entities listed in subdivision (c), including Even Start Family and Head Start literacy program providers, to the extent that these programs exist in the service area.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 8468, in allocating funds pursuant to this article, preference shall be given to programs that currently employ recipients of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any successor program, who are parents of children enrolled in the applicant programs or that have a demonstrated commitment to providing employment opportunities for those recipients of aid, or both.

(f) Funding received by a before and after school program pursuant to this article may be renewed and is contingent upon the following:

(1) Compliance with the requirement of subdivision (c), the criteria set forth in subdivision (d), and the priorities set forth in subdivision (e).

(2) A favorable evaluation completed by the State Department of Education pursuant to Section 8498.8 or an evaluation that meets the standards of the department. Outcomes shall include academic achievement determined by measurements such as test scores, grades, school attendance, and number of disciplinary actions.

(3) Programs shall demonstrate that they are receiving locally generated resources from other than federal and state sources, which may include in-kind contributions.

(g) (1) A program established under this section may employ parents of schoolage children who are participating in the program established pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any successor program, and may employ those parents in the schools attended by their own children. Parents employed pursuant to this subdivision may also participate in training programs at least six hours per week, in order to help them understand child development, learn parenting skills, and obtain skills for employment in either an educational or child care setting. Employment in the program may fulfill a participant's employment requirements under Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) A program shall also be encouraged to hire older siblings of children in the program whose families receive aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any successor program, to work in either the program's literacy or recreation components. It is the intent of this subdivision that hiring teenagers from families that receive aid under this Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any successor program, will provide an additional source of income for these families.

(3) All program participants shall be assessed before they work with children to determine their skills and literacy development and a criminal background check on each participant shall be completed before that participant begins to work with children. Participants shall be supervised by qualified staff.

(4) (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, but subject to subparagraph (B), programs operating under this article that use recipients of aid under Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any successor program, may count those recipients as staff members for purposes of determining compliance with staffing ratio requirements.

(B) Teenage siblings used by programs operating under this article may not be included in computing compliance with staffing ratio requirements.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, programs operating under this section may extend their hours of operation beyond 20 hours per week.

(h) A program established pursuant to this section shall assist the children of recipients of aid under Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any successor program, and other children to complete homework, improve literacy skills, that shall include, but not be limited to, reading, writing, mathematical, and computer skills, and participate in recreational activities.

(i) Programs funded under this section shall provide training on how to work with children on reading, writing, listening, and speaking. This training shall be provided in collaboration with an Even Start Family or Head Start literacy program, or their equivalent programs.

(j) (1) Notwithstanding Sections 8468 and 8473, priority for funding shall be given to schoolsites where a minimum of 70 percent of the children are eligible for, or are recipients of, either aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or free or reduced-cost meals through the school lunch program.

(2) Priority for enrollment in programs funded under this section shall be given in accordance with Section 8468.5.

(k) Programs funded under this section shall be encouraged to take advantage of free snack programs administered by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(l) It is the intent of this article, by providing a safe, supervised after school environment for children, including those teens employed by a program, to reduce criminal activity among juveniles, and to strengthen parent-child relationships and communities by involving parents in their children's schoolwork and schools.

(m) Notwithstanding Section 8360.1 or any other provision of law, college courses in recreation, art, mathematics, and physical and social development that would enhance the education of schoolage children may be considered to meet course requirements in child development.

SEC. 2. From the funds appropriated in Schedule (b)(8) of Item 6110-196-0001 of the Budget Act of 1997, the State Department of Education shall allocate three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000) to before and after school programs for the purpose of initiating alternative literacy based programs pursuant to Section 8481 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to begin before and after school programs pursuant to Section 8481 of the Education Code at the earliest possible date so that pupils will have the benefit of those programs, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 918

An act to add Section 35258 to the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that, although our state has embraced technology in creating a revolution of growth, our schools have not kept pace with this technology revolution. Access to information through the use of technology has become an integral and crucial part in the decisionmaking processes of government, industry, and the home. However, our schools do not facilitate access to information through one of the most available information technology mediums, the Internet.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to improve the access of parents and the community to school-based information.

SEC. 2. Section 35258 is added to the Education Code, to read:

35258. On or before July 1, 1998, each school district that is connected to the Internet shall make the information contained in the School Accountability Report Card developed pursuant to Section 35256 accessible on the Internet. The School Accountability Report Card information shall be updated annually.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 920

An act to amend Sections 15814.24, 15820.13, 16731.6, 17070, 17403, and 17404 of, and to add Sections 6547.8, 17070.1, and 17096.1 to, the Government Code, relating to government finance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6547.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6547.8. No member of the governing body of the authority shall be personally liable on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of bonds pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 15814.24 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.24. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion state aid equal to the amount necessary for each school district to meet its energy service contract obligation determined pursuant to this chapter. It is the intent of the Legislature that these funds be appropriated annually as a part of the state's general apportionment funds for kindergarten through grade 12 schools.

(b) If a school district enters into an energy service contract with the Public Works Board pursuant to this chapter, the district shall, as a part of that energy service contract, authorize the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Controller to withhold from its annual apportionment the amount of funds necessary to satisfy its annual energy service contract obligation to the Public Works Board. The agreement shall include authorization to withhold the additional apportionment amount and the amount determined to be the district's proportional share of the energy service contract obligation as determined pursuant to subdivision (a). The superintendent shall certify the amounts, by county, to the Controller. The Controller shall withhold the amount so reported for each county and shall, acting on behalf of each county, transfer the appropriate amount from Section A of the State School Fund to the Public Works Board for the purpose of payment of the debt service obligation for the bonds sold to finance the projects. Any payment made from an apportionment by the Controller pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be an allocation to a school district for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution for purposes of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41200) of Part 24 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. Section 15820.13 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15820.13. (a) The Legislature authorizes the use of revenue bonds and negotiable notes or negotiable bond anticipation notes to finance the construction of the Equine Drug Testing Laboratory capital outlay project on the campus of the University of California at Davis.

(b) The State Public Works Board may authorize the issuance of revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes for an amount not to exceed six million six hundred thousand dollars ($6,600,000), based on the Engineering News Record Construction Cost Index 5900, to pay the costs of constructing and equipping the laboratory, plus any additional amount necessary to cover the costs of financing the constructing and equipping of the laboratory, including interest during construction, the costs of issuing the bonds or notes, and the cost of establishing a reasonably required reserve fund.

(c) The revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes shall not be authorized for issuance by the State Public Works Board until the time the Regents of the University of California certify to the State Public Works Board and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee that there are sufficient funds available in the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System and California Center for Equine Health and Performance Account in the Fair and Exposition Fund to provide necessary rental payments from which to repay the revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes to be sold to finance the project, and until the Regents of the University of California agree to repay the outstanding debt from non-General Fund moneys if the amount of funds in the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System and California Center for Equine Health and Performance Account in the Fair and Exposition Fund are insufficient to repay any outstanding debt.

(d) Authorized total project costs shall not exceed twelve million dollars ($12,000,000) based on the Engineering News Record Construction Cost Index 5900.

(e) The difference between the authorized total project costs identified in subdivision (d) and the amount to be financed as identified in subdivision (b) is hereby appropriated from accumulated parimutuel revenues from the portion of the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System and California Center for Equine Health and Performance Account in the Fair and Exposition Fund designated for the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 19578 of the Business and Professions Code to the board for expenditure for the purposes of this section.

(f) Any augmentation of the approved project costs shall be subject to Section 13332.11.

(g) (1) The revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes to be sold to finance this project, and the related interest and expenses, shall be repaid by rental payments for the project made to the board by the Regents of the University of California, which shall be solely funded from amounts on deposit in the portion of the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System and California Center for Equine Health and Performance Account in the Fair and Exposition Fund established pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 19578 of the Business and Professions Code that are designated for the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System.

(2) The State of California pledges to and agrees with the holders of any revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or bond anticipation notes sold to finance this project that the state will not alter or change the structure of funding of, and deposits to, the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System and California Center for Equine Health and Performance Account or the pledge of funds for debt service, security, including any coverage factors and expenses entered into by the board pursuant to this part until the revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes sold to finance this project are fully paid or discharged or have been fully provided for in accordance with their terms. However, nothing precludes any alterations or changes if adequate provision is made by law for the protection from impairment of the contract represented by the bonds or other indebtedness, or obligations, and the right to so alter or change is hereby reserved. The board and the Regents of the University of California may include this pledge and undertaking of the state in their bonds, indentures, leases, or other documents relating to the obligations authorized in this section.

(3) Due to the exclusive source of repayment provided for in this section, all contrary provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, Sections 15848 and 15849.2, which provide for other sources and methods of payment, do not apply. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the amount of funds in the California Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory System and California Center for Equine Health and Performance Account in the Fair and Exposition Fund is insufficient to repay the revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes sold to finance this project and related interest and expenses, moneys appropriated from the General Fund shall not be used as an alternative source of repayment.

(h) Revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or liability of the state, and do not constitute a pledge of the full faith and credit of the state. The issuance of bonds under this section shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever or to make any appropriation for their payment.

(i) As an alternative to the issuance of bonds, notes, or other indebtedness by the Public Works Board, the Regents of the University of California may issue bonds, notes, or other indebtedness in order to finance the construction of the Equine Drug Testing Laboratory pursuant to this section, provided that no moneys appropriated from the General Fund shall be used to secure or repay any of the indebtedness of the regents.

SEC. 4. Section 16731.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16731.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, and as an alternative to the procedures set forth in Section 16731, the committee may provide for the issuance of all or part of the bonds authorized to be issued as commercial paper notes. The committee shall adopt a resolution finding that issuance of the bonds in the form of commercial paper notes is necessary and desirable, directing the Treasurer to arrange for preparation of the requisite number of suitable notes, and specifying other provisions relating to the commercial paper notes including the following:

(1) For each program of commercial paper notes authorized, the final date of maturity and the total aggregate principal amount of the commercial paper notes authorized to be outstanding at any one time up to the maturity date. The resolution may provide that the commercial paper notes may be issued and renewed from time to time until the final maturity date, and that the amount issued from time to time may be set by the Treasurer up to the maximum amount authorized to be outstanding at any one time. The resolution shall include methods of setting the dates, numbers, and denominations of the commercial paper notes. Determination of the final maturity date and total amount by the committee shall be made upon recommendation of the Treasurer to meet the needs of the state for funds, to provide the maximum benefit to potential purchasers, and to respond to the expected demand for the commercial paper notes. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, whenever the committee determines to issue commercial paper notes, the committee need not comply with the requirements of Section 16732.

(2) The method of setting the interest rates and interest payment dates applicable to the commercial paper notes. Commercial paper notes may bear a state rate of interest payable only at maturity, which rate or rates may be determined at the time of sale of each unit of commercial paper notes. The rate of interest borne by the commercial paper notes shall not exceed 11 percent per annum. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, whenever the committee determines to issue commercial paper notes, the committee need not comply with the requirements of Section 16733.

(3) Any provisions for the redemption of the commercial paper notes prior to stated maturity.

(4) The technical form and language of the commercial paper notes.

(5) All other terms and conditions of the commercial paper notes and of their execution, issuance, and sale, deemed necessary and appropriate by the committee.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, when the committee determines to issue commercial paper notes, all of the following shall apply:

(1) The commercial paper notes may be sold at negotiated sale at a price below the par value in a manner consistent with paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(2) For purposes of determining the principal amount of bonds of any voted authorization outstanding, in the case of any commercial paper notes, the principal amount deemed outstanding at any time during the term of a program of commercial paper notes shall be the maximum amount authorized in the resolution.

(3) During the term of any program of commercial paper notes, the renewal and reissuance from time to time of the commercial paper notes in an amount up to the maximum amount authorized by the resolution shall be deemed to be a refunding of the previously maturing amount, permitted by and consistent with Article 6 (commencing with Section 16780).

(4) Consistent with the intent for the General Fund to realize a savings in debt service costs when commercial paper notes are issued in place of bonds without shifting or adding financing and debt service costs to the bond funds, the state administrative costs of commercial paper and interest payable and other costs associated with commercial paper notes shall be paid for as follows:

(A) The proceeds of commercial paper notes are, notwithstanding Section 13340, continuously appropriated to pay the state administrative costs of commercial paper including, but not limited to, costs of the Treasurer's office and the Controller's office.

(B) The interest payable on maturing commercial paper notes and other costs associated with commercial paper notes not specified in paragraph (A), including, but not limited to, remarketing fees, issuing and paying agent fees, the letter or line of credit provider fees, the rating agency fees, and bond counsel fees, shall be paid from the General Fund which, notwithstanding Section 13340, is continuously appropriated to pay the interests and costs.

SEC. 5. Section 17070 of the Government Code is amended to read:

17070. Whenever any warrant issued by the Controller is unpaid for one year after it becomes payable, sufficient unapplied moneys having been available for the payment of the warrant and for the payment of all senior obligations, the Controller shall cancel it.

SEC. 6. Section 17070.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17070.1. Any warrant issued prior to January 1, 1998, shall be governed by the law effective on the date of issue of the warrant. Any warrant issued on or after January 1, 1998, shall be governed by the one-year period of negotiability specified in Section 17070.

SEC. 7. Section 17096.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17096.1. An agency that submits a claim schedule to the State Controller's office that results in a warrant that is canceled under Section 17070 may submit a claim schedule against the fund to which the original warrant reverted pursuant to Section 17072 for two years following the date of cancellation of the original warrant.

SEC. 8. Section 17403 of the Government Code is amended to read:

17403. In any case in which the Treasurer redeems or gives credit for a warrant or check, he or she may revoke the payment or credit given by returning the warrant or check to the presenting financial institution if, upon further examination, the item is found to bear a forged, erroneous, or unauthorized endorsement or to contain any material defect or alteration. Upon this revocation, the Treasurer may deduct the amount of the item from any amount that is due or may become due to the presenting financial institution or to obtain a refund from the financial institution. This right is subject only to the requirements that the item in question be returned at the time of offset or collection and that no more than three years has elapsed since the time that the instrument was presented to the financial institution.

SEC. 9. Section 17404 of the Government Code is amended to read:

17404. Upon notification from the State Treasurer that a forged or erroneously endorsed state warrant has been charged back to the presenting financial institution, the State Controller may process a claim schedule directing payment to the original payee.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the University of California may sell bonds for the construction of the Equine Drug Testing Laboratory pursuant to the provisions of this act at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

5079. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any firm lawfully engaged in the practice of public accountancy in this state may have owners who are not licensed as certified public accountants or public accountants if the following conditions are met:

(1) Nonlicensee owners shall be natural persons or entities, such as partnerships, professional corporations, or others, provided that each ultimate beneficial owner of an equity interest in that entity shall be a natural person materially participating in the business conducted by the firm or an entity controlled by the firm.

(2) Nonlicensee owners shall materially participate in the business of the firm, or an entity controlled by the firm, and their ownership interest shall revert to the firm upon the cessation of any material participation.

(3) Licensees shall in the aggregate, directly or beneficially, comprise a majority of owners, except that firms with two owners may have one owner who is a nonlicensee.

(4) Licensees shall in the aggregate, directly or beneficially, hold more than half of the equity capital and possess majority voting rights.

(5) Nonlicensee owners shall not hold themselves out as certified public accountants or public accountants.

(6) There shall be a certified public accountant or public accountant who has ultimate responsibility for each financial statement attest and compilation service engagement.

(7) Except as permitted by the board in the exercise of its discretion, a person may not become a nonlicensee owner or remain a nonlicensee owner if the person has done either of the following:

(A) Been convicted of any crime, an element of which is dishonesty or fraud, under the laws of any state, of the United States, or of any other jurisdiction.

(B) Had a professional license or the right to practice revoked or suspended for reasons other than nonpayment of dues or fees, or has voluntarily surrendered a license or right to practice with disciplinary charges or a disciplinary investigation pending, and not reinstated by a licensing agency of any state, or the United States, or of any other jurisdiction.

(8) A nonlicensee owner of a licensed firm shall report to the board in writing of the occurrence of any of the events set forth in paragraph (7) within 30 days of the date the nonlicensee owner has knowledge of the event. A conviction includes the initial plea, verdict, or finding of guilt, pleas of no contest, or pronouncement of sentence by a trial court even though that conviction may not be final or sentence actually imposed until appeals are exhausted. The report shall be signed by the nonlicensee owner and set forth the facts that constitute the reportable event. The report shall identify the event by the name of the agency or court, the title of the matter, the docket number, and the date of occurrence of the event.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) “Licensee” means a certified public accountant or public accountant in this state or a certified public accountant in good standing in another state.

(2) “Material participation” means an activity that is regular, continuous, and substantial.

(c) All firms with nonlicensee owners shall certify at the time of registration and renewal that the firm is in compliance with this section.

(d) The board shall adopt regulations to implement, interpret, or make specific this section.

SEC. 3. Section 5132 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5132. All moneys received by the board under this chapter from any source and for any purpose shall be accounted for and reported monthly by the board to the Controller and at the same time the moneys shall be remitted to the State Treasury to the credit of the Accountancy Fund.

The secretary-treasurer of the board shall, from time to time, but not less than once each fiscal year, prepare or have prepared on his or her behalf, a financial report of the Accountancy Fund that contains information that the board determines is necessary for the purposes for which the board was established.

The report of the Accountancy Fund, which shall be published pursuant to Section 5008, shall include the revenues and the related costs from examination, initial licensing, license renewal, citation and fine authority, and cost recovery from enforcement actions and case settlements.

CHAPTER 922

An act to amend Section 15365.8 of, and to add Section 15365.13 to, the Government Code, relating to international trade, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15365.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15365.8. The purpose of the California Office of Export Development is to strengthen the state's activities in marketing its agricultural, manufacturing, and service industries overseas, and to help ensure that California's small and medium-sized companies have better access to foreign market opportunities. The office shall be responsible for conducting market research; disseminating trade leads; and sponsoring trade delegations, missions, marts, seminars, and other appropriate promotional events. The office shall consult with the Department of Food and Agriculture on the promotion of agricultural commodities overseas.

SEC. 2. Section 15365.13 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15365.13. (a) The Overseas Procurement Opportunities Program is hereby established within the office, for the purpose of enhancing overseas procurement opportunities for California-based businesses.

(b) The program shall do both of the following:

(1) Facilitate opportunities for California small and medium-sized companies to participate in major foreign government contracts and overseas construction projects as subcontractors and suppliers.

(2) Provide guidance and information to California companies regarding the foreign procurement process for services, supplies, and technologies.

SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the California Office of Export Development for the purposes of this act.

CHAPTER 923

An act to add and repeal Section 15733 of the Government Code, relating to economic development, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares the need to maximize the availability of capital to California small businesses for purposes of expansion and job creation. The need for job creation in this state is dramatically increased by the implementation of welfare reform measures that seek to move 700,000 public aid recipients into full-time employment.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that community and economic development lenders are a source of small business financing to communities with historically lower overall access to capital. Community and economic development lenders have loans outstanding in this state totaling two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000). It will be necessary to stimulate job creation in lower income communities to broaden economic opportunities, especially for former public aid recipients.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that the stimulation of a secondary market for community and economic development loans can significantly increase the availability of capital to small businesses with a minimal state investment. The state deems the creation of new small business capital a high priority that warrants an investment by the state to facilitate an active secondary market for community and economic development loans.

SEC. 2. Section 15733 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15733. (a) The Trade and Commerce Agency shall solicit bids from entities to evaluate the feasibility of creating a secondary market for community and economic development lenders in this state to identify outstanding loans that may be purchased and serve as collateral for the issuance of bonds.

(b) For purposes of this section, “community and economic development lenders” may include public, private, or quasi-public community development banks and credit unions, community development loan funds, microenterprise funds, community development loan funds, community development corporation-based lenders, and community and economic development venture funds.

(c) The agency shall manage the contract pursuant to its existing contract management processes and guidelines.

(d) Eligible bidders shall meet the following criteria:

(1) Bidders shall have demonstrable expertise in purchasing, packaging, and reselling loans made by community and economic development lenders.

(2) Bidders shall have or establish a business presence in this state for purposes of execution of the contract.

(e) At least a majority of loans for which contract revenues are encumbered for the issuance of collateralized bonds shall be loans originated in the state to borrowers domiciled in this state.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2001, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2001, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Trade and Commerce Agency to carry out Section 15733 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 924

An act to amend Sections 14001, 14030, 14037, 14059, 14070, and 14076 of the Corporations Code, relating to health, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) As the Medi-Cal program transitions to managed care, it is the intent of the Legislature and the Medi-Cal managed care local initiatives to preserve access to traditional and safety net providers who have historically provided Medi-Cal services in underserved communities.

(b) Maintaining experienced traditional and safety net providers who are geographically accessible to Medi-Cal patients will ensure access to care in underserved communities, avoid unnecessary disruption in existing provider-patient relationships and on-going treatment and assist in a smooth transition to managed care.

(c) Many traditional and safety net providers do not meet the administrative or physical facility standards required of providers contracting with health plans under the state Knox-Keene Act because the Medi-Cal system historically operated on a fee-for-service basis and compliance with managed care standards was never required.

(d) Many traditional and safety net providers do not have reasonable access to conventional sources of financing to update their administrative capacity or physical facility to meet the Knox-Keene standards.

(e) It is in the public interest to provide Medi-Cal traditional and safety net providers with reasonable access to financing through existing public loan programs in order to make the changes necessary to contract with Medi-Cal managed care local initiatives.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature that Medi-Cal managed care local initiatives inform and encourage nonprofit traditional and safety net providers to apply for loans to the California Health Facility Financing Authority HELP-II program which currently administers a loan program for nonprofit health centers.

(g) It is further the intent of the Legislature that the California Small Business Development Corporation Loan Guarantee Fund, which administers a loan guarantee program through eight nonprofit regional development corporations, give serious consideration to applications from for-profit traditional providers primarily serving Medi-Cal patients.

SEC. 2. Section 14001 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14001. The Legislature finds that:

(a) Unemployment in California is a matter of statewide concern requiring concerted public and private action to develop employment opportunities for the disadvantaged, youth, and unemployed persons.

(b) It is necessary to direct additional capital, general management assistance, business education, and other resources to encourage the development of small business opportunities, particularly for minority, women, and disabled persons, to alleviate unemployment.

(c) Many traditional and safety net health care providers of Medi-Cal services are in need of financial assistance to ensure their continued participation in Medi-Cal managed care networks and to preserve geographic access to quality care for individuals in underserved communities.

SEC. 3. Section 14030 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14030. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Small Business Expansion Fund. All or a portion of the funds in the expansion fund may be paid out, with the approval of the Department of Finance, to lending institutions or financial companies. This fund shall be used to pay for defaulted loan guarantees issued pursuant to Section 14045, administrative costs of corporations, and those costs necessary to protect a real property interest in a defaulted loan or guarantee. The amount of guarantee liability outstanding at any one time shall not exceed four times the amount of funds on deposit in the expansion fund, including each of the loan accounts and corporate funds within the expansion fund, unless the office has permitted a higher leverage ratio for an individual corporation pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 14037.

SEC. 4. Section 14037 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14037. (a) All money deposited in the loan account is hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years for the purposes of this chapter. The state shall not be liable or obligated in any way beyond the state money which is allocated and deposited in the loan account from state money which is appropriated for these purposes.

(b) On and after January 1, 1997, accounts within the expansion fund for loan guarantees and surety bond guarantees, including loan loss reserves established for the purpose of paying loan defaults, shall be transferred to the small business development loan guarantee fund in the corporate fund of those corporations previously using those funds in the expansion fund to guarantee loans and surety bonds.

(c) The office may reallocate funds held within a corporation's small business development loan guarantee fund.

(1) The office shall reallocate funds based on which corporation is most effectively using its guarantee funds. If funds are withdrawn from a less effective corporation as part of a reallocation, the office shall make that withdrawal only after giving consideration to that corporation's fiscal solvency, its ability to honor loan guarantee defaults, and its ability to maintain a viable presence within the region it serves. Reallocation of funds shall occur no more frequently than once per fiscal year. Any decision made by the office pursuant to this subdivision may be appealed to the board. The board has authority to repeal or modify any decision to reallocate funds.

(2) The office may authorize a corporation to exceed the leverage ratio specified in Section 14030, subdivision (b) of Section 14070, and subdivision (a) of Section 14076 pending the annual reallocation of funds pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 14059 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14059. Unless delegated to its loan committee, the corporation's board of directors, upon a recommendation from its loan committee:

(a) Shall emphasize consideration to applications that will increase employment of disadvantaged, disabled, or unemployed persons, or increase employment of youth residing in areas of high youth unemployment and high youth delinquency.

(b) Shall give consideration to applications from traditional and safety-net providers of Medi-Cal services that will promote access to quality medical care for individuals enrolled in Medi-Cal managed health care networks that are contracting with or owned or operated by a county board of supervisors, a county health commission or a county health authority organized pursuant to Sections 14018.7, 14087.31, 14087.35, 14087.36, 14087.38 or 14087.9605 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) Shall not grant a loan or guarantee unless it determines that the conditions of Section 14071 are satisfied.

SEC. 6. Section 14070 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14070. (a) The corporate guarantee shall be backed by funds on deposit in the corporation's corporate fund.

(b) Loan guarantees shall be secured by a reserve of at least 25 percent to be determined by the director, unless the office authorizes a higher leverage ratio for an individual corporation pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 14037.

(c) The expansion fund and corporate accounts shall be used exclusively to guarantee obligations and pay the administrative costs of the corporations. A corporation located in a rural area may utilize the funds for direct lending to farmers as long as at least 90 percent of the corporate fund farm loans, calculated by dollar amount, and all expansion fund farm loans are guaranteed by the United States Farmers Home Administration. The amount of funds available for direct farm lending shall be determined by the executive director. In its capacity as a direct lender, the corporation may sell in the secondary market the guaranteed portion of each loan so as to raise additional funds for direct lending. The agency shall issue regulations governing these direct loans, including the maximum amount of these loans.

(d) In furtherance of the purposes of this part, up to one-half of the corporate funds may be used to guarantee loans utilized to establish a Business and Industrial Development Corporation (BIDCO) under Division 15 (commencing with Section 33000) of the Financial Code.

(e) To execute the direct loan programs established in this chapter, the office may loan trust funds to a corporation located in a rural area for the express purpose of lending those funds to an identified borrower. The loan by the office to the corporation shall be on terms similar to the loan between the corporation and the borrower. The amount of the loan may be in excess of the amount of a loan to any individual farm borrower, but actual disbursements pursuant to the office loan agreement shall be required to be supported by a loan agreement between the farm borrower and the corporation in an amount at least equal to the requested disbursement. The loan between the office and the corporation shall be evidenced by a credit agreement. In the event that any loan between the corporation and borrower is not guaranteed by a governmental agency, the portion of the credit agreement attributable to that loan shall be secured by assignment of any note, executed in favor of the corporation by the borrower to the office. The terms and conditions of the credit agreement shall be similar to the loan agreement between the corporation and the borrower, which shall be collateralized by the note between the corporation and the borrower. In the absence of fraud on the part of the corporation, the liability of the corporation to repay the loan to the office is limited to the repayment received by the corporation from the borrower except in a case where the Farmers Home Administration requires exposure by the corporation in rule or regulation. The corporation may use trust funds for loan repayment to the office if the corporation has exhausted a loan loss reserve created for this purpose. Interest and principal received by the office from the corporation shall be deposited into the same account from which the funds were originally borrowed.

(f) Upon the approval of the director, a corporation shall be authorized to borrow trust funds from the office for the purpose of relending those funds to small businesses. A corporation shall demonstrate to the director that it has the capacity to administer a direct loan program, and has procedures in place to limit the default rate for loans to startup businesses. Not more than 25 percent of any trust fund shall be used for the direct lending established pursuant to this subdivision. A loan to a corporation shall not exceed the amount of funds likely to be lent to small businesses within three months following the loan to the corporation. The maximum loan amount to a small business is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). In the absence of fraud on the part of the corporation, the repayment obligation pursuant to the loan to the corporation shall be limited to the amount of funds received by the corporation for the loan to the small business and any other funds received from the office that are not disbursed. The corporation shall be authorized to charge a fee to the small business borrower, in an amount determined by the office pursuant to regulation. The program provided for in this subdivision shall be available in all geographic areas of the state.

SEC. 7. Section 14076 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14076. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the corporations make maximal use of their statutory authority to guarantee loans and surety bonds, including the authority to secure loans with a minimum loan loss reserve of only 25 percent, unless the office authorizes a higher leverage ratio for an individual corporation pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 14037, so that the financing needs of small business may be met as fully as possible within the limits of corporations' loan loss reserves. The agency shall report annually to the Legislature on the financial status of the corporations and their portfolio of loans and surety bonds guaranteed.

(b) Any corporation that serves an area declared by the Governor or the President to be a disaster area on or after January 1, 1992, or the area affected by the state of emergency declared in Los Angeles on April 29, 1992, shall increase the portfolio of loan guarantees where the dollar amount of the loan is less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), so that at least 15 percent of the dollar value of loans guaranteed by the corporation is for those loans. The corporation shall comply with this requirement within one year of the date the disaster is declared, or January 1, 1995, whichever is later. Upon application of a corporation, the director may waive or modify the rule for the corporation if the corporation demonstrates that it made a good faith effort to comply and failed to locate lending institutions in the region that the corporation serves that are willing to make guaranteed loans in that amount.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to preserve access to traditional and safety net providers of health care services in underserved communities, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 925

An act to add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) to Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health care.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Private corporations, predominantly those organized as nonprofit corporations, currently operate more than 80 percent of the hospitals in the state in order to meet certain needs of their communities through the provision of essential health care and other services. Public recognition of the unique social status and function of these corporations has led to requirements that hospitals provide financial and other information to the state to assist in the planning and implementation of health policies in the public interest.

(b) Increasingly, operators of health care corporations, especially nonprofit corporations, have been called upon to assist the state in ensuring the availability of health care to the public by doing the following:

(1) Directly providing health care services funded by private grants, donations, and programs and by publicly funded health programs.

(2) Operating state-owned hospitals and clinics under contract.

(3) By participating in other public health programs.

(c) Hospitals and the environment in which they operate have undergone dramatic changes in response to market forces which have resulted in a variety of innovative corporate structures, partnerships, joint ventures, and equity participation arrangements.

(d) In enacting this act, the Legislature recognizes the need for state agencies to encourage private investment in support of health care services, without interfering unduly with the operations of those private corporations. The Legislature intends to ensure that certain information is made available to the public regarding the operations of certain nonprofit corporations that are uniquely designed to integrate the operations of both privately owned and state-owned health care facilities, without treating those corporations as if they were state agencies. However, the Legislature reaffirms its intent that a state agency which engages a private corporation for those purposes should take actions and conduct its deliberations openly so that the people may remain informed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) is added to Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. OTHER

Article 1. Applicability and Purpose

101860. If any state agency, including a constitutional corporation, transfers to a private corporation assets for the operation of a hospital by that corporation and the value of the assets is not less than fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), the corporation shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

101860.5. For the purposes of this chapter, the primary public benefit purpose of the corporation is as stated in its articles of incorporation or in the bylaws of the corporation.

Article 2. Public Meetings

101861. Meetings of the corporation shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend, except as otherwise provided in this article.

101862. (a) As used in this article, "action taken" means a collective decision made at a meeting, including a decision upon a motion or resolution. Actions shall be taken by rollcall vote.

(b) For the purposes of this article, "meeting" means any meeting of a majority of the board of directors of the corporation and meetings of any committee exercising final decisionmaking authority delegated by the board, which committee was created by board action appointing the members of the committee. A meeting does not include a mere congregation of a majority of the directors or of a committee for purposes other than consideration of the business of the corporation or within the subject matter jurisdiction of the committee, provided no business of the corporation is discussed. A meeting does not include any of the circumstances described in subdivision (c) of Section 54952.2 of the Government Code.

101863. (a) Agendas of the meetings shall be posted not less than 72 hours in advance of the meetings in a place freely accessible to the public. Agendas of meetings and any other writings, when distributed to all, or a majority of all, of the directors or committee members for consideration during an open session of a meeting, and which writings would otherwise be subject to disclosure pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870), shall be made reasonably available at the meetings, or as soon thereafter as practicable upon request. However, this shall not include any writing exempt from disclosure under Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870). The agenda shall indicate the time and place of the meeting and contain a brief, general description of each item of business to be considered or acted upon at the meeting, including items to be discussed in closed session. A description generally need not exceed 20 words. Items of business not included in the posted agenda shall not be considered at a meeting; except that an item may be added to the agenda upon a determination by a two-thirds vote, or if less than two-thirds of the directors or committee members are present, an unanimous vote of those present, that there is a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the corporation after the agenda was posted.

(b) Agendas shall include opportunity for public comment on any item on the agenda at the meeting, subject to fair and reasonable standards determined by the board of directors to ensure that the intent of this article is carried out.

(c) Meetings shall be held at a location accessible to the public. Meetings may be held by teleconference or video teleconference, provided that during the public portions of each teleconferenced meeting, the proceedings shall be audible to the public at the locations specified in the notice of the meeting, and all votes taken shall be by rollcall. When meeting by teleconference or video teleconference, at least one of the locations specified in the notice shall be a principal place of business of the corporation, including a hospital or related facility. The board of directors may adopt reasonable rules to prevent disruption of the meetings by any person.

(d) In the case of an emergency situation involving matters upon which prompt action is necessary due to a disruption or threatened disruption of the business of the corporation, an emergency meeting may be called with less than 72 hours notice. In that event, newspapers of general circulation and radio or television stations that have previously requested, in writing, notices of meetings shall be notified, if practicable, at least one hour prior to the emergency meeting.

101864. Closed sessions of meetings may be conducted to consider, discuss, and act upon matters relating to any of the following:

(a) Collective bargaining or contract negotiations with represented and unrepresented employees, including discussion of the corporation's available funds and funding priorities, but only insofar as the discussion relates to the corporation's ability to conclude the collective bargaining agreement or contract under discussion. For the purposes of this subdivision, "employee" shall include an officer, an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee, a physician and surgeon or other professional with medical staff privileges at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, or other person exercising professional responsibilities as authorized by the corporation at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, but shall not include other independent contractors.

(b) The purchase or sale of securities or other investments, including investments of the corporation in endowment and pension funds.

(c) Gifts, devises, bequests, and grants.

(d) Reports of a hospital or medical audit committee or a quality assurance committee or similar reports by staff of the corporation, accreditation reports, audits, audit compliance, licensure compliance, insurance and self-insurance coverage, health care peer review reports, and quality assessments, including, but not limited to, a review of the credentials of, or the quality of care rendered by, health care providers in the facilities of the corporation, or hearings regarding the privileges of medical staff and allied health professionals.

(e) National security.

(f) Acquisition, disposition, or lease of property. However, notwithstanding any other provision of this article, no less than 10 days prior to any action on any transaction involving the acquisition, disposition, or lease of real property having a fair market value of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or more or personal property having a fair market value of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more that is owned by a state agency, including a constitutional corporation, the corporation shall hold an open session at which the public shall have an opportunity to comment on the proposed transaction.

(g) Pending litigation, including any adjudicatory proceeding before a court, administrative body, hearing officer, arbitrator, mediator, or other formal dispute resolution mechanism. For the purposes of this subdivision "pending" means that, based on advice of the corporation's legal counsel, there are facts and circumstances within the contemplation of the corporation that may result or has resulted in proceedings against or by the corporation, whether or not known to a potential plaintiff or plaintiffs or to a potential defendant or defendants.

(h) Evaluation, appointment, employment, performance, compensation, or dismissal of officers or employees of the corporation or its medical or professional staff, including internal adjudicatory proceedings, complaints, charges, investigations, and hearings. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "employee" shall include an officer, an independent contractor who functions as an officer or performs functions traditionally performed by an employee, a physician and surgeon or other professional with medical staff privileges at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, or other person exercising professional responsibilities as authorized by the corporation at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, but shall not include any member of the board of directors, as such, or other independent contractors. The term "employee" shall also include a chief executive officer or other employee of the corporation who is an ex officio member of the board of directors.

(i) Consideration of the appointment or reappointment of directors to the board of the corporation.

(j) The terms and conditions of contracts for the provision of health care services, including compliance with regulatory conditions thereof, with governmental and nongovernmental insurers, health care providers, health plans, third-party administrators, management services organizations, self-insured employers, medical groups, and payers or any other portion of contract negotiations, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories or strategy, or instructions or advice to employees.

(k) Charges or complaints from a member enrolled in a health plan or any affiliated provider of health care services.

(l) Any trade secret as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3426.1 of the Civil Code.

(m) Any item that cannot be discussed in open session without revealing information prohibited or exempted from public disclosure by any provision of state or federal law applicable to any governmental hospital, or any state or federal statute applicable to a nongovernmental hospital, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege. Prior to holding any closed session under this subdivision, the provision of state or federal law shall be publicly identified, where applicable.

101865. (a) Prior to holding any closed session, the agenda item or items to be discussed in the closed session shall be publicly identified. An item may be identified by reference to the item or items as they are listed by number or letter on the agenda. In a closed session, only those matters covered in the statement may be considered. Nothing in this article shall require or authorize a disclosure of information prohibited by state or federal law.

(b) The corporation shall designate an officer or officers who shall attend each closed session of the board or a committee and keep a minute book of the session. The minute book may, but need not, consist of a recording of the closed session. The minute book is not a public record subject to Section 101871 and shall be kept confidential. The minute book shall be available only to members of the board or committee or, if a violation of this chapter is alleged to have occurred at a closed session, to a court of general jurisdiction wherein the corporation lies.

(c) After any closed session, the board or committee shall reconvene into open session prior to adjournment and shall make any disclosures required by subdivision (d) of action in the closed session. Announcements required to be made in open session pursuant to this article shall be made at the location announced in the agenda for the closed session.

(d) Any action taken during a closed session of a meeting shall be announced publicly, including the vote or abstention of every director present, as follows:

(1) Approval of an agreement concluding property negotiations pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 101864 shall be reported after the agreement is final, as specified below:

(A) If its own approval renders the agreement final, the corporation shall report that approval and the substance of the agreement in open session at the meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with the other party to the negotiations, the corporation shall disclose the fact of that approval and the substance of the agreement upon inquiry by any person, as soon as the other party or its agent has informed the corporation of its approval.

(2) Approval given to its legal counsel of a settlement of pending litigation, as described in subdivision (g) of Section 101864, at any stage prior to or during a judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding shall be reported after the settlement is final, as specified below:

(A) If the corporation accepts a settlement offer signed by the opposing party, the body shall report its acceptance and identify the substance of the agreement in open session at the meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with some other party to the litigation or with the court, then as soon as the settlement becomes final, and upon inquiry by any person, the corporation shall disclose the fact of that approval, and identify the substance of the agreement.

(3) Approval of an agreement concluding collective bargaining or contract negotiations with represented or unrepresented employees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 101864 shall be reported after the agreement is final and has been accepted or ratified by the other party. The report shall identify the item approved and the other party or parties to the negotiation.

101866. Announcements that are required to be made pursuant to this article may be made orally or in writing. Any contracts, settlement agreements, or other documents that are finally approved or adopted in the closed session and are subject to an announcement pursuant to this article shall be records subject to disclosure in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870). However, nothing in this section shall require the announcement or disclosure of records that would impair the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes either by depriving the corporation of a material or competitive economic benefit, or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

Article 3. Enforcement of Public Meetings

101868. (a) Any interested person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief or writ of mandate in any court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of stopping or preventing violations or threatened violations of Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861) by the corporation. In addition, the corporation may institute proceedings for declaratory relief, or validation of its policy or policies under Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861). In the event the corporation institutes proceedings, the corporation shall give written notice, to the person or persons with an interest in the corporation's compliance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861), of the right to participate in the proceedings.

(b) Any interested person, including a corporation subject to this chapter may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief or mandate in any court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of obtaining a judicial determination as to whether an action taken by the corporation was in violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861). In the event the corporation institutes proceedings, the corporation shall give written notice, to the person or persons with an interest in the corporation's compliance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861), of the right to participate in the proceedings.

(c) Any action seeking a judicial determination under this section shall be commenced within 30 days from the date the action was taken. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the corporation from curing or correcting an action that is subject to review pursuant to this section. The fact that the corporation takes a subsequent action to cure or correct an action taken pursuant to this section shall not be construed or admissible as evidence of a violation of this chapter. Nothing in this section shall permit discovery of communications that are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

(d) An action shall not be determined to be null and void if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The action taken was in connection with the sale or issuance of notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness or any contract, instrument, or agreement related thereto.

(2) The action taken gave rise to a contractual obligation.

(3) The action taken was in substantial compliance with this chapter.

(4) Invalidation of the action taken would substantially impair the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes by wither depriving the corporation of a material competitive or economic benefit, or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

Article 4. Records To Be Available

101870. For the purposes of this article:

(a) "Person" includes any natural person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, or association.

(b) "Records" includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of the corporation's business prepared, owned, used, or retained by the corporation regardless of physical form or characteristics. "Records" does not include any records transferred from any private nonprofit corporation that is a member or predecessor of the corporation that were created prior to the transfer of assets for the operation of a hospital by the corporation.

(c) "Writing" means handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, and every other means of recording upon any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combination thereof, and all papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films and prints, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, and other documents.

101871. (a) Records of the corporation shall be available to the public for inspection or copying upon a request in writing, submitted to the principal office of the corporation, which reasonably identifies the particular records sought to be disclosed, unless it is impracticable for an exact copy to be provided. Computer data shall be provided in a form determined by the corporation. The corporation shall adopt policies consistent with this article stating the procedures to be followed when making its records available under this article and identifying the officers or employees of the corporation responsible for the administration of these policies, and shall make these policies available to the public for inspection upon request during normal business hours.

(b) The corporation shall determine within 10 working days after receipt of a request whether to comply with the request, and shall immediately notify the person making the request of the determination and identify the provision of this article or other provision of law that is the basis for withholding any record. Access to records requested, or copies thereof, shall be provided promptly after the corporation determines it will comply with the request. The corporation may extend the time limit for making a determination for up to an additional 15 working days by giving written notice to the requester when an extension is necessary to permit the corporation to do any of the following:

(1) To search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request.

(2) To search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records that are demanded in a single request.

(3) To consult with another person having a substantial interest in the determination of the request.

(4) To permit a determination to be made under this subdivision.

(c) Notices provided and requests made under this article shall be made available to the public.

(d) The corporation may establish reasonable charges for the costs of complying with this article, not to exceed the actual cost of duplication.

101872. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require disclosure of any of the following:

(a) Contracts, business and marketing strategies, financial information, and any other competitive and strategic information, disclosure of which would impair the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes by depriving the corporation of a material or competitive economic benefit or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

(b) Records that relate to the terms and conditions of contracts for the provision of health care services, including compliance with regulatory conditions thereof, with governmental and nongovernmental insurers, health care providers, health plans, third-party administrators, management services organizations, self-insured employers, medical groups, and payers or any other portion of contract negotiations, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or instructions or advice to employees.

(c) Records that relate to reports of a hospital or medical audit committee or a quality assurance committee or similar reports by staff of the corporation, accreditation reports, audits, audit compliance, licensure compliance, insurance and self-insurance coverage, health care peer review reports, and quality assessments, including, but not limited to, a review of the credentials of, or the quality of care rendered by, health care providers in the facilities of the corporation, or hearings regarding medical staff privileges.

(d) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to any provision of state or federal law applicable to any governmental hospital, or any state or federal statute applicable to a nongovernmental hospital, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege. The corporation shall identify the provision of law restricting disclosure when relying upon this exemption.

(e) Real estate appraisals or engineering or feasibility estimates related to the acquisition or disposition of property or related to supply and construction contracts, and until all of the contracted property, supplies, or construction work is obtained. This exemption from disclosure shall continue until these contracts are final and agreed to by all parties to the contracts.

(f) Records that relate to collective bargaining or contract negotiations with represented and unrepresented employees including discussions of the corporation's available funds and funding priorities, but only insofar as these discussions relate to the corporation's ability to conclude the collective bargaining agreement or contract under discussion. For the purposes of this subdivision, "employee" shall include an officer, an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee, a physician and surgeon or other medical professional with medical staff privileges at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, or other person exercising professional responsibilities as authorized by the corporation at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, but shall not include other independent contractors.

(g) Medical, personnel, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an invasion of privacy of an employee, officer, customer, or patient of the corporation, including, but not limited to, home addresses, billing records, salaries, and employment contracts.

(h) Records provided by potential employees, contractors, physicians and surgeons, or other persons for the use or consideration of the corporation under a reasonable belief that the corporation would treat the records supplied as confidential, including financial statements and proprietary information. A reasonable belief may be, but need not be, supported by a written agreement.

(i) Library circulation records.

(j) Any trade secret as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3426.1 of the Civil Code.

(k) Records relating to the purchase or sale of securities or other investments, including investments of the corporation in endowments and pension funds.

(l) Records relating to gifts, devises, bequests, and grants.

(m) Charges or complaints from a member enrolled in a health plan or any affiliated provider of health care services.

(n) Any record not otherwise expressly exempt from disclosure under this article if it impairs the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes by either depriving the corporation of a material competitive or economic benefit, or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

101873. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever at least one member of the members of the corporation is itself a state agency, including a constitutional corporation, the obligations of that member of the corporation to make records available to the public shall, with respect to any records received from or created by the corporation, be limited to those obligations contained in this article, provided that if a record otherwise subject to this article is distributed to a majority of the members of the governing body of a state agency, including a constitutional corporation, for consideration at a public meeting of that agency in open session in connection with an item of business on the agency's meeting agenda, such a record shall be made available to the public in accordance with the laws applicable to that agency. Nothing in this article is intended to prohibit any member from making information available to the public.

Article 5. Enforcement of the Disclosure of Records

101875. (a) Any person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declarative relief or writ of mandate in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce his or her right to inspect or to receive a copy of any record or class of records under this chapter. In addition, the corporation may institute proceedings for declaratory relief or validation of its policy or policies under this article, or elect to interplead the records sought to be disclosed. In the event the corporation institutes proceedings or interpleads records, the corporation shall give written notice, to the person or persons with an interest in disclosure or nondisclosure of the records, of the right to participate in the proceedings. The times for responsive pleadings and for hearings in these proceedings shall be set by the judge of the court with the object of securing a decision as to these matters at the earliest possible time.

(b) Whenever it is made to appear by verified petition to the superior court of the county where the records or some part thereof are situated that certain records are being improperly withheld from disclosure, the court shall order the officer or person charged with withholding the records to disclose the record or show cause why he or she should not do so. The court shall decide the case after examining the record in camera, if permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code, papers filed by the parties and any oral argument, and additional evidence as the court may allow.

(c) If the court finds that the corporation's decision to refuse disclosure is not justified under Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870), the court shall order the corporation to make the record available. If the judge determines that the corporation was justified in refusing to make the record available, he or she shall return the item to the corporation without disclosing its content with an order supporting the decision refusing disclosure.

(d) An order of the court, either directing disclosure by the corporation or supporting the decision of the corporation refusing disclosure, is not a final judgment or order within the meaning of Section 904.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure from which an appeal may be taken, but shall be immediately reviewable by petition to the appellate court for the issuance of an extraordinary writ. Upon entry of any order pursuant to this section, a party shall, in order to obtain review of the order, file a petition within 20 days after service upon him or her of a written notice of entry of the order, or within such further time not exceeding an additional 20 days as the trial court may for good cause allow. If the notice is served by mail, the period within which to file the petition shall be increased by five days. A stay of an order or judgment shall not be granted unless the petitioning party demonstrates it will otherwise sustain irreparable damage and probable success on the merits. Any person who fails to obey the order of the court shall be cited to show cause why he or she is not in contempt of court.

Article 6. Application

101878. It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this chapter shall apply retroactively to all of the records of any corporation to which this chapter applies, as of the effective date of this chapter, notwithstanding that this chapter was not in effect at the time the corporation created or obtained those records.

101879. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this chapter regarding the holding of meetings of a corporation shall apply prospectively, so that any meetings held by the corporation prior to the effective date hereof shall not be deemed to have been in contravention of this chapter.

101880. The Legislature finds and declares that a corporation subject to this chapter shall continue to be private, notwithstanding this chapter, and in any event, shall not be subject to the provisions of the Government Code or the Education Code made applicable to any public agency, or any public or constitutional corporation, generally, or collectively. Nothing in this chapter grants any authority to any person, including any public agency or constitutional corporation, to establish a corporation to which this chapter applies.

101881. This chapter shall be inapplicable to any corporation in a county of the 2nd class.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The directors, officers, and employees of any corporation to which Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code applies would not be confronted with the type of conflicts of interest comprehended by the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) and would have no opportunity to participate in the making of any governmental decisions.

(b) The directors, officers, and employees of any corporation to which Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code applies would be pursuing the common interests of the members of the corporation, and as such, are not subject to regulation under the Political Reform Act of 1974

(Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) under the analysis of In re Sherwood, 2 FPPC Op. 168 (12/15/76).

(c) Application of the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) to any corporation to which Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code applies would erode public support for that act by inappropriately impairing the achievement of improved health care and access that such a corporation provides and impeding the goal of increasing private financial support for medical education and research. The application of the Political Reform Act of 1974 would deprive the corporation of the services of the best and most knowledgeable individuals from the private sector in a competitive marketplace in which competitors face no comparable restrictions.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding the findings contained in Section 3, in order to eliminate any uncertainty as to the status of the corporation, and maintain support for the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code), it is in the best interests of the people of the State of California, and in furtherance of the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974, that this act shall not take effect unless enacted pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 81012 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. Any action brought to interpret or challenge the validity of any provision of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code or any other provision of this act shall be set for trial at the earliest possible time and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall take precedence over all other cases, except older matters of the same character.

CHAPTER 926

An act to amend Sections 11475.8 and 15200.85 of, to add Sections 15200.75, 15200.81, 15200.92, and 15200.96 to, to repeal Sections 15200.8 and 15200.9 of, and to repeal and add Section 15200.91 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to human services.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11475.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11475.8. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The Legislative Analyst has found that county child support enforcement programs provide a net increase in revenues to the state.

(2) The state has a fiscal interest in ensuring that county child support enforcement programs perform efficiently.

(3) The state does not provide information to counties on child support enforcement programs, based on common denominators that would facilitate comparison of program performance.

(4) Providing this information would allow county officials to monitor program performance and to make appropriate modifications to improve program efficiency.

(5) This information is required for effective management of the child support program.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year, and for each fiscal year thereafter, each county that is participating in the state incentive program described in Section 15200.81 shall provide to the department, and the department shall compile from this county child support information, quarterly and annually, all of the following performance-based data, as established by the federal incentive funding system, provided that the department may revise the data required by this paragraph in order to conform to the final federal incentive system data definitions:

(A) One of the following data relating to paternity establishment, as required by the department, provided that the department shall require all counties to report on the same measurement:

(i) The total number of children in the caseload governed by Subtitle D (commencing with Section 450) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 650 et seq.), as of the end of the federal fiscal year, who were born to unmarried parents for whom paternity was established or acknowledged, and the total number of children in that caseload, as of the end of the preceding federal fiscal year, who were born to unmarried parents.

(ii) The total number of minor children who were born in the state to unmarried parents for whom paternity was established or acknowledged during a federal fiscal year, and the total number of children in the state born to unmarried parents during the preceding federal fiscal year.

(B) The number of cases governed by Subtitle D (commencing with Section 450) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 650 et seq.) during the federal fiscal year and the total number of those cases with support orders.

(C) The total dollars collected during the federal fiscal year in cases governed by Subtitle D (commencing with Section 450) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 650 et seq.) and the total number of dollars owing during that federal fiscal year in cases governed by those provisions.

(D) The total number of cases for the federal fiscal year governed by Subtitle D (commencing with Section 450) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 650 et seq.) in which payment was being made toward child support arrearages and the total number of cases for that fiscal year governed by these federal provisions that had child support arrearages.

(E) The total number of dollars collected and expended during a federal fiscal year in cases governed by Subtitle D (commencing with Section 450) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 650 et seq.).

(F) The total amount of child support dollars collected during a federal fiscal year, and, if and when required by federal law, the amount of these collections broken down by collections distributed on behalf of current recipients of federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant funds or federal foster care funds, on behalf of former recipients of federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant funds or federal foster care funds, or on behalf of persons who are not recipients of these federal funds.

(2) A county may apply for an exemption from any or all of the reporting requirements of paragraph (1) for the 1998–99 state fiscal year or any quarter of that fiscal year, as well as for the first quarter of the 1999–2000 fiscal year, by submitting an application for the exemption to the department at least three months prior to the commencement of the fiscal year or quarter for which the exemption is sought. A county shall provide a separate justification for each data element under paragraph (1) for which the county is seeking an exemption and the cost to the county of providing the data. The department may not grant an exemption for more than one year. The department may grant a single exemption only if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The county cannot compile the data being sought through its existing automated system or systems.

(B) The county cannot compile the data being sought through manual means or through an enhanced automated system or systems without significantly harming the child support collection efforts of the county.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (6), before implementation of the state child support computers, the Statewide Automated Child Support System (SACSS) or its equivalent, and the Los Angeles Automated Child Support Enforcement Replacement System (ARS), in addition to the information required by subdivision (b), the department shall collect, on a monthly basis, from each county that is participating in the state incentive program described in Section 15200.81, information on the county child support enforcement program beginning with the 1998–99 fiscal year, and for each subsequent fiscal year, and shall report quarterly and annually on all of the following measurements:

(1) For each of the following support collection categories, the number of cases with support collected shall include only the number of cases actually receiving a collection, not the number of payments received. For purposes of determining the number of cases with an order of current support and the number of cases in which current support is being collected, cases with a medical support order that do not have an order for current support shall not be counted.

(A) The number of cases with an order for current support.

(B) The number of cases with collections of current support.

(C) The number of cases with an order for arrears.

(D) The number of cases with arrears collections.

(2) The number of alleged fathers or obligors who were served with a summons and complaint to establish paternity or a support order. In order to be counted under this paragraph, the alleged father or obligor shall be successfully served with process. An alleged father shall be counted under this paragraph only once if he is served with process simultaneously for both a paternity and a support order proceeding for the same child or children. For purposes of this paragraph, a support order shall include a medical support order.

(3) The number of children requiring paternity establishment and the number of children for whom paternity has been established during the period. Paternity may only be established once for each child. Any child for whom paternity is not at issue shall not be counted in the number of children for whom paternity has been established. For this purpose, paternity is not at issue if the parents were married and neither parent challenges paternity or a voluntary paternity declaration has been executed by the parents prior to the county child support enforcement program obtaining the case and neither parent challenges paternity.

(4) The number of cases requiring that a support order be established and the number of cases that had a support order established during the period. A support order shall be counted as established only when the appropriate court has issued an order for child support, including an order for temporary child support, or an order for medical support.

(5) The total cost of administering the county child support enforcement program, including the federal, state, and county share of the costs, and the federal and state incentives received by each county. The total cost of administering the program shall be broken down by the following:

(A) The direct costs of the program, broken down further by total employee salaries and benefits, a list of the number of employees broken down into at least the following categories: attorneys, administrators, caseworkers, investigators, and clerical support; contractor costs; space charges; and payments to other county agencies. Employee salaries and numbers need only be reported in the annual report.

(B) The indirect costs, showing all overhead charges.

(6) A county may apply for an exemption from any or all of the reporting requirements of this subdivision for a fiscal year by submitting an application for the exemption to the department at least three months prior to the commencement of the fiscal year or quarter for which the exemption is sought. A county shall provide a separate justification for each data element under this subdivision for which the county is seeking an exemption and the cost to the county of providing the data. The department may not grant an exemption for more than one year. The department may grant a single exemption only if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The county cannot compile the data being sought through its existing automated system or systems.

(B) The county cannot compile the data being sought through manual means or through an enhanced automated system or systems without significantly harming the child support collection efforts of the county.

(d) After implementation of the state child support computers, SACSS or its equivalent, and ARS, in addition to the information required by subdivision (b), the department shall collect, on a monthly basis, from each county that is participating in the state incentive program described in Section 15200.81, information on the county child support enforcement program beginning with the 1998–99 fiscal year or a later fiscal year, as appropriate, and for each subsequent fiscal year, and shall report quarterly and annually on all of the following measurements:

(1) For each of the following support collection categories, the number of cases with support collected shall include only the number of cases actually receiving a collection, not the number of payments received.

(A) (i) The number of cases with collections for current support.

(ii) The number of cases with arrears collections only.

(iii) The number of cases with both current support and arrears collections.

(B) For cases with current support only due.

(i) The number of cases in which the full amount of current support owed was collected.

(ii) The number of cases in which some amount of current support, but less than the full amount of support owed, was collected.

(iii) The number of cases in which no amount of support owed was collected.

(C) For cases in which arrears only were owed:

(D) For cases in which both current support and arrears are owed:

(i) The number of cases in which the full amount of current support and arrears owed were collected.

(ii) The number of cases in which some amount of current support and arrears, but less than the full amount of support owed, were collected.

(iii) The number of cases in which no amount of support owed was collected.

(E) The total number of cases in which an amount was due for current support only.

(F) The total number of cases in which an amount was due for both current support and arrears.

(G) The total number of cases in which an amount was due for arrears only.

(H) For cases with current support due, the number of cases without orders for medical support and the number of cases with an order for medical support.

(2) The number of alleged fathers or obligors who were served with a summons and complaint to establish paternity or a support order, and the number of alleged fathers or obligors for whom it is required that paternity or a support order be established. In order to be counted under this paragraph, the alleged father or obligor shall be successfully served with process. An alleged father shall be counted under this paragraph only once if he is served with process simultaneously for both a paternity and a support order proceeding for the same child or children. For purposes of this paragraph, a support order shall include a medical support order.

(3) The number of new asset seizures or successful initial collections on a wage assignment for purposes of child support collection. For purposes of this paragraph, a collection made on a wage assignment shall be counted only once for each wage assignment issued.

(4) The number of children requiring paternity establishment and the number of children for whom paternity has been established during the period. Paternity may only be established once for each child. Any child for whom paternity is not at issue shall not be counted in the number of children for whom paternity has been established. For this purpose, paternity is not at issue if the parents were married and neither parent challenges paternity or a voluntary paternity declaration has been executed by the parents prior to the county child support enforcement program obtaining the case and neither parent challenges paternity.

(5) The number of cases requiring that a support order be established and the number of cases that had a support order established during the period. A support order shall be counted as established only when the appropriate court has issued an order for child support, including an order for temporary child support, or an order for medical support.

(6) The total cost of administering the county child support enforcement program, including the federal, state, and county share of the costs and the federal and state incentives received by each county. The total cost of administering the program shall be broken down by the following:

(A) The direct costs of the program, broken down further by total employee salaries and benefits, a list of the number of employees broken down into at least the following categories: attorneys, administrators, caseworkers, investigators, and clerical support; contractor costs; space charges; and payments to other county agencies. Employee salaries and numbers need only be reported in the annual report.

(B) The indirect costs, showing all overhead charges.

(8) The actual case status for all cases in the county child support enforcement program. Each case shall be reported in one case status only. If a case falls within more than one status category, it shall be counted in the first status category of the list set forth below in which it qualifies. The following shall be the case status choices:

(A) No support order, location of obligor parent required.

(B) No support order, alleged obligor parent located and paternity required.

(C) No support order, location and paternity not an issue but support order must be established.

(D) Support order established with current support obligation and obligor is in compliance with support obligation.

(E) Support order established with current support obligation, obligor is in arrears and location of obligor is necessary.

(P) Other, if necessary, to be defined in the regulations promulgated under subdivision (e).

(e) Upon implementation of the SACSS or its equivalent, and ARS, or at such time as the department determines that compliance with this subdivision is possible, each county that is participating in the state incentive program described in Section 15200.81 shall collect and report, and the department shall compile for each participating county, information on the county child support program in each fiscal year, all of the following data, in a manner that facilitates comparison of counties and the entire state, except that the department may eliminate or modify the requirement to report any data mandated to be reported pursuant to this subdivision if the department determines that the district attorneys are unable to accurately collect and report the information or that collecting and reporting of the data by the district attorneys will be onerous:

(1) The number of alleged obligors or fathers who receive CalWORKs benefits, food stamp benefits, and Medi-Cal benefits.

(2) The number of obligors or alleged fathers who were in state prison or county jail.

(3) The number of obligors or alleged fathers who do not have a social security number.

(f) The department, in consultation with the Legislative Analyst's office, the Judicial Council, the California Family Support Council, and child support advocates, shall develop regulations to ensure that all county child support enforcement programs report the data required by this section uniformly and consistently throughout California.

(g) The department shall provide the information for all participating counties for the 1998–99 fiscal year to each member of a county board of supervisors, county executive officer, district attorney, and the appropriate policy committees and fiscal committees of the Legislature by December 31, 1999. The department shall provide the information for each subsequent fiscal quarter and fiscal year no later than three months following the end of the fiscal quarter and no later than nine months following the end of the fiscal year. The department shall present the information in a manner that facilitates comparison of county performance.

(h) For purposes of this section, "case" means a noncustodial parent, whether mother, father, or putative father, who is, or eventually may be, obligated under law for support of a child or children. For purposes of this definition, a noncustodial parent shall be counted once for each family that has a dependent child he or she may be obligated to support.

(i) This section shall be operative only for as long as Section 15200.92 requires participating counties to report data to the department.

SEC. 2. Section 15200.75 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.75. (a) The department shall assess on at least an annual basis each county's compliance with federal and state child support laws and regulations in effect for the time period being reviewed, using a statistically valid sample of cases. The information for the assessment shall be based on reviews conducted by either state or county staff, as determined by the department.

(1) A county shall be eligible for the state incentives under Section 15200.81 only if the department determines that the county is in compliance with all federal and state laws and regulations or if the county has a corrective action plan in place that has been certified by the department pursuant to this subdivision. If a county is determined not to be in compliance, the county may develop and submit a corrective action plan to the department. The department shall certify a corrective action plan if the department determines that the plan will put the county into compliance with federal and state laws and regulations and the county remains in compliance with the corrective action plan. A county shall be eligible for state incentives under Section 15200.81 only for any quarter the county remains in compliance with a corrective action plan that has been certified by the department.

(2) Counties under a corrective action plan shall be assessed on a quarterly basis until the department determines that they are in compliance with federal and state child support program requirements.

(b) The department shall collect information regarding whether cases on behalf of families receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children are disproportionately represented in the portion of each county's case sample that is not in compliance. In the event disproportionate representation is found in a county's pool of noncompliant cases, the department shall require corrective action from that county. However, this corrective action shall not affect the county's entitlement to incentives.

(c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 3. Section 15200.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 15200.81 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.81. (a) On and after July 1, 1998, the department shall establish a state incentive for child support collections. The sum available for purposes of this section shall be paid as incentives on distributed collections to each county that elects to participate in the state incentives. A county electing to participate shall, as a condition of the receipt of state incentive funds under this section, be required to comply with the reporting requirements of Section 11475.8, during such time as regular and enhanced federal financial participation is available for collecting and reporting the data. Each participating county shall receive, as its incentive payment under this section, the percentage of the total incentive dollars distributed to participating counties that equals the county's percentage of statewide distributed collections. For purposes of this section, "distributed collections" means collections used to reduce or repay aid that is paid pursuant to this chapter, collections paid to an aided family, collections paid to a nonaided family regardless of the date of collection, collections paid to other child support agencies on behalf of children residing in other states, and any other payments collected that qualify for federal incentives.

(b) Each county shall continue to receive its federal child support incentive funding whether or not it elects to participate in the state child support incentive funding program.

(c) The department shall provide incentive funds pursuant to this section only during any fiscal year in which funding is provided for that purpose in the Budget Act.

SEC. 5. Section 15200.85 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.85. (a) Effective January 1, 1992, there shall be appropriated from the State Treasury sufficient funds, including federal incentives, from which the department shall pay to each county a base rate of 10 percent on any support collections distributed, regardless of the date of collection. The base incentive rate shall decrease by 1 percent annually each July 1, until July 1, 1995, at which time it shall be 6 percent for that fiscal year and every fiscal year thereafter.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 15200.9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 15200.91 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.91. (a) The Office of the Legislative Analyst, in consultation and collaboration with interested groups, including, but not limited to, the department, the county district attorneys, the Attorney General, the Bureau of State Audits, and interested advocacy organizations, shall prepare a performance-based incentive program, using a flat rate, for the 1998–99 fiscal year and that, for subsequent fiscal years, shall mirror the federal incentive plan. If the federal incentive plan has not been finalized, the state incentive program created pursuant to this section shall follow the latest draft federal incentive plan available. The performance-based incentive program shall do all of the following:

(1) Require all counties electing to participate in the incentive program to be in compliance with federal and state child support laws and regulations.

(2) Include at least all of the following measurements as performance measurements:

(A) Current support collected as a percentage of current support owed.

(B) Child support arrears collected as a percentage of child support arrears owed.

(C) Paternities established by each county's child support program as a percentage of paternities needing to be established by each county's child support program.

(D) Support orders established as a percentage of support orders needing to be established.

(E) Cost-effectiveness.

(3) Adjust performance data to correct any reporting errors and ensure that the performance incentive rewards actual results, and not just statistical variances.

(4) Require poorly performing counties to agree to technical assistance as a condition of receiving any state incentives payments.

(5) Require the department to review a statistically valid sample of underlying county performance data in all required categories to assure accuracy and comparability of the data.

(6) Develop a method to measure the number of children in the child support program who are covered by a private medical support policy, who are receiving Medi-Cal, and children who are uninsured.

(b) The Office of the Legislative Analyst shall issue a report to the Legislature by March 1, 1998.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the revised performance-based child support incentive program be included in the Budget Act of 1998 and that it be effective in fiscal year 1998–99 and subsequent fiscal years. It is the intent of the Legislature that enactment of the revised performance-based child support incentive program be contingent upon enactment of the Budget Act of 1998 and that the payment of the state child support incentives be subject to the budget. It is the intent of the Legislature that total state child support funding under the revised performance-based child support incentive program designed pursuant to this section be no lower than the total state child support incentive funding for any previous fiscal year.

SEC. 9. Section 15200.92 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.92. (a) This section shall apply to any county that elects to participate in the state incentive program described in Section 15200.81.

(b) Each participating county child support enforcement program shall provide the data required by Section 11475.8 to the State Department of Social Services on a quarterly basis. The data shall be provided no later than 30 days after the end of each quarter.

(c) On and after July 1, 1998, a county shall be required to comply with the provisions of this section only during fiscal years in which funding is provided for that purpose in the Budget Act.

SEC. 10. Section 15200.96 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.96. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 15200.95, and to the extent funds are appropriated by the annual Budget Act, funds shall be provided to the Judicial Council for the nonfederal share of costs for the costs of child support commissioners pursuant to Section 4251 of the Family Code and family law facilitators pursuant to Division 14 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Family Code. The Judicial Council shall distribute the funds to the counties for the purpose of matching federal funds for the costs of child support commissioners and family law facilitators and related costs. Funds distributed pursuant to this section may also be used to offset the nonfederal share of costs incurred by the Judicial Council for performing the duties specified in Sections 4252 and 10010 of the Family Code.

CHAPTER 927

An act to add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) to Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health care.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Private corporations, predominantly those organized as nonprofit corporations, currently operate more than 80 percent of the hospitals in the state in order to meet certain needs of their communities through the provision of essential health care and other services. Public recognition of the unique social status and function of these corporations has led to requirements that hospitals provide financial and other information to the state to assist in the planning and implementation of health policies in the public interest.

(b) Increasingly, operators of health care corporations, especially nonprofit corporations, have been called upon to assist the state in ensuring the availability of health care to the public by doing the following:

(1) Directly providing health care services funded by private grants, donations, and programs and by publicly funded health programs.

(2) Operating state-owned hospitals and clinics under contract.

(3) By participating in other public health programs.

(c) Hospitals and the environment in which they operate have undergone dramatic changes in response to market forces which have resulted in a variety of innovative corporate structures, partnerships, joint ventures, and equity participation arrangements.

(d) In enacting this act, the Legislature recognizes the need for state agencies to encourage private investment in support of health care services, without interfering unduly with the operations of those private corporations. The Legislature intends to ensure that certain information is made available to the public regarding the operations of certain nonprofit corporations that are uniquely designed to integrate the operations of both privately owned and state-owned health care facilities, without treating those corporations as if they were state agencies. However, the Legislature reaffirms its intent that a state agency which engages a private corporation for those purposes should take actions and conduct its deliberations openly so that the people may remain informed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) is added to Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. OTHER

Article 1. Applicability and Purpose

101860. If any state agency, including a constitutional corporation, transfers to a private corporation assets for the operation of a hospital by that corporation and the value of the assets is not less than fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), the corporation shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

101860.5. For the purposes of this chapter, the primary public benefit purpose of the corporation is as stated in its articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation.

Article 2. Public Meetings

101861. Meetings of the corporation shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend, except as otherwise provided in this article.

101862. (a) As used in this article, "action taken" means a collective decision made at a meeting, including a decision upon a motion or resolution. Actions shall be taken by rollcall vote.

(b) For the purposes of this article, "meeting" means any meeting of a majority of the board of directors of the corporation and meetings of any committee exercising final decisionmaking authority delegated by the board, which committee was created by board action appointing the members of the committee. A meeting does not include a mere congregation of a majority of the directors or of a committee for purposes other than consideration of the business of the corporation or within the subject matter jurisdiction of the committee, provided no business of the corporation is discussed. A meeting does not include any of the circumstances described in subdivision (c) of Section 54952.2 of the Government Code.

101863. (a) Agendas of the meetings shall be posted not less than 72 hours in advance of the meetings in a place freely accessible to the public. Agendas of meetings and any other writings, when distributed to all, or a majority of all, of the directors or committee members for consideration during an open session of a meeting, and which writings would otherwise be subject to disclosure pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870), shall be made reasonably available at the meetings, or as soon thereafter as practicable upon request. However, this shall not include any writing exempt from disclosure under Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870). The agenda shall indicate the time and place of the meeting and contain a brief, general description of each item of business to be considered or acted upon at the meeting, including items to be discussed in closed session. A description generally need not exceed 20 words. Items of business not included in the posted agenda shall not be considered at a meeting; except that an item may be added to the agenda upon a determination by a two-thirds vote, or if less than two-thirds of the directors or committee members are present, an unanimous vote of those present, that there is a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the corporation after the agenda was posted.

(b) Agendas shall include opportunity for public comment on any item on the agenda at the meeting, subject to fair and reasonable standards determined by the board of directors to ensure that the intent of this article is carried out.

(c) Meetings shall be held at a location accessible to the public. Meetings may be held by teleconference or video teleconference, provided that during the public portions of each teleconferenced meeting, the proceedings shall be audible to the public at the locations specified in the notice of the meeting, and all votes taken shall be by rollcall. When meeting by teleconference or video teleconference, at least one of the locations specified in the notice shall be a principal place of business of the corporation, including a hospital or related facility. The board of directors may adopt reasonable rules to prevent disruption of the meetings by any person.

(d) In the case of an emergency situation involving matters upon which prompt action is necessary due to a disruption or threatened disruption of the business of the corporation, an emergency meeting may be called with less than 72 hours notice. In that event, newspapers of general circulation and radio or television stations that have previously requested, in writing, notices of meetings shall be notified, if practicable, at least one hour prior to the emergency meeting.

101864. Closed sessions of meetings may be conducted to consider, discuss, and act upon matters relating to any of the following:

(a) Collective bargaining or contract negotiations with represented and unrepresented employees, including discussion of the corporation's available funds and funding priorities, but only insofar as the discussion relates to the corporation's ability to conclude the collective bargaining agreement or contract under discussion. For the purposes of this subdivision, "employee" shall include an officer, an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee, a physician and surgeon or other professional with medical staff privileges at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, or other person exercising professional responsibilities as authorized by the corporation at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, but shall not include other independent contractors.

(b) The purchase or sale of securities or other investments, including investments of the corporation in endowment and pension funds.

(c) Gifts, devises, bequests, and grants.

(d) Reports of a hospital or medical audit committee or a quality assurance committee or similar reports by staff of the corporation, accreditation reports, audits, audit compliance, licensure compliance, insurance and self-insurance coverage, health care peer review reports, and quality assessments, including, but not limited to, a review of the credentials of, or the quality of care rendered by, health care providers in the facilities of the corporation, or hearings regarding the privileges of medical staff and allied health professionals.

(e) National security.

(f) Acquisition, disposition, or lease of property. However, notwithstanding any other provision of this article, no less than 10 days prior to any action on any transaction involving the acquisition, disposition, or lease of real property having a fair market value of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or more or personal property having a fair market value of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more that is owned by a state agency, including a constitutional corporation, the corporation shall hold an open session at which the public shall have an opportunity to comment on the proposed transaction.

(g) Pending litigation, including any adjudicatory proceeding before a court, administrative body, hearing officer, arbitrator, mediator, or other formal dispute resolution mechanism. For the purposes of this subdivision "pending" means that, based on advice of the corporation's legal counsel, there are facts and circumstances within the contemplation of the corporation that may result or has resulted in proceedings against or by the corporation, whether or not known to a potential plaintiff or plaintiffs or to a potential defendant or defendants.

(h) Evaluation, appointment, employment, performance, compensation, or dismissal of officers or employees of the corporation or its medical or professional staff, including internal adjudicatory proceedings, complaints, charges, investigations, and hearings. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "employee" shall include an officer, an independent contractor who functions as an officer or performs functions traditionally performed by an employee, a physician and surgeon or other professional with medical staff privileges at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, or other person exercising professional responsibilities as authorized by the corporation at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, but shall not include any member of the board of directors, as such, or other independent contractors. The term "employee" shall also include a chief executive officer or other employee of the corporation who is an ex-officio member of the board of directors.

(i) Consideration of the appointment or reappointment of directors to the board of the corporation.

(j) The terms and conditions of contracts for the provision of health care services, including compliance with regulatory conditions thereof, with governmental and nongovernmental insurers, health care providers, health plans, third-party administrators, management services organizations, self-insured employers, medical groups, and payers or any other portion of contract negotiations, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories or strategy, or instructions or advice to employees.

(k) Charges or complaints from a member enrolled in a health plan or any affiliated provider of health care services.

(l) Any trade secret as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3426.1 of the Civil Code.

(m) Any item that cannot be discussed in open session without revealing information prohibited or exempted from public disclosure by any provision of state or federal law applicable to any governmental hospital, or any state or federal statute applicable to a nongovernmental hospital, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege. Prior to holding any closed session under this subdivision, the provision of state or federal law shall be publicly identified, where applicable.

101865. (a) Prior to holding any closed session, the agenda item or items to be discussed in the closed session shall be publicly identified. An item may be identified by reference to the item or items as they are listed by number or letter on the agenda. In a closed session, only those matters covered in the statement may be considered. Nothing in this article shall require or authorize a disclosure of information prohibited by state or federal law.

(b) The corporation shall designate an officer or officers who shall attend each closed session of the board or a committee and keep a minute book of the session. The minute book may, but need not, consist of a recording of the closed session. The minute book is not a record subject to Section 101871 and shall be kept confidential. The minute book shall be available only to members of the board or committee or, if a violation of this chapter is alleged to have occurred at a closed session, to a court of general jurisdiction wherein the corporation lies.

(c) After any closed session, the board or committee shall reconvene into open session prior to adjournment and shall make any disclosures required by subdivision (d) of action in the closed session. Announcements required to be made in open session pursuant to this article shall be made at the location announced in the agenda for the closed session.

(d) Any action taken during a closed session of a meeting shall be announced publicly, including the vote or abstention of every director present, as follows:

(1) Approval of an agreement concluding property negotiations pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 101864 shall be reported after the agreement is final, as specified below:

(A) If its own approval renders the agreement final, the corporation shall report that approval and the substance of the agreement in open session at the meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with the other party to the negotiations, the corporation shall disclose the fact of that approval and the substance of the agreement upon inquiry by any person, as soon as the other party or its agent has informed the corporation of its approval.

(2) Approval given to its legal counsel of a settlement of pending litigation, as described in subdivision (g) of Section 101864, at any stage prior to or during a judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding shall be reported after the settlement is final, as specified below:

(A) If the corporation accepts a settlement offer signed by the opposing party, the body shall report its acceptance and identify the substance of the agreement in open session at the meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with some other party to the litigation or with the court, then as soon as the settlement becomes final, and upon inquiry by any person, the corporation shall disclose the fact of that approval, and identify the substance of the agreement.

(3) Approval of an agreement concluding collective bargaining or contract negotiations with represented or unrepresented employees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 101864 shall be reported after the agreement is final and has been accepted or ratified by the other party. The report shall identify the item approved and the other party or parties to the negotiation.

101866. Announcements that are required to be made pursuant to this article may be made orally or in writing. Any contracts, settlement agreements, or other documents that are finally approved or adopted in the closed session and are subject to an announcement pursuant to this article shall be records subject to disclosure in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870). However, nothing in this section shall require the announcement or disclosure of records that would impair the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes either by depriving the corporation of a material or competitive economic benefit, or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

Article 3. Enforcement of Public Meetings

101868. (a) Any interested person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief or writ of mandate in any court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of stopping or preventing violations or threatened violations of Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861) by the corporation. In addition, the corporation may institute proceedings for declaratory relief, or validation of its policy or policies under Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861). In the event the corporation institutes proceedings, the corporation shall give written notice, to the person or persons with an interest in the corporation's compliance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861), of the right to participate in the proceedings.

(b) Any interested person, including a corporation subject to this chapter, may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief or mandate in any court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of obtaining a judicial determination as to whether an action taken by the corporation was in violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861). In the event the corporation institutes proceedings, the corporation shall give written notice, to the person or persons with an interest in the corporation's compliance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 101861), of the right to participate in the proceedings.

(c) Any action seeking a judicial determination under this section shall be commenced within 30 days from the date the action was taken. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the corporation from curing or correcting an action that is subject to review pursuant to this section. The fact that the corporation takes a subsequent action to cure or correct an action taken pursuant to this section shall not be construed or admissible as evidence of a violation of this chapter. Nothing in this section shall permit discovery of communications that are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

(d) An action shall not be determined to be null and void if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The action taken was in connection with the sale or issuance of notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness or any contract, instrument, or agreement related thereto.

(2) The action taken gave rise to a contractual obligation.

(3) The action taken was in substantial compliance with this chapter.

(4) Invalidation of the action taken would substantially impair the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes by either depriving the corporation of a material competitive or economic benefit, or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

Article 4. Records To Be Available

101870. For the purposes of this article:

(a) “Person” includes any natural person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, or association.

(b) “Records” includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of the corporation’s business prepared, owned, used, or retained by the corporation regardless of physical form or characteristics. “Records” does not include any records transferred from any private nonprofit corporation that is a member or predecessor of the corporation that were created prior to the transfer of assets for the operation of a hospital by the corporation.

(c) “Writing” means handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, and every other means of recording upon any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combination thereof, and all papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films and prints, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, and other documents.

101871. (a) Records of the corporation shall be available to the public for inspection or copying upon a request in writing, submitted to the principal office of the corporation, which reasonably identifies the particular records sought to be disclosed, unless it is impracticable for an exact copy to be provided. Computer data shall be provided in a form determined by the corporation. The corporation shall adopt policies consistent with this article stating the procedures to be followed when making its records available under this article and identifying the officers or employees of the corporation responsible for the administration of these policies, and shall make these policies available to the public for inspection upon request during normal business hours.

(b) The corporation shall determine within 10 working days after receipt of a request whether to comply with the request, and shall immediately notify the person making the request of the determination and identify the provision of this article or other provision of law that is the basis for withholding any record. Access to records requested, or copies thereof, shall be provided promptly after the corporation determines it will comply with the request. The corporation may extend the time limit for making a determination for up to an additional 15 working days by giving written notice to the requester when an extension is necessary to permit the corporation to do any of the following:

(1) To search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request.

(2) To search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records that are demanded in a single request.

(3) To consult with another person having a substantial interest in the determination of the request.

(4) To permit a determination to be made under this subdivision.

(c) Notices provided and requests made under this article shall be made available to the public.

(d) The corporation may establish reasonable charges for the costs of complying with this article, not to exceed the actual cost of duplication.

101872. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require disclosure of any of the following:

(a) Contracts, business and marketing strategies, financial information, and any other competitive and strategic information, disclosure of which would impair the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes by depriving the corporation of a material or competitive economic benefit or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

(b) Records that relate to the terms and conditions of contracts for the provision of health care services, including compliance with regulatory conditions thereof, with governmental and nongovernmental insurers, health care providers, health plans, third-party administrators, management services organizations, self-insured employers, medical groups, and payers, or any other portion of contract negotiations, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or instructions or advice to employees.

(c) Records that relate to reports of a hospital or medical audit committee or a quality assurance committee or similar reports by staff of the corporation, accreditation reports, audits, audit compliance, licensure compliance, insurance and self-insurance coverage, health care peer review reports, and quality assessments, including, but not limited to, a review of the credentials of, or the quality of care rendered by, health care providers in the facilities of the corporation, or hearings regarding medical staff privileges.

(d) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to any provision of state or federal law applicable to any governmental hospital, or any state or federal statute applicable to a nongovernmental hospital, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege. The corporation shall identify the provision of law restricting disclosure when relying upon this exemption.

(e) Real estate appraisals or engineering or feasibility estimates related to the acquisition or disposition of property or related to supply and construction contracts, and until all of the contracted property, supplies, or construction work is obtained. This exemption from disclosure shall continue until these contracts are final and agreed to by all parties to the contracts.

(f) Records that relate to collective bargaining or contract negotiations with represented and unrepresented employees including discussions of the corporation's available funds and funding priorities, but only insofar as these discussions relate to the corporation's ability to conclude the collective bargaining agreement or contract under discussion. For the purposes of this subdivision, "employee" shall include an officer, an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee, a physician and surgeon or other medical professional with medical staff privileges at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, or other person exercising professional responsibilities as authorized by the corporation at a health facility or clinic operated by the corporation, but shall not include other independent contractors.

(g) Medical, personnel, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an invasion of privacy of an employee, officer, customer, or patient of the corporation, including, but not limited to, home addresses, billing records, salaries, and employment contracts.

(h) Records provided by potential employees, contractors, physicians and surgeons, or other persons for the use or consideration of the corporation under a reasonable belief that the corporation would treat the records supplied as confidential, including financial statements and proprietary information. A reasonable belief may be, but need not be, supported by a written agreement.

(i) Library circulation records.

(j) Any trade secret as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3426.1 of the Civil Code.

(k) Records relating to the purchase or sale of securities or other investments, including investments of the corporation in endowments and pension funds.

(l) Records relating to gifts, devises, bequests, and grants.

(m) Charges or complaints from a member enrolled in a health plan or any affiliated provider of health care services.

(n) Any record not otherwise expressly exempt from disclosure under this article if it impairs the corporation's ability to accomplish its primary public benefit purposes by either depriving the corporation of a material competitive or economic benefit, or exposing the corporation to a material competitive or economic risk.

101873. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever at least one member of the members of the corporation is itself a state agency, including a constitutional corporation, the obligations of that member of the corporation to make records available to the public shall, with respect to any records received from or created by the corporation, be limited to those obligations contained in this article, provided that if a record otherwise subject to this article is distributed to a majority of the members of the governing body of a state agency, including a constitutional corporation, for consideration at a public meeting of that agency in open session in connection with an item of business on the agency's meeting agenda, such a record shall be made available to the public in accordance with the laws applicable to that agency. Nothing in this article is intended to prohibit any member from making information available to the public.

Article 5. Enforcement of the Disclosure of Records

101875. (a) Any person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declarative relief or writ of mandate in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce his or her right to inspect or to receive a copy of any record or class of records under this chapter. In addition, the corporation may institute proceedings for declaratory relief or validation of its policy or policies under this article, or elect to interplead the records sought to be disclosed. In the event the corporation institutes proceedings or interpleads records, the corporation shall give written notice, to the person or persons with an interest in disclosure or nondisclosure of the records, of the right to participate in the proceedings. The times for responsive pleadings and for hearings in these proceedings shall be set by the judge of the court with the object of securing a decision as to these matters at the earliest possible time.

(b) Whenever it is made to appear by verified petition to the superior court of the county where the records or some part thereof are situated that certain records are being improperly withheld from disclosure, the court shall order the officer or person charged with withholding the records to disclose the record or show cause why he or she should not do so. The court shall decide the case after examining the record in camera, if permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code, papers filed by the parties and any oral argument, and additional evidence as the court may allow.

(c) If the court finds that the corporation's decision to refuse disclosure is not justified under Article 4 (commencing with Section 101870), the court shall order the corporation to make the record available. If the judge determines that the corporation was justified in refusing to make the record available, he or she shall return the item to the corporation without disclosing its content with an order supporting the decision refusing disclosure.

(d) An order of the court, either directing disclosure by the corporation or supporting the decision of the corporation refusing disclosure, is not a final judgment or order within the meaning of Section 904.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure from which an appeal may be taken, but shall be immediately reviewable by petition to the appellate court for the issuance of an extraordinary writ. Upon entry of any order pursuant to this section, a party shall, in order to obtain review of the order, file a petition within 20 days after service upon him or her of a written notice of entry of the order, or within such further time not exceeding an additional 20 days as the trial court may for good cause allow. If the notice is served by mail, the period within which to file the petition shall be increased by five days. A stay of an order or judgment shall not be granted unless the petitioning party demonstrates it will otherwise sustain irreparable damage and probable success on the merits. Any person who fails to obey the order of the court shall be cited to show cause why he or she is not in contempt of court.

Article 6. Application

101878. It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this chapter shall apply retroactively to all of the records of any corporation to which this chapter applies, as of the effective date of this chapter, notwithstanding that this chapter was not in effect at the time the corporation created or obtained those records.

101879. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this chapter regarding the holding of meetings of a corporation shall apply prospectively, so that any meetings held by the corporation prior to the effective date hereof shall not be deemed to have been in contravention of this chapter.

101880. The Legislature finds and declares that a corporation subject to this chapter shall continue to be private, notwithstanding this chapter, and in any event, shall not be subject to the provisions of the Government Code or the Education Code made applicable to any public agency, or any public or constitutional corporation, generally, or collectively. Nothing in this chapter grants any authority to any person, including any public agency or constitutional corporation, to establish a corporation to which this chapter applies.

101881. This chapter shall be inapplicable to any corporation in a county of the 2nd class.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The directors, officers, and employees of any corporation to which Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code applies would not be confronted with the type of conflicts of interest comprehended by the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) and would have no opportunity to participate in the making of any governmental decisions.

(b) The directors, officers, and employees of any corporation to which Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code applies would be pursuing the common interests of the members of the corporation, and as such, are not subject to regulation under the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) under the analysis of In re Sherwood, 2 FPPC Op. 168 (12/15/76).

(c) Application of the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) to any corporation to which this chapter applies would erode public support for that act by inappropriately impairing the achievement of improved health care and access that such a corporation provides and impeding the goal of increasing private financial support for medical education and research. The application of the Political Reform Act of 1974 would deprive the corporation of the services of the best and most knowledgeable individuals from the private sector in a competitive marketplace in which competitors face no comparable restrictions.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding the findings contained in Section 3, in order to eliminate any uncertainty as to the status of the corporation and maintain public support for the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code), it is in the best interests of the people of the State of California, and in furtherance of the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974, that this act shall not take effect unless enacted pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 81012 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. Any action brought to interpret or challenge the validity of any provision of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 101860) of Part 4 of Division 101 of the Health and Safety Code or any other provision of this act shall be set for trial at the earliest possible time and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall take precedence over all other cases, except older matters of the same character.

CHAPTER 928

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1997 (Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1997), relating to state government, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

To the Members of the California Assembly:

Assembly Bill No. 1571 makes various appropriations for a number of governmental programs which would amend the Budget Act of 1997.

I am signing Assembly Bill No. 1571, however, I am reducing the appropriations made to various sections by a total of $38,987,000.

The specific reductions are as follows:

SECTION 7 and Section 8 (b) Renovation of the Solano County Courthouse

I am deleting Section 7 and subdivision (b) of Section 8 of this bill.

I am deleting the $50,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund for the renovation of the Solano County Courthouse. Under current law, and the trial court funding restructuring proposal, court facility costs remain the responsibility of the county.

SECTION 10 Verdugo Hills of Peace Cemetery

I am deleting Section 10 of this bill.

Section 10 would appropriate $1,510,000 from the General Fund to the Department of Consumer Affairs for allocation to the City of Los Angeles when the city assumes receivership of the Verdugo Hills of Peace Cemetery and conservatorship of the cemetery's endowment care fund. This appropriation would set an undesirable precedent by using General Fund moneys to address the financial problems of local cemeteries.

SECTION 12 House Migrant Farmworkers

I am deleting Section 12 of this bill which would have appropriated $2,500,000 from the General Fund for migrant farm workers.

I am deleting this section because this project is lower on the priority listing for funding than other projects. In addition, to fund it with state funds now would be to forego federal funding that is expected to be allocated by the Rural Development Agency within the next few years.

SECTION 13 Funding for Commercial Space Projects

I am reducing this Section from $3,531,000 to $3,271,000 by reducing:

(b) Manufacturing Technology Program from $2,000,000 to $1,740,000.

I am reducing the General Fund legislative augmentation to the Manufacturing Technology Program to $1,740,000, which, together with the $5,000,000 I have already approved in the Budget Act of 1997, will be sufficient to maximize available federal matching funds while continuing to require local matching efforts.

SECTION 15 Job Creation Investment Fund

I am deleting Section 15 of this bill.

I am deleting the $5,000,000 General Fund transfer to the Job Creation Investment Fund and the subsequent appropriation from this fund. I believe this new program, which provides planning grants to counties for their economic development programs, is adequately funded by the $5,000,000 in the Budget Act of 1997. Future funding for this program will be evaluated during the budget process, as more becomes known about what local governments propose to do and how the state can support economic development efforts which appear most promising.

SECTION 17 Soil Survey in Humboldt and Del Norte Counties

I am deleting Section 17 of this bill.

I am deleting the $95,000 legislative augmentation from the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund to fund a grant to the Humboldt County Resource Conservation District to conduct a soil survey in Humboldt and Del Norte Counties. This augmentation has not been analyzed and prioritized for funding with other worthwhile programs.

SECTION 18 Red Mountain Fire Lookout

I am deleting Section 18 of this bill.

I am deleting the $32,000 legislative augmentation from the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund to provide permanent funding for the Red Mountain Fire Lookout. After extensive evaluation, it has been determined that fire lookouts are no longer critical to firefighting efforts as they have become a secondary notification source due to increased populations moving into wildland areas and modern technology, such as cellular telephones. Consequently, it is not an efficient use of the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection's firefighting resources to staff these lookouts. This action is consistent with my previous veto of this augmentation in the Budget Act of 1997.

SECTION 19 Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund

I am deleting Section 19 of this bill.

I am deleting the $260,000 legislative augmentation from the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund for the following projects:

(a) $100,000 for support of recreational opportunities for anglers within the northern portion of Region 3. This project should be analyzed and prioritized for funding along with other worthwhile projects. In addition, it is unclear if this project qualifies as an appropriate use of the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund. This action is consistent with my previous veto of this augmentation in the Budget Act of 1997.

(b) $160,000 for management and maintenance costs of the South Spit of Humboldt Bay. The State does not have jurisdiction over this property and, therefore, management and maintenance activities should be handled by local government. In addition, it is unclear if this project qualifies as an appropriate use of the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund. This action is consistent with my previous veto of this augmentation in the Budget Act of 1997.

SECTION 20 Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund

I am reducing this Section from $1,600,000 to $600,000 by deleting:

(b) $1,000,000 appropriation to the Wildlife Conservation Board from the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund for the acquisition of the Mattole River Headwaters. This acquisition has not been analyzed and prioritized for funding along with other worthwhile projects.

SECTION 24 1996 Safe, Clean, Reliable Water Supply Fund

I am deleting Section 24 of this bill.

I am deleting the $1,000,000 legislative augmentation for the Guadalupe River Parkway project from the River Parkway Subaccount of the 1996 Safe, Clean, Reliable Water Supply Fund (Proposition 204), consistent with my earlier vetoes in the Budget Act of 1997. Its priority has not been evaluated relative to other river parkway projects throughout the State.

SECTION 25 Apportionment of Local Grants

I am deleting Section 25 of this bill.

I am deleting the $1,000,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund by deleting:

(a) City and County of San Francisco: Esprit Park Acquisition ($500,000)

(b) City of San Jose: Mexican Heritage Corporation and Plaza project ($500,000)

These projects have not been analyzed and prioritized for funding with other worthwhile programs.

SECTION 27 City of El Monte

I am reducing this Section from $500,000 to $250,000 by deleting:

(b) City of El Monte: Teen Center ($250,000)

I am deleting the $250,000 legislative augmentation from the Public Resources Account because this project is not of sufficiently high priority to justify the use of limited state resources.

SECTION 28 Glendale Memorial Park

I am reducing this Section from $750,000 to $500,000 by deleting:

(2) City of Glendale: Glendale Memorial Park ($250,000)

I am deleting the $250,000 legislative augmentation from the Natural Resources Infrastructure Fund because this project is not of sufficiently high priority to justify the use of limited state resources. Further, no information was provided to substantiate the need for funding this project. This action is consistent with my previous veto of this augmentation in the Budget Act of 1997.

SECTION 33 Nonpoint Source Abatement Grants

I am deleting Section 33 of this bill.

I am deleting the $600,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund to implement coastal nonpoint source abatement grants. In determining the program activities best suited to meet its program mission, the department has determined that it gets more results from every dollar spent on its existing programs than it would receive on dollars spent on a grant program. For this reason the $7,000,000 currently contained in the budget to implement nonpoint source abatement activities does not contain a grant component and I believe it would not be prudent to introduce such a program at this time.

SECTION 34 Water Quality Monitoring Activities

I am deleting Section 34 of this bill.

I am deleting the $420,000 legislative augmentation from the California Environmental License Plate Fund to fund an inventory of existing water quality monitoring activities in coastal watersheds and the preparation of a report identifying the development of a comprehensive coastal monitoring program. Funding for this activity is already provided in AB 1581, which I recently signed.

SECTION 37 Cleanup of Residual Waste Oil

I am deleting Section 37 of this bill.

This provision would appropriate $250,000 from the General Fund to the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) to fund the cleanup of residual waste oil underneath properties in the town of Nipomo.

DTSC is in the process of completing a site investigation, in conjunction with the US EPA, to determine the extent of the contamination, the potential risk posed to the residents of that area, and a search for the parties potentially responsible for the contamination. Until those issues have been resolved, it would be premature to commit additional state money to fund any costs associated with the cleanup of this particular site.

SECTION 38 Battered Women's Shelters

I am deleting Section 38 of this bill.

I am deleting the $325,000 legislative augmentation of the General Fund for a specific battered women's shelter in Turlock. The 1997 Budget Act contains $14,000,000 for shelters including a $2,000,000 General Fund augmentation to expand shelter services. Each site has an opportunity to submit a request to the State for funding through the Request for Application selection process. This process provides funding for 116 shelters statewide. In light of this competitive process, it would be inappropriate to provide an appropriation to a specific shelter.

SECTION 39 Department of Community Services

I am deleting Section 39 of this bill.

I am deleting the $3,000,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund to the Department of Community Services and Development to provide citizenship services to legal immigrants. The Budget contains $12,600,000 in federal adult education funds appropriated to the California Department of Education for this purpose, an approximate $5,000,000 increase over the prior year. These funds, in addition to the approximately $19,000,000 in Proposition 98 funds spent annually by school districts for citizenship classes should meet the needs for naturalization assistance and citizen education.

SECTION 40 Teen Center in Guerneville

I am deleting Section 40 of this bill.

I am deleting the $100,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund for a teen center in Guerneville to provide for a youth facility and recreational activities. This project has not been analyzed and prioritized for funding with other competing programs.

SECTION 41 Adult Protective Services

I am reducing this section from $5,000,000 to $1,000,000.

I am reducing by $4,000,000 the legislative augmentation from the General Fund for adult protective services for counties. This is a valuable program that the Administration supports; however, given limited resources and other high priority General Fund demands, I am unable to sustain the entire augmentation at this time. I will, however, review program needs and assess additional funding possibilities for this purpose during the development and prioritization of 1998–99 Governor's Budget.

SECTION 42 Microenterprise Demonstration Project

I am deleting Section 42 of this bill.

I am deleting the $1,000,000 legislative augmentation from the Federal Trust Fund for a three-year Microenterprise Demonstration project for "at-risk" individuals and recipients of CalWORKs benefits. California's welfare reform law takes effect January 1, 1998. Given the efforts counties will undertake to develop welfare-to-work plans, it is unlikely that funding will be necessary in 1997–98. Nevertheless, I am requesting the Trade and Commerce Agency to convene representatives from financial institutions to address methods that would facilitate local microenterprise development.

SECTION 43(a)(2) Middle College High Schools

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 by deleting paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) which allocates $450,000 from the General Fund to establish new middle college high schools. The 1997 Budget Act provides $8,700,000 for community colleges in the Fund for Student Success, for competitive grants to increase student success based on an analysis of student outcomes. The Fund for Student Success may be used to provide grants for the Middle College High School Program. Therefore, I believe this appropriation is duplicative and unnecessary.

SECTION 43(a)(4) Inglewood Unified School District Mathematics Pilot Project

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 of this bill by deleting paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) which allocates $200,000 from the General Fund to the Mathematics Instruction Pilot Program in the Inglewood Unified School District to enhance instruction in mathematics. This program should not commence until the State Board of Education study to assess methods to strengthen math instruction in grades K-12 is complete. In addition, the pilot project could result in unfunded General Fund costs to the California Department of Education and, although it is characterized as "one-time," I believe future augmentations would be needed since it is doubtful that meaningful results could be obtained within one year.

SECTION 43(a)(5) Santa Clara COE Summer Mathematics Institute Pilot Project

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 of this bill by deleting paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) which allocates $200,000 from the General Fund to the Summer Mathematics Institute Pilot Program to be operated by the Santa Clara County Superintendent of Schools, which would establish a model for teaching mathematics to pupils with math difficulties in grades 6 through 8. I believe that this program should not commence until the State Board of Education study to assess methods to strengthen math instruction in grades K-12 is complete. In addition, the pilot project could result in unfunded General Fund costs to the California Department of Education and, although it is characterized as "one-time," I believe future augmentations would be needed since it is doubtful that meaningful results could be obtained within one year.

SECTION 43(a)(6) Action-Agua Dulce and San Marino Unified School District's Technology

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 of this bill by deleting paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) which allocates $50,000 from the General Fund for the Action-Agua Dulce Unified School District and the San Marino Unified School District on a one-time basis for computers and infrastructure. The benefits for these projects will be limited to the local level and could be funded through various one-time appropriations or competitive technology grant programs that are available to local school districts.

SECTION 43(a)(9) San Francisco Unified School District Technology for High Schools

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 of this bill by deleting paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) which allocates $2,000,000 from the General Fund for the San Francisco Unified School District on a one-time basis for computers, infrastructure and staff development for fourteen high schools. The benefits for this project will be limited to the local level and could be funded through various one-time appropriations available to local school districts or through the multi-year, billion dollar Digital High School initiative I recently signed into law.

SECTION 43(a)(11) South Bay Union School District Science Kit Materials

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 of this bill by deleting paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) which allocates $45,000 from the General Fund to the South Bay Union High School to purchase science kit materials for students. Providing science kits is a normal expense for school districts. This project could be funded through the regular school apportionments or various one-time appropriations that are available to the district.

SECTION 43(a)(13) Glendale Unified School District Joint Use Library

I am reducing the appropriation in Section 43 by deleting paragraph (13) of subdivision (a) which allocates $1,000,000 from the General Fund to reimburse the Glendale Unified School District for costs incurred in modernizing facilities in connection with a joint use library revitalization project of the Edison School/Pacific Park Model Neighborhood Community. Although joint use library projects should be encouraged as a way to increase the efficiency in the use of public facilities, this particular project has recently received a $1,000,000 grant from the State Allocation Board. Therefore, the allocation in this bill would be duplicative.

SECTION 45 Homework Help Centers: Liberty USD, Palmdale SD and Antioch USD

I am deleting Section 45 of this bill.

I am deleting the $150,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund for Homework Help Centers. The benefits of these projects will be limited to the local level and could be funded through various one-time appropriations that are available to local educational agencies if they are a high priority at the local level.

SECTION 46 Support for California Postsecondary Education Commission's Comprehensive Database

I am deleting Section 46 of this bill.

I am deleting the $200,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund to the California Postsecondary Education Commission to further support its comprehensive database. The Budget Act of 1997 already contains an augmentation to support additional storage space and processing costs associated with the California Postsecondary Education Commission's comprehensive database.

SECTION 48 California State University General Support

I am reducing this section from $7,500,000 to $2,500,000.

I am deleting $5,000,000 of this legislative augmentation from the General Fund for support of the California State University for the university's long range technology needs and for enrollment impaction and management. Due to competing priorities for the General Fund, I am unable to support these augmentations to the California State University budget at this time. However, I am retaining funds for the system's Economic Improvement Initiative.

SECTION 50(c) Staff Development Funding

I am reducing this Section from $12,100,000 to $8,100,000 by deleting:

Subdivision (c) which allocates $4,000,000 from the General Fund to augment the Faculty and Staff Development categorical line item of the community colleges local assistance budget which is intended for the purpose of assisting districts to train faculty in the use of technology. As noted in my veto message to a similar legislative augmentation included in the 1997 Budget Act, staff development is a discretionary activity and colleges may already devote funds to this area if it is a high local priority. Additionally, the budget already includes a $5,000,000 augmentation for this intended purpose through the Telecommunications and Technology Infrastructure program which will provide greater assurances that training funds will be effectively utilized to complement recent and future investments in technology.

SECTION 51 San Jose City College Library

I am deleting Section 51 of this bill.

I am deleting the $765,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund for the San Jose City College Library project, consistent with my earlier veto in the 1997 Budget Act. I am deleting this project because it circumvents the established procedures for evaluating and prioritizing the California Community College's capital outlay projects.

The State has limited resources to address education capital outlay needs. Therefore, all projects must be considered in relationship to competing needs for available resources, and these resources should be allocated to the highest priority projects as identified by the segments. The circumvention of the established prioritization process undermines this approach.

SECTION 52 Office of Criminal Justice Planning

I am deleting Section 52 of this bill.

I am deleting the $25,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for the purpose of funding a graffiti abatement program in the City of Tracy. This money will be used by the City to purchase a graffiti abatement machine. While this project may have merit, funding for this equipment is essentially a local responsibility and should be funded on a priority basis from local resources.

SECTION 57 Department of Justice

I am revising Section 57 by reducing the appropriation by $2,000,000.

I am reducing the $5,000,000 legislative appropriation from the General Fund to the Department of Justice by $2,000,000 to fund provisions in Section 5 of Assembly Bill 1612. These funds will be used to purchase and install livescan electronic fingerprint terminals to be located statewide in order to facilitate securing criminal background checks prior to employing or certifying individuals to work in public or private schools. I am supportive of Assembly Bill 1612 and the funding necessary to implement its provisions. However, based upon information provided by the Department of Justice, the provisions of Assembly Bill 1612 and its companion legislation, Assembly Bill 1610, can be fully implemented with an appropriation of only $3,000,000 from the General Fund because there is adequate revenue from the fee supported Fingerprint Fee Account to fund the remaining costs associated with the enactment of these two bills. Therefore, I am reducing this appropriation by $2,000,000.

SECTION 58 Special Commissions on Los Angeles Boundaries

I am deleting Section 58 of this bill.

I am deleting the $250,000 legislative augmentation from the General Fund for the proposed Special Commission on Los Angeles Boundaries that would be established in Assembly Bill 62. I am concerned about providing limited state General Fund resources to address a regional concern when the need to look at land use issues and boundary changes is of statewide concern. For this reason, I signed Assembly Bill 1484 which includes a $250,000 appropriation for the proposed Commission on Local Governance for the 21st Century that will review statutes and policies related to reorganizations and boundary changes of local governments.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The appropriations made by this act are in augmentation of the appropriations made in Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1997 (Ch. 282, Stats. 1997), and are subject to the provisions of that act, as appropriate, including, as applicable, the provisions of that act that apply to the items of appropriation that are augmented by this act. The references in this act to item numbers refer to items of appropriation in Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1997.

SEC. 2. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Legislative Counsel Bureau, in augmentation of the appropriation made in Item 0160-001-0001, to fund century change information technology activities.

SEC. 3. (a) The sum of three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Judicial Council, in augmentation of the appropriation made in Item 0250-001-0001, for apportionment as follows:

(1) One million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) to fund an increase in the hourly rate of reimbursement for court-appointed counsel in capital cases.

(2) Two million dollars ($2,000,000) for the support of the California Habeas Resource Center, which shall be made available only upon the enactment of legislation in the 1997–98 Regular Session establishing that center.

(b) Any of the funds appropriated in subdivision (a) not expended for the purpose set forth in subdivision (a) shall revert to the General Fund on June 30, 1998.

SEC. 4. The funds appropriated by Item 0450-101-0932 hereby revert to the Trial Court Trust Fund, and are not available for expenditure for the 1997–98 fiscal year as specified by that item.

SEC. 5. The funds transferred to the Trial Court Trust Fund by Item 0450-111-0001 hereby revert to the General Fund.

SEC. 6. (a) The sum of five hundred six million four hundred eighty-eight thousand dollars ($506,488,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund, and the sum of one hundred fifty-six million dollars ($156,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the Trial Court Trust Fund, for apportionment pursuant to this section for the purposes of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of the Government Code in lieu of the appropriations made pursuant to Items 0450-101-0932 and 0450-111-0001.

(b) The moneys appropriated by subdivision (a) shall be apportioned as follows:

CHAPTER 930

An act to amend Sections 513, 514, 518, 522, 523, 524, and 525 of, and to add Sections 526 and 527 to, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to vessels, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

On this day I have signed Senate Bill No. 172.

This bill would create the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund (AWAF), establish a grant program for the removal of abandoned vessels, provide a $500,000 grant to Redwood City, and make changes in the law related to abandoned vessels or wrecked property on public waterways.

I am deleting the appropriation contained in Section 11 which would appropriate a $500,000 grant to the City of Redwood City for the clean up of abandoned, wrecked, or dismantled vessels. This amount has been appropriated in AB 1188 (Lempert).

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 513 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

513. If wrecked property is in a perishable state, the sheriff shall apply to the judge of the superior court, upon a verified petition, for an order authorizing the sheriff to sell it. If the judge is satisfied that a sale of the property would be beneficial to the persons interested, he or she shall make the order applied for, and the property shall then be sold at public auction, as specified in the order. The proceeds, deducting the expenses of salvage, storage, and sale as settled and allowed by the judge, shall be transmitted to the Treasurer for deposit in the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 514 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

514. If, within 90 days after wrecked property is found, any person claims the property, or its proceeds, and establishes his or her claim by evidence satisfactory to the judge of the superior court, the judge shall make an order directing the officer in whose possession the property or its proceeds may be, to deliver it to the claimant, upon the payment of a reasonable salvage and the necessary expenses of preservation.

SEC. 3. Section 518 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

518. If, within 90 days after saving wrecked property, no claimant of the property appears, or, if within 60 days after a claim, the salvage and expenses are not paid, or a suit for the recovery of the property is not commenced, the officer who has custody of the property may sell it at public auction and transmit the proceeds of the sale, after deducting salvage, storage, property tax liens, other liens, and other expenses, to the Treasurer for deposit in the General Fund. Deduction of salvage, storage, and other expenses shall not be made, unless the amount has been determined by the superior court of the county. A copy of the order, and the evidence in its support, shall be transmitted by the judge to the Controller.

SEC. 4. Section 522 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

522. (a) Any hulk, derelict, wreck, or parts of any ship, vessel, or other watercraft sunk, beached, or allowed to remain in an unseaworthy or dilapidated condition upon publicly owned submerged lands, salt marsh, or tidelands within the corporate limits of any municipal corporation or other public corporation or entity having jurisdiction or control over those lands, without its consent expressed by resolution of its legislative body, for a period longer than 30 days without a watchman or other person being maintained upon or near and in charge of the property, is abandoned property.

Thereafter, that municipal corporation or other public corporation or entity may, notwithstanding any other provision of law, take title to the abandoned property for purposes of abatement without satisfying any property tax lien on that property, and also may cause the property to be sold, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of in any manner it determines is expedient or convenient. Any property tax lien on the abandoned property shall be satisfied within 30 days following the sale of the abandoned property by a municipal corporation or public entity. Any sale in accordance with this section shall vest complete title in the purchaser who shall forthwith take steps to remove the property. Any proceeds derived from the sale shall be transmitted to the Treasurer for deposit in the General Fund.

(b) However, if the owner of the property securely affixes to the property a notice in plain view setting forth the owner's name and address and claim of ownership, together with the name and address of an agent or representative whom the owner may designate to act within the State of California if the owner does not reside in the state, and files a copy of the notice with the secretary of the municipal corporation or other public corporation or entity having jurisdiction or control over the lands at least 10 days prior to the removal, the municipal corporation or other public corporation or entity may not sell, destroy, or otherwise dispose of the property until the corporation or entity has first given the owner or the owner's agent, at the address specified in the claim of ownership, 15 days' notice to remove or cause the property to be removed, and then only if the property is not removed by the owner or the owner's agent within that time or reasonable extensions of time as the corporation or entity may grant by resolution. If a registration number appears on the watercraft, the municipal corporation or other public corporation or entity shall send the notice to the last registered owner and the disposition shall be handled as a lien sale under Section 504.

(c) Any municipal corporation or other public corporation may charge a fee to any person who is determined by that municipal or other public corporation to have caused property of a type described in subdivision (a) to become abandoned as described in that subdivision within its corporate limits, in an amount not to exceed the amount of that municipal or other public corporation's actual and reasonable costs incurred pursuant to this section with respect to the abandoned property.

(a) Any peace officer, as described in Section 663, any employee or officer of the State Lands Commission designated by the State Lands Commission, or any lifeguard or marine safety officer employed by a county, city, or district while engaged in the performance of official duties, may remove, and, if necessary, store a vessel removed from a public waterway under any of the following circumstances:

(1) When the vessel is left unattended and is moored, docked, beached, or made fast to land in such a position as to obstruct the normal movement of traffic or in such a condition as to create a hazard to other vessels using the waterway, to public safety, or to the property of another.

(2) When the vessel is found upon a waterway and a report has previously been made that the vessel has been stolen or a complaint has been filed and a warrant thereon issued charging that the vessel has been embezzled.

(3) When the person or persons in charge of the vessel are by reason of physical injuries or illness incapacitated to such an extent as to be unable to provide for its custody or removal.

(4) When an officer arrests any person operating or in control of the vessel for an alleged offense, and the officer is, by any provision of this code or other statute, required or permitted to take, and does take, the person arrested before a magistrate without unnecessary delay.

(5) When the vessel interferes with, or otherwise poses a danger to, navigation or to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(6) When the vessel poses a threat to adjacent wetlands, levies, sensitive habitat, any protected wildlife species, or water quality.

(b) Costs incurred by a public entity pursuant to removal of vessels under subdivision (a) may be recovered through appropriate action in the courts of this state.

SEC. 6. Section 524 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

524. (a) Any peace officer, as described in Section 663, may store any vessel removed from private property when the vessel is found on, or attached to, private property and a report has previously been made that the vessel has been stolen or a complaint has been filed and a warrant thereon issued charging that the vessel has been embezzled.

(b) Any peace officer, as described in Section 663, may, after a reasonable period of time, remove a vessel from private property if the vessel has been involved in, and left at, the scene of a boating accident and no owner is available to grant permission to remove the vessel. This subdivision does not authorize the removal of a vessel if the owner has been contacted and has refused to grant permission to remove the vessel.

(c) Nothing in this section is intended to expand the territorial jurisdiction of peace officers beyond the provisions of Sections 830.1 and 830.2 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 7. Section 525 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

525. (a) Except for urgent and immediate concern for the safety of those aboard a vessel, no person shall abandon a vessel upon a public waterway or public or private property without the express or implied consent of the owner or person in lawful possession or control of the property.

(b) The abandonment of any vessel in a manner as provided in subdivision (a) is prima facie evidence that the last registered owner of record, not having notified the appropriate registration or documenting agency of any relinquishment of title or interest therein, is responsible for the abandonment and is thereby liable for the cost of removal and disposition of the vessel.

(c) Violation of this section is an infraction and shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500), nor more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

(d) All fines imposed and collected pursuant to this section shall be allocated as follows:

(1) (A) Eighty percent of the moneys shall be deposited in the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund, which is hereby created as a special fund. Moneys in the fund shall be used exclusively, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for grants to be awarded by the department to local agencies for the abatement, removal, storage, and disposal as public nuisances of any abandoned, wrecked, or dismantled vessels, or parts thereof, or any other partially submerged objects which pose a substantial hazard to navigation, from navigable waterways or adjacent public property, or private property with the landowner's consent. These grants shall not be utilized for abatement, removal, storage, or disposal of commercial vessels.

(B) In evaluating a grant request submitted by a local agency pursuant to subparagraph (A), the department shall place great weight on the following two factors:

(i) The existence of an active local enforcement program to control and prevent the abandonment of watercraft within the local agency's jurisdiction.

(ii) The existence of a submerged navigational hazard abatement plan at the local level which provides for the control or abatement of water hazards, including, but not limited to, abandoned watercraft, wrecked watercraft, hazardous floating debris, submerged vessels and objects, and abandoned piers and pilings.

(C) A grant awarded by the department pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be matched by a 10-percent contribution from the local agency receiving the grant.

(2) Twenty percent shall be allocated as set forth in Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code.

A notice sent by the public agency shall be sent by certified or first-class mail.

(5) If the public agency is unable to locate the registered and legal owners of the property or persons known to have an interest in the property as provided in paragraph (4), the public agency published, or caused to be published, the notice of removal for at least two weeks in succession in one or more daily newspapers circulated in the county.

(b) The notice of removal required by paragraphs (3) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) shall state all of the following:

The public agency that removed the vehicle may authorize its own officers or employees to conduct the hearing but the hearing officer shall not be the same person who directed the removal and storage of the property.

(2) The failure of either the registered or legal owners or any other person known to have an interest in the property to request or attend a scheduled hearing shall not affect the validity of the hearing.

(d) The property may be claimed and recovered by its registered and legal owners, or by any other person known to have an interest in the property, within 15 days of the date the notice of removal was issued pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) of subdivision (a), whichever is later, after payment of any costs incurred by the public agency related to salvage and storage of the property.

(e) The property may be sold or otherwise disposed of by the public agency not less than 15 days from the date the notice of removal was issued pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) of subdivision (a), whichever is later, or the date of actual removal, whichever is later.

(f) The proceeds from the sale of the property, after deducting expenses for salvage, storage, sales costs, and any property tax liens, shall be deposited in the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund for grants to local agencies, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 525.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that this section shall not be construed to authorize the lien sale or destruction of any seaworthy vessel that is currently registered and operated in accordance with local, state, and federal law.

SEC. 9. Section 527 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

527. It is the intent of the Legislature that a sum of not more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) be appropriated from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund to the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund for grants to local agencies pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 525 in each fiscal year and that grants from the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund be matched by not less than a 10-percent contribution from the local agency receiving the grant.

SEC. 10. The Controller shall transfer the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund to the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund and that sum is hereby appropriated from the Abandoned Watercraft Abatement Fund to the Department of Boating and Waterways for grants to local agencies, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 525 of the Harbors and Navigation Code.

SEC. 11. In addition to the appropriation made in Section 10 of this act, the following one-time appropriation is also made. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund to the City of Redwood City for cleanup of abandoned, wrecked, and dismantled vessels as described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 525 of the Harbors and Navigation Code. The Department of Boating and Waterways shall verify that the City of Redwood City has met the grant requirements specified in that paragraph.

SEC. 12. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 931

An act to add Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to crime laboratories, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

On this day I have signed Assembly Bill No. 920.

This bill would appropriate $275,000 from the General Fund to the State Auditor to conduct an assessment of the needs of existing forensic science laboratories and report its findings to the Legislature by January 1, 1999. I have deleted the appropriation provided for in Section 2 of this bill.

This audit can be completed within the existing appropriation of General Fund resources ($10.1 million) made to the State Auditor and should be made a priority of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) is added to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. CALIFORNIA FORENSIC SCIENCE LABORATORY ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

13890. It is the intent of the Legislature to review the needs assessment report, as provided for in Section 13892, prior to providing additional funds for support of local forensic laboratory services or improvements.

13891. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Forensic Science Laboratory Enhancement Act.

13892. (a) The State Auditor shall conduct an assessment of the needs of existing forensic science laboratories.

(b) The assessment shall determine what changes, improvements, and augmentations are needed in laboratory procedures, personnel, programs, and facilities in order for the laboratories to become accredited or maintain existing accreditation by the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors/Laboratory Accreditation Board, by January 1, 2004. The assessment shall identify specific changes, improvements, and augmentations for each of the laboratories, and shall include estimates of costs to implement the assessment and a schedule for implementation if funds become available.

The assessment shall also review the services currently provided by the laboratories as well as the relationship between the local forensic laboratories and the Department of Justice's regional forensic laboratories, including, but not limited to, consideration of alternatives to providing laboratory services, such as laboratories for provision of specialized services, use of private laboratories, and consolidation of services within existing state or local laboratories.

(c) In conducting the needs assessment, the State Auditor shall contract as necessary using the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors as a resource. The State Auditor shall also establish an advisory committee composed of at least one representative of each of the following:

(1) California Association of Crime Laboratory Directors.
(2) California Police Chiefs Association.
(3) California State Sheriff's Association.
(4) California District Attorneys Association.
(5) The California State Association of Counties.
(6) The California League of Cities.
(7) The Department of Justice's Bureau of Forensic Services.
(8) The Judicial Council.

The advisory committee shall meet during the needs assessment and provide information and assistance to the State Auditor.

(d) The State Auditor shall submit a report to the Legislature on the needs assessment by January 1, 1999.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from the General Fund to the State

Auditor to conduct the needs assessment of existing local forensic science laboratories required by Section 1 of this act.

CHAPTER 932

An act to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 79140) to Chapter 9 of Part 48 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 79140) is added to Chapter 9 of Part 48 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 3. Industry Internship and Apprenticeship Programs

79140. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) A consensus exists among employment training professionals, economists, and industry experts concerning the serious mismatch that has developed between labor force skills and the needs of employers.

(b) Workplace skills training is most effective within a real workplace environment.

(c) Private sector industry internships and apprenticeship models successfully focus employment training on a specific job or set of skills, thereby meeting the precise needs of the labor market.

(d) Many high-growth industries, such as new media and biotechnology, are particularly suited to worksite-based learning because skills required by those industries involve the use of costly equipment and require continual upgrading.

79144. For the purposes of this article, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Apprenticeship program standards" means the written document containing, among other things, all the terms and conditions for the qualification, recruitment, selection, employment and training, working conditions, wages, employee benefits, and other compensation for apprentices and all other provisions and statements, including attachments, as required by the Labor Code and by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Title 8 of the California Code of Regulations, which, when approved by the Chief of the Division of Apprenticeship Standards of the Department of Industrial Relations, shall constitute registration of these standards and authority to conduct that program of apprenticeship in this state.

(b) "Apprenticeship training program" means a comprehensive plan containing, among other things, apprenticeship program standards, program regulations, related and supplemental instruction course outlines, and policy statements for the effective administration of that apprenticeship training program, in accordance with Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Title 8 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) "Internship training program" means a planned series of educational training activities, paid or unpaid, in a specific or general occupational field.

79146. To the extent sufficient resources exist, the board of governors may establish internship training programs and actively support apprenticeship training programs in collaboration with the State Department of Education and the Division of Apprenticeship Standards. The board of governors may establish internship training programs pursuant to this section for only those occupations not covered by an apprenticeship training program approved by the Division of Apprenticeship Standards of the Department of Industrial Relations prior to January 1, 1998.

79148. (a) To the extent that sufficient federal funds and other resources are available, the Division of Apprenticeship Standards, in partnership with the State Department of Education and the California Community Colleges, shall develop and implement innovative apprenticeship training demonstration projects in high-growth industries in emerging and transitioning occupations that meet local labor market needs and that are validated by current labor market data.

(b) The Division of Apprenticeship Standards, in collaboration with the State Department of Education and the California Community Colleges, shall submit a report not later than December 31, 1998, to the Governor and the Legislature containing a summary of educational and vocational outcomes resulting from innovative apprenticeship training demonstration projects. The report shall include a status report on the number of participating registered apprentices as well as a statewide analysis and needs assessment regarding the extent that these apprenticeship training demonstration projects are meeting work force training needs in high growth industries.

CHAPTER 933

An act to add Article 10 (commencing with Section 87880) to Chapter 3 of Part 51 of the Education Code, relating to community colleges.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10 (commencing with Section 87880) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 51 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 10. Community College Part-Time Faculty Office Hours Program

87880. The Legislature finds and declares that community college part-time faculty are required to fulfill the same teaching responsibilities as full-time faculty although students have little or no access to part-time faculty members outside of the classroom. It is the intent of the Legislature that students have the same opportunity for academic assistance and guidance without regard to whether a course at a community college is taught by a full-time or a part-time faculty member. It is the further intent of the Legislature that community college part-time faculty teaching a minimum number of courses be compensated for providing academic counseling and assistance to students outside of the classroom.

87881. There is hereby established the Community College Part-Time Faculty Office Hours Program for the purpose of providing community college students equal access to academic advice and assistance and to encourage community college districts to provide opportunities by compensating part-time faculty who hold office hours related to their teaching load.

87882. For purposes of this article, "part-time faculty" means any person who is employed to teach for not more than 60 percent of the hours per week considered a full-time assignment for regular employees having comparable duties.

87883. (a) The governing board of a community college district may provide compensation for office hours to part-time faculty.

(b) The compensation to part-time faculty under this article shall equal one paid office hour for every two classes or more taught per week or 40 percent of a full-time load as defined by the community college district.

87884. (a) The governing board of each community college district that establishes a program pursuant to this article shall negotiate with the exclusive bargaining representative, or in instances where there is no bargaining unit shall meet and confer with the faculty, to establish a program to provide part-time faculty office hours.

(b) Any hours negotiated under this program shall not be applied towards the 60-percent requirement as specified in Section 87882.

(c) On or before June 1 of each year, each community college district participating in the program shall send a verification to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges specifying the total costs of the compensation paid for office hours of part-time faculty participating in the program.

87885. (a) The Part-Time Faculty Office Hours Program Fund is hereby established in the State Treasury.

(b) On or before June 15 of each year, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall apportion to each community college district that establishes a program pursuant to this article an amount equal to up to 50 percent of the total costs of the compensation paid for office hours of part-time faculty, as defined in Section 87882. The chancellor shall distribute funds that are appropriated in the annual Budget Act specifically for this purpose proportionally based on each district's total costs for office hours of part-time faculty pursuant to the verification submitted by the community college district in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 87884 for that fiscal year. In no event, however, shall the allocation to any district in a fiscal year exceed 50 percent of the total costs of the compensation paid for office hours of part-time faculty pursuant to this article.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for the purposes of this article be included in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 934

An act to amend Section 44300 of, and to add Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 44305) to Chapter 2 of Part 25 of, the Education Code, relating to teacher credentialing.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Approximately 100,000 teachers are employed in the elementary schools of the state.

(2) Approximately 1,100 of these teachers are in paid internships and receive systematic support and training as they advance toward full certification.

(3) In the 1995–96 school year, over 6,400 elementary teachers held emergency permits only. Most of these teachers have little experience and no preparation for their teaching responsibilities.

(4) As a result of the implementation of the Class Size Reduction program in the 1996–97 school year, the number of teachers with emergency permits in elementary classrooms is expected to reach 8,000 or more.

(5) Most of the unprepared and untrained teachers with emergency permits are employed in urban schools where pupils need the best trained and most effective teachers.

(6) As a general rule, teachers with emergency permits get very little training or support from the schools that employ them, in part because there are no resources directed to help this group of teachers. As a consequence, between 35 percent and 40 percent of all teachers with emergency permits in both elementary and secondary schools do not teach beyond the first year.

(b) The Legislature recognizes that the success of programs like the Class Size Reduction Program in the primary grades is dependent on the quality of the teachers who work in the schools.

(c) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that all of the following occur:

(1) The commission examine the feasibility of better preparing and retaining pre-interns by providing them with early, focused, and intensive preparation in the subject matter they are assigned to teach and development in classroom management, pupil discipline, and basic instruction methodologies, and by assisting pre-interns to progress into a teacher internship program as expeditiously as possible.

(2) The innovation of replacing the emergency permit system with intensive pre-intern preparation and development be implemented through a process involving the granting of competitive grants to school districts.

(3) Regular reports be provided to the Legislature regarding the impact of the Pre-Internship Teaching Program, including a final report regarding whether the program should be continued, modified, or discontinued.

(d) Further, the Legislature recognizes that the success of a local program to assist in the development of unprepared and untrained teachers requires the cooperation and participation of governing boards, school administrators and the elected representatives of teachers.

(e) Therefore, it is also the intent of the Legislature that representatives of school boards, school administrators, and classroom teachers participate in the development and implementation of any program created to assist in the development of unprepared and untrained teachers.

SEC. 2. Section 44300 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44300. (a) Commencing January 1, 1990, the commission may issue or renew emergency teaching or specialist permits in accordance with regulations adopted by the commission corresponding to the credential types specified in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 44225, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The applicant possesses a baccalaureate degree conferred by a regionally accredited institution of higher education and has fulfilled the subject matter requirements of Section 44301.

(2) The applicant passes the state basic skills proficiency test as provided for in Section 44252.

(3) The commission approves the justification for the emergency permit submitted by the school district in which the applicant is to be employed. The justification shall include all of the following:

(A) Documentation that the district has made a diligent search for, but has been unable to recruit, a sufficient number of certificated teachers, including teacher candidates pursuing full certification through internship, district internship, or other alternative routes established by the commission.

(B) A declaration of need for fully qualified educators based on the documentation set forth in subparagraph (A) and made in the form of a motion adopted by the governing board of the district or the county board of education at a regularly scheduled meeting of the governing board or the county board of education. The motion may not be part of the consent agenda and shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that all of the following occur:

(1) The commission shall issue pre-intern certificates in place of emergency teaching permits as sufficient resources are made available to school districts to provide services pursuant to Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 44305) to pre-interns pursuing multiple subject or single subject teaching credentials.

(2) If the examination of the Pre-internship Teaching Program required by this chapter demonstrates that the program should continue because it has been successful in better preparing and retaining pre-intern teachers than the emergency permit system, sufficient resources to fully fund the Pre-Internship Teaching Program shall be appropriated by July 2002. For purposes of this paragraph, two thousand dollars ($2,000) in state funding per pre-intern shall be deemed to be sufficient resources.

(3) The commission shall continue to issue emergency teaching permits to individuals employed by school districts defined in regulations as remote from regionally accredited institutions of higher education.

(c) Commencing January 1, 1990, the commission may issue and reissue emergency permits corresponding to the credential types specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 44225. The commission shall establish appropriate standards for each type of emergency permit specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 44225.

(d) The exclusive representative of certificated employees, if any, as provided under Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, may submit a written statement to the commission agreeing or disagreeing with the justification submitted to the commission pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(e) Commencing January 1, 1990, a person holding an emergency teaching or specialist permit shall attend an orientation to the curriculum and to techniques of instruction and classroom management, and shall teach only with the assistance and guidance of a certificated employee of the district who has completed at least three years of full-time teaching experience, or the equivalent thereof. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage districts to provide directed teaching experience to new emergency permitholders with no prior teaching experience.

(f) The holder of an emergency permit shall participate in ongoing training, coursework, or seminars designed to prepare the individual to become a fully credentialed teacher or other educator in the subject area or areas in which he or she is assigned to teach or serve. The employing agency shall verify that employees applying to renew their emergency permits are meeting these ongoing training requirements.

(g) Emergency permits for pupil personnel services shall not be valid for the purpose of determining pupil eligibility for placement in any special education class or program.

(h) This section shall not apply to the issuance of an emergency substitute teaching permit, or of an emergency permit to a teacher who has consented to teach temporarily outside of his or her field of certification, for which the commission shall establish minimum requirements.

SEC. 3. Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 44305) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 25 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 5.6. California Pre-Internship Teaching Program

44305. (a) As resources are available to school districts to provide services to any pre-intern pursuant to this article, the commission may issue a pre-intern teaching certificate instead of an emergency multiple subjects permit to an individual employed by a school district approved by the commission who meets the minimum requirements set by the commission. When resources remain after funding pre-interns pursuing multiple subject emergency permits, the commission may issue a pre-intern teaching certificate instead of an emergency single subject permit to an individual employed by a school district approved by the commission who meets the minimum requirements set by the commission. In implementing the Pre-Internship Teaching Program, the commission shall consult with representatives of the State Department of Education, classroom teachers, school administrators, other school employees, parents, school board members, and institutions of higher education.

(b) The pre-intern teaching certificate issued by the commission shall be valid for one year, but may be renewed for one additional year if the holder takes the appropriate subject matter examination required under Section 44282. A pre-intern teacher who passes the subject matter examination in the first or second year of his or her pre-intern teaching shall enroll in a district or university teaching internship or other approved university teaching credential program. A pre-intern teaching certificate may be renewed for a third year if the employing school district, the cooperating college or university, and the pre-intern support the application for renewal.

(c) The minimum requirements for the pre-intern teaching certificate established by the commission shall include all of the following:

(1) A baccalaureate or higher degree conferred by a regionally accredited institution of higher education.

(2) Passage of the basic skills proficiency test as provided for in Section 44252.

(3) The number of units, as set by the commission, in the subject to be taught.

(d) The commission shall establish criteria for the approval of pre-intern teaching programs. The criteria shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Demonstrated need, as indicated by the percentage of teachers in the district that have not completed basic credential requirements pursuant to state law.

(2) The quality of the preparation, support, and assistance to be provided to teaching pre-interns.

(3) Cost effectiveness, including the number of pre-interns to be served.

(4) Collaboration between district administrators and experienced teachers with permanent status in the development of the plan.

(5) District and college or university collaboration to ensure availability of courses needed by pre-intern teachers.

(6) Pre-intern preparation content, including lesson planning, classroom management and organization, and a schedule for delivering the preparation, with a focus on beginning the preparation before or during the first semester of the pre-internship.

(7) The role of personnel, including experienced teachers with permanent status, in the delivery of pre-intern preparation and support.

(8) That no later than the second year of employment the program for each pre-intern shall reflect the California Standards for the Teaching Profession jointly developed by the commission and the State Department of Education.

(9) Approval of the district plan by the governing board of the school district.

(e) In establishing criteria for review of pre-intern teaching programs pursuant to subdivision (d), the commission shall make every effort to recognize effective district programs for the support and development of emergency permit teachers in operation before July 1, 1998, as meeting the pre-intern teaching program criteria.

(f) A school district may apply to the commission for funding under this article. Based on the criteria in subdivision (d), developed pursuant to the consultation process required by subdivision (a), the commission shall determine which applicants are approved for funding. If funds are provided for this act from the federal Goals 2000: Educate America Act (P.L. 103-227), the commission shall transmit a list of approved applicants to the State Department of Education which shall award grants in a timely manner exclusively to those school districts that the commission has approved for funding, in the amounts listed, with no school district receiving more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) per pre-intern employed by the school district.

44306. The commission shall submit an interim report to the Legislature and the Legislative Analyst no later than October 1, 2000, and a final report no later than October 1, 2001, to include the following information regarding the Pre-Internship Teaching Program:

(1) The number of participating school districts and pre-intern teachers served.

(2) The impact of the program on decreasing the number of emergency permits issued.

(3) The retention rates of pre-intern teachers, as compared to the retention rates of emergency permitholders.

(4) The success rates of pre-intern teachers, by year of participation in the program, in meeting requirements for subject matter knowledge required by law.

(5) Assessments by pre-interns of the effectiveness of the pre-intern preparation, support and assistance provided.

(6) A description of in-kind contributions to the pre-intern teaching program provided by participating school districts.

(7) Recommendations regarding whether the Pre-Internship Teaching Program should be continued, modified, or discontinued, including reasons for those recommendations.

44307. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Pre-Internship Teaching Program.

44307.5. The commission shall not require any school district to provide pre-internship services to any individual holding an emergency substitute teaching permit, any teacher who has completed most of the requirements for a preliminary teaching credential, or any teacher who holds a limited assignment emergency permit as a result of consenting to teach temporarily outside of his or her field of certification.

44308. (a) Funding for the purposes of administering the program established pursuant to this article is contingent upon an appropriation in the Budget Act or other act when specified.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that federal funding provided to the State Department of Education and the Commission on Teacher Credentialing in Item 6110-001-0890 and 6360-001-0407 be adjusted to provide direct funding for the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the purposes of the Pre-Internship Teaching Program and the California Paraprofessional Teacher Training Program. The Department of Finance shall make any such adjustments using authority of Section 1.50 of the Budget Act of 1997.

(c) If funds are provided for this act from the federal Goals 2000: Educate America Act (P.L. 103-227) and if the provisions of this article do not meet the requirements of that federal act, the State Department of Education shall be held harmless for any fiscal penalty exacted by the federal government for the expenditures made by local education agencies or for state operations.

CHAPTER 935

An act to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 49350) to Chapter 8 of Part 27 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5 (commencing with Section 49350) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 27 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 5. Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program

49350. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Studies have shown that indicators of risk for violence are associated with a child's experiences at school. Antisocial behavior or aggressiveness, which is sometimes combined with isolation, withdrawal, hyperactivity, or attention deficit disorder, places children at increased risk of violence.

(2) These children are at risk of persistent antisocial behavior, such as skipping school, getting into fights, and misbehaving in class. Young people of both genders who engage in these activities are at increased risk of experiencing drug abuse, juvenile delinquency, violence, dropping out of school, and teen pregnancy.

(3) It is well-known that some youth, even though exposed to multiple risk factors, do not succumb to violent, antisocial behavior. One of the defining factors for this outcome is bonding—positive relationships with family members, teachers, police officers, sheriffs' deputies, and other adults.

(4) The Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program brings this successful law enforcement strategy to California's schools. By providing funding assistance, strict participation guidelines and assessments, the Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program will bring highly trained law enforcement officers onto school campuses to work with students during and after school. Community policing in schools will provide the necessary opportunities for students' active involvement in positive activities, as well as trained personnel to teach them skills so that they may pursue later opportunities successfully. Community policing in schools provides a consistent system of recognition and reinforcement of positive behavior.

(5) Many school safety approaches, including metal detectors, drug-sniffing dogs, armed private security personnel, and similar security measures, are more one-dimensional in their approach to school safety. The Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program takes a multidimensional approach by involving the community, schools, parents or guardians, and law enforcement personnel in the design of the program that will serve their schools. The relationships developed, as a result of this process and the programs themselves, will be a strong preventative alternative to antisocial behavior in California's schools.

(b) As used in this article, "community policing" means an approach to crime prevention that is founded on developing positive relationships between law enforcement and the community. In community policing, law enforcement becomes an integral facet of the community because officers work directly with the community and develop positive relationships with members of the community. Community members become more involved in their community's activities because they know they have the personal support of law enforcement. Community policing identifies factors that put young people at risk for violence in order to reduce or eliminate these factors and strengthen protective factors such as positive relationships with adults.

49350.5. (a) In order to ensure that students enrolled in the California public schools attend campuses that are safe, secure, orderly, and purposeful places in which students and staff are free to learn and teach without the threat of physical or psychological harm, it is the intent of the Legislature that two-year grants be provided to the ABC Unified School District and the Downey Unified School District to establish community policing school safety and mentoring programs.

(b) Grants under this article shall be awarded in order to develop and implement a plan that accomplishes both of the following:

(1) Provision for a continuum of responses to school safety needs by employees of school districts and local law enforcement agencies.

(2) Demonstration of a collaborative and integrated approach for implementing a system of providing safe and secure school environments between the school districts and local law enforcement agencies.

(c) Grant funds shall be expended as determined by the multiagency juvenile justice coordinating council, established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 49351.

(d) Grants under this article shall not be used to provide funding for school resource officers.

49351. (a) (1) The Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program is hereby established. The Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program shall be administered by the State Department of Education for the purpose of reducing juvenile crime and delinquency. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall award grants to the ABC Unified School District and the Downey Unified School District to accomplish the goals set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 49350.5.

(2) Programs funded pursuant to this article may include, but not necessarily be limited to, all of the following methods of community policing:

(A) Teaching conflict resolution classes.

(B) Teaching crime prevention classes.

(C) Operating afterschool programs.

(D) Provide mentoring.

(E) Patrolling the community that encompasses the school district participating in the Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program.

(b) Each school district that receives a grant under this article shall be required to establish a multiagency juvenile justice coordinating council that shall develop and implement a continuum of community-based responses to juvenile crime in the school setting.

(c) The coordinating councils established pursuant to subdivision (b) shall, at a minimum, include the school district, law enforcement agency, a volunteer police representative, parents, and at least two community organizations. The coordinating councils shall develop a comprehensive, multiagency plan that identifies resources and strategies for providing an effective targeted community policing plan, for activities relating to prevention, intervention, supervision, and treatment of at-risk youths in school settings.

49352. The coordinating council established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 49351 shall accomplish all of the following:

(a) Complete an identification and prioritization of the schools, and other areas in the community, that face a significant public safety risk from juvenile crime, such as gang activity, daylight burglary, late-night robbery, vandalism, truancy, controlled substance sales, firearm-related violence, and juvenile alcohol use within the council's jurisdiction.

(b) Develop information and intelligence sharing systems to ensure that school districts actions are fully coordinated with local law enforcement agencies, and to provide data for measuring the success of the grantee in achieving its goals. The plan shall develop goals related to the outcome measures that shall be used to determine the effectiveness of the program, at participating pilot sites.

(c) Identify outcome measures which shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, each of the following:

(1) The rate of drug- and alcohol-related offenses.
(2) The rate of crimes against persons.
(3) The rate of crimes against property.
(4) Incidence of students in possession of firearms or other weapons.

49353. (a) The State Department of Education shall award grants under this article to implement the plan developed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 49350.5 for a two-year period. Funding shall be used to supplement, rather than supplant, existing programs. Grant funds shall be used for programs that are identified in the local action plan as part of a continuum of responses to reduce juvenile crime and delinquency in a school setting. In no case shall the total amount of grant funds for the two-year period exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

(b) (1) No grant shall be awarded unless the applicant does both of the following:

(A) Makes matching funds available in an amount equal to 50 percent or more of the amount of the grant.

(B) Demonstrates a commitment by local law enforcement agencies or other participating agencies to contribute matching funds in an amount equal to 50 percent or more of the amount of the grant.

(2) For purposes of this section, credit towards the matching fund requirement may be granted in an amount equal to the value of an in-kind contribution made on behalf of the school district or on behalf of a law enforcement agency or another participating agency.

49354. The State Department of Education shall establish minimum standards, funding schedules, and procedures for grants, which shall take into consideration, but not necessarily be limited to, all of the following:

(d) Demonstrated ability to implement a plan that provides a collaborative and integrated approach to juvenile crime and delinquency in a school setting.
(e) Demonstrated history of maximizing federal, state, local, and private funding sources.
(f) Likelihood that the program will continue to operate after state grant funding ends.

49355. The State Department of Education shall create an evaluation design for the Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program. School districts that receive grants under this article shall use this evaluation design to assess the effectiveness of their programs. These school districts shall transmit their assessments to the department. The department shall develop an interim report to be submitted to the Legislature on or before March 1, 2000, and a final analysis of the grant program in a report to be submitted to the Legislature on or before March 1, 2002.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Community Policing and Mentoring for School Safety Pilot Program established by this act be funded by a combination of funds from the state and from local school districts and law enforcement agencies. The operation of this program shall be contingent upon the enactment of an appropriation therefor in the annual Budget Act, or through an appropriation contained in another measure enacted during the 1997–98 Regular Session.

CHAPTER 936

An act to add Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 60810) to Part 33 of the Education Code, relating to pupil testing.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 60810) is added to Part 33 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. ASSESSMENT OF LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT

60810. (a) (1) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall review existing tests that assess the English language development of pupils whose primary language is a language other than English. The tests shall include, but not be limited to, an assessment of achievement of these pupils in English reading, speaking, and written skills. The superintendent shall determine which tests, if any, meet the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c). If any existing test or series of tests meets these criteria, the superintendent, with approval of the State Board of Education, shall report to the Legislature on its findings and recommendations.

(2) If no suitable test exists, the superintendent shall explore the option of a collaborative effort with other states to develop a test or series of tests and share test development costs. If no suitable test exists, the superintendent, with approval of the State Board of Education, may contract with a local education agency to develop a test or series of tests that meets the criteria of subdivisions (b) and (c) or may contract to modify an existing test or series of tests so that it will meet the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c).

(3) The superintendent shall identify or develop the test or series of tests by January 1, 1999, and shall report to the Legislature regarding the progress being made in identifying or developing the test or series of tests by June 1, 1998. The report shall include recommendations to the Legislature regarding the implementation of the test or series of tests at the local level, including required resources.

(b) The test or series of tests developed or acquired pursuant to subdivision (a) shall have sufficient range to assess pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, in English reading, speaking, and written skills, except that pupils in kindergarten and grade 1 shall be assessed in reading and written communication only to the extent that comparable standards and assessments in English and language arts are used for native speakers of English.

(c) The test or series of tests shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Provide sufficient information about pupils at each grade level to determine levels of proficiency ranging from no English proficiency to fluent English proficiency with at least two intermediate levels.

(2) Have psychometric properties of reliability and validity deemed adequate by technical experts.

(3) Be capable of administration to pupils with any primary language other than English.

(4) Be capable of administration by classroom teachers.

(5) Yield scores that allow comparison of a pupil's growth over time, can be tied to readiness for various instructional options, and can be aggregated for use in the evaluation of program effectiveness.

(6) Not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, or gender.

(7) Be aligned with the standards for English language development adopted by the State Board of Education pursuant to Section 60811.

(d) The test shall be used for the following purposes:

(1) To identify pupils who are limited English proficient.

(2) To determine the level of English language proficiency of pupils who are limited English proficient.

(3) To assess the progress of limited-English-proficient pupils in acquiring the skills of listening, reading, speaking, and writing in English.

60811. The State Board of Education shall approve standards for English language development for pupils whose primary language is a language other than English. The standards shall be comparable in rigor and specificity to the standards for English language arts adopted pursuant to Section 60605 in speaking, reading, and written communication.

SEC. 2. Funding for the purposes of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 60810) of Part 33 of the Education Code as enacted by this act is contingent on an appropriation in the annual Budget Act. It is the intent of the Legislature that funds appropriated for the purposes of contracting for the development of tests pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 60810 of the Education Code shall constitute moneys applied by the state for the support of school districts for the purposes of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 937

An act to amend and renumber Section 44279.2 of, to amend the heading of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 44279.2) of Chapter 2 of Part 25 of, and to add Sections 44001.1, 44001.2, 44279.2, and 44279.7 to, the Education Code, relating to teacher credentialing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44001.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44001.1. "Commission" means the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

SEC. 2. Section 44001.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44001.2. "Superintendent" means the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

SEC. 3. The heading of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 44279.2) of Chapter 2 of Part 25 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Article 4.5. Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System

SEC. 4. Section 44279.2 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

44279.1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the beginning years of a teacher's career are a critical time in which it is necessary that intensive professional development and assessment occur. The Legislature recognizes that the public invests heavily in the preparation of prospective teachers, and that more than half of all new teachers leave some California school districts after one or two years in the classroom. Intensive professional development and assessment are necessary to build on the preparation that precedes initial certification, to transform academic preparation into practical success in the classroom, to retain greater numbers of capable beginning teachers, and to remove novices who show little promise as teachers. It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission and the superintendent develop and implement policies to govern the support and assessment of beginning teachers, as a condition for the professional certification of those teachers in the future.

(b) There is hereby established the California Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System, to be administered jointly by the commission and the superintendent. In administering the program, the commission and the superintendent shall approve the most cost-effective programs of support and assessment. The commission and the superintendent shall also ensure that programs meet the Standards of Quality and Effectiveness for Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment adopted by the commission in 1997 and that local programs support beginning teachers in meeting the competencies described in the California Standards for the Teaching Profession adopted by the commission in January 1997. The system shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide an effective transition into the teaching career for first-year and second-year teachers in California.

(2) Improve the educational performance of pupils through improved training, information, and assistance for new teachers.

(3) Enable beginning teachers to be effective in teaching pupils who are culturally, linguistically, and academically diverse.

(4) Ensure the professional success and retention of new teachers.

(5) Ensure that a support provider provides intensive individualized support and assistance to each participating beginning teacher.

(6) Improve the rigor and consistency of individual teacher performance assessments and the usefulness of assessment results to teachers and decisionmakers.

(7) Establish an effective, coherent system of performance assessments that are based on the California Standards for the Teaching Profession adopted by the commission in January 1997.

(8) Examine alternative ways in which the general public and the educational profession may be assured that new teachers who remain in teaching have attained acceptable levels of professional competence.

(9) Ensure that an individual induction plan is in place for each participating beginning teacher and is based on an ongoing assessment of the development of the beginning teacher.

(10) Ensure continuous program improvement through ongoing research, development, and evaluation.

(c) Participation in the program shall be voluntary for teachers, school districts, and county offices of education and participation by certificated employees shall not be made a condition of employment. The commission and the superintendent shall adopt and implement criteria and standards for participation in the program, including criteria regarding the eligibility of teachers and standards of local program quality and intensity for schools, school districts, county offices of education, colleges, universities, and other educational and professional organizations. The criteria and standards shall be consistent with the purposes of the program.

(d) For the purpose of this article, unless the context otherwise requires, “beginning teacher,” means a teacher with a valid California credential, as defined in Section 44259, or an intern participating in the program established pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 44380) of Chapter 2.5, who is serving in the first year or second year of service.

(e) For a beginning teacher who holds a professional clear teaching credential that is subject to the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 44277, participation in the program may, at the teacher’s discretion, serve as part or all of the individual program of professional growth.

(f) The superintendent and the commission shall disseminate the California Standards for the Teaching Profession adopted by the commission in January 1997 to colleges, universities, school districts, county offices of education, and professional associations, who shall be encouraged to use the standards in efforts to improve teacher preparation and support programs. Performance assessments developed under this article shall be designed to provide useful, helpful feedback to beginning teachers and their support providers. That information shall not be used for employment-related evaluations, as a condition of employment, or as a basis for terminating employment.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission and the superintendent establish a statewide teacher induction program that supports locally designed, high quality induction programs that provide individualized support and formative assessment for all participating beginning teachers as defined in subdivision (d). At the discretion of the local beginning teacher support and assessment system teacher induction program, funds allocated to a program on the basis of eligible beginning teachers may be used to provide support, assistance, and preparation services to other credential candidates who are in their first or second year of employment as a classroom teacher.

SEC. 5. Section 44279.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44279.2. (a) The superintendent and the commission shall jointly administer the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System pursuant to this chapter. In administering this section, the superintendent and the commission shall provide for or contract for all of the following:

(1) Establishment of requirements for reviewing and approving teacher induction programs.

(2) Development and administration of a system for ensuring teacher induction program quality and effectiveness. For the purposes of this section, “program effectiveness” means producing excellent program outcomes in relation to the purposes defined in subdivision (b) of Section 44279.1. For the purposes of this section,

"program quality" means excellence with respect to program factors, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Program goals.

(B) Design resources.

(C) Management, evaluation, and improvement of the program.

(D) School context and working conditions.

(E) Support and assessment services to each beginning teacher.

(3) Developing purposes and functions for reviewing and approving supplemental grants and standards for program clusters and program consultants, as defined pursuant to Section 44297.7.

(4) Improving and refining the formative assessment system.

(5) Improving and refining professional development materials and strategies for all personnel involved in implementing induction programs.

(6) Conducting and tracking research related to beginning teacher induction.

(7) Evaluating the effectiveness of the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System two years following full implementation and reporting the findings to the Legislature. An interim report shall be provided to the Legislature not later than January 1, 2000, if full funding has not been provided prior to that date. For the purpose of this section, "system effectiveness" means producing excellent system outcomes in relation to the purposes defined in subdivision (b) of Section 44279.

(8) Periodically evaluating the validity of the California Standards for the Teaching Profession adopted by the commission in January 1997 and the Standards of Quality and Effectiveness for Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment Program adopted by the commission in 1997 and making changes to those documents, as necessary.

(b) As part of the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System, the commission and the superintendent shall establish requirements for local teacher induction programs.

(c) A school district or consortium of school districts may apply to the superintendent for funding to establish a local teacher induction program pursuant to this section. From amounts appropriated for the purposes of this section, the superintendent shall allocate three thousand dollars ($3,000) for each beginning teacher participating in the program. Commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter that amount shall be adjusted by the inflation factor set forth in Section 42238.1. To be eligible to receive funding, a school district or consortium of school districts shall, at a minimum, meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Develop, implement, and evaluate teacher induction programs that meet the Quality and Effectiveness for Beginning Teacher Induction Program Standards adopted by the commission in 1997.

(2) Support beginning teachers in meeting the competencies described in the California Standards for the Teaching Profession, adopted by the commission in January 1997.

(3) Meet criteria for the cost-effective delivery of program services pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 44279.

(4) From amounts received for the Mentor Teacher Program pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 44490) of Chapter 2, or from other local, state, or resources available for the purposes of teacher induction programs, contribute not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the costs of each beginning teacher served in the induction program.

SEC. 6. Section 44279.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44279.7. (a) The superintendent and the commission shall award supplemental grants on a competitive basis to Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System teacher induction programs established pursuant to Section 44279.2 that are identified as having expertise according to criteria established by the superintendent and the commission. The supplemental grants received pursuant to this section shall be expended to assist clusters of teacher induction programs operated by school districts or consortiums of school districts.

(b) The superintendent and the commission shall designate each school district and consortium of school districts participating in the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment System established pursuant to Section 44279.2 as belonging to a cluster according to the criteria established pursuant to this subdivision. For the purposes of this section "cluster" means a cluster of school districts or consortium of school districts established pursuant this section. The superintendent and the commission shall establish criteria for the formation of school districts or consortiums of school district teacher induction program clusters based upon, but not necessarily be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Geographic proximity.

(2) Program size.

(3) The number of beginning teachers served.

(4) The similarity of teacher characteristics and pupil populations in each school district.

(c) School districts and consortiums of school districts awarded supplemental grants pursuant to this section shall identify a teacher induction program consultant to assist the school district or consortiums of school districts forming a cluster. The superintendent and the commission shall identify the purpose and functions of each consultant. Those purposes and functions shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, all the following:

(1) Assisting in designing, implementing, refining, and evaluating their teacher induction programs.

(2) Assisting in building the capacity to provide professional development for all personnel involved in the implementation of teacher inductions programs, including, but not limited to, beginning teachers, support providers, and administrators.

(3) Disseminating information on teacher induction programs to all interested participants within the cluster and collaborating with other consultants statewide and with state administrative agency staff to ensure ongoing program improvement.

(d) The superintendent and the commission shall ensure that each grant awarded pursuant to this section supports the salary and benefits and other related costs based on the prorated amount of time dedicated to this function for a consultant to assist each cluster.

SEC. 7. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the appropriation made for the administration of Section 44279.2 of the Education Code each fiscal year shall be made from funds that are not designated as meeting the state's minimum funding obligation under Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution (non-Proposition 98 funds), and shall amount to not more than 3 percent of the total amount appropriated for the purposes of that section. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commission on Teacher Credentialing each shall be entitled to expend 50 percent of the amount available for the state level administration of the program.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that amounts be appropriated in the annual Budget Act for the purposes of funding teacher induction program consultants to assist the clusters of school districts and consortium of school districts formed pursuant to Section 44279.7 of the Education Code in developing and administering new and existing programs pursuant to Sections 44279.1 and 44279.7 of the Education Code.

(c) The number of beginning teachers to be served by Section 44279.1 of the Education Code in each fiscal year shall be determined by data from the previous year's CBEDS reports submitted by school districts to the State Department of Education. For purposes of this subdivision, "CBEDS report" means the report transmitted by school districts to the State Department of Education for purposes of the California Basic Education Data System that exists within the department and is based upon a single annual collection of data about school staff and pupil enrollment conducted by the department for reporting, program management, and planning purposes.

(d) The Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall develop a funding plan for the purposes of this section, and report that plan to the Legislature.

(e) The amount appropriated for the purposes of subdivision (c) of Section 44279.2 of the Education Code shall be based on a grant amount of three thousand dollars ($3,000) for each beginning teacher participating in the program, as adjusted for cost of living.

(f) State funding for participation in the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment Program by teachers who are credentialed pursuant to Section 44259 of the Education Code is limited to two years, or until the teacher has met state expectations for successful completion of teacher induction developed jointly by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing and the superintendent, whichever occurs first.

(g) State funding for participation in the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment Program by interns who are participating in the program established pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 44380) of Chapter 2 of Part 25 of the Education Code is limited to one year, either during or after completion of the internship, or until the intern has met state expectations for successful completion of teacher induction developed jointly by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing and the superintendent, whichever occurs first.

(h) State funding shall not be provided for the Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment Program for teachers who previously were funded to participate in the program while also participating as interns in the program established pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 44380) of Chapter 2 of Part 25 of the Education Code.

For purposes of this section, space flight activities shall include civil or commercial space transportation systems, new or improved space infrastructure, related space support services, or any additional activities that the alliance deems consistent with this section. Entities conducting activities in California intended to enhance or promote space flight, including public, private, educational, commercial, nonprofit, or for-profit entities are eligible to apply for the California Space Flight Competitive Grants.

(1) To the extent authorized by the Internal Revenue Code, the alliance shall promote California Space Flight Competitive Grants. If funding is appropriated by the Legislature, the alliance shall, at least annually, issue requests for proposals.

(2) (A) The alliance shall develop a minimum baseline set of requirements and points a grant application must receive in order to be considered for funding. Requirements in addition to the minimum baseline set, which are consistent with the goals and objectives of this program, may be added or deleted from each year's grant solicitation.

(B) Any grant application meeting the minimum baseline set of requirements and points described in subparagraph (A) is automatically eligible for consideration in three subsequent grant year solicitations. The applicant is not required to resubmit a new grant application during this time, but, in future grant solicitations, may provide the review panel with any of the following:

(i) Additional information to enhance its current minimum baseline set of requirements and points.

(ii) Any additional information on the grant application that may be necessary to complete any new or existing requirements as provided for in subparagraph (A).

(C) The program shall award grants based upon a competitive application process, addressing, at a minimum, each project's eligibility, a review of the proposal's scientific and technological aspects, and the ability to fulfill the goals of the program.

(q) It is the intent of the Legislature that the following be considered in developing the minimum baseline set of requirements in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (p):

(1) Identification of all sources of funding for the entire project, which should include at least one of the following:

(D) Federal or local government funding.

(2) No substitution of other project funding by this grant.

(3) A demonstration that a majority of the project will be undertaken in California.

(4) Inclusion of one or more of the following in the project, each of which should have significant operations in the state:

(B) Foundations, industry associations, or nonprofit cooperative associations.

(5) An agreement among all project participants as to the intellectual property rights relative to the project.

(6) The potential impact on the state's economy.

(8) The importance of state funding for the viability of the project.

(9) Cost sharing by other project participants.

(r) In evaluating grant proposals, the alliance shall establish an impartial review panel comprised of technical and scientific experts and government representatives to review grant applications. The panel shall be composed of members from throughout the state who are knowledgeable about activities related to space flight. The panel membership shall be selected so as to afford representation of all parts of the state so far as it is practicable. No more than 30 percent of the panel members shall be government representatives, and all other members shall either be actively involved in industries related to space flight, or technical and scientific experts in activities related to space flight.

(1) The review panel shall review and evaluate California Space Flight Competitive Grant applications based on the grant solicitation

In making recommendations, the review panel shall apply the criteria and priorities as determined by the grant solicitation. The grant review shall include a determination as to whether the project is eligible, the application is complete, and the proposed use of funding is consistent with the requirements of the grant solicitation. The grant review shall also include a determination that there is no conflict of interest, and any other technical evaluation determined necessary.

(2) The review panel shall compile a final, consolidated list of grant applications ranked by the degree to which each meets the criteria described in the grant solicitation, and shall forward this list to the Secretary of Trade and Commerce for awarding of grant funding. The list may include the panel's recommendation as to the amount of state funding for each grant application, potential multiyear funding of a grant application which must be encumbered in a single fiscal year, or both.

(3) The Secretary of Trade and Commerce shall award grants, based on the review panel's final recommendation list, to applications receiving the highest ranking, unless the secretary finds that changes to the ranking are necessary due to noncompliance with the grant solicitation criteria or because they pose conflicts of interest. The Secretary of Trade and Commerce may overturn a recommendation by the review panel only if the secretary finds clear and convincing evidence to support that action. A report on the funding determination shall be transmitted to the Governor and the chairs of the Senate and Assembly fiscal committees.

(s) The alliance is not eligible to apply for grant funding under this section.

(t) The alliance may establish an advisory committee to provide input, evaluation, program funding recommendations, and other recommendations on the California Space Flight Competitive Grant Program. The committee may also provide recommendations on other space-flight related issues, as directed by the alliance. The committee membership may include representatives from local governments, industry, civic and research organizations, or the general public located in areas with active grant applications. The committee may also include members from throughout the state with an interest in space flight activities.

(u) Nothing in this section shall preclude the state from providing alternative funding allocations for space-related activities.

SEC. 3. Section 15333.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15333.4. (a) The Highway to Space Program is hereby established to promote the development of a commercial space transportation system based in California. Any entity conducting commercial space flight related activities in California may choose to participate in the Highway to Space Program.

(b) To the extent authorized by the Internal Revenue Code, the Western Commercial Space Center, a nonprofit corporation, shall be charged with promotion and coordination of entities choosing to participate in the Highway to Space Program.

(c) The Highway to Space Competitive Grant Program is hereby established to provide funding, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the development of activities in California related to commercial space infrastructure. For purposes of this section, commercial space infrastructure shall include civil or commercial space transportation systems, new or improved space infrastructure, related space support services, or any additional activities that the center deems consistent with these specifications. Entities conducting activities in California intended to enhance or promote commercial space infrastructure or space flight, including public, private, educational, commercial, nonprofit, or for-profit entities are eligible to apply for the Highway to Space Competitive Grants.

(1) To the extent authorized by the Internal Revenue Code, the center shall promote Highway to Space Competitive Grants. If funding is appropriated by the Legislature, the center shall, at least annually, issue requests for proposals.

(2) (A) The center shall develop a minimum baseline set of requirements and points a grant application must receive to be considered for funding. Requirements in addition to the minimum baseline set, which are consistent with the goals and objectives of this program, may be added or deleted from each year's grant solicitation.

(B) Any grant application meeting the minimum baseline set of requirements and points in paragraph (2) is automatically eligible for consideration in three subsequent grant year solicitations. The applicant is not required to resubmit a new grant application during this time, but may, in future grant solicitations, provide the review panel with any of the following:

(i) Additional information to enhance its current minimum baseline set of requirements and points.

(ii) Any additional information on the grant application that may be necessary to complete any new or existing requirements as provided for in subparagraph (A).

(C) The program shall award grants based upon a competitive application process, addressing, at a minimum, each project's eligibility, a review of the proposal's scientific and technological aspects, and the ability to fulfill the goals of the program.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the following be considered in developing the minimum baseline set of requirements in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c):

(1) Identification of all sources or funding for the entire project, which should include at least one of the following:

(A) A private sector company or companies.

(B) One or more foundations, industry associations, or nonprofit cooperative associations.

(C) Tangible or intangible in-kind support including staff, facilities, applied technology, or other, as defined further in the grant solicitation.

(D) Federal or local government funding.

(2) No substitution of other project funding by this grant.

(3) A demonstration that a majority of the project will be undertaken in California.

(4) Inclusion of one or more of the following in the project, each of which should have significant operations in the state:

(A) Private sector companies.

(B) Foundations, industry associations, or nonprofit cooperative associations.

(5) An agreement among all project participants as to the intellectual property rights relative to the project.

(6) The potential impact on the state's economy.

(7) The cost-effectiveness of the project.

(8) The importance of state funding for the viability of the project.

(9) Cost sharing by other project participants.

(e) In evaluating grant proposals, the center shall establish an impartial review panel comprised of technical and scientific experts and government representatives to review grant applications. The panel shall be composed of members from throughout the state who are knowledgeable of commercial space infrastructure, or related activities. The panel membership shall be selected so as to afford representation of all parts of the state so far as is practicable. No more than 30 percent of the panel members shall be government representatives, and all other members shall either be actively involved in industries related to space flight, or technical and scientific experts in activities related to space flight.

(1) The review panel shall review and evaluate Highway to Space Competitive Grant applications, based on the grant solicitation requirements. In accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), a point system shall be developed to evaluate the grant applications similar to those set forth in Sections 8450 and 15379.3. In making recommendations, the review panel shall apply the criteria and priorities, as determined by the grant solicitation. The grant review shall include a determination as to whether the project is eligible, the application is complete, and the proposed use of funding is consistent with the requirements of the grant solicitation. The grant review shall include a determination that there is no conflict of interest, and any other technical evaluation determined necessary.

(2) The review panel shall compile a final, consolidated list of grant applications ranked by the degree to which each meets the criteria described in the grant solicitation and shall forward this list to the Secretary of Trade and Commerce for awarding of grant funding. The list may include the panel's recommendation as to the amount of state funding for each grant application, potential multiyear funding of a grant application which must be encumbered in a single fiscal year, or both.

(3) The Secretary of Trade and Commerce shall award grants, based on the review panel's final recommendation list, to applications receiving the highest ranking, unless the secretary finds that changes to the ranking are necessary due to noncompliance with the grant solicitation criteria or because they pose conflicts of interest. The Secretary of Trade and Commerce may overturn a recommendation by the review panel only if the secretary finds clear and convincing evidence to support that action. A report on the funding determination shall be transmitted to the Governor and the chairs of the Senate and Assembly fiscal committees.

(f) The center is not eligible to apply for grant funding under this section.

(g) The Western Commercial Space Center shall be an official recipient of grants from federal, state, or local government or from private businesses or individuals, for Highway to Space Program activities, including, but not limited to, studies, services, infrastructure improvements and modernization, and defense transition programs, to the extent permitted by law. Any other entity legally eligible may also receive grant funds for these purposes.

(h) The Western Commercial Space Center acting as a corporation may not engage in or hold stock or any controlling interest in for-profit endeavors relating to space flight-related activities.

(i) The center may establish an advisory committee to provide input, evaluation, program funding recommendations, and other recommendations on the Highway to Space Competitive Grant Program. The committee may also provide recommendations on other space-flight related issues, as directed by the center. The committee membership may include representatives from local governments, industry, civic and research organizations, or the general public located in areas with active grant applications. The committee may also include members from throughout the state with an interest in space flight activities.

(j) Nothing in this section shall preclude the state from providing alternative funding allocations for space-related activities.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that, because of the unique circumstances applicable to San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara Counties with regard to space flight-related activities, a statute of general applicability cannot be enacted within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution. Therefore, this special statute is necessary.

CHAPTER 939

An act to amend Sections 24413 and 24415 of, to add Sections 22951.5, 22954.5, 24416, and 24417 to, and to repeal Section 24411.5 of, the Education Code, relating to retirement, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act may be known and cited as the Mrs. Ruth Q. de Prida Pension Protection Act.

SEC. 2. Section 22951.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22951.5. In addition to any other contributions required by this part, if the board determines that the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account will not have sufficient funds to make the maximum payment pursuant to Section 24417, the board may increase the employer contribution rate as provided in Section 24416.

SEC. 3. Section 22954.5 is added to the Education Code to read:

22954.5. For the 1998–99 fiscal year, the contributions required by Section 22954 shall be reduced by the total value of the state’s interest in the school lands from the sale of the Elk Hills Naval Petroleum Reserve. That sale is expected in February 1998.

SEC. 4. Section 24411.5 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 24413 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24413. Notwithstanding Section 24412, revenues from school lands or lieu lands related to the claim of the State of California to the school lands within the area referred to as the Elk Hills Naval Petroleum Reserve, shall be deposited in the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account.

SEC. 6. Section 24415 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24415. (a) The proceeds of the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 24414, be distributed annually in quarterly supplemental payments commencing on September 1, 1990, to retired members, disabled members, and beneficiaries. The amount available for distribution in any fiscal year shall not exceed the amount necessary to restore purchasing power up to 75 percent of the purchasing power of the initial monthly allowance after the application of all allowance increases authorized by this part, including those specified in Section 24412.

(b) The net revenues to be distributed shall be allocated among those retired members, disabled members, and beneficiaries whose allowances, after sequentially applying the annual improvement factor as defined in Sections 22140 and 22141, and the annual supplemental payment as defined in Section 24412, have the lowest purchasing power percentage. The purchasing power calculation for each individual shall be based on the change in the All Urban California Consumer Price Index between June of the calendar year of retirement and June of the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year of distribution. In any year in which the purchasing power of the allowances of all retired members, disabled members, and beneficiaries equals not less than 75 percent and additional funds remain from the allocation authorized by this section, those funds shall remain in the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account for allocation in future years.

(c) The allowance increase shall not be applicable to annuities payable from the accumulated annuity deposit contributions or the accumulated tax-sheltered annuity contributions.

(d) The benefits provided by subdivision (b) are not cumulative, not part of the base allowance, and will be payable only to the extent that funds are available from the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account. The board shall inform each recipient of the contents of this subdivision.

(e) The adjustments authorized by this section are not vested and shall not be included in the base allowance for purposes of calculating the annual improvement defined by Sections 22140 and 22141.

SEC. 7. Section 24416 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24416. (a) Beginning in the 1997–98 fiscal year, if the board determines by June 30 of the then current fiscal year that the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account will not have sufficient funds to provide purchasing power of up to 75 percent for the subsequent fiscal year, the board, for that year, may do either, or a combination of the following:

(1) Increase the employer contribution rate commencing in the next fiscal year by an amount that would provide sufficient funds for no more than the estimated difference between the funds in the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account and the amount needed to pay the benefit level specified by the board, provided the benefit level is no more than 75 percent. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the increase in the employer contribution rate shall only become operative if the increase is approved or authorized in the Budget Act.

(2) Reduce the supplemental benefit payment for the subsequent fiscal year to the amount which can be funded by the available funds in the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account.

(b) If the board finds that there is no unfunded obligation, as determined by the board's professional consulting actuary and affirmed by the Director of Finance, then in addition to the authority pursuant to subdivision (a), the board may transfer to an auxiliary Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account, from any funds that are in excess of the amount needed to fund fully the benefits for which the Teachers' Retirement Fund is liable, an amount that would provide sufficient funds for no more than the estimated difference between the funds in the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account and the amount needed to pay the benefit level specified by the board, provided the benefit level is no more than 75 percent.

(c) If the board increases the employer contribution rate pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the increase between the current fiscal year contribution rate and the contribution rate in the next fiscal year, shall not exceed one-quarter of 1 percent of the creditable compensation upon which contributions are based.

SEC. 8. Section 24417 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24417. (a) The proceeds of an auxiliary Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account shall be distributed annually in quarterly supplemental payments, commencing when funds in the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account are insufficient to support 75 percent, to retired members, disabled members, and beneficiaries. The amount available for distribution in any fiscal year shall not exceed the amount necessary to restore purchasing power up to 75 percent of the purchasing power of the initial monthly allowance after the application of all allowance increases authorized by this part, including those specified in Section 24412 and Section 24415.

(b) The net revenues to be distributed shall be allocated among those retired members, disabled members, and beneficiaries whose allowances, after sequentially applying the annual improvement factor as defined in Sections 22140 and 22141, and the annual supplemental payment as defined in Section 24412 and Section 24415, have the lowest purchasing power percentage. The purchasing power calculation for each individual shall be based on the change in the All Urban California Consumer Price Index between June of the calendar year of benefit effective date and June of the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year of distribution.

(c) The allowance increase shall not be applicable to annuities payable from the accumulated annuity deposit contributions or the accumulated tax-sheltered annuity contributions.

(d) The benefits provided by subdivision (b) are not cumulative, nor part of the base allowance, and will be payable only to the extent that funds are available from the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account and the auxiliary Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account. The board shall inform each recipient of the contents of this subdivision.

(e) The distributions authorized by this section are not vested and shall not be included in the base allowance for purposes of calculating the annual improvement defined by Section 22140 and 22141.

SEC. 9. It is the intent of the Legislature that no General Fund revenue, in excess of the funds specified in Section 22954, be transferred to the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account for the purpose of providing supplemental benefit payments.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that all payments from the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account include a notification that the payments from the account are not vested and may be reduced or terminated in the next year. The notification shall also indicate that no assumption should be made that payments from this account will continue.

CHAPTER 940

An act to amend Section 15031 of the Education Code, to amend Section 54902.5 of the Government Code, to amend Section 33674 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 51, 69.5, 75.10, 408, 434.5, 670, 673, 1603, 1605, and 38904 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 619 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15301 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15301. (a) Any school district or community college district that has a community facilities district formed pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, as set forth in Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, that has as one of its purposes the construction of school facilities within a portion of the territory of the school district or community college district, may proceed under this chapter.

(b) The boundaries of any school facilities improvement district formed pursuant to this chapter shall include all of the portion of the territory within the boundaries of the school district or community college district that is not located within the boundaries of the community facilities district as described in subdivision (a).

(c) A school district or community college district may proceed under this chapter without meeting the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) if the governing board of the school district or community college district determines that it is necessary and in the best interest of the school district or community college district, respectively, to form a school facilities improvement district pursuant to this chapter to finance any or all of the improvements set forth in Section 15302. As a part of that determination, the governing board of the school district or community college district shall make a finding that the overall cost of financing the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter would be less than the overall cost of other school facilities financing options available to the school district or community college district, including, but not limited to, issuing bonds pursuant to the Mello-Roos Communities Facilities Act of 1982

(Ch. 2.5 (commencing with Sec. 53311), Pt. 1, Div. 2, Title 5, Gov. C.). The governing board of the school district or community college district proceeding under this subdivision shall define the boundaries of the school facilities improvement district to include any portion of territory within the jurisdiction of the school district or community college district, except that the boundaries may not include all or a portion of the territory of the community facilities district described in subdivision (a).

(d) The governing body of a school district or community college district that proceeds under this chapter shall comply with the filing requirements established by Section 54902 of the Government Code. Any plat or map that is filed pursuant to this subdivision shall specifically identify any property, located within the school district or community college district, that is not located within the improvement district established by the school district or community college district pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 54902.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54902.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6103, the State Board of Equalization shall establish a schedule of fees for filing and processing the statements and maps or plats which are required to be filed with the board pursuant to Section 54902.

(1) The schedule shall not include any fee which exceeds the reasonably anticipated cost to the board of performing the work to which the fee relates, or an amount equal to 25 percent of the anticipated total tax revenue that will be collected by the city or district during the first full fiscal year, beginning on July 1, that the boundary changes are effective, as determined by the county auditor, whichever amount is less.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "anticipated total tax revenue" means the tax revenues that will be allocated to the city or district from all property located within the boundaries of the city or district, including the area affected by the boundary change.

(b) The city, district, or executive officer of a local agency formation commission, forwarding the statement to the tax or assessment levying authority for filing pursuant to Section 54900, shall accompany the statement with the necessary fee for transmittal to the board. However, with respect to a newly created city or district, no fee shall be required until the time that the city or district receives its first revenues.

SEC. 3. Section 33674 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33674. The portion of taxes mentioned in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 shall not be allocable and payable for the first time until the tax year which begins after the December 1st next following the transmittal of the documents as required in Section 33375 or Section 33457.

SEC. 4. Section 51 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

51. (a) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, for each lien date after the lien date in which the base year value is determined pursuant to Section 110.1, the taxable value of real property shall, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or (c), be the lesser of:

(1) Its base year value, compounded annually since the base year by an inflation factor, which shall be determined as follows:

(A) For any assessment year commencing prior to January 1, 1985, the inflation factor shall be the percentage change in the cost of living, as defined in Section 2212.

(B) For any assessment year commencing after January 1, 1985, and prior to January 1, 1998, the inflation factor shall be the percentage change, rounded to the nearest one-thousandth of 1 percent, from December of the prior fiscal year to December of the current fiscal year in the California Consumer Price Index for all items, as determined by the California Department of Industrial Relations.

(C) For any assessment year commencing on or after January 1, 1998, the inflation factor shall be the percentage change, rounded to the nearest one-thousandth of 1 percent, from October of the prior fiscal year to October of the current fiscal year in the California Consumer Price Index for all items, as determined by the California Department of Industrial Relations.

(D) In no event shall the percentage increase for any assessment year determined pursuant to subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) exceed 2 percent of the prior year's value.

(2) Its full cash value, as defined in Section 110, as of the lien date, taking into account reductions in value due to damage, destruction, depreciation, obsolescence, removal of property, or other factors causing a decline in value.

(b) If the real property was damaged or destroyed by disaster, misfortune, or calamity and the board of supervisors of the county in which the real property is located has not adopted an ordinance pursuant to Section 170, or any portion of the real property has been removed by voluntary action by the taxpayer, the taxable value of the property shall be the sum of the following:

(1) The lesser of its base year value of land determined under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or full cash value of land determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(2) The lesser of its base year value of improvements determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or the full cash value of improvements determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

The sum determined under this subdivision shall then become the base year value of the real property until that property is restored, repaired, or reconstructed or other provisions of law require establishment of a new base year value.

(c) If the real property was damaged or destroyed by disaster, misfortune or calamity and the board of supervisors in the county in which the real property is located has adopted an ordinance pursuant to Section 170, the taxable value of the real property shall be its assessed value as computed pursuant to Section 170.

(d) For purposes of this section, "real property" means that appraisal unit that persons in the marketplace commonly buy and sell as a unit, or that is normally valued separately.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the assessor to make an annual reappraisal of all assessable property. However, for each lien date after the first lien date for which the taxable value of property is reduced pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the value of that property shall be annually reappraised at its full cash value as defined in Section 110 until that value exceeds the value determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). In no event shall the assessor condition the implementation of the preceding sentence in any year upon the filing of an assessment appeal.

SEC. 5. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property that is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value that is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section, except that this paragraph shall not apply to any person who becomes severely and permanently disabled subsequent to being granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section for any person over the age of 55 years. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format that is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base year value of the mobilehome or the base year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land that does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph

(4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land that does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of the original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base year value determined in accordance with this section, Section 69, or Section

69.3 because the property qualifies under this section, Section 69, or Section 69.3 as a replacement dwelling or property.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form that the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty that identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property, and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base year value of the original property" means its base year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, "area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence" includes all land if any nonresidential uses of the property are only incidental to the use of the property as a residential site.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property. For purposes of this paragraph, "area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence" includes all land if any nonresidential uses of the property are only incidental to the use of the property as a residential site.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) “Claimant” means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) “Property that is eligible for the homeowner’s exemption” includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) “Consultation” means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) “Local affected agency” means any city, special district, school district, or community college district that receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) “Person” means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(14) “Severely and permanently disabled person” means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling’s new base year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) With respect to the transfer of base year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) or (4), shall apply to any replacement dwelling that is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling that is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings that are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(4) The amendments made to subdivision (e) by the act adding this paragraph shall apply only to replacement dwellings under Section 69 that are acquired or newly constructed on or after October 20, 1991, and shall apply commencing with the 1991–92 fiscal year.

(k) This section shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property that is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value that is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and that, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated that is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section, except that this paragraph shall not apply to any person who becomes severely and permanently disabled subsequent to being granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section for any person over the age of 55 years. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format that is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base year value of the mobilehome or the base year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land that does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land that does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership that either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base year value determined in accordance with this section, Section 69, or Section 69.3 because the property qualifies under this section, Section 69, or Section 69.3 as a replacement dwelling or property.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form that the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty that identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base year value of the original property" means its base year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, "area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence" includes all land if any nonresidential uses of the property are only incidental to the use of the property as a residential site.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and “land owned by the claimant” includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property. For purposes of this paragraph, “area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence” includes all land if any nonresidential uses of the property are only incidental to the use of the property as a residential site.

(5) “Equal or lesser value” means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the “replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed” is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) “Full cash value of the replacement dwelling” means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) “Full cash value of the original property” means its new base year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) “Sale” means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) “Claimant” means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property that is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property that is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(12) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes that were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount that would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) This section, except as provided in paragraph (2) or (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling that is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings that are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(3) The amendments made to subdivision (e) by the act adding this paragraph shall apply only to replacement dwellings under Section 69 that are acquired or newly constructed on or after October 20, 1991, and shall apply commencing with the 1991–92 fiscal year.

(k) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 7. Section 75.10 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

75.10. (a) Commencing with the 1983–84 assessment year and each assessment year thereafter, whenever a change in ownership occurs or new construction resulting from actual physical new construction on the site is completed, the assessor shall appraise the property changing ownership or the new construction at its full cash value (except as provided in Section 68 and subdivision (b) of this section) on the date the change in ownership occurs or the new construction is completed. The value so determined shall be the new base year value of the property or the new construction.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, "actual physical new construction" includes the removal of a structure from land. The new base year value of the remaining property (after the removal of the structure) shall be determined in the same manner as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 51.

(c) For purposes of this section, "actual physical new construction" includes the discovery of previously unknown reserves of oil or gas.

SEC. 8. Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) any information and records in the assessor's office that are not required by law to be kept or prepared by the assessor, and homeowners' exemption claims, are not public documents and shall not be open to public inspection. Property receiving the homeowners' exemption shall be clearly identified on the assessment roll. The assessor shall maintain records which shall be open to public inspection to identify those claimants who have been granted the homeowners' exemption.

(b) The assessor may provide any appraisal data in his or her possession to the assessor of any county.

The assessor shall disclose information, furnish abstracts, or permit access to all records in his or her office to law enforcement agencies, the county grand jury, the board of supervisors or their duly authorized agents, employees or representatives when conducting an investigation of the assessor's office pursuant to Section 25303 of the Government Code, the Controller, employees of the Controller for property tax postponement purposes, probate referees, employees of the Franchise Tax Board for tax administration purposes only, staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of Water Resources, and other duly authorized legislative or administrative bodies of the state pursuant to their authorization to examine the records. Whenever the assessor discloses information, furnishes abstracts, or permits access to records in his or her office to staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, or the Department of Water Resources pursuant to this section, the department shall reimburse the assessor for any costs incurred as a result thereof.

(c) Upon the request of the tax collector, the assessor shall disclose and provide to the tax collector information used in the preparation of that portion of the unsecured roll for which the taxes thereon are delinquent. The tax collector shall certify to the assessor that he or she needs the information requested for the enforcement of the tax lien in collecting those delinquent taxes. Information requested by the tax collector may include social security numbers, and the assessor shall recover from the tax collector his or her actual and reasonable costs for providing the information. The tax collector shall add the costs described in the preceding sentence to the assessee’s delinquent tax lien and collect those costs subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2922.

(d) The assessor shall, upon the request of an assessee or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy any market data in the assessor’s possession. For purposes of this subdivision, “market data” means any information in the assessor’s possession, whether or not required to be prepared or kept by him or her, relating to the sale of any property comparable to the property of the assessee, if the assessor bases his or her assessment of the assessee’s property, in whole or in part, on that comparable sale or sales. The assessor shall provide the names of the seller and buyer of each property on which the comparison is based, the location of that property, the date of the sale, and the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise. However, for purposes of providing market data, the assessor shall not display any document relating to the business affairs or property of another.

(e) (1) With respect to information, documents, and records, other than market data as defined in subdivision (d), the assessor shall, upon request of an assessee of property, or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy all information, documents, and records, including auditors’ narrations and workpapers, whether or not required to be kept or prepared by the assessor, relating to the appraisal and the assessment of the assessee’s property, and any penalties and interest thereon.

(2) After enrolling an assessment, the assessor shall respond to a written request for information supporting the assessment, including, but not limited to, any appraisal and other data requested by the assessee.

(3) Except as provided in Section 408.1, an assessee, or his or her designated representative, shall not be permitted to inspect or copy information and records that also relate to the property or business affairs of another, unless that disclosure is ordered by a competent court in a proceeding initiated by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the legality of the assessment of his or her property.

(f) (1) Permission for the inspection or copying requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be granted as soon as reasonably possible to the assessee or his or her designated representative.

(2) If the assessee, or his or her designated representative, requests the assessor to make copies of any of the requested records, the assessee shall reimburse the assessor for the reasonable costs incurred in reproducing and providing the copies.

(3) If the assessor fails to permit the inspection or copying of materials or information as requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the assessor introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessee or his or her representative may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of continuance.

SEC. 9. Section 434.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

434.5. (a) On March 1, 1984, for the Redwood Region and Pine-Mixed Conifer Region, and on January 1, 1985, for the Whitewood Subzone of the Redwood Region, and January 1 of each year thereafter, the value per acre of timberland zoned under the provisions of Section 51110 or Section 51113 of the Government Code shall be determined from the following schedule:

| Redwood Region | |
|---|---|
| Site I | $180 |
| Site II | $150 |
| Site III | $130 |
| Site IV | $114 |
| Site V (and inoperable) | $ 35 |

| Pine–Mixed Conifer Region | |
|---|---|
| Site I | $ 98 |
| Site II | $ 69 |
| Site III | $ 56 |
| Site IV | $ 39 |
| Site V (and inoperable) | $ 23 |

| Whitewood Subzone of the Redwood Region | |
|---|---|
| Site I | $130 |
| Site II | $ 95 |
| Site III | $ 80 |
| Site IV | $ 60 |
| Site V (and inoperable) | $ 30 |

For purposes of this section:

(1) “Redwood Region” means all those timberlands located in Del Norte, Humboldt, Sonoma, Marin, Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Mateo Counties and that portion of Mendocino County which lies west and south of the main Eel River.

(2) “Whitewood Subzone of the Redwood Region” means that timberland located within the Redwood Region within which the assessor has determined that redwood did not exist as a species in the composition of the original timber stand, or which has not been replanted with redwood for commercial purposes.

(3) “Pine-Mixed Conifer Region” means all other timberlands outside the Redwood Region.

When the assessor, pursuant to Section 434, designates a timberland parcel or portion thereof as inoperable, that timberland parcel or portion thereof shall be valued as if it is Site V.

(b) In 1985, the board shall determine the current value of timberland by the following process:

(1) For each fiscal year between July 1, 1979, and June 30, 1984, divide the total value of all timber harvested within the state, less miscellaneous forest products not reported by board foot volume, by the total volume of timber harvested, as reported pursuant to Section 38402. Average the five fiscal year values to obtain the five-year periodic immediate harvest value.

(2) For each fiscal year between July 1, 1978, and June 30, 1983, follow the same procedure as described in paragraph (1).

(3) Divide the value obtained by paragraph (1) by the value obtained by paragraph (2) to obtain the percentage change, rounded to the nearest one-tenth of 1 percent.

(4) Increase or decrease to the nearest dollar the full market values contained in subdivision (a) by one-half of the percentage change determined by paragraph (3).

(c) Beginning January 1, 1986, and each year thereafter, the board shall determine the current value of timberland using the same procedure as described in subdivision (b), except that this adjustment shall be made to the prior year’s adjusted values, and the five-year periodic immediate harvest values shall be successively one year more recent.

(d) The board shall certify the values determined pursuant to this section to the county assessors by November 30 of each year.

(e) The Legislature finds and declares that the foregoing values are consistent with the taxation of timberland used primarily for growing timber and that these values are consistent with the intent of subdivision (j) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution.

SEC. 10. Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

619. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (f), the assessor shall, upon or prior to completion of the local roll, either:

(1) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll whose property’s full value has increased of the assessed value of that property as it shall appear on the completed local roll; or

(2) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll, or each assessee on the local secured roll and each assessee on the unsecured roll, of the assessed value of his or her real property or of both his or her real and his or her personal property as it shall appear on the completed local roll.

(b) The information given by the assessor to the assessee pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) shall include a notification of hearings by the county board of equalization, which shall include the period during which assessment protests will be accepted and the place where they may be filed. The information shall also include an explanation of the stipulation procedure set forth in Section 1607 and the manner in which the assessee may request use of this procedure.

(c) The information shall also include the full value of the property.

(d) The information shall be furnished by the assessor to the assessee by regular United States mail directed to him or her at his or her latest address known to the assessor.

(e) Neither the failure of the assessee to receive the information nor the failure of the assessor to so inform the assessee shall in any way affect the validity of any assessment or the validity of any taxes levied pursuant thereto.

(f) This section shall not apply to annual increases in the valuation of property which reflect the inflation rate, not to exceed 2 percent, pursuant to the authority of subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, for purposes of property tax limitation determinations.

(g) This section does not apply to increases in assessed value caused solely by changes in the assessment ratio provided for in Section 401.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 10.5. Section 619 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

619. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (f), the assessor shall, upon or prior to completion of the local roll, do either of the following:

(1) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll whose property's full value has increased over its full value for the prior year of the assessed value of that property as it shall appear on the completed local roll.

(2) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll, or each assessee on the local secured roll and each assessee on the unsecured roll, of the assessed value of his or her real property or of both his or her real and his or her personal property as it shall appear on the completed local roll.

(b) The information given by the assessor to the assessee pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) shall include a notification of hearings by the county board of equalization, which shall include the period during which assessment protests will be accepted and the place where they may be filed. The information shall also include an explanation of the stipulation procedure set forth in Section 1607 and the manner in which the assessee may request use of this procedure.

(c) In the case of an increase in a property's full value that is determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 51 over the property's full value determined for the prior year in accordance with paragraph (2) of that same subdivision, the information shall also include the full cash value base of the property, compounded annually from the base year to the current year by the appropriate inflation factors.

(d) The information shall be furnished by the assessor to the assessee by regular United States mail directed to him or her at his or her latest address known to the assessor.

(e) Neither the failure of the assessee to receive the information nor the failure of the assessor to so inform the assessee shall in any way affect the validity of any assessment or the validity of any taxes levied pursuant thereto.

(f) This section shall not apply to annual increases in the valuation of property which reflect the inflation rate, not to exceed 2 percent, pursuant to the authority of subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, for purposes of property tax limitation determinations.

(g) This section does not apply to increases in assessed value caused solely by changes in the assessment ratio provided for in Section 401.

(h) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 11. Section 670 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

670. (a) No person shall perform the duties or exercise the authority of an appraiser for property tax purposes as an employee of the state, any county or city and county, unless he or she is the holder of a valid appraiser's or advanced appraiser's certificate issued by the State Board of Equalization.

(b) The board shall provide for the examination of applicants for these certificates and may contract with the State Personnel Board to give the examinations. Examinations shall be prepared by the board with the advice and assistance of a committee of five assessors selected by the State Association of County Assessors for this purpose. No certificate shall be issued to any person who has not attained a passing grade in the examination and demonstrated to the board that he or she is competent to perform the work of an appraiser as that competency is defined in regulations duly adopted by the board. However, any applicant for a certificate who is denied the same shall have a right to a review of that denial in accordance with the State Administrative Procedure Act contained in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(c) Passage of a civil service or merit system examination for appraiser given by the state, or any county or city and county, shall suffice to meet the requirements of this section. The scope of the examination shall be approved by the State Board of Equalization.

(d) No employee of the state, or any county or city and county shall perform the duties or exercise the authority of an auditor or an auditor-appraiser under Section 469 or Section 15624 of the Government Code, unless he or she holds a degree with a specialization in accounting from a recognized institution of higher education, or is a licensed accountant in the State of California, or has passed the state, or a county, or city and county, or city civil service or merit system examination regularly given for the position of accountant or auditor by the testing body, or holds the office of assessor.

(e) Except for persons holding the office of assessor, this section does not apply to elected officials.

(f) No charge shall be made to counties or to applicants for examinations and certifications under this section or for training conducted by the board under Section 671.

SEC. 12. Section 673 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

673. The State Board of Equalization may issue a temporary certificate to a person who is newly employed by the state, any county, city and county, or appraisal commission in order to afford the person the opportunity to apply for and take an examination the successful passage of which would qualify the person for an appraiser's certificate. A temporary certificate shall not be issued to exceed one year's duration and shall be issued only to a person who has demonstrated eligibility to take a civil service examination pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 670, or who is found by the board to possess qualifications by reason of education and experience so that he or she may be reasonably expected to be competent to perform the work of an appraiser, or who has been duly elected or appointed to the office of assessor. A temporary certificate shall not be renewed.

SEC. 13. Section 1603 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1603. (a) A reduction in an assessment on the local roll shall not be made unless the party affected or his or her agent makes and files with the county board a verified, written application showing the facts claimed to require the reduction and the applicant's opinion of the full value of the property. The form for the application shall be prescribed by the State Board of Equalization.

(b) (1) The application shall be filed within the time period beginning July 2 and continuing through and including September 15. An application that is mailed and postmarked September 15 or earlier within that period shall be deemed to have been filed within the time period beginning July 2 and continuing through and including September 15.

(2) If September 15 falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, an application that is mailed and postmarked on the next business day shall be deemed to have been filed within "the time period beginning July 2 and continuing through and including September 15." If on the dates specified in this paragraph, the county's offices are closed for business prior to 5 p.m. or for that entire day, that day shall be considered a legal holiday for purposes of this section.

(3) If the taxpayer does not receive the notice of assessment described in Section 619 at least 15 calendar days prior to the deadline to file the application described in this subdivision, the party affected, or his or her agent, may file an application within 60 days of receipt of the notice of assessment or within 60 days of the mailing of the tax bill, whichever is earlier, along with an affidavit declaring under penalty of perjury that the notice was not timely received.

(c) However, the application may be filed within 12 months following the month in which the assessee is notified of the assessment, if the party affected or his or her agent and the assessor stipulate that there is an error in the assessment as the result of the exercise of the assessor's judgment in determining the full cash value of the property and a written stipulation as to the full cash value and assessed value is filed in accordance with Section 1607.

(d) In the form provided for making application pursuant to this section, there shall be a notice that written findings of facts of the local equalization hearing will be available upon written request at the requester's expense and, if not so requested, the right to the written findings is waived. The form shall provide appropriate space for the applicant to request written findings of facts as provided by Section 1611.5.

SEC. 14. Section 1605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1605. (a) An assessment made outside of the regular assessment period is not effective for any purpose, including its review, equalization and adjustment by the county board, until the assessee has been notified thereof personally or by United States mail at the assessee's address as contained in the official records of the county assessor. Receipt by the assessee of a tax bill based on that assessment shall suffice as the notice.

(b) Upon application for reduction pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1603, the assessment shall be subject to review, equalization and adjustment by the county board. The application shall be filed with the clerk no later than 60 days after the date on which the assessee was notified. For counties of the first class, the application shall be filed within 60 days of the date of the mailing of the tax bill. However, an application for reduction in a supplemental assessment may be filed within 12 months following the month in which the assessee is notified of that assessment, if the party affected or his or her agent and the assessor stipulate that there is an error in the assessment as the result of the exercise of the assessor's judgment in determining the full cash value of the property and a written stipulation as to the full cash value and assessed value of the property is filed in accordance with Section 1607.

(c) The board of supervisors of any county may by resolution require that the application for reduction pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1603 be filed with the clerk no later than 60 days after the date of the mailing of the tax bill.

(d) In counties where assessment appeals boards have not been created and are not in existence, at any regular meeting, the board of supervisors, on the request of the assessor or any taxpayer, shall sit as the county board to equalize any assessments made by the assessor outside the regular assessment period for those assessments. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in any county in which assessment appeals boards have been created and are in existence, the time for equalization of assessments made outside the regular assessment period for those assessments, including assessments made pursuant to Sections 501, 503, 504, and 531 shall be prescribed by rules adopted by the board of supervisors.

(e) If an audit of the books and records of any profession, trade, or business pursuant to Section 469 discloses property subject to an escaped assessment for any year, then the original assessment of all property of the assessee at the location of the profession, trade, or business for that year shall be subject to review, equalization and adjustment by the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board pursuant to this chapter, except in those instances when that property had previously been equalized for the year in question by the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board. The application shall be filed with the clerk no later than 60 days after the date on which the assessee was notified. Receipt by the assessee of a tax bill based upon that assessment shall suffice as that notice.

(f) For purposes of subdivision (a), "regular assessment period" means January 1 to and including July 1 of the calendar year in which the assessment, other than escape assessments, should have been enrolled if it had been timely made.

SEC. 15. Section 38904 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

38904. The money in the Timber Tax Fund is appropriated as follows:

(a) To reimburse the General Fund for funds advanced for costs incurred by the board in administration of this part as follows:

(1) Four hundred sixty-seven thousand nine hundred thirty dollars ($467,930) for fiscal years 1975–76 and 1976–77.

(2) Amounts identified and approved in subsequent fiscal years as approved in the Budget Bill. One-half of this amount shall be reimbursed to the General Fund between November 1 and November 10, and the remaining one-half between May 1 and May 10. In the event that not all funds approved in the Budget Bill are actually expended by the board, then in the succeeding fiscal year, the amount to be reimbursed to the General Fund between November 1 and November 10 shall be reduced by an amount equal to the unexpended appropriation of the preceding fiscal year.

(b) To reimburse the General Fund for funds advanced for costs incurred by the State Forester in administration of Section 4582.8 of the Public Resources Code as follows:

(1) Thirteen thousand five hundred dollars ($13,500) for fiscal years 1975–76 and 1976–77.

(2) Amounts identified and approved in subsequent fiscal years as approved in the Budget Bill.

(c) To the Controller to allocate pursuant to Sections 38905 and 38905.1.

(d) To pay refunds authorized by this part of taxes imposed pursuant to Section 38115 and interest, penalties, and other amounts paid or collected pursuant to this part and deposited in the Timber Tax Fund.

SEC. 16. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that Section 10 of this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

63.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a change in ownership shall not include the following purchases or transfers for which a claim is filed pursuant to this section:

(1) The purchase or transfer of real property which is the principal residence of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(2) The purchase or transfer of the first one million dollars ($1,000,000) of full cash value of all other real property of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(3) (A) Subject to subparagraph (B), the purchase or transfer of real property described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) occurring on or after March 27, 1996, between grandparents and their grandchild or grandchildren, if all of the parents of that grandchild or those grandchildren, who qualify as the children of the grandparents, are deceased as of the date of purchase or transfer.

(B) A purchase or transfer of a principal residence shall not be excluded pursuant to subparagraph (A) if the transferee grandchild or grandchildren also received a principal residence, or interest therein, through another purchase or transfer that was excludable pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The full cash value of any real property, other than a principal residence, that was transferred to the grandchild or grandchildren pursuant to a purchase or transfer that was excludable pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and the full cash value of a principal residence that fails to qualify for exclusion as a result of the preceding sentence shall be included in applying, for purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the one million dollar ($1,000,000) full cash value limit specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), "principal residence" means a dwelling for which a homeowners' exemption or a disabled veterans' residence exemption has been granted in the name of the eligible transferor. "Principal residence" includes only that portion of the land underlying the principal residence that consists of an area of reasonable size that is used as a site for the residence.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusion shall apply separately to each eligible transferor with respect to all purchases by and transfers to eligible transferees on and after November 6, 1986, of real property, other than the principal residence, of that eligible transferor. The exclusion shall not apply to any property in which the eligible transferor's interest was received through a transfer, or transfers, excluded from change in ownership by the provisions of either subdivision (f) of Section 62 or subdivision (b) of Section 65, unless the transferor qualifies as an original transferor under subdivision (b) of Section 65. In the case of any purchase or transfer subject to this paragraph involving two or more eligible transferors, the transferors may elect to combine their separate one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusions and, upon making that election, the combined amount of their separate exclusions shall apply to any property jointly sold or transferred by the electing transferors, provided that in no case shall the amount of full cash value of real property of any one eligible transferor excluded under this election exceed the amount of the transferor's separate unused exclusion on the date of the joint sale or transfer.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) “Purchase or transfer between parents and their children” means either a transfer from a parent or parents to a child or children of the parent or parents or a transfer from a child or children to a parent or parents of the child or children. For purposes of this section, the date of any transfer between parents and their children under a will or intestate succession shall be the date of the decedent’s death, if the decedent died on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) “Purchase or transfer of real property between grandparents and their grandchild or grandchildren” means a purchase or transfer on or after March 27, 1996, from a grandparent or grandparents to a grandchild or grandchildren if all of the parents of that grandchild or those grandchildren who qualify as the children of the grandparents are deceased as of the date of the transfer. For purposes of this section, the date of any transfer between grandparents and their grandchildren under a will or by intestate succession shall be the date of the decedent’s death.

(3) “Children” means any of the following:

(A) Any child born of the parent or parents, except a child, as defined in subparagraph (D), who has been adopted by another person or persons.

(B) Any stepchild of the parent or parents and the spouse of that stepchild while the relationship of stepparent and stepchild exists. For purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of stepparent and stepchild shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce, or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving stepparent.

(C) Any son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the parent or parents. For the purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of parent and son-in-law or daughter-in-law shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

(D) Any child adopted by the parent or parents pursuant to statute, other than an individual adopted after reaching the age of 18 years.

(4) “Grandchild” or “grandchildren” means any child or children of the child or children of the grandparent or grandparents.

(5) “Full cash value” means full cash value, as defined in Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, with any adjustments authorized by those sections, and the full value of any new construction in progress, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date of a purchase by or transfer to an eligible transferee of real property subject to this section.

(6) “Eligible transferor” means a grandparent, parent, or child of an eligible transferee.

(7) “Eligible transferee” means a parent, child, or grandchild of an eligible transferor.

(8) “Real property” means real property as defined in Section 104. Real property does not include any interest in a legal entity.

(9) “Transfer” includes, and is not limited to, any transfer of the present beneficial ownership of property from an eligible transferor to an eligible transferee through the medium of an inter vivos or testamentary trust.

(10) “Social security number” also includes a taxpayer identification number issued by the Internal Revenue Service in the case in which the taxpayer is a foreign national who cannot obtain a social security number.

(d) (1) The exclusions provided for in subdivision (a) shall not be allowed unless the eligible transferee, the transferee’s legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferee’s estate files a claim with the assessor for the exclusion sought and furnishes to the assessor each of the following:

(A) A written certification by the transferee, the transferee’s legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferee’s estate made under penalty of perjury that the transferee is a grandparent, parent, child, or grandchild of the transferor. In the case of a grandparent-grandchild transfer, the written certification shall also include a certification that all the parents of the grandchild or grandchildren who qualify as children of the grandparents were deceased as of the date of the purchase or transfer and that the grandchild or grandchildren did or did not receive a principal residence excludable under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) from the deceased parents, and that the grandchild or grandchildren did or did not receive real property other than a principal residence excludable under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) from the deceased parents. The claimant shall provide legal substantiation of any matter certified pursuant to this subparagraph at the request of the county assessor.

(B) A copy of a written certification by the transferor, the transferor’s legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferor’s estate made under penalty of perjury that the transferor is a grandparent, parent, or child of the transferee. The written certification shall also include either or both of the following:

(i) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of residential real property, a certification that the residential real property is or is not the transferor’s principal residence.

(ii) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of real property other than the transferor’s principal residence, a certification that other real property of the transferor that is subject to this section has or has not been previously sold or transferred to an eligible transferee, the total amount of full cash value, as defined in subdivision (c), of any real property subject to this section that has been previously sold or transferred by that transferor to eligible transferees, the location of that real property, the social security number of each eligible transferor, and the names of the eligible transferees of that property.

(2) If the full cash value of the real property purchased by or transferred to the transferee exceeds the permissible exclusion of the transferor or the combined permissible exclusion of the transferors, in the case of a purchase or transfer from two or more joint transferors, taking into account any previous purchases by or transfers to an eligible transferee from the same transferor or transferors, the transferee shall specify in his or her claim the amount and the allocation of the exclusion he or she is seeking. Within any appraisal unit, as determined in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 51 by the assessor of the county in which the real property is located, the exclusion shall be applied only on a pro rata basis, however, and shall not be applied to a selected portion or portions of the appraisal unit.

(e) (1) The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility. Except as provided in paragraph (2), any claim under this section shall be filed:

(A) For transfers of real property between parents and their children occurring prior to September 30, 1990, within three years after the date of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed.

(B) For transfers of real property between parents and their children occurring on or after September 30, 1990, and for the purchase or transfer of real property between grandparents and their grandchildren occurring on or after March 27, 1996, within three years after the date of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed, or prior to transfer of the real property to a third party, whichever is earlier.

(C) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A) and (B), a claim shall be deemed to be timely filed if it is filed within six months after the date of mailing of a notice of supplemental or escape assessment, issued as a result of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed.

(2) In the case in which the real property subject to purchase or transfer has not been transferred to a third party, a claim for exclusion under this section that is filed subsequent to the expiration of the filing periods set forth in paragraph (1) shall be considered by the assessor, subject to all of the following conditions:

(A) Any exclusion granted pursuant to that claim shall apply commencing with the lien date of the assessment year in which the claim is filed.

(B) Under any exclusion granted pursuant to that claim, the adjusted full cash value of the subject real property in the assessment year described in subparagraph (A) shall be the adjusted base year value of the subject real property in the assessment year in which the excluded purchase or transfer took place, factored to the assessment year described in subparagraph (A) for both of the following:

(i) Inflation as annually determined in accordance with paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 51.

(ii) Any subsequent new construction occurring with respect to the subject real property.

(3) (A) Unless otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this subdivision shall apply to any purchase or transfer of real property that occurred on or after November 6, 1986.

(B) Paragraph (2) shall apply to purchases or transfers between parents and their children that occurred on or after November 6, 1986, and to purchases or transfers between grandparents and their grandchildren that occurred on or after March 27, 1996.

(f) The assessor shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization all purchases or transfers, other than purchases or transfers involving a principal residence, for which a claim for exclusion is made pursuant to subdivision (d). Each report shall contain the assessor's parcel number for each parcel for which the exclusion is claimed, the amount of each exclusion claimed, the social security number of each eligible transferor, and any other information the board shall require in order to monitor the one million dollar ($1,000,000) limitation in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(g) This section shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as conflicting with paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) or the general principle that transfers by reason of death occur at the time of death.

(h) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), this section shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property completed on or after November 6, 1986, and shall not be effective for any change in ownership, including a change in ownership arising on the date of a decedent's death, that occurred prior to that date.

(2) This section shall apply to purchases or transfers of real property between grandparents and their grandchildren occurring on or after March 27, 1996, and, with respect to purchases or transfers of real property between grandparents and their grandchildren, shall not be effective for any change in ownership, including a change in ownership arising on the date of a decedent's death, that occurred prior to that date.

SEC. 2. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 897 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property that is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value that is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with all of the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and that, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated that is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section, except that this paragraph shall not apply to any person who becomes severely and permanently disabled subsequent to being granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section for any person over the age of 55 years. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format that is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base year value of the mobilehome or the base year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land that does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land that does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership that either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base year value determined in accordance with this section, Section 69, or Section 69.3 because the property qualifies under this section, Section 69, or Section 69.3 as a replacement dwelling or property.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form that the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty that identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base year value of the original property" means its base year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, "area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence" includes all land if any nonresidential uses of the property are only incidental to the use of the property as a residential site.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property. For purposes of this paragraph, "area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence" includes all land if any nonresidential uses of the property are only incidental to the use of the property as a residential site.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property that is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property that is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(12) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes that were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount that would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) With respect to the transfer of base year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) or (4), shall apply to any replacement dwelling that is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, except as provided in paragraph (4), this section shall apply to any replacement dwelling that is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings that are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(4) The amendments made to subdivision (e) by the act adding this paragraph shall apply only to replacement dwellings under Section 69 that are acquired or newly constructed on or after October 20, 1991, and shall apply commencing with the 1991–92 fiscal year.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and by the act amending this section during the 1997–98 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 3. Section 255 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

255. (a) Affidavits required for exemptions named in this article, except the homeowners' exemption, shall be filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on February 15.

(b) Affidavits for the homeowners' exemption except as otherwise provided in Sections 255.1, 255.2, and 275, shall be filed with the assessor any time after the claimant becomes eligible but no later than 5 p.m. on February 15.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), any claimant who has been found ineligible for the church exemption or the religious exemption may file an affidavit for a welfare exemption. Affidavits for the welfare exemption filed pursuant to this subdivision shall be filed within 15 days from the date of notification by the assessor of the claimants' ineligibility for the church exemption or the religious exemption.

SEC. 4. Section 255.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

255.3. For the 1998–99 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the assessor shall on or before January 15 mail a claim form for the homeowners' exemption to a person acquiring title to, and recording his or her ownership of an eligible dwelling after the immediately preceding lien date and before the lien date of the calendar year of the claim. The failure of a person to receive a claim form shall not, however, excuse the person from timely filing of the required affidavit.

SEC. 5. Section 273 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

273. If a claimant for the veterans' exemption fails to file the affidavit required by Section 255 because he or she was in the military service of the United States and serving outside of the United States between the lien date and 5 o'clock p.m. on February 15 of any year, the veterans' exemption may be claimed pursuant to Section 252 or 253 without regard to the time limit specified in Section 255. If the veterans' exemption is claimed pursuant to the preceding sentence, any tax, or penalty or interest thereon for any fiscal year commencing during the calendar year in which the exemption is claimed, on property to the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000) owned by the person to whom the veterans' exemption was available for that fiscal year, shall be canceled or refunded.

SEC. 6. Section 273.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

273.5. (a) If a claimant for the veterans' exemption for the 1976–77 fiscal year or any year thereafter fails to file the required affidavit with the assessor by 5 p.m. on February 15 of the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins, but files that claim on or before the following December 10, an exemption of the lesser of three thousand two hundred dollars ($3,200) or 80 percent of the full value of the property shall be granted by the assessor.

(b) On those claims filed pursuant to subdivision (a) after November 15, this exemption may be applied to the second installment, and if applied to the second installment, the first installment will still become delinquent on December 10, and the delinquent penalty provided for in this division will attach if the tax amount due is not paid.

If this exemption is applied to the second installment and if both installments are paid on or before December 10, or if the reduction in taxes from this exemption exceeds the amount of taxes due on the second installment, a refund shall be made to the taxpayer upon a claim submitted by the taxpayer to the auditor.

SEC. 7. Section 275 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

275. (a) If a claimant for the homeowners' property tax exemption fails to file the required affidavit with the assessor by 5 p.m. on February 15 of the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins, but files that affidavit on or before the following December 10, an exemption of the lesser of five thousand six hundred dollars ($5,600) or 80 percent of the full value of the dwelling shall be granted by the assessor.

(b) On claims filed pursuant to subdivision (a) after November 15, this partial homeowners' exemption may be applied to the second installment, and if applied to the second installment, the first installment will still become delinquent on December 10 and the delinquent penalty provided for in this division will attach if the tax amount due is not paid.

If this partial homeowners' exemption is applied to the second installment and if both installments are paid on or before December 10 or if the reduction in taxes from this partial exemption exceeds the amount of taxes due on the second installment, a refund shall be made to the taxpayer upon a claim submitted by the taxpayer to the auditor.

SEC. 8. Section 275.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

275.5. If a person claiming classification of a vessel as a documented vessel eligible for assessment under Section 227 fails to file the affidavit required by Section 254 by 5 p.m. on February 1 of the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins, but files that affidavit on or before the following August 1, the assessment shall be reduced in a sum equal to 80 percent of the reduction that would have been allowed had the affidavit been timely filed.

SEC. 9. Section 276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

276. (a) A claimant for the disabled veterans' property tax exemption may qualify for a partial exemption if the claimant fails to file the required affidavit with the assessor by 5 p.m. on February 15 of the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins, but files the claim on or before the following December 10. Late-filed claims for the forty thousand dollar ($40,000) exemption provided in Section 205.5 shall receive the lesser of thirty-two thousand dollars ($32,000) or 80 percent of the full value of the dwelling. Late-filed claims for the sixty thousand dollar ($60,000) exemption provided in Section 205.5, when filed in conjunction with late-filed claims for the forty thousand dollar ($40,000) exemption, shall receive the lesser of forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000) or 80 percent of the full value of the dwelling. Late-filed claims for the sixty thousand dollar ($60,000) exemption, when filed in conjunction with timely filed claims for the forty thousand dollar ($40,000) exemption, shall receive the lesser of fifty-six thousand dollars ($56,000) or forty thousand dollars ($40,000) plus 80 percent of the full value of the dwelling over forty thousand dollars ($40,000). Late-filed claims for the one hundred thousand dollar ($100,000) exemption provided in Section 205.5 shall receive the lesser of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) or 80 percent of the full value of the dwelling. Commencing with the 1990–91 assessment year, late-filed claims for the one hundred fifty thousand dollar ($150,000) exemption, when filed in conjunction with timely filed claims for the one hundred thousand dollar ($100,000) exemption, shall receive the lesser of one hundred forty thousand dollars ($140,000) or one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) plus 80 percent of the full value of the dwelling over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(b) On those claims filed pursuant to subdivision (a) after November 15, this exemption may be applied to the second installment, and if applied to the second installment, the first installment will still become delinquent on December 10, and the delinquent penalty provided for in this division will attach if the tax amount due is not paid.

If this exemption is applied to the second installment and if both installments are paid on or before December 10, or if the reduction in taxes from this exemption exceeds the amount of taxes due on the second installment, a refund shall be made to the taxpayer upon a claim submitted by the taxpayer to the auditor.

SEC. 10. Section 401.13 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

401.13. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on or after January 1, 1998, the assessor shall determine the assessed value of pipelines and related rights-of-way that are located wholly within the county on the basis of a single, countywide parcel per taxpayer, and, to that end, shall combine the assessed value of each component or segment of those pipelines or rights-of-way. However, the assessor shall maintain a separate base year value for each of these components or segments.

SEC. 11. Section 430.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

430.5. No land shall be valued pursuant to this article unless an enforceable restriction meeting the requirements of Section 422 is signed, accepted, and recorded on or before the lien date for the fiscal year to which the valuation would apply. To provide counties and cities with time to meet the requirement of this section, the land that is to be subject to a contract shall have been included in a proposal to establish an agricultural preserve submitted to the planning commission or planning department, or the matter of accepting an open-space easement or scenic restriction shall have been referred to that commission or department on or before October 15 preceding the lien date to which the contract, easement or restriction is to apply.

SEC. 12. Section 1603 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1603. (a) A reduction in an assessment on the local roll shall not be made unless the party affected or his or her agent makes and files with the county board a verified, written application showing the facts claimed to require the reduction and the applicant's opinion of the full value of the property. ## CHAPTER 943

An act to add and repeal Section 56302 of the Government Code, relating to local government reorganization, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56302 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56302. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that nearly 35 years have passed since legislators last conducted a thorough investigation of the policies, practices, and statutes affecting the organization and boundaries of California's local agencies. That effort, which resulted in the enactment of the Knox-Nisbet Act, was the product of a careful study by the Commission on Metropolitan Area Problems, commissioned by Governor Edmund G. Brown, Sr. In the intervening decades, there have been fundamental, constitutional, demographic, economic, institutional, and political shifts in California and within the state's communities. The sustained interest in incorporating new cities, resistance to city annexations, problems in financing local agency facilities and services, and proposals to detach territory from existing cities demonstrate the need for the Legislature and the Governor to reevaluate the statutory policies and procedures that have guided California's communities for nearly 35 years. Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares the necessity for commissioning a careful study of local agency organization and boundaries, consistent with its constitutional duty pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XI of the California Constitution.

(b) There is created the Commission on Local Governance for the 21st Century which shall consist of 15 members. The Governor shall appoint nine members, the Assembly Committee on Rules shall appoint three members, and the Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint three members. Of the Governor's appointments, one shall be a city representative, one shall be a county representative, one shall be a special district representative, and one shall be a representative of local agency formation commissions. Each appointing authority shall endeavor to appoint members who reflect the geographic, ethnic, racial, gender, and cultural diversity of the state. Each appointing authority shall appoint members who have demonstrated an interest and have proven academic or professional ability in the fields of demography, urban economics, land use planning, public finance, and the legal aspects of local agency organization and boundaries.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 7550.5, on or before June 30, 1999, the commission shall report to the Legislature and the Governor regarding all of the following:

(1) A review of the current statutes, including, but not limited to, this division, regarding the policies, criteria, procedures, and precedents for city, county, and special district boundary changes.

(2) Proposals to add criteria to increase citizen and community participation in city, county, and special district governments.

(3) Proposals to ensure conformity with the requirements of federal law, including, but not limited to, the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1971).

(4) Recommendations for statutory changes, if any.

(d) The commission shall conduct public meetings to solicit the views and advice of the public, including elected and appointed officials, regarding city, county, and special district organization and boundaries.

(e) The commission shall select a chair and a vice chair from among its membership.

(f) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed their actual and necessary expenses for attending the meetings of the commission. The commission may authorize a payment of a per diem not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) to its members for each day while they are in attendance at meetings of the commission. The commission may appoint employees, including counsel, define their qualifications and duties, and provide for compensation for the performance of those duties. The commission may contract with any other public or private agency for any services necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. The cost of the quarters, equipment, supplies, and operating expenses incurred by the commission shall be paid from the appropriation made by the act which enacted this section.

(g) The commission shall remain in existence until January 1, 2000, and as of that date, this section is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, enacted on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends this section and the commission's existence.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund , for the 1997–98 fiscal year, to the Commission on Local Governance for the 21st Century created by this act to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11461 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11461. (a) For children placed in a licensed or approved family home with a capacity of six or less, or in an approved home of a relative or nonrelated legal guardian, the per child per month rates in the following schedule shall be in effect for the period July 1, 1989, through December 31, 1989:

| Age | Basic rate |
|---|---|
| 0–4 | $ 294 |
| 5–8 | 319 |

| 15–20 | 412 |

(b) (1) Any county that, as of October 1, 1989, has in effect a basic rate that is at the levels set forth in the schedule in subdivision (a), shall continue to receive state participation, as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 15200, at these levels.

(2) Any county that, as of October 1, 1989, has in effect a basic rate that exceeds a level set forth in the schedule in subdivision (a), shall continue to receive the same level of state participation as it received on October 1, 1989.

(c) The amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) Effective January 1, 1990, the amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be increased by 12 percent.

(2) Effective May 1, 1990, any county that did not increase the basic rate by 12 percent on January 1, 1990, shall do both of the following:

(B) Increase the basic rate, as adjusted pursuant to subparagraph (A) by an additional 5 percent.

(3) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), effective July 1, 1990, for the 1990–91 fiscal year, the amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be increased by an additional 5 percent.

(B) The rate increase required by subparagraph (A) shall not be applied to rates increased May 1, 1990, pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) Effective July 1, 1998, the amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be increased by 6 percent.

(5) The increase in the basic foster family home rate shall apply only to children placed in a licensed foster family home receiving the basic rate or in an approved home of a relative or nonrelated legal guardian receiving the basic rate. The increased rate shall not be used to compute the monthly amount that may be paid to licensed foster family agencies for the placement of children in certified foster homes.

(d) (1) Beginning with the 1991–92 fiscal year, the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be adjusted by the percentage changes in the California Necessities Index, computed pursuant to the methodology described in Section 11453, subject to the availability of funds.

(2) Any county that, as of the 1991–92 fiscal year, receives state participation for a basic rate that exceeds the amount set forth in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall receive an increase each year in state participation for that basic rate of one-half of the percentage adjustments specified in paragraph (1) until the difference between the county's adjusted state participation level for its basic rate and the adjusted schedule of basic rates is eliminated.

(3) If a county has, after receiving the adjustments specified in paragraph (2), a state participation level for a basic rate that is below the amount set forth in the adjusted schedule of basic rates for that fiscal year, the state participation level for that rate shall be further increased to the amount specified in the adjusted schedule of basic rates.

(e) (1) As used in this section, "specialized care increment" means an approved amount paid with state participation on behalf of an AFDC-FC child requiring specialized care to a home listed in subdivision (a) in addition to the basic rate. On the effective date of this section, the department shall continue and maintain the current ratesetting system for specialized care.

(2) Any county that, as of the effective date of this section, has in effect specialized care increments that have been approved by the department, shall continue to receive state participation for those payments.

(3) Any county that, as of the effective date of this section, has in effect specialized care increments that exceed the amounts that have been approved by the department, shall continue to receive the same level of state participation as it received on the effective date of this section.

(4) (A) Except for subparagraph (B), beginning January 1, 1990, specialized care increments shall be adjusted in accordance with the methodology for the schedule of basic rates described in subdivision (c). No county shall receive state participation for any increases in a specialized care increment which exceeds the adjustments made in accordance with this methodology.

(B) Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11460, for the 1993–94 fiscal year, an amount equal to 5 percent of the State Treasury appropriation for family homes shall be added to the total augmentation for the AFDC-FC program in order to provide incentives and assistance to counties in the area of specialized care. This appropriation shall be used, but not limited to, encouraging counties to implement or expand specialized care payment systems, to recruit and train foster parents for the placement of children with specialized care needs, and to develop county systems to encourage the placement of children in family homes. It is the intent of the Legislature that in the use of these funds, federal financial participation shall be claimed whenever possible.

(f) (1) As used in this section, “clothing allowance” means the amount paid with state participation in addition to the basic rate for the provision of additional clothing for an AFDC-FC child, including, but not limited to, an initial supply of clothing and school or other uniforms.

(2) Any county that, as of the effective date of this section, has in effect clothing allowances, shall continue to receive the same level as it received on the effective date of this section.

(3) Beginning January 1, 1990, clothing allowances shall be adjusted annually in accordance with the methodology for the schedule of basic rates described in subdivision (c). No county shall be reimbursed for any increases in clothing allowances which exceed the adjustments made in accordance with this methodology.

4986.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local government bonds.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53331.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53331.5. In addition to the other changes that may be made pursuant to this article, the legislative body may use the procedures of this article to gain authorization to accept bonds tendered in payment of special taxes or at a foreclosure sale pursuant to Sections 53344.1 and 53356.8.

SEC. 2. Section 53340 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53340. (a) After a community facilities district has been created and authorized to levy specified special taxes pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318), Article 3 (commencing with Section 53330), or Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 53339), the legislative body may, by ordinance, levy the special taxes at the rate and apportion them in the manner specified in the resolution adopted pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318), Article 3 (commencing with Section 53330), or Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 53339).

(b) The legislative body may provide, by resolution, for the levy of the special tax in the current tax year or future tax years at the same rate or at a lower rate than the rate provided by ordinance, if the resolution is adopted and a certified list of all parcels subject to the special tax levy including the amount of the tax to be levied on each parcel for the applicable tax year, is filed by the clerk or other official designated by the legislative body with the county auditor on or before the 10th day of August of that tax year. The clerk or other official designated by the legislative body may file the certified list after the 10th of August but not later than the 21st of August if the clerk or other official obtains prior written consent of the county auditor.

(c) Properties or entities of the state, federal, or other local governments shall, except as otherwise provided in Section 53317.3, be exempt from the special tax. No other properties or entities are exempt from the special tax unless the properties or entities are expressly exempted in the resolution of formation to establish a district adopted pursuant to Section 53325.1 or in a resolution of consideration to levy a new special tax or special taxes or to alter the rate or method of apportionment of an existing special tax as provided in Section 53334.

(d) The proceeds of any special tax may only be used to pay, in whole or part, the cost of providing public facilities, services, and incidental expenses pursuant to this chapter.

(e) The special tax shall be collected in the same manner as ordinary ad valorem property taxes are collected and shall be subject to the same penalties and the same procedure, sale, and lien priority in case of delinquency as is provided for ad valorem taxes, unless another procedure has been authorized in the resolution of formation establishing the district and adopted by the legislative body.

(f) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), the legislative body of the district may waive delinquency penalties and redemption penalties if it makes all of the following determinations:

(A) The waivers shall apply only to parcels delinquent at the time of the determination.

(B) The waivers shall be available only with respect to parcels for which all past due and currently due special taxes and all other costs due are paid in full within a limited period of time specified in the determination.

(C) The waivers shall be available only with respect to parcels sold or otherwise transferred to new owners unrelated to the owner responsible for the delinquency.

(D) The waivers are in the best interest of the debtholders.

(2) The charges with penalties to be waived shall be removed from the tax roll pursuant to Section 53356.2 and local administrative procedures, and any distributions made to the district prior to collection pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be repaid by the district prior to granting the waiver.

(g) The tax collector may collect the special tax at intervals as specified in the resolution of formation, including intervals different from the intervals at which the ordinary ad valorem property taxes are collected. The tax collector may deduct the reasonable administrative costs incurred in collecting the special tax.

(h) All special taxes levied by a community facilities district shall be secured by the lien imposed pursuant to Section 3115.5 of the Streets and Highways Code. This lien shall be a continuing lien and shall secure each levy of special taxes. The lien of the special tax shall continue in force and effect until the special tax obligation is prepaid, permanently satisfied, and canceled in accordance with Section 53344 or until the special tax ceases to be levied by the legislative body in the manner provided in Section 53330.5. If any portion of a parcel is encumbered by a lien pursuant to this chapter, the entirety of the parcel shall be encumbered by that lien.

SEC. 3. Section 53344.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53344.1. (a) The legislative body may provide in the resolution of intention or the resolution of consideration, and in documents setting forth the rights of the debtholders that it shall reserve to itself, the right and authority to allow any interested owner of property within the district, subject to the provisions of this section and to those conditions as it may impose, and any applicable prepayment penalties as prescribed in the bond indenture or comparable instrument or document, to tender to the district treasurer in full payment or part payment of any installment of the special taxes or the interest or penalties thereon which may be due or delinquent, but for which a bill has been received, any bond or other obligation secured thereby, the bond or other obligation to be taken at par and credit to be given for the accrued interest shown thereby computed to the date of tender. The district treasurer shall thereupon cancel the bond debt and shall cause proper credit therefor to be entered on the records of the district and in the office of the auditor and tax collector. If the legislative body agrees to allow bond tenders pursuant to this section or to Section 53356.8, the legislative body may, at its discretion, agree to distribute or direct its trustee or other agent to distribute by any means an offer to purchase bonds or other related inquiry to the holders of the bonds of the district, at the expense of the person requesting the mailing. Neither the legislative body, nor any of its officers, agents, or trustees shall be liable in any way for that distribution.

(b) The provisions of this subdivision apply to any tender of bonds pursuant to this section by an owner of property within the district who is delinquent in paying special taxes levied by this district when due. Bonds may be tendered pursuant to this subdivision only after all of the following conditions have been satisfied:

(1) The delinquent lot or parcel has been offered for sale as a result of a foreclosure judgment and the minimum price required to be paid for the lot or parcel was not received.

(2) The bonds to be tendered to the district were obtained by the property owner only after their prior owner was presented with a tender offer or solicitation as defined in this subdivision.

(A) For purposes of this subdivision, a "tender offer" or "solicitation" is a solicitation by any person or that person's agent by offering circular, memoranda, tender, or solicitation, or any other document or written, oral, or electronic communication for the purchase of the bonds from their then current owner. A person includes a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, association, or any other entity and a "tendering party" includes any person making a tender offer for bonds.

(B) Any tender offer or solicitation shall include all material information as required under federal and state securities laws and shall also include the following information, to the extent applicable:

(i) The name of the tendering party.

(ii) An individual who can be contacted to provide further information with respect to the tender.

(iii) The current holdings of bonds of the district by the tendering party and its affiliates.

(iv) The total face amount of the bonds being solicited.

(v) The price or method of determining the price per one thousand dollars ($1,000) in bonds being offered by the tendering party.

(vi) Whether the tendering party or any person affiliated with or related to the tendering party, or any employee, agent, or representative of the tendering party, is a property owner within the district that issued the bonds.

(vii) Whether the present intentions of the tendering party are to use the bonds for payment of special taxes or the purchase of property at a foreclosure sale pursuant to this section or Section 53356.8. This statement of present intentions shall not be construed to be binding on the tendering party.

(viii) The status of the bond redemption fund, construction fund, reserve fund, and any other funds of the district, and the special tax delinquency rate of the district, all of which data shall be the most recent available from the district and, in any event, shall apply to the state of the funds after the most recent payment of principal and interest on the bonds. The district shall provide the necessary data to the property owner within 10 days of receiving a written request and may charge a reasonable fee not to exceed its actual costs of providing the data. The district shall simultaneously release the same information to the general public. The property shall also provide the percentage of the delinquency attributable to the tendering party or any person affiliated with or related to the tendering party, or any employee, agent, or representative of the tendering party, for each of the three most recent fiscal years.

(ix) If the tendering party owns or leases property in the district that issued the bonds, the development plans for that property and an update on the current status of development of that property and of any zoning, planning, or other permits or approvals needed for development of the property to proceed.

(x) Any other material information available to the tendering party and not generally available to the public that would significantly affect the market value of the bonds of the district.

(C) The tendering party shall notify the legislative body of his or her intent to make a tender offer or solicitation at least simultaneously with making any offer or solicitation.

(D) The tendering party shall provide a copy of the solicitation to the Department of Corporations prior to five working days after notifying the legislative body pursuant to subparagraph (C).

(3) The tendering property owner provides the legislative body with a negative assurance from counsel representing the property owner that no misleading or other information has come to the opining party's attention after reasonable investigation, that would lead the party providing the negative assurance to believe that the tender was in violation of federal or state securities laws.

(4) The tendering property owner delivers to the legislative body of the district that issued the bonds subject to the tender, a certificate to the effect that the tender information is accurate in all material respects and does not omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements included in the tender information not misleading, except that the certificate need not provide any assurances as to the accuracy of the information as to the bond fund balances and tax payment information provided by the district.

(c) The provisions of this subdivision apply to any tender of bonds pursuant to this section by any owner of property within the district who is not delinquent in paying special taxes on any property within the district. A person subject to this subdivision shall be deemed to be a person whose relationship to the issuer may give him or her access, directly or indirectly, to material information about the issuer not generally available to the public, and the provisions of Section 25402 of the Corporations Code apply to any purchase or sale of securities by that person in connection with the tender transaction. For purposes of this subdivision, the "issuer" includes the district, the local agency that created the district, and any owner of property within the district. At any time prior to tendering bonds to the district pursuant to this section, any person subject to this subdivision shall deliver to the legislative body of the district a certificate that he or she has complied with this subdivision and applicable federal and state securities laws.

SEC. 4. Section 53344.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53344.2. (a) Each legislative body of a district may, subject to the provisions set forth below, declare a "special tax penalties amnesty program" on or before December 31, 1998.

(b) A special tax penalties amnesty program may be declared only after the legislative body makes the following findings at a public hearing for which notice has been provided pursuant to Section 6061 at least 20 days prior to the date of the hearing:

(1) That the total dollar amount of special tax delinquencies, not including delinquency penalties and redemption penalties, in the district has been equal to or greater than 10 percent of the total special tax levy in each of the two most recent tax years.

(2) At least one parcel within the district has been offered for sale at a legally noticed foreclosure proceeding conducted in accordance with this article and no minimum bids were received.

(3) The special tax penalties amnesty program may result in special taxes being paid for the benefit of the debtholders prior to when these taxes are likely to be recovered using available remedies.

(c) In addition to the notice required pursuant to subdivision (b), the legislative body shall provide notice of the hearing to the underwriter or underwriters of any bonds of the district by first-class mail at least 20 days before the date of the hearing.

(d) The special tax penalties amnesty program shall begin and end on a date certain and shall not extend for a period of more than 60 days.

(e) Notice of the special tax penalties amnesty program shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the area of the district at least 30 days prior to the special tax penalties amnesty deadline.

(f) The notice shall be mailed to all property owners at their address as it appears on the last secured roll at least 30 days prior to the beginning of the special tax penalties amnesty period.

(g) The notice required in subdivisions (e) and (f) above shall contain at a minimum the following:

(1) The name and telephone number of the person representing the district who may be contacted to determine the amount due on any parcel if paid in accordance with the program.

(2) The method and place of payment.

(3) The deadline for the program and for making the payment.

(4) A statement in bold print that this program expires on the payment deadline date and there will be no additional programs absent the authorization of the Legislature and the local legislative body.

(5) The percentage or maximum amount of penalties and interest that may be waived on any parcel.

(h) The special tax penalties amnesty program shall provide that upon payment of (1) all past due special taxes, (2) administrative costs including costs to remove the special taxes from the tax rolls, regular administrative costs, and fees associated with establishing and administering the special tax penalties amnesty program, and (3) fees and expenses of any foreclosure and sale proceedings, including the fees and expenses of foreclosure counsel, by the stated deadline the district shall waive some or all of the delinquency penalties and redemption penalties incurred with respect to those special taxes. The percentage or maximum amount of penalties and interest waived shall be in the legislative body's discretion. The charges with penalties to be waived shall be removed from the tax roll pursuant to Section 53356.2 and local administrative procedures, and any distributions made to the district prior to collection pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be repaid by the district prior to granting the waiver.

SEC. 4.5. Section 53356.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356.1. (a) As a cumulative remedy, if debt is outstanding, the legislative body may, not later than four years after the due date of the last installment of principal thereof, order that any delinquent special taxes levied in whole or in part for payment of the debt, together with any penalties, interest, and costs, be collected by an action brought in the superior court to foreclose the lien of special tax.

(b) The legislative body may, by resolution, adopted prior to the issuance of debt under this chapter covenant for the benefit of debt holders to commence and diligently pursue any foreclosure action regarding delinquent installments of any amount levied as a special tax for the payment of interest or principal of any bonds that are issued, and, at any time may assign the causes of action arising from the foreclosure to a trustee or joint powers authority to do so on behalf of the debtholders. The resolution may specify a deadline for commencement of the foreclosure action and any other terms and conditions the legislative body determines reasonable regarding the foreclosure action.

(c) Except as provided in Section 53356.6, all special taxes, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges that are delinquent at the time of the ordering of a foreclosure action shall be collected in the action. In the event that a lot or parcel of property has not been sold pursuant to judgment in the foreclosure action at the time that subsequent special taxes become delinquent, the court may include the subsequent special taxes, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges in the judgment or modified judgment.

(d) For purposes of financing delinquent special taxes pursuant to Section 26220 of the Government Code, the legislative body may act as if it were a board of supervisors.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no trustee or joint powers authority shall be obligated to accept the tender of bonds in satisfaction of any obligation arising from a delinquent special tax, although either may do so if authorized to do so by the legislative body.

(f) An action to determine the validity of any bonds issued, any joint powers agreement entered into, and any related agreements entered into, by a joint powers agency acting pursuant to this section may be brought by the joint powers agency pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any appeal from a judgment in the action shall be commenced within 30 days after entry of judgment.

SEC. 5. Section 53356.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356.5. (a) Any judgment shall decree the amount of the continuing lien against each parcel to be foreclosed, and shall order the parcel to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real property by process of the court except:

(1) Notwithstanding Section 701.545 of the Code of Civil Procedure, notice of sale of any lot or parcel included in the judgment may be given pursuant to Section 701.540 of the Code of Civil Procedure any time after the expiration of 20 days after the date notice of levy on the interest in real property was served on the judgment debtor or debtors, provided that the lot or parcel to be sold is not a dwelling for not more than four families and provided that all parties whose liens are extinguished by the foreclosure judgment were either defendants in the foreclosure action or, for those parties who acquired an interest in a lien on the parcel after the recording of notice of the pending foreclosure action, received constructive notice of the action.

(2) Whenever notice of sale may be given after the expiration of 20 days after the date notice of levy was served as provided in paragraph (1), the 30-day time period contained in subdivision (h) of Section 701.540 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be reduced to 10 days.

(3) Upon proof that the lot or parcel to be sold is not a dwelling for not more than four families, and upon determining that all parties whose liens are extinguished by the foreclosure judgment were either defendants in the foreclosure action or, for those parties who acquired an interest in a lien on the parcel after the recording of notice of the pending foreclosure action, received constructive notice of the action, pursuant to Section 716.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court shall order that paragraphs (1) and (2) apply to any judgment previously entered.

(4) The minimum bid amount provided in Section 53356.6 shall apply instead of subdivision (a) of Section 701.620 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(5) The local agency may bid at the price provided in Section 53356.6 by giving the levying officer a written receipt crediting all or part of the amount required to satisfy the judgment. If the local agency becomes the purchaser pursuant to bid, the local agency shall pay the amount of its credit bid into the redemption fund within 24 months of the date of the foreclosure sale.

(6) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 701.620 of the Code of Civil Procedure, if the minimum price required to be paid for a lot or parcel pursuant to Section 53356.6 is not obtained at a foreclosure sale, upon written request of the local agency, the levying officer shall retain the writ of sale and, provided that the writ of sale has not been returned to the court pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 699.560 of the Code of Civil Procedure, give notice of sale pursuant to Section 701.540 of the Code of Civil Procedure without relevying on the property.

(7) As provided elsewhere in this chapter.

(b) The judgment amount shall include reasonable attorneys' fees to be fixed by the court, together with interest, penalties, and other authorized charges and costs (all calculated up to date of judgment).

(c) The foreclosure action shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this chapter, and also where not in conflict with this chapter, by other provisions of law generally applicable to foreclosure actions.

SEC. 6. Section 53356.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53356.8. Provided the legislative body permits bonds or debt to be tendered for special taxes and the penalties and interest thereon pursuant to Section 53344.1, if the highest bid for a lot or parcel sold pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure and order of sale exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000) and the highest bidder elects to treat the sale as a credit transaction pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 701.590 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the balance due as provided in that section may be paid in full or in part by tender of bonds or debt, provided, however, that bonds or debt may not be tendered for costs of foreclosure, including attorney's fees, and administrative charges incurred by the local agency with respect to removing the special taxes from the rolls of the treasurer or tax collector, or other administrative charges.

(a) Tender of bonds or debt shall be made to the local agency within seven days of the date of the sale. The local agency shall be charged with authenticating the tender and shall, within 10 days of the date of the sale, submit a written receipt to the levying officer who conducted the sale for the amount of the bond or debt tender accepted by it.

(b) Tender of cash or certified check or cashier's check shall be made to the levying officer within 10 days of the date of the sale.

(c) The levying officer shall total the cash, certified checks and cashier's checks, and any agency written receipts for bonds or debt to determine if the amount of the bid, plus accruing costs and interests, has been paid. In no event shall the tendering party be entitled to receive cash or other compensation in return for all or any part of the value of a tendered bond or bonds, except for recognition of their value in satisfying the amount bid.

(d) The tendering party shall comply with the provisions of Section 53344.1, as applicable as if they were fully set out in this section.

SEC. 7. Section 53359.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53359.5. (a) The legislative body shall, no later than 30 days prior to the sale of any bonds pursuant to this article, give written notice of the proposed sale to the California Debt and Investment Advisory Commission by mail, postage prepaid, as required by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 8855) of Division 1 of Title 2.

(b) On and after January 1, 1993, each year after the sale of any bonds, including refunding bonds, pursuant to this article, and until the final maturity of the bonds, the legislative body shall, not later than October 30 of each year, supply the following information to the California Debt and Investment Advisory Commission by mail, postage prepaid:

(1) The principal amount of bonds outstanding.

(2) The balance in the bond reserve fund.

(3) The balance in the capitalized interest fund, if any.

(4) The number of parcels which are delinquent with respect to their special tax payments, the amount that each parcel is delinquent, the length of time that each has been delinquent, and when foreclosure was commenced for each delinquent parcel.

(5) The balance in any construction funds.

(6) The assessed value of all parcels subject to special tax to repay the bonds as shown on the most recent equalized roll.

(c) In addition, with respect to any bonds sold pursuant to this article, regardless when sold, and until the final maturity of the bonds, the legislative body shall notify the California Debt and Investment Advisory Commission by mail, postage prepaid, within 10 days if any of the following events occur:

(1) The local agency or its trustee fails to pay principal and interest due on any scheduled payment date.

(2) Funds are withdrawn from a reserve fund to pay principal and interest on the bonds beyond levels set by the California Debt and Investment Advisory Commission.

(d) Neither the legislative body nor the California Debt and Investment Advisory Commission shall be liable for any inadvertent error in reporting the information required by this section.

SEC. 8. Section 8830 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8830. (a) As a cumulative remedy, if any assessment or reassessment or installment thereof, or of any interest thereon, together with any penalties, costs, fees, and other charges accruing under applicable taxation provisions are not paid when due, the legislative body may order that the same be collected by an action brought in the superior court to foreclose the lien thereof as provided by this part.

(b) The legislative body may, by resolution adopted prior to issuance of bonds under this division, covenant for the benefit of bondholders to commence and diligently prosecute any foreclosure action regarding delinquent installments of any assessments or reassessments which secure the bonds that are to be issued, and, at any time, may assign the causes of action arising from the foreclosure to a trustee to do so on behalf of the bondholders. The resolution may specify a deadline for commencement of the foreclosure action and other terms and conditions as the legislative body may determine to be reasonable regarding the foreclosure action.

(c) Except as provided in Section 8836, all installments, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges that are delinquent at the time of the ordering of a foreclosure action shall be collected in the action. If a lot or parcel of property has not been sold pursuant to judgment in the foreclosure action at the time that subsequent installments and interest become delinquent, the court may include the subsequent installments, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges in the judgment or modified judgment.

(d) For purposes of financing delinquent assessments pursuant to Section 26220, the legislative body may act as if it were a board of supervisors.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no trustee or joint powers authority shall be obligated to accept the tender of bonds in satisfaction of any obligation arising from a delinquent assessment, although either may do so if authorized to do so by the legislative body.

(f) An action to determine the validity of any bonds issued, any joint powers agreement entered into, and any related agreements entered into, by a joint powers agency acting pursuant to this section may be brought by the joint powers agency pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any appeal from a judgment in the action shall be commenced within 30 days after entry of judgment.

SEC. 9. Section 8832 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8832. (a) The court shall have the power to adjudge and decree a lien against the lot or parcel of property covered by the assessment or reassessment for the amount of the judgment and to order the premises to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real property by the process of the court except:

(1) Notwithstanding Section 701.545 of the Code of Civil Procedure, notice of sale of any lot or parcel included in the judgment may be given pursuant to Section 701.540 of the Code of Civil Procedure any time after the expiration of 20 days after the date notice of levy on the interest in real property was served on the judgment debtor or debtors, provided that the lot or parcel to be sold is not a dwelling for not more than four families.

(2) Whenever notice of sale may be given after the expiration of 20 days after the date notice of levy was served as provided in paragraph (1), the 30-day time period contained in subdivision (h) of Section 701.540 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be reduced to 10 days.

(3) Upon proof that the lot or parcel to be sold is not a dwelling for not more than four families, pursuant to Section 716.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court shall order that paragraphs (1) and (2) apply to any judgment previously entered.

(4) Subdivision (b) of this section shall apply instead of subdivision (a) of Section 701.620 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(5) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 701.620 of the Code of Civil Procedure, if the minimum price required to be paid for a lot or parcel pursuant to subdivision (b) is not obtained at a foreclosure sale, upon written request of the city, the levying officer shall retain the writ of sale and, provided that the writ of sale has not been returned to the court pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 699.560 of the Code of Civil Procedure, give notice of sale pursuant to Section 701.540 of the Code of Civil Procedure without relevying on the property.

(6) As provided elsewhere in this division.

(b) Except as provided in Section 8836, the lot or parcel may not be sold unless the amount to be paid pursuant to the bid equals or exceeds the sum of all of the following amounts:

(1) The amount of the judgment with costs and interest thereon.

(2) Costs and interest on the judgment accruing after issuance of the writ pursuant to which the sale is conducted.

(3) The levying officer's costs.

(4) Any other amounts which are required by law to be bid in order that the lot or parcel may be sold.

(c) The city may bid at the price provided for by subdivision (b) by giving the levying officer a written receipt crediting all or part of the amount required to satisfy the judgment, except that the city shall pay all of the following amounts in cash or by certified or cashier's check:

(1) The levying officer's costs remaining unsatisfied.

(2) The amount of any preferred labor claims.

(3) Exempt proceeds.

(4) Any other claim that is required by law to be satisfied.

(d) If the city becomes the purchaser pursuant to bid as provided for by subdivision (c), the city shall pay the amount that is required to satisfy the judgment into the redemption fund within 24 months of the date of the foreclosure sale. From the amount that the city is required to pay into the redemption fund, the city shall reimburse the special reserve fund, if any, the amount, if any, of funds advanced from the special reserve fund to the redemption fund to cover delinquent installments of the assessment or reassessment and interest with respect to the lot or parcel of property which is sold. To the extent that the city has advanced funds other than, or in addition to, funds from a special reserve fund and the funds are included in the judgment, the obligation of the city to pay into the redemption fund is reduced by a corresponding amount.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), the city is not required to pay into the redemption fund any amount that exceeds in the aggregate the sum of all of the following:

(1) The amount required to bring current delinquent installments of the assessment or reassessment and interest with respect to which the lot or parcel of property is sold.

(2) Simple interest on all the amounts from the dates of delinquencies until the date of sale, at the rate or rates of the bonds.

(f) If the lot or parcel of property is sold at the execution sale to a purchaser other than the city, the city shall pay the sale proceeds that it receives into the redemption fund. From the amount that the city is required to pay into the redemption fund, the city shall reimburse the special reserve fund, if any, the amount, if any, of funds advanced from the special reserve fund to the redemption fund to cover delinquent installments of the assessment or reassessment and interest with respect to the lot or parcel of property which is sold. If the special reserve fund, if any, is thereby reimbursed, the city may reimburse other funds advanced by the city to cover delinquent installments and interest, and may pay interest and penalties, costs, fees, and other charges, to the extent that they are included in the sale proceeds received.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (f), attorney fees and costs awarded by the judgment and postjudgment interest are not required to be paid into the redemption fund.

(h) The foreclosure action shall be governed and regulated by this division, and where not in conflict with this division, by the applicable laws of this state.

SEC. 10. Section 3712 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

(d) Easements constituting servitudes upon or burdens to the property; water rights, the record title to which is held separately from the title to the property; and restrictions of record.

(e) Unaccepted, recorded, irrevocable offers of dedication of the property to the public or a public entity for a public purpose, and recorded options of any taxing agency to purchase the property or any interest therein for a public purpose.

not satisfied as a result of the sale proceeds being applied pursuant to Chapter 1.3 (commencing with Section 4671) of Part 8.

SEC. 11. Section 4186 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4186. As used in this chapter, "taxes" includes all taxes and assessments and annual installments of assessments charged on the roll, except for the following:

C.) where that property was acquired after the lien date by a city on foreclosure proceedings under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 or the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Ch. 2.5 (commencing with Sec. 53311), Div. 2, Pt. 1, Title 5, Gov. ## CHAPTER 948

An act to add Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 11300) to Part 7 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 12, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 12, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) The high school dropout rate in urban areas heavily impacted by drugs, gangs, and violence remains alarmingly high at approximately 25 percent. Many of the students at risk for not graduating are bright and eager to learn. There is an urgent need for an array of alternative educational options designed to keep them in school and prepare them for college or the work force. One of those programs is a middle college high school.

(b) A middle college high school is a high school located on a community college campus that is collaboratively operated by the local school district and the community college. The program serves selected at-risk students who are performing below their academic potential. These students flourish in the community college environment where they are treated as responsible adults and interact with college role models.

(c) Middle college high schools emphasize employment training, community service internships, and college preparation, combined with guidance and motivational activities.

(d) In California, two middle college high schools were established pursuant to a grant from the California Community Colleges in 1989. Student outcomes at these programs are impressive, with over 90 percent of the students from the Los Angeles Southwest College program in 1994 graduating and going on to college or postsecondary schooling, and achievement of 87 percent attendance.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that the California Community Colleges and the State Department of Education work together to ensure the continued success of the existing middle college high schools and encourage the establishment of additional middle college high schools throughout the state.

SEC. 2. Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 11300) is added to Part 7 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14. MIDDLE COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOLS

11300. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that middle college high schools have proven to be a highly effective collaborative effort between local school districts and community colleges. The goal of the middle college high school is to select at-risk high school students who are performing below their academic potential and place them in an alternative high school located on a community college campus in order to reduce the likelihood that they will drop out of school before graduation.

(b) Each middle college high school shall be structured as a broad-based, comprehensive instructional program focusing on college preparatory and school-to-work curricula, career education, work experience, community service, and support and motivational activities.

(c) The specific design of a middle college high school may vary depending on the circumstances of the community college or school district. The basic elements of the middle college high school shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A curriculum that focuses on college and career preparation.

(2) A reduced adult-student ratio.

(3) Flexible scheduling to allow for work internships, community service experience, and interaction with community college student role models.

(4) Opportunities for experiential internships, work apprenticeships, and community service.

11301. (a) The California Community Colleges and the State Department of Education shall collaborate with each other and with their respective local community colleges and local school districts to ensure the continued success of existing middle college high schools and to promote the establishment of new middle college high schools.

(b) The responsibilities of the California Community Colleges and the State Department of Education pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(1) With respect to existing middle college high schools, to monitor the ongoing viability of the programs, assist with the resolution of policy or financial issues that may arise, and track specific outcomes for students and schools, including attendance rates, graduation rates, college entrance and attendance rates, and employment rates for those students who do not attend college.

(2) With respect to the promotion of new middle college high schools, respond to inquiries from local school districts and community colleges about the establishment of middle college high schools, advise local entities on start-up costs and ongoing funding mechanisms for the program, consult with local entities on the organizational structure of, and curriculum development for, the middle college high schools, facilitate the completion of any necessary facilities improvements, communicate with local entities at least biannually about the existence of middle college high schools and the availability of State Department of Education and California Community Colleges resources, if any, to assist with the establishment of middle college high schools.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

11121.95. Any person appointed or elected to serve as a member of a state body who has not yet assumed the duties of office shall conform his or her conduct to the requirements of this article and shall be treated for purposes of this article as if he or she has already assumed office.

SEC. 2. Section 11124.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11124.1. (a) Any person attending an open and public meeting of the state body shall have the right to record the proceedings with an audio or video tape recorder or a still or motion picture camera in the absence of a reasonable finding by the state body that the recording cannot continue without noise, illumination, or obstruction of view that constitutes, or would constitute, a persistent disruption of the proceedings.

(b) Any tape or film record of an open and public meeting made for whatever purpose by or at the direction of the state body shall be subject to inspection pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1), but may be erased or destroyed 30 days after the taping or recording. Any inspection of an audio or video tape recording shall be provided without charge on an audio or video tape player made available by the state body.

(c) No state body shall prohibit or otherwise restrict the broadcast of its open and public meetings in the absence of a reasonable finding that the broadcast cannot be accomplished without noise, illumination, or obstruction of view that would constitute a persistent disruption of the proceedings.

SEC. 3. Section 11125 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11125. (a) The state body shall provide notice of its meeting to any person who requests that notice in writing. Notice shall be given at least 10 days in advance of the meeting, and shall include the name, address, and telephone number of any person who can provide further information prior to the meeting, but need not include a list of witnesses expected to appear at the meeting.

(b) The notice of a meeting of a body that is a state body as defined in Section 11121, 11121.2, 11121.5, or 11121.7 shall include a specific agenda for the meeting, which shall include the items of business to be transacted or discussed in closed session. A brief general description of an item generally need not exceed 20 words. A description of an item to be transacted or discussed in closed session shall include a citation of the specific statutory authority under which a closed session is being held. No item shall be added to the agenda subsequent to the provision of this notice.

(c) The notice of a meeting of an advisory body that is a state body as defined in Section 11121.8 shall include a brief, general description of the business to be transacted or discussed, and no item shall be added subsequent to the provision of the notice.

(d) Notice of a meeting of a state body that complies with this section shall also constitute notice of a meeting of an advisory body of that state body, provided that the business to be discussed by the advisory body is covered by the notice of the meeting of the state body, provided that the specific time and place of the advisory body's meeting is announced during the open and public state body's meeting, and provided that the advisory body's meeting is conducted within a reasonable time of, and nearby, the meeting of the state body.

(e) A person may request, and shall be provided, notice pursuant to subdivision (a) for all meetings of a state body or for a specific meeting or meetings. In addition, at the state body's discretion, a person may request, and may be provided, notice of only those meetings of a state body at which a particular subject or subjects specified in the request will be discussed.

(f) A request for notice of more than one meeting of a state body shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14911.

SEC. 4. Section 11125.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11125.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6255 or any other provisions of law, agendas of public meetings and other writings, when distributed to all, or a majority of all, of the members of a state body by any person in connection with a matter subject to discussion or consideration at a public meeting of the body, are disclosable public records under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1), and shall be made available upon request without delay. However, this section shall not include any writing exempt from public disclosure under Section 6253.5, 6254, or 6254.7 of this code, or Section 489.1 or 583 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) Writings that are public records under subdivision (a) and that are distributed to members of the state body prior to or during a meeting, pertaining to any item to be considered during the meeting, shall be made available for public inspection at the meeting if prepared by the state body or a member of the state body, or after the meeting if prepared by some other person.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a state body from charging a fee or deposit for a copy of a public record pursuant to Section 6257. The writings described in subdivision (b) are subject to the requirements of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1), and shall not be construed to limit or delay the public's right to inspect any record required to be disclosed by that act, or to limit the public's right to inspect any record covered by that act. This section shall not be construed to be applicable to any writings solely because they are properly discussed in a closed session of a state body. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require a state body to place any paid advertisement or any other paid notice in any publication.

(d) "Writing" for purposes of this section means "writing" as defined under Section 6252.

SEC. 5. Section 11125.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11125.4. (a) A special meeting may be called at any time by the presiding officer of the state body or by a majority of the members of the state body. A special meeting may only be called for one of the following purposes where compliance with the 10-day notice provisions of Section 11125 would impose a substantial hardship on the state body or where immediate action is required to protect the public interest:

(1) To consider "pending litigation" as that term is defined in subdivision (q) of Section 11126.

(2) To consider proposed legislation.

(3) To consider issuance of a legal opinion.

(4) To consider disciplinary action involving a state officer or employee.

(5) To consider the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property.

(6) To consider license examinations and applications.

(b) When a special meeting is called pursuant to one of the purposes specified in subdivision (a), the state body shall provide notice of the special meeting to each member of the state body and to all parties that have requested notice of its meetings as soon as is practicable after the decision to call a special meeting has been made, but shall be delivered in a manner that allows it to be received by the members and by newspapers of general circulation and radio or television stations at least 48 hours before the time of the special meeting specified in the notice. Notice shall be made available to newspapers of general circulation and radio or television stations by providing that notice to all national press wire services. Notice shall be provided to the general public by placing it on appropriate electronic bulletin boards or other appropriate mechanisms, whenever the state body has the electronic capability necessary to do so. The notice shall specify the time and place of the special meeting and the business to be transacted. No other business shall be considered at a special meeting by the state body. The written notice may be dispensed with as to any member who at or prior to the time the meeting convenes files with the clerk or secretary of the state body a written waiver of notice. The waiver may be given by telegram, facsimile transmission, or similar means. The written notice may also be dispensed with as to any member who is actually present at the meeting at the time it convenes. Notice shall be required pursuant to this section regardless of whether any action is taken at the special meeting.

(c) At the commencement of any special meeting, the state body must make a finding in open session that the delay necessitated by providing notice 10 days prior to a meeting as required by Section 11125 would cause a substantial hardship on the body or that immediate action is required to protect the public interest. The finding shall set forth the specific facts that constitute the hardship to the body or the impending harm to the public interest. The finding shall be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the body, or, if less than two-thirds of the members are present, a unanimous vote of those members present. Failure to adopt the finding terminates the meeting.

SEC. 6. Section 11125.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

(b) For purposes of this section, “emergency situation” means any of the following, as determined by a majority of the members of the state body during a meeting prior to the emergency meeting, or at the beginning of the emergency meeting:

Every notice for a special meeting at which action is proposed to be taken on an item shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the state body concerning that item prior to action on the item. In addition, the notice requirement of Section 11125 shall not preclude the acceptance of testimony at meetings, other than emergency meetings, from members of the public, provided, however, that no action is taken by the state body at the same meeting on matters brought before the body by members of the public.

(2) As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, and that notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(3) Prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provisions of law.

For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues that could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation. For the purpose of real property investment decisions that may be considered in a closed session pursuant to this paragraph, a state body shall also be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (7) relating to the identification of real properties prior to the closed session.

11128.5. The state body may adjourn any regular, adjourned regular, special, or adjourned special meeting to a time and place specified in the order of adjournment. Less than a quorum may so adjourn from time to time. If all members are absent from any regular or adjourned regular meeting, the clerk or secretary of the state body may declare the meeting adjourned to a stated time and place and he or she shall cause a written notice of the adjournment to be given in the same manner as provided in Section 11125.4 for special meetings, unless that notice is waived as provided for special meetings. A copy of the order or notice of adjournment shall be conspicuously posted on or near the door of the place where the regular, adjourned regular, special, or adjourned special meeting was held within 24 hours after the time of the adjournment. When a regular or adjourned regular meeting is adjourned as provided in this section, the resulting adjourned regular meeting is a regular meeting for all purposes. When an order of adjournment of any meeting fails to state the hour at which the adjourned meeting is to be held, it shall be held at the hour specified for regular meetings by law or regulation.

SEC. 12. Section 11129 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11129. Any hearing being held, or noticed or ordered to be held by a state body at any meeting may by order or notice of continuance be continued or recontinued to any subsequent meeting of the state body in the same manner and to the same extent set forth in Section 11128.5 for the adjournment of meetings. A copy of the order or notice of continuance shall be conspicuously posted on or near the door of the place where the hearing was held within 24 hours after the time of the continuance; provided, that if the hearing is continued to a time less than 24 hours after the time specified in the order or notice of hearing, a copy of the order or notice of continuance of hearing shall be posted immediately following the meeting at which the order or declaration of continuance was adopted or made.

SEC. 13. Section 11130 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11130. (a) The Attorney General, the district attorney, or any interested person may commence an action by mandamus, injunction, or declaratory relief for the purpose of stopping or preventing violations or threatened violations of this article or to determine the applicability of this article to actions or threatened future action by members of the state body or to determine whether any rule or action by the state body to penalize or otherwise discourage the expression of one or more of its members is valid or invalid under the laws of this state or of the United States, or to compel the state body to tape record its closed sessions as hereinafter provided.

(b) The court in its discretion may, upon a judgment of a violation of Section 11126, order the state body to tape record its closed sessions and preserve the tape recordings for the period and under the terms of security and confidentiality the court deems appropriate.

(c) (1) Each recording so kept shall be immediately labeled with the date of the closed session recorded and the title of the clerk or other officer who shall be custodian of the recording.

(2) The tapes shall be subject to the following discovery procedures:

(A) In any case in which discovery or disclosure of the tape is sought by the Attorney General, the district attorney, or the plaintiff in a civil action pursuant to this section or Section 11130.3 alleging that a violation of this article has occurred in a closed session that has been recorded pursuant to this section, the party seeking discovery or disclosure shall file a written notice of motion with the appropriate court with notice to the governmental agency that has custody and control of the tape recording. The notice shall be given pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1005 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) The notice shall include, in addition to the items required by Section 1010 of the Code of Civil Procedure, all of the following:

(i) Identification of the proceeding in which discovery or disclosure is sought, the party seeking discovery or disclosure, the date and time of the meeting recorded, and the governmental agency that has custody and control of the recording.

(ii) An affidavit that contains specific facts indicating that a violation of the act occurred in the closed session.

(3) If the court, following a review of the motion, finds that there is good cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the court may review, in camera, the recording of that portion of the closed session alleged to have violated the act.

(4) If, following the in-camera review, the court concludes that disclosure of a portion of the recording would be likely to materially assist in the resolution of the litigation alleging violation of this article, the court shall, in its discretion, make a certified transcript of the portion of the recording a public exhibit in the proceeding.

(5) Nothing in this section shall permit discovery of communications that are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

SEC. 14. Section 11130.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11130.7. Each member of a state body who attends a meeting of that body in violation of any provision of this article, and where the member intends to deprive the public of information to which the member knows or has reason to know the public is entitled under this article, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 15. Section 11131 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11131. No state agency shall conduct any meeting, conference, or other function in any facility that prohibits the admittance of any person, or persons, on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, or sex, or that is inaccessible to disabled persons, or where members of the public may not be present without making a payment or purchase. As used in this section, "state agency" means and includes every state body, office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, council, commission, or other state agency.

SEC. 16. Section 11131.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11131.5. No notice, agenda, announcement, or report required under this article need identify any victim or alleged victim of crime, tortious sexual conduct, or child abuse unless the identity of the person has been publicly disclosed.

SEC. 17. Section 8.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11126 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 989. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 11126 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 989, in which case Section 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 18. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 950

An act to amend Section 41472 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 13, 1997. Filed with
Secretary of State October 13, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The state's primary grade Class Size Reduction Program, as implemented in 1996 pursuant to Chapter 6.10 (commencing with Section 52120) of Part 28 of the Education Code, has increased the number of classrooms needed by the West Contra Costa Unified School District to adequately house its students, so that some of the sites once considered "excess" are now questionable in that regard.

(2) The West Contra Costa Unified School District's El Portal site has proven to be unsalable because of seismic risks.

(3) The reduced marketability of these properties has limited West Contra Costa Unified School District's means to expedite repayment of the loan entered into with the state pursuant to Section 41472 of the Education Code.

(4) From the first annual debt payment of 1993 through the 1998 payment, the district will have paid fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000), including nine million eight hundred thousand dollars ($9,800,000) in principal and five million two hundred thousand dollars ($5,200,000) in interest, toward its debt of twenty-nine million dollars ($29,000,000).

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that the debt repayment schedule entered into pursuant to Section 41472 of the Education Code be further amended so that, following the "balloon" payment of the West Contra Costa Unified School District in 1998, the remaining district debt is to be repaid as a straightline loan amortized over a 20-year term.

SEC. 2. Section 41472 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41472. (a) The school district may prepay its loan obligation without incurring any prepayment penalties.

(b) (1) The minimum payment on the consolidated debt shall be determined according to the following payment schedule:

| Due Date | Payment Amount |
|---|---|
| 2/1/93 | $ 0 |
| 2/1/94 | 0 |
| 2/1/95 | 5,570,443 |
| 2/1/96 | 1,870,443 |
| 2/1/97 | 1,870,443 |
| 2/1/98 | 5,570,443 |

(2) The debt remaining after the school district's 1998 payment shall be repaid as a straight-line loan amortized over a 20-year term. This amount shall be repaid by the school district, plus interest calculated at a rate equal to the rate earned by the Pooled Money Investment Account on the date the act that adds this paragraph is chaptered, for a period not to exceed 20 years.

(c) If payment is not made within 60 days after the scheduled date, the Controller shall pay the defaulted loan payment of principal and interest by withholding that amount from the next available payment that would otherwise be made to the county treasurer on behalf of the district pursuant to Section 14041 of the Education Code. However, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance, the amount withheld may be in monthly amounts as determined by an agreement between the West Contra Costa Unified School District and the Controller during the period beginning with the next available apportionment through the month preceding the next scheduled payment.

(d) The Director of the Department of Finance may, upon the request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, amend the payment schedule set forth in subdivision (b) if the director concludes that the amendment is warranted and is in the best interests of both the state and the West Contra Costa Unified School District education program. Upon that determination, the director shall notify the Joint Legislative Budget Committee that the payment schedule will be changed on the date that is 90 days from the date of notification if the Legislature is in session, unless the Joint Legislative Budget Committee takes appropriate action to preclude that change. If the 90-day period ends during a recess of the Legislature or while the Legislature is not in session, the 90-day period shall be extended until the Legislature reconvenes. Amendments to the repayment schedule shall defer the unpaid portion of a repayment of the earliest fiscal year in which no other repayment is scheduled. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid portion of a repayment from the scheduled due date until the time the payment is actually made. The interest charge shall be the same rate as specified in Section 41471.

(e) If the district is able to sell properties in advance of any of the obligations contained in the schedule set forth in subdivision (b), the scheduled interest cost shall be reduced in accordance with any prepayments that are made. If the repayment schedule is amended pursuant to subdivision (d), all proceeds from any properties sold in advance of any of the obligations shall be used as prepayment on the schedule.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that, due to the unique fiscal circumstances of the West Contra Costa Unified School District, as set out in Section 1 of this act, a general statute within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution cannot be made applicable. The enactment of this special statute is therefore necessary.

(c) "State safety member" shall also include officers and employees in parenthetical specialty classes when the core class has already been expressly included in the state safety membership category if the Department of Personnel Administration and the State Personnel Board approve the inclusion of the classifications. The inclusion shall not be effective until notice of the inclusion has been received by the board.

(d) Any of these officers or employees in employment on the operative date of an amendment to this section and who becomes a state safety member as a result of that amendment, may elect by a writing filed with the board prior to 90 days after notification by the board, to be restored to his or her previous status as a state industrial member. SEC. 4. Section 20903 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20903. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, when the governing body of a contracting agency determines that because of an impending curtailment of, or change in the manner of performing service, the best interests of the agency would be served, a local member shall be eligible to receive additional service credit if the following conditions exist:

(a) The member is employed in a job classification, department, or other organizational unit designated by the governing body of the contracting agency and retires within any period designated in and subsequent to the effective date of the contract amendment provided the period is not less than 90 days nor more than 180 days.

(b) The governing body transmits to the retirement fund an amount determined by the board which is equal to the actuarial equivalent of the difference between the allowance the member receives after the receipt of service credit under this section and the amount he or she would have received without that service credit. The transfer to the retirement fund shall be made in a manner and time period acceptable to the employer and the board.

(c) The governing body shall certify that it is electing to exercise the provisions of this section, because of impending mandatory transfers, demotions, and layoffs that constitute at least one percent of the job classification, department or organizational unit as designated by the governing board, resulting from the curtailment of, or change in the manner of performing, its services.

(d) The governing body shall certify that it is its intention at the time that this section is made operative that if any early retirements are granted after receipt of service credit pursuant to this section, that any vacancies thus created or at least one vacancy in any position in any department or other organizational unit shall remain permanently unfilled thereby resulting in an overall reduction in the work force of the department or organizational unit.

The amount of service credit shall not be more than two years regardless of credited service and shall not exceed the number of years intervening between the date of his or her retirement and the date he or she would be required to be retired because of age.

A governing body that elects to make the payment prescribed by subdivision (b) shall make the payment with respect to all eligible employees who retire during the specified period.

This section shall not be applicable to any member otherwise eligible if the member receives any unemployment insurance payments during the specified period.

Any member who qualifies under this section, upon subsequent reentry to this system shall forfeit the service credit acquired under this section.

This section shall not apply to any member who is not employed by the contracting agency during the period designated in subdivision (a) and who has less than five years of service credit.

This section shall not apply to any contracting agency unless and until the agency elects to be subject to the provision of this section by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for approval of contracts, except an election among the employees is not required, or, in the case of contracts made after September 29, 1979, by express provision in the contract making the contracting agency subject to the provisions of this section.

Notwithstanding Section 20790, an election to become subject to this section shall not exclude an agency from the definition of "employer" for purposes of Section 20790.

The board, on or before June 30, 1998, shall report to the Governor and the Legislature on the extent to which the provisions of this section are utilized by contracting agencies and any resulting personnel costs or savings by those agencies.

This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before that date deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4.5. Section 21074 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21074. (a) A state member who became subject to the Second Tier shall be retired for service upon his or her written application to the board if he or she has attained age 55 and is credited with 10 years of state service.

(b) A state member who elected coverage under Section 21077, shall be retired for service upon his or her written application to the board if he or she has attained age 50 and is credited with five years of state service. No benefit shall be payable for service rendered under the Second Tier retirement formula unless the member has rendered 10 years of state service except as provided in subdivision (c).

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), a state member in the Second Tier who is credited with five years of state service prior to January 1, 1985, may retire with less than 10 years of state service upon his or her written application to the board if he or she has attained age 50.

SEC. 5. Section 21151 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21151. (a) Any patrol, state safety, state industrial, state peace officer/firefighter, or local safety member incapacitated for the performance of duty as the result of an industrial disability shall be retired for disability, pursuant to this chapter, regardless of age or amount of service.

(b) This section also applies to local miscellaneous members if the contracting agency employing those members elects to be subject to this section by amendment to its contract.

(c) This section also applies to state miscellaneous members employed by the Department of Justice who perform the duties now performed in positions with the class title of Criminalist (Class Code 8466), or Senior Criminalist (Class Code 8478), or Criminalist Supervisor (Class Code 8477), or Criminalist Manager (Class Code 8467), Latent Print Analyst I (Class Code 8460), Latent Print Analyst II (Class Code 8472), or Latent Print Supervisor (Class Code 8473), and state miscellaneous members employed by the Department of the California Highway Patrol who perform the duties now performed in positions with the class title of Communications Operator I, California Highway Patrol (Class Code 1663), Communications Operator II, California Highway Patrol (Class Code 1664), Communications Supervisor I, California Highway Patrol (Class Code 1662), or Communications Supervisor II, California Highway Patrol (Class Code 1665), and state miscellaneous members whose disability resulted under the conditions specified in Sections 20046.5 and 20047.

However, the appointment shall not be deemed employment within the meaning of Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) and Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100) of the Labor Code, and shall not provide a basis for the payment of workers' compensation to a retired state employee or to his or her dependents.

(b) As a school crossing guard.

(c) As a juror or election officer.

(d) As an elective officer on and after September 15, 1961. However, all rights and immunities which may have accrued under Section 21229 as it read prior to that section's repeal during the 1969 Regular Session of the Legislature are hereby preserved.

(e) As an appointive member of the governing body of a contracting agency. However, the compensation for that office shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per month.

(f) Upon appointment by the Legislature, or either house, or a legislative committee to a position deemed by the appointing power to be temporary in nature.

(g) Upon employment by a contracting agency to a position found by the governing body, by resolution, to be available because of a leave of absence granted to a person on payroll status for a period not to exceed one year and found by the governing body to require specialized skills. The temporary employment shall be terminated at the end of the leave of absence. Appointments under this section shall be reported to the board and shall be accompanied by the resolution adopted by the governing body.

(h) Upon appointment by the governing body of a contracting agency to a position deemed by the governing body to be of a limited duration and requiring specialized skills or during an emergency to prevent stoppage of public business. These appointments, in addition to any made pursuant to Section 21224, shall not exceed a total for all employers of 960-hours in any calendar year. When an appointment is expected to, or will, exceed 960-hours in any calendar year, the governing body shall request approval from the board to extend the temporary employment. The governing body shall present a resolution to the board requesting action to allow or disallow the employment extension. The resolution shall be presented prior to the expiration of the 960-hour maximum for the calendar year. The appointment shall continue until notification of the board's decision is received by the governing body. The appointment shall be deemed approved if the board fails to take action within 60 days of receiving the request. Appointments under this subdivision may not exceed a total of one year.

(i) Upon appointment by the Administrative Director of the Courts to the position of Court Security Coordinator, a position deemed temporary in nature and requiring the specialized skills and experience of a retired professional peace officer.

(a) Ninety percent of one-fiftieth of his or her final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service credited to him or her.

(b) If the disability retirement allowance computed under subdivision (a) does not exceed one-third of his or her final compensation, 90 percent of one-fiftieth of his final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service which would be creditable to him or her were his or her service to continue until attainment by him or her of age 60, but in that case the retirement allowance shall not exceed one-third of final compensation.

The election or revocation or change thereof, with respect to a member subject to Section 21624 at retirement, shall apply to all of the retirement allowance, if, at the effective date of retirement, the member has no spouse, children or dependent parents who would qualify for an allowance under Section 21624 after the death of the member; or, if at retirement there are persons who would so qualify, then the election, or revocation, or change thereof, with respect to any optional settlement other than optional settlement one, shall apply only to the portion of the allowance that exceeds the amount of the allowance payable to the survivor.

An actuarial equivalent under this article may be adjusted by the board for the intervals and upon the effective dates determined by the board.

order appointing an executor, administrator, or personal representative.

If the deceased person had a will, but the estate does not require probate, benefits may, in the judgment of the board, be paid to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, as specified in the will, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

If the deceased person left no will but had a trust, but the estate does not require probate, benefits may, in the judgment of the board, be paid to the successor trustee as named in the trust.

If the deceased person left no will or trust and the estate does not require probate, but the decedent designated his or her estate as the beneficiary, the benefit shall be paid to the next of kin pursuant to Section 21493.

(2) The survivor entitled to payment of the survivor continuance benefit provided under Section 21624.

(3) The beneficiary entitled to receive the lump-sum death benefit provided upon death of a retired person if the person had not chosen an optional settlement and there was no survivor who was entitled to receive the survivor continuance benefit.

(b) In the event of the death of a person receiving a survivor benefit, that benefit shall be paid to the beneficiary designated by the survivor of a member under Section 21491.

(c) If there is no beneficiary entitled to receive payment under either subdivision (a) or (b), the benefit shall be paid to either the estate of the deceased person or the duly authorized representative or representatives of the estate upon receipt by this system of a court order appointing an executor, administrator, or personal representative. (b) No person, other than the unborn child of the member, may be enrolled as a family member when a monthly allowance under Section 21547 is payable unless the person is enrolled as a family member on the date of the death of the member.

SEC. 31. Section 22818 of the Government Code is amended to read:

(4) The credited service for purposes of determining the percentage of employer contributions applicable under this section shall mean service as defined in Section 20069, except that not less than five years of that service shall be performed entirely with that employer.

(5) The employer agrees to provide the board any information requested necessary to implement this section.

(b) This section shall apply to the Calaveras County Water District, the Alameda County Water District, the City of Fontana, and the City of Lincoln.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 9

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 10—Relative to the California Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Capitol Park.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 18, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The State of California has the largest United States veterans population in the nation, comprising some 3.3 million armed services veterans (12.3 percent of the nationwide veteran population of nearly 27 million) who represent an impressive one-fifth of the state's total population; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that 20.6 million (77 percent) of the total veteran population alive today are wartime veterans, and, within California alone, nearly 300,000 of those veterans are disabled, and approximately one-eighth of these veterans have experienced substance abuse or post-traumatic stress disorders; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that there are more than 3,000 American servicemen still prisoners of war (POW), missing in action (MIA), and unaccounted for in Vietnam and Korea; and

WHEREAS, According to figures from the 1996 California Department of Veterans Affairs, American participation and casualties from the following wars were estimated as: Mexican War (1846–48) 79,000 participants, 13,000 deaths in service; Indian Wars (1861–98) 106,000 participants, 1,000 deaths in service; United States Civil War (1861–65) 2,213,000 Union participants, 364,000 Union deaths in service, 1,000,000 Confederate participants, 134,000 Confederate deaths in service; Spanish-American War (1898–1902) 392,000 participants, 11,000 deaths in service; World War I (1917–18) 392,000 participants, 116,000 deaths in service; World War II (1940–45) 16,535,000 participants, 406,000 deaths in service; Korean War (1950–53) 5,764,143 participants, 33,651 deaths in service; Vietnam War (1964–73) 8,744,000 participants, 58,202 deaths in service; and the Persian Gulf War (1991) 467,539 participants, 148 deaths; and

WHEREAS, In times of peace, when the veteran's service is not needed, it is an unfortunate but irrevocable fact that Californians, like all other Americans, all too quickly forget that it is the courage and sacrifice of those veterans that preserve and maintain the freedom that we enjoy; and

WHEREAS, The practice of forgetting about our debt to our veterans took on an entirely different meaning when our Vietnam veterans returned home to discover, tragically, that not only did many Americans not want to honor and pay homage to them, indeed, many Americans wanted to forget them; and

WHEREAS, More than 350,000 California veterans served in Vietnam, which resulted in 40,000 of them being wounded and 5,822 being killed or missing in action, or more than 10 percent of the nation's total; and

WHEREAS, More California residents died in Vietnam than residents of any other state, and more Californians received the Medal of Honor, the Bronze Star, and the Purple Heart than veterans of any other state; and

WHEREAS, The Vietnam War divided Americans like no other event since the United States Civil War, and after nearly a decade of dissent and protest and of many Americans trying to forget the Vietnam War, many Americans ended up forgetting the Vietnam veterans who came home to no marching bands and no welcome home parades, and who went for years and years without any sort of positive recognition; and

WHEREAS, For many, many thousands of those veterans, the Vietnam War did not end, and has not ended, as they continue to fight their own personal war within themselves; and

WHEREAS, With the construction of the National Vietnam War Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., many Americans finally found the will to remember, and all the homage due the Vietnam veterans could finally be expressed; and

WHEREAS, In many ways, the national memorial has done more to heal the wounds of the Vietnam War than any proclamation, or any parade, could do, since the memorial serves as a tribute to the sacrifice, a recognition of the loss, and a symbol of the wound that we began to heal, and in simple terms, the memorial serves as a mourning place where Americans can come to physically touch the memory of loved ones they lost or strangers they honor for their sacrifices; and

WHEREAS, The history of the California Vietnam Veterans Memorial began when Herman Woods, a double amputee who served in the 1st Air Cavalry Division, United States Army (1970), returned to California from the dedication of the National Vietnam Veterans Memorial in our nation's capitol in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, Herman Woods began a grassroots effort to assist then Assembly Member Richard E. Floyd, a Korean War combat veteran, in passing Floyd's measure, Assembly Bill No. 650, which proposed that a California Vietnam Veterans Memorial be built entirely from private funds, and it was then that former Captain Brien Thomas "B.T." Collins, a United States Army veteran who was a member of the Green Berets, who served two tours of duty in Vietnam, who was wounded, and who also later served in the California State Assembly, became involved with the memorial and his tireless efforts were a driving force in the establishment and completion of the memorial prior to his early death; and

WHEREAS, The newly formed Vietnam Veterans Memorial Commission was comprised of nine veterans, eight of whom served in Vietnam and who included the following persons: Linda J. McClenahan, Chairperson; Leo K. Thorsness, Congressional Medal of Honor winner and Vice Chairperson; Gregory C. Green, Treasurer; Abel A. Cota, Secretary; B.T. Collins, member; Don A. Drumheller, member; Jesse G. Ugalde, member; Senator Jim Ellis, member; Assembly Member Richard E. Floyd, member and author of Assembly Bill No. 650; and Jerri L. Dale, Executive Officer; led to the creation of the California Vietnam Veterans Memorial, the theme of which reflects "the overwhelming majority of those who were killed in Vietnam: 19-year old infantry soldiers, their youth, comradery, and fatigue of the war and [reflects] the American women who served," with the winning entry in the opening design competition being awarded to Michael Larson, a Marine Corps Vietnam veteran, and Thomas Chytrowski; and

WHEREAS, President Bill Clinton, in recently awarding the Presidential Medal of Freedom to former United States Senator Robert Dole, unveiled the winning design for still another memorial, this one a National World War II Memorial to pay homage to the 16 million men and women who served in that war; and

WHEREAS, For years and years, California has had plans for a memorial that will be privately financed, one that will honor all California veterans who have served in the armed services since statehood in 1850, a memorial that, hopefully, will be a reality by the close of 1997; and

WHEREAS, These monuments have revived California's interest in the sacrifice of all our veterans and have focused a renewed attention on our Vietnam veterans, many of whom, especially the homeless, simply have never had the resources to travel back to Washington, D.C. to visit the National Vietnam Veterans Memorial; and

WHEREAS, The Wall That Heals is a 250-foot wide replica of the National Memorial that travels all across America, giving veterans and nonveterans a chance to share a common bond of sacrifice with the 58,202 men and women who gave their lives in Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, The Wall That Heals brings the souls of those 58,202 back home to their buddies, their wives and husbands, parents, children, neighbors, and coworkers, and allows them to exist once more in the comfort and peace of familiar surroundings; and

WHEREAS, Assembly Member Richard E. Floyd has made arrangements for The Wall That Heals to be in Sacramento and in four additional sites in California from early February to March, 1997; and

WHEREAS, The Wall That Heals, like the memorial in Washington, D.C., transcends Vietnam by helping our nation renew its relationship with veterans of all wars, because viewers of the wall, from veterans to school children, will realize a deeper appreciation of the role that veterans have played throughout the history of our country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That all Californians be encouraged to take part in ceremonies concerning The Wall That Heals, including opening ceremonies, when it is in an area near them, and that all steps and measures necessary to inform all Californians as to the date of those ceremonies and locating where The Wall That Heals will be sited, be taken so that all Californians will be given an opportunity to remember and honor the service, the efforts, and the sacrifices of those veterans, and to pay homage to those veterans who are still alive; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 14

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4—Relative to Medi-Cal program expenses.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 1, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The State of California has incurred substantial costs in the implementation of the Medi-Cal program for the treatment of tobacco-related diseases; and

WHEREAS, One member of the tobacco industry has recently agreed to make payments to other states and to limit future advertising activities in settlement of suits brought by those states to seek reimbursement of costs incurred by those states for the treatment of smoking-related diseases; and

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Attorney General is requested to bring suit against all tobacco companies for reimbursement for costs incurred by the state's Medi-Cal program due to smoking-related diseases; and be it further

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 15

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16—Relative to the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 1, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Public safety is a primary function and consideration of government. As evidenced by the overwhelming support for Proposition 184, the "Three Strikes Initiative" on the November 8, 1994, ballot, the people of the State of California are demanding that violent, serious, and repeat felons be incarcerated with longer sentences; and

WHEREAS, As a result of the passage of Proposition 184 and the recent enactment of other laws, the inmate population of the state prison system is projected to increase by unprecedented numbers. Upon completion of current authorized new prison construction projects, the Department of Corrections will be operating 34 state adult correctional facilities. In addition, the Department of the Youth Authority currently operates 11 state youth correctional facilities; and

WHEREAS, As evidenced by the recent defeat of Proposition 205, the "Youthful and Adult Offender Local Facilities Bond Act of 1996" on the November 5, 1996, ballot, the people of the State of California are unwilling to support financially the expansion of correctional facilities. Californians are demanding greater fiscal accountability for the operation of correctional facilities; and

WHEREAS, The most recent five-year facilities master plan by the Department of Corrections identifies a need for six new state prisons and one inmate conservation camp with the capacity to house approximately 27,600 additional felons. The total cost for these proposed projects is approximately one billion seven hundred million dollars ($1,700,000,000). This amount does not include the financing costs, which would roughly double the total final cost; and

WHEREAS, Controlling the rapid growth of corrections construction and operations costs is one of the greatest challenges facing this state. The total proposed budget for the Department of Corrections for the 1997–98 fiscal year is approximately three billion eight hundred million dollars ($3,800,000,000); and

WHEREAS, Although the Legislature first created the Joint Committee on Prison Construction and Operations by statute in 1982, and has reauthorized the committee several times, the committee was statutorily repealed on January 1, 1995. As of that date, the Senate created the Criminal Procedure Subcommittee on Prison Construction and Operations to continue to provide specific legislative oversight; and

WHEREAS, Section 7003 of the Penal Code requires the Department of Corrections to provide the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations with the new prison site plans, project planning guide, and preliminary staffing ratios at least 30 days prior to submission of those plans to the State Public Works Board. Similarly, Section 7003.5 of the Penal Code requires the department to report to that committee biannually on areas being considered for new prison sites, the size of each facility planned, financing, and how each proposed site fits into the department's overall master plan; and

WHEREAS, In order to provide for joint legislative oversight of the state's fastest growing segment of government, and to ensure a sense of fiscal responsibility to the people of California, it is vital that the Legislature permanently reestablish the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations is hereby created. The committee shall assume primary responsibility for providing legislative scrutiny over prison construction and operations; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall also investigate and make recommendations on inmate population management issues as they affect problems of overcrowding, recidivism, and successful return to society by inmates; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall consist of three Members of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and three Members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. A Member of the Senate shall chair the committee. The chairperson shall appoint staff persons who shall be authorized to inspect prison facilities and departmental documents, except as otherwise provided by law; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee and its members shall have all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which rules are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules may make money available from the Senate Operating Fund as it deems necessary for the expenses of the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations and its members. Any expenditure of money shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the Senate Committee on Rules and shall be subject to the approval of the Senate Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations shall, within 15 days of authorization and consistent with the normal annual appropriations process for funding legislative committees, present its initial budget to the Senate Committee on Rules for its review, comment, and approval; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations shall submit a report at the end of each legislative session to the Legislature on its activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operations is authorized to act until June 30, 1998, at which time the committee's existence shall terminate.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 16

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 12—Relative to Women's History Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 4, 1997.]

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class, and ethnicity have participated in the founding and building of our nation and have played a critical role in shaping the economic, cultural, and social fabric of our society, not in the least of ways through their participation in the labor force, working both inside and outside the home; and

WHEREAS, Women have been leaders in every movement for social change, including their own movement for suffrage, the fight for emancipation, the struggle to organize labor unions, and the civil rights movement; and

WHEREAS, In light of these efforts and the achievements of all American women we take this opportunity to honor women and their contribution to the development of our society and our world; and

WHEREAS, The celebration of Women's History Month will provide an opportunity for schools and communities to focus attention on the historical role and accomplishments of the women of California and the United States, and for students, in particular, to benefit from an awareness of these contributions; and

WHEREAS, Women's History Month will include International Women's Day on March 8, originally proclaimed in 1910 to recognize and commemorate the valuable contributions women have made to the labor movement in improving working conditions and thus, bettering people's lives; and

WHEREAS, Women's History Month will be not only a call to acknowledge the outstanding American women whose names we know, but also a call to pay homage to the many women who have anonymously shaped our collective past; and

WHEREAS, The observance of Women's History Week was initiated by the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women in 1978, a celebration that evolved into Women's History Month, commemorated throughout the nation by schools, historians, and community groups; and

WHEREAS, The achievements of women who have gone before us will enable contemporary women and men to create tomorrow's history by working toward an end to physical and sexual violence against women, discrimination and harassment in employment, the relegation to poverty status of many women, and by advocating for the full participation of women in the economic and political arena, the provision of adequate child care, respect for those who choose homemaking and motherhood as their career, and equal access to all of the opportunities this great nation has to offer; and

WHEREAS, The story of the women's rights movement deserves telling because of the significance and scope of women's role in making history and shaping the cultural and societal makeup of California and the United States, and because it is a rich part of our common heritage, a story of gallantry and devotion to the belief that the opportunity for complete human dignity should not be denied to one-half of the state and the nation; and

WHEREAS, The National Women's History Project has adopted "A Fine and Long Tradition" as the 1997 theme for Women's History Month, inviting all Californians to see women's lives and accomplishments as an essential part of our national history, recognizing that history looks very different when the contributions, accomplishments, and perspectives of women are added to our shared legacy as Americans, thereby increasing our understanding of the world in which we live today and expanding our possibilities for the future; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California takes pleasure in joining the California Commission on the Status of Women, the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women, the Los Angeles County Commission for Women, and other city, county, and community commissions for women in California, in honoring the contributions of women, and proclaims the month of March 1997 as Women's History Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California urges all Californians to join in the celebration of International Women's Day on March 8, 1997; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Chair of the California Commission on the Status of Women, the Chair of the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women, and the National Women's History Project, for distribution to appropriate organizations.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 19

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 30—Relative to Mediation Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The legal needs of our society have increased dramatically; and

WHEREAS, In an effort to ameliorate these conditions, restore harmony, improve relations between citizens and within neighborhoods and families, and relieve the growing burden on our judiciary, many of our citizens have turned to dispute resolution services, with resultant social and economic benefits; and

WHEREAS, Mediation, which provides parties with a simplified and economical procedure for obtaining prompt and equitable resolution of their disputes and a greater opportunity to participate directly in resolving their disputes, has proven over the years to be one of the most effective of these alternative dispute resolution techniques; and

WHEREAS, California has had mandatory mediation of child custody and visitation disputes since 1981, and evaluations of these programs have found that mediation has resulted in the resolution of over two-thirds of the mediated disputes and achieved a high satisfaction rate among the participants; and

WHEREAS, Studies by the Rand Corporation and others show that the use of mediation and other appropriate alternative dispute resolution processes can reduce the time, cost, and stress of resolving disputes in many cases, both to disputants, by reducing costs for such things as expert witnesses and trial preparation, and to the justice system as a whole by as much threefold to fivefold over the cost of traditional court processing of civil cases; and

WHEREAS, The State Bar of California and many local bar associations are engaged in promoting the use of mediation and raising public consciousness about its merits, and are seeking to increase public use of, and support for, alternative dispute resolution applications; and, to that end, are cooperating in many activities to assist counties and dispute resolution providers in their efforts at serving citizens; and

WHEREAS, The State of California now has thousands of citizens trained as mediators and many agencies, organizations, and attorneys who specialize in providing related services and ready assistance to those in need of services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the week of March 16 to March 22, 1997, inclusive, as Mediation Week, in order to afford an opportunity for the citizens of California to become aware of the availability of mediation and other alternative dispute resolution techniques as options for solving their legal problems, and to express sincere appreciation to our citizens who are working diligently in assisting fellow citizens and businesses in the resolution of conflict and the settlement of disputes; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California.

WHEREAS, The general prevailing rate of per diem wages has also long been defined to include predetermined increases when the prevailing wage is based on a collective bargaining agreement containing those increases, so that the pay of employees on public works projects does not fall behind the pay of comparable employees in the private sector; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has relied on these definitions, which best express the original intent of the prevailing wage law, in amending the provisions of the prevailing wage law on numerous occasions, thereby incorporating the definitions by implication into the statutes; and

WHEREAS, In 1995, the Legislature specifically rejected legislation sponsored by the Department of Industrial Relations that would have changed the method by which prevailing wage rates are calculated to a weighted average unless more than half the workers within a classification are paid at a single rate, and would have eliminated predetermined increases from the prevailing wage rate; and

WHEREAS, In 1996, the Legislature specifically rejected an amendment to the Budget Bill proposing an appropriation to the Department of Industrial Relations for the purpose of implementing a new, modified weighted-average methodology for calculating the prevailing wage; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Industrial Relations has, without any authorization or direction from the Legislature, adopted administrative regulations to implement a weighted-average methodology and to eliminate predetermined increases from the prevailing wage rate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature declares that it has relied on the long-established definitions of the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in amending and extending the prevailing wage law contained in the California Labor Code on numerous occasions, and that it would be contrary to the intent of the Legislature for those definitions to be changed by administrative action, because the definitions have become incorporated by implication into these statutory provisions; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Industrial Relations and to the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 41

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1—Relative to the adoption of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 1997–98 Regular Session.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 15, 1997.]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the following rules be adopted as the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 1997–98 Regular Session:

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Standing Committees

1. Each house shall appoint standing committees as the business of the house may require, the committees, the number of members, and the manner of selection to be determined by the rules of each house.

Joint Meeting of Committees

3. Whenever any bill has been referred by the Senate to one of its committees, and the same or a like bill has been referred by the Assembly to one of its committees, the chairmen or chairwomen of the respective committees, when in their judgment the interests of legislation or the expedition of business will be better served thereby, shall arrange for a joint meeting of their committees for the consideration of the bill.

Effect of Adoption of Joint Rules

3.5. The adoption of the Joint Rules for any extraordinary session shall not be construed as modifying or rescinding the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for any previous session, nor as affecting in any way the status or powers of the committees created by those rules.

Definition of Word "Bill"

4. Whenever the word "bill" is used in these rules, it shall include any constitutional amendment, any resolution ratifying a proposed amendment to the United States Constitution, and any resolution calling for a constitutional convention.

Concurrent and Joint Resolutions

5. Concurrent resolutions relate to matters to be treated by both houses of the Legislature.

Joint resolutions relate to matters connected with the federal government.

Resolutions Treated as Bills

6. Concurrent and joint resolutions, other than resolutions ratifying proposed amendments to the United States Constitution and resolutions calling for constitutional conventions, shall be treated in all respects as bills except as follows:

(a) They shall be given only one formal reading in each house.

(b) They shall not be deemed bills within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

(c) They shall not be deemed bills for the purposes of Rules 10.8, 53, 55, 56, and 61, and subdivisions (a) and (c) of Rule 54 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of Rule 62.

(d) They shall not, except for those relating to voting procedures on the floor or in committee, be deemed bills for the purposes of subdivision (c) of Rule 62.

Preparation and Introduction of Bills

Title of Bill

7. The title of every bill introduced shall convey an accurate idea of the contents of the bill and shall indicate the scope of the act and the object to be accomplished. In amending a code section, the mere reference to the section by number shall not be deemed sufficient.

Division of Bill Into Sections

8. A bill amending more than one section of an existing law shall contain a separate section for each section amended.

Bills that are not amendatory of existing laws shall be divided into short sections, where this can be done without destroying the sense of any particular section, to the end that future amendments may be made without the necessity of setting forth and repeating sections of unnecessary length.

Digest of Bills Introduced

8.5. No bill may be introduced unless it is contained in a cover attached by the Legislative Counsel and it is accompanied by a digest, prepared and attached to the bill by the Legislative Counsel, showing the changes in the existing law which are proposed by the bill. No bill shall be printed where the body of the bill or the Legislative Counsel's Digest has been altered, unless the alteration has been approved by the Legislative Counsel. If any bill is presented to the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly for introduction, which does not comply with the foregoing requirements of this rule, the Secretary or Chief Clerk shall return it to the member who presented it. The digest shall be printed on the bill as introduced, commencing on the first page thereof.

Digest of Bills Amended

8.6. Whenever a bill is amended in either house, the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be, shall request the Legislative Counsel to prepare an amended digest and cause it to be printed on the first page of the bill as amended. The digest shall be amended to show changes in the existing law which are proposed by the bill as amended, with any material changes in the digest indicated by the use of appropriate type.

Errors in Digest

8.7. If a material error in a printed digest referred to in Rule 8.5 or 8.6 is brought to the attention of the Legislative Counsel, he or she shall prepare a corrected digest which shall show the changes made in the digest as provided in Rule 10 for amendments to bills. He or she shall deliver the corrected digest to the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be. If the correction so warrants in the opinion of the President pro Tempore of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly, a corrected print of the bill as introduced shall be ordered with the corrected digest printed thereon.

Bills Amending Title 9 of the Government Code

8.8. A member who is the first-named author of a bill that would amend, add, or repeal any provision of Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code, upon introduction or amendment of the bill in either house shall notify the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, of the nature of the bill. Thereafter, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate shall deliver a copy of the bill as introduced or amended to the Fair Political Practices Commission pursuant to Section 81012 of the Government Code.

Restrictions as to Amendments

9. A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, constitutional amendment, or resolution under consideration. No amendment shall be in order when all that would be done to the bill is the addition of a coauthor or coauthors, unless the Committee on Rules of the house in which the amendment is to be offered grants prior approval.

Changes in Existing Law to Be Marked by Author

10. In a bill amending or repealing a code section or a general law, any new matter shall be underlined, and any matter to be omitted shall be in type bearing a horizontal line through the center and commonly known as "strikeout" type. When printed the new matter shall be printed in italics, and the matter to be omitted shall be printed in "strikeout" type.

In any amendment to a bill which sets out for the first time a section being amended or repealed, any new matter to be added and any matter to be omitted shall be indicated by the author and shall be printed in the same manner as though the section as amended or repealed were a part of the original bill and was being printed for the first time.

When an entire code is repealed as part of a codification or recodification, or when an entire title, part, division, chapter, or article of a code is repealed, the sections comprising the code, title, part, division, chapter, or article shall not be set forth in the bill or amendment in strikeout type.

Rereferral to Fiscal and Rules Committees

10.5. A bill shall be rereferred to the fiscal committee of each house when it would do any of the following:

(1) Appropriate money.

(2) Result in substantial expenditure of state money by: (a) imposing new responsibilities on the state, (b) imposing new or additional duties on a state agency, or (c) liberalizing any state program, function, or responsibility.

(3) Result in a substantial loss of revenue to the state.

(4) Result in substantial reduction of expenditures of state money by reducing, transferring, or eliminating any existing responsibilities of any state agency, program, or function.

Concurrent and joint resolutions shall be rereferred to the fiscal committee of each house when they contemplate any action that would involve any of the following:

(1) Any substantial expenditure of state money.

(2) Any substantial loss of revenue to the state.

The above requirements do not apply to bills or concurrent resolutions that contemplate the expenditure or allocation of operating funds.

A bill that assigns a study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or to the Legislative Analyst shall be rereferred to the respective rules committees. Before the committee may act upon the bill, it shall obtain from the Joint Legislative Budget Committee an estimate of the amount required to be expended to make the study.

This rule may be suspended in either house as to any particular bill by approval of the Committee on Rules of the house and two-thirds vote of the membership of the house.

Heading of Bills

10.7. No bill may indicate in its heading or elsewhere that it was introduced at the request of a state agency or officer or any other person. No bill may contain the words “By request” or words of similar import.

Consideration of Bills

10.8. The limitation contained in subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article IV of the Constitution may be dispensed with as follows:

(a) A written request for dispensation entitled “Request to Consider and Act on Bill Within 30 Calendar Days” shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, and transmitted to the Committee on Rules of the appropriate house.

(b) The Committee on Rules of the Assembly or Senate, as the case may be, shall determine whether there exists an urgent need for dispensing with the 30-calendar-day waiting period following the bill’s introduction.

(c) If the Committee on Rules recommends that the waiting period be dispensed with, the member may offer a resolution, without further reference thereof to committee, authorizing hearing and action upon the bill before the 30 calendar days have elapsed. The adoption of the resolution shall require an affirmative recorded vote of three-fourths of the elected members of the house in which the resolution is presented.

Printing of Amendments

11. (a) Any bill amended by either house shall be immediately reprinted. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), if new matter is added by the amendment, the new matter shall be printed in italics in the printed bill; if matter is omitted, the matter to be omitted shall be printed in strikeout type. When a bill is amended in either house, the first or previous markings shall be omitted.

(b) If amendments to a bill, including the report of a committee on conference, are adopted that omit the entire contents of the bill, the matter omitted need not be reprinted in the amended version of the bill. Instead, the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be, may select the amended bill and cause to be printed a brief statement to appear after the last line of the amended bill identifying which previously printed version of the bill contains the complete text of the omitted matter.

Manner of Printing Bills

12. The State Printer shall observe the directions of the Joint Rules Committee in printing all bills, constitutional amendments, and concurrent and joint resolutions.

Distribution of Legislative Publications

13. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall order a sufficient number of bills and legislative publications as may be necessary for legislative requirements.

No complete list of bills may be delivered except upon payment therefor of the amount fixed by the Joint Rules Committee for any regular or extraordinary session. No more than one copy of any bill or other legislative publication, nor more than a total of 100 bills or other legislative publications during a session, may be distributed free to any person, office, or organization. The limitations imposed by this paragraph do not apply to Members of the Legislature, the President of the Senate, the Secretary of the Senate , or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly for the proper functioning of their respective houses; the Legislative Counsel Bureau; the Attorney General's office; the Secretary of State's office; the Controller's office; the Governor's office; the Clerk of the Supreme Court; the clerk of the court of appeal for each district; the Judicial Council; the California Law Revision Commission; the State Library; the Library of Congress; the libraries of the University of California at Berkeley and at Los Angeles; or accredited members of the press. The State Printer shall fix the cost of the bills and publications, including postage, and moneys as may be received by him or her shall, after deducting the cost of handling and mailing, be remitted on the first day of each month, one-half each to the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly for credit to legislative printing. Legislative publications heretofore distributed through the Bureau of Documents shall be distributed through the Bill Room. Unless otherwise provided for, the total number of each bill to be printed shall not be more than 2,500.

Legislative Index

13.1. The Legislative Counsel shall provide for the periodic publication of a cumulative Legislative Index, which shall include tables of sections affected by pending legislation. The State Printer shall print the Legislative Index in the quantities, and at the times, determined by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The costs of that printing shall be paid from the legislative printing appropriation.

Summary Digest

13.3. The Legislative Counsel shall compile and prepare for publication a summary digest of legislation passed at each regular and extraordinary session, which digest shall be prepared in a form suitable for inclusion in the publication of statutes. The digest shall be printed as a separate legislative publication on the order of the Joint Rules Committee, and may be made available to the public in the quantities, and at the prices, determined by the Joint Rules Committee.

What Shall Be Printed in the Journal

15. The following shall be printed in the journal of each house:

(c) A true and accurate account of the proceedings of the house, when not acting as a Committee of the Whole.

A regular form shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The history shall show the action taken upon each measure up to and including the legislative day preceding its issuance. Except for periods when the houses are in joint recess, for each day intervening there shall be printed a daily history showing the consideration given to or action taken upon any measure since the issuance of the complete history.

Authority for Printing Orders

18. The State Printer may not print for use of either house, nor charge to legislative printing, any matter other than provided by law or by the rules, except upon a written order signed by the Secretary of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or other person authorized by the Assembly, on behalf of the Assembly. Persons authorized to order printing under this rule may, when necessity requires it, order certain matter printed in advance of the regular order, by the issuance of a rush order.

The Secretary of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or other person authorized by the Assembly, on behalf of the Assembly, are hereby authorized and directed to order and distribute for the members stationery and legislative publications for which there is a demand, and, subject to the rules of their respective houses, to approve the bills covering those orders. All bills for printing must be presented by the State Printer within 30 days after the completion of the printing.

19. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall keep a complete and accurate record of every action taken by the Senate and Assembly on every bill.

Secretary and Chief Clerk Shall Endorse Bills

20. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall endorse on every original or engrossed bill a statement of any action taken by the Senate or Assembly concerning the bill.

Action in One House on Bill Transmitted from the Other

Following its second reading and the adoption of any committee amendments thereto, any bill certified by the committee chairman or chairwoman as an uncontested bill shall be placed by the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly on the consent calendar, and shall be known as a "consent calendar bill." Any consent calendar bill that is amended from the floor shall cease to be a consent calendar bill and shall be replaced on the third reading file. Upon objection of any member to the placement or retention of any bill on the consent calendar, the bill shall cease to be a consent calendar bill and shall be replaced on the third reading file. No consent calendar bill shall be considered for adoption until the second legislative day following the day of its placement on the consent calendar.

Consideration of Bills on Consent Calendar

22.3. A bill on the consent calendar is not debatable, except that the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly shall allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and shall permit a proponent of the bill to answer the questions. Immediately prior to voting on the first bill on the consent calendar, the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly shall call to the attention of the members the fact that the next roll call will be the roll call on the first bill on the consent calendar.

The consent calendar shall be considered as the last order of business on the daily file.

Passage and Enrolling of Bills

Procedure on Defeat of More Than Majority Bill

23.5. Whenever a bill containing a section or sections requiring for passage an affirmative recorded vote of more than 21 votes in the Senate and more than 41 votes in the Assembly is being considered for passage, and the urgency clause, if the bill is an urgency bill, or the bill, in any case, fails to receive the necessary votes to make all sections effective, no further action may be taken on the bill, except that an amendment to remove all sections requiring the higher vote for passage from the bill shall be in order prior to consideration of further business. If the amendment is adopted, the bill shall be reprinted to reflect the amendment. When the bill is reprinted, it shall be returned to the same place on the file that it occupied when it failed to receive the necessary votes.

Enrollment of Bill After Passage

24. After a bill has passed both houses it shall be printed in enrolled form, omitting symbols indicating amendments, and shall be compared by the Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk and the proper committee of the house where it originated to determine that it is in the form approved by the houses. The enrolled bill shall thereupon be signed by the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly and, except as otherwise provided by these rules, presented without delay to the Governor. The committee shall report the time of presentation of the bill to the Governor to the house and the record shall be entered in the journal. After enrollment and signature by the officers of the Legislature, constitutional amendments, and concurrent and joint resolutions, shall be filed without delay in the office of the Secretary of State and the time of filing shall be reported to the house and the record entered in the journal.

Amendments and Conferences

Amendments to Amended Bills Must Be Attached

25. Whenever a bill or resolution that has been passed in one house is amended in the other, it shall immediately be reprinted as amended by the house making the amendment or amendments. One copy of the amendment or amendments shall be attached to the bill or resolution so amended, and endorsed "adopted"; the amendment or amendments, if concurred in by the house in which the bill or resolution originated, shall be endorsed "concurred in"; and the endorsement shall be signed by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Senate, or the Chief Clerk or Assistant Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be. However, an amendment to the title of a bill adopted after the passage of the bill shall not necessitate reprinting, but the amendment must be concurred in by the house in which the bill originated.

Amendments to Concurrent and Joint Resolutions

25.5. When a concurrent or joint resolution is amended, and the only effect of the amendments is to add coauthors, the joint or concurrent resolution shall not be reprinted unless specifically requested by one of the added coauthors, but a list of the coauthors shall appear in the journal and history.

To Concur or Refuse to Concur in Amendments

26. If the Senate amends and passes an Assembly bill, or the Assembly amends and passes a Senate bill, the Senate (if it is a Senate bill) or the Assembly (if it is an Assembly bill) must either "concur" or "refuse to concur" in the amendments. If the Senate concurs (if it is a Senate bill), or the Assembly concurs (if it is an Assembly bill), the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall so notify the house making the amendments, and the bill shall be ordered to enrollment.

Reference to Committee

26.5. Pursuant to Rule 26, whenever a bill is returned to its house of origin for a vote on concurrence in an amendment made in the other house, the Legislative Counsel shall promptly prepare and transmit to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Speaker of the Assembly in the case of an Assembly bill, or to the Secretary of the Senate and Chair of the Senate Committee on Rules in the case of a Senate bill, a brief digest summarizing the effect of the amendment made in the other house. The Secretary or Chief Clerk shall, upon receipt from the Legislative Counsel, cause the digest to be printed in the Daily File immediately following any reference to the bill covered by the digest. A motion to concur or refuse to concur in the amendment shall not be in order until the Legislative Counsel's Digest has appeared in the file or an analysis of the bill has been prepared and distributed pursuant to Senate Rule 29.8 or Assembly Rule 77.

If the digest discloses that the amendment of the other house has made a substantial substantive change in the bill as first passed by the house of origin, the bill shall, on motion of the Chair of the Senate Committee on Rules, if it be a Senate bill, be referred to the Senate Committee on Rules for reference to an appropriate standing committee. If the bill is an Assembly bill it shall be referred by the Speaker to the appropriate committee.

Upon receipt of the bill, the committee may vote to recommend concurrence or nonconcurrence in the amendment or the committee may hold the bill. The committee shall be subject to all the requirements for procedure provided under Rule 62 for committees, other than committees of first referral, and shall be subject to other requirements for normal committee procedure as the Assembly or Senate may separately provide in the standing rules of their respective houses.

Any of the provisions of this rule may be dispensed with regard to a particular bill in its house of origin upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of that house.

Concurring in Amendments Adding Urgency Section

27. When a bill that has been passed in one house is amended in the other by the addition of a section providing that the act shall take effect immediately as an urgency statute, and is returned to the house in which it originated for concurrence in the amendment or amendments thereto, the procedure and vote thereon shall be as follows:

The presiding officer shall first direct that the urgency section be read and put to a vote. If two-thirds of the membership of the house vote in the affirmative, the presiding officer shall then direct that the question of whether the house shall concur in the amendment or amendments shall be put to a vote. If two-thirds of the membership of the house vote in the affirmative, concurrence in the amendments shall be effective.

If the affirmative vote on either of the questions is less than two-thirds of the membership of the house, the effect is a refusal to concur in the amendment or amendments, and the procedure thereupon shall be as provided in Rule 28.

When Senate or Assembly Refuses to Concur

28. If the Senate (if it is a Senate bill) or the Assembly (if it is an Assembly bill) refuses to concur in amendments to the bill made by the other house, and the other house has been notified of the refusal to concur, a conference committee shall be appointed for each house in the manner prescribed by these rules. The Senate Committee on Rules, on behalf of the Senate, and the Speaker of the Assembly, on behalf of the Assembly, shall each appoint a committee of three on conference, and the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall immediately notify the other house of the action taken.

Committee on Conference

28.1. (a) The Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly, in appointing a committee on conference, shall each select two members from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difference has arisen, and the other member from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote.

Whether a member has voted with the majority or minority on the point about which the difference has arisen is determined by his or her vote on the appropriate roll call, as follows:

(1) In the Assembly—

(A) The roll call on the question of final passage of a Senate bill amended in the Assembly when the Senate has refused to concur with the Assembly amendments.

(B) The roll call on the question of concurrence with Senate amendments to an Assembly bill.

(2) In the Senate—

(A) The roll call on the question of final passage of an Assembly bill amended in the Senate when the Assembly has refused to concur with the Senate amendments.

(B) The roll call on the question of concurrence with Assembly amendments to a Senate bill.

(b) Either house may suspend this rule by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the house.

Meetings and Reports of Committees on Conference

29. The first Senator named on the conference committee shall act as chairman or chairwoman of the committee from the Senate, and the first Member of the Assembly named on the committee shall act as chairman or chairwoman of the committee from the Assembly. The chairman or chairwoman of the committee on conference for the house of origin of the bill shall arrange the time and place of meeting of the conference committee, and shall prepare or direct the preparation of reports. It shall require an affirmative vote of not less than two of the Assembly Members and two of the Senate Members constituting the committee on conference to agree upon a report, and the report shall be submitted to both the Senate and the Assembly. The committee on conference shall report to both the Senate and the Assembly. The report is not subject to amendment. If either house refuses to adopt the report, the conferees shall be discharged and other conferees appointed, except that no more than three different conference committees shall be appointed on any one bill. No member who has served on a committee on conference may be appointed a member of another committee on conference on the same bill. It shall require the same affirmative recorded vote to adopt any conference report as required by the California Constitution upon the final passage of the bill affected by the report. It shall require an affirmative recorded vote of two-thirds of the entire elected membership of each house to adopt any conference report affecting any bill that contains an item or items of appropriation that are subject to subdivision (d) of Section 12 of Article IV of the California Constitution. The report of a conference committee shall be in writing, and shall have affixed thereto the signatures of each Senator and each Member of the Assembly consenting to the report. Space shall also be provided where a member of a conference committee may indicate his or her dissent in the committee's findings. Any dissenting member may have attached to a conference committee report a dissenting report which shall not exceed, in length, the majority committee report. A copy of any amendments proposed in the majority report shall be placed on the desk of each member of the house before it is acted upon by the house.

The vote on concurrence or upon the adoption of the conference report shall be deemed the vote upon final passage of the bill.

Conference Committees

29.5. (a) All meetings of any conference committee on the Budget Bill shall be open and readily accessible to the public.

No conference committee on any bill may meet, consider, or act on the subject matter of the bill except in a meeting that is open and readily accessible to the public, unless the action is on a report determined by the Legislative Counsel to be nonsubstantive. The Legislative Counsel shall examine each proposed report and shall note upon the face of the report that the amendments proposed are "substantive" or "nonsubstantive" as the case may be.

The chairman or chairwoman of the conference committee of each house shall give notice to the file clerk of their respective houses of the time and place of the meeting. Notice of each public meeting shall be published in the file of each house one calendar day prior to the meeting, except that the notice shall not be required for a meeting of a conference committee on the Budget Bill. When this subdivision is waived with respect to a meeting of any public conference committee, or when there is a meeting of a conference committee on the Budget Bill, every effort shall be made to inform the public that a meeting has been called. When this subdivision has been waived with respect to the meeting of any public conference committee, the chairman or chairwoman of the conference committee of each house shall immediately notify the chairman or chairwoman of the policy committee of their respective houses that considered the bill in question of the waiver, and of the time and place of the meeting.

(b) The first committee on conference of the Budget Bill, if a committee is appointed, shall submit its report to each house no later than 15 days after the Budget Bill has been passed by both houses. If the report is not submitted by that date, the conference committee shall be deemed to have reached no agreement and shall so inform each house pursuant to Rule 30.7.

(c) A committee on conference of the Budget Bill may consider only differences between the Assembly version of the Budget Bill as passed by the Assembly and the Senate version of the Budget Bill as passed by the Senate, and may not approve any item of expenditure or control that exceeds that contained in one of the two versions before the conference committee.

(d) No conference committee on any bill, other than the Budget Bill, may approve any substantial financial provision in any bill if the financial provision has not been heard by the fiscal committee of each house, nor may any conference committee approve substantial policy changes that have not been heard by the policy committee of each house.

(e) No waiver of the one-calendar-day file notice requirement of subdivision (a) shall be effective for longer than three calendar days.

Conference Committee Reports

30. Upon submission of any report of a committee on conference recommending that the bill be further amended, the bill shall be reprinted incorporating the amendments recommended by the conference committee. The consideration of the report of a committee on conference shall not be in order until the bill, in the form recommended by the report of the committee on conference, has both been in print and been noticed in the Daily File for not less than one legislative day.

If the conference committee's report recommends only that the amendments of the Senate or the Assembly "be concurred in," consideration of the report shall be in order at any time, and reprinting of the bill shall not be required, but notice shall appear in the Daily File for not less than one legislative day.

No conference committee report is in order unless it has been received by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly at least three calendar days preceding the scheduled commencement of the summer, interim, or final recesses of the Legislature.

This rule may be suspended as to any particular conference committee report by a two-thirds vote of the membership of either house.

This rule does not apply to a report of a committee on conference on the Budget Bill.

Conference Committee Reports on Urgency Statutes

30.5. When the report of a committee on conference recommends the amendment of a bill by the addition of a section providing that the act shall take effect immediately as an urgency statute, the procedure and the vote thereon shall be as follows:

The presiding officer shall first direct that the urgency section be read and put to a vote. If two-thirds of the members elected to the house vote in the affirmative, the presiding officer shall then direct that the question of whether the house shall adopt the report of the committee on conference shall be put to a vote. If two-thirds of the members elected to the house vote in the affirmative, the adoption of the report and the amendments proposed thereby shall be effective.

If the affirmative vote on either of the questions is less than two-thirds of the members elected to the house, the effect is a refusal to adopt the report of the committee on conference.

Failure to Agree on Report

30.7. A conference committee may find and determine that it is unable to submit a report to the respective houses, upon the affirmative vote to that effect of not less than two of the Assembly Members and not less than two of the Senate Members constituting the committee. That finding may be submitted to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate in the form of a letter from the chairman or chairwoman of the committee on conference for the house of origin of the bill, containing the signatures of the members of the committee consenting to the finding and determination that the committee is unable to submit a report. The Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate, upon being notified that a conference committee is unable to submit a report, shall so inform each house, whereupon the conferees shall be discharged and other conferees appointed, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 29.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Authority When Rules Do Not Govern

31. All relations between the houses that are not covered by these rules shall be governed by Mason's Manual.

Press Rules

32. (a) Any person desiring privileges of an accredited press representative shall make application to the Joint Rules Committee. The application shall constitute compliance with any provisions of the rules of the Assembly or the Senate with respect to registration of news correspondents. The application shall state in writing the name of any daily newspaper, periodic publication, news association, or radio or television station that employs the press representative, and any other occupations or employment he or she may have. The press representative shall further declare in the application that he or she is not employed, directly or indirectly, to assist in the prosecution of the legislative business of any person, corporation, or association, and will not become so employed while retaining the privilege of an accredited press representative.

(b) The application required by subdivision (a) of this rule shall be authenticated in a manner that shall be satisfactory to the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association, which shall see that occupation of seats and desks in the Senate and the Assembly Chambers is confined to bona fide correspondents of reputable standing in their business, who represent daily newspapers requiring a daily file of legislative news, qualified periodic publications, or news associations requiring daily telegraphic or radio or television service on legislative news. It shall be the duty of the standing committee, at its discretion, to report any violation of accredited press privileges to the Speaker of the Assembly or the Senate Committee on Rules and, pending action thereon, the offending correspondent may be suspended by the standing committee.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, persons engaged in other occupations whose chief attention is not given to newspaper correspondence or to news associations requiring telegraphic or radio or television service are not entitled to the privileges accorded accredited press representatives. The press list in the Handbook of the California Legislature and the Senate and Assembly Histories shall be a list of only those persons authenticated by the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association. Accreditation may be granted to any bona fide correspondent of reputable standing employed by a periodic publication of general circulation if the applicant is employed on a full-time basis in the capitol area preparing articles dealing with state government and politics and the publication is not an organ or organization involved in legislative advocacy.

(d) The press seats and desks in the Senate and Assembly Chambers shall be under the control of the standing committee of correspondents, subject to the approval and supervision of the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules. Press cards shall be issued by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly only to correspondents properly accredited in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

(e) One or more rooms shall be assigned for the exclusive use of correspondents during the legislative session, which rooms shall be known as the Press Room. The Press Room shall be under the control of the Chief of the Office of Buildings and Grounds, provided that all rules and regulations must be approved by the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly.

(f) No accredited member of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall, for compensation, perform any service for state constitutional officers or members of their staffs, for state agencies, for the Legislature, for candidates for state office, for a state officeholder, or for any person registered or performing as a legislative advocate.

(g) An accredited member of the association who violates subdivision (a) or (f) of this rule shall be subject to the following penalties:

(1) For the first offense, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall send a letter of admonition to the offending member, his or her employer, and the Joint Rules Committee. The letter shall state the nature of the member's rule violation and shall warn of an additional penalty for a second offense.

(2) For a second offense, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall recommend to the Joint Rules Committee that the member's accreditation be suspended or revoked and that he or she lose all rights and privileges attached thereto. The Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall also dismiss the member from the association.

Any member of the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association may propose that the committee make an inquiry to determine if an association member has violated subdivision (a) or (f) of this rule. Upon a majority vote of the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association, an inquiry shall be made.

Upon receipt of a signed, written notice from any association member of his or her belief that another association member may have violated subdivision (a) or (f) of this rule, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall commence an inquiry into the possible violation.

If the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association determines by majority vote that an association member has violated an association rule, it shall inform the member of its finding. Within two weeks of notification, the member may request a meeting of the membership. If the member makes a request, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall promptly schedule a meeting at the earliest possible time. After hearing the member and the committee review the circumstances of the alleged violation, the membership may, by majority vote, nullify the finding of the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association. If nullification does not occur, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall impose immediately the appropriate penalty.

Dispensing With Joint Rules

33. No joint rule may be dispensed with except by a vote of two-thirds of each house or as otherwise provided in these rules. If either house violates a joint rule, a question of order may be raised in the other house and decided in the same manner as in the case of the violation of the rules of the house. If it is decided that the joint rules have been violated, the bill involving the violation shall be returned to the house in which it originated, and the disputed matter shall be considered in like manner as in conference committee.

Dispensing with Joint Rules: Unanimous Consent

33.1. Notwithstanding any other rule, a joint rule that may be dispensed with by one house may be done so by unanimous consent if the rules committee of that house has approved.

Opinions of Legislative Counsel

34. Whenever the Legislative Counsel issues an opinion to any person other than the first-named author analyzing the constitutionality, operation, or effect of a bill or other legislative measure that is then pending before the Legislature or of any amendment made or proposed to be made to the bill or measure, he or she is authorized and instructed to deliver two copies of the opinion to the first-named author as promptly as feasible after the delivery of the original opinion and also to deliver a copy to any other author of the bill or measure who so requests. A copy of any letter prepared by the Legislative Counsel for the sole purpose of advising a member of a conflict between two or more bills as to the sections of law being amended, repealed, or added shall be submitted to the chairman or chairwoman of the committee to which each bill has been referred.

Resolutions Prepared by Legislative Counsel

34.1. Whenever the Legislative Counsel has been requested to draft a resolution commemorating or taking note of any event, or a resolution congratulating or expressing sympathy toward any person, and subsequently receives a similar request from another Member of the Legislature, he or she shall inform that requester and each subsequent requester that a resolution is being, or has been, prepared, and he or she shall inform them of the name of the member for whom the resolution was, or is being, prepared.

Resolutions

34.2. A concurrent resolution, Senate resolution, or House resolution may be introduced to memorialize the death of a present or former state or federal elected official or a member of his or her immediate family. In all other instances, a resolution other than a concurrent resolution, as specified by the Committee on Rules of each house, or as provided by the Joint Rules Committee in those cases requiring that the resolution should emanate from both houses, shall be used for the purpose of commendation, congratulation, sympathy, or regret with respect to any person, group, or organization.

No concurrent resolution requesting the Governor to issue a proclamation shall be introduced without the prior approval of the Committee on Rules of the house in which the resolution is to be introduced.

Identical Drafting Requests

34.5. Whenever it comes to the attention of the Legislative Counsel that a member has requested the drafting of a bill that will be substantially identical to one already introduced, the Legislative Counsel shall inform the member of that fact.

Expense of Members

35. As provided in Section 8902 of the Government Code, each Member of the Legislature is entitled to reimbursement for living expenses while required to be in Sacramento to attend a session of the Legislature, while traveling to and from or in attendance at a committee meeting, or while attending to any legislative function or responsibility as authorized or directed by legislative rules or the Committee on Rules of the house of which he or she is a member, at the same rate as may be established by the State Board of Control for other elected state officers. Each member shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in traveling to and from a session of the Legislature, when traveling to and from a meeting of a committee of which he or she is a member, or when traveling pursuant to any other legislative function or responsibility as authorized or directed by legislative rules or the Committee on Rules of the house of which he or she is a member, at the rate prescribed by Section 8903 of the Government Code.

Expense allowances for Members of the Senate and Assembly shall be approved and certified to the Controller by the Secretary of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or other person authorized by the Assembly Committee on Rules, on behalf of the Assembly, weekly or as otherwise directed by either house, and upon certification the Controller shall draw his or her warrants in payment of the allowances to the respective members.

Investigating Committees

36. In order to expedite the work of the Legislature either house, or both houses jointly, may by resolution or statute provide for the appointment of committees to ascertain facts and to make recommendations as to any subject within the scope of legislative regulation or control.

The resolution providing for the appointment of a committee pursuant to this rule shall state the purpose of the committee and the scope of the subject concerning which it is to act, and may authorize it to act either during sessions of the Legislature or, when authorization may lawfully be made, after final adjournment.

In the exercise of the power granted by this rule, each committee may employ clerical, legal, and technical assistants as may be authorized by: (a) the Joint Committee on Rules in the case of a joint committee, (b) the Senate Committee on Rules in the case of a Senate committee, or (c) the Assembly Committee on Rules in the case of an Assembly committee.

Except as otherwise provided herein for joint committees or by the rules of the Senate or the Assembly for single house committees, each committee may adopt and amend rules governing its procedure as may appear necessary and proper to carry out the powers granted and duties imposed under this rule. The rules may include provisions fixing the quorum of the committee and the number of votes necessary to take action on any matter. With respect to all joint committees, a majority of the membership from each house constitutes a quorum, and an affirmative vote of a majority of the membership from each house is necessary for the committee to take action.

Each committee is authorized and empowered to summon and subpoena witnesses, to require the production of papers, books, accounts, reports, documents, records, and papers of every kind and description, to issue subpoenas, and to take all necessary means to compel the attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony, oral and documentary.

Each member of the committees is authorized and empowered to administer oaths, and all of the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 9400) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses before the Legislature and the committees thereof, shall apply to the committees.

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate or Assembly, or other person as may be designated by the chairman or chairwoman of the committee, shall serve any and all subpoenas, orders, and other process that may be issued by the committee, when directed to do so by the chairman or chairwoman, or by a majority of the membership of the committee.

Every department, commission, board, agency, officer, and employee of the state government, including the Legislative Counsel and the Attorney General and their subordinates, and of every political subdivision, county, city, or public district of or in this state, shall give and furnish to these committees and to their subcommittees upon request information, records, and documents as the committees deem necessary or proper for the achievement of the purposes for which each committee was created.

Each committee or subcommittee of either house, in accordance with the rules of that respective house, and each joint committee or subcommittee thereof, may meet at any time during the period in which it is authorized to act, either at the State Capitol or at any other place in the State of California, in public or executive session, and do any and all things necessary or convenient to enable it to exercise the powers and perform the duties herein granted to it or accomplish the objects and purposes of the resolution creating it, subject to the following exceptions:

(a) When the Legislature is in session:

(1) No committee or subcommittee of either house may meet outside the State Capitol without the prior approval of the Senate Committee on Rules with respect to Senate committees and subcommittees, or the Speaker of the Assembly with respect to Assembly committees and subcommittees.

(2) No committee or subcommittee of either house, other than a standing committee or subcommittee thereof, may meet unless notice of the meeting has been printed in the daily file for four days prior thereto. This requirement may be waived by a majority vote of either house with respect to a particular bill.

(3) No joint committee or subcommittee thereof, other than the Joint Committees on Legislative Audit, Legislative Budget, and Rules, may meet outside the State Capitol without the prior approval of the Joint Rules Committee.

(4) No joint committee or subcommittee thereof, other than the Joint Committees on Legislative Audit, Legislative Budget, and Rules, may meet unless notice of the meeting has been printed in the daily file for four days prior thereto.

(b) When the Legislature is in joint recess, each joint committee or subcommittee, other than the Joint Committees on Legislative Audit, Legislative Budget, and Rules, shall notify the Joint Rules Committee at least two weeks prior to a meeting.

(c) The requirements placed upon joint committees by subdivisions (a) and (b) of this rule may be waived as deemed necessary by the Joint Rules Committee.

Each committee may expend such money as may be made available to it for its purpose, but no committee shall incur any indebtedness unless money has been first made available therefor.

No living expenses may be allowed in connection with legislative business for a day on which the member receives reimbursement for expenses while required to be in Sacramento to attend a session of the Legislature. The chairman or chairwoman of each committee shall audit and approve the expense claims of the members of the committee, including claims for mileage in connection with attendance on committee business, or in connection with specific assignments by the committee chairman or chairwoman, but excluding other types of mileage, and shall certify the amount approved to the Controller. The Controller shall draw his or her warrants upon the certification of the chairman or chairwoman.

Subject to the rules of each house for the respective committees of each house, and subject to the joint rules for any joint committee, the chairman or chairwoman of any committee may appoint subcommittees and chairmen or chairwomen thereof for the purpose of more expeditiously handling and considering matters referred to it, and the subcommittees and the chairmen or chairwomen thereof shall have all the powers and authority herein conferred upon the committee and its chairman or chairwoman. The chairman or chairwoman of the subcommittee shall audit the expense claims of the members of the subcommittees, and other claims and the expenses incurred by it, and shall certify the amount thereof to the chairman or chairwoman of the committee, who shall, if he or she approves the same, certify the amount thereof to the Controller; the Controller shall draw his or her warrant therefor upon that certification, and the Treasurer shall pay the same. Any committee or subcommittee thereof that is authorized to leave the State of California in the performance of its duties shall, while out of the state, have the same authority as if it were acting and functioning within the state, and the members thereof shall be reimbursed for expenses.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, if the standing rules of either house require that expense claims of committees for goods or services, pursuant to contracts, or for expenses of employees or members of committees be audited or approved, after approval of the committee chairman or chairwoman, by another agency of either house, the Controller shall draw his or her warrants only upon the certification of the other agency. All expense claims approved by the chairman or chairwoman of any joint committee, other than the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, shall be approved by the Joint Rules Committee, and the Controller shall draw his or her warrants only upon the certification of the Joint Rules Committee.

Except salary claims of employees clearly subject to federal withholding taxes and the requirement as to loyalty oaths, claims presented for services or pursuant to contract shall refer to the agreement, the terms of which shall be made available to the Controller.

Expenses of Committee Employees

36.1. Unless otherwise provided by respective house or committee rule or resolution, employees of legislative committees shall, when entitled to traveling expenses, be entitled to allowances in lieu of actual expenses for hotel accommodations, breakfast, lunch, and dinner, at the rates fixed by the State Board of Control from time to time in limitation of reimbursement of expenses of state employees generally. However, if an allowance for hotel accommodations, breakfast, lunch, and dinner is made by a committee at a rate in excess of the rate fixed by the State Board of Control, the chairman or chairwoman of the committee shall notify the Controller of that fact in writing.

Appointment of Committees

36.5. This rule applies whenever a joint committee is created by a statute or resolution which either provides that appointments be made and vacancies be filled in the manner provided for in the Joint Rules, or makes no provision for the appointment of members or the filling of vacancies.

The Senate members of the committee shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; the Assembly members of the committee shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and vacancies occurring in the membership of the committee shall be filled by the respective appointing powers. The members appointed shall hold over until their successors are regularly selected.

Appointment of Joint Committee Chairmen or Chairwomen

36.7. The chairman or chairwoman of each joint committee heretofore or hereafter created, except the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, shall be appointed by the Joint Rules Committee from a member or members recommended by the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly.

Joint Committee Funds

36.8. Each joint committee heretofore or hereafter created, except the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, shall expend the funds heretofore or hereafter made available to it in compliance with the policies set forth by the Joint Rules Committee with respect to personnel, salaries, purchasing, office space assignment, contractual services, rental or lease agreements, travel, and any and all other matters relating to the management and administration of committee affairs.

Joint Legislative Budget Committee

37. In addition to any other committee provided for by these rules, there shall be a joint committee to be known as the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, which is hereby declared to be a continuing body.

It shall be the duty of the committee to ascertain facts and make recommendations to the Legislature and to the houses thereof concerning the state Budget, the revenues and expenditures of the state, and the organization and functions of the state and its departments, subdivisions, and agencies, with a view to reducing the cost of the state government and securing greater efficiency and economy.

The committee shall consist of eight Members of the Senate and eight Members of the Assembly. The Senate members of the committee shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules. The Assembly members of the committee shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. The committee shall select its own chairman or chairwoman.

Any vacancy occurring at any time in the Senate membership of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall be filled by the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Senators appointed shall hold over until their successors are regularly selected. For the purposes of this rule, a vacancy shall be deemed to exist as to a Senator whose term is expiring whenever he or she is not reelected at the general election.

Any vacancy occurring at any time in the Assembly membership of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall be filled by appointment by the Speaker of the Assembly, and the Members of the Assembly appointed shall hold over between regular sessions until their successors are regularly selected. For the purposes of this rule, a vacancy shall be deemed to exist as to a Member of the Assembly whose term is expiring whenever he or she is not reelected at the general election.

The committee shall have the authority to make rules to govern its own proceedings and its employees. It may also create subcommittees from its membership, assigning to its subcommittees any study, inquiry, investigation, or hearing that the committee itself has authority to undertake or hold. A subcommittee for the purpose of this assignment shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred upon the committee, limited only by the express terms of any rule or resolution of the committee defining the powers and duties of the subcommittee. Those powers may be withdrawn or terminated at any time by the committee.

The Joint Legislative Budget Committee may render services to any investigating committee of the Legislature pursuant to contract between the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the committee for which the services are to be performed. The contract may provide for payment to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the cost of the services from the funds appropriated to the contracting investigating committee. All legislative investigating committees are authorized to enter into those contracts with the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. Money received by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee pursuant to any agreement shall be in augmentation of the current appropriation for the support of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

The provisions of Rule 36 shall apply to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, which has all the authority provided in that rule or pursuant to Section 11 of Article IV of the Constitution.

The committee shall have authority to appoint a Legislative Analyst, to fix his or her compensation, to prescribe his or her duties, and to appoint any other clerical and technical employees as may appear necessary. The duties of the Legislative Analyst shall be as follows:

(1) To ascertain the facts and make recommendations to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and, under its direction, to the committees of the Legislature concerning:

(a) The state Budget.

(b) The revenues and expenditures of the state.

(c) The organization and functions of the state and its departments, subdivisions, and agencies.

(2) To assist the Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee and the Assembly Committees on Appropriations and Budget in consideration of the Budget, all bills carrying express or implied appropriations, and all legislation affecting state departments and their efficiency; to appear before any other legislative committee; and to assist any other legislative committee upon instruction by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

(3) To provide all legislative committees and Members of the Legislature with information obtained under the direction of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

(4) To maintain a record of all work performed by the Legislative Analyst under the direction of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and to keep and make available all documents, data, and reports submitted to him or her by any Senate, Assembly, or joint committee. The committee may meet either during sessions of the Legislature, any recess thereof, or after final adjournment, and may meet or conduct business at any place within the State of California.

The chairman or chairwoman of the committee or, in the event of that person's inability to act, the vice chairman or vice chairwoman, shall audit and approve the expenses of members of the committee or salaries of the employees, and all other expenses incurred in connection with the performance of its duties by the committee. The chairman or chairwoman shall certify to the Controller the expense amount approved, the Controller shall draw his or her warrants upon the certification of the chairman or chairwoman, and the Treasurer shall pay the same to the chairman or chairwoman of the committee, to be disbursed by the chairman or chairwoman.

On and after the commencement of a succeeding regular session, those members of the committee who continue to be Members of the Senate and Assembly, respectively, continue as members of the committee until their successors are appointed, and the committee continues with all its powers, duties, authority, records, papers, personnel, and staff, and all funds theretofore made available for its use.

Upon the conclusion of its work, any Assembly, Senate, or joint committee (other than a standing committee) shall deliver to the Legislative Analyst for use and custody all documents, data, reports, and other materials that have come into the possession of the committee and that are not included within the final report of the committee to the Assembly, Senate, or the Legislature, as the case may be. The documents, data, reports, and other materials shall be available, upon request, to Members of the Legislature, the Senate Office of Research, and the Assembly Office of Research.

The Legislative Analyst, with the consent of the committee, shall make available to any Member or committee of the Legislature any other reports, records, documents, or other data under his or her control, except that reports prepared by the Legislative Analyst in response to a request from a Member or committee of the Legislature shall be made available only with the written permission of the member or committee who made the request.

The Legislative Analyst, upon the receipt of a request from any committee or Member of the Legislature to conduct a study or provide information that falls within the scope of his or her responsibilities and that concerns the administration of the government of the State of California, shall at once advise the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the nature of the request without disclosing the name of the Member or committee making the request.

The Legislative Analyst shall immediately undertake to provide the requesting committee or legislator with the service or information requested, and shall inform the committee or legislator of the approximate date when this information will be available.

Should there be any material delay, he or she shall subsequently communicate this fact to the requester.

Neither the Committee on Rules of either house nor the Joint Rules Committee may assign any matter for study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or the Legislative Analyst without first obtaining from the Joint Legislative Budget Committee an estimate of the amount required to be expended by it to make the study.

Any concurrent, joint, Senate, or House resolution assigning a study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or to the Legislative Analyst shall be referred to the respective rules committees. Before the committees may act upon or assign the resolution, they shall obtain an estimate from the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the amount required to be expended to make the study.

Citizen Cost Impact Report

37.1. Any Member or committee of the Legislature may recommend that the Legislative Analyst prepare a citizen cost impact analysis on proposed legislation. However, the recommendation shall first be reviewed by the Committee on Rules of the house where the recommendation originated, and this committee shall make the final determination as to which bills shall be assigned for preparation of an impact analysis.

In selecting specific bills for assignment to the Legislative Analyst for preparation of citizen cost impact analyses, the Committee on Rules shall request the Legislative Analyst to present an estimate of his or her time and prospective costs for preparing the analyses. Only those bills that have a potential significant cost impact shall be assigned. Where necessary, the Committee on Rules shall provide funds to offset added costs incurred by the Legislative Analyst.

The citizen cost impact analyses shall include those economic effects that the Legislative Analyst deems significant and that he or she believes will result directly from the proposed legislation. Insofar as feasible, the economic effects considered by the Legislative Analyst shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) The economic effect on the public generally.

(b) Any specific economic effect on persons or businesses in the case of legislation that is regulatory.

The Legislative Analyst shall submit the citizen cost impact analyses to the committee or committees when completed, and at the time or times designated by the Committee on Rules.

The Legislative Analyst shall submit from time to time, but at least once a year, a report to the Legislature on the trends and directions of the state's economy, and shall list the alternatives and make recommendations as to legislative actions that, in his or her judgment, will insure a sound and stable state economy.

Joint Legislative Audit Committee

37.3. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee is created pursuant to the Legislature's rulemaking authority under the California Constitution, and pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 10500) of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The committee shall consist of seven Members of the Senate and seven Members of the Assembly, who shall be selected in the manner provided for in these rules. Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules, four members from each house constitute a quorum of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee and the number of votes necessary to take action on any matter. The Chairman or Chairwoman of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, upon receiving a request by any Member of the Legislature or committee thereof for a copy of a report prepared or being prepared by the Bureau of State Audits, shall provide the member or committee with a copy of the report when it is, or has been, submitted by the Bureau of State Audits to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee.

Study or Audits

37.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall establish priorities and assign all work to be done by the Bureau of State Audits.

(b) Any bill requiring action by the Bureau of State Audits shall contain an appropriation for the cost of any study or audit.

(c) Any bill or concurrent, joint, Senate, or House resolution assigning a study to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee or to the Bureau of State Audits shall be referred to the respective rules committees. Before the committees may act upon or assign the bill or resolution, they shall obtain an estimate from the Joint Legislative Audit Committee of the amount required to be expended to make the study.

Waiver

37.5. Subdivision (b) of Rule 37.4 may be waived by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The chairman or chairwoman of the committee shall notify the Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, and the Legislative Counsel in writing when subdivision (b) of Rule 37.4 has been waived. If the cost of a study or audit is less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the chairman or chairwoman of the committee may exercise the committee's authority to waive subdivision (b) of Rule 37.4.

Administrative Regulations

37.7. (a) Any Member of the Senate may request the Senate Committee on Rules, and any Member of the Assembly may request the Speaker of the Assembly, to direct a standing committee or the Office of Research of his or her respective house to study any proposed or existing regulation or group of related regulations. Upon receipt of a request, the Senate Committee on Rules or the Speaker of the Assembly shall, after review, determine whether a study shall be made. (7) Imposes unreasonable penalties for violation.

The respective reviewing unit shall, in a timely manner, transmit its concerns, if any, to the Senate Committee on Rules or the Speaker of the Assembly, and the promulgating agency.

In the event that a state agency takes a regulatory action that the reviewing unit finds to be unacceptable, the unit shall file a report for publication in the daily journal of its respective house indicating the specific reasons why the regulatory action should not have been taken. The report may include a recommendation that the Legislature adopt a concurrent resolution requesting the state agency to reconsider its action or that the Legislature enact a statute to restrict the regulatory powers of the state agency taking the action.

Joint Rules Committee

To the extent possible, each Committee on Rules shall seek to insure that the investigating committees for which it has responsibility under this rule have organized, including the organization of any subcommittees, and have had all topics for study assigned to them within a reasonable period of time.

The information thus cumulated shall be made available to the public by the Committee on Rules of each house and shall be published periodically under their joint direction.

Joint Committees

43. Any concurrent resolution creating a joint committee of the Legislature and any concurrent resolution allocating moneys from the Operating Funds of the Assembly and Senate to the committee shall be referred to the Committee on Rules of the respective houses.

Conflict of Interest

44. (a) No Member of the Legislature may, while serving, have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, engage in any business or transaction or professional activity, or incur any obligation of any nature, that is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state.

(b) No Member of the Legislature may, during the term for which he or she was elected:

(1) Accept other employment that he or she has reason to believe will either impair his or her independence of judgment as to his or her official duties, or require him or her, or induce him or her, to disclose confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of and by reason of his or her official duties.

(2) Willfully and knowingly disclose, for pecuniary gain, to any other person, confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of and by reason of his or her official duties, or use the information for the purpose of pecuniary gain.

(3) Accept or agree to accept, or be in partnership with any person who accepts or agrees to accept, any employment, fee, or other thing of value, or portion thereof, in consideration of his or her appearance, agreeing to appear, or taking of any other action on behalf of another person regarding a licensing or regulatory matter, before any state board or agency that is established by law for the primary purpose of licensing or regulating the professional activity of persons licensed, pursuant to state law.

This rule may not be construed to prohibit a member who is an attorney at law from practicing in that capacity before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board or the Commissioner of Corporations, and receiving compensation therefor, or from practicing for compensation before any state board or agency in connection with, or in any matter related to, any case, action, or proceeding filed and pending in any state or federal court. This rule does not prohibit a member from making inquiry for information on behalf of a constituent before a state board or agency, if no fee or reward is given or promised in consequence thereof. The prohibition contained in this rule does not apply to a partnership in which a Member of the Legislature is a member if the Member of the Legislature does not share directly or indirectly in the fee resulting from the transaction, nor does it apply in connection with any matter pending before any state board or agency on the operative date of this rule if the affected Member of the Legislature is attorney of record or representative in the matter prior to the operative date.

(4) Receive or agree to receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation, reward, or gift from any source except the State of California for any service, advice, assistance, or other matter related to the legislative process, except fees for speeches or published works on legislative subjects and except, in connection therewith, the reimbursement of expenses for actual expenditures for travel and reasonable subsistence for which no payment or reimbursement is made by the State of California.

(5) Participate, by voting or any other action, on the floor of either house, or in committee or elsewhere, in the enactment or defeat of legislation in which he or she has a personal interest, except as follows:

(i) If, on the vote for final passage, by the house of which he or she is a member, of the legislation in which he or she has a personal interest, he or she first files a statement (which shall be entered verbatim in the journal) stating in substance that he or she has a personal interest in the legislation to be voted on and that, notwithstanding that interest, he or she is able to cast a fair and objective vote on the legislation, he or she may cast his or her vote without violating any provision of this rule.

(ii) If the member believes that, because of his or her personal interest, he or she should abstain from participating in the vote on the legislation, he or she shall so advise the presiding officer prior to the commencement of the vote and shall be excused from voting on the legislation without any entry in the journal of the fact of his or her personal interest. In the event that a rule of the house requiring that each member who is present vote aye or nay is invoked, the presiding officer shall order the member excused from compliance and shall order entered in the journal a simple statement that the member was excused from voting on the legislation pursuant to law.

(c) A person subject to this rule has an interest that is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state, or a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this rule, if he or she has reason to believe or expect that he or she will derive a direct monetary gain or suffer a direct monetary loss, as the case may be, by reason of his or her official activity. He or she does not have an interest that is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state, or a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this rule, if any benefit or detriment accrues to him or her as a member of a business, profession, occupation, or group to no greater extent than any other member of the business, profession, occupation, or group.

(d) A person who is subject to this rule shall not be deemed to be engaged in any activity that is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state, or to have a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this rule, solely by reason of any of the following:

(1) His or her relationship to any potential beneficiary of any situation is one that is defined as a remote interest by Section 1091 of the Government Code or is otherwise not deemed to be a prohibited interest under Section 1091.1 or 1091.5 of the Government Code.

(2) Receipt of a campaign contribution that is regulated, received, reported, and accounted for pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100) of Title 9 of the Government Code, so long as the contribution is not made on the understanding or agreement, in violation of law, that the person's vote, opinion, judgment, or action will be influenced thereby.

(e) The enumeration in this rule of specific situations or conditions that are deemed not to result in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of the duties and responsibilities of a legislator or legislative employee, or in a personal interest, shall not be construed as exclusive.

The Legislature, in adopting this rule, recognizes that Members of the Legislature and legislative employees may need to engage in employment, professional, or business activities other than legislative activities in order to maintain a continuity of professional or business activity, or may need to maintain investments, which activities or investments do not conflict with specific provisions of this rule. However, in construing and administering this rule, weight should be given to any coincidence of income, employment, investment, or other profit from sources that may be identified with the interests represented by those sources that are seeking action of any character on matters then pending before the Legislature.

(f) No employee of either house of the Legislature may, during the time he or she is so employed, commit any act or engage in any activity prohibited by any part of this rule.

(g) No person may induce or seek to induce any Member of the Legislature to violate any part of this rule.

(h) Violations of any part of this rule are punishable as provided in Section 8926 of the Government Code.

Ethics Committees

45. The Senate Committee on Legislative Ethics and the Assembly Legislative Ethics Committee, respectively, shall receive complaints concerning Members of their respective houses, and shall have the power to investigate and make findings and recommendations concerning violations by Members of their respective houses of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Each house shall adopt rules governing the establishment and procedures of the committee of that house.

(a) It may be recalled by joint proclamation, which shall be entered in the journal, of the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly or, in his or her absence from the state, the Assembly Committee on Rules.

(b) Ten or more Members of the Legislature may present a request for recall from joint recess to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate. The request shall immediately be printed in the journal. (c) If the appropriate rules committee recommends that the suspension be permitted, the member may offer a resolution, without further reference thereof to committee, granting permission to suspend the joint rule. The adoption of the resolution granting permission shall require an affirmative recorded vote of the elected members of the house in which the request is made.

Introduction of Bills

These deadlines do not apply to constitutional amendments, committee bills introduced pursuant to Assembly Rule 47 or Senate Rule 23, bills introduced in the Assembly with the permission of the Speaker of the Assembly, or bills introduced in the Senate with the permission of the Senate Committee on Rules. Subject to these deadlines, a bill may be introduced at any time except when the houses are in joint summer, interim, or final recess. Each house may provide for introduction of bills during a recess other than a joint recess. Bills shall be numbered consecutively during the regular session.

(b) The Desks of the Senate and Assembly shall remain open during a joint recess, other than a joint Easter, summer, interim, or final recess, for the introduction of bills during business hours on Monday through Friday, inclusive, except holidays. Bills received at the Senate Desk during these periods shall be numbered and printed. After printing, the bills shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Senate and referred by the Senate Committee on Rules to a standing committee. Bills received at the Assembly Desk during these periods shall be numbered, printed, and referred to a committee by the Assembly Committee on Rules. After printing, the bills shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. On the reconvening of each house, the bills shall be read the first time, and shall be delivered to the committee to which they were referred.

(c) A member may not author a bill during a session that would have substantially the same effect as a bill he or she previously introduced during that session. This restriction does not apply in cases where the previously introduced bill was vetoed by the Governor or its provisions were "chaptered out" by a later chaptered bill pursuant to Section 9605 of the Government Code. An objection based on this restriction may be raised only while the bill is being considered by the house in which it is introduced. The objection shall be referred to the Committee on Rules of the house for a determination. The bill shall remain on file or with a committee, as the case may be, until a determination is made. If, upon consideration of the objection, the Committee on Rules determines that the bill objected to would have substantially the same effect as another bill previously introduced during the session by the author, the bill objected to shall be stricken from the file or returned to the desk by the committee, as the case may be, and may not be acted upon during the remainder of the session. If the Committee on Rules determines that the bill objected to would not have substantially the same effect as a bill previously introduced during the session by the author, the bill may thereafter be acted upon by the committee or the house, as the case may be. The Committee on Rules may obtain assistance as it may desire from the Legislative Counsel as to the similarity of a bill or amendments to a prior bill.

This joint rule may be suspended by approval of the Committee on Rules and three-fourths vote of the membership of the house.

(d) During a joint recess, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or Secretary of the Senate shall order the preparation of preprint bills when so ordered by any of the following:

(1) The Speaker of the Assembly.

(2) The Committee on Rules of the respective house.

(3) A committee, with respect to bills within the subject matter jurisdiction of the committee.

Preprint bills shall be designated and shall be printed in the order received and numbered in the order printed. To facilitate subsequent amendment, a preprint bill shall be so prepared that, when introduced as a bill, the page and the line numbers will not change. The Chief Clerk of the Assembly and Secretary of the Senate shall publish a list periodically of preprint bills showing the preprint bill number, the title, and the Legislative Counsel's Digest. The Speaker of the Assembly and Senate Committee on Rules may refer any preprint bill to committee for study.

30-Day Waiting Period

55. No bill other than the Budget Bill may be heard or acted upon by committee or either house until the bill has been in print for 30 days. The date a bill is returned from the printer shall be entered in the history. This rule may be suspended concurrently with the suspension of the requirement of Section 8 of Article IV of the Constitution or, if that period has expired, this rule may be suspended by approval of the Committee on Rules and two-thirds vote of the house in which the bill is being considered.

Return of Bills

56. Bills introduced in the first year of the regular session and passed by the house of origin on or before the January 31st constitutional deadline are "carryover bills." Immediately after January 31, bills introduced in the first year of the regular session that do not become “carryover bills” shall be returned to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or Secretary of the Senate, respectively. Notwithstanding Rule 4, as used in this rule, “bills” does not include constitutional amendments.

Appropriation Bills

57. Appropriation bills that may not be sent to the Governor shall be held, after enrollment, by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or Secretary of the Senate, respectively. The bills shall be sent to the Governor immediately after the Budget Bill has been enacted.

Urgency Clauses

(c) No bill may be acted upon by a committee during a joint recess.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), a policy committee may report a bill to a fiscal committee on or before the relevant deadline for reporting nonfiscal bills to the floor if, after the policy committee deadline for reporting the bill to fiscal committee, the Legislative Counsel's Digest is changed to indicate reference to fiscal committee.

(e) Any bill in the house of origin that is not acted upon during the odd-numbered year as a result of the deadlines imposed in subdivision (a) may be acted upon when the Legislature reconvenes after the interim study joint recess, or at any time the Legislature is recalled from the interim study joint recess.

(f) The deadlines imposed by this rule do not apply to the rules committees of the respective houses.

(g) The deadlines imposed by this rule do not apply in instances where a bill is referred to committee under Rule 26.5.

(h) The deadlines imposed by this rule do not apply in instances where a bill is referred to a committee under Assembly Rule 77.2.

Article IV of the California Constitution, at any time other than those periods when no committee may meet for any purpose.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), either house may meet for the purpose of considering and passing a constitutional amendment, or a bill that would go into immediate effect pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8 of Article IV of the California Constitution, at any time during the session.

(j) This rule may be suspended as to any particular bill by approval of the Committee on Rules and two-thirds vote of the membership of the house.

Committee Procedure

62. (a) Notice of a hearing on a bill by the committee of first reference in each house, or notice of an informational hearing, shall be published in the file at least four days prior to the hearing. Otherwise, notice shall be published in the file two days prior to the hearing. That notice requirement may be waived by a majority vote of the house in which the bill is being considered. A bill may be set for hearing in a committee only three times. A bill is "set," for purposes of this subdivision, whenever notice of the hearing has been published in the file for one or more days. If a bill is set for hearing, and the committee, on its own initiation and not the author's, postpones the hearing on the bill or adjourns the hearing while testimony is being taken, that hearing shall not be counted as one of the three times a bill may be set. After hearing the bill, the committee may vote on the bill. If the hearing notice in the file specifically indicates that "testimony only" will be taken, that hearing shall not be counted as one of the three times a bill may be set. A committee may not vote on a bill so noticed until it has been heard in accordance with this rule. After a committee has voted on a bill, reconsideration may be granted only one time. Reconsideration may be granted within 15 legislative days or prior to the interim study joint recess, whichever first occurs. A vote on reconsideration may not be taken without the same notice required to set a bill unless that vote is taken at the same meeting at which the vote to be reconsidered was taken, and the author is present. When a bill fails to get the necessary votes to pass it out of committee, or upon failure to receive reconsideration, it shall be returned to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or Secretary of the Senate of the house of the committee and may not be considered further during the session.

This subdivision may be suspended with respect to a particular bill by approval of the Committee on Rules and two-thirds vote of the members of the house.

(b) If the committee adopts amendments other than those offered by the author and orders the bill reprinted prior to its further consideration, the hearing shall not be the final time a bill may be set under subdivision (a) of this rule.

(c) When a standing committee takes action on a bill, the vote shall be by roll call vote only. All roll call votes taken by a standing committee shall be recorded by the committee secretary on forms provided by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate. The chairman or chairwoman of each standing committee shall promptly transmit a copy of the record of the roll call votes to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, respectively, who shall cause the votes to be published as prescribed by each house.

This subdivision also applies to action of a committee on a subcommittee report. The rules of each house shall prescribe the procedure as to roll call votes on amendments.

Any committee may, with the unanimous consent of the members present, substitute a roll call from a prior bill, provided that the members whose votes are substituted are present at the time of the substitution.

At no time shall a bill be passed out by a committee without a quorum being present.

This subdivision does not apply to:

(1) Procedural motions that do not have the effect of disposing of a bill.

(2) Withdrawal of a bill from a committee calendar at the request of an author.

(3) Return of a bill to the house where the bill has not been voted on by the committee.

(4) The assignment of a bill to committee.

(d) The chairman or chairwoman of the committee hearing a bill may, at any time, order a call of the committee. Upon a request by any member of a committee or the author in person, the chairman or chairwoman shall order the call.

In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the members present may order a quorum call of the committee and compel the attendance of absentees. The chairman or chairwoman shall send the Sergeant at Arms for those members who are absent and not excused by their respective house.

When a call of a committee is ordered by the chairman or chairwoman with respect to a particular bill, he or she shall send the Sergeant at Arms, or any other person to be appointed for that purpose, for those members who have not voted on that particular bill and are not excused.

A quorum call or a call of the committee with respect to a particular bill may be dispensed with by the chairman or chairwoman without objection by any member of the committee, or by a majority of the members present.

If a motion is adopted to adjourn the committee while the committee is operating under a call, the call shall be dispensed with and any pending vote announced.

The committee secretary shall record the votes of members answering a call. The rules of each house may prescribe additional procedures for a call of a committee.

Redistricting Bills

62.5. This rule applies only to bills affecting the boundaries of legislative, congressional, or State Board of Equalization districts.

(a) Except as specifically provided in this rule, Rules 28, 28.1, 29, 29.5, 30, 30.5, 30.7, 61 (except for paragraph (12) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (15) of subdivision (b) of Rule 61), and 62 shall not apply to bills affecting the boundaries of legislative, congressional, or State Board of Equalization districts.

(b) If the Senate (in the case of a Senate bill) or the Assembly (in the case of an Assembly bill) refuses to concur in amendments to a bill made by the other house, a committee on conference shall be appointed. The Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules shall each appoint a committee on conference of three members, consisting of two members of the majority party and one member not of the majority party. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall immediately notify the other house of the action taken.

(c) When a bill affecting the boundaries of legislative, congressional, or State Board of Equalization districts has been referred to a committee on conference, the chairman or chairwoman of the committee on conference shall immediately request the Senate Committee on Elections and Reapportionment and the Assembly Committee on Elections, Reapportionment, and Constitutional Amendments to hold a public hearing on the bill. The committee on conference shall also hold a public hearing on the bill. The hearings of the policy committees and the committee on conference may be noticed and held concurrently.

(d) If either or both of the policy committees hold a public hearing on a bill pursuant to the request of the chairman or chairwoman of the committee on conference, the policy committees may consider amendments to the bill, and may make recommendations on amendments to the committee on conference. A policy committee recommendation for an amendment may be adopted only by a roll call vote of the members of the policy committee.

(e) All proposed reports of a committee on conference, all proposed amendments to a proposed report of a committee on conference, and all proposed amendments presented to a policy committee shall be accompanied by appropriate maps. No committee vote may be taken on any proposed report of a committee on conference, any proposed amendment to a proposed report of a committee on conference, or any proposed amendment presented to a policy committee unless the proposed report or proposed amendment, with accompanying maps, has been available to the public for at least 24 hours. District boundaries contained in any proposed report or any proposed amendment may not be required to be prepared or approved as to form by Legislative Counsel if the accompanying maps adequately reflect the district boundaries.

(f) All hearings of the policy committees and the committee on conference shall be open and readily accessible to the public, and shall be noticed in the Daily File for not less than two calendar days.

(g) The provisions of subdivision (e) prohibiting a committee vote on any proposed report of a committee on conference, any proposed amendment to a proposed report of a committee on conference, or any proposed amendment presented to a policy committee unless the amendment, accompanied by appropriate maps, has been available to the public for at least 24 hours shall not apply in any of the following situations:

(1) The amendment proposed to a policy committee or the committee on conference does not change any district boundaries.

(2) The amendment proposed to a policy committee or the committee on conference is required to correct a technical error in the bill, and the proposed amendment would shift no more than one percent of the population of any district to any other district or districts.

(3) The amendment is a policy committee or committee on conference amendment that is proposed in response to amendments that have been proposed to the committee.

(h) Except as provided in subdivision (i), no vote may be taken in either house on any bill or any report of the committee on conference on that bill unless the bill or the report has been in print in Legislative Counsel form and available to the public, accompanied by appropriate maps, for at least 24 hours.

(i) If either house refuses to adopt the report of the committee on conference, the bill may be returned to the committee on conference for further consideration. If the bill is returned to the committee on conference for an amendment described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (g), the notice requirements of subdivisions (e) and (h) shall not apply.

(j) Notwithstanding any other rule, this rule may be suspended upon a majority vote of the membership of each house.

Uniform Rules

63. No standing committee of either house may adopt or apply any rule or procedure governing the voting upon bills which is not equally applicable to the bills of both houses.

Votes on Bills

64. Every meeting of each house and standing committee or subcommittee thereof where a vote is to be taken on a bill, or amendments to a bill, shall be public.

Conflicting Rules

65. The provisions of Rule 50 and following of these rules prevail over any conflicting joint rule with a lesser number.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1997.]

WHEREAS, One of the most shameful chapters in our nation's history was a hostile policy of the United States government against Native American Indian tribes, and a product of these historic wrongs is that Indian tribal lands in California are primarily small, located in remote areas of the state, and lack the most basic resources that would foster employment and opportunity, and as a result, California Indian tribes were forced into an existence of poverty and despair symbolized by high unemployment, illiteracy, and substandard health care; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in 1987 reaffirmed the right of sovereign Indian nations to operate high-stakes gaming activities; and

WHEREAS, Congress passed, and the President of the United States signed into law, the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (25 U.S.C. Sec. 2701 et seq.) that has as a principal goal the promotion of tribal economic development, tribal self-sufficiency, and strong tribal government; and

WHEREAS, Revenues from gaming are replacing welfare with employment, illiteracy with education, substance abuse with treatment, poverty with prosperity, and despair with hope, and have created over 15,000 jobs in gaming enterprises and over 25,000 jobs in related industries providing services to gaming operations; and

WHEREAS, The federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act provides a statutory basis for the conduct and oversight of gaming on Indian lands, and that statute requires tribal-state compacts for conducting certain forms of gaming; and

WHEREAS, The impact of Indian gaming on state public policy is presently the subject of federal and state scholarly research studies; and

WHEREAS, The Governor and the Attorney General of the State of California are currently negotiating a tribal-state compact with the government of the Pala Band of Mission Indians that may serve as the framework for the negotiations of other sovereign tribal governments; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That as sovereign governments California Indian tribes have a fundamental right to conduct gaming operations on their sovereign reservation lands and to foster future economic development, and gaming that results in revenues used to improve housing, education, and health care for California Indian tribes has the support of the majority of the Members of the Legislature of the State of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the President of the United States is requested to issue an executive order permitting the tribes to continue to operate and regulate their respective gaming operations until appropriate legislation is enacted and all other compact remedies have been exhausted; and be it further

WHEREAS, This unique southwestern area, with ideal weather for testing and training operations, consists of mostly Department of Defense and government lands that are largely free of commercial airline routes, electromagnetic interference, and high population density; and

WHEREAS, This complex of nearly contiguous facilities has the technical assets—scientific and engineering work force, laboratories, test facilities, ranges, land and airspace—plus the track record of cooperation to allow it to assume the principal Department of Defense role in developing and testing complex air warfare systems; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 67

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 8—Relative to vehicles.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1997.]

WHEREAS, This state supports safe and reliable trucking businesses and drivers; and

WHEREAS, All trucks known as "longer combination vehicles" encroach considerably into adjacent lanes while turning, and, according to the Department of Transportation, cannot operate safely in a majority of the urban areas in the state; and

WHEREAS, Due to their longer length, greater number of trailers and articulation points, and generally greater instability, traffic accidents involving triple trailer trucks are expected to be more severe than single trailer truck accidents; and

WHEREAS, A truck weighing 80,000 pounds is more than twice as likely to be involved in a fatal crash than a truck weighing 50,000 pounds; and

WHEREAS, The steering sensitivity of tractor semitrailers falls sharply as the gross vehicle weight increases, making fatal crashes more likely due to the operator's diminished ability to control the truck; and

WHEREAS, Due to the higher center of gravity in heavier trucks, those vehicles are more likely to roll over; and

WHEREAS, Overlength trucks, such as "longer combination vehicles," result in "off-tracking" during turns, where a 57-foot long single truck will necessarily either roll over the curb or swing out into the oncoming lane of traffic; and

WHEREAS, One 80,000 pound tractor semitrailer that is in compliance with all regulations does as much damage to the roads as 9,600 cars; and

WHEREAS, "Longer combination vehicles" are currently prohibited in California because of the threat that those vehicles present to highway safety; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports truck size and weight standards currently established by the Vehicle Code; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature opposes any efforts to increase the size and weight of commercial trucks; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature opposes any efforts to weaken hours of service regulations or to provide geographic exceptions to the prohibition against "longer combination vehicles" in the State of California; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature urges the President and the Congress of the United States to maintain the current standards relating to truck size and weight set forth in the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 (P.L. 102-240); and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Many of our senior citizens rely on the Congregate Nutrition Services under Subpart 1 (commencing with Section 3030e) of Part C of Subchapter 3 of Chapter 35 of Title 42 of the United States Code, the Older Americans Act, for their main source of nutrition; and

WHEREAS, Many of our senior citizens rely on the Home Delivered Nutrition Services under Subpart 2 (commencing with Section 3030f) of Part C of Subchapter 3 of Chapter 35 of Title 42 of the United States Code, the Older Americans Act, for their only source of nutrition; and

WHEREAS, In many cases, the delivery person may be the only person who sees the senior citizen daily, and that person also serves as a resource for other needs that the senior citizen may have; and

WHEREAS, Delivered meals to a home-bound senior citizen is very cost-effective, since nutrition is basic to maintaining health and life; and

WHEREAS, Without home-delivered meals to home-bound seniors, they are forced into higher levels of care and the residential and skilled nursing facilities that those seniors are moved to cost much more; and

WHEREAS, Most of the cost of care in residential homes and skilled nursing facilities are passed on to the state and the federal government; and

WHEREAS, The means by which lowest cost under which care may be provided is to maintain these senior citizens in their own homes; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to maintain current levels of funding of Congregate Nutrition Services under Subpart 1 (commencing with Section 3030e) of Part C of Subchapter 3 of Chapter 35 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and Home Delivered Nutrition Services under Subpart 2 (commencing with Section 3030f) of Subchapter 3 of Chapter 35 of Title 42 of the United States Code; and be it further

WHEREAS, In previous rounds of military base closures, California suffered the closure or realignment of 29 bases; and

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to adopt a number of guidelines and policies in crafting any additional BRAC legislation:

WHEREAS, Recently the Pentagon and the Department of Defense reversed their previous denial that United States troops had in fact been exposed to chemical weapons during the war, but could not locate military logs covering eight days in March 1991 when tens of thousands of United States and allied troops were accidentally exposed to chemical or biological agents; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature, on February 5, 1991, adopted Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 that memorialized the President of the United States "in his commitment in sending troops into battle, and creating a new generation of veterans of foreign wars, to be equally committed to providing for their health care needs, caring for their family support needs, and all other attendant needs they will experience as a result of war"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California proclaims its concern that the United States government has not fully met its moral obligation to attend to the health care and family support needs of its Persian Gulf War veterans suffering from Gulf War Syndrome; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to take immediate action to ensure all of the following:

(1) That all of the health care and family support needs of all Persian Gulf War veterans suffering from these illnesses are met prior to the conclusion of any further studies.

(2) That all possible causes of the Gulf War Syndrome, including infectious diseases, pesticides, smoke and particulates from oil well fires, contact with dust and rubble from exploded shells made of depleted uranium, chemical and biological weapons, and vaccines and pills administered to troops as antidotes to possible chemical and biological agents are expeditiously and exhaustively researched.

(3) That the actions of the Pentagon and the Department of Defense regarding the release of pertinent information regarding Gulf War Syndrome and the exposure of troops to chemical or biological weapons be fully investigated; and be it further

WHEREAS, March Air Force Base, Riverside County, California, has been realigned, and the active Air Force unit has left the base to the joint use of the Air Force reserves and civilian authorities; and

WHEREAS, On July 2, 1993, the President of the United States announced a program to aid the economic recovery of communities suffering base closures and pledged top priority in the early reuse of the base’s assets by the host communities; and

WHEREAS, Property on March Air Force Base has been identified as surplus property that is to be made available for community development, and this property includes the Non-Commissioned Officer Training Academy, composed of classroom space, dormitories, audio/visual facilities, a physical training area, and open acreage; and

WHEREAS, The Sheriff of Riverside County is an elected, constitutional officer and is responsible for providing training to the officers of the department, and has a history of being involved in providing quality training to the law enforcement community; and

WHEREAS, The Riverside County Sheriff's Department has had to use three separate sites in which to present a Peace Officers Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) certified law enforcement curriculum, and has had to relinquish its oldest site because of encroaching residential development; and

WHEREAS, The California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training recommended the creation of regional public safety training centers in its report "Partnerships for a Safer California," prepared pursuant to Section 13508 of the Penal Code; and

WHEREAS, The Sheriff's Department and the Fire Department of Riverside County have taken a one-year lease on the NCO Training Academy site and have started to develop the site as a regional training center and find that it would be of great benefit to take title to the property through application to the federal government in order to continue development; and

WHEREAS, Federal surplus property has been made available to certain public agencies through a special grant process, but that process is limited and does not accommodate the regional training center, and therefore requires federal legislation amending the process; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Justice has been contacted and has shown an interest in the training center and in an amendment to the federal surplus property law (40 U.S.C. Sec.

484(j)(3)) allowing them to act as sponsors for public safety projects; and

WHEREAS, From the Concord Naval Weapons Station, the spent nuclear fuel rods will be transported by rail or truck through northern California, including Sacramento, and through Nevada and Utah before arriving at the United States Department of Energy's National Engineering and Environmental Laboratory in Idaho; and

WHEREAS, The proposed rail route from California to Idaho will involve the shipments passing through the Feather River Canyon where trains have derailed 28 times in 16 years; and

WHEREAS, The combined shipments of spent nuclear fuel rods will involve approximately one-half ton of uranium and small amounts of plutonium; and

WHEREAS, The planned shipments of spent nuclear fuel rods will be made by private foreign flag ships; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Energy intends to ship the spent nuclear fuel rods to the Concord Naval Weapons Station in a total of 38 20-ton steel casks purportedly able to withstand airdrops from 200 feet and immersion in water depths of 650 feet; and

WHEREAS, The policy of bringing spent fuel from foreign countries to the United States was adopted as a part of the Atoms for Peace program enacted 50 years ago, when 41 countries agreed not to make nuclear weapons in exchange for enriched uranium to use in research reactors; and

WHEREAS, Under the Atoms for Peace program, the United States agreed to take the used fuel to relieve foreign countries of problems with disposal and ease fears about terrorists abroad using the fuel to make bombs; and

WHEREAS, Shipments of similar nuclear fuel rods began on the east coast of the United States with no public notice as early as 1958, with a total of 150 shipments through the Charleston Naval Weapons Station in South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, The Concord Naval Weapons Station has been the secret west coast shipping point for nuclear bombs and missiles since the beginning of the Cold War; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Energy has inadequately addressed potential environmental and safety impacts in the Final Environmental Impact Statement for the shipment project, failed to fully inform local communities in California of the catastrophic impacts of a potential shipment accident, and failed to adequately document the necessity of using the Concord station rather than alternative shipping points, such as the naval base at Bremerton, Washington; and

WHEREAS, If the steel casks containing the spent nuclear fuel rods are breached, there is no assurance that persons, land, and waters will not be exposed to dangerous radioactive materials; and

WHEREAS, This state is committed foremost to protecting the health and safety of its people and environment; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 81

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 51—Relative to the Nisei Baseball Leagues.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 25, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The sport of baseball, universally known as America's national pastime, is rich with stories, legends, history, and culture; and

WHEREAS, Although not widely known in this country until recent years, the Japanese American community has contributed a significant chapter to the history of baseball that parallels its rich contributions to the heritage of American society and the foundations on which this country stands; and

WHEREAS, Beginning at the turn of the 20th century, "Issei", or first-generation Japanese Americans, cultivated a love for the game of baseball that eventually led to the development of an extensive, highly regarded network of separate, Japanese American leagues throughout the United States that competed in both this country and abroad; and

WHEREAS, By the 1920's, more than 100 teams had been formed, consisting primarily of talented "Nisei," or second-generation Japanese Americans, who proudly continued the passionate baseball tradition of their Issei forefathers; and

WHEREAS, Though the world-class Nisei teams, like the teams in the Negro Leagues and in the All-American Girls Professional Baseball Leagues, played mostly against each other in response to the discrimination and segregation they faced in their daily lives, they also successfully competed against high school, college, and semiprofessional teams from white America, teams from the Negro Leagues, and even barnstorming teams led by professional baseball legends like Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Ted Williams, Jackie Robinson, and Joe DiMaggio; and

WHEREAS, In 1937, all-star teams consisting of Nisei players from central and northern California traveled to Japan, Korea, and Manchuria, as ambassadors of good will, where they impressed audiences with their competitive spirit, sportsmanship, and talented, aggressive style of fast-paced American baseball; and

WHEREAS, Later, during the days of internment during World War II, the passion of these skillful Japanese American players kept the national pastime alive, poignantly evidenced by the fact that Gila River, one of 10 internment camps, had 3 divisions and 28 teams; and

WHEREAS, After World War II, many Nisei players pursued their dreams of professional baseball in Japan, and in so doing, helped to promote cultural exchanges and visits of American major league teams and players; and

WHEREAS, In spite of this rich tradition and history, the popularity of the Nisei Baseball Leagues gradually faded as discrimination and segregated sports eased in American society, until the Leagues almost disappeared altogether in the early 1970's; and

WHEREAS, That rich history has, in recent years, fortunately been rediscovered for the benefit of all Americans, through, among other things, historical exhibits like "Diamonds in the Rough: Japanese Americans in Baseball," a project jointly curated by the Nisei Baseball Research Project, the National Japanese American Historical Society, the California State Capitol Museum, and the Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California, on tour through the United States and currently on display at the California State Capitol Museum; and

WHEREAS, This fascinating exhibit includes rare photographs, personal artifacts, and historical documents about the history of Japanese Americans in the sport of baseball, and celebrates the legacy of the great Nisei players and the development of the Nisei Baseball Leagues in the face of discrimination and hardship during that time; and

WHEREAS, In honor of their contribution to baseball, the Nisei Baseball Leagues should rightfully have a permanent exhibit at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York, a proposal supported by, among others, the San Francisco Giants, Los Angeles Dodgers, and San Diego Padres; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Nisei Baseball Leagues should be recognized and rightfully honored for their contribution to the game of baseball by having a permanent exhibit on display at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York; and be it further

WHEREAS, Downstream levee breaks flooded thousands of acres of farmland; and

WHEREAS, The yield of the San Joaquin River system is currently overcommitted with respect to meeting obligations to contractors, fisheries, and the water quality concerns of downstream water users; and

WHEREAS, The waters of the San Joaquin River, as impounded by the Friant Dam, are currently put to beneficial use serving some of the most productive small family farms in the nation in the water-short Friant Division of the federal Central Valley Project; and

WHEREAS, Diversions from the San Joaquin River have resulted in diminished water quality for downstream users, particularly those on the lower San Joaquin River; and

WHEREAS, California’s population is projected to increase by 20 million residents in the next 25 years, particularly in the Central Valley region of the state, thereby placing further demands on the state's ability to provide flood protection as well as an adequate water supply; and

WHEREAS, The increasing difficulty of meeting these various, sometimes competing, needs gives cause to review the feasibility of raising Friant Dam to help meet those needs by building on the existing investment on the San Joaquin River; and

WHEREAS, The United States Bureau of Reclamation reconnaissance studies conducted in 1952, 1975, and 1982 attest to the physical, but not the economic, feasibility of raising Friant Dam; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to authorize and fund a prompt evaluation of the physical potential for, and economic feasibility of, raising Friant Dam and making use of the increased capacity to help meet flood protection and water supply needs for the citizens of this state, without impairing the existing rights of, and benefits to, and without altering the costs to, the current users of the waters of the San Joaquin River ; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Secretary of the Interior, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, As a result of the efforts of those pioneer players, today's multimillionaires are assured of a prosperous pension in their advanced years; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 90

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 43—Relative to state investments.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 19, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The entire world has been shocked by the revelations about gold and other valuable personal possessions that were taken from the victims of the Jewish Holocaust by Nazi Germany, placed in Swiss banks, and that remained hidden there from the survivors and the families of the victims for five decades; and

WHEREAS, Investigations have revealed cash deposits made in those banks by Jewish families that feared, and ultimately became the victims of the Holocaust, which are the rightful property of the Holocaust survivors and the families of the victims, but that remain undisclosed and unreturned to them; and

WHEREAS, Virtually all information regarding the sale or deposit of unknown billions of dollars of Nazi German assets to Swiss banking institutions, and data regarding the existence and status of the long dormant accounts of Holocaust victims and survivors has been discovered without the participation and assistance of the Swiss banking interests; and

WHEREAS, President Clinton and the leadership of the United States Congress have established a strong bipartisan approach to pressure the Swiss banking institutions to release bank records in an effort to determine the amount of money and other valuables taken from Holocaust victims and survivors, and to identify those living and the families of those who have died who are the legitimate claimants for those resources; and

WHEREAS, California has long been a leader in the effort to memorialize and remember the tragic events of the Holocaust in which six million Jews were murdered by the Nazi German dictatorship so that the horrors of this genocide will never be repeated again; and

WHEREAS, All Americans have a stake in ensuring that justice is done. Apartheid was ended in South Africa by Americans of all races fighting a battle together for what was and is right, regardless of race or religion, and that battle was primarily spurred by California's decision to divest from South Africa; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate for California to join other states in the effort to force the Swiss banking institutions to release information that will bring closure to another disturbing chapter in the history we know as the Holocaust, and justice to those who lost their wealth, great or small, to the actions of the Nazi Germans and the Swiss banks; and

WHEREAS, The Public Employees Retirement System, the State Treasurer, and other state entities may conduct financial transactions that involve members of the Swiss Bankers Association; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California encourages the Board of Administration of the Public Employees Retirement System, the State Treasurer, and the executive management of any state agency that is authorized to invest or transact financial business with private financial institutions that do business with Swiss banking interests to call upon the management of those interests to publicly release all information relative to the personal accounts of Jews that have remained dormant since World War II, and all information regarding financial transactions between the Nazi German government, financial institutions and Nazi governmental officials, and the members of the Swiss Bankers Association for the same period; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the State Treasurer, and to the Board of Administration of the Public Employees Retirement System.

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature concurs with the May 28, 1997, Federal Trade Commission decision to seek an order that would require R.J. ## RESOLUTION CHAPTER 93

Senate Joint Resolution No. 6—Relative to Filipino veterans' benefits.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The Philippine Islands became a United States possession in 1898 when they were ceded from Spain following the Spanish-American War and remained a possession of the United States until 1946; and

WHEREAS, In 1934, Congress passed Public Law 73-127, the Philippine Independence Act, that set a 10-year timetable for the eventual independence of the Philippines and in the interim established a Commonwealth of the Philippines with certain powers over its internal affairs; and

WHEREAS, The granting of full independence ultimately was delayed for two years until 1946 because of the Japanese occupation of the islands from 1942 to 1945; and

WHEREAS, During the interval between 1934 and the final independence in 1946, the United States retained certain sovereign powers over the Philippines, including the right, upon order of the President of the United States, to call into the service of the United States Armed Forces all military forces organized by the Commonwealth government; and

WHEREAS, President Roosevelt invoked this authority by executive order of July 26, 1941, bringing the Philippine Commonwealth Army into the service of the United States Armed Forces of the Far East under the command of Lt. General Douglas MacArthur; and

WHEREAS, Two hundred thousand Filipino soldiers, driven by a sense of honor and dignity, battled under United States Command after 1941 to preserve our liberty; and

WHEREAS, There are four groups of Filipino nationals who are entitled to all or some of the benefits to which United States veterans are entitled. These are:

(1) Filipinos who served in the regular components of the United States Armed Forces.

(2) Regular Philippine Scouts, called "Old Scouts," who enlisted in Filipino-manned units of the United States Army prior to October 6, 1945.

(3) Special Philippine Scouts, called "New Scouts," who enlisted in the United States Armed Forces between October 6, 1945, and June 30, 1947, primarily to perform occupation duty in the Pacific following World War II.

(4) Members of the Philippine Commonwealth Army who on July 26, 1941, were called into the service of the United States Armed Forces. This group includes organized guerrilla resistance units that were recognized by the United States Army; and

WHEREAS, The first two groups, Filipinos who served in the regular components of the United States Army and Old Scouts, are considered United States veterans and are generally entitled to the full range of United States veterans' benefits; and

WHEREAS, The other two groups, New Scouts and members of the Commonwealth Army, are eligible for certain benefits, and some of these are paid at lower than full rates. United States veterans' medical benefits for the four groups of Filipino veterans vary depending upon whether the person resides in the United States or the Philippines; and

WHEREAS, The Old Scouts were created in 1901 pursuant to the Act of February 2, 1901, that authorized the President of the United States "to enlist natives [of the Philippines] ... for service in the Army, to be organized as scouts ... or as troops or companies, as authorized by this Act, for the regular Army"; and

WHEREAS, Prior to World War II, these troops assisted in the maintenance of domestic order in the Philippines and served as a combat ready force to defend the islands against foreign invasion; and

WHEREAS, During the war, they participated in the defense of and retaking of the islands from Japanese occupation. The eligibility of Old Scouts for benefits based on military service in the United States Armed Forces, including veterans' benefits, has long been established; and

WHEREAS, The federal Department of Veterans Affairs operates a comprehensive program of veterans' benefits in the Republic of the Philippines, including the operation of a federal Department of Veterans Affairs office in Manila; and

WHEREAS, The federal Department of Veterans Affairs does not operate a program of this type in any other country; and

WHEREAS, The program in the Philippines evolved because the Philippines were a United States possession during the period 1898–1946, and many Filipinos have served in the United States Armed Forces, and because the preindependence Commonwealth Army of the Philippines was called into the service of the United States Armed Forces during World War II (1941–1945); and

WHEREAS, Our nation, however, has failed to meet the promises made to those Filipino soldiers who fought as American soldiers during World War II; and

WHEREAS, Many Filipino veterans have been discriminated against by the classification of their service as not being service rendered in the United States Armed Forces for purposes of benefits from the federal Department of Veterans' Affairs; and

WHEREAS, Filipinos gallantly served at Bataan and Corregidor, giving their toil, blood, and lives so as to provide the United States valuable time to rearm materiel and men to launch the counteroffensive in the Pacific war; and

WHEREAS, All other nationals, even foreigners, who served in the United States Armed Forces have been recognized and granted full rights and benefits, but the Filipinos who actually were American nationals at that time were and are still denied recognition and singled out for exclusion, and this treatment is unfair and discriminatory; and

WHEREAS, On March 6, 1997, House Resolution No. 836, the Filipino Veterans Equity Act, was introduced in the United States House of Representatives, to deem service in the organized military forces of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and the Philippine Scouts during World War II to be active service for the purpose of benefits under programs administered by the Secretary of Veteran Affairs; and

WHEREAS, The proposed legislation would bring relief to the estimated remaining 60,000 to 70,000 Filipino veterans (out of the initial 175,000 to 200,000 troops) who risked their lives during World War II, surviving the occupation of the Philippine Islands and the infamous Bataan Death March, and who, now in their mid-60's to mid-90's, have been battling for years to obtain the benefits of other veterans of that war; and

WHEREAS, On October 20, 1996, President Clinton issued a proclamation honoring the nearly 100,000 Filipino veterans of World War II, soldiers of the Philippine Commonwealth Army, who fought as a component of the United States Forces alongside Allied Forces for four long years to defend and reclaim the Philippine Islands, and thousands more who joined the United States Armed Forces after the war; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to take action necessary to honor our country's moral obligation to provide Filipino veterans with the military benefits that they deserve, including, but not limited to, holding related hearings, and acting favorably on legislation pertaining to granting full veterans' benefits to Filipino veterans of the United States Armed Forces; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 1997.]

WHEREAS, In April 1991 an “Agreement on Mutual Cooperation” (officially known as the “Agreement of Friendship and Partnership between the State of California, USA, and the Russian Soviet Federative Socialist Republic, USSR”) was signed between the Russian Federation (at that time a constituent republic of the former Soviet Union) and the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Six years after the signing of the “Agreement on Mutual Cooperation” it has still not been put into effect by the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Due to the changes in the former USSR, the Russian Federation is now an independent state with its own 89 constituent regions and republics; and

WHEREAS, By signing the “Agreement on Mutual Cooperation” in 1991, the State of California and the Russian Federation recognized the importance of cooperation between the diverse people of the two countries and desire to improve mutual economic, commercial, scientific, technological, and cultural cooperation, and other areas of mutual interest; and

WHEREAS, The “Agreement on Mutual Cooperation” commits the State of California and the Russian Federation to encourage agreements for the sale of goods and services, cooperation in industrial and agricultural production, the creation of joint ventures, the establishment of scientific, technological, and education exchanges, tours of artistic groups and performers, art exhibitions, and cooperation in the area of tourism; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 98

Senate Joint Resolution No. 25—Relative to the Job Creation and Infrastructure Restoration Act and the Jobs 2000 Act of 1997.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 1997.]

WHEREAS, On March 5, 1997, Congressman Matthew Martinez of California introduced House Resolution 950, the “Job Creation and Infrastructure Restoration Act of 1997,” which includes the “Jobs 2000 Act of 1997,” to provide $50 billion per year for emergency public works jobs over a five-year period; and

WHEREAS, The funds will include emergency financial grants to local governments for the construction, repair, and renovation of public works projects including schools, housing, hospitals, parks, bridges, highways, environmental improvement, and other similar projects; and

WHEREAS, The act contains strong labor provisions, including Davis-Bacon prevailing wage requirements, which ensure living wage jobs, equal opportunity employment, provisions for job safety and a healthful work environment, and union apprenticeship for young workers, with project labor agreements with building trades unions; and

WHEREAS, The destruction of the welfare safety net has created an urgent survival need for a vast number of jobs at a living wage in numerous states across the country, including California, where close to half a million families are in danger of losing welfare benefits with an insufficient number of good paying jobs to meet the demand; and

WHEREAS, The new federal welfare legislation has resulted in workfare, and other low-wage, dead-end job solutions that are being used to replace union workers in the private and public sectors with less skilled workers who are particularly threatened by the loss of protections that were contained in the former welfare law; and

WHEREAS, This situation will decrease the wages and worsen the working conditions of all workers, when what should be created are jobs that pay workers enough to raise a family and lift them out of poverty, as is provided for in the Job Creation and Infrastructure Restoration Act and the Jobs 2000 Act of 1997, which will provide public works jobs at a living wage, on an emergency basis to hundreds of thousands of workers, with priority being given to welfare recipients, the long-term unemployed, victims of plant and base closures, youths, and unemployed building trades workers; and

WHEREAS, The City and County of Los Angeles are in significant need of substantial funds for infrastructure repair and restoration, along with jobs, which the Job Creation and Infrastructure Restoration Act and the Jobs 2000 Act of 1997 would greatly alleviate, with public works and community improvement projects prioritized for communities that suffer the highest levels of unemployment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature affirms its endorsement of the federal Job Creation and Infrastructure Restoration Act and the Jobs 2000 Act of 1997, and urges the United States Congress to pass the act at once, to meet the urgent demands of the welfare, job, and infrastructure crises across the nation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 99

Senate Joint Resolution No. 26—Relative to Aircraft Repair Station Safety Act of 1997.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 1997.]

WHEREAS, On January 9, 1997, House Resolution No. 145 (H.R. 145) was introduced in Congress; and

WHEREAS, H.R. 145 proposes to enact the Aircraft Repair Station Safety Act of 1997; and

WHEREAS, The Aircraft Repair Station Safety Act of 1997 would provide for more stringent standards for certification of foreign repair stations by the Federal Aircraft Administration and would revoke the certification of any repair facility that knowingly uses defective parts; and

WHEREAS, The Aircraft Repair Station Safety Act of 1997 would require all maintenance facilities, whether domestic or foreign, to adhere to the same safety and operating procedures; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact the Aircraft Repair Station Safety Act of 1997; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 100

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 32—Relative to arthropods.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1997.]

WHEREAS, An outstanding reference collection of arthropods is stored in a modern compact environment at the Plant Pest Diagnostics Center of the Division of Plant Industry of the Department of Food and Agriculture; and

WHEREAS, The collection includes about 1.5 million specimens representing insect families worldwide and representing the genera of North America and contains representative species of California. While not the largest arthropod collection, this collection is one of the highest in percentage of properly identified specimens in the United States; and

WHEREAS, This collection provides for accurate and timely identification of arthropods by a staff of world-class quality scientists capable of identifying all submitted insects, mites, and other arthropods that may be a threat to agriculture. The well-planned operation to rapidly identify submitted insects, mites, and other arthropods is necessary due to the rapidly increasing movement of people and produce into the state by many transportation modes that may introduce foreign arthropods that could cause the agriculture industry millions of dollars in crop loss, treatment costs, loss of some domestic and foreign markets through quarantines, and additional burdens on our environment from use of chemical insecticides in attempts to control or eradicate the pests; and

WHEREAS, Nearly one-third of all jobs in California are related to agriculture; and

WHEREAS, The scientists at the diagnostics center routinely use their professional background, available literature, consultations with professional peers, and, of utmost importance to the timely and accurate identification process, the utilization of the reference collection; and

WHEREAS, The use of this collection as a valuable tool for scientific use began in 1927 and includes a repository for all associated data on hosts, locations, dates of collection, collectors, and biological information, provides representative voucher specimens from control and eradication projects, as environmental indicators, from unique situations for historical evidence, distribution, and range information, and contains type specimens representing unique species; and

WHEREAS, The diagnostics center is charged with performing the multitude of services associated with identification of arthropods for California's most important industry, agriculture. The diagnostics center identifications serve county agriculture commissioners,

University of California Extension services and researchers, and the public at large; and

WHEREAS, In order to ensure that the collection in Sacramento will always be available to scientists, it is imperative that this collection is managed properly and secured financially for the future. It is an effective step in this preservation and management that the diagnostics center's collection be officially recognized as the official state collection; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Plant Pest Diagnostics Center of the Division of Plant Industry of the Department of Food and Agriculture is hereby officially designated as the official repository for the collection of arthropods in the state and shall be known as the State Collection of Arthropods; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Food and Agriculture is requested to determine the cost of appropriate plaques and markers, consistent with the building standards for state building, showing the special designation and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering that cost, to erect those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of Food and Agriculture.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 63—Relative to peace officers.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Reserve peace officers comprise a significant complement to full-time peace officers who provide services to our communities; and

WHEREAS, Three hundred thirty-eight public agencies in this state currently employ nearly 10,000 reserve officers, or about 15 percent of the total 70,000 municipal and county law enforcement personnel; and

WHEREAS, Reserve peace officers have undergone physical and mental testing that includes attendance at an academy for seven months on nights and weekends and hundreds of hours of field training with full-time deputies and experienced part-time deputies; and

WHEREAS, In 1996, reserve peace officers donated over $100,000,000 of their services to their communities throughout the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Reserve peace officers are citizens who care enough about their communities to put their time, money, and even their lives on the line without receiving compensation or reimbursement; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That California Legislature encourages all Californians to join with the Legislature in commending reserve peace officers for their service, dedication, and commitment to the citizens of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 103

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 23—Relative to minority enrollment in medical schools.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Recent data indicates that California's medical schools have experienced a 19-percent reduction in underrepresented minority enrollment between 1995 and 1996; and

WHEREAS, This precipitous decline is inconsistent with both the spiraling growth of the state's underrepresented population, as well as with nationwide statistics that reveal a decline in minority enrollment in medical schools of only 5 percent over the same period; and

WHEREAS, According to a May 1996 report in the New England Journal of Medicine, recent studies reveal that physicians who are members of minority groups serve a critical role in serving California's minority populations due to their proclivity for electing to practice in communities with high proportions of minority residents; and

WHEREAS, Data also indicates poor urban communities have fewer physicians per capita than do more affluent areas; and

WHEREAS, Even among the state's rural areas, which, according to survey data, have 40 percent fewer physicians overall than urban areas, the supply of physicians was found to be lowest in areas with high percentages of underrepresented minorities; and

WHEREAS, Access to medical care for all California residents and all communities regardless of considerations of race, income, or geography should be a high priority policy goal; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the University of California medical schools report to the Regents of the University of California and the California Postsecondary Education Commission the current status of ethnic minority enrollment in their respective schools; and be it further

Resolved, That this report shall include information on the number of underrepresented students who have applied, been admitted, and enrolled during the period from 1985 to 1997, inclusive, as well as a summary of the efforts made during this period to increase the representation of those student groups; and be it further

Resolved, That the State of California shall strive to broaden the diversity of enrollment in the area of primary care at the University of California medical schools; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission, to the extent sufficient nonstate funds are available and in consultation with the California Research Bureau and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, shall develop recommendations for innovative strategies and incentive programs that will encourage physicians and other health care professionals to practice in geographic areas where health needs are underserved; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission, in developing its recommendations, shall assess the extent to which academic and administrative policies and programs currently employed in California's medical schools require modifications to achieve the goal of educational access to health professions for future physicians who are likely to provide health care for all California communities, including those that are underserved; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall consult with representatives of California medical schools, both public and private, educators representing other academic segments, health care professionals, economists, and experts from national associations and research centers for the purpose of determining factors that explain the reasons that health care professionals choose not to practice in underserved communities; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the intent of the Legislature that the California Postsecondary Education Commission, in consultation with the California Research Bureau and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, shall issue a report to the Governor and the Legislature containing its findings and recommendations regarding these matters no later than June 30, 1998; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the University of California, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the California Research Bureau, and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

WHEREAS, Nearly two million women have served in military roles since the United States of America was founded; and

WHEREAS, In 1948 the Women's Armed Services Integration Act gave women a permanent place in the armed forces, where they have served with honor alongside America's servicemen in peacetime and in conflicts, including those in Korea, Vietnam, Grenada, Panama, and Desert Storm; and

WHEREAS, The achievements of women in military service have gone unrecognized until now, overlooked in history books and unrecognized by the public; and

WHEREAS, The United States Congress has authorized the construction of the Women in Military Service for America Memorial, which is currently being built at the ceremonial entrance to Arlington National Cemetery, across the Potomac River from the Lincoln Memorial; and

WHEREAS, The memorial, to be completed and dedicated in October 1997, will include a hall of honor, where the names of women who died in combat, were POWs, or won high military decorations will be prominently displayed, and a large piece of marble that is a "sister block" to that used for the Tomb of the Unknowns; and

WHEREAS, The Women in Military Service for America Memorial will be the first major national memorial in the country to honor all women who have defended America throughout its history; and

WHEREAS, Women in Military Service for America (WIMSA) Memorial Foundation, Inc., is seeking a contribution from the State of California, in the amount of one dollar for each of the 162,000 women veterans in the state, to complete the portion of the memorial dedicated to women veterans from this state; and

WHEREAS, California has a responsibility to support this memorial and to make the California public aware of the memorial and museum, a facility designed to educate its visitors about the contribution of women in maintaining freedom; and

WHEREAS, The purpose of the memorial is to recognize all women who have served in the armed forces—past, present, and future; document the experiences of women and tell their stories of service, sacrifice, and achievement; make their contributions a visible part of American history; illustrate their partnership with men in the defense of the nation; and inspire others as role models; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Members wish to take this opportunity to honor the women veterans of the state who have nobly fought alongside the men in military service, and who are deserving of the recognition and the public memorial honoring their service with the construction of the Women in Military Service for America Memorial.

WHEREAS, California is a state in which scientific achievement and biotechnical capability outstrips the rest of the country; and

WHEREAS, There may be beneficial medical applications of some aspects of human cloning research, such as research designed to address disease prevention or eradication, which should not be prohibited; and

WHEREAS, The cloning of an entire human being -- that is a living being with all the physical and mental qualities that make up a person -- raises profound medical, social, legal, and ethical implications; and

WHEREAS, There is a need for evaluation of those implications and a review of public policy related to human cloning; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the State Director of Health Services to establish a panel to advise the Legislature and the Governor on human cloning. ## RESOLUTION CHAPTER 108

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 54—Relative to employment compensation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1997.]

WHEREAS, In 1995, Governor Wilson sponsored Assembly Bill 398 (AB 398) which proposed to eliminate the requirement of state law that an overtime rate of compensation be paid to an employee for work in excess of eight hours per day and proposed instead to conform California's overtime compensation standard to the standard of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, which requires an overtime rate of compensation to be paid to an employee only for work in excess of 40 hours per week; and

WHEREAS, AB 398, as proposed by Governor Wilson, was not enacted by the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, At the request of Governor Wilson, the Industrial Welfare Commission on April 11, 1997, amended Wage Orders Nos. 7-80, 1-89, 4-89, 5-89, and 9-90 to eliminate the daily overtime standard and instead to conform the overtime standard of those orders to the overtime standard of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature, in adopting Sections 1182.5, 1182.6, 1182.7, 1182.9, and 1183.5 of the Labor Code, only approved limited exceptions to the eight-hour-day standard of Section 510 of the Labor Code contained in Wage Orders Nos. 7-80, 1-89, 4-89, 5-89, and 9-90, as previously adopted by the Industrial Welfare Commission, and afforded additional statutory protection for employees subject to those exceptions; and

WHEREAS, On June 27, 1997, the Superior Court for the City and County of San Francisco determined that the actions of the Industrial Welfare Commission were valid, and stated that, "The Legislative history indicates to this court that there is no basis to conclude that I.W.C. was not free under Californial law to modify its Wage Order even if the modification renders certain statutes unnecessary"; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature enacts statutes in recognition of the time-honored rule of law that no administrative agency may impair or eliminate the scope of statutory provisions; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature specifically deleted the amount of $274,000 from the Budget Act of 1996, which had been proposed for use by the Industrial Welfare Commission to amend its wage orders to eliminate daily overtime and to require overtime to be paid only when the total hours worked per week exceeds 40 hours; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Industrial Welfare Commission acted contrary to the intent of the Legislature and in excess of the authority of the Industrial Welfare Commission in eliminating daily overtime from Wage Orders Nos. 7-80, 1-89, 4-89, 5-89, and 9-90, eliminating the protection afforded employees under Section 1182.5 and subdivision (b) of Section 1183.5 of the Labor Code, and reducing the number of employees afforded protection under the other provisions of Section 1183.5 of the Labor Code; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Industrial Welfare Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 110

Senate Joint Resolution No. 29—Relative to repealing export restrictions on encryption software and hardware products.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1997.]

WHEREAS, With the continuing prosperity of the California economy, hundreds of thousands of California jobs and many millions of dollars of state tax revenues are dependent upon the success of California's computer software, hardware, and related industries; and

WHEREAS, Electronic commerce, especially over the Internet, has been forecast to amount to as much as two hundred billion dollars ($200,000,000,000) per year by the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, California is in a better position to benefit more from the growth of electronic commerce than any other state because it has far more commercial Internet host computers, computer software- and hardware-producing employers and employees, and in general, more involvement with electronic commerce and the Internet than any other state; and

WHEREAS, There is a consensus in the software and hardware industries and among the corporations and individuals who use the Internet for commerce and communication that security of communications is best provided by encryption and decryption (for example, "scrambling and unscrambling") of communications at the points of origin and destination; and

WHEREAS, There exists an enormous worldwide market for software and hardware products incorporating secure encryption features; and

WHEREAS, Current provisions of federal law dating to World War II and the Cold War relating to the export of cryptographic systems are greatly injuring California and other American companies in the worldwide cryptography and computer security markets; and

WHEREAS, The Internet, as currently configured, does not by itself provide for maintaining the security of financial, corporate, or personal communications from interception, intrusion, or alteration; and

WHEREAS, It is legal, and has been for many years, for Americans and Canadians to own and use and even import into the United States and Canada encryption products of any strength; and

WHEREAS, California producers of cryptographic products are increasingly unable to compete and prosper in the worldwide market due to export controls on encryption products imposed by the United States government during World War II and maintained throughout the Cold War, which export controls are still in effect; and

WHEREAS, Foreign competitors of American software and hardware companies are successfully selling strong, sophisticated encryption systems throughout the world, all in a manner unimpeded by government, and are selling their advanced cryptographic products by means of advertising, informing potential customers that their 128-bit and longer cryptographic products are far superior to the cryptographic products of American manufacturers because the American companies are prevented by the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. Secs. 2751 and following) from exporting cryptographic products with key lengths of more than 40 bits; and

WHEREAS, Any advantage to American law enforcement or national security formerly obtained by American export controls on cryptography has been reduced by the ready worldwide availability of strong, robust cryptographic systems produced by non-American companies and even by the ability lawfully to import these foreign systems into the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Information Technology Association of America estimates that American companies could lose up to 65 billion dollars ($65,000,000,000) in the export market for cryptography by the end of the decade and the National Research Council of the National Academy of Sciences has concluded after exhaustive study that United States export controls on cryptography may be causing American software and hardware companies to lose a significant share of a rapidly growing market, with losses of a least a few hundred million dollars per year, and may also damage United States leadership in information technology as well as its national security; and

WHEREAS, There are pending in the United States Congress Sen. No. 377 and H.R. 695, both of which substantially ease or eliminate current federal export controls on American cryptographic products, and other legislation related to cryptography and export controls is being introduced and considered in the Congress; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes Congress and the President of the United States to take immediate action to revise the current federal export controls on the export by American companies of cryptographic products; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 111

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 12—Relative to State Highway Route 85.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Numerous fatal vehicle accidents have occurred on State Highway Route 85 between the City of Cupertino and the City of San Jose in Santa Clara County, principally as the result of vehicle median crossovers; and

WHEREAS, The number of fatalities occurring upon this particular portion of State Highway Route 85 is deserving of heightened public awareness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That it is the intent of the Legislature that the median barrier on State Highway Route 85 between the City of Cupertino and the City of San Jose be dedicated to those persons who lost their lives as a result of median crossover vehicle accidents, indicated by a plaque stating the name of each person and the date of the accident, located on the Dent Street pedestrian overpass in San Jose for view by pedestrians; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of an appropriate plaque, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, indicating the name of each person whose death was the result of a median crossover vehicle accident and the date of that accident, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering that cost, to erect that plaque; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 112

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 57—Relative to the Kumeyaay Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The Kumeyaay Nation was composed of bands and family clans that claimed territorial rights to an area that stretched from the Pacific Ocean, east to the Colorado River, north to northern San Diego County, and south as far as Ensenada, Mexico; and

WHEREAS, The Kumeyaay had well-functioning social and economic structures that had evolved over a period of more than 10,000 years, and the Kumeyaay society practiced sophisticated governmental, private, and community property rights and religious beliefs; and

WHEREAS, Interstate Highway Route 8 through the coastal mountains to the desert has its origins in Indian trails, which became stagecoach routes, then roads, and eventually a modern interstate, and because the Kumeyaay lived as far east as the Colorado River, and since the bands connected the nation through a communication network of trained runners, it is obvious they had carved out trails over the eastern mountains to the deserts, that were adopted, as a matter of course, by the non-Indians who followed; and

WHEREAS, The approximate route of Interstate Highway Route 8 through the coastal mountains to the Imperial Valley and Colorado River was originally Kumeyaay trails and still links together five of the Kumeyaay Nation's bands; that is, the Viejas Band, Campo Band, Cayapaipe Band, La Posta Band, and Manzanita Band; and

WHEREAS, The terrain still bears historic and current witness to tribal presence in names and with reservations; and

WHEREAS, Kumeyaay labor participated in construction of the first road that later became Interstate Highway Route 8; and

WHEREAS, Designating the section of Route 8 in San Diego County from the eastern city boundary of the City of El Cajon to the eastern county boundary with the County of Imperial for San Diego's original inhabitants is therefore a fitting testimony to the contributions of California's native population; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the section of Interstate Highway Route 8 in San Diego County from the eastern city boundary of the City of El Cajon to the eastern county boundary with the County of Imperial, is hereby officially designated the "Kumeyaay Highway"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of erecting appropriate plaques and markers, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this official designation and, upon receiving contributions from private sources to cover that cost, to erect those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 113

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 32—Relative to Allied Hmong-Lao veterans.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Many Hmong-Lao units fought for and with the United States armed forces during the Vietnam War, and more than 35,000 of them were killed, along with countless numbers who were wounded while fighting with their American allies; and

WHEREAS, They were told by representatives of our government that the United States would not abandon them if the United States left Southeast Asia; and

WHEREAS, Many fled their own countries after the war to avoid persecution, imprisonment, or death for their loyalty to America and the armed forces of our nation; and

WHEREAS, Many of the Hmong-Lao soldiers and their families have been accepted into our country as legal immigrants; and

WHEREAS, While fighting for the United States, many of these veterans, as young soldiers, had little or no time for education in their homeland, and therefore had great difficulty learning American customs and the level of English needed to qualify for United States citizenship; and

WHEREAS, These legal immigrants are now in danger of losing supplemental security income, food stamps, and all federal means-tested benefits; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to recognize the sacrifices and services rendered to our country by the Hmong-Lao veterans who served in the special guerrilla units that were allied with, and operating in support of, the military forces of the United States during the Vietnam War by granting those veterans and their families full United States citizenship; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 114

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 74—Relative to Workplace Fitness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The federal government has commissioned numerous reports regarding employee wellness, and has concluded that physical fitness plays an important role in the overall health of employees; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has a history of supporting efforts that recognize and encourage physical fitness; and

WHEREAS, The Governor has charged California's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports to develop physical fitness goals for Californians of all ages, and to facilitate collaboration among federal, state, and local agencies, education, business and industry, and others, in the promotion of physical fitness;

WHEREAS, The 1996 Report of the Surgeon General on Physical Activity and Health concluded that people of all ages, both male and female, benefit from regular physical exercise, and identified the workplace as one of the important places for people to be able to do so; and

WHEREAS, The Governor's Executive Order W-119-95 directed that a comprehensive Statewide Work Site Health Promotion and Illness Prevention Program, including exercise programs, be established for all state employees; and

WHEREAS, Physical activity and fitness programs in the workplace, including onsite exercise facilities and exercise classes, reimbursable membership fees in health clubs, YMCA's, and YWCA's, informal walking clubs, formal fitness challenges and campaigns, and flexible health benefits that include exercise-related activities, provide a mechanism for reaching large numbers of adults; and

WHEREAS, Regular exercise helps reduce the chance of heart disease for all people, which is the leading cause of death in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Employees who participate in a fitness program are reported to be more alert, generally have an improved ability to perform, have a better rapport with coworkers and supervisors, are more relaxed and patient, are less tired at work, have enhanced self-esteem, and have fewer grievances, accidents, and absences than nonparticipants; and

WHEREAS, The evidence pointing to the success of the fitness programs in improving employee health practices, reducing medical and disability costs, and improving productivity is indisputable; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports the promotion of employee fitness programs as a means of reducing absenteeism and employee turnover, while bolstering employee morale and commitment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of October 1997 as Workplace Fitness Month in California, and encourages all Californians to participate in regular exercise programs and physical activity for healthier lives and improved work performance and satisfaction; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 115

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 36—Relative to child passenger restraint systems.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Motor vehicle accidents are the leading cause of death and injury to children; and

WHEREAS, A properly installed child passenger restraint system can reduce the risk of serious or fatal injury to a child in a crash by 71 percent and reduce the need for hospitalization by 67 percent, and child restraint systems are 50 percent effective in preventing minor injury; and

WHEREAS, The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) estimates that if all child safety seats were correctly installed in vehicles, 5,300 injuries would be prevented and the lives of 500 young children would be saved each year; and

WHEREAS, NHTSA estimates that child restraint systems saved the lives of 2,934 children under the age of five years in the United States from 1982 through 1995; and

WHEREAS, NHTSA estimates that 600 children under five years of age were killed and approximately 70,000 were injured due to improper, or lack of, use of child car safety seats in the United States in 1996; and

WHEREAS, In 1996, the Department of the California Highway Patrol issued 15,516 citations for noncompliance with child restraint system laws; and

WHEREAS, As many as 80 percent of all child safety seats are used incorrectly in the United States, and safety seat checkups conducted in California have shown that as many as 92 percent of child safety seats in the state are misused; and

WHEREAS, The Department of the California Highway Patrol reports that 30 of the 48 children under four years of age who died as passengers in 1993 were in a car seat, but only eight of those car seats were properly installed; and

WHEREAS, Of the children who died in California car accidents in 1995, 85 percent would have survived had they been sitting in correctly installed child restraint systems; and

WHEREAS, The impact received by a child in an improperly installed child restraint system at 30 miles per hour is the same as being thrown out of a third-story window; and

WHEREAS, For a child traveling in a vehicle, the most dangerous place to be is in an adult's arms, otherwise known as the "child crusher position"; and

WHEREAS, In a crash at approximately 30 miles per hour, a 10-pound infant will be ripped from a belted adult's arms with a force of almost 200 pounds; and

WHEREAS, A mother weighing 100 pounds, sharing an adult seat belt with her child, in a car traveling 25 miles per hour, on impact will throw 2,500 pounds of pressure against the child; and

WHEREAS, According to NHTSA, 479 children could have been saved nationwide in 1995 if they had been properly restrained in their child car safety seat; and

WHEREAS, For consumers the most likely point of contact for information regarding child restraint systems for new vehicles is the automobile dealer, and yet sales, service, and parts personnel are generally unaware of child restraint system installation problems and techniques, and supplemental tools needed for installation; and

WHEREAS, The only other existing sources of information and assistance about child restraint systems for consumers are printed manuals, instructions, and labels provided by child restraint system and automobile manufacturers; and

WHEREAS, While some of this information is mandated by regulation, it is often provided at the discretion of the manufacturer, and does not necessarily accurately display or describe proper installation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature encourages the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration to continue developing and assembling data on CD ROM to demonstrate which child restraint systems are compatible with which vehicles; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature supports the recommendations of President Clinton that, under the National Transportation Department Plan, every child car safety seat have two standard buckles at its base, that every automobile manufacturer install standard latches in the back seat that are designed specifically to fasten these buckles, that universal attachments be developed to secure the top of the child car safety seat to the automobile's interior, and that the new safety system, referred to as the Uniform Child Restraint Anchorages (UCRA), be available for purchase by 1999; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature commends the General Motors Corporation for committing $10.6 million for a five-year partnership with the National SAFE KIDS Campaign to promote correct installation and use of child restraint systems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature commends the automobile manufacturers that are currently developing and disseminating safety information, and encourages all automobile manufacturers to develop educational materials on the correct placement and installation of child restraint systems in their vehicles for use by automobile dealer sales, service, and parts personnel, child restraint system trainers, and child restraint system manufacturers; and be it further

Resolved, That automobile dealers should have at least one person on staff who is knowledgeable about how to correctly install a child restraint system; and be it further

Resolved, That warnings of incompatibility between vehicle seating positions and child restraint systems should be prominent in automobile and child restraint system owner's manuals, as well as in vehicles; and be it further

Resolved, That child restraint system manufacturers should develop comprehensive, consistent language on and illustration of, correct installation of child restraint systems in their instruction manuals; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages the manufacturers of child restraint systems to identify which automobile makes and models their products are compatible with, and enclose this information in the initial child restraint system packaging; and be it further

Resolved, That an intensive child restraint system educational campaign on the correct use and installation of child restraint systems should be undertaken by federal and state governments and automobile and child restraint system manufacturers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to work together to promote and support practical methods of encouraging automobile manufacturers to address the problems discussed in this resolution as well as the safety risks that arise because of the problems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the President and Congress of the United States to encourage automobile manufacturers, that are not presently informing their customers about the need to correctly install child restraint systems, to take steps to educate consumers with regard to the correct installation procedures for child restraint systems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, and to the Chief Executive Officer of the General Motors Corporation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 116

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26—Relative to state employee merit awards.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 18, 1997.]

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to Judy V. Kessinger, Employment Development Department, for a proposal resulting in annual savings of $150,091, recommending the development of a new “Overpayment Determination Ruling Notice Recall Selection Screen” to allow for selection and viewing/printing of notices in the Centralized Overpayment Establishment Tax Branch, thereby eliminating the need to view all Unemployment Insurance Claim Notes and eliminating the process of reentering the original data in order to access a screen; and

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to Pamala S. Corona, Employment Development Department, for a proposal resulting in annual savings of $201,982, recommending designating a

"central meeting planner" for each branch or division so that meeting functions would be coordinated through the Centralized Conference Coordination Unit, thereby providing the Employment Development Department with efficient, well-planned, and cost-effective meetings and ensuring compliance with applicable laws, rules, and regulations; and

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to John L. Johnson, State Department of Mental Health, for a proposal resulting in annual savings of $87,648, recommending United Parcel Service (UPS) deliver all packages as "direct deliveries" to individual departments instead of to a central dock service area for subsequent delivery of these packages by a Department of General Services employee to the individual departments, thereby providing substantial savings annually by each department; and

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to Socorro Wallace and Keenen Sederquist, Department of Parks and Recreation, for a proposal resulting in total net savings of $192,771, recommending combining two attendance documents, Form STD 634, Absence Request, and Form SCO 672, Time and Attendance Report, into one form, thereby enabling timekeepers to use this one form on a personal computer and electronically transfer attendance reporting to the Headquarters Personnel Office through the Statewide Area Network; and

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to Michael S. McNealy, Department of Transportation, for a proposal resulting in annual savings of $94,758, recommending the installation of paint/catalyst mixing valves in three-paint booths, thereby reducing material costs, reducing the amount spent on hazardous waste removal, and saving time by eliminating the need to replace lines and clear the paint system; and

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to Glenn C. Annis and John Eaves, Department of Transportation, for a proposal resulting in annual savings of $282,488, recommending eliminating illegal disposal of lead contaminated wastewater by using disposal charges, a gravity settling process, instead of using red lead undercoat paint and other types of finish coats, to prevent rust on bridges; and

WHEREAS, An award of $5,000 has already been made to Sheila K. Vassey, State Water Resources Control Board, for a proposal resulting in annual savings of $75,406, recommending legislation to change the existing law, which would require persons responsible for requesting a state or regional board employee's attendance, as a witness, to reimburse the state for the employee's salary, thereby resulting in 23 departments that have reported increased reimbursement; and

WHEREAS, These employees' proposals have resulted in actual savings of $1,085,144; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 122

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 58—Relative to nutrition.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Diet-related diseases, including cardiovascular disease, cancer, and diabetes, result in enormous costs to public health programs and private health insurers, with poor diet and inactivity alone accounting for at least 25 percent of the nation's $820 billion in annual health care costs; and

WHEREAS, Consistent research findings that diet and exercise can significantly reduce the likelihood of diet-related diseases, increase productivity, improve learning, and contribute to an increased quality of life have led to the adoption in California of the national "Healthy People 2000" prevention goals for nutrition and physical activity; and

WHEREAS, Individual dietary choices and the health of Californians generally are powerfully influenced by activities and messages from agriculture, the food industry, and mass media; and

WHEREAS, California's state and local governments operate a number of nutrition and nutrition-related programs, many designed and funded by the federal government, that help ensure access to a nutritious, safe, and affordable food supply, promote healthy eating, and prevent hunger among target populations; and

WHEREAS, These programs include the National School Breakfast Program, the National School Lunch Program, the Child Care Food Program, the Special Milk Program, and the Nutrition Education and Training (NET) Program in the State Department of Education; the Food Stamp Program in the State Department of Social Services; the Brown Bag Network, Congregate Nutrition Services, and Home Delivered Nutrition Services in the California Department of Aging; the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP) of the University of California; and the Special Supplemental Food Program and the Farmer's Market Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), the Child Health and Disability Prevention Program (CHDP), other family health and Medi-Cal

WHEREAS, Trends indicate that significant shifts in policymaking and planning from the federal level to the states will occur, responsibilities between state and county and other local governmental entities may be realigned, and new partnerships between government and the private sector will be necessary; and

WHEREAS, In order for Californians to reach the "Healthy People 2000" goals for nutrition, the state will require stronger partnerships among agriculture, food industry, restaurant, nonprofit, professional, and consumer organizations; and

WHEREAS, For nearly 20 years reports urging improvements in state nutrition policy and planning have been issued, among which are the 1979 Report to the Governor and Legislature, "A Strategy for Food and Nutrition Planning in California," the 1987 Senate Office of Research Report, "Food Policies and Hunger in California," the 1989 Report to the Governor and Legislature on Nutrition Monitoring for California, the 1994 California Nutrition Council report, "Future Directions for Nutrition Policy in California," the 1995 University of California report, "Hunger and Food Insecurity in California," and the 1997 California Nutrition Council report, "Blueprint for Coordinated Food and Nutrition Policy"; and

WHEREAS, In spite of these trends, reports and the known benefits of healthy eating to public health, agriculture, and the California economy, the state has never convened the experts nor organized a body charged with developing a comprehensive, coordinated state food and nutrition policy; and

WHEREAS, Absent a comprehensive and coordinated food and nutrition policy in California, there exists an unacceptable risk of administrative fragmentation and uncoordinated planning among state agencies and levels of government, an inability to make rational choices among competing and changing priorities, and inability to respond quickly to federal policy shifts, and inefficient allocation of state resources, and a diminished ability to work efficiently with private-sector partners and local government entities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Governor of California is requested to develop a comprehensive, coordinated food and nutrition policy for California that addresses the issues described above and builds upon the findings of the Blueprint for Coordinated Food and Nutrition Policy in the areas of food security, supply and delivery, nutrition and health, nutrition education and marketing, food safety and quality, and research and professional development; and be it further

Resolved, That in order to create a comprehensive and coordinated policy, the Governor of California is urged to appoint a Blue Ribbon

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 127

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 21—Relative to Small School District Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1997.]

WHEREAS, There are 608 small school districts in the State of California with over 460,000 pupils enrolled in them; and

WHEREAS, Small schools often have smaller class sizes in which pupils benefit by receiving more individual attention from the teachers; and

WHEREAS, In 1989 Allan C. Ornstein published research on school district size and school size that found that small schools have positive indicators upon pupil performance; and

WHEREAS, Small schools often have few pupils who are below average in both reading and math, as indicated by research conducted by John A. Thompson in 1994; and

WHEREAS, There are more opportunities for pupils to be leaders in clubs and organizations and to participate in athletics in small schools; and

WHEREAS, In small schools, pupils often receive peer tutoring due to more heterogeneous age-grouping practices, pupils are often exposed to more advanced material at an earlier age, and pupils often benefit academically from more cooperative learning environments; and

WHEREAS, In 1984 P. Lindsay published research finding high pupil participation, satisfaction, and attendance in small schools, as well as a stronger sense of belonging and lower dropout rates among pupils in small schools; and

WHEREAS, Superintendents of schools have opportunities to spend time out of their offices to be with pupils and teachers on a regular basis and routinely visit classrooms and observe instruction; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 128

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 76—Relative to breast cancer.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1997.]

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is an epidemic that will strike one out of eight American women and one out of 10 California women in their lifetime; and

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is the most common form of cancer among women and is second only to lung cancer as the leading cause of cancer deaths among women, both nationally, and in California; and

WHEREAS, In the United States, approximately 46,000 women will die of breast cancer and some 180,000 new cases will be diagnosed in 1997; and

WHEREAS, In the State of California, approximately 5,000 women will die of breast cancer and nearly 20,000 new cases will be diagnosed in 1997; and

WHEREAS, In California, the highest incidence of breast cancer is found in Anglo women, the highest mortality rate occurs among African-American women, and the greatest percentage of late-stage diagnosis occurs among Latino and African-American women; and

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is increasingly being diagnosed among women in their 30's and 40's; and

WHEREAS, More than 70 percent of women with breast cancer exhibit none of the known risk factors; and

WHEREAS, Although evidence is emerging about a link between environmental factors and breast cancer, not enough research is being funded to pursue this link; and

WHEREAS, Despite over 25 years of the "war on cancer," there is still no known cause, cure, or method of preventing breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, While mammography remains an important method for breast cancer detection, it often fails to identify the disease effectively, particularly among women in their 20's, 30's, and 40's; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the incalculable emotional costs to women and their families, the direct and indirect economic costs of breast cancer are estimated at $8 billion a year nationally in additional health care services and lost productivity; and

WHEREAS, Historically, breast cancer research has been grossly underfunded at the federal level, topping a decade of erosion in federal appropriations in the 1980's for all cancer research; and

WHEREAS, According to the National Cancer Institute, the incidence of breast cancer in the United States increased 32 percent between 1982 and 1989; and

WHEREAS, The United States government during the same period of time reportedly spent only $77 million annually researching the prevention of breast cancer, while it spent $648 million annually to prevent heart disease. Breast cancer accounts for 17 percent of all cancers in this country; but only 5 percent of the research budget of the National Cancer Institute was designated for research on breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, By the following decade, the 104th Congress of 1995–96 appropriated almost $500 million for federal breast cancer research. However, much more is needed to fund research directed at finding a cure and means of preventing breast cancer adequately; and

WHEREAS, Californians now have a unique opportunity to support breast cancer research in this state through the California Breast Cancer Research Fund Act, which allows individuals to make a voluntary contribution to support research when filing state income tax returns; and

WHEREAS, Heightened public awareness and education about breast cancer are crucial to the national effort to eradicate this epidemic; and

WHEREAS, Prominent organizations like the National Breast Cancer Coalition focus on three important goals to achieve such a worthy purpose; (1) increasing appropriations for high quality, peer-reviewed research, and working within the scientific community to focus research on prevention and finding a cure, (2) increasing access for all women to high quality treatment and care and to breast cancer clinical trials, and (3) increasing the influence of women living with breast cancer and other breast cancer activists in the decisionmaking that impacts all issues surrounding breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, Such national organizations have precipitated the development of a National Action Plan on breast cancer that will be a collaboration of government, science, private industry, and consumers; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of all women, men, and families to join together to promote greater awareness about a disease that affects all Californians, the need for true early detection and adequate treatment options, and the urgency of finding a cure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, in order to heighten public awareness about breast cancer, including the need to redouble efforts to prevent and cure this disease, declares the month of October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month; and be if further

Resolved, The Legislature of the State of California, in order to recognize that, to date, breast exam and mammography are still the primary methods of breast cancer detection available to women, and that, therefore, all women should perform monthly breast self-exams, women over 50 years of age should have regularly scheduled mammograms every year, and women 40 to 49 years of age, inclusive, should consult about mammograms with their health care provider, declares Monday October 20, 1997, as Breast Exam and Mammography Awareness Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California emphasizes that the public education efforts conducted during the month of October should be part of an ongoing, year-round effort to raise public awareness across the state, and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California recognizes that while early detection through routine mammograms, clinical exams, and breast self-exams are important, the only effective means of protecting women against breast cancer is to make breast cancer research a priority and fund critically needed research into the cause, cure, and prevention of breast cancer; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

WHEREAS, Mental illness affects millions of Americans annually and costs our nation billions of dollars each year in lost productivity, unemployment, and incarceration from untreated mental illness; and

WHEREAS, Each year, 3 million or more of our young people are stricken with mental illness, interfering with their personal development, their emotional maturation, and their educational preparation, thus seriously impacting our nation's greatest natural resource; and

WHEREAS, Mental illness remains stigmatized, widely feared, and greatly misunderstood, yet the latest medical research overwhelmingly finds that serious mental illness is a biological brain disorder which can be effectively treated with the newest psychotropic medications, allowing victims to resume their normal, productive lives; and

WHEREAS, What began as an effort to increase Congressional awareness of mental illness in 1983, has grown into a nationwide weeklong observance; and

WHEREAS, By Congressional Resolution, the first full week of October is known as Mental Illness Awareness Week; and

WHEREAS, During this week, thousands of dedicated mental health care professionals, representatives of treatment facilities, members, families, and friends of the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill, members of the National Depressive and Manic-Depressive Association, members of the American Psychiatric Association, volunteers in the National Mental Health Association, the Obsessive Compulsive Foundation, members of local mental health associations, many civic groups, public officials, religious organizations, and concerned citizens join in a true grassroots campaign to bring information, education, hope, and treatment to our communities and our state; and

WHEREAS, Such dedicated individuals hold mental health fairs and candlelight vigils, produce special television programs, and screen public education films. They also give countless speeches and presentations in classrooms, at PTAs, to local governments and civil leaders and to civic groups in California to enhance public awareness of mental illness, to promote greater understanding for those who suffer from the disabling symptoms of mental illness, and to eliminate from our state the stigma associated with mental illness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of October 5, 1997, through October 11, 1997, is hereby declared Mental Illness Awareness Week in California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 130

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 37—Relative to ovarian cancer research.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1997.]

WHEREAS, It is estimated that 26,800 new cases of ovarian cancer will develop in the United States in 1997, and that ovarian cancer will cause approximately 14,200 deaths in 1997; and

WHEREAS, Ovarian cancer ranks second among gynecological cancers in the number of new cases each year and causes more deaths than any other cancer of the female reproductive system; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 78 percent of ovarian cancer patients survive longer than one year after diagnosis and more than 46 percent of these patients survive longer than five years after diagnosis. If diagnosed and treated before the cancer spreads outside of the ovary, the five-year survival rate is 92 percent. However, only approximately 24 percent of all cases of ovarian cancer are detected at this stage; and

WHEREAS, Ovarian cancer research is desperately needed. Research would encourage more women to undergo screening tests earlier, as well as reduce medical costs associated with later discovery; and

WHEREAS, House Bill No. 953, authored by Representative Patsy Mink, the Ovarian Cancer Research and Information Amendments of 1997, would authorize $90 million to conduct ovarian cancer research; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to support House Bill No. 953 by Representative Patsy Mink, the Ovarian Cancer Research and Information Amendments of 1997; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 131

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 39—Relative to the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1997.]

WHEREAS, The passage of the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act (ISTEA) in 1991 represented a watershed event in the evolution of federal transportation policy; and

WHEREAS, The reauthorization of ISTEA is expected to be adopted by the United States Senate and House of Representatives later this year; and

WHEREAS, All members of California's Congressional delegation have created a caucus which has advocated on behalf of California and its interests during the ISTEA reauthorization process; and

WHEREAS, Several proposals are currently being considered by the United States Senate and House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, In considering these proposals for reauthorizing ISTEA, the federal government is evaluating numerous factors for calculating the distribution of federal Highway Trust Fund moneys; and

WHEREAS, Each of these proposals contain some provisions that will be fiscally beneficial to California, and some provisions that will be fiscally detrimental to California; and

WHEREAS, Current federal program categories limit the flexibility of the states with regard to the manner in which the states may spend their funding; and

WHEREAS, The Congestion Mitigation and Air Quality (CMAQ) Program has proven to be effective at improving air quality in California given the state's substantial air quality improvement needs despite the current funding limitation on the program for large states; and

WHEREAS, California has traditionally been a "donor" state, having received on average over the six-year authorization of ISTEA just 91 percent of the amount California provided in gas tax revenues to the Highway Account of the federal Highway Trust Fund over that period; and

WHEREAS, Recent projections estimate that, within the next two years, international trade will account for 25 percent of California's economy, and intermodal goods movement as a result of international trade places a significant burden on the state's transportation infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that the federal government place a high priority on providing transportation funding for the heavy infrastructure needed to advance the nation's competitiveness in accommodating the growing international trade shipped through the nation's ports, airports, and border crossings; and

WHEREAS, California has been compelled to divert hundreds of millions of dollars from county, street, and road allocations to pay for border infrastructure improvements needed as a result of increased commercial and industrial traffic caused by the North American Free Trade Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Local and regional transit systems are indispensable to the daily transportation needs of millions of Californians; and

WHEREAS, California has recently enacted welfare reform legislation that is expected to result in a significant increase in transportation and transit needs of new workers leaving welfare; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to reauthorize ISTEA in a manner that ensures more flexibility for states in spending Highway Trust Fund moneys, increases the amount of funding designated for the CMAQ program and removes the current limitations on CMAQ allocations to larger states, guarantees that each state receives at least 95 percent of its contribution to the Highway Account of the federal Highway Trust Fund each year, provides adequate funding to reflect the level of intermodal activity in each state, and allocates funding to offset the cost of local improvements to California's border infrastructure needed as a result of the implementation of the North American Free Trade Agreement, ensures consistent funding support for transit, and reflects support at the highest funding level possible for discretionary welfare-to-work transportation access programs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the United States Senate, to each member of the United States House of Representatives Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, each member of the United States Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 195.77 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

195.77. In the 1996–97 fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the county auditor of an eligible county, proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty that occurred in that county during December 1996 or January 1997, shall certify to the Director of Finance an estimate of the total amount of the reduction in property tax revenues on both the regular secured roll and the supplemental roll for the 1996–97 fiscal year resulting from the reassessment by the county assessor pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 170 of those properties that are eligible properties as a result of that disaster, except that the amount certified shall not include any estimated property tax revenue reductions to school districts (other than basic state aid school districts) and county offices of education. For purposes of this section, "basic state aid school district" means any school district that does not receive a state apportionment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 42238 of the Education Code, but receives from the state only a basic apportionment pursuant to Section 6 of Article IX of the California Constitution.

After the county auditor of an eligible county, as described in Section 195.77, has made the applicable certification to the Director of Finance pursuant to that same section, the director shall, within 30 days after verification of the county auditor's estimate, certify this amount to the Controller for allocation to the county. Upon receipt of certification from the Director of Finance, the Controller shall make the appropriate allocation to the county within 10 working days thereafter.

If the actual amount of property tax revenue lost by an eligible county in the immediately preceding fiscal year, as described and limited in the preceding sentence, exceeds the amount allocated by the Controller to that county pursuant to Section 195.78, the Controller shall allocate the amount of that excess to that eligible county. For purposes of this section, "basic state aid school district" means any school district that does not receive a state apportionment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 42238 of the Education Code, but receives from the state only a basic apportionment pursuant to Section 6 of Article IX of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. Section 8589.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8589.5. (a) Inundation maps showing the areas of potential flooding in the event of sudden or total failure of any dam, the partial or total failure of which the Office of Emergency Services determines, after consultation with the Department of Water Resources, would result in death or personal injury, shall be prepared and submitted as provided in this subdivision within six months after the effective date of this section, unless the time for submission of such maps is extended for reasonable cause by the Office of Emergency Services. The local governmental organization, utility, or other owner of any dam so designated shall submit to the Office of Emergency Services one such map which shall delineate potential flood zones that could result in the event of dam failure when the reservoir is at full capacity or if the local governmental organization, utility, or other owner of any dam shall determine it to be desirable he or she shall submit three such maps, which shall delineate potential flood zones that could result in the event of dam failure when the reservoir is at full capacity, at median-storage level, and at normally low-storage level. After submission of copies of such map or maps, the Office of Emergency Services shall review the map or maps, and shall return that map or maps which do not meet the requirements of this subdivision, together with recommendations relative to conforming to such provisions. Maps rejected by the Office of Emergency Services shall be revised to conform to such recommendations and resubmitted. The Office of Emergency Services shall keep on file those maps which conform to the provisions of this subdivision. Maps approved pursuant to this subdivision shall also be kept on file with the Department of Water Resources. The owner of a dam shall submit final copies of such maps to the Office of Emergency Services which shall immediately submit identical copies to the appropriate public safety agency of any city, county, or city and county likely to be affected.

(b) Based upon a review of inundation maps submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) or based upon information gained by an onsite inspection and consultation with the affected local jurisdiction when the requirement for an inundation map is waived pursuant to subdivision (d), the Office of Emergency Services shall designate areas within which death or personal injury would, in its determination, result from the partial or total failure of a dam. The appropriate public safety agencies of any city, county, or city and county, the territory of which includes such an area, shall adopt emergency procedures for the evacuation and control of populated areas below such dams. The Office of Emergency Services shall review such procedures to determine whether adequate public safety measures exist for the evacuation and control of populated areas below the dams, and shall make recommendations with regard to the adequacy of such procedures to the concerned public safety agency. In conducting such review the Office of Emergency Services shall consult with appropriate state and local agencies.

Emergency procedures specified in this subdivision shall conform to local needs, and may be required to include any of the following elements or any other appropriate element, in the discretion of the Office of Emergency Services: (1) delineation of area to be evacuated; (2) routes to be used; (3) traffic control measures; (4) shelters to be activated for the care of the evacuees; (5) methods for the movement of people without their own transportation; (6) identification of particular areas or facilities in the flood zones which will not require evacuation because of their location on high ground or similar circumstances; (7) identification and development of special procedures for the evacuation and care of people from unique institutions; (8) procedures for the perimeter and interior security of the area, including such things as passes, identification requirements, and antilooting patrols; (9) procedures for the lifting of the evacuation and reentry of the area; and (10) details of which organizations are responsible for these functions and the material and personnel resources required. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage each agency that prepares such emergency procedures to establish a procedure for their review every two years.

(c) "Dam," as used in this section, has the same meaning as specified in Sections 6002, 6003, and 6004 of the Water Code.

(d) Under certain exceptional conditions as follows, the Office of Emergency Services may waive the requirement for an inundation map:

(1) Where the effects of potential inundation in terms of death or personal injury as determined through onsite inspection by the Office of Emergency Services in consultation with the affected local jurisdictions, can be ascertained without an inundation map; and

(2) Where adequate evacuation procedures can be developed without benefit of an inundation map.

(e) If development should occur in any exempted area after a waiver has been granted, the local jurisdiction shall notify the Office of Emergency Services of such development. All waivers shall be reevaluated every two years by the Office of Emergency Services.

(f) A notice shall be posted at the offices of the county recorder, county assessor, and county planning agency that identifies the location of the map, and of any information received by the county subsequent to the receipt of the map regarding changes to inundation areas within the county.

SEC. 13. The Legislature finds and declares that state law requires several different state departments and agencies to conduct natural hazard mapping and information programs, based on their respective scientific and professional competencies. The Legislature finds and declares that city and county planning agencies sometimes have difficulty using the maps and information produced by state departments and agencies regarding natural hazards because the maps may be at different scales, use different projections, or are otherwise incompatible. The Legislature finds and declares that the lack of compatible maps sometimes makes it difficult for city and county planning agencies to make information regarding natural hazards readily available to landowners, their agents, and the public. Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that there is a need for state officials to coordinate their natural hazard mapping and information programs to make them more effective. The Legislature encourages the Secretary of the Resources Agency to provide coordination and leadership among the state departments and agencies that conduct natural hazard mapping and information programs.

SEC. 14. Sections 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 of this act shall become operative on March 1, 1998.

SEC. 15. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 8

An act to amend Section 8690.6 of the Government Code, relating to disaster assistance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8690.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8690.6. (a) There is hereby established in the Reserve for Economic Uncertainties a Disaster Response-Emergency Operations Account. Notwithstanding Section 13340, moneys in the account are continuously appropriated, subject to the limitations specified in subdivisions (c) and (d), without regard to fiscal years, for allocation by the Director of Finance to state agencies for disaster response operation costs incurred by state agencies as a result of a state of emergency proclamation by the Governor. These allocations may be for response activities, defined as any activity occurring within 365 days of a declaration of emergency by the Governor, or for recovery activities, defined as any activity occurring after the 365th day of a declaration of emergency by the Governor.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Disaster Response-Emergency Operations Account have an unencumbered balance of one million dollars ($1,000,000) at the beginning of each fiscal year. In the event that this account requires additional moneys to meet claims against the account, the Director of Finance may transfer moneys from the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to the account in that amount sufficient to pay the amount of the claims that exceed the unencumbered balance in the account.

(c) For response activities, as defined, the funds shall be allocated subject to the conditions of this section and in accordance with Section 27.00 of the annual Budget Act, except that the allocations may be made 30 days or less after notification of the Legislature pursuant to subdivision (b) of that section.

(d) For recovery activities, as defined, the funds shall be allocated subject to the conditions of this section and in accordance with all subdivisions of Section 27.00 of the annual Budget Act, and shall include the Department of Finance's determination as to whether the expenditure for which the allocation is to be made was previously proposed at some point in the legislative consideration of the annual Budget Bill and was not approved and, if the expenditure was not approved, for what reasons.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 27.00 of the annual Budget Act, authorizations for acquisitions, relocations, and environmental mitigations related to response or recovery activities, as defined in subdivision (a), shall be authorized pursuant to this section. However, these funds may only be authorized for needs that are a direct consequence of the declared emergency, directly related to the January 1997 floods or any flood-related emergency that is declared by the Governor on or before January 1, 1999, where failure to undertake the project may interrupt essential state services or jeopardize public health or safety. In addition, any acquisition accomplished under this subdivision shall comply with any otherwise applicable law, except as provided in the first sentence of this subdivision.

(f) No funds allocated under this section shall be used to supplant federal funds otherwise available in the absence of state financial relief.

(g) The amount of financial assistance provided to an individual, business, or governmental entity under this section, or pursuant to any other program of state-funded disaster assistance, shall be deducted from sums received in payment of damage claims asserted against the state, its agents, or employees, for causing or contributing to the effects of the proclaimed disaster.

(h) No public entity administering disaster assistance to individuals shall receive funds under this section unless it administers that assistance pursuant to the following criteria:

(1) All applications, forms, and other written materials presented to persons seeking assistance shall be available in English and in the same language as that used by the major non-English-speaking group within the disaster area.

(2) Bilingual staff who reflect the demographics of the disaster area shall be available to applicants.

(i) The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments made to subdivision (c) by Chapter 16 of the Statutes of 1986 declare the intent of the Legislature at the time when this section was originally added to this code by Chapter 1562 of the Statutes of 1985.

(j) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that disaster assistance may be provided at the earliest opportunity to alleviate the consequences of the January 1, 1997, floods or subsequent emergencies declared by the Governor on or before January 1, 1999, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.
