CHAPTER 931

An act to amend Sections 23800, 23817.7, 23985.5, and 23987 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Local jurisdictions have the primary responsibility to protect their citizens, and the sale of alcoholic beverages in a community often exacerbates difficulties in providing adequate public safety protection.

(b) While the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control permits local jurisdictions to recommend conditions regarding an application for an alcoholic beverage license, the timeframe for review is insufficient to conduct an adequate investigation and develop, if needed, appropriate conditions to recommend to the department.

(c) Local jurisdictions are greatly concerned about the capacity of the department to assist with law enforcement problems associated with licensees, as the department has only about 200 officers for approximately 70,000 licensees.

(d) In order to improve the ability of local jurisdictions to gain community input and better evaluate various options related to a specific application, local jurisdictions should be given an extended period of time to review license applications, notices of license applications to affected residences should be enhanced, and the department should be provided additional funding to support law enforcement efforts.

SEC. 2. Section 23800 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23800. The department may place reasonable conditions upon retail licensees or upon any licensee in the exercise of retail privileges in the following situations:

(a) If grounds exist for the denial of an application for a license or where a protest against the issuance of a license is filed and if the department finds that those grounds may be removed by the imposition of those conditions.

(b) Where findings are made by the department which would justify a suspension or revocation of a license, and where the imposition of a condition is reasonably related to those findings. In the case of a suspension, the conditions may be in lieu of or in addition to the suspension.

(c) Where the department issues an order suspending or revoking only a portion of the privileges to be exercised under the license.

(d) Where findings are made by the department that the licensee has failed to correct objectionable conditions within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to make corrections given pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 24200.

(e) (1) At the time of transfer of a license pursuant to Section 24071.1, 24071.2, or 24072 and upon written notice to the licensee, the department may adopt conditions requested by the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or agency, in whose jurisdiction the license is located. The request for conditions shall be supported by substantial evidence that the problems either on the premises or in the immediate vicinity identified by the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency will be mitigated by the conditions. Upon receipt of the request for conditions, the department shall either adopt the conditions requested or notify the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or agency, in writing of its determination that there is not substantial evidence that the problem exists or that the conditions would not mitigate the problems identified. The department may adopt conditions requested pursuant to this paragraph only when the request is filed within the time authorized for a local law enforcement agency to file a protest or proposed conditions pursuant to Section 23987.

(2) If the license to be transferred subject to paragraph (1) is located in an area of undue concentration as defined in Section 23958.4, the period within which the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency may submit a written request for conditions shall be 40 days after the mailing of the notices required by Section 23987. For purposes of this provision only, undue concentration shall be established when the requirements of both paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and either paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 23958.4 exist. Pursuant to Section 23987, the department may extend the 40-day period for a period not to exceed an additional 20 days upon the written request of any local law enforcement agency or local government entity with jurisdiction. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to reduce the burden of the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency to support any request for conditions as required by paragraph (1). Notwithstanding Section 23987, the department may not transfer any license subject to this paragraph until after the time period permitted to request conditions as specified in this paragraph.

SEC. 3. Section 23817.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23817.7. (a) Notwithstanding Section 23817.5, the department may approve an application for an off-sale beer and wine license in areas covered by Section 23817.5, if the applicant shows that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance, and where all of the following conditions are found to exist:

(1) The applicant premises are located in a crime reporting district that is below that specified pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23958.4. In considering an application, the department may take into account adjacent crime reporting districts, if the applicant premises are located within 100 feet of the boundaries of any adjacent district. The department shall use an average of reported crimes in the crime reporting district in which the premises are located and reported crimes in any adjacent crime reporting district, if the total of crimes reported in the adjacent district or districts is greater than the crime reporting district in which the premises are located.

(2) The applicant premises are located in an area that falls below the concentration level provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 23958.4.

(3) The local governing body of the area in which the applicant premises are located, or its designated subordinate officer or body, determines that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance.

(b) The department may impose reasonable conditions on a licensee as may be needed in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare regarding signing, training for responsible beverage sales and hours, and mode of sale.

SEC. 4. Section 23985.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23985.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in any instance affecting the issuance of any retail license at a premises that is not currently licensed or for a different retail license, the department shall require that the applicant mail notification of the application to every resident and owner of real property within a 500-foot radius of the premises for which the license is to be issued.

(b) The department shall require the applicant to provide notification to the owners of real property, as required in subdivision (a), only if the local jurisdiction in which the license is to be issued provides, free of charge, a list of the names and addresses of the owners to the applicant.

(c) For the notification required by subdivision (a), the department shall develop bilingual notices in English and Spanish. The notice shall include information on how to obtain the notice information in a minimum of three of the predominant languages other than English or Spanish in the state, according to the most recent United States decennial or special census information.

SEC. 5. Section 23987 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23987. Upon the receipt by the department of an original application for any license or an application for transfer of any license, written notice thereof, consisting of a copy of the application, shall immediately be mailed by the department to the sheriff, chief of police, and district attorney of the locality in which the premises are situated, to the city or county planning director, whoever has jurisdiction, the board of supervisors of the county in which the premises are situated, if in unincorporated territory, and to the city council or other governing body of the city in which the premises are situated, if within an incorporated area.

Except as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 23800, no license shall be issued or transferred by the department until at least 30 days after the mailing by the department of the notices required by this section. The department may extend the 30-day period specified in the preceding sentence for a period not to exceed an additional 20 days, upon the written request of any local law enforcement agency that states proper grounds for extension. Proper grounds for extension are limited to the requesting agency or official being in the process of preparing either a protest or proposed conditions with respect to the issuance or transfer of a license.

CHAPTER 932

An act relating to local public services, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

I have signed Assembly Bill 936 with a reduction.

This bill would appropriate $1.75 million General Fund to the Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) to provide a grant to the City of San Diego to purchase two facilities for the homeless. The bill would also clarify that funds appropriated in the Budget Act of 2001 to the City of San Diego for a grant to the Stein Education Center shall be allocated directly to the Education Center; reappropriate funds provided in the Budget Act of 2000 for the Guadalupe Trail in the City of San Jose; and would revise provisions in the Budget Act of 2001 to direct the Department of Boating and Waterways to recalculate a specified loan to the owner of a marina at Lake Oroville.

I am reducing the appropriation to HCD from $1.75 million to $750,000 due to fiscal constraints and limited resources in the General Fund.

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,750,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Housing and Community Development to provide a grant to the City of San Diego to purchase two 25-bed facilities for homeless persons who are diagnosed with severe mental illness.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Schedule (b) (109) of Item 3790-101-0001 of the Budget Act of 2001 (Chapter 106, Statutes of 2001), the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) shall be allocated directly to the Stein Education Center for the purpose of its play area upgrade, rather than to the City of San Diego.

SEC. 3. The funds reappropriated by Item 0540-491 of Chapter 672 of the Statutes of 2000 for the Guadalupe River Parkway in the City of San Jose are hereby reappropriated for the establishment and development of the Guadalupe Trail in the City of San Jose, and areas surrounding the city, subject to the limitations, unless otherwise specified, provided for in the original appropriation of those funds by Item 0540-103-0001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1999 (Ch. 50, Stats. 1999).

SEC. 4. The provisions of Item 3680-101-0516 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 2001 (Ch. 106, Stats. of 2001) are revised to add the following provision:

2. The Department of Boating and Waterways shall recalculate the amount of principal owed by Funtime-Fulltime, Inc. pursuant to a loan made by the department to finance improvements to the Bidwell Canyon Marina, located at Lake Oroville. The recalculation shall take into consideration those items financed by the principal of the loan that are traditionally provided by the state in similar instances involving the state park and recreation system. The recalculation may result in a reduction in the amount of principal due under loan by an amount not to exceed $370,000.

CHAPTER 933

An act to amend Sections 19582, 19605.73, and 19661 of, and to add Section 19517.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horse racing.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19517.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19517.5. (a) Enforcement proceedings that allege the use of a prohibited substance, as defined under class I, class II, or class III of the board's schedule of prohibited substances, shall be referred directly to the Office of Administrative Hearings for administrative adjudication and preparation of a proposed decision for action by the board, unless both the licensee and the board waive that referral.

(b) The hearing before an administrative law judge shall commence no later than 90 days after the filing of the accusation. The administrative law judge may extend the hearing date only upon a showing of good cause to the earliest possible hearing date beyond the 90-day period, provided a written order and the reasons for the continuance are filed with the board.

(c) No later than 20 days before the hearing, the licensee shall post a bond with the paymaster of purses for the amount of the purse or purses in question and received by the licensee. The bond shall be in cash, or a surety bond that meets the requirements of the board.

(d) (1) The board shall neither modify nor amend a proposed decision by the administrative law judge so as to increase any sanction or penalty contemplated in the proposed decision.

(2) The board may, by means of a written decision that includes the reasons for its decision, modify or amend a proposed decision by the administrative law judge so as to decrease, mitigate, or suspend a sanction or penalty contemplated in the proposed decision.

SEC. 2. Section 19582 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19582. (a) (1) Violations of Section 19581, as determined by the board, are punishable as set forth in regulations adopted by the board.

(2) The board may classify violations of Section 19581 based upon each class of prohibited drug substances, prior violations within the previous three years, and prior violations within the violator's lifetime.

(3) (A) The board may provide for the suspension of a license for not more than three years, except as provided in subdivision (b), or a monetary penalty of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or both, and disqualification from purses, for a violation of Section 19581.

(B) The actual amount of the monetary penalty imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be determined only after due consideration has been given to all the facts, circumstances, acts, and intent of the licensee, and shall not be solely based on the trainer-insurer rule, as established in Sections 1843 and 1887 of Title 4 of the California Code of Regulations.

(4) The punishment for second and subsequent violations of Section 19581 shall be greater than the punishment for a first violation of Section 19581 with respect to each class of prohibited drug substances, unless the administrative law judge, in findings of fact and conclusions of law filed with the board, concludes that a deviation from this general rule is justified.

(b) (1) A third violation of Section 19581 during the lifetime of the licensee, determined by the board to be at a class I or class II level, may result in the permanent revocation of the person's license.

(2) The administrative law judge shall, after consideration of the circumstances surrounding a violation specified in paragraph (1), file a decision with the board that includes findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(c) Any person whose license is suspended or revoked pursuant to this section shall not be entitled to receive any material benefit or remuneration in any capacity or from any business activity permitted or allowed by the license during any period of its suspension or revocation.

(d) The penalties provided by this section are in addition to any other civil, criminal, and administrative penalties or sanctions provided by law, and do not supplant, but are cumulative to, other penalties or sanctions.

SEC. 3. Section 19605.73 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.73. (a) Racing associations, fairs, and the organization responsible for contracting with racing associations and fairs with respect to the conduct of racing meetings, may form a private, statewide marketing organization to market and promote thoroughbred and fair horse racing. The organization shall consist of the following members: two members, one from the northern zone and one from the combined central and southern zones, appointed by the thoroughbred racetracks; two members, one from the northern zone and one from the combined central and southern zones, appointed by the owners' organization responsible for contracting with associations and fairs with respect to the conduct of racing meetings; and two members, one from the northern zone and one from the combined central and southern zones, appointed by the organization representing racing and satellite fairs.

(b) The marketing organization formed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall annually submit to the board a statewide marketing and promotion plan for thoroughbred and fair horse racing that encompasses all geographical zones in the state, and which includes the manner in which funds were expended in the implementation of the plan for the previous calendar year. The plan shall be implemented as determined by the organization. The organization shall receive input from all interested industry participants and may utilize outside consultants in developing the annual marketing plan.

(c) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 19605.7, and in Sections 19605.71 and 19605.72, for thoroughbred and fair meetings only, from the amount that would normally be available for commissions and purses, an amount equal to 0.4 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the statewide marketing organization formed pursuant to subdivision (a) for the promotion of thoroughbred and fair horse racing. Any of the promotion funds that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year. If promotion funds expended in any one year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2004, and, as of January 1, 2005, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2005, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed. Any moneys held by the organization shall, in the event this section is repealed, be distributed to the organization formed pursuant to Section 19608.2, for purposes of that section.

SEC. 4. Section 19661 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19661. (a) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter for which a penalty is not herein expressly provided, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly provided, the board may impose a monetary penalty of not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER 934

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(1) A condemned inmate who, while in prison, commits any of the following offenses, or who, as a member of a gang or disruptive group, orders others to commit any of these offenses, may, following disciplinary sanctions and classification actions at San Quentin State Prison, pursuant to regulations established by the Department of Corrections, be housed in secure condemned housing designated by the Director of Corrections, at the California State Prison, Sacramento:

(A) Homicide.

(2) The condemned housing program at California State Prison, Sacramento, shall be fully operational prior to the transfer of any condemned inmate.

(3) Specialized training protocols for supervising condemned inmates shall be provided to those line staff and supervisors at the California State Prison, Sacramento, who supervise condemned inmates on a regular basis.

(4) An inmate whose medical or mental health needs are so critical as to endanger the inmate or others may, pursuant to regulations established by the Department of Corrections, be housed at the California Medical Facility or other appropriate institution for medical or mental health treatment. The inmate shall be returned to the institution from which the inmate was transferred when the condition has been adequately treated or is in remission.

(c) When housed pursuant to subdivision (b) the following shall apply:

(1) Those local procedures relating to privileges and classification procedures provided to Grade B condemned inmates at San Quentin State Prison shall be similarly instituted at California State Prison, Sacramento, for condemned inmates housed pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 3600. Those classification procedures shall include the right to the review of a classification no less than every 90 days and the opportunity to petition for a return to San Quentin State Prison.

(2) Similar attorney-client access procedures that are afforded to condemned inmates housed at San Quentin State Prison shall be afforded to condemned inmates housed in secure condemned housing designated by the Director of Corrections, at the California State Prison,

(4) No more than 15 condemned inmates may be rehoused pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(d) Prior to any relocation of condemned row from San Quentin State Prison, whether proposed through legislation or any other means, all maximum security Level IV, 180-degree housing unit facilities with an electrified perimeter shall be evaluated by the Department of Corrections for suitability for the secure housing and execution of condemned inmates.

CHAPTER 935

An act to add Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 19527) to Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horse racing.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 19527) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 5.6. Interstate Compact on Horse Racing Occupational Licensing

19527. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The Association of Racing Commissioners International has proposed a compact providing for the licensure of individuals involved in the horse racing industry.

(b) The intent of this compact is to preclude the necessity of individual owners, trainers, backstretch employees, and other race track personnel from having to be separately licensed in each state in which they may conduct business.

(c) This compact would provide for an individual to be licensed by the compact committee created therein, and thus be able to practice his or her profession in all states that are members of the compact.

(d) The purpose of the compact is to:

(1) Establish uniform requirements among the party states for the licensing of participants in live horse racing with parimutuel wagering, and ensure that all participants who are licensed pursuant to this compact meet a uniform minimum standard of honesty and integrity.

(2) Facilitate the growth of the horse racing industry in each party state and nationwide by simplifying the licensing process for participants in the live racing industry, and reduce the duplicative and costly process of separate licensing by the applicable regulatory agency in each state.

(3) Authorize the California Horse Racing Board to participate in this compact.

(4) Provide for participation in this compact by officials of the party states, and permit those officials, through the compact committee established by the compact, to enter into contracts with governmental agencies and nongovernmental persons and entities to carry out the purposes of this compact.

(5) Establish the compact committee created by this compact as an interstate governmental entity duly authorized to request and receive criminal history record information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, other federal law enforcement agencies, and state and local law enforcement agencies.

19528. The California Horse Racing Board is hereby authorized to enter into the interstate compact identified in Section 19527 for the purposes described therein, provided that this state's participation in this compact does not result in the diminution of applicable existing standards established for licensure in California with regard to an applicant's criminal history and does not prevent the enforcement of any state law or regulation affecting any licensee. The California Horse Racing Board's entry into the interstate compact identified in Section 19527 shall not relieve any individual or entity of its duty to obtain any license or pay any fee otherwise required by this chapter. An individual designated by the California Horse Racing Board shall be responsible for representing California in conjunction with the administration of the compact.

An act to amend Sections 19596.2 and 19605.61 of, and to add Section 19596.4 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horse racing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19596.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19596.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and except as provided in Section 19596.4, a thoroughbred racing association or fair may distribute the audiovisual signal and accept wagers on the results of out-of-state and out-of-country thoroughbred races during the calendar period the association or fair is conducting a race meeting, including days on which there is no live racing being conducted by the association or fair, without the consent of the organization that represents horsemen participating in the race meeting and without regard to the amount of purses, provided that the total number of thoroughbred races on which wagers are accepted statewide in any given year does not exceed the total number of thoroughbred races on which wagers were accepted in 1998. Further, the total number of thoroughbred races imported by associations or fairs on a statewide basis under this section shall not exceed 23 per day on days when live thoroughbred or fair racing is being conducted in the state. The limitation of 23 imported races per day does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Races imported for wagering purposes pursuant to subdivision (d).

(2) Races imported that are part of the race card of the Kentucky Derby, the Kentucky Oaks, the Preakness Stakes, the Belmont Stakes, the Jockey Club Gold Cup, the Breeders' Cup, or the Haskell Invitational.

(3) Races imported into the northern zone when there is no live thoroughbred or fair racing being conducted in the northern zone.

(4) Races imported into the combined central and southern zones when there is no live thoroughbred or fair racing being conducted in the combined central and southern zones.

(b) Any thoroughbred racing association described in subdivision (a) may execute an agreement with any other association that conducts thoroughbred races in the southern zone to allow the other association to distribute the signal and accept wagers on out-of-country thoroughbred races.

(c) Any thoroughbred association or fair accepting wagers pursuant to subdivision (a) shall conduct the wagering in accordance with the applicable provisions of Sections 19601, 19616, 19616.1, and 19616.2.

(d) No thoroughbred association or fair shall accept wagers pursuant to this section on out-of-state or out-of-country races commencing after 7:00 p.m., Pacific standard time, without the consent of the harness or quarter horse racing association that is then conducting a live racing meeting in Orange or Sacramento Counties, and no quarter horse or harness racing association shall accept wagers on out-of-state or out-of-country quarter horse or harness races commencing before 5:30 p.m., Pacific standard time, without the consent of any thoroughbred association or fair that is then conducting a live racing meeting in this state.

SEC. 2. Section 19596.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19596.4. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of, and subject to the conditions specified in subdivisions (c) and (d) of, Section 19596.2, if the total number of thoroughbred and fair racing days allocated by the board in the northern zone in any calendar year commencing with the calendar year 2001 is less than the total number of thoroughbred and fair racing days allocated by the board in calendar year 2000, a thoroughbred racing association or fair that has been allocated fewer racing days in the northern zone may distribute the audiovisual signal and accept wagers on the results of out-of-state and out-of-country thoroughbred races during the calendar period the association or fair is licensed to conduct a live race meeting, excluding Saturdays and Sundays.

(b) The total number of out-of-state and out-of-country thoroughbred races upon which wagers may be accepted pursuant to this section shall be sufficient to the extent reasonably possible to prevent any loss of revenue to the General Fund and the California racing participants, as determined by the executive director of the board but shall not exceed a maximum of three out-of-state or out-of-country thoroughbred races for every live race that has been eliminated by the board. A thoroughbred racing association in the northern zone shall not import these races on a day when a fair is conducting live racing in the northern zone.

SEC. 3. Section 19605.61 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.61. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the live racing or the audiovisual signals of any licensed association or fair in this state are disrupted or interrupted so as to cause the cessation of the live racing or audiovisual signals and the cause is a natural disaster outside the control of the association or fair conducting the racing or satellite wagering, as determined by the executive director of the board, the executive director may, at the request of the licensed association or fair and the organization representing horsemen at the race meeting, temporarily authorize the conduct of satellite wagering, including the transmission and reception of audiovisual signals, from any zone in the state or from any location outside this state. However, audiovisual signals emanating from within the state shall have preference over audiovisual signals from locations outside this state, and any transmission shall be subject to the conditions specified in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 19605.3.

(b) As used in this section, "natural disaster" means fire, flood, storm, epidemic, riot, or earthquake.

CHAPTER 937

An act to amend Sections 12020 and 12280 of the Penal Code, relating to weapons.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12020 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 12020. (a) Any person in this state who does any of the following is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison:

(1) Manufactures or causes to be manufactured, imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives, lends, or possesses any cane gun or wallet gun, any undetectable firearm, any firearm which is not immediately recognizable as a firearm, any camouflaging firearm container, any ammunition which contains or consists of any fléchette dart, any bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent, any ballistic knife, any multiburst trigger activator, any nunchaku, any short-barreled shotgun, any short-barreled rifle, any metal knuckles, any belt buckle knife, any leaded cane, any zip gun, any shuriken, any unconventional pistol, any lipstick case knife, any cane sword, any shobi-zue, any air gauge knife, any writing pen knife, any metal military practice handgrenade or metal replica handgrenade, or any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sap, or sandbag.

(2) Commencing January 1, 2000, manufactures or causes to be manufactured, imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives, or lends, any large-capacity magazine.

(3) Carries concealed upon his or her person any explosive substance, other than fixed ammunition.

(4) Carries concealed upon his or her person any dirk or dagger.

However, a first offense involving any metal military practice handgrenade or metal replica handgrenade shall be punishable only as an infraction unless the offender is an active participant in a criminal street gang as defined in the Street Terrorism and Enforcement and Prevention Act (Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 186.20) of Title 7 of Part 1). A bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent is not a destructive device as that term is used in Section 12301.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any of the following:

Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 63036 of the Government Code is amended to read:

63036. It is the intent of the Legislature that the activities of the bank be fully coordinated with any future legislative plan involving growth management strategies designed to protect California's land resource, and ensure its preservation and use it in ways which are economically and socially desirable. Further, all public works financed pursuant to this division, including those projects financed through the use of industrial development bonds under Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500), shall comply with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

SEC. 2. Section 1720 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1720. (a) As used in this chapter, "public works" means:

(1) Construction, alteration, demolition, installation, or repair work done under contract and paid for in whole or in part out of public funds, except work done directly by any public utility company pursuant to order of the Public Utilities Commission or other public authority. For purposes of this paragraph, "construction" includes work performed during the design and preconstruction phases of construction including, but not limited to, inspection and land surveying work.

(2) Work done for irrigation, utility, reclamation, and improvement districts, and other districts of this type. "Public work" shall not include the operation of the irrigation or drainage system of any irrigation or reclamation district, except as used in Section 1778 relating to retaining wages.

(B) If the state or a political subdivision reimburses a private developer for costs that would normally be borne by the public, or provides directly or indirectly a public subsidy to a private development

CHAPTER 939

An act to amend Sections 65858 and 65913.1 of the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65858 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65858. (a) Without following the procedures otherwise required prior to the adoption of a zoning ordinance, the legislative body of a county, city, including a charter city, or city and county, to protect the public safety, health, and welfare, may adopt as an urgency measure an interim ordinance prohibiting any uses that may be in conflict with a contemplated general plan, specific plan, or zoning proposal that the legislative body, planning commission or the planning department is considering or studying or intends to study within a reasonable time. That urgency measure shall require a four-fifths vote of the legislative body for adoption. The interim ordinance shall be of no further force and effect 45 days from its date of adoption. After notice pursuant to Section 65090 and public hearing, the legislative body may extend the interim ordinance for 10 months and 15 days and subsequently extend the interim ordinance for one year. Any extension shall also require a four-fifths vote for adoption. Not more than two extensions may be adopted.

(b) Alternatively, an interim ordinance may be adopted by a four-fifths vote following notice pursuant to Section 65090 and public hearing, in which case it shall be of no further force and effect 45 days from its date of adoption. After notice pursuant to Section 65090 and public hearing, the legislative body may by a four-fifths vote extend the interim ordinance for 22 months and 15 days.

(c) The legislative body shall not adopt or extend any interim ordinance pursuant to this section unless the ordinance contains legislative findings that there is a current and immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, and that the approval of additional subdivisions, use permits, variances, building permits, or any other applicable entitlement for use which is required in order to comply with a zoning ordinance would result in that threat to public health, safety, or welfare. In addition, any interim ordinance adopted pursuant to this section that has the effect of denying approvals needed for the development of projects with a significant component of multifamily housing may not be extended except upon written findings adopted by the legislative body, supported by substantial evidence on the record, that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The continued approval of the development of multifamily housing projects would have a specific, adverse impact upon the public health or safety. As used in this paragraph, a “specific, adverse impact” means a significant, quantifiable, direct, and unavoidable impact, based on objective, identified written public health or safety standards, policies, or conditions as they existed on the date that the ordinance is adopted by the legislative body.

(2) The interim ordinance is necessary to mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impact identified pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) There is no feasible alternative to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impact identified pursuant to paragraph (1) as well or better, with a less burdensome or restrictive effect, than the adoption of the proposed interim ordinance.

(d) Ten days prior to the expiration of that interim ordinance or any extension, the legislative body shall issue a written report describing the measures taken to alleviate the condition which led to the adoption of the ordinance.

(e) When an interim ordinance has been adopted, every subsequent ordinance adopted pursuant to this section, covering the whole or a part of the same property, shall automatically terminate and be of no further force or effect upon the termination of the first interim ordinance or any extension of the ordinance as provided in this section.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), upon termination of a prior interim ordinance, the legislative body may adopt another interim ordinance pursuant to this section provided that the new interim ordinance is adopted to protect the public safety, health, and welfare from an event, occurrence, or set of circumstances different from the event, occurrence, or set of circumstances that led to the adoption of the prior interim ordinance.

(g) For purposes of this section, “development of multifamily housing projects” does not include the demolition, conversion, redevelopment, or rehabilitation of multifamily housing that is affordable to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or that will result in an increase in the price or reduction of the number of affordable units in a multifamily housing project.

(h) For purposes of this section, “projects with a significant component of multifamily housing” means projects in which multifamily housing consists of at least one-third of the total square footage of the project.

SEC. 2. Section 65913.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65913.1. (a) In exercising its authority to zone for land uses and in revising its housing element pursuant to Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3, a city, county, or city and county shall designate and zone sufficient vacant land for residential use with appropriate standards, in relation to zoning for nonresidential use, and in relation to growth projections of the general plan to meet housing needs for all income categories as identified in the housing element of the general plan. For the purposes of this section:

(1) “Appropriate standards” means densities and requirements with respect to minimum floor areas, building setbacks, rear and side yards, parking, the percentage of a lot that may be occupied by a structure, amenities, and other requirements imposed on residential lots pursuant to the zoning authority which contribute significantly to the economic feasibility of producing housing at the lowest possible cost given economic and environmental factors, the public health and safety, and the need to facilitate the development of housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, and to persons and families of lower income, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to enlarge or diminish the authority of a city, county, or city and county to require a developer to construct this housing.

(2) “Vacant land” does not include agricultural preserves pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 51200) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a city, county, or city and county in which less than 5 percent of the total land area is undeveloped to zone a site within an urbanized area of that city, county, or city and county for residential uses at densities that exceed those on adjoining residential parcels by 100 percent. For the purposes of this section, “urbanized area” means a central city or cities and surrounding closely settled territory, as defined by the United States Department of Commerce Bureau of the Census in the Federal Register, Volume 39, Number 85, for Wednesday, May 1, 1974, at pages 15202-15203, and as periodically updated.

SEC. 4. Section 1 of Chapter 1023 of the Statutes of 2000, is amended to read:

Section 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) In 1983 and 1984 California card clubs played games with cards involving a player-dealer position in which players were afforded the temporary opportunity to wager against multiple players at the table where the player-dealer position continuously and systematically rotated among the players, prior to the amendment of Section 19 of Article IV of the California Constitution by the California State Lottery Act in 1984. This method of play was not found to be inconsistent with current law by the Courts of Appeal in Sullivan v. Fox (1987) 189 Cal.App.3d 673, Walker v. Meehan (1987) 194 Cal.App.3d 1290, City of Bell Gardens v. County of Los Angeles (1991) 231 Cal.App.3d 1563, and Huntington Park Club Corp. v. County of Los Angeles (1988) 206 Cal.App.3d 241.

(b) The amendment to Section 19 of Article IV of the Constitution declared:

“The Legislature has no power to authorize, and shall prohibit casinos of the type currently operating in Nevada and New Jersey.”

Casinos operating in 1983 and 1984 in the States of Nevada and New Jersey did not include card games featuring a player-dealer position which continuously and systematically rotates among the players. In Nevada and New Jersey, comparable games are banked only by the house, which is a participant in the game, with an interest in its outcome, and which covers all bets in the game, paying all winners and collecting from all losers.

(c) In Hotel Employees & Restaurant Employees v. Davis (1999) 21 Cal. 4th 585, the California Supreme Court recently stated at page 605 that:

“...(t)he type” of casino “operating in Nevada and New Jersey” presumably refers to a gambling facility that did not legally operate in California; something other, that is, than “the type” of casino “operating” in California.”

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 9. Section 12084 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12084. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Agency" means a sheriff's department in a county of less than 200,000 persons, according to the most recent federal decennial census, that elects to process purchases, sales, loans, or transfers of firearms.

(2) "Seller" means the seller or transferor of a firearm or the person loaning the firearm.

(3) "Purchaser" means the purchaser or transferee of a firearm or the person being loaned a firearm.

(4) "Purchase" means the purchase, loan, sale, or transfer of a firearm.

(5) "Department" means the Department of Justice.

(6) "LEFT" means the Law Enforcement Firearms Transfer Form consisting of the transfer form utilized to purchase a firearm in accordance with this section.

(b) As an alternative to completing the sale, transfer, or loan of a firearm through a licensed dealer pursuant to Section 12082, the parties to the purchase of a firearm may complete the transaction through an agency in accordance with this section in order to comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(c) (1) LEFTs shall be prepared by the State Printer and shall be furnished to agencies on application at a cost to be determined by the Department of General Services for each 100 leaves in quintuplicate, one original and four duplicates for the making of carbon copies. The original and duplicate copies shall differ in color, and shall be in the form provided by this section. The State Printer, upon issuing the LEFT, shall forward to the department the name and address of the agency together with the series and sheet numbers on the LEFT. The LEFT shall not be transferable.

(2) The department shall prescribe the form of the LEFT. It shall be in the same exact format set forth in Sections 12077 and 12082, with the same distinct formats for firearms that are pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person and for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, except that, instead of the listing of information concerning a dealer, the LEFT shall contain the name, telephone number, and address of the law enforcement agency.

(3) The original of each LEFT shall be retained in consecutive order. Each book of 50 originals shall become the permanent record of transactions that shall be retained not less than three years from the date of the last transaction and shall be provided for the inspection of any peace officer, department employee designated by the Attorney General, or agent of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms upon the presentation of proper identification.

(4) Ink shall be used to complete each LEFT. The agency shall ensure that all information is provided legibly. The purchaser and seller shall be informed that incomplete or illegible information delays purchases.

(5) Each original LEFT shall contain instructions regarding the procedure for completion of the form and the routing of the form. The agency shall comply with these instructions which shall include the information set forth in this subdivision.

(6) One firearm transaction shall be reported on each LEFT. For purposes of this paragraph, a "transaction" means a single sale, loan, or transfer of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person between the same two persons.

(d) The following procedures shall be followed in processing the purchase:

(1) Without waiting for the conclusion of any waiting period to elapse, the seller shall immediately deliver the firearm to the agency solely to complete the LEFT. Upon completion of the LEFT, the firearm shall be immediately returned by the agency to the seller without waiting for the waiting period to elapse.

(2) The purchaser shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the agency. The agency shall require the purchaser to complete the original and one copy of the LEFT. An employee of the agency shall then affix his or her signature as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser.

(3) Two copies of the LEFT shall, on that date of purchase, be placed in the mail, postage prepaid to the department at Sacramento. The third copy shall be provided to the purchaser and the fourth copy to the seller.

(4) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental

(5) If the department determines that the copies of the LEFT submitted to it pursuant to paragraph (3) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser or the firearm to be purchased, or if any fee required pursuant to paragraph (6) is not submitted by the agency in conjunction with submission of the copies of the LEFT, or if the department determines that the person is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the agency of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the purchaser shall submit any fee required pursuant to paragraph (6), as appropriate, and, if notification by the department is received by the agency at any time prior to delivery of the firearm, the delivery of the firearm shall be withheld until the conclusion of the waiting period described in paragraph (7).

(6) (A) The agency may charge a fee, not to exceed actual cost, sufficient to reimburse the agency for processing the transfer.

(B) The department may charge a fee, not to exceed actual cost, sufficient to reimburse the department for providing the information. The department shall charge the same fee that it would charge a dealer pursuant to Section 12082.

(7) The firearm shall not be delivered to the purchaser as follows:

(A) Prior to April 1, 1997, within 15 days of the application to purchase a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to paragraph (5), within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fees required pursuant to this subdivision, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the LEFT, whichever is later. Prior to April 1, 1997, within 10 days of the application to purchase any firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to paragraph (5), within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fees required pursuant to this subdivision, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the LEFT, whichever is later. On and after April 1, 1997, within 10 days of the application to purchase, or after notice by the department pursuant to paragraph (5), within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fees required pursuant to this subdivision, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the LEFT, whichever is later.

(B) Unless unloaded.

(C) In the case of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, unless securely wrapped or in a locked container.

(D) Unless the purchaser presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age to the agency.

(E) Whenever the agency is notified by the department that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1, or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(F) Unless done at the agency's premises.

(G) In the case of a handgun, commencing April 1, 1994, and until January 1, 2003, unless the purchaser presents to the seller a basic firearms safety certificate. Commencing January 1, 2003, in the case of a handgun, unless the purchaser presents to the seller a handgun safety certificate.

(H) Unless the purchaser is at least 18 years of age.

(e) The action of a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 shall be deemed to be a discretionary act within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(f) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, its acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(g) Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the LEFT is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(h) All sums received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund.

CHAPTER 943

An act to amend Sections 1405 and 1417.9 of the Penal Code, relating to forensic testing.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1405 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1405. (a) A person who was convicted of a felony and is currently serving a term of imprisonment may make a written motion before the trial court that entered the judgment of conviction in his or her case, for performance of forensic deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing.

(b) (1) An indigent convicted person may request appointment of counsel to prepare a motion under this section by sending a written request to the court. The request shall include the person's statement that he or she was not the perpetrator of the crime and that DNA testing is relevant to his or her assertion of innocence. The request also shall include the person's statement as to whether he or she previously has had counsel appointed under this section.

(2) If any of the information required in paragraph (1) is missing from the request, the court shall return the request to the convicted person and advise him or her that the matter cannot be considered without the missing information.

(3) (A) Upon a finding that the person is indigent, he or she has included the information required in paragraph (1), and counsel has not previously been appointed pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall appoint counsel to investigate and, if appropriate, to file a motion for DNA testing under this section and to represent the person solely for the purpose of obtaining DNA testing under this section.

(B) Upon a finding that the person is indigent, and counsel previously has been appointed pursuant to this subdivision, the court may, in its discretion, appoint counsel to investigate and, if appropriate, to file a motion for DNA testing under this section and to represent the person solely for the purpose of obtaining DNA testing under this section.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to provide for a right to the appointment of counsel in a postconviction collateral proceeding, or to set a precedent for any such right, in any context other than the representation being provided an indigent convicted person for the limited purpose of filing and litigating a motion for DNA testing pursuant to this section.

(c) (1)The motion shall be verified by the convicted person under penalty of perjury and shall do all of the following:

(A) Explain why the identity of the perpetrator was, or should have been, a significant issue in the case.

(B) Explain, in light of all the evidence, how the requested DNA testing would raise a reasonable probability that the convicted person's verdict or sentence would be more favorable if the results of DNA testing had been available at the time of conviction.

(C) Make every reasonable attempt to identify both the evidence that should be tested and the specific type of DNA testing sought.

(D) Reveal the results of any DNA or other biological testing that was conducted previously by either the prosecution or defense, if known.

(E) State whether any motion for testing under this section previously has been filed and the results of that motion, if known.

(2) Notice of the motion shall be served on the Attorney General, the district attorney in the county of conviction, and, if known, the governmental agency or laboratory holding the evidence sought to be tested. Responses, if any, shall be filed within 60 days of the date on which the Attorney General and the district attorney are served with the motion, unless a continuance is granted for good cause.

(d) If the court finds evidence was subjected to DNA or other forensic testing previously by either the prosecution or defense, it shall order the party at whose request the testing was conducted to provide all parties and the court with access to the laboratory reports, underlying data, and laboratory notes prepared in connection with the DNA or other biological evidence testing.

(e) The court, in its discretion, may order a hearing on the motion. The motion shall be heard by the judge who conducted the trial, or accepted the convicted person's plea of guilty or nolo contendere, unless the presiding judge determines that judge is unavailable. Upon request of either party, the court may order, in the interest of justice, that the convicted person be present at the hearing of the motion.

(f) The court shall grant the motion for DNA testing if it determines all of the following have been established:

(1) The evidence to be tested is available and in a condition that would permit the DNA testing requested in the motion.

(2) The evidence to be tested has been subject to a chain of custody sufficient to establish it has not been substituted, tampered with, replaced or altered in any material aspect.

(3) The identity of the perpetrator of the crime was, or should have been, a significant issue in the case.

(4) The convicted person has made a prima facie showing that the evidence sought to be tested is material to the issue of the convicted person's identity as the perpetrator of, or accomplice to, the crime, special circumstance, or enhancement allegation that resulted in the conviction or sentence.

(5) The requested DNA testing results would raise a reasonable probability that, in light of all the evidence, the convicted person's verdict or sentence would have been more favorable if the results of DNA testing had been available at the time of conviction. The court in its discretion may consider any evidence whether or not it was introduced at trial.

(6) The evidence sought to be tested meets either of the following conditions:

(A) The evidence was not tested previously.

(B) The evidence was tested previously, but the requested DNA test would provide results that are reasonably more discriminating and probative of the identity of the perpetrator or accomplice or have a reasonable probability of contradicting prior test results.

(7) The testing requested employs a method generally accepted within the relevant scientific community.

(8) The motion is not made solely for the purpose of delay.

(g) If the court grants the motion for DNA testing, the court order shall identify the specific evidence to be tested and the DNA technology to be used. The testing shall be conducted by a laboratory mutually agreed upon by the district attorney in a noncapital case, or the Attorney General in a capital case, and the person filing the motion. If the parties cannot agree, the court shall designate the laboratory to conduct the testing and shall consider designating a laboratory accredited by the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors Laboratory Accreditation Board (ASCLD/LAB).

(h) The result of any testing ordered under this section shall be fully disclosed to the person filing the motion, the district attorney, and the Attorney General. If requested by any party, the court shall order production of the underlying laboratory data and notes.

(i) (1) The cost of DNA testing ordered under this section shall be borne by the state or the applicant, as the court may order in the interests of justice, if it is shown that the applicant is not indigent and possesses the ability to pay. However, the cost of any additional testing to be conducted by the district attorney or Attorney General shall not be borne by the convicted person.

(2) In order to pay the state's share of any testing costs, the laboratory designated in subdivision (e) shall present its bill for services to the superior court for approval and payment. It is the intent of the Legislature to appropriate funds for this purpose in the 2000-01 Budget Act.

(j) An order granting or denying a motion for DNA testing under this section shall not be appealable, and shall be subject to review only through petition for writ of mandate or prohibition filed by the person seeking DNA testing, the district attorney, or the Attorney General. The petition shall be filed within 20 days after the court's order granting or denying the motion for DNA testing. In a noncapital case, the petition for writ of mandate or prohibition shall be filed in the court of appeal. In a capital case, the petition shall be filed in the California Supreme Court. The court of appeal or California Supreme Court shall expedite its review of a petition for writ of mandate or prohibition filed under this subdivision.

(k) DNA testing ordered by the court pursuant to this section shall be done as soon as practicable. However, if the court finds that a miscarriage of justice will otherwise occur and that it is necessary in the interests of justice to give priority to the DNA testing, a DNA laboratory shall be required to give priority to the DNA testing ordered pursuant to this section over the laboratory's other pending casework.

(l) DNA profile information from biological samples taken from a convicted person pursuant to a motion for postconviction DNA testing is exempt from any law requiring disclosure of information to the public.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the right to file a motion for postconviction DNA testing provided by this section is absolute and shall not be waived. This prohibition applies to, but is not limited to, a waiver that is given as part of an agreement resulting in a plea of guilty or nolo contendere.

(n) The provisions of this section are severable. If any provision of this section or its application is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

SEC. 2. Section 1417.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1417.9. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to subdivision (b), the appropriate governmental entity shall retain all biological material that is secured in connection with a criminal case for the period of time that any person remains incarcerated in connection with that case. The governmental entity shall have the discretion to determine how the evidence is retained pursuant to this section, provided that the evidence is retained in a condition suitable for deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing.

(b) A governmental entity may dispose of biological material before the expiration of the period of time described in subdivision (a) if all of the conditions set forth below are met:

(1) The governmental entity notifies all of the following persons of the provisions of this section and of the intention of the governmental entity to dispose of the material: any person, who as a result of a felony conviction in the case is currently serving a term of imprisonment and who remains incarcerated in connection with the case, any counsel of record, the public defender in the county of conviction, the district attorney in the county of conviction, and the Attorney General.

(2) The notifying entity does not receive, within 90 days of sending the notification, any of the following:

(A) A motion filed pursuant to Section 1405. However, upon filing of that motion, the governmental entity shall retain the material only until the time that the court's denial of the motion is final.

(B) A request under penalty of perjury that the material not be destroyed or disposed of because the declarant will file within 180 days a motion for DNA testing pursuant to Section 1405 that is followed within 180 days by a motion for DNA testing pursuant to Section 1405, unless a request for an extension is requested by the convicted person and agreed to by the governmental entity in possession of the evidence.

(C) A declaration of innocence under penalty of perjury that has been filed with the court within 180 days of the judgment of conviction or July 1, 2001, whichever is later. However, the court shall permit the destruction of the evidence upon a showing that the declaration is false or there is no issue of identity that would be affected by additional testing. The convicted person may be cross-examined on the declaration at any hearing conducted under this section or on an application by or on behalf of the convicted person filed pursuant to Section 1405.

(3) No other provision of law requires that biological evidence be preserved or retained.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the right to receive notice pursuant to this section is absolute and shall not be waived. This prohibition applies to, but is not limited to, a waiver that is given as part of an agreement resulting in a plea of guilty or nolo contendere.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and on that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

(c) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (a) or paragraph (2) of this subdivision, any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor violation of Section 71, 76, 136.1, 136.5, or 140, subdivision (d) of

However, the prohibition in this paragraph may be reduced, eliminated, or conditioned as provided in paragraph (2) or (3).

(2) Any person employed as a peace officer described in Section 830.1, 830.2, 830.31, 830.32, 830.33, or 830.5 whose employment or livelihood is dependent on the ability to legally possess a firearm, who is subject to the prohibition imposed by this subdivision because of a conviction under Section 273.5, 273.6, or 646.9, may petition the court only once for relief from this prohibition. The petition shall be filed with the court in which the petitioner was sentenced. If possible, the matter shall be heard before the same judge that sentenced the petitioner. Upon filing the petition, the clerk of the court shall set the hearing date and shall notify the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney of the date of the hearing. Upon making each of the following findings, the court may reduce or eliminate the prohibition, impose conditions on reduction or elimination of the prohibition, or otherwise grant relief from the prohibition as the court deems appropriate:

(A) Finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is likely to use a firearm in a safe and lawful manner.

(B) Finds that the petitioner is not within a prohibited class as specified in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), or (g) or Section 12021.1, and the court is not presented with any credible evidence that the petitioner is a person described in Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) Finds that the petitioner does not have a previous conviction under this subdivision no matter when the prior conviction occurred.

In making its decision, the court shall consider the petitioner's continued employment, the interest of justice, any relevant evidence, and the totality of the circumstances. The court shall require, as a condition of granting relief from the prohibition under this section, that the petitioner agree to participate in counseling as deemed appropriate by the court. Relief from the prohibition shall not relieve any other person or entity from any liability that might otherwise be imposed. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts exercise broad discretion in fashioning appropriate relief under this paragraph in cases in which relief is warranted. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require courts to grant relief to any particular petitioner. It is the intent of the Legislature to permit persons who were convicted of an offense specified in Section 273.5, 273.6, or 646.9 to seek relief from the prohibition imposed by this subdivision.

(3) Any person who is subject to the prohibition imposed by this subdivision because of a conviction of an offense prior to that offense being added to paragraph (1) may petition the court only once for relief from this prohibition. The petition shall be filed with the court in which the petitioner was sentenced. If possible, the matter shall be heard before the same judge that sentenced the petitioner. Upon filing the petition, the clerk of the court shall set the hearing date and notify the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney of the date of the hearing. Upon making each of the following findings, the court may reduce or eliminate the prohibition, impose conditions on reduction or elimination of the prohibition, or otherwise grant relief from the prohibition as the court deems appropriate:

(A) Finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is likely to use a firearm in a safe and lawful manner.

(B) Finds that the petitioner is not within a prohibited class as specified in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), or (g) or Section 12021.1, and the court is not presented with any credible evidence that the petitioner is a person described in Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) Finds that the petitioner does not have a previous conviction under this subdivision, no matter when the prior conviction occurred.

In making its decision, the court may consider the interest of justice, any relevant evidence, and the totality of the circumstances. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts exercise broad discretion in fashioning appropriate relief under this paragraph in cases in which relief is warranted. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require courts to grant relief to any particular petitioner.

(4) Law enforcement officials who enforce the prohibition specified in this subdivision against a person who has been granted relief pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) shall be immune from any liability for false arrest arising from the enforcement of this subdivision unless the person has in his or her possession a certified copy of the court order that granted the person relief from the prohibition. This immunity from liability shall not relieve any person or entity from any other liability that might otherwise be imposed.

(d) (1) Any person who, as an express condition of probation, is prohibited or restricted from owning, possessing, controlling, receiving, or purchasing a firearm and who owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm but who is not subject to subdivision (a) or (c) is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The notice shall inform the defendant of the prohibition regarding firearms and include a form to facilitate the transfer of firearms. Failure to provide the notice shall not be a defense to a violation of this section.

(1) Conviction of a like offense under California law can only result in imposition of felony punishment.

(3) Judicial Council shall provide notice on all protective orders that the respondent is prohibited from owning, possessing, purchasing, or receiving a firearm while the protective order is in effect and that the firearm shall be relinquished to the local law enforcement agency for that jurisdiction or sold to a licensed gun dealer, and that proof of surrender or sale shall be filed within a specified time of receipt of the order. The order shall also state on its face the expiration date for relinquishment.

(B) The person possessed the firearm no longer than was necessary to deliver or transport the firearm to a law enforcement agency for that agency's disposition according to law.

(C) If the firearm was transported to a law enforcement agency, it was transported in accordance with paragraph (18) of subdivision (a) of Section 12026.2.

19851.5. Notwithstanding subdivision (i) of Section 19801, the commission shall not deny a license to a gambling establishment solely because it is not open to the public, provided that all of the following are true: (a) the gambling establishment is situated in a local jurisdiction that has an ordinance allowing only private clubs, and the gambling establishment was in operation as a private club under that ordinance on December 31, 1997, and met all applicable state and local gaming registration requirements; (b) the gambling establishment consists of no more than five gaming tables; (c) videotaped recordings of the entrance to the gambling room or rooms and all tables situated therein are made during all hours of operation by means of closed circuit television cameras, and these tapes are retained for a period of 30 days and are made available for review by the division or commission upon request; and (d) the gambling establishment is open to members of the private club and their spouses in accordance with membership criteria in effect as of December 31, 1997.

A gambling establishment meeting these criteria, in addition to the other requirements of this chapter, may be licensed to operate as a private club gambling establishment until November 30, 2003, or until the ownership or operation of the gambling establishment changes from the ownership or operation as of January 1, 1998, whichever occurs first. Operation of the gambling establishments after this date shall only be permitted if the local jurisdiction approves an ordinance, pursuant to Sections 19950.1 and 19950.2, authorizing the operation of gambling establishments that are open to the public. The commission shall adopt regulations implementing this section. Prior to the commission's issuance of a license to a private club, the division shall ensure that the ownership of the gambling establishment has remained constant since January 1, 1998, and the operation of the gambling establishment has not been leased to any third party.

If the commission denies the application, it shall include in its notice of denial a statement of facts upon which it relied in denying the application. Upon receipt of an application for a work permit, the commission may issue a temporary work permit for a period not to exceed 120 days, pending completion of the background investigation by the division and official action by the commission with respect to the work permit application.

(e) An order of the commission denying an application for a work permit, including an order declining to issue a work permit following review pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), may be reviewed in accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 19858.

CHAPTER 946

An act to add Section 21670.3 to, and to add Division 17 (commencing with Section 170000) to, the Public Utilities Code, and to amend Sections 4 and 5 of the San Diego Unified Port District Act (Chapter 67 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), relating to airports.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21670.3 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

21670.3. (a) Sections 21670 and 21670.1 do not apply to the County of San Diego. In that county, the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority, as established pursuant to Section 170002, is responsible for coordinating the airport planning of public agencies within the county and shall, on or before June 30, 2005, after reviewing the existing comprehensive land use plan adopted pursuant to Section 21675, adopt a comprehensive land use plan.

(b) Any comprehensive land use plan developed pursuant to Section 21675 and adopted pursuant to Section 21675.1 by the San Diego Association of Governments shall remain in effect until June 30, 2005, unless the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority adopts a plan prior to that date pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Division 17 (commencing with Section 170000) is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

DIVISION 17. SAN DIEGO COUNTY REGIONAL AIRPORT AUTHORITY

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

170000. This division shall be known and may be cited as the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority Act.

170002. There is hereby established the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority, as a local governmental entity of regional government, with jurisdiction extending throughout the County of San Diego.

170004. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The population in San Diego County is forecasted to grow to 4.1 million persons by 2030, a 45 percent increase over its population in 2000. In light of this growth, it is incumbent upon the region to take actions to provide for an economy that will create sufficient opportunity and wealth to ensure a high quality of life for all its residents.

(b) The globally competitive, export-oriented electronics, communications, and biotechnology industries of San Diego County already employ over 300,000 persons, nearly a third of the local labor force, and will continue to drive the region's economy as it competes in the expanding national and international markets.

(c) Air transportation will be an important factor in fostering continued economic growth in San Diego County, as technology workers travel by air 40 percent more frequently than workers in other sectors of the economy.

(d) According to the Joint Aviation Advisory Committee established by the San Diego Association of Governments and the San Diego Unified Port District, San Diego International Airport today contributes about $4.3 billion to the San Diego regional economy, which is about 4 percent of the total output of the region's economy. With the demand for air travel expected to more than double to 35 million passengers in 2030, an airport capable of supporting that demand would contribute up to $8 billion to the regional economy. Failure to increase San Diego's regional airport capacity would result in 56,000 fewer jobs and up to $2.5 billion less in personal income by 2030. More than 50 percent of the reduction in jobs would occur in the industries related to air exports, including the high-technology industries that manufacture machinery, electronic equipment, and instruments. The balance of the impact would be in the visitor-related industries.

(e) The San Diego Regional Government Efficiency Commission was established under Chapter 764 of the Statutes of 2000 to evaluate regional governance in San Diego County and to submit a report to the Legislature for improving regional governance. To facilitate its purpose, that commission formed a Port Working Group, a Governance Working Group, a Transportation Working Group, and an Environmental and Land Use Working Group to examine regional governance in the region and to propose options for its improvement. The Port Working Group studied the role and function of the San Diego Unified Port District and in collaboration with the Transportation Working Group created a special joint committee to examine airport development issues in the region. After reviewing the options developed by the joint committee, the commission has recommended to the Legislature, by resolution adopted on July 6, 2001, that a new airport authority be created by statute in San Diego County.

(f) Because of the significant regional consequences of airport development and operations, it is important that the future development of major airport facilities in San Diego County be addressed in the context of a regional decisionmaking process that has regional representation.

(g) In an effort to assure the continued military readiness of the United States Department of Defense (DOD), comprehensive airport planning must consider and protect military airspace needs in the San Diego region. The activities of the DOD in the San Diego region require mission-essential airspace for training and operations. In addition, the DOD has direct economic expenditures in San Diego County of nearly $10 billion annually, and represents over 376,000 residents of the region. For these reasons, the DOD is a major stakeholder in the region's comprehensive plans for a viable airport solution.

170006. For the purposes of this division, the following terms have the following meanings, unless the context requires otherwise.

(a) The "authority" means the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority established under this division.

(b) The "board" means the governing board of the authority established as specified in Section 170016.

(c) The "interim board" means the limited term board established as specified in Section 170012.

(d) The "port" means the San Diego Unified Port District established under the San Diego Unified Port District Act (Chapter 67 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session).

(e) The "San Diego International Airport" means the airport located at Lindbergh Field in the County of San Diego.

(f) (1) The "north area cities" mean the cities of Carlsbad, Del Mar, Encinitas, Escondido, Oceanside, San Marcos, Solana Beach, and Vista.

(2) The "south area cities" mean the cities of Coronado, Imperial Beach, Chula Vista, National City, Lemon Grove, El Cajon, La Mesa, Santee, and Poway.

(c) The authority shall cooperate with all other airports in the county to further the development of a countywide aviation system. To this end, the authority shall facilitate the pass-through of state and federal grants, without deduction for any cost associated with processing that pass-through, to local airport operators, if those grants are for purposes that are consistent with the aviation element of the regional transportation plan or with an adopted program of projects.

170068. The authority may accept the transfer of ownership of other publicly owned airports in the County of San Diego. Any transfer shall include the preparation of a transition plan to ensure the orderly transfer of assets and obligations. (c) Nothing in this section prohibits the authority from availing itself of any procedure provided in this chapter for the issuance of bonds of any type or character for any of the authorized airport facilities. All bond proceedings may be carried on simultaneously or, in the alternative, as the authority may determine.

170072. The authority may levy special benefit assessments consistent with the requirements of Article XIII D of the California Constitution to finance capital improvements, including, but not limited to, special benefit assessments levied pursuant to any of the following:

(d) The Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972 (Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code).

(e) Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 99000) of Part 11 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code, if the authority participates in the development of rail access to an airport.

170076. (a) The authority may borrow money in anticipation of the sale of any bonds that have been authorized to be issued, but have not been sold and delivered, and may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes therefor, and may renew the bond anticipation notes from time to time, but the maximum maturity of any bond anticipation notes, including the renewals thereof, may not exceed five years from the date of delivery of the original bond anticipation notes. The bond anticipation notes may be paid from any money of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged.

(b) If not previously otherwise paid, the bond anticipation notes shall be paid from the proceeds of the next sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The bond anticipation notes may not be issued in any amount in excess of the aggregate amount of bonds that the authority has been authorized to issue, less the amount of any bonds of the authorized issue previously sold, and also less the amount of other bond anticipation notes therefore issued and then outstanding. The bond anticipation notes shall be issued and sold in the same manner as the bonds. The bond anticipation notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions, or limitations that a resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance of bonds may contain.

170078. The authority may bring an action to determine the validity of any of its bonds, equipment trust certificates, warrants, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

170080. All bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority under this chapter, and the interest thereon, are free and exempt from all taxation within the state, except for transfer, franchise, inheritance, and estate taxes.

mandamus or any other appropriate suit, action, or proceeding in law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Upon dissolution of the authority or upon withdrawal of territory therefrom, that territory formerly included within the authority, or withdrawn therefrom, shall continue to be liable for the payment of all bonded and other indebtedness or liabilities outstanding at the time of the dissolution or withdrawal as if the authority had not been so dissolved or the territory withdrawn therefrom, and it shall be the duty of the successors or assigns to provide for the payment of the bonded and other indebtedness and liabilities.

(d) Except as may be otherwise provided in the proceedings for the authorization, issuance, and sale of any revenue bonds, bonds secured by a pledge of revenues, or bonds for improvement districts secured by a pledge of revenues, revenues of any kind or nature derived from any revenue-producing improvements, works, facilities, or property owned, operated, or controlled by the authority shall be pledged, charged, assigned, and have a lien thereon for the payment of the bonds as long as they are outstanding, regardless of any change in ownership, operation, or control of the revenue-producing improvements, works, facilities, or property and it shall, in any later event or events, be the duty of the successors or assigns to continue to maintain and operate the revenue-producing improvements, works, facilities, or property as long as bonds are outstanding.

170084. The authority shall assume and be bound by the terms and conditions of employment set forth in any collective bargaining agreement between the port and any labor organization affected by the creation of the authority, as well as the duties, obligations, and liabilities arising from, or relating to, labor obligations imposed by state or federal law upon the port. The employees of the port affected by this division shall become employees of the authority and shall suffer no loss of employment or reduction in wages, health and welfare benefits, seniority, retirement benefits or contributions made to retirement plans, or any other term of condition of employment as a result of the enactment of this division.

(b) Subject to Section 87 and any other provision of applicable law, the district may use the powers and authority granted pursuant to this section to protect, preserve, and enhance all of the following:

- (1) The physical access to the bay.
- (2) The natural resources of the bay, including plant and animal life.
- (3) The quality of water in the bay.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the powers and authority specified in this section are to be used only as necessary or incident to the development and operation of a port and shall not apply to public utilities operated under the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California.

(d) This section shall become operative on December 2, 2002.

SEC. 4. Section 5 of the San Diego Unified Port District Act (Chapter 67 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), as amended by Section 1.5 of Chapter 399 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

CHAPTER 947

An act relating to school facilities.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Construction of new schools is of the utmost priority and importance, particularly in overcrowded school districts. New facilities will help decrease the number of pupils who must be bussed out of their home districts, ease crowded classrooms, and decrease the number of multitrack, year-round schools.

(b) Belmont Learning Center, located in the City of Los Angeles, has been near completion for two years. Yet, this desperately needed facility, located in a district that busses thousands of pupils out of the area every day, cannot open due to political and environmental controversies. It is the intent of the Legislature to clarify and ameliorate these concerns.

SEC. 2. (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(2) "District" means the Los Angeles Unified School District.

(3) "Remedial investigation and feasibility study" means a remedial investigation, as defined in Section 25322.2 of the Health and Safety Code, and a feasibility study, as defined in Section 25314 of the Health and Safety Code, in accordance with Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) On or before January 1, 2003, the district shall do both of the following:

(1) Prepare a remedial investigation and feasibility study for the Belmont Learning Complex site located at the corner of Beaudry Avenue and First Street in the City of Los Angeles.

(2) Submit the study to the department for review.

(c) The district shall obtain the department's determination that the remedial investigation and feasibility study prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) is complete and meets all applicable requirements of

Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code before the district opens the Belmont Learning Complex as a school, or takes any action to use the Belmont Learning Complex for any nonschool purpose.

(d) The district may contract with an entity approved by the department to prepare the remedial investigation and feasibility study required by subdivision (b).

(e) The district shall reimburse the department for any oversight costs incurred by the department pursuant to this section. In determining these costs, the department shall comply with the applicable requirements of Chapter 6.66 (commencing with Section 25269) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code. On and after January 2, 2003, the district shall also make the remedial investigation and feasibility study available to the public by posting the study on its Internet Web site.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 948

An act to add Part 12 (commencing with Section 2695.1) to Division 2 of the Labor Code, relating to sheepherders.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 12 (commencing with Section 2695.1) is added to Division 2 of the Labor Code, to read:

PART 12. SHEEPHERDERS

2695.1. (a) In enacting this legislation, it is the intent of the Legislature to codify certain labor protections that should be afforded to sheepherders, as defined. The provisions of this section are in addition to, and are entirely independent from, any other statutory or legal protections, rights, or remedies that are or may be available under this code or any other state law or regulation to sheepherders either as individuals, employees, or persons.

(b) All terms used in this section and in Section 2695.5 have the meanings assigned to them by this code or any other state law or regulation.

2695.2. (a) (1) For a sheepherder employed on a regularly scheduled 24-hour shift on a seven-day-a-week "on-call" basis, an employer may, as an alternative to paying the minimum wage for all hours worked, instead pay no less than the monthly minimum wage adopted by the Industrial Welfare Commission on April 24, 2001. Any sheepherder who performs nonshepherding, nonagricultural work on any workday shall be fully covered for that workweek by the provisions of any applicable laws or regulations relating to that work.

(2) After July 1, 2002, the amount of the monthly minimum wage permitted under paragraph (1) shall be increased each time that the state minimum wage is increased and shall become effective on the same date as any increase in the state minimum wage. The amount of the increase shall be determined by calculating the percentage increase of the new rate over the previous rate, and then by applying the same percentage increase to the minimum monthly wage rate.

(b) (1) When tools or equipment are required by the employer or are necessary to the performance of a job, the tools and equipment shall be provided and maintained by the employer, except that a sheepherder whose wages are at least two times the minimum wage provided herein, or if paid on a monthly basis, at least two times the monthly minimum wage, may be required to provide and maintain handtools and equipment customarily required by the trade or craft.

(2) A reasonable deposit may be required as security for the return of the items furnished by the employer under provisions of paragraph (1) upon issuance of a receipt to the sheepherder for such deposit. The deposits shall be made pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 400) of Chapter 3. Alternatively, with the prior written authorization of the sheepherder, an employer may deduct from the sheepherder's last check the cost of any item furnished pursuant to paragraph (1) when the item is not returned. No deduction shall be made at any time for normal wear and tear. All items furnished by the employer shall be returned by the sheepherder upon completion of the job.

(c) No employer of sheepherders shall employ a sheepherder for a work period of more than five hours without a meal period of no less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six hours will complete a day's work, the meal period may be waived by the mutual consent of the employer and the sheepherder. An employer may be relieved of this obligation if a meal period of 30 minutes cannot reasonably be provided because no one is available to relieve a shepherd tending flock alone on that day. Where a meal period of 30 minutes can be provided but not without interruption, a shepherd shall be allowed to complete the meal period during that day.

(d) To the extent practicable, every employer shall authorize and permit all shepherders to take rest periods. The rest period, insofar as is practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest times shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of 10 minutes net rest time per four hours, or major fraction thereof, of work. However, a rest period need not be authorized for shepherders whose total daily worktime is less than three and one-half hours.

(e) When the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats, suitable seats shall be provided for shepherders working on or at a machine.

(f) After January 1, 2003, during times when a shepherd is lodged in mobile housing units where it is feasible to provide lodging that meets the minimum standards established by this section because there is practicable access for mobile housing units, the lodging provided shall include at a minimum all of the following:

(1) Toilets and bathing facilities, which may include portable toilets and portable shower facilities.

(2) Heating.

(3) Inside lighting.

(4) Potable hot and cold water.

(5) Adequate cooking facilities and utensils.

(6) A working refrigerator, which may include a butane or propane gas refrigerator, or for no more than a one-week period during which a nonworking refrigerator is repaired or replaced, a means of refrigerating perishable food items, which may include ice chests, provided that ice is delivered to the shepherd, as needed, to maintain a continuous temperature required to retard spoilage and ensure food safety.

(g) After January 1, 2003, all shepherders shall be provided with all of the following at each worksite:

(1) Regular mail service.

(2) A means of communication through telephone or radio solely for use in a medical emergency affecting the shepherd or for an emergency relating to the herding operation. If the means of communication is provided by telephone, the shepherd may be charged for the actual cost of nonemergency telephone use. Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude an employer from providing additional means of communication to the shepherd which are appropriate because telephones or radios are out of range or otherwise inoperable.

(3) Visitor access to the housing.

(4) Upon request and to the extent practicable, access to transportation to and from the nearest locale where shopping, medical, or cultural facilities and services are available on a weekly basis.

(h) In addition to any other civil penalties provided by law, any employer or any other person acting on behalf of the employer who violates or causes to be violated the provisions of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty, as follows:

(1) For the initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid, plus an amount sufficient to recover the unpaid wages.

(2) For any subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid, plus an amount sufficient to recover the unpaid wages.

(3) The affected employee shall receive payment of all wages recovered.

(i) If the application of any provision of any subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, word, or portion of this legislation is held invalid, unconstitutional, unauthorized, or prohibited by statute, the remaining provisions thereof shall not be affected and shall continue to be given full force and effect as if the part held invalid or unconstitutional had not been included.

(j) Every employer of sheepherders shall post a copy of this part in an area frequented by sheepherders where it may be easily read during the workday. Where the location of work or other conditions make posting impractical, every employer shall make a copy of this part available to sheepherders upon request. Copies of this part shall be posted and made available in a language understood by the sheepherder. An employer is deemed to have complied with this subdivision if he or she posts where practical, or makes available upon request where posting is impractical, a copy of the Industrial Welfare Commission Order 14-2001, as adopted on April 14, 2001, relating to sheepherders, provided that the posted material includes a sufficient summary of each of the provisions of this part.

WHEREAS, From the earliest days of the United States, the course of its history has been greatly influenced by Black heroes and pioneers in many diverse areas, from science, medicine, business, and education to government, industry, and social leadership; and

WHEREAS, This year we celebrate Black History Month in a new century. An old African proverb states, "Only when you have crossed the river, can you say the crocodile has a lump on his snout." The ancient Egyptians had developed a very complex religious system, called Mysteries, which was also the first system of salvation. The others lost their lives on African soil or along the Guinea coast, or finally in holds on the ships during the dreaded Middle Passage across the Atlantic Ocean; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 18

Senate Joint Resolution No. 6—Relative to multifamily rental housing.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 27, 2001.]

WHEREAS, California is in the midst of a housing shortage, causing housing prices to rise out of the reach of most low- and middle-income families, and forcing many low- and moderate-income workers, including teachers, police officers, firefighters, construction workers, public sector employees, retail and service sector employees, and other low- and moderate-income workers to seek housing up to two or three commute hours away from employment centers, thereby increasing traffic congestion, air pollution, and reducing available family time, economic productivity, and quality of life; and

WHEREAS, There has been a continuous, appreciable, and verifiable decline in the number of building permits issued for multifamily housing since 1986, with the percentage of multifamily housing permits of the total number of housing construction permits granted in California dropping from 148,085 or 47 percent of total residential permits issued in 1986, to 36,000 or 25 percent of total residential permits issued in the year 2000, and the percentage of multifamily building permits has remained below 20 percent of the total number of housing permits issued for most of the 1990's; and

WHEREAS, There also has been a continuous, appreciable, and verifiable decline in the construction of multifamily units on a nationwide basis, with the percentage of multifamily housing permits of the total number of housing permits dropping from 656,000 or 38 percent of total residential permits issued in 1985, to 324,000 or 21 percent of total residential permits issued in the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, In California and most parts of the nation, most multifamily units currently under construction are for use as rental housing rather than owner-occupied housing; and

WHEREAS, Despite the rebound of the California economy over the last several years, increasing demand for rental housing, and accelerating rents, these market factors have not resulted in a significantly increased level of private investment in multifamily housing, when compared to historical patterns of multifamily construction during economic upswings both within the state, as well as nationally, during the decades prior to 1986; and

WHEREAS, Although there are several factors that contribute to the inadequate pace of multifamily rental housing construction, most economists agree that provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 that lengthened the number of years necessary to fully depreciate private investments in rental real property from 19 to 27.5 years and that restricted the ability of private investors to deduct passive losses resulting from investments in rental real property have significantly reduced the incentive to invest in and own multifamily rental housing; and

WHEREAS, A beneficial outcome of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 was the creation of the federal Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Program, that has enabled the construction of hundreds of thousands of rental housing units affordable to lower income households, but that by itself has been unable to satisfy the overall demand for new rental housing; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully requests the President and Congress of the United States to review federal tax law applicable to rental housing, including depreciation schedules and passive loss provisions, as they existed prior to the Tax Reform Act of 1986, and to enact new tax benefits that complement the Low- Income Housing Tax Credit Program and provide additional incentives to invest in multifamily rental housing, so that the significant shortage of multifamily rental housing both in California and throughout the United States may be addressed through increased private investment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 19

Senate Joint Resolution No. 10—Relative to special education funding.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 27, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The Congress enacted the Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975 (P.L. 94-142), now known as the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), to ensure that all children with disabilities in the United States have available to them a free and appropriate public education that emphasizes special education and related services designed to meet their unique needs, to ensure that the rights of children with disabilities and their parents or guardians are protected, to assist states and localities to provide for the education of all children with disabilities, and to assess and ensure the effectiveness of efforts to educate children with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Since 1975, federal law has authorized appropriation levels for grants to states under the IDEA at 40 percent of the average per-pupil expenditure in public elementary and secondary schools in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Congress continued the 40-percent funding authority in Public Law 105-17, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997; and

WHEREAS, Congress has never appropriated funds equivalent to the authorized level, has never exceeded the 15-percent level, and has usually only appropriated funding at about the 8-percent level; and

WHEREAS, The federal budget for fiscal year 2001, signed by the President on December 22, 2000, made an additional $1.4 billion available for special education, and this increased appropriation, when combined with the revised allocation formula in Public Law 105-17 will make the federal government more able to fund special education, and at higher levels than previously attained; and

WHEREAS, The California Master Plan for Special Education was approved for statewide implementation in 1980 on the basis of the anticipated federal commitment to fund special education programs at the federally authorized level; and

WHEREAS, The Governor's Budget for the 2001-02 fiscal year proposes $2.6 billion in General Fund support for the state's share of funding for special education programs; and

WHEREAS, California anticipates receiving over $650 million, including a $140 million increase in federal special education funds under Part B of IDEA for the 2001-02 school year, even though the federally authorized level of funding, if fully reimbursed, would provide an additional amount of over $1 billion annually to California; and

WHEREAS, Local educational agencies in California are required to pay for the underfunded federal mandates for special education programs, at a statewide total cost exceeding $1 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Cedar Rapids Community Sch. Dist. v. Garret F. (1999) 143 L.Ed.2d 154, has had the effect of creating an additional mandate for providing specialized health care, and will significantly increase the costs associated with providing special education and related services; and

WHEREAS, Whether or not California participates in the IDEA grant program, the California schools are required to meet the requirements of Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 701) and its implementing regulations (34 C.F.R. 104), which prohibit recipients of federal financial assistance, including educational institutions, from discriminating on the basis of disability, yet no federal funds are available under that act for state grants; and

WHEREAS, California is committed to providing a free and appropriate public education and related services to children and youth with disabilities, in order to meet their unique needs; and

WHEREAS, Since 1997, the state has used federal special education funding increases to provide equity adjustments to school agencies consistent with the new special education funding model provided in Assembly Bill 602 of the 1997–98 Regular Session (Chapter 854 of the Statutes of 1997); and

WHEREAS, California is committed to the continued use of increases in federal funding for special education to recognize special education funding commitments made to local education agencies; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature is extremely concerned that, since 1978, Congress has not provided states with the full amount of financial assistance necessary to achieve its goal of ensuring children and youth with disabilities equal protection of the laws; now, therefore, be it

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 31

Senate Joint Resolution No. 5—Relative to the Armenian Genocide.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 30, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Armenians living in their historic homeland in Asia Minor were subjected to severe persecution and brutal injustice by the Turkish rulers of the Ottoman Empire before and after the turn of the twentieth century, including widespread acts of destruction, mayhem, and murder during the period from 1894 to 1896, and again in 1909; and

WHEREAS, The horrible experience of the Armenians at the hands of their Turkish oppressors culminated with what is known by historians as the “First Genocide of the Twentieth Century,” or the “Forgotten Genocide”; and

WHEREAS, The Armenian Genocide began with the murder of hundreds of Armenian intellectuals, and political, religious, and business leaders who were arrested and taken from their homes in Constantinople before dawn on April 24, 1915; and

WHEREAS, The Young Turk regime then in control of the empire planned and executed the unspeakable atrocities committed against the Armenians from 1915 through 1923, including the torture, starvation, and murder of 1.5 million Armenians, death marches into the Syrian desert, and the exile of more than 500,000 innocent people; and

WHEREAS, While there were some Turks who jeopardized their safety in order to protect Armenians from the slaughter being perpetrated by the Young Turk regime, the massacres of the Armenians constituted one of the most atrocious violations of human rights in the history of the world; and

WHEREAS, The United States Ambassador to the Ottoman Empire, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., stated “Whatever crimes the most perverted instincts of the human mind can devise, and whatever refinements of persecutions and injustice the most debased imagination can conceive, became the daily misfortunes of this devoted people. I am confident that the whole history of the human race contains no such horrible episode as this. The great massacres and persecutions of the past seem almost insignificant when compared to the sufferings of the Armenian race in 1915. The killing of the Armenian people was accompanied by the systematic destruction of churches, schools, libraries, treasures of art, and cultural monuments in an attempt to eliminate all traces of a noble civilization with a history of more than 3,000 years”; and

WHEREAS, Contemporary newspapers like the New York Times carried headlines including, “Tales of Armenian Horrors Confirmed,” “Million Armenians Killed or in Exile,” and “Wholesale Massacre of Armenians by Turks”; and

WHEREAS, Adolph Hitler, in persuading his army commanders that the merciless persecution and killing of Jews, Poles, and other groups of people would bring no retribution, declared, “Who, after all, speaks today of the annihilation of the Armenians”; and

WHEREAS, Unlike other groups and governments that have admitted the abuses and crimes of predecessor regimes, and despite the overwhelming weight of the evidence, the Republic of Turkey has denied the occurrence of the crimes against humanity committed by the Young Turk rulers, and those denials compound the grief of the few remaining survivors of the atrocities and desecrate the memory of the victims; and

WHEREAS, Nations of the world have suffered reprisals and condemnations by Turkey because of efforts to commemorate the Armenian Genocide; and

WHEREAS, There have been concerted efforts to revise history through the dissemination of propaganda suggesting that Armenians were responsible for their fate in the period from 1915 through 1923 and by the funding of programs at American educational institutions for the purpose of furthering the cause of this revisionism and to counter, in the words of a Turkish official, “the Armenian view”; and

WHEREAS, Leaders of nations with strategic, commercial, and cultural ties to the Republic of Turkey should be reminded of their duty to encourage Turkish officials to cease efforts to distort facts and deny the history of events surrounding the Armenian Genocide; and

WHEREAS, The accelerated level and scope of denial and revisionism, coupled with the passage of time and the fact that very few survivors remain who serve as reminders of indescribable brutality and tormented lives, compel a sense of urgency in efforts to solidify recognition of historical truth; and

WHEREAS, By consistently remembering and forcefully condemning the atrocities committed against the Armenians and honoring the survivors, as well as other victims of similar heinous conduct, we guard against repetition of those acts of genocide; and

WHEREAS, California is home to the largest population of Armenians in the United States, and those citizens have enriched our state through their leadership in the fields of business, agriculture, academia, medicine, government, and the arts and are proud and patriotic practitioners of American citizenship; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby designates April 24, 2001, as “California Day of Remembrance for the Armenian Genocide of 1915–1923;” and be it further

Resolved, That the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to likewise act to commemorate the Armenian Genocide; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, Members of the United States Congress, the Governor, and Armenian churches and commemorative organizations in California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 37

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 35—Relative to skin cancer and melanoma awareness.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 8, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Malignant melanoma, a serious skin cancer, is characterized by the uncontrolled growth of pigment-producing tanning cells; and

WHEREAS, Melanoma has its beginnings in melanocytes, the skin cells that produce the dark protective pigment called melanin. Melanomas may suddenly appear without warning, but may also begin in or near a mole or other dark spot in the skin; and

WHEREAS, Melanoma generally begins as a mottled, light brown to black flat blemish with irregular borders, usually at least one-quarter inch in size. It may turn shades of red, blue or white, crust on the surface or bleed, and most frequently appears on the upper back torso, lower legs, head and neck; and

WHEREAS, Excessive exposure to the ultraviolet radiation of the sun is the most important preventable cause of melanoma. Other possible causes include genetic factors and immune deficiencies. Malignant melanoma has also been linked to past sunburns and sun exposure at younger ages; and

WHEREAS, Melanoma can affect men, women, and children, but individuals with increased risk include those with fair complexions, prior significant sunburns, a family member with melanoma, or a high number of atypical moles; and

WHEREAS, Atypical moles are unusual moles that are generally larger than normal moles, variable in color, often have irregular borders, and may occur in far greater number than regular moles; and

WHEREAS, The incidence of melanoma has doubled in the last 20 years, and it continues to rise faster than any other cancer in women, except for lung cancer. Melanoma is the most common form of cancer among people between 25 and 29 years of age, and experts estimate that if the present rate continues, soon melanoma will strike one in 75 Americans; and

WHEREAS, Six out of seven skin cancer deaths are from malignant melanoma. Advanced malignant melanoma spreads to other organs and may result in death. When detected early, surgical removal of thin melanomas can cure the disease in most cases; and

WHEREAS, Early detection is crucial. There is a direct correlation between the thickness of the melanoma and the survival rate. If a melanoma is detected and treated early, the cure rate is very high. Generally, as the disease advances, the tumor thickens and spreads, lowering the survival rate; and

WHEREAS, Correct aggressive treatment by qualified medical professionals can lead to positive results; and

WHEREAS, Melanoma in its early stages may only be detected by visual inspection. Dermatologists recommend regular self-examination of the skin to detect changes in its appearance, especially changes in existing moles or blemishes. Additionally, patients with risk factors should have a complete skin examination annually; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of May 2001 shall be recognized as Skin Cancer Awareness Month in California, and all Californians be encouraged to make themselves and their families aware of the risk of skin cancer and the preventive measures; and be it further

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 21—Relative to the University of California.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 11, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The University of California is committed to enrolling a student body reflective of the diversity of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, It is vital to the future economic growth of the State of California that equal educational opportunities are available to all Californians; and

WHEREAS, Limiting educational opportunities in higher education at the undergraduate and professional level perpetuates inequity among Californians; and

WHEREAS, On July 20, 1995, the Regents of the University of California voted to adopt SP-1, a measure banning affirmative action policies in admissions; and

WHEREAS, This action by the regents has placed the university in the vortex of a divisive nationwide political movement, and has resulted in a dramatic decrease in the number of African-American, Latino, and Native American students offered admission to the University of California beginning in 1997; and

WHEREAS, In Fall 1999, underrepresented minorities, including African-Americans, Chicano/Latinos, and American Indians only represented 15.4 percent of all incoming freshman students, a percentage that is far less than their representation in the general population of the state; and

WHEREAS, From Fall 1994, before the passage of SP-1, to Fall 2000, the number of African-Americans who submitted applications to law school at UC Berkeley, UC Davis, and UCLA has dropped 52 percent from 1,105 to 531, and their acceptance rate over the same period has fallen 50 percent to an acceptance rate of 11 percent and a total of only 14 African-Americans enrolled in all three schools in Fall 2000; and

WHEREAS, From Fall 1994 to Fall 2000, the number of Latino students who submitted applications to law school at UC Berkeley, UC Davis, and UCLA has dropped 37 percent from 1,570 to 993, and their enrollment rate over the same period of time has fallen 22 percent, with only 58 Latino students enrolling in all three schools in Fall 2000 compared to 110 in Fall 1994; and

WHEREAS, SP-1 restricts selection criteria at each University of California campus by requiring that between 50 and 75 percent of each class be selected based on academic achievement alone, and thereby restricts the ability of the University of California to rigorously and comprehensively review all applicants and take into consideration criteria such as social and economic hardship; and

WHEREAS, The dramatic decline in the number of underrepresented students gaining admission to the University of California has discouraged underrepresented minorities from applying to schools they perceive as hostile and unwelcoming; and

WHEREAS, By repealing SP-1, the regents would assert that the University of California is committed to enrolling all students, and would assure minority students that they are welcome and wanted; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California officially requests the Regents of the University of California to repeal SP-1 by the end of the 2000–01 academic year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to each member of the Regents of the University of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 51

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26—Relative to Cesar Chavez Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 29, 2001.]

WHEREAS, On March 31, 1927, a true hero named Cesar Estrada Chavez was born in Yuma, Arizona, to Librado and Juana Chavez and became the second eldest in a family of five children. Cesar Chavez lived his life dedicated to improving the plight of farmworkers through struggle, sacrifice, and abnegation. He founded and led the first successful farmworkers' union in United States history. He stood for dignity and justice for farmworkers. Today, he remains a symbol of hope to all Californians who find hope and peace in justice; and

WHEREAS, In the 1930's, during the Great Depression, Cesar Chavez' father lost his small farming business and the family went broke. The family became migrant workers and joined some 30,000 workers who followed the crops from Arizona into southern California, then up the length of the Central Valley and back again picking everything from peas to cotton. They lived in tents and other makeshift housing that often lacked a bathroom, electricity, or running water. Schooling for Cesar Chavez was irregular and haphazard. He attended some 30 different schools, often encountered discrimination, and was punished for speaking Spanish; and

WHEREAS, After graduation from the eight grade, Cesar Chavez was forced to quit school and take to the fields in order to help support his family. In 1944, at the age of 17, Cesar Chavez joined the Navy and served in World War II. After he completed his tour of duty, Cesar Chavez returned to California and married Helen Fabela, a woman who shared his dedication to the cause of the farmworker. They lived in San Jose in a tough Mexican neighborhood called "sal si puedes" which translated to "get out if you can," and together raised eight children; and

WHEREAS, As a farmworker, Cesar Chavez experienced firsthand the injustice of working long hours with little pay. Instilled with a sense of justice passed down from his mother, Cesar Chavez made a decision to speak up and fight for a change. He took part in his first strike in protest of low wages and poor working conditions for farmworkers. Although initially unsuccessful, his participation in that first strike was to mark the beginning of a long career in which he fought for improved working and living conditions for farmworkers; and

WHEREAS, In 1952, Cesar Chavez met Fred Ross who was with a group called the Community Services Organization (CSO). Struck by Cesar Chavez' engaging personality and leadership qualities, Fred Ross tapped Cesar Chavez to head voter registration efforts where he successfully registered 4,000 voters. The following year Chavez led organization efforts to establish CSO offices in every major barrio. He eventually spent 10 years with CSO and became general director in 1958. During this time, services were expanded to include citizenship classes, helping members secure driver's licenses, assistance in filling out applications for aid, and securing legal counsel; and

WHEREAS, In 1962, Cesar Chavez resigned his position with the CSO to embark on a bold new undertaking to form a farmworkers' union. He was joined by the great Dolores Huerta and together they became the architects of the National Farm Worker's Union, the forerunner to the present United Farm Workers (UFW); and

WHEREAS, In 1965, Cesar Chavez led a strike of California grape pickers to demand higher wages, and urged all Americans to boycott table grapes as a show of support. The strike included a 340-mile march from Delano to Sacramento in 1966 in which thousands of farmworkers and supporters marched in solidarity. The farmworkers and supporters carried banners with the black eagle with the words “HUELGA” (strike) and “VIVA LA CAUSA” (long live our cause); and

WHEREAS, Cesar Chavez preached nonviolence to the strikers even as they were physically abused by many of those opposed to the grape boycott. In 1968, Cesar Chavez began a fast, in the model of Mahatma Gandhi, to call attention to the migrant workers’ cause. Although his dramatic act did little to solve the immediate problem, it increased public awareness of the conditions under which farmworkers labored. In 1973, the UFW organized a strike for higher wages from lettuce growers, and after many battles an agreement was finally reached in 1977 that gave the UFW the sole right to organize farmworkers; and

WHEREAS, During the 1980’s, Cesar Chavez led the effort to call attention to the health problems of farmworkers caused by the use of certain pesticides on crops; and

WHEREAS, On April 23, 1993, Cesar Estrada Chavez died peacefully in his sleep in San Luis, Arizona. During Cesar Chavez’ funeral, Cardinal Roger M. Mahoney, who celebrated the funeral mass, called Cesar Chavez “a special prophet for the world’s farm workers”; and

WHEREAS, Many declared that the UFW would die without him, but on Cesar Chavez’ birthday, March 31, 1994, under the leadership of his son-in-law Arturo Rodriquez, the UFW marched 343 miles from Delano to Sacramento, echoing Cesar Chavez’ historic 1966 march, and demonstrated that the UFW still worked for farmworkers; and

WHEREAS, In 1990, Mexican President Salinas de Gortari awarded Cesar Chavez, the “El Aquila Azteca” (the Aztec Eagle), Mexico’s highest award presented to people of Mexican heritage who have made major contributions outside of Mexico. He also became the second Mexican American to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor in the United States, which was presented posthumously to Helen Chavez and her children on August 8, 1994, by President Clinton; and

WHEREAS, In 1994, Cesar Chavez’ family and the officers of the UFW created the Cesar E. Chavez Foundation to inspire current and future generations by promoting the ideals of Cesar Chavez’ life, work, and vision. Communities throughout California and the United States have honored Cesar Chavez by naming parks, children’s centers, streets, and other public works after the leader; and

WHEREAS, Cesar Chavez led by example, giving of himself so that he might help others. His relentless pursuit of the belief that the American dream should be available to all Americans, regardless of race or origin of birth, stands as a monument to our free society. His life and work is not only an inspiration to Latinos, but to working Americans of all nationalities. His legacy lives on in the improved working and living conditions of hundred of thousands of Californians and their families; and

WHEREAS, In the year 2000, the Legislature enacted Senate Bill 984 (Chapter 213 of the Statutes of 2000) to create an annual state holiday on Cesar Chavez' birthday, March 31; this holiday provides all Californians the opportunity to learn from Cesar Chavez' life and provides school children the opportunity to learn through community service; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes March 31 as the anniversary of the birth of Cesar Chavez, and calls upon all Californians to participate in appropriate observances to remember Cesar Chavez as a symbol of hope and justice to all citizens; and be it further.

WHEREAS, Justice Stanley Mosk graduated from the University of Chicago, completed two years of law school at the University of Chicago, and received his law degree from Southwestern University in Los Angeles, California; and

WHEREAS, Justice Stanley Mosk has been a Californian since 1933; and

WHEREAS, Justice Stanley Mosk was admitted to the State Bar of California in 1935; and

WHEREAS, From 1939 to 1942, Justice Stanley Mosk served as Executive Secretary and Legal Advisor to Governor Culbert Olson; and

WHEREAS, In 1942, Governor Culbert Olson appointed Justice Stanley Mosk, then 30 years of age, to the Los Angeles County Superior Court, making him the youngest superior court judge in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Justice Stanley Mosk, after serving in the Coast Guard Temporary Reserve in the early years of World War II, left the bench of the Los Angeles County Superior Court to enlist in the Army, where he served his country until the end of the war; and

WHEREAS, After World War II, Justice Stanley Mosk returned to the bench of the Los Angeles County Superior Court where he continued to serve until 1958. As a jurist of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Justice Stanley Mosk distinguished himself in 1947 by striking down racially restrictive real estate covenants one year before the United States Supreme Court found those covenants to be unconstitutional; and

WHEREAS, Justice Stanley Mosk was elected to the position of Attorney General of California in 1958 by a margin of over one million votes; and

WHEREAS, While serving on the bench of the California Supreme Court, Justice Stanley Mosk was committed to protecting and expanding the rights of individuals, striving to ensure that all persons were treated equally under the law, and was the pioneer of the legal theory of "independent state grounds," a theory based on the principle that rights of individuals guaranteed by the Bill of Rights may be expanded under a state's constitution. Justice Stanley Mosk authored opinions that barred prosecutors from using racially discriminatory preemptive challenges in selecting a jury, struck down the University of California's use of racial quotas in its admission policies, and was the lone dissenter in a decision that permitted prosecutors to target gang members with civil injunctions. While personally opposed to the death penalty, Justice Stanley Mosk, nevertheless followed the letter of the law when faced with appeals of capital punishment; and

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby urges the President and Congress of the United States to fully support C.A.R.E. and the additional federal funding needed for advanced autism research; and be it further

Senate Joint Resolution No. 4—Relative to public employees' retirement.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Under current federal law, individuals who receive a Social Security benefit and a public retirement benefit derived from employment not covered under Social Security are subject to a reduction in their Social Security benefits; and

WHEREAS, These laws, contained in the federal Social Security Act and known as the government pension offset (42 U.S.C. Sec. 402(b)(4)(A)) and the windfall elimination provision (42 U.S.C. Sec.

415(a)(7)) greatly affect lower income public employees, particularly women; and

WHEREAS, Under the windfall elimination provision, Social Security benefits are significantly reduced through an alternative calculation for individuals who qualify for both a Social Security benefit based on their own covered employment and a government pension based on noncovered employment; and

WHEREAS, Under the government pension offset, the spousal or survivor benefit that would be based upon a spouse's Social Security covered employment can be eliminated, even though contributions are made by the individual and matched by the employer, if the survivor also qualifies for a government pension based upon work not covered by Social Security; and

WHEREAS, Other participants in Social Security do not have their benefits reduced in this manner; and

WHEREAS, To participate or not to participate in Social Security in public sector employment was a decision of the employer even though the government pension offset and the windfall elimination provision directly punishes the employee and surviving beneficiary; and

WHEREAS, Although the government pension offset was enacted in 1977 and the windfall elimination provision was enacted in 1983, most people do not become aware of the reduction in their Social Security benefits until the time they expect to begin receiving the benefits; and

WHEREAS, Several bills have been introduced over time in Congress in both the House of Representatives and the Senate that would modify the government pension offset and windfall elimination provision; and

WHEREAS, Each of those pieces of legislation would have limited the application of the government pension offset and windfall elimination provision; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to eliminate the government pension offset (42 U.S.C. Sec. 402(b)(4)(A)) and the windfall elimination provision (42 U.S.C. Sec. 415(a)(7)) of the Social Security Act; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 95

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 23—Relative to the Year of the Vulnerable Child.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The future of society is determined by the growth and achievements of its children, and they enter this world vulnerable, innocent, and dependent; and

WHEREAS, Children depend on adults to keep them safe and secure; and

WHEREAS, Child abuse and neglect is a severe societal disease and often involves multiple personal, social, and economic problems stemming from economic pressure and social isolation; and

WHEREAS, Child abuse occurs in every age group, every race, every religion, and every economic group, so that no community is untouched; and

WHEREAS, Young, preverbal children are unable to protect themselves, or communicate their need for help, and are therefore especially vulnerable to abuse and neglect; and

WHEREAS, Eighty-five percent of child abuse homicides are committed by a parent or caretaker and involve children under the age of four years; and

WHEREAS, Every day in California, two children are victims of child abuse homicide and many more are permanently disabled; and

WHEREAS, Preventing child abuse costs only a small fraction of the cost to human life, suffering, and irreparable damage to families and society as a whole; and

WHEREAS, The protection of children and the prevention of child abuse can be achieved through awareness and training for all levels of government, public and private organizations, and every citizen of the state; and

WHEREAS, Community child abuse councils, multidisciplinary child death review teams, and the State Department of Social Services Child Welfare Services Stakeholders Group, represent key examples of ongoing efforts in California committed to improving the lives of all vulnerable children; and

WHEREAS, Fifty-seven of our 58 counties have formed child death review teams; and

WHEREAS, The administration and the Legislature have assembled a team of stakeholders to examine the shortfalls of the current child welfare services system and provide a plan to put every child's safety first; and

WHEREAS, All children deserve the right to grow up in an environment free of violence, pain, and suffering, and to live up to their fullest potential; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the California Legislature declares the year 2001 as the Year of the Vulnerable Child.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 96

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 30—Relative to Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy Syndrome Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy (RSD) Syndrome, a progressive multisymptom, multisystem, neuromuscular, neurovascular disorder, is a debilitating disease simultaneously involving nerves, muscles, blood vessels, skin, bones, and tissue; and

WHEREAS, It can develop after an injury, minor or major, and generally occurs in a limb; and

WHEREAS, RSD attacks the sympathetic nervous system, causing it to become confused, leading to a variety of symptoms, resulting in devastating consequences; and

WHEREAS, If left untreated, or mistreated, RSD begins to damage the surrounding tissues, and can spread to other areas of the body and ultimately lead to total disability; and

WHEREAS, Early diagnosis is crucial. There is a short “window of time” during which RSD can possibly be helped, usually within the first three months after onset; and

WHEREAS, Correct aggressive treatment by qualified medical professionals can lead to a positive result; and

WHEREAS, As RSD progresses, treatment becomes increasingly difficult; and

WHEREAS, Although millions are affected with RSD, it is not well known by the public or some medical professionals and this lack of knowledge causes many patients to suffer needlessly for many years; and

WHEREAS, RSD knows no age limit and can strike young and old; and

WHEREAS, Other events that can cause RSD include infections, cuts, pricks of fingers or toes, soft tissue injuries, crush injuries, injury to any area rich in nerve endings, fractures, sprains, dislocations, broken bones, multiple trauma to a particular body part, some surgical procedures, invasive procedures, and repetitive motion disorders, such as that which causes Carpal Tunnel Syndrome; and

WHEREAS, Some signs and symptoms of RSD include severe burning pain in a localized region that is out of proportion to the severity of the injury, localized edema or swelling that may not always be apparent in the later stages; hyperesthesia, which is oversensitivity to touch and light pressure; vasospasm, which affects color and temperature of skin; muscle atrophy; constant burning pain; decreased range of motion; muscle spasms; stiffness; restricted mobility; and rapid hair and nail growth; and

WHEREAS, Although RSD sufferers may experience some or all of the signs and symptoms, the one common element is constant burning pain, the intensity of which can fluctuate; and

WHEREAS, Although RSD dates to before the Civil War, there is no known cure; and

WHEREAS, Medical professionals must find the cause before they can find the cure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature does hereby proclaim May 2001 as Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy (RSD) Syndrome Awareness Month.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 97

Senate Joint Resolution No. 12—Relative to the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge, and the 1.5 million-acre coastal plain it contains, is one of America's greatest and most pristine wilderness ecosystems and wildlife sanctuaries; and

WHEREAS, The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge is home to a multitude of species, including grizzly bears, wolverine, wolves, musk oxen, arctic foxes, whales, and more than 160 bird species, including species whose migratory route includes much of the continental United States; and

WHEREAS, The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge contains the most important land denning habitat in Alaska for the Beaufort Sea polar bears and the primary calving habitat for the 130,000 member porcupine caribou herd; and

WHEREAS, Research by both the United States Fish and Wildlife Service and independent scientists has concluded that drilling in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge would likely have a serious environmental impact on many species, including the polar bear, caribou, musk oxen, and snow geese; and

WHEREAS, The porcupine caribou herd, the second largest herd in the United States, is a key source of food, clothing, and medicine for the people of the Gwich'in Nation; and

WHEREAS, California's current electricity shortage has been erroneously cited as a reason to drill for oil in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge; however, California obtains less than 1 percent of its electric power from oil; and

WHEREAS, The latest study by the United States Geological Survey estimates that the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge contains less than a six-month supply of economically recoverable oil, and that oil production from the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge would not begin for at least a decade; and

WHEREAS, The environmental consequences of drilling in the biological heart of the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge far outweigh the benefits of recovering possibly six months worth of oil a decade from now; and

WHEREAS, Every effort should be made to protect the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge by prohibiting oil exploration and drilling in that area; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and Congress to take necessary action to protect the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge by prohibiting oil exploration and drilling in any part of the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to all Members of the Congress of the United States, and the Secretary of the Interior.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 98

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 9—Relative to the space shuttle.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The space shuttle is the most complex machine ever built, with more than 2.5 million parts, including almost 230 miles of wire, more than 1,060 plumbing valves and connections, over 1,440 circuit breakers, and more than 27,000 insulating tiles and thermal blankets; and

WHEREAS, In eight and one-half minutes after launch, the space shuttle accelerates from zero to about nine times as fast as a rifle bullet, or 17,400 miles per hour, to attain earth orbit; and

WHEREAS, This year saw the 100th space shuttle launch in history, a milestone for NASA's space workhorse that has taken over 600 passengers and 3 million pounds of cargo into orbit; and

WHEREAS, The shuttle fleet has spent almost two and one-half years in space, but even those shuttles with the most travel remain young in the lifetimes for which they were built; and

WHEREAS, NASA is preparing for the possibility of flying the space shuttle for at least another decade or longer in light of the cancellation of the X-33 Program by NASA that was intended as the next generation replacement of the space shuttle program; and

WHEREAS, With the cancellation by NASA of the X-33 Program, there is now a clear need for additional space shuttle orbiters to be built, and the expertise of the labor force in California is clearly the best equipped in the nation to perform this task; and

WHEREAS, Future upgrades to the space shuttles will make this American cornerstone of world space flight even better, with a goal of doubling launch safety by 2005; and

WHEREAS, The space shuttle program is the main element of America's space transportation system, and shuttles are used for space research and space applications; and

WHEREAS, The shuttles are the first vehicles capable of being launched into space and returning to earth on a routine basis and are designed to be used 100 times; and

WHEREAS, In 1969, shortly after the first moon landing of the Apollo Program, the President's Space Task Force recommended that the United States initiate a program to develop a new space transportation system; and

WHEREAS, In 1970, NASA initiated engineering, design, and cost studies dealing with the concept of a reusable manned spacecraft that utilized strap-on solid propellant rockets and an expendable liquid fuel/oxidizer tank; and

WHEREAS, In 1972, President Nixon gave NASA authority to proceed with development of this type of reusable space system; and

WHEREAS, Space shuttle operations are currently managed by a joint venture company known as the U.S. Alliance, owned jointly by the Boeing Company and Lockheed Martin under contract to NASA, and headquartered in Florida; and

WHEREAS, Shuttle launches and orbiter landings currently occur in Florida at the NASA Kennedy Space Center; and

WHEREAS, After landing at Kennedy, orbiters are serviced and parked in one of three special hangars or ferried to Boeing Reusable

Space Systems at Plant 42 in Palmdale, California, for overhaul, inspections, upgrades, or maintenance, where servicing includes purging liquid propellants and fuel/oxidizer byproducts on board, and removing the orbiter maneuvering system pods, forward reaction control system pod, and main engines for shipment to their original manufacturers; and

WHEREAS, After being ferried via Boeing 747 aircraft from Kennedy to Plant 42, the shuttles are removed from the 747 aircraft with a crane assembly and towed into one of two shuttle processing bays at Boeing Reusable Space Systems' location; and

WHEREAS, NASA is currently seeking to transfer the orbiter modification work to Florida rather than the current location in California, which will result in substantial job losses to local aerospace workers, and a substantial negative impact on the local economy of the Antelope Valley and on the State of California's economy; and

WHEREAS, The justification for the proposed move is alleged differences between Florida and California labor costs, despite the fact that employees at U.S. Alliance in Florida work in NASA facilities and NASA covers all of the administrative overhead; and

WHEREAS, There has been no accurate and comparative demonstration that this move will result in increased savings in the space shuttle program and, to the contrary, Florida lacks the necessary facility infrastructure and the workforce experience necessary to maintain the stellar program's safety record; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that this move would cost over $75 million and would entail the construction of a building and the complete outfitting of it; and

WHEREAS, In 1996, NASA and U.S. Alliance concluded an extensive study to determine the feasibility of an alternative approach to cost reduction that would eliminate much of Florida's shuttle processing workload by recovering shuttle orbiters returning from space directly at Plant 42, and that study concluded that it is technically feasible; and

WHEREAS, NASA subsequently developed cost data that suggest that all of the necessary Plant 42 infrastructure modifications could be completed for approximately $21 million; and

WHEREAS, This study also concluded that landing shuttles in California would increase the margin for mission launch schedule success and support flight rate expansion, while eliminating the need to expand facilities and resources in Florida; and

WHEREAS, Perhaps most importantly, orbiter preparation and ferry costs would decrease, as would general demand on Kennedy facilities and resources, leaving Kennedy more time and money to focus on the launch process itself; and

WHEREAS, Landing at Plant 42 after a mission that is directly prior to an orbiter major modification or depot maintenance period would completely eliminate the need and costs of postflight and pre-ferry flight processing at Kennedy; and

WHEREAS, After the 1996 study was completed, the Astronaut Office concluded that Plant 42 landings were not only feasible, but ran several landing simulations to show the practicality as well as technical feasibility, and subsequent discussions with the Federal Aviation Authority resulted in their concurrence as well; and

WHEREAS, The importance of shuttle landings in California would have a substantial positive impact on the tourism industry in California, as evidenced by the crowd of approximately one million people who parked five miles away to watch the 1996 landing at Edwards Air Force Base; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President, the Congress of the United States, and NASA to consider the following: (1) ensure that a long-term commitment to keeping the Space Shuttle Modification Program at Plant 42 in Palmdale, California, is maintained; (2) authorize additional space shuttle orbiters in light of the recent cancellation of the X-33 Program by NASA; (3) require that the orbiters be built in California by California workers; and (4) move proactively to land space shuttle orbiters at Plant 42 in Palmdale when those orbiters are due for scheduled refurbishment, and thereby save the taxpayers of the United States nearly $1 million each time this occurs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Director of NASA.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 99

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 20—Relative to the California Coastal Trail.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Through the appointments of Governor Gray Davis and the work of the nonprofit organization, Coastwalk, the White House Millennium Council has designated the California Coastal Trail from Oregon to Mexico as a Millennium Legacy Trail; and

WHEREAS, The California Coastal Trail is identified in the California Coastal Plan and the California State Parks Recreational Trail Plan; and

WHEREAS, Public access to and along the coast of California is protected under Article X of the California Constitution and the California Coastal Act of 1976 (Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Public Resources Code); and

WHEREAS, Trails and greenways have a beneficial impact on quality of life in California, including the environment, economy, health, education, and community livability; and

WHEREAS, The recognition and completion of the California Coastal Trail is an integral part of the state's responsibility to provide public coastal access for all in perpetuity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares that the California Coastal Trail is an official state trail and urges the California Coastal Commission and the State Coastal Conservancy to work collaboratively on the completion of the trail; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 100

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29—Relative to the Orange County Korean War Veterans Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 2001.]

WHEREAS, June 25, 2000, marked the 50th anniversary of the invasion of South Korea by North Korea and the start of the three-year Korean War with combat hostilities ending upon the signing of an armistice agreement by the United Nations and North Korea on July 27, 1953; and

WHEREAS, The Korean War is often called “The Forgotten War” because many of our nation's veterans who served in that conflict have been forgotten; and

WHEREAS, The nation is currently observing the 50th anniversary of the Korean War by special observances and commemorative activities that are occurring during the years 2000 to 2003, inclusive; and

WHEREAS, The public memorials that are dedicated to those who served, and to those who died in that conflict, will remind future generations of the sacrifices that these men and women made during the Korean War, and stand as an eternal symbol that the State of California honors and remembers its veterans; and

WHEREAS, It is therefore fitting and proper that the portion of State Highway Route 1 that extends from its southern terminus in the City of San Juan Capistrano to its intersection with Golden West Street in the City of Huntington Beach be designated as the Orange County Korean War Veterans Memorial Highway; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates that portion of State Highway Route 1 that extends from its southern terminus in the City of San Juan Capistrano to its intersection with Golden West Street in the City of Huntington Beach as the Orange County Korean War Veterans Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of erecting appropriate signs or markers, consistent with signing requirements for the state highway system, showing that special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering that cost, to erect those signs or markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 101

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 59—Relative to 14 Mile House Historical Monument.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 4, 2001.]

WHEREAS, In June 1864, the Chico and Humboldt Wagon Road Company was incorporated, and John Bidwell and other Chicoans received the franchise to construct a road to connect the City of Chico with the Idaho Mines; and

WHEREAS, Nick Spires built accommodations on that road at a site located on the rim of Little Chico Creek Canyon for travelers and their livestock; and

WHEREAS, Paul Lucas bought the land from Nick Spires, and Paul Lucas' son, John Lucas, built a fine two-story hotel; and

WHEREAS, The hotel, a slaughter house, and a hide house, which later served as a school for Chico Canyon children, were collectively referred to as 14 Mile House; and

WHEREAS, Soon after the turn of the 19th century, the toll house that was adjacent to the road was moved four miles north, nearer to today's Forest Ranch, and the last remaining 14 Mile House building, the old barn, disappeared in the 1960's; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation is requested to grant, without charge, the necessary encroachment permit authorizing an appropriate historical monument and plaque dedicated to 14 Mile House to be placed within the right-of-way of State Highway Route 32 in Butte County at a site that is located along State Highway Route 32, lying approximately 12.7 miles east of the junction of State Highway Route 32 and State Highway Route 99, at the site of the 14 Mile House; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Director of Transportation and the Director of Parks and Recreation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 102

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 32—Relative to the 32nd Anniversary of the First Moon Landing.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The Moon, lying 239,900 miles from the Earth, has fueled our imagination and whimsy since the dawn of time; and

WHEREAS, Some 400 years ago, Galileo first saw the Moon through the lens of a telescope; and

WHEREAS, Since that time, man has continuously studied, measured, and observed the Moon in an attempt to learn its mysteries; and

WHEREAS, Man's fascination with the Moon reached a fevered peak on October 4, 1957, when the former Soviet Union launched a 23-inch, 184-pound metal sphere called Sputnik 1 into the Earth's orbit. With that launch, the race to the Moon began; and

WHEREAS, In May of 1961, President John F. Kennedy made it a priority of his administration to land an American on the Moon and safely return him to Earth, and to achieve this goal before the end of the decade ; and

WHEREAS, The National Aeronautical Space Administration (NASA) was challenged to create a spacecraft that could carry three astronauts to an orbit around the Moon; thus the spacecraft, named the Apollo, was born; and

WHEREAS, On July 17, 1969, the world watched as the Apollo 11 spacecraft was launched from Cape Canaveral, Florida, and 11 minutes later, Astronauts Neil Armstrong, Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin, and Mike Collins were in orbit, gazing down at the Earth; and

WHEREAS, Three days later, on July 20, 1969, with 17 seconds of fuel to spare, the lunar module nicknamed “the Eagle” gently landed on a smooth patch of lunar sand called Tranquility Bay; and

WHEREAS, Back on Earth, an estimated 600 million pairs of eyes watched as the Apollo 11 and her astronauts made history; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 107

Senate Joint Resolution No. 19—Relative to railroad grade crossings.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The Federal Railroad Administration is proposing regulations to carry out Section 20153 of Title 49 of the United States Code that, in general, require a locomotive horn to be sounded when a train is approaching and entering a public highway-rail grade crossing; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of those federal regulations will enable appropriate public entities to submit waiver petitions to the Federal Railroad Administration for the purpose of establishing quiet zones, within which locomotive horns may not be sounded, at eligible railroad grade crossings, together with proposals for the implementation of safety measures that adequately substitute for the sounding of the locomotive horn; and

WHEREAS, The applicable federal law also authorizes the Secretary of Transportation to provide, in advance of any rulemaking by the Federal Railroad Administration, for certain exceptions to the requirement to sound the locomotive horn, including exceptions for categories of railroad grade crossings that feature supplementary safety measures that, in the judgment of the secretary, compensate for the absence of the warning provided by the locomotive horn; and

WHEREAS, Many communities are likely to improve the safety of railroad grade crossings for the purpose of establishing quiet zones, thereby preventing fatalities and injuries relating to those crossings while improving the quality of living conditions for those living near crossings; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Federal Railroad Administration to adopt, as soon as possible, regulations relating to the establishment of quiet zones at eligible railroad grade crossings in accordance with Section 20153 of Title 49 of the United States Code; and be it further

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 12—Relative to the incarceration of undocumented alien felons.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 2001.]

WHEREAS, There are over 20,000 undocumented alien felons in California prisons who are the responsibility of the federal government. If those inmates were moved to federal correctional facilities, five empty state prisons with available prison beds would immediately become available; and

WHEREAS, Excluding the fiscal impact to county jails and the Department of the Youth Authority, the Governor's Budget estimates that the cost of incarcerating alien felons in California prisons to be approximately $550,000,000; and

WHEREAS, In the fiscal year 2000–01, California only received $196,000,000 from the federal government to cover all the costs associated with incarcerating aliens at both the local and state level; and

WHEREAS, The federal government has proposed to reduce $135,000,000 in federal reimbursement to the states for incarcerating undocumented alien felons in the 2002 federal budget. Typically, California receives more than 40 percent of the budgeted federal reimbursement to states for incarcerating alien felons. This proposed reduction would result in California receiving approximately $60,000,000 less for this cost to California taxpayers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the federal government should accept its responsibility and transfer out of California's correctional system and into the Federal Bureau of Prison system, all undocumented alien felons currently in institutions under the authority of the Department of Corrections; and be it further

Senate Joint Resolution No. 3—Relative to reproductive rights.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Reproductive rights are central to the ability of women to exercise their full rights under federal and state law; and

WHEREAS, Abortion has been a legal and constitutionally protected medical procedure throughout the United States since the United States Supreme Court decision in Roe v. Wade (1973) 410 U.S. 113; 35 L.Ed.2d 147; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 113

Senate Joint Resolution No. 8—Relative to social security.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 2001.]

WHEREAS, For more than 20 years, the Older Women's League has served as a voice for the concerns of midlife and older women; and

WHEREAS, The Older Women's League has put forth the following principles regarding women and Social Security:

(1) Social Security must always remain an earned right. America's government has a contract with its older citizens to enable them to have a secure retirement. Social Security is an integral component of that compact, and must always provide equitable coverage for those who have paid for it.

(2) Social Security should be an equitable program. Women, the disabled, racial and ethnic minorities, low- and moderate-income working people, and families must all be treated in a way that will provide fair and equal outcomes today and in the future. Structural barriers in the design of the Social Security system that have the unintended consequence of creating inequities must be removed for future recipients.

(3) Social Security should be genuinely gender-neutral in its outcomes. The specific inequities faced by women, caused by their traditional employment histories and life patterns, must be specifically addressed so that women of future generations will, when they retire, receive all the benefits to which they are entitled.

(4) Social Security should provide adequacy-maintaining benefit levels for all recipients. As pension coverage and savings decline for many persons, a larger proportion of retirement income will come from Social Security. Any proposed "across the board" benefit cuts implemented in efforts to maintain the program's solvency would disproportionately harm women and minorities; temporary, seasonal and part-time workers; and the chronically under- and unemployed.

(5) All existing and new revenue sources must be explored before any changes in Social Security's structure are undertaken to assure its future solvency. Modification of existing program fundamentals, such as the calculations of cost-of-living increases through the Consumer Price Index, changes in the retirement age, and raising the floor for the taxation of benefits; as well as ideas such as income caps, earnings sharing, taxation of unearned income, shifts in the allocation of spousal and survivor benefits, and the use of general revenues, must be carefully analyzed for their consequences for women, and their distributional impact generally, before any radical changes that could destroy the foundation of the program are proposed.

(6) Social Security must keep Americans secure. No changes should affect current recipients.

(7) Major changes in Social Security must not be made in isolation. Any changes in benefits or revenues must be considered in the context of projected changes in Medicare, medicaid, private retirement benefits and other aspects of the government's social insurance programs that have a profound impact on women's lives.

(8) Information on the impact of Social Security reform must be provided to the public by the Social Security Administration. Adequate funding should be provided for comprehensive public education about Social Security and any changes being proposed. The distributional and other effects of structural reform and other proposed policy options for Social Security and other programs administered by the Social Security Administration must be analyzed and made publicly available; and

WHEREAS, The Older Women's League expresses concern that a federal commission has been directed to recommend that part of the Social Security system be privatized, as follows:

The President's Commission to Strengthen Social Security (hereafter "the Commission") has been ordered to recommend a plan in which the outcome, privatization, is already predetermined. While the Commission has been instructed to report its recommendations or a plan to alter the Social Security system, the President has provided a "roadmap of six principles" that the Commission must follow. One of these principles is that the plan must include "individually controlled, voluntary personal retirement accounts." Thus, the Commission is not required to conduct a study of whether privatization is feasible or advisable, but rather it is required to recommend a plan to privatize a portion of the existing Social Security system; and

WHEREAS, The Older Women's League points out that women have more to lose from privatization due to factors such as the following:

(1) Many older women depend almost entirely on the Social Security system for their income. Nearly half of women over 65 years of age rely on Social Security for 90 percent of their retirement income.

(2) Women experience more years out of the labor market as they volunteer their time to raise families and care for family members. This work pattern reduces their contributions into the Social Security system.

(3) A system of private accounts would disadvantage women since they would start with less to invest, due to lower annual salaries, and would have fewer working years for private account funds to accumulate. Thus, American workers stand to lose from privatization and women in the workforce would be especially hard hit.

(4) Women would lose the often desperately needed cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) built into the current Social Security program, and because of their longevity would face the very real possibility of outliving their assets. Most women, particularly those receiving the smallest benefits, would receive even less income under privatization schemes than under the current system. There is not a single private annuity available today that provides protection against inflation; and

WHEREAS, Privatization accounts may undermine the promise that Social Security has offered to Americans for 66 years. By allowing individuals to withhold part of their contributions, the financial viability of the entire Social Security system will suffer, and its social insurance principle will be undermined. Withholding funds from the Social Security Fund does nothing to ensure the solvency of Social Security in the future, when the demands on the system will be greater. Diverting funds away from Social Security will serve to accelerate the time when the Social Security Fund will have insufficient funds to pay all beneficiaries; and

WHEREAS, Privatization fundamentally changes the structure of the system from one based on guaranteed benefits and shared risk to a system based on individual investments and individual risk. The fall in the stock market in the year 2000 shows that investments are not guaranteed, and indicate that privatized benefits can be placed at risk; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature endorses these principles and concerns; and be it further

Resolved, That the federal government is respectfully requested to take appropriate steps to implement the principles and address the concerns expressed by the Older Women's League in making changes to the Social Security system; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate and Assembly of the State of California oppose privatizing Social Security; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States and to the President's Commission to Strengthen Social Security.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 115

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 15—Relative to border crossing deaths.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, On May 24, 2001, following an extensive rescue search by the United States Border Patrol, 25 migrants who were abandoned by their smugglers were found in the Cabeza Prieta National Wildlife Refuge in southwest Arizona; and

WHEREAS, After being driven for one and one-half hours through the wildlife refuge, the migrants were told by the smugglers that it was only a short walk to a nearby highway; and

WHEREAS, In fact, in order to reach their destination the migrants were required to travel across 70 miles of harsh desert in an area known as “The Devil’s Path” and endure air temperatures in excess of 115 degrees and desert floor temperatures of 130 degrees; and

WHEREAS, Fourteen of those victims died of exposure and dehydration and 11 survivors were hospitalized in the deadliest crossing of the border since 1987, when 18 Mexican men died in a locked boxcar near Sierra Blanca, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Since 1994, border enforcement initiatives such as “Operation Gatekeeper” on the California-Mexico border have increased patrols and constructed steel walls near urban areas, forcing migrants to make more dangerous crossings in rural, often open desert areas; and

WHEREAS, Most migrants are unaware and unprepared to make a desert crossing, thereby leading to a substantial increase in fatalities due to dehydration in the summer and hypothermia in cold weather; and

WHEREAS, Deaths of migrants along the desert areas of the border have increased exponentially since the implementation of these initiatives, with reported deaths increasing from 25 in 1994 to 369 in 1999 and 491 in 2000, according to figures released by the Mexican government, as well as an unknown number of undiscovered and unreported deaths; and

WHEREAS, As a result of the increase in border crossings and deaths in these desert areas, concerns have been expressed by humanitarian organizations, civil rights organizations, churches, and the Mexican government that the United States Border Patrol's current enforcement program effectively is operating as a channeling operation, rather than a general border interdiction program; and

WHEREAS, Immediately after this incident both the United States and Mexican governments jointly announced that they were launching an investigation of the incident, issued a statement condemning the actions of smugglers, and reaffirmed their commitment to combat the trafficking of migrants; and

WHEREAS, Both governments also recognized the need for the two nations to continue to work together to reach agreements on migration and border safety; and

WHEREAS, President George W. Bush and President Vicente Fox have established a high-level working group on migration cochaired by Attorney General John Ashcroft and Secretary Colin Powell of the United States and by Mexico's Foreign Secretary and its Secretary of Government; and

WHEREAS, This working group on migration and border safety plans to continue to meet to discuss specific measures to prevent future occurrences of these tragedies and to promote safe and orderly migration; and

WHEREAS, At a minimum, the potential solutions to this tragic problem require a comprehensive examination of the consequences of border initiatives, enhanced investigations by the Mexican government of criminal gangs of smugglers, providing the United States Border Patrol with increased search and rescue resources such as lifesaving gear and emergency medical training, and consensus on a long-term agreement between the United States and Mexico on migration and border security policies; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the President and Congress of the United States and the United States Border Patrol to proceed in a cooperative effort with the Mexican government through the working group on migrations and border safety to achieve a comprehensive examination of border safety and migration issues, an assessment of the impact of United States border initiatives, enhanced investigations and prosecutions of criminal gangs of smugglers, and increasing search and rescue operations along the border; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, all members of the Congress of the United States, and the Mexican Consulate in Washington, D.C.

WHEREAS, The States of Alaska, California, Oregon, Texas, and Wisconsin have authority in the Internal Revenue Code to issue qualified veteran mortgage bonds to finance their respective veteran home loan programs; and

WHEREAS, Veterans' eligibility under current federal tax law restricts the eligibility to veterans who served on active duty prior to January 1, 1977; and

WHEREAS, The federal tax law devalues the service to our country given by those men and women who have served in the military of the United States since 1977 by denying them access to a benefit that has been available to their counterparts from other eras; and

WHEREAS, Service in uniform should be accorded the same respect and stature irrespective of the moment in time during which it was provided. The men and women who have served since 1977 should have the same opportunity to take root in the communities they have defended as was offered those who "made the world safe for democracy" in World War II, or were called upon to "pay any price, bear any burden, support any friend or oppose any foe to ensure the survival and success of liberty..." during the Vietnam and Cold War eras; and

WHEREAS, The Directors of Veterans Affairs of the States of Alaska, California, Oregon, Texas, and Wisconsin are desirous of extending their respective veteran home loan programs to include the men and women of the United States of America who are dispatched to participate in any conflict that has occurred or will occur on or after January 1, 1977; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 3 million veterans reside in California. Of those, 1.05 million, began their active military service on or after January 1, 1977, and over one-quarter million of those served in Desert Storm; and

WHEREAS, Since 1922, California has operated, at no expense to its General Fund, the Cal-Vet Farm and Home Loan Program. Cal-Vet is a qualified veterans mortgage bond (QVMB) program that has helped 408,000 California veterans become homeowners; and

WHEREAS, Opening participation in this home loan benefit to post-1976 veterans requires no direct budget expenditure by Congress and the well-established benefits of home ownership to local communities will be enhanced and expanded; and

WHEREAS, Veterans of all conflicts should receive benefits consistent with the benefits available to veterans of previous armed conflicts; and

WHEREAS, Those veterans have been qualified for eligibility into congressionally chartered veterans' organizations by prior acts of the Congress of the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to urge the Congress of the United States to amend paragraph (4) of Section 143(l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to read: “(6) Qualified veteran—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘qualified veteran’ means any veteran—(A) who meets such requirements as may be imposed by the State law pursuant to which qualified veterans’ mortgage bonds are issued”; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and each Member in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 117

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 18—Relative to child support automation systems.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, California and other states have been subject to federal penalties since 1998 due to their failure to fully implement a certified statewide child support automation system; and

WHEREAS, These penalties, which progressively increase from 4 percent to 30 percent of the federal share of the Child Support Services program’s administrative costs, are levied against the state until the state has a certified statewide automation system in place; and

WHEREAS, California will reach the 30 percent penalty level in the 2002–03 federal fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, California is expected to incur a penalty of approximately $113.5 million for the 2001–02 federal fiscal year, $163.2 million for the 2002–03 federal fiscal year, and $197.6 million for the 2003–04 federal fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, California’s child support automated system is expected to be operational by the 2006–07 federal fiscal year, by which time California’s cumulative penalties will have reached over $1 billion; and

WHEREAS, California has increased program spending by an average of 17 percent for the last two years and that increase in program spending has increased the federal penalty by increasing the federal base on which the penalty is calculated, which means that for every state general fund dollar spent, it must budget an additional $0.58 to cover penalties; and

WHEREAS, The federal penalties have served their intended purpose by capturing the state’s attention regarding the importance of a statewide child support automation system; and

WHEREAS, Effective January 2000, California significantly restructured its child support program to include the creation of a new Department of Child Support Services and new local child support agencies; and

WHEREAS, California has set a strong course toward securing a statewide automation system that will comply with all the federal certification requirements and improve program performance; the new Department of Child Support Services has been charged as the owner of the California Child Support Automation Project and the Franchise Tax Board is responsible for procuring, developing, implementing, and operating the system; and

WHEREAS, California is in compliance with a federal Department of Health and Human Services approved corrective action plan governing the development and implementation of a new automated system; and

WHEREAS, The federal penalties no longer serve their intended purpose and in fact: (a) penalize the state for increasing its spending on program improvements and automation development; (b) force system procurement and technology decisions to focus on avoiding federal penalties, rather than prudent technology goals and system objectives; and (c) reduce the ability of the program to continue to collect child support payments for largely low-income families who have left the welfare system or are able to avoid relying on welfare; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports the policy directive of the National Governors Association which states, in part, that the governors are interested in working with Congress and the Bush administration to develop options for penalty reinvestment for child support penalties; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports the American Public Human Services Association’s policy which states, in part, that accountability for completing program or technology requirements is appropriate, but that accountability should not impede a state's ability to direct resources to the problem or to invest in other program initiatives and that the ultimate goal is to ensure systems and policies that improve services to children and families, and achieve the Congressional objectives for the child support program; and

WHEREAS, The State of California is working in partnership with the federal Department of Health and Human Services to implement a statewide system that complies with federal standards and meets all performance measures; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to allow states that have been assessed federal penalties to reinvest those child support automation penalties in child support program improvements and automation system development, which would allow California and other states to enhance and improve their child support automation systems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 118

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 20—Relative to Filipino veterans.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The Philippine Islands, as a result of the Spanish-American War, were a possession of the United States between 1898 and 1946; and

WHEREAS, In 1934, the Philippine Independence Act (P.L. 73-127) set a 10-year timetable for the eventual independence of the Philippines and in the interim established a government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines with certain powers over its own internal affairs; and

WHEREAS, The granting of full independence ultimately was delayed for two years until 1946 because of the Japanese occupation of the islands from 1942 to 1945; and

WHEREAS, Between 1934 and the final independence of the Philippine Islands in 1946, the United States retained certain sovereign powers over the Philippines, including the right, upon order of the President of the United States, to call into the service of the United States Armed Forces all military forces organized by the Commonwealth government; and

WHEREAS, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, by Executive order of July 26, 1941, brought the Philippine Commonwealth Army into the service of the United States Armed Forces of the Far East under the command of Lieutenant General Douglas MacArthur; and

WHEREAS, Under the Executive Order of July 26, 1941, Filipinos were entitled to full veterans benefits; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 200,000 Filipino soldiers, driven by a sense of honor and dignity, battled under the United States Command after 1941 to preserve our liberty; and

WHEREAS, The vast majority of American soldiers who opposed the Japanese invasion of the Philippines from December 1941 through March 1942 were Filipinos, who gallantly fought down the length of the Bataan peninsula, and endured unbearable hardships during the siege of Corregidor; and

WHEREAS, Following the surrender of Corregidor Filipino soldiers, isolated from the rest of the world with only the hope that American forces might someday return, courageously waged guerrilla warfare against the Japanese occupation; and

WHEREAS, Filipino soldiers fought bravely alongside returning Allied forces to liberate the Philippines and restore order in the war-torn islands until the official end of hostilities in 1947; and

WHEREAS, There are four groups of Filipino nationals who are entitled to all or some of the benefits to which United States veterans are entitled. These are:

(1) Filipinos who served in the regular components of the United States Armed Forces.

(2) Regular Philippine Scouts, called "Old Scouts," who enlisted in Filipino-manned units of the United States Army prior to October 6, 1945. Prior to World War II, these troops assisted in the maintenance of domestic order in the Philippines and served as a combat-ready force to defend the islands against foreign invasion, and during the war, they participated in the defense and retaking of the islands from Japanese occupation.

(3) Special Philippine Scouts, called "New Scouts," who enlisted in the United States Armed Forces between October 6, 1945, and June 30, 1947, primarily to perform occupation duty in the Pacific following World War II.

(4) Members of the Philippine Commonwealth Army who on July 26, 1941, were called into the service of the United States Armed Forces. This group includes organized guerrilla resistance units that were recognized by the United States Army; and

WHEREAS, The first two groups, Filipinos who served in the regular components of the United States Armed Forces and Old Scouts, are considered United States veterans and are generally entitled to the full range of United States veterans benefits; and

WHEREAS, The other two groups, New Scouts and members of the Philippine Commonwealth Army, are eligible for certain veterans benefits, some of which are lower than full veterans benefits; and

WHEREAS, United States veterans medical benefits for the four groups of Filipino veterans vary depending upon whether the person resides in the United States or the Philippines; and

WHEREAS, The eligibility of Old Scouts for benefits based on military service in the United States Armed Forces has long been established; and

WHEREAS, The federal Department of Veterans Affairs operates a comprehensive program of veterans benefits in the present government of the Republic of the Philippines, including the operation of a federal Department of Veterans Affairs office in Manila; and

WHEREAS, The federal Department of Veterans Affairs does not operate a program of this type in any other country; and

WHEREAS, The program in the Philippines evolved because the Philippine Islands were a United States possession during the period 1898–1946, and many Filipinos have served in the United States Armed Forces, and because the preindependence Philippine Commonwealth Army was called into the service of the United States Armed Forces during World War II (1941–1945); and

WHEREAS, Our nation has failed to meet the promises made to those Filipino soldiers who fought as American soldiers during World War II; and

WHEREAS, The Congress passed legislation in 1946 limiting and precluding Filipino veterans that fought in the service of the United States during World War II from receiving most veterans benefits that were available to them before 1946; and

WHEREAS, Many Filipino veterans have been unfairly treated by the classification of their service as not being service rendered in the United States Armed Forces for purposes of benefits from the federal Department of Veterans Affairs; and

WHEREAS, All other nationals who served in the United States Armed Forces have been recognized and granted full rights and benefits, but the Filipinos, as American nationals at the time of service, were and still are denied recognition and singled out for exclusion, and this treatment is unfair and discriminatory; and

WHEREAS, On October 20, 1996, President Clinton issued a proclamation honoring the nearly 100,000 Filipino veterans of World War II, soldiers of the Philippine Commonwealth Army, who fought as a component of the United States Armed Forces alongside allied forces for four long years to defend and reclaim the Philippine Islands, and thousands more who joined the United States Armed Forces after the war; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States during the First Session of the 107th Congress to take action necessary to honor our country's moral obligation to provide these Filipino veterans with the military benefits that they deserve, including, but not limited to, holding related hearings, and acting favorably on legislation pertaining to granting full veterans benefits to Filipino veterans of the United States Armed Forces; and be it further

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 119

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 21—Relative to International Literacy Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, More than 27 million Americans are illiterate; and

WHEREAS, More than 20 percent of adults read at or below a fifth-grade level; and

WHEREAS, Over 40 million Americans age 16 and older have significant literacy needs; and

WHEREAS, Literacy is the ability to read, write, and speak proficiently, to compute and solve problems, and to use technology in order to become a lifelong learner and to be effective in the family, in the workplace, and in the community; and

WHEREAS, Illiteracy affects a multitude of social and economic issues from juvenile delinquency and welfare dependency to unemployment, low productivity, costly errors in the workplace and an inability to read employers' health and safety regulations; and

WHEREAS, Our future depends on education and education begins with literacy; and

WHEREAS, Reading and writing are the foundation for all school-based learning. Reading is the basic skill that enables individuals to learn the major subjects—including history and social studies, the language arts, science, and mathematics. Writing allows students to communicate their ideas effectively and to show what they have learned; and

WHEREAS, Every individual needs a range of literacy skills to achieve their personal life goals, pursue a successful career, and play an active role as a citizen; and

WHEREAS, High levels of literacy also enable individuals to keep pace with changing educational expectations and technologies and support the educational attainments of their families; and

WHEREAS, Collaborative, multidisciplinary, after school intensive reading literacy programs are a proven method of establishing and increasing literacy; and

WHEREAS, In small classes, tutors and instructors can help students improve their functional literacy; and

WHEREAS, We should ensure that all Americans with literacy needs have access to services that can help them gain the basic skills necessary for success in the workplace, family, and community in the 21st century; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby urges the President and Congress of the United States to fully support September 8, 2001, as International Literacy Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 120

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 32—Relative to transportation funding.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The State of California is expected to experience dramatic population growth of nearly 11 million persons in the next 20 years, while relatively little new funding is expected for new highway construction or additional public transit if the state continues to rely on existing revenue sources; and

WHEREAS, Even with new revenues, it will be difficult for the state to maintain the existing transportation system and target its remaining resources to the best performing investments; and

WHEREAS, Transportation planning agencies throughout the state are responsible for preparation of the Regional Transportation Plans (RTP) and the Regional Transportation Improvement Programs (RTIP) under Sections 65080 and 65082 of the Government Code; and

WHEREAS, Transportation planning agencies are dependent on transportation revenue available under Section 7104 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the Transportation Investment Fund; and

WHEREAS, The reasons for the revenue shortfall in funding the state's transportation system include the projected loss of gasoline tax revenues, the projected costs of operating and maintaining the existing transportation system, and the end of existing local transportation sales taxes in several counties throughout California; and

WHEREAS, Technological improvements required to meet emission reductions will result in a motor vehicle fleet that will likely consume less gasoline and rely on alternative energy sources; and

WHEREAS, The potential market penetration of alternative fuel vehicles, in addition to more fuel-efficient vehicles, would erode the revenues generated by gasoline sales and would diminish the gas tax as a reliable source of transportation revenue; and

WHEREAS, Further potential erosion of transportation revenues may be caused by increases in Internet spending, in which consumers do not pay local and state sales taxes; and

WHEREAS, Local sales taxes for transportation as well as Transportation Development Act revenues, which are derived from a $\frac{1}{4}$ percent sales tax, would be directly impacted by the current trends in retail sales; and

WHEREAS, Much of the revenue for transportation generated from excise taxes, sales taxes, or transit fares, depends on overall economic conditions; and

WHEREAS, Transportation planning agencies throughout California may experience revenue shortfalls in the event of a potential decrease in state transportation revenue; and

WHEREAS, Funding shortfalls throughout the state would likely result in the inability of governments to maintain and make improvements in the existing state transportation system; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That it is in the best interest of the people of the State of California to prepare a careful study of potential decreases in transportation revenue affecting transportation planning agencies in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Transportation Commission, working with the Department of Transportation and in consultation with the regional transportation planning agencies authorized to prepare and adopt regional transportation plans under Sections 65080 and 65082 of the Government Code, is requested to produce and submit to the Assembly and Senate Committees on Transportation, by January 1, 2003, a study of potential decreases in transportation revenue for transportation planning agencies, including, but not be limited to, identifying all of the following:

(1) Whether a decrease may potentially occur in transportation revenue available to transportation planning agencies under Section 7104 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the Transportation Investment Fund.

(2) Whether transportation planning agencies in California are likely to in fact experience funding shortfalls from the potential expiration of local transportation sales taxes, a decline or leveling in state-supplied revenues and funding assistance, or shortfalls in other funding sources.

(3) Whether transportation planning agencies are anticipating transportation funding shortfalls and how those agencies are addressing the potential shortfalls.

(4) Whether cities, counties, or cities and counties are likely to experience transportation funding shortfalls from insufficient, declining, or expiring funding sources.

(5) Suggested legislative and other remedies to address potential funding shortfalls; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies to the California Transportation Commission, the Department of Transportation, regional transportation planning agencies, and to the fiscal and transportation policy committees of the Legislature.

WHEREAS, Tenured and tenure-track faculty bear the primary responsibility for student advising, program development and revision, and participation in shared governance; and

WHEREAS, Before tenure may be awarded to a member of the California State University faculty, that person must possess a record of demonstrated excellence in the performance of his or her professional duties; and

WHEREAS, Students enrolled at the California State University must be provided the full range of academic services by the most qualified faculty members that the university can employ; and

WHEREAS, While the assigned workload of faculty members in tenure and tenure-track appointments includes duties related to student advising, professional development, and the design of curricula, the assigned workload of faculty members in temporary appointments generally does not include those duties; and

WHEREAS, Appointments of faculty to tenured and tenure-track positions recognize a mutually beneficial relationship that contributes to the long-term development of the faculty member and the quality of the instructional program available to California State University students; and

WHEREAS, Tenured faculty of the California State University who have recently retired have often been replaced by faculty members in temporary appointments rather than by tenure-track faculty; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Trustees of the California State University to study its faculty hiring practices over the past decade in order to effectuate improvements in those practices; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the Trustees of the California State University, the Academic Senate of the California State University, and the California Faculty Association to jointly develop a plan that will accomplish all of the following:

(a) Raise the percentage of tenured and tenure-track faculty to at least 75 percent, with the unit of measurement to be developed jointly by the entities described in this resolved clause.

(b) Provide that no lecturers currently employed by the university will lose their jobs as a result of implementing the plan.

(c) Provide that qualified lecturers will be seriously considered for tenure-track positions.

(d) Provide for the continued improvement of faculty diversity; and be it further

Resolved, That the California State University is urged to provide a report outlining the plans developed by the entities described in the previous resolved clause to the Legislature by May 1, 2002; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Trustees of the California State University, the Academic Senate of the California State University, and the California Faculty Association.

WHEREAS, The number of people who are 65 years of age and older in California will increase 23 percent to 4.5 million by the year 2010; and

WHEREAS, The elderly population growth rate will be higher in California than in the country as a whole and, as a result, the need for community-based services is expected to increase; and

WHEREAS, Residential care facilities provide assisted living services through supplying housing and providing or arranging for a range of other services to over 140,000 elderly and disabled individuals in California; and

WHEREAS, Assisted living is an option that allows elderly and disabled individuals a choice in their living environment, including the choice to remain in the least restrictive and most homelike environment as they age or grow frail; and

WHEREAS, Elderly and disabled individuals should have access to appropriate health care and personal assistance, regardless of their income level, health status, or choice of housing arrangement; and

WHEREAS, The California Center for Assisted Living proudly joins the National Center for Assisted Living in sponsoring Assisted Living Week of 2001; and Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 80—Relative to school crossing guards.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, In the task of keeping our children safe, the genuine heroes of the day are those who keep alert to the dangers that threaten the lives of our most vulnerable citizens and it is they who regularly act with unflinching and selfless bravery, often placing themselves at risk of physical harm, all in the interest of keeping our children safe; and

WHEREAS, These heroes bear the title of “School Crossing Guard,” a position that is necessary for the protection of children and a job from which one derives a tremendous sense of personal satisfaction and respect; and

WHEREAS, Great accolades are deserved by these heroes, our school crossing guards, Californians who, if gathered together from the wide expanses of this great state, would number into the thousands and would represent a collection of our finest residents, for these are the good people who believe in selfless duty, who practice kindness, who never hesitate to act bravely, and who face both the elements and their fellow person with a smile and with the confidence and simple gratitude that stems from doing something important for the community; and

WHEREAS, The toll to children who are struck by a car while walking make this the leading cause of death for children between five and 12 years of age, a fact that puts upon our society even greater impetus to view the School Crossing Guard program as one of the best and most cost-efficient ways to protect the lives of our children; and

WHEREAS, This state, which has long been the chief agent in the conduct of the School Crossing Guard program, respectfully acknowledges and offers profound thanks to local governments and

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor.

WHEREAS, Without fanfare, military families selflessly provide behind-the-scenes support to service members, their units, and their commands worldwide; and

WHEREAS, Their devotion to their loved ones, the military, and their country is unfaltering; and

WHEREAS, Military families frequently and bravely bid farewell, as wives, husbands, children, and parents depart for missions in far off and often hostile areas; and

WHEREAS, Military families face abrupt separations which often create single-parent families to endure not only the absence of a loved one but the hardship of rearing children alone for extended periods of time; and

WHEREAS, Military families are uprooted from their hometowns and moved to foreign soil for tours in isolated locations away from friends and relatives; and

WHEREAS, As they adjust to conditions around the world, military families learn to do without many of the conveniences that most Americans consider part of their basic lifestyle; and

WHEREAS, Military families quickly and adeptly transform unfamiliar quarters into welcoming homes, forming bonds of friendship with others in the unit, and sharing their hopes, dreams, and aspirations; and

WHEREAS, Military families in foreign lands act as goodwill ambassadors, representing all Americans; and

WHEREAS, Military families are committed to preserving freedom and democracy for all, and these families provide the continuity and stability essential to the well-being of our soldiers, sailors, airmen, Marines, and the members of our Coast Guard, National Guard, and the Reserves; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 125

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 88—Relative to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) traces its beginnings to 1899 when veterans of Cuba and the Philippines met separately to form organizations that would represent them in their quest for medical care and pensions; and

WHEREAS, This was especially important since the government provided little for them in benefits or care, even for those disabled or those who suffered from tropical diseases; and

WHEREAS, In September, 1899, the first group was formed in Columbus, Ohio, and was called “The American Veterans of Foreign Service”; and

WHEREAS, In December, 1899, “The Society of the Army of the Philippines” was formed in Denver, Colorado and three separate groups of Cuban, Chinese, and Philippine service veterans were formed in Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, By 1914, the need to have one all-encompassing national veterans organization was obvious, and, on the eve of World War I (WWI), an amalgamation of the separate groups took place and the name “Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States” was adopted; and

WHEREAS, Following WWI, the VFW grew rapidly, and during the 1920’s, it was instrumental in the creation of the United States Veterans Bureau, later to become the Department of Veterans Affairs with a representative in the President’s Cabinet, another major accomplishment of the VFW; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the 20th century, the VFW has grown in size and influence, and includes within its ranks veterans of all the wars and conflicts; and

WHEREAS, Across the spectrum of veterans’ entitlements, the VFW has led the way proposing legislation and lobbying Congress for its passage; and

WHEREAS, Today, with over 2,000,000 members, the VFW offers its services to members and nonmembers alike as it continues to fulfill the commitment adopted by its founders in 1899: “Honor the Dead by Helping the Living”; and

WHEREAS, In 2001, the 102nd anniversary of the VFW, we will celebrate over 10 decades of service to veterans and service to the nation through the VFW’s many programs and projects and will set the course for the next 100 years; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That it is fitting and proper that the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of October 2001, as Veterans of Foreign Wars Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 131

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 99—Relative to Health Cares About Domestic Violence Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Domestic violence is a serious public health problem in California and nationally. Its victims are overwhelmingly women. Nearly one-third of American women report being physically or sexually abused by a husband, boyfriend, or partner at some point in their lives. At least three women are killed by intimate partners every day; and

WHEREAS, California has initiated a vigorous response to domestic violence. Laws have been dramatically strengthened in the past decade. When the California Legislature adopted major welfare reform legislation in 1997, the Legislature decided that counties could temporarily suspend certain welfare requirements for battered women and their children who risk further abuse if forced to comply with those requirements. Clinics and hospitals now must have protocols in place for addressing domestic violence. The California Medical Training Center, created by the Legislature in 1995, provides free training on identification of, and intervention in, domestic violence to health care providers; and

WHEREAS, Most victims of abuse visit a health care provider for routine or emergency care. In addition to immediate trauma and injury, domestic violence often contributes to chronic health problems including migraines, ulcers, back and pelvic pain, and STDs. Domestic violence also interferes with the management of other illnesses. Too often the underlying source of these illnesses goes undetected, since currently less than 10 percent of primary care physicians routinely screen for partner abuse during regular office visits; and

WHEREAS, Properly trained physicians and other health care providers are uniquely positioned to assist domestic violence victims. Domestic violence, like other chronic health problems such as tobacco use and high blood pressure, often requires multiple interventions over time before it is resolved. By routinely screening patients for warning signs of domestic violence, and offering safety information, referrals and followup, health care providers can provide valuable assistance, often before a crisis occurs. “Screening to Prevent Abuse” information is available through the Family Violence Prevention Fund by calling

1-888-Rx-ABUSE toll free or online at <http://fvpf.org/programs/healthcare>. The California Medical Training Center Web site is located at <http://web.ucdmc.ucdavis.edu/medtrng/> and the telephone number is 916-734-4141; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California State Legislature does hereby proclaim October 10, 2001, as Health Cares About Domestic Violence Day. This special day is an opportunity to raise awareness about the importance of health care settings for assessing domestic violence risk, promoting safety planning, and providing information and referrals as part of the routine health care that is provided.

WHEREAS, Professional truck drivers have been honored as among the safest drivers on our highways, many receiving awards for extraordinary acts of heroism and bravery, for saving fellow motorists from injury and death; and

WHEREAS, Truck drivers are the unsung heroes of the American highway and the United States economy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims its support for National Truck Driver Appreciation Week by proclaiming the week of August 25 through September 1, 2001, as Truck Driver Appreciation Week in California in honor of those men and women in America who deliver our goods by truck, and encourages businesses, schools, communities, churches, and other organizations to join in this observance by commending professional truck drivers for the vital role they play in the lives of Americans; and be it further

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is an epidemic that will strike one out of eight women in their lifetime; and

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is the most common form of cancer among women and is second only to lung cancer as the leading cause of cancer deaths among women, both nationally, and in California; and

WHEREAS, In the United States, approximately 40,000 women will die of breast cancer and some 192,000 new cases will be diagnosed in 2001; and

WHEREAS, In the State of California, approximately 4,000 women will die of breast cancer and nearly 21,000 new cases will be diagnosed in 2001; and

WHEREAS, In California, the highest incidence of breast cancer is found in Anglo women, the highest mortality rate occurs among African-American women, and the greatest percentage of late-stage diagnosis occurs among Latino and African-American women; and

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is increasingly being diagnosed among women in their 30's and 40's; and

WHEREAS, More than 70 percent of women with breast cancer exhibit none of the known risk factors; and

WHEREAS, Although evidence is emerging about a link between environmental factors and breast cancer, not enough research is being funded to pursue this link; and

WHEREAS, Despite over 25 years of the “war on cancer,” there is still no known cause, cure, or method of preventing breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, While mammography remains an important method for breast cancer detection, it often fails to identify the disease effectively, particularly among women in their 20’s, 30’s, and 40’s; and

WHEREAS, Historically, breast cancer research has been grossly underfunded at the federal level, topping a decade of erosion in federal appropriations in the 1980’s for all cancer research; and

WHEREAS, According to the National Cancer Institute, the incidence of breast cancer in the United States increased 32 percent between 1982 and 1989; and

WHEREAS, By the following decade, the 105th Congress appropriated almost $530 million for federal breast cancer research. However, much more is needed to fund research directed at finding a cure and means of preventing breast cancer adequately; and

WHEREAS, Californians now have a unique opportunity to support breast cancer research in this state through the California Breast Cancer Research Fund Act, which allows individuals to make a voluntary contribution to support research when filing state income tax returns; and

WHEREAS, Heightened public awareness and education about breast cancer are crucial to the national effort to eradicate this epidemic; and

WHEREAS, Prominent organizations like the National Breast Cancer Coalition focus on three important goals to achieve such a worthy purpose; (1) increasing appropriations for high quality, peer-reviewed research, and working within the scientific community to focus research on prevention and finding a cure, (2) increasing access for all women to high quality treatment and care and to breast cancer clinical trials, and (3) increasing the influence of women living with breast cancer and other breast cancer activists in the decisionmaking that impacts all issues surrounding breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of all women, men, and families to join together to promote greater awareness about a disease that affects all Californians, the need for true early detection and adequate treatment options, and the urgency of finding a cure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, in order to heighten public awareness about breast cancer, including the need to redouble efforts to prevent and cure this disease, declares the month of October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, The Legislature of the State of California, in order to recognize that, to date, breast exam and mammography are still the primary methods of breast cancer detection available to women, and that, therefore, all women should perform monthly breast self-exams, women over 40 years of age should have regularly scheduled mammograms every year, and women 20 to 39 years of age, inclusive, should have a clinical breast examination performed by their health care provider, declares October 19, 2001, as Breast Exam and Mammography Awareness Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California emphasizes that the public education efforts conducted during the month of October should be part of an ongoing, year-round effort to raise public awareness across the state, and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California recognizes that while early detection through routine mammograms, clinical exams, and breast self-exams are important, the only effective means of protecting women against breast cancer is to make breast cancer research a priority and fund critically needed research into the cause, cure, and prevention of breast cancer; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

WHEREAS, With the leadership of the California Council on Economic Education, the State Board of Education adopted new history social science standards that promote economic reasoning and an understanding of the United States economy in a global setting; and

WHEREAS, Jim Charkins, Ph.D., currently Professor of Economics at California State University, San Bernardino, is the Executive Director of the California Council on Economic Education; and

WHEREAS, The economics strand helps students view history not as a series of random events, but as the result of decisions made by individuals; and

WHEREAS, These concepts help students evaluate major decisions that will affect them for the rest of their lives, including teen marriage and pregnancy, careers and school versus work; and

WHEREAS, California has made great progress in economic education and is one of only 13 states that include an economics course in the high school graduation requirements; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of the 1998 history social science standards, economics now plays a greater role in the kindergarten through grade 12, inclusive, classroom since the economics strand runs through the entire curriculum; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of October 22, 2001, through October 26, 2001, be recognized as Economic Literacy Week in this state.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 140

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15—Relative to Public Employees' Retirement.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Retired members of the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) have provided valuable services to the public during their working careers; and

WHEREAS, Retired PERS members have a right to a quality of life that acknowledges their contributions and sacrifices; and

WHEREAS, Most retired PERS members are dependent upon their PERS pension and related benefits, such as health, dental, and vision coverage, to meet basic necessities, such as food, clothing, shelter, and health care; and

WHEREAS, Retirees are living longer and leading more active lives, and therefore are dependent upon their retirement benefits to protect them for many years into the future; and

WHEREAS, There is no adequate mechanism in place to increase the pensions and benefits of retired PERS members to keep pace with inflation or to prevent retirees from falling into poverty; and

WHEREAS, There are, or in the future there may be, prudent reserves available in the Public Employees Retirement Fund (PERF); and

WHEREAS, There is no adequate program to enable retired PERS members to share in PERF investment earnings that exceed prudent reserves; and

WHEREAS, Since PERS' current retirees' pension contributions during their working careers helped fund the retirement system, a fair and equitable portion of the income generated through the extraordinary investment performance of the PERF funds in excess of any prudent reserves should be designated for the improvement of retirement pensions and benefits for active and retired PERS members; and

WHEREAS, Retired PERS members are not subject to collective bargaining or the meet and confer provisions of laws specific to active employees; and

WHEREAS, Any pension and benefit increases for retired PERS members are dependent upon the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Funds to improve the pension and benefits of retired PERS members must, under current statute, be funded through state or local moneys; and

WHEREAS, Retired PERS members must, therefore, compete with all other related and nonrelated interests of the state and local governments in order to gain pension and benefit adequacy to be funded by these moneys; and

WHEREAS, Most state and local government employers' retirement contributions have decreased due to the extraordinary performance of PERS investments; and

WHEREAS, Retired PERS members have not received increased benefits which have the proportional monetary equivalent to those received by active public employees when improvements have been made in the retirement formula over the past decade; and

WHEREAS, There is a need for improved annual pension and benefit supplementation; and

WHEREAS, The pensions and benefits of retired PERS members may not have kept pace with expenses in spite of fixed annual cost-of-living increases currently provided by law; and

WHEREAS, The actual cost-of-living expenses for retirees may not be adequately measured in current inflation indexes; and

WHEREAS, Many PERS retirement pensions are below the state and federal poverty levels; and

WHEREAS, The current minimum retirement allowance for members of the Public Employees' Retirement System was established by law in 1955 at $100 per month and has not been changed since that date; and

WHEREAS, A large number of retired PERS members receive pensions that are as much as five times lower than the pensions of employees retiring today because public employee salaries have increased at a much higher rate than the pensions of current retirees due to the fact that active employees have received actual cost-of-living adjustments instead of fixed cost-of-living adjustments; and

WHEREAS, Pensions and benefits of retired PERS members must be improved when warranted; and

WHEREAS, The current system of fixed cost-of-living adjustments is insufficient and does not address ongoing adequacy levels of the pensions and benefits of retired PERS members; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That retired PERS members have a right to a quality of life that acknowledges their dedicated contributions to the people of the State of California; and be it further

Resolved, That retired PERS members have a right to an adequate level of pension benefits that protects them from inflation and changing economies; to adequate levels of health, dental, and vision coverage; to share in the extraordinary performance of investment earnings of the Public Employees' Retirement System and to have their pension, health, and other benefits increased when there are extraordinary earnings that exceed prudent reserves; and to have their health plan premium contributions reduced when an employers' retirement contributions are reduced due to extraordinary earnings that exceed prudent reserves in the PERF; and be it further

Resolved, That retired PERS members have a right to have representation in decisions that affect their pensions and benefits; to have the PERS Board of Administration include recommendations on the adequacy of pensions and other benefits for retired members in its Annual Cost of Living Report to the Governor and Legislature; and to have their retirement benefits increased in a similar or cost equivalent manner whenever active public employees receive improved benefits through the collective bargaining process or the meet and confer process; and be it further

Resolved, That in compliance with any applicable federal statutes, retired PERS members have a right to voluntarily participate in financial or other programs developed and offered by PERS to its active members which will help retirees provide for their own continued, secure retirement; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages the establishment of actuarial, financial, and other appropriate systems to annually determine a minimum standard of pension adequacy for all retired members of the Public Employees' Retirement System and to identify funding resources for the sole purpose of annually adjusting retired members' pensions to ensure that the pensions of all retired members are not less than the minimum standard; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages the establishment of systems to identify extraordinary earnings in excess of any prudent reserves of the Public Employees' Retirement Fund for the purpose of enhancing pension benefits of retired members; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the members of the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System, the President pro Tempore of the Senate, the Majority Leader of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the Assembly, the Majority Floor Leader of the Assembly, the Minority Floor Leader of the Assembly, the Chair and the Vice Chair of the Senate Committee on Public Employment and Retirement, and the Chair and the Vice Chair of the Assembly Committee on Public Employees Retirement and Social Security.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 141

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 37—Relative to biotechnology.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Biotechnology is a rapidly growing industry that will fuel the state's economic future; and

WHEREAS, California is the nation's leader in biotechnology innovation and production; in 1998 more than 212,000 biotechnology-related workers were employed in this state; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles region has an abundance of world-class higher education institutions that are innovative leaders in the life science and technology fields, yet the region fails to retain significant numbers of new biotechnology enterprises, and highly trained biotechnology experts leave not only Los Angeles County, but in some cases, the state; and

WHEREAS, To operate effectively, biotechnology enterprises must be located in an environment that has close proximity to research labs, medical services, and production facilities, and that has access to a skilled and available workforce; and

WHEREAS, Biotechnology parks located in one geographical area have proved to be the most efficient and entrepreneurial in operation; and

WHEREAS, The close geographic proximity of educational institutions, bioscience industries, incubation services, and government agencies provides a strong anchor, facilitates multiuser participation, and acts as a dynamic catalyst in leveraging local investment; and

WHEREAS, Recent studies by the County of Los Angeles and the University of Southern California support the need for developing a university related biotechnology research park in close proximity to the University of Southern California Health Sciences campus; and

WHEREAS, On June 13, 2001, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles issued a statement of support for creating a biomedical park around the Los Angeles County and University of Southern California Medical Center campus, noting that the project would bring jobs to the Los Angeles area; and

WHEREAS, A biotechnology research park affiliated with the University of Southern California will accommodate both incubation facilities for new startup companies, as well as established companies, with the capacity to create immediate employment for the region; and

WHEREAS, The proposed biotechnology research park is expected to generate $25.8 million in income tax revenue to the state, $15.2 million in annual tax revenue to the City and the County of Los Angeles, and more than $10 million to other local jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, Employment projections for work associated with the park total 8,000 to 9,000 jobs in the construction phase, and nearly 13,000 jobs at completion; and

WHEREAS, The creation of a University of Southern California biotechnology research park will require acquisition of land located adjacent to the University of Southern California Health Sciences campus, which currently houses a county juvenile detention center, court facilities, public works road department yard, and flood control center; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That it is the intent of the Legislature that, upon the appropriation of funds for this purpose, the County of Los Angeles develop a plan for a biotechnology research park in conjunction with the University of Southern California, other local higher education institutions, bioscience industries, and other relevant entities that will be designed to do both of the following:

(1) Foster biotechnology industry clusters in the Los Angeles region that will support research, development, and commercialization of biotechnology innovation.

(2) Foster collaboration strategies among higher education institutions in the Los Angeles area, thereby providing a cohesive response to market-driven forces in the high growth biotechnology industry; and be it further

Resolved, That the plan by the County of Los Angeles include an assessment of the feasibility of relocating county-owned public facilities currently housed at the proposed site to facilitate development of a biotechnology research park affiliated with the University of Southern California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 142

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 39—Relative to public employees' health care.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The health program administered pursuant to the Public Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Act (PEMHCA) pays approximately $1.8 billion in health care premiums annually to provide health care benefits to 1.1 million California public employees, making it the second largest health care buying pool in the country; and

WHEREAS, The PEMHCA program is financed by contributions of both active and retired public employees and California taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, The annual cost of the PEMHCA program has increased dramatically during recent years, with estimated premium hikes for next year ranging from 5.5 percent to 41 percent over the current year; and

WHEREAS, Projections indicate that the cost of the PEMHCA program will continue to escalate during future years, possibly to the extent that the quality of service provided by the program could be endangered; and

WHEREAS, A major contributing factor to the increase in health care costs is prescription drugs, as indicated by the fact that during the last five years total spending on prescription drugs increased by 85 percent nationally, with consumers over 65 years of age purchasing an average of 15 new prescriptions per year; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of the people of the State of California that every effort be made to contain and reduce PEMHCA program costs without compromising the level of service offered by the program; and

WHEREAS, The federal Health Care Financing Administration predicts that prescription drugs costs will continue to rise at a faster rate than any other category of health care services, and for those over 65 years of age the average yearly bill will rise from the current sum of $1,989 to $4,818 per person in 2011; and

WHEREAS, The Journal of the American Pharmaceutical Association reported that misuse of prescription drugs costs the economy more than $177 billion annually in hospital admissions, long-term care admissions, and physician and emergency department visits, and further noted that drug misuse was responsible for approximately 218,000 patient deaths in 2000, so that the costs from drug-related problems exceed the actual cost of the medications; and

WHEREAS, Academic studies and research have indicated that pharmacy benefit programs can be improved through pharmacist activities, including drug utilization review, patient consultation, management of patients with chronic diseases to increase compliance with their drug therapy, and development and refinement of drug formulas and related programs that benefit patients and also reduce the spiraling cost of prescription drugs; and

WHEREAS, Although the cost of health care coverage is very important, it is also necessary to consider issues of program quality and effectiveness because of the impact on the health productivity and stability of the state's public employee workforce; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That a special panel be formed to study the funding of pharmacy benefits, copayments, and other benefit structures of the PEMHCA program; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chair of the Senate Committee on Public Employment and Retirement shall convene the panel no later than September 15, 2001; and be it further

Resolved, That the panel shall recommend improvements, additions, or changes to pharmacy benefit programs offered by PEMHCA providers and health plans in order to best provide cost-effective benefits for the state's active and retired public employees; and be it further

Resolved, That panel membership shall consist of the Chair of the Senate Committee on Public Employment and Retirement or a committee member appointed by the Chair, the Chair of the Assembly Committee on Public Employees, Retirement and Social Security or a committee member appointed by the Chair, and the Chair of the Health Benefits Committee of the State Public Employees' Retirement System Board or a committee member appointed by the Chair; and be it further

Resolved, That the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint to the panel a member of the faculty of a school of pharmacy, a representative of the California Pharmacist Association, a representative from the California Association of Health Plans, a representative from the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, a member of the Assembly Republican Caucus, and a consumer representative; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint to the panel three representatives from among the employee organizations which represent both active and retired beneficiaries of the PEMHCA program, a representative from the California Medical Association, a representative of the California Nurses Association, and a member of the Senate Republican Caucus; and be it further

Resolved, That the panel shall submit to the Senate Committee on Public Employment and Retirement and the Assembly Committee on Public Employees, Retirement and Social Security a preliminary report of its conclusions and recommendations by March 1, 2002, and a final report of its conclusions and recommendations no later than June 1, 2002.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 143

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 41—Relative to state employee merit awards.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Section 19823 of the Government Code authorizes the Department of Personnel Administration to make awards to current or retired state employees who propose procedures or ideas that are subsequently adopted and placed in effect that will result in eliminating or reducing state expenditures or improving state operations; and

WHEREAS, Any award granted under Section 19823 of the Government Code that is larger than $5,000 must be approved by concurrent resolution of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Processing, or intake, of newly committed inmates at correctional reception centers at the Department of Corrections involves a lengthy procedure of interviewing the inmate, dictating and transcribing a report, and completing the Institutional Staff Recommendation Summary (ISRS) report; and

WHEREAS, In the past 10 years, there has been a 122-percent increase in the volume of inmates processed through reception centers; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Beatty suggested and developed a computer program that automated the ISRS report, thereby reducing the time required to interview inmates, complete the ISRS, and place the inmate into a facility; and

WHEREAS, The department realized a first-year savings of $484,260 based on the reduction of the intake processing time from three to five days per newly committed inmate to one day; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the award to Mr. Beatty; and

WHEREAS, Unemployment Continued Claim Forms (DE 4581s) often are damaged and cannot be scanned by the optical character reader and must be sent by mail, causing a delay in processing the payment of unemployment insurance wages; and

WHEREAS, Four hours a day was required to prepare and mail up to 108 bags of unscannable materials at a cost of 78 cents to $5.00 a bag; and

WHEREAS, Darlene Miller suggested that the Employment Development Department revise the DE 4581 process by streamlining the handling of the forms and transmitting by facsimile all unscannable material; and

WHEREAS, The streamlined process for handling Continued Claim Forms eliminated delays, reduced duplication, and reduced staff and mailing costs; and

WHEREAS, The department realized first-year savings of $2,038,389 based on elimination of delays and reduction of costs for postage, salaries, and related benefits; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the award to Ms. Miller; and

WHEREAS, Training classes for peace officers at the Department of the California Highway Patrol in specific law enforcement subjects are mandatory and must be tracked by the training officers to ensure officers are not deficient in meeting training requirements; and

WHEREAS, The previous manual training tracking system was cumbersome and time-consuming; and

WHEREAS, Christopher A. Berry and Gary Britton developed an interactive automated training record data system to track training of all department employees; and

WHEREAS, The newly automated tracking system eliminated the need to manually process up to 130 individual training folders several times a year and allows automated processing of training records, the creation of numerous ad hoc reports, and online access to departmental forms; and

WHEREAS, The department realized a first-year savings of $222,825 based on the reduction of staff time for processing, reviewing, and researching training records; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the awards to Mr. Berry and Mr. Britton; and

WHEREAS, The Safe Streets Act of 1995 requires the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to send notices of driver license suspension or revocation by certified mail; and

WHEREAS, Due to a legal challenge, the contract to supply certified mail processing and forms to DMV was not renewed, which eliminated the department's ability to contract for certified mail forms and processing and required the department to seek an alternate method; and

WHEREAS, Bobette M. Hudson suggested that DMV process certified mail in-house and use the certified mail forms available free of charge from the United States Postal Service; and

WHEREAS, The department realized a first-year savings of $170,112 based on the reduction of processing time, mail operation costs, and staff time; and

WHEREAS, The Prison Industry Authority (PIA) is responsible for the manufacture and sale of office furniture and other accessories; and

WHEREAS, In the past, PIA utilized the bid process to purchase fabrics; and

WHEREAS, Only a limited number of vendors participated in the costly bid process, which resulted in a limited choice of fabrics; and

WHEREAS, Gary Dias suggested establishing an approved brands list to purchase chair fabrics rather than utilizing the bid process; and

WHEREAS, PIA's use of the approved brands list to purchase chair fabrics allowed more bidders to qualify, creating greater competition and lower bid prices; and

WHEREAS, The authority realized a first-year savings of $124,741 based on the savings for chair fabric purchases; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the award to Mr. Dias; and

WHEREAS, PIA required potential bidders to first test their products for conformance with the department's specifications, which reduced the number of participating vendors; and

WHEREAS, Gary Dias suggested revising the method of the fabric bid process for office panels and upholstered wall modular office systems by using industry standards developed by the Association for Contract Textiles; and

WHEREAS, Use of the new fabric bid process has significantly increased the number of bidders and created greater competition and lower bid prices; and

WHEREAS, The department realized a first-year savings of $597,093; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the award to Mr. Dias; and

WHEREAS, Due to a shortage of energy throughout California, energy conservation is necessary and welcome; and

WHEREAS, Gerald L. Tripp suggested replacing incandescent lighting with light emitting diodes (LEDs) in the red light of traffic signal heads; and

WHEREAS, Because the LEDs consume less power, last longer, and are as bright as incandescent illuminations, the suggestion was implemented by the Department of Transportation statewide, and produces significant energy savings for the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The department realized a first-year savings of $4,052,780 based on energy savings after installation of the LEDs; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the award to Mr. Tripp; and

WHEREAS, Registered nurses are increasingly working in independent settings in which it is desirable to display a wall certificate; and

WHEREAS, Between 1972 and 1989 approximately 136,000 registered nurses were not issued wall certificates for display; and

WHEREAS, Ruth Caouette and Dan R. Cope suggested wall certificates be made available for purchase by registered nurses via mail order for a cost of $30 each; and

WHEREAS, The department realized revenue of $117,761; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate funds for payment of the award to Ms. Caouette and Mr. Cope; and

WHEREAS, Implementation of these suggestions has resulted in actual savings and revenue of $7,807,961; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings and increased revenue, it is unnecessary to appropriate additional funds for payment of awards to these employees; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares that merit award payments, authorized by the Department of Personnel Administration, are hereby made to Joseph M. Beatty in the amount of $43,426, Darlene R. Miller in the amount of $45,000, Christopher A. Berry and Gary Britton in the amount of $6,142, to be divided equally, Bobette M. Hudson in the amount of $12,011, Gary Dias in the amount of $7,474,

Gary Dias in the amount of $40,860, Gerald L. Tripp in the amount of $45,000, and Ruth Caouette and Dan R. Cope in the amount to $6,776, to be divided equally, and be it further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Controller and the Department of Personnel Administration.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 144

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 42—Relative to Christianity in Armenia.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, In the first century A.D., two of the apostles of Jesus Christ, Thaddeus and Bartholomew, brought the light of Christianity to the Armenian nation; and

WHEREAS, In the year 301 A.D., Armenia became the first nation to officially adopt, embrace, and proclaim Christianity as its state religion with the conversion and baptism of King Trdat by St. Gregory the Illuminator, the First Catholicos of All Armenians; and

WHEREAS, In 451 A.D., under the leadership of St. Vartan Mamigonian, the Armenian nation fought against a powerful neighboring empire. While the vastly outnumbered Armenians lost on the battlefield, they were the ultimate victors in the struggle for freedom of their religion and of their national identity. The Battle of Avarayr, the first recorded war in defense of Christianity, became a spiritual victory for the Armenian nation as the neighboring kings henceforth recognized the Armenian claims for freedom of worship. On the eve of the battle, the Armenian soldiers led by St. Vartan received Holy Communion together. St. Vartan and the 1,036 soldiers martyred at Avarayr are held in special respect as saints of the Church by the Armenian people, who continue to hold fast to their Christian faith and to their national identity in spite of centuries of foreign domination and subjugation; and

WHEREAS, The spread of the gospel among Armenians was greatly facilitated by the invention of the Armenian alphabet in 406 by Mesrob Mashdots, an Armenian monk whose work, supported by King Vramshapuh and Catholicos Sahag, allowed for the subsequent translation of the Holy Bible into Armenian over the next 30 years; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of Christianity is the single most formative factor in Armenian history, culture, and heritage; and

WHEREAS, The religious, national, and cultural identities of Armenians are so interconnected that the Armenian historian Yeghishe observed in the fifth century: “It took only 150 years, following the conversion of Armenia to the light of Christianity, that the new religion became an inseparable part of the Armenian identity”; and

WHEREAS, The devotion of the Armenian nation and people to God led them to create distinctive styles of Christian art, music, manuscript illumination, architecture, stone sculptures, and textiles, that are recognized in and have contributed to the international community; and

WHEREAS, The Armenian people have been persecuted historically by neighboring forces of religious intolerance, culminating in the Armenian Genocide (1915-23), in which the Armenian people endured unimaginable suffering, torture, and death at the hands of the Ottoman Empire; and

WHEREAS, Most recently following the independence of the Republic of Armenia after 70 years of Soviet oppression, including attempts to chill the practice of Christianity, the Armenian Church and the entire nation are experiencing a rejuvenation and spiritual rebirth in celebrating the 10th anniversary of the founding of a free and independent Republic of Armenia; and

WHEREAS, In this jubilee year of 2001, Armenians throughout the world are celebrating the 1700th Anniversary of this momentous and holy event; and

WHEREAS, More than 100 communities throughout the United States are celebrating the 1700th Anniversary of the acceptance of Christianity in Armenia with cultural events, community activities, and special worship and ecumenical services; and

WHEREAS, The 1700th Anniversary is an appropriate occasion to celebrate the ideals and values shared by those of Armenian descent in California and in the United States, as well as the people of Armenia; and

WHEREAS, For the last 100 years, the Armenian Church has established parishes throughout California and has contributed to the quality of life in this state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California acknowledges the significant contribution the Armenian Church has made to the fabric of life of all peoples in California, and congratulates the Republic of Armenia on the occasion of the 1700th Anniversary of the acceptance of Christianity in Armenia; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 145

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 44—Relative to the Ten Year Anniversary of the California Urban Water Conservation Council.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The California Urban Water Conservation Council was created in 1991, to increase efficient water use statewide, through partnerships among urban water suppliers, public advocacy organizations, and other interested groups; and

WHEREAS, The council integrates urban water conservation practices, referred to as Best Management Practices (BMPs), in the planning and management of California's water resources and pioneered the historic Memorandum of Understanding Regarding Urban Water Conservation in California, which was signed by nearly 100 urban water agencies and environmental groups in December 1991, who pledged to develop and implement 14 comprehensive BMPs; and

WHEREAS, The council delivers quality technical assistance to approximately 260 current members, in a variety of forms including building successful partnerships, BMP reporting and handbooks, skillful presentations, an informative Web site, training workshops, and serves as the inspiration for many state, federal and international water conservation programs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature congratulates the council for its strong leadership and unwavering dedication during the past 10 years, to promote and achieve greater efficiency of urban water use in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature commends the council for making California a better place to live for present and future generations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 146

Senate Joint Resolution No. 20—Relative to global warming.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Average temperatures on earth have climbed more than one degree Fahrenheit over the past century, while average temperatures have increased only 5 to 9 degrees since the last ice age 10,000 years ago; and

WHEREAS, There is overwhelming scientific evidence that pollution released into the atmosphere as a result of human activities significantly contributes to this phenomenon of global warming; and

WHEREAS, If we continue current rates of pollution and releases of greenhouse gases, scientists predict that the average temperature of the earth will increase as much as 11 degrees this century; and

WHEREAS, Scientific evidence links global warming to increased flooding, storms, droughts, and heat waves, which all have devastating effects on the environment, agriculture, wildlife, and public health; and

WHEREAS, Experts estimate that the current climate crisis requires a 70-percent reduction of greenhouse gases to avoid catastrophic effects on human existence; and

WHEREAS, Although the United States comprises only 4 percent of the world's population, it produces 25 percent of all greenhouse gases; and

WHEREAS, The Kyoto Protocol to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change sought to address climate change by setting binding targets for reductions in greenhouse gas emissions by developed countries; and

WHEREAS, An effective emissions control program would not necessarily cause a significant negative impact on our nation's economy due to recommended technology and devices that would also reduce the nation's dependency on fossil fuels; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature hereby declares its support for the Kyoto Protocol to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, and strongly urges the President of the United States to take proactive steps to curb greenhouse emissions and work with other nations to address the increasing dangers of global warming; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 147

Senate Joint Resolution No. 21—Relative to the political status of Puerto Rico.

WHEREAS, On December 10, 1898, the Treaty of Paris was signed by the United States and later ratified by the United States on February 6, 1899, formally concluding the Spanish-American War and establishing Puerto Rico as a territory of the United States; and

WHEREAS, On March 2, 1917, President Woodrow Wilson signed the Puerto Rican Federal Relations Act, popularly known as the Jones Act, which extended United States citizenship to the residents of Puerto Rico, but did not provide them with voting representation in the United States Congress or give them the right to vote for the President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Since 1917, 200,000 United States citizens in Puerto Rico have served valiantly in every war and armed conflict in which our nation has fought in defense of democratic principles and self-determination; and

WHEREAS, Four heroic Puerto Ricans, Hector Santiago-Colon, Euripides Rubio, Carlos James Lozada, and Luis Fernando Garcia, have been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for their valor in defending American democracy and freedoms; and

WHEREAS, We recognize the many social, economic, and political contributions that the 3.8 million United States citizens residing in Puerto Rico make to preserve and enhance this nation's democratic values; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has a significant Puerto Rican community and an ever-increasing Latino population from which many of our state's business, cultural, and political leaders are drawn; and

WHEREAS, California's great history, including the ascension to statehood, is intertwined with our state's Latino heritage; and

WHEREAS, In 1997 the Legislature of Puerto Rico formally petitioned the United States Congress to respond to the democratic aspirations of the United States citizens of Puerto Rico by means of a federally sanctioned plebiscite to be held no later than 1998 and Congress has not yet responded to this petition; and

WHEREAS, As we begin a new millennium, we recognize that the time has come for Puerto Rico to exercise its right to self-determination regarding its desire to attain full self-government within the context of a congressionally authorized plebiscite; and

WHEREAS, The California Latino Legislative Caucus urges all Californians and the citizens of the United States to support the enactment of a federal law leading to full self-government for Puerto Rico; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California and the California Latino Legislative Caucus request that the Congress and the President of the United States enact legislation that would define the political status options available to the United States citizens of Puerto Rico and authorize a plebiscite to provide an opportunity for Puerto Ricans to make an informed decision regarding the island's future political status; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California and the California Latino Legislative Caucus request the California congressional delegation to actively promote and support timely action on this important national issue; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and the Governor of Puerto Rico.

WHEREAS, The intensive statewide campaign in small towns and rural areas calling for “Justice for California Women” proved to be an inspiration to supporters around the world and helped encourage women’s suffrage in other states; and

In order to make the Independent System Operator more accountable to the people of this state by eliminating stakeholder governing boards, thereby acting to mitigate the state's current energy crisis, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 2

An act to amend Sections 216, 330, and 377 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor January 18, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State January 18, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

216. (a) "Public utility" includes every common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, and heat corporation, where the service is performed for, or the commodity is delivered to, the public or any portion thereof.

(b) Whenever any common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, or heat corporation performs a service for, or delivers a commodity to, the public or any portion thereof for which any compensation or payment whatsoever is received, that common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, or heat corporation, is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission and the provisions of this part.

(c) When any person or corporation performs any service for, or delivers any commodity to, any person, private corporation, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state, that in turn either directly or indirectly, mediately or immediately, performs that service for, or delivers that commodity to, the public or any portion thereof, that person or corporation is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission and the provisions of this part.

(d) Ownership or operation of a facility that employs cogeneration technology or produces power from other than a conventional power source or the ownership or operation of a facility which employs landfill gas technology does not make a corporation or person a public utility within the meaning of this section solely because of the ownership or operation of that facility.

(e) Any corporation or person engaged directly or indirectly in developing, producing, transmitting, distributing, delivering, or selling any form of heat derived from geothermal or solar resources or from cogeneration technology to any privately owned or publicly owned public utility, or to the public or any portion thereof, is not a public utility within the meaning of this section solely by reason of engaging in any of those activities.

(f) The ownership or operation of a facility that sells compressed natural gas at retail to the public for use only as a motor vehicle fuel, and the selling of compressed natural gas at retail from that facility to the public for use only as a motor vehicle fuel, does not make the corporation or person a public utility within the meaning of this section solely because of that ownership, operation, or sale.

(g) Ownership or operation of a facility that has been certified by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as an exempt wholesale generator pursuant to Section 32 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Chapter 2C (commencing with Section 79) of Title 15 of the United States Code) does not make a corporation or person a public utility within the meaning of this section, solely due to the ownership or operation of that facility.

(h) The ownership, control, operation, or management of an electric plant used for direct transactions or participation directly or indirectly in direct transactions, as permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 365, sales into the Power Exchange referred to in Section 365, or the use or sale as permitted under subdivisions (b) to (d), inclusive, of Section 218, shall not make a corporation or person a public utility within the meaning of this section solely because of that ownership, participation, or sale.

SEC. 2. Section 330 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:
330. In order to provide guidance in carrying out this chapter, the Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is the intent of the Legislature that a cumulative rate reduction of at least 20 percent be achieved not later than April 1, 2002, for residential and small commercial customers, from the rates in effect on June 10, 1996. In determining that the April 1, 2002, rate reduction has been met, the commission shall exclude the costs of the competitively procured electricity and the costs associated with the rate reduction bonds, as defined in Section 840.

(b) The people, businesses, and institutions of California spend nearly twenty-three billion dollars ($23,000,000,000) annually on electricity, so that reductions in the price of electricity would significantly benefit the economy of the state and its residents.

(c) The Public Utilities Commission has opened rulemaking and investigation proceedings with regard to restructuring California's electric power industry and reforming utility regulation.

(d) The commission has found, after an extensive public review process, that the interests of ratepayers and the state as a whole will be best served by moving from the regulatory framework existing on January 1, 1997, in which retail electricity service is provided principally by electrical corporations subject to an obligation to provide ultimate consumers in exclusive service territories with reliable electric service at regulated rates, to a framework under which competition would be allowed in the supply of electric power and customers would be allowed to have the right to choose their supplier of electric power.

(e) Competition in the electric generation market will encourage innovation, efficiency, and better service from all market participants, and will permit the reduction of costly regulatory oversight.

(f) The delivery of electricity over transmission and distribution systems is currently regulated, and will continue to be regulated to ensure system safety, reliability, environmental protection, and fair access for all market participants.

(g) Reliable electric service is of utmost importance to the safety, health, and welfare of the state's citizenry and economy. It is the intent of the Legislature that electric industry restructuring should enhance the reliability of the interconnected regional transmission systems, and provide strong coordination and enforceable protocols for all users of the power grid.

(h) It is important that sufficient supplies of electric generation will be available to maintain the reliable service to the citizens and businesses of the state.

(i) Reliable electric service depends on conscientious inspection and maintenance of transmission and distribution systems. To continue and enhance the reliability of the delivery of electricity, the Independent System Operator and the commission, respectively, should set inspection, maintenance, repair, and replacement standards.

(j) It is the intent of the Legislature that California enter into a compact with western region states. That compact should require the publicly and investor-owned utilities located in those states, that sell energy to California retail customers, to adhere to enforceable standards and protocols to protect the reliability of the interconnected regional transmission and distribution systems.

(k) In order to achieve meaningful wholesale and retail competition in the electric generation market, it is essential to do all of the following:

(1) Separate monopoly utility transmission functions from competitive generation functions, through development of independent, third-party control of transmission access and pricing.

(2) Permit all customers to choose from among competing suppliers of electric power.

(3) Provide customers and suppliers with open, nondiscriminatory, and comparable access to transmission and distribution services.

(l) The commission has properly concluded that:

(1) This competition will best be introduced by the creation of an Independent System Operator and an independent Power Exchange.

(2) Generation of electricity should be open to competition.

(3) There is a need to ensure that no participant in these new market institutions has the ability to exercise significant market power so that operation of the new market institutions would be distorted.

(4) These new market institutions should commence simultaneously with the phase in of customer choice, and the public will be best served if these institutions and the nonbypassable transition cost recovery mechanism referred to in subdivisions (s) to (w), inclusive, are in place simultaneously and no later than January 1, 1998.

(m) It is the intention of the Legislature that California's publicly owned electric utilities and investor-owned electric utilities should commit control of their transmission facilities to the Independent System Operator. These utilities should jointly advocate to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission a pricing methodology for the Independent System Operator that results in an equitable return on capital investment in transmission facilities for all Independent System Operator participants.

(n) Opportunities to acquire electric power in the competitive market must be available to California consumers as soon as practicable, but no later than January 1, 1998, so that all customers can share in the benefits of competition.

(o) Under the existing regulatory framework, California's electrical corporations were granted franchise rights to provide electricity to consumers in their service territories.

(p) Consistent with federal and state policies, California electrical corporations invested in power plants and entered into contractual obligations in order to provide reliable electrical service on a nondiscriminatory basis to all consumers within their service territories who requested service.

(q) The cost of these investments and contractual obligations are currently being recovered in electricity rates charged by electrical corporations to their consumers.

(r) Transmission and distribution of electric power remain essential services imbued with the public interest that are provided over facilities owned and maintained by the state's electrical corporations.

(s) It is proper to allow electrical corporations an opportunity to continue to recover, over a reasonable transition period, those costs and categories of costs for generation-related assets and obligations, including costs associated with any subsequent renegotiation or buyout of existing generation-related contracts, that the commission, prior to December 20, 1995, had authorized for collection in rates and that may not be recoverable in market prices in a competitive generation market, and appropriate additions incurred after December 20, 1995, for capital additions to generating facilities existing as of December 20, 1995, that the commission determines are reasonable and should be recovered, provided that the costs are necessary to maintain those facilities through December 31, 2001. In determining the costs to be recovered, it is appropriate to net the negative value of above market assets against the positive value of below market assets.

(t) The transition to a competitive generation market should be orderly, protect electric system reliability, provide the investors in these electrical corporations with a fair opportunity to fully recover the costs associated with commission approved generation-related assets and obligations, and be completed as expeditiously as possible.

(u) The transition to expanded customer choice, competitive markets, and performance based ratemaking as described in Decision 95-12-063, as modified by Decision 96-01-009, of the Public Utilities Commission, can produce hardships for employees who have dedicated their working lives to utility employment. It is preferable that any necessary reductions in the utility workforce directly caused by electrical restructuring, be accomplished through offers of voluntary severance, retraining, early retirement, outplacement, and related benefits. Whether workforce reductions are voluntary or involuntary, reasonable costs associated with these sorts of benefits should be included in the competition transition charge.

(v) Charges associated with the transition should be collected over a specific period of time on a nonbypassable basis and in a manner that does not result in an increase in rates to customers of electrical corporations. In order to insulate the policy of nonbypassability against incursions, if exemptions from the competition transition charge are granted, a firewall shall be created that segregates recovery of the cost of exemptions as follows:

(1) The cost of the competition transition charge exemptions granted to members of the combined class of residential and small commercial customers shall be recovered only from those customers.

(2) The cost of the competition transition charge exemptions granted to members of the combined class of customers other than residential and small commercial customers shall be recovered only from those customers. The commission shall retain existing cost allocation authority provided that the firewall and rate freeze principles are not violated.

(w) It is the intent of the Legislature to require and enable electrical corporations to monetize a portion of the competition transition charge for residential and small commercial consumers so that these customers will receive rate reductions of no less than 10 percent for 1998 continuing through 2002. Electrical corporations shall, by June 1, 1997, or earlier, secure the means to finance the competition transition charge by applying concurrently for financing orders from the Public Utilities Commission and for rate reduction bonds from the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank.

(x) California's public utility electrical corporations provide substantial benefits to all Californians, including employment and support of the state's economy. Restructuring the electric services industry pursuant to the act that added this chapter will continue these benefits, and will also offer meaningful and immediate rate reductions for residential and small commercial customers, and facilitate competition in the supply of electric power.

SEC. 3. Section 377 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

377. The commission shall continue to regulate the facilities for the generation of electricity owned by any public utility prior to January 1, 1997, that are subject to commission regulation until the owner of those facilities has applied to the commission to dispose of those facilities and has been authorized by the commission under Section 851 to undertake that disposal. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no facility for the generation of electricity owned by a public utility may be disposed of prior to January 1, 2006. The commission shall ensure that public utility generation assets remain dedicated to service for the benefit of California ratepayers.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that public utility generation assets remain dedicated to service for the benefit of California ratepayers, and are not deregulated as a consequence of market valuation, without appropriate review and authorization of the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to Section 851 of the Public Utilities Code, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 3

An act to add and repeal Section 200 of the Water Code, relating to public utilities, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor January 19, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State January 19, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 200 is added to the Water Code, to read:

200. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that there is an urgent short-term need for the State of California, through the department, to assist in meeting the public's electricity needs through the emergency purchase of electricity. It is the intent of the Legislature that this section clarify on a temporary basis the department's authority to purchase electricity and make it available to assist in meeting California's energy needs.

(b) For a period not to exceed 12 days from the effective date of this section, the department may purchase electric power from any party and make that electric power available at the cost of its purchase, plus any administrative costs (not to exceed a total amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000) for all purchases entered into pursuant to this section), transmission and scheduling costs, and other related costs, incurred by the department, to the Independent System Operator, public utility electrical corporations, or retail end-use customers. With respect to electric power made available to retail end-use customers, the customers shall be responsible for costs at no more than the rates established by the Public Utilities Commission in effect on the date the power is made available to the customers.

(c) The purchases made pursuant to this section are separate and apart from the State Water Resources Development System, and the obligations incurred and funding of those contracts and arrangements shall be maintained by the department, separate and distinct from the funds, moneys and obligations of the State Water Resources Development System.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department shall use any and all means feasible, as determined by the department, to secure the state's right and ability to recover funds expended pursuant to this section.

(e) No contract or purchase agreement shall contain terms that diminish the state's interest in recovering any funds expended for purchase of power at rates that exceed just and reasonable rates.

(f) There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, money in the fund is continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal year to the department for purposes of this section. All revenues payable to the department under this act shall be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest accruing on money in the fund shall remain in the fund and shall be used for the purposes of this act. Payments from the fund may be made only for the purposes authorized by this section.

(g) All contracts authorized by this act shall be payable solely from the fund established pursuant to this section.

(h) Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state are or may be pledged for payment for any obligation authorized under this section.

(i) The Public Utilities Commission shall adopt and implement emergency regulations that shall become effective on the operative date of this section to provide for delivery and payment mechanisms relating to the sale of electric power purchased by the department for sale directly or indirectly to the Independent System Operator, public utilities, or retail end-use customers.

(j) No purchases of electric power shall be entered into pursuant to this section after February 1, 2001. No purchases of electric power entered into pursuant to this section may extend in duration past February 15, 2001.

(k) This section shall become inoperative on February 2, 2001, and, as of January 1, 2002, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. The sum of four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000) is hereby transferred from the General Fund to the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, established by Section 200 of the Water Code, for the purposes of implementing Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that the State of California and its citizens have an adequate supply of electricity, thereby preserving the public health, safety, and welfare, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 4

An act to amend Section 366.5 of, and to add Section 360.5 to, and to repeal Section 355.1 of, the Public Utilities Code, and to add Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) to the Water Code, relating to electric power, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor February 1, 2001. Filed with Secretary of State February 1, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 355.1 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 360.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

360.5. The commission shall determine that portion of each existing electrical corporation's retail rate effective on January 5, 2001, that is equal to the difference between the generation related component of the retail rate and the sum of the costs of the utility's own generation, qualifying facility contracts, existing bilateral contracts, and ancillary services. That portion of the retail rate shall be known as the California Procurement Adjustment. The commission shall further determine the amount of the California Procurement Adjustment that is allocable to the power sold by the department. That amount shall be payable, by each electrical corporation, upon receipt by the electrical corporation of the revenues from its retail end use customers, to the department for deposit in the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, established by Section 80200 of the Water Code. The amount determined pursuant to this subdivision shall be known as the Fixed Department of Water Resources Set-Aside.

SEC. 3. Section 366.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

366.5. (a) No change in the aggregator or supplier of electric power for any small commercial customer may be made until one of the following means of confirming the change has been completed:

- (1) Independent third-party telephone verification.
- (2) Receipt of a written confirmation received in the mail from the consumer after the consumer has received an information package confirming the agreement.
- (3) The customer signs a document fully explaining the nature and effect of the change in service.
- (4) The customer's consent is obtained through electronic means, including, but not limited to, computer transactions.

(b) No change in the aggregator or provider of electric power for any residential customer may be made over the telephone until the change has been confirmed by an independent third-party verification company, as follows:

(1) The third-party verification company shall meet each of the following criteria:

(A) Be independent from the entity that seeks to provide the new service.

(B) Not be directly or indirectly managed, controlled, or directed, or owned wholly or in part, by an entity that seeks to provide the new service or by any corporation, firm, or person who directly or indirectly manages, controls, or directs, or owns more than 5 percent of the entity.

(C) Operate from facilities physically separate from those of the entity that seeks to provide the new service.

(D) Not derive commission or compensation based upon the number of sales confirmed.

(2) The entity seeking to verify the sale shall do so by connecting the resident by telephone to the third-party verification company or by arranging for the third-party verification company to call the customer to confirm the sale.

(3) The third-party verification company shall obtain the customer's oral confirmation regarding the change, and shall record that confirmation by obtaining appropriate verification data. The record shall be available to the customer upon request. Information obtained from the customer through confirmation shall not be used for marketing purposes. Any unauthorized release of this information is grounds for a civil suit by the aggrieved resident against the entity or its employees who are responsible for the violation.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), an aggregator or provider of electric power shall not be required to comply with these provisions when the customer directly calls an aggregator or provider of electric power to change service providers. However, an aggregator or provider of electric power shall not avoid the verification requirements by asking a customer to contact an aggregator or provider of electric power directly to make any change in the service provider.

(c) No change in the aggregator or provider of electric power for any residential customer may be made via an Internet transaction, in which the customer accesses the website of the aggregator or provider, unless both of the following occur with respect to confirming the change:

(1) In addition to any other information gathered in the course of the transaction, the customer shall be asked to read and respond to a separate screen that states, in easily legible text, the following:

“I acknowledge that in entering this transaction I am voluntarily choosing to change the entity that supplies me with my electric power.”

(2) The separate screen shall offer the customer the option to complete or terminate the transaction.

(d) (1) No change in the aggregator or provider of electric power for any residential customer may be made via a written transaction unless the change has been confirmed, as provided in this subdivision. In order to comply with this subdivision, in addition to any other information gathered in the course of the transaction, and in addition to any other signature required, the customer shall be asked to sign and date a document separate from that written transaction, containing the following words printed in 10-point type or larger:

“I acknowledge that in signing this contract or agreement, I am voluntarily choosing to change the entity that supplies me with electric power.”

(2) The acknowledgment document described in paragraph (1) may not be included with a check or in connection with a sweepstakes solicitation.

(e) Any aggregator or provider of electric power offering electricity service to residential and small commercial customers that switches the electric service of a customer without the customer’s consent shall be liable to the aggregator or provider of electric power offering electricity services previously selected by the customer in an amount equal to all charges paid by the customer after the violation and shall refund to the customer any amount in excess of the amount that the customer would have been obligated to pay had the customer not been switched.

(f) An aggregator or provider of electric power shall keep a record of the confirmation of a change pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) for two years from the date of that confirmation, and shall make those records available, upon request, to the customer and to the commission in the course of a commission investigation of a customer complaint or an investigation pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 394.2.

(g) Public agencies are exempt from this section to the extent they are serving customers within their jurisdiction.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivisions (c) and (d), the commission may require third-party verification for all residential changes to electric service providers if it finds that the application of subdivisions (c) and (d) results in the unauthorized changing of a customer's electric service provider.

(i) An electrical corporation is exempt from this section for customers that default to the service of the electrical corporation.

(j) Electric power sold to customers pursuant to Section 80100 of the Water Code is not subject to this section.

SEC. 4. Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) is added to the Water Code, to read:

DIVISION 27. PURCHASE AND SALE OF ELECTRIC POWER

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

80000. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The furnishing of reliable reasonably priced electric service is essential for the safety, health, and well-being of the people of California. A number of factors have resulted in a rapid, unforeseen shortage of electric power and energy available in the state and rapid and substantial increases in wholesale energy costs and retail energy rates, with statewide impact, to such a degree that it constitutes an immediate peril to the health, safety, life and property of the inhabitants of the state, and the public interest, welfare, convenience and necessity require the state to participate in markets for the purchase and sale of power and energy.

(b) In order for the department to adequately and expeditiously undertake and administer the critical responsibilities established in this division, it must be able to obtain, in a timely manner, additional and sufficient personnel with the requisite expertise and experience in energy marketing, energy scheduling, and accounting.

80002. Nothing in this division shall be construed to reduce or modify any electrical corporation's obligation to serve. The commission shall issue orders it determines are necessary to carry out this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to obligate the department for any procurement cost obligations of any electrical corporation that may have existed as of the effective date of this section.

80002.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that power acquired by the department under this division shall be sold to all retail end use customers being served by electrical corporations, and may be sold, to the extent practicable, as determined by the department, to those local publicly owned electric utilities requesting such power. Power sold by the department to retail end use customers shall be allocated pro rata among all classes of customers to the extent practicable.

80003. (a) The development and operation of a program as provided in this division is in all respects for the welfare and the benefit of the people of the state, to protect the public peace, health, and safety, and constitutes an essential governmental purpose.

(b) This division shall be construed in a manner so as to effectuate the purposes and objectives thereof.

80004. (a) The powers and responsibilities of the department established under this division are within the scope of the primary duties of the department, but are not governed by the provisions relating to the State Water Resources Development System.

(b) The Department of Water Resources Electric Purchases Fund, established by Section 80200, and the money in that fund are separate and distinct from any other fund and money administered by the department.

80010. As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) “Bonds” means bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued solely for the purposes of paying the cost of electric power and transmission, scheduling, and other related expenses incurred by the department on and after the effective date of this division, or to reimburse expenditures from the fund for those purposes; repaying to the General Fund any advances made to the department from appropriations made to the fund pursuant hereto or hereafter for purposes of this division, any advances made to the department from the Water Resources Electric Power Fund, and General Fund moneys expended by the department pursuant to the Governor’s Emergency Proclamation dated January 17, 2001; establishing or maintaining reserves in connection with the bonds; costs of issuance of bonds or incidental to their payment or security; capitalized interest; or to renew or refund any bonds.

(b) “Commission” means the Public Utilities Commission.

(c) “Electrical corporation” has the same meaning as that term is defined in Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code.

(d) “Fund” means the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund established by Section 80200.

(e) “Local publicly owned electric utility” includes the entities defined in subdivision (d) of Section 9604 of the Public Utilities Code and publicly owned utilities that provide electricity.

(f) “Power” means electric power and energy, including, but not limited to, capacity and output, or any of them.

(g) “Public utility” has the same meaning as that term is defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code.

80012. The department shall do those things necessary and authorized under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 80100) to make power available directly or indirectly to electric consumers in California. Except as otherwise stated, nothing in this division authorizes the department to take ownership of the transmission, generation, or distribution assets of any electrical corporation in this state.

80014. (a) The department and commission may adopt regulations for purposes of this division as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. For purposes of that Chapter 3.5, including Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservations of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, the regulations shall be repealed 180 days after their effective date, unless the adopting authority or agency complies with that Chapter 3.5, as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

(b) Unless the department determines that application of any such provision to such contracts is detrimental to accomplishing the purposes of this division, the provisions of the Government Code and Public Contract Code applicable to state contracts, including, but not limited to, advertising and competitive bidding requirements and prompt payment requirements, apply to contracts entered into under this division.

80016. All state agencies and other official state organizations, and all persons connected therewith, shall and are hereby authorized to, at the request of the department, give the department reasonable assistance or other cooperation in carrying out the purposes of this division.

CHAPTER 2. POWER PROGRAM

Article 1. Powers of the Department

80100. Upon those terms, limitations, and conditions as it prescribes, the department may contract with any person, local publicly owned electric utility, or other entity for the purchase of power on such terms and for such periods as the department determines and at such prices the department deems appropriate taking into account all of the following:

(a) The intent of the program described in this division is to achieve an overall portfolio of contracts for energy resulting in reliable service at the lowest possible price per kilowatthour.

(b) The need to have contract supplies to fit each aspect of the overall energy load profile.

(c) The desire to secure as much low-cost power as possible under contract.

(d) The duration and timing of contracts made available from sellers.

(e) The length of time sellers of electricity offer to sell such electricity.

(f) The desire to secure as much firm and nonfirm renewable energy as possible. Prior to commencement of the program described in this division, the department shall assess the need for power in the state in consultation with the Public Utilities Commission and local publicly owned electric utilities and electrical corporations in the state and such other entities in the state as the department determines are appropriate. The department may also enter into options or forward contracts with respect to the foregoing, and contract with any person, local publicly owned electric utility, or other entity for transmission, scheduling, and other related power services necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this division.

80102. (a) Contracts under this division may provide for the assignment thereof on any terms and conditions as the contracts may specify.

(b) Any contract for the purchase or sale of electric power shall contain any contractual terms and security provisions as are determined by the department to be necessary or appropriate and the department may enter into such arrangements as may be necessary or appropriate to implement the foregoing.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may pay or provide for the payment of power or use of transmission or distribution facilities and other related services prior to the delivery or utilization thereof, provided that the department determines that prepayment is beneficial to ratepayers and that adequate provision has been made for the security of the department.

80104. Upon the delivery of power to them, the retail end use customers shall be deemed to have purchased that power from the department. Payment for any sale shall be a direct obligation of the retail end use customer to the department.

80106. (a) The department may contract with the related electrical corporation or its successor in the performance of related service, for the electrical corporation or its successor in the performance of related service, to transmit or provide for the transmission of, and distribute the power and provide billing, collection, and other related services, as agent of the department, on terms and conditions that reasonably compensate the electrical corporation for its services.

(b) At the request of the department, the commission shall order the related electrical corporation or its successor in the performance of related service, to transmit or provide for the transmission of, and distribute the power and provide billing, collection, and other related services, as agent of the department, on terms and conditions that reasonably compensate the electrical corporation for its services.

80108. The commission may issue rules regulating the enforcement of the agency function pursuant this division, including collection and payment to the department.

80110. The department shall retain title to all power sold by it to the retail end use customers. The department shall be entitled to recover, as a revenue requirement, amounts and at the times necessary to enable it to comply with Section 80134, and shall advise the commission as the department determines to be appropriate. Such revenue requirements may also include any advances made to the department hereunder or hereafter for purposes of this division, or from the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, and General Fund moneys expended by the department pursuant to the Governor's Emergency Proclamation dated January 17, 2001. For purposes of this division and except as otherwise provided in this section, the Public Utility Commission's authority as set forth in Section 451 of the Public Utilities Code shall apply, except any just and reasonable review under Section 451 shall be conducted and determined by the department. The commission may enter into an agreement with the department with respect to charges under Section 451 for purposes of this division, and that agreement shall have the force and effect of a financing order adopted in accordance with Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 840) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, as determined by the commission. In no case shall the commission increase the electricity charges in effect on the date that the act that adds this section becomes effective for residential customers for existing baseline quantities or usage by those customers of up to 130 percent of existing baseline quantities, until such time as the department has recovered the costs of power it has procured for the electrical corporation's retail end use customers as provided in this division. After the passage of such period of time after the effective date of this section as shall be determined by the commission, the right of retail end use customers pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 360) of Chapter 2.3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code to acquire service from other providers shall be suspended until the department no longer supplies power hereunder. The department shall have the same rights with respect to the payment by retail end use customers for power sold by the department as do providers of power to such customers.

80112. All money collected with respect to any power acquired and sold pursuant to this division and the Governor's Emergency Proclamation dated January 17, 2001, and all money paid directly or indirectly to or for the account of the department with respect to any sale, exchange, transfer, or disposition of power acquired pursuant hereto, shall constitute property of the department and shall be deposited in the fund in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 80200. To the extent any moneys are received by an electrical corporation pursuant to Section 80106 in the process of collection, and pending their transfer to the department, they shall be segregated by the electrical corporation on terms and conditions established by the department and shall be held in trust for the benefit of the department.

80114. The commission shall take those actions necessary to ensure that all, or a portion of, the component rates that are available to electrical corporations for the purchase of their net short position of electricity are used to recover the revenue requirements established pursuant to this division.

80116. The department may sell any power acquired by the department pursuant to this division to retail end use customers, and to local publicly owned electric utilities, at not more than the department's acquisition costs, including transmission, scheduling, and other related costs, plus other costs as provided in Section 80200, or exchange power with any person or public or private entity. The department may not sell power to any local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in Section 9604 of the Public Utilities Code, which is itself a net seller of power. However, to the extent that any acquired power is not required for use within the state, if it is otherwise advantageous and necessary, the power may be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of, or an option may be granted with respect to the power, to any person or public or private entity. Except to maintain system integrity, the department shall sell the power that is to be delivered to retail end use customers within the service area of the electrical corporations that purchase power from the electrical corporations directly to the retail end use customers.

80120. The department may fix and establish the procedure and charges for the sale or other disposal of power purchased by the department.

80122. The department may do any of the following as may be, in the determination of the department, necessary for the purposes of this division:

(a) Hire and appoint employees as required, at salary levels determined by the director to be competitive to attract and retain persons with the necessary expertise and skills. Prior to hiring or appointing an employee at a salary in excess of a salary approved by the Department of Personnel Administration, the director shall submit the proposed salary to the Director of Finance who shall submit it to the Legislature in accordance with Section 27.00 of the annual Budget Act. No excess salary authorized under this section may be paid on or after January 1, 2003. The excess portion of a salary authorized under this section may not be considered salary in the calculation of final compensation for purposes of benefits under the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(b) Engage the services of private parties to render professional and technical assistance and advice and other services in carrying out the purposes of this division.

(c) Contract for the services of other public agencies.

(d) The State Personnel Board and the Department of Personnel Administration shall assist the department in expediting the hiring of personnel necessary and desirable for the timely and successful implementation and administration of the department's duties and responsibilities pursuant to this division.

CHAPTER 2.5. BONDS

80130. The department may incur indebtedness and issue bonds as evidence thereof, provided that bonds may not be issued in an amount the debt service on which, to the extent payable from the fund, is expected by the department to exceed the amounts expected to be available in the fund for their payment. In no event shall the department authorize the issuance of bonds (excluding notes issued in anticipation of the issuance of bonds and retired from the proceeds of those bonds) in an aggregate amount greater than the amount calculated by multiplying by a factor of four the annual revenues generated by the California Procurement Adjustment, as determined by the commission pursuant to Section 360.5. In addition, before the issuance of bonds, the department shall establish a mechanism to ensure that the bonds will be sold at investment grade ratings and repaid on a timely basis from pledged revenues. This mechanism may include, but is not limited to, an agreement between the department and the commission as described in Section 80110.

80132. (a) Bonds may be issued by the department upon authorization by written determination of the director of the department with the approval of the Director of Finance and the State Treasurer. The Department of Finance shall notify the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairperson of the committee in each house that considers appropriations of its written determination. The bonds shall be sold at such prices and in such manner, and on such terms and conditions, as shall be specified in such determination, and such determination may contain or authorize any other provision, condition, or limitation not inconsistent herewith and such provisions as may be deemed reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. Bonds may mature at such time or times, and bear interest at such rate or rates, which may be fixed or variable and be determined by reference to an index or such other method, as shall be specified in such determination. Neither the person executing the determination to issue bonds nor any person executing bonds shall be personally liable therefor or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(b) In the discretion of the department, any bonds may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the department and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having trust powers within or without the state, or the State Treasurer. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Treasurer shall not be deemed to have a conflict of interest by reason of acting as such trustee. The department may enter into such contracts or arrangements as it shall deem to be necessary or appropriate for the issuance and further security of the bonds.

(c) Bonds shall be legal investments for all trust funds, the funds of all insurance companies, banks both commercial and savings, trust companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, for state school funds, pension funds, and, for any funds that may be invested in county, school, or municipal bonds.

(d) Notwithstanding that bonds may be payable from a special fund, they shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments for all purposes.

(e) Any and all bonds, their transfer and the income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state and by all political subdivisions of the state.

(f) Bonds shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, other than the department, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any such political subdivision, other than the department, but shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided for. All bonds shall contain a statement to the following effect: “Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California is pledged to the payment of the principal or of interest on this bond.” The issuance of bonds shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment.

(g) The department may pledge or assign any revenues under any obligation entered into, and rights to receive the same, and moneys on deposit in the fund and income or revenue derived from the investment thereof, as security for the department’s obligations hereunder. It is the intention of the Legislature that any pledge of moneys, revenues, or property made by the department shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the moneys, revenues, or property so pledged and thereafter collected from retail end use customers, or paid directly or indirectly to or for the account of the department, is hereby made, and shall immediately be, subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the department irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof, and that no resolution or instrument by which such pledge or lien created pursuant to this subdivision is expressed, confirmed, or approved need be filed or recorded in order to perfect such pledge or lien. The provisions hereof shall in all respects govern the creation, perfection, priority, and enforcement of any lien created hereby or hereunder.

80134. (a) The department shall, and in any obligation entered into pursuant to this division may covenant to, at least annually, and more frequently as required, establish and revise revenue requirements sufficient, together with any moneys on deposit in the fund, to provide all of the following:

(1) The amounts necessary to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on all bonds as and when the same shall become due.

(2) The amounts necessary to pay for power purchased by it and to deliver it to purchasers, including the cost of electric power and transmission, scheduling, and other related expenses incurred by the department, or to make payments under any other contracts, agreements, or obligations entered into by it pursuant hereto, in the amounts and at the times the same shall become due.

(3) Reserves in such amount as may be determined by the department from time to time to be necessary or desirable.

(4) The pooled money investment rate on funds advanced for electric power purchases prior to the receipt of payment for those purchases by the purchasing entity.

(5) Repayment to the General Fund of appropriations made to the fund pursuant hereto or hereafter for purposes of this division, appropriations made to the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, and General Fund moneys expended by the department pursuant to the Governor's Emergency Proclamation dated January 17, 2001.

(6) The administrative costs of the department incurred in administering this division.

(b) The department shall notify the commission of its revenue requirement pursuant to Section 80110.

CHAPTER 3. DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES ELECTRIC POWER FUND

80200. (a) There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal year, to the department, and shall be available for the purposes of this division. It is the intent of the Legislature that this fund be a continuation of the fund created in Chapter 3 of the Statutes of 2001 (SB 7 of the First 2001–02 Extraordinary Session).

(b) All revenues payable to the department under this division shall be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest accruing on money in the fund shall remain in the fund and shall be used for the purposes of this division. Payments from the fund may be made only for the purposes authorized by this division, including, but not limited to, payments for any of the following:

(1) The cost of electric power and transmission, scheduling, and other related expenses incurred by the department.

(2) The pooled money investment rate on funds advanced for electric power purchases prior to the receipt of payment for those purchases by the purchasing entity.

(3) Payment of any bonds or other contractual obligations authorized by this division.

(4) Repayment to the General Fund of appropriations made to the fund pursuant hereto or hereafter for purposes of this division, appropriations made to the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, and General Fund moneys expended by the department pursuant to the Governor’s Emergency Proclamation dated January 17, 2001. It is the intent of the Legislature that such repayment be made as soon as practicable.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 5 of the statute adding this section, the administrative costs of the department incurred in administering this division shall be provided in the annual Budget Act.

(d) Obligations authorized by this division shall be payable solely from the fund. Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state are or may be pledged for any payment under any obligation authorized by this division.

(e) While any obligations of the department incurred under this division remain outstanding and not fully performed or discharged, the rights, powers, duties, and existence of the department and the commission shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will affect adversely the interests and rights of the holders of or parties to such obligations. The department may include this pledge and undertaking of the state in the department’s obligations.

CHAPTER 4. REPORTING

80250. The department shall make quarterly and annual reports to the Governor and the Legislature regarding its activities and expenditures pursuant to this division.

CHAPTER 5. TERMINATION OF AUTHORITY TO CONTRACT

80260. On and after January 1, 2003, the department shall not contract under this division for the purchase of electrical power. This section does not affect the authority of the department to administer contracts entered into prior to that date or the department's authority to sell electricity.

CHAPTER 6. AUDIT

80270. The Bureau of State Audits shall conduct a financial and performance audit of the department's implementation of this division. The audit shall be completed before December 31, 2001. The bureau shall issue a final report on or before March 31, 2003.

SEC. 5. The following sums are hereby transferred or appropriated from the General Fund, as follows:

(a) Four hundred ninety-five million seven hundred fifty-five thousand dollars ($495,755,000) is hereby transferred to the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, established by Section 80200 of the Water Code, for the purposes of Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code. The four hundred ninety-five million seven hundred fifty-five thousand dollars ($495,755,000) shall be repaid from the fund to the General Fund at the earliest possible time.

(b) Four million two hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($4,245,000) is appropriated to the department for the 2000–01 fiscal year for the administrative costs incurred by the department for the purposes of Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code.

SEC. 6. The Department of Finance may authorize the creation of deficiencies for the appropriation made by Section 5 of the act adding this section. No deficiency may be approved under this section any sooner than 10 days after written notification of the proposed deficiency is given to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairperson of the committee in each house that considers appropriations.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to address the rapid, unforeseen shortage of electric power and energy available in the state and rapid and substantial increases in wholesale energy costs and retail energy rates, that endanger the health, welfare, and safety of the people of this state, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 5

An act to amend Section 332.1 of, and to add Section 332.2 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to electric power, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 6, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State April 9, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 332.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

332.1. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to enact Item 1 (revised) on the commission's August 21, 2000 agenda, entitled "Opinion Modifying Decision (D.) D.00-06-034 and D.00-08-021 to Regarding Interim Rate Caps for San Diego Gas and Electric Company," as modified below.

(2) It is also the intent of the Legislature that to the extent that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission orders refunds to electrical corporations pursuant to their findings, the commission shall ensure that any refunds are returned to customers.

(b) The commission shall establish a ceiling of six and five-tenths cents ($0.065) per kilowatt hour on the energy component of electric bills for electricity supplied to residential, small commercial, and street lighting customers by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, through December 31, 2002, retroactive to June 1, 2000. If the commission finds it in the public interest, this ceiling may be extended through December 2003 and may be adjusted as provided in subdivision (d).

(c) The commission shall establish an accounting procedure to track and recover reasonable and prudent costs of providing electric energy to retail customers unrecovered through retail bills due to the application of the ceiling provided for in subdivision (b). The accounting procedure shall utilize revenues associated with sales of energy from utility-owned or managed generation assets to offset an undercollection, if undercollection occurs. The accounting procedure shall be reviewed periodically by the commission, but not less frequently than semiannually. The commission may utilize an existing proceeding to perform the review. The accounting procedure and review shall provide a reasonable opportunity for San Diego Gas and Electric Company to recover its reasonable and prudent costs of service over a reasonable period of time.

(d) If the commission determines that it is in the public interest to do so, the commission, after the date of the completion of the proceeding described in subdivision (g), may adjust the ceiling from the level specified in subdivision (b), and may adjust the frozen rate from the levels specified in subdivision (f), consistent with the Legislature's intent to provide substantial protections for customers of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company and their interest in just and reasonable rates and adequate service.

(e) For purposes of this section, "small commercial customer" includes, but is not limited to, all San Diego Gas and Electric Company accounts on Rate Schedule A of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, all accounts of customers who are "general acute care hospitals," as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, all San Diego Gas and Electric Company accounts of customers who are public or private schools for pupils in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, and all accounts on Rate Schedule AL-TOU under 100 kilowatts.

(f) The commission shall establish an initial frozen rate of six and five-tenths cents ($0.065) per kilowatt-hour on the energy component of electric bills for electricity supplied to all customers by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company not subject to subdivision (b), for the time period ending with the end of the rate freeze for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Southern California Edison Company pursuant to Section 368, retroactive to February 7, 2001. The commission shall consider the comparable energy components of rates for comparable customer classes served by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Southern California Edison Company and, if it determines it to be in the public interest, the commission may adjust this frozen rate, and may do so, retroactive to the date that rate increases took effect for customers of Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Southern California Edison Company pursuant to the commission's March 27, 2001, decision. The commission shall adjust the California Procurement Adjustment and the Fixed Department of Water Resources Set-Aside determined pursuant to Section 360.5 for customers subject to this section to reflect a retail rate consistent with the rate for the energy component of electric bills as determined in this subdivision, in place of the retail rate in effect on January 5, 2001. This section shall be construed to modify the payment provisions, but may not be construed to modify the electric procurement obligations of the Department of Water Resources, pursuant to any contract or agreement in accordance with Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code, and in effect as of February 7, 2001, between the Department of Water Resources and San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

(g) The commission shall institute a proceeding to examine the prudence and reasonableness of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company in the procurement of wholesale energy on behalf of its customers, for a period beginning at the latest on June 1, 2000. If the commission finds that San Diego Gas and Electric Company acted imprudently or unreasonably, the commission shall issue orders that it determines to be appropriate affecting the retail rates of San Diego Gas and Electric Company customers including, but not limited to, refunds.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the Department of Water Resources pursuant to Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code, including without limitation, the authority to fix and establish the procedure and charges for the sale or other disposal of power purchased by the department and sold to retail end-use customers and the authority to recover its revenue requirements.

SEC. 2. Section 332.2 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

332.2. Rates set by the commission that are subject to subdivision (f) of Section 332.1 shall not result in any retroactive recovery of undercollections by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company. Any undercollection resulting from the retroactive rate reductions ordered pursuant to this chapter, retroactive to February 7, 2001, shall not result in a revenue undercollection to San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to safeguard economic viability of the communities in the San Diego region, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 6

An act to amend Section 332.1 of, and to add Section 332.2 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to electric power, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State April 12, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 332.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

332.1. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to enact Item 1 (revised) on the commission's August 21, 2000 agenda, entitled "Opinion Modifying Decision (D.) D.00-06-034 and D.00-08-021 to Regarding Interim Rate Caps for San Diego Gas and Electric Company," as modified below.

(2) It is also the intent of the Legislature that to the extent that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission orders refunds to electrical corporations pursuant to their findings, the commission shall ensure that any refunds are returned to customers.

(b) The commission shall establish a ceiling of six and five-tenths cents ($0.065) per kilowatt-hour on the energy component of electric bills for electricity supplied to residential, small commercial, and street lighting customers by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, through December 31, 2002, retroactive to June 1, 2000. If the commission finds it in the public interest, this ceiling may be extended through December 2003 and may be adjusted as provided in subdivision (d).

(c) The commission shall establish an accounting procedure to track and recover reasonable and prudent costs of providing electric energy to retail customers unrecovered through retail bills due to the application of the ceiling provided for in subdivision (b). The accounting procedure shall utilize revenues associated with sales of energy from utility-owned or managed generation assets to offset an undercollection, if undercollection occurs. The accounting procedure shall be reviewed periodically by the commission, but not less frequently than semiannually. The commission may utilize an existing proceeding to perform the review. The accounting procedure and review shall provide a reasonable opportunity for San Diego Gas and Electric Company to recover its reasonable and prudent costs of service over a reasonable period of time.

(d) If the commission determines that it is in the public interest to do so, the commission, after the date of the completion of the proceeding described in subdivision (g), may adjust the ceiling from the level specified in subdivision (b), and may adjust the frozen rate from the levels specified in subdivision (f), consistent with the Legislature's intent to provide substantial protections for customers of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company and their interest in just and reasonable rates and adequate service.

(e) For purposes of this section, "small commercial customer" includes, but is not limited to, all San Diego Gas and Electric Company accounts on Rate Schedule A of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, all accounts of customers who are "general acute care hospitals," as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, all San Diego Gas and Electric Company accounts of customers who are public or private schools for pupils in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, and all accounts on Rate Schedule AL-TOU under 100 kilowatts.

(f) The commission shall establish an initial frozen rate of six and five-tenths cents ($.065) per kilowatthour on the energy component of electric bills for electricity supplied to all customers by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company not subject to subdivision (b), for the time period ending with the end of the rate freeze for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Southern California Edison Company pursuant to Section 368, retroactive to February 7, 2001. The commission shall consider the comparable energy components of rates for comparable customer classes served by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Southern California Edison Company and, if it determines it to be in the public interest, the commission may adjust this frozen rate, and may do so, retroactive to the date that rate increases took effect for customers of Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Southern California Edison Company pursuant to the commission's March 27, 2001, decision. The commission shall determine the Fixed Department of Water Resources Set-Aside pursuant to Section 360.5 for customers subject to this section, reflecting a retail rate consistent with the rate for the energy component of electric bills as determined in this subdivision, in place of the retail rate in effect on January 5, 2001. This section shall be construed to modify the payment provisions, but may not be construed to modify the electric procurement obligations of the Department of Water Resources, pursuant to any contract or agreement in accordance with Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code, and in effect as of February 7, 2001, between the Department of Water Resources and San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

(g) The commission shall institute a proceeding to examine the prudence and reasonableness of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company in the procurement of wholesale energy on behalf of its customers, for a period beginning at the latest on June 1, 2000. If the commission finds that San Diego Gas and Electric Company acted imprudently or unreasonably, the commission shall issue orders that it determines to be appropriate affecting the retail rates of San Diego Gas and Electric Company customers including, but not limited to, refunds.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the Department of Water Resources pursuant to Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code.

SEC. 2. Section 332.2 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

332.2. Rates set by the commission that are subject to subdivision (f) of Section 332.1 shall not result in any retroactive recovery of undercollections by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company. Any undercollection resulting from the retroactive rate reductions ordered pursuant to this chapter, retroactive to February 7, 2001, shall not result in a revenue undercollection to San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to safeguard economic viability of the communities in the San Diego region, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 7

An act to amend Section 15814.20 of, and to add and repeal Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4240) of Division 5 of Title 1 of, the Government Code, to amend Section 25402.5 of the Public Resources Code, and to add Sections 740.7, 740.9, 740.10, and 740.11 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State April 12, 2001.]

I have signed Senate Bill 5X with the following line item vetoes and reductions to more closely align the bill with my expenditure plan and to prioritize conservation measures for this summer.

I am eliminating the following appropriation:

$10 million to the California Energy Commission (CEC) for incentives for installation of light-emitting diode (LED) traffic signals.

In addition, I am reducing the following allocations:

From the funds appropriated to the Public Utilities Commission, reduce the allocation from $16.3 million to $12 million for pump and motor retrofits for oil and gas producers and pipelines.

From the funds appropriated to the CEC, reduce the allocation from $60 million to $40 million for allocation to locally owned public utilities for energy efficiency, peak demand reduction and low-income assistance measures. However, I am directing the Department of Community Services and Development to offset this reduction by proportionally increasing the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) funds appropriated by this bill to community based organizations in areas served by locally owned public utilities.

From the funds appropriated to the CEC, reduce the allocation from $35 million to $30 million for programs for the low-energy usage building materials program.

From the funds appropriated to the CEC, reduce the allocation from $75 million to $70 million for the purchase of high-efficiency electrical agricultural equipment.

From the funds appropriated to the Department of General Services, reduce the allocation from $50 million to $40 million for energy efficiency projects in state buildings, including community colleges.

Regretfully, a previous version of this bill contained a $15.4 million appropriation to the Department of Water Resources to implement recommendations from my Advisory Drought Planning Panel. These funds would have provided incentives to better manage surface and groundwater resources to create greater energy and water efficiencies. I encourage the Legislature to appropriate funds for this important purpose.

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) California is currently experiencing an energy crisis which threatens to adversely affect the economic and environmental well-being of the state.

(b) One of the most cost-effective, efficient, and environmentally beneficial methods of meeting the state's energy needs is to encourage the efficient use of energy.

(c) The purpose of this act is to ensure the immediate implementation of energy efficiency programs in order to reduce consumption of energy and to assist in reducing the costs associated with energy demand.

(d) To the maximum extent feasible, the expenditure of funds appropriated pursuant to this act shall be prioritized based upon immediate benefits in peak energy demand reduction and more efficient use of energy.

SEC. 2. Section 15814.20 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.20. The board shall not enter into leases and energy service contracts authorized under this chapter sooner than 15 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor has been submitted to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairpersons of the fiscal committees of each house, or sooner than whatever lesser time the chairperson of the joint committee, or his or her designee, may in each instance determine. At the request of the chairperson of the joint committee, the joint committee may hold a hearing within 15 days of receipt of the notification. If a hearing is held, the affected agencies shall be provided all information available to the joint committee at least 10 days in advance of the hearing. In the event that a hearing is conducted, the joint committee may recommend to the board approval, modification, or rejection of leases or energy service contracts.

SEC. 3. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4240) is added to Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. STATE ENERGY PROJECTS

4240. It is the intent of the Legislature to permit state agencies to implement energy conservation and efficiency measures on public property in accordance with this chapter in the most expedient manner possible.

4241. As used in this chapter, and as used in Section 3 of the act adding this chapter, "state energy project" means equipment, load management techniques, and other measures or services that reduce energy consumption and provide for more efficient use of energy in state buildings or facilities, or buildings or facilities owned or operated by community colleges.

4242. State energy projects may be implemented under this chapter with the approval of the Director of General Services and the Director of Finance.

4243. Prior to awarding or entering into a contract, agreement, or lease, the state agency shall request proposals from qualified persons. After evaluating the proposals, the state agency shall award contracts based on qualifications, including the consideration of such factors as the experience of the contractor, the type of technology to be employed by the contractor on the energy project, the cost to the agency, and any other relevant considerations. State agencies may also award contracts to persons selected from the pool of qualified energy service companies established pursuant to Section 388 of the Public Utilities Code, when it is determined they are qualified to perform the work on a particular project. For purposes of this chapter, energy projects shall be exempt from Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525).

4244. Notwithstanding Section 4243, the Director of General Services may exempt a state energy project from the advertising and competitive bidding requirements of this code and the Public Contract Code, if the director deems the exemption necessary to implement the purpose of this chapter, to reduce peak electricity demand, and to improve energy efficiency.

4245. At the discretion of the Department of Finance, state energy projects may be exempted from the capital outlay process, including, but not limited to, Section 13332.11.

4246. The Department of General Services may adopt regulations for purposes of this chapter as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2. For purposes of Chapter 3.5, including, but not limited to, Section 11349.6, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health, safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding the 120-day limit specified in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall be repealed 180 days after their effective date, unless the department complies with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1.

4246.5. On or before October 1, 2001, and quarterly thereafter, the Department of Finance shall provide to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee a report of all state energy projects implemented pursuant to the exemptions provided either in Section 4244 or 4245 of this chapter.

4247. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 25402.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25402.5. (a) As used in this section, "lighting device" includes, but is not limited to, a lamp, luminaire, light fixture, lighting control, ballast, or any component of those devices.

(b) (1) The commission shall consider both new and replacement, and both interior and exterior, lighting devices as lighting which is subject to subdivision (a) of Section 25402.

(2) The commission shall include both indoor and outdoor lighting devices as appliances to be considered in prescribing standards pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 25402.

(3) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that paragraphs (1) and (2) are declarative of existing law.

(c) The commission shall adopt efficiency standards for outdoor lighting. The standards shall be technologically feasible and cost-effective. As used in this subdivision, "outdoor lighting" refers to all electrical lighting that is not subject to standards adopted pursuant to Section 25402, and includes, but is not limited to, street lights, traffic lights, parking lot lighting, and billboard lighting. The commission shall consult with the Department of Transportation (CALTRANS) to ensure that outdoor lighting standards that affect CALTRANS are compatible with that department's policies and standards for safety and illumination levels on state highways.

SEC. 5. In order to achieve a total reduction in peak electricity demand of not less than 2,585 megawatts, the sum of seven hundred eight million nine hundred thousand dollars ($708,900,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for allocation according to the following schedule:

(a) In order to achieve a reduction in peak electricity demand and meet urgent needs of low-income households, two hundred forty six million three hundred thousand dollars ($246,300,000) for allocation by the Public Utilities Commission for the customers of electric and gas corporations subject to commission jurisdiction, to be expended in the following amounts:

(1) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) to encourage the purchase of energy efficient equipment, and retirement of inefficient appliances and improvements in the efficiency of high-efficiency heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning (HVAC) equipment insulation or other efficiency measures. Any funds expended pursuant to this paragraph for the purchase of refrigerators, air-conditioning equipment, and other similar residential appliances shall be expended pursuant to the following criteria:

(A) Priority for the expenditure of funds shall be given for the purchase or retirement of those appliances in low- and moderate-income households, and for the replacement of the oldest and least efficient appliances.

(B) Any retirement of residential equipment and appliances undertaken pursuant to this paragraph shall be undertaken in a manner that protects public health and the environment. Nothing in this paragraph affects the requirements of Article 10.1 (commencing with Section 25211) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 42160) of Part 3 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code.

(2) One hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) to provide immediate assistance to electric or gas utility customers enrolled in, or eligible to be enrolled in, the California Alternative Rates for Energy (CARE) Program established pursuant to Section 739.1 of the Public Utilities Code. Funds appropriated pursuant to this paragraph shall be expended to increase and supplement CARE discounts and to increase enrollment in the CARE program. These funds shall be available to assist those customers enrolled or eligible for CARE who are on payment arrangements or have current or pending overdue notices due to increases in energy rates. Not more than 10 percent of the funds appropriated in this subdivision shall be allocated for mass marketing to increase enrollment. The funding provided in this subdivision is intended to supplement, but not replace, surcharge-generated revenues utilized to fund the CARE program.

(3) Twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) to augment funding for low-income weatherization services provided pursuant to Section 2790 of the Public Utilities Code, and to fund other energy efficient measures to assist low-income energy users.

(4) Sixteen million three hundred thousand dollars ($16,300,000) for high-efficiency and ultra-low-polluting pump and motor retrofits for oil or gas, or both, producers and pipelines. For the purposes of this paragraph, “ultra low polluting” means retrofit equipment which exceeds the requirements for best available control technology within the air district in which the pump or motor is located.

(5) Sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) to provide incentives to encourage replacement of low-efficiency lighting with high-efficiency lighting systems.

(b) In order to achieve a reduction in peak electricity demand, two hundred eighty-two million six hundred thousand dollars ($282,600,000) to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (hereafter the Energy Commission), to be expended in the following amounts for the following purposes:

(1) Sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) for allocation by the Energy Commission to locally owned public utilities for energy efficiency, peak demand reduction, and low income assistance measures in the service areas of the locally owned public utilities analogous to those measures and programs funded in the service areas of the electric and gas corporations subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to subdivision (a).

To the extent that any of the funds allocated to the locally owned public utilities are used to encourage the purchase of energy efficiency equipment and retirement of inefficient appliances and improvements in the efficiency of high-efficiency heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning (HVAC) equipment insulation, and other efficiency measures, funds expended pursuant to this paragraph for the purchase of refrigerators, air-conditioning equipment, and other similar residential appliances shall be expended pursuant to the following criteria:

(i) Priority for expenditure of funds shall be given for the purchase of those appliances in low- and moderate-income households, and for the replacement of the oldest and least efficient appliances.

(ii) Any retirement of residential equipment and appliances undertaken pursuant to this paragraph shall be undertaken in a manner that protects public health and the environment. Nothing in this paragraph affects the requirements of Article 10.1 (commencing with Section 25211) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 42160) of Part 3 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code.

(2) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) to implement programs to improve demand-responsiveness in heating, ventilation, air-conditioning, lighting, advanced metering of energy usage, and other systems in buildings. Of the amount appropriated pursuant to this paragraph, ten million dollars ($10,000,000) shall be used to encourage the purchase and installation of advanced metering and telemetry equipment for agricultural and water pumping customers in order to improve load management and demand responsiveness techniques particularly applicable to this sector.

(3) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) to implement a low-energy usage building materials program, and other measures to lower air-conditioning usage in schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, and other nonresidential buildings. These funds shall not be available for community college facilities if Assembly Bill No. 29 of the First Extraordinary Session is enacted, becomes effective, and provides funding for energy efficiency measures to the community college from the Proposition 98 Reversion Account.

(4) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) to implement a program to encourage third parties to implement innovative peak demand reduction measures.

(A) Of the amount appropriated pursuant to this paragraph, ten million dollars ($10,000,000) shall be used for the California Agricultural Pump Energy Program to facilitate the efficiency testing of existing agricultural water pumps and to provide incentives for the retrofitting of pumps to increase efficiency as necessary. Up to one million dollars ($1,000,000) of those funds shall be used for grants to local public agencies to enhance and expedite the testing of agricultural water pumps.

(B) Of the amount appropriated pursuant to this paragraph, not more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) shall be expended by the commission to fund one-time startup costs for innovative voluntary programs to reduce air emissions through energy conservation and related actions pursuant to programs authorized by law in effect on the effective date of this act.

(5) Seventy-five million dollars ($75,000,000) to implement programs to reduce peak load electricity usage, encourage bio-gas digestion power production technologies, enhance conservation and encourage the use of alternative fuels, including, but not limited to instate natural gas resources for the agricultural and water pumping sector. These funds shall be allocated by the Energy Commission, in the form of rebates or grants, in the following amounts for the following purposes:

(A) Forty-five million dollars ($45,000,000) to encourage the purchase of high efficiency electrical agricultural equipment, installed, on or after January 1, 2001, and incentives for overall electricity conservation efforts. Eligible equipment shall include, but not be limited to, lighting, refrigeration, or cold storage equipment. Any agricultural energy conservation incentive program shall recognize the increased demand due to currently reduced water supply conditions.

(B) Fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) to offset the costs of retrofitting existing natural gas powered equipment to burn alternative fuels, including, but not limited to, instate produced "non-spec" or "off-spec" natural gas.

(C) Fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) in grants to be used for pilot projects designed to encourage the development of bio-gas digestion power production technologies.

(i) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) of these funds shall be used to provide grants for the purpose of encouraging the development of manure methane power production projects on California dairies.

(ii) Five million dollars ($5,000,000) of these funds shall be used to provide grants to reduce peak usage in southern California by revision of system operations to produce replacement energy as a byproduct of the anaerobic digestion of bio-solids and animal wastes.

(6) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to provide incentives for installation of light-emitting diode (LED) traffic signals.

(7) Seven million dollars ($7,000,000) to implement a program to teach school children about energy efficiency in the home and at school.

(8) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) for incentives for the retrofit of existing distributed generation owned and operated by municipal water districts to replace diesel and natural gas generation with cleaner technology that reduces oxides of nitrogen emissions. Funds expended pursuant to this paragraph shall be expended exclusively for retrofit equipment that meets or exceeds the requirements for best available control technology within the air district in which the distributed generation owned and operated by a municipal water district is located, or with standards adopted by the state Air Resources Board pursuant to Section 41514.9 of the Health and Safety Code upon the effective date of those standards. Technologies eligible pursuant to this paragraph include natural gas reciprocating engines, microturbines, fuel cells, and wind and solar energy renewable technologies.

(9) Six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) for four personnel-years to improve the ability of the Energy Commission to provide timely and accurate assessments of electricity and natural gas markets.

(c) Except for funds expended to implement programs established pursuant to Section 25555 of the Public Resources Code, for which the Public Utilities Commission or the Energy Commission has adopted and published guidelines pursuant to that section, funds appropriated pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be expended pursuant to guidelines adopted by each commission. The guidelines shall be exempt from the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of the Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and shall do all of the following:

(1) Establish cost-effectiveness criteria for programs funded. Within 10 days from the date of the adoption of criteria pursuant to this paragraph, each commission shall provide a copy of the criteria to the chairperson of the Legislative Budget Committee, to the chairpersons of the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature, and to the Governor.

(2) Limit administrative costs to not more than 2¹/₂ percent of the amount of the funds expended. For the purposes of this paragraph, "administrative costs" means commission personnel and overhead costs associated with the implementation of each measure or program. However, "administrative costs" does not include costs associated with marketing or evaluation of a measure of a program, including any two-year limited positions, as approved by the Department of Finance, necessary to implement the programs.

(3) Allow reasonable flexibility to shift funds among program categories in order to achieve the maximum feasible amount of energy conservation, peak load reduction, and energy efficiency by the earliest feasible date.

(4) Establish matching fund criteria that, except for funds appropriated pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a), ensure that entities eligible to receive funds appropriated pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) pay an appropriate share of the cost of acquiring or installing measures to achieve the maximum feasible amount of energy conservation, peak load reduction, and energy efficiency by the earliest feasible date.

(5) Establish mechanisms and criteria that ensure that funds expended pursuant to this section through electric and gas corporations are not seized by the creditors of those corporations in the event of a bankruptcy. In implementing this paragraph, the commissions shall adopt mechanisms such as the segregation of funds by the electric or gas corporation, the holding of those funds in trust until they are expended, and the reversion of funds to the General Fund in the event of bankruptcy.

(6) Establish tracking and auditing procedures to ensure that funds are expended in a manner consistent with this act.

(d) Within six months of the effective date of this section, each commission shall contract for an independent audit of the expenditures made pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) for the purpose of determining whether the funds achieved demonstrable energy peak demand reduction while limiting administrative costs associated with expenditures made pursuant to those subdivisions. Within one year of the effective date of this section, each commission shall submit the audit prepared pursuant to this paragraph to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, to the chairpersons of the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature, and to the Governor.

(e) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to the Department of Consumer Affairs to implement a public awareness program to reduce peak electricity usage. Any public awareness program to reduce peak electricity usage conducted by the Department of Consumer Affairs after November 30, 2001, shall be conducted pursuant to a contract in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 10335) of Chapter 2 of the Public Contract Code. The department shall ensure that the program includes the use of nontraditional mass media, including, but not limited to, the use of community based organizations, mass media in different languages, and media targeted to low-income and ethnically diverse communities.

(f) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) to the Department of General Services to be expended for the purposes of implementing Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4240) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code. The department shall limit its administrative costs to not more than 2¹/₂ percent of the funds expended. For the purposes of this paragraph, "administrative costs" means personnel and overhead costs associated with implementation of each measure or program. However, "administrative costs" does not include costs associated with marketing or evaluation of a measure or program.

(g) One hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000) to the Department of Community Services and Development for the purpose of supplementing the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). The department may also use these funds for the purposes of increasing participation in the LIHEAP program. The department shall use funds appropriated pursuant to this paragraph in the following manner:

(1) The department shall implement a California Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). Services provided by California's LIHEAP shall be designed to do both of the following:

(A) Increase energy conservation and reduce demand for energy services in low-income households.

(B) Assure that the most vulnerable households cope with high energy costs.

(2) The program shall include weatherization and conservation services, energy crisis intervention services, and cash assistance payments.

(3) (A) Eligibility for California LIHEAP shall include households with incomes that do not exceed the greater of either of the following:

(i) An amount equal to 60 percent of the state median income.

(ii) An amount equal to 80 percent of the county median income.

(B) In no area shall eligibility be provided to households whose income is greater than 250 percent of the federal poverty level for this state.

(4) The department shall examine the penetration of other energy programs, including, but not limited to, those provided through federal LIHEAP, utility companies, and other parties, to identify the adequacy of services to elderly persons, disabled persons, limited-English-speaking persons, migrant and seasonal farmworkers and households with very young children. California LIHEAP funds shall be distributed so as to ensure that vulnerable populations have comparable access to energy programs.

(5) The department shall ensure that services under California LIHEAP are delivered using all of the following requirements:

(A) The department shall establish reasonable limits for expenditures, including up to 15 percent for outreach and training for consumers.

(B) Grantee agencies shall do special outreach to vulnerable households, including outreach to senior centers, independent living centers, welfare departments, regional centers, and migrant and seasonal farmworkers.

(C) Grantee agencies shall be required to coordinate with other low-income energy programs, and to demonstrate plans for using all energy resources efficiently for maximum outreach to low-income households.

(D) Grantee agencies shall spend the maximum feasible amount of California LIHEAP funds for weatherization assistance, but in no event less than 50 percent of the funds available by grantee. The balance shall be used for cash assistance and energy crisis intervention. The department shall provide grantees with maximum flexibility to use energy crisis and cash assistance funds to resolve energy crisis for households and to serve the maximum number of households. Cash assistance payments may be used as a supplement to federal LIHEAP cash assistance payments.

(6) The department shall do the following in addition to administering the program:

(A) Explore, with grantee agencies, standards for determining effective, efficient intake, and procedures to combine outreach for federal, state, and utility low-income energy programs into a single intake process.

(B) Report to the policy and budget committees of the Legislature on the extent to which increased flexibility in weatherization measures and flexibility in cash assistance and crisis intervention payments have increased service and reduced energy demand. If barriers to flexibility exist, the report should identify those barriers.

(C) Report to the policy and budget committees of the Legislature on the number of recipients of service, the number of grantees providing service, categories of expenditure, estimated impact of funds on energy demand, estimated unmet need, and plans for automated reporting of this information routinely.

(7) For any funds distributed in 2001, the department shall distribute funds as follows:

(A) Funds shall be distributed to have maximum possible impact on reducing energy demand immediately.

(B) First priority shall be to distribute funds through community-based programs with whom it has existing contracts.

(C) If additional capacity is needed beyond the existing network, or if vulnerable populations cannot be served within the existing contracts, the department may develop an RFP process to solicit additional grantees.

(8) The department shall limit administrative costs to not more than 2¹/₂ percent of the funds expended. For the purposes of this paragraph, "administrative costs" means personnel and overhead costs associated with the implementation of each measure or program. However, "administrative costs" does not include costs associated with the marketing or evaluation of a measure or program.

(h) Each state agency receiving funds appropriated pursuant to this section shall ensure, where appropriate, not less than 85 percent of the funds shall be expended for direct rebates, purchases, direct installations, buy-downs, loans, or other incentives that will achieve reductions in peak electricity demand and improvements in energy efficiency.

(i) On or before January 1, 2002, each state agency receiving funds appropriated pursuant to this section shall provide quarterly reports to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, to the chairpersons of the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature, and to the Governor, which include all of the following information:

(1) The amount of funding expended.

(2) The measures, programs, or activities that were funded.

(3) A description of the effectiveness of the measures, programs, or activities funded in reducing peak electricity demand and improving energy efficiency, as measured in kilowatthours of electricity reduced per dollar expended.

(j) To the extent that local government entities may apply for, and receive funds pursuant to this section, and to the extent they otherwise qualify for the funds, federally recognized California Indian tribes may apply for funds appropriated pursuant to this section on behalf of their tribal members, and the applications shall be considered on their merits. Each commission shall ensure that its efforts to provide public information on programs funded pursuant to this section shall include outreach to California Indian tribes.

SEC. 6. Any contracts entered into pursuant to Section 5 of this act by a state agency are exempt from the following requirements of the Government Code and the Public Contracts Code:

(a) Services contracts are exempt from Article 4 (commencing with Section 10335) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(b) Consulting services contracts are exempt from Article 5 (commencing with Section 10359) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(c) Architectural and engineering contracts are exempt from Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and from Sections 6106 and 6106.5 of the Public Contract Code.

(d) All contracts are exempt from Section 10295 of the Public Contract Code, relating to approval from the Department of General Services.

(e) All contracts are exempt from Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14825) of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to advertising.

(f) Grants may be awarded for projects or programs that include a group of related projects, or to a party who aggregates projects that directly benefit from the grant. The grants do not constitute the rendering of goods or services or a direct benefit to the agency making the grant.

(g) Contracts may be awarded pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25555 of the Public Resources Code by choosing from among one or more parties, or soliciting multiple applications from parties capable of providing goods or services. For purposes of this section, Section 25555 of the Public Resources Code shall, notwithstanding, any provision of law to the contrary, apply during the period this section is effective, as set forth in Section 7 of the act adding this section. Contracts may be awarded to develop or administer or both, portions of the program, including agency delegation of the authority to implement the program.

(h) The Public Utilities Commission and the Energy Commission may each delegate approval of contracts and grants to the agency executive director or an agency committee up to a maximum amount that shall be established by the respective commission.

SEC. 7. Section 740.7 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

740.7. Interruptible service or curtailment programs adopted by the commission shall assure that the programs allow customers to aggregate multiple accounts to meet any minimum kilowatt requirements for participation in the program, subject to geographical, load, and other parameters, as determined by the commission.

SEC. 8. Section 740.9 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

740.9. (a) Any optional binding mandatory curtailment program adopted by the commission that exempts customers from Stage 3 rotating outages in exchange for partial load curtailments during every rotating outage period shall provide, for agricultural and water supplier customers, the use of backup generation to offset the curtailed load under the program, to the extent the use of backup generation is allowed under existing law, including, but not limited to, all relevant local air pollution control district and air quality management district rules and regulations.

(b) As used in this section, "agricultural customers" means any customer involved in the production of or processing of agricultural products. "Water suppliers" means those water agencies or suppliers as defined in Section 20200 of the Water Code and Section 241 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 9. Section 740.10 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

740.10. (a) Each public utility electrical corporation shall develop and offer its customers, on or before May 30, 2001, the opportunity to participate, in addition to other programs developed by the commission, in a demand reduction program as described in this section.

(b) The program required by this section shall identify specific periods coincident with morning or evening system peak conditions determined by the Independent System Operator within which the customer agrees to drop a preset amount of load. This program shall be known as the Scheduled Load Reduction Program. The commission shall develop appropriate incentives for customers to participate in the program.

SEC. 10. Section 740.11 is added to the Public Utilities Code to read:

740.11. In recognition of the fact that agricultural and water supplier customers necessarily have high electricity usage during peak summer demand periods, the Legislature strongly urges the commission to consider providing the option to all agricultural commodity processing customers to be included in the definition of customers eligible to be served under agricultural tariffs, consistent with its other constitutional and statutory objectives, and to the extent it does not result in cost shifting to other customer classes.

SEC. 11. Sections 5 and 6 of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2005, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2005, deletes or extends that date. Any funds appropriated under Section 5 of this act that are unencumbered by March 31, 2002, shall revert to the General Fund on that date, except that funds appropriated pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (g) of Section 5 are not subject to this reversion requirement.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the shortage of electric generation capacity to meet the needs of the people of this state and in order to limit further impacts of this shortage on the public health, safety, and welfare, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 8

An act to add and repeal Article 2 (commencing with Section 81610) and Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 81620) to Chapter 3 of Part 49 of the Education Code, to add Article 6 (commencing with Section 14710) to Chapter 2 of Part 5.5 and Article 4 (commencing with Section 15350) to Chapter 1 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 26003 and 26011.5 of, to add Section 26011.6 to, to add Chapter 5.3 (commencing with Section 25425) to Division 15 of, and to add and repeal Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14420) of Division 12 of, the Public Resources Code, to amend Section 739 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 2827 of, to add Sections 739.10, 2827.5, and 2827.7 to, and to add and repeal Section 739.11 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State April 12, 2001.]

I have signed Assembly Bill AB 29X with the following line item vetoes and reductions to more closely align the bill with my expenditure plan and to prioritize conservation measures for this summer.

I am eliminating the following:

$25,150,000 million re-appropriation from the Proposition 98 Reversion Account to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges for energy efficient projects and a statewide utility usage database. These funds are already budgeted for other purposes and are required by law to be used by community colleges for educational purposes.

$20 million to the Department of Community Services and Development to supplement the Low-Income Housing Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). $120 million has been provided for this program in SB 5X.

$50 million to the California Energy Commission (CEC) for loans and grants for construction and retrofit projects and $50 million to the CEC for the Small Business Energy Efficiency Refrigeration Loan Program. These new programs require the establishment of administrative procedures and will not deliver peak reduction savings for this summer.

$24 million to the Department of Corrections to install systems to retrofit generating units. These funds would not increase electricity supply or reduce demand.

$15 million to the Public Utilities Commission to fund a study of real-time meters. This bill appropriates funds for the purchase and installation of these meters.

In addition, I am reducing the following allocations:

From the funds allocated to the California Conservation Corps, reduce the allocation from $40 million to $20 million for the Mobile Efficiency Brigade. In order to achieve the most effective energy savings by this summer, I am directing the Conservation Corps to use these funds to purchase materials and mobilize crews to deliver high efficiency lighting to low-income residences.

While I am signing this bill, it is my understanding that the Legislature will enact subsequent legislation to remove the mandate created by the Statewide Energy Management Program. I am also requesting subsequent legislation to continuously appropriate the Renewable Energy Loan Guarantee Program. It is standard for loan guarantee programs to be continuously appropriated and not contingent upon the annual budget. As drafted, this bill removes the incentive for banks to participate in this worthy program.

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2 (commencing with Section 81610) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 49 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 2. Summer 2001 Energy Efficiency Projects By Community College Districts

81610. It is the intent of the Legislature to permit community college districts to implement energy conservation, efficiency, cogeneration, and alternate energy supply sources on public property in accordance with this chapter in the most expedient manner possible. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the California Community College system take all steps necessary to ensure that the energy efficiency projects contemplated by this chapter are in place by the summer of 2001.

81611. For the purposes of this article, “energy project” means equipment, load management techniques, or other measures or services that reduce energy consumption and provide for more efficient use of energy in buildings or facilities owned or operated by community college districts, and that can be completed and energy savings realized by the summer of 2001 in order to minimize the need for future state resources to pay for increased energy costs.

81612. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, prior to awarding, or entering into, any contract, agreement, or lease pursuant to this article, a community college district shall request proposals from qualified persons. After evaluating those proposals, the community college district shall award contracts to responsible persons or entities who submit responses to a request for proposal which are responsive to the requirements of the request for proposals. A community college may award a contract for an energy project under this article to any responsible person or entity timely submitting a responsive answer to the request for proposals based on qualifications, including the consideration of all of the following factors:

(1) Experience of the contractor, architect, engineer, or other consultant, as applicable.

(2) Type of technology to be employed by the contractor on the energy project.

(3) Cost to the district.

(4) Any other considerations deemed relevant by the district.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, community college districts may award contracts pursuant to a request for proposals issued under this article or award contracts to persons or entities selected from the pool of qualified energy service companies established pursuant to Section 388 of the Public Utilities Code, when it is determined they are qualified to perform the work on a particular project. A request for proposal does not have to be prepared if a community college district elects to award a contract for an energy project to only those persons or entities included in the pool of qualified energy service companies under Section 388 of the Public Utilities Code. If a community college district elects to seek proposals for an energy project pursuant to a request for proposals and from the pool of qualified energy service companies under Section 388 of the Public Utilities Code, the community college district shall prepare a request for proposals. Award of such a contract shall be based upon the factors described in subdivision (a).

81613. (a) Notwithstanding the repeal of this section by Section 81615, on or before January 1, 2002, each community college district receiving funds appropriated pursuant to this section shall provide a report to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges with the following information:

(1) The amount of funding expended.

(2) The measures, programs, or activities funded.

(3) A description of the effectiveness of the measures, programs, or activities funded in reducing peak electricity demand and improving energy efficiency, as measured in kilowatthours of electricity or British thermal unit hours reduced per dollar expended.

81614. Any contracts entered into pursuant to this chapter by a community college district are exempt from the following requirements:

(a) Architectural, engineering, construction management, and consulting contracts are exempt from Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(b) All contracts are exempt from Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 81660).

(c) All contracts are exempt from the publication requirements set forth in Section 81641.

(d) All contracts are exempt from Article 41 (commencing with Section 20650) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, except that if in the request for proposals for an energy project under this article, a community college district has established a requirement for bid security, a response to the request for proposal will be deemed responsive only if the response is submitted with the required bid security.

(e) If the value of a project awarded by a community college district to a contractor to implement an energy project under this article is in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), regardless of whether the requirement is noted in the request for proposals, the contractor awarded such a contract shall obtain and submit to such a community college district for approval of a Labor and Materials Payment Bond conforming to the requirements of Section 3248 of the Civil Code.

(f) If required by the terms of a request for proposals issued by a community college district under this article, the person or entity awarded such a contract shall obtain a performance bond conforming with the applicable requirements of the request for proposals.

81615. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 81620) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 49 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Statewide Energy Management Program

81620. This article shall be known, and may be cited, as the Statewide Energy Management Program.

81621. The definitions set forth in this section govern the construction of this article:

(a) "Commission" means the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(b) "Energy independence" means the utilization of existing and developing technologies to meet energy needs onsite, including, but not necessarily limited to, the utilization of solar, fuel cells, and other renewable and clean onsite energy sources, the optimization of the use of daylighting, the use of passive solar orientation, and the use of construction techniques that minimize energy loss, such as appropriate insulation and lighting fixtures.

(c) "Energy management plans" means the plans that community colleges develop with guidance from the Statewide Energy Management Program to implement energy efficiency projects such as sustainable green buildings, renovations, and wind or solar farms that will move the community colleges toward energy independence.

(d) "Program" means the Statewide Energy Management Program, established under this article, which is a state program modeled after the Federal Energy Management Program.

(e) "Renewable or other distributed energy systems" means alternative efficient sources of energy such as daylighting, photovoltaic panels (rooftops or solar farms), passive solar heating, fuel cells, and steam. Diesel-fueled electric generating systems are not included in this definition.

(f) "Sustainable green building" means a building that has been designed to reduce both direct and indirect environmental consequences associated with construction, occupancy, operation, maintenance, and eventual decommissioning, and whose design is evaluated for cost, quality of life, future flexibility, ease of maintenance, energy and resource efficiency, and overall environmental impact, with an emphasis on life-cycle cost analysis.

81622. (a) (1) In Executive Order D-16-00, issued August 2, 2000, Governor Davis directed state agencies to design and construct buildings that incorporate energy efficiency, resource conservation, and renewable technologies. In his State of the State Address delivered on January 8, 2001, Governor Davis expressed his support for the goal of moving the California Community Colleges toward energy independence.

(2) The Federal Energy Management Program, upon which the State Energy Management Program is modeled, has resulted in approximately four dollars ($4) in savings for every one dollar ($1) spent. The federal investment of two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000) in energy efficiency has resulted in savings of six billion three hundred million dollars ($6,300,000,000) on energy bills.

(b) In consultation with the commission, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall further develop and refine certain guidelines for a Statewide Energy Management Program that have been established under an ongoing joint effort of the commission and DeAnza College. This statewide effort shall allow community college districts to achieve energy independence through the development of energy management plans, the construction of sustainable green buildings, the use of renewable or other distributed energy systems, and the expansion of statewide energy education programs and services.

(c) By 2010, the program shall, at a minimum, facilitate the completion of 20 district energy management plans, 15 renewable or other distributed energy systems, and three sustainable green buildings on community college campuses statewide.

(d) In consultation with the commission, the board of governors shall accomplish all of the following:

(1) Review and comment on academic, occupational, and vocational education materials developed by the commission, the Electric Power Research Institute, public utilities, and the community colleges to improve energy education programs and services.

(2) Review and recommend actions regarding successful energy education programs and services that can be identified for replication, personnel exchanges, or implementation of successful practices.

(3) Review and recommend actions regarding program resources for use by the community colleges or state agencies in improving energy education programs and services.

(4) Review exemplary programs and facilities, and recommend activities for adoption, replication, or policy advice.

(5) Review, comment, and recommend actions regarding services that will effect energy conservation.

(6) Review and comment on funding requests received to improve or enhance energy education.

(7) Review and comment on occupational and vocational training programs and services to meet current employment standards in energy occupations.

81623. The board of governors shall encourage the construction of community college sustainable green buildings that implement energy efficiency, sustainable building concepts, and solar electric, fuel cell, and other technologies. On the effective date of this article, the board of governors shall immediately seek a prototype sustainable green community college instructional building that can be a model for all new construction and retrofit projects statewide.

81624. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall establish an advisory committee for the Statewide Energy Management Program, and determine the membership of that committee. The advisory committee, with technical assistance from the commission, shall make recommendations to the chancellor regarding overall program development, resource development and deployment, and strategies for implementation and coordination of the program. A leadership role on this committee shall initially be provided by the staff of the commission and DeAnza College who have been involved since 1992 in a joint effort to promote training, energy efficiency, and energy independence in the California Community Colleges. This leadership role shall rotate to other community colleges as they complete their own district energy management plans.

SEC. 2.5. Article 6 (commencing with Section 14710) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

(d) "Public building" means a public building, as defined in Section 15802.

(e) “State agency” means any state agency, board, department or commission, including, but not limited to, the entities specified in subdivision (a) of Section 15814.12.

14711.5. (a) The department in consultation with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, shall identify each public building in the department’s state property inventory where it is feasible for that building to reduce energy consumption and achieve energy efficiencies, as well as to produce its own onsite electrical generation or reduce its level of peak demand electricity consumption using alternative energy equipment, thermal energy storage technologies, or cogeneration equipment.

(b) The department may consider a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the size of the public building, its location, the ease of conversion to onsite electrical generation, peak demand reduction efficiency, cost effectiveness, and the amount of megawatts generated or shifted to off-peak periods.

14712. The director may enter into third party agreements that the director, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, determines are appropriate and cost-effective to implement energy efficiencies and feasible onsite electric generation pursuant to Section 14711.5 and to achieve the goals of this section. The director may enter into negotiated agreements with parties on the terms and conditions that the director, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, deems are in the state’s interests to accomplish all of the following objectives:

(a) Reduce overall energy consumption in state facilities by 30 percent.

(b) Achieve energy self-sufficiency at state facilities using clean, modern technologies that produce zero air emissions or that meet or exceed state air quality standards.

(c) Maximize the use of renewable energy technologies for both onsite electrical generation as well as thermal energy production.

(d) Utilize private third party financing, where feasible, for the construction, operation, and maintenance of such energy investments.

(e) Achieve these objectives at delivered energy costs equal to or less than the cost of obtaining the energy through the electric grid or other conventional means, as determined by the director.

14713. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 15814.12, the department shall retrofit all public buildings, identified in Section 14711.5, where feasible, provided that work on public buildings of the California State University shall be performed only at the request or with the consent of the university.

(b) If a public building generates more electricity than it uses, it may make the energy available for the state electrical distribution grid.

14714. On or before two years after the effective date of the act adding this section, and every two years thereafter, the Department of General Services shall prepare and submit to the Legislature and the Governor, a report of the energy savings, if any, in terms of megawatts per year, for each public building retrofitted pursuant to this article.

(a) California is in the midst of a dramatic energy crisis that calls for both an increase in supply and a significant long-term reduction in demand.

(b) Conservation programs require a large mobilization effort across the state, within a short timeframe, in order to affect peak demand anticipated for the summer of 2001 and the subsequent winter.

(c) California's low-income households and small businesses require upgrading, modification, and conservation investment in order to assist them in contributing to a reduction in demand that is required statewide.

(d) Current state programs can work in conjunction with community-based organizations to significantly penetrate communities and rapidly implement programs aimed at conservation and demand reduction.

(e) The state currently has programs operated and administered by the Department of Community Services and Development and the California Conservation Corps, working in conjunction with and through community-based organizations, that can be expanded to assist in the statewide conservation effort initiated through pending programs.

(f) To the maximum extent feasible, the expenditure of funds appropriated pursuant to this chapter should be prioritized based upon immediate benefits in peak energy demand reduction and more efficient use of energy.

(f) "Small business," in the context of the implementation of a specific program, shall be defined as each program specifies. Outside of a specific program, it means a licensed business that employs not more than 100 persons.

14423. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the California Conservation Corps and the Department of Community Services and Development, in consultation with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall expand their current weatherization, energy-efficiency, and rehabilitation programs and assist in the implementation of pending programs as defined in Section 14422, in accordance with the following objectives:

(a) Determine the specifics of program expansion and focus on energy efficiency measures including, but not limited to, energy audits, weatherization including the insulation of doors, windows, walls and ceilings, light bulb replacement with subcompact fluorescent lights, installation of water-saving devices and heater exchanges, minor repairs and retrofits, appliance removal and replacement, and tree planting.

(b) Identify neighborhoods and areas with dense populations that can be easily served in large numbers.

(c) Establish qualifications and priorities consistent with the objectives of this chapter for making grants and working with community-based organizations.

(d) Establish guidelines for broad geographic distribution across the state, taking into consideration the factors of population density, community need, and seasonal climate conditions.

(e) Establish procedures and policies as may be necessary for the administration of this chapter.

(b) The program shall offer loans at 3 percent interest on terms that will ensure the small business owner will repay the loan over time in accordance with terms established by the Energy Commission, but in no event may the term exceed the useful life of the purchase.

(c) The commission may enter into agreements with lending institutions and qualifying vendors to facilitate making and administering loans. Any loan made by the commission for the purchase of equipment shall be secured against the equipment purchased.

SEC. 6. Section 26003 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

26003. As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Authority” means the California Alternative Energy and Advanced Transportation Financing Authority established pursuant to Section 26004, and any board, commission, department, or officer succeeding to the functions of the authority, or to which the powers conferred upon the authority by this division shall be given.

(b) “Cost” as applied to a project or portion thereof financed under this division means all or any part of the cost of construction and acquisition of all lands, structures, real or personal property or an interest therein, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements, and interests acquired or used for a project; the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which those buildings or structures may be moved; the cost of all machinery, equipment, and furnishings, financing charges, interest prior to, during, and for a period after, completion of construction as determined by the authority; provisions for working capital; reserves for principal and interest and for extensions, enlargements, additions, replacements, renovations, and improvements; the cost of architectural, engineering, financial, accounting, auditing and legal services, plans, specifications, estimates, administrative expenses, and other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility of constructing any project or incident to the construction, acquisition, or financing of any project.

(j) “Revenue” means all rents, receipts, purchase payments, loan repayments, and all other income or receipts derived by the authority from the sale, lease, or other disposition of alternative source or advanced transportation technology facilities, or the making of loans to finance alternative source or advanced transportation technology facilities, and any income or revenue derived from the investment of any money in any fund or account of the authority.

SEC. 7. Section 26011.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

26011.5. The authority, in consultation with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall establish criteria for the selection of projects to receive financing assistance from the authority. In the selection of projects, the authority shall, in accordance with the legislative intent, provide financial assistance under this division in a manner consistent with sound financial practice. In developing project selection criteria, the authority shall consider, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (a) The technological feasibility of the projects.
- (b) The economic soundness of the projects and a realistic expectation that all financial obligations can and will be met by the participating parties.
- (c) The contribution that the projects can make to a reduction or more efficient use of fossil fuels.
- (d) The contribution that the project can make toward diversifying California’s energy resources by fostering renewable energy systems that can substitute, or preferably eliminate, the demand for conventional energy fuels.
- (e) Any other such factors that the authority finds significant in achieving the purposes and objectives of this division.

SEC. 8. Section 26011.6 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

26011.6. (a) The authority shall establish a renewable energy program to provide financial assistance to public power entities, independent generators, utilities, or businesses manufacturing components or systems, or both, to generate new and renewable energy sources, develop clean and efficient distributed generation, and demonstrate the economic feasibility of new technologies, such as solar, photovoltaic, wind, and ultralow emission equipment. The authority shall give preference to utility-scale projects that can be rapidly deployed to provide a significant contribution as a renewable energy supply.

(b) The authority shall make every effort to expedite the operation of renewable energy systems, and shall adopt regulations for purposes of this section and Sections 26011.5 and 26011.7 as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. For purposes of that Chapter 3.5, including Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding the 120-day limitation specified in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, the regulations shall be repealed 180 days after their effective date, unless the authority complies with Sections 11346.2 to 11347.3, inclusive, as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

(c) The authority shall consult with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission regarding the financing of projects to avoid duplication of other renewable energy projects.

(d) The authority shall ensure that any financed project shall offer its power within California on a long-term contract basis.

SEC. 9. Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739. (a) The commission shall designate a baseline quantity of gas and electricity which is necessary to supply a significant portion of the reasonable energy needs of the average residential customer. In estimating those quantities, the commission shall take into account differentials in energy needs between customers whose residential energy needs are currently supplied by electricity alone or by both electricity and gas. The commission shall develop a separate baseline quantity for all-electric residential customers. For these purposes, "all-electric residential customers" are residential customers having electrical service only or whose space heating is provided by electricity, or both. The commission shall also take into account differentials in energy use by climatic zone and season.

(b) (1) The commission shall establish a standard limited allowance which shall be in addition to the baseline quantity of gas and electricity for residential customers dependent on life-support equipment, including, but not limited to, emphysema and pulmonary patients. A residential customer dependent on life-support equipment shall be given a higher energy allocation than the average residential customer.

(2) "Life-support equipment" means that equipment which utilizes mechanical or artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, or mechanical equipment which is relied upon for mobility both within and outside of buildings. "Life-support equipment," as used in this subdivision, includes all of the following: all types of respirators, iron lungs, hemodialysis machines, suction machines, electric nerve stimulators, pressure pads and pumps, aerosol tents, electrostatic and ultrasonic nebulizers, compressors, IPPB machines, and motorized wheelchairs.

(3) The limited additional allowance shall also be made available to paraplegic and quadriplegic persons in consideration of the increased heating and cooling needs of those persons.

(4) The limited additional allowance shall also be made available to multiple sclerosis patients in consideration of the increased heating and cooling needs of those persons.

(5) The limited additional allowance shall also be made available to scleroderma patients in consideration of the increased heating needs of those persons.

(6) The limited allowance shall also be made available to persons who are being treated for a life-threatening illness or have a compromised immune system, provided that a licensed physician and surgeon or a person licensed pursuant to the Osteopathic Initiative Act certifies in writing to the utility that the additional heating or cooling allowance, or both, made available pursuant to this subdivision is medically necessary to sustain the life of the person or prevent deterioration of the person's medical condition.

(c) (1) The commission shall require that every electrical and gas corporation file a schedule of rates and charges providing baseline rates. The baseline rates shall apply to the first or lowest block of an increasing block rate structure which shall be the baseline quantity. In establishing these rates, the commission shall avoid excessive rate increases for residential customers, and shall establish an appropriate gradual differential between the rates for the respective blocks of usage.

(2) In establishing residential electric and gas rates, including baseline rates, the commission shall assure that the rates are sufficient to enable the electrical corporation or gas corporation to recover a just and reasonable amount of revenue from residential customers as a class, while observing the principle that electricity and gas services are necessities, for which a low affordable rate is desirable and while observing the principle that conservation is desirable in order to maintain an affordable bill.

(3) At least until December 31, 2003, the commission shall require that all charges for residential electric customers are volumetric, and shall prohibit any electrical corporation from imposing any charges on residential consumption that are independent of consumption, unless those charges are in place prior to the effective date of the act that added this paragraph.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) "Baseline quantity" means a quantity of electricity or gas for residential customers to be established by the commission based on from 50 to 60 percent of average residential consumption of these commodities, except that, for residential gas customers and for all-electric residential customers, the baseline quantity shall be established at from 60 to 70 percent of average residential consumption during the winter heating season. In establishing the baseline quantities, the commission shall take into account climatic and seasonal variations in consumption and the availability of gas service. The commission shall review and revise baseline quantities as average consumption patterns change in order to maintain these ratios.

(2) "Residential customer" means those customers receiving electrical or gas service pursuant to a domestic rate schedule and excludes industrial, commercial, and every other category of customer.

(e) Wholesale electrical or gas purchases, and the rates charged therefor, are exempt from this section.

(f) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit experimentation with alternative gas or electrical rate schedules for the purpose of achieving energy conservation.

SEC. 10. Section 739.10 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

739.10. The commission shall ensure that errors in estimates of demand elasticity or sales do not result in material over or undercollections of the electrical corporations.

SEC. 10.2. Section 739.11 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

739.11. (a) For purposes of this section, "real time metering" means a system for measuring a customer's usage of electricity on at least an hourly basis, variably pricing that electricity based on the cost of acquisition or production, and regularly providing and updating that usage and pricing information to the customer.

(b) The commission shall conduct a pilot study of real time metering for nonresidential customers. The purpose of the study is to determine the effectiveness of real time metering in reducing energy demand and overall energy consumption, to examine customer response, to determine how real time metering should be implemented, and to determine whether more widespread use of real time metering is in the public interest. The study shall not duplicate the study required pursuant to Section 393 of the Public Utilities Code. The study shall include rates that vary as the cost of electricity varies and provide appropriate telemetry and other equipment. The study shall include agricultural, large commercial, and industrial customer classes, and may include other customer classes if the commission determines that to do so would be in the public interest. The commission shall report to the Legislature on the results of the study by June 30, 2002.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 11. Section 2827 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2827. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a program to provide net energy metering for eligible customer-generators is one way to encourage substantial private investment in renewable energy resources, stimulate in-state economic growth, reduce demand for electricity during peak consumption periods, help stabilize California's energy supply infrastructure, enhance the continued diversification of California's energy resource mix, and reduce interconnection and administrative costs for electricity suppliers.

(b) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Electric service provider" means an electrical corporation, as defined in Section 218, a local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in Section 9604, or an electrical cooperative, as defined in Section 2776, or any other entity that offers electrical service.

(2) "Eligible customer-generator" means a residential, small commercial customer as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 331, commercial, industrial, or agricultural customer of an electric service provider, who uses a solar or a wind turbine electrical generating facility, or a hybrid system of both, with a capacity of not more than one megawatt that is located on the customer's owned, leased, or rented premises, is interconnected and operates in parallel with the electric grid, and is intended primarily to offset part or all of the customer's own electrical requirements.

(3) "Net energy metering" means measuring the difference between the electricity supplied through the electric grid and the electricity generated by an eligible customer-generator and fed back to the electric grid over a 12-month period as described in subdivision (e). Net energy metering shall be accomplished using a single meter capable of registering the flow of electricity in two directions. An additional meter or meters to monitor the flow of electricity in each direction may be installed with the consent of the customer-generator, at the expense of the electric service provider, and the additional metering shall be used only to provide the information necessary to accurately bill or credit the customer-generator pursuant to subdivision (e), or to collect solar or wind electric generating system performance information for research purposes. If the existing electrical meter of an eligible customer-generator is not capable of measuring the flow of electricity in two directions, the customer-generator shall be responsible for all expenses involved in purchasing and installing a meter that is able to measure electricity flow in two directions. If an additional meter or meters are installed, the net energy metering calculation shall yield a result identical to that of a single meter. An eligible customer-generator who already owns an existing solar or wind turbine electrical generating facility, or a hybrid system of both, is eligible to receive net energy metering service in accordance with this section.

(c) (1) Every electric service provider shall develop a standard contract or tariff providing for net energy metering, and shall make this contract available to eligible customer-generators, upon request.

(2) If a customer participates in direct transactions pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 365 with an electric supplier that does not provide distribution service for the direct transactions, the service provider that provides distribution service for an eligible customer-generator is not obligated to provide net energy metering to the customer.

(3) If a customer participates in direct transactions pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 365 with an electric supplier, and the customer is an eligible customer-generator, the service provider that provides distribution service for the direct transactions may recover from the customer's electric service provider the incremental costs of metering and billing service related to net energy metering in an amount set by the commission.

(d) Each net energy metering contract or tariff shall be identical, with respect to rate structure, all retail rate components, and any monthly charges, to the contract or tariff to which the same customer would be assigned if such customer was not an eligible customer-generator, except that eligible customer-generators shall not be assessed standby charges on the electrical generating capacity or the kilowatthour production of an eligible solar or wind electrical generating facility. The charges for all retail rate components for eligible customer-generators shall be based exclusively on the customer-generator's net kilowatthour consumption over a 12-month period, without regard to the customer-generator's choice of electric service provider. Any new or additional demand charge, standby charge, customer charge, minimum monthly charge, interconnection charge, or other charge that would increase an eligible customer-generator's costs beyond those of other customers in the rate class to which the eligible customer-generator would otherwise be assigned are contrary to the intent of this legislation, and shall not form a part of net energy metering contracts or tariffs.

(e) For eligible residential and small commercial customer-generators, the net energy metering calculation shall be made by measuring the difference between the electricity supplied to the eligible customer-generator and the electricity generated by the eligible customer-generator and fed back to the electric grid over a 12-month period. The following rules shall apply to the annualized net metering calculation:

(1) The eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator shall, at the end of each 12-month period following the date of final interconnection of the eligible customer-generator's system with an electric service provider, and at each anniversary date thereafter, be billed for electricity used during that period. The electric service provider shall determine if the eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator was a net consumer or a net producer of electricity during that period.

(2) At the end of each 12-month period, where the electricity supplied during the period by the electric service provider exceeds the electricity generated by the eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator during that same period, the eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator is a net electricity consumer and the electric service provider shall be owed compensation for the eligible customer-generator's net kilowatthour consumption over that same period. The compensation owed for the eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator's consumption shall be calculated as follows:

(A) For all eligible customer-generators taking service under tariffs employing "baseline" and "over baseline" rates, any net monthly consumption of electricity shall be calculated according to the terms of the contract or tariff to which the same customer would be assigned to or be eligible for if the customer was not an eligible customer-generator. If those same customer-generators are net generators over a billing period, the net kilowatthours generated shall be valued at the same price per kilowatthour as the electric service provider would charge for the baseline quantity of electricity during that billing period, and if the number of kilowatthours generated exceeds the baseline quantity, the excess shall be valued at the same price per kilowatthour as the electric service provider would charge for electricity over the baseline quantity during that billing period.

(B) For all eligible customer-generators taking service under tariffs employing "time of use" rates, any net monthly consumption of electricity shall be calculated according to the terms of the contract or tariff to which the same customer would be assigned to or be eligible for if the customer was not an eligible customer-generator. When those same customer-generators are net generators during any discrete time of use period, the net kilowatthours produced shall be valued at the same price per kilowatthour as the electric service provider would charge for retail kilowatthour sales during that same time of use period. If the eligible customer-generator's time of use electrical meter is unable to measure the flow of electricity in two directions, paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) shall apply.

(C) For all residential and small commercial customer-generators and for each monthly period, the net balance of moneys owed to the electric service provider for net consumption of electricity or credits owed to the customer-generator for net generation of electricity shall be carried forward until the end of each 12-month period. For all commercial, industrial, and agricultural customer-generators the net balance of moneys owed shall be paid in accordance with the electric service provider's normal billing cycle, except that if the commercial, industrial, or agricultural customer-generator is a net electricity producer over a normal billing cycle, any excess kilowatthours generated during the billing cycle shall be carried over to the following billing period, valued according to the procedures set forth in this section, and appear as a credit on the customer-generator's account, until the end of the annual period when paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) shall apply.

(3) At the end of each 12-month period, where the electricity generated by the eligible customer-generator during the 12-month period exceeds the electricity supplied by the electric service provider during that same period, the eligible customer-generator is a net electricity producer and the electric service provider shall retain any excess kilowatthours generated during the prior 12-month period. The eligible customer-generator shall not be owed any compensation for those excess kilowatthours unless the electric service provider enters into a purchase agreement with the eligible customer-generator for those excess kilowatthours.

(4) The electric service provider shall provide every eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator with net electricity consumption information with each regular bill. That information shall include the current monetary balance owed the electric service provider for net electricity consumed since the last 12-month period ended. Notwithstanding subdivision (e), an electric service provider shall permit that customer to pay monthly for net energy consumed.

(5) If an eligible residential or small commercial customer-generator terminates the customer relationship with the electric service provider, the electric service provider shall reconcile the eligible customer-generator's consumption and production of electricity during any part of a 12-month period following the last reconciliation, according to the requirements set forth in this subdivision, except that those requirements shall apply only to the months since the most recent 12-month bill.

(6) If an electric service provider providing net metering to a residential or small commercial customer-generator ceases providing that electrical service to that customer during any 12-month period, and the customer-generator enters into a new net metering contract or tariff with a new electric service provider, the 12-month period, with respect to that new electric service provider, shall commence on the date on which the new electric service provider first supplies electric service to the customer-generator.

(f) A solar or wind turbine electrical generating system, or a hybrid system of both, used by an eligible customer-generator shall meet all applicable safety and performance standards established by the National Electrical Code, the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, and accredited testing laboratories such as Underwriters Laboratories and, where applicable, rules of the Public Utilities Commission regarding safety and reliability. A customer-generator whose solar or wind turbine electrical generating system, or a hybrid system of both, meets those standards and rules shall not be required to install additional controls, perform or pay for additional tests, or purchase additional liability insurance.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 12. Section 2827 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2827. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a program to provide net energy metering for eligible customer-generators is one way to encourage private investment in renewable energy resources, stimulate in-state economic growth, enhance the continued diversification of California's energy resource mix, and reduce interconnection and administrative costs for electricity suppliers.

(b) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Electric service provider" means an electric corporation, as defined in Section 218, a local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in Section 9604, or an electrical cooperative, as defined in Section 2776. "Electric service provider" also means an entity that offers electrical service to residential and small commercial customers, as defined in Section 394, if that entity offers net energy metering. Any entity that offers net energy metering to residential and small commercial customers shall comply with this section.

(2) "Eligible customer-generator" means a residential customer, or a small commercial customer as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 331, of an electric service provider, who uses a solar or a wind turbine electrical generating facility, or a hybrid system of both, with a capacity of not more than 10 kilowatts that is located on the customer's premises, is interconnected and operates in parallel with the electric grid, and is intended primarily to offset part or all of the customer's own electrical requirements.

(3) "Net energy metering" means measuring the difference between the electricity supplied through the electric grid and the electricity generated by an eligible customer-generator and fed back to the electric grid over a 12-month period as described in subdivision (e). Net energy metering shall be accomplished using a single meter capable of registering the flow of electricity in two directions. An additional meter or meters to monitor the flow of electricity in each direction may be installed with the consent of the customer-generator, at the expense of the electric service provider, and the additional metering shall be used only to provide the information necessary to accurately bill or credit the customer-generator pursuant to subdivision (e), or to collect solar or wind electric generating system performance information for research purposes. If the existing electrical meter of an eligible customer-generator is not capable of measuring the flow of electricity in two directions, the customer-generator shall be responsible for all expenses involved in purchasing and installing a meter that is able to measure electricity flow in two directions. If an additional meter or meters are installed, the net energy metering calculation shall yield a result identical to that of a single meter. An eligible customer-generator who already owns an existing solar or wind turbine electrical generating facility, or a hybrid system of both, is eligible to receive net energy metering service in accordance with this section.

(4) "Ratemaking authority" means, for an electrical corporation as defined in Section 218, or an electrical cooperative as defined in Section 2776, the commission, and for a local publicly owned electric utility as defined in Section 9604, the local elected body responsible for regulating the rates of the utility.

(c) (1) Every electric service provider shall develop a standard contract or tariff providing for net energy metering, and shall make this contract available to eligible customer-generators, upon request, on a first-come-first-served basis until the time that the total rated generating capacity used by eligible customer-generators equals one-tenth of 1 percent of the electric service provider's aggregate customer peak demand.

(2) On an annual basis, beginning in 1999, every electric service provider shall make available to the ratemaking authority information on the total rated generating capacity used by eligible customer-generators that are customers of that provider in the provider's service area. For those electric service providers who are operating pursuant to Section

394, they shall make available to the ratemaking authority the information required by this paragraph for each eligible customer-generator that is their customer for each service area of an electric corporation, local publicly owned electric utility, or electrical cooperative, in which the customer has net energy metering. The ratemaking authority shall develop a process for making the information required by this paragraph available to energy service providers, and for using that information to determine when, pursuant to paragraph (3), a service provider is not obligated to provide net energy metering to additional customer-generators in its service area.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), an electric service provider is not obligated to provide net energy metering to additional customer-generators in its service area when the combined total peak demand of all customer-generators served by all the electric service providers in that service area furnishing net energy metering to eligible customer-generators equals one-tenth of 1 percent of the aggregate customer peak demand of those electric service providers.

(4) If a customer participates in direct transactions pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 365 with an electric supplier that does not offer net energy metering and is therefore not an electric service provider, the customer is not an eligible customer-generator and the electric corporation, as defined in Section 218, that provides distribution service for the direct transactions, is not obligated to provide net energy metering to the customer.

(5) If a customer participates in direct transactions pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 365 with an electric supplier that offers net energy metering and is therefore an electric service provider, and the customer is an eligible customer-generator, the electric corporation, as defined in Section 218, that provides distribution service for the direct transactions may recover from the customer's electric service provider the incremental costs of metering and billing service related to net energy metering in an amount set by the commission.

(d) Each net energy metering contract or tariff shall be identical, with respect to rate structure, all retail rate components, and any monthly charges, to the contract or tariff to which the same customer would be assigned if such customer was not an eligible customer-generator. The charges for all retail rate components for eligible customer-generators shall be based exclusively on the customer-generator's net kilowatthour consumption over a 12-month period, without regard to the customer-generator's choice of electric service provider that offers net energy metering and is subject to this section pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), in accordance with subdivision (e). Any new or additional demand charge, standby charge, customer charge, minimum monthly charge, interconnection charge, or other charge that would increase an eligible customer-generator's costs beyond those of other customers in the rate class to which the eligible customer-generator would otherwise be assigned are contrary to the intent of this legislation, and shall not form a part of net energy metering contracts or tariffs.

(e) The net energy metering calculation shall be made by measuring the difference between the electricity supplied to the eligible customer-generator and the electricity generated by the eligible customer-generator and fed back to the electric grid over a 12-month period. The following rules shall apply to the annualized net metering calculation:

(1) The eligible customer-generator shall, at the end of each 12-month period following the date of final interconnection of the eligible customer-generator's system with an electric service provider, and at each anniversary date thereafter, be billed for electricity used during that period. The electric service provider shall determine if the eligible customer-generator was a net consumer or a net producer of electricity during that period.

(2) At the end of each 12-month period, where the electricity supplied during the period by the electric service provider exceeds the electricity generated by the eligible customer-generator during that same period, the eligible customer-generator is a net electricity consumer and the electric service provider shall be owed compensation for the eligible customer-generator's net kilowatt-hour consumption over that same period. The compensation owed for the eligible customer-generator's net 12-month kilowatt-hour consumption shall be calculated as follows:

(A) For eligible customer-generators taking service under tariffs employing "baseline" and "over baseline" rates, any net monthly consumption of electricity shall be calculated according to the terms of the contract or tariff to which the same customer would be assigned to or be eligible for if the customer was not an eligible customer-generator. If those same customer-generators are net generators over a billing period, the net kilowatt-hours generated shall be valued at the same price per kilowatt-hour as the electric service provider would charge for the baseline quantity of electricity during that billing period, and if the number of kilowatt-hours generated exceeds the baseline quantity, the excess shall be valued at the same price per kilowatt-hour as the electric service provider would charge for electricity over the baseline quantity during that billing period.

(B) For eligible customer-generators taking service under tariffs employing "time of use" rates, any net monthly consumption of electricity shall be calculated according to the terms of the contract or tariff to which the same customer would be assigned to or be eligible for if the customer was not an eligible customer-generator. When those same customer-generators are net generators during any discrete time of use period, the net kilowatthours produced shall be valued at the same price per kilowatthour as the electric service provider would charge for retail kilowatthour sales during that same time of use period. If the eligible customer-generator's time of use electrical meter is unable to measure the flow of electricity in two directions, paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) shall apply.

(C) For all customer-generators and for each monthly period, the net balance of moneys owed to the electric service provider for net consumption of electricity or credits owed to the customer-generator for net generation of electricity shall be carried forward until the end of each 12-month period.

(3) At the end of each 12-month period, where the electricity generated by the eligible customer-generator during the 12-month period exceeds the electricity supplied by the electric service provider during that same period, the eligible customer-generator is a net electricity producer and the electric service provider shall retain any excess kilowatthours generated during the prior 12-month period. The eligible customer-generator shall not be owed any compensation for those excess kilowatthours unless the electric service provider enters into a purchase agreement with the eligible customer-generator for those excess kilowatthours.

(4) The electric service provider shall provide every eligible customer-generator with net electricity consumption information with each regular bill. That information shall include the current monetary balance owed the electric service provider for net electricity consumed since the last 12-month period ended. Notwithstanding subdivision (e), an electric service provider shall permit that customer to pay monthly for net energy consumed.

(5) If an eligible customer-generator terminates the customer relationship with the electric service provider, the electric service provider shall reconcile the eligible customer-generator's consumption and production of electricity during any part of a 12-month period following the last reconciliation, according to the requirements set forth in this subdivision, except that those requirements shall apply only to the months since the most recent 12-month bill.

(6) If an electric service provider providing net metering to a customer-generator ceases providing that electrical service to that customer during any 12-month period, and the customer-generator enters into a new net metering contract or tariff with a new electric service provider, the 12-month period, with respect to that new electric service provider, shall commence on the date on which the new electric service provider first supplies electric service to the customer-generator.

(f) A solar or wind turbine electrical generating system, or a hybrid system of both, used by an eligible customer-generator shall meet all applicable safety and performance standards established by the National Electrical Code, the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, and accredited testing laboratories such as Underwriters Laboratories and, where applicable, rules of the Public Utilities Commission regarding safety and reliability. A customer-generator whose solar or wind turbine electrical generating system, or a hybrid system of both, meets those standards and rules shall not be required to install additional controls, perform or pay for additional tests, or purchase additional liability insurance.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2003.

SEC. 12.5. Section 2827.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2827.5. The Legislature finds and declares that the repeal of the provisions of the net metering program for large customers merely reflects a legislative desire to revisit and more closely evaluate the cumulative value and effect of the state's policy regarding renewable energy sources on the economics of investment in solar and wind sources for large net metering customers and to ensure further legislative discussion regarding this issue.

SEC. 12.6. Section 2827.7 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2827.7. Generation eligible for net metering that is installed on or before December 31, 2002, shall be entitled, for the life of the installation, to the net metering terms in effect on the date of installation.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 14. The sum of four hundred eight million six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($408,650,000) is hereby appropriated or reappropriated to the Controller from the following sources:

(a) Twenty-five million one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($25,150,000) from the Proposition 98 Reversion Account, reappropriated on a one-time basis from the Proposition 98 Reversion Account from moneys appropriated in the 2000-01 fiscal year to community colleges.

(b) Three hundred sixty-eight million five hundred thousand dollars ($368,500,000) from the General Fund.

(c) The moneys reappropriated from the Proposition 98 Reversion Account shall be allocated to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges who shall allocate those funds as follows:

(1) Twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) to be expended for the purposes of implementing Article 2 (commencing with Section 81610) of Chapter 3 of Part 49 of Division 7 of Title 3 of the Education Code. The chancellor, in consultation with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall allocate the funds in this paragraph to all community college districts statewide in an amount equivalent to a district's share of the total gross square footage of all permanent structures reported on the system's October 2000 Space Inventory Report. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, due to the urgent need to realize the necessary energy savings by the summer of 2001 these funds shall be made available to the districts within one week of the effective date of this act. Any funds allocated pursuant to this paragraph that are unencumbered by October 30, 2001, shall revert to the General Fund on that date.

(2) One hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) as a grant to the Community College League of California to provide a statewide data base of community college district utility usage for immediate application. The data base shall be accessible to the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges as well as to all community college districts statewide to assist in conservation, facilities planning and energy management. The data base shall track the usage of electricity and natural gas, and may track the usage of water, sewer and other utilities. The data base shall further provide an ongoing audit of utility billings to check for billing errors and to ensure that districts recover potential billings that exceed cost of actual usage.

(d) The moneys appropriated from the General Fund shall be allocated as follows:

(1) The sum of forty million dollars ($40,000,000) shall be deposited in the Renewable Energy Loan Loss Reserve Fund for the purposes of Article 4 (commencing with Section 15350) of Chapter 1 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(2) (A) The sum of forty million dollars ($40,000,000) shall be allocated to the California Conservation Corps for costs associated with the purchase, distribution, and installation of subcompact fluorescent lights, other energy savings measures, and water-saving devices for the purposes of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14420) of Division 12 of the Public Resources Code. It is the intent of the Legislature that the California Conservation Corps complete the distribution of the purchased materials by August 31, 2001.

(B) The California Conservation Corps, in implementing the provisions of subparagraph (A), shall consult with the Department of Community Services and Development and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and shall provide for broad geographic distribution of the purchased materials throughout the state, identify neighborhoods and areas with dense populations that can easily be served in large numbers, and take into account community need.

(C) The California Conservation Corps shall report to the Legislature on or before October 31, 2001, on the use of the funds allocated pursuant to this paragraph, the cost effectiveness of the activities, and the number of homes and businesses reached.

(3) The sum of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) shall be allocated to the Department of Community Services and Development for disbursement in the forms of grants to community-based organizations for the purposes of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14420) of Division 12 of the Public Resources Code, including, but not limited to, the rapid installation of energy efficiency measures.

(4) The sum of one hundred fifty-four million five hundred thousand dollars ($154,500,000) shall be allocated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for allocation in accordance with the following schedule:

(A) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be expended in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 25433) of Chapter 5.3 of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code.

(B) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be expended for electric metering programs. Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) shall be used to provide time-of-use or real time meters for customers whose usage is greater than 200 kilowatt. Fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) shall be provided to the Public Utilities Commission to fund the program described in Section 739.11 of the Public Utilities Code, which may be used for the purchase and installation of meters, related equipment, and other associated costs.

(C) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be expended for the Small Business Energy Efficient Refrigeration Loan Program provided for in Section 25436 of the Public Resources Code.

(5) (A) The sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be allocated to the State Energy Conservation Assistance Account created by Section 25416 of the Public Resources Code for expenditure by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to provide loans at not less than a 3 percent per annum interest rate, and grants, as determined by the commission, pursuant to Chapter 5.2 (commencing with Section 25410) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code.

(B) In allocating the funds pursuant to this paragraph, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall give priority to applications for energy conservation projects or energy conservation measures that can be completed on or before September 1, 2001.

(6) The sum of four million five hundred thousand dollars ($4,500,000) is hereby allocated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (Energy Commission) for expenditure to complete the Southeast Geysers Effluent Injection System (SGEIS), Phase 2 Project of the Basin 2000 Project in Lake County. This appropriation is to enable Basin 2000 to come online in December 2001, to produce an additional 10 megawatts (MW) of geothermal power, which it and the Northern California Power Agency, the sole partner with the Lake County Sanitation District, commit to selling to the state at their cost to help with California's electricity crisis.

(7) The sum of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) shall be allocated to the California Alternative Energy and Advanced Transportation Financing Authority for the purpose of implementing Section 26011.6 of the Public Resources Code.

(8) (A) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall expand programs to promote clean distributed generation technologies neither owned nor controlled by electrical corporations. Pursuant to subparagraph (B) and subdivision (e), the incentives that the commission shall develop pursuant to this section shall address existing barriers to the increased use of these technologies, including, but not limited to, incentives to help reduce the initial system purchase price, develop low-cost financing mechanisms, offset interconnection fees charged by electrical corporations, and streamline the utility interconnection process by reducing administrative delay.

(B) The sum of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) shall be deposited in the Emerging Renewable Resources Account in the Renewable Resource Trust Fund established pursuant to Section 445 of the Public Utilities Code. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the money deposited in the Emerging Renewable Resources Account by this subparagraph is hereby continuously appropriated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, without regard to fiscal year, for the purposes specified in subparagraph (C).

(C) The money allocated pursuant this paragraph and subdivision (e) may be expended by the commission only for the following purposes:

(i) Twenty-two million dollars ($22,000,000) for rebates available for small distributed emerging technologies that are eligible for funding pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 383.5 of the Public Utilities Code that have a peak generating capacity of 10 kilowatts or less. The commission shall determine the maximum rebate level for small systems to be awarded pursuant to this clause. Within the maximum rebate level, the commission may provide for different rebate levels, such as higher rebate levels for systems installed and operational within a specified timeframe, or for targeted end-use customers that need additional financial support, such as for public schools and state and local governmental facilities.

(ii) Eight million dollars ($8,000,000) for rebates for small distributed emerging technologies that are eligible for funding pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 383.5 of the Public Utilities Code that have a peak generating capacity of 10 kilowatts or less and that are located at a customer site receiving distribution service from a local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in Section 9604 of the Public Utilities Code. The commission shall determine the maximum rebate level for small systems to be awarded pursuant to this clause. Within the maximum rebate level, the commission may provide for different rebate levels, such as higher rebate levels for systems installed and operational within a specified timeframe, or for targeted end-use customers that need additional financial support, such as for public schools and state and local governmental facilities.

(iii) The commission shall ensure that projects eligible for rebates pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) shall not also receive rebates from similar programs adopted by the Public Utilities Commission.

(D) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 383.5 of the Public Utilities Code, the commission may increase the maximum rebate levels for distributed emerging technologies eligible for funding under subdivision (d) of Section 383.5 of the Public Utilities Code that have a peak generating capacity greater than 10 kilowatts, if the commission determines that an increase is appropriate to further stimulate the installation of emerging renewable technologies in general or for targeted end-use customers that need additional financial support, such as public schools and state and local governmental facilities. The maximum incentive levels established by the commission may vary based on system size and type of end-use consumer.

(E) For purposes of this paragraph, "commission" means the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(9) In order to achieve a reduction in peak electricity demand, the sum of twenty-four million dollars ($24,000,000) shall be allocated to the Department of Corrections to install systems to retrofit generating units to improve the environmental performance of existing electrical generating units.

(e) The sum of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) shall be transferred from the Renewable Resource Trust Fund to the Emerging Renewable Resources Account in the Renewable Resource Trust Fund established under Section 445 of the Public Utilities Code. The money allocated pursuant to this subdivision may be expended by the commission only for the purposes specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (8) of subdivision (d).

(f) Funds appropriated pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) shall be expended pursuant to guidelines adopted by the Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission. The guidelines shall be exempt from the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and shall do all of the following:

(1) Establish cost effectiveness criteria for the programs funded. Within 10 days from the date of the adoption of criteria pursuant to this paragraph, the commission shall provide a copy of the criteria to the Chairperson of the Legislative Budget Committee, to the chairpersons of the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature, and to the Governor.

(2) Establish design guidelines for energy efficiency for programs to be eligible for funding under Section 25433 of the Public Resources Code. These guidelines shall exceed those standards established in Part 6 of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations.

(3) Allow reasonable flexibility to shift funds among program categories in order to achieve the maximum feasible amount of energy conservation, peak load reduction, and energy efficiency by the earliest feasible date.

(4) Establish matching fund criteria where appropriate to ensure that entities eligible to receive funds appropriated pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) pay an appropriate share of the cost of acquiring or installing measures to achieve the maximum feasible amount of energy conservation, peak load reduction, and energy efficiency by the earliest feasible date.

(5) Establish mechanisms and criteria that ensure that funds expended pursuant to this subdivision through electric and gas corporations are not seized by the creditors of those corporations in the event of a bankruptcy. In implementing this paragraph, the commission shall adopt mechanisms such as the segregation of funds by the electric and gas corporations, the holding of those funds in trust until they are expended, and the reversion of funds to the General Fund in the event of a bankruptcy.

(6) Establish tracking and auditing procedures to ensure that funds are expended in a manner consistent with this section.

SEC. 14.5. (a) Any contracts entered into on or before September 1, 2001, pursuant to this act due to the energy crisis are exempt from the following requirements of the Government Code and the Public Contract Code:

(1) Services contracts and consulting services contracts are exempt from Article 4 (commencing with Section 10335) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(2) Architectural and engineering contracts are exempt from Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and from Sections 6106.5 of the Public Contract Code.

(3) All contracts are exempt from Section 10295 of the Public Contract Code, relating to approval from the Department of General Services.

(4) All contracts are exempt from Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14825) of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to advertising.

(b) Grants may be awarded for projects or programs that include a group of related projects, or to a party who aggregates projects that directly benefit from the grant. The grants do not constitute the rendering of goods or services or a direct benefit to the agency making the grant. A party who aggregates projects may retain for administrative costs not more than $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent of the funds expended by the party.

(c) Approval of contracts and grants may be delegated to the agency executive director or an agency committee up to a maximum amount that is established by the respective commission or agency.

(d) Administrative costs for agencies participating in programs or projects pursuant to this act shall not exceed $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent of the amount allocated to the agency. For the purposes of this subdivision, "administrative costs" means personnel and overhead costs associated with the implementation of a measure or program. However, "administrative costs" does not include costs associated with marketing or evaluation of a measure of a program.

(e) Each participating agency receiving funds under this act shall file reports with the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the chairs of the appropriations committees, and the Governor, as follows:

(1) An interim report by January 1, 2002.

(2) A final report by July 1, 2002.

(3) Annual reports for continuing programs, if the agency or program is not otherwise required to file annual reports by this act or any other provision of law.

SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent rolling blackouts, and the shortage of electrical generating capacity in the state that endangers the health, welfare, and safety of the people of this state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 9

An act to amend Section 1731 of, and to add Section 1768 to, the Public Utilities Code, and to amend Sections 80106, 80130, 80132, and 80200 of, and to repeal Section 80114 of, the Water Code, and to amend and repeal Section 6 of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001 of the First Extraordinary Session, relating to energy, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor May 10, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1731 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

1731. (a) The commission shall set an effective date when issuing an order or decision. The commission may set the effective date of an order or decision prior to the date of issuance of the order or decision.

(b) After any order or decision has been made by the commission, any party to the action or proceeding, or any stockholder or bondholder or other party pecuniarily interested in the public utility affected, may apply for a rehearing in respect to any matters determined in the action or proceeding and specified in the application for rehearing. The commission may grant and hold a rehearing on those matters, if in its judgment sufficient reason is made to appear. No cause of action arising out of any order or decision of the commission shall accrue in any court to any corporation or person unless the corporation or person has filed an application to the commission for a rehearing within 30 days after the date of issuance or within 10 days after the date of issuance in the case of an order issued pursuant to either Article 5 (commencing with Section 816) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 851) of Chapter 4 relating to security transactions and the transfer or encumbrance of utility property. For purposes of this article, “date of issuance” means the date when the commission mails the order or decision to the parties to the action or proceeding.

(c) No cause of action arising out of any order or decision of the commission construing, applying, or implementing the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session shall accrue in any court to any corporation or person unless the corporation or person has filed an application to the commission for a rehearing within 10 days after the date of issuance of the order or decision. The commission shall issue its decision and order on rehearing within 20 days after the filing of that application.

SEC. 2. Section 1768 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read: 1768. The following procedures shall apply to judicial review of an order or decision of the commission interpreting, implementing, or applying the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session:

(a) Within 30 days after the commission issues its order or decision denying the application for a rehearing, or, if the application is granted, then within 30 days after the commission issues its decision on rehearing, any aggrieved party may petition for a writ of review in the California Supreme Court for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the original order or decision or of the order or decision on rehearing. If the writ issues, it shall be made returnable at a time and place specified by court order and shall direct the commission to certify its record in the case to the court within the time specified. No order of the commission interpreting, implementing, or applying the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session shall be subject to review in the courts of appeal.

(b) The petition for review shall be served upon the executive director of the commission either personally or by service at the office of the commission.

(c) For purposes of this section, the issuance of a decision or the granting of an application shall be construed to have occurred on the date when the commission mails the decision or grant to the parties to the action or proceeding.

(d) All actions and proceedings under this section and all actions or proceedings to which the commission or the people of the State of California are parties in which any question arises under this section, or under or concerning any order or decision of the commission under this section, shall be preferred over, and shall be heard and determined in preference to, all other civil business except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar.

(e) The provisions of this article apply to actions under this section to the extent that those provisions are not in conflict with this section.

SEC. 3. Section 80106 of the Water Code is amended to read:

80106. (a) The department may contract with the related electrical corporation or its successor in the performance of related service, for the electrical corporation or its successor in the performance of related service, to transmit or provide for the transmission of, and distribute all power made available by the department, and, as agent of the department, provide billing, collection, and other related services on terms and conditions that reasonably compensate the electrical corporation for its services, and adequately secure payment to the department.

(b) At the request of the department, the commission shall order the related electrical corporation or its successor in the performance of related service, to transmit or provide for the transmission of, and distribute all power made available by the department, and, as agent of the department, provide billing, collection, and other related services on terms and conditions that reasonably compensate the electrical corporation for its services, and adequately secure payment to the department.

SEC. 4. Section 80114 of the Water Code, as added by Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001, is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 80130 of the Water Code is amended to read:

80130. The department may incur indebtedness and issue bonds as evidence thereof, provided that bonds may not be issued in an amount the debt service on which, to the extent payable from the fund, is estimated by the department to exceed the amounts estimated to be available in the fund for their payment. The department may authorize the issuance of bonds (excluding notes issued in anticipation of the issuance of bonds and retired from the proceeds of those bonds) in an aggregate amount up to the greater of thirteen billion four hundred twenty-three million dollars ($13,423,000,000) or the amount calculated by multiplying by a factor of four the annual revenues generated by the California Procurement Adjustment, as determined by the commission pursuant to Section 360.5 of the Public Utilities Code; provided, such aggregate amount shall not exceed thirteen billion four hundred twenty-three million dollars ($13,423,000,000). Nothing in this section shall prohibit the department from issuing bonds prior to the effective date of this bill based upon the authorization granted to the department by the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session. Refunding of bonds to obtain a lower interest rate shall not be included in the calculation of the aggregate amount. In addition, before the issuance of bonds in a public offering, the department shall establish a mechanism to ensure that the bonds will be sold at investment grade ratings and repaid on a timely basis from pledged revenues. This mechanism may include, but is not limited to, an agreement between the department and the commission as described in Section 80110.

SEC. 6. Section 80132 of the Water Code is amended to read:

80132. (a) Bonds may be issued by the department upon authorization by written determination of the director of the department with the approval of the Director of Finance and the State Treasurer. The Department of Finance shall notify the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairperson of the committee in each house that considers appropriations of its written determination. The bonds shall be sold at such prices and in such manner, and on such terms and conditions, as shall be specified in such determination, and such determination may contain or authorize any other provision, condition, or limitation not inconsistent herewith and such provisions as may be deemed reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. Bonds may mature at such time or times, and bear interest at such rate or rates, which may be fixed or variable and be determined by reference to an index or such other method, as shall be specified in such determination. Neither the person executing the determination to issue bonds nor any person executing bonds shall be personally liable therefor or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(b) In the discretion of the department, any bonds may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the department and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having trust powers within or without the state, or the State Treasurer. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Treasurer shall not be deemed to have a conflict of interest by reason of acting as such trustee. The department may enter into such contracts or arrangements as it shall deem to be necessary or appropriate for the issuance and further security of the bonds.

(c) Bonds shall be legal investments for all trust funds, the funds of all insurance companies, banks both commercial and savings, trust companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, for state school funds, pension funds, and, for any funds that may be invested in county, school, or municipal bonds.

(d) Notwithstanding that bonds may be payable from a special fund, they shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments for all purposes.

(e) Any and all bonds, their transfer and the income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state and by all political subdivisions of the state.

(f) Bonds shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, other than the department, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any such political subdivision but shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided for. All bonds shall contain a statement to the following effect: “Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California is pledged to the payment of the principal of or interest on this bond.” The issuance of bonds shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment.

(g) The department may pledge or assign any revenues under any obligation entered into, and rights to receive the same, and moneys on deposit in the fund and income or revenue derived from the investment thereof, as security for the department’s obligations hereunder. It is the intention of the Legislature that any pledge of moneys, revenues, or property made by the department shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the moneys, revenues, or property so pledged and thereafter collected from retail end use customers, or paid directly or indirectly to or for the account of the department, is hereby made, and shall immediately be, subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the department irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof, and that no resolution or instrument by which such pledge or lien created pursuant to this subdivision is expressed, confirmed, or approved need be filed or recorded in order to perfect such pledge or lien. The provisions hereof shall in all respects govern the creation, perfection, priority, and enforcement of any lien created hereby or hereunder.

SEC. 7. Section 80200 of the Water Code is amended to read:

80200. (a) There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal year, to the department, and shall be available for the purposes of this division. It is the intent of the Legislature that this fund be a continuation of the fund created in Chapter 3 of the Statutes of 2001 (SB 7 of the First 2001–02 Extraordinary Session).

(b) All revenues payable to the department under this division shall be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest accruing on money in the fund shall remain in the fund and shall be used for the purposes of this division. Payments from the fund may be made only for the purposes authorized by this division, including, but not limited to, payments for any of the following:

(1) The cost of electric power and transmission, scheduling, and other related expenses incurred by the department.

(2) The pooled money investment rate on funds advanced for electric power purchases prior to the receipt of payment for those purchases by the purchasing entity.

(3) Payment of any bonds or other contractual obligations authorized by this division.

(4) Repayment to the General Fund of appropriations made to the fund pursuant hereto or hereafter for purposes of this division, appropriations made to the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund, and General Fund moneys expended by the department pursuant to the Governor's Emergency Proclamation dated January 17, 2001. That repayment shall be made as soon as practicable.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 5 of the statute adding this section, the administrative costs of the department incurred in administering this division shall be provided in the annual Budget Act.

(d) Obligations authorized by this division shall be payable solely from the fund. Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state are or may be pledged for any payment under any obligation authorized by this division.

(e) While any obligations of the department incurred under this division remain outstanding and not fully performed or discharged, the rights, powers, duties, and existence of the department and the commission shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will affect adversely the interests and rights of the holders of or parties to such obligations. The department may include this pledge and undertaking of the state in the department's obligations.

SEC. 8. Section 6 of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001, First Extraordinary Session, is amended to read:

Sec. 6. (a) The Department of Finance may authorize the creation of deficiencies for the appropriation made by Section 5 of Chapter 4 of the Statutes of 2001, which added this section. No deficiency may be approved under this section any sooner than 10 days after written notification of the proposed deficiency is given to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairperson of the committee in each house that considers appropriations. After November 15, 2001, such deficiency shall be limited to amounts required for short-term cash-flow purposes of no more than five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) in the aggregate and shall be repaid from the Department of Water Resources Electric Power Fund within 180 days. The Director of Finance shall certify to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Appropriations Committees as to the need for a short-term cash-flow loan not less than 10 days prior to the written notification.

(a) Within 180 days of the effective date of this division, the authority, in consultation with the Energy Commission and the Independent System Operator, shall develop an Energy Resource Investment Plan and submit that plan to the Governor and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairs of the policy committees with jurisdiction over energy policy in the State of California.

(b) The Energy Resource Investment Plan shall take into account California's anticipated energy service needs for both electricity and natural gas over the next decade. The plan shall address issues regarding adequacy of supply, storage, reliability of service, grid congestion, and environmental quality. In developing the investment plan, the authority shall compare the costs of various energy resources, including a comparison of the costs and benefits of demand reduction strategies with the costs and benefits of additional generation supply. The plan shall acknowledge the potential volatility of fossil fuel prices and the value of resources that avoid that price risk.

(c) The plan shall outline a strategy for cost-effective energy resource investments, using the financing powers provided to the authority by this division. The plan may recommend changes to the specific expenditure authority granted in this division in order to carry out the investment strategy contained in the plan.

(d) The plan shall be developed with input from interested parties at scheduled public hearings of the authority. The authority should adopt the plan by majority vote of the board at a public meeting. The authority shall update the plan on a regular basis as determined by the authority.

(e) All investments made by the authority under this division shall be consistent with the strategy outlined in the Energy Resource Investment Plan. Nothing in this section shall preclude the authority from exercising its powers prior to the adoption of the initial Energy Resource Investment Plan.

(f) The authority shall be the agency responsible for ensuring that the investment strategy outlined in the Energy Resource Investment Plan is implemented. To that end, the authority may, on its own or through a partnership with a participating party, make those investments necessary to ensure that the plan is implemented.

Article 9. Agencies Relation to Other State Energy Oversight

3369.5. Nothing in this division shall be construed to obviate the need to review the roles, functions, and duties of other state energy oversight agencies and, where appropriate, change or consolidate those roles, functions, and duties. To achieve that efficiency, the Governor may propose to the Legislature a Governmental Reorganization Plan, pursuant to Section 8523 of the Government Code and Section 6 of Article V of the Constitution.

CHAPTER 4. CALIFORNIA CONSUMER POWER AND CONSERVATION FINANCING AUTHORITY FUND

3370. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Consumer Power and Conservation Financing Authority Fund for expenditure by the authority for the purpose of implementing the objectives and provisions of this division. For the purposes of subdivision (e), or as necessary or convenient to the accomplishment of any other purpose of the authority, the authority may establish within the fund additional and separate accounts and subaccounts.

(b) The assets of the fund shall be available for the payment of the salaries and other expenses charged against it in accordance with this division.

(c) Except as provided under Section 3345, all moneys in the fund that are not General Fund moneys are continuously appropriated to the authority and may be used for any reasonable costs which may be incurred by the authority in the exercise of its powers under this division.

(d) The fund, on behalf of the authority, may borrow or receive moneys from the authority, or from any federal, state, or local agency or private entity, to create reserves in the fund as provided in this division and as authorized by the board.

(e) The authority may pledge any or all of the moneys in the fund (including in any account or subaccount) as security for payment of the principal of, and interest on, any particular issuance of bonds issued pursuant to this division.

(f) The authority may, from time to time, direct the Treasurer to invest moneys in the fund that are not required for the authority's current needs, including proceeds from the sale of any bonds, in any securities permitted by law as the authority shall designate. The authority also may direct the Treasurer to deposit moneys in interest-bearing accounts in state or national banks or other financial institutions having principal offices in this state. The authority may alternatively require the transfer of moneys in the fund to the Surplus Money Investment Fund for investment pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 16470) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Government Code. All interest or other increment resulting from an investment or deposit shall be deposited in the fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Moneys in the fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund pursuant to any provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of the Government Code, excepting the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

CHAPTER 5. BONDS

3380.1. For the purposes provided in this division, the authority is authorized to incur indebtedness and to issue securities of any kind or class, at public or private sale by the Treasurer, and to renew the same, provided that all such indebtedness, howsoever evidenced, shall be payable solely from revenues. The authority may issue bonds for the purposes of this division in an amount not to exceed five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000), exclusive of any refundings.

3380.2. In connection with the issuance of bonds, in addition to the powers otherwise provided in this division, the authority may do all of the following:

(a) Issue, from time to time, bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues in order to finance the activities authorized by this division, including, without limitation, an enterprise or multiple enterprises, a single project for a single participating party, a series of projects for a single participating party, a single project for several participating parties, or several projects for several participating parties, and to sell those bonds at public or private sale by the Treasurer, in the form and on those terms and conditions as the Treasurer, as agent for sale, shall approve.

(b) Pledge all or any part of the revenues to secure bonds and any repayment or reimbursement obligations of the authority to any provider of insurance or a guarantee of liquidity or credit facility entered into to provide for the payment or debt service on any bond.

(c) Employ and compensate bond counsel, financial consultants, underwriters, and other advisers determined necessary and appointed by the Treasurer in connection with the issuance and sale of any bond.

(d) Issue bonds to refund or purchase or otherwise acquire bonds on terms and conditions as the Treasurer, as agent for sale, shall approve.

(e) Perform all acts that relate to the function and purpose of the authority under this division, whether or not specifically designated in this chapter.

3381. Bonds issued by the authority are legal investments for all trust funds, the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, trust companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, for state school funds, pension funds, and for any funds that may be invested in county, school, or municipal bonds. The bonds issued under this division are securities that may legally be deposited with, and received by, any state or municipal officer or agency or political subdivision of the state, including, without limitation, local agencies, schools, and pension funds, for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or obligations of the state is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law, including deposits to secure public funds.

3382. The authority is authorized to obtain loans from the Pooled Money Investment Account pursuant to Sections 16312 and 16313 of the Government Code. These loans shall be subject to the terms negotiated with the Pooled Money Investment Board, including, but not limited to, a pledge of authority bond proceeds or revenues.

3383. Bonds issued under this division shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, other than the authority, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any political subdivision, other than the authority, but shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor. All bonds issued under this division shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the following effect: “Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California or any local agency is pledged to the payment of the principal of or interest on this bond.” The issuance of bonds under this division shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment. Nothing in this section shall prevent nor be construed to prevent the authority from pledging its full faith and credit to the payment of bonds or issue of bonds authorized pursuant to this division.

CHAPTER 6. TERMINATION PROVISIONS

3384. The authority may not finance or approve any new program, enterprise, or project on or after January 1, 2007, unless authority to approve such an activity is granted by statute enacted on or before January 1, 2007.

CHAPTER 11

An act to add Section 739.4 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 17, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State May 22, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Commencing in the summer of 2000 and continuing to the present, wholesale prices for electricity have skyrocketed in California.

(2) Since November 2000, natural gas prices have increased significantly.

(3) The extraordinarily high costs of electricity and natural gas are threatening the economic well-being of the state.

(4) Low-income and senior households, who spend a disproportionate portion of their income on energy costs, have been particularly affected.

(5) The energy burden borne by low-income and senior customers is greater than the energy burden of most other households in California.

California low-income households spend approximately 10 percent of their incomes on energy bills, compared to the average energy burden of 2.9 percent for a median-income household.

(6) Under the California Alternate Rates for Energy program (CARE), low-income customers are eligible to receive gas and electric services at a discounted rate.

(b) It is therefore the intent of the Legislature to protect low-income and senior customers from the impacts of skyrocketing energy rates and to enact legislation to increase the CARE penetration rate, to look at other means to expand the program to all eligible low-income and low-income senior customers, and to encourage energy conservation by all customer classes.

SEC. 2. Section 739.4 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

739.4. (a) Any natural gas customer who enrolls in the CARE program after the effective date of this section, but before October 1, 2001, shall receive the same one-time bill credit based on the amount of each gas corporation's average CARE customer discount applied for each month in October 2000 to March 2001, inclusive. The credit does not apply to a customer who initiates service with a gas corporation after the effective date of this section, and who has no prior history of service with the gas corporation. CARE program funds shall be used for the purpose of providing these credits. The commission shall adjust CARE program income requirements annually to reflect the increased cost-of-living due to inflation.

(b) The commission shall require all electrical and gas utilities through which CARE program rates are available to do all of the following, in multilingual formats to the extent printed and recorded information is provided, to facilitate better penetration rates for the CARE program and to protect low-income and senior households from unwarranted disconnection of necessary electric and gas services:

(1) Provide an outgoing message on all calls, where the customer is seeking to establish service or is put on hold, to customer service lines that briefly describes the CARE program in standard language approved by the commission, and that provides a toll-free phone number for customers to call to subscribe to the program or for further information.

(2) Provide information to customers about the CARE program and facilitate subscription to CARE, on all calls in which customers are making payment arrangements, on all collections calls, and on all calls for reconnection of service.

(3) (A) Provide information about the CARE program and other assistance programs, and attempt to qualify customers for CARE, and provide information about individual payment arrangements that allow customers to pay the amounts due over a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, and attempt to enroll customers in a payment arrangement program, before effecting any disconnection of service for nonpayment or inability to pay energy bills in full.

(B) (i) Offer individual payment arrangements to customers so that the customer is able to pay amounts due over a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months.

(ii) Prohibit the disconnection of customers that have made, and are in compliance with, payment arrangements offered by an electric or gas utility pursuant to this subparagraph.

(C) Prohibit the disconnection of a delinquent residential customer for amounts due in which the electric or gas utility receives a commitment pledge, letter of intent, purchase order, or other notification that a provider of energy assistance is forwarding payment sufficient to prevent disconnection.

(D) (i) Advise residential customers facing disconnection or who contact the utility to make payment arrangements of the leveling payment program that allows them to pay a monthly average bill based on 12 months usage.

(ii) Advise residential customers about enrollment in the leveling payment program in conjunction with completion of payment arrangements, payment under terms of subparagraph (B), or at the customer's request absent those arrangements.

(E) Nothing in this paragraph is intended to reduce the revenues of any utility extending payment arrangements subject to the terms of the paragraph.

(4) Provide information on customer bills, presented in a conspicuous manner on a front facing page, that indicates that a customer may be eligible for the CARE program. This notice shall be provided quarterly on customer bills.

(c) The commission shall conduct targeted outreach about the program using census block data to effectively target low-income and senior households throughout the state.

(d) CARE program funds shall be used for the purposes of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) and outreach pursuant to subdivision (c). The commission's costs for outreach pursuant to subdivision (c) may not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) above the amount that the commission currently expends on similar activities related to the CARE program. Energy corporations may recover all reasonable costs from the CARE program funds of implementing this section.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that low-income and senior customers be protected from the extraordinarily high electricity and gas prices as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 12

An act to add Section 42301.15 to, to add Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 39910) to Part 2 of Division 26 of, and to add and repeal Section 42314.3 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 25514, 25521, 25523, 25531, and 25552 of, and to add and repeal Sections 25519.5 and 25550.5 of, the Public Resources Code, and to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 353.1) to Chapter 2.3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to the energy emergency, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 22, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State May 22, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 39910) is added to Part 2 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. EXPEDITED AIR QUALITY IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM FOR ELECTRICAL GENERATION

39910. The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the interests of the people of the State of California to ensure that the state board establish a unified, coordinated, and expedited process for districts to retrofit electrical generating facilities in a manner that protects public health and the environment and that complies fully with applicable federal and state statutes and regulations.

39915. On or before July 1, 2002, the state board, in consultation with air quality management districts, air pollution control districts, and the Independent System Operator, shall establish a schedule for the retrofit of electric generation facilities pursuant to retrofit criteria and procedures established under the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Section 7401 et seq.) or this division. The schedule shall require completion of any mandated retrofits by December 31, 2004, or such later date as the state board, in consultation with the Independent System Operator, air pollution control districts, air quality management districts, and the owners and operators of electrical generating facilities determines is necessary to maintain electric system reliability. Nothing in this section is intended to require the retrofit of a generation facility that could not be required to be retrofitted by an air quality management district or air pollution control district under the law in effect on the effective date of the act adding this chapter during the 2001-02 First Extraordinary Session. The state board shall suspend the deadline for the completion of a retrofit of an electrical generation unit scheduled pursuant to this section if it determines all of the following:

(a) The owner of the generation unit proposes to replace or repower the generation unit in a manner that complies with all applicable laws and regulations.

(b) The owner has filed the necessary applications for permits for such replacement or repower prior to the suspension of the deadline for the completion of the required retrofits.

(c) The owner is diligently proceeding with the replacement or repower of the unit and the state board determines that the replacement or repower will be completed.

39920. On or before July 1, 2001, the state board shall implement a program for tracking the emission reduction credits made available by the program required under Section 39915, and for facilitating the banking, trading, and purchasing of those credits in order to expedite the construction of new, clean generating facilities in the state. The state board shall establish criteria for the development of a state emission reduction credits bank, which shall ensure that a specified percentage of emission reduction credits created pursuant to section 39915 be contributed to the bank for the purpose of making emission reduction credits available for new, clean generation capacity.

SEC. 2. Section 42301.15 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.15. Each district shall adopt an expedited program for the permitting of standby electrical generation facilities, distributed generation facilities, geothermal facilities, including wells, and, where applicable, natural gas transmission facilities, that ensures those facilities will be operated in a manner that protects public health and air quality. Upon request by a district, the Independent System Operator and the Public Utilities Commission shall provide any information necessary, as determined by the district, to implement this section.

SEC. 3. Section 42314.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42314.3. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) There is an urgent need to facilitate the siting of the cleanest and least polluting new electrical generation and repowering, as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 25550.5 of the Public Resources Code in the state in order to displace older and more polluting electrical generation.

(2) Certain areas of the state currently lack sufficient air emissions offsets needed to site clean new generation and repowering, as defined in paragraph (1).

(3) The purpose of this section is to provide a mechanism to provide needed offsets for clean new electrical generation and repowering, as defined in paragraph (1), for new facilities constructed during the period of energy emergency currently being experienced in the state.

(4) Nothing in this section is intended, in any manner, to limit or abridge the responsibilities and obligations of any party under the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7401 et seq.), as that act existed on January 1, 2001, including, but not limited to, the requirement that emissions offsets be enforceable as established pursuant to Section 173(a)(1) of that act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7503(a)(1)(A)), and that offsets be obtained by the time a source is to commence operation pursuant to Section 173 (a)(1)(A) of that act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7503(a)(1)(A)).

(b) Each district shall identify and make available to the public emission reduction credits that may be purchased by applicants for electrical generation facilities and used to offset emissions from those facilities pursuant to this section. Each district shall adopt, in a public hearing, standards for the implementation of this section, including, but not limited to, quantification protocols, emissions baselines, antibracksliding provisions, and monitoring, recordkeeping, reporting, and testing requirements, to establish that the offsets made available pursuant to this section are quantifiable, verifiable, enforceable, real, and surplus.

(c) To the extent permitted under the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7401 et seq.), including, but not limited to, those sections of the act referenced under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), in lieu of obtaining air emission offsets, an applicant for a permit for an electrical generating facility may pay an emissions offset fee to a district for expenditure by the district to purchase offsets for that facility. The applicant may post a bond in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of the required emissions offsets, provided that bond shall only be issued by an admitted surety for the benefit of, and held by, the district.

(d) Prior to commencement of operation, the owner or operator of the facility shall obtain any required emissions offsets or a portion of the required emissions offsets and shall forfeit a proportionate amount of the offset fee or bond to the district in an amount determined by the district to be sufficient to acquire and hold that portion of the required emissions offsets not obtained by the applicant. Any forfeited funds shall be used by the district to purchase offsets for the facility in the applicable air basin prior to the commencement of operation of the facility.

(e) In expending emissions offset fees, a district shall give first priority to obtaining offsets from stationary sources that have emissions comparable to those emissions that the electrical generation facility will emit and shall meet all standards regarding proximity of such offsets established under state and federal law, and district rules and regulations. To the extent stationary source offsets are not available, the district shall expend offset fees to obtain emissions reductions from other sources of a type and in an amount equivalent to those offsets which would otherwise be required to be obtained by the facility in order to operate. However, a district may expend funds for offsets from mobile or areawide sources only after making a public determination that sufficient reductions from stationary sources cannot be secured prior to commencement of operation of the project.

(f) Prior to accepting the payment of an emissions offset fee pursuant to this section, and not less than 11 months prior to commencement of the electrical generation facility, the governing board or the air pollution control officer of a district shall hold a duly noticed public hearing that meets all of the following conditions:

(1) Notice of the hearing shall be published at least 30 days prior to the date of the hearing in all newspapers of general circulation in the area to be affected by the electrical generation facility's emissions.

(2) At the hearing, the applicant demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the governing board or the air pollution control officer, that emissions offsets are not available to the applicant in the district, or that the offsets are available only at a cost which, for all practical purposes, make the offsets unavailable to the applicant.

(3) At the hearing, the district identifies those offsets that it will purchase for use by the applicant and finds that those offsets comply with the requirements of this section and with all applicable requirements of state and federal law and district rules and regulations, including, but not limited to, requirements that those offsets are quantifiable, verifiable, enforceable, real, permanent, and surplus and that they are, measured from a verified air emissions baseline.

(4) At the hearing, the district establishes the amount of emissions offset fees or the portion of the bond to be paid by the applicant. The amount shall be sufficient to obtain the equivalent amount of offsets as would otherwise be required to be obtained by the applicant, and may include an additional amount not to exceed 3 percent to cover the district's administrative costs.

(g) Not less than six months after the hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision (f), the district shall publish and make available to the public and the applicant the types and quantities of offsets that it has secured.

(h) This section may be utilized by a thermal powerplant subject to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code. However, to the extent this section is utilized by a thermal powerplant subject to that chapter, the thermal powerplant shall be required to demonstrate compliance with this section in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 25523 of the Public Resources Code.

(i) A district may, by regulation, suspend or limit the applicability of this section for any period of time or with respect to a particular electrical generation facility if the district determines that it would interfere with attainment or maintenance of state or federal ambient air quality standards, or to the extent it determines that adequate offsets are available at a reasonable price. District rules governing notice required for adoption or amendment of regulations shall apply to this subdivision.

(j) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2004, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2004, deletes or extends that date.

(2) However, except as otherwise provided in this section, the repeal of this section may not affect any electrical generation facility for which offsets have been obtained pursuant to this section prior to the date of the repeal.

SEC. 4. Section 25514 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25514. After conclusion of the hearings held pursuant to Section 25513 and no later than 300 days after the filing of the notice, a final report shall be prepared and distributed. The final report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) The findings and conclusions of the commission regarding the conformity of alternative sites and related facilities designated in the notice or considered in the notice of intention proceeding with both of the following:

(1) The 12-year forecast of statewide and service area electric power demands adopted pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25305, except as provided in Section 25514.5.

(2) Applicable local, regional, state, and federal standards, ordinances, and laws, including any long-range land use plans or guidelines adopted by the state or by any local or regional planning agency, which would be applicable but for the exclusive authority of the commission to certify sites and related facilities; and the standards adopted by the commission pursuant to Section 25216.3.

(b) Any findings and comments submitted by the California Coastal Commission pursuant to Section 25507 and subdivision (d) of Section 30413.

(c) Any findings and comments submitted by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 25507 of this code and subdivision (d) of Section 66645 of the Government Code.

(d) The commission's findings on the acceptability and relative merit of each alternative siting proposal designated in the notice or presented at the hearings and reviewed by the commission. The specific findings of relative merit shall be made pursuant to Sections 25502 to 25516, inclusive. In its findings on any alternative siting proposal, the commission may specify modification in the design, construction, location, or other conditions which will meet the standards, policies, and guidelines established by the commission.

(e) Findings and conclusions with respect to the safety and reliability of the facility or facilities at each of the sites designated in the notice, as determined by the commission pursuant to Section 25511, and any conditions, modifications, or criteria proposed for any site and related facility proposal resulting from the findings and conclusions.

(f) Findings and conclusions as to whether increased property taxes due to the construction of the project are sufficient to support needed local improvements and public services required to serve the project.

SEC. 5. Section 25519.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25519.5. (a) Each local government agency reviewing an application pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 25519 shall file a preliminary list of issues regarding the design, operation, location, and financial impacts of the facility with the commission no later than 45 days after the date an application for certification is deemed filed for purposes of Section 25522 and shall provide a final list of those issues with the commission no later than 100 days after the application for certification is deemed filed. Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the right of a city, county, or city and county, to comment on an application filed pursuant to this chapter or to act as an intervenor or other party to a proceeding established pursuant to this chapter.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2004, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2004, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 25521 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25521. No earlier than 90 nor later than 240 days after the date of the filing of an application, the commission shall commence a public hearing or hearings on the application in Sacramento, San Francisco,

Los Angeles, or San Diego, whichever city is nearest the proposed site. Additionally, the commission may hold a hearing or hearings in the county in which the proposed site and related facilities are to be located. The commission hearings shall provide a reasonable opportunity for the public and all parties to the proceeding to comment upon the application and the commission staff assessment and shall provide the equivalent opportunity for comment as required pursuant to Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000). Consistent with the requirements of this section, the commission shall have the discretion to determine whether or not a hearing is to be conducted in a manner that requires formal examination of witnesses or that uses other similar adjudicatory procedures.

SEC. 7. Section 25523 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25523. The commission shall prepare a written decision after the public hearing on an application, which includes all of the following:

(a) Specific provisions relating to the manner in which the proposed facility is to be designed, sited, and operated in order to protect environmental quality and assure public health and safety.

(b) In the case of a site to be located in the coastal zone, specific provisions to meet the objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) as may be specified in the report submitted by the California Coastal Commission pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 30413, unless the commission specifically finds that the adoption of the provisions specified in the report would result in greater adverse effect on the environment or that the provisions proposed in the report would not be feasible.

(c) In the case of a site to be located in the Suisun Marsh or in the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, specific provisions to meet the requirements of Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of this code or Title 7.2 (commencing with Section 66600) of the Government Code as may be specified in the report submitted by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 66645 of the Government Code, unless the commission specifically finds that the adoption of the provisions specified in the report would result in greater adverse effect on the environment or the provisions proposed in the report would not be feasible.

(d) (1) Findings regarding the conformity of the proposed site and related facilities with standards adopted by the commission pursuant to Section 25216.3 and subdivision (d) of Section 25402, with public safety standards and the applicable air and water quality standards, and with other relevant local, regional, state, and federal standards, ordinances, or laws. If the commission finds that there is noncompliance with any state, local, or regional ordinance or regulation in the application, it shall consult and meet with the state, local, or regional governmental agency concerned to attempt to correct or eliminate the noncompliance. If the noncompliance cannot be corrected or eliminated, the commission shall inform the state, local, or regional governmental agency if it makes the findings required by Section 25525.

(2) The commission may not find that the proposed facility conforms with applicable air quality standards pursuant to paragraph (1) unless the applicable air pollution control district or air quality management district certifies, prior to the licensing of the project by the commission, that complete emissions offsets for the proposed facility have been identified and will be obtained by the applicant within the time required by the district's rules or unless the applicable air pollution control district or air quality management district certifies that the applicant requires emissions offsets to be obtained prior to the commencement of operation consistent with Section 42314.3 of the Health and Safety Code and prior to commencement of the operation of the proposed facility. The commission shall require as a condition of certification that the applicant obtain any required emission offsets within the time required by the applicable district rules, consistent with any applicable federal and state laws and regulations, and prior to the commencement of the operation of the proposed facility.

(e) Provision for restoring the site as necessary to protect the environment, if the commission denies approval of the application.

(f) In the case of a site and related facility using resource recovery (waste-to-energy) technology, specific conditions requiring that the facility be monitored to ensure compliance with paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 42315 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) In the case of a facility, other than a resource recovery facility subject to subdivision (f), specific conditions requiring the facility to be monitored to ensure compliance with toxic air contaminant control measures adopted by an air pollution control district or air quality management district pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 39666 or Section 41700 of the Health and Safety Code, whether the measures were adopted before or after issuance of a determination of compliance by the district.

(h) A discussion of any public benefits from the project including, but not limited to, economic benefits, environmental benefits, and electricity reliability benefits.

SEC. 8. Section 25531 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25531. (a) The decisions of the commission on any application for certification of a site and related facility are subject to judicial review by the Supreme Court of California.

(b) No new or additional evidence may be introduced upon review and the cause shall be heard on the record of the commission as certified to by it. The review shall not be extended further than to determine whether the commission has regularly pursued its authority, including a determination of whether the order or decision under review violates any right of the petitioner under the United States Constitution or the California Constitution. The findings and conclusions of the commission on questions of fact are final and are not subject to review, except as provided in this article. These questions of fact shall include ultimate facts and the findings and conclusions of the commission. A report prepared by, or an approval of, the commission pursuant to Section 25510, 25514, 25516, or 25516.5, or subdivision (b) of Section 25520.5, shall not constitute a decision of the commission subject to judicial review.

(c) Subject to the right of judicial review of decisions of the commission, no court in this state has jurisdiction to hear or determine any case or controversy concerning any matter which was, or could have been, determined in a proceeding before the commission, or to stop or delay the construction or operation of any thermal powerplant except to enforce compliance with the provisions of a decision of the commission.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1250.370 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

(1) If the commission requires, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25528, as a condition of certification of any site and related facility, that the applicant acquire development rights, that requirement conclusively establishes the matters referred to in Sections 1240.030 and 1240.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure in any eminent domain proceeding brought by the applicant to acquire the development rights.

(2) If the commission certifies any site and related facility, that certification conclusively establishes the matters referred to in Sections 1240.030 and 1240.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure in any eminent domain proceeding brought to acquire the site and related facility.

(e) No decision of the commission pursuant to Section 25516, 25522, or 25523 shall be found to mandate a specific supply plan for any utility as prohibited by Section 25323.

SEC. 9. Section 25550.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25550.5. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 25522 and Section 25540.6, the commission shall establish a process to issue its final decision on an application for certification for the repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities within 180 days after the filing of the application for certification that, on the basis of an initial review, shows that there is substantial evidence that the project will not cause a significant adverse impact on the environment or electrical system and that the project will comply with all applicable standards, ordinances, regulations, and statutes. For purposes of this section, filing has the same meaning as in Section 25522.

(b) The repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities reviewed under this process shall satisfy the requirements of Section 25520 and other necessary information required by the commission by regulation, including the information required for permitting by each local, state, and regional agency that would have jurisdiction over the proposed repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities but for the exclusive jurisdiction of the commission and the information required for permitting by each federal agency that has jurisdiction over the proposed repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities.

(c) After an application is filed under this section, the commission shall not be required to issue a final decision on the application within 180 days if it determines there is substantial evidence in the record that the thermal powerplant and related facilities may result in a significant adverse impact on the environment or electrical system or does not comply with an applicable standard, ordinance, regulation, or statute. Under this circumstance, the commission shall make its decision in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 25522 and Section 25540.6, and a new application shall not be required.

(d) For an application that the commission accepts under this section, any local, regional, or state agency that would have had jurisdiction over the proposed thermal powerplant and related facilities, but for the exclusive jurisdiction of the commission, shall provide its final comments, determinations, or opinions within 100 days after the filing of the application. The regional water quality control board, as established pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13200) of Division 7 of the Water Code, shall retain jurisdiction over any applicable water quality standard that is incorporated into any final certification issued pursuant to this chapter.

(e) The repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities that demonstrate superior environmental or efficiency performance improvement shall receive first priority in review by the commission.

(f) With respect to the repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities reviewed under the process established by this chapter, it shall be shown that the applicant has contracted with a general contractor and has contracted for an adequate supply of skilled labor to construct, operate, and maintain the plant.

(g) With respect to a repowering of a thermal powerplant and related facilities reviewed under the process established by this chapter, it shall be shown that the thermal powerplant and related facilities complies with all regulations adopted by the commission that ensure that an application addresses disproportionate impacts in a manner consistent with Section 65040.12 of the Government Code.

(h) To implement this section, the commission may adopt emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. For purposes of that chapter, including, without limitation, Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, and general welfare.

(i) For purposes of this section, “repowering” means a project for the modification of an existing generation unit of a thermal powerplant that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The project complies with all applicable requirements of federal, state, and local laws.

(2) The project is located on the site of, and within the existing boundaries of, an existing thermal facility.

(3) The project will not require significant additional rights-of-way for electrical or fuel-related transmission facilities.

(4) The project will result in significant and substantial increases in the efficiency of the production of electricity, including, but not limited to, reducing the heat rate, reducing the use of natural gas, reducing the use and discharge of water, and reducing air pollutants emitted by the project, as measured on a per kilowatthour basis.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2004, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2004, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 10. Section 25552 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25552. (a) The commission shall implement a procedure, consistent with Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) and with the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7401 et seq.), for an expedited decision on simple cycle thermal powerplants and related facilities that can be put into service on or before December 31, 2002, including a procedure for considering amendments to a pending application if the amendments specify a change from a combined cycle thermal powerplant and related facilities to a simple cycle thermal powerplant and related facilities.

(b) The procedure shall include all of the following:

(1) A requirement that, within 15 days of receiving the application or amendment to a pending application, the commission shall determine whether the application is complete.

(2) A requirement that, within 25 days of determining that an application is complete, the commission, or a committee of the commission, shall determine whether the application qualifies for an expedited decision pursuant to this section. If an application qualifies for an expedited decision pursuant to this section, the commission shall provide the notice required by Section 21092.

(c) The commission shall issue its final decision on an application, including an amendment to a pending application, within four months from the date on which it deems the application or amendment complete, or at any later time mutually agreed upon by the commission and the applicant, provided that the thermal powerplant and related facilities remain likely to be in service on or before December 31, 2002.

(d) The commission shall issue a decision granting a license to a simple cycle thermal powerplant and related facilities pursuant to this section if the commission finds all of the following:

(1) The thermal powerplant is not a major stationary source or a modification to a major stationary source, as defined by the federal Clean Air Act, and will be equipped with best available control technology, in consultation with the appropriate air pollution control district or air quality management district and the State Air Resources Board.

(2) The thermal powerplant and related facilities will not have a significant adverse effect on the environment or the electrical system as a result of construction or operation.

(3) With respect to a project for a thermal powerplant and related facilities reviewed under the process established by this section, the applicant has contracted with a general contractor and has contracted for an adequate supply of skilled labor to construct, operate, and maintain the thermal powerplant.

(e) In order to qualify for the procedure established by this section, an application shall satisfy the requirements of Section 25523, and include a description of the proposed conditions of certification that will do all of the following:

(1) Assure that the thermal powerplant and related facilities will not have a significant adverse effect on the environment as a result of construction or operation.

(2) Assure protection of public health and safety.

(3) Result in compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, and standards.

(4) A reasonable demonstration that the thermal powerplant and related facilities, if licensed on the expedited schedule provided by this section, will be in service before December 31, 2002.

(5) A binding and enforceable agreement with the commission, that demonstrates either of the following:

(A) That the thermal powerplant will cease to operate and the permit will terminate within three years.

(B) That the thermal powerplant will be recertified, modified, replaced, or removed within a period of three years with a cogeneration or combined-cycle thermal powerplant that uses best available control technology and obtains necessary offsets, as determined at the time the combined-cycle thermal powerplant is constructed, and that complies with all other applicable laws, ordinances, and standards.

(6) Where applicable, that the thermal powerplant will obtain offsets or, where offsets are unavailable, pay an air emissions mitigation fee to the air pollution control district or air quality management district based upon the actual emissions from the thermal powerplant, to the district for expenditure by the district pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 44275) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to mitigate the emissions from the plant. To the extent consistent with federal law and regulation, any offsets required pursuant to this paragraph shall be based upon a 1:1 ratio, unless, after consultation with the applicable air pollution control district or air quality management district, the commission finds that a different ratio should be required.

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the ability of an applicant that receives approval to install simple cycle thermal powerplants and related facilities as an amendment to a pending application to proceed with the original application for a combined cycle thermal powerplant or related facilities.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date except that the binding commitments in paragraph (5) of subdivision (e) shall remain in effect after that date.

SEC. 11. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 353.1) is added to Chapter 2.3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

Article 3.5. Distributed Energy Resources

353.1. As used in this article, "distributed energy resources" means any electric generation technology that meets all of the following criteria:

(a) Commences initial operation between May 1, 2001, and June 1, 2003, except that gas-fired distributed energy resources that are not operated in a combined heat and power application must commence operation no later than September 1, 2002.

(b) Is located within a single facility.

(c) Is five megawatts or smaller in aggregate capacity.

(d) Serves onsite loads or over-the-fence transactions allowed under Sections 216 and 218.

(e) Is powered by any fuel other than diesel.

(f) Complies with emission standards and guidance adopted by the State Air Resources Board pursuant to Sections 41514.9 and 41514.10 of the Health and Safety Code. Prior to the adoption of those standards and guidance, for the purpose of this article, distributed energy resources shall meet emissions levels equivalent to nine parts per million oxides of nitrogen, or the equivalent standard taking into account efficiency as determined by the State Air Resources Board, averaged over a three-hour period, or best available control technology for the applicable air district, whichever is lower, except for distributed generation units that displace and therefore significantly reduce emissions from natural gas flares or reinjection compressors, as determined by the State Air Resources Control Board. These units shall comply with the applicable best available control technology as determined by the air pollution control district or air quality management district in which they are located.

353.3. (a) The commission shall require each electrical corporation under the operational control of the Independent System Operator as of January 1, 2001, to modify its tariffs so that all customers installing new distributed energy resources in accordance with the criteria described in Section 353.1 are served under rates, rules, and requirements identical to those of a customer within the same rate schedule that does not use distributed energy resources, and to withdraw any provisions in otherwise applicable tariffs that activate other tariffs, rates, or rules if a customer uses distributed energy resources.

(b) To qualify for the tariffs described in subdivision (a), each customer with distributed energy resources that meet the criteria of Section 353.1 shall participate in a real-time metering and pricing program, when these programs become available, in which rates for any energy purchased from the electrical corporation reflect the actual cost to the electrical corporation of energy it purchases at the time it is consumed by the customer. Prior to the time these programs become available, the customer shall participate in a time-of-use pricing tariff. On or before December 31, 2001, the commission shall adopt a real time pricing tariff for the purpose of this section.

(c) Except as specified in Section 353.7, customers may not be subject to the application of additional rates or tariffs solely because of their use of distributed energy resources to serve onsite loads or over-the-fence transactions allowed under Sections 216 and 218.

353.5. Each electrical corporation, as part of its distribution planning process, shall consider nonutility owned distributed energy resources as a possible alternative to investments in its distribution system in order to ensure reliable electric service at the lowest possible cost.

353.7. Notwithstanding Section 353.3, nothing in this article may result in any exemption from reasonable interconnection charges, lead to any reduction in contributions by each customer class to public purpose programs funded under Section 399.8, or relieve any customer of any obligation determined by the commission to result from participation in the purchase of power through the Department of Water Resources pursuant to Division 27 (commencing with Section 80000) of the Water Code.

353.9. In establishing the rates required under this article, the commission shall create a firewall that segregates distribution cost recovery so that any net costs, taking into account the actual costs and benefits of distributed energy resources, proportional to each customer class, as determined by the commission, resulting from the tariff modifications granted to members of each customer class may be recovered only from that class.

353.11. A local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 9604, or a local publicly owned utility otherwise providing electrical service, shall review at the earliest practicable date its rates, tariffs, and rules to identify barriers to and determine the appropriate balance of costs and benefits of distributed energy resources in order to facilitate the installation of these resources in the interests of their customer-owners and the state, and shall hold at least one noticed public meeting to solicit public comment on the review and any recommended changes. However, notwithstanding any other provision of this article, such an entity has the sole authority to undertake such a review and to make modifications to its rates, tariffs, and rules as the governing body of that utility determines to be necessary.

353.13. (a) The commission shall require each electrical corporation to establish new tariffs on or before January 1, 2003, for customers using distributed energy resources, including, but not limited to, those which do not meet all of the criteria described in Section 353.1. However, after January 1, 2003, distributed energy resources that meet all of the criteria described in Section 353.1 shall continue to be subject only to those tariffs in existence pursuant to Section 353.3, until June 1, 2011, except that installations that do not operate in a combined heat and power application will be subject to those tariffs in existence pursuant to Section 353.3 only until June 1, 2006. Those tariffs required pursuant to this section shall ensure that all net distribution costs incurred to serve each customer class, taking into account the actual costs and benefits of distributed energy resources, proportional to each customer class, as determined by the commission, are fully recovered only from that class. The commission shall require each electrical corporation, in establishing those rates, to ensure that customers with similar load profiles within a customer class will, to the extent practicable, be subject to the same utility rates, regardless of their use of distributed energy resources to serve onsite loads or over-the-fence transactions allowed under Sections 216 and 218. Customers with dedicated facilities shall remain responsible for their obligations regarding payment for those facilities.

(b) The commission shall prepare and submit to the Legislature, on or before June 1, 2002, a report describing its proposed methodology for determining the new rates and the process by which it will establish those rates.

353.15. (a) In order to evaluate the efficiency, emissions, and reliability of distributed energy resources with a capacity greater than 10 kilowatts, customers that install those resources pursuant to this article shall report to the commission, on an annual basis, all of the following information, as recorded on a monthly basis:

(1) Heat rate for the resource.

(2) Total kilowatthours produced in the peak and off-peak periods, as determined by the ISO.

(3) Emissions data for the resource, as required by the State Air Resources Board or the appropriate air quality management district or air pollution control district.

(b) The commission shall release the information submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) in a manner that does not identify the individual user of the distributed energy resource.

(c) The commission, in consultation with the State Air Resources Board, air quality management districts, air pollution control districts, and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall evaluate the information submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) and, within two years of the effective date of the act adding this article, prepare and submit to the Governor and the Legislature a report recommending any changes to this article it determines necessary based upon that information.

SEC. 12. (a) Notwithstanding Section 625 of the Public Utilities Code, from the effective date of this section to June 1, 2002, inclusive, a gas corporation public utility may exercise the power of eminent domain, including, but not limited to, any authority provided by Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to condemn any property for the purpose of competing with another entity in the offering of natural gas and services related to natural gas.

(b) The Public Utilities Commission may not make a finding on a petition or complaint pending on the effective date of this section that was filed pursuant to Section 625 of the Public Utilities Code by a gas corporation public utility to condemn any property for the purpose of competing with another entity in the offering of natural gas and services related to natural gas. The Public Utilities Commission shall dismiss the petition or complaint.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 1, 2002, and, as of January 1, 2003, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 13. The sum of not more than three million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($3,250,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for expenditure, until January 1, 2005, for the following purposes:

(a) Three million dollars ($3,000,000) to provide assistance to cities and counties to expedite the review and analysis of applications for electrical generating facilities which will assist the state in meeting its urgent energy needs and ensuring system reliability. The moneys available pursuant to this subdivision shall not be used to supplant funding available to a city or county through the exercise of its existing fee authority.

(b) Not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to contract or conduct a study, in consultation with the Orange County Sanitation District, of the remedies to mitigate effects of shoreline water contamination located in the vicinity of the City of Huntington Beach to be conducted concurrently with the Huntington Beach Shoreline Contamination Study conducted by the Orange County Sanitation District.

SEC. 14. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to address the rapid, unforeseen shortage of electric supply and energy available in the state, which endangers the health, welfare, and safety of the people of this state, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 13

An act to amend Section 4241 of the Government Code, and to add and repeal Sections 42317 and 42359.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to energy, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 24, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State May 25, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4241 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4241. As used in this chapter, and as used in Section 5 of the act adding this chapter, “state energy project” means equipment, load management techniques, and other measures or services that reduce energy consumption and provide for more efficient use of energy in state buildings or facilities, or buildings or facilities owned or operated by any public postsecondary educational institution.

SEC. 2. Section 42317 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42317. (a) Notwithstanding any permit conditions to the contrary, and subject to the conditions established pursuant to subdivision (b), a district shall authorize a permitted stationary source to operate its emergency electrical power generating equipment during any period of an involuntary power service interruption, solely to the extent it is necessary for one or both of the following purposes:

(1) To prevent damage to its equipment.

(2) To complete the processing of products that would be irreparably damaged or destroyed as a direct result of an involuntary electrical power service interruption.

(b) Any authorization granted by a district pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The emergency electrical power generating equipment may not be used to begin a new process or to process additional products.

(2) The emergency electrical power generating equipment may be used only for the period of time the condition described under paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) exists.

(3) The stationary source shall continue to operate any pollution control equipment associated with the source and with its emergency electrical power generating equipment during the period of time the condition described under paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) exists.

(4) To the extent the stationary sources' emergency electrical power generating equipment uses diesel generation, low-sulfur diesel fuel or a fuel that has been verified by the State Air Resources Board to materially reduce emissions of oxides of nitrogen (NO_x) and particulate matter (PM) shall be used to the extent that it is available.

(5) The stationary source, and its emergency electrical power generating equipment, is otherwise in compliance with all applicable district rules and regulations and all applicable regulations adopted by the state board, including, but not limited to, requirements for the use of the best available control technology, or hourly limits of operation established by the district.

(6) The stationary source provides all information required in the district emergency authorization form.

(c) (1) Each district shall, not later than 14 days from the effective date of this section, create a simple emergency authorization form of not more than two pages in length in which an applicant shall certify in writing its agreement to comply with subdivision (b) and give the reasons why it believes the operation of its emergency electrical power generating equipment during any period of an involuntary power service interruption will meet the conditions of subdivision (a).

(2) A completed emergency authorization form for authorization under subdivision (a) shall be approved or denied by the district not later than five working days from the date of its submittal, to the extent not inconsistent with other state or federal notice requirements. If authorization is denied, the specific grounds for its denial shall be clearly stated.

(d) An authorization under subdivision (a) may only be approved for a stationary source enrolled on or before January 1, 2001, in an interruptible program contract, as described in Section 743.1 of the Public Utilities Code.

(e) For purposes of this section, "involuntary electrical power service interruption" means a power interruption or curtailment of a permitted stationary source pursuant to an interruptible program contract, as described in Section 743.1 of the Public Utilities Code.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 42359.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42359.6. (a) For purposes of Section 42359.5, a breakdown condition includes the startup or shutdown of a facility, enrolled on or before January 1, 2001, in an interruptible program contract, as described in Section 743.1 of the Public Utilities Code, that has complied with applicable startup and shutdown procedures, or a failure to operate air emission control equipment, if either condition is caused by a power interruption or curtailment initiated by the Independent System Operator, a public utility electrical corporation, or a local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in Section 9604 of the Public Utilities Code and feasible measures that could have been reasonably implemented to minimize emissions during startup and shutdown were implemented.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to address the rapid, unforeseen shortage of electric power and energy available in the state and rapid and substantial increases in wholesale energy costs and retail energy rates, that endanger the health, welfare, and safety of the people of this state, and to encourage programs that encourage curtailments at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

2001 RESOLUTION CHAPTERS

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 1

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1—Relative to natural gas.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 11, 2001.]

WHEREAS, Expenditures for natural gas in California will have increased from $8 billion in 1999 to $13 billion in 2000, and to an estimated $32 billion in 2001; and

WHEREAS, These increases have had and will have devastating impacts on residential, agricultural, and business natural gas users and on the cost of generating electricity, and will have a devastating impact on the California economy; and

WHEREAS, In 1938, Congress enacted the National Gas Act to regulate the sale of natural gas because it “considered that the natural gas industry was heavily concentrated and that monopolistic forces were distorting the market price for natural gas”; and

WHEREAS, Congress’ “primary aim ... was to protect consumers against exploitation at the hands of natural gas companies” and to ensure consumers “access to an adequate supply of gas at a reasonable price”; and

WHEREAS, By 1989, Congress had fully deregulated the sale of natural gas at the wellhead; and

WHEREAS, Interstate natural gas pipelines are still regulated under the federal Natural Gas Act, with maximum pipeline transportation rates being established by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC); and

WHEREAS, By 1992, FERC (not Congress) deregulated natural gas sales by wholesalers who use interstate natural gas pipelines, but FERC said that it would entertain complaints about market misuse; and

WHEREAS, In 2000, FERC removed price controls on the sale of natural gas pipeline capacity by marketers, retained price controls on the sale of natural gas pipeline capacity by owners of pipelines, and said that FERC would entertain complaints about market misuse; and

WHEREAS, Wholesalers of natural gas must pay the pipeline transportation price that is less than or equal to the maximum pipeline transportation rate established by FERC, but may charge more than the FERC-established maximum pipeline transportation rate; and

WHEREAS, California entities have filed complaints with FERC about market misuse; and

WHEREAS, Natural gas deregulation has worked in every state except California, where spot natural gas costs at the California border have skyrocketed, reaching $62 per MMBtu for natural gas in December 2000, while the wellhead price plus the maximum pipeline transportation rates were about $5.50; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the President of the United States, the Congress of the United States, and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission are urged to do all of the following:

(a) Reestablish cost-based regulation of natural gas sales at the California border by marketers or owners of pipelines.

(b) Prohibit withholding of natural gas capacity on pipelines entering California ; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the Chairman of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to immediately place the issue of cost-based caps of natural gas on the commission agenda and allow it to be voted on; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the President of the United States to meet with a bipartisan coalition of California legislators to discuss the energy crisis facing the western states that threatens the national economy.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 2

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 3—Relative to final adjournment of the 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 16, 2001.]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature shall adjourn sine die at midnight on May 14, 2001.

SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION SPECIAL RULES OF EFFECTIVENESS

Except for a statute calling an election, a statute providing for a tax levy or an appropriation calling for the usual current expenses of the state, and an urgency statute, all of which take effect immediately following enactment, a statute adopted during an extraordinary session takes effect on the 91st day following the adjournment of the special session (see subdivision (c) of Section 8 of Article IV of the California Constitution). The effective date of a joint resolution is the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

The 2001–02 Second Extraordinary Session convened in the Assembly on May 14, 2001, and in the Senate on May 17, 2001. This Extraordinary Session had not been adjourned prior to publication of these statutes; please refer to the succeeding year’s Statutes and Amendments to the Codes.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

PROCLAMATION
by the

STATUTES OF CALIFORNIA

2001–02

SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

2001 CHAPTERS

CHAPTER 1

An act relating to energy, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 8, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State August 9, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The State of California is in the midst of a severe energy crisis and increased production of natural gas reserves in the state will help to alleviate this crisis.

(b) There may be untapped natural gas reserves in the Long Beach tidelands, but contractors operating under existing oil operating contracts with the City of Long Beach need financial incentives to explore for and develop those reserves.

(c) There are currently no financial incentives provided for by existing laws governing oil operations in the Long Beach tidelands.

SEC. 2. (a) The State Lands Commission may, on behalf of the state, negotiate contracts or agreements with the City of Long Beach, and any contractor operating under an oil operating contract with the City of Long Beach, that provide financial incentives for the contractor to explore for, and develop, additional gas reserves in the Long Beach tidelands, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session. Neither this act nor any contract or agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall supersede or amend, in any respect, the existing contractors' agreements for Tracts 1 and 2 of the Long Beach Unit, the Agreement for Implementation of an Optimized Waterflood Program for the Long Beach Unit, the Long Beach Unit Agreement, the Long Beach Unit Operating Agreement, the Long Beach Harbor Tidelands Parcel and Parcel "A" Oil Contract, the Fault Block Unit Agreements, and Unit Operating Agreements, or any other existing contract covering the drilling, developing, extracting, processing, taking, or removal of oil, gas, and other hydrocarbons from the Long Beach tidelands.

(b) Any contract or agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) shall contain a provision specifying that the contractor and the City of Long Beach, either directly or indirectly, shall jointly bear the costs incurred in connection with the exploration and development of additional gas reserves in the Long Beach tidelands. The composition of those additional gas reserves to be developed in the Long Beach tidelands shall be prescribed in any contract or agreement entered into by the State Lands Commission, the City of Long Beach, and the contractor. The state shall not bear any of the cost incurred in connection with the exploration and development of those additional gas reserves, nor shall it pay any abandonment costs related to that gas exploration or development. The state shall receive an expense-free royalty, in cash or in kind, that is payable monthly on all gas produced as a result of this new exploration and development. The City of Long Beach and any contractor entering into a contract or agreement for the exploration or development of gas reserves with the City of Long Beach may determine, in the course of negotiations, how the exploration and development costs will be apportioned between the parties to the contract or agreement, and how the gas produced from this exploration and development will be allocated between or among each party, provided that the City of Long Beach shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase all gas produced at a negotiated price that is no greater than the reasonable wholesale commodity market price of dry gas sold for residential consumption in the Los Angeles Basin. The state shall receive its royalty in cash so long as the City of Long Beach is exercising its right to purchase all the gas, but may elect to receive its royalty either in cash or in kind whenever the City of Long Beach is not exercising this right. All oil produced in connection with the development and production of these additional gas reserves shall be allocated and accounted for as normal oil production under existing and applicable contracts or agreements governing oil production in the Long Beach tidelands.

(c) The provisions of Chapter 29 of the Statutes of 1956, First Extraordinary Session, and of Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, relating to the allocation and disposition of Long Beach tidelands dry gas, shall remain in effect and continue to be fully applicable to all dry gas produced from the Long Beach tidelands that is not a product of the exploration and development undertaken pursuant to a contract or agreement authorized by subdivision (a).

(d) All net revenue derived by the City of Long Beach from the disposition of its allocated share of the additional gas reserves that are a product of the exploration and development undertaken pursuant to a contract or agreement authorized by subdivision (a) shall be used by the City of Long Beach for the purposes of, and in the manner set forth in, Section 6 of Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because a local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the residents of the state to benefit from the potential for more natural gas as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 2

An act to amend Section 2772 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to electricity, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State August 13, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2772 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2772. In establishing the priorities pursuant to Section 2771, the commission shall include, but not be limited to, a consideration of all the following:

(a) A determination of the customers and uses of electricity and gas, in descending order of priority, which provide the most important public benefits and serve the greatest public need.

(b) A determination of the customers and uses of electricity and gas which are not included under subdivision (a).

(c) A determination of the economic, social, and other effects of a temporary discontinuance in electrical or gas service to the customers or for the uses determined in accordance with subdivision (a) or (b).

(d) A determination of the potential effect of extreme temperatures on the health and safety of residential customers. In making this determination, the commission shall do all of the following:

(1) Consult with appropriate medical experts and review appropriate literature and research.

(2) Consider whether providing priority to customers experiencing extreme temperatures would result in increased outage frequency and duration for remaining customers and its effect on the health and safety of those remaining customers.

(3) To the extent the commission determines it is in the public interest to provide priority to customers that experience extreme temperatures, it shall provide that priority only when temperatures are extreme.

(4) Consider whether alternative measures are appropriate, including, but not limited to, reducing the duration of the outage or imposing the outage earlier or later in the day.

(e) Any curtailment or allocation rules, orders, or regulations issued by any agency of the federal government.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the Public Utilities Commission to consider in the establishment of use priorities the potential effect of extreme temperatures on residential customers at the earliest possible time, thereby ensuring their health and safety, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 3

An act to add Section 2774.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to electric power, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 5, 2001. Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2774.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2774.5. An electrical corporation or local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 9604, shall immediately notify the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol and the sheriff and any affected chief of police of the specific area within their respective law enforcement jurisdictions that will sustain a planned loss of power as soon as the planned loss becomes known as to when and where that power loss will occur. The notification shall include common geographical boundaries, grid or block numbers of the effected area, and the next anticipated power loss area designated by the electrical corporation or public entity during rotating blackouts.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the public from increased criminal activity during the current energy shortage, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 4

An act to amend Section 1103 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to energy, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 1, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1103 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

1103. For the purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(a) “Agency” means the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(b) “Air district” means an air pollution control district or an air quality management district established or continued in existence pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 40000) of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) “Facility” means any California site that meets both of the following criteria:

(1) As of July 1, 2000, converted and continues to convert qualified agricultural biomass to energy, or that operated prior to July 1, 2000, converting qualified agricultural biomass to energy, was closed for a period of time but maintained all applicable air quality permits during that closure, and is ready to reopen on or before June 30, 2001, and, in both cases, the conversion results in lower oxides of nitrogen (NO_x) emissions than would otherwise be produced if burned in the open field during the ozone season, as determined by the air district in which the site operates.

(2) Does not produce electricity for sale to a public utility pursuant to a contract with that public utility, or, if the site does produce electricity for sale to a public utility pursuant to a contract with that public utility, the site does not qualify for fixed energy prices established prior to June 30, 2000, under the terms of that contract at the time the application for the grant is made.

(d) “Grant” means an award of funds by the agency to an air district that shall, in turn, grant incentive payments to a facility after deducting the air district’s administrative fee as provided in Section 1104.

(e) "Incentive payment" means a payment by an air district to facilities for qualified agricultural biomass to be received and converted into energy after July 1, 2000. This payment shall be in the amount of ten dollars ($10) for each ton of qualified agricultural biomass received for conversion to energy.

(f) "Qualified agricultural biomass" means agricultural residues that historically have been open field burned in the jurisdiction of the air district from which the agricultural residues are derived, as determined by the air district, excluding urban and forest wood products, that include either of the following:

(1) Field and seed crop residues, including, but not limited to, straws from rice and wheat.

(2) Fruit and nut crop residues, including, but not limited to, orchard and vineyard pruning and removals.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the allocation of funds set forth in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 5 of Chapter 7 of the First Extraordinary Session, as amended by Chapter 111 of the Statutes of 2001, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall transfer three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000) of the total funds allocated pursuant to that subparagraph to the California Technology, Trade, and Commerce Agency pursuant to an interagency agreement within 30 days of the effective date of the act adding this section for the sole and specific purpose of supplementing the funding and furthering the intent of the Agricultural Biomass-to-Energy Incentive Grant Program as established in Part 3 (commencing with Section 1101) of Division 1 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make grants to encourage the development of additional facilities that convert agricultural biomass to energy under the Agricultural Biomass-to-Energy Incentive Grant Program as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 5

An act to amend Section 17073 of, and to add Section 17208.1 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 1, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17073 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17073. (a) Section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to taxable income defined, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) The deduction allowed by Section 17208.1, relating to interest on loans or financed indebtedness obtained from a publicly owned utility for the purchase and installation of energy efficient products or equipment, shall not be treated as a miscellaneous itemized deduction under Section 67(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the 2-percent floor on miscellaneous deductions.

(c) For individuals who do not itemize deductions, the standard deduction computed in accordance with Section 17073.5 shall be allowed as a deduction in computing taxable income.

SEC. 2. Section 17208.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17208.1. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of interest paid or incurred by a taxpayer during the taxable year on any loan or financed indebtedness obtained from a publicly owned utility company for the purpose of acquiring and installing any energy efficient product or equipment to a qualified residence located in this state.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) “Energy efficient product or equipment” means any product or equipment certified by a publicly owned utility company that will improve the energy efficiency, as defined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 399.4 of the Public Utilities Code, of a qualified residence on which the product or equipment is installed or applied.

(2) “Energy efficient product or equipment” shall include, but not be limited to, heating, ventilation, air-conditioning, lighting, solar, advanced metering of energy usage, windows, insulation, zone heating products, and weatherization systems.

(3) "Zone heating products" mean gas room heaters certified by the California Energy Commission or wood fueled stoves certified by the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(4) "Publicly owned utility company" has the same meaning as set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 9604 of the Public Utilities Code.

(5) "Qualified residence" has the same meaning as set forth in Section 163(h)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) "Publicly owned utility company loan or financial indebtedness" means any amount borrowed from a publicly owned utility company to finance the acquisition and installation of energy efficient products and equipment installed or applied to a qualified residence located in this state.

(c) Any interest amount that is allowed as a deduction pursuant to this section (and the application of Section 17072) may not otherwise be allowed as a deduction for purposes of this part.

(d) The publicly owned utility company shall issue a federal income tax Form 1098, or similar form, for the purpose of notifying the taxpayer of his or her eligibility for the deduction allowed by this section.

(e) The deduction allowed by this section shall be in lieu of any credit allowed by this part for interest paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of energy efficient equipment.

(f) The Legislature finds and declares that many taxpayers may be unaware that they may deduct interest paid or incurred pursuant to this section. The Legislature further finds that it is important to inform taxpayers of this deduction. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to encourage all publicly owned utility companies to inform their customers in writing that they may deduct interest paid or incurred pursuant to this section. It is the further intent of the Legislature to encourage all publicly owned utility companies that are unable to offer customer financing to acquire or install energy efficient products and equipment to inform their customers in writing that interest on a home equity or home improvement loan used to purchase energy efficient products and equipment may also be tax deductible.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature to inquire with the Internal Revenue Service as to whether the loan program administered by the Sacramento Municipal Utility District qualifies for an interest deduction in compliance with the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 6

An act to add Section 25403.8 to the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 21800 of the Vehicle Code, relating to energy, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 1, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25403.8 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25403.8. (a) The commission shall develop and implement a program to provide battery backup power for those official traffic control signals, operated by a city, county, or city and county, that the commission, in consultation with cities, counties, or cities and counties, determines to be high priority traffic control signals.

(b) Based on traffic factors considered by cities, counties, or cities and counties, including, but not limited to, traffic volume, number of accidents, and presence of children, the commission shall determine a priority schedule for the installation of battery backup power for traffic control systems. The commission shall give priority to a city, county, or city and county that did not receive a grant from the State of California for the installation of light-emitting diode traffic control signals.

(c) The commission shall also develop or adopt the necessary technical criteria as to wiring, circuitry, and recharging units for traffic control signals. Only light-emitting diodes (LED) traffic control signals are eligible for battery backup power for the full operation of the traffic control signal or a flashing red mode. A city, county, or city and county may apply for a matching grant for battery backup power for traffic control signals retrofitted with light-emitting diodes.

(d) Based on the criteria described in subdivision (c), the commission shall provide matching grants to cities, counties, and cities and counties for backup battery systems described in this section in accordance with the priority schedule established by the commission pursuant to subdivision (b). The commission shall provide 70 percent of the funds for a battery backup system, and the city, county, or city and county shall provide 30 percent.

(e) If a city, county, or city and county has installed a backup battery system for LED traffic control signals between January 1, 2001, and the effective date of the act adding this section, the commission may reimburse the city, county, or city and county for up to 30 percent of the cost incurred for the backup battery system installation. However, the commission may not spend more than one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) for reimbursements pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 2. Section 21800 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21800. (a) The driver of a vehicle approaching an intersection shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle which has entered the intersection from a different highway.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "terminating highway" means a highway which intersects, but does not continue beyond the intersection, with another highway which does continue beyond the intersection.

(c) When two vehicles enter an intersection from different highways at the same time and the intersection is controlled from all directions by stop signs, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right-of-way to the vehicle on his or her immediate right.

(d) (1) The driver of any vehicle approaching an intersection which has official traffic control signals that are inoperative shall stop at the intersection, and may proceed with caution when it is safe to do so. This subparagraph shall apply to traffic control signals that become inoperative because of battery failure.

(2) When two vehicles enter an intersection from different highways at the same time, and the official traffic control signals for the intersection are inoperative, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right-of-way to the vehicle on his or her immediate right, except that the driver of any vehicle on a terminating highway shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle on the intersecting continuing highway.

(e) This section does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any intersection controlled by an official traffic control signal or yield right-of-way sign.

(2) Any intersection controlled by stop signs from less than all directions.

(3) When vehicles are approaching each other from opposite directions and the driver of one of the vehicles intends to make, or is making, a left turn.

SEC. 3. (a) For the purpose of providing matching grants for backup battery systems for traffic control signals retrofitted with light-emitting diodes pursuant to Section 25403.8 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) shall be reallocated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission from funds appropriated in Chapter 8 of the Statutes of the 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session for the purposes of Article 4 (commencing with Section 15350) of Chapter 1 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission may not expend more than 5 percent of the amount available for expenditure pursuant to this subdivision for administrative costs in carrying out the grant program.

(b) On or before June 1, 2004, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall submit a report to the Governor and the Legislature on the expenditures made pursuant to subdivision (a), including grant awards and program activities.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the shortage of electric generation capacity to meet the needs of the people of the state and in order to limit the impact of that shortage on the public health, safety, and welfare due to the nonoperation of traffic control signal lights during anticipated rotating blackouts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 7

An act to add Section 368.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 1, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting the act adding this section, to not usurp the authority of the Public Utilities Commission to set rates for electrical corporations.

SEC. 2. Section 368.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

368.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the termination of the 10-percent rate reduction for residential and small commercial customers set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 368, the commission may not subject those residential and small commercial customers to any rate increases or future rate obligations solely as a result of the termination of the 10-percent rate reduction.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) do not affect the authority of the commission to raise rates for reasons other than the termination of the 10-percent rate reduction set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 368.

(c) Nothing in this section shall further extend the authority to impose fixed transition amounts, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 840, or further authorize or extend rate reduction bonds, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 840.

SEC. 3. To the extent the provisions of this act conflict with any other provision of the Public Utilities Code, the provisions of this act shall prevail.

CHAPTER 8

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 60022 and 60023 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 3, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 60022 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

60022. (a) "Diesel fuel" means any liquid that is commonly or commercially known or sold as a fuel that is suitable for use in a diesel-powered highway vehicle. A liquid meets this requirement if, without further processing or blending, the liquid has practical and commercial fitness for use in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle. However, a liquid does not possess this practical and commercial fitness solely by reason of its possible or rare use as a fuel in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

(b) "Diesel fuel" does not include kerosene.

(c) "Diesel fuel" does not include the water in a diesel fuel and water emulsion of two immiscible liquids of diesel fuel and water, which emulsion contains an additive that causes the water droplets to remain suspended within the diesel fuel, provided the diesel fuel emulsion meets standards set by the California Air Resources Board.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 2007, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 60022 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

60022. (a) “Diesel fuel” means any liquid that is commonly or commercially known or sold as a fuel that is suitable for use in a diesel-powered highway vehicle. A liquid meets this requirement if, without further processing or blending, the liquid has practical and commercial fitness for use in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle. However, a liquid does not possess this practical and commercial fitness solely by reason of its possible or rare use as a fuel in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

(b) “Diesel fuel” does not include gasoline, kerosene, liquefied petroleum gas, natural gas in liquid or gaseous form, or alcohol.

(c) “Diesel fuel” does not include the water in a diesel fuel and water emulsion of two immiscible liquids of diesel fuel and water, which emulsion contains an additive that causes the water droplets to remain suspended within the diesel fuel, provided the diesel fuel emulsion meets standards set by the California Air Resources Board.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 2007, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 60022 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

60022. (a) “Diesel fuel” means any liquid that is commonly or commercially known or sold as a fuel that is suitable for use in a diesel-powered highway vehicle. A liquid meets this requirement if, without further processing or blending, the liquid has practical and commercial fitness for use in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

However, a liquid does not possess this practical and commercial fitness solely by reason of its possible or rare use as a fuel in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

“Diesel fuel” does not include kerosene. “Diesel fuel” includes any combustible liquid, by whatever name the liquid may be known or sold, when the liquid is used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to operate a motor vehicle licensed to operate on the highway, except fuel that is subject to the tax imposed in Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601).

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2007.

SEC. 4. Section 60023 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 1053 of the Statutes of 2000, is amended to read:

60023. (a) “Blended diesel fuel” means any mixture of diesel fuel with respect to which tax has been imposed and any other liquid (such as kerosene) on which tax has not been imposed (other than diesel fuel dyed in accordance with United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service rules). Blended diesel fuel also means any conversion of a liquid into diesel fuel. “Conversion of a liquid into diesel fuel” occurs when any liquid that is not included in the definition of diesel fuel and that is outside the bulk transfer/terminal system is sold as diesel fuel, delivered as diesel fuel, or represented to be diesel fuel.

(b) “Blended diesel fuel” does not include a diesel fuel and water emulsion of two immiscible liquids of diesel fuel and water, which emulsion contains an additive package that causes the water droplets to remain suspended within the diesel fuel, provided that the diesel fuel emulsion meets the standards set by the California Air Resources Board.

(c) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 2007, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 60023 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

60023. (a) “Blended diesel fuel” means any mixture of diesel fuel with respect to which tax has been imposed and any other liquid (such as kerosene) on which tax has not been imposed (other than diesel fuel dyed in accordance with United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service rules). Blended diesel fuel also means any conversion of a liquid into diesel fuel. “Conversion of a liquid into diesel fuel” occurs when any liquid that is not included in the definition of diesel fuel and that is outside the bulk transfer/terminal system is sold as diesel fuel, delivered as diesel fuel, or represented to be diesel fuel.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2007.

SEC. 6. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 60022 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 309. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2002, (2) each bill amends Section 60022 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 309, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 9

An act to amend Section 15356 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 25433.5, 25434.5, 26003, and 26011.6 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor October 4, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 5, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15356 of the Government Code is amended to read:

SECTION 1. Section 382 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

382. (a) Programs provided to low-income electricity customers, including, but not limited to, targeted energy-efficiency services and the California Alternate Rates for Energy program shall be funded at not less than 1996 authorized levels based on an assessment of customer need.

(b) In order to meet legitimate needs of electric and gas customers who are unable to pay their electric and gas bills and who satisfy eligibility criteria for assistance, recognizing that electricity is a basic necessity, and that all residents of the state should be able to afford essential electricity and gas supplies, the commission shall ensure that low-income ratepayers are not jeopardized or overburdened by monthly energy expenditures. Energy expenditure may be reduced through the establishment of different rates for low-income ratepayers, different levels of rate assistance, and energy efficiency programs.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit electric and gas providers from offering any special rate or program for low-income ratepayers that is not specifically required in this section.

(d) The commission shall allocate funds necessary to meet the low-income objectives in this section.

(e) Beginning in 2002, an assessment of the needs of low-income electricity and gas ratepayers shall be conducted periodically by the commission with the assistance of the Low-Income Oversight Board. The assessment shall evaluate low-income program implementation and the effectiveness of weatherization services and energy efficiency measures in low-income households. The assessment shall consider whether existing programs adequately address low-income electricity and gas customers' energy expenditures, hardship, language needs, and economic burdens.

SEC. 2. Section 382.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

382.1. (a) There is hereby established a Low-Income Oversight Board that shall advise the commission on low-income electric and gas customer issues and shall serve as a liaison for the commission to low-income ratepayers and representatives. The Low-Income Oversight Board shall replace the Low-Income Advisory Board in existence on January 1, 2000. The Low-Income Oversight Board shall do all of the following to advise the commission regarding the commission's duties:

(1) Monitor and evaluate implementation of all programs provided to low-income electricity and gas customers.

(2) Assist in the development and analysis of any assessments of low-income electricity and gas customer need.

(3) Encourage collaboration between state and utility programs for low-income electricity and gas customers to maximize the leverage of state and federal energy efficiency funds to both lower the bills and increase the comfort of low-income customers.

(4) Provide reports to the Legislature, as requested, summarizing the assessment of need, audits, and analysis of program implementation.

(5) Assist in streamlining the application and enrollment process of programs for low-income electricity and gas customers with general low-income programs, including, but not limited to, the Universal Lifeline Telephone Service (ULTS) program.

(6) Encourage the usage of the network of community service providers in accordance with Section 381.5.

(b) The Low-Income Oversight Board shall be comprised of nine members to be selected as follows:

(1) Four members selected by the commission who have expertise in the low-income community and who are not affiliated with any state agency or utility group. These members shall be selected in a manner to ensure an equitable geographic distribution.

- (2) One member selected by the Governor.
 - (3) One member selected by the commission who is a commissioner or commissioner designee.
 - (4) One member selected by the Department of Community Services and Development.
 - (5) One member selected by the commission who is a representative of private weatherization contractors.
 - (6) One member selected by the commission who is a representative of an electrical or gas corporation.
 - (c) The Low-Income Oversight Board shall alternate meeting locations between northern, central, and southern California.
 - (d) The Low-Income Oversight Board may establish a technical advisory committee consisting of low-income service providers, utility representatives, consumer organizations, and commission staff, to assist the board and may request utility representatives and commission staff to assist the technical advisory committee.

 - (1) Work with the board, interested parties, and community-based organizations to increase participation in programs for low-income customers.
 - (2) Provide technical support to the board.
 - (3) Ensure that the energy burden of low-income electricity and gas customers is reduced.
 - (4) Provide formal notice of board meetings in the commissions' daily calendar.
 - (f) (1) Members of the board and members of the technical advisory committee shall be eligible for compensation in accordance with state guidelines for necessary travel.
 - (2) Members of the board and members of the technical advisory committee who are not salaried state service employees shall be eligible for reasonable compensation for attendance at board meetings.
 - (3) All reasonable costs incurred by the board, including, staffing, travel, and administrative costs, shall be reimbursed through the public utilities reimbursement account and shall be part of the budget of the commission and the commission shall consult with the board in the preparation of that portion of the commission's annual proposed budget.
- SEC. 3. Section 386 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:
386. (a) Each local publicly owned electric utility shall ensure the following:
- (1) Low-income families within the utility's service territory have access to affordable electricity.
 - (2) The current level of assistance reflects the level of need.

(3) Low-income families are afforded no-cost and low-cost energy efficiency measures that reduce energy consumption.

(b) The local publicly owned electric utility shall consider increasing the level of the discount or raising the eligibility level for any existing rate assistance program to be reflective of customer need.

(c) A publicly owned electric utility shall streamline enrollment for low-income programs by collaborating with existing providers for the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and other electric or gas providers within the same service territory.

(d) A local publicly owned electric utility shall establish participation goals for its rate assistance program participation.

SEC. 4. Section 739.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739.1. (a) The commission shall establish a program of assistance to low-income electric and gas customers, the cost of which shall not be borne solely by any single class of customer. The program shall be referred to as the California Alternate Rates for Energy or CARE program. The commission shall ensure that the level of discount for low-income electric and gas customers correctly reflects the level of need.

(b) The commission shall work with the public utility electrical and gas corporations to establish penetration goals. The commission shall authorize recovery of all administrative costs associated with the implementation of the CARE program that the commission determines to be reasonable, through a balancing account mechanism. Administrative costs shall include, but are not limited to, outreach, marketing, regulatory compliance, certification and verification, billing, measurement and evaluation, and capital improvements and upgrades to communications and processing equipment.

(c) The commission shall examine methods to improve CARE enrollment and participation. This examination shall include, but need not be limited to, comparing information from CARE and the Universal Lifeline Telephone Service (ULTS) to determine the most effective means of utilizing that information to increase CARE enrollment, automatic enrollment of ULTS customers who are eligible for the CARE program, customer privacy issues, and alternative mechanisms for outreach to potential enrollees. The commission shall ensure that a customer consents prior to enrollment. The commission shall consult with interested parties, including ULTS providers, to develop the best methods of informing ULTS customers about other available low-income programs, as well as the best mechanism for telephone providers to recover reasonable costs incurred pursuant to this section.

(d) The commission shall improve the CARE application process. To the extent possible, the commission shall develop a CARE application process using the existing ULTS application process as a model. The commission shall work with public utility electrical and gas corporations and the Low-Income Oversight Board established in Section 382.1 to meet the low-income objectives in this section.

(e) The commission’s program of assistance to low-income electric and gas customers shall, as soon as practicable, include nonprofit group living facilities specified by the commission, if the commission finds that the residents in these facilities substantially meet the commission’s low-income eligibility requirements and there is a feasible process for certifying that the assistance shall be used for the direct benefit, such as improved quality of care or improved food service, of the low-income residents in the facilities. The commission shall authorize utilities to offer discounts to eligible facilities licensed or permitted by appropriate state or local agencies, and to facilities, including women’s shelters, hospices, and homeless shelters, that may not have a license or permit but provide other proof satisfactory to the utility that they are eligible to participate in the program.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission ensure CARE program participants are afforded the lowest possible electric and gas rates and, to the extent possible, are exempt from additional surcharges attributable to the current energy crisis.

SEC. 5. Section 2790 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2790. (a) The commission shall require an electrical or gas corporation to perform home weatherization services for low-income customers, as determined by the commission under Section 739, if the commission determines that a significant need for those services exists in the corporation’s service territory, taking into consideration both the cost-effectiveness of the services and the policy of reducing the hardships facing low-income households.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, “weatherization” may include, where feasible, any of the following measures for any dwelling unit:

- (A) Attic insulation.
- (B) Caulking.
- (C) Weatherstripping.
- (D) Low flow showerhead.
- (E) Waterheater blanket.
- (F) Door and building envelope repairs that reduce air infiltration.

(2) The commission shall direct any electrical or gas corporation to provide as many of these measures as are feasible for each eligible low-income dwelling unit.

(c) “Weatherization” may also include other building conservation measures, energy-efficient appliances, and energy education programs determined by the commission to be feasible, taking into consideration for all measures both the cost-effectiveness of the measures as a whole and the policy of reducing energy-related hardships facing low-income households.

(d) Weatherization programs shall use the needs assessment pursuant to Section 382.1 to maximize efficiency of delivery.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the “net tax,” the excess may be carried over to reduce the “net tax” in the following year, and the succeeding seven years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2006, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 23684 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

(3) A credit may be allowed under this section with respect to only one solar energy system per each separate legal parcel of property or per each address of the taxpayer in the state.

(4) No credit may be allowed under this section unless the solar energy system is actually used for purposes of producing electricity and is primarily used to meet the taxpayer’s own energy needs.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Businesses and citizens of the state are experiencing the effects of an energy crisis that are widespread and unprecedented.

(b) These effects include a lack of an adequate supply of electricity to sustain normal day-to-day, and hour-to-hour demand, coupled with the economic reality of the laws of supply and demand.

(c) The lack of an adequate supply of electricity has resulted in the requirement for utilities and related energy exchange managers to implement interruptible load programs designed to limit power through rotating outages (blackouts) to customers during those periods when electricity is in short supply.

(d) These outages are a vital tool in protecting the state from widespread electrical system collapse when demand for electricity exceeds supply.

(e) This summer, California is facing the possibility of frequent rotating electrical outages.

(f) Skilled nursing facilities are licensed health care facilities that care for the state's most fragile and vulnerable citizens.

(g) The physical infrastructure and related systems of these licensed health facilities are governed by building and fire and life safety code requirements regulated by the office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and the office of the State Fire Marshal.

(h) This regulation includes all systems powered by or related to electricity.

(i) Licensed health facilities also have specific requirements with respect to an Essential Electrical System.

(j) In addition to the Essential Electrical System requirements, care of patients requires the use of technical medical equipment such as ventilators, intravenous pumps, and other medical devices that are designed to sustain residents' vital functions and require electrical power in order to operate.

(k) Licensed health facilities are located throughout all areas of California with diverse differences in climate which are subject to extreme heat or cold depending on the season of the year.

(l) The environmental climate infrastructure within these licensed health facilities is aging and energy inefficient.

(m) Licensed health facilities are required to have emergency power requirements to sustain the Essential Electrical System and related systems during loss of electrical power. However, these emergency power requirements are designed for infrequent interruption and may not be sustainable during frequent interruption and backup requirements.

(n) The older emergency power sources of licensed health facilities are not designed or equipped to power more modern energy efficient systems.

(o) Licensed health care facilities under normal business conditions are required to go through a building application and plan check process under the jurisdiction of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(p) This process is bureaucratically efficient, but is subject to inherent delays impacting timely approvals of projects.

(q) Only certain utility customers such as hospitals, fire and police stations, and air traffic control facilities are classified as essential customers and are exempt from rotating outages.

(r) Many other customers, including skilled nursing facilities, have requested and petitioned the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) to be classified as essential, therefore, exempt from the possibility of frequent rotating blackouts during the summer of 2001.

(s) The number of customers that can be exempted is severely limited due to the necessity of maintaining a reasonable pool of customers from which to draw for rotating outages.

(t) On May 21, 2001, the Public Utilities Commission rendered an order in the matter of these requests by establishing a process for application to be used for a new category entitled essential customer normally exempt from rotating outages.

(u) Although skilled nursing facilities will be allowed to apply under this new classification, the process is onerous and timing may be problematic, thus subjecting skilled nursing facilities to the pool of customers subject to such required outages.

(v) The summer of 2001 holds great potential for harm to the health and safety of the residents of skilled nursing facilities unless rotating outages can either be eliminated, or facilities are allowed to immediately move forward with implementing preventive measures such as improving environmental systems, such as heating and air-conditioning and improving emergency power requirements.

SEC. 2. Section 8571.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8571.5. (a) When extraordinary conditions exist within the state relating to an inadequate supply of energy that has a strong potential for causing harm to the health and safety of residents of long-term health care facilities, as that term is used in Chapter 2.4 (commencing with Section 1417) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, the Governor by executive order, or the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, may suspend enforcement of laws and regulations related to construction or renovation of existing long-term health care facilities. This section does not permit the suspension of the implementation of any provision of the Labor Code.

(b) The suspension authority provided under this section shall extend only to projects designed to cope with an energy shortage or enhance energy conservation. Any suspension implemented pursuant to subdivision (a), shall only remain in effect for the duration of the condition necessitating the need for the suspension or until the potential for harm caused by the condition creating the emergency situation no longer exists.

(c) A listing of the specific laws and regulations suspended and the specific conditions not subject to the suspension referenced in subdivision (d), shall be defined by the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development no later than 15 days after the issuance of the executive order pursuant to subdivision (a).

(d) This section shall not permit the suspension of the life safety requirements of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and the office of the State Fire Marshal where the suspension would pose a greater danger than the situation caused by the extraordinary condition and the proposed action the licensee seeks to use to mitigate the potential harm or danger caused by the extraordinary condition.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 8571.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8571.6. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, in consultation with the office of the State Fire Marshal, shall establish specific laws and regulations from which exemptions may be granted pursuant to Section 8571.5 to long-term health care facilities, as that term is used in Chapter 2.4 (commencing with Section 1417) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The establishment of a list of exemptions pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not preclude the Governor or the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development from adopting additional exemptions pursuant to an executive order issued pursuant to Section 8571.5.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to immediately protect the elderly and disabled residents who reside in the state's 1,200 skilled nursing facilities and who are dependent on the facilities' ability to provide quality care in a safe, low stress environment, and to maintain temperature control, lighting, infection control, and the use of technologically advanced medical equipment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 14

An act to amend Section 625 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 625 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

625. (a) (1) (A) For the purpose of this article, except as specified in paragraph (4), a public utility that offers competitive services may not condemn any property for the purpose of competing with another entity in the offering of those competitive services, unless the commission finds that such an action would serve the public interest, pursuant to a petition or complaint filed by the public utility, personal notice of which has been served on the owners of the property to be condemned, and an adjudication hearing in accordance with Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1701), including an opportunity for the public to participate.

(B) The requirements of this section do not apply to the condemnation of any property that is necessary solely for an electrical company or gas corporation to meet its commission-ordered obligation to serve. Proposed exercises of eminent domain by electrical or gas corporations that initially, or subsequently, acquire property for either commission-ordered electrical corporation obligation to serve and competitive telecommunications services or gas corporation obligation to serve and telecommunications services are subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b). For property acquired through the exercise of eminent domain after January 1, 2000, by an electrical or gas corporation solely to meet its commission-ordered obligation to serve, any electrical or gas corporation, or subsidiary or affiliate, that intends to install telecommunication equipment on the property for the purpose of providing competitive telecommunications services shall provide notice for the planned installation in the commission calendar.

(2) (A) Before making a finding pursuant to this subdivision, the commission shall conduct the hearing in the local jurisdiction that would be affected by the proposed condemnation. The hearing shall commence within 45 days of the date that the petition or complaint is filed, unless the respondent establishes that an extension of not more than 30 days is necessary for discovery or other hearing preparation. The commission shall provide public notice of the hearing pursuant to the procedures of the commission and shall also notify the local jurisdiction. In addition, the commission shall provide the local jurisdiction with copies of the notice of hearing in time for the local jurisdiction to mail that notice at least seven days in advance of the hearing to all persons who have requested copies of the local jurisdiction's agenda or agenda packet pursuant to Section 54954.1 of the Government Code.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), "local jurisdiction" means each city within whose boundaries property sought to be taken by eminent domain is located, and if property sought to be taken is not located within city boundaries, each county within whose boundaries that property is located. However, where there is more than one local jurisdiction with respect to a single complaint or petition, the commission shall provide notice and copies of notices for mailing to all local jurisdictions involved, but shall hold only a single hearing in any one of those local jurisdictions.

(3) (A) The assigned commissioner or administrative law judge shall render a decision on making a finding in accordance with this subdivision within 45 days of the conclusion of the hearing, unless further briefing is ordered, in which event this period may be extended by up to 30 additional days to allow for briefing.

(B) If the rendering of a decision pursuant to this subdivision requires review under the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), then the time limits contained in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) shall be extended as needed to accommodate that review.

(4) This subdivision and Section 626 do not apply to a railroad corporation, a refined petroleum product common carrier pipeline corporation, or a water corporation.

(b) The commission may make a finding pursuant to subdivision (a) if, in the determination of the commission, either of the following conditions is met:

(1) The proposed condemnation is necessary to provide service as a provider of last resort to an unserved area, except when there are competing offers from facility-based carriers to serve that area.

(2) The public utility is able to show all of the following with regard to the proposed condemnation:

(A) The public interest and necessity require the proposed project.

(B) The property to be condemned is necessary for the proposed project.

(C) The public benefit of acquiring the property by eminent domain outweighs the hardship to the owners of the property.

(D) The proposed project is located in a manner most compatible with the greatest public good and least private injury.

(c) The commission shall develop procedures to facilitate access for affected property owners to eminent domain proceedings pursuant to this section, and to facilitate the participation of those owners in those proceedings.

(d) Nothing in this section relieves a public utility from complying with Section 1240.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure or any other requirement imposed by law.

(e) A public utility that does not comply with this section may not exercise the power of eminent domain, including, but not limited to, any authority provided by Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) The authority provided in this section supplements, and does not replace or otherwise affect any other limitation in law on the exercise of the power of eminent domain, including, but not limited to, any authority provided by Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(g) (1) At the request of a public utility gas corporation, the commission shall hold the local hearing required in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and make and certify the finding required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) as part of the procedure to issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the commission holds public hearings during the certification procedure for the purpose of making the determination required under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the commission shall have an additional 45 days beyond the date of any otherwise applicable statutory or regulatory deadline for making a determination.

CHAPTER 15

An act to amend Section 32960 of the Financial Code, to amend Sections 25415 and 25443 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 353.13 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32960 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

32960. This chapter shall become inoperative on July 1, 2011, and, as of January 1, 2012, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2012, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 25415 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25415. (a) Each eligible institution to which an allocation has been made under this chapter shall repay the principal amount of the allocation, plus interest, in not more than 22 equal semiannual payments, as determined by the commission. The first semiannual payment shall be made on or before December 22 of the fiscal year following the year in which the project is completed.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commission shall, unless it determines that the purposes of this chapter would be better served by establishing an alternative interest rate schedule, periodically set interest rates on the loans based on surveys of existing financial markets and at rates not less than 3 percent per annum.

(c) The governing body of each eligible institution shall annually budget an amount at least sufficient to make the semiannual payments required in this section. The amount shall not be raised by the levy of additional taxes but shall instead be obtained by a savings in energy costs.

SEC. 3. Section 25443 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25443. (a) Principal and interest payments on loans under this article shall be returned to the commission and shall be used to make additional loans to local jurisdictions pursuant to Section 25442 or to provide financial assistance to local jurisdictions pursuant to Section 25441.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commission shall, unless it determines that the purposes of this chapter would be better served by establishing an alternative interest rate schedule, periodically set interest rates on the loans based on surveys of existing financial markets and at rates not less than 3 percent per annum.

SEC. 4. Section 353.13 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

353.13. (a) The commission shall require each electrical corporation to establish new tariffs on or before January 1, 2003, for customers using distributed energy resources, including, but not limited to, those that do not meet all of the criteria described in Section 353.1. However, after January 1, 2003, distributed energy resources that meet all of the criteria described in Section 353.1 shall continue to be subject only to those tariffs in existence pursuant to Section 353.3, until June 1, 2011, except that installations that do not operate in a combined heat and power application will be subject to those tariffs in existence pursuant to Section 353.3 only until June 1, 2006. Those tariffs required pursuant to this section shall ensure that all net distribution costs incurred to serve each customer class, taking into account the actual costs and benefits of distributed energy resources, proportional to each customer class, as determined by the commission, are fully recovered only from that class. The commission shall require each electrical corporation, in establishing those rates, to ensure that customers with similar load profiles within a customer class will, to the extent practicable, be subject to the same utility rates, regardless of their use of distributed energy resources to serve onsite loads or over-the-fence transactions allowed under Sections 216 and 218. Customers with dedicated facilities shall remain responsible for their obligations regarding payment for those facilities.

(b) The commission shall prepare and submit to the Legislature, on or before June 1, 2002, a report describing its proposed methodology for determining the new rates and the process by which it will establish those rates.

(c) In establishing the tariffs, the commission shall consider coincident peakload, and the reliability of the onsite generation, as determined by the frequency and duration of outages, so that customers with more reliable onsite generation and those that reduce peak demand pay a lower cost-based rate.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement energy conservation and efficiency measures as soon as possible, to protect the public peace, health, and safety, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 16

An act to amend Section 335 of, and to add and repeal Sections 341.6, 342, and 9613 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 335 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

335. In order to ensure that the interests of the people of California are served, a five-member Electricity Oversight Board is hereby created as provided in Section 336. For purposes of this chapter, any reference to the Oversight Board shall mean the Electricity Oversight Board. Its functions shall be all of the following:

(a) To oversee the Independent System Operator and the Power Exchange.

(b) To determine the composition and terms of service and to exercise the exclusive right to decline to confirm the appointments of specific members of the governing board of the Power Exchange.

(c) To serve as an appeal board for majority decisions of the Independent System Operator governing board, as they relate to matters subject to exclusive state jurisdiction, as specified in Section 339.

(d) Those members of the Power Exchange governing board whose appointments the Oversight Board has the exclusive right to decline to confirm include proposed governing board members representing agricultural end users, industrial end users, commercial end users, residential end users, end users at large, nonmarket participants, and public interest groups.

(e) To investigate any matter related to the wholesale market for electricity to ensure that the interests of California's citizens and consumers are served, protected, and represented in relation to the availability of electric transmission and generation and related costs, during periods of peak demand.

SEC. 2. Section 341.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

341.6. (a) The Oversight Board may direct the inspection or reproduction of records, data, accounts, books, or documents of the Independent System Operator or the Power Exchange that are reasonably related to the public interest of the people of California, including, but not limited to, the reliability, availability, and cost of electric service to California consumers.

(b) The Oversight Board may direct the Independent System Operator to report to the Oversight Board on those matters and at those times as the Oversight Board determines are necessary and appropriate to the exercise of its public oversight duties.

(c) Information received by the Oversight Board pursuant to this section shall be held in confidence by the Oversight Board or aggregated to the extent necessary to assure confidentiality if public disclosure of the specific information or data would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(d) (1) Whenever the Oversight Board receives a request to publicly disclose unaggregated information, notice of the request or proposal shall be provided to the person submitting the information to the Oversight Board through the Independent System Operator. The notice shall indicate the form in which the information is to be released. Upon receipt of notice, the person submitting the information shall have 10 working days in which to respond to the notice to justify the claim of confidentiality on each specific item of information covered by the notice on the basis that public disclosure of the specific information would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(2) The Oversight Board shall consider the respondent's submittal in determining whether to publicly disclose the information submitted to it for which a claim of confidentiality is made. The Oversight Board shall issue a written decision that sets forth its reasons for making the determination whether each item of information for which a claim of confidentiality is made shall remain confidential or shall be publicly disclosed.

(e) The Oversight Board may not make public disclosure of information submitted to it pursuant to this section until 10 working days after the Oversight Board has issued its written decision required in this section.

(f) No information submitted to the Oversight Board pursuant to this section shall be deemed confidential if the person submitting the information or data has made it public.

(g) With respect to information submitted by the Independent System Operator to the Oversight Board pursuant to this section, neither the Oversight Board nor any employee of the Oversight Board shall do any of the following:

(1) Use the information furnished to the Oversight Board for any purpose other than the purpose for which it is supplied.

(2) Make any publication whereby the information furnished by any particular entity or individual to the Independent System Operator can be identified.

(3) Permit anyone other than members or employees of the Oversight Board to examine the information.

(h) The Oversight Board shall disclose to the commission any information requested by the commission for the purpose of implementing this division. The commission shall treat information received pursuant to this section in accordance with Section 583 and shall specifically provide for the confidentiality of records and protection of propriety information. With respect to the information it receives from the Oversight Board, the commission shall be subject to the pertinent provisions of this section.

(i) The Oversight Board may adopt emergency regulations to implement this section in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). The adoption of emergency regulations pursuant to this section shall be deemed an emergency and considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare.

(j) This section shall remain in effect until the earlier of either of the following occurs, and as of that date is repealed:

(1) (A) A determination is made and notice thereof is provided pursuant to subparagraph (B).

(B) Upon a determination by the Attorney General that the Oversight Board has been abolished, or merged with, or replaced by, another agency, or that the functions of the Oversight Board have been duplicated by statute, executive order, or otherwise, the Attorney General shall submit a notice of that determination to the Secretary of State, and this section shall be repealed upon the receipt of that notice by the Secretary of State.

(2) January 1, 2003.

SEC. 3. Section 342 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

342. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that electric generation and transmission facilities are critical infrastructure and their predictable availability is essential to the public welfare.

(b) Electric generation and transmission facilities shall be subject to standards related to their availability, in accordance with this section.

(c) Owners or operators of electric generating facilities in the State of California shall comply with all protocols and standards approved or established pursuant to this chapter.

(d) On or before March 1, 2002, the Oversight Board, in consultation with the commission and the Independent System Operator, shall prepare and adopt protocols for the scheduling of transmission and generation equipment outages for the purposes of maintenance, repair, or upgrade.

(e) The Oversight Board, in consultation with the commission and the Independent System Operator, shall prepare and adopt a schedule of transmission and generation equipment outages according to the protocols adopted pursuant to subdivision (d).

(f) The Oversight Board shall direct the Independent System Operator to develop and submit to the Oversight Board and the commission proposed generation facility maintenance, operating, and availability standards for generator units with a rated maximum capacity of 10 megawatts or greater. The Oversight Board shall adopt and may, as necessary, make revisions to, the standards. In developing standards, the Oversight Board and the Independent System Operator shall take into consideration generation facilities scheduled for retirement and valid warranties on generation facilities. The commission may adopt these standards and ensure compliance with these standards of owners and operators of generation facilities subject to its jurisdiction. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the commission's authority to develop facility maintenance, operating, and availability standards for generation facilities under the commission's jurisdiction.

(g) Nothing in this section shall result in the modification, delay, or abrogation of any deadline, standard, rule, or regulation adopted by a federal, state, or local agency for the purposes of protecting public health or the environment, including, but not limited to, any requirements imposed by the State Air Resources Board or by an air pollution control district or an air quality management district pursuant to Division 26 (commencing with Section 39000) of the Health and Safety Code. The Oversight Board shall consult with the State Air Resources Board and the appropriate local air pollution control districts and air quality management districts to coordinate scheduled outages to provide for compliance with those retrofits.

(h) The Independent System Operator shall maintain records of generation facility outages and shall provide those records, and any additional information as determined by the Oversight Board, to the Oversight Board and the commission on a daily basis. Each entity that owns or operates an electric generating unit in California with a rated maximum capacity of 10 megawatts or greater, shall provide a monthly report to the Independent System Operator that identifies any periods during the preceding month when the unit was unavailable to produce electricity or was available only at reduced capacity. The report shall identify the reasons for any such unscheduled unavailability or reduced capacity. The Independent System Operator shall immediately transmit the information to the Oversight Board and the commission.

(i) The commission, in consultation with the Oversight Board, shall adopt a penalty schedule applicable to any person or entity who is in violation of any provision of this article.

(j) The Oversight Board may request the commission to undertake proceedings related to assessing monetary penalties for noncompliance. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the commission's authority to initiate its own action for noncompliance.

(k) The Oversight Board, in consultation with the commission, may seek an injunction from a court of competent jurisdiction to require compliance with this section. This subdivision shall not limit any authority of the commission to seek injunctions within its jurisdiction.

(l) Except as provided in Section 9613, notwithstanding any other provision of law, neither the provisions of this section, nor any rules, regulations, standards, or protocols issued in furtherance of this section, nor the penalties described in subdivisions (i) and (j), shall apply to any of the following:

(1) A local publicly owned electric utility, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 9604.

(2) Any public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment.

(m) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, this section shall not apply to nuclear powered generating facilities that are federally regulated and subject to standards developed by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and that participate as members of the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations.

(2) The owner or operator of a nuclear powered generating facility shall file with the Oversight Board and the commission an annual schedule of maintenance, including repairs and upgrades, updated quarterly, for each generating facility. The owner or operator of a nuclear powered generating facility shall make good faith efforts to conduct its maintenance in compliance with its filed plan and shall report to the Oversight Board any significant variations from its filed plan.

(3) The owner or operator of a nuclear powered generating facility shall report on a monthly basis to the Oversight Board and the commission all actual planned and unplanned outages of each facility during the preceding month. The owner or operator of a nuclear powered generating facility shall report on a daily basis to the Oversight Board the daily operational status and availability of each facility.

(n) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, this section shall not apply to a qualifying small power production facility or a qualifying cogeneration facility within the meaning of Sections 201 and 210 of Title II of the federal Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978 (16 U.S.C.A. Secs. 796(17), 796(18), and 824a-3), and the regulations adopted pursuant to those sections by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (18 C.F.R. Secs. 292.101 to 292.602, inclusive), nor shall this section apply to other generation units installed, operated, and maintained at a customer site exclusively to serve that customer's load.

(2) An electrical corporation that has a contract with a qualifying small power production facility, or a qualifying cogeneration facility, with a name plate rating of 10 megawatts or greater shall report to the Oversight Board and the commission maintenance schedules for each facility, including all actual planned and unplanned outages of the facility and the daily operational status and availability of the facility. Each facility with a name plate rating of 10 megawatts or greater shall be responsible for directly reporting to the Oversight Board maintenance schedules for each facility, including all actual planned and unplanned outages of the facility and the daily operational status and availability of the facility, if that information is not provided to the electrical corporation pursuant to a contract.

(o) This section shall remain in effect until the earlier of either of the following occurs, and as of that date is repealed:

(1) (A) A determination is made and notice thereof is provided pursuant to subparagraph (B).

(B) Upon a determination by the Attorney General that the Oversight Board has been abolished, or merged with, or replaced by, another agency, or that the functions of the Oversight Board have been duplicated by statute, executive order, or otherwise, the Attorney General shall submit a notice of that determination to the Secretary of State, and this section shall be repealed upon the receipt of that notice by the Secretary of State.

(2) January 1, 2003.

SEC. 4. Section 9613 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

9613. (a) Each local publicly owned electric utility, or public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment, shall file with the Oversight Board an annual schedule of maintenance, updated quarterly, for all generation units with a rated maximum capacity of 10 megawatts or greater and all transmission facilities. A local publicly owned electric utility, or public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment, shall make good faith efforts to conduct its maintenance in compliance with its filed plan and shall report to the Oversight Board any significant variations from its filed plan.

(b) Each local publicly owned electric utility, or public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment that owns or operates generation units with a rated maximum of 10 megawatts or greater or transmission facilities shall report on a monthly basis to the Oversight Board all actual planned and unplanned outages of those generating units and transmission facilities during the preceding month.

(c) Each local publicly owned electric utility, or public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment, that owns or operates generation units with a rated maximum of 10 megawatts or greater or transmission facilities shall adopt standards for the maintenance of those generating units and transmission facilities. Each local publicly owned electric utility, or public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment, shall file its standards with the Oversight Board. Each local publicly owned electric utility, or public agency that may generate electricity incidental to the provision of water or wastewater treatment, shall report the daily operational status and availability of its generation units with a rated maximum of 10 megawatts and its transmission facilities to the Oversight Board on a daily basis.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until the earlier of either of the following occurs, and as of that date is repealed:

(1) (A) A determination is made and notice thereof is provided pursuant to subparagraph (B).

(B) Upon a determination by the Attorney General that the Oversight Board has been abolished, or merged with, or replaced by, another agency, or that the functions of the Oversight Board have been duplicated by statute, executive order, or otherwise, the Attorney General shall submit a notice of that determination to the Secretary of State, and this section shall be repealed upon the receipt of that notice by the Secretary of State.

(2) January 1, 2003.

SEC. 5. The Oversight Board shall report in writing to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature on a quarterly basis on its progress in implementing this act. The report shall include, but need not be limited to, information concerning outage scheduling and coordination, compliance with standards by owners of generating and transmission facilities, and wholesale price fluctuations.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 7. This act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 39 of the Second Extraordinary Session of 2001–02 is enacted and becomes effective.

CHAPTER 17

An act to amend Section 25619 of, and to add Chapter 5.1 (commencing with Section 25406) to Division 15 of, the Public Resources Code, and to add Section 9618 to the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to energy.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 12, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) This act shall be known, and may be cited, as the Solar Training, Education, and Certification Act of 2001.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) California's increasing energy needs require the development of alternative energy resources, including solar energy for the production of heat and electricity.

(2) California leads the nation and ranks as a world leader in the development of technologies and programs to accelerate the use of solar energy.

(3) A training and certification program authorized by the Legislature and administered by the Employment Development Department, in consultation and cooperation with the Contractors' State License Board and solar industry stakeholders, can help mitigate the state's energy shortage by ensuring that appropriate training and education is available for those practicing in and entering into the solar energy design, construction, and installation businesses.

SEC. 2. Chapter 5.1 (commencing with Section 25406) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.1. SOLAR AND PHOTOVOLTAIC SYSTEMS

25406. A local government may develop and administer a program to encourage the construction of buildings that use solar thermal and photovoltaic systems that meet applicable standards and requirements imposed by the state or the local government for an eligible solar energy system pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 25619. The program shall recognize owners and builders who participate in the program by awarding these owners and builders a "Sunny Homes Seal."

SEC. 3. Section 25619 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25619. (a) The commission shall develop a grant program to offset a portion of the cost of eligible solar energy systems. The goals of the program are all of the following:

(1) To make solar energy systems cost competitive with alternate forms of energy.

(2) To provide support for electricity storage capabilities in solar electric applications to facilitate enhanced reliability in the event of a power outage.

(3) To encourage the purchase by California residents of California-made solar systems.

(b) (1) The grant for an eligible solar energy system shall be based on either the performance of, or the type of, the solar energy system, as the commission determines, and the amount of the grant shall not exceed seven hundred fifty dollars ($750). Except as provided in paragraph (2), if a grant is awarded pursuant to this section for an eligible solar energy system that produces electricity, no grant shall be made for that system from any other grant program administered by the commission.

(2) An applicant who receives a grant for a photovoltaic solar energy system from another program administered by the commission, may also receive a grant for that system pursuant to this section, if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The system will accomplish the purpose specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(B) The system is an eligible solar energy system.

(C) The system includes adequate battery storage, as determined by the commission.

(c) Purchasers, sellers, owner-builders, or owner-developers of the solar energy system may apply for a grant under this section. An owner-builder or owner-developer of a new single-family dwelling on which a system is installed may elect not to apply for a grant on a solar energy system installed on a new single-family dwelling. If an owner-builder or owner-developer of a new single-family dwelling on which a system is installed elects not to apply for the grant for a solar energy system, the purchaser of the dwelling may apply for the grant. The seller, owner-builder, or owner-developer shall reflect the amount of the grant received on the purchaser's bill of sale.

(d) The commission shall develop and adopt guidelines to provide appropriate consumer protection under the grant program and to govern other aspects of the grant program. The guidelines shall be adopted at a publicly noticed meeting and all interested parties shall be provided an opportunity to comment either orally or in writing. Not less than 30 days notice shall be provided for the public meeting. Subsequent substantive changes to adopted guidelines shall be adopted by the commission at a public meeting upon written notice to the public of not less than 10 days. The guidelines adopted pursuant to this subdivision are not subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) The commission shall require installers of solar energy systems funded through grants under this section to be properly licensed to do so by the Contractors' State License Board. This requirement does not apply to the owner of a single-family dwelling who installs a solar energy system on his or her single-family dwelling.

(f) The award of a grant pursuant to this section is subject to appeal to the commission upon a showing that factors other than those described in the guidelines adopted by the commission were applied in making the award. Any action taken by an applicant to apply for, or become or remain eligible to receive an award, including satisfying conditions specified by the commission, does not constitute the rendering of goods, services, or a direct benefit to the commission. Awards made pursuant to this section are not subject to any repayment requirements of Chapter 7.4 (commencing with Section 25645).

(g) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Cost" includes equipment, installation charges, and all components necessary to carry out the intended use of the system if those components are an integral part of the system. In the case of a system that is leased, "cost" means the principal recovery portion of all lease payments scheduled to be made during the full term of the lease, which is the cost incurred by the taxpayer in acquiring the solar energy system, excluding interest charges and maintenance expenses.

(2) (A) “Eligible solar energy system” means any new, previously unused solar energy device whose primary purpose is to provide for the collection, conversion, transfer, distribution, storage, or control of solar energy for water heating or electricity generation, and that meets applicable standards and requirements imposed by state and local permitting authorities, including, but not limited to, the National Electric Code. Eligible solar energy systems for water heating purposes shall be certified by the Solar Rating and Certification Corporation (SRCC) or any other nationally recognized certification agency that certifies complete systems. Major components of eligible solar energy systems for electricity generation shall be listed by a certified testing agency, such as the Underwriters Laboratory. In the absence of certification, major components of eligible solar energy systems for electricity generation shall comply with specifications adopted by the commission.

(B) “Eligible solar energy system” does not include any of the following:

(i) Wind energy devices that produce electricity or provide mechanical work.

(ii) Additions to or augmentation of existing solar energy systems.

(iii) A device that produces electricity for a structure unless the device is interconnected and operates in parallel with the electric grid.

(C) Eligible solar energy systems shall have a warranty of not less than three years.

(3) “Installed” means placed in a functionally operative state.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2006, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2006, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 9618 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

9618. (a) The department shall administer a solar training program. The department shall coordinate with the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and the State Contractors’ License Board to ensure solar energy product and service providers in California possess and maintain the necessary skills, training, and certification.

(b) Elements of the training program shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The science of photovoltaics and small scale solar thermal technologies.

(2) The design of solar systems.

(3) The installation of solar systems.

- (4) Permitting of solar systems.
- (5) Safety.
- (6) System and component certification.
- (7) State and federal incentive programs.

SEC. 5. The Solar Training, Education, and Certification Act of 2001 shall be funded by available job training funds in existence on the effective date of the act adding this section during the 2001–02 Second Extraordinary Session.

CHAPTER 18

An act to amend Section 11652 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with
Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11652 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

11652. (a) The board of supervisors shall canvass, separately, the returns of each public agency and each parcel of unincorporated territory, if any.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c), the board of supervisors shall declare a district created and established of those public agencies and parcels of unincorporated territory in which a majority of those persons who voted did so in favor of the creation of the district. Those public agencies and parcels of unincorporated territory in which a majority of those persons voting did not vote in favor of the creation of the district shall be excluded from the district.

(c) A district may be created and established pursuant to subdivision (b) only if the number of registered voters in the approving public agencies and parcels of unincorporated territory is two-thirds or more of the total number of registered voters within the district as proposed to the voters.

SEC. 2. Section 11652 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

11652. The board of supervisors shall canvass the returns of each public agency and each parcel of unincorporated territory, if any, separately, and shall order and declare the district created and established of only the public agencies and territory in which a majority of those who voted on the proposition voted in favor of the creation of the district.

SEC. 3. Section 1 of this bill amends Section 11652 of the Public Utilities Code. Section 2 of this bill amends Section 11652 of the Public Utilities Code as proposed by SB 23 2X. If both this bill and SB 23 2X are enacted and become effective, and each bill amends Section 11652 of the Public Utilities Code, and this bill is enacted after SB 23 2X, Section 2 of this bill shall be operative from the effective date of this bill until January 1, 2007, and shall become inoperative on January 1, 2007, and Section 1 of this bill shall become operative on January 1, 2007. If this bill is enacted and becomes effective, and SB 23 2X is not enacted and does not become effective, then Section 1 of this bill shall become operative on the effective date of this bill, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

2001 RESOLUTION CHAPTER

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 1

Senate Joint Resolution No. 1—Relative to daylight saving time.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2001.]

WHEREAS, The State of California is currently experiencing an energy crisis that imperils commercial and residential energy consumers throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, It is the responsibility of the State of California to employ any and all means of energy reduction that will reduce reliance and pressure on energy infrastructure in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Daylight saving time was a widely used 20th century energy reduction tool that can be expanded to meet 21st century energy shortages; and

WHEREAS, A report by the California State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, issued May 2001 and entitled “Effects of Daylight Saving Time on California Energy Use,” indicates that winter daylight saving time, as that term is defined in the report, would likely reduce electricity use by 3,400 megawatt hours per day and that summer double daylight saving time, as that term is defined in the report, would likely reduce electricity use by 1,500 megawatt hours per day, producing a cost savings of $300,000,000 to $1,025,000,000 per year for California ratepayers; and

WHEREAS, Federal studies have shown that daylight saving time provides benefits in addition to energy use reduction, such as safer streets and highways during evening commute hours and reduction in crime due to increased hours of light in the evenings; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of California are being asked to make major changes in their personal and professional lives to conserve energy and would be grateful to receive the benefits of year-round daylight saving time in return; and

WHEREAS, Although neither standard time nor daylight saving time produce much energy reduction for the coldest states during the more frigid months of the year, California enjoys a temperate climate that would afford greater reductions in energy use by utilizing a year-round daylight saving time plan than could be enjoyed by the coldest states; and

WHEREAS, The federal Uniform Time Act of 1966 allows states to decline application of daylight saving time and provides states with the option of practicing standard time year round, but does not allow states to practice daylight saving time year round; and

WHEREAS, By applying daylight saving time uniformly, the State of California could avoid any inconsistencies in time application that would otherwise impact and confuse the broadcasting, rail, airline and motorcoach industries; and

WHEREAS, The State of California would greatly benefit from having the option of extending daylight saving time year round; and

WHEREAS, The State of California should have at its disposal any and every appropriate tool to triumph during this energy crisis; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to approve legislation that allows a state to uniformly apply daylight saving time year round; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, Members of the United States Congress, the Secretary of the United States Department of Energy, the Governor of the State of California, the California State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the California Public Utilities Commission.

EFFECTIVE DATES

Regular Session

The 2001–02 Regular Session convened on December 4, 2000, and the interim study recess commenced on September 14, 2001. Statutes enacted in 2001, other than those taking immediate effect, will become effective January 1, 2002. In absence of other considerations, the provisions of a statute become operative on the date it takes effect. Digests indicate statutes taking immediate effect.

An urgency statute, and a statute calling an election, providing for a tax levy, or making an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state may take effect immediately. Such a statute becomes effective on the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

However, any statute may, by its own terms, delay the operation of its provisions until the happening of some contingency, until a specified time, or until a vote of the electors at a statewide election. Also, a later statute or a general provision in a particular code may delay the operation of a statute to a time after its effective date.

The effective date of a joint or concurrent resolution is the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

A constitutional amendment proposed by the Legislature and adopted by the people takes effect the day after the election unless the measure provides otherwise.

Extraordinary Sessions

An urgency statute enacted at a special session of the Legislature takes effect immediately, as outlined above, and the same rules apply with respect to a delayed operative date. A nonurgency statute takes effect on the 91st day after adjournment of the special session at which the bill was passed. The effective date of a concurrent resolution is the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

The 2001–02 First Extraordinary Session convened on January 3, 2001, and adjourned sine die on May 14, 2001. Statutes enacted at an extraordinary session, other than those taking immediate effect, will become effective on the 91st day after adjournment. The 91st day after adjournment is August 13, 2001.

The 2001–02 Second Extraordinary Session convened in the Assembly on May 14, 2001, and in the Senate on May 17, 2001. This Extraordinary Session had not been adjourned prior to publication of this Summary Digest; please refer to the succeeding year's Summary Digest.

DIGESTS OF STATUTES ENACTED IN 2001

2001-02 REGULAR SESSION

BILL CHAPTERSCh. 1 (SB 67) Burton. State employees: compensation.

The Budget Act of 2000 appropriated specified amounts from the General Fund and unallocated special funds for expenditure for state employee compensation.

This bill would appropriate $10,322,000, as scheduled, from the General Fund, unallocated special funds, and other unallocated nongovernmental cost funds in augmentation of specified items in the Budget Act of 2000, to offset a portion of the employees' health benefit premium increase during the period of January 1 to June 30, 2001, inclusive.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a statute providing an appropriation for the usual and current expenses of the state.

Ch. 2 (SB 14) Peace. Budget Acts of 1999 and 2000: fiscal affairs.

The Budget Act of 1999 appropriated $5,000,000 from the General Fund, unallocated special funds, and unallocated nongovernmental cost funds for expenditure for contingencies or emergencies upon written authorization from the Director of Finance.

This bill would appropriate $739,186,000, as scheduled, in augmentation of these Budget Act appropriations. This bill would authorize the Director of Finance to withhold authorization for the expenditure of funds appropriated in the bill until preliminary estimates of potential deficiencies are verified. It would also authorize the director, notwithstanding specified provisions of the Budget Act of 1999, to authorize the use of population-related savings for other necessary expenditures of the Department of Corrections.

The Budget Act of 2000 appropriated $721,104,000 from the General Fund for expenditure for tax relief. This amount was subsequently augmented by $60,000,000.

This bill would appropriate an additional $40,000,000, as scheduled, in augmentation of these appropriations.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a statute providing an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state.

Ch. 3 (AB 8) Cedillo. Downtown Rebound Program.

Existing law requires the Department of Housing and Community Development to make grants and loans for specified downtown rebound projects and related planning from funds appropriated in a specified item of the Budget Act of 2000. The amount of assistance for loans for adaptive reuse of commercial or industrial structures into rental housing units is limited to $40,000 or $20,000, respectively, for units that are, or are not, required to be reserved for specified low-income households.

This bill would increase those limits to $55,000 and $35,000, respectively, thereby making an appropriation by increasing the limits on an authorized expenditure. The bill would also require the projects for which that assistance is provided to be located within an elementary school attendance boundary where 50% or more of the students are eligible for free meals under the federal school lunch program, as determined by the local school district at the time of application to the downtown rebound program.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 4 (AB 10) Corbett. Bank and corporation taxes: real estate investment trusts.

The Bank and Corporation Tax Law provides for the taxation of real estate investment trusts in partial conformity to the Internal Revenue Code.

This bill would, as provided, conform existing law with respect to payment of estimated tax for closely held real estate investment trusts, and income and services provided by real estate investment trust subsidiaries, to changes in federal income tax law.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.

Ch. 5 (SB 22) Chesbro. Vehicle license fee offsets.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

The Vehicle License Fee (VLF) Law establishes, in lieu of any ad valorem property tax upon vehicles, an annual license fee for any vehicle subject to registration in this state in the amount of 2% of the market value of that vehicle, as specified. The VLF Law permanently offsets the amount of the vehicle license fee for each subject vehicle by 25% and, for vehicle license fees with a final due date in the 2000 calendar year, offsets the fee amount for each subject vehicle by 35%. The VLF law also provides, depending upon factors that include whether forecasted General Fund revenues for certain fiscal years are within certain revenue target ranges, for a superseding offset percentage of 35%, 46.5%, 55%, or 67.5% to apply to specified future calendar years. The VLF law requires the Department of Finance, in any of certain fiscal years for which that department estimates a cumulative General Fund reduction of more than $100,000,000 as a result of state tax law changes on or after January 1, 1999, to apply that cumulative reduction, in accordance with a specified formula, to reduce target revenue ranges and to proportionately reduce the percentage amounts of superseding vehicle license fee offsets.

Notwithstanding those provisions, the Vehicle License Fee Law provides for a minimum vehicle license fee offset of 35% in 2001 and 2002, an additional offset in those same years, in a form of a rebate determined in accordance with a specified calculation, that results in a combined offset of 67.5%, and a single vehicle license fee offset of 67.5% for 2003 and each year thereafter.

This bill would, as of July 1, 2001, eliminate provisions for an additional vehicle license fee offset in the form of a rebate. This bill would also establish, without condition or modification, a single vehicle license fee offset of 67.5% for vehicle license fees with a final due date on or after July 1, 2001. This bill would, among other conforming changes to associated provisions, make an appropriation by requiring that a portion of those moneys, appropriated by current law for the payment of additional vehicle license fee offsets, be instead expended, as provided, for reimbursement of local agency revenue losses resulting from vehicle license fee offsets.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy, but would become operative, as provided, on July 1, 2001.

Ch. 6 (SB 45) Johannessen. Veterans' Homes of California.

Existing law provides for the establishment and operation of Veterans' Homes of California at various sites for aged and disabled veterans who meet certain eligibility criteria.

This bill would state the intent of the Legislature that the Veterans' Home of California, Barstow, continue in operation despite an unanticipated reduction in funding. The bill would appropriate $1,778,000 from the General Fund to the Department of Veterans Affairs for funding specified expenditures at the Veterans' Home of California, Barstow. The bill would also make specified funds appropriated in the Budget Act of 2000 that are not utilized to support positions available for the operation for the remainder of the 2000–01 fiscal year of the Veterans' Home of California, Barstow.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 7 (SB 23) Costa. CALFED funds: Bay-Delta Program.

(1) Under existing law, certain state and federal agencies with management and regulatory responsibilities in the San Francisco Bay/Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Estuary participate in the CALFED Bay-Delta Program for the purposes of improving ecosystem quality, water supply reliability, water quality, and the integrity of the levees and channels in the bay-delta.

This bill would require the Department of Water Resources, with specified exceptions, to prepare and submit to the Legislature a report that includes a description of the progress achieved by the department regarding the goals of the Bay-Delta Program and the implementation schedule established in the CALFED Bay-Delta Program, Programmatic Record of Decision dated August 2000, and the Framework Agreement dated June 9, 2000. The bill would require, however, that upon creation of an entity to assume the responsibilities previously undertaken by federal and state officials in connection with the CALFED Bay-Delta Program, that entity will be responsible for preparing and submitting the report to the Legislature. The bill would specify that if at any time on or after January 1, 2003, the department is not required to implement the CALFED Bay-Delta Program, Programmatic Record of Decision dated August 2000, the department is not required to prepare and submit the report to the Legislature.

(2) The Budget Act of 2000 appropriates $125,000,000 to the Department of Water Resources for implementation of the CALFED Record of Decision and prohibits the expenditure of those funds until a statute is enacted certifying that the projects or purposes for which the funds are expended are consistent with a prescribed environmental document. The Budget Act of 2000 appropriates $10,000,000 to the department for CALFED local assistance to the Delta Export Area and prohibits the expenditure of those funds until a statute is enacted certifying that the projects or purposes for which the funds are expended are consistent with a prescribed environmental document.

This bill would declare that the Legislature certifies that the programs and projects described in the CALFED Record of Decision to be funded by those provisions of the Budget Act of 2000 are consistent with the final programmatic environmental impact statement/environmental impact report dated July 2000 and certified by the appropriate state lead agency, and that funds appropriated by those provisions are eligible for expenditure by the appropriate agency. The bill would specify the purposes and amounts for which those funds will be made available.

(3) The bill would declare that nothing in the bill may be construed as a certification of the CALFED Bay-Delta Program, final programmatic environmental impact statement/environmental impact report, dated July 2000; the CALFED Bay-Delta Program, programmatic record of decision, dated August 2000; and the Framework Agreement, dated June 9, 2000. The bill would also declare that nothing in the bill affects the rights of litigants, or the merits of any pending lawsuit, relating to the CALFED Bay-Delta Program.

Ch. 8 (SB 176) Ortiz. Student financial aid:
Ortiz-Pacheco-Poochigian-Vasconcellos Cal Grant Program.

Existing law, known as the Ortiz-Pacheco-Poochigian-Vasconcellos Cal Grant Act, establishes, among other programs, the Cal Grant A Entitlement Program, the Cal Grant B Entitlement Program, the California Community College Transfer Cal Grant Entitlement Program, and the Competitive Cal Grant A and B Awards under the administration of the Student Aid Commission, and establishes eligibility requirements for awards under these programs.

This bill would add to the eligibility requirements for the Cal Grant A Entitlement Program and the Cal Grant B Entitlement Program a provision specifying that a qualifying student must graduate from high school or its equivalent during or after the 2000–01 school year. The bill would amend the eligibility requirements for the California Community College Transfer Cal Grant Entitlement Program to change a reference to a federal statute and to specify that a student who graduates from a California high school during the 2000–01 academic year is eligible for that program. The bill would add to the eligibility requirements for the Competitive Cal Grant A awards a provision authorizing an applicant to meet the existing grade point average requirement through the submission of a college grade point average, as prescribed. The bill would amend the eligibility requirements for the Competitive Cal Grant B awards by creating an exemption from requirements regarding submission of a financial aid application and graduation from high school no sooner than the 2000–01 academic year.

The bill would appropriate $3,342,000 from the General Fund to the Student Aid Commission for expenditure in the 2000–01 fiscal year, for costs related to implementing information technology changes needed to process additional workload associated with the Ortiz-Pacheco-Poochigian-Vasconcellos Cal Grant Program.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 9 (SB 53) Torlakson. Community Redevelopment Disaster Project Law.

The Community Redevelopment Law authorizes the establishment of redevelopment agencies in communities to address the effects of blight in those communities. The Community Redevelopment Disaster Project Law authorizes a community to establish a redevelopment agency in an area in which a disaster has occurred, and to adopt and implement a redevelopment plan and to undertake and carry out a redevelopment project in the area. The Community Redevelopment Disaster Project Law prohibits a community from adopting a redevelopment plan pursuant to its provisions on or after January 1, 2001.

This bill would repeal that prohibition, thereby extending the operation of the Community Redevelopment Disaster Project Law indefinitely.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 10 (SB 161) Committee on Local Government. Validations.

This bill would enact the First Validating Act of 2001, which would validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of the state and counties, cities, and specified districts, agencies, and entities.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 11 (SB 55) Kuehl. Local coastal program: City of Malibu.

(1) Existing law requires the California Coastal Commission, on or before January 15, 2002, to submit to the City of Malibu an initial draft of the land use portion of the local coastal program for the City of Malibu portion of the coastal zone. Existing law requires the commission, on or before September 15, 2002, after public hearing and consultation with the City of Malibu, to adopt a local coastal program for that area within the City of Malibu portion of the coastal zone.

This bill would reappropriate $100,000 from a specified item of the Budget Act of 2000 to the commission for the purpose of implementing these provisions.

(2) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 12 (AB 124) Cedillo. Food establishments: public markets.

Existing law, the California Uniform Retail Food Facilities Law, provides for the regulation of health and sanitation standards for retail food facilities by the State Department of Health Services.

Existing law requires each food establishment, except produce stands and swap meet prepackaged food stands, to be fully enclosed, in a building meeting specified criteria. Existing law excludes specified facilities from this requirement.

This bill would additionally exclude the Mercado La Paloma public market in Los Angeles, as described in the bill, from the above enclosure requirements. This bill would declare that due to the unique circumstances relating to the structure and operation of the Mercado La Paloma, a general statute cannot be made applicable.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 13 (AB 209) Dickerson. Glenn County: county officers.

Existing law authorizes the boards of supervisors of specified counties to provide, by ordinance, that the public administrator be appointed by the board, and authorizes Solano County to appoint the same person to the offices of public administrator and public guardian.

This bill would include Glenn County within those counties whose board of supervisors would be authorized to provide for the appointment of the public administrator by the board. It would also authorize the Board of Supervisors of Glenn County to appoint the same person to the offices of public administrator and public guardian.

Ch. 14 (AB 563) Maldonado. Vehicles: stop lights: right-of-way: yielding.

Existing law requires a driver making a right turn after stopping at a steady red traffic signal to yield the right-of-way to traffic lawfully using the intersection.

This bill, instead, would require the driver to yield to any vehicle that has approached or is approaching so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard to the driver, and to continue to yield the right-of-way to that vehicle until the driver can proceed with reasonable safety.

Ch. 15 (SB 707) Committee on Local Government. Recreation and park districts.

Existing law provides for the establishment of a recreation and park district, including, the formation of the district, the selection of the district governing board, the powers and duties of the board, and election and financial procedures and provisions.

This bill would repeal those provisions and enact the Recreation and Park District Law which would specify the procedures for district formation, procedures for the selection of the district board of directors and officers, the powers and duties of the board, and financial provisions, including taxation and issuance of bonds. The bill would also enact specific provisions governing the letting of contracts by recreation and park districts.

Ch. 16 (AB 115) Cardoza. Historic State Capitol: repair: appropriation.

Under existing law, the Department of General Services, the Joint Rules Committee, and the Historic State Capitol Commission have specified duties with respect to the Historic State Capitol.

This bill would appropriate $16,532,000 from the General Fund to the Department of General Services for the purpose of restoring and repairing the damage to the Historic State Capitol that occurred on January 16, 2001.

This bill would provide that the funds appropriated by its provisions may not be expended until the Department of General Services submits plans for repairing the Historic State Capitol and its historical artifacts and architectural features to the Joint Committee on Rules, and the Joint Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Historic State Capitol Commission, approves those plans. The bill also would require that the repairs and other restoration work be performed in compliance with those plans.

This bill would also provide that any amount collected by the state from a party that is liable for the damage shall be credited to the General Fund.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 17 (AB 308) Leslie. Health and human services pilot program: Placer County.

Under existing law, Placer County, with the assistance of the appropriate state departments, within the existing resources of those departments, is required to implement a pilot program upon approval of the county, for the funding and delivery of services and benefits through an integrated and comprehensive county health and human services system. Under existing law, these provisions become inoperative on July 1, 2001, and as of January 1, 2002, are repealed.

This bill would extend the inoperative date to July 1, 2006, and the repeal date to January 1, 2007.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 18 (AB 314) Chan. County surplus property.

Existing law authorizes the board of supervisors of a county to make available any surplus personal property and lease any buildings or real property not needed for the public purposes of the county to or for (1) any nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of care, teaching, and training mentally deficient or mentally retarded children or (2) any Indian service agency organized for the purpose of health or other care, teaching, or training of Indians.

This bill instead would authorize the board of supervisors to donate or lease any real or personal property that the board declares to be surplus to a school or community college district, a county children and families commission, or a nonprofit corporation organized for the care, teaching, or training of children, developmentally disabled children, or Native Americans.

Ch. 19 (AB 959) Kelley. Joint powers agreements: Salton Sea Authority.

Existing law authorizes 2 or more public agencies, as defined, to enter into an agreement to jointly exercise any power common to the contracting parties. The Salton Sea Authority, formed pursuant to this existing law, is a joint powers authority consisting of the County of Imperial, the County of Riverside, the Coachella Valley Water District, and the Imperial Irrigation District.

This bill would authorize the Torres Martinez Desert Cahuilla Indians to enter into a joint powers agreement to participate in the Salton Sea Authority. The bill would also provide that on and after January 1, 2002, the authority shall not have the power to authorize or issue bonds pursuant to the Marks-Roos Local Bond Pooling Act of 1985 unless the funded public improvements will be owned and maintained by the authority or one or more public agency members and the revenue streams pledged to repay the bonds derive from the authority or one or more of its public agency members.

Ch. 20 (SB 245) O'Connell. Pupil testing.

(1) Under existing law, the Leroy Greene California Assessment of Academic Achievement Act requires the Superintendent of Public Instruction to design and implement, a statewide pupil assessment program. Existing law requires the results of the achievement test administered pursuant to the Standardized Testing and Reporting Program to be returned to the school district in the same academic year in which the test was administered and no later than July 30 of the calendar year in which the test was administered.

This bill would, instead, require those test results to be returned to the district within the period of time specified by the State Board of Education.

(2) Under existing law, the Standardized Testing and Reporting Program requires each school district, charter school, and county office of education to administer to each of its pupils in grades 2 to 11, inclusive, an achievement test and a standards-based achievement test. Existing law requires the publisher of the tests and the school district to provide two makeup days for the testing of previously absent pupils no later than June 25. Existing law requires the publisher of the achievement test and standards-based test to make the individual pupil, grade, school, school district, and state results available to the State Board of Education by August 8 of each year when the achievement test is administered and available on the Internet by August 15 of that year.

This bill would instead require the publisher and the district to provide the makeup tests for absent pupils within the testing period established by the board. The bill would also require the publisher to make the test results available to the department by August 8 and the department to make results available on the Internet by August 15 only for those schools for which the last day of test administration, including makeup dates, is on or before June 25.

(3) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 21 (SB 54) Polanco. Public employees' retirement: school employers' assets.

(1) The Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act generally requires all meetings of a state body to be open and public. Under the act, a state body or its designated representative is not prevented from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging the responsibilities of the state body under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. The Meyers-Milias-Brown Act governs local government employer-employee relations.

This bill would extend the above described provision to closed sessions of a state body or its designated representatives when discharging responsibilities of the state body under the Ralph C. Dills Act, which governs state employer-employee relations; the Bill of Rights for State Excluded Employees; and the Educational Employment Relations Act, which governs public school employer-employee relations.

(2) Under the Public Employees' Retirement Law, local safety members subject to the 2% at age 50 benefit formula pay contributions equal to 9% of compensation, as defined, and those members subject to the 3% at age 55 benefit formula pay contributions equal to 8% of compensation. Existing law does not specify a contribution rate for local safety members subject to the 3% at age 50 benefit formula. Member contributions are deposited in the Public Employees' Retirement Fund, a continuously appropriated fund.

This bill would provide that local safety members subject to either the 3% at age 50 or the 3% at age 55 benefit formula shall pay contributions equal to 9% of compensation. By increasing the amount of employee contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement Fund, the bill would make an appropriation.

(3) Existing law provides that members of the Public Employees' Retirement System subject to Second Tier benefits, as defined, may elect to become subject to First Tier benefits, as specified. Existing law also provides for the establishment of separate member and nonmember accounts upon the legal separation or dissolution of marriage of a member and division of the community estate.

This bill would authorize a nonmember spouse whose separate account is credited with service subject to Second Tier benefits to elect to have that service subject to First Tier benefits subject to specified conditions and additional contributions, thereby making an appropriation.

(4) The Public Employees' Retirement Law provides that the maximum service retirement benefit payable to state patrol members employed by the state on or after January 1, 2000, shall not exceed 90% of final compensation, as defined.

This bill would provide that the 90% maximum benefit limit shall also apply to former state patrol members who retire on and after January 1, 2000.

(5) The Public Employees' Retirement Law provides that a 3% at age 55 benefit formula for state peace officer/firefighter members employed by the California State University on January 1, 2000.

This bill would make that benefit formula available to those members formerly employed by the California State University, as specified.

(6) The Public Employees' Retirement Law prescribes specified survivor benefits for state and school members and authorizes contracting agencies to elect from among several alternative survivor allowance benefit levels.

This bill would specify that assets and liabilities of state and school employers on account of those survivor benefits shall be pooled in separate accounts and provide that 2 of the optional benefit levels shall no longer be available to new contracting agencies or future contract amendments as of specified dates.

(7) The bill would also make technical changes.

(8) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute and declare that its provisions would be operative retroactively to January 1, 2000, except as specified.

Ch. 22 (SB 1022) Soto and Burton. State employees: compensation.

The Budget Act of 2000 appropriated specified amounts from the General Fund and unallocated special funds for expenditure for state employee compensation.

This bill would appropriate $6,755,000, as scheduled, from the General Fund, unallocated special funds, and other unallocated nongovernmental cost funds in augmentation of specified items in the Budget Act of 2000, to offset a portion of the employees' health benefit premium increase during the period of January 1 to June 30, 2001, inclusive.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a statute providing an appropriation for the usual and current expenses of the state.

Ch. 23 (AB 66) Wesson. California Gambling Control Commission: appropriation.

Existing law establishes the California Gambling Control Commission to oversee and regulate gambling establishments in the state. The Budget Act of 2000 appropriated $576,000 from the Gambling Control Fund for support of the California Gambling Control Commission.

This bill would appropriate $219,000 from the Gambling Control Fund for support of the California Gambling Control Commission in augmentation of the Budget Act of 2000.

Existing law also establishes the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund for the deposit of moneys received by the state from Indian tribes pursuant to tribal-state gaming compacts.

This bill would appropriate $1,131,000 from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund for support of the California Gambling Control Commission. This bill would also authorize the Controller to loan the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund $1,131,000 from the General Fund.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 24 (SB 352) Kuehl. Attorneys.

Under existing law, the State Bar of California is authorized until January 1, 2002, to charge an annual membership fee of $318 to active members of the State Bar. Existing law also allows the board to increase annual membership fees by an amount up to $40 per year per active member, with the additional funds to be used for the Client Security Fund and its administration. Existing law provides that an attorney has a duty to abstain from having an offensive personality. Existing law also contains various provisions referring to past obligations and studies of the State Bar.

This bill would extend the State Bar's authority to charge the membership fee to active members to December 31, 2003, and would decrease the maximum amount of the fee to $310. The bill would also decrease the maximum allowable increase in membership fees for the Client Security Fund to $35 per active member per year. The bill would remove the provision on an attorney's duty to abstain from having an offensive personality. The bill would also delete provisions relating to certain past obligations of the State Bar. The bill would become operative contingent upon the enactment of SB 479, as specified.

Ch. 25 (SB 1023) Committee on Public Employment and Retirement. State employees: compensation: budget augmentation.

Existing provisions of the Budget Act of 2000 appropriate $26,054,000 from the General Fund, $15,194,000 from unallocated special funds, and $7,641,000 from other unallocated nongovernmental cost funds for the augmentation of state employee compensation.

This bill would appropriate an additional $9,966,000 from the General Fund, $3,720,000 from unallocated special funds, and $1,988,000 from other unallocated nongovernmental cost funds in augmentation of specified items of the Budget Act of 2000 for state employee compensation.

The bill would declare that it makes an appropriation for the usual and current expenses of the state and shall take effect immediately.

Ch. 26 (SB 329) Morrow. Real estate brokers: education requirements.

The Real Estate Law requires the licensure of a person by the Real Estate Commissioner to engage in the business of, act in the capacity of, or advertise or assume to act as, a real estate broker or a real estate salesman within this state. The Real Estate Law requires an applicant to take the examination for an original real estate broker license to submit evidence of the successful completion of certain courses at an accredited institution, including the successful completion of 3 courses from a list of optional courses.

This bill would add to the list of the optional courses a course in computer applications in real estate.

Ch. 27 (AB 672) Strom-Martin. Horse racing.

Existing law provides that when the San Mateo County Fair and the Humboldt County Fair simultaneously conduct race meetings, the San Mateo County Fair is authorized to distribute the signal and accept wagers on out-of-zone, out-of-state, and out-of-country races if it complies with specified conditions. Under existing law, for the period in which both fairs are conducting race meetings, the San Mateo County Fair is required to give to the Humboldt County Fair 0.75 percent of the license fees generated from the out-of-zone, out-of-state, and out-of-country handle. Existing law requires the San Mateo County Fair to distribute the remaining amount of the license fees in a specified manner.

This bill would provide that while any fair or thoroughbred association conducts a race meeting at the same time that the Humboldt County Fair conducts a race meeting, the fair or thoroughbred association has the rights and duties currently imposed on the San Mateo County Fair in that circumstance.

Ch. 28 (AB 730) Diaz. Parks and Recreation: City of San Jose: property exchange.

The existing State Beach, Park, Recreational and Historical Facilities Bond Act of 1974 authorized the state to issue and sell bonds to provide funding for, among other things, grants to counties, cities, or cities and counties for the acquisition and development of real property for park, recreation area, beach, and historical purposes.

This bill would authorize the City of San Jose to convert to a different use a certain 3.82 acre parcel of parkland at Coyote Creek Park, which was acquired with state grant funds awarded under the act, for another parcel of land of approximately 13 acres consisting of land along the east side of Coyote Creek in the City of San Jose, within the County of Santa Clara, if specified conditions are met.

Ch. 29 (AB 1152) Vargas. Peace officer qualifications.

Existing law establishes certain minimum standards for public officers or employees declared by law to be peace officers. The minimum education requirement is high school graduation, passing the General Education Development Test at high school graduation level, or a 2-year or 4-year degree from an accredited college or university.

This bill would provide that the education requirement may be met by passing the California High School Proficiency Examination and would revise the accreditation standard.

Ch. 30 (AB 111) Havice. County employees retirement: health care benefits.

The County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 authorizes counties and districts to offer retirees and their dependents specified insurance benefits, including health care benefits.

This bill would require that counties, districts, and county retirement systems provide organizations that are recognized by the retirement systems of the counties or districts as representing retired employees with notice and an opportunity to comment on any proposed changes, as defined, in those health care benefits.

Ch. 31 (AB 1214) Chavez. County employees' retirement: Plan E benefit offsets.

The County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 establishes an optional, alternative retirement plan for counties that have a population in excess of 6,000,000. Under that plan, a member's retirement benefit is required to be reduced by an amount based on the member's estimated primary insurance amount under Old Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, as specified.

This bill would authorize counties subject to that plan to adjust the member's retirement benefit according to the member's actual primary insurance amount or if the retired member is not receiving a primary insurance amount, as specified.

Ch. 32 (AB 1682) Committee on Public Employees, Retirement and Social Security. County employees' disability retirement: benefits.

The County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 prescribes service retirement benefits for safety members, as defined, based on a specified 2% at age 50 formula.

This bill would make changes to some of the age factors used to calculate service retirement benefits under that formula and make technical changes to that provision.

Ch. 33 (SB 304) Karnette. County sheriffs: mandatory retirement.

The County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 authorizes counties to require specified sheriffs and undersheriffs who are safety members to be retired at the age of 60 or at the age of 70.

This bill would, upon approval by the county board of supervisors, make that requirement inapplicable to specified safety members in the Los Angeles County Sheriff's office whose primary duties are administrative.

The bill would declare it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 34 (AB 147) Longville. Law enforcement telecommunications system.

Existing law requires the Department of Justice to maintain a statewide telecommunications system, entitled the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System, for use by law enforcement agencies. Existing law also requires the Attorney General, upon advice of an advisory committee, to adopt policies, practices and procedures, and conditions of qualification for connection to the system.

This bill would provide that the person designated as a county's "control agent" as defined by policies, practices, and procedures adopted by the Attorney General, or the chief officer of any other agency that has been granted direct access to the system, shall have sole and exclusive authority to ensure that the county's or other agency's equipment connecting to the system complies with all security requirements that are conditions of access to the system, or the policies, practices, and procedures adopted by the Attorney General, and that the equipment complies with the county control agent's security policy.

Ch. 35 (AB 158) Robert Pacheco. Vocational registration.

Existing law requires that legal document assistants, unlawful detainer assistants, process servers who make more than 10 services of process in the state a year, and professional photocopiers be registered with the county that is the person's principal place of business. Existing law requires that a bond or cash deposit, in a specified amount depending upon vocation, accompany an application for registration. Existing law provides that a certificate of registration, or the renewal of a certificate, is effective for 2 years.

This bill would provide that a certificate of registration ceases to be effective on the date the bond expires if that date is prior to the 2 years that a certificate is generally valid. The bill would allow renewal of registration up to 60 days prior to the expiration of a current registration, would make a renewed certificate effective for 2 years or until the date the bond expires, whichever occurs first, and would make its effective date the date that the current registration expires.

Ch. 36 (AB 205) Koretz. Business licenses and fees: employment relationship.

Existing law authorizes cities, including chartered cities, in the exercise of their police power and for the purpose of regulation, to license any kind of business not prohibited by law transacted and carried on within the limits of their jurisdictions, and to fix the rates of the license fee and provide for its collection, according to specified criteria.

This bill would prohibit any city, including a charter city, city and county, or county, from requiring an employee to obtain a business license or home business occupation permit for, or imposing a business tax or registration fee based on income earned for services performed for an employer by the employee in an employment relationship, as specified.

This bill would become operative only if AB 63 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 2002.

Ch. 37 (AB 213) Nation. Mental health: records: licensed marriage and family therapists.

Existing law prohibits the disclosure of all information and records obtained in the course of providing intake, assessment, and services to persons with developmental disabilities, or in the course of providing certain mental health services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services, except in specified circumstances, such as when the patient, with the approval of the physician, licensed psychologist, or social worker with a master's degree in social work, who is in charge of the patient, designates persons to whom information or records may be released.

This bill would also permit the disclosure of information or records when the patient, with the approval of the licensed marriage and family therapist, who is in charge of the patient, designates persons to whom information or records may be released.

Ch. 38 (AB 277) Kelley. Joint powers authorities.

Existing law authorizes public entities to pool self-insured claims or losses among themselves pursuant to a joint exercise of powers agreement.

This bill would provide that if the purpose set forth in the agreement is to pool the self-insurance claims of 2 or more local public entities, it shall not be considered an agreement establishing joint and several liability among those public entities, as specified.

Ch. 39 (AB 1323) Negrete McLeod. Marriage licenses.

Existing law requires a person solemnizing a marriage to return the certificate of registry to the county recorder within 30 days after the ceremony.

This bill would instead require the person solemnizing a marriage to return the certificate within 10 days after the ceremony.

Existing law provides for so-called "confidential marriage," whereby an unmarried man and an unmarried woman who have been living together may be married. A confidential marriage certificate attesting to the performance of the marriage is filed with the county clerk but is not open to public inspection except upon court order. Existing law further requires that the person solemnizing a confidential marriage provide the parties who were married with an application to obtain a certified copy of the confidential marriage certificate from the county clerk; the application must be filled out by the parties who were married and sent by the person solemnizing the marriage to the county clerk.

This bill would delete the provision requiring the person solemnizing a confidential marriage to provide the parties who were married with a copy of the confidential marriage certificate. The bill would revise the last described provision to instead require that, upon completion of the confidential marriage certificate, the parties who were married be provided with an application to obtain a certified copy of the confidential marriage certificate from the county clerk.

Existing law permits the county clerk to issue a duplicate certificate of registry of marriage if the original is lost or destroyed before it is returned to the county recorder. Existing law further requires the person solemnizing the marriage to return the duplicate certificate to the county recorder within 30 days after issuance. Existing law similarly authorizes the issuance of a replacement confidential marriage certificate.

This bill would instead require the duplicate certificate to be returned within 10 days after issuance.

Existing law authorizes the county clerk to approve notaries public to authorize confidential marriages.

This bill would expressly provide that the county clerk shall exercise reasonable discretion as to whether to approve applications of notaries public to authorize confidential marriages.

Existing law makes it a misdemeanor for a person who solemnizes a marriage to fail to return the marriage license and certificate to the county recorder or county clerk.

This bill would delete that provision.

Ch. 40 (AB 1455) Aanestad. School volunteers.

Existing law prohibits an employee of a school district from serving as a nonteaching volunteer aide in the district.

This bill would delete that prohibition.

Ch. 41 (AB 1579) Kehoe. County sheriffs.

Existing law provides a specified procedure that requires the county board of supervisors, upon the request of the county assessor, to contract with and employ legal counsel to assist the assessor in the performance of his or her duties in any case where the county counsel or the district attorney would have a conflict of interest in representing the assessor.

This bill would revise this procedure and extend these provisions to requests by the county sheriff. It would also define conflict of interest based on a specified standard.

Ch. 42 (AB 1704) Committee on Judiciary. Federal bankruptcy: applicable exemptions.

Existing law provides, in a case under Title 11 of the United States Code, for specified exemptions in regard to bankruptcy, and provides that certain exemptions may be elected in lieu of all other exemptions.

This bill would increase the amount of the latter mentioned exemptions, as specified, and would require that the dollar amount of those exemptions be increased in accordance with periodic adjustments of similar exemptions provided under federal bankruptcy laws.

Ch. 43 (SB 544) Committee on Local Government. Local agency officials: eligibility.

Existing law prohibits an employee of a local agency from being sworn into office as an elected or appointed member of the legislative body of that local agency unless he or she resigns as an employee. Existing law excludes a county from the definition of local agency for the purposes of this prohibition and does not include the board of supervisors of a county in the definition of legislative body.

This bill would define local agency for purposes of this prohibition to include a county and would define legislative body to include a county board of supervisors.

Ch. 44 (SB 562) Morrow. Civil procedure: limited civil cases.

(1) Existing law establishes the parameters for limited civil cases. Existing law provides that actions to enforce and foreclose liens of mechanics, materialmen, artisans, laborers, and all other persons having mechanics' liens, where the total amount of the liens is $25,000 or less, constitute limited civil cases.

This bill would include petitions to release mechanics' liens where the total amount of a lien is $25,000 or less, to the list of proceedings that constitute limited civil cases.

(2) Existing law establishes the requisite conditions for an action or proceeding to be treated as a limited civil case.

This bill would specify that the existence of a statute relating to the authority of the court in a limited civil case does not imply that the same authority does or does not apply in an unlimited case. The bill would also provide that the existence of a statute relating to the authority of the court in an unlimited case does not imply the existence of the same authority in a limited civil case.

(3) Existing law delineates various circumstances in which a superior court may appoint a receiver in a pending action, but limits that authority to cases other than limited civil cases.

This bill would delete the limitation of the provision to cases other than limited civil cases.

(4) Existing law provides that when an application to bring a claim against a public entity or public employee is denied by the governing body of that entity, a person may petition the court for an order relieving the petitioner from the prohibition against bringing a suit against the public entity.

This bill would specify that where an action to which the claim relates would be a limited civil case, the proceeding to petition a court pursuant to these provisions would also constitute a limited civil case.

(5) The bill would also make related changes.

Ch. 45 (SB 671) Poochigian. Local agency meetings: closed sessions.

The Ralph M. Brown Act requires that the meetings of the legislative body of a local agency be conducted openly and publicly, with specified exceptions. The act also provides that the legislative body of a local agency may hold closed sessions for specified purposes.

This bill would authorize the legislative body of a local agency to hold closed sessions to discuss a local agency employee's application for early withdrawal of funds in a deferred compensation plan when the application is based on financial hardship arising from an unforeseeable emergency due to illness, accident, casualty, or other extraordinary event.

Ch. 46 (SB 817) Johnson. Attorneys: State Bar.

(1) The State Bar Act regulates the practice of law of attorneys in this state. The act provides for the creation of an examining committee within the State Bar of California, and the State Bar administers the requirements for eligibility to practice law in this state. Existing law requires that a person, in addition to meeting other requirements, have graduated from an accredited law school requiring 3 years of full-time study, or 4 years of part-time study in order to be eligible to take the examination to be licensed to practice law in the state or to meet other specified requirements.

This bill would revise that requirement to instead require that the person has a juris doctor (J.D.) degree or a bachelor of laws (LL.B.) degree from an accredited law school.

(2) Existing law requires that an applicant taking the bar examination meet application deadlines. An application must be filed between the last business day of November and first business day of February for the February bar examination and between the last business day of April and first business day of July for the July examination.

This bill would change the deadline for applications to January 15 for the February examination and June 15 for the July examination.

(3) Existing law allows a person who has been an active member in good standing in a United States or sister state jurisdiction for at least 4 years immediately prior to the filing of his or her application to take the Attorneys' Examination rather than the general bar examination.

This bill would provide that the 4-year requirement would apply from the date of the first day of the examination instead of from the date of the application.

Ch. 47 (SB 989) Committee on Appropriations. Claims against the state: appropriation.

Existing law requires the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board to report to the Legislature when there is no sufficient appropriation available for the payment of a claim against the state allowed by the board.

This bill would appropriate $859,205.35 from various funds to the Executive Officer of the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board to pay claims accepted by the board in accordance with a schedule that identifies the funds and accounts from which the payments are to be made.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 48 (SB 1151) Margett. Child custody: appeals or orders or judgments.

Existing law provides that judgments or orders allowing, or eliminating restrictions against, removal of a minor child from the state are automatically stayed for 7 days if entered in a juvenile court proceeding, and 30 days if entered in any other trial court proceeding, in order to allow time for an appeal.

This bill would exclude from these automatic stay provisions judgments brought pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act of 1980, or the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, implemented pursuant to the International Child Abduction Remedies Act.

Ch. 49 (SB 669) Poochigian. Probate: property claims.

Existing law provides for the determination of claims brought to determine ownership of real or personal property claimed by an estate, a ward or conservatee, or a trustee, as specified. Among other provisions, if a court finds that a person has, in bad faith, wrongfully taken, concealed, or disposed of property in the estate of a ward or conservatee, in the estate of a decedent, or in or belonging to the trust, he or she is liable for twice the value of the property. A court may not grant a petition under these provisions if the court determines that the matter should be determined by a civil action.

This bill would revise, recast, and consolidate those provisions. The bill would specify that an action brought pursuant to these provisions may include claims, causes of action, or matters that are normally raised in a civil action to the extent that the matters are related factually to the subject matter of the petition.

Ch. 50 (SB 324) Ackerman. Corporations: mergers: tax liabilities.

Existing law governs the merger of corporations, and generally requires the surviving corporation to assume the liability of the disappearing corporation relative to taxes due under the Bank and Corporation Tax Law. Existing law also generally requires the Franchise Tax Board to provide a certificate of satisfaction to the Secretary of State in order for the merger to be filed by the Secretary of State. However, if the articles of incorporation of a domestic disappearing corporation were filed 60 days or less prior to the date of filing of the merger and the surviving corporation is a domestic corporation, the Secretary of State is required to file the merger without the certificate of satisfaction and is required to notify the Franchise Tax Board of the merger.

This bill would extend the operation of this provision to all cases in which the surviving corporation is a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation qualified to do business in California.

Ch. 51 (AB 1178) Calderon. Insurance.

(1) Existing law requires all brokers, agents, or other entities offering disability policies or certificates to individuals 65 years of age or older to provide these prospective insured's with a full, accurate written comparison of existing health coverage. Existing law requires the insurer to explain the proposed coverage as it relates to existing benefits provided by Medicare, Medi-Cal, or other available benefits. Existing law also provides that the Insurance Commissioner may prescribe a standard comparison form and information brochure that all insurers are required to distribute to every prospective insured when insurance is offered for sale by an agent or broker.

This bill would require disability insurers that market insurance contracts using direct response methods to include questions in their application to determine whether the prospective insured is 65 years of age or older and whether the prospective insured is covered by Medi-Cal or a Medicare supplement policy. The bill would require these direct response insurers to provide the comparison and the informational brochure to the prospective insured as early as possible in the transaction but not later than the delivery of the insurance contract. The bill would specify that these provisions become operative on January 1, 2002.

(2) Existing law provides for the regulation of long-term care insurance by the commissioner and requires, among other matters, that the commissioner review and approve those individual and group policies, certificates, riders, and outlines of coverage.

The bill would declare the Legislature's intent that the commissioner approve by July 1, 2001, all accurate and complete contracts submitted for approval and that insurers submit contracts for approval and resolve outstanding issues in order for the commissioner to meet this approval deadline. The bill would extend from July 1, 2001, to October 1, 2001, the authority for an insurer to continue to offer and market previously approved long-term care insurance contracts.

(3) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 52 (AB 1103) Papan. Law library boards of trustees.

Existing law establishes in each county a board of law library trustees for the purpose of governing the county law library. Existing law provides for the membership of those boards, which is limited to superior and municipal court judges, and members of the bar, and members of the board of supervisors.

This bill would revise and recast these provisions and, among other things, authorize the appointment of persons who are residents of the county who are not members of the above-specified groups.

Ch. 53 (AB 1437) Leslie. Alcoholic beverages: licenses: bed and breakfast inn.

Existing law authorizes the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to issue a special on-sale wine license to any person operating a bed and breakfast inn, as specified.

This bill would authorize the department to issue a special on-sale general license to any person operating a bed and breakfast inn, as specified, to serve any alcoholic beverage, as defined, and to charge a $200 fee, as provided, for that license.

Ch. 54 (SB 190) Perata. Highways: outdoor advertising.

The Outdoor Advertising Act regulates the placement of advertising displays adjacent to and within specified distances of highways that are part of the national system of interstate and defense highways and federal aid highways. The act, except as specified, prohibits any advertising display from being placed or maintained on property adjacent to a section of a freeway that has been landscaped if the advertising display is designed to be viewed primarily by persons traveling on the main-traveled way of the landscaped freeway.

This bill would exempt from that prohibition, and would, subject to special removal and relocation provisions, not more than 5 nonconforming advertising displays located on the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Complex property, if the displays meet prescribed conditions.

The bill would require the Department of Transportation, upon receiving a written request to erect certain displays, and in accordance with a specific Memorandum for Record with the Federal Highway Administration, to promptly request the approval of that change in orientation by the Federal Highway Administration to ensure that the advertising displays will not cause a reduction in federal aid highway funds and, upon receipt of that authorization, the bill would allow for the displays to be erected.

The bill would set forth facts and declare that the provisions specified above constitute necessary special legislation.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 55 (SB 303) Torlakson. Juries: peace officer exemption.

Existing law exempts certain peace officers from voir dire in civil and criminal matters, and other specified peace officers from voir dire in criminal matters.

This bill would exempt San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District police, as specified, from voir dire in civil and criminal matters.

Ch. 56 (AB 457) Canciamilla. Joint powers agencies: bonds.

Existing law, the Marks-Roos Local Bond Pooling Act of 1985, requires a local agency, within whose boundaries a public capital improvement that is to be financed by the issuance of bonds by a joint exercise of powers authority of which the local agency is a member, to approve this financing and make a finding of public benefit in order for the bonds to issue.

This bill would specify that if the public capital improvement to be financed will provide infrastructure, services, or a golf course to support, or in conjunction with, any development project, the local agency that is required to approve issuance of the bonds is the city, county, or city and county with land use jurisdiction over the development project.

Ch. 57 (AB 609) Kelley. Local agency investments.

Existing law authorizes the legislative body of a local agency having money in a sinking fund of, or surplus money in, its treasury not required for the immediate needs of the local agency to invest any portion of the money that it deems wise or expedient in specified securities and financial instruments. One of the types of eligible securities is commercial paper of prime quality as described. Existing law establishes essentially parallel provisions concerning the investment of local agency funds that belong to, or are in the custody of, the local agency. One of the authorized investments is negotiable certificates of deposit issued by a state or federal credit union.

This bill instead would authorize the investment of a local agency's money in a sinking fund or money, rather than surplus money, in its treasury not required for its immediate needs. The bill would revise the definition of commercial paper. The bill would revise these parallel provisions to incorporate references to the other provisions, consolidate duplicate provisions, delete obsolete provisions, and make conforming changes.

This bill would prohibit the legislative body of a local agency and the treasurer or other official having custody of the money from investing in negotiable certificates of deposit of a state or federal credit union if a member of the legislative body or any other specified city officer or employee also serves on the board of directors or certain committees of that credit union.

Ch. 58 (SB 400) Ackerman. Securities.

Existing law, the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, provides that it is unlawful for a person to offer or sell in this state any security in an issuer transaction unless the sale has been qualified or the security or transaction is exempted or not subject to qualification.

This bill would provide, with respect to certain offers and sales of securities issued by a corporation or limited liability company that are exempted, that the failure of the corporation or limited liability company to file a notice of transaction does not limit the availability of the exemption if the notice is filed within 15 business days after a demand by the Commissioner of Corporations.

Ch. 59 (SB 561) Morrow. Administrative Procedure Act.

(1) Existing law requires each state agency that proposes regulations pursuant to the administrative rulemaking provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act to post specified information regarding the proposed regulation on its Web site. Existing law also requires an agency that maintains an Internet Web site or other similar forum to publish specified materials on the Web site or other forum.

This bill would consolidate and revise these provisions and make technical changes.

(2) Existing law defines the term "proposed action" for the purposes of the administrative rulemaking provisions of the act.

This bill would make a technical change to that definition.

Ch. 60 (SB 941) Costa. Junk.

Existing law requires junk dealers and recyclers to keep a written record of all sales and purchases made in the course of business. Existing law defines the term "junk" to mean

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

This bill would specify that the definition of the term “junk” includes pallets.

Ch. 61 (SB 1225) Committee on Banking, Commerce and International Trade. Industrial banks.

Existing law, the Banking Law, permits an industrial bank to engage in all the activities of a commercial bank. Existing law prohibits an industrial bank from accepting demand deposits but authorizes an industrial bank to accept deposits evidenced by investment or thrift certificates.

This bill would authorize an industrial bank to accept deposits evidenced by deposit accounts or certificates instead of by investment or thrift certificates.

Ch. 62 (AB 77) Havice. Criminal proceedings: persons with disabilities.

Existing law requires courts to take special precautions to provide for the comfort and protection of a child witness testifying in criminal proceedings alleging certain sex offenses committed with or upon a minor under the age of 11. The court may, among other things, allow the witness reasonable periods of relief and relocate parties within the courtroom.

This bill would extend these provisions to a person with a mental disability, as defined. This bill would also expand these protections to cases of domestic violence, as specified.

Ch. 63 (AB 88) Alquist. Santa Clara Valley Water District: special taxes.

The Santa Clara Valley Water District Act creates the Santa Clara Valley Water District and grants to the district specified powers, including the authority to levy taxes to pay the cost of carrying out any of the purposes of the district, as specified.

This bill would authorize the district to impose special taxes in accordance with specified provisions of existing law and to provide an exemption from these taxes for residential parcels owned and occupied by one or more taxpayers who are at least 65 years of age if the total household income is less than an amount that is approved by the voters of the district.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 64 (AB 379) Papan. Special education.

(1) Existing law requires the special education program to sunset on June 30, 2001.

This bill would delete this provision. To the extent that the deletion of this provision would extend the imposition of certain duties on school districts regarding the provision of the special education program on and after June 30, 2001, the bill would impose a state mandated local program.

(2) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

(3) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 65 (AB 413) Harman. Horse racing.

Existing law requires that the total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the northern, central, and southern zones be the same as deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and amounts deducted are to be distributed as specified.

This bill would provide that for quarter horse meetings, 0.5% of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facility on races run in California shall be distributed to a specified organization for the promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, 0.5% of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility on out-of-state and out-of-country imported races shall be distributed to the official quarter horse registering agency, as specified, and 0.5% of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility on all races shall be distributed according to a written agreement for each race meeting between the licensed racing association and the organization representing the horseman participating in the meeting. In addition, in the case of quarter horses in the central and southern zones, this bill would require that 0.4% be deposited with the official registering agency, as defined, to be distributed as specified.

This bill would also state various findings and declarations regarding an annual California-bred Horses Championship races program and declare that it is the intent of the Legislature that in addition to the awards, premiums, and payments provided for as specified, the official registering agency for quarter horses shall establish a separate, segregated account for the deposit of funds distributed to it. Moneys in this fund would be used to supplement purses in the annual California-bred Quarter Horse Championship races, to be established pursuant to regulation of the California Horse Racing Board.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 66 (SB 381) Chesbro. Cities and counties: human relations commissions.

Existing law authorizes cities and counties to create commissions on human relations with the responsibility to, among other things, foster mutual respect and understanding among all racial, religious, and nationality groups in the community, inquire into incidents of tension and conflict among or between these groups, hold conferences and other public meetings in the interest of resolution of these tensions, and enlist the cooperation and participation of these groups and others as specified to foster mutual esteem, justice, and equity.

This bill would change the groups identified in these provisions to include people from groups of various race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, or civic interest, and people from other groups subject to prejudice and discrimination.

Ch. 67 (SB 795) Torlakson. Retirement: County Employees Retirement Act.

The existing County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 provides for various optional benefits for members of the retirement system.

This bill would authorize the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County to fully fund and establish an optional, supplemental retirement benefit for retired members and their surviving beneficiaries. The bill would specifically permit the payment of an additional monthly benefit of $200, $120, or $100, based on the election or allowance selected by the member.

Ch. 68 (SB 926) Battin. Peace officers: deputy sheriffs: Riverside County.

Existing law defines specified powers, rights, duties, and training requirements for peace officers, and provides that any deputy sheriff, employed in that capacity by a county, is a peace officer whose authority extends to any place in the state with regard to offenses committed within his or her home jurisdiction, and any offense committed in his or her presence where there is immediate danger to person or property or the escape of the perpetrator, or where there is probable cause to believe these situations exist. Existing law also provides that a deputy sheriff of a county of the first class and any deputy sheriff of the County of San Diego, who is assigned to perform duties relating to specified custodial assignments is a peace officer whose authority extends to any place in the state only while engaged in the performance of the duties of his or her employment and for the purpose of carrying out the primary function of employment relating to his or her custodial assignments, or when directed to perform other law enforcement duties during a local state of emergency.

This bill would provide that this latter provision is applicable to deputy sheriffs employed by Riverside County.

Ch. 69 (AB 222) Wiggins. False Claims Act: qui tam actions.

Under the False Claims Act, any person who makes any one of various false claims against the state is liable to the state for specified damages, costs, and civil penalties, and the Attorney

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

General is authorized to bring a civil action against a person who makes a false claim. The act also authorizes a person to bring a civil action for a violation of the act for the person and either for the State of California, if any state funds are involved, or for a political subdivision of the state, if political subdivision funds are exclusively involved.

This bill would require any person or political subdivision that has commenced a proceeding in which a violation of the act is alleged, or the application or construction of the act is in issue, in the California Supreme Court, a state court of appeal, or the appellate division of a superior court, to serve a copy of each paper, including briefs, on the Attorney General within 3 days of the filing.

The bill would also provide that timely compliance with these provisions is a jurisdictional prerequisite to the entry of any specified judgment, order, or decision and would authorize the court, within the 3-day time period or thereafter, to extend the time for compliance for good cause.

Ch. 70 (AB 229) Wesson. Local initiative petitions: signature count.

Existing law prescribes the procedure for determining the total number of valid signatures affixed to a county initiative petition and to a municipal initiative petition, and requires the county elections official, if the initiative petition contains more than 500 signatures, to verify signatures using a random sampling method. If the sampling shows the petition contains 95 to 110 percent of the number of valid signatures to qualify the petition, the county elections official must verify each signature filed. Existing law provides a parallel procedure applicable to the verification of signatures on district initiative petitions.

This bill would specify that the signatures must be verified within 60 days, as specified, from the date of the filing of a county initiative petition and a municipal initiative petition. This bill would make a similar change in the procedure for verification of signatures affixed to a district initiative petition.

Ch. 71 (SB 129) Burton. Death penalty executions: physicians.

Existing law directs the warden of the state prison where an execution is scheduled to take place to invite various persons to witness the execution, including 2 physicians.

This bill would remove the requirement that the warden invite physicians to the execution and permit him or her to invite any Department of Corrections employee. The bill would provide that no physician or any other invited person may be compelled to attend an execution, and that refusal to attend may not be used in any disciplinary action or negative job performance citation.

Ch. 72 (SB 668) Poochigian. Estates and trusts: allocation of debts.

Existing law provides a method for the allocation of debts between a decedent's estate and a surviving spouse. Existing law allows a personal representative of a decedent and a surviving spouse to provide for allocation by agreement and, if that agreement substantially protects the rights of interested parties, provides that a court shall order an allocation based on that agreement. In the absence of an agreement, debts of decedents are apportioned on all of the property of the spouses liable for the debts at the date of death that are not exempt from enforcement of a money judgment, in a proportion determined by the value of the property less any liens and encumbrances at the date of death, adjusted for any right of reimbursement that would have been available if the property were applied to the debt at the date of death. Existing law provides the same method of allocation of debts between the trust of a deceased settlor and a surviving spouse.

This bill would revise the provisions described above relating to the allocation of debts in the absence of an agreement, initially requiring that a court characterize the debts as separate or community, and then setting forth a procedure for allocating the separate or community debts to assets similarly characterized, which would then be primarily liable for the debts. Among other things, this bill would also require that if the net value of either spouse's separate property assets are less than that spouse's unsecured separate property debts, the unsatisfied portion of the debts be allocated to that spouse's one-half share of the community property assets. If the net value of that spouse's one-half share of the community property is less than the spouse's unsatisfied and unsecured separate debt, the bill would require that the remaining unsatisfied portion of the debt be allocated to the net value of the other spouse's one-half share of the community property. This bill would define a nonrecourse debt as a debt for which the debtor's obligation to repay is limited to the collateral securing the debt and for which a deficiency judgment against the debtor is not permitted, and would limit the amount of a nonrecourse debt to the net equity in the collateral, as defined. This bill would permit a court to order a different allocation of debts if the court finds it to be equitable under the circumstances. The bill would also permit certain 3rd parties that incur specified damages or expense in connection with the allocation or misallocation of a debt under the provisions described above to recover them as the court that made the allocation deems reasonable.

Ch. 73 (AB 176) Nation. Workers' compensation: security deposits.

Existing law authorizes workers' compensation insurers and other specified insurers reinsuring the same risks under disability insurance to deposit, instead of a bond, certain investment instruments or securities, including securities registered with a qualified depository located in a reciprocal state. Existing law requests that these deposits be made with the Treasurer or in a bank or savings and loan association authorized to engage in the trust business, or a trust company. However, if the deposit consists of securities registered with a qualified depository located in a reciprocal state, the deposit may be made only in a bank that is licensed to do business and located in California and that is a qualified custodian with a specified minimum amount of deposits.

This bill would provide that a deposit of securities registered with a qualified depository located in a reciprocal state must be made in a bank or savings and loan association authorized to engage in the trust business, or a trust company, that is licensed to do business and located in California, and that is a qualified custodian with a specified minimum amount of deposits.

Ch. 74 (AB 260) Frommer. State departments: investigations and hearings.

(1) Existing law requires the Attorney General to distribute monetary relief recovered in civil actions to prohibit acts in restraint of trade and competition pursuant to the discretion of the superior court having jurisdiction over the action, as specified.

This bill would, in addition, authorize the superior court to use cy pres or fluid recovery mechanisms as a way of providing value to persons injured as a result of a violation.

(2) Existing law authorizes the head of a state department in connection with certain investigations and other actions to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents, and testimony pertinent or material to the investigation or action.

This bill would, in addition, authorize the head of any state department to promulgate interrogatories pertinent or material to any inquiry, investigation, hearing, proceeding, or action.

(3) Existing law also authorizes the head of a state department to petition the superior court in the county in which a hearing is pending for an order compelling a person to attend and testify or produce the papers required by the subpoena before the officer named in the subpoena.

This bill would also authorize the head of a state department to compel answers to interrogatories pursuant to subpoena.

Ch. 75 (AB 682) Calderon. Mosquito abatement, pest abatement, or vector control districts: traveling expenses.

Existing law requires the members of a mosquito abatement, pest abatement, or vector control district board to serve without compensation, but requires members to be paid for the necessary expenses for actual traveling in connection with meetings or business of the board. Existing law provides that in lieu of expenses, the district board may by resolution provide for the allowance and payment to the members of the board of a sum not exceeding $50 per month per member for expenses incurred in attending business meetings of the board.

This bill would increase the sum that the district board by resolution may provide for the allowance of payment to board members for these expenses from $50 to $100 per month per member.

Ch. 76 (SB 99) Morrow. Attorney General: opinions.

(1) Existing law requires the Attorney General to give his opinion in writing to the Legislature, the Governor, other specified constitutional officers and state agencies, and the district attorney when required, upon any question of law relating to their respective offices.

This bill instead would require the Attorney General to give his or her opinion when requested and would add any Member of the Legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, the Insurance Commissioner, a county counsel, and a county sheriff to the list of officers who may request an Attorney General's opinion in writing.

(2) Existing law also requires the Attorney General to give his opinion in writing to a city prosecutor when required, upon any question of law relating to criminal matters.

This bill instead would require the Attorney General to give his or her opinion in writing when requested by a city prosecutor upon any question of law relating to criminal matters.

Ch. 77 (SB 165) O'Connell. Public employees' retirement: membership election.

Under existing law, members of the Public Employees' Retirement System employed by a school employer, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, or the State Department of Education who are subsequently employed to perform service subject to coverage by the Defined Benefit Program of the State Teachers' Retirement Plan may elect to be excluded from membership under that plan and retain coverage under the system for that service.

This bill would additionally make that election available to members of the Public Employees' Retirement System who have at least 5 years of credited service and who are subsequently employed to perform service subject to coverage by the Defined Benefit Program of the State Teachers' Retirement Plan.

Ch. 78 (SB 288) Speier. Health facilities: financing.

Under existing law, the California Health Facilities Financing Authority Act, the California Health Facilities Financing Authority is empowered to issue revenue bonds for the benefit of a participating health institution, as defined, for specified purposes.

This bill would include in the definition of a participating health institution, for purposes of the California Health Facilities Revenue Bonds (UCSF-Stanford Health Care) 1998 Series A, the Regents of the University of California.

Ch. 79 (SB 386) Johnson. Political Reform Act of 1974: online disclosure.

Existing law, the Political Reform Act of 1974, requires the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Fair Political Practices Commission, to develop online and electronic filing processes for use by persons and specified entities required to file statements and reports with the Secretary of State's office.

This bill would require the Secretary of State, if he or she rejects a filing made pursuant to these provisions, to immediately notify the filer, by electronic mail, of the reason or reasons for rejection using plain, straightforward language, avoiding technical terms as much as possible, and using a coherent and easily readable style. The bill would require the notice to be written or displayed so that the meaning will be easily understood by those persons directly affected by it.

The Political Reform Act of 1974, an initiative measure, provides that the Legislature may amend the act to further the act's purposes with a $2/3$ vote of each house and compliance with specified procedural requirements.

This bill, which would declare that it furthers the purposes of the act, would therefore require a $2/3$ vote.

Ch. 80 (SB 1131) Machado. Clinical laboratory technology.

Existing law authorizes any licensed clinical laboratory or public health laboratory to perform pregnancy, glucose level, cholesterol, and occult blood tests and provides that the State Department of Health Services may add other tests to this list, as specified.

This bill would delete the provision, authorizing the department to add other tests and would, instead, authorize these laboratories to perform any other over-the-counter test approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration for sale to the public without a prescription.

Ch. 81 (AB 431) Committee on Budget. Claims against the state: appropriation.

(1) Existing law requires the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board to report to the Legislature when there is no sufficient appropriation available for the payment of a claim against the state allowed by the board.

This bill would appropriate $1,237,186.25 from various specified funds to the Executive Officer of the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board to pay claims accepted by the board in accordance with a schedule that identifies the funds and accounts from which the payments are to be made.

(2) Existing law specifies that the board may provide relief from liability for certain overpayments made in excess of $2,000 for victim compensation, upon the submission of a report to the Legislature and the Legislature's approval.

This bill would express the approval of the Legislature for specified overpayments reported by the board.

(3) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 82 (AB 477) Cohn. Criminal procedure.

Existing law provides that, unless a showing of necessity is made, a person charged with a misdemeanor offense involving domestic violence may appear by counsel only for the purpose of service of a protective order, as specified.

This bill would require that persons accused of misdemeanor offenses involving domestic violence be present for arraignment and sentencing.

Ch. 83 (AB 1202) Harman. Mobilehome parks: meetings.

Existing law specifies the rights of homeowners and residents of a mobilehome park to use the mobilehome park. Existing law provides that a homeowner may not be required to obtain liability insurance to use common area facilities for specified purposes.

This bill would provide that a homeowner or resident may not be charged a cleaning deposit to use the mobilehome park recreation hall or clubhouse for meetings of resident organizations for purposes authorized in existing law, even if guests and visitors from outside the park are invited to attend the meeting, if a homeowner or resident of the park is hosting the meeting and all homeowners or residents of the park are allowed to attend. The bill would specify additional restrictions on requirements for liability insurance, and would permit park owners and management to require liability insurance if alcoholic beverages are to be served at a meeting or private function. The bill would also permit park owners and management to prohibit the consumption of alcohol if it is prohibited by the terms of the rental agreement or the rules and regulations of the park. The bill would also require a homeowner, organization, or group of homeowners using the recreation hall or clubhouse to adhere to any limitations on parking and maximum occupancy.

Ch. 84 (SB 42) Speier. Child passenger restraint systems and seatbelts: accident reports.

Under existing law, until January 1, 2002, it is unlawful for any parent or legal guardian, when present in a motor vehicle, as defined, to permit his or her child or ward who is between 4 and 16 years of age and weighs 40 pounds or more to be transported on the highway in the vehicle without using a child passenger restraint system or a safety belt. Under existing law, a similar provision applies to a driver who is not the parent or guardian of a child passenger. Existing law, operative on January 1, 2001, prohibits a parent or legal guardian, when present in a motor vehicle, from allowing his or her child or ward to be transported upon a highway without providing and properly using a child passenger restraint system or a safety belt if the child is 6 years of age, but less than 16 years of age, or who is less than 6 years of age and weighs 60 pounds or more. Under existing law, a similar provision applies to a driver who is not the parent or guardian of a child passenger. A child is exempt from these requirements under certain circumstances, including when there is a life-threatening emergency or the child is being transported in an authorized emergency vehicle, and there is no child passenger restraint system available and the child is at least one year of age.

This bill would change the operative date of the provision described above that was operative on January 1, 2001, to January 1, 2002.

The bill would delete the requirement that the child be at least one year of age in order to qualify for the exemption.

Existing law prescribes reporting requirements for drivers of motor vehicles involved in accidents.

This bill would make a technical, nonsubstantive change to these reporting requirements by relocating provisions in the Vehicle Code related to accidents involving a motor vehicle owned or operated by, or operated under contract with, a publicly owned or operated transit system.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 85 (SB 932) McPherson. Local government: housing elements.

Existing law requires each council of governments to determine the existing and projected housing needs for its region, as specified, for purposes related to each local government's determination in its housing element of its share of regional housing needs. Existing law requires local governments within the regional jurisdiction of the Council of Fresno County Governments, the Kern County Council of Governments, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, and the Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments to revise the housing elements of their general plans by June 30, 2002, for the 3rd revision, and June 30, 2007, for the 4th revision, and for all other local governments, June 30, 2003, for the 3rd revision, and June 30, 2008, for the 4th revision.

This bill would extend the date for that 3rd revision to December 31, 2002, for the local governments within the regional jurisdiction of the Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments. For all other local governments, the bill would extend the date for the 3rd revision to December 31, 2003.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 86 (AB 594) Harman. Property taxation: electronic payments.

Existing property tax law specifies the date that a remittance to a taxing agency is deemed to be received if deposited in the United States mail or for shipment with an independent delivery service.

This bill would specify the date that a remittance to a taxing agency is deemed to be received if made by an electronic payment option.

Ch. 87 (AB 764) Goldberg. Kindergarten.

Existing law generally prohibits a pupil in a kindergarten from being kept in school on any day for more than 4 hours exclusive of recesses.

This bill would authorize a pupil in a kindergarten in a school operating on a program of multitrack year-round scheduling to be kept in school on any day for 265 minutes of instruction, exclusive of recesses.

Ch. 88 (AB 1021) Goldberg. Parking and business improvement areas: benefit assessments.

The Property and Business Improvement District Law of 1994 authorizes cities to form property and business improvement districts that may levy assessments within a business improvement area for the purpose of making improvements and promoting activities of benefit to the properties within the district. Existing law requires that for the purpose of making improvements and promoting activities of benefit to the properties within the district, the collection of assessments shall be made at the time and in the manner set forth by the city council in the management district plan, as specified. Existing law requires that the management district plan include, among other things, the specific number of years, to a maximum of 5, in which assessments would be levied.

This bill would recast and reorganize those provisions. The bill, in addition and among other things, would require that all delinquent payments for assessments levied shall be charged interest and penalties. The bill would also permit the renewal of any district previously established whose term has expired, by following specified procedures. Upon renewal, a district would have a term not to exceed 10 years. The bill would also define "owners' association" for purposes of the law and require an owners' association to comply with the Ralph M. Brown Act and the California Public Records Act under certain conditions.

Ch. 89 (SB 58) Alpert. California Ocean Resources Enhancement and Hatchery Program.

(1) Existing law, until January 1, 2003, establishes the California Ocean Resources Enhancement and Hatchery Program for the purpose of basic and applied research on the artificial propagation, rearing, stocking, and distribution of adversely affected marine fish species that are important to sport or commercial fishing in the ocean waters off the coast of California south of a line extending due west from Point Arguello. Existing law also provides for funding of the program from the revenues derived from fees for ocean fishing enhancement stamps, which are required of persons taking fish, as specified, in those ocean waters. Under existing law, those fees are deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, and are available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes of the program.

This bill would extend the program indefinitely. Because existing law makes a violation of the provisions requiring fishing stamps a crime, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program by extending a crime that otherwise would be repealed.

(2) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 90 (SB 425) Torlakson. Contra Costa County: domestic violence.

Existing law provides for county domestic violence program special funds for the purpose of funding local domestic violence programs. Certain fees payable at the time a marriage license is issued may be collected by the county clerks for deposit into these funds.

Existing law requires the collection of fees for certified copies of fetal death or death records and marriage or birth certificates. Existing law authorizes the board of supervisors of a county that has established a county children's trust fund to increase the fee for a certified copy of a birth certificate for purposes of the fund.

This bill would authorize the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, until 2007, to increase fees, up to a maximum increase of $2, for certified copies of marriage certificates, birth certificates, fetal death records and death records. The purpose of the fee increase would be to provide funding for governmental oversight and for the coordination of domestic violence prevention, intervention, and prosecution efforts in the county.

The bill would specify that these fees shall only apply in Contra Costa County. The bill would also require the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors to submit to the Assembly Judiciary Committee and the Senate Judiciary Committee, by July 1, 2006, a report regarding the receipt of these fees, the expenditure of these funds, and the outcomes achieved as a result of certain activities as specified.

This bill would make specified legislative findings regarding the need for special legislation.

Ch. 91 (SB 428) Oller. El Dorado County Water Agency.

(1) The El Dorado County Water Agency Act requires the El Dorado County Board of Supervisors to be ex officio the Board of Directors of the El Dorado County Water Agency.

This bill, on and after March 1, 2002, would require that the board of directors of the agency consist of 5 appointed members, 3 of whom required to be directors of the El Dorado County Board of Supervisors, one of whom would be required to be a member of the Board of the South Lake Tahoe Public Utility District or the Tahoe City Public Utility District, and one of whom would be required to be a member of the Board of the El Dorado Irrigation District, the Grizzly Flats Community Services District, or the Georgetown Divide Public Utility District, as prescribed. With certain exceptions, the bill would require the directors to serve 4-year terms. The bill would require that if a director ceases to be a member during his or her term, his or her position as a director would be vacant and any vacancy in the office of a director would be filled by the appropriate appointing authorities. By requiring local public agencies to appoint directors to the board of the agency, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(2) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 92 (SB 1081) Johannessen. Exhaust and muffler systems.

(1) Existing law establishes noise limits for various types of motor vehicles based on factors, including, but not limited to, speed limit. Existing law establishes different noise limits for speed zones of 35 miles per hour or less on level streets.

This bill would delete these provisions.

(2) Existing law prohibits any person engaged in a business that involves the selling of motor vehicle exhaust systems from selling or installing a motor vehicle exhaust system that does not meet regulations and standards. Existing law provides that a violation of this provision is a misdemeanor.

This bill would provide that motor vehicle exhaust systems include nonoriginal exhaust equipment.

(3) Existing law requires the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol to conduct a study and to adopt regulations setting standards for the certification of exhaust systems, which regulations would become effective one year after they are filed with the Legislature. Existing law authorizes the commissioner to provide for the exemption of vehicular exhaust systems where compliance with the regulations would cause an unreasonable hardship without resulting in a sufficient corresponding benefit with respect to noise level control. Existing law requires the regulations to include provisions for the licensing of stations to implement these provisions.

This bill would require these regulations to provide that exhaust systems installed on motor vehicles weighing less than 6,000 pounds that emit no more than 95 dbA comply with specified requirements. This bill would delete the provisions relating to the study and the filing of regulations with the Legislature.

(4) Existing law authorizes a court to dismiss any action in which a person is prosecuted for operating a vehicle in violation of specified provisions relating to noise limits, if certain conditions are met.

This bill would instead authorize a court to dismiss an action in which a person is prosecuted for a violation of specified provisions concerning the use of mufflers and exhaust systems, if the vehicle is equipped with an exhaust system that complies with the regulations described in (3).

(5) Existing law requires manufacturers of motorcycles and motorcycle accessories to certify to the Department of the California Highway Patrol, prior to the sale of a motorcycle exhaust system, that the system is in compliance with the standards and regulations adopted by the commissioner.

This bill would delete this provision.

(6) Existing law prohibits the modification of exhaust systems to amplify or increase the noise emitted such that the system violates existing noise limits.

This bill would provide that for vehicles of less than 6,000 pounds, other than motorcycles, a sound level of 95 dbA or less complies with noise limits.

Ch. 93 (SB 1100) Johannessen. Vehicles: dealers: continuing education: exemptions.

Existing law requires every person, except as specified, applying for a dealer's license for the purpose of transacting sales of used vehicles on a retail or wholesale basis only to take and successfully complete a written examination and to complete a preliminary educational program. Dealers who have completed these initial requirements are required, every 2 years thereafter, to successfully complete an educational program of not less than 4 hours that offers instruction in specified subjects and topics in order to maintain or renew that license, except as specified.

This bill would exempt dealers who sell vehicles on a wholesale basis only and who, in a one-year period, deal with less than 50 vehicles that are subject to registration, from the specified continuing education requirement.

Ch. 94 (SB 1173) Johannessen. Vehicles: engine replacement.

Under existing law, whenever a motor vehicle engine or motor is installed in a motor vehicle that is identified on the ownership and registration certificates by motor or engine number or by both the motor and frame numbers, the owner of the motor vehicle is required to give notice to the Department of Motor Vehicles containing a description of the motor vehicle engine or motor installed, including any identifying number and the date of installation. Existing law prohibits the Department of Motor Vehicles from registering a case for any motorcycle of the push-rod type with nonjournal rods and 4-stroke engines, manufactured in the United States, without proof of the destruction of the case being replaced.

This bill would delete the provision prohibiting the Department of Motor Vehicles from registering a case for any motorcycle of the push-rod type with nonjournal rods and 4-stroke engines, manufactured in the United States, without proof of the destruction of the case being replaced. The bill would instead require the Department of Motor Vehicles, whenever an application is made to register a replacement engine case for any motorcycle, to request the Department of the California Highway Patrol to inspect the motorcycle to determine its proper identity. If the Department of the California Highway Patrol determines that the replacement engine case bears the same identifying numbers as the engine case being replaced, the bill would require the original engine case to be destroyed.

Ch. 95 (SB 81) Speier. Motor vehicle insurance.

Existing law requires a policy of bodily injury liability insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle to include uninsured motorist coverage. Existing law provides that bodily injury to an insured who is struck by his or her own vehicle is not covered by uninsured motorist coverage.

This bill would require that uninsured motorist coverage include coverage for bodily injury to an insured that is caused by a person operating the injured insured's vehicle without the consent of the injured insured in connection with criminal activity that has been documented in a police report and that the injured insured is not a party to.

Ch. 96 (SB 1218) Romero. Class actions: unpaid residuals.

Existing law requires the State Bar to establish the California Legal Corps, and specifies the staffing, duties, and funding thereof.

This bill would eliminate these provisions.

Existing law requires that, prior to the entry of any judgment in a class action, the court determine the total amount that will be payable to all class members. The court is also required to set a date when the parties are to report to the court the total amount that was actually paid to the class members. After the report is received, the court is required to amend the judgment to direct the defendant to pay the sum of the unpaid residue, plus interest, in any manner the court determines is consistent with the objectives and purposes of the underlying cause of action.

This bill would specify the types of persons or organizations to which that unpaid residue, plus interest, shall be paid; would eliminate the requirement that notice of the court order be given to the State Bar; and would make corresponding changes.

Ch. 97 (SB 28) Brulte. State general obligation bonds.

(1) Under the State General Obligation Bond Law, the finance committee or other body authorized to cause bonds to be issued is required to adopt a resolution to the effect that the sale of the bonds is necessary or desirable. The resolution is required to specify, among other things, that the dates of maturity of the bonds are to be at annual or semiannual intervals, whether the bonds are subject to redemption at the option of a state board, department, or agency prior to maturity, that interest is payable semiannually, and whether the bonds are to be issued in coupon form or in fully registered form, or both.

This bill would revise these requirements for the resolution to specify, among other things, whether the bonds are subject to redemption or tender, as defined, prior to maturity, and provisions for the registration and exchange of bonds and for the use of a depository to hold book-entry bonds after issuance.

(2) Existing law authorizes the use of the proceeds from the sale of state general obligation bonds for specified purposes, including the costs of the Treasurer's office directly associated with the sale and payment of the bonds.

This bill would provide that certain costs incurred by the state in connection with bonds that bear variable interest rates are to be paid from appropriations by the Legislature if the bonds are issued under a bond act approved prior to January 1, 2002. If the bonds are issued by a bond act approved thereafter, the bill would authorize the costs to be paid from the General Obligation Bond Expense Revolving Fund or from the proceeds from the sale of the bonds.

(3) Existing law requires the bonds specified in the resolution to be sold by the Treasurer either at a public sale to the bidder whose bid will result in the lowest interest cost on account of those bonds or by negotiated sale if the Treasurer determines it will result in a lower interest cost. The law requires the rate or rates of interest of the bonds to be specified in the bid accepted by the Treasurer, unless a variable interest rate is prescribed.

The bill would require the rate or rates to be specified in either the bid or the proposal for negotiated sale accepted by the Treasurer, unless a variable interest rate is prescribed. The bill would provide that in specified circumstances variable rate bonds are not backed by the full faith and credit of the state, as specified. The bill would provide that, when the resolution prescribes that bonds may pay a variable interest rate, the Treasurer may sell the bonds by negotiated sale if the Treasurer determines that it is in the best interest of the state to do so.

(4) Existing law requires the Treasurer to require that each bidder provide a good faith deposit based upon the principal amount of the bonds offered for sale.

This bill would require the deposit to be based upon the principal amount of the bonds for which the bidder submits a bid.

(5) Existing law establishes the Refunding Escrow Fund, a continuously appropriated fund, into which the proceeds of each sale of refunding bonds are set aside in a separate account within the fund. Moneys in each separate account are invested by the Treasurer in accordance with the resolution of the committee providing for the issuance of the refunding bonds.

Existing law authorizes the state board, department, or agency authorized to request the issuance of bonds to direct, with an approved resolution, the Treasurer to call and redeem any outstanding bonds that may be redeemed prior to maturity whenever the state board, department, or agency determines that these bonds should be redeemed and that money sufficient for that redemption will be available in the fund or the General Fund at the time of redemption. Existing law requires the Treasurer to take certain actions with respect to the redemption.

This bill would require money determined to be sufficient for the redemption or retirement of bonds and available for that purpose to be transferred from the General Fund to a separate account within the Refunding Escrow Fund. Moneys in the account would be continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years for that purpose. The bill also would require money in the account to be invested by the Treasurer. It would also require any funds remaining in the account after all the bonds are redeemed to be transferred to the General Fund.

(6) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 98 (AB 27) Negrete McLeod. Community colleges: surplus personal property.

Existing law establishes the California Community Colleges under the administration of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. Existing law authorizes the establishment of community college districts under the administration of community college governing boards, and authorizes these districts to provide instruction at community college campuses throughout the state. Existing law contains provisions generally governing the acquisition and disposition of personal property by community college governing boards, including provisions authorizing the sale of surplus personal property under prescribed conditions.

This bill would, notwithstanding these requirements, authorize community college districts to exchange for value, sell for cash, or donate any personal property belonging to the district if the property is determined, as prescribed, to be surplus, and the property is exchanged with, or sold or donated to, school districts or other community college districts, as prescribed.

Ch. 99 (AB 133) Alquist. Regional transportation plans.

Existing law requires designated transportation planning agencies to prepare and adopt a regional transportation plan that includes a policy element, an action element, and a financial element.

This bill would authorize those agencies to also include other factors of local significance as an element of the regional transportation plan.

Ch. 100 (AB 614) Thomson. State of California: official State Tartan.

Existing law designates the state's flag, motto, nickname, flower, dance, song, tree, reptile, bird, colors, insect, animal, mineral, rock, gemstone, marine mammal, marine fish, soil, fossil, and prehistoric artifact.

This bill would designate the official State Tartan, as described.

Ch. 101 (AB 735) Chan. Conflicts of interest.

The California Children and Families Act of 1998 requires that the California Children and Families Program, established by the act, be funded by certain surtaxes imposed on the sale and distribution of cigarettes and tobacco products and deposited into the California Children and Families Trust Fund Account, and that the fund be used for the implementation of comprehensive early childhood development and smoking prevention programs. Existing law establishes a state commission, the California Children and Families Commission, with specified powers and duties and also requires that funds in the account be distributed by the commission to those counties that elect to participate in the program by creating county commissions and meeting other criteria.

Existing law prohibits certain state and local officers and employees from being financially interested in any contract made by them in their official capacity, or by any body or board of which they are members, and prohibits any state, county, district, judicial district, and city officers or employees from being purchasers at any sale or vendors at any purchase made by them in their official capacity.

This bill would specify that this prohibition does not apply to any contract or grant made by local children and families commissions created pursuant to the California Children and Families Act of 1998, except in certain circumstances.

Ch. 102 (AB 1180) Calderon. Insurance.

Existing law requires an insurer with respect to commercial insurance, as defined, and workers' compensation insurance to give the insured a written notice of nonrenewal of the policy. Existing law also requires the insurer to provide, upon the request of the insured or the agent or broker of record, a premium and loss history report for the account's tenure or the past 3 years, whichever is shorter, plus loss experience during the current policy year, within 10 business days from the receipt of the request.

This bill would instead require that the insurer provide the premium and loss history report with respect to certain policies of commercial insurance and workers' compensation upon the request of the insured or the agent or broker of record where authorized by the insured, irrespective of nonrenewal. The bill would also provide that the requirement that the insurer furnish the insured with the loss covering the current policy period, but that the requirement does not apply except under specified conditions.

Ch. 103 (AB 1394) Wiggins. Pests: Pierce's disease and the Glassy-winged Sharpshooter.

Existing law generally provides for the eradication of pests that threaten this state's agriculture. Existing law also creates the Pierce's Disease Management Account within the Food and Agriculture Fund for the purpose of research and other efforts to combat Pierce's disease and its vectors.

This bill would create in the Department of Food and Agriculture the Pierce's Disease and Glassy-winged Sharpshooter Board, which would consist of at least 14 and no more than 15 members with specified numbers of representatives of producers and processors, as defined, in the grape industry to be appointed by the Secretary of Food and Agriculture, as specified. This bill would set out the powers of the board and would provide for a specified annual assessment to be paid by processors into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund for the purposes of, among other things, research of integrated pest management and other sustainable industry practices. This bill would provide that the assessment required to be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund may be deposited with an entity that is a bank or other depository approved by the Department of Finance, if specified conditions are met. This bill would repeal these provisions as of March 1, 2006.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 104 (SB 903) Committee on Elections and Reapportionment. Voters accompanied by children.

Existing law permits a voter to be accompanied in the voting booth area by a child or children under the age of 13 years, if the child or children are in the voter's care and the voter is unable to find other care for the child or children while the voter is voting.

This bill would allow a voter to be accompanied in the voting booth by a child or children under the age of 18 years, and would eliminate the requirement that the voter have no other method of temporary care for the child or children.

Ch. 105 (SB 904) Committee on Elections and Reapportionment. Elections: initiative and referendum circulators.

Existing law requires that persons who circulate state, county, municipal, or district initiative and referendum petitions be registered voters within the jurisdiction of the governmental entity to which the initiative or referendum measure would apply.

This bill would alternatively allow these petition circulators to be eligible to register to vote within the jurisdiction to which the initiative or referendum measure would apply.

The bill would also make technical, nonsubstantive changes to these provisions.

Ch. 106 (SB 739) as amended, Peace. 2001–02 Budget. ¹

This bill would make appropriations for support of state government for the 2001–02 fiscal year.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 107 (AB 38) Strom-Martin. Water agencies: study.

Existing law provides for the governance of various water agencies in the state.

The bill would require the Office of the Legislative Analyst, not later than March 1, 2002, to complete and submit to the Legislature a study concerning the operation of special district water agencies, as defined. The bill would require the study to include specified components, including a discussion of the forms of governance of those agencies and the manner in which those agencies ensure that information with regard to certain planning efforts is provided to the customers.

Ch. 108 (AB 145) Robert Pacheco. Medium of payment: fees.

Existing law authorizes a court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency, upon approval of the governing body that has fiscal responsibility for that agency, to accept credit card payments for the deposit of bail or for any fine for any offense not declared to be a felony.

This bill instead would authorize credit card payments for the deposit of bail for any offense not declared to be a felony or for any court-ordered fee or fine.

Ch. 109 (AB 219) Committee on Utilities and Commerce. Public utilities: deaf and disabled telecommunications program.

Existing law requires the Public Utilities Commission to establish a rate recovery mechanism through surcharges on intrastate telephone service, until January 1, 2001, to recover the costs for providing telecommunications devices capable of serving the needs of the deaf and hearing impaired and telecommunications equipment for the disabled.

This bill would extend the requirement for those telephone surcharges until January 1, 2006, and delete an obsolete provision.

The bill would authorize the commission to authorize the trustee of the California High-Cost Fund-B Trust to transfer to the Deaf Equipment Acquisition Fund Trust (DEAF Trust) money sufficient to cover the costs of the deaf and disabled telecommunications program. The bill would require the commission to reimburse the California High-Cost Fund-B Trust for any such transfer, with interest as determined by the commission, and would appropriate from the Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program Administrative Committee Fund a sum equivalent to the amount of money transferred to the commission for allocation to the California High-Cost Fund-B Trust for that purpose. The bill would prohibit funds from being transferred from the California High-Cost Fund-B Trust to the DEAF Trust after September 30, 2001. The bill would require that reimbursements made to the California High-Cost Fund-B Trust from October 1, 2001, until June 30, 2002, be deposited in a separate memorandum account within the DEAF Trust. The bill would provide that any funds remaining in the DEAF Trust on July 1, 2002, inclusive of amounts deposited in the memorandum account, revert to the General Fund in the State Treasury.

The bill would result in a change in state taxes for the purpose of increasing state revenues within the meaning of Section 3 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, and thus would require for passage the approval of $2/3$ of the membership of each house of the Legislature.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 110 (AB 362) Corbett. Domestic Violence Prevention Act: definitions.

Existing law, the Domestic Violence Prevention Act, authorizes the issuance of various protective orders for the prevention, or the prevention of the recurrence of, domestic violence.

Existing law also provides that the Franchise Tax Board has responsibility for accounts receivable management of child support delinquencies in support of the child support activities of the Department of Child Support Services and local child support agencies.

This bill would relieve the Franchise Tax Board of the responsibility for accounts receivable management of child support delinquencies in support of these child support activities and would make related changes. The bill would also revise and recast provisions relating to the transfer of child support delinquencies to the Franchise Tax Board.

Existing law authorizes the Franchise Tax Board to collect child support delinquencies in any manner authorized by law for the collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, except by the issuance of an order and levy in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes.

This bill would authorize the Franchise Tax Board to collect child support delinquencies in that manner until the California Child Support Automation System is operational in all 58 counties.

The bill would also require the Franchise Tax Board, with the concurrence of the Department of Child Support Services, to establish a process whereby a local child support agency may request and shall be allowed to withdraw, rescind, or otherwise recall the transfer of a child support delinquency account that has been transferred to the Franchise Tax Board.

Existing law establishes the Department of Child Support Services to implement the operation of the child support enforcement program through local agencies.

Existing law requires the director of the department to establish uniform forms, policies, and procedures for local child support agencies, and imposes related regulatory requirements, including various time deadlines for the implementation of these regulatory requirements.

This bill would extend certain regulatory implementation deadlines applicable to the establishment of the above uniform forms, policies, and procedures.

This bill would create the Child Support Collections Recovery Fund, which would be administered by the department, consisting of all public moneys transferred by public agencies to the department for deposit, as permitted by federal statutes and regulations, and any accrued interest, and that would be used, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for purposes of making payments or advances to local child support agencies of the federal share of administrative payments for costs incurred pursuant to the child support enforcement program.

Existing law requires the department to pay to each county a child support incentive for child support collections, and allows the department, after July 1, 2000, to implement an annual incentive program to reward local child support agencies, in accordance with specified criteria.

This bill would revise the performance standards and other criteria for the above incentive programs. This bill would require the department, after July 1, 2001, to pay an additional incentive, from specified county collections, to the counties with the 10 best performance standards, as revised by this bill, to be used by the counties for specified child support-related activities.

Existing law gives the local child support agency the authority to establish liability for child support against the noncustodial parent in any case in which separation or desertion of a parent or parents from a child or children results in aid under the CalWORKs program being granted.

This bill would require each local child support agency, on a monthly basis, to remit to the Department of Child Support Services both the federal and state public assistance child support payments received pursuant to existing law. The imposition of this new duty upon local agencies would result in a state-mandated local program.

Under existing law, the Department of Community Services and Development is required to receive and administer the federal Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program Block Grant, and allocate the funds from the grant. Existing law also provides for a similar state program funded by a specified appropriation.

This bill would establish the separate California Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program, referred to as the California LIHEAP, also to be administered by the department. This bill would provide that the program be designed to increase energy conservation and reduce demand for energy services in low-income households, and to ensure that the most vulnerable households cope with high energy costs. This bill would provide for certain means of accomplishing this, and would set certain income and other criteria for program qualification. The department would distribute grants to certain grantee agencies from funds appropriated for that purpose.

This bill would require the department to report on an annual basis to various committees of the Legislature regarding the program.

Under existing law, the State Department of Social Services is responsible for regulating activity relating to continuing care contracts, which are defined as contracts that include promises to provide care to elderly residents for the duration of their lives, or for a period in excess of one year, in exchange for certain charges or fees.

This bill would require the Continuing Care Contracts Branch of the department to enter and review each continuing care retirement community in the state at least once every 3 years to evaluate the financial soundness of the provider, the condition of the facility, and the facility's compliance with existing law. This bill would also require the branch to issue guidelines that require each provider to adopt a comprehensive disaster preparedness plan. This bill would also require the branch to respond to complaints by residents within 15 days. This bill would also require the branch to report on the work of the Continuing Care Advisory Committee.

Existing law, until October 31, 2001, requires the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs to develop and test a comprehensive, client-centered system of care that is outcome-based and addresses the devastating costs of substance abuse to individuals, families, and communities.

This bill would extend the operation of that provision to July 1, 2003, and would require the department to provide the appropriate committees of the Legislature with a report, by January 1, 2003, on how to apply the program on a statewide basis and to include in the report various aspects of the program.

Existing law requires the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, until January 1, 2002, to charge a health facility a fee of not more than 0.035% of the gross operating cost of the health facility for the previous fiscal year, for deposit into the California Health Data and Planning Fund. Existing law includes similar provisions, operative on and after January 1, 2002, requiring the office to charge fees for health facilities and freestanding ambulatory surgery clinics for deposit into the fund. Existing law requires the office to establish the fee to produce revenues equal to the appropriation to pay for the functions required to be performed by the office, area and local planning agencies, and the Advisory Health Council.

This bill would revise the above provisions, including specifying that the appropriation upon which the fee is based is the appropriation in the annual Budget Act or another statute to pay for functions required to be performed by the office and the California Health Policy and Data Advisory Commission in accordance with specified law, and other health-related programs administered by the office.

Existing law requires specified employers to contribute 0.1% of specified wages into the Employment Training Fund. Under existing law, this requirement is repealed on January 1, 2002.

This bill would delete this repeal date.

Existing law authorizes the Legislature to appropriate from the Employment Training Fund specified amounts in specified budget acts to fund the local assistance portion of welfare-to-work activities under the CalWORKs program.

This bill would authorize the Legislature to appropriate $61,650,000 in the Budget Act of 2001 from the Employment Training Fund to fund the local assistance portion of welfare-to-work activities under the CalWORKs program.

Existing law establishes the Employment Training Panel and requires this panel, among other duties, to create a priority list of skills that are in such short supply in this state that employers are choosing to not locate or expand their businesses in the state or are importing labor in response to these skills shortages. Existing law requires this skills priority list to identify those industries in which upgrade training is likely to encourage hiring of the unemployed on a backfill basis.

This bill would delete the requirement that the skills priority list identify those industries in which upgrade training is likely to encourage hiring of the unemployed on a backfill basis.

Existing law requires the Employment Training Panel to prepare a budget to cover necessary administrative costs of the panel, and authorizes the panel to utilize funds in the Employment Training Fund for, among other expenditures, reasonable training costs and administrative costs incurred by contractors performing services for the panel. Existing law also authorizes the panel to allocate up to 10% of its annual training funds to fund training projects that improve the skills and employment security of frontline workers, as defined.

This bill would clarify that participants in these training projects to improve the skills and employment security of frontline workers are not required to meet specified additional requirements. This bill also would make additional technical and clarifying changes to these provisions.

The federal Workforce Investment Act allocates funds to states and local areas for assessment and training of employees.

This bill would make legislative findings regarding the use of these federal funds.

Existing law requires that the status of every dependent child of the court placed in foster care shall be reviewed periodically by the court.

Existing law requires that the report resulting from the periodic review by the court shall project a likely date by which a child in foster care may be returned to, and safely maintained in, the home or placed for adoption, legal guardianship, or in another planned permanent living arrangement.

This bill would also require the court to consider and determine if there is a substantial probability of the child's return to his or her parent's safe home prior to the next 6-month status review hearing.

Existing law requires that the periodic report address what plan, if any, for the return and maintenance of the child in a safe home is recommended to the court by the county welfare department social worker.

This bill would require the report also to address whether there is a substantial probability of the child's return to his or her parent's safe home prior to the next 6-month status review hearing.

By expanding the responsibilities of the counties in the preparation of the report, this bill would result in a state-mandated local program.

Existing federal law provides for allocation of federal funds through the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) block grant program to eligible states, with California's version of this program being known as the CalWORKs program.

Existing federal law requires that a state receiving federal participation for aid grants for TANF benefits shall not use any part of the grant to provide assistance for a minor child who has been, or is expected by a parent, or parents, or other caretaker relative, of the child to be absent from the home for a period of 45 consecutive days or, at the option of the state, a period of not less than 30 and not more than 180 consecutive days, as the state may provide for in the state plan. Existing federal law authorizes a state to establish good cause exceptions to that limitation that the state considers appropriate if the exceptions are provided for in the state plan.

This bill would require the department to revise the state TANF plan to incorporate the above-described federal option and apply the good cause exceptions authorized by federal law.

By permitting a parent or parents to remain eligible for aid for an increased period of time under certain circumstances, the bill would increase aid payments, thereby constituting an appropriation.

By permitting a parent or parents to remain eligible for aid for an increased period of time under certain circumstances, the bill would increase aid payments and administrative functions of counties, thereby creating a state-mandated local program.

Existing law provides for the provision of payments to meet the needs of recipients of aid under the State Supplementary Program for Aged, Blind, and Disabled under emergency or special circumstances.

This bill would revise the scope of eligibility for emergency or special circumstances aid and the circumstances for which the payments would be made. The bill would increase limits on amounts of aid that may be paid for certain special circumstances.

The bill would authorize counties to transfer funds from their administrative allocation of special circumstance funding to their benefit allocations to the extent that administrative savings are achieved.

Existing law requires persons responsible for the provision of child welfare services to adopt a case plan and specifies that a case plan for a child shall be included in the court report and shall be considered by the court at the initial hearing and each review hearing.

This bill would specify that when out-of-home services are used with the goal of family reunification, the case plan shall consider and describe the application of provisions of this bill that require that a parent or parents of a needy child shall be considered to be living with the needy child for a certain period preceding the restoration of the family, for purposes of determining aid under the CalWORKs program.

Existing law creates the Aid to Families with Dependent Children-Foster Care (AFDC-FC) program, under which a combination of federal, state, and county funds are used to provide reimbursement to families and facilities providing foster care to eligible children.

Existing law also requires each county to provide child welfare services.

Existing law also provides, until October 1, 2003, for the establishment in all counties, at the county's option and subject to the approval of the State Department of Social Services, a pilot project to continue the provision of intensive wraparound services, as defined, to eligible children in foster care or at imminent risk of this placement.

This bill would indefinitely extend these provisions.

Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to establish programs to provide food assistance and cash assistance for noncitizens who, due to their immigration status, are not eligible for federal food stamps and for SSI/SSP benefits, and specifies that an applicant who is otherwise eligible for the program but entered the United States after August 22, 1996, and who is not otherwise exempt, shall be eligible for assistance for the period beginning on October 1, 1999, and ending September 30, 2001.

This bill would delete the termination date of eligibility under these assistance programs. This bill would revise the rules and regulations governing these assistance programs related to the period of deeming of a sponsor's income and resources.

Because these programs are administered by each county, the bill would create a state-mandated local program.

Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services and the Health and Welfare Data Center to design, implement, and maintain a statewide fingerprint imaging system for use in connection with the determination of eligibility for benefits under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program.

This bill would require the Bureau of State Audits to submit, on or before January 1, 2003, to the appropriate committees and the fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature, an audit of the statewide fingerprint imaging system of the State Department of Social Services.

Under existing law, the Kinship Guardianship Assistance Payment (Kin-GAP) Program provides for financial assistance to children who, after being adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court, are placed in legal guardianship with a relative. Existing law exempts children in receipt of Kin-GAP benefits from any CalWORKs requirements so long as the exemption would not jeopardize federal financial participation in the payment.

This bill would exempt a person who is a kinship guardian under the Kin-GAP Program from the statewide fingerprint imaging system, unless the guardian is also an applicant for, or recipient of, benefits under the CalWORKs or Food Stamp program.

Existing law provides that during such times as the federal government provides funds for the care of a needy relative with whom a needy child is living, aid to the child for any month includes aid to meet the need of that relative, if CalWORKs payments are made with respect to the child for that month, except as prescribed.

This bill would provide that the parent or parents shall be considered living with the needy child or needy children for a period of up to 180 consecutive days of the needy child's or children's absence from the family assistance unit when the child is receiving child protective services and the county has determined that the provision of assistance is necessary for family reunification.

Existing law appropriates funds for the CalWORKs program and makes provision for the allocation of funds to counties for that program.

This bill would appropriate $3,587,000 from General Fund appropriations for the CalWORKs program in the Budget Act of 2001, and reappropriate certain unspent amounts from specified CalWORKs appropriations for the 2000–01 fiscal year, to specified items of the Budget Act of 2001 for the purpose of making allocations to under equity counties, as determined by the department.

Existing law requires that each county shall establish and maintain a case record for each public social services case and shall retain the record for a period of 3 years. Existing law requires that the records shall be retained beyond the 3-year retention period when the county is notified by the State Department of Social Services or the State Department of Health Services, whichever has jurisdiction over the records, to retain records for a longer period of time.

This bill would require each county to retain records necessary to determine the number of months each adult recipient has received aid applicable to the time limits required for the CalWORKs program and federal law for a period of time established by the State Department of Social Services.

The bill would also require counties to provide certain record information to the department for tracking time a recipient receives aid under the CalWORKs program, and would impose penalties on counties that fail to provide the information. The bill would require counties to expend funds for any money lost from the county allocation as a result of the imposition of the penalties.

By expanding the responsibilities of counties in the administration of aid programs, this bill would result in a state-mandated local program.

Existing law provides for the county-administered In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) program, under which qualified aged, blind, and disabled persons are provided with services in order to permit them to remain in their own homes and avoid institutionalization.

Existing law permits services to be provided under the IHSS program either through the employment of individual providers, a contract between the county and an entity for the provision of services, the creation by the county of a public authority, or a contract between the county and a nonprofit consortium.

Existing law provides that when any increase in provider wages or benefits is negotiated or agreed to by a public authority or nonprofit consortium, the county shall use county-only funds for the state and county share of any increase in the program, unless otherwise provided in the Budget Act or appropriated by statute.

Existing law provides that the state shall participate in funding the IHSS program in certain amounts.

This bill would revise the schedule for state participation in wage increases for individual providers and provider employees of public authorities and nonprofit consortiums.

Existing law establishes a formula with regard to provider wages or benefits increases negotiated or agreed to by a public authority or nonprofit consortium, and specifies the percentages required to be paid by the state and counties, for the 2000–01 fiscal year, with regard to the nonfederal share of any increases.

This bill would specify the percentages required to be paid by the state and counties, for the 2001–02 fiscal year, with regard to the nonfederal share of any increases.

Existing law provides for a state system of social services including in-home supportive services, information and referral services, protective services, and out-of-home care services.

This bill would delete information and referral services from the range of services provided, and would limit out-of-home care services to children.

Existing law provides a schedule for the allocation of federal block grant funds for certain social service and health care programs when there is a reduction in federal funds, and specifies that the allocations shall include funding for the In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) program services component, child welfare services, protective services and foster care services for adults, and in-home supportive services administration.

Existing law also requires the counties, in expending the County Services Block Grant allocations, to provide protective services and foster care services for adults, information and referral services, and transportation to and from health care facilities under specified circumstances.

This bill would eliminate expenditures, from both the allocation schedule and the County Services Block Grant allocation, for foster care services for adults, for information and referral services, and for the transportation to and from health care facilities.

Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to promulgate regulations relating to the protective services for adults, including foster care services and information and referral services.

This bill would delete foster care services for adults and information and referral services as components necessitating regulation by the department.

Existing law expresses the intent of the Legislature that the annual Budget Act appropriate state and federal funds in a single allocation to the counties for the support of administrative activities undertaken by the counties to provide benefit payments to CalWORKs recipients and to provide required work activities and supportive services in order to efficiently and effectively carry out the purposes of that program.

Existing law also requires the State Department of Social Services and the County Welfare Directors Association to develop the specific components of the budget methodology, and requires the Welfare Reform Steering Committee to review the efficacy of the proposed methodology and make recommendations for modifications to the methodology.

Existing law also expresses the intent of the Legislature that limited-term housing assistance be considered as part of the cost-based allocation methodology, where appropriate.

This bill would require, beginning in the 2002–03 fiscal year, that any adjustments to the county's CalWORKs single allocations reflect the most recent available county expenditures of funds caused by an overlap pertaining to both the United States Department of Labor Welfare-to-Work Grant funds and state matching funds, including data regarding the expenditures of the funds that offset the funds the counties would have spent from the CalWORKs single allocation.

Existing law also requires that funds appropriated annually from the Budget Act, for support services under CalWORKs welfare-to-work activities for persons with mental or emotional health disabilities, or a substance abuse problem, be made in a separate allocation to the counties.

This bill would require the department, in consultation with stakeholders and other specified departments, to develop the allocation methodology for these funds, including the specific components to be considered in allocating the funds, by no later than September 1, 2001.

Existing law provides that each county establish an emergency response adult protective services program through which the department is to provide in-person response immediately to reports of imminent abuse or danger to an elder or dependent adult or within 10 days to all other reports of danger to an elder or dependent adult in other than a long-term care facility.

Existing law requires that the department submit a report to the Legislature regarding specified circumstances of the program, on or before April 1, 2001, and that specified subdivisions are to become inoperative on January 1, 2001.

This bill would delete the requirement that specified subdivisions are inoperative on January 1, 2001, and would require the State Department of Social Services to submit the report of specified circumstances of the program to the Legislature on or before April 1, 2001, and annually thereafter.

Existing law provides for the allocation of funds for benefits administration and employment services based on certain factors, and requires the Welfare Reform Steering Committee to review the efficacy of the existing methodology and make recommendations, if any, for modification of the methodology by November 1, 2002.

This bill would eliminate the requirement that the Welfare Reform Steering Committee make the review and make recommendations, and would, beginning in the 2002–03 fiscal year, revise the methodology of funding support for all components of the CalWORKs program and all state programs funded with federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program funds based on an accounting methodology developed by the State Department of Social Services.

Existing law requires the Department of Rehabilitation to provide assistance and funding to independent living centers for individuals with disabilities. Existing law provides a formula for the allocation of funds appropriated by the Legislature to independent living centers and a nonprofit contractor selected by the department for the purpose of providing assistive technology services.

This bill would revise the formula for the allocation of funds pursuant to this provision.

Existing law authorizes the Director of Finance to approve transfers from the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant to, and in augmentation of, any program for which those funds have been appropriated in the Budget Act.

This bill would require the department, by October 1, 2001, to establish a process whereby county welfare departments may request funds from the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families reserve as appropriated in the Budget Act of 2001, for CalWORKs program services and administration.

Existing law provides that in order to provide counties with additional incentive to move CalWORKs recipients to employment, each county shall receive the state share of savings, subject to amounts appropriated in the annual Budget Act, resulting from specified outcomes.

Existing law, the State Budget Act of 2000, provides that of certain funds appropriated to the State Department of Social Services for local assistance for CalWORKs services, an amount not to exceed $250,000,000 shall be for payment of county incentives. Existing law requires that these funds be used first for any prior year county incentives are earned but not paid, with any remaining amount prorated for payment of new claims received.

This bill would delete the above requirement and would prohibit any amount from funds appropriated to the department for local assistance for CalWORKs services from being used for payment of county incentives.

The bill would authorize the department to adopt emergency regulations in order to implement specified provisions of the bill.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement, including the creation of a State Mandates Claims Fund to pay the costs of mandates that do not exceed $1,000,000 statewide and other procedures for claims whose statewide costs exceed $1,000,000.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 112 (AB 435) Committee on Budget. Resources: fish and game licenses and other entitlements.

(1) Under existing law, licenses, license tags, license stamps, permits, certificates, and other entitlements are issued by the Department of Fish and Game for specified fees that authorize various activities relating to taking and possession of birds, mammals, and fish for purposes other than commercial purposes. Fees collected for those entitlements are deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, a fund continuously appropriated to the department and the Fish and Game Commission to carry out the Fish and Game Code.

This bill would change the requirements for issuing, possessing, replacing, and renewing certain entitlements and for transacting business as a license agent for the purpose of issuing those entitlements.

Because the bill would impose new duties on the department and the commission, the bill would make an appropriation, and, to the extent that this bill would result in additional money being deposited in the fund, the bill would also make an appropriation.

(2) Existing law makes a violation of a provision of the Fish and Game Code a crime.

To the extent that the new procedures in the bill would redefine crimes related to issuing, possessing, replacing, or renewing the entitlements or the requirements for transacting business as a license agent, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(3) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 113 (AB 438) Committee on Budget. Transportation: finance.

(1) Existing law continuously appropriates to the Treasurer the amounts identified in the Budget Act as having been deposited in the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund from federal transportation funds and pledged by the California Transportation Commission, for the purposes of issuing federal highway grant anticipation notes to fund transportation projects selected by the commission. Projects eligible for this special funding are limited to transportation projects that have been designated for accelerated construction by the commission.

This bill would provide that the category of projects eligible for the special funding includes (a) toll bridge seismic retrofit projects; (b) projects approved for funding under the Traffic Congestion Relief Act of 2000; and (c) projects programmed under the current adopted State Transportation Improvement Program or the current State Highway Operation and Protection Program.

(2) Existing law establishes the Traffic Congestion Relief Fund (hereafter the TCRF) in the State Treasury and appropriates the money in the TCRF (a) to the Department of Transportation for allocation, as directed by the California Transportation Commission, to the department and certain regional and local transportation entities for certain listed transportation projects, (b) to the Controller for allocation to cities, counties, and cities and counties for street and road maintenance, rehabilitation, and reconstruction, (c) to the commission for the purposes of a funding exchange program, and (d) to the department for rehabilitation and repaving projects on state highways. Existing law, with respect to the list of transportation projects eligible for funding with money from the TCRF referenced above, specifies the lead applicant for each project, and establishes a procedure for the lead applicant to apply to the commission for funds for each project.

Existing law requires the Controller to transfer specified amounts on a quarterly basis from the General Fund to the Transportation Investment Fund (hereafter the TIF) in the State Treasury. The Controller, for each quarter during the period commencing on July 1, 2001, and ending on June 30, 2006, is required to transfer or apportion specified amounts from the TIF to the TCRF, to the Public Transportation Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund, to the Department of Transportation, to the counties, including a city and county, and to the cities, including a city and county, for specified transportation purposes. Funds apportioned to counties, cities, and cities and counties are required to be deposited in certain local accounts in order to avoid the commingling of those funds with other local funds and may be used only for street and highway maintenance, rehabilitation, reconstruction, and storm damage repair, as defined. Cities, counties, and cities and counties are required to maintain their existing commitment of local funds for street and highway maintenance, rehabilitation, reconstruction, and storm damage repair in order to remain eligible for allocation of the specified funds.

This bill would delay the transfers from the General Fund to the TIF by instead requiring the transfers to commence on July 1, 2003, and end on June 30, 2008.

This bill would reduce the total amount to be transferred from the TIF to the TCRF by $76,100,000.

This bill, for the 2006–07 and 2007–08 fiscal years, would require the transfer from the TIF to the Department of Transportation for transportation capital improvement projects to be 80% of the amount remaining after the transfer to the TCRF for the listed transportation projects and, for that same period, would delete the transfer from the TIF to the cities, counties, and cities and counties. The bill, for each of the 2001–02 and 2002–03 fiscal years, would appropriate from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Controller 40% of the amount obtained by subtracting $169,500,000 from the amount reported to the Controller for transfer to the TIF during each of those fiscal years. The bill would require the Controller to apportion the appropriated funds to cities, counties, and cities and counties in accordance with provisions in existing law relating to allocation of TIF funds, and those funds would be subject to provisions relating to expenditure of TIF funds.

This bill, until July 1, 2008, would authorize the Department of Transportation, for specified purposes, to transfer funds as short-term loans, as defined, among the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund, the TIF, the Public Transportation Account in the State Transportation Fund, and the TCRF, subject to those terms and conditions that the Director of Finance may impose upon those transfers. The bill would require the Director of Transportation to report to the commission on the status of these loans, and would require the commission to monitor the impact of the loans on transportation projects and other expenditures.

This bill would authorize the Director of Finance to authorize, by executive order and to the extent necessary to provide adequate cash to fund projected expenditures for the listed transportation projects, the transfer of not more than $100,000,000, as an interest free loan, from the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund to the TCRF, and the transfer of any available funds, as an interest free loan, from the General Fund to the TCRF. Loans from the Motor Vehicle Account would be authorized only beginning July 1, 2004, and would be required to be repaid by July 1, 2007. The bill would also provide for loans of certain maximum cumulative amounts to the TCRF from the Public Transportation Account or the State Highway Account for these purposes through the annual Budget Act, to be repaid by June 30, 2008, and June 30, 2007, respectively. The director would be required to order the repayment of the loans under certain circumstances. The bill would require the Department of Transportation, upon the request of the commission or the Director of Finance, to provide a report, for these purposes, projecting the cash needs of the listed projects.

This bill would authorize money in the TCRF derived from the General Fund and not currently needed for expenditures on the listed projects to be transferred to the General Fund through the annual Budget Act. The bill would require the Director of Finance, upon making a determination that funds in the TCRF are not adequate to support expected cash expenditures for the listed projects, to require, by executive order, that the funds transferred to the General Fund under this provision be repaid to the TCRF. These loans to the General Fund would be required to be repaid no later than June 30, 2006.

This bill would require that funds transferred to the TCRF under these provisions be used for purposes consistent with any restrictions on uses of those funds imposed under the California Constitution or by statute. The bill would require the Department of Transportation to identify specific projects to which those funds may properly be applied and to propose that application of funds to the commission. The bill would require the commission to designate projects to receive those funds through certain processes established in existing law. The bill would require the Department of Transportation to report periodically to the commission, the Department of Finance, and the Legislature on the expenditure of those funds or related matters, and would require certain reporting by the commission to the Legislature.

(3) Existing law, amended by Proposition 116 of 1990, requires certain revenues derived from imposition of the Sales and Use Tax Law on certain motor vehicle fuels to be deposited in the Public Transportation Account in the State Transportation Fund, which is designated a trust fund by that initiative statute. Existing law requires that the funds in the account be available, when appropriated by the Legislature, only for transportation planning and mass transportation purposes, as specified by the Legislature, and requires that the funds be allocated for those purposes in accordance with a specified scheme. Existing law authorizes the Legislature to amend these provisions by statute requiring a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote, if the amendments are consistent with and further the purposes of these provisions.

This bill would amend the initiative provisions by limiting the transfer of certain sales and use tax revenues on certain motor vehicle fuels to the account for the 2001–02 fiscal year to not more than \$81,000,000 plus $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount otherwise to be transferred under these provisions that is in excess of \$81,000,000. For the 2002–03 fiscal year, the transfer would be limited to not more than \$37,000,000 plus $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount otherwise to be transferred under these provisions that is in excess of \$37,000,000.

(4) This bill would enact other related provisions.

(5) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 114 (AB 445) Cardenas. School Facilities Fee Assistance Fund.

Existing law establishes the Homebuyer Down Payment Assistance Program and the Rental Assistance Program, which are administered by the California Housing Finance Agency pursuant to a contract with the Department of General Services, to provide assistance in the amount of the applicable school facility fee for affordable housing developments. Existing law, for the purposes of those programs, establishes the School Facilities Fee Assistance Fund, which is continuously appropriated to the Department of General Services. Specified amounts are appropriated to that fund from the General Fund in each of specified fiscal years, including $20,000,000 in the 2002–03 fiscal year through December 31, 2002. These provisions are to be repealed as of January 1, 2003.

This bill would delete that appropriation in the 2002–03 fiscal year. The bill would prohibit the agency from honoring reservations received on or after January 1, 2002, for participation in those programs, and would require any unobligated amounts in the School Facilities Fee Assistance Fund as of that date to be transferred to the General Fund, except as specified. The bill would delete the January 1, 2003, repeal date for those provisions, and would make the provisions inoperative on and after January 1, 2002, except with respect to any repayment obligation or regulatory agreement imposed as a condition of assistance.

Ch. 115 (SB 153) Knight. Pilot projects: state and local programs.

Under existing law, various state and local pilot, demonstration, and other projects and programs of limited duration were created to, among other things, make studies, collect data, and make reports to the Legislature pertaining to, among other things, civil procedure, air pollution, transportation, housing, health and welfare, criminal law, juvenile justice, hazardous waste, and state property.

This bill would repeal certain of these provisions that have become obsolete and would make related technical and conforming changes.

Ch. 116 (SB 166) Poochigian. Pupil expulsion.

(1) Existing law authorizes the governing board of a school to order the expulsion of a pupil for possession of an explosive.

This bill would require the governing board of a school to order the expulsion of a pupil possessing an explosive, as defined. Because this bill would impose new duties on school districts by increasing the number of expulsion-related actions within school districts, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

(2) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 117 (SB 429) Soto. Housing: assistance.

The Planning and Zoning Law requires an owner of an assisted housing development to give tenants specified notices prior to the anticipated termination date of a subsidy contract, and to give specified entities the opportunity to offer to purchase the development.

This bill would provide that the owner shall be deemed to be in compliance with the notice requirement and that the requirement to give the opportunity to purchase shall not apply if specified conditions are contained in a regulatory agreement recorded against the property.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 118 (SB 742) Escutia. Fiscal affairs.

(1) Existing law, the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, requires the Commissioner of Corporations to charge and collect specified fees in connection with securities-related actions and requires that those fees be credited to the State Corporations Fund.

This bill would require the commissioner to set those fees for the 2002–03 and subsequent fiscal years in accordance with specified requirements. The bill would require the Department of Corporations to report to the Chair of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Chairs of the Senate Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review and the Assembly Committee on Budget on the fees to be reduced and the projected revenue and fund balance impact on the State Corporations Fund.

(2) Existing law establishes the Child Care and Development Services Loan Guaranty Fund and the Child Care and Development Facilities Direct Loan Fund in the State Treasury which are continuously appropriated funds, to be used for the purpose of guaranteeing and making loans for the purchase, development, construction, expansion, or improvement of licensed child care and development facilities. Existing law prohibits a direct loan from exceeding 50% of the total amount of investment for the purchase, development, expansion, or improvement of eligible child care and development facilities and prohibits the term of a direct loan from exceeding 20 years. Existing law requires the interest rate for a direct loan to be set at the time of application, fixed for the term of the loan, and set at a rate equivalent to the Surplus Money Investment Fund rate in effect on December 31 of the preceding year.

This bill would instead prohibit a loan from exceeding 75% of the total amount of investment and from exceeding 30 years. The bill would require a direct loan to bear simple interest at the rate of 3% per annum on the unpaid principal balance. The bill would authorize the Department of Housing and Community Development to permit a loan to be assumed by an otherwise qualified borrower who agrees to continue to provide child care for the balance of the original term of the loan.

(2.5) Existing law establishes various commissions and programs promoting various agricultural products produced in the state.

This bill would authorize the Secretary of Food and Agriculture to enter into a marketing agreement, as specified promoting the Buy California Program. This bill would require the department to report to the Legislature on January 1, 2002, regarding expenditures and progress of the program. The bill would create the continuously appropriated Buy California Account in the Food and Agriculture Fund for that purpose.

(3) Existing law requires the Department of Housing and Community Development to adopt regulations for serving family day care homes that serve more than 6 children efficiently and effectively, including making loans available from the Child Care and Development Facilities Direct Loan Fund to local microenterprise loan funds and other lenders who reloan the funds to eligible family day care home providers and authorizing guarantees of small loans by local microenterprise loan funds and other lenders serving family day care home providers.

This bill would require the department to adopt regulations for serving family day care homes that serve up to 35 children and for licensed child care and development facilities. The bill would prohibit loans made by local microenterprise loan funds from being made for less than $5,000 and from exceeding $50,000. The bill would make only licensed small family day care homes eligible for loans from funds made available to local microenterprise loan funds and other lenders and for guarantees of small loans made by those loan funds and lenders.

(4) Existing law includes family day care homes serving more than 6 children within the facilities eligible for the loan guaranty and the direct loan programs.

This bill would instead include licensed large and small family day care homes within those eligible for those programs.

(5) Existing law, the Administrative Procedure Act, establishes basic minimum procedural requirements for the adoption, amendment, or repeal of administrative regulations.

This bill would, notwithstanding any other provision of law, authorize the Department of Housing and Community Development to implement, interpret, and make specific the changes made by this act, described in (2), (3), and (4) above, through guidelines that would be exempt from the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act.

(6) Existing law authorizes state officers and employees who are eligible to participate in a flexible benefits program, to elect to receive one or more benefits that would qualify to be excluded from gross income in lieu of a portion of his or her salary. Existing law establishes the Flexelect Benefit Fund as a continuously appropriated fund to implement the flexible benefits program and to pay the related administrative costs.

This bill would authorize any eligible employee, as defined, to elect to participate in the State Employees' Pretax Parking Payroll Deduction Program, which would be administered by the Department of Personnel Administration. The bill would require that an amount equivalent to the value of the parking be excluded from the gross income of the employee, in lieu of a portion of the employee's compensation, and be transmitted to the State Employees' Pretax Parking Fund that would be established by the bill as a continuously appropriated fund. The fund would be used for the purposes of implementing the State Employees' Pretax Parking Payroll Deduction Program.

(7) Existing law requires the Department of General Services to commit itself to 2 specified categories of services by July 1, 1998, and sets forth the conditions pursuant to which the director of the department, notwithstanding existing statutes and regulations, is required or authorized, among other things, to transfer funds, provide relief from accountability for debts, procure goods from the private sector even though the goods may be available through the Prison Industry Authority, certify funds for the payment of specified legal settlements and tort claims, and approve specified departmental forms in lieu of the Director of Finance. Existing law also exempts state agencies from using the Office of State Publishing for their printing needs.

Existing law provides that these provisions become inoperative on the effective date of the Budget Act of 2001, or June 30, 2001, whichever occurs first.

This bill would codify these provisions and also require state agencies, when soliciting bids for printing services from the private sector, to solicit a bid from the Office of State Publishing when the project is anticipated to cost more than $5,000.

The bill would provide that these provisions shall remain operative only until the effective date of the Budget Act of 2002, or June 30, 2002, whichever occurs later, and as of January 1, 2003, are repealed.

(8) Existing law requires the Technology, Trade, and Commerce Agency to conduct a program to make loans and grants to persons to upgrade, replace, or remove petroleum underground storage tanks to meet applicable local, state, or federal standards or to take corrective actions. Existing law provides that these provisions are repealed as of January 1, 2002.

This bill would extend the operation of these provisions to January 1, 2004, when they would be repealed.

(9) Existing law sets the salaries of the Chief Justice of California, the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, the presiding and associate justices of the courts of appeal, and judges of the superior court, and provides for various percentage increases in those salaries. Under the California Rules of Court, the Chief Justice is the Chair of the Judicial Council. Under the California Constitution, laws that set the salaries of elected state officers are appropriations.

This bill would, in addition to the above provisions, provide operative January 2, 2002, the salary of the position of Chair of the Judicial Council and the position of a presiding judge of a superior court which has 15 or more judges, and the positions of the administrative presiding justices of the appellate courts, shall be increased by that amount which is produced by multiplying the salary of each of these judicial offices by 4%; and that the salary for the position of a presiding judge of a superior court, which has 4 to 14 judges, shall be increased by that amount which is produced by multiplying the salary of this judicial office by 2%; but that a judge or justice who no longer serves in the position of an administrative presiding justice or a presiding judge of a superior court shall receive only the salary in effect for judges or justices of his or her court. The bill would also specify that these increases not be counted for specified provisions relating to contributions and computations under the Judges Retirement Law or the Judges' Retirement System II Law.

The bill would make an appropriation by increasing the salaries of elected state officers.

(10) The Employee Housing Act generally reserves to local jurisdictions specified planning and zoning requirements that include, among other things, the source of water supply and method of sewage disposal.

However, this law specifies certain processing requirements with respect to a building permit, grading permit, or other approval from a city or county building department for the rehabilitation of real property improvements that are or will be employee housing for agricultural employees, or from a city or county health department for the operation, construction, or repair of a water system or waste disposal system servicing employee housing for agricultural employees. If a local building or health department does not respond to an application or permit request within 60 calendar days, the Department of Housing and Community Development may approve the application or permit request if it determines that the plans are consistent with all applicable building codes and health and safety requirements.

This bill would authorize the Department of Housing and Community Development to recover any costs, up to a specified amount, incurred in approving an application or permit request under circumstances where a local building or health department did not timely respond to the application or permit request.

(11) Existing law establishes the Veterans' Home of California, Yountville. Existing law establishes the total individual member's fees and charges based on the level of care. Existing law provides that for residential care a member's fees and charges for any fiscal year shall not be greater than 55% of the member's annual income, or $1,200 per month, whichever is less.

This bill would instead provide, for residential care, the total of the member's fees and charges for any fiscal year shall not be greater than 47¹/₂% of the member's annual income, or $1,200 per month, whichever is less.

(12) Existing law, under the Public Utilities Act, creates 6 advisory boards to advise the Public Utilities Commission regarding the implementation, development, and administration of specified telecommunications programs, and to carry out the programs pursuant to the commission's direction, control, and approval. Existing law creates a fund in the State Treasury for each advisory board, and requires the commission, on or before July 1, 2000, to report to the Governor and the Legislature regarding a transition plan for programs associated with those funds. Existing law prohibits the appropriation, transfer, or diversion from each fund to any other fund or entity.

This bill would provide that short-term loans between the funds may be authorized in the annual Budget Act. The bill would delete the provision requiring the commission to report to the Governor and the Legislature regarding a transition plan for programs associated with those funds.

(13) Existing law requires the Public Utilities Commission to conduct financial audits of the revenues for each of the funds, and to conduct compliance audits with regard to each program, as specified, with the first 3-year period for a financial and compliance audit commencing on January 1, 2000.

This bill would require the first 3-year period for a financial and compliance audit to commence on July 1, 2002.

(14) Existing law requires telephone corporations to submit to the Public Utilities Commission approved rate revenues for transfer by the commission to the Controller for deposit in the California High-Cost Fund-A Administrative Committee Fund, California High-Cost Fund-B Administrative Committee Fund, Universal Lifeline Telephone Service Trust Administrative Committee Fund, Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program Administrative Committee Fund, Payphone Service Providers Committee Fund, and the California Teleconnect Fund Administrative Committee Fund. Existing law requires any unexpended revenues collected prior to the operative date of the bill to be deposited in the appropriate fund.

This bill would provide instead that commencing on October 1, 2001, and continuing thereafter, the commission shall transfer the moneys received, and all unexpended revenues collected prior to October 1, 2001, to the Controller for deposit in the various funds, except that the bill would provide that the commission transfer the moneys received, and all unexpended revenues collected prior to July 1, 2002, to the Controller for deposit in the Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program Administrative Committee Fund commencing on July 1, 2002. The bill would provide that any transfers of money from the California High-Cost Fund-B Trust to the Deaf Equipment Acquisition Fund Trust prior to October 1, 2001, shall not be required to be transferred to the Controller for deposit in the California High-Cost Fund-B Administrative Committee Fund prior to July 1, 2002.

(15) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 119 (SB 890) McPherson. Peace officers: correctional counselors.

Under existing law, certain persons are designated as peace officers whose authority extends to any place in the state while engaged in the performance of the duties of their respective employment and for the purpose of carrying out the primary function of their employment or as required when an emergency has been declared, or in furtherance of certain mutual aid agreements. Pursuant to these provisions peace officers may carry firearms as authorized and under the terms and conditions specified by their employers. Existing law also authorizes certain persons, including a correctional officer employed by the Department of Corrections to carry a firearm while not on duty.

This bill would include correctional counselor series employees of the Department of Corrections within these provisions.

Ch. 120 (SB 1132) Karnette. County retirement systems: administration: Los Angeles County.

The County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 authorizes county retirement boards and, if applicable, boards of investment to appoint an administrator who shall be a county employee subject to the county salary ordinance or resolution but who shall not be subject to county civil service or merit system rules, who shall serve at the pleasure of the board or boards, and who may be dismissed at will without specific charges, reasons, or cause.

This bill would authorize the board of retirement and the board of investment of Los Angeles County to additionally appoint, subject to those terms of employment, assistant administrators, persons next in line of authority to assistant administrators, chief legal officers, chief deputy legal officers, chief investment officers, and investment officers next in line of authority to chief investment officers.

Ch. 121 (SB 1183) Committee on Revenue and Taxation. Property taxes: local rolls: assessments: administration.

Existing law requires each county assessor to determine the assessed value of taxable real property and personal property, and requires each county tax collector to collect the taxes levied on those assessed values.

Under existing law, if a taxpayer mistakenly pays property tax on property he or she does not own, the property tax is transferred to the property of the taxpayer for which the payment is intended.

This bill would allow for the refund of taxes mistakenly paid in the case in which there is no property of the taxpayer to which the payment may be applied. This bill would also make technical, nonsubstantive changes to the laws governing the treatment and sale of tax-defaulted property.

Ch. 122 (SB 1188) Committee on Health and Human Services. Exemption from Medical Experimentation Act.

Existing law, the Protection of Human Subjects in Medical Experimentation Act, prohibits any person from being subjected to any medical experiment unless the informed consent of the person is obtained.

This bill, until January 1, 2011, would provide an exemption from the act for any medical experimental treatment that benefits a patient subject to a life-threatening emergency that is conducted in accordance with prescribed requirements even if the patient is unable to give informed consent because of the medical condition.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 123 (AB 212) Correa. Redevelopment: Tustin Marine Corps Air Station.

Existing law authorizes a redevelopment project at the Tustin Marine Corps Air Station, and designates the City of Tustin as the local base reuse entity for purposes related to base reuse planning.

This bill would prohibit the City of Tustin or the Tustin Community Redevelopment Agency from issuing any land use or other approval unless it requires the conveyance of or an offer to dedicate certain property to the Santa Ana Unified School District and the Rancho Santiago Community College District for a K-14 facility.

Ch. 124 (AB 296) Corbett. Redevelopment.

The Community Redevelopment Law authorizes 2 or more communities to jointly exercise the powers of a redevelopment agency.

This bill would authorize the legislative bodies of the City of San Leandro and the County of Alameda, by ordinance, to provide that the San Leandro Redevelopment Agency or the Alameda County Redevelopment Agency, or both, shall exercise certain powers with respect to a specified joint project area and joint redevelopment plan.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 125 (AB 427) Hertzberg. Public social services.

Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to license community care facilities participating in transitional housing programs for children who are 17 or 18 years of age or who, although older, are completing high school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training.

This bill would provide that a transitional housing facility that serves only youth over 18 years of age who have emancipated from the foster care system shall not be subject to those licensing requirements if the facility has been certified to provide transitional housing by the appropriate county social services or probation department, and has obtained a local fire clearance.

This bill would revise the certification standards, and includes those certified facilities within the scope of transitional housing facilities.

The bill would extend the scope of the class of children who may be provided transitional housing.

The bill would also revise the requirements for being licensed as a transitional housing placement facility.

Existing law requires that the State Department of Social Services shall develop a ratesetting system for licensed community care facilities participating in transitional housing placement programs and sets parameters for the rates.

This bill would revise the method of determining the rate for community care facilities participating in transitional housing placement programs. It would authorize the department to transfer specified funds in the Budget Act of 2001 which would be deposited in the Transitional Housing for Foster Youth Fund, created by this bill, which would be continuously appropriated for purposes of paying the state share of the cost relating to transitional housing services.

This bill would also authorize Los Angeles County to pursue the development and evaluation of a pilot Internet-based health and education system for children in the foster care and probation system, and would provide for the statewide application of the system in certain circumstances.

This bill would authorize the State Department of Social Services to implement applicable provisions of this bill through an all-county letter and to adopt regulations to implement applicable provisions of this bill no later than June 30, 2002.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 126 (SB 9) Soto. Firearms: criminal storage: minors.

(1) Existing law establishes the crime of criminal storage that arises when a person keeps any loaded firearm within any premises that is under his or her custody or control and he or she knows or reasonably should know that a child under 16 years of age is likely to gain access to the firearm without the permission of the child's parent or legal guardian and the child obtains access to the firearm and thereby either (a) causes death or great bodily injury to himself, herself, or any other person, or (b) causes injury, other than great bodily injury, to himself, herself, or any other person, or carries the firearm either in a public place or as specified. A violation of (a) is criminal storage in the 1st degree, punishable as either a misdemeanor or a felony, and a violation of (b) is criminal storage in the 2nd degree, punishable as a misdemeanor.

This bill would provide that the above provisions of existing law are applicable to a child under 18 years of age. By revising the definitions of existing crimes, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(2) Under existing law, a person who keeps a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person within any premises that are under his or her custody or control and he or she knows or reasonably should know that a child under the age of 16 years is likely to gain access to that firearm without the permission of the child's parent or legal guardian and the child obtains access to that firearm and carries it off-premises is guilty of a misdemeanor.

This bill would provide that for the purposes of this section, a child is a person under the age of 18 years. This bill would also provide that when a person violates the above provisions and, additionally, the child takes the firearm to a school or a school-sponsored activity as specified, then the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to an additional fine of up to $5,000, or both that imprisonment and fine. By revising the definitions of an existing crime, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(3) This bill would also make technical conforming changes with regard to warnings that licensed firearms dealers are required to post.

(4) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 127 (SB 46) Polanco. Vehicles: Department of Motor Vehicles: private industry partners: tow trucks.

(1) Existing law provides procedures for the sale of a vehicle at a lien sale and requires the lienholder, following the sale of a vehicle at a lien sale to remove and destroy the vehicle's license plates and to submit a completed "Notice of Release of Liability" form to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

This bill would require the person who conducts the sale, rather than the lienholder, to perform the duties described above.

(2) Existing law authorizes the Department of Motor Vehicles to license private registration services to receive applications for vehicle registration and transmit those applications to the department.

This bill would authorize the department, in conformance with certain provisions in existing law relating to personal services contracts with private parties, to establish contracts for electronic programs to join the department with qualified private industry partners to provide title and vehicle registration transactions and would authorize the department to enter into contractual agreements with 3 specified types of private industry partners.

The bill would authorize the director to establish the maximum amount that a qualified private industry partner may charge for its services.

The bill would authorize the department to establish a transaction fee that it may charge to a qualified private industry partner for the information and services provided. This bill would provide that the private industry partner can pass the transaction fee to the customer.

The bill would require all fees collected pursuant to the above to be deposited in the Business Partner Automation Account in the Special Deposit Fund, established by the bill, to be available, upon appropriation, to the Department of Motor Vehicles for the purposes of maintaining, monitoring, and enhancing the above described programs. The bill would require the department to adopt regulations and procedures and to provide a described annual informational report to the Legislature.

(3) Existing law authorizes the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol to enter into service agreements with providers of towing services to determine which providers will be summoned by the department for public assistance. Existing law also requires tow truck drivers to provide certain information as part of a certification process.

This bill would, until January 1, 2003, establish the Tow Truck Advisory Committee to develop proposed statewide tow truck standards and report to the Legislature on or before December 31, 2002.

(4) Existing law requires every tow truck driver to notify each of his or her employers and prospective employers of an arrest or conviction of any specified crime prior to beginning the next workshift for that employer.

This bill would specify that this notification is required to be given by each freeway service patrol tow truck driver and any California Highway Patrol rotation tow truck operator and would require the Department of the California Highway Patrol to be one of the recipients of the notification. Because a violation of this expanded notification requirement would be a crime, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(5) Existing law makes it unlawful for a tow truck driver to knowingly provide certain false information on applications for a tow truck driving certification or fail to comply with certain notification requirements.

This bill would specify that these provisions apply to California Highway Patrol rotation tow truck operators including freeway service patrol tow truck drivers.

(6) Existing law prohibits a person from stopping, standing, sitting, or loitering upon any class I bikeway, as defined, or any other public or private bicycle path or trail, if the stopping, standing, sitting, or loitering impedes or blocks the normal and reasonable movement of any bicyclist, or park a vehicle upon these paths or trails so as to impede or block the normal and reasonable movement of any bicyclist, except as specified.

This bill would make these prohibitions inapplicable to the driver of a tow truck vehicle while actually engaged in the towing of a vehicle if certain signal lamps are flashed simultaneously.

(7) Existing law prohibits a lien from attaching to any personal property in or on the vehicle that is garaged and requires that personal property to be given to the current registered owner or the owner's authorized agent upon demand.

This bill would require the keeper of the garage, upon demand, to give the personal property to the current registered owner or owner's agent without charge during normal business hours. The bill would specify that normal business are Monday to Friday, inclusive, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., inclusive, except state holidays. The bill would allow a specified gate fee to be charged for returning property after normal business hours, weekends, and state holidays. Because a violation of these provisions would be a crime, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(8) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

(9) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 128 (SB 274) Karnette. Switchblade knives.

Existing law provides that possession or transfer, as specified, of a switchblade knife, as defined, is a misdemeanor. Existing law also provides that the definition of "switchblade knife" does not include a knife that is designed to open with one hand utilizing thumb pressure applied solely to the blade of the knife or a thumb stud attached to the blade.

This bill would recast those provisions so that the definition of "switchblade knife" would not include a knife that opens with one hand utilizing thumb pressure applied solely to the blade of the knife or a thumb stud attached to the blade, provided that the knife has a detent or other mechanism that provides resistance that must be overcome in opening the blade, or that biases the blade back toward its closed position.

By changing the definition of an existing crime, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 129 (SB 479) Burton. Attorneys: diversion and assistance.

Existing law requires a member of the State Bar to comply with certain requirements and rules of professional conduct in order to avoid being subject to disciplinary action by the Board of Governors of the State Bar of California. A member of the State Bar is subject to a physical or mental examination if his or her physical or mental condition is at issue in an investigation or disciplinary proceeding.

This bill would require the board to establish and administer an Attorney Diversion and Assistance Program. That program would be required to provide services for the treatment and recovery of attorneys due to the abuse of drugs or alcohol or mental illness. The bill would authorize the board to charge an annual fee of $10 to each active member of the State Bar to cover the costs of the program.

Ch. 130 (SB 578) Figueroa. Weapons: fléchette darts.

Existing law makes it a misdemeanor for any person to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, import into this state, keep or offer for sale, give, lend, or possess specified types of weapons and ammunition, including ammunition consisting of a dart capable of being fired from a firearm that measures approximately one inch in length, with tail fins that take up $\frac{5}{16}$ of an inch of the body.

This bill instead would specify that the tail fins of this type of ammunition take up approximately $\frac{5}{16}$ of an inch of the body. By expanding the scope of an existing crime, the bill would create a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 131 (SB 778) Burton. Board of Prison Terms.

Under existing law, the Board of Prison Terms may parole certain inmates to counties other than the county of the inmates' last legal residence for specified reasons.

This bill would specify that the decision of the Board of Prison Terms as to whether to return an inmate to a county other than the county of the inmate's last legal residence is determined by parole consideration panels.

Existing law provides that the Board of Prison Terms, composed of 9 commissioners, generally has the power to grant, deny, revoke, or suspend the parole of inmates, and to place conditions on the granting of that parole, as specified.

Existing law requires that in the case of any prisoner sentenced pursuant to any provision of law, except as specified, the Board of Prison Terms meet with each inmate during the 3rd year of incarceration for the purposes of reviewing the inmate's file, making recommendations, and documenting activities and conduct pertinent to granting or withholding postconviction credit. One year prior to the inmate's minimum eligible parole release date a panel consisting of at least 2 commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms is required to again meet with the inmate and to set a parole release date, as specified.

This bill would authorize, notwithstanding specified provisions, on an emergency basis, and only until December 31, 2003, life parole consideration hearings or life rescission hearings to be conducted by 2-person panels consisting of at least one commissioner in order to allow the board to increase the number of hearings conducted each month to eliminate the backlog of inmates awaiting a parole consideration hearing. This bill would also require that each commissioner participate in hearings each workday, except as specified. This bill would also require that all parole consideration panels consist only of commissioners and deputy commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms. In addition, this bill would provide that parole panel decisions shall become final within 120 days unless reconsidered by the board for specified reasons. In addition, this bill would require the board to issue a monthly report regarding scheduled hearings and hearing backlog.

This bill would also direct the State Personnel Board to conduct an investigation and review of the Board of Prison Terms, with particular emphasis on the Deputy Commissioner classification, and to prepare a report regarding the review.

This bill would also appropriate $31,743,000 for support of the Board of Prison Terms in augmentation of the Budget Act of 2001.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 132 (SB 1129) O'Connell. School bonds: school facility improvement districts.

Existing law authorizes the governing board of a school district or community college district, pursuant to a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote of the governing board, to pursue the authorization and issuance of bonds by a 55% vote of the electorate, at a primary or general election, a regularly scheduled local election, or a statewide special election, subject to certain additional requirements.

Existing law authorizes school districts and community college districts to form school facilities improvement districts consisting of a portion of the territory within a school district and authorizes the school facilities improvement district to issue general obligation bonds for school facilities construction purposes.

This bill would expressly authorize the governing board of a school district or community college district to proceed on behalf of a school facilities improvement district that is created by and under the exclusive authority of the school district or community college district upon approval by 55% of the votes cast by voters voting on the proposition of issuing bonds of the school facilities improvement district, subject to specified requirements.

Ch. 133 (AB 102) Rod Pacheco. Child abuse reporting: endangerment of child's emotional well-being.

Existing law establishes that the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act (CANRA), which requires specified persons who have knowledge of or observe a child in their professional capacity or within the scope of their employment, whom the person knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect to report that known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect to a child protective agency, as defined. Child protective agencies are then required to forward a written report of every child abuse or neglect case it investigates, which is determined not to be unfounded, to the Department of Justice.

This bill would provide, in addition, that any mandated reporter who has knowledge of or reasonably suspects that mental suffering has been inflicted upon a child or that his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way may make a report to a child protective agency. This bill would require child protective agencies to forward reports of child abuse or severe neglect to the Department of Justice. The bill would also specify that abuse or neglect in out-of-home care means physical abuse, including particular acts, and would make technical, nonsubstantive, or conforming changes to CANRA.

This bill would declare that it would take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 134 (AB 1069) Koretz. Labor: complaints.

Existing law provides that any person who believes that he or she has been discharged or otherwise discriminated against in violation of specified laws regulating employment that are under the jurisdiction of the Labor Commissioner, may file a complaint with the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement.

This bill would expand that provision to cover any law under the jurisdiction of the Labor Commissioner.

Existing law provides that if, after an investigation, the Labor Commissioner determines that no violation to a law has occurred, the Labor Commissioner shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant of his or her right to bring an action in an appropriate court, and, in the case of an alleged violation of specified discrimination laws, file a complaint against the state program with the United States Department of Labor.

This bill would provide that the filing of a timely complaint with the United States Department of Labor stays the Labor Commissioner's dismissal of the division complaint until the United States Secretary of Labor makes a determination regarding the alleged violation. Under the bill, within 15 days of receipt of that determination, the Labor Commissioner is required to notify the parties as to whether he or she will reopen the complaint filed with the division or whether he or she will reaffirm the dismissal.

Ch. 135 (AB 96) Aroner. School districts.

(1) Existing law authorizes the governing board of a school district that determines during a fiscal year that its revenues are less than the amount necessary to meet its current year expenditure obligations to request an emergency apportionment through the Superintendent of Public Instruction subject to requirements and repayment provisions.

This bill would appropriate $2,300,000 to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purpose of providing the Emery Unified School District a loan, allocated as specified, with conditions as specified. The bill would require the Superintendent of Public Instruction to immediately appoint an administrator, who would have specified duties and responsibilities. The bill would require the Controller to conduct audits of the books and accounts of the district until the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that the district is solvent. The duties imposed by the bill on the district would constitute a state-mandated local program.

The bill would require the Superintendent of Public Instruction to appoint the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team to act as a fiscal adviser for the district, as specified, and would prescribe related matters.

This bill would declare that due to the unique circumstances relating to the Emery Unified School District's financial emergency, a general statute cannot be made applicable.

(2) Existing law prescribes the minimum requirements for the preliminary services credential with a specialization in administrative services. Under existing law, a local governing board may waive any credential requirement for the chief administrative officer of the school district under its jurisdiction, as specified.

This bill would, notwithstanding those provisions authorizing a local governing board to waive any credential requirements for a chief administrative officer, prohibit a local governing board from hiring an individual for the position of chief administrative officer of the school district whose credential has been revoked by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing pursuant to specified provisions.

(3) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

(4) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 136 (AB 434) Keeley. Route 1: Hatton Canyon.

(1) Existing law includes within the California freeway and expressway system, among other routes, Route 1 from Carmel to the west city limits of Santa Cruz.

This bill would instead include Route 1 from the north limits of Carmel to the west city limits of Santa Cruz within the California freeway and expressway system.

(2) Prior Budget Acts have appropriated funds for the acquisition and transfer of park and open-space lands by state agencies, and have prescribed procedures for the acquisition and transfer of those lands.

This bill would make various legislative findings and declarations relating to the sale of specified property within Hatton Canyon near the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea in Monterey County, located in the coastal zone, as specified, by the Department of Transportation for the purpose of creating or adding to a state park.

The bill would specify that the existing Hatton Canyon right-of-way for the realignment of Route 1 from Carmel Valley Road to the Pacific Grove Interchange of Routes 1 and 68, as part of Route 1 since before 1977, and owned by the Department of Transportation, is located within the coastal zone, and would provide that this provision does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law. The bill would require the Department of Transportation to declare the Hatton Canyon right-of-way property surplus state property.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 137 (SB 270) Speier. Mortgages: mortgage insurance: disclosures.

Existing law requires a lender or other person making or arranging a loan to make certain disclosures about the borrower's potential right to cancel private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance on any loan for which private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance is maintained. Existing law further requires specified disclosures to contain a clear and conspicuous written statement indicating that the borrower may be able to cancel this insurance.

This bill, operative July 1, 2002, would additionally require the above disclosures to specify that cancellation may be based on various factors, including appreciation in property value based on a current appraisal.

Ch. 138 (SB 294) Scott. Crimes.

Existing law authorizes the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board to enter into an interagency agreement with the University of California, San Francisco, to establish a victims of crime recovery center at the San Francisco General Hospital.

This bill would also require the board to select up to 5 sites to operate victim recovery, resource, and treatment programs to provide comprehensive recovery services to victims of crime, according to specified criteria. It would require the board to report to the Legislature on the programs no later than May 1, 2004.

Existing law provides that the Department of Justice may inspect firearms dealers to ensure compliance with various statutory requirements, and that the department may assess an annual fee, not to exceed $85, to cover the reasonable cost to cover the inspections and for other regulatory purposes, as specified.

This bill would increase the maximum fee to $115, to cover the inspections and for those same regulatory purposes, as specified. This bill would also make technical changes to certain warnings that are required to be posted by firearms dealers.

This bill would also incorporate changes in Section 12071 of the Penal Code, proposed by SB 9, to be operative only if SB 9 and this bill are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 2002, and this bill is chaptered last.

Ch. 139 (SB 338) Vincent. Animals: use for research purposes.

Existing law requires pounds and animal regulation departments that give animals to research facilities to post a sign, visible to the public, that animals brought to the shelter may be used for research purposes.

This bill would additionally require the above sign to state that animals within the shelter may also be used to supply blood, tissue, or other biological products. The bill would further require the inclusion of the above statement on the owner surrender forms of these agencies, and would become operative on July 1, 2002.

By increasing the duties of pounds and animal regulation departments, this bill would create a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement, including the creation of a State Mandates Claims Fund to pay the costs of mandates that do not exceed $1,000,000 statewide and other procedures for claims whose statewide costs exceed $1,000,000.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

Ch. 140 (SB 448) Perata. Liability: injuries to peace officers, firefighters, and emergency medical personnel.

Existing law provides that, under specific situations, a person is responsible not only for the results of that person's willful acts causing injury to a peace officer, firefighter, or any emergency medical personnel employed by a public entity, but also for any injury occasioned to that person by the want of ordinary care or skill in the management of the person's property or person. This liability occurs where, among other situations, the conduct causing the injury occurs after the person knows or should have known of the presence of the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel, violates a statute, ordinance, or regulation, and was the proximate cause of an injury which the statute, ordinance, or regulation was designed to prevent, and the statute, ordinance, or regulation was designed to protect the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel.

This bill would enact the Brett Alan Laws Act, which would revise this provision to require that the conduct causing injury be one that violates a statute, ordinance, or regulation, and that the conduct causing the injury was itself not the event that precipitated either the response or presence of the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel.

This bill would make a specified statement of legislative intent regarding a common law exception to the firefighter's rule.

Ch. 141 (SB 563) Morrow. Corrections: administration: rulemaking procedures.

Existing law authorizes the Director of Corrections to prescribe rules and adopt regulations for the administration of the prisons and administration of paroles. Existing law provides that in general, these regulations shall be adopted pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, but exempts from that requirement regulations relating to pilot programs or to imminent danger, as specified. Existing law also exempts emergency regulations from certain requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act.

This bill would revise and recast these provisions, and would make various technical changes. This bill would also define "pilot program" for purposes of exemptions relating to the adoption of regulations pursuant to these provisions.

Ch. 142 (SB 716) Machado. Evidence: privileged communications.

Existing law provides that confidential communications between a psychotherapist and a patient are privileged. Existing law defines psychotherapist to mean a person authorized, or reasonably believed by the patient to be authorized, to practice medicine in any state or nation who devotes, or is reasonably believed by the patient to devote, a substantial portion of his or her time to the practice of psychiatry. Existing law also defines psychotherapist to include other professionals, but does not include the patient's reasonable belief standard in their definition.

This bill would change the definition of psychotherapist by applying the patient's reasonable belief standard to all professionals identified as psychotherapists.

This bill would also make nonsubstantive, technical changes.

Ch. 143 (SB 720) Margett. County administration of health services.

Existing law authorizes the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles to establish a commission consisting of 13 members nominated by specified entities, for the provision or arrangement for the provision of health care services under the Medi-Cal program in all or a portion of the geographic area of the county.

Existing law specifies that the members of the commission governing body and any advisory panel to the governing body of the local health initiative in Los Angeles County shall be deemed not to be interested in contracts in specified circumstances.

This bill would specifically require that certain nominees represent specified interests.

This bill would also revise the specified circumstances under which the members of the commission would be deemed not to be interested in contracts.

Ch. 144 (SB 838) Scott. Community colleges: administrators.

Existing law establishes the California Community Colleges under the administration of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. Existing law authorizes the establishment of community college districts under the administration of community college governing boards, and authorizes these districts to provide instruction at community college campuses throughout the state. Existing law provides procedures for the filling of vacancies in the classified service of community college districts.

Existing law entitles a person employed in an administrative position that is not part of the classified service who has not previously acquired tenured status as a faculty member in the same district to become a first-year probationary faculty member once his or her administrative assignment expires or is terminated, if certain conditions apply. Existing law authorizes the governing board of a community college district to employ faculty on contract with respect to prescribed projects.

This bill would limit the right to employment as a first-year probationary faculty member to persons previously employed as administrators who were not employed pursuant to prescribed types of contracts. The bill would provide that community college district governing boards may employ academic employees, including educational administrators, on contract with respect to prescribed projects.

Ch. 145 (SB 942) Costa. Agriculture.

Existing law provides for the distribution to counties of funds transferred to the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund from the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account as partial reimbursement for county expenses incurred in carrying out various agricultural programs.

This bill would recast those provisions to reenact a system of priorities for the distribution of those funds operative prior to July 1, 2001, but also including a limit on the amount of county reimbursement for programs dealing with high-risk pest exclusion and noxious weeds. This bill would also provide that these provisions would become inoperative on July 1, 2003, and would be repealed on January 1, 2004.

This bill would also reenact, operative July 1, 2003, the provisions of law regarding the distribution of these funds to counties from the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund that became operative on July 1, 2001.

Ch. 146 (SB 1049) Speier. County employees' retirement: domestic partners: San Mateo County.

Under the existing County Employees Retirement Law of 1937, death benefits and survivor's allowances are payable to the surviving spouse or children of a deceased member, as specified.

This bill would provide that in San Mateo County, subject to the approval of the board of supervisors, death benefits and survivor's allowances may be payable to a member's surviving domestic partner, as specified.

Ch. 147 (SB 1125) Burton. Farm labor contractors: licensing.

Existing law prohibits the Labor Commissioner from issuing to any person, a license to act as a farm labor contractor until specified conditions are satisfied, including that the person has deposited a surety bond with the Labor Commissioner and has paid a license fee of $500. Existing law provides that the bond and a portion of the license fee are payable and shall be disbursed, among other things, for interest on wages and for any damages arising from a violation of an order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, but shall not be payable or disbursed for penalties on nonpayment or late payment of wages to an employee who is discharged or who quits.

This bill would delete that exception for penalties on nonpayment or late payment of wages to former employees and would specify that the bond and license funds shall also be payable and disbursed for any monetary relief awarded to an agricultural worker as a result of a violation of laws relating to labor.

This bill would become operative only if AB 423 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 2002.

Ch. 148 (SB 1208) Romero. Working hours: overtime exemption.

Existing law provides that an employee covered by a valid collective bargaining agreement that covers the wages, hours of work, and working conditions, and provides for a rate of pay for overtime hours worked, as specified, is not subject to a specific chapter relating to working hours and working conditions.

This bill would provide instead that the employee is not subject to specified code sections relating to compensation for overtime work and authorizing the adoption of an alternative workweek schedule.

This bill would make a corresponding change in a provision that provides that, with specified exceptions, employees are entitled to one day's rest in 7 days of labor, and an employer may not cause his or her employees to work more than 6 days in 7.

This bill would declare that the provisions summarized above are declaratory of existing law and shall not be deemed to alter, modify, or otherwise affect any wage order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

This bill would provide that physician employees paid an hourly wage of $55 or more are exempt from specified provisions relating to pay for overtime work, except as specified. The bill would require the Division of Labor Statistics and Research to annually adjust the threshold wage rate.

Ch. 149 (AB 179) Shelley. Public employees' retirement: local sheriffs.

The Public Employees' Retirement Law defines "local sheriff" for purposes of prescribing benefits and contribution rates, to include any officer or employee of a sheriff's office of a contracting agency, except specified persons whose functions do not fall within the scope of active law enforcement service. Under existing law, the provision defining "local sheriff" applies only to San Francisco County.

This bill would delete the above limitation thereby making the provision applicable statewide.

Ch. 150 (AB 188) Vargas. Playgrounds: smoking.

Existing law provides for the establishment of programs relating to tobacco use prevention.

This bill would prohibit the smoking of any cigarette, cigar, or other tobacco-related product within a playground or tot lot sandbox area.

This bill would prohibit any person from disposing of any cigarette, cigarette butts, cigar butts, or any other tobacco-related waste within a playground or tot lot sandbox area.

This bill would define playground and tot lot sandbox area.

This bill would also prohibit any person from intimidating, threatening any reprisal, or effecting any reprisal, for the purpose of retaliating against another person who seeks to attain compliance with the provisions of this bill.

This bill would specify that it does not apply to private property.

This bill would make a violation of these provisions an infraction. This bill, by creating a new infraction, would result in a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 151 (AB 210) Corbett. Mobilehomes: security deposits.

Existing law requires that security deposits paid to a mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, be refunded to the homeowner, upon written request from the homeowner, if the homeowner has timely paid rent, utilities, and reasonable service charges, as specified, for any 12 consecutive months after collection of the security deposit. Existing law also requires that, for security deposits paid to a mobilehome park prior to January 1, 1989, if a mobilehome park is sold, the selling park owner shall deposit in an escrow account an amount equal to all security deposits held and shall provide that, upon close of escrow, security deposits held for 12 months or more shall be refunded to persons who have timely paid all obligations, as specified, during the 12 months before the close of escrow.

This bill would require that security deposits paid to a mobilehome park prior to January 1, 1989, upon the extension or renewal of the rental agreement or lease between the homeowner and the management, and upon the receipt of a written request from the homeowner, be refunded to the homeowner by management within 60 days of receipt of the request, if the homeowner has timely paid rent, utilities, and reasonable service charges, as specified, for 12 consecutive months preceding the receipt of the written request.

Ch. 152 (AB 391) Kehoe. Highways: encroachment permits: waivers.

Existing law requires that any permit authorizing an encroachment to a state highway issued by the Department of Transportation to a specified governmental entity permittee contain a provision that in the event the future improvement of the highway necessitates the relocation or removal of the encroachment the permittee will relocate or remove the encroachment at its sole expense. Existing law provides a procedure for the removal of the encroachments following a written notice by the department demanding the removal or relocation.

This bill would authorize the department to waive the requirement that the permittee bear the sole expense of relocating or removing an encroachment, if the encroachment consists of a track or roadway that serves as an exclusive public mass transit guideway owned, operated, and maintained by a publicly owned mass transit authority.

Ch. 153 (AB 732) Wayne. Civil procedure: settlement offers.

Under existing law, any party may serve an offer in writing, not less than 10 days prior to the commencement of trial or arbitration, upon any other party to the action to allow judgment to be taken or an award to be entered in accordance with the terms and conditions stated at that time. Existing law provides that if an offer made by a defendant is rejected and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award, the plaintiff shall not recover his or her postoffer costs and shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of offer. Further, the court or arbitrator, in its discretion, may require either a plaintiff or defendant who rejected such an offer and failed to obtain a more favorable judgment or award to pay the offering party's costs of the services of expert witnesses, as specified, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in preparation for trial or arbitration of the case. These provisions are not applicable to an offer that is made by a plaintiff in an eminent domain action.

This bill would make this law also inapplicable to any enforcement action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General, a district attorney, or a city attorney, acting as a public prosecutor.

Ch. 154 (AB 1465) Nation. Underground Storage Tank Cleanup Fund.

(1) Existing law requires the State Water Resources Control Board to initiate a specified research program to quantify the probability and environmental significance of releases from petroleum underground storage tank systems that meet certain upgrade requirements and prohibits any person from taking specified actions with regard to monitoring equipment for an underground storage tank, unless the person meets specified requirements, including possessing specified licenses.

This bill would additionally allow the person to possess a tank-testing license issued by the board.

(2) Under the existing Barry Keene Underground Storage Tank Cleanup Trust Fund Act of 1989, every owner of an underground storage tank is required to pay a storage fee for each gallon of petroleum placed in the tank. The fees are required to be deposited in the Underground Storage Tank Cleanup Fund. The money in the fund may be expended by the State Water Resources Control Board, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for various purposes, including the payment of claims of up to $1,500,000 per occurrence, as defined, to aid owners and operators of petroleum underground storage tanks who take corrective action to clean up unauthorized releases from those tanks and the payment of claims for certain third party injuries and damages. Existing law defines the terms “claim” and “tank” for purposes of the act.

This bill would revise the definition of the term “claim” to mean the submittal to the fund for the reimbursement of costs incurred due to an occurrence and would revise the definition of the term “tank” to include a tank that contains only petroleum, or, consistent with the federal laws regulating petroleum underground storage tanks, a mixture of petroleum, with de minimus quantities of other regulated substances. The bill would revise the eligibility requirements for a claimant with regard to the payment of fees imposed by the act.

The bill would require an owner or operator to furnish information on the fees imposed under the act to a local agency, California regional water control board, or state board, under penalty of perjury, thereby imposing a state-mandated local program by creating a new crime.

(3) Existing law repeals the act, by its own terms, on January 1, 2011, but provides that the repeal of the act does not terminate the filing and payment of claims against the fund, until the moneys in the fund are exhausted.

This bill would specify that the repeal does not terminate claims for costs for the cleanup and oversight at abandoned tank sites, for corrective action, or commingled plumes, the recovery of moneys reimbursed to a claimant to which the claimant is not entitled, or the collection of unpaid fees.

(4) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 155 (AB 441) Simitian. School finance: revenue limits.²

Existing law requires each county superintendent of schools to make specified calculations to determine a base revenue limit for each school district in the county.

This bill would, for the 2001–02 fiscal year, require the Superintendent of Public Instruction to compute an equalization adjustment for each school district so that no district’s prior year base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance is less than the prior year base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance above which fall not more than 10% of the total statewide units of average daily attendance for the appropriate size and type of district.

This bill would appropriate $40,000,000 from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purpose of implementing the equalization adjustment. The bill would require the appropriation to be included in the amount appropriated by the state in the 2001–02 fiscal year for the purpose of meeting the state’s minimum funding obligation to school districts and community college districts under Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution for that fiscal year.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 156 (AB 426) Cardoza. Taxation.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

The Sales and Use Tax Law provides for the levy of a state sales and use tax at a basic rate of 6% upon the gross receipts from the sale in this state of, or the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property. That law imposes, as a component of that basic rate, a state sales and use tax at a rate of $\frac{1}{4}\%$, but suspends the imposition of that $\frac{1}{4}\%$ rate for any single calendar year for which the amount in the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties exceeds a specified amount in both the prior and current fiscal year, as determined and certified by the Director of Finance.

This bill would suspend the $\frac{1}{4}\%$ rate in any calendar year beginning January 1, 2002, in which the Director of Finance determines on or before the preceding November 1 that (1) the General Fund reserve is 3% of revenues excluding the revenues derived from the $\frac{1}{4}\%$ sales and use tax rate, and (2) actual General Fund revenues for the period May 1 through September 30 equal or exceed the May Revision forecast prior to the November 1 determination.

The Sales and Use Tax Law imposes a tax on the gross receipts from the sale in this state of, or the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property. That law provides various exemptions from that tax, including an exemption for gas, electricity, and water, including steam and geothermal steam, brines, and heat, when delivered to consumers, as specified.

This bill would additionally exempt liquefied petroleum gas, delivered to a qualified residence, as defined, by the seller, that is sold for household use in the qualified residence, and liquefied petroleum gas that is purchased for use by a qualified person to be used in producing and harvesting agricultural products.

This bill would also exempt farm equipment and machinery, purchased for use by a qualified person, as defined, to be used primarily in producing and harvesting of agricultural products.

This bill would further exempt equipment and machinery designed primarily for off-road use in commercial timber harvesting operations, and the parts thereof, that is purchased for use by a qualified person, as defined, to be used primarily in harvesting timber.

This bill would also exempt diesel fuel used by a qualified person, as defined, in farming activities and food processing.

This bill would additionally exempt any racehorse breeding stock, as defined, from the sales and use taxes.

This bill would provide that certain of these exemptions do not apply to local sales or transactions and use tax rates and certain state rates imposed for the funding of locally provided services.

The Gonsalves-Deukmejian-Petris Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Law provides for payment of assistance by the Franchise Tax Board to claimants, whether those claimants own or rent their residences, in accordance with schedules that reduce the amount of assistance provided as the amount of a claimant's household income increases along a specified scale of household income amounts.

This bill would increase by 45% the household income figures that would be used to calculate these assistance payments for the 2001 calendar year and each calendar year thereafter.

Counties and cities are authorized to impose local sales and use taxes in conformity with state sales and use taxes. Exemptions from state sales and use taxes enacted by the Legislature are, unless otherwise specified by law, incorporated into the local taxes.

Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code provides that the state will reimburse counties and cities for revenue losses caused by the enactment of sales and use tax exemptions.

This bill would provide that, notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made and the state shall not reimburse local agencies for sales and use tax revenues lost by them pursuant to this bill.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 157 (AB 423) Hertzberg. Farm labor contractors: license requirements.

(1) Existing law requires every person acting in the capacity of a farm labor contractor, prior to entering into any contract or agreement to supply agricultural labor or services to an agricultural grower, to first provide the grower with his or her current state license. Under existing law, a violation of this provision is a misdemeanor, punishable as specified.

This bill would also require a person contracted by a farm labor contractor who is acting in the capacity of a farm labor contractor, prior to entering into a contract, to first provide the farm labor contractor with a copy of his or her current valid state license. The bill would require both the grower and the farm labor contractor to keep a copy of the required licenses for a period of 3 years following termination of the contract or agreement.

(2) Existing law prohibits a grower from entering into a contract or agreement with a person who fails to provide a copy of his or her license, without first making reasonable inquiry to ensure that the license is valid.

This bill, instead, would provide that a grower has an affirmative obligation to inspect the license of any person contracted as a farm labor contractor and to verify that the license is valid. The bill would also provide that a farm labor contractor has an affirmative obligation to inspect the license of any person contracted by the farm labor contractor who is acting in the capacity of a farm labor contractor and to verify that the license is valid.

The bill would require the Labor Commissioner to establish and maintain a Farm Labor Contractor License Verification Unit commencing no later than July 1, 2002, to certify the status of the licenses of farm labor contractors to growers and farm labor contractors, upon request, as specified. The obligation under the bill to verify licensure would not become operative until that unit is operational.

(3) Existing law prohibits a person from discharging, or in any manner discriminating against an employee because the employee files a bona fide complaint or claim against the employer, or takes other specified actions under the jurisdiction of the Labor Commissioner. Existing law also prohibits any employer from making, adopting, or enforcing any rule, regulation, or policy that prevents an employee from disclosing specified information to a government or law enforcement agency.

This bill would specify that a farm labor contractor, a person contracted by a farm labor contractor who is acting in the capacity of a farm labor contractor, or an employer of a farm labor contractor is subject to these provisions.

(4) Under existing law, an employer or other specified person who pays or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, is guilty of a misdemeanor that is punishable as provided.

This bill would provide that on or after January 1, 2003, any grower, farm labor contractor, or other specified person who knowingly and willfully fails to pay or causes the failure to pay those wages, or any higher wages that have been agreed to, is guilty of a misdemeanor. The bill would prescribe various penalties, depending on the number of repeat violations. The bill would also require license revocation upon conviction of an offense for one year in the case of a first offense, 2 years in the case of a 2nd offense, and permanently in the case of a 3rd offense. By creating new crimes, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(5) This bill would require the Director of Industrial Relations to establish a Farm Labor Contractor Enforcement Unit to develop a program to provide technical assistance to a district attorney's office that establishes a local farm labor contractor enforcement unit.

(6) Existing law requires a person to pay a fee of $500 to obtain a farm labor contractor license. Under existing law, $50 of each fee is required to be deposited into the Farmworker Remedial Account and the remaining balance is required to be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the General Fund.

This bill would make an appropriation by, instead, requiring the Labor Commissioner to expend $350 of the remaining balance to fund the Farm Labor Contractor Enforcement Unit and the Farm Labor Contractor License Verification Unit.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

(7) This bill would become operative only if SB 1125 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 2002.

(8) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 158 (SB 12) Chesbro. Disaster relief.

Existing law authorizes a county board of supervisors to provide by ordinance for the reassessment of property that is damaged or destroyed, without fault on the part of the assessee, by a major misfortune or calamity, upon the application of the assessee or upon the action of the county assessor with the board's approval. With respect to certain counties that have adopted reassessment ordinances and have been declared by the Governor to be in a state of disaster as a result of certain events, existing law provides for state allocations of the estimated amounts of the reductions in property tax revenues resulting in certain fiscal years from reassessments under those ordinances. Existing law also continuously appropriates, without regard to fiscal years, moneys in the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties for purposes of funding these state allocations.

This bill would provide for similar state allocations with respect to property tax revenue reductions, resulting from a reassessment ordinance, incurred by the County of Napa, which was declared by the Governor to be in a state of disaster as a result of an earthquake occurring in California in September 2000. By requiring moneys continuously appropriated from the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to be allocated for the new purpose of reimbursing these counties for these property tax revenue reductions, this bill would make an appropriation.

This bill would contain legislative findings and declarations as to the statewide public purpose of this bill.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 159 (SB 662) Committee on Judiciary. Maintenance of the codes.

Existing law directs the Legislative Counsel to advise the Legislature from time to time as to legislation necessary to maintain the codes.

This bill would restate existing provisions of law to effectuate the recommendations made by the Legislative Counsel to the Legislature for consideration during 2001, and would not make any substantive change in the law.

Ch. 160 (AB 29) Papan. Capital access loan program: financial institutions: pollution control authority.

(1) Existing law establishes the Capital Access Loan Program and authorizes the California Pollution Control Financing Authority to contract with a financial institution to participate in the program.

Existing law defines the term "financial institution" for purposes of the program as one that is domiciled or has its principal office in the State of California.

This bill would limit that requirement to a lending institution that has executed a participation agreement with the Small Business Administration under a guaranteed loan program or a specified small business investment company.

(2) Existing law authorizes the California Pollution Control Financing Authority to finance various pollution control projects to control and eliminate pollution hazards to the environment. Existing law authorizes the authority to provide a loan to any city, county, school district, and redevelopment agency, financial institution, any for-profit or not-for-profit organization, or any participating party, to assist in financing the costs relating to the cleanup, remediation, or development of brownfield sites.

This bill would correct erroneous references in those provisions.

(3) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 161 (AB 136) Corbett. Personal property tax: hand tool exemption.

The California Constitution authorizes the Legislature to exempt personal property from taxation by means of a statute approved by a $2/3$ vote of the membership of each house. Under this authorization, the Legislature has exempted from ad valorem taxation the first $20,000 worth of hand tools that are owned and supplied by an employee as a condition of employment.

This bill would increase the exemption amount to the first $50,000 worth of hand tools that are owned and supplied by an employee.

Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code requires the Legislature to reimburse local agencies annually for certain property tax revenues lost as a result of any exemption or classification of property for purposes of ad valorem property taxation.

This bill would provide that, notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made and the state shall not reimburse local agencies for property tax revenues lost by them pursuant to the bill.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.

Ch. 162 (AB 311) Bill Campbell. California Highway Patrol officers: age limit.

Existing law limits appointments of persons to the position of entry level peace officer of the Department of the California Highway Patrol to persons between the ages of 21 and 31 years.

This bill would raise the maximum age at which a person may be appointed to the position of entry level peace officer to 35 years of age.

Ch. 163 (AB 771) Runner. Antelope Valley Air Quality Management District.

(1) Existing law establishes the Antelope Valley Air Pollution Control District, as provided, and prescribes the membership of the governing board.

This bill would abolish that county air pollution control district and, instead, would create the Antelope Valley Air Quality Management District, as provided. The bill would provide for a governing district board, as provided, and would prescribe the powers and duties of the district board with respect to the control of air pollution.

Under the bill, the Antelope Valley Air Quality Management District would succeed to all the funds, property, and obligations of the Antelope Valley Air Pollution Control District. The bill would permit the district board to adopt a schedule of fees levied on sources of air pollution to recover its costs of implementing the bill.

By imposing duties on the Antelope Valley Air Quality Management District and requiring local agencies to make appointments to the district board, the bill would create a state-mandated local program.

(2) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement, including the creation of a State Mandates Claims Fund to pay the costs of mandates that do not exceed $1,000,000 statewide and other procedures for claims whose statewide costs exceed $1,000,000.

This bill would provide that for certain costs no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

However, the bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to those statutory provisions and, if the statewide cost does not exceed $1,000,000, shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Ch. 164 (AB 816) Thomson. Income Tax: personal income tax: conformity with federal law: exclusion of gains from sale of a personal residence.

The Personal Income Tax Law requires the calculation of an individual's gross income to be computed without regard to the exclusion, provided by a specified provision of the Internal Revenue Code, of the gain from the sale or exchange of a taxpayer's personal residence.

This bill would conform to federal tax practice by allowing California taxpayers to exclude gains from the sale or exchange of a personal residence from the computation of their gross income for state income tax purposes.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.

Ch. 165 (AB 1491) Vargas. Retired officers: active duty.

Existing law authorizes the Governor to detail officers of the retired list to active duty, as provided.

This bill would also authorize the Governor to detail noncommissioned officers of the retired list to active duty in the same manner.

Ch. 166 (AB 1530) Longville. Public works: cost savings.

Under existing law, the state or any other public entity in any competitively bid public works contract may provide for the payment of extra compensation to the contractor for cost reduction changes. Existing law specifies that the extra compensation to the contractor is 50% of the net savings in construction costs.

This bill would increase the extra compensation to the contractor to 60% for certain publicly supervised transportation projects if the cost reduction changes significantly reduce or avoid traffic congestion during construction of the project.

Ch. 167 (AB 1583) Negrete McLeod. Veterinary medicine.

Existing law requires the Veterinary Medical Board in the Department of Consumer Affairs, by means of examination, to ascertain the professional qualifications of all applicants for licensure to practice veterinary medicine in this state and to issue a license to every person whom it finds to be qualified. Existing law also requires the board, until July 1, 2002, to waive the examination requirements and to issue a temporary license to an applicant to practice veterinary medicine under the supervision of a licensed California veterinarian if the applicant meets certain requirements.

This bill would delete the July 1, 2002 termination date for the examination waiver.

Ch. 168 (AB 1665) Ashburn. County retirement boards: alternate members.

Under the existing County Employees Retirement Law of 1937, in specified counties, the board of retirement of the county retirement system consists of 9 members, including one elected retired member and one elected alternate member, as specified. However, the boards of retirement in the Counties of Ventura and Kern are authorized to appoint, and the retired members of those counties may subsequently elect, an alternate retired member in specified circumstances.

This bill would extend that authority to the boards of retirement in all of those counties with 9-member retirement boards.

Ch. 169 (AB 1689) Committee on Jobs, Economic Development, and the Economy. California State University: vendors: direct payment.

Existing law authorizes the trustees of the California State University, prior to January 1, 2002, to draw from funds appropriated to the university, for use as a revolving fund, amounts necessary to make payments of obligations of the university directly to vendors.

This bill would delete the time limitation for this authorization, thereby extending the authorization indefinitely.

Ch. 170 (SB 449) Sher. Santa Clara Valley Water District.

(1) The Santa Clara Valley Water District Act specifies the powers and the purposes of the Santa Clara Valley Water District.

This bill would provide that the purposes of the act are to authorize the district to provide comprehensive water management for all beneficial uses and protection from flooding within Santa Clara County. The bill would authorize the district to take action to carry out specified purposes of the district. The bill would provide that those purposes include the enhancement, protection, and restoration of streams, riparian corridors, and natural resources and make additional modifications to the powers of the district.

(2) The act authorizes the Board of Directors of the Santa Clara Valley Water District to reconvey real property to the former owner by whom the property was conveyed, or from whom the property was condemned by the district, for a price not less than that paid by the district for the property.

This bill would instead authorize the board to reconvey that real property to the former owner for fair market value, as determined by a qualified real estate appraiser, or for less than fair market value if the district finds that a public purpose exists justifying that reconveyance.

(3) The act authorizes the board, by a $\frac{5}{7}$ vote, to take specified action with regard to the transfer of property owned by the district.

This bill would authorize the board to take these actions by a majority vote.

(4) The act generally provides that the board is governed in the sale, lease, or other disposition of real property by the requirements of law governing that action by counties, and authorizes the board to prescribe an alternative procedure for the leasing of real property owned by the district if the rental, as appraised, does not exceed $2,500 per month.

This bill would delete the requirement that the rental, as appraised, not exceed $2,500 per month.

(5) Under the act, the board of directors of the district consists of 7 members. A member is required to execute and file an official bond in the sum of $1,000 within 10 days after receiving his or her certificate of election or notice of appointment.

This bill would delete this bonding requirement.

(6) Existing law provides for the consolidation of the Gavilan Water Conservation District with the Santa Clara Valley Water District. Under existing law, the area of the consolidated water conservation district is a zone of the district. Existing law requires a public hearing to be held within each zone of the district lying outside of the zone in which the district board's chambers are located, in each year that the district prepares a written report that recommends that a groundwater charge be levied in the zone.

This bill would repeal the latter provision.

Ch. 171 (AB 430) Cardenas. Health: budget implementation.

Existing law, the California Early Intervention Services Act, requires various state departments to provide coordinated services to infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families pursuant to a statewide system of early intervention services. Existing law requires the State Department of Developmental Services to serve as the lead agency responsible for administration and coordination of the statewide system of early intervention services under the act.

Existing law requires nonprofit organizations known as regional centers to contract with the State Department of Developmental Services to provide services and support to persons with developmental disabilities.

This bill would require regional centers, when providing services under the act, to comply with specified statutory and regulatory provisions except in certain cases. The bill would provide that any contract between the department and a regional center entered into on and after January 1, 2002, shall require that all employment contracts entered into with regional center staff or contractors be available to the public for review, except with respect to the social security number of the contracting party. It would also prohibit any employment contract, or portion thereof, from being deemed confidential or unavailable for public review.

Existing law establishes the Emergency Medical Services Authority that, among other things, adopts regulations governing emergency medical services, including local emergency medical service agencies and trauma care centers.

Under existing law, the Emergency Medical Services System and the Prehospital Emergency Medical Care Personnel Act, each county may designate an emergency medical services agency for the establishment and administration of an emergency medical services (EMS) program in the county. The local EMS agency is authorized to implement a trauma care system if the system meets the minimum standards set forth in the regulations for implementation established by the authority and the authority has approved a plan.

This bill would establish the Trauma Care Fund, subject to an appropriation by the Legislature or from any other source, and the fund would be continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the authority for specified purposes.

This bill would require the authority to allocate funds, with specified exceptions, to eligible local EMS agencies for distribution, based on a specified formula and within a specified amount of time, to the local EMS agency-designated trauma centers within the local EMS agency's jurisdiction.

This bill would require the authority to develop criteria for the standardized reporting of trauma patients to local trauma registries and would require all local EMS agencies to utilize the criteria for reporting trauma patients to the local trauma registries by July 1, 2003.

This bill would require that any trauma center that receives funding pursuant to this bill agree to remain a trauma center through June 30 of the fiscal year in which it receives funding, or if it ceases to exist, reimburse the fund by a specified formula.

This bill would permit each local EMS agency that does not have an existing trauma care plan to submit proposals for funding for their preparation of a trauma care system plan to the authority by January 15, 2002. It would also authorize the authority to retain from any state appropriation up to $107,000 to implement these provisions.

Existing law establishes the Healthy Families Program, administered by the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board, to arrange for the provision of health, dental, and vision services to eligible children pursuant to a federal program, entitled the State Children's Health Insurance Program.

This bill would require the board to implement a program to provide coverage under the Health Families Program, subject to federal waivers and funding by the Legislature, to include benefits for eligible adults responsible for children enrolled to receive coverage under the program.

Existing law also establishes the Healthy Families Bridge Benefits Program to provide any child who meets certain criteria with a month of health care benefits to provide the child with an opportunity to apply for the Healthy Families Program.

This bill would rename that bridge program the Medi-Cal-to-Healthy Families Bridge Benefits Program and would increase the number of months an eligible child may receive benefits to provide the child with an opportunity to apply for the Healthy Families Program, and would extend eligibility for those benefits, upon approval of a waiver under the federal State Child Health Insurance Program, for parents of, or other adults responsible for, those children who meet certain eligibility criteria.

This bill would also establish the Healthy-Families-to-Medi-Cal Bridge Benefits Program to provide eligible persons enrolled for coverage under the Healthy Families Program with a period of health care benefits in order to provide those persons with an opportunity to apply for Medi-Cal benefits, and would specify the income methodology for determining a family's income for that purpose and the scope of the benefits that would be provided under the program. This bill would provide that the program shall be implemented only if a certain waiver under the federal State Child Health Insurance Program is approved.

Existing law creates the Healthy Families Fund, which is continuously appropriated to the board for the purposes of funding the Healthy Families Program.

Because this bill would result in increased expenditures from the fund by expanding eligibility under the Healthy Families Program, this bill would make an appropriation.

Existing law regulates solicitations of certain health care service plans and specialized health care plans, and prohibits certain health care plans to misrepresent itself, the plan, or its subcontractors, or the Healthy Families Program or Medi-Cal program while engaging in application assistance activities.

This bill would extend that prohibition to dental plans and to vision plans.

Willful violation of health care service plan requirements is a crime. By extending the applicability of those provisions, this bill would revise the definition of a crime, and would result in a state-mandated local program.

Existing law establishes in the State Department of Health Services the Quality Awards Program to make monetary awards to skilled nursing facilities that serve high proportions of Medi-Cal residents that provide exemplary care to residents, subject to the appropriation of funds, and limits the purposes for which those monetary awards may be used.

This bill would revise the uses for which certain awards may be used, and would require that all of the funds available for the quality awards programs shall be disbursed to qualified facilities by January 1, 2002, and January 1 of each year thereafter.

Existing law establishes various funds in the State Treasury.

This bill would create the Tobacco Settlement Fund, and would specify that in the 2001–02 fiscal year, $401,992,000, and thereafter the total amount, received as the state's share pursuant to the tobacco litigation Master Settlement Agreement shall be deposited in that fund. The bill would specify that distribution of funds from the Tobacco Settlement Fund shall be made by annual appropriation of the Legislature and used for health purposes.

Existing law creates the State Vital Record Improvement Account in the Health Statistics Special Fund. The moneys in both this account and that fund may be expended by the State Registrar of Vital Statistics, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for specified purposes.

Existing law also provides that, in addition to other fees, all applicants for certified copies of birth, death, marriage, or marriage dissolution records are required to pay a fee of $2, collectible by the State Registrar or the applicable local official. A portion of the funds obtained from these fees is required to be deposited into the State Vital Record Improvement Account, while the remainder may be deposited in local vital and health statistics trust funds, which are authorized to be created for specified purposes.

This bill would eliminate the State Vital Record Improvement Account and would repeal the provisions requiring the payment of the $2 fee. It would, instead, require the payment and collection of an additional $3 fee for copies of these records, and would apportion moneys collected from these fees between local vital and health statistics trust funds, which may be created pursuant to the bill, the moneys in which may be used for specified purposes, and the Health Statistics Special Fund.

Existing law requires the State Department of Health Services to grant funds, for up to 3 years per grant, to eligible private, nonprofit, community-based primary care clinics for the purpose of establishing and maintaining rural health services and development projects.

This bill would require the department to establish a base funding level for those sites funded in the prior fiscal year for purposes of those grants, when funds are available for that purpose.

Existing law provides for the implementation of the Emergency Medical Services for Children Program, and limits the amount of funds that may be expended for the program.

This bill would delete that limitation.

Existing law, the California Safe Drinking Water Act, requires the State Department of Health Services to administer provisions relating to the regulation of drinking water and public water systems. The department is required to assess fees on public water systems serving 1,000 or more service connections, with moneys collected pursuant to these fees deposited into the Safe Drinking Water Account Fund, which is available for use by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for purposes of the act.

Existing law would repeal these fee provisions and other related fiscal provisions on January 1, 2002.

This bill would indefinitely extend these provisions.

Existing law provides that the total amount of funds collected by the department pursuant to the assessment of these fees during a fiscal year may not exceed $5,500,000.

This bill would limit the total amount of funds that may be received by the department during the 2001–02 fiscal year to $7,000,000, and would limit further increases in this amount during each subsequent fiscal year to 5% in excess of the amount collected during the previous fiscal year.

Existing law establishes a breast cancer treatment program, administered by eligible private nonprofit organizations contracting with the department for the purpose of providing breast cancer treatment services to uninsured and underinsured women.

This bill would repeal this program and establish a similar program, expanded to include cervical cancer treatment services, to be operative on January 1, 2002. The bill would require the department to exercise a designated federal option to provide medical assistance during the period in which an individual under this program requires treatment for breast or cervical cancer.

This bill would also, beginning on January 1, 2002, require providers or entities rendering breast and cervical cancer screening services under a grant made to the State Department of Health Services to provide services only to individuals whose family income is determined to not exceed 200% of the federal poverty level.

Existing law requires the State Department of Health Services to adopt minimum standards for the approval of community child health and disability prevention programs and regulations.

This bill would revise various provisions relating to the adoption of those standards.

Existing law establishes procedures for the establishment of payment rates for community treatment programs for the provision of mental health services.

This bill would specify that a supplemental payment paid on behalf of certain eligible children in foster care shall be shared by the state and counties for the 2001–02 fiscal year, and would eliminate provisions for an augmentation of funds to fund those programs for the 2000–01 fiscal year. It would also delete a requirement for the submission of a report to the Legislature on the efforts of the State Department of Mental Health and the State Department of Social Services to implement the community treatment facility payment system.

Existing law provides for monthly aid for personal and incidental needs to each patient in a state hospital for the mentally disordered who has resided in the hospital for at least 30 days.

This bill would authorize the patient to save all, or a portion of, the aid for expenditure in subsequent months.

Existing law, until January 1, 2005, requires the State Department of Mental Health to designate sites in order to develop a system of postacute continuum-of-care models for adults 18 years of age or older with an acquired traumatic brain injury, and to award and administer grants to additional sites.

Existing law requires the department to develop an independent evaluation and assist sites in collecting uniform data on all clients and to choose an evaluator. Existing law requires the evaluator to make a final report to the Legislature by January 30, 2003.

This bill would instead require the evaluator to make the final report by January 1, 2005, and would extend the operation of the above provisions from January 1, 2005, to July 1, 2007.

Existing law imposes various functions and duties on the State Department of Developmental Services with respect to the administration and oversight of developmental centers and programs relating to persons with developmental disabilities.

This bill would require a developmental center to immediately report all resident deaths and serious injuries of unknown origin to the appropriate law enforcement agency that may, at its discretion, conduct an independent investigation. It would also require the department to annually provide written information to every developmental center employee regarding suspected or known abuse, and, on or before August 1, 2001, to develop a poster that encourages staff, residents, and visitors to report suspected or known abuse and provides information on how to make these reports.

Existing law, the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, requires the State Department of Developmental Services to contract with regional centers for the provision of various services and supports to persons with developmental disabilities.

Existing law requires regional centers to perform initial intake and assessment services for any person believed to have a developmental disability.

This bill would require the department to develop evaluation and diagnostic procedures for the diagnosis of autism disorder and all other autistic spectrum disorders that may be utilized by clinical staff at regional centers and to develop a corresponding training program for the staff to be implemented on or before July 1, 2002. The bill would also require the department to provide for the publication of the procedures.

Existing law relating to regional centers for the developmentally disabled requires the State Department of Developmental Services to conduct a 3-year pilot project under which funds shall be allocated for local self-determination pilot programs in 3 specified regional center catchment areas. Under existing law, the pilot project provisions shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, unless a later enacted statute that becomes effective on or before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends that date.

This bill would extend the effective date of the pilot project provisions to January 1, 2004.

Existing law, until July 1, 2001, authorizes certain counties to establish a pilot project for up to six years, to develop a shared mental health rehabilitation center for the provision of community care and treatment for persons with mental disorders who are placed in a state hospital or another health facility because no community placements are available to meet the needs of these patients.

This bill would delete the termination date of that authorization.

Existing law authorizes the State Department of Mental Health to establish and administer pilot projects providing respite for caregivers of seriously emotionally disturbed children and seriously mentally ill adults who reside in a caregiver's home, and would repeal that authorization on January 1, 2002.

This bill would extend the operation of the pilot program until July 1, 2004.

Existing law establishes the Organization of Area Boards on Developmental Disabilities for the purpose of engaging in activities to solve common problems, improve coordination, exchange information between areas, and provide advice and recommendations to state agencies, the Legislature, and the State Council on Developmental Disabilities.

Existing law provides that if federal funds are not available for appropriation or transfer pursuant to the Budget Act of 2000, for purposes of the Organization of Area Boards on Developmental Disabilities based on a determination by the Department of Finance, the Department of Finance shall notify the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the Legislature and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of this determination within 10 calendar days. Existing law further provides that this notification shall specify the dollar amount needed to fully continue operations of the Organization of Area Boards, and appropriates this amount from the General Fund after the receipt of the notification by the Legislature.

This bill would impose similar requirements on the Department of Finance if federal funds are not available for appropriation or transfer pursuant to annual Budget Acts for the same purpose.

Existing law requires the Director of Developmental Services to publish a report of the financial status of all regional centers and their operations by December 31 of each year.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

This bill would instead require this report to be published by February 28 of each year.

Existing law authorizes each consumer or any representative acting on behalf of any consumer or consumers, who believes that any right to which a consumer is entitled has been abused, punitively withheld, or improperly or unreasonably denied by a regional center, developmental center, or service provider, to pursue a complaint in accordance with specified procedures.

This bill would revise this consumer complaint procedure.

Existing law makes provision for the treatment of certain persons in secure state mental hospitals.

Existing law requires that no more than 1,336 patients be housed at Patton State Hospital, which is one of the state's mental hospitals.

This bill would provide that, until one year after the activation of the Coalinga Secure Treatment Facility, up to 1,670 patients may be housed at Patton State Hospital, and would also require the Department of Corrections and the State Department of Mental Health to develop a plan for ensuring the security of the hospital during the construction of facilities for additional beds, and also a plan for ensuring security after the beds are occupied by patients.

Existing law requires that a permanent facility for the housing and treatment of sexually violent predators be located on a site or sites determined by the Director of Corrections and the Director of Mental Health, with approval by the Legislature. Existing law prohibits persons other than sexually violent predators from being housed or treated at these facilities unless expressly authorized by the Legislature.

This bill would delete this prohibition.

Existing law provides for the Medi-Cal program, administered by the State Department of Health Services, under which qualified low-income persons are provided with health services.

The Medi-Cal program provides for a special methodology of reimbursement of disproportionate share hospitals for the provision of inpatient hospital services.

Existing law generally defines a disproportionate share hospital as a hospital that has disproportionately higher costs, volume, or services related to the provision of services to Medi-Cal or other low-income patients than the statewide average.

Existing law authorizes a distinct part of an acute care hospital providing specified services and meeting certain requirements to receive, in addition to the rate of payment that the facility would otherwise receive for skilled nursing services, supplemental reimbursement for capital projects.

This bill would authorize a distinct part of an acute care hospital that provides services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries and is owned by a county, city and county, or city, or a health care district meeting certain requirements, to receive supplemental reimbursement according to a payment methodology that is based on skilled nursing services provided to Medi-Cal patients at the eligible facility.

Existing law authorizes certain deductions in the determination of eligibility for benefits under the Medi-Cal program.

This bill would, subject to federal financial participation, authorize a deduction for certain persons who are residing in a community care facility in the determination of their eligibility for Medi-Cal benefits.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services to exercise an option available under the federal medicaid program to disregard all changes in income or assets of a beneficiary until the beneficiary's next annual redetermination of eligibility for Medi-Cal benefits.

This bill would also provide for the exercise of an option available under federal law for the accelerated eligibility for Medi-Cal for children who are in the process of entering the foster care system.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services to exercise a federal option authorizing states to provide services during a presumptive eligibility period for children to implement a program for accelerated enrollment of children in the Medi-Cal program, subject to federal approval of any required state plan amendments and federal financial participation.

Under existing law, counties are responsible for the implementation of eligibility determinations under the Medi-Cal program.

By extending the eligibility for benefits under the Medi-Cal program and modifying the eligibility determination process, this bill would increase the responsibilities of the counties in the administration of the Medi-Cal program, thereby resulting^{} in a state-mandated local program.

Existing law requires the State Department of Health Services to review the current Medi-Cal long-term care reimbursement system and submit to the Legislature a formal report and proposal for statutory changes.

This bill would require the department to submit the report to the Legislature by April 1, 2002.

Existing law authorizes the State Director of Health Services to adopt regulations establishing payment rates for certain health care facilities under the Medi-Cal program.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services, upon federal approval, to provide a supplemental rate adjustment for specific nursing facilities.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services to provide instructions on facility requirements and would make any facility paid the supplemental rate adjustment that has not provided salary, wage, and benefit increases liable for the amount of the funds paid to the facility but not distributed to employees, would subject the facility to penalties for the failure to distribute funds according to the bill, and would make the facility subject to certain criminal penalties. By revising the scope of criminal liability of the facilities under criminal sanctions, this bill would change the definition of a crime thereby creating a state-mandated local program.

Existing law provides that, until July 1, 2001, ancillary outpatient services shall be covered under the Medi-Cal program for a patient of an institute of mental disease who is at least 21 years of age, but who has not attained the age of 65 years, regardless of the availability of federal financial participation.

This bill would indefinitely extend this provision.

Existing law, until January 1, 2003, authorizes the department to enter into contracts with manufacturers of single source and multiple source drugs under the Medi-Cal program, and specifies procedures for implementation of that authority, thus authorizing the use of a Medi-Cal contract drug list for the procurement of prescription drugs under that program.

Existing law requires the department to make every attempt to complete the initial contracting process for each major therapeutic category by January 1, 2001.

This bill would eliminate this requirement.

Existing law contains various requirements governing reimbursement for Medi-Cal services provided by federally qualified health centers and rural health clinics subcontracting with local initiatives. To be reimbursed under these provisions, a center or clinic is required to submit to the department for approval a rate differential based on the center's or clinic's reasonable costs.

This bill would allow the rate differential to be calculated based on the prospective payment rate of the federally qualified health center or rural health clinic.
