CHAPTER 698

An act to amend Sections 2117, 2120, 2125, 2150, 2150.4, 2185, 2186, and 2187 of, to add Sections 2127, 2157, 2193, and 2195 to, and to repeal Section 2020 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to captive wild animals.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2020 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 2117 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
2117. As used in this chapter, "enforcing officers" means the department, the state plant quarantine officers, the local law enforcement agents, the county sheriffs, and the county agricultural commissioners. These enforcing officers are authorized and empowered to enforce the provisions of this chapter or any regulation implementing this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 2120 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
2120. (a) The commission, in cooperation with the State Department of Food and Agriculture, shall promulgate regulations governing (a) the entry, importation, possession, transportation, keeping, confinement, or release of any and all wild animals which will be or which have been imported into this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and (b) the possession of all other wild animals. The regulations shall be designed to prevent damage to the native wildlife or agricultural interests of this state resulting from the existence at large of any such wild animals, and to provide for the welfare of wild animals.

(b) The regulations shall also include criteria for all of the following:
(1) Receiving, processing, and issuing of a permit and conducting inspections.

(3) Responding to public reports and complaints.

(4) Notification of the revocation, termination, or denial of permits, and related appeals.

(5) The method by which the department determines that the breeding of wild animals pursuant to a single event breeding permit for exhibitor and a breeding permit is necessary and will not result in unneeded or uncared for animals, and the means by which the criteria will be implemented and enforced.

(6) How a responding agency will respond to an escape of a wild animal. This shall include, but not be limited to, the establishment of guidelines for the safe recapture of the wild animal and procedures outlining when lethal force would be used to recapture the wild animal.

(c) These regulations shall be developed and adopted by the commission, on or before January 1, 2007.

SEC. 4. Section 2125 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2125. (a) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any person who violates this chapter or any regulations implementing this chapter, is subject to a civil penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation. Except as otherwise provided, any violation of this chapter or of any regulations implementing this chapter is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) The Attorney General, or the city attorney of the city or the district attorney or county counsel of the county in which a violation of this article occurs, may bring a civil action to recover the civil penalty in subdivision (a) and the costs of seizing and holding the animal listed in Section 2118, except to the extent that those costs have already been collected as provided by subdivision (d). The civil action shall be brought in the county in which the violation occurs and any penalty imposed shall be transferred to the Controller for deposit in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund in accordance with Section 13001.

(c) In an action brought under this section, in addition to the penalty specified in subdivision (a), the reasonable costs of investigation, reasonable attorney's fees, and reasonable expert witness' fees may also be recovered and those amounts shall be credited to the same operating funds as that from which the expenditures for those purposes were derived.

(d) (1) If an animal is confiscated because the animal was kept in contravention of this chapter or any implementing regulations, the person claiming the animal shall pay to the department or the new custodian of the animal an amount sufficient to cover all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred in caring for and providing for the animal for at least 30 days, including, but not limited to, the estimated cost of food, medical care, and housing.

(2) If the person claiming the animal fails to comply with the terms of his or her permit and to regain possession of the animal by the expiration of the first 30-day period, the department may euthanize or place the animal with an appropriate wild animal facility at the end of the 30 days, unless the person claiming the animal pays all reasonable costs of caring for the animal for a second 30-day period before the expiration of the first 30-day period. If the permittee is still not in compliance with the terms of the permit at the end of the second 30-day period, the department may euthanize the animal or place the animal in an appropriate wild animal facility.

(3) The amount of the payments described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision shall be determined by the department, and shall be based on the current reasonable costs to feed, provide medical care for, and house the animal. If the person claiming the animal complies with the terms of his or her permit and regains possession of the animal, any unused portion of the payments required pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision shall be returned to the person claiming the animal no later than 90 days after the date on which the person regains possession of the animal.

SEC. 5. Section 2127 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2127. (a) The department may reimburse eligible local entities, pursuant to a memorandum of understanding entered into pursuant to this section, for costs incurred by the eligible local entities in the administration and enforcement of any provision concerning the possession of, handling of, care for, or holding facilities provided for, a wild animal designated pursuant to Section 2118, by any person.

(b) The department may enter into memorandums of understanding with eligible local entities for the administration and enforcement of any provision concerning the possession of, handling of, care for, or holding facilities provided for, a wild animal designated as such pursuant to Section 2118, or a cat specified in Section 3005.9.

(c) The Fish and Game Commission shall adopt regulations that establish specific criteria an eligible local entity shall meet in order to qualify as an eligible local entity.

(d) For purpose of this division, “eligible local entity” means a county, local animal control officer, local humane society official, an educational institution, or trained private individual that enters into a memorandum of understanding with the department pursuant to this section.

SEC. 6. Section 2150 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2150. (a) (1) The department, in cooperation with the Department of Food and Agriculture, may, upon application, issue a written permit to import into, possess, or transport within this state any wild animal enumerated in, or designated pursuant to, Section 671 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations, upon a determination that the animal is not detrimental or that no damage or detriment can be caused to agriculture, native wildlife, the public health or safety, or the welfare of the animal, as a result of the importation, transportation, or possession.

(2) A permit may be issued to any person only upon application and payment of a nonrefundable application fee in an amount determined by the department pursuant to Section 2150.2. Application forms shall be provided by the department and shall be designed to ascertain the applicant's ability to properly care for the wild animal or animals the applicant seeks to import, transport, or possess. Proper care includes providing adequate food, shelter, and veterinary care, and other requirements the commission may designate.

(b) The commission or the department shall deny a permit and the commission shall revoke a permit if it finds that a permittee or applicant has failed to meet, or is unable to meet, the requirements for importing, transporting, possessing, or confining any wild animal as established pursuant to Section 2120.

(c) A zoo is exempt from any permit requirement pursuant to this chapter except for animals whose importation, transportation, or possession is determined by the department, in cooperation with the Department of Food and Agriculture, to be detrimental or cause damage to agriculture, native wildlife, or the public health or safety. For purposes of this section, "zoo" means any organization which is accredited as meeting the standards and requirements of the American Zoo and Aquarium Association (AZA). Any California organization which is not accredited by the AZA may apply to the department for a waiver of specified permit requirements of this chapter. The department may grant or deny the request for a waiver for justified reasons. Foreign zoos outside this state are not subject to the permit requirements of this chapter beyond those specific permit requirements affecting California zoos or organizations with which they are collaborating. Any organization may appeal the determination of the department to the commission.

(d) An exhibitor licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture or a dealer who is so licensed who buys any animal specified in subdivision (c) from a zoo within the state, may sell or transfer it only to a private individual who has a permit issued pursuant to this section prior to the receipt of the animal or to a public or private organization that has a permit issued pursuant to this section prior to the receipt of the animal. The exhibitor or dealer who sells or transfers that animal shall pay a fee pursuant to Section 2150.2 to the department.

(e) Any university, college, governmental research agency, or other bona fide scientific institution, as defined in regulations adopted by the commission, engaging in scientific or public health research is exempt from any permit requirement pursuant to this chapter except for animals whose importation, transportation, or possession is determined by the department, in cooperation with the Department of Food and Agriculture, to be detrimental or cause damage to agriculture, native wildlife, or the public health or safety.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, every zoo, university, college, governmental research agency, or other bona fide scientific institution shall comply with the requirements of subdivision

(a) of Section 2193 for all animals the zoo, university, college, governmental research agency, or other bona fide scientific institution possesses that are enumerated in, or designated pursuant to, Section 671 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations.

SEC. 7. Section 2150.4 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2150.4. (a) Consistent with Section 3005.91, the department or an eligible local entity shall inspect the wild animal facilities, as determined by the director's advisory committee, of each person holding a permit issued pursuant to Section 2150 authorizing the possession of a wild animal.

(b) In addition to the inspections specified in subdivision (a), the department or an eligible local entity, pursuant to the regulations of the commission, may inspect the facilities and care provided for the wild animal of any person holding a permit issued pursuant to Section 2150 for the purpose of determining whether the animal is being cared for in accordance with all applicable statutes and regulations. The department shall collect an inspection fee, in an amount determined by the department pursuant to Section 2150.2.

(c) No later than January 1, 2007, the department, in cooperation with the committee created pursuant to Section 2150.3, shall develop, implement, and enter into memorandums of understanding with eligible local entities if the department elects not to inspect every wild animal facility pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b). Eligible local entities shall meet the criteria established in regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2127.

SEC. 8. Section 2157 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2157. (a) Every person holding a permit issued pursuant to Section 2150 shall uniquely identify each wild mammal that poses a risk to the health and safety of the public and report this identification to the department to maintain in a registry.

(b) The commission shall adopt regulations that address the following:

(1) Identify the mammals that pose a risk to the health and safety of the public and are subject to subdivision (a). This identification shall include the following species of mammals: wild cats, elephants, nonhuman primates, bears, and wolves.

(2) Acceptable forms of identification.

(3) How and when a permittee must notify the department of the unique identifier required in subdivision (a).

(c) The department shall establish a registry listing the permit number, type, expiration date, the name and address of the permittee, and an inventory of each mammal and to the identification assigned or affixed to the mammal pursuant to subdivision (a) that is covered by the permit.

(d) These regulations shall be developed and adopted by the commission, on or before January 1, 2007.

SEC. 9. Section 2185 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2185. (a) Any person who transports, receives, or imports into the State, or transports within the State, any live wild animal enumerated in or designated pursuant to Section 2118, shall hold said animal in confinement for inspection and immediately notify the nearest enforcing officer of the arrival thereof. If there is found in any shipment any species not specified in the permit issued under this chapter, or more than the number of any species specified, said animals shall be refused admittance as provided in Section 2188 of this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 2117, for the purposes of this section, "enforcing officer" means the enforcement personnel of the department, the state plant quarantine officers, and county agricultural commissioners.

SEC. 10. Section 2186 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2186. (a) If during inspection upon arrival any wild animal is found to be diseased, or there is reason to suspect the presence of disease, or there is reason to suspect the presence of disease which is or may be detrimental to agriculture, to native wildlife, or to the public health or safety, the diseased animal, and if necessary, the entire shipment shall be destroyed by, or under the supervision of the enforcing officer, unless no detriment can be caused by its detention in quarantine for a time and under conditions satisfactory to the enforcing officer for disinfection, treatment, or diagnosis, or no detriment can be caused by its return to its point of origin at the option and expense of the owner or bailee.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 2117, for the purposes of this section, "enforcing officer" means the enforcement personnel of the department, the state plant quarantine officers, and county agricultural commissioners.

SEC. 11. Section 2187 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2187. (a) Whenever any wild animal is brought into this state under permit, as provided in this chapter, the enforcing officers shall, from time to time, examine the conditions under which such species is kept, and report to the department any suspicion or knowledge of any disease or violations of the conditions of the permit or of the regulations promulgated under the provisions of this chapter. The enforcing officer may order the transfer of the animal to new owners or the correction of the conditions under which the species is being kept if not in conformance with the terms of the permit, at the expense of the owner or bailee. If neither transfer or improvement of conditions is accomplished, the officer may order destruction of the animal.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 2117, for the purposes of this section, “enforcing officer” means the enforcement personnel of the department, the state plant quarantine officers, and county agricultural commissioners.

SEC. 12. Section 2193 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2193. (a) Every person who holds a permit issued pursuant to Section 2150 shall immediately report by telephone the intentional or unintentional escape or release of the wild animal, to the department and the nearest enforcing officer of the city or county in which the wild animal was released or escaped. The permitholder shall be liable for all expenses associated with efforts to recapture the wild animal. For the purposes of this subdivision, the exhibition of a wild animal on a movie set, film set, television set, still photography set, or any other professional activity allowable under a permit issued pursuant to Section 2150, does not constitute an intentional or unintentional escape or release of the wild animal unless the person exhibiting the wild animal has lost control of the wild animal.

(b) The commission shall promulgate regulations establishing the criteria for permitholders to notify the department prior to taking possession of or transferring an animal and upon the death of an animal.

(c) These regulations shall be developed and adopted by the commission on or before January 1, 2007.

SEC. 13. Section 2195 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2195. When a wild animal enumerated in, or designated pursuant to, Section 671 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations is properly confiscated by the department, the new custodian with whom the animal is placed by the department may bring a civil action to recover the reasonable costs incurred by the custodian for any necessary relocation of the animal to a new facility, any actual and necessary costs to construct new caging to house the animal, and any actual and necessary costs to return the animal to a healthy state, to the extent that the department or new custodian has not already collected the costs pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 2125. The prior owner or possessor from whom the animal was confiscated shall be liable for these costs only if the conditions that led to the animal’s confiscation were the result of acts or omissions of the prior owner or possessor.

SEC. 14. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 699

An act to amend Section 441 of, to add Section 401.17 to, and to add and repeal Section 1153.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) A difficult and contentious property tax assessment issue concerns the assessment of certificated aircraft following the incident of September 11, 2001. The difficulty of measuring the economic obsolescence resulting from the incident, pertaining to a variety of aircraft types, many with tax situs in several counties, justifies a standardized approach to the appraisal of these aircraft.

(2) The difficulty of appraising certificated aircraft following the incident has given rise to much litigation and many tax appeals.

(3) The uncertainty created by pending litigation and appeals over the assessment of airline property is disruptive to both airline industry tax planning and local government and school finance.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to establish a unique methodology for the assessment of certificated aircraft in light of the special circumstances that befell this property and the airline industry following the September 11, 2001, incident. Specialized procedures, including the unique valuation methodology enacted herein, are justified by the multijurisdictional use of certificated aircraft property, and the manner in which valuations of this property are allocated. Therefore, in order to facilitate resolution of the disputes over the assessment of certificated aircraft, it is the intent of the Legislature to codify recommendations produced by a county and airline industry working group, to establish a uniform valuation methodology specifically designed and adopted for the unique circumstance of certificated aircraft property.

SEC. 2. Section 401.17 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

401.17. (a) For the 2005–06 fiscal year to the 2010–11 fiscal year, inclusive, the preallocated fair market value of each make, model, and series of mainline jets, production freighters, and regional aircraft that has attained situs within this state is the lesser of the sum total of the amounts determined under paragraph (1) or the sum total of the amounts determined under paragraph (2).

(1) (A) The original cost for the aircraft, which shall be determined as follows and adjusted, as applicable, under subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D):

(i) For owned and leased aircraft, the taxpayer’s or lessor’s acquisition cost for that individual aircraft reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and to the extent not included in the acquisition cost, transportation costs and capitalized interest and the cost of improvements made before a transaction described in paragraph (ii). If the original cost for leased aircraft cannot be determined from information reasonably available to the taxpayer, original cost may be determined by reference to the “average new prices” column of the Airliner Price Guide for that model, series, and year of manufacture of aircraft. If information is not available in the “average new prices” column for that model, series, and year, the original cost may be determined using the best indicator of original cost plus all conversion costs and improvement costs incurred for that aircraft.

(ii) For sale/leaseback or assignment of purchase rights transaction aircraft, the average of the taxpayer’s cost established pursuant to clause (i) and the cost established in a sale/leaseback or assignment of purchase rights transaction for individual aircraft that transfers the benefits and burdens of ownership to the lessor for United States federal income tax purposes. In no event shall the original cost for sale/leaseback aircraft be less than the taxpayer’s acquisition cost.

(iii) In the event of a merger, bankruptcy, or change in accounting methods by the reporting airline, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the cost of the individual aircraft and the acquisition date reported by the acquired company, if available, or the cost reported prior to the change in accounting method, are the original cost and the applicable acquisition date.

(B) (i) For mainline jets and production freighters, the original cost described in subparagraph (A), plus the cost of any improvements not otherwise included in the original cost, shall be adjusted from the date of the acquisition of the aircraft to the lien date using the monthly United States Department of Labor Producer Price Index for aircraft and a 20-year straight-line percent-good table starting from the delivery date of the aircraft to the current owner or, in the case of a sale/leaseback or assignment of purchase rights transaction, as described in this section, the current operator with a minimum combined factor of 25 percent.

(ii) For regional aircraft, the original cost described in subparagraph (A), plus the cost of any improvements not otherwise included in the original cost, shall be adjusted from the date of the acquisition of the aircraft to the lien date using the monthly United States Department of Labor Producer Price Index for aircraft and a 16-year straight-line percent-good table starting from the delivery date of the aircraft to the current owner or, in the case of a sale/leaseback or assignment of purchase rights transaction, as described in this section, the current operator with a minimum combined factor of 25 percent.

(iii) If original cost is determined by reference to the Airliner Price Guide "average new prices" column, the adjustments required by this paragraph shall be made by setting the acquisition date of the aircraft to be the date of the aircraft's manufacture.

(C) (i) For mainline jets and regional aircraft, the assessor shall analyze the adjusted original cost derived pursuant to subparagraph (B), for application of an economic obsolescence allowance which shall be determined as follows:

(I) For the applicable year, the assessor shall calculate the average annual net revenue per available seat mile, the net load factor, and the yield utilizing the Airline Quarterly Financial Review published by the United States Department of Transportation, and referring to the section descriptive of the passenger airline industry, entitled "System Operations, System Pax. Majors" for the calendar year ending December 31 immediately preceding the applicable assessment date.

(II) For a 10-year benchmark, the assessor shall calculate as of December 31 for each of the 10 calendar years preceding the applicable year, the average annual net revenue per available seat mile, the net load factor, and the yield utilizing the Airline Quarterly Financial Review published by the United States Department of Transportation, and referring to the section descriptive of the passenger airline industry, entitled "System Operations, System Pax. Majors" for the calendar year ending December 31 immediately preceding the applicable assessment date.

(ii) (I) The assessor shall compare each factor calculated under subclause (I) of clause (i) with the corresponding factor calculated under subclause (II) of clause (i) to derive the percentage that each of the factors calculated under subclause (I) of clause (i) deviated from the 10-year benchmark calculated under subclause (II) of clause (i). The assessor shall then calculate a weighted average of the indicated percentage adjustments, weighted as follows:

(aa) Net revenue per available seat mile shall be weighted 35 percent.

(ab) Net load factor shall be weighted 35 percent.

(ac) Yield shall be weighted 30 percent.

(II) The assessor shall reduce the adjusted original costs derived under subparagraph (B) by the percentage adjustment calculated in subclause (I), but only if the final economic obsolescence determined under that subclause exceeds 10 percent, otherwise no economic obsolescence allowance shall be provided.

(D) (i) For production freighters, the assessor shall analyze the adjusted original cost derived under subparagraph (B), for application of an economic obsolescence allowance, as follows:

(I) For the applicable year, the assessor shall calculate the industry average of net revenue per available ton mile and the ton load factor based upon the Airline Quarterly Financial Review published by the United States Department of Transportation, and referring to the section descriptive of the cargo airline industry, entitled "System Operations, System Cargo Majors" for the calendar year ending December 31 preceding the relevant assessment date.

(II) For a 10-year benchmark, the assessor shall calculate as of December 31 for each of the 10 calendar years preceding the applicable year, the net revenue per available ton mile and the ton load factor utilizing the Airline Quarterly Financial Review published by the United States Department of Transportation and referring to the section descriptive of the cargo airline industry, entitled "System Operations, System Cargo Majors" as of December 31 for each of the 10 calendar years preceding the calendar year utilized for the subject year, for the calendar year ending December 31 immediately preceding the applicable assessment date.

(ii) (I) The Assessor shall compare each factor calculated under subclause (I) of clause (i) with the corresponding factor calculated under subclause (II) of clause (i) to derive the percentage that each of the factors calculated under subclause (I) of clause (i) deviated from the 10-year benchmark calculated under subclause (II) of clause (i). The assessor shall then calculate a weighted average of the indicated percentage adjustments so that the net revenue per available ton mile is weighted 50 percent and the ton load factor is weighted 50 percent.

(II) The assessor shall reduce the adjusted original costs derived under subparagraph (B) by the percentage adjustment calculated in subclause (I), but only if the final economic obsolescence determined under that subclause exceeds 10 percent, otherwise no economic obsolescence allowance shall be provided.

(2) (A) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (B), for each individual mainline jet, production freighter, or regional aircraft, the assessor shall identify the value referenced in the "Used Price of Avg.

Acft. Wholesale” column of the Winter edition of the Airliner Price Guide by make, model, series, and year of manufacture, and deduct 10 percent from that value for a fleet discount.

(B) For each individual mainline jet, production freighter, or regional aircraft that is less than two years old and for which the Airliner Price Guide does not list used wholesale values, the original cost determined under paragraph (1) of subparagraph (A) shall be decreased by the lesser of 5 percent or one-half of the percentage decrease between original cost and 90 percent of the value listed in the “Used Price of Avg. Acft. Wholesale” column of the Winter edition of the Airliner Price Guide for a two-year old aircraft of that same make, model, and series.

(b) For the 2005-06 fiscal year to the 2010-11 fiscal year, inclusive, the preallocated fair market value for each make, model, and series of converted freighters that has attained situs within this state shall be determined as follows:

(1) (A) The assessor shall begin his or her appraisal of a converted freighter as of the relevant lien date by identifying the aircraft’s original cost as a passenger aircraft prior to conversion. The aircraft’s original cost as a converted freighter shall be the lesser of:

(i) Its trended original cost as a passenger aircraft prior to conversion, less a downward adjustment of 10 percent to reflect tear outs.

(ii) Its value described in the Winter edition of the Airliner Price Guide in the “Used Price of Avg. Acft. Wholesale” column in passenger configuration, less a downward adjustment of 10 percent to reflect tear-outs.

(B) The amount determined under subparagraph (A) shall be adjusted according to the following:

(i) If, on the relevant lien date, the frame of the aircraft is 15 years old or more, 50 percent of the cost to convert the aircraft to a freighter shall be added to the value determined under subparagraph (A).

(ii) If, on the relevant lien date, the frame of the aircraft is less than 15 years old, 75 percent of the cost to convert the aircraft to a freighter shall be added to the value determined under subparagraph (A).

(iii) In addition, all other improvements, including capitalized interest, to the aircraft that are not otherwise included in the aircraft’s original and conversion costs shall be added at full value.

(2) The amount determined under paragraph (1) shall be adjusted from the date of the conversion of the aircraft to the lien date using the monthly United States Department of Labor Producer Price Index for aircraft and a 16-year straight-line percent-good table, however, the percent-good applied to the aircraft shall in no event be less than 15 percent.

(3) If the Airliner Price Guide “Used Price of Avg. Acft. Wholesale” is utilized under paragraph (1), only the improvements and adjusted conversion costs pertaining to the converted freighter shall be adjusted from the date of the conversion of the aircraft to the relevant lien date using the monthly United States Department of Labor Producer Price Index for aircraft and a 16-year straight-line percent-good table. In no event, however, shall the percent-good applied to the improvements and adjusted conversion costs be less than 15 percent.

(4) (A) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (B), the assessor shall reduce the adjusted original cost, plus improvements, and adjusted conversion costs, derived under paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, by the obsolescence percentage adjustment calculated for production freighters under subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(B) If the Airliner Price Guide “Used Price of Avg. Acft. Wholesale” is utilized under paragraph (1), only the improvements and adjusted conversion costs pertaining to the converted freighter shall be reduced by the obsolescence percentage adjustment described in subparagraph (A).

(c) For purposes of this section, if the Airliner Price Guide ceases to be published or the format significantly changes, a guide or adjustment agreed to by commercial air carriers and the counties in which certificated aircraft have situs shall be substituted. If these parties do not agree on a guide or adjustment, the State Board of Equalization shall determine the guide or adjustment.

(d) The taxpayer shall, to the extent that information is reasonably available to the taxpayer, furnish the county assessor with an annual property statement that includes the aircraft original costs as defined in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). If an air carrier that has this information reasonably available to it fails to report original cost and improvements, as required by Sections 441 and 442, an assessor may in that case make an appropriate assessment pursuant to Section 501.

(e) For purposes of this section, all of the following apply:

(1) “Converted freighter” means a certificated aircraft, as defined in Section 1150, that, following its original manufacture, was used for passenger transportation, but was later converted to be used primarily for cargo transportation purposes.

(2) “Mainline jet” means a certificated aircraft, as defined in Section 1150, that is either of the following:

(B) Capable of being configured with approximately 100 seats or more.

(3) "Production Freighter" means a certificated aircraft, as defined in Section 1150, that immediately following its manufacture is deployed primarily for cargo transportation purposes.

(4) "Regional aircraft" means a certificated aircraft, as defined in Section 1150, that is either of the following:

(A) Manufactured by ATR (Avions De Transport Regional), Beech, British Aerospace Jetstream, Canadair Regional Jet, Cessna, DeHaviland, Embraer, Fairchild, or Saab.

(5) "Improvements" means the cost of any modifications or capital additions that materially add to the value of or substantially prolong the useful life of the aircraft, or make it adaptable to a different use. "Improvements" include modification costs incurred during a heavy maintenance visit to the extent that they materially add to the value of or substantially prolong the useful life of the aircraft. "Improvements" do not include repair and maintenance costs incurred for the purpose of keeping the aircraft in an ordinarily efficient operating condition.

(6) "Net revenue per available seat mile" means operating revenue per available seat mile less cost per available seat mile as determined by the United States Department of Transportation.

(7) "Net load factor" means actual passenger load factor less breakeven passenger load factor, as determined by the United States Department of Transportation.

(8) "Net revenue per available ton mile" means operating revenue per ton mile less cost per available ton mile as determined by the United States Department of Transportation.

(9) "Yield" means average revenue per revenue passenger mile as determined by the United States Department of Transportation.

(10) "Ton Load Factor" means that percentage of effective use of cargo capacity as determined by the United States Department of Transportation.

SEC. 3. Section 441 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

441. (a) Each person owning taxable personal property, other than a manufactured home subject to Part 13 (commencing with Section 5800), having an aggregate cost of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more for any assessment year shall file a signed property statement with the assessor. Every person owning personal property that does not require the filing of a property statement or real property shall, upon request of the assessor, file a signed property statement. Failure of the assessor to request or secure the property statement does not render any assessment invalid.

(b) The property statement shall be declared to be true under the penalty of perjury and filed annually with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on April 1. The penalty provided by Section 463 applies for property statements not filed by May 7. If May 7 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, a property statement that is mailed and postmarked on the next business day shall be deemed to have been filed between the lien date and 5 p.m. on May 7. If, on the dates specified in this subdivision, the county's offices are closed for the entire day, that day is considered a legal holiday for purposes of this section.

(c) The property statement may be filed with the assessor through the United States mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. For purposes of determining the date upon which the property statement is deemed filed with the assessor, the date of postmark as affixed by the United States Postal Service, or the date certified by a bona fide private courier service on the envelope containing the application, shall control. This subdivision shall be applicable to every taxing agency, including, but not limited to, a chartered city and county, or chartered city.

(d) (1) At any time, as required by the assessor for assessment purposes, every person shall make available for examination information or records regarding his or her property or any other personal property located on premises he or she owns or controls. In this connection details of property acquisition transactions, construction and development costs, rental income, and other data relevant to the determination of an estimate of value are to be considered as information essential to the proper discharge of the assessor's duties.

(2) (A) This subdivision shall also apply to an owner-builder or an owner-developer of new construction that is sold to a third party, is constructed on behalf of a third party, or is constructed for the purpose of selling that property to a third party.

(B) The owner-builder or owner-developer of new construction described in subparagraph (A), shall, within 45 days of receipt of a written request by the assessor for information or records, provide the assessor with all information and records regarding that property. The information and records provided to the assessor shall include the total consideration provided either by the purchaser or on behalf of the purchaser that was paid or provided either, as part of or outside of the purchase agreement, including, but not limited to, consideration paid or provided for the purchase or acquisition of upgrades, additions, or for any other additional or supplemental work performed or arranged for by the owner-builder or owner-developer on behalf of the purchaser.

(e) In the case of a corporate owner of property, the property statement shall be signed either by an officer of the corporation or an employee or agent who has been designated in writing by the board of directors to sign the statements on behalf of the corporation.

(f) In the case of property owned by a bank or other financial institution and leased to an entity other than a bank or other financial institution, the property statement shall be submitted by the owner bank or other financial institution.

(g) The assessor may refuse to accept any property statement he or she determines to be in error.

(h) If a taxpayer fails to provide information to the assessor pursuant to subdivision (d) and introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessor may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of the continuance.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every person required to file a property statement pursuant to this section shall be permitted to amend that property statement until May 31 of the year in which the property statement is due, for errors and omissions not the result of willful intent to erroneously report. The penalty authorized by Section 463 does not apply to an amended statement received prior to May 31, provided the original statement is not subject to penalty pursuant to subdivision (b). The amended property statement shall otherwise conform to the requirements of a property statement as provided in this article.

(j) This subdivision shall apply to the oil, gas, and mineral extraction industry only. Any information that is necessary to file a true, correct, and complete statement shall be made available by the assessor, upon request, to the taxpayer by mail or at the office of the assessor by February 28. For each business day beyond February 28 that the information is unavailable, the filing deadline in subdivision (b) shall be extended in that county by one business day, for those statements affected by the delay. In no case shall the filing deadline be extended beyond June 1 or the first business day thereafter.

(k) The assessor may accept the filing of a property statement by the use of electronic media. In lieu of the signature required by subdivision (a) and the declaration under penalty of perjury required by subdivision (b), property statements filed using electronic media shall be authenticated pursuant to methods specified by the assessor and approved by the board. Electronic media includes, but is not limited to, computer modem, magnetic media, optical disk, and facsimile machine.

(l) (1) After receiving the notice required by paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 1153.5, a commercial air carrier whose certificated aircraft is subject to Article 6 (commencing with Section 1150) of Chapter 5 shall file with the lead county assessor's office designated under Section 1153.5 one signed property statement for its personal property at all airport locations and fixtures at all airport locations.

(2) Each commercial air carrier may file one schedule for all of its certificated aircraft that have acquired situs in this state under Section 1151.

(3) Flight data required to compute certificated aircraft allocation under Section 1152 and subdivision (g) of Section 202 of Title 18 of the California Code of Regulations shall be segregated by airport location.

(4) Beginning with the 2006 assessment year, a commercial air carrier may file a statement described in this subdivision electronically by means of the California Assessor's Standard Data Record (SDR) network. If the SDR is not equipped to accept electronic filings for the 2006 assessment year, an air carrier may file a printed version of its property statement for that year with its lead county assessor's office.

(5) This subdivision shall remain in effect only until December 31, 2010, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1153.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

1153.5. (a) The Aircraft Advisory Subcommittee of the California Assessors' Association shall, after soliciting input from commercial air carriers operating in the state, do both of the following:

(1) On or before March 1, 2006, and on or before each March 1 thereafter, designate a lead county assessor's office for each commercial air carrier operating certificated aircraft in this state in that assessment year.

(2) Every third year thereafter, redesignate a lead county assessor's office for each of these air carriers, unless an air carrier and its existing lead county assessor's office concur to waive this redesignation.

(b) The lead county assessor's office described in subdivision (a) shall do all of the following:

(1) Calculate, pursuant to Section 401.17, an unallocated value of the certificated aircraft of each commercial air carrier to which he or she is designated.

(2) Electronically transmit to the assessor of each county in which the property described in paragraph (1) has situs for the assessment year the values determined by the lead county assessor's office under paragraph (1).

(3) Receive the property statement, as described in subdivision (l) of Section 441, of each commercial air carrier to which he or she is designated.

(4) Lead the audit team described in subdivision (d) when that team is conducting an audit of a commercial air carrier to which he or she is designated.

(5) Notify, in writing, each commercial air carrier for which he or she has been designated of this designation on or before the first March 15 that follows that designation.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the county assessor of each county in which the personal property of a commercial air carrier has situs for an assessment year is solely responsible for assessing that property, applying the allocation formula set forth in Section 1152, and enrolling the value of the property in that county, but, in determining the unallocated fleet value for each make, model, and series of certificated aircraft of a commercial air carrier, the assessor may consult with the lead county assessor's office designated for that commercial air carrier.

(2) The lead county assessor's office is subject to Section 322 of Title 18 of the California Code of Regulations and Sections 408, 451, and 1606 to the same extent as the assessor described in paragraph (1).

(d) Notwithstanding Section 469, an audit of a commercial air carrier shall be conducted once every four years on a centralized basis by an audit team of auditor-appraisers from at least one, but not more than three, counties, as determined by the Aircraft Advisory Subcommittee of the California Assessors' Association. An audit, so conducted, shall encompass all of the California Personal Property and fixtures of the air carrier and is deemed to be made on behalf of each county for which an audit would otherwise be required under Section 469.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 2010, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 5. The provisions of this measure are severable. If any provision of this measure or its application is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

SEC. 6. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to establish, for the current fiscal year, a uniform valuation methodology for certificated aircraft in light of the special circumstances affecting the airline industry following the September 11, 2001 incident, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 700

An act to amend Sections 25008 and 36514.5 of, and to add Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) and Article 2.4 (commencing with Section 53234) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 6060 and 7047 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, to amend Sections 2030, 2851, 4733, 4733.5, 6489, 9031, 13857, 13866, and 32103 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 1197 of the Military and Veterans Code, to amend Sections 5536, 5536.5, 5784.15, and 9303 of the Public Resources Code, to amend Sections 11908, 11908.1, 11908.2, 16002, and 22407 of the Public Utilities Code, and to amend Sections 20201, 21166, 30507, 30507.1, 34741, 40355, 50605, 55305, 56031, 60143, 70078, 71255, and 74208 of, and to add Section 20201.5 to, the Water Code, relating to local agencies.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25008 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25008. Members shall be allowed their actual expenses in going to, attendance upon, and returning from state association meetings and their actual and necessary traveling expenses when traveling outside their counties on official business. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3.

SEC. 2. Section 36514.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

36514.5. City council members may be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3.

SEC. 3. Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 2.3. Compensation

53232. For the purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Governing body" means the board of supervisors in the case of a county or a city and county, the city council or board of trustees in the case of a city, and the board of directors or other governing body in the case of a special district.

(b) "Legislative body" has the same meaning as specified in Section 54952.

(c) "Local agency" means a city, county, city and county, charter city, charter county, charter city and county, or special district.

53232.1. (a) When compensation is otherwise authorized by statute, a local agency may pay compensation to members of a legislative body for attendance at the following occurrences:

(3) A conference or organized educational activity conducted in compliance with subdivision (c) of Section 54952.2, including, but not limited to, ethics training required by Article 2.4 (commencing with Section 53234).

(b) A local agency may pay compensation for attendance at occurrences not specified in subdivision (a) only if the governing body has adopted, in a public meeting, a written policy specifying other types of occasions that constitute the performance of official duties for which a member of the legislative body may receive payment.

(c) This section shall not apply to any local agency that pays compensation in the form of a salary to members of a legislative body, including, but not limited to, those local agencies whose legislative bodies' compensation is subject to Section 36516 or 36516.1, subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 21166 or Section 22840 of the Water Code, Section 11908.1 of the Public Utilities Code, Section 6060 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 1 or Section 5 of Article XI of the California Constitution.

53232.2. (a) When reimbursement is otherwise authorized by statute, a local agency may reimburse members of a legislative body for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, including, but not limited to, activities described in Article 2.4 (commencing with Section 53234).

(b) If a local agency reimburses members of a legislative body for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, then the governing body shall adopt a written policy, in a public meeting, specifying the types of occurrences that qualify a member of the legislative body to receive reimbursement of expenses relating to travel, meals, lodging, and other actual and necessary expenses.

(c) The policy described in subdivision (b) may also specify the reasonable reimbursement rates for travel, meals, and lodging, and other actual and necessary expenses. If it does not, the local agency shall use the Internal Revenue Service rates for reimbursement of travel, meals, lodging, and other actual and necessary expenses as established in Publication 463, or any successor publication.

(d) If the lodging is in connection with a conference or organized educational activity conducted in compliance with subdivision (c) of Section 54952.2, including, but not limited to, ethics training required by Article 2.4 (commencing with Section 53234), lodging costs shall not exceed the maximum group rate published by the conference or activity sponsor, provided that lodging at the group rate is available to the member of a legislative body at the time of booking. If the group rate is not available, the member of a legislative body shall use comparable lodging that is consistent with the requirements of subdivisions (c) and (e).

(e) Members of the legislative body shall use government and group rates offered by a provider of transportation or lodging services for travel and lodging when available.

(f) All expenses that do not fall within the adopted travel reimbursement policy or the Internal Revenue Service reimbursable rates as provided in subdivision (c), shall be approved by the governing body, in a public meeting before the expense is incurred, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(g) This section shall not supersede any other laws establishing reimbursement rates for local agencies.

53232.3. (a) If a local agency reimburses members of a legislative body for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, then a local agency shall provide expense report forms to be filed by the members of the legislative body for reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred on behalf of the local agency in the performance of official duties. Reimbursable expenses shall include, but not be limited to, meals, lodging, and travel.

(b) Expense reports shall document that expenses meet the existing policy, adopted pursuant to Section 53232.2, for expenditure of public resources.

(c) Members of a legislative body shall submit expense reports within a reasonable time after incurring the expense, as determined by the legislative body, and the reports shall be accompanied by the receipts documenting each expense.

(d) Members of a legislative body shall provide brief reports on meetings attended at the expense of the local agency at the next regular meeting of the legislative body.

(e) All documents related to reimbursable agency expenditures are public records subject to disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1).

53232.4. Penalties for misuse of public resources or falsifying expense reports in violation of expense reporting policies may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) The loss of reimbursement privileges.
- (b) Restitution to the local agency.
- (c) Civil penalties for misuse of public resources pursuant to Section 8314.

SEC. 4. Article 2.4 (commencing with Section 53234) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 2.4. Ethics Training

53234. For the purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Legislative body" has the same meaning as specified in Section 54952.

(b) "Local agency" means a city, county, city and county, charter city, charter county, charter city and county, or special district.

(c) "Local agency official" means the following:

(1) Any member of a local agency legislative body or any elected local agency official who receives any type of compensation, salary, or stipend or reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties.

(2) Any employee designated by a local agency legislative body to receive the training specified under this article.

(d) "Ethics laws" include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Laws relating to personal financial gain by public servants, including, but not limited to, laws prohibiting bribery and conflict-of-interest laws.

(2) Laws relating to claiming prerequisites of office, including, but not limited to, gift and travel restrictions, prohibitions against the use of public resources for personal or political purposes, prohibitions against gifts of public funds, mass mailing restrictions, and prohibitions against acceptance of free or discounted transportation by transportation companies.

(3) Government transparency laws, including, but not limited to, financial interest disclosure requirements and open government laws.

(4) Laws relating to fair processes, including, but not limited to, common law bias prohibitions, due process requirements, incompatible offices, competitive bidding requirements for public contracts, and disqualification from participating in decisions affecting family members.

53235. (a) If a local agency provides any type of compensation, salary, or stipend to a member of a legislative body, or provides reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred by a member of a legislative body in the performance of official duties, then all local agency officials shall receive training in ethics pursuant to this article.

(b) Each local agency official shall receive at least two hours of training in general ethics principles and ethics laws relevant to his or her public service every two years.

(c) If any entity develops curricula to satisfy the requirements of this section, then the Fair Political Practices Commission and the Attorney General shall be consulted regarding the sufficiency and accuracy of any proposed course content. When reviewing any proposed course content the Fair Political Practices Commission and the Attorney General shall not preclude an entity from also including local ethics policies in the curricula.

(d) A local agency or an association of local agencies may offer one or more training courses, or sets of self-study materials with tests, to meet the requirements of this section. These courses may be taken at home, in-person, or online.

(e) All providers of training courses to meet the requirements of this article shall provide participants with proof of participation to meet the requirements of Section 53235.2.

(f) A local agency shall provide information on training available to meet the requirements of this article to its local officials at least once annually.

53235.1. (a) Each local agency official in local agency service as of January 1, 2006, except for officials whose term of office ends before January 1, 2007, shall receive the training required by subdivision (a) of Section 53235 before January 1, 2007. Thereafter, each local agency official shall receive the training required by subdivision (a) of Section 53235 at least once every two years.

(b) Each local agency official who commences service with a local agency on or after January 1, 2006, shall receive the training required by subdivision (a) of Section 53235 no later than one year from the first day of service with the local agency. Thereafter, each local agency official shall receive the training required by subdivision (a) of Section 53235 at least once every two years.

(c) A local agency official who serves more than one local agency shall satisfy the requirements of this article once every two years without regard to the number of local agencies with which he or she serves.

53235.2. (a) A local agency that requires its local agency officials to complete the ethical training prescribed by this article shall maintain records indicating both of the following:

(1) The dates that local officials satisfied the requirements of this article.

(2) The entity that provided the training.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a local agency shall maintain these records for at least five years after local officials receive the training. These records are public records subject to disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1).

SEC. 6. Section 6060 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

6060. The commissioners shall serve without salary until the yearly gross income of the district, exclusive of taxes levied by the district, exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per year, when the board may, by ordinance, fix their salaries, which shall not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars ($600) per month each.

In addition to any salary received pursuant to this section, the commissioners shall be allowed any actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. Section 7047 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

7047. Each director shall receive a sum as may be fixed by the board, not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) for each meeting of the board attended by him or her, for not exceeding four meetings in any calendar month. A director may also receive traveling and other expenses incurred by him or her when performing duties for the district other than attending board meetings. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 8. Section 2030 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

2030. (a) The members of the board of trustees shall serve without compensation.

(b) The members of the board of trustees may receive their actual and necessary traveling and incidental expenses incurred while on official business. In lieu of paying for actual expenses, the board of trustees may by resolution provide for the allowance and payment to each trustee a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per month for expenses incurred while on official business. A trustee may waive the payments permitted by this subdivision.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the secretary of the board of trustees may receive compensation in an amount determined by the board of trustees.

(d) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Section 2851 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

2851. The members of the district board shall hold office at the pleasure of the board of supervisors. They shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed their necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in performance of their official duties. In lieu of expenses, the district board may, by resolution, provide for the allowance and payment to each member of the board of a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) as expenses incurred in attending each business meeting of the board. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 10. Section 4733 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4733. (a) The district board may fix the amount of compensation per meeting to be paid each member of the board for services for each meeting attended by the member. Subject to subdivision (b), the compensation shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each meeting of the district board attended by the member or for each day's service rendered as a member by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incident thereto.

(b) The district board, by ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20200) of Division 10 of the Water Code, may increase the compensation received by the district board members above the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per day.

(c) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(d) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 11. Section 4733.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4733.5. Where two or more county sanitation districts have joined in the purchase, ownership, use, construction, maintenance, or operation of a sewerage system, or sewage disposal or treatment plant, or refuse transfer or disposal system, or both, either within or without the districts, or have so joined for any combination of these purposes, as provided in Section 4742, and the districts hold their meetings jointly, and one or more of the directors serve as a director on more than one of these districts meeting jointly, the districts may, by joint resolution approved by each district, limit the compensation of a director to compensation equal to not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each jointly held meeting attended by him or her, not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) in any one month for attendance at jointly held meetings. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 12. Section 6489 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

6489. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), each of the members of the board shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incident thereto.

(b) The district board, by ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20200) of Division 10 of the Water Code, may increase the compensation received by board members above the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per day.

(c) The secretary of the sanitary board shall receive compensation to be set by the sanitary district board, which compensation shall be in lieu of any other compensation to which he or she may be entitled by reason of attendance at the meeting or meetings of the sanitary board.

(d) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(e) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 13. Section 9031 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

9031. (a) The board of trustees may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each of its members may receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for attending each meeting of the board. A member of the board of trustees shall not receive compensation for more than four meetings of the board in a month.

(b) The board of trustees, by ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20200) of Division 10 of the Water Code, may increase the amount of compensation received for attending meetings of the board.

(c) In addition, members of the board of trustees may receive their actual and necessary traveling and incidental expenses incurred while on official business other than a meeting of the board.

(d) A member of the board of trustees may waive any or all of the payments permitted by this section.

(e) For the purposes of this section, a meeting of the board of trustees includes, but is not limited to, regular meetings, special meetings, closed sessions, emergency meetings, board field trips, district public hearings, or meetings of a committee of the board.

(f) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a trustee's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(g) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 14. Section 13857 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13857. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), each member of the district board may receive compensation in an amount set by the district board not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for attending each meeting of the district board. The number of meetings for which a member of the board of directors may receive compensation shall not exceed four meetings in any calendar month.

(b) The district board, by ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20200) of Division 10 of the Water Code, may increase the compensation received by the district board members above the amount prescribed by subdivision (a).

(c) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 15. Section 13866 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13866. A district may authorize its directors and employees to attend professional or vocational meetings and pay their actual and necessary traveling and incidental expenses while on official business. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 16. Section 32103 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

32103. The board of directors shall serve without compensation except that the board of directors, by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the members of the board, may authorize the payment of not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per meeting not to exceed five meetings a month as compensation to each member of the board of directors.

Each member of the board of directors shall be allowed his or her actual necessary traveling and incidental expenses incurred in the performance of official business of the district as approved by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 17. Section 1197 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1197. The board shall consist of five members who shall be registered electors residing within the district or proposed district at the time of their election and shall be elected by the qualified electors of the district. A majority of the seats on the board shall be designated for veterans, as defined in Section 940. Any board seat that is so designated, but is not currently filled by a qualifying individual, shall be filled by a qualified individual at the next election at which that seat is to be filled. Members shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

5536. (a) The board shall establish rules for its proceedings.

(b) The board may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each of its members may receive an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each attendance at a meeting of the board. For purposes of this section, a meeting of the board includes, but is not limited to, closed sessions of the board, board field trips, district public hearings, or meetings of a committee of the board. The maximum compensation allowable to a board member on any given day shall be one hundred dollars ($100). Board members shall not receive any other compensation for meetings, and no board member shall receive more than five hundred dollars ($500) compensation under this section in any one calendar month, except that board members of the East Bay Regional Park District may receive compensation for not more than 10 days in any one calendar month. A board member may elect to waive the per diem. In addition, the board may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each of its members not otherwise eligible for an employer-paid or partially employer-paid group medical or group dental plan, or both, may participate in any of those plans available to permanent employees of the district on the same terms available to those district employees or on terms and conditions as the board may determine. A board member who elects to participate in any plan may also elect to have the premium for the plan charged against his or her per diem and may further elect to waive the balance of the per diem.

(c) All vacancies on the board shall be filled in accordance with the requirements of Section 1780 of the Government Code, except that, in the case of vacancies caused by the creation of new wards or subdistricts, the directors shall, prior to the vacancies being filled, determine by lot, for the purpose of fixing the terms of the first directors to be elected to the wards or subdistricts, which ward or subdistrict shall have a four-year term and which ward or subdistrict shall have a two-year term. The persons who fill the vacancies caused by the establishment of new wards or subdistricts shall hold office until the next general election and until their successors are elected and qualified for the terms previously determined by lot.

(d) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 19. Section 5536.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5536.5. Members of the board of directors may be allowed actual necessary traveling and incidental expenses incurred in the performance of official business of the district as approved by the district board.

Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 20. Section 5784.15 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5784.15. (a) The board of directors may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each of its members may receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for attending each meeting of the board. The board of directors, by ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20200) of Division 10 of the Water Code, may increase the amount of compensation received for attending meetings of the board.

(b) The maximum compensation in any calendar month shall be five hundred dollars ($500).

(c) In addition, members of the board of directors may receive their actual and necessary traveling and incidental expenses incurred while on official business.

(e) For the purposes of this section, a meeting of the board of directors includes, but is not limited to, regular meetings, special meetings, closed sessions, emergency meetings, board field trips, district public hearings, or meetings of a committee of the board.

(f) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(g) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 21. Section 9303 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

9303. The directors shall receive no compensation for their services as such, but each shall be allowed reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in attendance at meetings of the directors or when otherwise engaged in the work of the district at the direction of the board of directors. The directors shall fix the amount allowed for necessary expenses, but no director shall be appointed to any position for which he or she would receive compensation as a salaried officer or employee of the district. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 22. Section 11908 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

11908. The board shall establish rules for its proceedings and may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each member shall receive for each attendance at the meetings of the board, or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100). No director shall receive any other compensation, nor receive pay for more than six days in any one calendar month. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 23. Section 11908.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

11908.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 11908, a district with a board having seven directors may provide, by resolution or ordinance, that each director shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at public meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, or, in lieu of that compensation, a salary of not to exceed six hundred dollars ($600) per month subject to annual adjustments pursuant to subdivision (b), together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. No resolution or ordinance establishing compensation pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for any automatic increase in that compensation.

(b) Any district which adopts salaries for directors pursuant to subdivision (a) may increase those salaries by not more than 5 percent for each calendar year following the operative date of the last adjustment, commencing with the calendar year following adoption of the salary or increase.

(c) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 24. Section 11908.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

11908.2. Notwithstanding Section 11908, the board of a district which has owned and operated an electric distribution system for at least eight years and has a population of 250,000 or more may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each director shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at public meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of 10 days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. The board may, by resolution or ordinance, increase the compensation per day by not more than 5 percent for each calendar year following the operative date of the last adjustment, commencing with the 1988 calendar year. No resolution or ordinance establishing compensation pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for any automatic increase in that compensation. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

16002. Each member of the board shall receive the compensation that the board by ordinance provides, not exceeding four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800) a year. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 26. Section 22407 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

22407. Each member of the board of directors shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each attendance at the meeting of the board held within the district, which amount shall be fixed from time to time by the board. No director, however, shall receive pay for more than four meetings in any calendar month.

Each director shall be allowed, with the approval of the board, all traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred by the member in the performance of the member's duties. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 27. Section 20201 of the Water Code is amended to read:

20201. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the governing board of any water district may, by ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter, provide compensation to members of the governing board, unless any compensation is prohibited by its principal act, in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board, or for each day's service rendered as a member of the board by request of the board, and may, by ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter, in accordance with Section 20202, increase the compensation received by members of the governing board above the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per day.

It is the intent of the Legislature that any future increase in compensation received by members of the governing board of a water district be authorized by an ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter and not by an act of the Legislature.

For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 28. Section 20201.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

20201.5. Reimbursement for expenses of members of a governing board of a water district is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 29. Section 21166 of the Water Code is amended to read:

21166. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a director, for sitting on the board or acting under its orders, shall receive both of the following:

(a) (1) Except as specified in paragraphs (2) and (3), compensation not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day, not exceeding six days in any calendar month.

(2) In districts that produce or distribute electric power, one of the following methods of compensation:

(C) Annual compensation not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000). Any annual compensation pursuant to this subparagraph shall be fixed by the adoption of an ordinance pursuant to Sections 20203 to 20207, inclusive.

(3) Districts containing 500,000 acres or more are governed by Section 22840.

For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 30. Section 30507 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30507. Each director shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 31. Section 30507.1 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30507.1. Each director of the Contra Costa Water District shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board and for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of 10 days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of duties required or authorized by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 32. Section 34741 of the Water Code is amended to read:

34741. Until their compensation is fixed by the adoption of bylaws, the officers shall receive the following compensation for their services:

(a) The secretary, tax collector, treasurer, and assessor, such sums as shall be fixed by the board.

(b) Each director shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 33. Section 40355 of the Water Code is amended to read:

40355. (a) A director, when sitting on the board or acting under its orders, shall receive not exceeding:

(1) One hundred dollars ($100) per day, not exceeding six days in any calendar month.

(2) Ten cents ($0.10) per mile for each mile traveled from his place of residence to the office of the board.

(3) Actual and necessary expenses while engaged in official business under the order of the board.

(b) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(c) Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 34. Section 50605 of the Water Code is amended to read:

50605. (a) Each member of the board shall receive such compensation for services actually and necessarily performed as the board determines to be just and reasonable, and shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties as trustee.

(b) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 35. Section 55305 of the Water Code is amended to read:

55305. (a) The board of directors may fix the compensation of its members for their services as directors not to exceed ten dollars ($10) for each meeting attended, not exceeding two meetings in any calendar month. If allowed by the board, a director shall also receive for performing duties for the district other than attending board meetings the following:

(1) An amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each day performing such duties.

(2) Traveling and other expenses incurred by him or her in performing his duties.

(b) For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 36. Section 56031 of the Water Code is amended to read:

56031. The district board shall have power to fix the amount of compensation per meeting to be paid each member of the board for his or her services for each meeting attended by him or her; provided, that the compensation shall not exceed ten dollars ($10) for each meeting of the district board attended by him or her, together with expenses necessarily incurred by him or her in traveling between his or her place of residence and the place of meeting. However, no member shall receive compensation for attending more than three meetings of the board during any calendar month. This compensation shall be in addition to any other fees or compensation allowed by law for the other official positions specified in Section 56030 that are occupied by members of the district board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 37. Section 60143 of the Water Code is amended to read:

60143. Each director shall receive compensation in an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 38. Section 70078 of the Water Code is amended to read:

70078. Each member of the board shall receive compensation for services actually and necessarily performed, as the board determines to be just and reasonable, and shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his or her duties as director. The salaries of all officers and employees of the district shall be fixed and determined by the directors. The board of directors shall fix the compensation that the election officers shall receive for district elections. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 39. Section 71255 of the Water Code is amended to read:

71255. Each director shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 40. Section 74208 of the Water Code is amended to read:

74208. Each director shall receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties required or authorized by the board. For purposes of this section, the determination of whether a director's activities on any specific day are compensable shall be made pursuant to Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Reimbursement for these expenses is subject to Sections 53232.2 and 53232.3 of the Government Code.

SEC. 41. The Legislature finds and declares that transparency in the activities of local governments is a matter of statewide concern and not merely a municipal affair, as that term is used in Section 5 of Article XI of the California Constitution. Therefore, this act shall apply to charter cities, charter counties, and charter cities and counties.

CHAPTER 701

An act to repeal Section 14683 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 6304 of, and to add Section 6401.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to State Lands Commission.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14683 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6304 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

6304. The commission may cooperate with the Coastal Engineering Research Board of the United States Army Corps of Engineers, and may expend such moneys as are necessary for cooperative work with that board out of any appropriation made for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 6401.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

6401.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6401, the commission may sell to a surface property owner, for not less than fair market value, the state's reserved mineral interest in a parcel of land comprised of 466.66 acres, described in Section 36, T 3 S, R 14 E, SBB&M, consisting of lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, and 11, N 1/2 of NW 1/4, and W 1/2 of NE 1/4, located in Riverside County, upon those terms and conditions, and subject to any reservations and exceptions as the commission determines are in the best interests of the state. Proceeds from the sale shall be deposited in accordance with the requirements of Section 6217.7.

(b) For purposes of this section "surface property owner" means a person who is the owner of a parcel of real property, but who does not have the right to prospect for, mine, or remove mineral deposits from that property.

SEC. 4. Due to the unique circumstances of the County of Riverside with respect to the ownership of mineral deposits in the county, a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution. Therefore, the special legislation contained in Section 3 of this act is necessarily applicable only to the County of Riverside.

CHAPTER 702

An act to amend Sections 136.2 and 11106 of the Penal Code, relating to court orders.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. Upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) Any order issued pursuant to Section 6320 of the Family Code.
- (b) An order that a defendant shall not violate any provision of Section 136.1.
- (c) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(d) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(e) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, should be issued.

(f) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim's or witness' household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this subdivision, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(g) (1) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this subdivision to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this subdivision to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(2) (A) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to paragraph (1) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(i) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(ii) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(3) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this subdivision shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(4) Any person violating any order made pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(h) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(i) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant.

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (j).

(j) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a “no contact order” issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts’ paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(k) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.1. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders, including, but not limited to, the following:

(3) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(4) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(5) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, should be issued.

(6) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim’s or witness’ household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this paragraph, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(7) (A) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this subdivision to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this subdivision to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(B) (i) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(I) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(II) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(C) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this subdivision shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(b) Any person violating any order made pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (a) may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (e), an emergency protective order issued pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets all of the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(2) An emergency protective order that meets the requirements of paragraph (1) shall have precedence in enforcement over the provisions of any other restraining or protective order only with respect to those provisions of the emergency protective order that are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person.

(d) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(e) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant, unless a court issues an emergency protective order pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code, in which case the emergency protective order shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (f).

(f) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a "no contact order" issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts' paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(g) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.2. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. (a) Upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) Any order issued pursuant to Section 6320 of the Family Code.
- (2) An order that a defendant shall not violate any provision of Section 136.1.
- (3) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.
- (4) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.
- (5) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, should be issued.

(6) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim's or witness' household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this paragraph, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(7) (A) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this paragraph to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this paragraph to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(B) (i) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(I) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(II) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(C) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this paragraph shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(b) Any person violating any order made pursuant to subdivision (a), may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(c) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(d) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant.

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (e), but if ordered after a criminal protective order has been issued pursuant to this section, the custody and visitation order shall make reference to, and acknowledge the precedence of enforcement of, any appropriate criminal protective order. On or before July 1, 2006, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court forms consistent with this subdivision.

(e) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a “no contact order” issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts’ paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(f) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.3. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. Upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders including, but not limited to, the following:

(c) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(d) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(e) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, should be issued.

(f) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim's or witness' household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this subdivision, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(g) (1) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from all contact by the defendant, or contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this subdivision to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this subdivision to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(2) (A) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to paragraph (1) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(i) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(ii) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(3) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this subdivision shall be issued on forms adopted by the

Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(4) Any person violating any order made pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(h) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(i) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant.

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (j).

(j) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a “no contact order” issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts’ paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(k) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.4. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders including, but not limited to, the following:

(3) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(4) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(5) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, should be issued.

(6) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim’s or witness’ household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this paragraph, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(7) (A) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this paragraph to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this paragraph to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(B) (i) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(I) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(II) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(C) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this paragraph shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(b) Any person violating any order made pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (a) may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (e), an emergency protective order issued pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets all of the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(2) An emergency protective order that meets the requirements of paragraph (1) shall have precedence in enforcement over the provisions of any other restraining or protective order only with respect to those provisions of the emergency protective order that are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person.

(d) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(e) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant, unless a court issues an emergency protective order pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code, in which case the emergency protective order shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (f), but if ordered after a criminal protective order has been issued pursuant to this section, the custody and visitation order shall make reference to, and acknowledge the precedence of enforcement of, any appropriate criminal protective order. On or before July 1, 2006, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court forms consistent with this subdivision.

(f) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a "no contact order" issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts' paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(g) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.5. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders including, but not limited to, the following:

(3) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(4) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(5) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, should be issued.

(6) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim's or witness' household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this paragraph, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(7) (A) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from all contact by the defendant, or contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this subdivision to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this subdivision to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(B) (i) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(I) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(II) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(C) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this subdivision shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(b) Any person violating any order made pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (a) may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (e), an emergency protective order issued pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets all of the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(2) An emergency protective order that meets the requirements of paragraph (1) shall have precedence in enforcement over the provisions of any other restraining or protective order only with respect to those provisions of the emergency protective order that are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person.

(d) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(e) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant, unless a court issues an emergency protective order pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code, in which case the emergency protective order shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (f).

(f) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a “no contact order” issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts’ paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(g) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.6. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. (a) Upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders including, but not limited to, the following:

(3) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(4) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(5) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, should be issued.

(6) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim's or witness' household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of harm to the victim or witness or immediate family members of the victim or witness.

For purposes of this paragraph, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(7) (A) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from all contact by the defendant, or contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this paragraph to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this paragraph to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(B) (i) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(I) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(II) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(C) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this paragraph shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(b) Any person violating any order made pursuant to subdivision (a), may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(c) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(d) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant.

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (e), but if ordered after a criminal protective order has been issued pursuant to this section, the custody and visitation order shall make reference to, and acknowledge the precedence of enforcement of, any appropriate criminal protective order. On or before July 1, 2006, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court forms consistent with this subdivision.

(e) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a “no contact order” issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts’ paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(f) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 1.7. Section 136.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

136.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, any court with jurisdiction over a criminal matter may issue orders including, but not limited to, the following:

(3) An order that a person before the court other than a defendant, including, but not limited to, a subpoenaed witness or other person entering the courtroom of the court, shall not violate any provisions of Section 136.1.

(4) An order that any person described in this section shall have no communication whatsoever with any specified witness or any victim, except through an attorney under any reasonable restrictions that the court may impose.

(5) An order calling for a hearing to determine if an order as described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, should be issued.

(6) An order that a particular law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction of the court provide protection for a victim or a witness, or both, or for immediate family members of a victim or a witness who reside in the same household as the victim or witness or within reasonable proximity of the victim’s or witness’ household, as determined by the court. The order shall not be made without the consent of the law enforcement agency except for limited and specified periods of time and upon an express finding by the court of a clear and present danger of

For purposes of this paragraph, "immediate family members" include the spouse, children, or parents of the victim or witness.

(7) (A) Any order protecting victims of violent crime from all contact by the defendant, or contact, with the intent to annoy, harass, threaten, or commit acts of violence, by the defendant. The court or its designee shall transmit orders made under this paragraph to law enforcement personnel within one business day of the issuance, modification, extension, or termination of the order, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. It is the responsibility of the court to transmit the modification, extension, or termination orders made under this paragraph to the same agency that entered the original protective order into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System.

(B) (i) If a court does not issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (A) in a case in which the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 13700, the court on its own motion shall consider issuing a protective order upon a good cause belief that harm to, or intimidation or dissuasion of, a victim or witness has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur, that provides as follows:

(I) The defendant shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(II) The defendant shall relinquish any firearms that he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases, or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm while this protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021.

(C) Any order issued, modified, extended, or terminated by a court pursuant to this paragraph shall be issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council of California and that have been approved by the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6380 of the Family Code. However, the fact that an order issued by a court pursuant to this section was not issued on forms adopted by the Judicial Council and approved by the Department of Justice shall not, in and of itself, make the order unenforceable.

(b) Any person violating any order made pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (a) may be punished for any substantive offense described in Section 136.1, or for a contempt of the court making the order. A finding of contempt shall not be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1. However, any person so held in contempt shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed therein against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (e), an emergency protective order issued pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets all of the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(2) An emergency protective order that meets the requirements of paragraph (1) shall have precedence in enforcement over the provisions of any other restraining or protective order only with respect to those provisions of the emergency protective order that are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person.

(d) (1) A person subject to a protective order issued under this section shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(2) The court shall order a person subject to a protective order issued under this section to relinquish any firearms he or she owns or possesses pursuant to Section 527.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Every person who owns, possesses, purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm while the protective order is in effect is punishable pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(e) (1) In all cases where the defendant is charged with a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, the court shall consider issuing the above-described orders on its own motion. All interested parties shall receive a copy of those orders. In order to facilitate this, the court's records of all criminal cases involving domestic violence shall be marked to clearly alert the court to this issue.

(2) In those cases in which a complaint, information, or indictment charging a crime of domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, has been issued, a restraining order or protective order against the defendant issued by the criminal court in that case has precedence in enforcement over any civil court order against the defendant, unless a court issues an emergency protective order pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Part 3 of Division 10 of the Family Code or Section 646.91 of the Penal Code, in which case the emergency protective order shall have precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order, provided the emergency protective order meets the following requirements:

(A) The emergency protective order is issued to protect one or more individuals who are already protected persons under another restraining or protective order.

(B) The emergency protective order restrains the individual who is the restrained person in the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The provisions of the emergency protective order are more restrictive in relation to the restrained person than are the provisions of the other restraining or protective order specified in subparagraph (A).

(3) Custody and visitation with respect to the defendant and his or her minor children may be ordered by a family or juvenile court consistent with the protocol established pursuant to subdivision (f), but if ordered after a criminal protective order has been issued pursuant to this section, the custody and visitation order shall make reference to, and acknowledge the precedence of enforcement of, any appropriate criminal protective order. On or before July 1, 2006, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court forms consistent with this subdivision.

(f) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall promulgate a protocol, for adoption by each local court in substantially similar terms, to provide for the timely coordination of all orders against the same defendant and in favor of the same named victim or victims. The protocol shall include, but shall not be limited to, mechanisms for assuring appropriate communication and information sharing between criminal, family, and juvenile courts concerning orders and cases that involve the same parties, and shall permit a family or juvenile court order to coexist with a criminal court protective order subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a "no contact order" issued by a criminal court.

(2) Safety of all parties shall be the courts' paramount concern. The family or juvenile court shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Section 3100 of the Family Code.

(g) On or before January 1, 2003, the Judicial Council shall modify the criminal and civil court protective order forms consistent with this section.

SEC. 2. Section 11106 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11106. (a) In order to assist in the investigation of crime, the prosecution of civil actions by city attorneys pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the arrest and prosecution of criminals, and the recovery of lost, stolen, or found property, the Attorney General shall keep and properly file a complete record of all copies of fingerprints, copies of licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050, information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12053, dealers' records of sales of firearms, reports provided pursuant to Section 12072 or 12078, forms provided pursuant to Section 12084, reports provided pursuant to Section 12071 that are not dealers' records of sales of firearms, and reports of stolen, lost, found, pledged, or pawned property in any city or county of this state, and shall, upon proper application therefor, furnish this information to the officers referred to in Section 11105.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the Attorney General shall not retain or compile any information from reports filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns, from forms submitted pursuant to Section 12084 for firearms that are not handguns, or from dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns. All copies of the forms submitted, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to Section 12084 for firearms that are not handguns, or of the dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the clearance by the Attorney General, unless the purchaser or transferor is ineligible to take possession of the firearm. All copies of the reports filed, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the receipt by the Attorney General, unless retention is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution.

(2) A peace officer, the Attorney General, a Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or any authorized local law enforcement employee shall not retain or compile any information from a firearms transaction record, as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 12071, for firearms that are not handguns unless retention or compilation is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution or in a proceeding to revoke a license issued pursuant to Section 12071.

(c) (1) The Attorney General shall permanently keep and properly file and maintain all information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Sections 12071, 12072, 12078, 12082, and 12084 or any other law, as to handguns and maintain a registry thereof.

(2) The registry shall consist of all of the following:

(A) The name, address, identification of, place of birth (state or country), complete telephone number, occupation, sex, description, and all legal names and aliases ever used by the owner or person being loaned the particular handgun as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the Law Enforcement Firearms Transfer (LEFT), as defined in Section 12084, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(B) The name and address of, and other information about, any person (whether a dealer or a private party) from whom the owner acquired or the person being loaned the particular handgun and when the firearm was acquired or loaned as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the LEFT, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(C) Any waiting period exemption applicable to the transaction which resulted in the owner of or the person being loaned the particular handgun acquiring or being loaned that firearm.

(D) The manufacturer's name if stamped on the firearm, model name or number if stamped on the firearm, and, if applicable, the serial number, other number (if more than one serial number is stamped on the firearm), caliber, type of firearm, if the firearm is new or used, barrel length, and color of the firearm.

(3) Information in the registry referred to in this subdivision shall, upon proper application therefor, be furnished to the officers referred to in Section 11105, to a city attorney prosecuting a civil action, solely for use in prosecuting that civil action and not for any other purpose, or to the person listed in the registry as the owner or person who is listed as being loaned the particular handgun.

(4) If any person is listed in the registry as the owner of a firearm through a Dealers' Record of Sale prior to 1979, and the person listed in the registry requests by letter that the Attorney General store and keep the record electronically, as well as in the record's existing photographic, photostatic, or nonerasable optically stored form, the Attorney General shall do so within three working days of receipt of the request. The Attorney General shall, in writing, and as soon as practicable, notify the person requesting electronic storage of the record that the request has been honored as required by this paragraph.

(d) (1) Any officer referred to in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (b) of Section 11105 may disseminate the name of the subject of the record, the number of the firearms listed in the record, and the description of any firearm, including the make, model, and caliber, from the record relating to any firearm's sale, transfer, registration, or license record, or any information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12021.3, 12053, 12071, 12072, 12077, 12078, 12082, or 12285, if the following conditions are met:

(A) The subject of the record has been arraigned for a crime in which the victim is a person described in subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, of Section 6211 of the Family Code and is being prosecuted or is serving a sentence for the crime, or the subject of the record is the subject of an emergency protective order, a temporary restraining order, or an order after hearing, which is in effect and has been issued by a family court under the Domestic Violence Protection Act set forth in Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code.

(B) The information is disseminated only to the victim of the crime or to the person who has obtained the emergency protective order, the temporary restraining order, or the order after hearing issued by the family court.

(C) Whenever a law enforcement officer disseminates the information authorized by this subdivision, that officer or another officer assigned to the case shall immediately provide the victim of the crime with a "Victims of Domestic Violence" card, as specified in subparagraph (G) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (c) of Section 13701.

(2) The victim or person to whom such information is disseminated may disclose it as he or she deems necessary to protect himself or herself or another person from bodily harm by the person who is the subject of the record.

SEC. 2.5. Section 11106 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11106. (a) In order to assist in the investigation of crime, the prosecution of civil actions by city attorneys pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the arrest and prosecution of criminals, and the recovery of lost, stolen, or found property, the Attorney General shall keep and properly file a complete record of all copies of fingerprints, copies of licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050, information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12053, dealers' records of sales of firearms, reports provided pursuant to Section 12072 or 12078, forms provided pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, reports provided pursuant to Section 12071 that are not dealers' records of sales of firearms, and reports of stolen, lost, found, pledged, or pawned property in any city or county of this state, and shall, upon proper application therefor, furnish this information to the officers referred to in Section 11105.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the Attorney General shall not retain or compile any information from reports filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns, from forms submitted pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read

prior to being repealed by the act that amended that section, for firearms that are not handguns, or from dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns. All copies of the forms submitted, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended that section, for firearms that are not handguns, or of the dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the clearance by the Attorney General, unless the purchaser or transferor is ineligible to take possession of the firearm. All copies of the reports filed, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the receipt by the Attorney General, unless retention is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution.

(2) A peace officer, the Attorney General, a Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or any authorized local law enforcement employee shall not retain or compile any information from a firearms transaction record, as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 12071, for firearms that are not handguns unless retention or compilation is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution or in a proceeding to revoke a license issued pursuant to Section 12071.

(c) (1) The Attorney General shall permanently keep and properly file and maintain all information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Sections 12071, 12072, 12078, 12082, and former Section 12084 or any other law, as to handguns and maintain a registry thereof.

(2) The registry shall consist of all of the following:

(A) The name, address, identification of, place of birth (state or country), complete telephone number, occupation, sex, description, and all legal names and aliases ever used by the owner or person being loaned the particular handgun as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the Law Enforcement Firearms Transfer (LEFT), as defined in Section former 12084, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(B) The name and address of, and other information about, any person (whether a dealer or a private party) from whom the owner acquired or the person being loaned the particular handgun and when the firearm was acquired or loaned as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the LEFT, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(C) Any waiting period exemption applicable to the transaction which resulted in the owner of or the person being loaned the particular handgun acquiring or being loaned that firearm.

(D) The manufacturer's name if stamped on the firearm, model name or number if stamped on the firearm, and, if applicable, the serial number, other number (if more than one serial number is stamped on the firearm), caliber, type of firearm, if the firearm is new or used, barrel length, and color of the firearm.

(3) Information in the registry referred to in this subdivision shall, upon proper application therefor, be furnished to the officers referred to in Section 11105, to a city attorney prosecuting a civil action, solely for use in prosecuting that civil action and not for any other purpose, or to the person listed in the registry as the owner or person who is listed as being loaned the particular handgun.

(4) If any person is listed in the registry as the owner of a firearm through a Dealers' Record of Sale prior to 1979, and the person listed in the registry requests by letter that the Attorney General store and keep the record electronically, as well as in the record's existing photographic, photostatic, or nonerasable optically stored form, the Attorney General shall do so within three working days of receipt of the request. The Attorney General shall, in writing, and as soon as practicable, notify the person requesting electronic storage of the record that the request has been honored as required by this paragraph.

(d) (1) Any officer referred to in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (b) of Section 11105 may disseminate the name of the subject of the record, the number of the firearms listed in the record, and the description of any firearm, including the make, model, and caliber, from the record relating to any firearm's sale, transfer, registration, or license record, or any information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12021.3, 12053, 12071, 12072, 12077, 12078, 12082, or 12285, if the following conditions are met:

(A) The subject of the record has been arraigned for a crime in which the victim is a person described in subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, of Section 6211 of the Family Code and is being prosecuted or is serving a sentence for the crime, or the subject of the record is the subject of an emergency protective order, a temporary restraining order, or an order after hearing, which is in effect and has been issued by a family court under the Domestic Violence Protection Act set forth in Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code.

(B) The information is disseminated only to the victim of the crime or to the person who has obtained the emergency protective order, the temporary restraining order, or the order after hearing issued by the family court.

(C) Whenever a law enforcement officer disseminates the information authorized by this subdivision, that officer or another officer assigned to the case shall immediately provide the victim of the crime with a

“Victims of Domestic Violence” card, as specified in subparagraph (G) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (c) of Section 13701.

(2) The victim or person to whom such information is disseminated may disclose it as he or she deems necessary to protect himself or herself or another person from bodily harm by the person who is the subject of the record.

SEC. 3. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 112. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 118 and SB 720 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 112, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 118. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 112 and SB 720 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 118, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 720. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 112 and AB 118 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 720, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 1.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 112, and AB 118. It shall become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, (3) SB 720 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 112 and AB 118, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 112, and SB 720. It shall become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 118 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 112 and SB 720, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(f) Section 1.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 118, and SB 720. It shall become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 112 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 118 and SB 720, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(g) Section 1.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 136.2 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 112, AB 118, and SB 720. It shall become operative if (1) all four bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 112, AB 118, and SB 720, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11106 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1060. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 11106 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1060, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because, in that regard, this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 703

An act to add Section 25302.5 to the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25302.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25302.5. (a) As part of each integrated energy policy report required pursuant to Section 25302, each entity that serves or plans to serve electricity to retail customers, including, but not limited to, electrical corporations, nonutility electric service providers, community choice aggregators, and local publicly owned electric utilities, shall provide the commission with its forecast of both of the following:

(1) The amount of its forecasted load that may be lost or added by any of the following:

- (A) A community choice aggregator.
- (B) An existing local publicly owned electric utility.
- (C) A newly formed local publicly owned electric utility.

(2) Load that will be served by an electric service provider.

(b) The commission shall perform an assessment in the service territory of each electrical corporation of the loss or addition of load described in this section and submit the results of the assessment to the Public Utilities Commission.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the commission may exempt from the forecasting requirements in that subdivision a local publicly owned electric utility that is not planning to acquire additional load beyond its existing exclusive service territory within the forecast period provided by the commission pursuant to Section 25303.

(d) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Community choice aggregator" means any "community choice aggregator" as defined in Section 331.1 of the Public Utilities Code.

(2) "Electrical corporation" means any "electrical corporation" as defined in Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code.

(3) "Electric service provider" means any "electric service provider" as defined in Section 218.3 of the Public Utilities Code.

(4) "Local publicly owned electric utility" means any "local publicly owned electric utility" as defined in Section 9604 of the Public Utilities Code.

CHAPTER 704

An act to amend Sections 290 and 1203.4 of, and to repeal Section 290.1 of, the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

SECTION 1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) (A) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, or while attending school or working in California, as described in subparagraph (G), shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is residing, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is residing in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is residing upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within five working days of coming into, or changing his or her residence within, any city, county, or city and county, or campus in which he or she temporarily resides.

(B) If the person who is registering has more than one residence address at which he or she regularly resides, he or she shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A) in each of the jurisdictions in which he or she regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there. If all of the addresses are within the same jurisdiction, the person shall provide the registering authority with all of the addresses where he or she regularly resides.

(C) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while living as a transient in California shall be required to register, as follows:

(i) A transient must register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, within five working days from release from incarceration, placement or commitment, or release on probation, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), except that if the person previously registered at a transient less than 30 days from the date of his or her release from incarceration, he or she does not need to reregister as a transient until his or her next required 30-day update of registration. If a transient is not physically present in any one jurisdiction for five consecutive working days, he or she must register in the jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present on the fifth working day following release, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). Beginning on or before the 30th day following initial registration upon release, a transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days thereafter. A transient shall register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is physically present within that 30-day period, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is physically present upon the campus or in any of its facilities. A transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days regardless of the length of time he or she has been physically present in the particular jurisdiction in which he or she reregisters. If a transient fails to reregister within any 30-day period, he or she may be prosecuted in any jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present.

(ii) A transient who moves to a residence shall have five working days within which to register at that address, in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). A person registered at a residence address in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), who becomes transient shall have five working days within which to reregister as a transient in accordance with clause (i).

(iii) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration, a transient shall register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in clause (i). A transient shall register in whichever jurisdiction he or she is physically present on that date. At the 30-day updates and the annual update, a transient shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), and the information specified in clause (iv).

(iv) A transient shall, upon registration and reregistration, provide current information as required on the Department of Justice registration forms, and shall also list the places where he or she sleeps, eats, works, frequents, and engages in leisure activities. If a transient changes or adds to the places listed on the form during the 30-day period, he or she does not need to report the new place or places until the next required reregistration.

(v) Failure to comply with the requirement of reregistering every 30 days following initial registration pursuant to clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be punished in accordance with paragraph (6) of subdivision (g). Failure to comply with any other requirement of this section shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (g).

(vi) A transient who moves out of state shall inform, in person, the chief of police in the city in which he or she is physically present, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, within five working days, of his or her move out of state. The transient shall inform that registering agency of his or her planned destination, residence or transient location out of state, and any plans he or she has to return to California, if known. The law enforcement agency shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of location information to the Department of Justice. The department shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence or location.

(vii) For purposes of this section, "transient" means a person who has no residence. "Residence" means one or more addresses at which a person regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there, such as a shelter or structure that can be located by a street address, including, but not limited to, houses, apartment buildings, motels, hotels, homeless shelters, and recreational and other vehicles.

(viii) The transient registrant's duty to update his or her registration no less than every 30 days shall begin with his or her second transient update following the date this subdivision became effective.

(D) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration or change of address, the person shall be required to register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in subparagraph (A). At the annual update, the person shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(E) In addition, every person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, after his or her release from custody, verify his or her address no less than once every 90 days and place of employment, including the name and address of the employer, in a manner established by the Department of Justice.

(F) No entity shall require a person to pay a fee to register or update his or her registration pursuant to this section. The registering agency shall submit registrations, including annual updates or changes of address, directly into the Department of Justice Violent Crime Information Network (VCIN).

(G) Persons required to register in their state of residence who are out-of-state residents employed, or carrying on a vocation in California on a full-time or part-time basis, with or without compensation, for more than 14 days, or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). Persons described in paragraph (2) who are out-of-state residents enrolled in any educational institution in California, as defined in Section 22129 of the Education Code, on a full-time or part-time basis, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). The place where the out-of-state resident is located, for purposes of registration, shall be the place where the person is employed, carrying on a vocation, or attending school. The out-of-state resident subject to this subparagraph shall, in addition to the information required pursuant to subdivision (e), provide the registering authority with the name of his or her place of employment or the name of the school attended in California, and his or her address or location in his or her state of residence. The registration requirement for persons subject to this subparagraph shall become operative on November 25, 2000. The terms "employed or carries on a vocation" include employment whether or not financially compensated, volunteered, or performed for government or educational benefit.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, Section 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, or 266c, subdivision (b) of Section 266h, subdivision (b) of Section 266i, Section 266j, 267, 269, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, Section 311.1, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6, former Section 647a, subdivision (c) of Section 653f, subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, any offense involving lewd or lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any statutory predecessor that includes all elements of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any person who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of a trial for an offense for which registration is required by this section but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial.

(D) (i) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, of any offense that, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(ii) Any person ordered by any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, to register as a sex offender for any offense, if the court found at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification.

(iii) Except as provided in clause (iv), any person who would be required to register while residing in the state of conviction for a sex offense committed in that state.

(iv) Clause (iii) shall not apply to a person required to register in the state of conviction if the conviction was for the equivalent of one of the following offenses, and the person is not subject to clause (i):

(III) Incest, pursuant to Section 285.

(IV) Sodomy, pursuant to Section 286, or oral copulation, pursuant to Section 288a, provided that the offender notifies the Department of Justice that the sodomy or oral copulation conviction was for conduct between consenting adults, as described in subparagraph (F) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), and the department is able, upon the exercise of reasonable diligence, to verify that fact.

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(F) Any person required to register pursuant to any provision of this section, regardless of whether the person's conviction has been dismissed pursuant to Section 1203.4, unless the person obtains a certificate of rehabilitation and is entitled to relief from registration pursuant to Section 290.5.

(G) (i) Notwithstanding any other subdivision, a person who was convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286, or Section 288a, shall not be required to register pursuant to this section for that conviction if the conviction was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized by Chapter 71 of the Statutes of 1975 or Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976. The Department of Justice shall remove that person from the Sex Offender Registry, and the person is discharged from his or her duty to register pursuant to the following procedure:

(I) The person submits to the Department of Justice official documentary evidence, including court records or police reports, that demonstrate that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized; or

(II) The person submits to the department a declaration stating that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized. The declaration shall be confidential and not a public record, and shall include the person's name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and a summary of the circumstances leading to the conviction, including the date of the conviction and county of the occurrence.

(III) The department shall determine whether the person's conviction was for conduct between consensual adults that has been decriminalized. If the conviction was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized, and the person has no other offenses for which he or she is required to register pursuant to this section, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that he or she is relieved of the duty to register, and shall notify the local law enforcement agency with which the person is registered that he or she has been relieved of the duty to register. The local law enforcement agency shall remove the person's registration from its files within 30 days of receipt of notification. If the documentary or other evidence submitted is insufficient to establish the person's claim, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that his or her claim cannot be established, and that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. The department shall provide, upon the person's request, any information relied upon by the department in making its determination that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. Any person whose claim has been denied by the department pursuant to this clause may petition the court to appeal the department's denial of the person's claim.

(ii) On or before July 1, 1998, the department shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the status of persons who may come under the provisions of this subparagraph, including the number of persons who were convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286 or Section 288a and are required to register under this section, the average age of these persons, the number of these persons who have any subsequent convictions for a registerable sex offense, and the number of these persons who have sought successfully or unsuccessfully to be relieved of their duty to register under this section.

(b) (1) Any person who is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official shall at the same time forward a current photograph of the person to the Department of Justice.

(2) The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction that makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency that prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall retain one copy.

where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The probation officer shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is granted conditional release without supervised probation, or discharged upon payment of a fine, shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section in open court by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. If the court finds that it is in the interest of the efficiency of the court, the court may assign the bailiff to require the person to read and sign forms under this section. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of any offense described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraph (3), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Any person described in this subdivision who committed an offense in violation of any of the following provisions shall be required to register pursuant to this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, 266c, or 267, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or Section 647.6.

(C) A violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with the intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289.

(4) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, any person who is subject to registration under this subdivision shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case that are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) On or after January 1, 1998, upon incarceration, placement, or commitment, or prior to release on probation, any person who is required to register under this section shall preregister. The preregistering official shall be the admitting officer at the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment, or the probation officer if the person is to be released on probation. The preregistration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A preregistration statement in writing, signed by the person, giving information that shall be required by the Department of Justice.

(C) Any person who is preregistered pursuant to this subdivision is required to be preregistered only once.

(2) A person described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, upon release from incarceration, placement, commitment, or release on probation pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The registration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as shall be required by the Department of Justice and giving the name and address of the person's employer, and the address of the person's place of employment if that is different from the employer's main address.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by, regularly driven by, or registered in the name of the person.

(D) Notice to the person that, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (4), he or she may have a duty to register in any other state where he or she may relocate.

(E) Copies of adequate proof of residence, which shall be limited to a California driver's license, California identification card, recent rent or utility receipt, printed personalized checks or other recent banking documents showing that person's name and address, or any other information that the registering official believes is reliable. If the person has no residence and no reasonable expectation of obtaining a residence in the foreseeable future, the person shall so advise the registering official and shall sign a statement provided by the registering official stating that fact. Upon presentation of proof of residence to the registering official or a signed statement that the person has no residence, the person shall be allowed to register. If the person claims that he or she has a residence but does not have any proof of residence, he or she shall be allowed to register but shall furnish proof of residence within 30 days of the date he or she is allowed to register.

(3) Within three days thereafter, the preregistering official or the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) (1) (A) Any person who was last registered at a residence address pursuant to this section who changes his or her residence address, whether within the jurisdiction in which he or she is currently registered or to a new jurisdiction inside or outside the state, shall, in person, within five working days of the move, inform the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she last registered of the move, the new address or transient location, if known, and any plans he or she has to return to California.

(B) If the person does not know the new residence address or location at the time of the move, the registrant shall, in person, within five working days of the move, inform the last registering agency or agencies that he or she is moving. The person shall later notify the last registering agency or agencies, in writing, sent by certified or registered mail, of the new address or location within five working days of moving into the new residence address or location, whether temporary or permanent.

(C) The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three working days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of address information to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(2) If the person's new address is in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution, an official of the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment shall, within 90 days of receipt of the person, forward the registrant's change of address information to the Department of Justice. The agency need not provide a physical address for the registrant but shall indicate that he or she is serving a period of incarceration or commitment in a facility under the agency's jurisdiction. This paragraph shall apply to persons received in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution on or after January 1, 1999. The Department of Justice shall forward the change of address information to the agency with which the person last registered.

(3) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her name, the person shall inform, in person, the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she is currently registered within five working days. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward a copy of this information to the Department of Justice within three working days of its receipt.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (5), (7), and (9), any person who is required to register under this section based on a felony conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section or who has a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

If probation is granted or if the imposition or execution of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition of the probation or suspension that the person serve at least 90 days in a county jail. The penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(3) Any person determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender or who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of trial for an offense for which registration is required under this section, but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial, or who has had a petition sustained in a juvenile adjudication for an offense for which registration is required under this section pursuant to subdivision (d), but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity, who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year. For any second or subsequent willful violation of any requirement of this section, the person is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony or suffers a juvenile adjudication as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(5) Any person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and who fails to verify his or her registration every 90 days as required pursuant to subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), any person who is required to register or reregister pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail at least 30 days, but not exceeding six months. A person who willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall not be charged with this violation more often than once for a failure to register in any period of 90 days. Any person who willfully commits a third or subsequent violation of the requirements of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision.

(7) Any person who fails to provide proof of residence as required by subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), regardless of the offense upon which the duty to register is based, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months.

(8) Any person who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a continuing offense as to each requirement he or she violated.

(9) In addition to any other penalty imposed under this subdivision, the failure to provide information required on registration and reregistration forms of the Department of Justice, or the provision of false information, is a crime punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not exceeding one year.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as provided in Sections 290.01, 290.4, and 290.45, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This subdivision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) (1) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1997, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 14 to 5 working days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 14 days.

(2) Every person who, as a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is required to verify his or her registration every 90 days, shall be notified wherever he or she next registers of his or her increased registration obligations. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notice shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by paragraph (5) of subdivision (g).

(m) The registration provisions of this section are applicable to every person described in this section, without regard to when his or her crime or crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to this section arose, and to every offense described in this section, regardless of when it was committed.

SEC. 1.5. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) (A) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, or while attending school or working in California, as described in subparagraph (G), shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is residing, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is residing in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is residing upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within five working days of coming into, or changing his or her residence within, any city, county, or city and county, or campus in which he or she temporarily resides.

(B) If the person who is registering has more than one residence address at which he or she regularly resides, he or she shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A) in each of the jurisdictions in which he or she regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there. If all of the addresses are within the same jurisdiction, the person shall provide the registering authority with all of the addresses where he or she regularly resides.

(i) A transient must register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, within five working days from release from incarceration, placement or commitment, or release on probation, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), except that if the person previously registered as a transient less than 30 days from the date of his or her release from incarceration, he or she does not need to reregister as a transient until his or her next required 30-day update of registration. If a transient is not physically present in any one jurisdiction for five consecutive working days, he or she must register in the jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present on the fifth working day following release, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). Beginning on or before the 30th day following initial registration upon release, a transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days thereafter. A transient shall register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is physically present within that 30-day period, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is physically present upon the campus or in any of its facilities. A transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days regardless of the length of time he or she has been physically present in the particular jurisdiction in which he or she reregisters. If a transient fails to reregister within any 30-day period, he or she may be prosecuted in any jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present.

(ii) A transient who moves to a residence shall have five working days within which to register at that address, in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). A person registered at a residence address in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), who becomes transient shall have five working days within which to reregister as a transient in accordance with clause (i).

(iii) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration, a transient shall register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in clause (i). A transient shall register in whichever jurisdiction he or she is physically present on that date. At the 30-day updates and the annual update, a transient shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), and the information specified in clause (iv).

(iv) A transient shall, upon registration and reregistration, provide current information as required on the Department of Justice registration forms, and shall also list the places where he or she sleeps, eats, works, frequents, and engages in leisure activities. If a transient changes or adds to the places listed on the form during the 30-day period, he or she does not need to report the new place or places until the next required reregistration.

(v) Failure to comply with the requirement of reregistering every 30 days following initial registration pursuant to clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be punished in accordance with paragraph (6) of subdivision (g). Failure to comply with any other requirement of this section shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (g).

(vi) A transient who moves out of state shall inform, in person, the chief of police in the city in which he or she is physically present, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, within five working days, of his or her move out of state. The transient shall inform that registering agency of his or her planned destination, residence or transient location out of state, and any plans he or she has to return to California, if known. The law enforcement agency shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of location information to the Department of Justice. The department shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence or location.

(vii) For purposes of this section, "transient" means a person who has no residence. "Residence" means one or more addresses at which a person regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there, such as a shelter or structure that can be located by a street address, including, but not limited to, houses, apartment buildings, motels, hotels, homeless shelters, and recreational and other vehicles.

(D) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration or change of address, the person shall be required to register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in subparagraph (A). At the annual update, the person shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(E) In addition, every person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, after his or her release from custody, verify his or her address no less than once every 90 days and place of employment, including the name and address of the employer, in a manner established by the Department of Justice.

(F) No entity shall require a person to pay a fee to register or update his or her registration pursuant to this section. The registering agency shall submit registrations, including annual updates or changes of address, directly into the Department of Justice Violent Crime Information Network (VCIN).

(G) Persons required to register in their state of residence who are out-of-state residents employed, or carrying on a vocation in California on a full-time or part-time basis, with or without compensation, for more than 14 days, or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). Persons described in paragraph (2) who are out-of-state residents enrolled in any educational institution in California, as defined in Section 22129 of the Education Code, on a full-time or part-time basis, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). The place where the out-of-state resident is located, for purposes of registration, shall be the place where the person is employed, carrying on a vocation, or attending school. The out-of-state resident subject to this subparagraph shall, in addition to the information required pursuant to subdivision (e), provide the registering authority with the name of his or her place of employment or the name of the school attended in California, and his or her address or location in his or her state of residence. The registration requirement for persons subject to this subparagraph shall become operative on November 25, 2000. The terms “employed or carries on a vocation” include employment whether or not financially compensated, volunteered, or performed for government or educational benefit.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, Section 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, or 266c, subdivision (b) of Section 266h, subdivision (b) of Section 266i, Section 266j, 267, 269, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, Section 311.1, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6, former Section 647a, subdivision (c) of Section 653f, subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, any offense involving lewd or lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any statutory predecessor that includes all elements of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any person who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of a trial for an offense for which registration is required by this section but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial.

(D) (i) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, of any offense that, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(ii) Any person ordered by any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, to register as a sex offender for any offense, if the court found at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification.

(iii) Except as provided in clause (iv), any person who would be required to register while residing in the state of conviction for a sex offense committed in that state.

(iv) Clause (iii) shall not apply to a person required to register in the state of conviction if the conviction was for the equivalent of one of the following offenses, and the person is not subject to clause (i):

(III) Incest, pursuant to Section 285.

(IV) Sodomy, pursuant to Section 286, or oral copulation, pursuant to Section 288a, provided that the offender notifies the Department of Justice that the sodomy or oral copulation conviction was for conduct between consenting adults, as described in subparagraph (F) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), and the department is able, upon the exercise of reasonable diligence, to verify that fact.

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(F) Any person required to register pursuant to any provision of this section, regardless of whether the person's conviction has been dismissed pursuant to Section 1203.4, unless the person obtains a certificate of rehabilitation and is entitled to relief from registration pursuant to Section 290.5.

(G) (i) Notwithstanding any other subdivision, a person who was convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286, or Section 288a, shall not be required to register pursuant to this section for that conviction if the conviction was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized by Chapter 71 of the Statutes of 1975 or Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976. The Department of Justice shall remove that person from the Sex Offender Registry, and the person is discharged from his or her duty to register pursuant to the following procedure:

(I) The person submits to the Department of Justice official documentary evidence, including court records or police reports, that demonstrate that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized; or

(II) The person submits to the department a declaration stating that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized. The declaration shall be confidential and not a public record, and shall include the person's name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and a summary of the circumstances leading to the conviction, including the date of the conviction and county of the occurrence.

(III) The department shall determine whether the person's conviction was for conduct between consensual adults that has been decriminalized. If the conviction was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized, and the person has no other offenses for which he or she is required to register pursuant to this section, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that he or she is relieved of the duty to register, and shall notify the local law enforcement agency with which the person is registered that he or she has been relieved of the duty to register. The local law enforcement agency shall remove the person's registration from its files within 30 days of receipt of notification. If the documentary or other evidence submitted is insufficient to establish the person's claim, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that his or her claim cannot be established, and that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. The department shall provide, upon the person's request, any information relied upon by the department in making its determination that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. Any person whose claim has been denied by the department pursuant to this clause may petition the court to appeal the department's denial of the person's claim.

(ii) On or before July 1, 1998, the department shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the status of persons who may come under the provisions of this subparagraph, including the number of persons who were convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286 or Section 288a and are required to register under this section, the average age of these persons, the number of these persons who have any subsequent convictions for a registerable sex offense, and the number of these persons who have sought successfully or unsuccessfully to be relieved of their duty to register under this section.

(b) (1) Any person who is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official shall at the same time forward a current photograph of the person to the Department of Justice.

(2) The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction that makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency that prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall retain one copy.

sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The probation officer shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The probation officer shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is granted conditional release without supervised probation, or discharged upon payment of a fine, shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section in open court by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. If the court finds that it is in the interest of the efficiency of the court, the court may assign the bailiff to require the person to read and sign forms under this section. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of any offense described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraph (3), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Any person described in this subdivision who committed an offense in violation of any of the following provisions shall be required to register pursuant to this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, 266c, or 267, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or Section 647.6.

(C) A violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with the intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289.

(4) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, any person who is subject to registration under this subdivision shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case that are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) On or after January 1, 1998, upon incarceration, placement, or commitment, or prior to release on probation, any person who is required to register under this section shall preregister. The preregistering official shall be the admitting officer at the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment, or the probation officer if the person is to be released on probation. The preregistration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A preregistration statement in writing, signed by the person, giving information that shall be required by the Department of Justice.

(C) Any person who is preregistered pursuant to this subdivision is required to be preregistered only once.

(2) A person described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, upon release from incarceration, placement, commitment, or release on probation

pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The registration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as shall be required by the Department of Justice and giving the name and address of the person's employer, and the address of the person's place of employment if that is different from the employer's main address.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by, regularly driven by, or registered in the name of the person.

(D) Notice to the person that, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (4), he or she may have a duty to register in any other state where he or she may relocate.

(E) Copies of adequate proof of residence, which shall be limited to a California driver's license, California identification card, recent rent or utility receipt, printed personalized checks or other recent banking documents showing that person's name and address, or any other information that the registering official believes is reliable. If the person has no residence and no reasonable expectation of obtaining a residence in the foreseeable future, the person shall so advise the registering official and shall sign a statement provided by the registering official stating that fact. Upon presentation of proof of residence to the registering official or a signed statement that the person has no residence, the person shall be allowed to register. If the person claims that he or she has a residence but does not have any proof of residence, he or she shall be allowed to register but shall furnish proof of residence within 30 days of the date he or she is allowed to register.

(3) Within three days thereafter, the preregistering official or the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) (1) (A) Any person who was last registered at a residence address pursuant to this section who changes his or her residence address, whether within the jurisdiction in which he or she is currently registered or to a new jurisdiction inside or outside the state, shall, in person, within five working days of the move, inform the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she last registered of the move, the new address or transient location, if known, and any plans he or she has to return to California.

(B) If the person does not know the new residence address or location at the time of the move, the registrant shall, in person, within five working days of the move, inform the last registering agency or agencies that he or she is moving. The person shall later notify the last registering agency or agencies, in writing, sent by certified or registered mail, of the new address or location within five working days of moving into the new residence address or location, whether temporary or permanent.

(C) The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three working days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of address information to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(2) If the person's new address is in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution, an official of the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment shall, within 90 days of receipt of the person, forward the registrant's change of address information to the Department of Justice. The agency need not provide a physical address for the registrant but shall indicate that he or she is serving a period of incarceration or commitment in a facility under the agency's jurisdiction. This paragraph shall apply to persons received in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution on or after January 1, 1999. The Department of Justice shall forward the change of address information to the agency with which the person last registered.

(3) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her name, the person shall inform, in person, the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she is currently registered within five working days. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward a copy of this information to the Department of Justice within three working days of its receipt.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (5), (7), and (9), any person who is required to register under this section based on a felony conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section or who has a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

If probation is granted or if the imposition or execution of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition of the probation or suspension that the person serve at least 90 days in a county jail. The penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(3) Any person determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender or who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of trial for an offense for which registration is required under this section, but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial, or who has had a petition sustained in a juvenile adjudication for an offense for which registration is required under this section pursuant to subdivision (d), but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity, who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year. For any second or subsequent willful violation of any requirement of this section, the person is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony or suffers a juvenile adjudication as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(5) Any person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and who fails to verify his or her registration every 90 days as required pursuant to subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), any person who is required to register or reregister pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail at least 30 days, but not exceeding six months. A person who willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall not be charged with this violation more often than once for a failure to register in any period of 90 days. Any person who willfully commits a third or subsequent violation of the requirements of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision.

(7) Any person who fails to provide proof of residence as required by subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), regardless of the offense upon which the duty to register is based, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months.

(8) Any person who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a continuing offense as to each requirement he or she violated.

(9) In addition to any other penalty imposed under this subdivision, the failure to provide information required on registration and reregistration forms of the Department of Justice, or the provision of false information, is a crime punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not exceeding one year.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as otherwise provided by law, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This subdivision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) (1) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1997, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 14 to 5 working days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 14 days.

(2) Every person who, as a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is required to verify his or her registration every 90 days, shall be notified wherever he or she next registers of his or her increased registration obligations. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notice shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by paragraph (5) of subdivision (g).

(m) The registration provisions of this section are applicable to every person described in this section, without regard to when his or her crime or crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to this section arose, and to every offense described in this section, regardless of when it was committed.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4. (a) In any case in which a defendant has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period of probation, or has been discharged prior to the termination of the period of probation, or in any other case in which a court, in its discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he or she is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he or she has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant and except as noted below, he or she shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he or she has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his or her probation papers, of this right and privilege and his or her right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make the application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing. However, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The order shall state, and the probationer shall be informed, that the order does not relieve him or her of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her custody or control any firearm or prevent his or her conviction under Section 12021.

Except as provided in Section 290.5, the dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section shall not relieve a person who is convicted of a sex offense for which registration is required under Section 290 from the duty to register under that section.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any misdemeanor that is within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, to any violation of subdivision (c) of Section 286, Section 288, subdivision (c) of Section 288a, Section 288.5, or subdivision (j) of Section 289, any felony conviction pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 261.5, or to any infraction.

(c) A person who petitions for a change of plea or setting aside of a verdict under this section may be required to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse any city for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) No relief shall be granted under this section unless the prosecuting attorney has been given 15 days' notice of the petition for relief. The probation officer shall notify the prosecuting attorney when a petition is filed, pursuant to this section.

It shall be presumed that the prosecuting attorney has received notice if proof of service is filed with the court.

(e) If, after receiving notice pursuant to subdivision (d), the prosecuting attorney fails to appear and object to a petition for dismissal, the prosecuting attorney may not move to set aside or otherwise appeal the grant of that petition.

(f) Notwithstanding the above provisions or any other provision of law, the Governor shall have the right to pardon a person convicted of a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 286, Section 288, subdivision (c) of Section 288a, Section 288.5, or subdivision (j) of Section 289, if there are extraordinary circumstances.

SEC. 4. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill and AB 1323. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1323, in which case Section 290 of the Penal Code, as amended by AB 1323, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 705

An act to amend Sections 68085, 68085.7, and 68085.8 of, and to add Section 68085.9 to, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 1203.4, 1203.45, and 1214.1 of the Penal Code, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

SECTION 1. Section 68085 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 42 of Chapter 74 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:
68085. (a) (1) There is hereby established the Trial Court Trust Fund, the proceeds of which shall be apportioned at least quarterly for the purpose of funding trial court operations, as defined in Section 77003. Apportionment payments may not exceed 30 percent of the total annual apportionment to the Trial Court Trust Fund for state trial court funding in any 90-day period.

(2) The apportionment payments shall be made by the Controller. The final payment from the Trial Court Trust Fund for each fiscal year shall be made on or before August 31 of the subsequent fiscal year.

(3) If apportionment payments are made on a quarterly basis, the payments shall be on July 15, October 15, January 15, and April 15. In addition to quarterly payments, a final payment from the Trial Court Trust Fund for each fiscal year may be made on or before August 31 of the subsequent fiscal year.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order to promote statewide efficiency, the Judicial Council may authorize the direct payment or reimbursement or both of actual costs from the Trial Court Trust Fund or the Trial Court Improvement Fund to fund administrative infrastructure within the Administrative Office of the Courts, such as legal services, financial services, information systems services, human resource services, and support services, for one or more participating courts upon appropriation of funding for these purposes in the annual Budget Act. The amount of appropriations from the Trial Court Improvement Fund under this subdivision may not exceed 20 percent of the amount deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 77205. Upon prior written approval of the Director of Finance, the Judicial Council may also authorize an increase in any reimbursements or direct payments in excess of the amount appropriated in the annual Budget Act. For any increases in reimbursements or direct payments within the fiscal year that exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the Director of Finance shall provide notification in writing of any approval granted under this section, not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of that approval, to the chairperson of the committee in each house of the Legislature that considers appropriations, the chairpersons of the committees and the appropriate subcommittees in each house of the Legislature that consider the annual Budget Act, and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than whatever lesser time the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his or her designee, may in each instance, determine. The direct payment or reimbursement of costs from the Trial Court Trust Fund may be supported by the reduction of a participating court's allocation from the Trial Court Trust Fund to the extent that the court's expenditures for the program are reduced and the court is supported by the program. The Judicial Council shall provide the affected trial courts with quarterly reports on expenditures from the Trial Court Trust Fund incurred as authorized by this subdivision. The Judicial Council shall establish procedures to provide for the administration of this paragraph in a way that promotes the effective, efficient, reliable, and accountable operation of the trial courts.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fees listed in subdivision (c) shall all be deposited upon collection in a special account in the county treasury, and transmitted monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(c) (1) Except as specified in subdivision (d), this section applies to all fees collected pursuant to Sections 631.3, 116.230, and 403.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Sections 26820.4, 26823, 26826, 26826.01, 26827, 26827.4, 26830, 26832.1, 26833.1, 26835.1, 26836.1, 26837.1, 26838, 26850.1, 26851.1, 26852.1, 26853.1, 26855.4, 26862, 68086, 72055, 72056, 72056.01, and 72060.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as specified in subdivision (d) of this section and subdivision (a) of Section 68085.7, this section applies to all fees and fines collected pursuant to Sections 116.390, 116.570, 116.760, 116.860, 177.5, 491.150, 704.750, 708.160, 724.100, 1134, 1161.2, and 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Sections 26824, 26828, 26829, 26834, and 72059 of this code, and subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 166 and Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code.

(3) If any of the fees provided for in this subdivision are partially waived by court order, and the fee is to be divided between the Trial Court Trust Fund and any other fund, the amount of the partial waiver shall be deducted from the amount to be distributed to each fund in the same proportion as the amount of each distribution bears to the total amount of the fee.

(d) This section does not apply to that portion of a filing fee collected pursuant to Section 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 72055, or 72056 which is allocated for dispute resolution pursuant to Section 470.3 of the Business and Professions Code, the county law library pursuant to Section 6320 of the Business and Professions Code, the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 26822.3, automated recordkeeping or conversion to micrographics pursuant to Sections 26863 and 68090.7, and courthouse financing pursuant to Section 76238. This section also does not apply to fees collected pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 27361.

(e) This section applies to all payments required to be made to the State Treasury by any county or city and county pursuant to Section 77201, 77201.1, or 77205.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no agency may take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the funds described in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(g) The Judicial Council shall reimburse the Controller for the actual administrative costs that will be incurred under this section. Costs reimbursed under this section shall be determined on an annual basis in consultation with the Judicial Council.

(h) Any amounts required to be transmitted by a county or city and county to the state pursuant to this section shall be remitted to the Controller no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the fees were collected. This remittance shall be accompanied by a remittance advice identifying the collection month and the appropriate account in the Trial Court Trust Fund to which it is to be deposited. Any remittance that is not made by the county or city and county in accordance with this section shall be considered delinquent, and subject to the penalties specified in this section.

(i) Upon receipt of any delinquent payment required pursuant to this section, the Controller shall calculate a penalty on any delinquent payment by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment at a daily rate equivalent to 1½ percent per month for the number of days the payment is delinquent. Notwithstanding Section 77009, any penalty on a delinquent payment that a court is required to reimburse to a county's general fund pursuant to this section and Section 24353 shall be paid from the Trial Court Operations Fund for that court.

(j) Penalty amounts calculated pursuant to subdivision (i) shall be paid by the county to the Trial Court Trust Fund no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the penalty was calculated.

(k) The Trial Court Trust Fund shall be invested in the Surplus Money Investment Fund and all interest earned shall be allocated to the Trial Court Trust Fund quarterly and shall be allocated among the courts in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (a). The specific allocations shall be specified by the Judicial Council.

(l) It is the intent of the Legislature that the revenues required to be deposited into the Trial Court Trust Fund be remitted as soon after collection by the courts as possible.

SEC. 2. Section 68085.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085.7. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Section 68085.5 does not apply to the following fees and fines collected on or after July 1, 2005: any fees and fines specified in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 68085.5, Section 177.5 or 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or Section 166 or 1214.1 of the Penal Code. Commencing July 1, 2005, these fees and fines shall be distributed as provided by Section 68085, except that the fees listed in subdivision (b) of Section 68085.5 and the fee in Section 1835 of the Probate Code shall be distributed to the court or the county, whichever provided the services for which the fee is charged or incurred the costs reimbursed by the fee.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, until January 1, 2006, upon direction of the Administrative Office of the Courts, the court and the county shall deposit the money each collects under the sections listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 68085 as soon as practicable after collection and on a regular basis into a bank account established for this purpose and specified by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The deposits shall be made as required by rules adopted by and financial policies and procedures authorized by the Judicial Council under subdivision (a) of Section 77206 of the Government Code. Within 15 days after the end of the month in which the money is collected, the court and the county each shall provide the Administrative Office of the Courts with a report of the money it collects, as specified by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The money shall be transmitted to the State Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(3) Commencing January 1, 2006, the fees and fines listed in Section 68085.5 shall be distributed as provided by Section 68085.1, or if no provision is made in Section 68085.1, as specified in the section that provides for the fee or fine. The fees in Sections 26840.1, 26847, 26854, 26855.1, 26855.2, and 27293 shall be distributed to the county.

(b) Commencing July 1, 2005, in each fiscal year, the amount of each county's annual remittance to the state Trial Court Trust Fund under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 77201.1 shall be reduced by the amount that the county received from civil assessments under Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code, after deducting the cost of collecting those civil assessments as defined in subdivision (f), in the 2003-04 fiscal year. The reduction provided by this subdivision for the 2005-06 fiscal year shall apply only to a county that transmits to the Trial Court Trust Fund any money received by the county between July 1, 2005, and the effective date of this section that would have been transmitted to the Trial Court Trust Fund pursuant to subdivision (a), and the amendments to Section 68085 of this code and Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code, if this section had been effective on July 1, 2005.

(c) The amount of the reduction under this section for each county shall be determined by agreement between the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) and the California State Association of Counties (CSAC). Each county and each superior court shall exchange relevant factual information to determine and jointly report to the AOC and the CSAC the total amount the county received from civil assessments for the 2003-04 fiscal year, both gross and net after costs, on or before August 31, 2005. If the court and the county do not agree on the amount, the court and the county shall each report the amount each believes is correct to the AOC and the CSAC on or before August 31, 2005.

(d) The AOC and the CSAC shall agree on the amount of the reduction for each county under this section on or before October 31, 2005. If a court or county disagrees with the amount agreed to by the AOC and the CSAC for that county, the court or county may appeal to the AOC and the CSAC for an adjustment. The AOC and the CSAC shall determine whether to make any requested adjustment.

(e) If the AOC and the CSAC do not agree on the amount of the reduction for a county, they may request a mutually agreed-upon third party to arbitrate and determine the amount. The amount shall be determined on or before December 31, 2005.

(f) Guidelines of the Controller shall apply to the determination of revenues from civil assessments under Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code. The costs of collecting civil assessments applied in determining net civil assessments are only those costs used to collect those civil assessments.

SEC. 3. Section 68085.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085.8. (a) On or before December 31, 2005, the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) and the California State Association of Counties (CSAC) shall complete an initial review of the impact upon individual counties and courts of the changes in revenue distributions and payment obligations under Sections 68085.6, and 68085.7 for the purpose of correcting inequities that may result from these changes. The AOC and CSAC shall work with counties and courts to develop and implement procedures to correct inequities resulting from either the implementation of these changes or any changes in the provision of services or benefits under any of the following circumstances:

(2) Substantial impacts on memoranda of understanding or other agreements that are existing or pending as of June 10, 2005, or practices in effect at that time, which agreements and practices contemplate the use of revenues transferred under the act that added this section.

(3) The demonstration by clear evidence that the information used as the basis for determining a reduction under Section 68085.7, or for determining a county's obligation under Section 68085.6, results in an inequity, and that the inequity imposes an undue hardship on the court or county.

(b) Inequities may be corrected by one or more of the following mechanisms:

(3) Adjustment of allocations to a trial court from the Trial Court Trust Fund under subdivision (a) of Section 68085.

(4) If necessary, with agreement of the court and county, adjustments of the rights and duties of the parties under memoranda of understanding or other agreements or practices.

The adjustments under paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, may be temporary or permanent. Adjustments under this section shall be made only with the mutual agreement of the AOC and CSAC.

SEC. 4. Section 68085.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68085.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law requiring a trial court or officer of a trial court to deposit money received by the court or officer into the county treasury or with the county treasurer, including but not limited to Sections 24353, 68085, 68085.5, and 68101 of this code and Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code, the court or officer, with the consent of the county and the Administrative Director of the Courts, may deposit all money required to be deposited into the county treasury or with the county treasurer into a bank account established by the Administrative Office of the Courts separate from the county treasury. Money collected pursuant to Section 68085.1 of this code shall be deposited as provided in that section. The Judicial Council, with the consent of the county, may require the court and officer to deposit money into a bank account established by the Administrative Office of the Courts separate from the county treasury.

SEC. 5. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4. (a) In any case in which a defendant has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period of probation, or has been discharged prior to the termination of the period of probation, or in any other case in which a court, in its discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he or she is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he or she has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant and except as noted below, he or she shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he or she has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his or her probation papers, of this right and privilege and his or her right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make the application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing. However, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The order shall state, and the probationer shall be informed, that the order does not relieve him or her of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her custody or control any firearm or prevent his or her conviction under Section 12021.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any misdemeanor that is within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, to any violation of subdivision (c) of Section 286, Section 288, subdivision (c) of Section 288a, Section 288.5, or subdivision (j) of Section 289, any felony conviction pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 261.5, or to any infraction.

(c) A person who petitions for a change of plea or setting aside of a verdict under this section may be required to reimburse the court for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the court not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse any city for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) No relief shall be granted under this section unless the prosecuting attorney has been given 15 days' notice of the petition for relief. The probation officer shall notify the prosecuting attorney when a petition is filed, pursuant to this section.

It shall be presumed that the prosecuting attorney has received notice if proof of service is filed with the court.

(e) If, after receiving notice pursuant to subdivision (d), the prosecuting attorney fails to appear and object to a petition for dismissal, the prosecuting attorney may not move to set aside or otherwise appeal the grant of that petition.

(f) Notwithstanding the above provisions or any other provision of law, the Governor shall have the right to pardon a person convicted of a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 286, Section 288, subdivision (c) of Section 288a, Section 288.5, or subdivision (j) of Section 289, if there are extraordinary circumstances.

SEC. 6. Section 1203.45 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.45. (a) In any case in which a person was under the age of 18 years at the time of commission of a misdemeanor and is eligible for, or has previously received, the relief provided by Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a, that person, in a proceeding under Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a, or a separate proceeding, may petition the court for an order sealing the record of conviction and other official records in the case, including records of arrests resulting in the criminal proceeding and records relating to other offenses charged in the accusatory pleading, whether defendant was acquitted or charges were dismissed. If the court finds that the person was under the age of 18 at the time of the commission of the misdemeanor, and is eligible for relief under Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a or has previously received that relief, it may issue its order granting the relief prayed for. Thereafter the conviction, arrest, or other proceeding shall be deemed not to have occurred, and the petitioner may answer accordingly any question relating to their occurrence.

(b) This section applies to convictions which occurred before, as well as those which occur after, the effective date of this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to offenses for which registration is required under Section 290, to violations of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or to misdemeanor violations of the Vehicle Code relating to operation of a vehicle or of any local ordinance relating to operation, standing, stopping, or parking of a motor vehicle.

(d) This section does not apply to a person convicted of more than one offense, whether the second or additional convictions occurred in the same action in which the conviction as to which relief is sought occurred or in another action, except in the following cases:

- (1) One of the offenses includes the other or others.
- (2) The other conviction or convictions were for the following:
  - (A) Misdemeanor violations of Chapters 1 (commencing with Section 21000) to 9 (commencing with Section 22500), inclusive, Chapter 12

(commencing with Section 23100), or Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 23250) of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code, other than Section 23103, 23104, 23152, 23153, or 23220.

(B) Violation of any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping, standing, or parking of a motor vehicle.

(3) The other conviction or convictions consisted of any combination of paragraphs (1) and (2).

(e) This section shall apply in any case in which a person was under the age of 21 at the time of the commission of an offense as to which this section is made applicable if that offense was committed prior to March 7, 1973.

(f) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(g) A person who petitions for an order sealing a record under this section may be required to reimburse the court for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the court not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse any city for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 7. Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1214.1. (a) In addition to any other penalty in infraction, misdemeanor, or felony cases, the court may impose a civil assessment of up to three hundred dollars ($300) against any defendant who fails, after notice and without good cause, to appear in court for any proceeding authorized by law or who fails to pay all or any portion of a fine ordered by the court. This assessment shall be deposited in the Trial Court Trust Fund, as provided in Section 68085 of the Government Code.

(b) The assessment shall not become effective until at least 10 calendar days after the court mails a warning notice to the defendant by first-class mail to the address shown on the notice to appear or to the defendant's last known address. If the defendant appears within the time specified in the notice and shows good cause for the failure to appear or for the failure to pay a fine, the court shall vacate the assessment.

(c) If a civil assessment is imposed under this section, no bench warrant or warrant of arrest shall be issued with respect to the failure to appear at the proceeding for which the assessment is imposed or the failure to pay the fine. An outstanding, unserved bench warrant or warrant of arrest for a failure to appear or for a failure to pay a fine shall be recalled prior to the subsequent imposition of a civil assessment.

(d) The assessment imposed under subdivision (a) shall be subject to the due process requirements governing defense and collection of civil money judgments generally.

(e) Each court and county shall maintain the collection program that was in effect on July 1, 2005, unless otherwise agreed to by the court and county. If a court and a county do not agree on a plan for the collection of civil assessments imposed pursuant to this section, or any other collections under Section 1463.010, after the implementation of Sections 68085.6 and 68085.7 of the Government Code, the court or the county may request arbitration by a third party mutually agreed upon by the Administrative Director of the Courts and the California State Association of Counties.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are: In order to implement the Budget Act of 2005, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 706

An act to amend Section 6321 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 43.55 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 116.230, 116.330, 116.340, 116.780, 128.7, 396b, 415.21, 425.115, 998, 1141.21, and 1540 of, and to repeal and add Section 116.725 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 811.9, 905, 910.4, 11135, 68085, 68085.1, 68085.4, 68086, 68086.1, 68090.8, 68511.3, 70601, 70626, 70640, 77207.5, and 77209 of, and to add Sections 905.7 and 68085.9 to, the Government Code, to amend Section 123.6 of the Labor Code, to amend

Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 16020 and 16058.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

SECTION 1. Section 6321 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 7 of Chapter 75 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:

6321. (a) On and after January 1, 2006, as described in Section 68085.1 of the Government Code, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall make monthly distributions from superior court filing fees to the law library fund in each county in the amounts described in this section and Section 6322.1. From each first paper filing fee as provided under Section 70611, 70612, 70613, 70614, or 70670 of the Government Code, each first paper or petition filing fee in a probate matter as provided under Section 70650, 70651, 70652, 70653, 70654, 70655, 70656, or 70658 of the Government Code, Section 103470 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 7660 of the Probate Code, each filing fee for a small claim or limited civil case appeal as provided under Section 116.760 of the Code of Civil Procedure or Section 70621 of the Government Code, and each vehicle forfeiture petition fee as provided under subdivision (e) of Section 14607.6 of the Vehicle Code, that is collected in each of the following counties, the amount indicated in this subdivision shall be paid to the law library fund in that county:

(b) If a board of supervisors in any county acted before January 1, 2006, to increase the law library fee in that county effective January 1, 2006, the amount distributed to the law library fund in that county under subdivision (a) shall be increased by the amount that the board of supervisors acted to increase the fee, up to three dollars ($3). Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 6322.1, as it read on January 1, 2005, the maximum increase permitted under this subdivision in Los Angeles County is three dollars ($3), rather than two dollars ($2).

SEC. 2. Section 43.55 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

43.55. (a) There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action shall arise against, any peace officer who makes an arrest pursuant to a warrant of arrest regular upon its face if the peace officer in making the arrest acts without malice and in the reasonable belief that the person arrested is the one referred to in the warrant.

(b) As used in this section, a “warrant of arrest regular upon its face” includes both of the following:

(2) A judicial order that is entered into an automated warrant system by law enforcement or court personnel authorized to make those entries at or near the time the judicial order is made.

SEC. 3. Section 116.230 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as added by Section 19 of Chapter 75 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:

116.230. (a) In a small claims case, the clerk of the court shall charge and collect only those fees authorized under this chapter.

(b) If the party filing a claim has filed 12 or fewer small claims in the state within the previous 12 months, the filing fee is the following:

(1) Thirty dollars ($30) if the amount of the demand is one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) or less.

(2) Fifty dollars ($50) if the amount of the demand is more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) but less than or equal to five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(3) Seventy-five dollars ($75) if the amount of the demand is more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) If the party has filed more than 12 other small claims in the state within the previous 12 months, the filing fee is one hundred dollars ($100).

(d) Each party filing a claim shall file a declaration with the claim stating whether that party has filed more than 12 other small claims in the state within the last 12 months.

(e) The clerk of the court shall deposit fees collected under this section into a bank account established for this purpose by the Administrative Office of the Courts and maintained under rules adopted by or trial court financial policies and procedures authorized by the Judicial Council under subdivision (a) of Section 77206 of the Government Code. The deposits shall be made as required under Section 68085.1 of the Government Code and trial court financial policies and procedures authorized by the Judicial Council.

(f) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall distribute six dollars ($6) of each thirty-dollar ($30) fee, eight dollars ($8) of each fifty-dollar ($50) fee, ten dollars ($10) of each seventy-five-dollar ($75) fee, and fourteen dollars ($14) of each one hundred-dollar ($100) fee collected under subdivision (b) or (c) to a special account in the county in which the court is located to be used for the small claims advisory services described in Section 116.940. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall also distribute two dollars ($2) of each seventy-five-dollar ($75) fee collected under subdivision (b) to the law library fund in the county in which the court is located. Records of these moneys shall be available for inspection by the public on request.

(g) The remainder of the fees collected under subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be transmitted monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(h) This section and Section 116.940 shall not be applied in any manner that results in a reduction of the level of services, or the amount of funds allocated for providing the services described in Section 116.940, that are in existence in each county during the 2004–05 fiscal year. Nothing in this section shall preclude the county from procuring other funding to comply with the requirements of Section 116.940.

SEC. 4. Section 116.330 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.330. (a) When a claim is filed, the clerk shall schedule the case for hearing and shall issue an order directing the parties to appear at the time set for the hearing with witnesses and documents to prove their claim or defense. The case shall be scheduled for hearing no earlier than 20 days but not more than 70 days from the date of the order.

(b) In lieu of the method of setting the case for hearing described in subdivision (a), at the time a claim is filed the clerk may do all of the following:

(1) Cause a copy of the claim to be mailed to the defendant by any form of mail providing for a return receipt.

(2) On receipt of proof that the claim was served as provided in paragraph (1), issue an order scheduling the case for hearing in accordance with subdivision (a) and directing the parties to appear at the time set for the hearing with witnesses and documents to prove their claim or defense.

(3) Cause a copy of the order setting the case for hearing and directing the parties to appear, to be served upon the parties by any form of mail providing for a return receipt.

SEC. 5. Section 116.340 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.340. (a) Service of the claim and order on the defendant may be made by any one of the following methods:

(1) The clerk may cause a copy of the claim and order to be mailed to the defendant by any form of mail providing for a return receipt.

(2) The plaintiff may cause a copy of the claim and order to be delivered to the defendant in person.

(3) The plaintiff may cause service of a copy of the claim and order to be made by substituted service as provided in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 415.20 without the need to attempt personal service on the defendant. For these purposes, substituted service as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 415.20 may be made at the office of the sheriff or marshal who shall deliver a copy of the claim and order to any person authorized by the defendant to receive service, as provided in Section 416.90, who is at least 18 years of age, and thereafter mailing a copy of the claim and order to the defendant's usual mailing address.

(4) The clerk may cause a copy of the claim to be mailed, the order to be issued, and a copy of the order to be mailed as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 116.330.

(b) Service of the claim and order on the defendant shall be completed at least 15 days before the hearing date if the defendant resides within the county in which the action is filed, or at least 20 days before the hearing date if the defendant resides outside the county in which the action is filed.

(c) Proof of service of the claim and order shall be filed with the small claims court at least five days before the hearing.

(d) Service by the methods described in subdivision (a) shall be deemed complete on the date that the defendant signs the mail return receipt, on the date of the personal service, as provided in Section 415.20, or as established by other competent evidence, whichever applies to the method of service used.

(f) The owner of record of real property in California who resides in another state and who has no lawfully designated agent in California for service of process may be served by any of the methods described in this section if the claim relates to that property.

(g) A nonresident owner or operator of a motor vehicle involved in an accident within this state may be served pursuant to the provisions on constructive service in Sections 17450 to 17461, inclusive, of the Vehicle Code without regard to whether the defendant was a nonresident at the time of the accident or when the claim was filed. Service shall be made by serving both the Director of the California Department of Motor Vehicles and the defendant, and may be made by any of the methods authorized by this chapter or by registered mail as authorized by Section 17454 or 17455 of the Vehicle Code.

(h) If an action is filed against a principal and his or her guaranty or surety pursuant to a guarantor or suretyship agreement, a reasonable attempt shall be made to complete service on the principal. If service is not completed on the principal, the action shall be transferred to the court of appropriate jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. Section 116.725 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 116.725 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

116.725. (a) A motion to correct a clerical error in a judgment or to set aside and vacate a judgment on the ground of an incorrect or erroneous legal basis for the decision may be made as follows:

- (1) By the court on its own motion at any time.
- (2) By a party within 30 days after the clerk mails notice of entry of judgment to the parties.

(b) Each party may file only one motion to correct a clerical error or to set aside and vacate the judgment on the ground of an incorrect or erroneous legal basis for the decision.

SEC. 8. Section 116.780 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.780. (a) The judgment of the superior court after a hearing on appeal is final and not appealable.

(b) Article 6 (commencing with Section 116.610) on judgments of the small claims court applies to judgments of the superior court after a hearing on appeal, except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d).

(c) For good cause and where necessary to achieve substantial justice between the parties, the superior court may award a party to an appeal reimbursement of (1) attorney's fees actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the appeal, not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars ($150), and (2) actual loss of earnings and expenses of transportation and lodging actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the appeal, not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

SEC. 9. Section 128.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

128.7. (a) Every pleading, petition, written notice of motion, or other similar paper shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, or, if the party is not represented by an attorney, shall be signed by the party. Each paper shall state the signer's address and telephone number, if any. Except when otherwise provided by law, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. An unsigned paper shall be stricken unless omission of the signature is corrected promptly after being called to the attention of the attorney or party.

(b) By presenting to the court, whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating, a pleading, petition, written notice of motion, or other similar paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) It is not being presented primarily for an improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

(2) The claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law.

(3) The allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery.

(4) The denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the court determines that subdivision (b) has been violated, the court may, subject to the conditions stated below, impose an appropriate sanction upon the attorneys, law firms, or parties that have violated subdivision (b) or are responsible for the violation. In determining what sanctions, if any, should be ordered, the court shall consider whether a party seeking sanctions has exercised due diligence.

(1) A motion for sanctions under this section shall be made separately from other motions or requests and shall describe the specific conduct alleged to violate subdivision (b). Notice of motion shall be served as provided in Section 1010, but shall not be filed with or presented to the court unless, within 21 days after service of the motion, or any other period as the court may prescribe, the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is not withdrawn or appropriately corrected. If warranted, the court may award to the party prevailing on the motion the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion. Absent exceptional circumstances, a law firm shall be held jointly responsible for violations committed by its partners, associates, and employees.

(2) On its own motion, the court may enter an order describing the specific conduct that appears to violate subdivision (b) and directing an attorney, law firm, or party to show cause why it has not violated subdivision (b), unless, within 21 days of service of the order to show cause, the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is withdrawn or appropriately corrected.

(d) A sanction imposed for violation of subdivision (b) shall be limited to what is sufficient to deter repetition of this conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated. Subject to the limitations in paragraphs (1) and (2), the sanction may consist of, or include, directives of a nonmonetary nature, an order to pay a penalty into court, or, if imposed on motion and warranted for effective deterrence, an order directing payment to the movant of some or all of the reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses incurred as a direct result of the violation.

(1) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded against a represented party for a violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(2) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded on the court's motion unless the court issues its order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or against the party that is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned.

(e) When imposing sanctions, the court shall describe the conduct determined to constitute a violation of this section and explain the basis for the sanction imposed.

(f) In addition to any award pursuant to this section for conduct described in subdivision (b), the court may assess punitive damages against the plaintiff upon a determination by the court that the plaintiff's action was an action maintained by a person convicted of a felony against the person's victim, or the victim's heirs, relatives, estate, or personal representative, for injuries arising from the acts for which the person was convicted of a felony, and that the plaintiff is guilty of fraud, oppression, or malice in maintaining the action.

(g) This section shall not apply to disclosures and discovery requests, responses, objections, and motions.

(h) A motion for sanctions brought by a party or a party's attorney primarily for an improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation, shall itself be subject to a motion for sanctions. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts shall vigorously use its sanctions authority to deter that improper conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated.

(i) This section shall apply to a complaint or petition filed on or after January 1, 1995, and any other pleading, written notice of motion, or other similar paper filed in that matter.

SEC. 10. Section 396b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

396b. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 396a, if an action or proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof, other than the court designated as the proper court for the trial thereof, under this title, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried in the court where commenced, unless the defendant, at the time he or she answers, demurs, or moves to strike, or, at his or her option, without answering, demurring, or moving to strike and within the time otherwise allowed to respond to the complaint, files with the clerk, a notice of motion for an order transferring the action or proceeding to the proper court, together with proof of service, upon the adverse party, of a copy of those papers. Upon the hearing of the motion the court shall, if it appears that the action or proceeding was not commenced in the proper court, order the action or proceeding transferred to the proper court.

(b) In its discretion, the court may order the payment to the prevailing party of reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in making or resisting the motion to transfer whether or not that party is otherwise entitled to recover his or her costs of action. In determining whether that order for expenses and fees shall be made, the court shall take into consideration (1) whether an offer to stipulate to change of venue was reasonably made and rejected, and (2) whether the motion or selection of venue was made in good faith given the facts and law the party making the motion or selecting the venue knew or should have known. As between the party and his or her attorney, those expenses and fees shall be the personal liability of the attorney not chargeable to the party. Sanctions shall not be imposed pursuant to this subdivision except on notice contained in a party's papers, or on the court's own noticed motion, and after opportunity to be heard.

(c) The court in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation or under the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12 of the Family Code) may, prior to the determination of the motion to transfer, consider and determine motions for allowance of temporary spousal support, support of children, and counsel fees and costs, and motions to determine custody of and visitation with children, and may make all necessary and proper orders in connection therewith.

(d) In any case, if an answer is filed, the court may consider opposition to the motion to transfer, if any, and may retain the action in the county where commenced if it appears that the convenience of the witnesses or the ends of justice will thereby be promoted.

(e) If the motion to transfer is denied, the court shall allow the defendant time to move to strike, demur, or otherwise plead if the defendant has not previously filed a response.

SEC. 11. Section 415.21 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

415.21. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person shall be granted access to a gated community for a reasonable period of time for the purpose of performing lawful service of process or service of a subpoena, upon identifying to the guard the person or persons to be served, and upon displaying a current driver’s license or other identification, and one of the following:

(1) A badge or other confirmation that the individual is acting in his or her capacity as a representative of a county sheriff or marshal.

(2) Evidence of current registration as a process server pursuant to Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 22350) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) This section shall only apply to a gated community that is staffed at the time service of process is attempted by a guard or other security personnel assigned to control access to the community.

SEC. 12. Section 425.115 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

425.115. (a) As used in this section:

(b) The plaintiff preserves the right to seek punitive damages pursuant to Section 3294 of the Civil Code on a default judgment by serving upon the defendant the following statement, or its substantial equivalent:

NOTICE TO _____:

(Insert name of defendant or cross-defendant)

_____ reserves the right to seek (Insert name of plaintiff or cross-complainant)

$ _____ in punitive damages

when _____ seeks a judgment in the (Insert name of plaintiff or cross-complainant)
 suit filed against you.

_____
 (Insert name of attorney or party appearing in propria persona)

(c) If the plaintiff seeks punitive damages pursuant to Section 3294 of the Civil Code, and if the defendant appears in the action, the plaintiff shall not be limited to the amount set forth in the statement served on the defendant pursuant to this section.

(d) A plaintiff who serves a statement on the defendant pursuant to this section shall be deemed to have complied with Sections 425.10 and 580 of this code and Section 3295 of the Civil Code.

(e) The plaintiff may serve a statement upon the defendant pursuant to this section, and may serve the statement as part of the statement required by Section 425.11.

(f) The plaintiff shall serve the statement upon the defendant pursuant to this section before a default may be taken, if the motion for default judgment includes a request for punitive damages.

(g) The statement referred to in subdivision (b) shall be served by one of the following methods:

(1) If the party has not appeared in the action, the statement shall be served in the same manner as a summons pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 415.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(2) If the party has appeared in the action, the statement shall be served upon his or her attorney, or upon the party if he or she has appeared without an attorney, either in the same manner as a summons pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 415.10) of Chapter 4 or in the manner provided by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14.

SEC. 13. Section 998 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

998. (a) The costs allowed under Sections 1031 and 1032 shall be withheld or augmented as provided in this section.

(b) Not less than 10 days prior to commencement of trial or arbitration (as provided in Section 1281 or 1295) of a dispute to be resolved by arbitration, any party may serve an offer in writing upon any other party to the action to allow judgment to be taken or an award to be entered in accordance with the terms and conditions stated at that time. The written offer shall include a statement of the offer, containing the terms and conditions of the judgment or award, and a provision that allows the accepting party to indicate acceptance of the offer by signing a statement that the offer is accepted. Any acceptance of the offer, whether made on the document containing the offer or on a separate document of acceptance, shall be in writing and shall be signed by counsel for the accepting party or, if not represented by counsel, by the accepting party.

(1) If the offer is accepted, the offer with proof of acceptance shall be filed and the clerk or the judge shall enter judgment accordingly. In the case of an arbitration, the offer with proof of acceptance shall be filed with the arbitrator or arbitrators who shall promptly render an award accordingly.

(2) If the offer is not accepted prior to trial or arbitration or within 30 days after it is made, whichever occurs first, it shall be deemed withdrawn, and cannot be given in evidence upon the trial or arbitration.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, a trial or arbitration shall be deemed to be actually commenced at the beginning of the opening statement of the plaintiff or counsel, and if there is no opening statement, then at the time of the administering of the oath or affirmation to the first witness, or the introduction of any evidence.

(c) (1) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award, the plaintiff shall not recover his or her postoffer costs and shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer. In addition, in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court or arbitrator, in its discretion, may require the plaintiff to pay a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in either, or both, preparation for trial or arbitration, or during trial or arbitration, of the case by the defendant.

(2) (A) In determining whether the plaintiff obtains a more favorable judgment, the court or arbitrator shall exclude the postoffer costs.

(B) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting subparagraph (A) to supersede the holding in Encinitas Plaza Real v. Knight, 209 Cal.App.3d 996, that attorney's fees awarded to the prevailing party were not costs for purposes of this section but were part of the judgment.

(d) If an offer made by a plaintiff is not accepted and the defendant fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court or arbitrator, in its discretion, may require the defendant to pay a reasonable sum to cover postoffer costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in either, or both, preparation for trial or arbitration, or during trial or arbitration, of the case by the plaintiff, in addition to plaintiff's costs.

(e) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment or award, the costs under this section, from the time of the offer, shall be deducted from any damages awarded in favor of the plaintiff. If the costs awarded under this section exceed the amount of the damages awarded to the plaintiff the net amount shall be awarded to the defendant and judgment or award shall be entered accordingly.

(f) Police officers shall be deemed to be expert witnesses for the purposes of this section. For purposes of this section, "plaintiff" includes a cross-complainant and "defendant" includes a cross-defendant. Any judgment or award entered pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be a compromise settlement.

(g) This chapter does not apply to either of the following:

- (1) An offer that is made by a plaintiff in an eminent domain action.
- (2) Any enforcement action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General, a district attorney, or a city attorney, acting as a public prosecutor.

(h) The costs for services of expert witnesses for trial under subdivisions (c) and (d) shall not exceed those specified in Section 68092.5 of the Government Code.

(i) This section shall not apply to labor arbitrations filed pursuant to memoranda of understanding under the Ralph C. Dills Act (Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

SEC. 14. Section 1141.21 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.21. (a) If the judgment upon the trial de novo is not more favorable in either the amount of damages awarded or the type of relief granted for the party electing the trial de novo than the arbitration award, the court shall order that party to pay the following nonrefundable costs and fees, unless the court finds in writing and upon motion that the imposition of such costs and fees would create such a substantial economic hardship as not to be in the interest of justice:

(i) To the court, the compensation actually paid to the arbitrator, less any amount paid pursuant to paragraph (iv).

(ii) To the other party or parties, all costs specified in Section 1033.5, and the party electing the trial de novo shall not recover his or her costs.

(iii) To the other party or parties, the reasonable costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred or reasonably necessary in the preparation or trial of the case.

(iv) To the other party or parties, the compensation paid by the other party or parties to the arbitrator, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1141.28.

Such costs and fees, other than the compensation of the arbitrator, shall include only those incurred from the time of election of the trial de novo.

(b) If the party electing the trial de novo has proceeded in the action in forma pauperis and has failed to obtain a more favorable judgment, the costs and fees under paragraphs (ii) and (iii) of subdivision (a) shall be imposed only as an offset against any damages awarded in favor of that party.

(c) If the party electing the trial de novo has proceeded in the action in forma pauperis and has failed to obtain a more favorable judgment, the costs under paragraph (i) of subdivision (a) shall be imposed only to the extent that there remains a sufficient amount in the judgment after the amount offset under subdivision (b) has been deducted from the judgment.

SEC. 15. Section 1540 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1540. (a) Any person, excluding another state, who claims an interest in property paid or delivered to the Controller under this chapter may file a claim to the property or to the net proceeds from its sale. The claim shall be on a form prescribed by the Controller and shall be verified by the claimant.

(b) The Controller shall consider each claim within 180 days after it is filed and may hold a hearing and receive evidence. The Controller shall give written notice to the claimant if he or she denies the claim in whole or in part. The notice may be given by mailing it to the address, if any, stated in the claim as the address to which notices are to be sent. If no address is stated in the claim, the notice may be mailed to the address, if any, of the claimant as stated in the claim. No notice of denial need be given if the claim fails to state either an address to which notices are to be sent or an address of the claimant.

(c) No interest shall be payable on any claim paid under this chapter.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "owner" means the person who had legal right to the property prior to its escheat, his or her heirs, his or her legal representative, or a public administrator acting pursuant to the authority granted in Sections 7660 and 7661 of the Probate Code.

(e) Following a public hearing, the Controller shall adopt guidelines and forms that shall provide specific instructions to assist owners in filing claims pursuant to this article.

SEC. 16. Section 811.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

811.9. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, judges, subordinate judicial officers, and court executive officers of the superior courts are state officers for purposes of Part 1 (commencing with Section 810) to Part 7 (commencing with Section 995), inclusive, and trial court employees are employees of the trial court for purposes of Part 1 (commencing with Section 810) to Part 7 (commencing with Section 995), inclusive. The Judicial Council shall provide for representation, defense, and indemnification of those individuals and the court pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 810) to Part 7 (commencing with Section 995), inclusive. The Judicial Council shall provide for that representation or defense through the county counsel, the Attorney General, or other counsel. The county counsel and the Attorney General may, but are not required to, provide representation or defense for the Judicial Council. The fact that a justice, judge, subordinate judicial officer, court executive officer, court employee, the court, the Judicial Council, or the Administrative Office of the Courts is or was represented or defended by the county counsel, the Attorney General, or other counsel shall not be the sole basis for a judicial determination of disqualification of a justice, judge, subordinate judicial officer, the county counsel, the Attorney General, or other counsel in unrelated actions.

(b) To promote the cost-effective, prompt, and fair resolution of actions, proceedings, and claims affecting the trial courts, the Judicial Council shall adopt rules of court requiring the Administrative Office of the Courts to manage actions, proceedings, and claims that affect the trial courts and involve superior courts, superior court judges, subordinate judicial officers, court executive officers, or trial court employees in consultation with the affected courts and individuals. The Administrative Office of the Courts' management of these actions, proceedings, and claims shall include, but not be limited to, case management and administrative responsibilities such as selection of counsel and making strategic and settlement decisions.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the employment status of subordinate judicial officers, court executive officers, and trial court employees related to any matters not covered by subdivision (a).

SEC. 17. Section 905 of the Government Code is amended to read:

905. There shall be presented in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 900) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 910) of this part all claims for money or damages against local public entities except:

(a) Claims under the Revenue and Taxation Code or other statute prescribing procedures for the refund, rebate, exemption, cancellation, amendment, modification or adjustment of any tax, assessment, fee or charge or any portion thereof, or of any penalties, costs or charges related thereto.

(b) Claims in connection with which the filing of a notice of lien, statement of claim, or stop notice is required under any provision of law relating to mechanics', laborers' or materialmen's liens.

(c) Claims by public employees for fees, salaries, wages, mileage or other expenses and allowances.

(d) Claims for which the workers' compensation authorized by Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) of the Labor Code is the exclusive remedy.

(e) Applications or claims for any form of public assistance under the Welfare and Institutions Code or other provisions of law relating to public assistance programs, and claims for goods, services, provisions or other assistance rendered for or on behalf of any recipient of any form of public assistance.

(f) Applications or claims for money or benefits under any public retirement or pension system.

(g) Claims for principal or interest upon any bonds, notes, warrants, or other evidences of indebtedness.

(h) Claims that relate to a special assessment constituting a specific lien against the property assessed and that are payable from the proceeds of the assessment, by offset of a claim for damages against it or by delivery of any warrant or bonds representing it.

(i) Claims by the state or by a state department or agency or by another local public entity or by a judicial branch entity.

(j) Claims arising under any provision of the Unemployment Insurance Code, including but not limited to claims for money or benefits, or for refunds or credits of employer or worker contributions, penalties, or interest, or for refunds to workers of deductions from wages in excess of the amount prescribed.

(k) Claims for the recovery of penalties or forfeitures made pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Chapter 1 of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(l) Claims governed by the Pedestrian Mall Law of 1960, Part 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 13 of the Streets and Highways Code.

SEC. 18. Section 905.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

905.7. All claims against a judicial branch entity for money or damages based upon an express contract or for an injury for which the judicial branch entity is liable shall be presented in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 900) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 910) of this part.

SEC. 19. Section 910.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

910.4. The board shall provide forms specifying the information to be contained in claims against the state or a judicial branch entity. The person presenting a claim shall use the form in order that his or her claim is deemed in conformity with Sections 910 and 910.2. A claim may be returned to the person if it was not presented using the form. Any claim returned to a person may be resubmitted using the appropriate form.

SEC. 20. Section 11135 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11135. (a) No person in the State of California shall, on the basis of race, national origin, ethnic group identification, religion, age, sex, color, or disability, be unlawfully denied full and equal access to the benefits of, or be unlawfully subjected to discrimination under, any program or activity that is conducted, operated, or administered by the state or by any state agency, is funded directly by the state, or receives any financial assistance from the state. Notwithstanding Section 11000, this section applies to the California State University.

(b) With respect to discrimination on the basis of disability, programs and activities subject to subdivision (a) shall meet the protections and prohibitions contained in Section 202 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12132), and the federal rules and regulations adopted in implementation thereof, except that if the laws of this state prescribe stronger protections and prohibitions, the programs and activities subject to subdivision (a) shall be subject to the stronger protections and prohibitions.

(c) (1) As used in this section, “disability” means any mental or physical disability as defined in Section 12926.

(2) The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments made to this act are declarative of existing law. The Legislature further finds and declares that in enacting Senate Bill 105 of the 2001–02 Regular Session (Chapter 1102 of the Statutes of 2002), it was the intention of the Legislature to apply subdivision (d) to the California State University in the same manner that subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of this section already applied to the California State University, notwithstanding Section 11000. In clarifying that the California State University is subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), it is not the intention of the Legislature to increase the cost of developing or procuring electronic and information technology. The California State University shall, however, in determining the cost of developing or procuring electronic or information technology, consider whether technology that meets the standards applicable pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) will reduce the long-term cost incurred by the California State University in providing access or accommodations to future users of this technology who are persons with disabilities, as required by existing law, including this section, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42

U.S.C. Sec. 12101 and following), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 794).

(d) (1) The Legislature finds and declares that the ability to utilize electronic or information technology is often an essential function for successful employment in the current work world.

(2) In order to improve accessibility of existing technology, and therefore increase the successful employment of individuals with disabilities, particularly blind and visually impaired and deaf and hard-of-hearing persons, state governmental entities, in developing, procuring, maintaining, or using electronic or information technology, either indirectly or through the use of state funds by other entities, shall comply with the accessibility requirements of Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. Sec. 794d), and regulations implementing that act as set forth in Part 1194 of Title 36 of the Federal Code of Regulations.

(3) Any entity that contracts with a state or local entity subject to this section for the provision of electronic or information technology or for the provision of related services shall agree to respond to, and resolve any complaint regarding accessibility of its products or services that is brought to the attention of the entity.

SEC. 21. Section 68085 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 101 of Chapter 75 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:

68085. (a) (1) There is hereby established the Trial Court Trust Fund, the proceeds of which shall be apportioned at least quarterly for the purpose of funding trial court operations, as defined in Section 77003. Apportionment payments may not exceed 30 percent of the total annual apportionment to the Trial Court Trust Fund for state trial court funding in any 90-day period.

(2) The apportionment payments shall be made by the Controller. The final payment from the Trial Court Trust Fund for each fiscal year shall be made on or before August 31 of the subsequent fiscal year.

(3) If apportionment payments are made on a quarterly basis, the payments shall be on July 15, October 15, January 15, and April 15. In addition to quarterly payments, a final payment from the Trial Court Trust Fund for each fiscal year may be made on or before August 31 of the subsequent fiscal year.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order to promote statewide efficiency, the Judicial Council may authorize the direct payment or reimbursement or both of actual costs from the Trial Court Trust Fund or the Trial Court Improvement Fund to fund administrative infrastructure within the Administrative Office of the Courts, such as legal services, financial services, information systems services, human resource services, and support services, for one or more participating courts upon appropriation of funding for these purposes in the annual Budget Act. The amount of appropriations from the Trial Court Improvement Fund under this subdivision may not exceed 20 percent of the amount deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 77205. Upon prior written approval of the Director of Finance, the Judicial Council may also authorize an increase in any reimbursements or direct payments in excess of the amount appropriated in the annual Budget Act. For any increases in reimbursements or direct payments within the fiscal year that exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the Director of Finance shall provide notification in writing of any approval granted under this section, not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of that approval, to the chairperson of the committee in each house of the Legislature that considers appropriations, the chairpersons of the committees and the appropriate subcommittees in each house of the Legislature that consider the annual Budget Act, and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than whatever lesser time the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his or her designee, may in each instance, determine. The direct payment or reimbursement of costs from the Trial Court Trust Fund may be supported by the reduction of a participating court's allocation from the Trial Court Trust Fund to the extent that the court's expenditures for the program are reduced and the court is supported by the program. The Judicial Council shall provide the affected trial courts with quarterly reports on expenditures from the Trial Court Trust Fund incurred as authorized by this subdivision. The Judicial Council shall establish procedures to provide for the administration of this paragraph in a way that promotes the effective, efficient, reliable, and accountable operation of the trial courts.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fees listed in subdivision (c) shall all be deposited upon collection in a special account in the county treasury, and transmitted monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(c) (1) Except as specified in subdivision (d), this section applies to all fees collected on or before December 31, 2005, pursuant to Sections 631.3, 116.230, and 403.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Sections 26820.4, 26823, 26826, 26826.01, 26827, 26827.4, 26830, 26832.1, 26833.1, 26835.1, 26836.1, 26837.1, 26838, 26850.1, 26851.1, 26852.1, 26853.1, 26855.4, 26862, 68086, 72055, 72056, 72056.01, and 72060.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as specified in subdivision (d) of this section and subdivision (a) of Section 68085.7, this section applies to all fees and fines collected on or before December 31, 2005, pursuant to Sections 116.390, 116.570, 116.760, 116.860,

177.5, 491.150, 704.750, 708.160, 724.100, 1134, 1161.2, and 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Sections 26824, 26828, 26829, 26834, and 72059 of the Government Code, and subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 166 and Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code.

(3) If any of the fees provided for in this subdivision are partially waived by court order, and the fee is to be divided between the Trial Court Trust Fund and any other fund, the amount of the partial waiver shall be deducted from the amount to be distributed to each fund in the same proportion as the amount of each distribution bears to the total amount of the fee.

(d) This section does not apply to that portion of a filing fee collected pursuant to Section 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 72055, or 72056 that is allocated for dispute resolution pursuant to Section 470.3 of the Business and Professions Code, the county law library pursuant to Section 6320 of the Business and Professions Code, the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 26822.3, automated recordkeeping or conversion to micrographics pursuant to Sections 26863 and 68090.7, and courthouse financing pursuant to Section 76238. This section also does not apply to fees collected pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 27361.

(e) This section applies to all payments required to be made to the State Treasury by any county or city and county pursuant to Section 77201, 77201.1, or 77205.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no agency may take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the funds described in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(g) The Judicial Council shall reimburse the Controller for the actual administrative costs that will be incurred under this section. Costs reimbursed under this section shall be determined on an annual basis in consultation with the Judicial Council.

(h) Any amounts required to be transmitted by a county or city and county to the state pursuant to this section shall be remitted to the Controller no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the fees were collected. This remittance shall be accompanied by a remittance advice identifying the collection month and the appropriate account in the Trial Court Trust Fund to which it is to be deposited. Any remittance that is not made by the county or city and county in accordance with this section shall be considered delinquent, and subject to the penalties specified in this section.

(i) Upon receipt of any delinquent payment required pursuant to this section, the Controller shall calculate a penalty on any delinquent payment by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment at a daily rate equivalent to 1½ percent per month for the number of days the payment is delinquent. Notwithstanding Section 77009, any penalty on a delinquent payment that a court is required to reimburse to a county's general fund pursuant to this section and Section 24353 shall be paid from the Trial Court Operations Fund for that court.

(j) Penalty amounts calculated pursuant to subdivision (i) shall be paid by the county to the Trial Court Trust Fund no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the penalty was calculated.

(k) The Trial Court Trust Fund shall be invested in the Surplus Money Investment Fund and all interest earned shall be allocated to the Trial Court Trust Fund quarterly and shall be allocated among the courts in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (a). The specific allocations shall be specified by the Judicial Council.

(l) It is the intent of the Legislature that the revenues required to be deposited into the Trial Court Trust Fund be remitted as soon after collection by the courts as possible.

(m) Except for subdivisions (a) and (k), this section does not apply to fees and fines that are listed in subdivision (a) of Section 68085.1 that are collected on or after January 1, 2006.

SEC. 22. Section 68085.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085.1. (a) This section applies to all fees and fines that are collected on or after January 1, 2006, under all of the following:

(1) Sections 177.5, 209, 403.060, 491.150, 631.3, 683.150, 704.750, 708.160, 724.100, 1134, 1161.2, and 1218 of, subdivision (g) of Section 411.20 and subdivisions (c) and (g) of Section 411.21 of, and Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 116.110) of Title 1 of Part 1 of, the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Sections 68086 and 68086.1, subdivision (d) of Section 68511.3, Sections 68926.1 and 69953.5, and Chapter 5.8 (commencing with Section 70600).

(8) Section 71386 of this code and Section 1513.1 of the Probate Code, if the reimbursement is for expenses incurred by the court.

(b) On and after January 1, 2006, each superior court shall deposit all fees and fines listed in subdivision (a), as soon as practicable after collection and on a regular basis, into a bank account established for this purpose by the Administrative Office of the Courts. Upon direction of the Administrative Office of the Courts, the county shall deposit civil assessments under Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code and any other money it collects under the sections listed in subdivision (a) as soon as practicable after collection and on a regular basis into the bank account established for this purpose and specified by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The deposits shall be made as required by rules adopted by, and financial policies and procedures authorized by, the Judicial Council under subdivision (a) of Section 77206. Within 15 days after the end of the month in which the fees and fines are collected, each court, and each county that collects any fines or fees under subdivision (a), shall provide the Administrative Office of the Courts with a report of the fees by categories as specified by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The fees and fines listed in subdivision (a) shall be distributed as provided in this section.

(c) (1) Within 45 calendar days after the end of the month in which the fees and fines listed in subdivision (a) are collected, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall make the following distributions:

(A) To the small claims advisory services, as described in subdivision (f) of Section 116.230 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) To dispute resolution programs, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 68085.3 and subdivision (b) of Section 68085.4.

(C) To the county law library funds, as described in Section 116.760 of the Code of Civil Procedure, subdivision (b) of Section 68085.3, subdivision (b) of Section 68085.4, and Section 70621 of this code, and Section 14607.6 of the Vehicle Code.

(D) To the courthouse construction funds in the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Francisco, as described in Sections 70622, 70624, and 70625.

(2) If any distribution under this subdivision is delinquent, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall add a penalty to the distribution as specified in subdivision (i).

(d) Within 45 calendar days after the end of the month in which the fees and fines listed in subdivision (a) are collected, the amounts remaining after the distributions in subdivision (c) shall be transmitted to the State Treasury for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund and other funds as required by law. This remittance shall be accompanied by a remittance advice identifying the collection month and the appropriate account in the Trial Court Trust Fund or other fund to which it is to be deposited. Upon the receipt of any delinquent payment required under this subdivision, the Controller shall calculate a penalty as provided under subdivision (i).

(e) From the money transmitted to the State Treasury under subdivision (d), the Controller shall make deposits as follows:

(1) Into the State Court Facilities Construction Fund, the Judges' Retirement Fund, and the Equal Access Fund, as described in subdivision (c) of Section 68085.3 and subdivision (c) of Section 68085.4.

(2) Into the Health Statistics Special Fund, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 70670 of this code and Section 103730 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) Into the Family Law Trust Fund, as described in Section 70674.

(f) The amounts collected by each superior court under Section 116.232, subdivision (g) of Section 411.20, and subdivision (g) of Section 411.21 of the Code of Civil Procedure, subdivision (d) of Section 68511.3 and Sections 68926.1, 69953.5, 70627, 70631, 70640, 70661, 70678, and 71386 of this code, and Sections 1513.1, 1835, 1851.5, and 2343 of the Probate Code, shall be added to the monthly apportionment for that court under subdivision (a) of Section 68085.

(g) If any of the fees provided in subdivision (a) are partially waived by court order or otherwise reduced, and the fee is to be divided between the Trial Court Trust Fund and any other fund or account, the amount of the reduction shall be deducted from the amount to be distributed to each fund in the same proportion as the amount of each distribution bears to the total amount of the fee. If the fee is paid by installment payments, the amount distributed to each fund or account from each installment shall bear the same proportion to the installment payment as the full distribution to that fund or account does to the full fee.

(h) Except as provided in Sections 470.5 and 6322.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and Sections 70622, 70624, and 70625 of this code, no agency may take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the funds described in subdivision (c), (d), or (e).

(i) The amount of the penalty on any delinquent payment under subdivision (c) or (d) shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment at a daily rate equivalent to 1½ percent per month for the number of days the payment is delinquent. The penalty shall be paid from the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(j) If a delinquent payment under subdivision (c) or (d) results from a delinquency by a superior court under subdivision (b), the court shall reimburse the Trial Court Trust Fund for the amount of the penalty. Notwithstanding Section 77009, any penalty on a delinquent payment that a court is required to reimburse pursuant to this section shall be paid from the court operations fund for that court. The penalty shall be paid by the court to the Trial Court Trust Fund no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the penalty was calculated. If the penalty is not paid within the specified time, the Administrative Office of the Courts may reduce the amount of a subsequent monthly allocation to the court by the amount of the penalty on the delinquent payment.

SEC. 23. Section 68085.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085.1. (a) This section applies to all fees and fines that are collected on or after January 1, 2006, under all of the following:

(1) Sections 177.5, 209, 403.060, 491.150, 631.3, 683.150, 704.750, 708.160, 724.100, 1134, 1161.2, and 1218 of, subdivision (g) of Section 411.20 and subdivisions (c) and (g) of Section 411.21 of, and Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 116.110) of Title 1 of Part 1 of, the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) Sections 68086 and 68086.1, subdivision (d) of Section 68511.3, Sections 68926.1 and 69953.5, and Chapter 5.8 (commencing with Section 70600).

(8) Section 71386 of this code and Section 1513.1 of the Probate Code, if the reimbursement is for expenses incurred by the court.

(b) On and after January 1, 2006, each superior court shall deposit all fees and fines listed in subdivision (a), as soon as practicable after collection and on a regular basis, into a bank account established for this purpose by the Administrative Office of the Courts. Upon direction of the Administrative Office of the Courts, the county shall deposit civil assessments under Section 1214.1 of the Penal Code and any other money it collects under the sections listed in subdivision (a) as soon as practicable after collection and on a regular basis into the bank account established for this purpose and specified by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The deposits shall be made as required by rules adopted by, and financial policies and procedures authorized by, the Judicial Council under subdivision (a) of Section 77206. Within 15 days after the end of the month in which the fees and fines are collected, each court, and each county that collects any fines or fees under subdivision (a), shall provide the Administrative Office of the Courts with a report of the fees by categories as specified by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The fees and fines listed in subdivision (a) shall be distributed as provided in this section.

(c) (1) Within 45 calendar days after the end of the month in which the fees and fines listed in subdivision (a) are collected, the

Administrative Office of the Courts shall make the following distributions:

(A) To the small claims advisory services, as described in subdivision (f) of Section 116.230 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) To dispute resolution programs, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 68085.3 and subdivision (b) of Section 68085.4.

(C) To the county law library funds, as described in Sections 116.230 and 116.760 of the Code of Civil Procedure, subdivision (b) of Section 68085.3, subdivision (b) of Section 68085.4, and Section 70621 of this code, and Section 14607.6 of the Vehicle Code.

(D) To the courthouse construction funds in the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Francisco, as described in Sections 70622, 70624, and 70625.

(2) If any distribution under this subdivision is delinquent, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall add a penalty to the distribution as specified in subdivision (i).

(d) Within 45 calendar days after the end of the month in which the fees and fines listed in subdivision (a) are collected, the amounts remaining after the distributions in subdivision (c) shall be transmitted to the State Treasury for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund and other funds as required by law. This remittance shall be accompanied by a remittance advice identifying the collection month and the appropriate account in the Trial Court Trust Fund or other fund to which it is to be deposited. Upon the receipt of any delinquent payment required under this subdivision, the Controller shall calculate a penalty as provided under subdivision (i).

(e) From the money transmitted to the State Treasury under subdivision (d), the Controller shall make deposits as follows:

(1) Into the State Court Facilities Construction Fund, the Judges' Retirement Fund, and the Equal Access Fund, as described in subdivision (c) of Section 68085.3 and subdivision (c) of Section 68085.4.

(2) Into the Health Statistics Special Fund, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 70670 of this code and Section 103730 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) Into the Family Law Trust Fund, as described in Section 70674.

(f) The amounts collected by each superior court under Section 116.232, subdivision (g) of Section 411.20, and subdivision (g) of Section 411.21 of the Code of Civil Procedure, subdivision (d) of Section 68511.3 and Sections 68926.1, 69953.5, 70627, 70631, 70640, 70661, 70678, and 71386 of this code, and Sections 1513.1, 1835, 1851.5, and 2343 of the Probate Code, shall be added to the monthly apportionment for that court under subdivision (a) of Section 68085.

(g) If any of the fees provided in subdivision (a) are partially waived by court order or otherwise reduced, and the fee is to be divided between the Trial Court Trust Fund and any other fund or account, the amount of the reduction shall be deducted from the amount to be distributed to each fund in the same proportion as the amount of each distribution bears to the total amount of the fee. If the fee is paid by installment payments, the amount distributed to each fund or account from each installment shall bear the same proportion to the installment payment as the full distribution to that fund or account does to the full fee.

(h) Except as provided in Sections 470.5 and 6322.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and Sections 70622, 70624, and 70625 of this code, no agency may take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the funds described in subdivision (c), (d), or (e).

(i) The amount of the penalty on any delinquent payment under subdivision (c) or (d) shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment at a daily rate equivalent to 1½ percent per month for the number of days the payment is delinquent. The penalty shall be paid from the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(j) If a delinquent payment under subdivision (c) or (d) results from a delinquency by a superior court under subdivision (b), the court shall reimburse the Trial Court Trust Fund for the amount of the penalty. Notwithstanding Section 77009, any penalty on a delinquent payment that a court is required to reimburse pursuant to this section shall be paid from the court operations fund for that court. The penalty shall be paid by the court to the Trial Court Trust Fund no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the penalty was calculated. If the penalty is not paid within the specified time, the Administrative Office of the Courts may reduce the amount of a subsequent monthly allocation to the court by the amount of the penalty on the delinquent payment.

68085.4. (a) Fees collected under Sections 70613, 70614, 70654, 70656, and 70658 of this code, Section 103470 of the Health and Safety Code, and Section 7660 of the Probate Code, shall be deposited in a bank account established by the Administrative Office of the Courts for deposit of fees collected by the courts.

(b) For each three hundred-dollar ($300) fee and each one hundred eighty-dollar ($180) fee listed in subdivision (a), the Administrative Office of the Courts shall distribute specified amounts in each county as follows:

(1) To the county law library fund, the amount described in Sections 6321 and 6322.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

(2) To the account to support dispute resolution programs, the amount described in Section 470.5 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) The remainder of the fees in subdivision (a) shall be transmitted monthly to the Treasurer for deposit. For each three hundred-dollar ($300) fee and each one hundred eighty-dollar ($180) fee listed in subdivision (a), the Controller shall make deposits as follows:

(1) To the State Court Facilities Construction Fund, as provided in Article 6 (commencing with Section 70371) of Chapter 5.7, twenty-five dollars ($25) if the fee is three hundred dollars ($300), and twenty dollars ($20) if the fee is one hundred eighty dollars ($180).

(2) To the Judges' Retirement Fund, as established in Section 75100, two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50).

(3) To the Trial Court Trust Fund for use as part of the Equal Access Fund program administered by the Judicial Council, four dollars and eighty cents ($4.80).

(4) To the Trial Court Trust Fund, as provided in Section 68085.1, the remainder of the fee.

(d) If any of the fees listed in subdivision (a) are reduced or partially waived, the amount of the reduction or partial waiver shall be deducted from the amount to be distributed to each fund or account in the same proportion as the amount of each distribution bears to the total amount of the fee.

(e) As used in this section, "law library fund" includes a law library account described in Section 6320 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 25. Section 68085.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:
68085.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law requiring a trial court or officer of a trial court to deposit money received by the court or officer into the county treasury or with the county treasurer, including, but not limited to, Sections 24353, 68085, 68085.5, and 68101 of this code and Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code, the court or officer, with the consent of the county and the Administrative Director of the Courts, may deposit all money required to be deposited into the county treasury or with the county treasurer into a bank account established by the Administrative Office of the Courts separate from the county treasury. Money collected pursuant to Section 68085.1 shall be deposited as provided in that section. The Judicial Council, with the consent of the county, may require the court and officer to deposit money into a bank account established by the Administrative Office of the Courts separate from the county treasury.

68086. (a) The following provisions apply in superior court:

(1) In addition to any other fee required in civil actions or cases, for each proceeding lasting more than one hour, a fee equal to the actual cost of providing that service shall be charged per one-half day of services to the parties, on a pro rata basis, for the services of an official court reporter on the first and each succeeding judicial day those services are provided pursuant to Section 269 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(2) All parties shall deposit their pro rata shares of these fees with the clerk of the court as specified by the court, but not later than the conclusion of each day's court session.

(3) For purposes of this section, "one-half day" means any period of judicial time, in excess of one hour but not more than four hours, during either the morning or afternoon court session.

(4) The costs for the services of the official court reporter shall be recoverable as taxable costs by the prevailing party as otherwise provided by law.

(5) The Judicial Council shall adopt rules to ensure all of the following:

(A) That parties are given adequate and timely notice of the availability of an official court reporter.

(B) That if an official court reporter is not available, a party may arrange for the presence of a certified shorthand reporter to serve as an official pro tempore reporter, the costs therefore recoverable as provided in paragraph (4).

(C) That if the services of an official pro tempore reporter are utilized pursuant to subparagraph (B), no other charge will be made to the parties.

(b) The fees collected pursuant to this section shall be used only to pay the cost for services of an official court reporter in civil proceedings.

(c) The Judicial Council shall report on or before February 1 of each year to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee on the fees collected by courts pursuant to this section and Section 68086.1, and the total amount spent for services of official court reporters in civil proceedings statewide in the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 27. Section 68086.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68086.1. (a) Commencing January 1, 2006, for each three hundred twenty-dollar ($320) fee collected under Section 70611, 70612, or 70670, twenty-five dollars ($25) of the amount distributed to the Trial Court Trust Fund shall be used for services of an official court reporter in civil proceedings.

(b) Commencing January 1, 2006, for each three hundred-dollar ($300) fee collected under subdivision (a) of Section 70613 or subdivision (a) of Section 70614, twenty-five dollars ($25) of the amount distributed to the Trial Court Trust Fund shall be used for services of an official court reporter in civil proceedings.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature, in approving the twenty-five-dollar ($25) distribution out of each filing fee listed in subdivisions (a) and (b), to continue an incentive to courts to use the services of an official court reporter in civil proceedings. However, nothing in this section shall affect the Judicial Council's authority to allocate these revenues to replace reductions in the General Fund appropriation to the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(d) The portion of the distribution to the Trial Court Trust Fund to be used for services of an official court reporter in civil proceedings pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be used only in trial courts that utilize the services of an official court reporter in civil proceedings.

SEC. 28. Section 68090.8 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 111 of Chapter 75 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:

68090.8. (a) (1) The Legislature finds that the management of civil and criminal cases, including traffic cases, and the accounting for funds in the trial courts requires these courts to implement appropriate levels of administrative automation.

(2) The purpose of this section is to make a fund available for the development of automated administrative systems, including automated accounting, automated data collection through case management systems, and automated case-processing systems for the trial courts, together with funds to train operating personnel, and for the maintenance and enhancement of the systems. As used in this paragraph, "automated administrative systems" does not include electronic reporting systems for use in a courtroom.

(3) Automated data collection shall provide the foundation for planning, research, and evaluation programs that are generated from within and outside of the judicial branch. This system shall be a resource to the courts, the Judicial Council and its committees, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Legislature, the Governor, and the public. During the developmental stage and prior to the implementation of the system, the Legislature shall make recommendations to the Judicial Council as to the breadth and level of detail of the data to be collected.

(b) Prior to making any other required distribution, the county treasurer shall transmit 2 percent of all fines, penalties, and forfeitures collected in criminal cases, including, but not limited to, moneys collected pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of this code, Section 13003 of the Fish and Game Code, Section 11502 of the Health and Safety Code, and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1427) of Title 11 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, into the Trial Court Improvement Fund established pursuant to Section 77209, to be used exclusively to pay the costs of automated systems for the trial courts, as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). These systems shall meet Judicial Council performance standards, including production of reports as needed by the state, the counties, and local governmental entities.

SEC. 29. Section 68511.3 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 113 of Chapter 75 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:

68511.3. (a) The Judicial Council shall formulate and adopt uniform forms and rules of court for litigants proceeding in forma pauperis. These rules shall provide for all of the following:

(1) Standard procedures for considering and determining applications for permission to proceed in forma pauperis, including, in the event of a denial of permission, a written statement detailing the reasons for denial and an evidentiary hearing where there is a substantial evidentiary conflict.

(2) Standard procedures to toll relevant time limitations when a pleading or other paper accompanied by the application is timely lodged with the court and delay is caused due to the processing of the application to proceed in forma pauperis.

(3) Proceeding in forma pauperis at every stage of the proceedings at both the appellate and trial levels of the court system.

(5) That the court may authorize the clerk of the court, county financial officer, or other appropriate county officer to make reasonable efforts to verify the litigant's financial condition without compromising the confidentiality of the application.

(6) That permission to proceed in forma pauperis be granted to all of the following:

(A) Litigants who are receiving benefits pursuant to the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and State Supplemental Payments (SSP) programs (Sections 12200 to 12205, inclusive, of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids Act (CalWORKs) program (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the Food Stamp Program (7 U.S.C. Sec. 2011 et seq.), or Section 17000 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(B) Litigants whose monthly income is 125 percent or less of the current monthly poverty line annually established by the Secretary of Health and Human Services pursuant to the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981, as amended.

(C) Other persons when in the court's discretion, this permission is appropriate because the litigant is unable to proceed without using money which is necessary for the use of the litigant or the litigant's family to provide for the common necessities of life.

(b) (1) Litigants who apply for permission to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) shall declare under penalty of perjury that they are receiving the benefits and may voluntarily provide the court with their date of birth and social security number or their Medi-Cal identification number to permit the court to verify the applicant's receipt of public assistance. The court may require any applicant, except a defendant in an unlawful detainer action, who chooses not to disclose his or her social security number for verification purposes to attach to the application documentation of benefits to support the claim and all other financial information on a form promulgated by the Judicial Council for this purpose.

(2) Litigants who apply for permission to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) shall file a financial statement under oath on a form promulgated by, and pursuant to rules adopted by, the Judicial Council.

(c) The forms and rules adopted by the Judicial Council shall provide for the disclosure of the following information about the litigant:

- (1) Current street address.
- (2) Occupation and employer.
- (3) Monthly income and expenses.
- (4) Address and value of any real property owned directly or beneficially.
- (5) Personal property with a value that exceeds five hundred dollars ($500).

The information furnished by the litigant shall be used by the court in determining his or her ability to pay all or a portion of the fees and costs.

(d) At any time after the court has granted a litigant permission to proceed in forma pauperis and prior to final disposition of the case, the clerk of the court, county financial officer, or other appropriate county officer may notify the court of any changed financial circumstances which may enable the litigant to pay all or a portion of the fees and costs which had been waived. The court may authorize the clerk of the court, county financial officer, or other appropriate county officer to require the litigant to appear before and be examined by the person authorized to ascertain the validity of their indigent status. However, no litigant shall be required to appear more than once in any four-month period. A litigant proceeding in forma pauperis shall notify the court within five days of any settlement or monetary consideration received in settlement of this litigation and of any other change in financial circumstances that affects the litigant's ability to pay court fees and costs. After the litigant either (1) appears before and is examined by the person authorized to ascertain the validity of his or her indigent status or (2) notifies the court of a change in financial circumstances, the court may then order the litigant to pay to the court the sum and in any manner the court believes is compatible with the litigant's financial ability.

In any action or proceeding in which the litigant whose fees and costs have been waived would have been entitled to recover those fees and costs from another party to the action or proceeding had they been paid, the court may assess the amount of the waived fees and costs against the other party and order the other party to pay that sum to the court or to the clerk and serving and levying officers respectively, or the court may order the amount of the waived fees and costs added to the judgment and so identified by the clerk.

Execution may be issued on any order provided for in this subdivision in the same manner as on a judgment in a civil action. When an amount equal to the sum due and payable to the clerk has been collected upon the judgment, these amounts shall be remitted to the clerk within 30 days. Thereafter, when an amount equal to the sum due to the serving and levying officers has been collected upon the judgment, these amounts shall be due and payable to those officers and shall be remitted within 30 days. If the remittance is not received by the clerk within 30 days or there is a filing of a partial satisfaction of judgment in an amount at least equal to the fees and costs payable to the clerk or a satisfaction of judgment has been filed, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may issue an abstract of judgment, writ of execution, or both for recovery of those sums, plus the fees for issuance and execution and an additional fee for administering this section. The court shall establish a fee, not to exceed actual costs of administering this subdivision and in no case exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25), which shall be added to the writ of execution.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is sentenced to imprisonment in a state prison or confined in a county jail and, during the period of imprisonment or confinement, files a civil action or notice of appeal of a civil action in forma pauperis shall be required to pay the full amount of the filing fee to the extent provided in this subdivision.

(1) In addition to the form required by this section for filing in forma pauperis, an inmate shall file a copy of a statement of account for any sums due to the inmate for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of the civil action or notice of appeal of a civil action. This copy shall be certified by the appropriate official of the Department of Corrections or a county jail.

(2) Upon filing the civil action or notice of appeal of a civil action, the court shall assess, and when funds exist, collect, as a partial payment of any required court fees, an initial partial filing fee of 20 percent of the greater of one of the following:

(B) The average monthly balance in the inmate's account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of the civil action or notice of appeal.

(3) After payment of the initial partial filing fee, the inmate shall be required to make monthly payments of 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the inmate's account. The Department of Corrections shall forward payments from this account to the clerk of the court each time the amount in the account exceeds ten dollars ($10) until the filing fees are paid.

(4) In no event shall the filing fee collected pursuant to this subdivision exceed the amount of fees permitted by law for the commencement of a civil action or an appeal of a civil action.

(5) In no event shall an inmate be prohibited from bringing a civil action or appeal of a civil action solely because the inmate has no assets and no means to pay the initial partial filing fee.

SEC. 30. Section 70601 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70601. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to establish a moratorium on increases in filing fees until January 1, 2008. No fee provided for in this chapter may be changed before January 1, 2008, except as may be required by the following:

(2) Legislative implementation of recommendations for changes to the graduated filing fee for petitions in probate proceedings under subdivision (a) of Section 70650.

(b) The Judicial Council shall establish a Task Force on Civil Fees, including, but not limited to, representatives from the trial courts, the counties, the county law libraries, and the State Bar. On or before February 1, 2007, the task force shall make recommendations to the Judicial Council and the Legislature on the following:

(1) The effectiveness of the uniform fee structure, any operational or revenue problems, and how to address these issues.

(2) Whether a fee differential should be implemented based on the number of cases a party files in a year.

(3) A process to adjust fees in the future to accommodate inflation and other factors affecting operating costs for trial courts, county law libraries, and county programs that rely on court fees.

SEC. 31. Section 70626 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70626. (a) The fee for each of the following services is fifteen dollars ($15). Amounts collected shall be distributed to the Trial Court Trust Fund under Section 68085.1.

(1) Issuing a writ of attachment, a writ of mandate, a writ of execution, a writ of sale, a writ of possession, a writ of prohibition, or any other writ for the enforcement of any order or judgment.

(3) Issuing a certificate of satisfaction of judgment under Section 724.100 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(4) Certifying a copy of any paper, record, or proceeding on file in the office of the clerk of any court.

(5) Taking an affidavit, except in criminal cases or adoption proceedings.

(6) Acknowledgment of any deed or other instrument, including the certificate.

(7) Recording or registering any license or certificate, or issuing any certificate in connection with a license, required by law, for which a charge is not otherwise prescribed.

(b) The fee for each of the following services is twenty dollars ($20). Amounts collected shall be distributed to the Trial Court Trust Fund under Section 68085.1.

(1) Issuing an order of sale.

(2) Receiving and filing an abstract of judgment rendered by a judge of another court and subsequent services based on it, unless the abstract of judgment is filed under Section 704.750 or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(4) Filing an application for renewal of judgment under Section 683.150 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(5) Issuing a commission to take a deposition in another state or place under Section 2026.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(6) Filing and entering an award under the Workers' Compensation Law (Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) of the Labor Code).

(8) Filing an appeal of a determination whether a dog is potentially dangerous or vicious under Section 31622 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(9) Filing an affidavit under Section 13200 of the Probate Code, together with the issuance of one certified copy of the affidavit under Section 13202 of the Probate Code.

(10) Filing and indexing all papers for which a charge is not elsewhere provided, other than papers filed in actions or special proceedings, official bonds, or certificates of appointment.

SEC. 32. Section 70640 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70640. (a) It is the policy of the state that each court shall endeavor to provide a children's waiting room in each courthouse for children whose parents or guardians are attending a court hearing as a litigant, witness, or for other court purposes as determined by the court. To defray that expense, monthly allocations for children's waiting rooms shall be added to the monthly apportionment under subdivision (a) of Section 68085 for each court where a children's waiting room has been established or where the court has elected to establish such a service.

(b) The amount allocated to each court under this section shall be equal to the following: for each first paper filing fee as provided under Section 70611, 70612, 70613, 70614, or 70670, and each first paper or petition filing fee in a probate matter as provided under Section 70650, 70651, 70652, 70653, 70654, 70655, 70656, or 70658, the same amount as was required to be collected as of December 31, 2005, to the Children's Waiting Room Fund under former Section 26826.3 in the county in which the court is located when a fee was collected for the filing of a first paper in a civil action under former Section 26820.4.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may make expenditures from these allocations in payment of any cost, excluding capital outlay, related to the establishment and maintenance of the children's waiting room, including personnel, heat, light, telephone, security, rental of space, furnishings, toys, books, or any other item in connection with the operation of a children's waiting room.

(d) If, as of January 1, 2006, there is a Children's Waiting Room Fund in the county treasury established under former Section 26826.3, the county immediately shall transfer the moneys in that fund to the court's operations fund as a restricted fund. By February 15, 2006, the county shall provide an accounting of the fund to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(e) After January 1, 2006, the court may apply to the Judicial Council for an adjustment of the amount distributed to the fund for each uniform filing fee. A court that wishes to establish a children's waiting room, and does not yet have a distribution under this section, may apply to the Judicial Council for such a distribution. Applications under this subdivision shall be made according to trial court financial policies and procedures authorized by the Judicial Council under subdivision (a) of Section 77206. Adjustments and new distributions shall be effective January 1 or July 1 of any year beginning January 1, 2006.

(f) The distribution to a court under this section per each filing fee shall be not less than two dollars ($2) and not more than five dollars ($5).

SEC. 33. Section 77207.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77207.5. (a) The Judicial Council shall make monthly allocations to the trial courts from the Trial Court Trust Fund for automated administrative systems as provided in this section. These funds shall be used for the development and implementation of automated systems as described in subdivision (a) of Section 68090.8. As used in this subdivision, "automated administrative systems" does not include electronic reporting systems for use in a courtroom.

(b) The amount allocated annually to each trial court shall be the amount stated in this subdivision, which is based on the revenue collected in the local 2 percent automation funds in the 1994–95 fiscal year. The amounts are as follows:

SEC. 34. Section 77209 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 142 of Chapter 75 of the Statutes of 2005, is amended to read:

77209. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Trial Court Improvement Fund.

(b) The Judicial Council shall reserve funds for projects by transferring 1 percent of the amount appropriated for support for operation of the trial courts to the Trial Court Improvement Fund. At least one-half of this amount shall be set aside as a reserve that shall not be allocated prior to March 15 of each year unless allocated to a court or courts for urgent needs.

(c) Any funds in the Trial Court Improvement Fund that are unencumbered at the end of the fiscal year shall be reappropriated to the Trial Court Improvement Fund for the following fiscal year.

(d) Moneys deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund shall be placed in an interest bearing account. Any interest earned shall accrue to the fund and shall be disbursed pursuant to subdivision (e).

(e) Moneys deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund may be disbursed for purposes of this section.

(f) Moneys deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund pursuant to Section 68090.8 shall be allocated by the Judicial Council for automated administrative system improvements pursuant to that section and in furtherance of Rule 991 of the California Rules of Court, as it read on July 1, 1996. As used in this subdivision, "automated administrative system" does not include electronic reporting systems for use in a courtroom.

(g) Moneys deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund shall be administered by the Judicial Council. The Judicial Council may, with appropriate guidelines, delegate to the Administrative Director of the Courts the administration of the fund. Moneys in the fund may be expended to implement trial court projects approved by the Judicial Council. Expenditures may be made to vendors or individual trial courts that have the responsibility to implement approved projects.

(h) Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, the 2 percent automation fund moneys deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund pursuant to Section 68090.8 shall be allocated by the Judicial Council to statewide initiatives related to trial court automation and their implementation. The Judicial Council shall allocate the remainder of the moneys deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund as specified in this section.

For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "2 percent automation fund" means the fund established pursuant to Section 68090.8 as it read on June 30, 1996. As used in this subdivision, "statewide initiatives related to trial court automation and their implementation" does not include electronic reporting systems for use in a courtroom.

(i) Royalties received from the publication of uniform jury instructions shall be deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund and used for the improvement of the jury system.

(j) The Judicial Council shall present an annual report to the Legislature on the use of the Trial Court Improvement Fund. The report shall include appropriate recommendations.

SEC. 35. Section 123.6 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

123.6. (a) All workers' compensation administrative law judges employed by the administrative director and supervised by the court administrator shall subscribe to the Code of Judicial Ethics adopted by the Supreme Court pursuant to subdivision (m) of Section 18 of Article VI of the California Constitution for the conduct of judges and shall not otherwise, directly or indirectly, engage in conduct contrary to that code or to the commentary to the Code of Judicial Ethics.

In consultation with both the court administrator and the Commission on Judicial Performance, the administrative director shall adopt regulations to enforce this section. Existing regulations shall remain in effect until new regulations based on the recommendations of the court administrator and the Commission on Judicial Performance have become effective. To the extent possible, the rules shall be consistent with the procedures established by the Commission on Judicial Performance for regulating the activities of state judges, and, to the extent possible, with the gift, honoraria, and travel restrictions on legislators contained in the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code). The court administrator shall have the authority to enforce the rules adopted by the administrative director.

(b) Honoraria or travel allowed by the court administrator, and not otherwise prohibited by this section in connection with any public or private conference, convention, meeting, social event, or like gathering, the cost of which is significantly paid for by attorneys who practice before the board, may not be accepted unless the court administrator has provided prior approval in writing to the workers' compensation administrative law judge allowing him or her to accept those payments.

1214.1. (a) In addition to any other penalty in infraction, misdemeanor, or felony cases, the court may impose a civil assessment of up to three hundred dollars ($300) against any defendant who fails, after notice and without good cause, to appear in court for any proceeding authorized by law or who fails to pay all or any portion of a fine ordered by the court. This assessment shall be deposited in the Trial Court Trust Fund, as provided in Section 68085.1 of the Government Code.

(b) The assessment shall not become effective until at least 10 calendar days after the court mails a warning notice to the defendant by first-class mail to the address shown on the notice to appear or to the defendant's last known address. If the defendant appears within the time specified in the notice and shows good cause for the failure to appear or for the failure to pay a fine, the court shall vacate the assessment.

(c) If a civil assessment is imposed under this section, no bench warrant or warrant of arrest shall be issued with respect to the failure to appear at the proceeding for which the assessment is imposed or the failure to pay the fine. An outstanding, unserved bench warrant or warrant of arrest for a failure to appear or for a failure to pay a fine shall be recalled prior to the subsequent imposition of a civil assessment.

(d) The assessment imposed under subdivision (a) shall be subject to the due process requirements governing defense and collection of civil money judgments generally.

(e) Each court and county shall maintain the collection program that was in effect on July 1, 2005, unless otherwise agreed to by the court and county. If a court and a county do not agree on a plan for the collection of civil assessments imposed pursuant to this section, or any other collections under Section 1463.010, after the implementation of Sections 68085.6 and 68085.7 of the Government Code, the court or the county may request arbitration by a third party mutually agreed upon by the Administrative Director of the Courts and the California State Association of Counties.

SEC. 37. Section 16020 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16020. (a) Every driver and every owner of a motor vehicle shall at all times be able to establish financial responsibility pursuant to Section 16021, and shall at all times carry in the vehicle evidence of the form of financial responsibility in effect for the vehicle.

(b) "Evidence of financial responsibility" means any of the following:

(1) A form issued by an insurance company or charitable risk pool, as specified by the department pursuant to Section 4000.37.

(2) If the owner is a self-insurer, as provided in Section 16052 or a depositor, as provided in Section 16054.2, the certificate of self-insurance or the assignment of deposit letter issued by the department.

(3) An insurance covering note or binder pursuant to Section 382 or 382.5 of the Insurance Code.

(4) A showing that the vehicle is owned or leased by, or under the direction of, the United States or any public entity, as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.

(c) For purposes of this section, "evidence of financial responsibility" also may be obtained by a law enforcement officer and court personnel from an electronic reporting system when that system becomes available for use by law enforcement officers.

(d) For purposes of this section, "evidence of financial responsibility" also includes any of the following:

(1) The name of the insurance company and the number of an insurance policy or surety bond that was in effect at the time of the accident or at the time that evidence of financial responsibility is required to be provided pursuant to Section 16028, if that information is contained in the vehicle registration records of the department.

(2) The identifying motor carrier of property permit number issued by the Department of the California Highway Patrol to the motor carrier of property as defined in Section 34601, and displayed on the motor vehicle in the manner specified by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(3) The identifying number issued to the household goods carrier, passenger stage carrier, or transportation charter party carrier by the Public Utilities Commission and displayed on the motor vehicle in the manner specified by the commission.

(4) The identifying number issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission or its successor federal agency, if proof of financial responsibility must be presented to the issuing agency as part of the identification number issuance process, and displayed on the motor vehicle in the manner specified by the issuing agency.

(e) Evidence of financial responsibility does not include any of the identification numbers in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (d) if the carrier is currently suspended by the issuing agency for lack or lapse of insurance or other form of financial responsibility.

SEC. 38. Section 16058.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16058.1. The department shall develop a method by which law enforcement officers and court personnel, on and after July 1, 2006, may electronically verify that an insurance policy or bond for a motor vehicle has been issued.

SEC. 39. Section 905.7 of the Government Code, as added by Section 18 of this act, shall be effective as to causes of action that accrued on or after January 1, 2006. However, the enactment of Section 905.7 of the Government Code does not change the obligations and rights under the laws in existence at the time of accrual of judicial branch entities or of persons whose causes of action against a judicial branch entity accrued before January 1, 2006.

SEC. 40. It is the intent of the Legislature in amending Section 11135 of the Government Code to construe and clarify the meaning and effect of existing law and to reject the interpretation given to the law in Garcia v. California State University (Aug. 15, 2005, B178329) __ Cal.App.4th __ [2005 Cal. App. LEXIS 1267].

SEC. 41. The provisions of this act shall apply prospectively only, except with respect to the amendments made to Section 11135 of the Government Code.

SEC. 42. Section 3 of this bill shall only become operative if AB 1459 or SB 422 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 2006, and increases the jurisdictional limit of the small claims court.

SEC. 43. Section 23 of this bill shall only become operative if AB 1459 or SB 422 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January

1, 2006, and increases the jurisdictional limit of the small claims court, in which case Section 22 of this bill shall not be operative.

CHAPTER 707

An act to add Section 110552 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to lead contamination of candy.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 110552 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

110552. (a) The department shall regulate candy to ensure that the candy is not adulterated.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter, “candy” means any confectionary intended for individual consumption that contains chili, tamarind, or any other ingredient identified as posing a health risk in regulations adopted by the office or department.

(c) For purposes of this section the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) “Office” means the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment.

(2) “Adulterated candy” means any candy with lead in excess of the naturally occurring level. Moreover, candy is adulterated if its wrapper or the ink on the wrapper contains lead in excess of standards which the office, in consultation with the department and the Attorney General shall establish by July 1, 2006.

(3) “Naturally occurring level” of lead in candy shall be determined by regulations adopted by the office after consultation with the department and the Attorney General. For purposes of this section, the “naturally occurring level” of lead in candy is only naturally occurring to the extent that it is not avoidable by good agricultural, manufacturing, and procurement practices, or by other practices currently feasible. The producer and manufacturer of candy and candy ingredients shall at all times use quality control measures that reduce the natural chemical contaminants to the “lowest level currently feasible” as this term is used in subsection (c) of Section 110.110 of Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations. The “naturally occurring level” of lead shall not include any lead in an ingredient resulting from agricultural equipment, fuels used on or around soils or crops, fertilizers, pesticides or other materials that are applied to soils or crops or added to water used to irrigate soils or crops. The office shall determine the naturally occurring levels of lead in candy containing chili and tamarind no later than July 1, 2006. The office shall determine the naturally occurring levels of lead in candy containing other ingredients upon request by the department or the Attorney General, and in the absence of a request, when the office determines that the presence of the ingredient in candy may pose a health risk. Until the office adopts regulations determining the naturally occurring level of lead, the Attorney General's written determination, if any, including any determination set forth in a consent judgment entered into by the Attorney General, of the naturally occurring level of lead in candy or in a candy ingredient shall be binding for purposes of this section.

(4) "Wrapper" means all packaging materials in contact with the candy, including, but not limited to, the paper cellophane, plastic container, stick handle, spoon, small pot (olla), and squeeze tube, or similar devices. "Wrapper" does not include any part of the packaging from which lead will not leach, as demonstrated by the manufacturer, to the satisfaction of the office.

(d) The standards adopted pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (c) shall be reviewed by the office every three-year to five-year period in order to determine whether advances in scientific knowledge, the development of better agricultural or manufacturing practices, or changes in detection limits require revision of the standards.

(e) The department shall do all of the following:

(2) Establish procedures for the testing of candy and the certification of unadulterated candy products. The procedures shall require candy manufacturers to certify candy as being unadulterated. The certification shall be based on appropriate sampling and testing protocols as determined by the office in consultation with the Attorney General's office.

(3) Through its Food and Drug Branch, test the samples of candy collected pursuant to this article. The department may test any candy, including candy tested pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) in order to ensure the candy is unadulterated.

(5) Evaluate the regulatory process, identify problems, and make changes or report to the Legislature, as necessary.

(f) If the candy tested pursuant paragraphs (2) or (3) of subdivision (e) is found to be adulterated, the department shall do both of the following:

(1) Issue health advisory notices to county health departments alerting them to the danger posed by consumption of the candy.

(2) Notify the manufacturer and the distributor of the candy that the candy is adulterated, and that the candy may not be sold or distributed in the state until further testing proves that the candy is unadulterated.

(g) (1) For any candy found to be adulterated, the manufacturer or distributor may request that the department test a subsequent sample of candy. The department shall select the candy to be tested. The cost of any subsequent sampling and testing shall be borne by the manufacturer or distributor requesting the additional testing.

(2) If the candy is found to be unadulterated when it is retested, the department shall provide the manufacturer or distributor and the county health department with a letter stating that the candy has been retested and determined to be unadulterated, and that the sale and distribution of the candy in the state may resume.

(3) If the candy is found to remain adulterated when retested, the manufacturer or distributor may take corrective measures and continue to resubmit samples for testing until tests prove the candy unadulterated.

(h) The department shall convene an interagency collaborative which is hereby established to serve as an oversight committee for the implementation of this section and to work with the office in establishing and revising the required standards. The interagency collaborative shall be composed of the following members:

(2) The Childhood Lead Poisoning Branch of the department.

(3) The Food and Drug Branch of the department.

(5) The office of the Attorney General.

(i) The interagency collaborative may confer with the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission, the United States Food and Drug Administration, recognized experts in the field, representatives of California community environmental justice organizations and candy manufacturers.

(j) (1) The sale of adulterated candy to California consumers is a violation of this section. Any person knowingly and intentionally selling adulterated candy shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to five hundred dollars ($500) per violation. The regulations adopted shall provide that funding for this section shall be met in part or in whole by those penalties, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(2) In the event that a candy product is found to be adulterated, the department may recover the costs incurred in the chemical analysis of that product from the manufacturer or distributor.

(3) Except as expressly set forth in this section, nothing in this section shall alter or diminish any legal obligation otherwise required in common law or by statute or regulation, and nothing in this section shall create or enlarge any defense in any action to enforce that legal obligation. Penalties imposed under this section shall be in addition to any penalties otherwise prescribed by law.

(4) This section shall not be the basis for any stay of proceedings or other order limiting or delaying the prosecution of any action to enforce Section 25249.6.

SEC. 2. (a) Section 110552 of the Health and Safety Code shall, upon appropriation by the Legislature, be funded in part or in whole by any of the following:

- (1) Civil penalties imposed under that section.
- (2) Cost recovery required by that section for the department's testing of adulterated candy.
- (3) Grant funding.

(b) Section 110552 of the Health and Safety Code shall be implemented in any fiscal year only if sufficient funding becomes available to fund the requirements of that section for that fiscal year.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 708

An act to add Sections 20432.6 and 22849 to, and to add and repeal Section 31485.12 of, the Government Code, relating to public employees' benefits.

Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares, with respect to Section 3 of this act, all of the following:

(a) There are over 6,000,000 children and nonelderly adults living in California who have no health insurance.

(b) More than eight in 10 uninsured adults and children are in working families, including half who are in families with at least one adult employed full-time.

(c) According to a recent study, the annual cost of health insurance for a California family of four is now equivalent to 75 percent of the annual earnings of a fully employed minimum wage worker.

(d) California health insurance premiums increased 11.4 percent on average in 2004, more than six times the state's inflation of 1.7 percent.

(e) As health care costs increase, employers are shifting more of the costs to employees, who are paying more of their earnings for increased health care premium costs, deductibles, and copayments.

(f) California's health care crisis can also be seen in our schools where there are over 100,000 school employees without any health insurance.

(g) The majority of school employees who have no health coverage are the lowest wage earners in the schools, are overwhelmingly women, and many of them are minorities.

(h) School employees who are uninsured are usually uninsured because they are not given enough hours to qualify or the premiums are so high that they cannot afford the health coverage.

(i) Many school employees who are uninsured earn such modest incomes that their children qualify for the Healthy Families Program.

(j) There are over 1,000 school districts in California, and many of them purchase their own health plans, join with other school districts to purchase health care, or purchase health insurance for their employees through the Public Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Act (Part 5 (commencing with Section 22750) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code) (PEMHCA).

(k) There are hundreds of different health care plans that are administered for school employees statewide. There is no single health care pool for all public school employees.

SEC. 2. Section 20432.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20432.6. (a) "Local sheriff" also means a regularly employed district attorney investigator of Solano County whose principal duties are to investigate crime and criminal cases, if the district attorney investigator is a member of the deputy sheriffs' bargaining unit in the county or the judicial district.

(b) An officer or employee who is a local sheriff as defined in this section is not a county peace officer as defined in Section 20436 or 20437.

(c) This section does not apply to the employees of any contracting agency or to the agency, unless the contracting agency elects to be subject to this section by amendment to its contract with the board, made as provided in Section 20474, or by express provision in its contract with the board.

SEC. 3. Section 22849 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22849. (a) The board shall conduct a study to examine the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of creating a single statewide health care pool that would cover all public school employees working in school districts, county offices of education, community colleges, and in entities created or established by those school employers, including, but not limited to, joint powers agencies, regional occupational centers, and regional occupational programs.

(b) The health care school pool study shall, at a minimum, include the following:

(1) A review and analysis of the costs, cost savings, benefits, and drawbacks of creating a health care pool for all public school employees in California, including retirees.

(2) An analysis of rates, including both a regional rating structure and a single statewide rating structure.

(3) An analysis and reporting of any and all cost savings in the administration of a single health care pool for all school employees compared to the current process that includes hundreds of different plans.

(5) An analysis of the feasibility and cost savings of including all school employees under this part, as the health care pool for all school employees.

(6) An analysis of the feasibility and cost savings of creating a pool operated exclusively for school employees.

(c) The completion of the health care school pool study shall be contingent upon the ability to secure or budget for funding to cover the costs of the study. The completed study shall be reported to the Legislature within one year after funding is secured or budgeted.

(d) The board shall consult with the Teachers' Retirement Board of the State Teachers' Retirement System in preparing the study.

SEC. 4. Section 31485.12 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31485.12. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a county of the 16th class, as defined in Sections 28020 and 28037, or a county of the 22nd class, as defined in Sections 28020 and 28043, each as amended by Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1971, the board of supervisors may, by resolution, ordinance, contract, or contract amendment under this chapter, provide different retirement benefits for some safety member bargaining units within the safety member classification of a county retirement system.

(b) The resolution, ordinance, contract, or contract amendment described in subdivision (a) may provide a different formula for calculation of retirement benefits, by making any section of this chapter applicable to different safety bargaining units within the safety member classification, applicable to service credit earned on and after the date specified in the resolution, which date may be earlier than the date the resolution is adopted. The terms of an agreement or memorandum of understanding reached with a recognized employee organization, pursuant to this subdivision, may be made applicable by the board of supervisors to any unrepresented group within the same or similar membership classification as the employees represented by the recognized employee organization or bargaining unit.

(c) A resolution, ordinance, contract, or contract amendment adopted pursuant to this section may require members to pay all or part of the contributions by a member or employer, or both, that would have been required if the section or sections specified in subdivision (b), as adopted by the board or governing body, had been in effect during the period of time designated in the resolution, ordinance, contract, or contract amendment. The payment by a member shall become part of the accumulated contributions of the member. For those members who are represented by a bargaining unit, the payment requirement shall be approved in a memorandum of understanding executed by the board of supervisors and the employee representatives.

(d) This section shall only apply to members who retire on or after the effective date of the resolution, ordinance, contract, or contract amendment described in subdivision (a) or (b) or on or after the date provided in the memorandum of understanding described in subdivision (c).

(e) The board of supervisors, in the resolution, ordinance, contract, or contract amendment described in subdivision (a), shall not require that a bargaining unit be divided solely for the purpose of providing different retirement benefits. However, if the members of a bargaining unit within the same or similar membership classification so elect, retirement benefits may be separately negotiated with that bargaining unit.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2011, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2011, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 709

An act to add Section 42703 to the Public Resources Code, relating to recycling.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
(a) Thirty-two million scrap tires are currently generated in California each year.

(c) There are currently up to 6,000,000 tires in legal and illegal scrap tire piles.

(d) Twenty-five percent of California scrap tires, more than 8,000,000 tires, are disposed of in landfills or stockpiled in legal or illegal dumps.

(e) Crumb rubber from recycled scrap tires can be used as an additive for making asphalt for highway construction and repair.

(f) It is state policy to not discard scrap tires in landfills or legal or illegal stockpiles, and to find alternative uses for recycling tires that have been generated in California.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Transportation explore all feasible means to stimulate increased usage of crumb rubber throughout the 12 regional districts to help expand the marketplace for crumb rubber in the state.

SEC. 3. Section 42703 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

42703. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the Department of Transportation shall require the use of crumb rubber in lieu of other materials at the following levels for state highway construction or repair projects that use asphalt as a construction material:

(1) On and after January 1, 2007, the Department of Transportation shall use, on an annual average, not less than 6.62 pounds of CRM per metric ton of the total amount of asphalt paving materials used.

(2) On and after January 1, 2010, the Department of Transportation shall use, on an annual average, not less than 8.27 pounds of CRM per metric ton of the total amount of asphalt paving materials used.

(3) On and after January 1, 2013, the Department of Transportation shall use, on an annual average, not less than 11.58 pounds of CRM per metric ton of the total amount of asphalt paving materials used.

(b) (1) The annual average use of crumb rubber required in subdivision (a) shall be achieved on a statewide basis and shall not require the use of asphalt containing crumb rubber in each individual project or in a place where it is not feasible to use that material.

(2) On and after January 1, 2007, and before January 1, 2015, not less than 50 percent of the asphalt pavement used to comply with the requirements of subdivision (a) shall be rubberized asphalt concrete.

(3) On and after January 1, 2015, the Department of Transportation may use any material meeting the definition of asphalt containing crumb rubber, with respect to product type or specification, to comply with the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) The Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing shall, on or before January 1, 2009, and on or before January 1 annually thereafter, prepare an analysis comparing the cost differential between asphalt containing crumb rubber and conventional asphalt. The analysis shall include the cost of the quantity of asphalt product needed per lane mile paved and, at a minimum, shall include all of the following:

(B) The maintenance cost of the asphalt materials and other potential cost savings to the department, including, but not limited to, reduced soundwall construction costs resulting from noise reduction qualities of rubberized asphalt concrete.

(C) The difference between each type or specification of asphalt containing crumb rubber, considering the cost-effectiveness of each type or specification separately in comparison to the cost-effectiveness of conventional asphalt paving materials.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if, after completing the analysis required by paragraph (1), the secretary determines that the cost of asphalt containing crumb rubber exceeds the cost of conventional asphalt, the Department of Transportation shall continue to meet the requirement specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and shall not implement the requirement specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). If the secretary determines, pursuant to an analysis prepared pursuant to paragraph (1), that the cost of asphalt containing crumb rubber does not exceed the cost of conventional asphalt, the Department of Transportation shall implement paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) within one year of that determination, but not before January 1, 2010.

(3) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the Department of Transportation delays the implementation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the Department of Transportation shall not implement the requirement of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) until three years after the date the department implements paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(d) For the purposes of complying with the requirements of subdivision (a), only crumb rubber manufactured in the United States that is derived from waste tires taken from vehicles owned and operated in the United States may be used.

(e) The Department of Transportation and the board shall develop procedures for using crumb rubber and other derived tire products in other projects.

(f) The Department of Transportation shall notify and confer with the East Bay Municipal Utility District before using asphalt containing crumb rubber on a state highway construction or repair project that overlays district infrastructure.

(g) For purposes of this section the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Asphalt containing crumb rubber" means any asphalt pavement construction, rehabilitation, or maintenance material that contains reclaimed tire rubber and that is specified for use by the Department of Transportation.

(2) "Crumb rubber" or "CRM" has the same meaning as defined in Section 42801.7.

(3) "Rubberized asphalt concrete" or "RAC" means a paving material that uses an asphalt rubber binder containing an amount of reclaimed tire rubber that is 15 percent or more by weight of the total blend, and that meets other specifications for both the physical properties of asphalt rubber and the application of asphalt rubber, as defined in the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Standard Specification for Asphalt-Rubber Binder.

CHAPTER 710

An act to amend Sections 17071.75, 17078.27, and 41329.55 of the Education Code, relating to school facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17071.75 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17071.75. After a one-time initial report of existing school building capacity has been completed, the ongoing eligibility of a school district for new construction funding shall be determined by making all of the following calculations:

(a) A school district that applies to receive funding for new construction shall use the following methods to determine projected enrollment:

(1) A school district that has two or more schoolsites each with a pupil population density that is greater than 115 pupils per acre in kindergarten and grades 1 to 6, inclusive, or a schoolsite pupil population density that is greater than 90 pupils per acre in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, as determined by the Superintendent using enrollment data from the California Basic Educational Data System for the 2004-05 school year, may submit an application for funding for projects that will relieve overcrowded conditions. That school district may also submit an alternative enrollment projection for the fifth year beyond the fiscal year in which the application is made using a methodology other than the cohort survival method as defined by the board pursuant to paragraph (2), to be reviewed by the Demographic Research Unit of the Department of Finance, in consultation with the department and the Office of Public School Construction. If the Office of Public School Construction and the Demographic Research Unit of the Department of Finance jointly determine that the alternative enrollment projection provides a reasonable estimate of expected enrollment demand, a recommendation shall be forwarded to the board to approve or disapprove the application, in accordance with all of the following:

(A) Total funding for new construction projects using this method shall be limited to five hundred million ($500,000,000), from the Kindergarten-University Public Education Facilities Bond Act of 2004.

(B) The eligibility amount for proposed projects that relieve overcrowding is the difference between the alternative enrollment projection method for the year the application is submitted and the cohort survival method, as defined by paragraph (2), for the same year, adjusted by the existing pupil capacity in excess of the projected enrollment according to the cohort survival projection method.

(C) The Office of Public School Construction shall determine whether each proposed project will relieve overcrowding, including, but not limited to, the elimination of the use of Concept 6 calendars, four track year-round calendars, or bussing in excess of 40 minutes, and recommend approval to the board. The number of unhoused pupil grants requested in the application for funding from the eligibility determined pursuant to this paragraph shall be limited to the number of seats necessary to relieve overcrowding, including, but not limited to, the elimination of the use of Concept 6 calendars, four track year-round calendars, or bussing in excess of 40 minutes, less the number of unhoused pupil grants attributed to that school as a source school in an approved application pursuant to Section 17078.24.

(D) A school district shall use the same alternative enrollment projection methodology for all applications submitted pursuant to this paragraph and shall calculate those projections in accordance with the same district-wide or high school attendance area used for the enrollment projection made pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) A school district shall calculate enrollment projections for the fifth year beyond the fiscal year in which the application is made. Projected enrollment shall be determined by utilizing the cohort survival enrollment projection system, as defined and approved by the board. The board may supplement the cohort survival enrollment projection by the number of unhoused pupils that are anticipated as a result of dwelling units proposed pursuant to approved and valid tentative subdivision maps.

(b) Add the number of pupils that may be adequately housed in the existing school building capacity of the applicant school district as determined pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 17071.10) to the number of pupils for whom facilities were provided from any state or local funding source after the existing school building capacity was determined pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 17071.10). For this purpose, the total number of pupils for whom facilities were provided shall be determined using the pupil loading formula set forth in Section 17071.25.

(c) Subtract the number of pupils pursuant to subdivision (b) from the number of pupils determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(d) The calculations required to establish eligibility under this article shall result in a distinction between the number of existing unhoused pupils and the number of projected unhoused pupils.

(e) Apply the increase or decrease resulting from the difference between the most recent report made pursuant to Section 42268, and the report used in determining the baseline capacity of the school district pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17071.25.

(f) For a school district with an enrollment of 2,500, or less, an adjustment in enrollment projections shall not result in a loss of ongoing eligibility to that school district for a period of three years from the date of the approval of eligibility by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 17078.27 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17078.27. (a) Upon completion of the preliminary process authorized pursuant to this article, and when a preliminary applicant has complied with the conditions set forth in this chapter for a final apportionment, including, but not limited to, Section 17070.50, the board shall adjust the preliminary apportionment as set forth in subdivision (b) and as necessary to reflect the current eligible grant amounts for final apportionments pursuant to this chapter consistent with regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 17078.24. The board shall then convert the adjusted preliminary apportionment to a final apportionment and proceed to completion of the project in the same manner as for any project funded under provisions of this chapter other than this article.

(b) The board may adjust for cost increases only if uncommitted funds reserved expressly for the purposes of this article remain available for those purposes.

(c) For purposes of calculating enrollment to determine eligibility for a final apportionment for a project funded from the Kindergarten-University Public Education Facilities Bond Act of 2002, as set forth in Part 68.1 (commencing with Section 100600), and the Kindergarten-University Public Education Facilities Bond Act of 2004, as set forth in Part 68.2 (commencing with Section 100800), an applicant may use one of the following methods as an alternative to the method provided in subdivision (a) of Section 17071.75:

(1) The current year enrollment as recorded on the cohort survival enrollment projection system described in subdivision (a) of Section 17071.75, for the year in which the application for the final apportionment is submitted.

(2) (A) If eligibility for the preliminary apportionment was calculated pursuant to Section 17071.76, the current year or five-year projected enrollment as recorded on a cohort survival enrollment projection system, developed and approved by the board, that uses pupil residence in the high school attendance area, for the year in which the application for the final apportionment is submitted.

(B) A school district that uses the method described in this paragraph to calculate enrollment shall also use this method to calculate enrollment for all applications it submits for final apportionments for projects for which preliminary apportionments were approved from the same bond authorization.

SEC. 3. Section 41329.55 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41329.55. (a) Simultaneous with the execution of the lease financing authorized pursuant to Section 41329.52, the bank shall provide to the Controller and the school district a notification of its lease financing. The notice shall include a schedule of rent payments to become due to the bank from the school district and the name of the bond trustee. The Controller shall make the apportionment to the bond trustee of those amounts on the dates shown on the schedule. The bank may further authorize the apportionments to be used to pay or reimburse the provider of any credit enhancement of bonds and other ongoing or periodic ancillary costs of the bond financing issued by the bank in connection with this article. If the amount of rent payments vary from the schedule as a result of variable interest rates on the bonds, early redemptions, or changes in expenses, the bank shall amend or supplement the schedule accordingly. The Controller shall make the apportionment only from moneys in Section A of the State School Fund designated for apportionment to the district and any apportionment authorized pursuant to this subdivision shall constitute a lien senior to any other apportionment or payment of State School Fund moneys to or for that district not made pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) The amount apportioned for a school district pursuant to this section is an allocation to the district for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution. For purposes of computing revenue limits pursuant to Section 42238 for any school district, the revenue limit for any fiscal year in which funds are apportioned for the district pursuant to this section shall include any amounts apportioned by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (a) as well as Section 41329.57.

(c) No party, including the school district or any of its creditors, shall have any claim to the money apportioned or to be apportioned to the bond trustee by the Controller pursuant to this section.

SEC. 4. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, the State Department of Education may allocate any savings available as of September 1, 2005, from the funds appropriated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 23 of Chapter 900 of the Statutes of 2004, to any county office of education for extraordinary costs related to the visits required in subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1240 of the Education Code.

(b) The State Department of Education shall only allocate savings pursuant to subdivision (a) upon a determination by the State Department of Education, the Secretary for Education, and the Department of Finance that a county office of education has incurred extraordinary costs in accordance with subdivision (a) and of the amount of those costs incurred.

(c) To the extent that the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) is insufficient to cover those costs, these funds shall be prorated to county offices of education based upon the total costs agreed upon by the State Department of Education, the Secretary for Education, and the Department of Finance.

CHAPTER 711

An act to amend Section 17538.41 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to political advertisements.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17538.41 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17538.41. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e), no person, entity conducting business, candidate, or political committee in this state shall transmit, or cause to be transmitted, a text message advertisement to a mobile telephony services handset, pager, or two-way messaging device that is equipped with short message capability or any similar capability allowing the transmission of text messages. A text message advertisement is a message, the principal purpose of which is to promote the sale of goods or services, or to promote a political purpose or objective, to the recipient, and consisting of advertising material for the lease, sale, rental, gift offer, or other disposition of any realty, goods, services, or extension of credit, or advertising material for political purposes.

(2) This section shall apply when a text message advertisement is transmitted to a number assigned for mobile telephony service, pager service, or two-way messaging service to a California resident.

(b) This section shall not apply to text messages transmitted at the direction of a person or entity offering mobile telephony service, pager service, or two-way messaging service if the subscriber is offered an option to not receive those text messages.

(c) This section shall not apply to text messages transmitted by a business, candidate, or political committee that has an existing relationship with the subscriber if the subscriber is offered an option not to receive text messages from that business, candidate, or political committee.

(d) This section shall not apply to text messages transmitted by an affiliate of a business that has an existing relationship with the subscriber, but only if the subscriber has provided consent to the business with which he or she has that relationship to receive text messages from affiliates of that business. "Affiliate" means any company that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, another company.

(e) This section shall not apply to electronic mail messages that are forwarded, without the knowledge of the sender, to a mobile telephony services handset, pager, or two-way messaging device.

(f) Subdivision (a) shall not impose an obligation on a person or entity offering mobile telephony service, pager service, or two-way messaging service to control the transmission of a text message unless the message is transmitted at the direction of that person or entity.

(g) For purposes of this section, "mobile telephony service" means commercially available interconnected mobile phone services that provide access to the public switched telephone network (PSTN) via mobile communication devices employing radiowave technology to transmit calls, including cellular radiotelephone, broadband Personal Communications Services (PCS), and digital Specialized Mobile Radio (SMR).

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 712

An act to amend Sections 22900, 22901, 22902, 22903, 22904, 22905, 22906, 22907, 22908, 22909, 22910, 22911, 22913, 22915, 22920, 22922, 22924, 22925, 22926, and 22927 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 28 (commencing with Section 22900) of Division 8 of, and to add Sections 22902.5, 22903.1, 22903.2, and 22903.3 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to dealers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Chapter 28 (commencing with Section 22900) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 28. FAIR PRACTICES OF EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS, DISTRIBUTORS, WHOLESALERS, AND DEALERS ACT

SEC. 2. Section 22900 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22900. The Legislature finds and declares that the retail distribution, sales, and rental of agricultural, construction, utility, industrial, mining, outdoor power, forestry, and lawn and garden equipment, utilizing independent dealers operating under contract with the supplier vitally affects the general economy of the state, the public interest, and the public welfare. Therefore, the Legislature has determined that it is necessary to regulate the business relations between the dealers and suppliers as described in this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 22901 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22901. The following definitions apply for purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Act" means the Fair Practices of Equipment Manufacturers, Distributors, Wholesalers, and Dealers Act.

(b) "Bulk sales law" means the Uniform Commercial Code-Bulk Sales as contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6101) of the Commercial Code.

(c) "Claim" means a dealer's claim for reimbursement from a supplier for labor and materials expended by the dealer to meet the requirements of the supplier's warranty agreement with a consumer of the supplier's products if the dealer has complied with the supplier's then-existing written policies and procedures for warranties and warranty claims.

(d) "Current parts price" means, with respect to current parts, the price for repair parts listed in the supplier's price list or catalog in effect at the time the dealer contract is canceled or discontinued or, for purposes of Section 22905, the price list or catalog in effect at the time the repair parts were ordered. "Current parts price" also means, with respect to superseded repair parts, the price listed in the supplier's price list or catalog in effect at the time the dealer contract is canceled or discontinued for the part that performs the same function and purpose as the superseded part, but is simply listed under a different part number.

(e) "Current net parts cost" means the current parts price less any trade or cash discounts typically given to the dealer with respect to that dealer's normal, ordinary course of orders of repair parts. "Current net parts cost" also means, with respect to a warranty, the current parts price of the supplier for the equipment repaired less any trade or cash discounts typically given to the dealer with respect to that dealer's normal, ordinary course of orders of repair parts.

(f) "Dealer" means any person primarily engaged in the retail sale of equipment as defined in subdivision (i). For the purposes of this act, "dealer" does not include a "franchisee" as defined in Section 331.1 of the Vehicle Code or a "new motor vehicle dealer" as defined in Section 426 of the Vehicle Code.

(g) "Dealer contract" means either an oral or written contract, agreement, or arrangement for a definite or indefinite period between a dealer and a supplier that provides for the rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the purchase or sale of equipment or repair parts.

(i) "Demonstrator" means equipment in a dealer's inventory that has not been sold, but has had its usage demonstrated to potential customers, either without charge or pursuant to a short-term rental agreement, with the intent of encouraging the potential customer to purchase the equipment.

(j) (1) "Equipment" means all-terrain vehicles and other machinery, equipment, implements, or attachments used for, or in connection with, any of the following purposes:

(C) Raising, feeding, tending to, or harvesting products from, livestock and any other activity in connection with those activities.

(D) Industrial, construction, maintenance, mining, or utility activities or applications, including, but not limited to, material handling equipment.

(2) Self-propelled vehicles designed primarily for the transportation of persons or property on a street or highway are specifically excluded from the definition of equipment.

(k) "Family member" means a spouse, parent, sibling, child, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, and lineal descendent, including those by adoption.

(l) "Good cause" means failure by a dealer to comply with the requirements imposed on the dealer by the dealer contract, if those requirements are not different from those requirements imposed on other similarly situated dealers in this state.

(m) "Index" means the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics purchase price index for construction machinery series identification number pcu333120333120, or any successor index measuring substantially similar information.

(n) "Inventory" means equipment, repair parts, data-processing hardware or software, and specialized service or repair parts.

(p) "Manufacturer Created Incentive Program" means a program in which the dealer's inventory has not been sold but has been used for specialized purposes, including, but not limited to, harvest rental programs, dealer purchase rentals, and short-term rentals. The warranty that is transferred to the consumer upon sale, which shall be disclosed prior to sale, is the manufacturer provided base warranty, less hours and time used while in a manufacturer created incentive program.

(q) "Net equipment cost" means the price the dealer actually paid to the supplier for equipment, plus (1) freight, at truckload rates in effect as of the effective date of the termination of a dealer contract, if freight was paid by the dealer from the supplier's location to the dealer's location and (2) reimbursement for labor incurred in preparing the equipment for retail sale or rental, which labor will be reimbursed at the dealer's standard labor rate charged by the dealer to its customers for nonwarranty repair work; provided, however, if a supplier has established a reasonable setup time, that labor will be reimbursed at an amount equal to the reasonable setup time in effect as of the date of delivery multiplied by the dealer's standard labor rate.

(r) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust, or any and all other forms of business entities, including any other entity in which a person has a majority interest or of which a person has control, as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in active control of the activities of each entity.

(s) "Repair parts" means all parts and products related to the service or repair of equipment, including superseded parts.

(t) "Single-line dealer" means a dealer that has (1) purchased construction, industrial, forestry and mining equipment from a single supplier constituting 75 percent of the dealer's new equipment, calculated on the basis of net cost; and (2) a total annual average sales volume in excess of forty million dollars ($40,000,000) for the three calendar years immediately preceding the applicable determination date; provided, however, the sales threshold shall be increased each year by an amount equal to the current sales threshold multiplied by the percentage increase in the index from January 1 of the immediately preceding year to January 1 of the current year.

(u) “Single-line supplier” means the supplier that is selling the single-line dealer construction, industrial, forestry and mining equipment constituting 75 percent of the dealer’s new equipment.

(v) “Supplier” means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing, assembly or wholesale distribution of equipment or repair parts. “Supplier” also includes any successor in interest to a supplier, including a purchaser of assets or stock, or a surviving corporation resulting from a merger, liquidation, or reorganization of a supplier.

(w) “Terminate” means to terminate, cancel, fail to renew, or materially change the competitive circumstances of a dealer contract.

SEC. 4. Section 22902 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22902. It shall be a violation of this chapter for a supplier to take any of the following actions:

(a) To coerce or compel any dealer to order or accept delivery of any equipment or parts that the dealer has not voluntarily ordered, except as required by any applicable law or unless the equipment or repair parts are safety features required by the supplier.

(b) To coerce or compel any dealer to enter into any contract, whether written or oral, or amend an existing dealer contract with the supplier, unless the contract or amendment is imposed on all other similarly situated dealers in the state.

(c) To refuse to deliver to any dealer in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of the dealer’s order, equipment covered by the dealer contract specifically advertised or represented by the supplier to be available for immediate delivery or on an agreed-upon delivery date. The failure to deliver the equipment shall not be considered a violation of this act if the failure is due to reasonable restrictions on extension of credit by the supplier to the dealer, any breach of or default under the contract by the dealer, an act of God, work stoppage or delay due to a strike or labor difficulty, a bona fide shortage of materials, freight embargo, or a business decision by the supplier to limit the production volume of the equipment and written notice is provided to the dealer within 30 days of that decision or other cause over which the supplier has no control.

(d) To terminate, cancel, or fail to renew a dealer contract or materially change the competitive circumstances of the dealer contract without good cause.

(e) To require as a condition of renewal or extension of a dealer contract that the dealer complete substantial renovation of the dealer’s place of business or acquire new or additional space to serve as the dealer’s place of business, unless the supplier provides at least one year’s written notice of the condition that states all grounds supporting the condition. The supplier shall provide not less than two years for the dealer to complete the renovation or acquisition after the one year's notice period has expired.

(f) To discriminate, directly or indirectly, in prices charged between different dealers with respect to purchases of equipment or repair parts of like grade and quality and identical brand, where the effect of that discrimination may be to substantially lessen competition, tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any dealer who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of the discrimination. However, different prices may be charged if (1) the differences are due to differences in the cost of manufacture, sale or delivery of the equipment or repair parts, or (2) the supplier can show that its lower price was made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor and the lower price was made available to other dealers, or (3) the differences are related to the volume of equipment purchased by dealers if the supplier offers all other similarly situated dealers the same volume program.

(g) To prevent, by contract or otherwise, any dealer from changing its capital structure, ownership, or the means by which the dealership is financed, provided the dealer at all times meets any reasonable capital standards imposed by the supplier or as otherwise agreed to between the dealer and the supplier and imposed on similarly situated dealers, and provided this change by the dealer does not result in a change of the controlling interest in the executive management or board of directors, or any guarantors of the dealership.

(h) To prevent, by contract or otherwise, any dealer or any officer, member, partner, or stockholder of any dealer from selling or transferring any part of the interest of any of them to any other party or parties. However, no dealer, officer, partner, member, or stockholder shall have the right to sell, transfer, or assign the dealership or power of management or control of the dealership without the written consent of the supplier.

(i) To require a dealer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel that would relieve any person from liability imposed by this section.

(j) To require any dealer to purchase goods or services as a condition of the sale by the supplier to the dealer of any equipment, repair parts, or other goods or services; except that nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit a supplier from requiring the dealer to purchase repair parts, special tools, and training reasonably necessary to maintain the safe operation or quality of operation in the field of any equipment offered for sale by the dealer.

(l) To penalize any dealer that purchases equipment or repair parts for sale manufactured by another supplier.

(m) To discriminate, directly or indirectly, between dealers of the same product line in filling an order placed by a dealer for retail sale or lease of equipment under a dealer contract.

SEC. 5. Section 22902.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22902.5. Nothing in this chapter permits the offering or enforcement of a provision in a dealer contract that requires a dealer to comply with a minimum price-fixing provision or any other provision to limit competition. For purposes of this chapter, a provision in a dealer contract providing for exclusive territorial rights and its corresponding provisions shall not be prohibited.

SEC. 6. Section 22903 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

(b) Except where there are grounds for termination of a dealer contract pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (8) of subdivision (c), a supplier shall give a dealer 180 days written notice of the supplier's intent to terminate a dealer contract. The notice shall include all reasons constituting good cause for the termination and shall provide the dealer with 60 days to cure any claimed deficiency. If the deficiency is cured within 60 days to the satisfaction of the supplier, which shall be determined in good faith, the notice of termination shall be void. Except as provided in subdivision (d), a supplier may not terminate a dealer contract based on paragraph (12) of subdivision (c) unless the supplier gives the dealer notice of that action at least one year before the effective date of that action. If the dealer achieves the supplier's requirements for reasonable standards or performance objectives before the expiration of the one-year notice period, the notice shall be void and the dealer contract shall continue in full force and effect.

(c) No supplier, directly or through an officer, agent, or employee, may terminate, cancel, fail to renew, or materially change the competitive circumstances of a dealer contract without good cause. In addition to the definition in subdivision (l) of Section 22901, good cause exists whenever the dealer has taken any of the following actions:

(1) Transferred a controlling ownership interest in the dealership without the consent of the supplier, who shall not withhold consent unreasonably.

(3) Filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or has had an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed against the dealer that has not been discharged within 60 days after the filing or is insolvent or in receivership.

(4) Pleaded guilty to or has been convicted of a felony involving an act of moral turpitude.

(5) Failed to operate in the normal course of business for seven consecutive business days, without the consent of the supplier, or has terminated the business.

(6) Relocated or established a new or additional dealer's place of business without the supplier's consent.

(7) Materially defaulted under any chattel mortgage or other security agreement between the dealer and the supplier, or there has been a revocation of any guarantee of the dealer's present or future obligations to the supplier. However, good cause does not exist if a person revokes any guarantee in connection with or following the transfer of that person's entire ownership interest in the dealer unless the supplier requires that person to execute a new guarantee of the dealer's present or future obligations in connection with that transfer of ownership interest.

(8) Failed to satisfy any payment obligation as it became due and payable to the supplier, failed to promptly account to the supplier for any proceeds from the sale of equipment, or failed to hold those proceeds in trust for the benefit of the supplier.

(9) Engaged in conduct that is injurious or detrimental to any of the following:

(A) The dealer's customers. This includes, but is not limited to, the following conduct: excessive pricing, misleading advertising, failure to provide service and replacement parts, and failure to perform warranty obligations.

(C) The representation or reputation of the supplier's product.

(10) Consistently failed to meet building and housekeeping requirements, or failed to provide adequate sales, service, or parts personnel commensurate with the dealer contract.

(11) Consistently failed to comply with the applicable licensing laws pertaining to the products and services being represented for and on the supplier's behalf.

(12) Consistently failed to meet and maintain the supplier's requirements for reasonable standards and performance objectives, if the supplier has given the dealer reasonable standards and performance objectives that are based on the manufacturer's experience in other comparable market areas.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), if the sales, service, rental, and repair of a supplier's product represents the lesser of 10 percent or three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) of the dealer's total gross annual revenue that includes, but is not limited to, the sales, service, rental, or repair, for each dealer location, the supplier may terminate a dealer contract based on paragraph (12) of subdivision (c) upon providing the dealer with notice of that action at least 180 days before the effective date of that action. If the dealer achieves the supplier's requirements for reasonable standards or performance objectives within 60 days of receipt of the termination notice, the notice shall be void and the dealer contract shall continue in full force and effect.

(e) Notwithstanding a dealer contract that provides for exclusivity during the term of the contract, a supplier may begin contract negotiations with a potential replacement dealer 60 days prior to the expiration of the notice period that has been provided pursuant to subdivisions (b) or (d) if the dealer failed to achieve the supplier's requirements for reasonable standards or performance objectives within 60 days of receipt of the termination notice. Nothing in this subdivision shall authorize a replacement dealer to conduct operations with a supplier during the term of a dealer contract.

SEC. 7. Section 22903.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

(b) If a supplier has contractual authority to approve or deny a request for a sale or transfer of a dealer's business or an equity ownership interest in the business, the supplier shall approve or deny the request within 60 days after receiving a written request from the dealer. If the supplier has neither approved nor denied the request within the 60-day period, the request shall be deemed approved. The dealer's request shall include reasonable financial information, personal background, character references, and work history information for the acquiring persons. If a supplier denies a request made pursuant to this section, the supplier shall provide the dealer with a written notice of that denial that states the reasons for the denial. A supplier may only deny a request based on the failure of the proposed transferees to meet the reasonable requirements consistently imposed by the supplier in determining approval of transfers or approvals of new dealers.

(c) If a dealer dies and the supplier has contractual authority to approve or deny a request for the sale or transfer of the dealer's business or an equity ownership interest in the business, the dealer's estate or other person with authority to transfer the dealer's assets shall have 180 days to submit to the supplier a written request for a sale or transfer of that business or equity ownership interest. If the request is timely submitted, the supplier shall approve or deny that request in accordance with subdivision (b). Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this chapter, any attempt by a supplier to terminate the dealer contract as a result of the death of a dealer shall be delayed until there has been compliance with the terms of this section or the 180-day period has expired, as applicable.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), if a supplier and dealer executed an agreement concerning succession rights prior to the dealer's death, and if the agreement is still in effect, the agreement shall be observed even if it designated someone other than the surviving spouse or heirs of the decedent as the successor.

(e) A supplier may withhold consent to a transfer of an interest in a dealership if, with due regard to regional market conditions and distribution economies, the dealer's area of responsibility or trade area does not afford sufficient sales potential to reasonably support a dealer. In any dispute between a supplier and dealer under this subdivision, the supplier shall bear the burden of proving that the dealer's area of responsibility or trade area does not afford sufficient sales potential to reasonably support a dealer.

SEC. 8. Section 22903.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22903.2. (a) This section shall only apply to dealer contracts between a single-line dealer and its single-line supplier.

(b) No supplier may terminate a dealer contract without good cause. In addition to the definition in subdivision (l) of Section 22901, good cause exists whenever any one of the following is applicable:

(1) There has been a closeout or sale of 65 percent or more of the dealer's assets related to the equipment business or there has been a commencement of a dissolution or liquidation of the dealer.

(2) The dealer has changed its principal place of business or added additional locations without prior approval of the supplier, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(3) The dealer has materially defaulted under a chattel mortgage or other security agreement between the dealer and the supplier, or there has been a revocation or discontinuance of a guarantee of a present or future obligation of the dealer to the supplier.

(4) The dealer has failed to operate in the normal course of business for seven consecutive days, without the consent of the supplier, or has otherwise abandoned the business.

(5) The dealer has pleaded guilty to or has been convicted of a felony involving an act of moral turpitude.

(6) The dealer has transferred an interest in the dealership, or a person with a substantial interest in the ownership or control of the dealership, including an individual, proprietor, partner or major shareholder, has withdrawn from the dealership or died, or a substantial reduction has occurred in the interest of a partner or major shareholder in the dealership. However, good cause does not exist if the supplier has consented to an action described in this paragraph.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, a supplier shall provide a dealer with at least 90 days written notice of termination. The notice shall state all reasons constituting good cause for termination and shall state that the dealer has 60 days in which to cure any claimed deficiency. If the deficiency is cured within 60 days, the notice shall be void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the good cause for termination is due to the dealer's failure to meet or maintain the supplier's requirements for market penetration, a reasonable period of time shall have existed where the supplier has worked with the dealer to gain the desired market share. The notice and right to cure provisions under this subdivision shall not apply if the reason for termination is for any reason set forth in subdivision (b).

(d) If a dealer dies, a supplier shall have 90 days in which to consider and make a determination on a request by a family member to enter into a new dealer contract to operate the dealership. If the supplier determines that the requesting family member is not acceptable, the supplier shall provide the family member with a written notice of its determination with the stated reasons for rejection. This section does not entitle an heir, personal representative, or family member to operate a dealership without specific written consent of the supplier.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), if a supplier and dealer have previously executed an agreement concerning succession rights prior to the dealer's death, and if that agreement is still in effect, the agreement shall be observed even if it designated someone other than the surviving spouse or heirs of the decedent as the successor.

SEC. 9. Section 22903.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22903.3. (a) If a dealer submits a warranty claim to a supplier while the dealer contract is in effect or within 60 days after the termination of the dealer contract, and if the claim is for work performed before the termination or expiration of the dealer contract, the supplier shall approve or reject that warranty claim by written notice to the dealer within 45 days after the supplier's receipt of the warranty claim. If the supplier approves the warranty claim, the supplier shall pay the dealer or credit the dealer's account the entire amount owed with respect to the claim within 30 days of approval. If the supplier rejects the warranty claim, the supplier shall give the dealer written or electronic notice of the grounds for rejection. These reasons must be consistent with the supplier's reason for rejecting the warranty claims of other dealers, both in terms and manner of enforcement. If the supplier does not provide the dealer with grounds for rejection, the claim shall be deemed to be approved.

(b) Any claim that is not approved by the supplier based upon the dealer's failure to properly follow the procedural or technical requirements for submission of the warranty claim may be resubmitted in proper form by the dealer within 30 days of receipt of the supplier's rejection notification.

(c) Warranty work performed by the dealer shall be compensated in accordance with the reasonable and customary amount of time required to complete the work, expressed in hours and fractions multiplied by the dealer's established customer hourly retail labor rate, which shall have previously been made known to the supplier. Parts used in warranty repair work shall be reimbursed at the current net parts cost plus 15 percent and the cost of freight. For purposes of this subdivision, "established customer hourly retail labor rate" means the lowest posted customer in-shop retail labor rate for the six months preceding the claim.

(d) For the purpose of this act, any repair work or installation of replacement parts with respect to the dealer's equipment in inventory or equipment of the dealer's customers at the request of the supplier, including work performed pursuant to a product improvement program, shall be deemed to create a warranty claim for which the dealer shall be paid pursuant to this section.

(e) A supplier may audit warranty claims submitted by its dealers for a period of up to one year. If the audit reveals an amount was misrepresented by the supplier, the supplier may charge its dealers the amount shown by the audit to be misrepresented. If a warranty claim is misrepresented, then subsequent warranty claims submitted within the two-year period ending with the date of the audit may be audited. However, a supplier shall not audit a warranty claim more than once.

(f) The requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) apply to all warranty claims submitted by a dealer to a supplier where the dealer has complied with the supplier's reasonable written policies and procedures for warranty reimbursement. A supplier's warranty reimbursement policies and procedures shall be deemed unreasonable to the extent they conflict with any of the provisions of this section.

(g) A dealer may choose to accept alternate reimbursement terms and conditions instead of the requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) if there is a written dealer contract between the supplier and the dealer that requires the supplier to compensate the dealer for warranty labor costs either as: (1) a discount in the pricing of the equipment to the dealer; or (2) a lump-sum payment to the dealer that is made to the dealer within 90 days of the sale of the supplier's new equipment. If the requirements of this subdivision are met and alternate terms and conditions are in place, subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) do not apply and the alternate terms and conditions are enforceable. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to affect the supplier's obligation to reimburse the dealer for parts in accordance with subdivision (c).

(h) If a supplier fails or refuses to pay for warranty work covered under this section within 30 days of the supplier's approval of the dealer's claim, the supplier shall be liable for 110 percent of the total claim, plus interest at the statutory rate from the payment due date until the date of payment, and actual costs for any court or arbitration proceeding, including costs for attorney's fees and arbitrators.

SEC. 10. Section 22904 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22904. Every supplier shall provide to its dealers, on an annual basis, an opportunity to return a portion of their surplus parts inventory for credit. The surplus procedure shall be administered as follows:

(a) The supplier may notify its dealers of a time period, of at least 90 days' duration, during which time dealers may submit their surplus parts list and return their surplus parts to the supplier. A supplier may choose to designate a different period of time for each dealer to return surplus parts.

(b) If a supplier has not notified a dealer of a specific time period for returning surplus parts within the preceding 12 months, then it shall authorize and allow the dealer's surplus parts return request within 60 days after receipt of that request from the dealer.

(c) Pursuant to the provisions of this section, a supplier shall allow surplus parts return authority on a dollar value of parts equal to 10 percent of the total dollar value of parts purchased by the dealer from the supplier during the 12-month period immediately preceding the notification to the dealer by the supplier of the surplus parts return program, or the month the dealer's return request is made, whichever is applicable.

(d) Returned parts shall be in new and unused condition and shall have been purchased by the dealer from the supplier to whom they are returned. Obsolete and superseded parts may be returned if listed in the supplier's current returnable parts list or if those parts have not been the subject of a supplier's return program at the date of the notification to the dealer by the supplier of the surplus parts return program, or the date of the dealer's parts return request, whichever is applicable.

(e) The minimum lawful credit to be allowed for returned parts shall be 95 percent of the current net parts cost, as listed in the supplier's current returnable parts list at the date of the notification to the dealer by the supplier of the surplus parts return program, or the date of the dealer's parts return request, whichever is applicable.

(g) If an outstanding balance is owed to the supplier, the supplier may credit the dealer's account within 30 days after the supplier's receipt of the dealer's returned parts. If no balance exists, the supplier shall pay the dealer within 30 days after the supplier's receipt of the dealer's returned parts. If a supplier refuses to credit the dealer's account or pay the dealer for returned parts covered by this section within 30 days of the supplier's receipt of returned parts, the supplier shall be liable for 110 percent of the total current net parts cost, plus interest at the statutory rate from the payment due date until the date of payment, and actual costs for any court or arbitration proceeding, including costs for attorney's fees and arbitrators.

SEC. 11. Section 22905 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22905. Except as provided in subdivision (p), whenever a dealer contract is terminated by cancellation or nonrenewal, the supplier shall repurchase the inventory as provided in this section.

(a) The supplier shall repurchase at its fair market value or assume the lease responsibilities of any specific data-processing hardware that the supplier required the dealer to purchase to satisfy the minimum requirements of the dealer contract, including computer systems equipment required and approved by the supplier to communicate with the supplier. The fair market value of property subject to repurchase shall be deemed to be equal to the acquisition cost, including any shipping, handling and set-up fees, less straight line depreciation of that acquisition cost over three years. If the dealer purchased data-processing hardware or software that exceeded the supplier's minimum requirements, the acquisition cost of that data-processing hardware or software shall be deemed to be the acquisition cost of hardware or software of similar quality that did not exceed the minimum requirements of the supplier.

(b) The supplier shall pay a sum equal to 100 percent of the net equipment cost of all new, unsold, undamaged, and complete equipment.

(c) The supplier shall pay a sum equal to 100 percent of the net equipment cost of all unsold, undamaged demonstrators, less depreciation due to usage of those demonstrators. The depreciation adjustment shall be based on published industry rental rates to the extent those rates are available. For purposes of this subdivision, demonstrators, with hour meters that have less than 50 hours of use shall be considered new, unsold equipment subject to repurchase under this section.

(d) The supplier shall pay a sum equal to 100 percent of the net equipment cost of all unsold and undamaged equipment used in a manufacturer created incentive program, as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 22901, less depreciation due to usage and bonus or volume incentive received by the dealer for the equipment. The depreciation adjustment shall be based on published industry rental rates to the extent these rates are available. For purposes of this subdivision, equipment with hour meters used in a manufacturer created incentive program with less than 50 hours of use will be considered new, unsold equipment subject to repurchase under this section.

(e) The supplier shall pay a sum equal to 95 percent of the current net parts costs on new, unsold, undamaged repair parts that had previously been purchased from the supplier and held by the dealer on the date that the dealer contract terminates or expires.

(f) The supplier shall also pay the dealer 5 percent of the current net parts cost on all new, unused, and undamaged repair parts returned, to cover the cost of handling, packing, and loading of those parts for return to the supplier. The dealer may allow the supplier to perform the handling, packing, and loading of parts instead of receiving the 5 percent payment for these services. When the supplier is chosen to perform these services, the dealer shall make available to the supplier, at the dealer's address or at the places at which it is located, all equipment previously purchased by the dealer.

(g) The supplier shall pay a sum equal to 75 percent of the net equipment cost, including shipping, handling and set-up fees, of all specialized equipment or repair tools previously purchased pursuant to requirements of the supplier prior to the date of the applicable notification of termination or nonrenewal of the dealer contract. The specialized equipment or repair tools must be unique to the supplier's product line and must be complete and in operating condition.

(h) Upon the payment or allowance of credit to the dealer's account of the sums required by this section, the title to all inventory purchased shall pass to the supplier making payment, and the supplier shall be entitled to the possession of the inventory. All payments or allowances of credit due to dealers shall be paid or credited within 90 days after receipt by the supplier of property required to be repurchased. Any payments or allowances of credit due to dealers that are not paid within the 90-day period will accrue interest at the statutory rate. The supplier may withhold payments due under this section during the period of time in which the dealer fails to comply with its contractual obligations to remove any signage indicating that the dealer is an authorized dealer of the supplier.

(i) The supplier and dealer shall each pay 50 percent of the costs of freight to ship equipment to the nearest retail outlet or to ship repair parts to the nearest supplier distribution center.

(j) The provisions of this section shall not require the repurchase from the dealer of any of the following:

(1) Any repair part that is in a broken or damaged package. However, the supplier shall be required to repurchase a repair part in a broken or damaged package, for a repurchase price that is equal to 85 percent of the current net parts cost for the repair part, if the aggregate current price for the entire package of repair parts is seventy-five dollars ($75) or higher.

(2) Any repair part that, because of its condition, is not resalable as a new part without reconditioning.

(3) Any inventory for which the dealer is unable to furnish evidence, satisfactory to the supplier, of clear title, free and clear of all claims, liens and encumbrances.

(4) Any inventory that the dealer desires to keep if the dealer has a contractual right to do so.

(5) Any equipment or repair parts that are not in new, unsold, undamaged, complete condition; subject to the provisions of this act relating to demonstrators.

(6) Any equipment or repair parts acquired by the dealer from any source other than the supplier unless that equipment or those repair parts were ordered from, or invoiced to, the dealer by the supplier.

(7) Any equipment or repair parts that are not returned to the supplier within 90 days after the latter of (A) the effective date of termination of a dealer contract or (B) the date the dealer receives from the supplier all information, documents or supporting materials required by the supplier to comply with the supplier's return policy. However, this paragraph shall not be applicable to a dealer if the supplier did not give the dealer notice of the 90-day deadline at the time the applicable notice of termination was sent to the dealer.

(k) If any supplier fails or refuses to repurchase any inventory covered under this section within 90 days after termination of a dealer contract, the supplier shall be liable for the total amount of 110 percent of the current net equipment cost of the inventory, plus any freight charges paid by the dealer, interest accrued at the statutory rate from the date of shipment to the supplier until the date of payment, 5 percent for handling, packing, and loading, and actual costs for any court or arbitration proceedings, including costs for attorney's fees and arbitrators.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Commercial Code, the dealer shall retain a first and prior lien against all inventory returned by the dealer to the supplier under this act until the dealer has paid all amounts owed by the supplier for the repurchase of inventory required under this act.

(m) This section shall not be construed to affect any security interest that the supplier may have in the inventory of the dealer, and any repurchase shall not be subject to the provisions of the bulk sales law or to the claims of any secured or unsecured creditors of the supplier or any assignee of the supplier until such time as the dealer has received full payment or credit.

(n) The dealer may not cancel a dealer contract to avoid a payment obligation to the supplier for equipment or parts.

(o) If a dealer has more than one business location covered by the same dealer contract, the repurchase requirements of this section shall apply only to the repurchase of a dealer's inventory obtained from the supplier or the supplier's distributor by the particular business location or locations involved in the dealer contract termination and shall not apply to any other business locations covered by the same contract.

(p) If a supplier's product represents the lesser of 10 percent or three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) of the dealer's total gross annual revenue that includes, but is not limited to, the sales, service, rental, or repair for each dealer location, then the supplier shall repurchase the inventory only if a dealer contract is canceled or not renewed by the dealer for any of the following reasons:

(1) The supplier consistently failed to provide adequate product support for the type and use of the product, which includes, but is not limited to, technical assistance, operators and repair manuals, and parts lists and diagrams.

(2) The supplier consistently failed to provide adequate training, required by the supplier, for maintenance, repair, or usage of the supplier's product.

(3) The supplier consistently failed to provide marketing and marketing support for the supplier's product if marketing is a requirement of the dealer contract.

(4) The supplier's product is defective and breaches the implied warranty of merchantability as defined in Section 1791.1 of the Civil Code.

(6) The supplier abandons the market thereby failing to provide parts and services necessary for a dealer to perform warranty obligations.

(7) The supplier engaged in conduct that is injurious or detrimental to the dealer's customers, the public welfare, or the reputation of the dealer.

(8) The supplier made a material misrepresentation or falsification of any record.

(9) The supplier violated any provision of this chapter.

(q) Notwithstanding subdivision (p), nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the supplier's responsibility to repurchase a dealer's inventory as provided in this section when the supplier cancels or fails to renew a dealer contract.

SEC. 12. Section 22906 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22906. (a) A dealer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 22901, is not entitled to establish a lien pursuant to this act, unless that person has first sent to the lien debtor a written notice, by certified mail, which states all of the following:

(1) The payment of the reasonable or agreed charges is more than 90 days overdue. This requirement does not apply to equipment subject to repurchase that was returned to the supplier subsequent to return of other equipment also subject to repurchase for which payment is overdue.

(2) The amount of reasonable or agreed charges that are overdue.

(3) The lien debtor has the following three alternatives:

(A) Allow the lien to be filed.

(B) Enter into a consensual security interest in the proceeds, pursuant to the Commercial Code.

(C) Pay the reasonable or agreed charges that are overdue.

(4) The lien debtor has 10 days from receipt of the notice to select an alternative, notify the lien claimant of the alternative selected, and satisfy all of the requirements of the selected alternative. This part of the notice to the lien debtor shall be in 10-point type or bolder.

(5) The lien claimant may file the notice of claim of lien pursuant to this chapter at any time thereafter if the lien debtor does not comply with the requirements of this section.

(b) A dealer who has complied with subdivision (a), has a lien for payment of the repurchase amount payable pursuant to subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 22905 and for the costs of enforcing the lien.

(c) The lien established pursuant to this chapter attaches to the proceeds of any sale of the equipment returned for repurchase.

(d) The amount of charges secured by the lien shall not exceed an amount equal to the reasonable or agreed charges for the equipment specified in Section 22905.

SEC. 13. Section 22907 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22907. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the notice of lien shall remain in effect, and no new notice of claim of lien shall be required in order to maintain the lien, as long as the dealer remains unpaid for the amounts secured by the lien.

SEC. 14. Section 22908 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22908. The lien created by this act shall be perfected and shall be effective upon the filing of a notice claim of lien with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 15. Section 22909 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22909. The notice of claim of lien shall contain all of the following information:

(a) The name and address of the lien claimant.
(b) The name and address of the lien debtor.
(c) The location of the property to which the equipment was returned.
(d) A statement that the payment of reasonable or agreed charges is more than 90 days overdue.

(e) The amount of the reasonable or agreed charges that are overdue.
(f) A statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that includes all of the following:

(1) That the lien claimant sent to the lien debtor the notice required pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 22906.

(2) That more than 10 days have elapsed since the notice was received by the lien debtor.

(3) That the lien debtor has not complied with the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 22906.

(g) A statement that the lien claimant has an equipment repurchase lien pursuant to Section 22906.

SEC. 16. Section 22910 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22910. The notice of claim of lien shall be signed by the lien claimant or by a person authorized by the claimant.

SEC. 17. Section 22911 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22911. The notice of a claim of lien shall be filed on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 9502 of the Commercial Code. The standard form shall be completed in its entirety except as follows:

(a) The lien claimant may be identified either as a lien claimant or as a secured party.

(c) The description of the collateral shall be the information specified in subdivisions (c), (d), (e), and (g) of Section 22909.

(d) Attached to the form shall be a separately signed statement containing the information specified in subdivision (f) of Section 22909.

SEC. 18. Section 22913 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22913. The lien claimant shall provide written notice of the claim of lien to the lien debtor within 10 days of the date of filing the lien with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 19. Section 22915 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22915. (a) The lien created pursuant to this act shall be treated according to the following:

(1) Have priority in accordance with the time the notice of claim of lien is filed with the Secretary of State.

(2) Have the same priority as a security interest perfected by the filing of a financing statement as of the date of notice of claim of lien was filed with the Secretary of State.

(3) Not have priority over labor claims for wages and salaries for personal services which are provided by any employee to any lien debtor in connection with the equipment supplied, the proceeds of which are subject to the lien.

SEC. 20. Section 22920 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22920. (a) When a lien claimant receives payment for the total amounts secured by the lien, the lien claimant shall send the lien debtor a statement relinquishing the security interest under the notice of claim of lien, which shall be identified by the date, names of parties thereto, and file number. If the affected lienholder of record fails to send the termination statement within 10 days, he or she is liable to the debtor for all actual damages suffered by the debtor by reason of this failure, and if that failure is in bad faith, for a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) The filing officer shall mark each termination statement with the date and time of the filing and shall index the statement under the name of the lien debtor and under the file number of the original lien. If the filing officer has an electronic microfilm or other photographic record of the lien and related filings, he or she may remove and destroy the originals from the files after receipt of the termination statement. If the filing officer does not have the record, he or she may remove and destroy the originals from the files after one year from the receipt of the termination statement.

SEC. 21. Section 22922 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22922. (a) Except to the extent specifically set forth in this act, the lien created by this act is subject to Division 9 (commencing with Section 9101) of the Commercial Code.

(b) For the purposes of this act, the following terms have the following meanings:

(c) A security agreement is not necessary to make an equipment repurchase lien created under this chapter enforceable.

(d) An equipment repurchase lien created under this chapter shall not continue in the repurchased equipment following the disposition thereof.

(e) The right of a dealer to enforce the lien created under this act shall be governed by this act and shall not be governed by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 9601) of Division 9 of the Commercial Code.

SEC. 22. Section 22924 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22924. (a) In the event of the death or incapacity of the dealer, which in this context shall mean an owner, equal or majority partner, or the majority stockholder of a corporation, operating as a dealer, the supplier shall, at the option of the heirs at law, if the dealer died intestate, or the executor under the terms of the deceased dealer's last will and testament, if the dealer died testate, repurchase the inventory from the estate as if the supplier had terminated the dealer contract and the inventory repurchase provisions of Section 22905 are applicable. The heirs or executor shall have 180 days from the date of the death of the dealer or majority stockholder to exercise the option under this section. However, nothing in this section shall require the repurchase of inventory, if the heirs or executor and the supplier enter into a new dealer agreement, or if a successor to the dealer is established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 22903.1. This section shall be subject to that portion of the dealer contract pertaining to death of the dealer or succession, to the extent the contract is not inconsistent. Nothing in this section shall entitle an heir or personal representative of a deceased dealer or majority stockholder to operate the dealership beyond the 180 days provided for in this subdivision without the consent of the supplier.

(b) The provisions of this section shall be supplemental to any agreement between the dealer and the supplier covering the return of equipment, attachments, and repair parts. Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the rights of a supplier to charge back to the dealer's account amounts previously paid or credited as a discount incident to the dealer's purchase of inventory shall not be affected. Further, any repurchase shall not be subject to the provisions of the bulk sales law.

SEC. 23. Section 22925 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22925. Any dealer may bring an action against a supplier in any court of competent jurisdiction for damages sustained by the dealer as a consequence of the supplier's violation of any provisions of this chapter, together with costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The dealer may also be granted injunctive relief against unlawful termination, cancellation, nonrenewal, and change in competitive circumstances. The remedies set forth in this action shall not be deemed exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies permitted by law. This section is not intended to affect current law pertaining to product liability actions.

SEC. 24. Section 22926 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22926. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 25. Section 22927 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22927. This act shall apply to dealer contracts in effect on the effective date of this act that have no expiration date and that are continuing contracts, and all other dealer contracts entered into or renewed on or after the effective date of this act.

A provision in any contract or agreement with respect to a supplier that requires jurisdiction or venue or forum outside of this state or requires the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this act.

SEC. 26. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make needed changes to regulatory provisions relating to equipment dealers as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 713

An act to amend Sections 11165.9 and 11166 of the Penal Code, relating to child abuse reporting.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
(a) Mandated reporters, as defined in Section 11165.7 of the Penal Code, are required to submit reports of child abuse or suspected child abuse to agencies prescribed in the following section, by an initial telephone report and a written followup report.

(b) Initial telephone reports of child abuse or suspected child abuse are the preferred method of reporting because the screener answering the call from the mandated reporter has the opportunity to assess the validity and seriousness of the report for purposes of expediting further investigation. In addition, telephone reporting allows for screeners to ask for additional known information from the mandated reporters that might not otherwise be conveyed in a written report.

(c) By allowing reports of child abuse or suspected child abuse to be received by a means that excludes the initial telephone report the agency receiving the report loses an essential tool in expediting child abuse investigations: the ability to assess the situation through direct contact with the mandated reporter. Therefore, situations in which the initial telephone report cannot be received should be remedied and reduced to the extent possible in order to strengthen the child abuse reporting safety net set forth in statute.

SEC. 2. Section 11165.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11165.9. Reports of suspected child abuse or neglect shall be made by mandated reporters to any police department or sheriff's department, not including a school district police or security department, county probation department, if designated by the county to receive mandated reports, or the county welfare department. Any of those agencies shall accept a report of suspected child abuse or neglect whether offered by a mandated reporter or another person, or referred by another agency, even if the agency to whom the report is being made lacks subject matter or geographical jurisdiction to investigate the reported case, unless the agency can immediately electronically transfer the call to an agency with proper jurisdiction. When an agency takes a report about a case of suspected child abuse or neglect in which that agency lacks jurisdiction, the agency shall immediately refer the case by telephone, fax, or electronic transmission to an agency with proper jurisdiction. Agencies that are required to receive reports of suspected child abuse or neglect may not refuse to accept a report of suspected child abuse or neglect from a mandated reporter or another person unless otherwise authorized pursuant to this section, and shall maintain a record of all reports received.

SEC. 3. Section 11166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11166. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), a mandated reporter shall make a report to an agency specified in Section 11165.9 whenever the mandated reporter, in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom the mandated reporter knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. The mandated reporter shall make an initial report to the agency immediately or as soon as is practicably possible by telephone and the mandated reporter shall prepare and send, fax, or electronically transmit a written followup report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. The mandated reporter may include with the report any nonprivileged documentary evidence the mandated reporter possesses relating to the incident.

(1) For the purposes of this article, “reasonable suspicion” means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing, when appropriate, on his or her training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect. For the purpose of this article, the pregnancy of a minor does not, in and of itself, constitute a basis for a reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse.

(2) The agency shall be notified and a report shall be prepared and sent, faxed, or electronically transmitted even if the child has expired, regardless of whether or not the possible abuse was a factor contributing to the death, and even if suspected child abuse was discovered during an autopsy.

(3) Any report made by a mandated reporter pursuant to this section shall be known as a mandated report.

(b) If after reasonable efforts a mandated reporter is unable to submit an initial report by telephone, he or she shall immediately or as soon as is practicably possible, by fax or electronic transmission, make a one-time automated written report on the form prescribed by the Department of Justice, and shall also be available to respond to a telephone followup call by the agency with which he or she filed the report. A mandated reporter who files a one-time automated written report because he or she was unable to submit an initial report by telephone is not required to submit a written followup report.

(1) The one-time automated written report form prescribed by the Department of Justice shall be clearly identifiable so that it is not mistaken for a standard written followup report. In addition, the automated one-time report shall contain a section that allows the mandated reporter to state the reason the initial telephone call was not able to be completed. The reason for the submission of the one-time automated written report in lieu of the procedure prescribed in subdivision (a) shall be captured in the Child Welfare Services/Case Management System (CWS/CMS). The department shall work with stakeholders to modify reporting forms and the CWS/CMS as is necessary to accommodate the changes enacted by these provisions.

(2) This subdivision shall not become operative until the CWS/CMS is updated to capture the information prescribed in this subdivision.

(3) This subdivision shall become inoperative three years after this subdivision becomes operative or on January 1, 2009, which ever occurs first.

(4) On the inoperative date of these provisions, a report shall be submitted to the counties and the Legislature by the Department of Social Services that reflects the data collected from automated one-time reports indicating the reasons stated as to why the automated one-time report was filed in lieu of the initial telephone report.

(5) Nothing in this section shall supersede the requirement that a mandated reporter first attempt to make a report via telephone, or that agencies specified in Section 11165.9 accept reports from mandated reporters and other persons as required.

(c) Any mandated reporter who fails to report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect as required by this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by up to six months confinement in a county jail or by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both that imprisonment and fine. If a mandated reporter intentionally conceals his or her failure to report an incident known by the mandated reporter to be abuse or severe neglect under this section, the failure to report is a continuing offense until an agency specified in Section 11165.9 discovers the offense.

(d) (1) A clergy member who acquires knowledge or a reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect during a penitential communication is not subject to subdivision (a). For the purposes of this subdivision, "penitential communication" means a communication, intended to be in confidence, including, but not limited to, a sacramental confession, made to a clergy member who, in the course of the discipline or practice of his or her church, denomination, or organization, is authorized or accustomed to hear those communications, and under the discipline, tenets, customs, or practices of his or her church, denomination, or organization, has a duty to keep those communications secret.

(2) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to modify or limit a clergy member's duty to report known or suspected child abuse or neglect when the clergy member is acting in some other capacity that would otherwise make the clergy member a mandated reporter.

(3) (A) On or before January 1, 2004, a clergy member or any custodian of records for the clergy member may report to an agency specified in Section 11165.9 that the clergy member or any custodian of records for the clergy member, prior to January 1, 1997, in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment, other than during a penitential communication, acquired knowledge or had a reasonable suspicion that a child had been the victim of sexual abuse that the clergy member or any custodian of records for the clergy member did not previously report the abuse to an agency specified in Section 11165.9. The provisions of Section 11172 shall apply to all reports made pursuant to this paragraph.

(B) This paragraph shall apply even if the victim of the known or suspected abuse has reached the age of majority by the time the required report is made.

(C) The local law enforcement agency shall have jurisdiction to investigate any report of child abuse made pursuant to this paragraph even if the report is made after the victim has reached the age of majority.

(e) Any commercial film and photographic print processor who has knowledge of or observes, within the scope of his or her professional capacity or employment, any film, photograph, videotape, negative, or slide depicting a child under the age of 16 years engaged in an act of sexual conduct, shall report the instance of suspected child abuse to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case immediately, or as soon as practicably possible, by telephone and shall prepare and send, fax, or electronically transmit a written report of it with a copy of the film, photograph, videotape, negative, or slide attached within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. As used in this subdivision, "sexual conduct" means any of the following:

(1) Sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals.

(5) Exhibition of the genitals, pubic, or rectal areas of any person for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(f) Any mandated reporter who knows or reasonably suspects that the home or institution in which a child resides is unsuitable for the child because of abuse or neglect of the child shall bring the condition to the attention of the agency to which, and at the same time as, he or she makes a report of the abuse or neglect pursuant to subdivision (a).

(g) Any other person who has knowledge of or observes a child whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse or neglect may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect to an agency specified in Section 11165.9.

(h) When two or more persons, who are required to report, jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, and when there is agreement among them, the telephone report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report.

(i) (1) The reporting duties under this section are individual, and no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit the reporting duties, and no person making a report shall be subject to any sanction for making the report. However, internal procedures to facilitate reporting and apprise supervisors and administrators of reports may be established provided that they are not inconsistent with this article.

(2) The internal procedures shall not require any employee required to make reports pursuant to this article to disclose his or her identity to the employer.

(3) Reporting the information regarding a case of possible child abuse or neglect to an employer, supervisor, school principal, school counselor, coworker, or other person shall not be a substitute for making a mandated report to an agency specified in Section 11165.9.

(j) A county probation or welfare department shall immediately, or as soon as practicably possible, report by telephone, fax, or electronic transmission to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case, to the agency given the responsibility for investigation of cases under Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to the district attorney's office every known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, as defined in Section 11165.6, except acts or omissions coming within subdivision (b) of Section 11165.2, or reports made pursuant to Section 11165.13 based on risk to a child which relates solely to the inability of the parent to provide the child with regular care due to the parent's substance abuse, which shall be reported only to the county welfare or probation department. A county probation or welfare department also shall send, fax, or electronically transmit a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it makes a telephone report under this subdivision.

(k) A law enforcement agency shall immediately, or as soon as practicably possible, report by telephone, fax, or electronic transmission to the agency given responsibility for investigation of cases under Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and to the district attorney's office every known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect reported to it, except acts or omissions coming within subdivision (b) of Section 11165.2, which shall be reported only to the county welfare or probation department. A law enforcement agency shall report to the county welfare or probation department every known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect reported to it which is alleged to have occurred as a result of the action of a person responsible for the child's welfare, or as the result of the failure of a person responsible for the child's welfare to adequately protect the minor from abuse when the person responsible for the child's welfare knew or reasonably should have known that the minor was in danger of abuse. A law enforcement agency also shall send, fax, or electronically transmit a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it makes a telephone report under this subdivision.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because, in that regard, this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 714

An act to amend Section 13001 of the Elections Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

SECTION 1. Section 13001 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

13001. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), all expenses authorized and necessarily incurred in the preparation for and conduct of elections as provided in this code shall be paid from the county treasuries, except that when an election is called by the governing body of a city the expenses shall be paid from the treasury of the city. All payments shall be made in the same manner as other county or city expenditures are made. The elections official, in providing the materials required by this division, need not utilize the services of the county or city purchasing agent.

(b) All expenses authorized and necessarily incurred on or after January 1, 2005, in the preparation for and conduct of elections proclaimed by the Governor to fill a vacancy in the office of Senator or Member of the Assembly, or to fill a vacancy in the office of United States Senator or Representative in the Congress of the United States, shall be paid by the state. If an election proclaimed by the Governor to fill a vacancy in an office specified by this subdivision is consolidated with a local election, only those additional expenses directly related to the election proclaimed by the Governor shall be paid by the state. Nothing in this section shall preclude the use of federal funds authorized by any other provision of law in elections in which at least one candidate for federal office appears on the ballot.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2006, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted on or before January 1, 2006, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 13001 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

13001. (a) All expenses authorized and necessarily incurred in the preparation for and conduct of elections as provided in this code shall be paid from the county treasuries, except that when an election is called by the governing body of a city the expenses shall be paid from the treasury of the city. All payments shall be made in the same manner as other county or city expenditures are made. The elections official, in providing the materials required by this division, need not utilize the services of the county or city purchasing agent.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to relieve counties of responsibility for expenses incurred in 2005 for the preparation and conduct of elections proclaimed by the Governor for specified purposes, it is necessary that this bill go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 715

An act to amend Sections 11106, 11108, 11108.3, 12001, 12021.3, 12026.2, 12028.5, 12036, 12070, 12071, 12072, 12076, 12078, 12082, 12132, and 12305 of, to repeal Section 12084, and to amend Section 26 of Chapter 23 of the Statutes of 1994, relating to firearms.

Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

11106. (a) In order to assist in the investigation of crime, the prosecution of civil actions by city attorneys pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the arrest and prosecution of criminals, and the recovery of lost, stolen, or found property, the Attorney General shall keep and properly file a complete record of all copies of fingerprints, copies of licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050, information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12053, dealers' records of sales of firearms, reports provided pursuant to Section 12072 or 12078, forms provided pursuant to Section 12084 as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, reports provided pursuant to Section 12071 that are not dealers' records of sales of firearms, and reports of stolen, lost, found, pledged, or pawned property in any city or county of this state, and shall, upon proper application therefor, furnish this information to the officers referred to in Section 11105.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the Attorney General shall not retain or compile any information from reports filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns, from forms submitted pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, for firearms that are not handguns, or from dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns. All copies of the forms submitted, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, for firearms that are not handguns, or of the dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the clearance by the Attorney General, unless the purchaser or transferor is ineligible to take possession of the firearm. All copies of the reports filed, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the receipt by the Attorney General, unless retention is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution.

(2) A peace officer, the Attorney General, a Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or any authorized local law enforcement employee shall not retain or compile any information from a firearms transaction record, as defined in Section 12071, for firearms that are not handguns unless retention or compilation is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution or in a proceeding to revoke a license issued pursuant to Section 12071.

(c) (1) The Attorney General shall permanently keep and properly file and maintain all information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Sections 12071, 12072, 12078, 12082, and former Section 12084 or any other law, as to handguns and maintain a registry thereof.

(2) The registry shall consist of all of the following:

(A) The name, address, identification of, place of birth (state or country), complete telephone number, occupation, sex, description, and all legal names and aliases ever used by the owner or person being loaned the particular handgun as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the Law Enforcement Firearms Transfer (LEFT), as defined in former Section 12084, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(B) The name and address of, and other information about, any person (whether a dealer or a private party) from whom the owner acquired or the person being loaned the particular handgun and when the firearm was acquired or loaned as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the LEFT, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(C) Any waiting period exemption applicable to the transaction which resulted in the owner of or the person being loaned the particular handgun acquiring or being loaned that firearm.

(D) The manufacturer's name if stamped on the firearm, model name or number if stamped on the firearm, and, if applicable, the serial number, other number (if more than one serial number is stamped on the firearm), caliber, type of firearm, if the firearm is new or used, barrel length, and color of the firearm.

(3) Information in the registry referred to in this subdivision shall, upon proper application therefor, be furnished to the officers referred to in Section 11105, to a city attorney prosecuting a civil action, solely for use in prosecuting that civil action and not for any other purpose, or to the person listed in the registry as the owner or person who is listed as being loaned the particular handgun.

(4) If any person is listed in the registry as the owner of a firearm through a Dealers' Record of Sale prior to 1979, and the person listed in the registry requests by letter that the Attorney General store and keep the record electronically, as well as in the record's existing photographic, photostatic, or nonerasable optically stored form, the Attorney General shall do so within three working days of receipt of the request. The Attorney General shall, in writing, and as soon as practicable, notify the person requesting electronic storage of the record that the request has been honored as required by this paragraph.

11106. (a) In order to assist in the investigation of crime, the prosecution of civil actions by city attorneys pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the arrest and prosecution of criminals, and the recovery of lost, stolen, or found property, the Attorney General shall keep and properly file a complete record of all copies of fingerprints, copies of licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050, information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12053, dealers' records of sales of firearms, reports provided pursuant to Section 12072 or 12078, forms provided pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, reports provided pursuant to Section 12071 that are not dealers' records of sales of firearms, and reports of stolen, lost, found, pledged, or pawned property in any city or county of this state, and shall, upon proper application therefor, furnish this information to the officers referred to in Section 11105.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the Attorney General shall not retain or compile any information from reports filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns, from forms submitted pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, for firearms that are not handguns, or from dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns. All copies of the forms submitted, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to Section 12084, as that section read prior to being repealed by the act that amended this section, for firearms that are not handguns, or of the dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the clearance by the Attorney General, unless the purchaser or transferor is ineligible to take possession of the firearm. All copies of the reports filed, or any information received in electronic form, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not handguns shall be destroyed within five days of the receipt by the Attorney General, unless retention is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution.

(2) A peace officer, the Attorney General, a Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or any authorized local law enforcement employee shall not retain or compile any information from a firearms transaction record, as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 12071, for firearms that are not handguns unless retention or compilation is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution or in a proceeding to revoke a license issued pursuant to Section 12071.

(c) (1) The Attorney General shall permanently keep and properly file and maintain all information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Sections 12071, 12072, 12078, 12082, and former Section 12084 or any other law, as to handguns and maintain a registry thereof.

(2) The registry shall consist of all of the following:

(A) The name, address, identification of, place of birth (state or country), complete telephone number, occupation, sex, description, and all legal names and aliases ever used by the owner or person being loaned the particular handgun as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the Law Enforcement Firearms Transfer (LEFT), as defined in former Section 12084, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(B) The name and address of, and other information about, any person (whether a dealer or a private party) from whom the owner acquired or the person being loaned the particular handgun and when the firearm was acquired or loaned as listed on the information provided to the department on the Dealers' Record of Sale, the LEFT, or reports made to the department pursuant to Section 12078 or any other law.

(C) Any waiting period exemption applicable to the transaction which resulted in the owner of or the person being loaned the particular handgun acquiring or being loaned that firearm.

(D) The manufacturer's name if stamped on the firearm, model name or number if stamped on the firearm, and, if applicable, the serial number, other number (if more than one serial number is stamped on the firearm), caliber, type of firearm, if the firearm is new or used, barrel length, and color of the firearm.

(3) Information in the registry referred to in this subdivision shall, upon proper application therefor, be furnished to the officers referred to in Section 11105, to a city attorney prosecuting a civil action, solely for use in prosecuting that civil action and not for any other purpose, or to the person listed in the registry as the owner or person who is listed as being loaned the particular handgun.

(4) If any person is listed in the registry as the owner of a firearm through a Dealers' Record of Sale prior to 1979, and the person listed in the registry requests by letter that the Attorney General store and keep the record electronically, as well as in the record's existing photographic, photostatic, or nonerasable optically stored form, the Attorney General shall do so within three working days of receipt of the request. The Attorney General shall, in writing, and as soon as practicable, notify the person requesting electronic storage of the record that the request has been honored as required by this paragraph.

(d) (1) Any officer referred to in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (b) of Section 11105 may disseminate the name of the subject of the record, the number of the firearms listed in the record, and the description of any firearm, including the make, model, and caliber, from the record relating to any firearm's sale, transfer, registration, or license record, or any information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12021.3, 12053, 12071, 12072, 12077, 12078, 12082, or 12285, if the following conditions are met:

(A) The subject of the record has been arraigned for a crime in which the victim is a person described in subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, of Section 6211 of the Family Code and is being prosecuted or is serving a sentence for the crime, or the subject of the record is the subject of an emergency protective order, a temporary restraining order, or an order after hearing, which is in effect and has been issued by a family court under the Domestic Violence Protection Act set forth in Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code.

(B) The information is disseminated only to the victim of the crime or to the person who has obtained the emergency protective order, the temporary restraining order, or the order after hearing issued by the family court.

(C) Whenever a law enforcement officer disseminates the information authorized by this subdivision, that officer or another officer assigned to the case shall immediately provide the victim of the crime with a "Victims of Domestic Violence" card, as specified in subparagraph (G) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (c) of Section 13701.

(2) The victim or person to whom such information is disseminated may disclose it as he or she deems necessary to protect himself or herself or another person from bodily harm by the person who is the subject of the record.

SEC. 2. Section 11108 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11108. Each sheriff or police chief executive shall submit descriptions of serialized property which has been reported stolen, lost, found, recovered, held for safekeeping, or under observation, directly into the appropriate Department of Justice automated property system for firearms, stolen bicycles, stolen vehicles, or other property, as the case may be.

Reports of stolen nonserialized property which has unique characteristics or inscriptions permitting accurate identification shall be sent by each sheriff or police chief executive directly to the Special Services Section of the department by letter or teletype.

SEC. 2.5. Section 11108 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11108. (a) Each sheriff or police chief executive shall submit descriptions of serialized property, or nonserialized property that has been uniquely inscribed, which has been reported stolen, lost, found, recovered, held for safekeeping, or under observation, directly into the appropriate Department of Justice automated property system for firearms, stolen bicycles, stolen vehicles, or other property, as the case may be.

(b) Information about a firearm entered into the automated system for firearms shall remain in the system until the reported firearm has been found, recovered, is no longer under observation, or the record is determined to have been entered in error.

(c) Any costs incurred by the Department of Justice to implement subdivision (b) shall be reimbursed from funds other than fees charged and collected pursuant to subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 12076.

SEC. 3. Section 11108.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11108.3. (a) In addition to the requirements of Section 11108 that apply to a local law enforcement agency's duty to report to the Department of Justice the recovery of a firearm, a police or sheriff's department shall, and any other law enforcement agency or agent may, report to the department in a manner determined by the Attorney General in consultation with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives all available information necessary to identify and trace the history of all recovered firearms that are illegally possessed, have been used in a crime, or are suspected of having been used in a crime.

(b) When the department receives information from a local law enforcement agency pursuant to subdivision (a), it shall promptly forward this information to the National Tracing Center of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives to the extent practicable.

(c) The Department of Justice shall implement an electronic system by January 1, 2002, to receive comprehensive tracing information from each local law enforcement agency, and to forward this information to the National Tracing Center.

(d) In implementing this section, the Attorney General shall ensure to the maximum extent practical that both of the following apply:

(1) The information he or she provides to the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives enables that agency to trace the ownership of the firearm described in subdivision (a).

(2) Local law enforcement agencies can report all relevant information without being unduly burdened by this reporting function.

(e) Information collected pursuant to this section shall be maintained by the department for a period of not less than 10 years, and shall be available, under guidelines set forth by the Attorney General, for academic and policy research purposes.

(f) The Attorney General shall have the authority to issue regulations to further the purposes of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 12001 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12001. (a) (1) As used in this title, the terms “pistol,” “revolver,” and “firearm capable of being concealed upon the person” shall apply to and include any device designed to be used as a weapon, from which is expelled a projectile by the force of any explosion, or other form of combustion, and that has a barrel less than 16 inches in length. These terms also include any device that has a barrel 16 inches or more in length which is designed to be interchanged with a barrel less than 16 inches in length.

(2) As used in this title, the term “handgun” means any “pistol,” “revolver,” or “firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.”

(b) As used in this title, “firearm” means any device, designed to be used as a weapon, from which is expelled through a barrel a projectile by the force of any explosion or other form of combustion.

(c) As used in Sections 12021, 12021.1, 12070, 12071, 12072, 12073, 12078, 12101, and 12801 of this code, and Sections 8100, 8101, and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the term “firearm” includes the frame or receiver of the weapon.

(d) For the purposes of Sections 12025 and 12031, the term “firearm” also shall include any rocket, rocket propelled projectile launcher, or similar device containing any explosive or incendiary material whether or not the device is designed for emergency or distress signaling purposes.

(e) For purposes of Sections 12070, 12071, and paragraph (8) of subdivision (a), and subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (f) of Section 12072, the term “firearm” does not include an unloaded firearm that is defined as an “antique firearm” in Section 921(a)(16) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(f) Nothing shall prevent a device defined as a “handgun,” “pistol,” “revolver,” or “firearm capable of being concealed upon the person” from also being found to be a short-barreled shotgun or a short-barreled rifle, as defined in Section 12020.

(g) For purposes of Sections 12551 and 12552, the term “BB device” means any instrument that expels a projectile, such as a BB or a pellet, not exceeding 6mm caliber, through the force of air pressure, gas pressure, or spring action, or any spot marker gun.

(h) As used in this title, “wholesaler” means any person who is licensed as a dealer pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto who sells, transfers, or assigns firearms, or parts of firearms, to persons who are licensed as manufacturers, importers, or gunsmiths pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, or persons licensed pursuant to Section 12071, and includes persons who receive finished parts of firearms and assemble them into completed or partially completed firearms in furtherance of that purpose.

“Wholesaler” shall not include a manufacturer, importer, or gunsmith who is licensed to engage in those activities pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code or a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. A wholesaler also does not include those persons dealing exclusively in grips, stocks, and other parts of firearms that are not frames or receivers thereof.

(i) As used in Section 12071 or 12072, “application to purchase” means any of the following:

(1) The initial completion of the register by the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm as required by subdivision (b) of Section 12076.

(2) The initial completion and transmission to the department of the record of electronic or telephonic transfer by the dealer on the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm as required by subdivision (c) of Section 12076.

(j) For purposes of Section 12023, a firearm shall be deemed to be “loaded” whenever both the firearm and the unexpended ammunition capable of being discharged from the firearm are in the immediate possession of the same person.

(k) For purposes of Sections 12021, 12021.1, 12025, 12070, 12072, 12073, 12078, 12101, and 12801 of this code, and Sections 8100, 8101, and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, notwithstanding the fact that the term “any firearm” may be used in those sections, each firearm or the frame or receiver of the same shall constitute a distinct and separate offense under those sections.

(l) For purposes of Section 12020, a violation of that section as to each firearm, weapon, or device enumerated therein shall constitute a distinct and separate offense.

(m) Each application that requires any firearms eligibility determination involving the issuance of any license, permit, or certificate pursuant to this title shall include two copies of the applicant’s fingerprints on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice. One copy of the fingerprints may be submitted to the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(n) As used in this chapter, a “personal handgun importer” means an individual who meets all of the following criteria:

- (1) He or she is not a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071.
- (2) He or she is not a licensed manufacturer of firearms pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code.
- (3) He or she is not a licensed importer of firearms pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.
- (4) He or she is the owner of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.
- (5) He or she acquired that pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person outside of California.
- (6) He or she moves into this state on or after January 1, 1998, as a resident of this state.
- (7) He or she intends to possess that pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person within this state on or after January 1, 1998.
- (8) The pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person was not delivered to him or her by a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 who delivered that firearm following the procedures set forth in Section 12071.2 and subdivision (c) of Section 12072.
- (9) He or she, while a resident of this state, had not previously reported his or her ownership of that pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to the Department of Justice in a manner prescribed by the department that included information concerning him or her and a description of the firearm.
- (10) The pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person is not a firearm that is prohibited by subdivision (a) of Section 12020.

(11) The pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person is not an assault weapon, as defined in Section 12276 or 12276.1.

(12) The pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person is not a machinegun, as defined in Section 12200.

(o) For purposes of paragraph (6) of subdivision (n):

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), residency shall be determined in the same manner as is the case for establishing residency pursuant to Section 12505 of the Vehicle Code.

(2) In the case of members of the Armed Forces of the United States, residency shall be deemed to be established when he or she was discharged from active service in this state.

(p) As used in this code, "basic firearms safety certificate" means a certificate issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6 of Title 2 of Part 4, prior to January 1, 2003.

(q) As used in this code, "handgun safety certificate" means a certificate issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6 of Title 2 of Part 4, as that article is operative on or after January 1, 2003.

(r) As used in this title, "gunsmith" means any person who is licensed as a dealer pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, who is engaged primarily in the business of repairing firearms, or making or fitting special barrels, stocks, or trigger mechanisms to firearms, or the agent or employee of that person.

SEC. 4.5. Section 12001 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12001. (a) (1) As used in this title, the terms "pistol," "revolver," and "firearm capable of being concealed upon the person" shall apply to and include any device designed to be used as a weapon, from which is expelled a projectile by the force of any explosion, or other form of combustion, and that has a barrel less than 16 inches in length. These terms also include any device that has a barrel 16 inches or more in length which is designed to be interchanged with a barrel less than 16 inches in length.

(2) As used in this title, the term "handgun" means any "pistol," "revolver," or "firearm capable of being concealed upon the person."

(b) As used in this title, "firearm" means any device, designed to be used as a weapon, from which is expelled through a barrel a projectile by the force of any explosion or other form of combustion.

(c) As used in Sections 12021, 12021.1, 12043, 12070, 12071, 12072, 12073, 12078, 12101, and 12801 of this code, and Sections 8100, 8101, and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the term “firearm” includes the frame or receiver of the weapon.

(d) For the purposes of Sections 12025 and 12031, the term “firearm” also shall include any rocket, rocket propelled projectile launcher, or similar device containing any explosive or incendiary material whether or not the device is designed for emergency or distress signaling purposes.

(e) For purposes of Sections 12043, 12070, 12071, and paragraph (8) of subdivision (a), and subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (f) of Section 12072, the term “firearm” does not include an unloaded firearm that is defined as an “antique firearm” in Section 921(a)(16) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(f) Nothing shall prevent a device defined as a “handgun,” “pistol,” “revolver,” or “firearm capable of being concealed upon the person” from also being found to be a short-barreled shotgun or a short-barreled rifle, as defined in Section 12020.

(g) For purposes of Sections 12551 and 12552, the term “BB device” means any instrument that expels a projectile, such as a BB or a pellet, not exceeding 6mm caliber, through the force of air pressure, gas pressure, or spring action, or any spot marker gun.

(h) As used in this title, “wholesaler” means any person who is licensed as a dealer pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto who sells, transfers, or assigns firearms, or parts of firearms, to persons who are licensed as manufacturers, importers, or gunsmiths pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, or persons licensed pursuant to Section 12071, and includes persons who receive finished parts of firearms and assemble them into completed or partially completed firearms in furtherance of that purpose.

“Wholesaler” shall not include a manufacturer, importer, or gunsmith who is licensed to engage in those activities pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code or a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. A wholesaler also does not include those persons dealing exclusively in grips, stocks, and other parts of firearms that are not frames or receivers thereof.

(i) As used in Section 12071 or 12072, “application to purchase” means any of the following:

(1) The initial completion of the register by the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm as required by subdivision (b) of Section 12076.

(2) The initial completion and transmission to the department of the record of electronic or telephonic transfer by the dealer on the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm as required by subdivision (c) of Section 12076.

(j) For purposes of Section 12023, a firearm shall be deemed to be “loaded” whenever both the firearm and the unexpended ammunition capable of being discharged from the firearm are in the immediate possession of the same person.

(k) For purposes of Sections 12021, 12021.1, 12025, 12043, 12070, 12072, 12073, 12078, 12101, and 12801 of this code, and Sections 8100, 8101, and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, notwithstanding the fact that the term “any firearm” may be used in those sections, each firearm or the frame or receiver of the same shall constitute a distinct and separate offense under those sections.

(l) For purposes of Section 12020, a violation of that section as to each firearm, weapon, or device enumerated therein shall constitute a distinct and separate offense.

(m) Each application that requires any firearms eligibility determination involving the issuance of any license, permit, or certificate pursuant to this title shall include two copies of the applicant’s fingerprints on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice. One copy of the fingerprints may be submitted to the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(n) As used in this chapter, a “personal handgun importer” means an individual who meets all of the following criteria:

- (1) He or she is not a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071.
- (2) He or she is not a licensed manufacturer of firearms pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code.
- (3) He or she is not a licensed importer of firearms pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.
- (4) He or she is the owner of a handgun.
- (5) He or she acquired that handgun outside of California.
- (6) He or she moves into this state on or after January 1, 1998, as a resident of this state.
- (7) He or she intends to possess that handgun within this state on or after January 1, 1998.
- (8) The handgun was not delivered to him or her by a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 who delivered that firearm following the procedures set forth in Section 12071 and subdivision (c) of Section 12072.

(9) He or she, while a resident of this state, had not previously reported his or her ownership of that handgun to the Department of Justice in a manner prescribed by the department that included information concerning him or her and a description of the firearm.

(o) For purposes of paragraph (6) of subdivision (n):

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), residency shall be determined in the same manner as is the case for establishing residency pursuant to Section 12505 of the Vehicle Code.

(2) In the case of members of the Armed Forces of the United States, residency shall be deemed to be established when he or she was discharged from active service in this state.

(p) As used in this code, "basic firearms safety certificate" means a certificate issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6 of Title 2 of Part 4, prior to January 1, 2003.

(q) As used in this code, "handgun safety certificate" means a certificate issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6 of Title 2 of Part 4, as that article is operative on or after January 1, 2003.

(r) As used in this title, "gunsmith" means any person who is licensed as a dealer pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, who is engaged primarily in the business of repairing firearms, or making or fitting special barrels, stocks, or trigger mechanisms to firearms, or the agent or employee of that person.

SEC. 5. Section 12021.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12021.3. (a) (1) Any person who claims title to any firearm that is in the custody or control of a court or law enforcement agency and who wishes to have the firearm returned to him or her shall make application for a determination by the Department of Justice as to whether he or she is eligible to possess a firearm. The application shall include the following:

(B) Whether the applicant is a United States citizen. If the applicant is not a United States citizen, he or she shall also provide his or her country of citizenship and his or her alien registration or I-94 number.

(C) If the firearm is a handgun, the firearm's make, model, caliber, barrel length, handgun type, country of origin, and serial number.

(D) For residents of California, the applicant's valid California driver's license number or valid California identification card number issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. For nonresidents of California, a copy of the applicant's military identification with orders indicating that the individual is stationed in California, or a copy of the applicant's valid driver's license from the state of residence, or a copy of the applicant's state identification card from the state of residence. Copies of the documents provided by non-California residents shall be notarized.

(G) Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the application, including any notarized information pursuant to subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) A person who owns a firearm that is in the custody of a court or law enforcement agency and who does not wish to obtain possession of the firearm, and the firearm is an otherwise legal firearm, and the person otherwise has right to title of the firearm, shall be entitled to sell or transfer title of the firearm to a licensed dealer as defined in Section 12071.

(3) Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address, or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the application, including any notarized information pursuant to subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(b) No law enforcement agency or court that has taken custody of any firearm may return the firearm to any individual unless the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) That individual presents to the agency or court notification of a determination by the department pursuant to subdivision (e) that the person is eligible to possess firearms.

(2) If the agency or court has direct access to the Automated Firearms System, the agency or court has verified that the firearm is not listed as stolen pursuant to Section 11108, and that the firearm has been recorded in the Automated Firearms System in the name of the individual who seeks its return.

(3) If the firearm has been reported lost or stolen pursuant to Section 11108, a law enforcement agency shall notify the owner or person entitled to possession pursuant to Section 11108.5. However, that person shall provide proof of eligibility to possess a firearm pursuant to subdivision (e). Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the local law enforcement agency from charging the rightful owner or person entitled to possession of the firearm the fees described in subdivision (j). However, individuals who are applying for a background check to retrieve a firearm that comes into the custody or control of the court or law enforcement agency pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be exempt from the fees in subdivision (c) provided that the court or agency determines the firearm was reported stolen to a law enforcement agency prior to the date the firearm came into custody or control of the court or law enforcement agency or within five business days of the firearm being stolen from its owner. The court or agency shall notify the Department of Justice of this fee exemption in a manner prescribed by the department.

(c) The Department of Justice shall establish a fee of twenty dollars ($20) per request for return of a firearm, plus a three-dollar ($3) charge for each additional handgun being processed as part of the request to return a firearm, to cover its costs for processing firearm clearance determinations submitted pursuant to this section. The fees shall be deposited into the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account. The department may increase the fee by using the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations to determine an annual rate of increase. Any fee increase shall be rounded to the nearest dollar.

(d) When the Department of Justice receives a completed application pursuant to subdivision (a) accompanied with the fee required pursuant to subdivision (c), it shall conduct an eligibility check of the applicant to determine whether the applicant is eligible to possess firearms.

(e) (1) If the department determines that the applicant is eligible to possess the firearm, the department shall provide the applicant with written notification that includes the following:

- (A) The identity of the applicant.
- (B) A statement that the applicant is eligible to possess a firearm.
- (C) If the firearm is a handgun, a description of the handgun by make, model, and serial number.

(2) If the firearm is a handgun, the department shall enter a record of the handgun into the Automated Firearms System.

(3) The department shall have 30 days from the date of receipt to complete the background check unless delayed by circumstances beyond the control of the department. The applicant may contact the department to inquire about the reason for the delay.

(f) If the department denies the application, and the firearm is an otherwise legal firearm, the department shall notify the applicant of the denial and provide a form for the applicant to use to sell or transfer the firearm to a licensed dealer as defined in Section 12071. The applicant may contact the department to inquire about the reason for the denial.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no law enforcement agency or court shall be required to retain a firearm for more than 180 days after the owner of the firearm has been notified by the court or law enforcement agency that the firearm has been made available for return. An unclaimed firearm may be disposed of after the 180-day period has expired.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 11106, the department may retain personal information about an applicant in connection with a claim for a firearm that is not a handgun to allow for law enforcement confirmation of compliance with this section. The information retained may include personal identifying information regarding the individual applying for the clearance, but may not include information that identifies any particular firearm that is not a handgun.

(i) (1) If a law enforcement agency determines that the applicant is the legal owner of any firearm deposited with the law enforcement agency and is prohibited from possessing any firearm and the firearm is an otherwise legal firearm, the applicant shall be entitled to sell or transfer the firearm to a licensed dealer as defined in Section 12071.

(2) If the firearm has been lost or stolen, the firearm shall be restored to the lawful owner pursuant to Section 11108.5 upon his or her identification of the firearm and proof of ownership, and proof of eligibility to possess a firearm pursuant to subdivision (e). Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the local law enforcement agency from charging the rightful owner of the firearm the fees described in subdivision (j).

(3) Subdivision (a) of Section 12070 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made by a court or a law enforcement agency pursuant to this section.

(4) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made pursuant to this section.

(j) (1) A city, county, or city and county, or a state agency may adopt a regulation, ordinance, or resolution imposing a charge equal to its administrative costs relating to the seizure, impounding, storage, or release of firearms. The fees shall not exceed the actual costs incurred for the expenses directly related to taking possession of a firearm, storing the firearm, and surrendering possession of the firearm to a licensed firearms dealer or to the owner. Those administrative costs may be waived by the local or state agency upon verifiable proof that the firearm was reported stolen at the time the firearm came into the custody or control of the law enforcement agency.

(2) The following apply to any charges imposed for administrative costs pursuant to this subdivision:

(B) Any charges shall be collected by the local or state authority only from the person claiming title to the firearm.

(C) The charges shall be in addition to any other charges authorized or imposed pursuant to this code.

(D) No charge may be imposed for any hearing or appeal relating to the removal, impound, storage, or release of a firearm unless that hearing or appeal was requested in writing by the legal owner of the firearm. In addition, the charge may be imposed only upon the person requesting that hearing or appeal.

(3) No costs for any hearing or appeal related to the release of a firearm shall be charged to the legal owner who redeems the firearm unless the legal owner voluntarily requests the post storage hearing or appeal. No city, county, city and county, or state agency shall require a legal owner to request a poststorage hearing as a requirement for release of the firearm to the legal owner.

(k) In a proceeding for the return of a firearm seized and not returned pursuant to this section, where the defendant or cross-defendant is a law enforcement agency, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

12026.2. (a) Section 12025 does not apply to, or affect, any of the following:

(1) The possession of a firearm by an authorized participant in a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment event when the participant lawfully uses the firearm as part of that production or event or while going directly to, or coming directly from, that production or event.

(2) The possession of a firearm in a locked container by a member of any club or organization, organized for the purpose of lawfully collecting and lawfully displaying pistols, revolvers, or other firearms, while the member is at meetings of the clubs or organizations or while going directly to, and coming directly from, those meetings.

(3) The transportation of a firearm by a participant when going directly to, or coming directly from, a recognized safety or hunter safety class, or a recognized sporting event involving that firearm.

(4) The transportation of a firearm by a person listed in Section 12026 directly between any of the places mentioned in Section 12026.

(5) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a fixed place of business or private residential property for the purpose of the lawful repair or the lawful transfer, sale, or loan of that firearm.

(6) The transportation of a firearm by a person listed in Section 12026 when going directly from the place where that person lawfully received that firearm to that person's place of residence or place of business or to private property owned or lawfully possessed by that person.

(7) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a gun show, swap meet, or similar event to which the public is invited, for the purpose of displaying that firearm in a lawful manner.

(8) The transportation of a firearm by an authorized employee or agent of a supplier of firearms when going directly to, or coming directly from, a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment event for the purpose of providing that firearm to an authorized participant to lawfully use as a part of that production or event.

(9) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a target range, which holds a regulatory or business license, for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets with that firearm at that target range.

(10) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a place designated by a person authorized to issue licenses pursuant to Section 12050 when done at the request of the issuing agency so that the issuing agency can determine whether or not a license should be issued to that person to carry that firearm.

(11) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a lawful camping activity for the purpose of having that firearm available for lawful personal protection while at the lawful campsite. This paragraph shall not be construed to override the statutory authority granted to the Department of Parks and Recreation or any other state or local governmental agencies to promulgate rules and regulations governing the administration of parks and campgrounds.

(12) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to comply with subdivision (c) or (i) of Section 12078 as it pertains to that firearm.

(13) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to utilize subdivision (l) of Section 12078 as it pertains to that firearm.

(14) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a gun show or event, as defined in Section 478.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, for the purpose of lawfully transferring, selling, or loaning that firearm in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(15) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to utilize paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 12078 as it pertains to that firearm.

(16) The transportation of a firearm by a person who finds the firearm in order to comply with Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of

Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code as it pertains to that firearm and if that firearm is being transported to a law enforcement agency, the person gives prior notice to the law enforcement agency that he or she is transporting the firearm to the law enforcement agency.

(17) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to comply with paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072 as it pertains to that firearm.

(18) The transportation of a firearm by a person who finds the firearm and is transporting it to a law enforcement agency for disposition according to law, if he or she gives prior notice to the law enforcement agency that he or she is transporting the firearm to the law enforcement agency for disposition according to law.

(19) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to comply with paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072 as it pertains to that firearm.

(20) The transportation of a firearm by a person for the purpose of obtaining an identification number or mark assigned for that firearm from the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12092.

(b) In order for a firearm to be exempted under subdivision (a), while being transported to or from a place, the firearm shall be unloaded, kept in a locked container, as defined in subdivision (d), and the course of travel shall include only those deviations between authorized locations as are reasonably necessary under the circumstances.

(c) This section does not prohibit or limit the otherwise lawful carrying or transportation of any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person in accordance with this chapter.

(d) As used in this section, "locked container" means a secure container which is fully enclosed and locked by a padlock, keylock, combination lock, or similar locking device. The term "locked container" does not include the utility or glove compartment of a motor vehicle.

SEC. 7. Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028.5. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Abuse" means any of the following:

(C) To place a person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to that person or to another.

(D) To molest, attack, strike, stalk, destroy personal property, or violate the terms of a domestic violence protective order issued pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 6300) of Division 10 of the Family Code.

(2) “Domestic violence” means abuse perpetrated against any of the following persons:

(C) A person with whom the respondent is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship.

(D) A person with whom the respondent has had a child, where the presumption applies that the male parent is the father of the child of the female parent under the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12 of the Family Code).

(E) A child of a party or a child who is the subject of an action under the Uniform Parentage Act, where the presumption applies that the male parent is the father of the child to be protected.

(3) “Deadly weapon” means any weapon, the possession or concealed carrying of which is prohibited by Section 12020.

(b) A sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, or police officer of a city, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1, a peace officer of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2, a member of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 830.2, an officer listed in Section 830.6 while acting in the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer, a member of a California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 830.2, a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 830.2, a peace officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31, a peace officer, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 830.32, and a peace officer, as defined in Section 830.5, who is at the scene of a domestic violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, shall take temporary custody of any firearm or other deadly weapon in plain sight or discovered pursuant to a consensual or other lawful search as necessary for the protection of the peace officer or other persons present. Upon taking custody of a firearm or other deadly weapon, the officer shall give the owner or person who possessed the firearm a receipt. The receipt shall describe the firearm or other deadly weapon and list any identification or serial number on the firearm. The receipt shall indicate where the firearm or other deadly weapon can be recovered, the time limit for recovery as required by this section, and the date after which the owner or possessor can recover the firearm or other deadly weapon. No firearm or other deadly weapon shall be held less than 48 hours.

Except as provided in subdivision (f), if a firearm or other deadly weapon is not retained for use as evidence related to criminal charges brought as a result of the domestic violence incident or is not retained because it was illegally possessed, the firearm or other deadly weapon shall be made available to the owner or person who was in lawful possession 48 hours after the seizure or as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than five business days after the owner or person who was in lawful possession demonstrates compliance with Section 12021.3. In any civil action or proceeding for the return of firearms or ammunition or other deadly weapon seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and not returned within five business days following the initial seizure, except as provided in subdivision (d), the court shall allow reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(c) Any peace officer, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 830.32, who takes custody of a firearm or deadly weapon pursuant to this section shall deliver the firearm within 24 hours to the city police department or county sheriff's office in the jurisdiction where the college or school is located.

(d) Any firearm or other deadly weapon that has been taken into custody that has been stolen shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use for evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the firearm or other deadly weapon and proof of ownership, and after the law enforcement agency has complied with Section 12021.3.

(e) Any firearm or other deadly weapon taken into custody and held by a police, university police, or sheriff's department or by a marshal's office, by a peace officer of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2, by a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 830.2, by a peace officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31, or by a peace officer, as defined in Section 830.5, for longer than 12 months and not recovered by the owner or person who has lawful possession at the time it was taken into custody, shall be considered a nuisance and sold or destroyed as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12028. Firearms or other deadly weapons not recovered within 12 months due to an extended hearing process as provided in subdivision (j), are not subject to destruction until the court issues a decision, and then only if the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner.

(f) In those cases in which a law enforcement agency has reasonable cause to believe that the return of a firearm or other deadly weapon would be likely to result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the agency shall advise the owner of the firearm or other deadly weapon, and within 60 days of the date of seizure, initiate a petition in superior court to determine if the firearm or other deadly weapon should be returned. The law enforcement agency may make an ex parte application stating good cause for an order extending the time to file a petition. Including any extension of time granted in response to an ex parte request, a petition must be filed within 90 days of the date of seizure of the firearm or other deadly weapon.

(g) The law enforcement agency shall inform the owner or person who had lawful possession of the firearm or other deadly weapon, at that person's last known address by registered mail, return receipt requested, that he or she has 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice to respond to the court clerk to confirm his or her desire for a hearing, and that the failure to respond shall result in a default order forfeiting the confiscated firearm or other deadly weapon. For the purposes of this subdivision, the person's last known address shall be presumed to be the address provided to the law enforcement officer by that person at the time of the family violence incident. In the event the person whose firearm or other deadly weapon was seized does not reside at the last address provided to the agency, the agency shall make a diligent, good faith effort to learn the whereabouts of the person and to comply with these notification requirements.

(h) If the person requests a hearing, the court clerk shall set a hearing no later than 30 days from receipt of that request. The court clerk shall notify the person, the law enforcement agency involved, and the district attorney of the date, time, and place of the hearing. Unless it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon would result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the court shall order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon and shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(i) If the person does not request a hearing or does not otherwise respond within 30 days of the receipt of the notice, the law enforcement agency may file a petition for an order of default and may dispose of the firearm or other deadly weapon as provided in Section 12028.

(j) If, at the hearing, the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner or person who had lawful possession, that person may petition the court for a second hearing within 12 months from the date of the initial hearing. If there is a petition for a second hearing, unless it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon would result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the court shall order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon and shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party. If the owner or person who had lawful possession does not petition the court within this 12-month period for a second hearing or is unsuccessful at the second hearing in gaining return of the firearm or other deadly weapon, the firearm or other deadly weapon may be disposed of as provided in Section 12028.

(k) The law enforcement agency, or the individual law enforcement officer, shall not be liable for any act in the good faith exercise of this section.

SEC. 7.5. Section 12036 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12036. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Locking device" means a device that is designed to prevent the firearm from functioning and when applied to the firearm, renders the firearm inoperable.

(2) "Child" means a person under the age of 18 years.

(b) A person who keeps a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, loaded or unloaded, within any premises that are under his or her custody or control and he or she knows or reasonably should know that a child is likely to gain access to that firearm without the permission of the child's parent or legal guardian and the child obtains access to that firearm and thereafter carries that firearm off-premises, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(c) A person who keeps any firearm within any premises that is under his or her custody or control and he or she knows or reasonably should know that a child is likely to gain access to the firearm without the permission of the child's parent or legal guardian and the child obtains access to the firearm and thereafter carries that firearm off-premises to any public or private preschool, elementary school, middle school, high school, or to any school-sponsored event, activity, or performance whether occurring on school grounds or elsewhere, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(d) A pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person that a child gains access to and carries off-premises in violation of this section shall be deemed "used in the commission of any misdemeanor as provided in this code or any felony" for the purpose of subdivision (b) of Section 12028 regarding the authority to confiscate firearms and other deadly weapons as a nuisance.

(e) This section shall not apply if any one of the following circumstances exists:

(1) The child obtains the firearm as a result of an illegal entry into any premises by any person.

(2) The firearm is kept in a locked container or in a location that a reasonable person would believe to be secure.

(3) The firearm is locked with a locking device that has rendered the firearm inoperable.

(4) The firearm is carried on the person within such a close range that the individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person.

(5) The person is a peace officer or a member of the Armed Forces or National Guard and the child obtains the firearm during, or incidental to, the performance of the person's duties.

(6) The child obtains, or obtains and discharges, the firearm in a lawful act of self-defense or defense of another person or persons.

(7) The person who keeps a firearm has no reasonable expectation, based on objective facts and circumstances, that a child is likely to be present on the premises.

(f) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the district attorney shall consider, among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person alleged to have violated this section when deciding whether to prosecute the alleged violation. It is the Legislature's intent that a parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner or where similarly egregious circumstances exist. This subdivision shall not otherwise restrict, in any manner, the factors that a district attorney may consider when deciding whether to prosecute alleged violations of this section.

(g) If the person who allegedly violated this section is the parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, no arrest of the person for the alleged violation of this section shall occur until at least seven days after the date upon which the accidental shooting occurred.

In addition to the limitation contained in this subdivision, a law enforcement officer shall consider the health status of a child who suffers great bodily injury as the result of an accidental shooting prior to arresting a person for a violation of this section, if the person to be arrested is the parent or guardian of the injured child. The intent of this subdivision is to encourage law enforcement officials to delay the arrest of a parent or guardian of a seriously injured child while the child remains on life-support equipment or is in a similarly critical medical condition.

(h) (1) The fact that the person who allegedly violated this section attended a firearm safety training course prior to the purchase of the firearm that is obtained by a child in violation of this section shall be considered a mitigating factor by a district attorney when he or she is deciding whether to prosecute the alleged violation.

(2) In any action or trial commenced under this section, the fact that the person who allegedly violated this section attended a firearm safety training course prior to the purchase of the firearm that is obtained by a child in violation of this section, shall be admissible.

(i) Every person licensed under Section 12071 shall post within the licensed premises the notice required by paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) of that section, disclosing the duty imposed by this section upon any person who keeps any firearm.

SEC. 8. Section 12070 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12070. (a) No person shall sell, lease, or transfer firearms unless he or she has been issued a license pursuant to Section 12071. Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not include any of the following:

(1) The sale, lease, or transfer of any firearm by a person acting pursuant to operation of law, a court order, or pursuant to the Enforcement of Judgments Law (Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure), or by a person who liquidates a personal firearm collection to satisfy a court judgment.

(2) A person acting pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 186.22a or subdivision (c) of Section 12028.

(3) The sale, lease, or transfer of a firearm by a person who obtains title to the firearm by intestate succession or by bequest or as a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code, provided the person disposes of the firearm within 60 days of receipt of the firearm.

(5) The sale, lease, or transfer of used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at gun shows or events, as specified in Section 12071, by a person other than a licensee or dealer, provided the person has a valid federal firearms license and a current certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice, as specified in Section 12071, and provided all the sales, leases, or transfers fully comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072. However, the person shall not engage in the sale, lease, or transfer of used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person at more than 12 gun shows or events in any calendar year and shall not sell, lease, or transfer more than 15 used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person at any single gun show or event. In no event shall the person sell more than 75 used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person in any calendar year.

A person described in this paragraph shall be known as a “Gun Show Trader.”

The Department of Justice shall adopt regulations to administer this program and shall recover the full costs of administration from fees assessed applicants.

As used in this paragraph, the term “used firearm” means a firearm that has been sold previously at retail and is more than three years old.

(6) Deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(7) The sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by manufacturers or importers licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to dealers or wholesalers.

(9) The loan of a firearm for the purposes of shooting at targets, if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(10) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by manufacturers, importers, or wholesalers licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(11) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state and are licensed outside this state pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to wholesalers, manufacturers, or importers, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(13) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state to persons licensed pursuant to Section 12071, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(14) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state and are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to dealers, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(15) The delivery, sale, or transfer of an unloaded firearm by one wholesaler to another wholesaler if that firearm is intended as merchandise in the receiving wholesaler's business.

(16) The loan of an unloaded firearm or the loan of a firearm loaded with blank cartridges for use solely as a prop for a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment or theatrical event.

(17) The delivery of an unloaded firearm that is a curio or relic, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, by a person licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto with a current certificate of eligibility issued pursuant to Section 12071 to a dealer.

(c) (1) As used in this section, "infrequent" means:

(A) For pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, less than six transactions per calendar year. For this purpose, "transaction" means a single sale, lease, or transfer of any number of pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) For firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, occasional and without regularity.

(2) As used in this section, "operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver, if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property between spouses pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(H) Firearms received by the family of a police officer or deputy sheriff from a local agency pursuant to Section 50081 of the Government Code.

(I) The transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to the person who found the firearm where the delivery is to the person as the finder of the firearm pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 9. Section 12071 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12071. (a) (1) As used in this chapter, the term “licensee,” “person licensed pursuant to Section 12071,” or “dealer” means a person who has all of the following:

(C) A valid seller’s permit issued by the State Board of Equalization.

(2) The duly constituted licensing authority of a city, county, or a city and county shall accept applications for, and may grant licenses permitting, licensees to sell firearms at retail within the city, county, or city and county. The duly constituted licensing authority shall inform applicants who are denied licenses of the reasons for the denial in writing.

(3) No license shall be granted to any applicant who fails to provide a copy of his or her valid federal firearms license, valid seller’s permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, and the certificate of eligibility described in paragraph (4).

(4) A person may request a certificate of eligibility from the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice shall issue a certificate to an applicant if the department's records indicate that the applicant is not a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms.

(5) The department shall adopt regulations to administer the certificate of eligibility program and shall recover the full costs of administering the program by imposing fees assessed to applicants who apply for those certificates.

(6) A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county, or city and county, shall be valid for not more than one year from the date of issuance and shall be in one of the following forms:

(B) A regulatory or business license that states on its face "Valid for Retail Sales of Firearms" and is endorsed by the signature of the issuing authority.

(C) A letter from the duly constituted licensing authority having primary jurisdiction for the applicant's intended business location stating that the jurisdiction does not require any form of regulatory or business license or does not otherwise restrict or regulate the sale of firearms.

(7) Local licensing authorities may assess fees to recover their full costs of processing applications for licenses.

(b) A license is subject to forfeiture for a breach of any of the following prohibitions and requirements:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the business shall be conducted only in the buildings designated in the license.

(B) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may take possession of firearms and commence preparation of registers for the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms at gun shows or events, as defined in Section 478.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, if the gun show or event is not conducted from any motorized or towed vehicle. A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to conduct business as authorized herein at any gun show or event in the state without regard to the jurisdiction within this state that issued the license pursuant to subdivision (a), provided the person complies with (i) all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the waiting period specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), and (ii) all applicable local laws, regulations, and fees, if any.

A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall publicly display his or her license issued pursuant to subdivision (a), or a facsimile thereof, at any gun show or event, as specified in this subparagraph.

(C) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may engage in the sale and transfer of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at events specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions contained in that subdivision.

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) also may accept delivery of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, outside the building designated in the license, provided the firearm is being donated for the purpose of sale or transfer at an auction or similar event specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078.

(D) The firearm may be delivered to the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm at one of the following places:

- (i) The building designated in the license.
- (ii) The places specified in subparagraph (B) or (C).
- (iii) The place of residence of, the fixed place of business of, or on private property owned or lawfully possessed by, the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can easily be seen.

(3) No firearm shall be delivered:

(A) Within 10 days of the application to purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the application, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(D) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The dealer shall make available to the person in the prohibited class a prohibited notice and transfer form, provided by the department, stating that the person is prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm, and that the person may obtain from the department the reason for the prohibition.

(4) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm or imitation thereof capable of being concealed upon the person, or placard advertising the sale or other transfer thereof, shall be displayed in any part of the premises where it can readily be seen from the outside.

(5) The licensee shall agree to and shall act properly and promptly in processing firearms transactions pursuant to Section 12082.

(6) The licensee shall comply with Sections 12073, 12076, and 12077, subdivisions (a) and (b) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, and subdivision (a) of Section 12316.

(7) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises the following warnings in block letters not less than one inch in height:

(A) "IF YOU KEEP A LOADED FIREARM WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A PERSON UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE OBTAINS IT AND USES IT, RESULTING IN INJURY OR DEATH, OR CARRIES IT TO A PUBLIC PLACE, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR OR A FELONY UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A LOCKING DEVICE, TO KEEP IT FROM TEMPORARILY FUNCTIONING."

(B) "IF YOU KEEP A PISTOL, REVOLVER, OR OTHER FIREARM CAPABLE OF BEING CONCEALED UPON THE PERSON, WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A PERSON UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE GAINS ACCESS TO THE FIREARM, AND CARRIES IT OFF-PREMISES, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR, UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER, OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A LOCKING DEVICE, TO KEEP IT FROM TEMPORARILY FUNCTIONING."

(C) "IF YOU KEEP ANY FIREARM WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A PERSON UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE GAINS ACCESS TO THE FIREARM, AND CARRIES IT OFF-PREMISES TO A SCHOOL OR SCHOOL-SPONSORED EVENT, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR, INCLUDING A FINE OF UP TO FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5,000), UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER, OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A LOCKING DEVICE."

(D) "DISCHARGING FIREARMS IN POORLY VENTILATED AREAS, CLEANING FIREARMS, OR HANDLING AMMUNITION MAY RESULT IN EXPOSURE TO LEAD, A SUBSTANCE KNOWN TO CAUSE BIRTH DEFECTS, REPRODUCTIVE HARM, AND OTHER SERIOUS PHYSICAL INJURY. HAVE ADEQUATE VENTILATION AT ALL TIMES. WASH HANDS THOROUGHLY AFTER EXPOSURE."

(E) "FEDERAL REGULATIONS PROVIDE THAT IF YOU DO NOT TAKE PHYSICAL POSSESSION OF THE FIREARM THAT YOU ARE ACQUIRING OWNERSHIP OF WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER YOU COMPLETE THE INITIAL BACKGROUND CHECK

PAPERWORK, THEN YOU HAVE TO GO THROUGH THE BACKGROUND CHECK PROCESS A SECOND TIME IN ORDER TO TAKE PHYSICAL POSSESSION OF THAT FIREARM.”

(F) “NO PERSON SHALL MAKE AN APPLICATION TO PURCHASE MORE THAN ONE PISTOL, REVOLVER, OR OTHER FIREARM CAPABLE OF BEING CONCEALED UPON THE PERSON WITHIN ANY 30-DAY PERIOD AND NO DELIVERY SHALL BE MADE TO ANY PERSON WHO HAS MADE AN APPLICATION TO PURCHASE MORE THAN ONE PISTOL, REVOLVER, OR OTHER FIREARM CAPABLE OF BEING CONCEALED UPON THE PERSON WITHIN ANY 30-DAY PERIOD.”

(8) (A) Commencing April 1, 1994, and until January 1, 2003, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents to the dealer a basic firearms safety certificate.

(B) Commencing January 1, 2003, no dealer may deliver a handgun unless the person receiving the handgun presents to the dealer a valid handgun safety certificate. The firearms dealer shall retain a photocopy of the handgun safety certificate as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(C) Commencing January 1, 2003, no handgun may be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents documentation indicating that he or she is a California resident. Satisfactory documentation shall include a utility bill from within the last three months, a residential lease, a property deed, or military permanent duty station orders indicating assignment within this state, or other evidence of residency as permitted by the Department of Justice. The firearms dealer shall retain a photocopy of the documentation as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(D) Commencing January 1, 2003, except as authorized by the department, no firearms dealer may deliver a handgun unless the recipient performs a safe handling demonstration with that handgun. The demonstration shall commence with the handgun unloaded and locked with the firearm safety device with which it is required to be delivered, if applicable. While maintaining muzzle awareness, that is, the firearm is pointed in a safe direction, preferably down at the ground, and trigger discipline, that is, the trigger finger is outside of the trigger guard and along side of the handgun frame, at all times, the handgun recipient shall correctly and safely perform the following:

- (i) If the handgun is a semiautomatic pistol:
  - (I) Remove the magazine.

(II) Lock the slide back. If the model of firearm does not allow the slide to be locked back, pull the slide back, visually and physically check the chamber to ensure that it is clear.

(III) Visually and physically inspect the chamber, to ensure that the handgun is unloaded.

(IV) Remove the firearm safety device, if applicable. If the firearm safety device prevents any of the previous steps, remove the firearm safety device during the appropriate step.

(V) Load one bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round into the magazine. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.

(VI) Insert the magazine into the magazine well of the firearm.

(VII) Manipulate the slide release or pull back and release the slide.

(X) Lock the slide back to eject the bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round. If the handgun is of a model that does not allow the slide to be locked back, pull the slide back and physically check the chamber to ensure that the chamber is clear. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.

(XII) Apply the firearm safety device, if applicable. This requirement shall not apply to an Olympic competition pistol if no firearms safety device, other than a cable lock that the department has determined would damage the barrel of the pistol, has been approved for the pistol, and the pistol is either listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132 or is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132.

(ii) If the handgun is a double-action revolver:

(III) Remove the firearm safety device. If the firearm safety device prevents any of the previous steps, remove the firearm safety device during the appropriate step.

(IV) While maintaining muzzle awareness and trigger discipline, load one bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round into a chamber of the cylinder and rotate the cylinder so that the round is in the next-to-fire position. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.

(VI) Open the cylinder and eject the round.

(VII) Visually and physically inspect each chamber to ensure that the revolver is unloaded.

(VIII) Apply the firearm safety device, if applicable. This requirement shall not apply to an Olympic competition pistol if no firearms safety device, other than a cable lock that the department has determined would damage the barrel of the pistol, has been approved for the pistol, and the pistol is either listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132 or is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132.

(iii) If the handgun is a single-action revolver:

(III) Remove the firearm safety device required to be sold with the handgun. If the firearm safety device prevents any of the previous steps, remove the firearm safety device during the appropriate step.

(IV) Load one bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round into a chamber of the cylinder, close the loading gate and rotate the cylinder so that the round is in the next-to-fire position. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.

(VI) Visually and physically inspect each chamber to ensure that the revolver is unloaded.

(VII) Apply the firearm safety device, if applicable. This requirement shall not apply to an Olympic competition pistol if no firearms safety device, other than a cable lock that the department has determined would damage the barrel of the pistol, has been approved for the pistol, and the pistol is either listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132 or is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132.

(E) The recipient shall receive instruction regarding how to render that handgun safe in the event of a jam.

(F) The firearms dealer shall sign and date an affidavit stating that the requirements of subparagraph (D) have been met. The firearms dealer shall additionally obtain the signature of the handgun purchaser on the same affidavit. The firearms dealer shall retain the original affidavit as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(G) The recipient shall perform the safe handling demonstration for a department certified instructor.

(H) No demonstration shall be required if the dealer is returning the handgun to the owner of the handgun.

(I) Department certified instructors who may administer the safe handling demonstration shall meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (j) of Section 12804.

(J) The persons who are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 12801, pursuant to Section 12807, are also exempt from performing the safe handling demonstration.

(9) Commencing July 1, 1992, the licensee shall offer to provide the purchaser or transferee of a firearm, or person being loaned a firearm, with a copy of the pamphlet described in Section 12080 and may add the cost of the pamphlet, if any, to the sales price of the firearm.

(11) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises a detailed list of each of the following:

(A) All charges required by governmental agencies for processing firearm transfers required by Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(12) The licensee shall not misstate the amount of fees charged by a governmental agency pursuant to Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(13) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), all firearms that are in the inventory of the licensee shall be kept within the licensed location. The licensee shall report the loss or theft of any firearm that is merchandise of the licensee, any firearm that the licensee takes possession of pursuant to Section 12082, or any firearm kept at the licensee's place of business within 48 hours of discovery to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the city, county, or city and county where the licensee's business premises are located.

(14) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), any time when the licensee is not open for business, all inventory firearms shall be stored in the licensed location. All firearms shall be secured using one of the following methods as to each particular firearm:

(A) Store the firearm in a secure facility that is a part of, or that constitutes, the licensee's business premises.

(B) Secure the firearm with a hardened steel rod or cable of at least one-eighth inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(C) Store the firearm in a locked fireproof safe or vault in the licensee's business premises.

(15) The licensing authority in an unincorporated area of a county or within a city may impose security requirements that are more strict or are at a higher standard than those specified in paragraph (14).

(16) Commencing January 1, 1994, the licensee shall, upon the issuance or renewal of a license, submit a copy of the same to the Department of Justice.

(17) The licensee shall maintain and make available for inspection during business hours to any peace officer, authorized local law enforcement employee, or Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, upon the presentation of proper identification, a firearms transaction record.

(18) (A) On the date of receipt, the licensee shall report to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department the acquisition by the licensee of the ownership of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any of the following transactions:

(iii) The dealer is also licensed as a secondhand dealer pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 21625) of Chapter 9 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code.

(iv) The dealer acquired the firearm from a person who is licensed as a manufacturer or importer to engage in those activities pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and any regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(v) The dealer acquired the firearm from a person who resides outside this state who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and any regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(19) The licensee shall forward in a format prescribed by the Department of Justice, information as required by the department on any firearm that is not delivered within the time period set forth in Section 478.102 (c) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(20) (A) Firearms dealers may require any agent who handles, sells, or delivers firearms to obtain and provide to the dealer a certificate of eligibility from the department pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a). The agent or employee shall provide on the application, the name and California firearms dealer number of the firearms dealer with whom he or she is employed.

(B) The department shall notify the firearms dealer in the event that the agent or employee who has a certificate of eligibility is or becomes prohibited from possessing firearms.

(C) If the local jurisdiction requires a background check of the agents or employees of the firearms dealer, the agent or employee shall obtain a certificate of eligibility pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(D) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to preclude a local jurisdiction from conducting an additional background check pursuant to Section 11105 or prohibiting employment based on criminal history that does not appear as part of obtaining a certificate of eligibility, provided however, that the local jurisdiction may not charge a fee for the additional criminal history check.

(E) The licensee shall prohibit any agent who the licensee knows or reasonably should know is within a class of persons prohibited from possessing firearms pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, from coming into contact with any firearm that is not secured and from accessing any key, combination, code, or other means to open any of the locking devices described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (G) of this paragraph.

(F) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as preventing a local government from enacting an ordinance imposing additional conditions on licensees with regard to agents.

(G) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(ii) “Secured” means a firearm that is made inoperable in one or more of the following ways:

(I) The firearm is inoperable because it is secured by a firearms safety device listed on the department’s roster of approved firearms safety devices pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12088 of this chapter.

(II) The firearm is stored in a locked gun safe or long-gun safe which meets the standards for department-approved gun safes set forth in Section 12088.2.

(III) The firearm is stored in a distinct locked room or area in the building that is used to store firearms that can only be unlocked by a key, a combination, or similar means.

(IV) The firearm is secured with a hardened steel rod or cable that is at least one-eighth of an inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(c) (1) As used in this article, “clear evidence of his or her identity and age” means either of the following:

(2) As used in this section, a “secure facility” means a building that meets all of the following specifications:

(ii) A windowed metal door that is equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock. If the window has an opening of five inches or more measured in any direction, the window shall be covered with steel bars of at least ½-inch diameter or metal grating of at least 9 gauge affixed to the exterior or interior of the door.

(iii) A metal grate that is padlocked and affixed to the licensee’s premises independent of the door and doorframe.

(C) Heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and service openings are secured with steel bars, metal grating, or an alarm system.

(3) As used in this section, “licensed premises,” “licensed place of business,” “licensee’s place of business,” or “licensee’s business premises” means the building designated in the license.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (17) of subdivision (b):

(A) A “firearms transaction record” is a record containing the same information referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 478.124, Section 478.124a, and subdivision (e) of Section 478.125 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(B) A licensee shall be in compliance with the provisions of paragraph (17) of subdivision (b) if he or she maintains and makes available for inspection during business hours to any peace officer, authorized local law enforcement employee, or Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, upon the presentation of proper identification, the bound book containing the same information referred to in Section 478.124a and subdivision (e) of Section 478.125 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations and the records referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 478.124 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(d) Upon written request from a licensee, the licensing authority may grant an exemption from compliance with the requirements of paragraph (14) of subdivision (b) if the licensee is unable to comply with those requirements because of local ordinances, covenants, lease conditions, or similar circumstances not under the control of the licensee.

(e) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the Department of Justice shall keep a centralized list of all persons licensed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and all persons who have submitted information pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12083. The department may remove from this list any person who knowingly or with gross negligence violates this article. Upon removal of a dealer from this list, notification shall be provided to local law enforcement and licensing authorities in the jurisdiction where the dealer's business is located.

(2) The department shall remove from the centralized list any person whose federal firearms license has expired or has been revoked.

(3) Information compiled from the list shall be made available, upon request, for the following purposes only:

(B) When the information is requested by a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code for determining the validity of the license for firearm shipments.

(C) When information is requested by a person promoting, sponsoring, operating, or otherwise organizing a show or event as defined in Section 478.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, who possesses a valid certificate of eligibility issued pursuant to Section 12071.1, if that information is requested by the person to determine the eligibility of a prospective participant in a gun show or event to conduct transactions as a firearms dealer pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(4) Information provided pursuant to paragraph (3) shall be limited to information necessary to corroborate an individual's current license status as being one of the following:

(A) A person licensed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(B) A person licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and who is not subject to the requirement that he or she be licensed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(f) The Department of Justice may inspect dealers to ensure compliance with this article. The department may assess an annual fee, not to exceed one hundred fifteen dollars ($115), to cover the reasonable cost of maintaining the list described in subdivision (e), including the cost of inspections. Dealers whose place of business is in a jurisdiction that has adopted an inspection program to ensure compliance with firearms law shall be exempt from that portion of the department's fee that relates to the cost of inspections. The applicant is responsible for providing evidence to the department that the jurisdiction in which the business is located has the inspection program.

(g) The Department of Justice shall maintain and make available upon request information concerning the number of inspections conducted and the amount of fees collected pursuant to subdivision (f), a listing of exempted jurisdictions, as defined in subdivision (f), the number of dealers removed from the centralized list defined in subdivision (e), and the number of dealers found to have violated this article with knowledge or gross negligence.

(h) Paragraph (14) or (15) of subdivision (b) shall not apply to a licensee organized as a nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of the Corporations Code, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation obtained the dealer's license solely and exclusively to assist that corporation or local chapters of that corporation in conducting auctions or similar events at which firearms are auctioned off to fund the activities of that corporation or the local chapters of the corporation.

(2) The firearms are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(i) (1) For every verification inquiry made pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, the department shall determine whether the intended recipient possesses an appropriate, valid license issued pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and, if applicable, is properly licensed pursuant to this section.

(2) If the intended recipient possesses an appropriate, valid license issued pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, and if applicable, is properly licensed pursuant to this section, the department shall immediately provide a unique verification number to the inquiring party.

(3) If the intended recipient does not possess an appropriate, valid license issued pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, or if applicable, is not properly licensed pursuant to this section, the department shall do all of the following:

(B) Within 24 hours, notify the chief law enforcement officer of the jurisdiction where the address on the federal firearms license about which the inquiry was made is located, and notify an appropriate employee of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms of the denied verification.

SEC. 9.5. Section 12071 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12071. (a) (1) As used in this chapter, the term “licensee,” “person licensed pursuant to Section 12071,” or “dealer” means a person who has all of the following:

- (A) A valid federal firearms license.
- (B) Any regulatory or business license, or licenses, required by local government.
- (C) A valid seller’s permit issued by the State Board of Equalization.
- (D) A certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (4).
- (E) A license issued in the format prescribed by paragraph (6).
- (F) Is among those recorded in the centralized list specified in subdivision (e).

(2) The duly constituted licensing authority of a city, county, or a city and county shall accept applications for, and may grant licenses permitting, licensees to sell firearms at retail within the city, county, or city and county. The duly constituted licensing authority shall inform applicants who are denied licenses of the reasons for the denial in writing.

(3) No license shall be granted to any applicant who fails to provide a copy of his or her valid federal firearms license, valid seller’s permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, and the certificate of eligibility described in paragraph (4).

(4) A person may request a certificate of eligibility from the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice shall issue a certificate to an applicant if the department’s records indicate that the applicant is not a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms.

(5) The department shall adopt regulations to administer the certificate of eligibility program and shall recover the full costs of administering the program by imposing fees assessed to applicants who apply for those certificates.

(6) A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county, or city and county, shall be valid for not more than one year from the date of issuance and shall be in one of the following forms:

- (A) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General.
- (B) A regulatory or business license that states on its face “Valid for Retail Sales of Firearms” and is endorsed by the signature of the issuing authority.

(C) A letter from the duly constituted licensing authority having primary jurisdiction for the applicant's intended business location stating that the jurisdiction does not require any form of regulatory or business license or does not otherwise restrict or regulate the sale of firearms.

(7) Local licensing authorities may assess fees to recover their full costs of processing applications for licenses.

(b) A license is subject to forfeiture for a breach of any of the following prohibitions and requirements:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the business shall be conducted only in the buildings designated in the license.

(B) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may take possession of firearms and commence preparation of registers for the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms at gun shows or events, as defined in Section 478.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, if the gun show or event is not conducted from any motorized or towed vehicle. A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to conduct business as authorized herein at any gun show or event in the state without regard to the jurisdiction within this state that issued the license pursuant to subdivision (a), provided the person complies with (i) all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the waiting period specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), and (ii) all applicable local laws, regulations, and fees, if any.

A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall publicly display his or her license issued pursuant to subdivision (a), or a facsimile thereof, at any gun show or event, as specified in this subparagraph.

(C) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may engage in the sale and transfer of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at events specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions contained in that subdivision.

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) also may accept delivery of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, outside the building designated in the license, provided the firearm is being donated for the purpose of sale or transfer at an auction or similar event specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078.

(ii) The places specified in subparagraph (B) or (C).

(iii) The place of residence of, the fixed place of business of, or on private property owned or lawfully possessed by, the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can easily be seen.

(3) No firearm shall be delivered:

(A) Within 10 days of the application to purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the application, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(D) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The dealer shall make available to the person in the prohibited class a prohibited notice and transfer form, provided by the department, stating that the person is prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm, and that the person may obtain from the department the reason for the prohibition.

(4) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm or imitation thereof capable of being concealed upon the person, or placard advertising the sale or other transfer thereof, shall be displayed in any part of the premises where it can readily be seen from the outside.

(5) The licensee shall agree to and shall act properly and promptly in processing firearms transactions pursuant to Section 12082.

(6) The licensee shall comply with Sections 12073, 12076, and 12077, subdivisions (a) and (b) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, and subdivision (a) of Section 12316.

(7) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises the following warnings in block letters not less than one inch in height:

(A) "IF YOU KEEP A LOADED FIREARM WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A PERSON UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE OBTAINS IT AND USES IT, RESULTING IN INJURY OR DEATH, OR CARRIES IT TO A PUBLIC PLACE, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR OR A FELONY UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A

LOCKING DEVICE, TO KEEP IT FROM TEMPORARILY FUNCTIONING.”

(B) “IF YOU KEEP A PISTOL, REVOLVER, OR OTHER FIREARM CAPABLE OF BEING CONCEALED UPON THE PERSON, WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A PERSON UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE GAINS ACCESS TO THE FIREARM, AND CARRIES IT OFF-PREMISES, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR, UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER, OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A LOCKING DEVICE, TO KEEP IT FROM TEMPORARILY FUNCTIONING.”

(C) “IF YOU KEEP ANY FIREARM WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A PERSON UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE GAINS ACCESS TO THE FIREARM, AND CARRIES IT OFF-PREMISES TO A SCHOOL OR SCHOOL-SPONSORED EVENT, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR, INCLUDING A FINE OF UP TO FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5,000), UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER, OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A LOCKING DEVICE.”

(D) “DISCHARGING FIREARMS IN POORLY VENTILATED AREAS, CLEANING FIREARMS, OR HANDLING AMMUNITION MAY RESULT IN EXPOSURE TO LEAD, A SUBSTANCE KNOWN TO CAUSE BIRTH DEFECTS, REPRODUCTIVE HARM, AND OTHER SERIOUS PHYSICAL INJURY. HAVE ADEQUATE VENTILATION AT ALL TIMES. WASH HANDS THOROUGHLY AFTER EXPOSURE.”

(E) “FEDERAL REGULATIONS PROVIDE THAT IF YOU DO NOT TAKE PHYSICAL POSSESSION OF THE FIREARM THAT YOU ARE ACQUIRING OWNERSHIP OF WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER YOU COMPLETE THE INITIAL BACKGROUND CHECK PAPERWORK, THEN YOU HAVE TO GO THROUGH THE BACKGROUND CHECK PROCESS A SECOND TIME IN ORDER TO TAKE PHYSICAL POSSESSION OF THAT FIREARM.”

(F) “NO PERSON SHALL MAKE AN APPLICATION TO PURCHASE MORE THAN ONE PISTOL, REVOLVER, OR OTHER FIREARM CAPABLE OF BEING CONCEALED UPON THE PERSON WITHIN ANY 30-DAY PERIOD AND NO DELIVERY SHALL BE MADE TO ANY PERSON WHO HAS MADE AN APPLICATION TO PURCHASE MORE THAN ONE PISTOL, REVOLVER, OR OTHER FIREARM CAPABLE OF BEING CONCEALED UPON THE PERSON WITHIN ANY 30-DAY PERIOD.”

(8) (A) Commencing April 1, 1994, and until January 1, 2003, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents to the dealer a basic firearms safety certificate.

(B) Commencing January 1, 2003, no dealer may deliver a handgun unless the person receiving the handgun presents to the dealer a valid handgun safety certificate. The firearms dealer shall retain a photocopy of the handgun safety certificate as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(C) Commencing January 1, 2003, no handgun may be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents documentation indicating that he or she is a California resident. Satisfactory documentation shall include a utility bill from within the last three months, a residential lease, a property deed, or military permanent duty station orders indicating assignment within this state, or other evidence of residency as permitted by the Department of Justice. The firearms dealer shall retain a photocopy of the documentation as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(D) Commencing January 1, 2003, except as authorized by the department, no firearms dealer may deliver a handgun unless the recipient performs a safe handling demonstration with that handgun. The demonstration shall commence with the handgun unloaded and locked with the firearm safety device with which it is required to be delivered, if applicable. While maintaining muzzle awareness, that is, the firearm is pointed in a safe direction, preferably down at the ground, and trigger discipline, that is, the trigger finger is outside of the trigger guard and along side of the handgun frame, at all times, the handgun recipient shall correctly and safely perform the following:

(i) If the handgun is a semiautomatic pistol:

(II) Lock the slide back. If the model of firearm does not allow the slide to be locked back, pull the slide back, visually and physically check the chamber to ensure that it is clear.

(III) Visually and physically inspect the chamber, to ensure that the handgun is unloaded.

(IV) Remove the firearm safety device, if applicable. If the firearm safety device prevents any of the previous steps, remove the firearm safety device during the appropriate step.

(V) Load one bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round into the magazine. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.

- (VI) Insert the magazine into the magazine well of the firearm.
- (VII) Manipulate the slide release or pull back and release the slide.
- (VIII) Remove the magazine.
- (IX) Visually inspect the chamber to reveal that a round can be chambered with the magazine removed.
- (X) Lock the slide back to eject the bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round. If the handgun is of a model that does not allow the slide to be locked back, pull the slide back and physically check the chamber to ensure that the chamber is clear. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.
- (XI) Apply the safety, if applicable.
- (XII) Apply the firearm safety device, if applicable. This requirement shall not apply to an Olympic competition pistol if no firearms safety device, other than a cable lock that the department has determined would damage the barrel of the pistol, has been approved for the pistol, and the pistol is either listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132 or is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132.
  - (ii) If the handgun is a double-action revolver:
    - (I) Open the cylinder.
    - (II) Visually and physically inspect each chamber, to ensure that the revolver is unloaded.
  - (III) Remove the firearm safety device. If the firearm safety device prevents any of the previous steps, remove the firearm safety device during the appropriate step.
  - (IV) While maintaining muzzle awareness and trigger discipline, load one bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round into a chamber of the cylinder and rotate the cylinder so that the round is in the next-to-fire position. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.
    - (V) Close the cylinder.
    - (VI) Open the cylinder and eject the round.
    - (VII) Visually and physically inspect each chamber to ensure that the revolver is unloaded.
    - (VIII) Apply the firearm safety device, if applicable. This requirement shall not apply to an Olympic competition pistol if no firearms safety device, other than a cable lock that the department has determined would damage the barrel of the pistol, has been approved for the pistol, and the pistol is either listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132 or is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132.
      - (iii) If the handgun is a single-action revolver:
        - (I) Open the loading gate.

(III) Remove the firearm safety device required to be sold with the handgun. If the firearm safety device prevents any of the previous steps, remove the firearm safety device during the appropriate step.

(IV) Load one bright orange, red, or other readily identifiable dummy round into a chamber of the cylinder, close the loading gate and rotate the cylinder so that the round is in the next-to-fire position. If no readily identifiable dummy round is available, an empty cartridge casing with an empty primer pocket may be used.

(VI) Visually and physically inspect each chamber to ensure that the revolver is unloaded.

(VII) Apply the firearm safety device, if applicable. This requirement shall not apply to an Olympic competition pistol if no firearms safety device, other than a cable lock that the department has determined would damage the barrel of the pistol, has been approved for the pistol, and the pistol is either listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132 or is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section 12132.

(E) The recipient shall receive instruction regarding how to render that handgun safe in the event of a jam.

(F) The firearms dealer shall sign and date an affidavit stating that the requirements of subparagraph (D) have been met. The firearms dealer shall additionally obtain the signature of the handgun purchaser on the same affidavit. The firearms dealer shall retain the original affidavit as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(G) The recipient shall perform the safe handling demonstration for a department certified instructor.

(H) No demonstration shall be required if the dealer is returning the handgun to the owner of the handgun.

(I) Department certified instructors who may administer the safe handling demonstration shall meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (j) of Section 12804.

(J) The persons who are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 12801, pursuant to Section 12807, are also exempt from performing the safe handling demonstration.

(9) Commencing July 1, 1992, the licensee shall offer to provide the purchaser or transferee of a firearm, or person being loaned a firearm, with a copy of the pamphlet described in Section 12080 and may add the cost of the pamphlet, if any, to the sales price of the firearm.

(11) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises a detailed list of each of the following:

(A) All charges required by governmental agencies for processing firearm transfers required by Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(12) The licensee shall not misstate the amount of fees charged by a governmental agency pursuant to Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(13) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), all firearms that are in the inventory of the licensee shall be kept within the licensed location. The licensee shall report the loss or theft of any firearm that is merchandise of the licensee, any firearm that the licensee takes possession of pursuant to Section 12082, or any firearm kept at the licensee's place of business within 48 hours of discovery to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the city, county, or city and county where the licensee's business premises are located.

(14) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), any time when the licensee is not open for business, inventory all firearms shall be stored in the licensed location. All firearms shall be secured using one of the following methods as to each particular firearm:

(A) Store the firearm in a secure facility that is a part of, or that constitutes, the licensee's business premises.

(B) Secure the firearm with a hardened steel rod or cable of at least one-eighth inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(C) Store the firearm in a locked fireproof safe or vault in the licensee's business premises.

(15) The licensing authority in an unincorporated area of a county or within a city may impose security requirements that are more strict or are at a higher standard than those specified in paragraph (14).

(16) Commencing January 1, 1994, the licensee shall, upon the issuance or renewal of a license, submit a copy of the same to the Department of Justice.

(17) The licensee shall maintain and make available for inspection during business hours to any peace officer, authorized local law enforcement employee, or Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, upon the presentation of proper identification, a firearms transaction record.

(18) (A) On the date of receipt, the licensee shall report to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department the acquisition by the licensee of the ownership of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any of the following transactions:

(iii) The dealer is also licensed as a secondhand dealer pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 21625) of Chapter 9 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code.

(iv) The dealer acquired the firearm from a person who is licensed as a manufacturer or importer to engage in those activities pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and any regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(v) The dealer acquired the firearm from a person who resides outside this state who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and any regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(19) The licensee shall forward in a format prescribed by the Department of Justice, information as required by the department on any firearm that is not delivered within the time period set forth in Section 478.102 (c) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(20) (A) Firearms dealers may require any agent who handles, sells, or delivers firearms to obtain and provide to the dealer a certificate of eligibility from the department pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a). The agent or employee shall provide on the application, the name and California firearms dealer number of the firearms dealer with whom he or she is employed.

(B) The department shall notify the firearms dealer in the event that the agent or employee who has a certificate of eligibility is or becomes prohibited from possessing firearms.

(C) If the local jurisdiction requires a background check of the agents or employees of the firearms dealer, the agent or employee shall obtain a certificate of eligibility pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(D) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to preclude a local jurisdiction from conducting an additional background check pursuant to Section 11105 or prohibiting employment based on criminal history that does not appear as part of obtaining a certificate of eligibility, provided however, that the local jurisdiction may not charge a fee for the additional criminal history check.

(E) The licensee shall prohibit any agent who the licensee knows or reasonably should know is within a class of persons prohibited from possessing firearms pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, from coming into contact with any firearm that is not secured and from accessing any key, combination, code, or other means to open any of the locking devices described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (G) of this paragraph.

(F) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as preventing a local government from enacting an ordinance imposing additional conditions on licensees with regard to agents.

(G) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(ii) “Secured” means a firearm that is made inoperable in one or more of the following ways:

(I) The firearm is inoperable because it is secured by a firearms safety device listed on the department’s roster of approved firearms safety devices pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12088 of this chapter.

(II) The firearm is stored in a locked gun safe or long-gun safe which meets the standards for department-approved gun safes set forth in Section 12088.2.

(III) The firearm is stored in a distinct locked room or area in the building that is used to store firearms that can only be unlocked by a key, a combination, or similar means.

(IV) The firearm is secured with a hardened steel rod or cable that is at least one-eighth of an inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(c) (1) As used in this article, “clear evidence of his or her identity and age” means either of the following:

(2) As used in this section, a “secure facility” means a building that meets all of the following specifications:

(A) All perimeter doorways shall meet one of the following:

(ii) A windowed metal door that is equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock. If the window has an opening of five inches or more measured in any direction, the window shall be covered with steel bars of at least ½-inch diameter or metal grating of at least 9 gauge affixed to the exterior or interior of the door.

(iii) A metal grate that is padlocked and affixed to the licensee's premises independent of the door and doorframe.

(C) Heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and service openings are secured with steel bars, metal grating, or an alarm system.

(3) As used in this section, "licensed premises," "licensed place of business," "licensee's place of business," or "licensee's business premises" means the building designated in the license.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (17) of subdivision (b):

(A) A "firearms transaction record" is a record containing the same information referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 478.124, Section 478.124a, and subdivision (e) of Section 478.125 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(B) A licensee shall be in compliance with the provisions of paragraph (17) of subdivision (b) if he or she maintains and makes available for inspection during business hours to any peace officer, authorized local law enforcement employee, or Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, upon the presentation of proper identification, the bound book containing the same information referred to in Section 478.124a and subdivision (e) of Section 478.125 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations and the records referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 478.124 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(d) Upon written request from a licensee, the licensing authority may grant an exemption from compliance with the requirements of paragraph (14) of subdivision (b) if the licensee is unable to comply with those requirements because of local ordinances, covenants, lease conditions, or similar circumstances not under the control of the licensee.

(e) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the Department of Justice shall keep a centralized list of all persons licensed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The department may remove from this list any person who knowingly or with gross negligence violates this article. Upon removal of a dealer from this list, notification shall be provided to local law enforcement and licensing authorities in the jurisdiction where the dealer's business is located.

(2) The department shall remove from the centralized list any person whose federal firearms license has expired or has been revoked.

(3) Information compiled from the list shall be made available, upon request, for the following purposes only:

(B) When the information is requested by a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code for determining the validity of the license for firearm shipments.

(C) When information is requested by a person promoting, sponsoring, operating, or otherwise organizing a show or event as defined in Section 478.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, who possesses a valid certificate of eligibility issued pursuant to Section 12071.1, if that information is requested by the person to determine the eligibility of a prospective participant in a gun show or event to conduct transactions as a firearms dealer pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(4) Information provided pursuant to paragraph (3) shall be limited to information necessary to corroborate an individual's current license status as being one of the following:

(A) A person licensed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(B) A person licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and who is not subject to the requirement that he or she be licensed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(f) The Department of Justice may inspect dealers to ensure compliance with this article. The department may assess an annual fee, not to exceed one hundred fifteen dollars ($115), to cover the reasonable cost of maintaining the list described in subdivision (e), including the cost of inspections. Dealers whose place of business is in a jurisdiction that has adopted an inspection program to ensure compliance with firearms law shall be exempt from that portion of the department's fee that relates to the cost of inspections. The applicant is responsible for providing evidence to the department that the jurisdiction in which the business is located has the inspection program.

(g) The Department of Justice shall maintain and make available upon request information concerning the number of inspections conducted and the amount of fees collected pursuant to subdivision (f), a listing of exempted jurisdictions, as defined in subdivision (f), the number of dealers removed from the centralized list defined in subdivision (e), and the number of dealers found to have violated this article with knowledge or gross negligence.

(h) Paragraph (14) or (15) of subdivision (b) shall not apply to a licensee organized as a nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of the Corporations Code, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation obtained the dealer's license solely and exclusively to assist that corporation or local chapters of that corporation in conducting auctions or similar events at which firearms are auctioned off to fund the activities of that corporation or the local chapters of the corporation.

(2) The firearms are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

SEC. 10. Section 12072 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12072. (a) (1) No person, corporation, or firm shall knowingly supply, deliver, sell, or give possession or control of a firearm to any person within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1.

(2) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, supply, deliver, or give possession or control of a firearm to any person whom he or she has cause to believe to be within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) (A) No person, corporation, or firm shall sell, loan, or transfer a firearm to a minor, nor sell a handgun to an individual under 21 years of age.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to or affect those circumstances set forth in subdivision (p) of Section 12078.

(4) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, loan, or transfer a firearm to any person whom he or she knows or has cause to believe is not the actual purchaser or transferee of the firearm, or to any person who is not the person actually being loaned the firearm, if the person, corporation, or dealer has either of the following:

(A) Knowledge that the firearm is to be subsequently loaned, sold, or transferred to avoid the provisions of subdivision (c) or (d).

(B) Knowledge that the firearm is to be subsequently loaned, sold, or transferred to avoid the requirements of any exemption to the provisions of subdivision (c) or (d).

(5) No person, corporation, or dealer shall acquire a firearm for the purpose of selling, transferring, or loaning the firearm, if the person, corporation, or dealer has either of the following:

(B) In any other case, intent to avoid either of the following:

- (i) The provisions of subdivision (d).
- (ii) The requirements of any exemption to the provisions of subdivision (d).
- (6) The dealer shall comply with the provisions of paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071.
- (7) The dealer shall comply with the provisions of paragraph (19) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071.
- (8) No person shall sell or otherwise transfer his or her ownership in a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person unless the firearm bears either:
  - (A) The name of the manufacturer, the manufacturer's make or model, and a manufacturer's serial number assigned to that firearm.
  - (B) The identification number or mark assigned to the firearm by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12092.
- (9) (A) No person shall make an application to purchase more than one pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person within any 30-day period.
  - (B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any of the following:
    - (i) Any law enforcement agency.
    - (ii) Any agency duly authorized to perform law enforcement duties.
    - (iii) Any state or local correctional facility.
    - (iv) Any private security company licensed to do business in California.
    - (v) Any person who is properly identified as a full-time paid peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, and who is authorized to, and does carry a firearm during the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer.
    - (vi) Any motion picture, television, or video production company or entertainment or theatrical company whose production by its nature involves the use of a firearm.
    - (vii) Any person who may, pursuant to Section 12078, claim an exemption from the waiting period set forth in subdivision (c) of this section.
    - (viii) Any transaction conducted through a licensed firearms dealer pursuant to Section 12082.
    - (ix) Any person who is licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto and who has a current certificate of eligibility issued to him or her by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12071.
    - (x) The exchange of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person where the dealer purchased that firearm from the person seeking the exchange within the 30-day period immediately preceding the date of exchange or replacement.

(xi) The replacement of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person when the person's pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person was lost or stolen, and the person reported that firearm lost or stolen prior to the completion of the application to purchase to any local law enforcement agency of the city, county, or city and county in which he or she resides.

(xii) The return of any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to its owner.

(b) No person licensed under Section 12071 shall supply, sell, deliver, or give possession or control of a pistol, revolver, or firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to any person under the age of 21 years or any other firearm to a person under the age of 18 years.

(c) No dealer, whether or not acting pursuant to Section 12082, shall deliver a firearm to a person, as follows:

(1) Within 10 days of the application to purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the application, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(3) Unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer.

(4) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) (A) Commencing April 1, 1994, and until January 1, 2003, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents to the dealer a basic firearms safety certificate.

(B) Commencing January 1, 2003, no handgun shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the handgun presents a handgun safety certificate to the dealer.

(6) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that within the preceding 30-day period the purchaser has made another application to purchase a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person and that the previous application to purchase involved none of the entities specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a).

(d) Where neither party to the transaction holds a dealer's license issued pursuant to Section 12071, the parties to the transaction shall complete the sale, loan, or transfer of that firearm through a licensed firearms dealer pursuant to Section 12082.

(e) No person may commit an act of collusion relating to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6. For purposes of this section and Section 12071, collusion may be proven by any one of the following factors:

(4) Taking or allowing another person to take the basic firearms safety course for one who is the applicant for a basic firearms safety certificate or a handgun safety certificate.

(9) Providing originals or photocopies of the objective test, or any version thereof, to any person other than as authorized by the department.

(f) (1) No person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code shall deliver, sell, or transfer a firearm to a person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and whose licensed premises are located in this state unless:

(A) Prior to January 1, 2005, the intended recipient does one of the following:

(ii) Presents proof that he or she is exempt from licensure under Section 12071 to that person, in which case the person also shall present proof that the transaction is also exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d).

(B) Commencing January 1, 2005, one of the following is satisfied:

(i) The person intending to deliver, sell, or transfer the firearms obtains from the department, prior to delivery, a unique verification number pursuant to Section 12071. The person intending to deliver, sell, or transfer firearms shall provide the unique verification number to the recipient along with the firearms upon delivery, in a manner to be determined by the department.

(ii) The intended recipient presents proof that he or she is exempt from licensure under Section 12071 to that person, in which case the person also shall present proof that the transaction is also exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d).

(2) (A) On or after January 1, 1998, within 60 days of bringing a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person into this state, a personal handgun importer shall do one of the following:

(i) Forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report prescribed by the department including information concerning that individual and a description of the firearm in question.

(ii) Sell or transfer the firearm in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (d) or in accordance with the provisions of an exemption from subdivision (d).

(iii) Sell or transfer the firearm to a dealer licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(iv) Sell or transfer the firearm to a sheriff or police department.

(B) If the personal handgun importer sells or transfers the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and the sale or transfer cannot be completed by the dealer to the purchaser or transferee, and the firearm can be returned to the personal handgun importer, the personal handgun importer shall have complied with the provisions of this paragraph.

(C) The provisions of this paragraph are cumulative and shall not be construed as restricting the application of any other law. However, an act or omission punishable in different ways by this section and different provisions of the Penal Code shall not be punished under more than one provision.

(D) (i) On and after January 1, 1998, the department shall conduct a public education and notification program regarding this paragraph to ensure a high degree of publicity of the provisions of this paragraph.

(ii) As part of the public education and notification program described in this subparagraph, the department shall do all of the following:

(I) Work in conjunction with the Department of Motor Vehicles to ensure that any person who is subject to this paragraph is advised of the provisions of this paragraph, and provided with blank copies of the report described in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) at the time that person applies for a California driver's license or registers his or her motor vehicle in accordance with the Vehicle Code.

(II) Make the reports referred to in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) available to dealers licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(III) Make the reports referred to in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) available to law enforcement agencies.

(IV) Make persons subject to the provisions of this paragraph aware of the fact that reports referred to in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) may be completed at either the licensed premises of dealers licensed pursuant to Section 12071 or at law enforcement agencies, that it is advisable to do so for the sake of accuracy and completeness of the reports, that prior to transporting a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a law enforcement agency in order to comply with subparagraph (A), the person should give prior notice to the law enforcement agency that he or she is doing so, and that in any event, the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person should be transported unloaded and in a locked container.

(iii) Any costs incurred by the department to implement this paragraph shall be absorbed by the department within its existing budget and the fees in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account allocated for implementation of this subparagraph pursuant to Section 12076.

(3) Where a person who is licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, whose licensed premises are within this state, acquires a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person that is a curio or relic, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, outside of this state, takes actual possession of that firearm outside of this state pursuant to the provisions of subsection (j) of Section 923 of Title 18 of the United States Code, as amended by Public Law 104-208, and transports that firearm into this state, within five days of that licensed collector transporting that firearm into this state, he or she shall report to the department in a format prescribed by the department his or her acquisition of that firearm.

(4) (A) It is the intent of the Legislature that a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) shall not constitute a "continuing offense" and the statute of limitations for commencing a prosecution for a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) commences on the date that the applicable grace period specified in paragraph (2) or (3) expires.

(B) Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to a person who reports his or her ownership of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person after the applicable grace period specified in paragraph (2) or (3) expires if evidence of that violation arises only as the result of the person submitting the report described in paragraph (2) or (3).

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), (3), or (5), a violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

(2) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(B) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating the provisions, other than paragraph (9) of subdivision (a), of this section or former Section 12100 of this code or Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating any offense specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12021.1 or of a violation of Section 12020, 12220, or 12520, or of former Section 12560.

(D) If the defendant is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(E) A violation of this section by a person who actively participates in a "criminal street gang" as defined in Section 186.22.

(F) A violation of subdivision (b) involving the delivery of any firearm to a person who the dealer knows, or should know, is a minor.

(3) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison, or by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(B) A violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) involving the sale, loan, or transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor.

(C) A violation of subdivision (b) involving the delivery of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(D) A violation of paragraph (1), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (c) involving a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(E) A violation of subdivision (d) involving a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(4) If both of the following circumstances apply, an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years shall be imposed in addition and consecutive to the sentence prescribed.

(B) The firearm transferred in violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) is used in the subsequent commission of a felony for which a conviction is obtained and the prescribed sentence is imposed.

(5) (A) A first violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) is an infraction punishable by a fine of fifty dollars ($50).

(B) A second violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) is an infraction punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100).

(C) A third or subsequent violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph each application to purchase a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person in violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) shall be deemed a separate offense.

SEC. 10.5. Section 12072 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12072. (a) (1) No person, corporation, or firm shall knowingly supply, deliver, sell, or give possession or control of a firearm to any person within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1.

(2) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, supply, deliver, or give possession or control of a firearm to any person whom he or she has cause to believe to be within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) (A) No person, corporation, or firm shall sell, loan, or transfer a firearm to a minor, nor sell a handgun to an individual under 21 years of age.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to or affect those circumstances set forth in subdivision (p) of Section 12078.

(4) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, loan, or transfer a firearm to any person whom he or she knows or has cause to believe is not the actual purchaser or transferee of the firearm, or to any person who is not the person actually being loaned the firearm, if the person, corporation, or dealer has either of the following:

(A) Knowledge that the firearm is to be subsequently loaned, sold, or transferred to avoid the provisions of subdivision (c) or (d).

(B) Knowledge that the firearm is to be subsequently loaned, sold, or transferred to avoid the requirements of any exemption to the provisions of subdivision (c) or (d).

(5) No person, corporation, or dealer shall acquire a firearm for the purpose of selling, transferring, or loaning the firearm, if the person, corporation, or dealer has either of the following:

(B) In any other case, intent to avoid either of the following:

(6) The dealer shall comply with the provisions of paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071.

(7) The dealer shall comply with the provisions of paragraph (19) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071.

(8) No person shall sell or otherwise transfer his or her ownership in a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person unless the firearm bears either:

(A) The name of the manufacturer, the manufacturer's make or model, and a manufacturer's serial number assigned to that firearm.

(B) The identification number or mark assigned to the firearm by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12092.

(9) (A) No person shall make an application to purchase more than one pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person within any 30-day period.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) Any law enforcement agency.

(ii) Any agency duly authorized to perform law enforcement duties.

(iii) Any state or local correctional facility.

(iv) Any private security company licensed to do business in California.

(v) Any person who is properly identified as a full-time paid peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, and who is authorized to, and does carry a firearm during the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer.

(vi) Any motion picture, television, or video production company or entertainment or theatrical company whose production by its nature involves the use of a firearm.

(vii) Any person who may, pursuant to Section 12078, claim an exemption from the waiting period set forth in subdivision (c) of this section.

Any person who is licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto and who has a current certificate of eligibility issued to him or her by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12071.

(x) The exchange of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person where the dealer purchased that firearm from the person seeking the exchange within the 30-day period immediately preceding the date of exchange or replacement.

(xi) The replacement of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person when the person's pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person was lost or stolen, and the person reported that firearm lost or stolen prior to the completion of the application to purchase to any local law enforcement agency of the city, county, or city and county in which he or she resides.

(xii) The return of any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to its owner.

(b) No person licensed under Section 12071 shall supply, sell, deliver, or give possession or control of a pistol, revolver, or firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to any person under the age of 21 years or any other firearm to a person under the age of 18 years.

(c) No dealer, whether or not acting pursuant to Section 12082, shall deliver a firearm to a person, as follows:

(1) Within 10 days of the application to purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of any correction to the application, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(3) Unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer.

(4) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) (A) Commencing April 1, 1994, and until January 1, 2003, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents to the dealer a basic firearms safety certificate.

(B) Commencing January 1, 2003, no handgun shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the handgun presents a handgun safety certificate to the dealer.

(6) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that within the preceding 30-day period the purchaser has made another application to purchase a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person and that the previous application to purchase involved none of the entities specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a).

(d) Where neither party to the transaction holds a dealer's license issued pursuant to Section 12071, the parties to the transaction shall complete the sale, loan, or transfer of that firearm through a licensed firearms dealer pursuant to Section 12082.

(e) No person may commit an act of collusion relating to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6. For purposes of this section and Section 12071, collusion may be proven by any one of the following factors:

(4) Taking or allowing another person to take the basic firearms safety course for one who is the applicant for a basic firearms safety certificate or a handgun safety certificate.

(9) Providing originals or photocopies of the objective test, or any version thereof, to any person other than as authorized by the department.

(f) (1) (A) Commencing July 1, 2007, a person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code may not deliver, sell, or transfer a firearm to a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code unless, prior to delivery, the person intending to deliver, sell, or transfer the firearm obtains a verification number via the Internet for the intended delivery, sale or transfer, from the department. If Internet service is unavailable to either the department or the licensee due to a technical or other malfunction, or a federal firearms licensee who is located outside of California does not possess a computer or have Internet access, alternate means of communication, including facsimile or telephone, shall be made available for a licensee to obtain a verification number in order to comply with this section. This subdivision shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a short-barreled rifle, or short-barreled shotgun, as defined in Section

12020, or to a machinegun as defined in Section 12200, or to an assault weapon as defined in Sections 12276, 12276.1, and 12276.5.

(B) For every identification number request received pursuant to this section, the department shall determine whether the intended recipient is on the centralized list of firearms dealers pursuant to this section, or pursuant to the centralized list of exempted federal firearms licensees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12083, or the centralized list of firearms manufacturers pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 12086.

(C) If the department finds that the intended recipient is on one of these lists, the department shall issue to the inquiring party, a unique identification number for the intended delivery, sale, or transfer. In addition to the unique verification number, the department may provide to the inquiring party information necessary for determining the eligibility of the intended recipient to receive the firearm. The person intending to deliver, sell, or transfer the firearm shall provide the unique verification number to the recipient along with the firearm upon delivery, in a manner to be determined by the department.

(D) If the department finds that the intended recipient is not on one of these lists, the department shall notify the inquiring party that the intended recipient is ineligible to receive the firearm.

(E) The department shall prescribe the manner in which the verification numbers may be requested via the Internet, or by alternate means of communication, such as by facsimile or telephone, including all required enrollment information and procedures.

(2) (A) On or after January 1, 1998, within 60 days of bringing a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person into this state, a personal handgun importer shall do one of the following:

(i) Forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report prescribed by the department including information concerning that individual and a description of the firearm in question.

(ii) Sell or transfer the firearm in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (d) or in accordance with the provisions of an exemption from subdivision (d).

(iii) Sell or transfer the firearm to a dealer licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(iv) Sell or transfer the firearm to a sheriff or police department.

(B) If the personal handgun importer sells or transfers the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and the sale or transfer cannot be completed by the dealer to the purchaser or transferee, and the firearm can be returned to the personal handgun importer, the personal handgun importer shall have complied with the provisions of this paragraph.

(C) The provisions of this paragraph are cumulative and shall not be construed as restricting the application of any other law. However, an act or omission punishable in different ways by this section and different provisions of the Penal Code shall not be punished under more than one provision.

(D) (i) On and after January 1, 1998, the department shall conduct a public education and notification program regarding this paragraph to ensure a high degree of publicity of the provisions of this paragraph.

(ii) As part of the public education and notification program described in this subparagraph, the department shall do all of the following:

(I) Work in conjunction with the Department of Motor Vehicles to ensure that any person who is subject to this paragraph is advised of the provisions of this paragraph, and provided with blank copies of the report described in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) at the time that person applies for a California driver's license or registers his or her motor vehicle in accordance with the Vehicle Code.

(II) Make the reports referred to in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) available to dealers licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(III) Make the reports referred to in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) available to law enforcement agencies.

(IV) Make persons subject to the provisions of this paragraph aware of the fact that reports referred to in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) may be completed at either the licensed premises of dealers licensed pursuant to Section 12071 or at law enforcement agencies, that it is advisable to do so for the sake of accuracy and completeness of the reports, that prior to transporting a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a law enforcement agency in order to comply with subparagraph (A), the person should give prior notice to the law enforcement agency that he or she is doing so, and that in any event, the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person should be transported unloaded and in a locked container.

(iii) Any costs incurred by the department to implement this paragraph shall be absorbed by the department within its existing budget and the fees in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account allocated for implementation of this subparagraph pursuant to Section 12076.

(3) Where a person who is licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, whose licensed premises are within this state, acquires a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person that is a curio or relic, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, outside of this state, takes actual possession of that firearm outside of this state pursuant to the provisions of subsection (j) of Section 923 of Title 18 of the United States Code, as amended by Public Law 104-208, and transports that firearm into this state, within five days of that licensed collector transporting that firearm into this state, he or she shall report to the department in a format prescribed by the department his or her acquisition of that firearm.

(4) (A) It is the intent of the Legislature that a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) shall not constitute a “continuing offense” and the statute of limitations for commencing a prosecution for a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) commences on the date that the applicable grace period specified in paragraph (2) or (3) expires.

(B) Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to a person who reports his or her ownership of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person after the applicable grace period specified in paragraph (2) or (3) expires if evidence of that violation arises only as the result of the person submitting the report described in paragraph (2) or (3).

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), (3), or (5), a violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

(2) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(B) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating the provisions, other than paragraph (9) of subdivision (a), of this section or former Section 12100 of this code or Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating any offense specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12021.1 or of a violation of Section 12020, 12220, or 12520, or of former Section 12560.

(D) If the defendant is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(E) A violation of this section by a person who actively participates in a “criminal street gang” as defined in Section 186.22.

(F) A violation of subdivision (b) involving the delivery of any firearm to a person who the dealer knows, or should know, is a minor.

(3) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison, or by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(B) A violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) involving the sale, loan, or transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor.

(C) A violation of subdivision (b) involving the delivery of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(D) A violation of paragraph (1), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (c) involving a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(E) A violation of subdivision (d) involving a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(4) If both of the following circumstances apply, an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years shall be imposed in addition and consecutive to the sentence prescribed.

(B) The firearm transferred in violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) is used in the subsequent commission of a felony for which a conviction is obtained and the prescribed sentence is imposed.

(5) (A) A first violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) is an infraction punishable by a fine of fifty dollars ($50).

(B) A second violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) is an infraction punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100).

(C) A third or subsequent violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph each application to purchase a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person in violation of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) shall be deemed a separate offense.

SEC. 11. Section 12076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12076. (a) (1) Before January 1, 1998, the Department of Justice shall determine the method by which a dealer shall submit firearm purchaser information to the department and the information shall be in one of the following formats:

(B) Electronic or telephonic transfer of the information contained in the register described in Section 12077.

(2) On or after January 1, 1998, electronic or telephonic transfer, including voice or facsimile transmission, shall be the exclusive means by which purchaser information is transmitted to the department.

(3) On or after January 1, 2003, except as permitted by the department, electronic transfer shall be the exclusive means by which information is transmitted to the department. Telephonic transfer shall not be permitted for information regarding sales of any firearms.

(b) (1) Where the register is used, the purchaser of any firearm shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name and affix his or her residence address and date of birth to the register in quadruplicate. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the register in quadruplicate as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the register and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The original of the register shall be retained by the dealer in consecutive order. Each book of 50 originals shall become the permanent register of transactions that shall be retained for not less than three years from the date of the last transaction and shall be available for the inspection of any peace officer, Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or agent of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives upon the presentation of proper identification, but no information shall be compiled therefrom regarding the purchasers or other transferees of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(3) Two copies of the original sheet of the register, on the date of the application to purchase, shall be placed in the mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the Department of Justice in Sacramento.

(5) If the transaction is one conducted pursuant to Section 12082, a photocopy of the original shall be provided to the seller by the dealer, upon request.

(c) (1) Where the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, the purchaser shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name to the record of electronic or telephonic transfer. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the record of electronic or telephonic transfer as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the electronic or telephonic transfer and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The record of applicant information shall be transmitted to the Department of Justice in Sacramento by electronic or telephonic transfer on the date of the application to purchase.

(3) The original of each record of electronic or telephonic transfer shall be retained by the dealer in consecutive order. Each original shall become the permanent record of the transaction that shall be retained for not less than three years from the date of the last transaction and shall be provided for the inspection of any peace officer, Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or agent of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives upon the presentation of proper identification, but no information shall be compiled therefrom regarding the purchasers or other transferees of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(4) If requested, a copy of the record of electronic or telephonic transfer shall be provided to the purchaser by the dealer.

(5) If the transaction is one conducted pursuant to Section 12082, a copy shall be provided to the seller by the dealer, upon request.

(d) (1) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in order to determine if the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021, 12021.1, or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) To the extent that funding is available, the Department of Justice may participate in the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS), as described in subsection (t) of Section 922 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and, if that participation is implemented, shall notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or city and county in which the sale was made, or if the sale was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale was made, that the purchaser is a person prohibited from acquiring a firearm under federal law.

(3) If the department determines that the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021, 12021.1, or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or city and county in which the sale was made, or if the sale was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale was made, of that fact.

(4) If the department determines that the copies of the register submitted to it pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser or the pistol, revolver, or other firearm to be purchased, or if any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) is not submitted by the dealer in conjunction with submission of copies of the register, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall submit corrected copies of the register to the department, or shall submit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e), or both, as appropriate and, if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(5) If the department determines that the information transmitted to it pursuant to subdivision (c) contains inaccurate or incomplete information preventing identification of the purchaser or the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to be purchased, or if the fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) is not transmitted by the dealer in conjunction with transmission of the electronic or telephonic record, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall transmit corrections to the record of electronic or telephonic transfer to the department, or shall transmit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e), or both, as appropriate, and if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(e) The Department of Justice may require the dealer to charge each firearm purchaser a fee not to exceed fourteen dollars ($14), except that the fee may be increased at a rate not to exceed any increase in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations. The fee shall be no more than is necessary to fund the following:

(B) The department for the cost of meeting its obligations under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8100 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Local mental health facilities for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) The State Department of Mental Health for the costs resulting from the requirements imposed by Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(4) Local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code.

(6) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(7) For the actual costs associated with the electronic or telephonic transfer of information pursuant to subdivision (c).

(8) The Department of Food and Agriculture for the costs resulting from the notification provisions set forth in Section 5343.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(9) The department for the costs associated with subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(10) The department for the costs associated with funding Department of Justice firearms-related regulatory and enforcement activities related to the sale, purchase, loan, or transfer of firearms pursuant to this chapter.

The fee established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the actual processing costs of the department, the estimated reasonable costs of the local mental health facilities for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by paragraph (2) of this subdivision, the costs of the State Department of Mental Health for complying with the requirements imposed by paragraph (3) of this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by paragraph (4) of this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code imposed by paragraph (6) of this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of the Department of Food and Agriculture for the costs resulting from the notification provisions set forth in Section 5343.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code, the estimated reasonable costs of the department for the costs associated with subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, and the estimated reasonable costs of department firearms-related regulatory and enforcement activities related to the sale, purchase, loan, or transfer of firearms pursuant to this chapter.

(f) (1) The Department of Justice may charge a fee sufficient to reimburse it for each of the following but not to exceed fourteen dollars ($14), except that the fee may be increased at a rate not to exceed any increase in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations:

(A) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of forms or reports required or utilized pursuant to Section 12078.

(B) For the actual processing costs associated with the submission of a Dealers' Record of Sale to the department.

(C) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of reports utilized pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 12078 or paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071, or clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, or paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(D) For the actual costs associated with the electronic or telephonic transfer of information pursuant to subdivision (c).

(2) If the department charges a fee pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, it shall be charged in the same amount to all categories of transaction that are within that subparagraph.

(3) Any costs incurred by the Department of Justice to implement this subdivision shall be reimbursed from fees collected and charged pursuant to this subdivision. No fees shall be charged to the dealer pursuant to subdivision (e) for implementing this subdivision.

(g) All money received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund, which is hereby created, to be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for expenditure by the department to offset the costs incurred pursuant to this section, paragraph (1) and subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, Sections 12083 and 12099, subdivision (c) of Section 12131, Sections 12234, 12289, and 12289.5, and subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 12305.

(h) Where the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, the department shall establish a system to be used for the submission of the fees described in subdivision (e) to the department.

(i) (1) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for the sale of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person or for the taking of possession of those firearms.

(2) In a single transaction on the same date for the delivery of any number of firearms that are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department shall charge a reduced fee pursuant to this section for the second and subsequent firearms that are part of that transaction.

(j) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for taking title or possession of any number of firearms pursuant to paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071 or subdivision (c) or (i) of Section 12078.

(k) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department's acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(3) "Sale" means the sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm.

(4) "Seller" means, if the transaction is being conducted pursuant to Section 12082, the person selling, loaning, or transferring the firearm.

SEC. 11.5. Section 12076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12076. (a) (1) Before January 1, 1998, the Department of Justice shall determine the method by which a dealer shall submit firearm purchaser information to the department and the information shall be in one of the following formats:

(B) Electronic or telephonic transfer of the information contained in the register described in Section 12077.

(2) On or after January 1, 1998, electronic or telephonic transfer, including voice or facsimile transmission, shall be the exclusive means by which purchaser information is transmitted to the department.

(3) On or after January 1, 2003, except as permitted by the department, electronic transfer shall be the exclusive means by which information is transmitted to the department. Telephonic transfer shall not be permitted for information regarding sales of any firearms.

(b) (1) Where the register is used, the purchaser of any firearm shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name and affix his or her residence address and date of birth to the register in quadruplicate. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the register in quadruplicate as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the register and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The original of the register shall be retained by the dealer in consecutive order. Each book of 50 originals shall become the permanent register of transactions that shall be retained for not less than three years from the date of the last transaction and shall be available for the inspection of any peace officer, Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or agent of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms upon the presentation of proper identification, but no information shall be compiled therefrom regarding the purchasers or other transferees of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(3) Two copies of the original sheet of the register, on the date of the application to purchase, shall be placed in the mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the Department of Justice in Sacramento.

(5) If the transaction is one conducted pursuant to Section 12082, a photocopy of the original shall be provided to the seller by the dealer, upon request.

(c) (1) Where the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, the purchaser shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name to the record of electronic or telephonic transfer. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the record of electronic or telephonic transfer as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the electronic or telephonic transfer and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The record of applicant information shall be transmitted to the Department of Justice in Sacramento by electronic or telephonic transfer on the date of the application to purchase.

(3) The original of each record of electronic or telephonic transfer shall be retained by the dealer in consecutive order. Each original shall become the permanent record of the transaction that shall be retained for not less than three years from the date of the last transaction and shall be provided for the inspection of any peace officer, Department of Justice employee designated by the Attorney General, or agent of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, upon the presentation of proper identification, but no information shall be compiled therefrom regarding the purchasers or other transferees of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(4) If requested, a copy of the record of electronic or telephonic transfer shall be provided to the purchaser by the dealer.

(5) If the transaction is one conducted pursuant to Section 12082, a copy shall be provided to the seller by the dealer, upon request.

(d) (1) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in order to determine if the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021, 12021.1, or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) To the extent that funding is available, the Department of Justice may participate in the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS), as described in subsection (t) of Section 922 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and, if that participation is implemented, shall notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or county in which the sale was made, or if the sale was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale was made, that the purchaser is a person prohibited from acquiring a firearm under federal law.

(3) If the department determines that the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021, 12021.1, or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or county in which the sale was made, or if the sale was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale was made, of that fact.

(4) If the department determines that the copies of the register submitted to it pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser or the pistol, revolver, or other firearm to be purchased, or if any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) is not submitted by the dealer in conjunction with submission of copies of the register, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall submit corrected copies of the register to the department, or shall submit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e), or both, as appropriate and, if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(5) If the department determines that the information transmitted to it pursuant to subdivision (c) contains inaccurate or incomplete information preventing identification of the purchaser or the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to be purchased, or if the fee required pursuant to subdivision (e) is not transmitted by the dealer in conjunction with transmission of the electronic or telephonic record, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall transmit corrections to the record of electronic or telephonic transfer to the department, or shall transmit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (e), or both, as appropriate, and if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(e) The Department of Justice may require the dealer to charge each firearm purchaser a fee not to exceed fourteen dollars ($14), except that the fee may be increased at a rate not to exceed any increase in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations. The fee shall be no more than is necessary to fund the following:

- (1) (A) The department for the cost of furnishing this information.
- (B) The department for the cost of meeting its obligations under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8100 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (2) Local mental health facilities for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (3) The State Department of Mental Health for the costs resulting from the requirements imposed by Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (4) Local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (5) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code.

(6) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(7) For the actual costs associated with the electronic or telephonic transfer of information pursuant to subdivision (c).

(8) The Department of Food and Agriculture for the costs resulting from the notification provisions set forth in Section 5343.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(9) The department for the costs associated with subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(10) The department for the costs associated with funding Department of Justice firearms-related regulatory and enforcement activities related to the sale, purchase, loan, or transfer of firearms pursuant to this chapter.

The fee established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the actual processing costs of the department, the estimated reasonable costs of the local mental health facilities for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by paragraph (2) of this subdivision, the costs of the State Department of Mental Health for complying with the requirements imposed by paragraph (3) of this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by paragraph (4) of this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code imposed by paragraph (6) of this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of the Department of Food and Agriculture for the costs resulting from the notification provisions set forth in Section 5343.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code, the estimated reasonable costs of the department for the costs associated with subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, and the estimated reasonable costs of department firearms-related regulatory and enforcement activities related to the sale, purchase, loan, or transfer of firearms pursuant to this chapter.

(f) (1) The Department of Justice may charge a fee sufficient to reimburse it for each of the following but not to exceed fourteen dollars ($14), except that the fee may be increased at a rate not to exceed any increase in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations:

(A) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of forms or reports required or utilized pursuant to Section 12078.

(B) For the actual processing costs associated with the submission of a Dealers' Record of Sale to the department.

(C) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of reports utilized pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 12078 or paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071, or clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, or paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(D) For the actual costs associated with the electronic or telephonic transfer of information pursuant to subdivision (c).

(2) If the department charges a fee pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, it shall be charged in the same amount to all categories of transaction that are within that subparagraph.

(3) Any costs incurred by the Department of Justice to implement this subdivision shall be reimbursed from fees collected and charged pursuant to this subdivision. No fees shall be charged to the dealer pursuant to subdivision (e) for implementing this subdivision.

(g) All money received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund, which is hereby created, to be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for expenditure by the department to offset the costs incurred pursuant to this section, Sections 12072, 12083, and 12099, subdivision (c) of Section 12131, Sections 12234, 12289, and 12289.5, and subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 12305.

(h) Where the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, the department shall establish a system to be used for the submission of the fees described in subdivision (e) to the department.

(i) (1) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for the sale of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person or for the taking of possession of those firearms.

(2) In a single transaction on the same date for the delivery of any number of firearms that are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department shall charge a reduced fee pursuant to this section for the second and subsequent firearms that are part of that transaction.

(j) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for taking title or possession of any number of firearms pursuant to paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071 or subdivision (c) or (i) of Section 12078.

(k) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department's acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(3) "Sale" means the sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm.

(4) "Seller" means, if the transaction is being conducted pursuant to Section 12082, the person selling, loaning, or transferring the firearm.

SEC. 12. Section 12078 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12078. (a) (1) The waiting periods described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to persons properly identified as full-time paid peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, provided that the peace officers are authorized by their employer to carry firearms while in the performance of their duties. Proper identification is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the purchaser or transferee as a peace officer who is authorized to carry firearms while in the performance of his or her duties, and authorizing the purchase or transfer. The certification shall be delivered to the dealer at the time of purchase or transfer and the purchaser or transferee shall identify himself or herself as the person authorized in the certification. The dealer shall keep the certification with the record of sale. On the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the transaction as is indicated in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 12077.

(2) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to authorized law enforcement representatives of cities, counties, cities and counties, or state or federal governments for exclusive use by those governmental agencies if, prior to the delivery, transfer, or sale of these firearms, written authorization from the head of the agency authorizing the transaction is presented to the person from whom the purchase, delivery, or transfer is being made. Proper written authorization is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the employee as an individual authorized to conduct the transaction, and authorizing the transaction for the exclusive use of the agency by which he or she is employed. Within 10 days of the date a handgun is acquired by the agency, a record of the same shall be entered as an institutional weapon into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(3) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to the loan of a firearm made by an authorized law enforcement representative of a city, county, or city and county, or the state or federal government to a peace officer employed by that agency and authorized to carry a firearm for the carrying and use of that firearm by that peace officer in the course and scope of his or her duties.

(4) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to a peace officer pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code. Within 10 days of the date that a handgun is sold, delivered, or transferred pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code to that peace officer, the name of the officer and the make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics of the firearm being sold, transferred, or delivered shall be entered into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency that sold, transferred, or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(5) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to a retiring peace officer who is authorized to carry a firearm pursuant to Section 12027.1. Within 10 days of the date that a handgun is sold, delivered, or transferred to that retiring peace officer, the name of the officer and the make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics of the firearm being sold, transferred, or delivered shall be entered into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency that sold, transferred, or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(6) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 do not apply to sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, or state or federal governments for those governmental agencies where the entity is acquiring the weapon as part of an authorized, voluntary program where the entity is buying or receiving weapons from private individuals.

Any weapons acquired pursuant to this paragraph shall be disposed of pursuant to the applicable provisions of Section 12028 or 12032.

(7) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the sale, loan, delivery, or transfer of a firearm made by an authorized law enforcement representative of a city, county, city and county, state, or the federal government to any public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection or the purchase or receipt of that firearm by that public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection if all of the following conditions are met:

(C) The firearm is not subject to Section 12028, 12028.5, 12030, or 12032.

(D) The firearm is not prohibited by other provisions of law from being sold, delivered, or transferred to the public at large.

(E) Prior to delivery, the entity receiving the firearm submits a written statement to the law enforcement representative stating that the firearm will not be restored to operating condition, and will either remain with that entity, or if subsequently disposed of, will be transferred in accordance with the applicable provisions of this article and, if applicable, Section 12801.

(F) Within 10 days of the date that the firearm is sold, loaned, delivered, or transferred to that entity, the name of the government entity delivering the firearm, and the make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics of the firearm and the name of the person authorized by the entity to take possession of the firearm shall be reported to the department in a manner prescribed by the department.

(G) In the event of a change in the status of the designated representative, the entity shall notify the department of a new representative within 30 days.

(8) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the sale, loan, delivery, or transfer of a firearm made by any person other than a representative of an authorized law enforcement agency to any public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection if all of the following conditions are met:

(C) The firearm is not of a type prohibited from being sold, delivered, or transferred to the public.

(D) Prior to delivery, the entity receiving the firearm submits a written statement to the person selling, loaning, or transferring the firearm stating that the firearm will not be restored to operating condition, and will either remain with that entity, or if subsequently disposed of, will be transferred in accordance with the applicable provisions of this article and, if applicable Section 12801.

(E) If title to a handgun is being transferred to the public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection, then the designated representative of that public or private historical society, museum or institutional collection within 30 days of taking possession of that handgun, shall forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a single report signed by both parties to the transaction, that includes information identifying the person representing that public or private historical society, museum, or institutional collection, how title was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question, along with a copy of the written statement referred to in subparagraph (D). The report forms that are to be completed pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided by the Department of Justice.

(F) In the event of a change in the status of the designated representative, the entity shall notify the department of a new representative within 30 days.

(b) (1) Section 12071, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(2) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a handgun to a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071, where the licensee is receiving the handgun in the course and scope of his or her activities as a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(c) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a firearm that is not a handgun by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a handgun by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family and all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The person to whom the firearm is transferred shall, within 30 days of taking possession of the firearm, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report that includes information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The report forms that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(C) The person receiving the firearm is 18 years of age or older.

(3) As used in this subdivision, "immediate family member" means any one of the following relationships:

(d) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of firearms between persons who are personally known to each other for any lawful purpose, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration and, when the firearm is a handgun, commencing January 1, 2003, the individual being loaned the handgun has a valid handgun safety certificate.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm where all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The person loaning the firearm is at all times within the presence of the person being loaned the firearm.

(C) The loan does not exceed three days in duration.

(D) The individual receiving the firearm is not prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, or by Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) Section 12071, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the delivery of a firearm to a gunsmith for service or repair, or to the return of the firearm to its owner by the gunsmith.

(f) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by persons who reside in this state to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(g) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale or transfer of a firearm, other than a handgun, at auctions or similar events conducted by nonprofit mutual or public benefit corporations organized pursuant to the Corporations Code.

As used in this paragraph, the term “infrequent” shall not be construed to prohibit different local chapters of the same nonprofit corporation from conducting auctions or similar events, provided the individual local chapter conducts the auctions or similar events infrequently. It is the intent of the Legislature that different local chapters, representing different localities, be entitled to invoke the exemption created by this paragraph, notwithstanding the frequency with which other chapters of the same nonprofit corporation may conduct auctions or similar events.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer of a firearm other than a handgun, if the firearm is donated for an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1) and the firearm is delivered to the nonprofit corporation immediately preceding, or contemporaneous with, the auction or similar event.

(3) The waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to a dealer who delivers a firearm other than a handgun at an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1), as authorized by subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071. Within two business days of completion of the application to purchase, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same as is indicated in subdivision (c) of Section 12077. If the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, within two business days of completion of the application to purchase, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the same as is indicated in subdivision (c) of Section 12077.

(h) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm to a person 18 years of age or older for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(i) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of a firearm that is not a handgun by operation of law if the person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of a handgun by operation of law if the person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms and all of the following conditions are met:

(A) If the person taking title or possession is neither a levying officer as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure, nor a person who is receiving that firearm pursuant to subparagraph (G), (I), or (J) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), the person shall, within 30 days of taking possession, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the department.

(B) If the person taking title or possession is receiving the firearm pursuant to subparagraph (G) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), the person shall do both of the following:

(i) Within 30 days of taking possession, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the department, a report of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the department.

(ii) Prior to taking title or possession of the firearm, the person shall obtain a handgun safety certificate.

(C) Where the person receiving title or possession of the handgun is a person described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), on the date that the person is delivered the firearm, the name and other information concerning the person taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession of the firearm was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm by make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics, shall be entered into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency that transferred or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(D) Where the person receiving title or possession of the handgun is a person described in subparagraph (J) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), on the date that the person is delivered the firearm, the name and other information concerning the person taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession of the firearm was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm by make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics, shall be entered into the AFS via the CLETS by the law enforcement or state agency that transferred or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system. In addition, that law enforcement agency shall not deliver that handgun to the person referred to in this subparagraph unless, prior to the delivery of the same, the person presents proof to the agency that he or she is the holder of a handgun safety certificate.

(3) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes possession of a firearm by operation of law in a representative capacity who subsequently transfers ownership of the firearm to himself or herself in his or her individual capacity. In the case of a handgun, the individual shall obtain a handgun safety certificate prior to transferring ownership to himself or herself, or taking possession of a handgun in an individual capacity.

(j) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made pursuant to Section 12021.3, 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(k) Section 12071, subdivision (c) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms that are not handguns by a dealer to another dealer upon proof of compliance with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(2) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by dealers to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(3) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler if the firearms are being returned to the wholesaler and are intended as merchandise in the wholesaler's business.

(4) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by one dealer to another dealer if the firearms are intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business upon proof of compliance with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(5) The delivery, sale, or transfer of an unloaded firearm that is not a handgun by a dealer to himself or herself.

(6) The loan of an unloaded firearm by a dealer who also operates a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license on the premises of the building designated in the license or whose building designated in the license is on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, to a person at that target facility or that club or organization, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(l) A person who is exempt from subdivision (d) of Section 12072 or is otherwise not required by law to report his or her acquisition, ownership, or disposal of a handgun or who moves out of this state with his or her handgun may submit a report of the same to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department.

(m) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler as merchandise in the wholesaler's business by manufacturers or importers licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, or by another wholesaler, if the delivery, sale, or transfer is made in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(n) (1) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a handgun by a dealer in either of the following situations:

(A) The dealer is delivering the firearm to another dealer and it is not intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business.

(B) The dealer is delivering the firearm to himself or herself and it is not intended as merchandise in his or her business.

(2) In order for this subdivision to apply, both of the following shall occur:

(A) If the dealer is receiving the firearm from another dealer, the dealer receiving the firearm shall present proof to the dealer delivering the firearm that he or she is licensed pursuant to Section 12071 by complying with paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(B) Whether the dealer is delivering, selling, or transferring the firearm to himself or herself or to another dealer, on the date that the application to purchase is completed, the dealer delivering the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the purchaser or transferee as is indicated in subdivision (b) of Section 12077. Where the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, on the date that the application to purchase is completed, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit an electronic or telephonic report of the same and the type of information concerning the purchaser or transferee as is indicated in subdivision (b) of Section 12077.

(o) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms regulated pursuant to Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275), if the delivery, sale, or transfer is conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275).

(p) (1) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a minor, with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration and is for a lawful purpose.

(2) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072, subdivision (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a handgun to a minor by a person who is not the parent or legal guardian of the minor if all of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor has the written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian that is presented at the time of, or prior to the time of, the loan, or is accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian at the time the loan is made.

(B) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purpose of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(C) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(3) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), and subdivision (d), of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a handgun to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian if both of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purposes of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(B) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(4) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), and subdivision (d), of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian.

(5) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), and subdivision (d), of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a minor by his or her grandparent who is not the legal guardian of the minor if the transfer is done with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor.

(6) Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the sale of a handgun if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(B) The firearm is an antique firearm as defined in paragraph (16) of subsection (a) of Section 921 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(q) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a licensed hunter for use by that licensed hunter for a period of time not to exceed the duration of the hunting season for which that firearm is to be used.

(r) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm to the holder of a special weapons permit issued by the Department of Justice issued pursuant to Section 12095, 12230, 12250, or 12305. On the date that the application to purchase is completed, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the same as is indicated in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 12077.

(s) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of an unloaded firearm by a person who is neither a dealer as defined in Section 12071 nor a federal firearms licensee pursuant to Chapter 44 of Title 18 of the United States Code, to a person 18 years of age or older for use solely as a prop in a motion picture, television, video, theatrical, or other entertainment production or event.

(2) Subdivision (d), and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f), of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of an unloaded firearm by a person who is not a dealer as defined in Section 12071 but who is a federal firearms licensee pursuant to Chapter 44 of Title 18 of the United States Code, to a person who possesses a valid entertainment firearms permit issued pursuant to Section 12081, for use solely as a prop in a motion picture, television, video, theatrical, or other entertainment production or event. The person loaning the firearm pursuant to this paragraph shall retain a photocopy of the entertainment firearms permit as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(3) Subdivision (b) of Section 12071, subdivision (c) of, and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of, Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of an unloaded firearm by a dealer as defined in Section 12071, to a person who possesses a valid entertainment firearms permit issued pursuant to Section 12081, for use solely as a prop in a motion picture, television, video, theatrical, or other entertainment production or event. The dealer shall retain a photocopy of the entertainment firearms permit as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(t) (1) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, loan, or transfer of a firearm that is a curio or relic, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, by a dealer to a person who is licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto who has a current certificate of eligibility issued to him or her by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12071. On the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the transaction as is indicated in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 12077.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm that is not a handgun, which is a curio or relic manufactured at least 50 years prior to the current date, but not including replicas thereof, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor.

(u) As used in this section:

(2) "A person taking title or possession of firearms by operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following instances wherein an individual receives title to, or possession of, firearms:

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property consisting of firearms pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(H) Firearms passing to a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code.

(I) Firearms received by the family of a police officer or deputy sheriff from a local agency pursuant to Section 50081 of the Government Code.

(J) The transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to the person who found the firearm where the delivery is to the person as the finder of the firearm pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 12.5. Section 12078 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12078. (a) (1) The waiting periods described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to persons properly identified as full-time paid peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, provided that the peace officers are authorized by their employer to carry firearms while in the performance of their duties. Proper identification is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the purchaser or transferee as a peace officer who is authorized to carry firearms while in the performance of his or her duties, and authorizing the purchase or transfer. The certification shall be delivered to the dealer at the time of purchase or transfer and the purchaser or transferee shall identify himself or herself as the person authorized in the certification. The dealer shall keep the certification with the record of sale. On the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the transaction as is indicated in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 12077.

(2) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to authorized law enforcement representatives of cities, counties, cities and counties, or state or federal governments for exclusive use by those governmental agencies if, prior to the delivery, transfer, or sale of these firearms, written authorization from the head of the agency authorizing the transaction is presented to the person from whom the purchase, delivery, or transfer is being made. Proper written authorization is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the employee as an individual authorized to conduct the transaction, and authorizing the transaction for the exclusive use of the agency by which he or she is employed. Within 10 days of the date a handgun is acquired by the agency, a record of the same shall be entered as an institutional weapon into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(3) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to the loan of a firearm made by an authorized law enforcement representative of a city, county, or city and county, or the state or federal government to a peace officer employed by that agency and authorized to carry a firearm for the carrying and use of that firearm by that peace officer in the course and scope of his or her duties.

(4) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to a peace officer pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code. Within 10 days of the date that a handgun is sold, delivered, or transferred pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code to that peace officer, the name of the officer and the make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics of the firearm being sold, transferred, or delivered shall be entered into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency that sold, transferred, or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(5) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 and the preceding provisions of this article do not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to a retiring peace officer who is authorized to carry a firearm pursuant to Section 12027.1. Within 10 days of the date that a handgun is sold, delivered, or transferred to that retiring peace officer, the name of the officer and the make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics of the firearm being sold, transferred, or delivered shall be entered into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency that sold, transferred, or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(6) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 do not apply to sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, or state or federal governments for those governmental agencies where the entity is acquiring the weapon as part of an authorized, voluntary program where the entity is buying or receiving weapons from private individuals. Any weapons acquired pursuant to this paragraph shall be disposed of pursuant to the applicable provisions of Section 12028 or 12032.

(7) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the sale, loan, delivery, or transfer of a firearm made by an authorized law enforcement representative of a city, county, city and county, state, or the federal government to any public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection or the purchase or receipt of that firearm by that public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection if all of the following conditions are met:

(C) The firearm is not subject to Section 12028, 12028.5, 12030, or 12032.

(D) The firearm is not prohibited by other provisions of law from being sold, delivered, or transferred to the public at large.

(E) Prior to delivery, the entity receiving the firearm submits a written statement to the law enforcement representative stating that the firearm will not be restored to operating condition, and will either remain with that entity, or if subsequently disposed of, will be transferred in accordance with the applicable provisions of this article and, if applicable, Section 12801.

(F) Within 10 days of the date that the firearm is sold, loaned, delivered, or transferred to that entity, the name of the government entity delivering the firearm, and the make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics of the firearm and the name of the person authorized by the entity to take possession of the firearm shall be reported to the department in a manner prescribed by the department.

(G) In the event of a change in the status of the designated representative, the entity shall notify the department of a new representative within 30 days.

(8) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the sale, loan, delivery, or transfer of a firearm made by any person other than a representative of an authorized law enforcement agency to any public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection if all of the following conditions are met:

- (A) The entity receiving the firearm is open to the public.
- (B) The firearm is deactivated or rendered inoperable prior to delivery.
- (C) The firearm is not of a type prohibited from being sold, delivered, or transferred to the public.

(D) Prior to delivery, the entity receiving the firearm submits a written statement to the person selling, loaning, or transferring the firearm stating that the firearm will not be restored to operating condition, and will either remain with that entity, or if subsequently disposed of, will be transferred in accordance with the applicable provisions of this article and, if applicable Section 12801.

(E) If title to a handgun is being transferred to the public or private nonprofit historical society, museum, or institutional collection, then the designated representative of that public or private historical society, museum or institutional collection within 30 days of taking possession of that handgun, shall forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a single report signed by both parties to the transaction, that includes information identifying the person representing that public or private historical society, museum, or institutional collection, how title was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question, along with a copy of the written statement referred to in subparagraph (D). The report forms that are to be completed pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided by the Department of Justice.

(F) In the event of a change in the status of the designated representative, the entity shall notify the department of a new representative within 30 days.

(b) (1) Section 12071, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(2) Subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a handgun to a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071, where the licensee is receiving the handgun in the course and scope of his or her activities as a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(c) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a firearm that is not a handgun by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a handgun by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family and all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The person to whom the firearm is transferred shall, within 30 days of taking possession of the firearm, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report that includes information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The report forms that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(C) The person receiving the firearm is 18 years of age or older.

(3) As used in this subdivision, "immediate family member" means any one of the following relationships:

(d) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of firearms between persons who are personally known to each other for any lawful purpose, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration and, when the firearm is a handgun, commencing January 1, 2003, the individual being loaned the handgun has a valid handgun safety certificate.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm where all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The person loaning the firearm is at all times within the presence of the person being loaned the firearm.

(C) The loan does not exceed three days in duration.

(D) The individual receiving the firearm is not prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, or by Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) Section 12071, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the delivery of a firearm to a gunsmith for service or repair, or to the return of the firearm to its owner by the gunsmith.

(f) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by persons who reside in this state to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(g) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale or transfer of a firearm, other than a handgun, at auctions or similar events conducted by nonprofit mutual or public benefit corporations organized pursuant to the Corporations Code.

As used in this paragraph, the term “infrequent” shall not be construed to prohibit different local chapters of the same nonprofit corporation from conducting auctions or similar events, provided the individual local chapter conducts the auctions or similar events infrequently. It is the intent of the Legislature that different local chapters, representing different localities, be entitled to invoke the exemption created by this paragraph, notwithstanding the frequency with which other chapters of the same nonprofit corporation may conduct auctions or similar events.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer of a firearm other than a handgun, if the firearm is donated for an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1) and the firearm is delivered to the nonprofit corporation immediately preceding, or contemporaneous with, the auction or similar event.

(3) The waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to a dealer who delivers a firearm other than a handgun at an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1), as authorized by subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071. Within two business days of completion of the application to purchase, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same as is indicated in subdivision (c) of Section 12077. If the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, within two business days of completion of the application to purchase, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the same as is indicated in subdivision (c) of Section 12077.

(h) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm to a person 18 years of age or older for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(i) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of a firearm that is not a handgun by operation of law if the person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of a handgun by operation of law if the person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms and all of the following conditions are met:

(A) If the person taking title or possession is neither a levying officer as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure, nor a person who is receiving that firearm pursuant to subparagraph (G), (I), or (J) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), the person shall, within 30 days of taking possession, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the department.

(B) If the person taking title or possession is receiving the firearm pursuant to subparagraph (G) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), the person shall do both of the following:

(i) Within 30 days of taking possession, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the department, a report of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the department.

(ii) Prior to taking title or possession of the firearm, the person shall obtain a handgun safety certificate.

(C) Where the person receiving title or possession of the handgun is a person described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), on the date that the person is delivered the firearm, the name and other information concerning the person taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession of the firearm was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm by make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics, shall be entered into the Automated Firearms System (AFS) via the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) by the law enforcement or state agency that transferred or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system.

(D) Where the person receiving title or possession of the handgun is a person described in subparagraph (J) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (u), on the date that the person is delivered the firearm, the name and other information concerning the person taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession of the firearm was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm by make, model, serial number, and other identifying characteristics, shall be entered into the AFS via the CLETS by the law enforcement or state agency that transferred or delivered the firearm. Those agencies without access to AFS shall arrange with the sheriff of the county in which the agency is located to input this information via this system. In addition, that law enforcement agency shall not deliver that handgun to the person referred to in this subparagraph unless, prior to the delivery of the same, the person presents proof to the agency that he or she is the holder of a handgun safety certificate.

(3) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes possession of a firearm by operation of law in a representative capacity who subsequently transfers ownership of the firearm to himself or herself in his or her individual capacity. In the case of a handgun, the individual shall obtain a handgun safety certificate prior to transferring ownership to himself or herself, or taking possession of a handgun in an individual capacity.

(j) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made pursuant to Section 12021.3, 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(k) Section 12071, subdivision (c) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms that are not handguns by a dealer to another dealer upon proof of compliance with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(2) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by dealers to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(3) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler if the firearms are being returned to the wholesaler and are intended as merchandise in the wholesaler's business.

(4) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by one dealer to another dealer if the firearms are intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business upon proof of compliance with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(5) The delivery, sale, or transfer of an unloaded firearm that is not a handgun by a dealer to himself or herself.

(6) The loan of an unloaded firearm by a dealer who also operates a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license on the premises of the building designated in the license or whose building designated in the license is on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, to a person at that target facility or that club or organization, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(l) A person who is exempt from subdivision (d) of Section 12072 or is otherwise not required by law to report his or her acquisition, ownership, or disposal of a handgun or who moves out of this state with his or her handgun may submit a report of the same to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department.

(m) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler as merchandise in the wholesaler's business by manufacturers or importers licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, or by another wholesaler, if the delivery, sale, or transfer is made in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(n) (1) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a handgun by a dealer in either of the following situations:

(A) The dealer is delivering the firearm to another dealer and it is not intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business.

(B) The dealer is delivering the firearm to himself or herself and it is not intended as merchandise in his or her business.

(2) In order for this subdivision to apply, both of the following shall occur:

(A) If the dealer is receiving the firearm from another dealer, the dealer receiving the firearm shall present proof to the dealer delivering the firearm that he or she is licensed pursuant to Section 12071 by complying with paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072.

(B) Whether the dealer is delivering, selling, or transferring the firearm to himself or herself or to another dealer, on the date that the application to purchase is completed, the dealer delivering the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the purchaser or transferee as is indicated in subdivision (b) of Section 12077. Where the electronic or telephonic transfer of applicant information is used, on the date that the application to purchase is completed, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit an electronic or telephonic report of the same and the type of information concerning the purchaser or transferee as is indicated in subdivision (b) of Section 12077.

(o) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c), (d), and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms regulated pursuant to Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275), if the delivery, sale, or transfer is conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275).

(p) (1) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a minor, with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration and is for a lawful purpose.

(2) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072, subdivision (d) of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a handgun to a minor by a person who is not the parent or legal guardian of the minor if all of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor has the written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian that is presented at the time of, or prior to the time of, the loan, or is accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian at the time the loan is made.

(B) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purpose of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(C) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(3) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), and subdivision (d), of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a handgun to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian if both of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purposes of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(B) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(4) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), and subdivision (d), of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian.

(5) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), and subdivision (d), of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a minor by his or her grandparent who is not the legal guardian of the minor if the transfer is done with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor.

(6) Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the sale of a handgun if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(B) The firearm is an antique firearm as defined in paragraph (16) of subsection (a) of Section 921 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(q) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a handgun to a licensed hunter for use by that licensed hunter for a period of time not to exceed the duration of the hunting season for which that firearm is to be used.

(r) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm to the holder of a special weapons permit issued by the Department of Justice issued pursuant to Section 12095, 12230, 12250, or 12305. On the date that the application to purchase is completed, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the same as is indicated in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 12077.

(s) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of an unloaded firearm by a person who is neither a dealer as defined in Section 12071 nor a federal firearms licensee pursuant to Chapter 44 of Title 18 of the United States Code, to a person 18 years of age or older for use solely as a prop in a motion picture, television, video, theatrical, or other entertainment production or event.

(2) Subdivision (d), and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f), of Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of an unloaded firearm by a person who is not a dealer as defined in Section 12071 but who is a federal firearms licensee pursuant to Chapter

44 of Title 18 of the United States Code, to a person who possesses a valid entertainment firearms permit issued pursuant to Section 12081, for use solely as a prop in a motion picture, television, video, theatrical, or other entertainment production or event. The person loaning the firearm pursuant to this paragraph shall retain a photocopy of the entertainment firearms permit as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(3) Subdivision (b) of Section 12071, subdivision (c) of, and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of, Section 12072, and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of an unloaded firearm by a dealer as defined in Section 12071, to a person who possesses a valid entertainment firearms permit issued pursuant to Section 12081, for use solely as a prop in a motion picture, television, video, theatrical, or other entertainment production or event. The dealer shall retain a photocopy of the entertainment firearms permit as proof of compliance with this requirement.

(t) (1) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, loan, or transfer of a firearm that is a curio or relic, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, by a dealer to a person who is licensed as a collector pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto who has a current certificate of eligibility issued to him or her by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12071. On the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm shall transmit to the Department of Justice an electronic or telephonic report of the transaction as is indicated in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 12077.

(2) Subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm that is not a handgun, which is a curio or relic manufactured at least 50 years prior to the current date, but not including replicas thereof, as defined in Section 478.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor.

(u) As used in this section:

(2) "A person taking title or possession of firearms by operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following instances wherein an individual receives title to, or possession of, firearms:

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property consisting of firearms pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(H) Firearms passing to a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code.

(I) Firearms received by the family of a police officer or deputy sheriff from a local agency pursuant to Section 50081 of the Government Code.

(J) The transfer of a firearm by a law enforcement agency to the person who found the firearm where the delivery is to the person as the finder of the firearm pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 13. Section 12084 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 12132 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12132. This chapter shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) The sale, loan, or transfer of any firearm pursuant to Section 12082 in order to comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(b) The sale, loan, or transfer of any firearm that is exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 12072 pursuant to any applicable exemption contained in Section 12078, if the sale, loan, or transfer complies with the requirements of that applicable exemption to subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(c) The sale, loan, or transfer of any firearm as described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 12125.

(d) The delivery of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 for the purposes of the service or repair of that firearm.

(e) The return of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 to its owner where that firearm was initially delivered in the circumstance set forth in subdivision (d).

(f) The return of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a person licensed pursuant to Section

12071 to its owner where that firearm was initially delivered to that licensee for the purpose of a consignment sale or as collateral for a pawnbroker loan.

(g) The sale, loan, or transfer of any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person listed as a curio or relic, as defined in Section 178.11 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(h) (1) The Legislature finds a significant public purpose in exempting pistols that are designed expressly for use in Olympic target shooting events. Therefore, those pistols that are sanctioned by the International Olympic Committee and by USA Shooting, the national governing body for international shooting competition in the United States, and that are used for Olympic target shooting purposes at the time that the act adding this subdivision is enacted, and that fall within the definition of “unsafe handgun” pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 12126 shall be exempt, as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) This chapter shall not apply to any of the following pistols, because they are consistent with the significant public purpose expressed in paragraph (1):

(3) The department shall create a program that is consistent with the purpose stated in paragraph (1) to exempt new models of competitive firearms from this chapter. The exempt competitive firearms may be based on recommendations by USA Shooting consistent with the regulations contained in the USA Shooting Official Rules or may be based on the recommendation or rules of any other organization that the department deems relevant.

(i) The sale, loan, or transfer of any semiautomatic pistol that is to be used solely as a prop during the course of a motion picture, television, or video production by an authorized participant therein in the course of making that production or event or by an authorized employee or agent of the entity producing that production or event.

SEC. 15. Section 12305 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12305. (a) Every dealer, manufacturer, importer, and exporter of any destructive device, or any motion picture or television studio using destructive devices in the conduct of its business, shall obtain a permit for the conduct of that business from the Department of Justice.

(b) Any person, firm, or corporation not mentioned in subdivision (a) shall obtain a permit from the Department of Justice in order to possess or transport any destructive device. No permit shall be issued to any person who meets any of the following criteria:

- (1) Has been convicted of any felony.
- (2) Is addicted to the use of any narcotic drug.
- (3) Is a person in a class prohibited by Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code.

(c) Applications for permits shall be filed in writing, signed by the applicant if an individual, or by a member or officer qualified to sign if the applicant is a firm or corporation, and shall state the name, business in which engaged, business address and a full description of the use to which the destructive devices are to be put.

(d) Applications and permits shall be uniform throughout the state on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice.

(e) Each applicant for a permit shall pay at the time of filing his or her application a fee not to exceed the application processing costs of the Department of Justice. A permit granted pursuant to this article may be renewed one year from the date of issuance, and annually thereafter, upon the filing of a renewal application and the payment of a permit renewal fee not to exceed the application processing costs of the Department of Justice. After the department establishes fees sufficient in amount to cover processing costs, the amount of the fees shall only increase at a rate not to exceed the legislatively approved cost-of-living adjustment for the department.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (g), the Department of Justice shall, for every person, firm, or corporation to whom a permit is issued pursuant to this article, annually conduct an inspection for security and safe storage purposes, and to reconcile the inventory of destructive devices.

(g) A person, firm, or corporation with an inventory of fewer than five devices that require any Department of Justice permit shall be subject to an inspection for security and safe storage purposes, and to reconcile inventory, once every five years, or more frequently if determined by the department.

SEC. 16. Section 26 of Chapter 23 of the Statutes of 1994 is amended to read:

Sec. 26. The Legislature declares the following to be the public policy of this state:

(a) No person who buys or is transferred or is loaned a firearm that was conducted through a person acting under Section 12082 of the Penal Code shall incur any civil liability for any illicit use or possession of the firearm prior to his or her taking possession of the firearm if the person had no knowledge of that conduct.

(b) No person holding a license under Section 12071 of the Penal Code when delivering firearms pursuant to Section 12082 of the Penal Code shall assume any civil liability beyond that existing at the time of the effective date of this section when the person sells or transfers or loans any firearms out of his or her own stock, if that person otherwise complies with Section 12082 of the Penal Code. No person acting as a dealer pursuant to Section 12071 of the Penal Code who is delivering firearms for third parties pursuant to Section 12082 of the Penal Code, and the firearms are not out of his or her own stock, shall assume any civil liability for any defects in those firearms unless he or she has actual knowledge of the defect.

(c) No person who transfers, sells, or loans a firearm through a dealer licensed pursuant to Section 12071 of the Penal Code in accordance with Section 12082 of the Penal Code and who otherwise complies with Article 3 (commencing with Section 12070) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code shall incur any civil liability for subsequent misuse of the firearm by the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned that firearm if he or she had no knowledge of the misuse prior to the transfer, sale, or loan.

SEC. 17. (a) Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11106 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1288. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 11106 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1288, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11108 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 86. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 11108 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 86, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12001 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 59. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12001 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 59, in which case Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 9.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12071 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 754. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12071 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 754, in which case Section 9 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 10.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12072 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 754. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12072 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 754, in which case Section 10 of this bill shall not become operative.

(f) Section 11.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12076 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 754. It shall become operative only if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12076 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 754, in which case Section 11 of this bill shall not become operative.

(g) Section 12.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12078 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 754. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12078 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 754, in which case Section 12 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 18. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 716

An act to amend Sections 369b and 1463.12 of, and to add Section 218.1 to, the Penal Code, to amend Section 2454 of the Streets and Highways Code, and to amend Sections 22526, 42001.1, and 42001.16 of the Vehicle Code, relating to railroads.

Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Both failing to stop at a stop sign located near a railroad grade crossing and stopping on the railroad track as a result of gridlock or congestion are serious offenses that cause death, injury, and destruction of property and more importantly, endanger the lives of people riding in the vehicle and the train, and pedestrians.

(b) The horrific accidents caused by drivers who fail to stop at a stop sign or cause gridlock on the tracks contribute to California's dubious honor of ranking in the top tier of highway grade crossing injury and deaths nationwide.

(c) The fines authorized under existing law are insufficient for these serious and potentially life-threatening traffic offenses and should be consistent with the fine for attempting to maneuver around an active grade crossing gate arm.

(d) Increasing the fines for these offenses and dedicating a significant portion of the fines to railroad crossing education will permit local agencies to increase awareness of rail safety. Education programs have been demonstrated to reduce the number of accidents on the railroad, thereby saving lives and reducing personal injury and property damage.

SEC. 2. Section 218.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

218.1. Any person who unlawfully and with gross negligence places or causes to be placed any obstruction upon or near the track of any railroad that proximately results in either the damaging or derailling of any passenger, freight, or other train, or injures a rail passenger or employee, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

SEC. 3. Section 369b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

369b. (a) This section shall only apply to counties with a population greater than 500,000.

(b) The court may order any person convicted of a rail transit related traffic violation, as listed in subdivision (c), to attend a traffic school that offers, as a part of its curriculum, a film developed or caused to be developed by a transportation commission or authority on rail transit safety.

(c) For a first offense, a court, at its discretion, may order any person cited for any of the following violations to attend a traffic school offering a rail safety presentation, Internet rail safety test, or rail transit safety film prepared by a county transportation commission or authority, pay an additional fine of one hundred dollars ($100), or both:

- (1) Section 369g.
- (2) Section 369i.
- (3) Subdivision (c) of Section 21752, Section 22450, 22451, or 22452, or subdivision (c) of Section 22526, of the Vehicle Code, involving railroad grade crossings.

(d) For a second or subsequent violation as provided in subdivision (c), a court shall order a person to pay an additional fine of up to two hundred dollars ($200) and to attend a traffic school offering a rail safety presentation, Internet rail safety test, or rail safety film prepared by a county transportation commission or authority.

(e) All fines collected according to this section shall be distributed pursuant to Sections 1463 and 1463.12, as applicable.

SEC. 4. Section 1463.12 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.12. Notwithstanding Sections 1463 and 1464 of this code and Section 76000 of the Government Code, moneys that are collected for a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 21752 or Section 22450 of the Vehicle Code, involving railroad grade crossings, or Section 22451, 22452, or subdivision (c) of Section 22526 of the Vehicle Code, and that are required to be deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463 of this code shall be allocated as follows:

(a) If the offense occurred in an area where a transit district or transportation commission or authority established under Division 12 (commencing with Section 130000) of the Public Utilities Code provides rail transportation, the first 30 percent of the amount collected shall be allocated to the general fund of that transit district or transportation commission or authority to be used only for public safety and public education purposes relating to railroad grade crossings.

(b) If there is no transit district or transportation commission or authority providing rail transportation in the area where the offense occurred, the first 30 percent of the amount collected shall be allocated to the general fund of the county in which the offense occurred, to be used only for public safety and public education purposes relating to railroad grade crossings.

(c) The balance of the amount collected shall be deposited by the county treasurer under Section 1463.

(d) A transit district, transportation commission or authority, or a county that is allocated funds pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall provide public safety and public education relating to railroad grade crossings only to the extent that those purposes are funded by the allocations provided pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b).

SEC. 5. Section 2454 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2454. Allocations made pursuant to Section 2453 shall be made on the basis of the following:

(a) An allocation of 80 percent of the estimated cost of the project shall be made; except that whenever contributions from other sources exceed 20 percent of the estimated cost, the allocation shall be reduced by the amount in excess of 20 percent of the estimated cost.

(b) An allocation of 50 percent of the estimated cost of the project shall be made for a proposed crossing.

(c) No allocation shall be made in excess of 50 percent of the estimated cost of the project unless the grade crossing to be eliminated has been in existence for at least 10 years prior to the date of allocation.

(d) On projects which eliminate an existing crossing, or alter or reconstruct an existing grade separation, no allocation shall be made unless the railroad agrees to contribute 10 percent of the cost of the project.

(e) Where a project does not include a grade separation, but eliminates existing grade crossing or crossings, the allocation shall not exceed the estimated allocation that would have been made for the grade separation which is no longer needed because of the elimination of the grade crossing by the project and which is indicated on the priority list to be urgently in need of grade separation.

(f) Where the project includes the separation of a highway and a railroad passenger service operated by a city or county, the operating agency shall contribute 20 percent of the cost of the project. The priority listing for these projects shall be in accordance with criteria established for railroad passenger service by the Public Utilities Commission.

(g) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, the total of these allocations for a single project shall not exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000) without specific legislative authorization, except that the amount for a single project may be increased to either (1) an amount that includes the federal construction cost index increase each year since 1976, or (2) an amount which does not exceed one-third of the total funds appropriated for grade separation projects for the year of allocation, whichever amount is less, as determined each year by the Public Utilities Commission.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the California Transportation Commission may allocate up to fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) to a single project if that project is the highest ranking project on the priority list established by the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to Section 2452.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, a single project in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000), but not exceeding twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), shall be considered without specific legislative authority, if the project (1) is included in the Public Utilities Commission's priority list of projects scheduled to be funded, (2) eliminates the need for future related grade separation projects, (3) provides projected cost savings of at least 50 percent to the state or local jurisdiction, or both of them, by eliminating the need for future projects, and (4) alleviates traffic and safety problems or provides improved rail service not otherwise possible. Projects approved pursuant to this subdivision shall be funded over a multiyear period, not to exceed five years, and the allocation for any one of those years shall not exceed the amount prescribed by subdivision (g) for a single project. An agency which has received an allocation for a project approved pursuant to this subdivision shall not be eligible for an allocation for another project under this subdivision for a period of 10 years from the date of approval of that project. Not more than one-half of the total allocation available in any one fiscal year for grade separation projects may be used for the purposes of this subdivision.

(i) Notwithstanding any of the above provisions of this section or any other provision of law, when the state or local agency uses funds derived from federal sources in financing its share of project costs, the railroad contribution, where required by federal law or regulation, shall be computed pursuant to federal law. However, the allocation made pursuant to this chapter shall be computed as though that matching contribution was derived from nonfederal sources and shall be computed as though the railroad had made its contribution pursuant to state law rather than pursuant to federal law. Where the contribution of the railroad is computed according to federal law or regulation because of the use of federal funds in the allocation for a project, the allocation shall be increased by the amount the share of the railroad is reduced below 10 percent of the estimated cost of the project.

SEC. 6. Section 22526 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22526. (a) Notwithstanding any official traffic control signal indication to proceed, a driver of a vehicle shall not enter an intersection or marked crosswalk unless there is sufficient space on the other side of the intersection or marked crosswalk to accommodate the vehicle driven without obstructing the through passage of vehicles from either side.

(b) A driver of a vehicle which is making a turn at an intersection who is facing a steady circular yellow or yellow arrow signal shall not enter the intersection or marked crosswalk unless there is sufficient space on the other side of the intersection or marked crosswalk to accommodate the vehicle driven without obstructing the through passage of vehicles from either side.

(c) A driver of a vehicle shall not enter a railroad or rail transit crossing, notwithstanding any official traffic control device or signal indication to proceed, unless there is sufficient space on the other side of the railroad or rail transit crossing to accommodate the vehicle driven or there is sufficient undercarriage clearance to cross the intersection without obstructing the through passage of a railway vehicle, including, but not limited to, a train, trolley, or city transit vehicle.

(d) A local authority may post appropriate signs at the entrance to intersections indicating the prohibition in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c).

(e) A violation of this section is not a violation of a law relating to the safe operation of vehicles and is the following:

(1) A stopping violation when a notice to appear has been issued by a peace officer described in Section 830.1, 830.2, or 830.33 of the Penal Code.

(2) A parking violation when a notice of parking violation is issued by a person, other than a peace officer described in paragraph (1), who is authorized to enforce parking statutes and regulations.

(f) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Anti-Gridlock Act of 1987.

SEC. 7. Section 42001.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42001.1. (a) Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of Section 2815 or a violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 22526 at an intersection posted pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 22526 shall be punished as follows:

(1) For a first conviction, a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) For a second conviction within a period of one year, a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200).

(3) For a third or any subsequent conviction within a period of two years, a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) In addition to the fine specified in subdivision (a), the court may order the department to suspend the driver's license for up to 30 days of any person convicted of a third or any subsequent conviction of Section 2815 within a period of two years, and the department shall suspend the license for the period of time so ordered.

SEC. 8. Section 42001.16 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42001.16. (a) Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 21752, subdivision (c) of Section 22526, or Section 22450, involving railroad grade crossings, or Section 22451 or 22452 shall be punished as follows:

(2) For a second infraction of any of the offenses described in this subdivision occurring within one year of a prior infraction that resulted in a conviction, by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200).

(3) For a third or any subsequent infraction of any of the offenses described in this subdivision occurring within one year of two or more prior infractions that resulted in convictions, by a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(b) In addition to the fine imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), a court, in a county in which Section 369b of the Penal Code applies, may require the person to attend a traffic school as described in Section 369b of the Penal Code.

SEC. 9. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7

An act to amend Sections 1872, 1872.1, 1872.3, 1872.4, 1872.7, 1872.8, 1872.81, 1872.83, 1872.85, 1872.9, 1872.95, 1872.96, 1873.4, 1874.8, 1875.20, 1877.3, 1879.4, 11629.85, and 12964 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1872 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:
1872. There is created within the department the Fraud Division to enforce the provisions of Sections 549, and 550 of the Penal Code, and to administer the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 1873).

SEC. 2. Section 1872.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:
1872.1. (a) There is created within the Fraud Division an advisory committee on automobile insurance fraud and economic automobile theft prevention, investigation, and prosecution, as provided in this chapter. The committee shall be composed of the Chief of the Fraud Division, a representative from the Department of Justice, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Division of Investigation of the Department of Consumer Affairs, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Bureau of Automotive Repair, the Parole and Community Services Division of the Department of Corrections, the State Bar of California, the Medical Board of California, the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, two representatives from local law enforcement agencies, one of whom shall be a prosecutor, and representatives of three insurers assessed pursuant to Section 1872.8, and a representative of a labor organization with members in the automotive repair business.

(b) The commissioner shall select representatives from local law enforcement agencies from names submitted from local law enforcement agencies. The commissioner shall select one insurer representative from each of the following three categories from nominees submitted by insurers in each category: one representative of insurers with average annual automobile liability premiums in California of less than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) in the preceding three years; one representative of insurers with average annual automobile liability premiums in California between one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) and seven hundred million dollars ($700,000,000) in the preceding three years; and one representative of insurers with average annual automobile liability premiums in California exceeding seven hundred million dollars ($700,000,000) in the preceding three years. At least one insurer representative shall be employed by an insurer having its principal headquarters in California. Members appointed by the commissioner shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner. Representatives from other agencies shall be selected by the agencies represented.

(c) The advisory committee shall elect one of its members annually to chair its meetings. The chair shall conduct quarterly meetings of the committee in California and at such other times as he or she deems appropriate. Members of the committee shall serve without compensation except for expenses incidental to attendance at meetings called by the chair. A report of the committee's activities shall be included in the report required under Section 1872.9.

(1) Recommend to the Fraud Division and other appropriate public agencies and private sector entities ways to coordinate the investigation, prosecution, and prevention of automobile insurance claims fraud, including economic automobile theft.

(2) Provide assistance to the Fraud Division towards implementing the goal of reducing the frequency and severity of fraudulent automobile insurance claims (adjusted for population growth and inflation) of 20 percent in urban areas and 10 percent in rural areas of the state within a 24-month period from the effective date of this chapter by utilizing resources set forth in Section 1872.8.

(3) Assure that preventive, investigative, prosecutive, and data collection efforts undertaken by the Fraud Division pursuant to this chapter are efficient, cost-effective, and complement similar efforts undertaken by law enforcement agencies and insurers.

(4) Make recommendations for inclusion in the Fraud Division's annual report required by Section 1872.9.

SEC. 3. Section 1872.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.3. (a) If, by its own inquiries or as a result of complaints, the Fraud Division has reason to believe that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, an act or practice that violates Section 1871.4 of this code, or Section 549 or 550 of the Penal Code, the commissioner in his or her discretion may do either or both of the following:

(1) Make those public or private investigations within or outside of this state that he or she deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1871.4 of this code, or Section 549 or 550 of the Penal Code, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter.

(b) For purposes of any investigation under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records that the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry, as provided by Section 12924.

(c) If any matter that the commissioner seeks to obtain by request is located outside the state, the person so requested may make it available to the commissioner or his or her representative to be examined at the place where it is located. The commissioner may designate representatives, including officials of the state in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on his or her behalf, and he or she may respond to similar requests from officials of other states.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), the department's papers, documents, reports, or evidence relative to the subject of an investigation under this section shall not be subject to public inspection for so long a period as the commissioner deems reasonably necessary to complete the investigation, to protect the person investigated from unwarranted injury, or to serve the public interest. Furthermore, those papers, documents, reports, or evidence shall not be subject to subpoena or subpoena duces tecum until opened for public inspection by the commissioner, unless the commissioner otherwise consents or, after notice to the commissioner and a hearing, the superior court determines that the public interest and any ongoing investigation by the commissioner would not be unnecessarily jeopardized by compliance with the subpoena duces tecum.

(e) The Fraud Division shall furnish all papers, documents, reports, complaints, or other facts or evidence to any police, sheriff, or other law enforcement agency, when so requested, and shall assist and cooperate with those law enforcement agencies.

SEC. 4. Section 1872.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.4. (a) Any company licensed to write insurance in this state that reasonably believes or knows that a fraudulent claim is being made shall, within 60 days after determination by the insurer that the claim appears to be a fraudulent claim, send to the Fraud Division, on a form prescribed by the department, the information requested by the form and any additional information relative to the factual circumstances of the claim and the parties claiming loss or damages that the commissioner

may require. The Fraud Division shall review each report and undertake further investigation it deems necessary and proper to determine the validity of the allegations. Whenever the commissioner is satisfied that fraud, deceit, or intentional misrepresentation of any kind has been committed in the submission of the claim, he or she shall report the violations of law to the insurer, to the appropriate licensing agency, and to the district attorney of the county in which the offenses were committed, as provided by Sections 12928 and 12930. If the commissioner is satisfied that fraud, deceit, or intentional misrepresentation has not been committed, he or she shall report that determination to the insurer. If prosecution by the district attorney concerned is not begun within 60 days of the receipt of the commissioner's report, the district attorney shall inform the commissioner and the insurer as to the reasons for the lack of prosecution regarding the reported violations.

(b) This section shall not require an insurer to submit to the Fraud Division the information specified in subdivision (a) in either of the following instances:

(1) The insurer's initial investigation indicated a potentially fraudulent claim but further investigation revealed that it was not fraudulent.

(2) The insurer and the claimant have reached agreement as to the amount of the claim and the insurer does not have reasonable grounds to believe that claim to be fraudulent.

(c) Nothing contained in this article shall relieve an insurer of its existing obligations to also report suspected violations of law to appropriate local law enforcement agencies.

(d) Any police, sheriff, disciplinary body governed by the provisions of the Business and Professions Code, or other law enforcement agency shall furnish all papers, documents, reports, complaints, or other facts or evidence to the Fraud Division, when so requested, and shall otherwise assist and cooperate with the division.

(e) If an insurer, at the time the insurer, pursuant to subdivision (a) forwards to the Fraud Division information on a claim that appears to be fraudulent, has no evidence to believe the insured on that claim is involved with the fraud or the fraudulent collision, the insurer shall take all necessary steps to assure that no surcharge is added to the insured's premium because of the claim.

SEC. 5. Section 1872.7 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.7. The costs of administration and operation of the Fraud Division shall be borne by all of the insurers admitted to transact insurance in this state. The commissioner shall divide those costs among all of those insurers, assessing each company an identical amount adequate to provide the funds for each fiscal year of operation of the division. However, the assessment for each company shall not exceed one thousand three hundred dollars ($1,300) in each fiscal year. All moneys received by the commissioner from insurers pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Fund. All moneys that are deposited in the fund after receipt by the commissioner from insurers pursuant to this section are to be exclusively used for the support of the Fraud Division. To the extent the assessments against insurers made pursuant to this section are not sufficient to fund the entire operations of the division, other moneys appropriated to the department, if available, may be used, at the commissioner's discretion, to fund those operations not covered by the assessments. The total budget of the Fraud Division shall be as determined annually in the Budget Act.

SEC. 6. Section 1872.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.8. (a) Each insurer doing business in this state shall pay an annual fee to be determined by the commissioner, but not to exceed one dollar ($1) annually for each vehicle insured under an insurance policy it issues in this state, in order to fund increased investigation and prosecution of fraudulent automobile insurance claims and economic automobile theft. Thirty-four percent of those funds received from ninety-five cents ($0.95) of the assessment fee per insured vehicle shall be distributed to the Fraud Division for enhanced investigative efforts, 15 percent of that ninety-five cents ($0.95) shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account for appropriation to the Department of the California Highway Patrol for enhanced prevention and investigative efforts to deter economic automobile theft, and 51 percent of the funds shall be distributed to district attorneys for purposes of investigation and prosecution of automobile insurance fraud cases, including fraud involving economic automobile theft.

(b) (1) The commissioner shall award funds to district attorneys according to population. The commissioner may alter this distribution formula as necessary to achieve the most effective distribution of funds. Each local district attorney desiring a portion of those funds shall submit to the commissioner an application detailing the proposed use of any moneys that may be provided. The application shall include a detailed accounting of assessment funds received and expended in prior years, including at a minimum, all of the following:

(B) The uses to which those funds were put, including payment of salaries and expenses, purchase of equipment and supplies, and other expenditures by type.

(C) Results achieved as a consequence of expenditures made, including the number of investigations, arrests, complaints filed, convictions, and the amounts originally claimed in cases prosecuted compared to payments actually made in those cases.

Any district attorney who fails to submit an application within 90 days of the commissioner's deadline for applications shall be subject to loss of distribution of the money. The commissioner may consider recommendations and advice of the Fraud Division and the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol in allocating moneys to local district attorneys. Any district attorney that receives funds shall submit an annual report to the commissioner, which may be made public, as to the success of the program administered. The report shall provide information and statistics on the number of active investigations, arrests, indictments, and convictions. Both the application for moneys and the distribution of moneys shall be public documents. The commissioner shall conduct a fiscal audit of the programs administered under this subdivision at least once every three years. The cost of a fiscal audit shall be shared equally between the department and the district attorney. Information submitted to the commissioner pursuant to this section concerning criminal investigations, whether active or inactive, shall be confidential. If the commissioner determines that a district attorney is unable or unwilling to investigate and prosecute automobile insurance fraud claims as provided by this subdivision or Section 1874.8, the commissioner may discontinue the distribution of funds allocated for that county and may redistribute those funds to other eligible district attorneys.

(2) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall submit to the commissioner, for informational purposes only, a report detailing the department's proposed use of funds under this section and an annual report in the same format as required of district attorneys under paragraph (1).

(c) The remaining five cents ($0.05) shall be spent for enhanced automobile insurance fraud investigation by the Fraud Division.

(d) Except for funds to be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account for allocation to the Department of the California Highway Patrol for purposes of the Motor Vehicle Prevention Act, (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 10900) of Division 4 of the Vehicle Code), the funds received under this section shall be deposited in the Insurance Fund and be expended and distributed when appropriated by the Legislature.

(e) In the course of its investigations, the Fraud Division shall aggressively pursue all reported incidents of probable fraud and, in addition, shall forward to the appropriate disciplinary body the names of any individuals licensed under the Business and Professions Code who are suspected of actively engaging in fraudulent activity along with all relevant supporting evidence.

(f) As used in this section “economic automobile theft” means automobile theft perpetrated for financial gain, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) Theft of a motor vehicle for financial gain.
- (2) Reporting that a motor vehicle has been stolen for the purpose of filing a false insurance claim.
- (3) Engaging in any act prohibited by Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 10801) of Division 4 of the Vehicle Code.
- (4) Switching of vehicle identification numbers to obtain title to a stolen motor vehicle.

SEC. 7. Section 1872.81 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.81. In addition to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 1872.8, each insurer doing business in this state shall pay to the commissioner an annual fee of thirty cents ($0.30) for each vehicle insured under an insurance policy it issues in this state, for expenditure as follows:

(a) An amount equivalent to twenty cents ($0.20) of the fee imposed per insured vehicle by this section shall be used for the purpose of paying for consumer service functions of the department that are related to automobile insurance. The revenues under this subdivision shall be used to improve service to consumers through the rating and underwriting services bureau, the claims services bureau, the investigations bureau, or any successor bureaus of the department that may assume the consumer service functions of these bureaus, and legal services in support of these bureaus. The department shall develop a plan for the use of the revenues available under this subdivision for the purposes authorized, and shall submit the plan to the Assembly and Senate Committees on Insurance.

(b) An amount equivalent to ten cents ($0.10) of the fee imposed per insured vehicle by this section shall be used for the purpose of improving consumer functions of the department related to automobile insurance. Revenues available under this subdivision shall be used to improve consumer functions through one or more of the following:

- (1) The rating and underwriting services bureau.
- (2) The claims services bureau.
- (3) The investigations bureau.
- (4) Any successor bureau of the department that may assume automobile insurance consumer functions of these bureaus, and legal services in support of these bureaus. These revenues may also be used for improving the ability of the department to respond to consumer complaints and information requests through the department’s toll-free telephone number, and for improving the ability of the department to offer information about automobile insurance rates to the public. The department shall develop a plan for the use of the revenues available under this subdivision for the purpose authorized, and shall submit the plan to the Assembly and Senate Committees on Insurance.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the Department of Insurance, after January 1, 2006, and the Department of Motor Vehicles, after that date, may propose to the budget committees of the Legislature a proposed use of up to five cents ($0.05) of the 10-cent fee levied pursuant to subdivision (b) related to informing consumers about the existence of any low cost automobile insurance program authorized in law pursuant to Section 11629.7 or other statutes that also establish a program of the type identified in Section 11629.7. No funds for this purpose may be expended without prior budget approval. The total amount of funds authorized to both departments in total, or to one department in total, for this purpose shall not exceed five cents ($0.05). The departments shall explain, with as much specificity as is reasonably possible, the objectives for the use of the funds and quantitative criteria by which the Legislature may evaluate the effectiveness of the department's use of funds.

(d) At least five cents ($0.05) of the 10-cent fee shall be directed to the purpose set forth in subdivision (a) until January 1, 2009, and to the degree that funding for low cost auto insurance is not fully appropriated up to five cents ($0.05), the difference thereof shall be additionally allocated to purposes set forth in subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2010, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2010, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. Section 1872.83 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.83. (a) The commissioner shall ensure that the Fraud Division aggressively pursues all reported incidents of probable workers' compensation fraud, as defined in Sections 11760 and 11880, in subdivision (a) of Section 1871.4, and in Section 549 of the Penal Code, and forwards to the appropriate disciplinary body the names, along with all supporting evidence, of any individuals licensed under the Business and Professions Code who are suspected of actively engaging in fraudulent activity. The Fraud Division shall forward to the Insurance Commissioner or the Director of Industrial Relations, as appropriate, the name, along with all supporting evidence, of any insurer, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1877.1, suspected of actively engaging in the fraudulent denial of claims.

(b) To fund increased investigation and prosecution of workers' compensation fraud, and of willful failure to secure payment of workers' compensation, in violation of Section 3700.5 of the Labor Code, there shall be an annual assessment as follows:

(1) The aggregate amount of the assessment shall be determined by the Fraud Assessment Commission, which is hereby established. The commission shall be composed of seven members consisting of two representatives of organized labor, two representatives of self-insured employers, one representative of insured employers, one representative of workers' compensation insurers, and the President of the State Compensation Insurance Fund, or his or her designee.

The Governor shall appoint members representing organized labor, self-insured employers, insured employers, and insurers. The term of office of members of the commission shall be four years, and a member shall hold office until the appointment of a successor. The President of the State Compensation Insurance Fund shall be an ex officio, voting member of the commission. Members of the commission shall receive one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of actual attendance at commission meetings and other official commission business, and shall also receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of commission duties. Payment of per diem and travel expenses shall be made from the Workers' Compensation Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund, established in paragraph (4), upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(2) In determining the aggregate amount of the assessment, the Fraud Assessment Commission shall consider the advice and recommendations of the Fraud Division and the commissioner.

(3) The aggregate amount of the assessment shall be collected by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 62.6 of the Labor Code. The Fraud Assessment Commission shall annually advise the Director of Industrial Relations, not later than March 15, of the aggregate amount to be assessed for the next fiscal year.

(4) The amount collected, together with the fines collected for violations of the unlawful acts specified in Sections 1871.4, 11760, and 11880, Section 3700.5 of the Labor Code, and Section 549 of the Penal Code, shall be deposited in the Workers' Compensation Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund, which is hereby created, and may be used, upon appropriation by the Legislature, only for enhanced investigation and prosecution of workers' compensation fraud and of willful failure to secure payment of workers' compensation as provided in this section.

(c) For each fiscal year, the total amount of revenues derived from the assessment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall, together with amounts collected pursuant to fines imposed for unlawful acts described in Sections 1871.4, 11760, and 11880, Section 3700.5 of the Labor Code, and Section 549 of the Penal Code, not be less than three million dollars

($3,000,000). Any funds appropriated by the Legislature pursuant to subdivision (b) that are not expended in the fiscal year for which they have been appropriated, and that have not been allocated under subdivision (f), shall be applied to satisfy for the immediately following fiscal year the minimum total amount required by this subdivision. In no case may that money be transferred to the General Fund.

(d) After incidental expenses, at least 40 percent of the funds to be used for the purposes of this section shall be provided to the Fraud Division of the Department of Insurance for enhanced investigative efforts, and at least 40 percent of the funds shall be distributed to district attorneys, pursuant to a determination by the commissioner with the advice and consent of the division and the Fraud Assessment Commission, as to the most effective distribution of moneys for purposes of the investigation and prosecution of workers' compensation fraud cases and cases relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation. Each district attorney seeking a portion of the funds shall submit to the commissioner an application setting forth in detail the proposed use of any funds provided. A district attorney receiving funds pursuant to this subdivision shall submit an annual report to the commissioner with respect to the success of his or her efforts. Upon receipt, the commissioner shall provide copies to the Fraud Division and the Fraud Assessment Commission of any application, annual report, or other documents with respect to the allocation of money pursuant to this subdivision. Both the application for moneys and the distribution of moneys shall be public documents. Information submitted to the commissioner pursuant to this section concerning criminal investigations, whether active or inactive, shall be confidential.

(e) If a district attorney is determined by the commissioner to be unable or unwilling to investigate and prosecute workers' compensation fraud claims or claims relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation, the commissioner shall discontinue distribution of funds allocated for that county and may redistribute those funds according to this subdivision.

(1) The commissioner shall promptly determine whether any other county could assert jurisdiction to prosecute the fraud claims or claims relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation that would have been brought in the nonparticipating county, and if so, the commissioner may award funds to conduct the prosecutions redirected pursuant to this subdivision. These funds may be in addition to any other fraud prosecution funds or claims relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation prosecution otherwise awarded under this section. Any district attorney receiving funds pursuant to this subdivision shall first agree that the funds shall be used solely for investigating and prosecuting those cases of workers' compensation fraud or claims relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation that are redirected pursuant to this subdivision and submit an annual report to the commissioner with respect to the success of the district attorney's efforts. The commissioner shall keep the Fraud Assessment Commission fully informed of all reallocations of funds under this paragraph.

(2) If the commissioner determines that no district attorney is willing or able to investigate and prosecute the workers' compensation fraud claims or claims relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation arising in the nonparticipating county, the commissioner, with the advice and consent of the Fraud Assessment Commission, may award to the Attorney General some or all of the funds previously awarded to the nonparticipating county. Before the commissioner may award any funds, the Attorney General shall submit to the commissioner an application setting forth in detail his or her proposed use of any funds provided and agreeing that any funds awarded shall be used solely for investigating and prosecuting those cases of workers' compensation fraud or claims relating to the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation that are redirected pursuant to this subdivision. The Attorney General shall submit an annual report to the commissioner with respect to the success of the fraud prosecution efforts of his or her office.

(3) Neither the Attorney General nor any district attorney shall be required to relinquish control of any investigation or prosecution undertaken pursuant to this subdivision unless the commissioner determines that satisfactory progress is no longer being made on the case or the case has been abandoned.

(4) A county that has become a nonparticipating county due to the inability or unwillingness of its district attorney to investigate and prosecute workers' compensation fraud or the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation shall not become eligible to receive funding under this section until it has submitted a new application that meets the requirements of subdivision (d) and the applicable regulations.

(f) If in any fiscal year the Fraud Division does not use all of the funds made available to it under subdivision (d), any remaining funds may be distributed to district attorneys pursuant to a determination by the commissioner in accordance with the same procedures set forth in subdivision (d).

(g) The commissioner shall adopt rules and regulations to implement this section in accordance with the rulemaking provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). Included in the rules and regulations shall be the criteria for redistributing funds to district attorneys and the Attorney General. The adoption of the rules and regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare.

(h) The department shall report on an annual basis to the Legislature and the Fraud Assessment Commission on the activities of the Fraud Division and district attorneys supported by the funds provided by this section.

The annual report shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following information for the department and each district attorney's office:

- (1) All allocations, distributions, and expenditures of funds.
- (2) The number of search warrants issued.
- (3) The number of arrests and prosecutions, and the aggregate number of parties involved in each.
- (4) The number of convictions and the names of all convicted fraud perpetrators.
- (5) The estimated value of all assets frozen, penalties assessed, and restitutions made for each conviction.
- (6) Any additional items necessary to fully inform the Fraud Assessment Commission and the Legislature of the fraud-fighting efforts financed through this section.

(i) In order to meet the requirements of subdivision (g), the department shall submit a biannual information request to those district attorneys who have applied for and received funding through the annual assessment process under this section.

(j) Assessments levied or collected to fight workers' compensation fraud and insurance fraud are not taxes. Those funds are entrusted to the state to fight fraud and the willful failure to secure the payment of workers' compensation by funding state and local investigation and prosecution efforts. Accordingly, any funds resulting from assessments, fees, penalties, fines, restitution, or recovery of costs of investigation and prosecution deposited in the Insurance Fund shall not be deemed "unexpended" funds for any purpose and, if remaining in that account at the end of any fiscal year, shall be applied as provided in subdivision (f) and to offset or augment subsequent years' program funding.

(k) The Bureau of State Audits shall evaluate the effectiveness of the efforts of the Fraud Assessment Commission, the Fraud Division, the Department of Insurance, and the Department of Industrial Relations, as well as local law enforcement agencies, including district attorneys, in identifying, investigating, and prosecuting workers' compensation fraud and the willful failure to secure payment of workers' compensation. The report shall specifically identify areas of deficiencies. Included in this report shall be recommendations on whether the current program provides the appropriate levels of accountability for those responsible for the allocation and expenditure of funds raised from the assessment provided in this section. The Bureau of State Audits shall submit a report to the Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Labor and Industrial Relations and the Chairperson of the Assembly Committee on Insurance on or before May 1, 2004.

SEC. 9. Section 1872.85 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.85. (a) Every admitted disability insurer or other entity liable for any loss due to health insurance fraud doing business in this state shall pay an annual fee to be determined by the commissioner, but not to exceed ten cents ($0.10) annually for each insured under an individual or group insurance policy it issues in this state, in order to fund increased investigation and prosecution of fraudulent disability insurance claims. After incidental expenses, 50 percent of those funds received from the assessment fee per insured shall be distributed to the Fraud Division of the Department of Insurance for enhanced investigative efforts, and 50 percent of the funds shall be distributed to local district attorneys, pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c), for investigation and prosecution of disability insurance fraud cases. The funds received under this section shall be deposited into the Disability Insurance Fraud Account, which is hereby created in the Insurance Fund, and shall be expended and distributed, when appropriated by the Legislature, only for enhanced investigation and prosecution of disability insurance fraud.

In the course of its investigation, the Fraud Division shall aggressively pursue all reported incidents of probable fraud and, in addition, shall forward to the appropriate disciplinary body the names of any individuals licensed under the Business and Professions Code who are convicted of engaging in fraudulent activity along with all relevant supporting evidence.

(b) The commissioner shall distribute funds pursuant to subdivision (a) to district attorneys who are able to show a likely positive outcome that will enhance the prosecution of disability insurance fraud in their jurisdiction based on specific criteria promulgated by the commissioner. A district attorney desiring funds pursuant to subdivision (a) shall submit to the commissioner an application that includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) The proposed use of the moneys and the anticipated outcome.
- (2) A list of all prior cases or projects in the district attorney's jurisdiction that have been funded under the provisions of this section, and a copy of the final accounting for each case or project. If a case or project is ongoing, the most recent accounting shall be provided.

(3) A detailed budget for the moneys, including salaries and general expenses, that specifically identifies the purchase or rental cost of equipment or supplies.

(c) (1) A district attorney who receives moneys pursuant to this section shall submit a final detailed accounting at the conclusion of each case or project funded. For a case or project that continues for longer than six months, an interim accounting shall be submitted every six months, or as otherwise directed by the commissioner.

(2) A district attorney who receives moneys pursuant to this section shall submit a final report to the commissioner, which may be made public, as to the success of each case or project funded by this section. The report shall provide information and statistics on the number of active investigations, arrests, indictments, and convictions associated with a case or project. The applications for moneys, the distribution of moneys, and the annual report required by Section 1872.9 shall be public documents.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, information submitted to the commissioner pursuant to this section concerning criminal investigations, whether active or inactive, shall be confidential.

(4) The commissioner may conduct a fiscal audit of the programs administered under this subdivision. The fiscal audit shall be conducted by an internal audit unit of the department. The cost of fiscal audits shall be paid from the Disability Insurance Fraud Fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(5) If the commissioner determines that a district attorney is unable or unwilling to investigate or prosecute a relevant disability insurance fraud case, the commissioner may discontinue distribution of moneys allocated for that matter pursuant to this section, and may redistribute moneys to other eligible district attorneys.

(d) Activities of the Fraud Division with regard to investigating and prosecuting fraudulent disability insurance claims pursuant to this section shall be included in the report required by Section 1872.9.

(e) This section shall not apply to policies issued by a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange, as defined by Sections 1303 and 1350, or coverage provided by or through a motor club, as defined by Section 12142, affiliated with a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange, if the annual premium charged for the coverage or the annual cost to the insurer for providing that coverage does not exceed one dollar ($1) per insured.

SEC. 10. Section 1872.9 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.9. The Fraud Division shall annually compile and report, as a part of the commissioner's annual report as required by Section 12922, the following information:

(a) The number of cases reported to the division pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The number of cases rejected for which an investigation was not initiated by the division due to insufficient evidence to proceed and the number of cases rejected for which an investigation was not initiated by the division due to any other reason.

(c) The number of cases that were prosecuted in cooperation with licensing agencies governed by the Business and Professions Code.

(d) The number and kind of cases prosecuted as a result of moneys received under Section 1872.7.

(e) An estimate of the economic value of insurance fraud by type of insurance fraud.

(f) Recommendations on ways insurance fraud may be reduced.

(g) A summary of the division's activities with respect to pursuing a reduction of fraud with all of the following:

(1) Insurance companies.

(2) The Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) The Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(4) Licensing agencies governed by the Business and Professions Code.

(5) The Department of Insurance.

(6) Local and state law enforcement agencies.

(7) Employers, as defined in Section 3300 of the Labor Code, who are self-insured for workers' compensation and doing business in the state.

(h) Basic claims information including trends of payments by type of claim and other claim information that is generally provided in a closed claim study.

(i) A summary of the division's activities with respect to the reduction, pursuant to Section 1871.4, of fraudulent denials and payments of compensation.

(j) The number and types of cases investigated and prosecuted with funds specified in Section 1872.83.

SEC. 11. Section 1872.95 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.95. (a) Within existing resources, the Medical Board of California, the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, and the State Bar shall each designate employees to investigate and report on possible fraudulent activities relating to workers' compensation, motor vehicle insurance, or disability insurance by licensees of the board or the bar. Those employees shall actively cooperate with the Fraud Division in the investigation of those activities.

(b) The Medical Board of California, the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, and the State Bar shall each report annually, on or before March 1, to the committees of the Senate and Assembly having jurisdiction over insurance on their activities established pursuant to subdivision (a) for the previous year. That report shall specify, at a minimum, the number of cases investigated, the number of cases forwarded to the Fraud Division or other law enforcement agencies, the outcome of all cases listed in the report, and any other relevant information concerning those cases or general activities conducted under subdivision (a) for the previous year. The report shall include information regarding activities conducted in connection with cases of suspected automobile insurance fraud.

SEC. 12. Section 1872.96 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.96. The commissioner shall prepare an annual report, which shall be a public record, with respect to the receipts, expenditures, and activities of the Fraud Division for the year just ended. The report shall be submitted to the Governor and to the Legislature, no later than January 31 of the following year. This report shall not contain any individually identifiable information.

SEC. 13. Section 1873.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1873.4. Any or all information released or received by an authorized governmental entity pursuant to Section 1873 or 1873.1 shall be provided by that agency to the Fraud Division within 10 days of the agency's receipt of the information.

SEC. 14. Section 1874.8 of the Insurance Code, as added by Section 7 of Chapter 885 of the Statutes of 1999, is amended to read:

1874.8. (a) Each insurer doing business in this state shall pay an annual fee to be determined by the commissioner, but not to exceed fifty cents ($0.50) annually for each vehicle insured under an insurance policy it issues in this state, in order to fund the Fraud Division and an Organized Automobile Fraud Activity Interdiction Program. The commissioner shall award three to 10 grants for a coordinated program targeted at the successful prosecution and elimination of organized automobile fraud activity. The grants may only be awarded to district attorneys.

(b) In determining whether to award a district attorney a grant, the commissioner shall consider factors indicating organized automobile fraud activity in the district attorney's county, including, but not limited to, the county's level of general criminal activity, population density, automobile insurance claims frequency, number of suspected fraudulent claims, and prior and current evidence of organized automobile fraud activity. Funding priority shall be given to those grant applications with the potential to have the greatest impact on organized automobile insurance fraud activity.

(c) All participants of a grant referred to in subdivision (a) shall coordinate their efforts and work in conjunction with the bureau, other participating agencies, and all interested insurers in this regard. Of the funds collected pursuant to this section, 42.5 percent shall be distributed to district attorneys, 42.5 percent shall be distributed to the Fraud Division, and 15 percent shall be distributed to the Department of the California Highway Patrol. Funds distributed pursuant to this section to the Fraud Division and to the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall be used to fund bureau and Department of the California Highway Patrol investigators who shall be assigned to work solely in conjunction with district attorneys who are awarded grants. Each grantee shall be notified by the Fraud Division of the investigators assigned to work with the grantee. Nothing shall prohibit the referral of any cases developed by the Fraud Division to any appropriate prosecutorial entity.

(d) A grant under this section shall be awarded on the basis of a single application for a period of three years and shall be subject where applicable to the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1872.8, except for the requirement that grants be awarded according to population. Continued funding of a grant shall be contingent upon a grantee's successful performance as determined by an annual review by the commissioner. Any redirection of grant funds under this section shall be made only for good cause. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall submit to the commissioner, for informational purposes only, an annual report on its expenditure of funds under this section in the same format as is required of grantees under this section.

(e) There shall be no prohibition against a joint application by two or more district attorneys for a grant award under this section.

(f) The Fraud Division shall report, on or before January 1, 2005, to the committees of the Senate and Assembly having jurisdiction over insurance on the results of the grant program established by this section, including funding distributed to the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(g) For purposes of this section "organized automobile fraud activity" means two or more persons who conspire, aid and abet, or in any other manner act together, to engage in economic automobile theft as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 1872.8, or to violate any of the following provisions in relation to an automobile insurance claim:

- (1) Section 650 or 6152 of the Business and Professions Code.
- (2) Section 750 of the Insurance Code.
- (3) Section 549, 550, or 551 of the Penal Code.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2010, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2010, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 15. Section 1875.20 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1875.20. Every insurer admitted to do business in this state, except those otherwise exempted in this code, shall provide for the continuous operation of a unit or division to investigate possible fraudulent claims by insureds or by persons making claims for services or repairs against policies held by insureds.

SEC. 16. Section 1877.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1877.3. (a) Upon written request to an insurer or a licensed rating organization by an authorized governmental agency, an insurer, an agent authorized by that insurer, or a licensed rating organization to act on behalf of the insurer, shall release to the requesting authorized governmental agency any or all relevant information deemed important to the authorized governmental agency that the insurer or licensed rating organization may possess relating to any specific workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation.

(b) (1) When an insurer or licensed rating organization knows or reasonably believes it knows the identity of a person or entity whom it has reason to believe committed a fraudulent act relating to a workers' compensation insurance claim or a workers' compensation insurance policy, including any policy application, or has knowledge of such a fraudulent act that is reasonably believed not to have been reported to an authorized governmental agency, then, for the purpose of notification and investigation, the insurer, or agent authorized by an insurer to act on its behalf, or licensed rating organization shall notify the local district attorney's office and the Fraud Division of the Department of Insurance, and may notify any other authorized governmental agency of that suspected fraud and provide any additional information in accordance with subdivision (a). The insurer or licensed rating organization shall state in its notice the basis of the suspected fraud.

(2) Insurers shall use a form prescribed by the department for the purposes of reporting suspected fraudulent workers' compensation acts pursuant to this subdivision.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall abrogate or impair the rights or powers created under subdivision (a).

(c) The authorized governmental agency provided with information pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (e) may release or provide that information in a confidential manner to any other authorized governmental agency for purposes of investigation, prosecution, or prevention of insurance fraud or workers' compensation fraud.

(d) An insurer or licensed rating organization providing information to an authorized governmental agency pursuant to this section shall provide the information within a reasonable time, but not exceeding 60 days from the day on which the duty arose.

(e) Upon written request by an authorized governmental agency, as specified in subdivision (o) of Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, the Employment Development Department shall release to the requesting agency any or all relevant information that the Employment Development Department may possess relating to any specific workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. Relevant information may include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Copies of unemployment and disability insurance application and claim forms and copies of any supporting medical records, documentation, and records pertaining thereto.

(2) Copies of returns filed by an employer pursuant to Section 1088 of the Unemployment Insurance Code and copies of supporting documentation.

(3) Copies of benefit payment checks issued to claimants.

(4) Copies of any documentation that specifically identifies the claimant by social security number, residence address, or telephone number.

SEC. 17. Section 1879.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1879.4. (a) The Chief of the Fraud Division and those investigators designated by him or her may expend funds to conduct undercover activities, employ civilian operatives, or in any other manner not prohibited by law to investigate insurance fraud or workers' compensation fraud.

(b) The money expended pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be paid out of the funds appropriated or made available by law for the support or use of the department.

SEC. 18. Section 11629.85 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11629.85. (a) On or before March 1 of each year, the commissioner shall prepare and propose a plan to the Senate Committee on Banking, Finance, and Insurance and the Assembly Committee on Insurance setting forth the methods the commissioner intends to implement to inform households eligible for the pilot program about the availability of low-cost automobile insurance. To be eligible for funding through the budget process, the plan shall be reviewed by the Senate Committee on Banking, Finance, and Insurance and the Assembly Committee on Insurance. The information required under subdivision (c) shall also be provided to the Senate Committee on Transportation and Housing and the Assembly Committee on Transportation.

(b) The plan shall include, at a minimum, a brief description of methods proposed to be used, anticipated costs, sources of revenue, goals, targets, objectives, and a justification of the proposed methods. The plan shall also explain how the department proposes to work in cooperation with the California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan, the social service departments of the Counties of Los Angeles and San Francisco, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and community-based organizations in order to inform eligible households of the existence of the pilot program.

(c) The plan shall also include all of the following:

(1) The commissioner's determination regarding whether the plan has been successful, based on the criteria specified in subdivision (d), and an explanation regarding that success or lack thereof.

(2) In cooperation with the California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan, structural characteristics of the plan that may require statutory revision in order for the plan to succeed or to improve upon existing success.

(3) Impediments to success of the plan that can reasonably be overcome by revision to the strategies adopted by the department and others.

(4) A detailed explanation of the department's use for the program of funds assessed pursuant to Section 1872.81.

(5) For the previous calendar year, a list of the total low-cost auto premium for each county in which the program was available.

(6) The most recent annual report to the Legislature on the status of the low-cost automobile insurance program from the California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan.

(d) The pilot program is successful if the following occur:

(1) The plan generated sufficient premiums to pay for the costs of medical care and property losses covered under the policy during the year, as calculated pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11629.72.

(2) The plan served the public purpose of offering access to automobile insurance to otherwise underserved communities in the pilot program areas.

(3) The plan offered access to automobile insurance to previously uninsured motorists seeking affordable coverage in the pilot program areas.

(e) Any written or oral advertisements, including, but not limited to, paid or unpaid commercial or noncommercial advertising, by the department with reference to the low-cost automobile insurance pilot program shall reference the department and shall not reference the commissioner by name or office, or include the commissioner's voice, image, or likeness. The department shall not participate with any nongovernmental entity that produces or intends to produce advertisements or educational material that include the name of the commissioner or his or her voice, image or likeness, and that are intended to make eligible households aware of the existence of low-cost automobile insurance.

SEC. 19. Section 12964 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12964. The Fraud Division shall annually compile and report, as a part of the commissioner's annual report required by Section 12960, the following information:

(a) The number of cases reported to the division pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 13000).

(b) The number of cases rejected wherein an investigation was not initiated by the division due to insufficient evidence to proceed and the number of cases rejected wherein an investigation was not initiated by the division due to any other reason.

CHAPTER 718

An act to amend Sections 17301, 17302, and 19250 of, and to add Sections 19200.5 and 19223 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17301 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

17301. (a) The following provisions shall apply to those elections where candidates for one or more of the following offices are voted upon: President, Vice President, United States Senator, and United States Representative.

(b) The packages containing the following ballots and identification envelope shall be kept by the elections official, unopened and unaltered, for 22 months from the date of the election:

- (1) Voted polling place ballots.
- (2) Paper record copies, as defined by Section 19251, if any, of voted polling place ballots.
- (3) Voted absent voter ballots.
- (4) Absent voter identification envelopes.
- (5) Spoiled ballots.
- (6) Canceled ballots.

(c) If a contest is not commenced within the 22-month period, or if a criminal prosecution involving fraudulent use, marking or falsification of ballots or forgery of absent voters' signatures is not commenced within the 22-month period, either of which may involve the vote of the precinct from which voted ballots were received, the elections official shall have the ballots destroyed or recycled. The packages shall otherwise remain unopened until the ballots are destroyed or recycled.

SEC. 2. Section 17302 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

17302. (a) The following provisions shall apply to all state or local elections not provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 17301. An election is not deemed a state or local election if votes for candidates for federal office may be cast on the same ballot as votes for candidates for state or local office.

(b) The packages containing the following ballots and identification envelopes shall be kept by the elections official, unopened and unaltered, for six months from the date of the election:

(3) Voted absent voter ballots.

(c) If a contest is not commenced within the six-month period, or if a criminal prosecution involving fraudulent use, marking or falsification of ballots or forgery of absent voters' signatures is not commenced within the six-month period, either of which may involve the vote of the precinct from which voted ballots were received, the elections official shall have the packages destroyed or recycled. The packages shall otherwise remain unopened until the ballots are destroyed or recycled.

SEC. 3. Section 19200.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

19200.5. The Secretary of State shall not approve any voting system that permits a voter to exit a polling place with a facsimile of the ballot cast by that voter at that polling place.

SEC. 4. Section 19223 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

19223. The Secretary of State shall conduct random audits of the software installed on direct recording electronic voting systems, as defined in Section 19251, to ensure that the installed software is identical to the software that has been approved for use on that voting system. The Secretary of State shall take steps to ensure that the process for conducting random audits does not intentionally cause a direct recording electronic voting system to become more vulnerable to any unauthorized changes to the software that has been approved for its use.

SEC. 5. Section 19250 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

19250. (a) On and after January 1, 2005, the Secretary of State shall not approve a direct recording electronic voting system unless the system has received federal qualification and includes an accessible voter verified paper audit trail.

(b) On and after January 1, 2006, a city or county shall not contract for or purchase a direct recording electronic voting system unless the system has received federal qualification and includes an accessible voter verified paper audit trail.

(c) As of January 1, 2006, all direct recording electronic voting systems in use on that date, regardless of when contracted for or purchased, shall have received federal qualification and include an accessible voter verified paper audit trail. If the direct recording electronic voting system does not already include an accessible voter verified paper audit trail, the system shall be replaced or modified to include an accessible voter verified paper audit trail.

(d) All direct recording electronic voting systems shall include a method by which a voter may electronically verify, through a nonvisual method, the information that is contained on the paper record copy of that voter's ballot.

(e) A paper record copy that is printed by a voter verified paper audit trail component shall be printed in the same language that the voter used when casting his or her ballot on the direct recording electronic voting system. For languages that lack a written form, the paper record copy shall be printed in English.

(f) A direct recording electronic voting system shall not be connected to the Internet at any time.

(g) A direct recording electronic voting system shall not be permitted to receive or transmit official election results through an exterior communication network, including the public telephone system.

(h) A direct recording electronic voting system shall not be permitted to receive or transmit wireless communications or wireless data transfers.

SEC. 6. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7

CHAPTER 719

An act to amend Section 14104.19 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.19 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.19. (a) Due to the significant state budget deficit projected for the 2003–04 fiscal year, and in order to implement changes in the level of funding for health care services, the Director of Health Services shall reduce provider payments as specified in this section.

(b) (1) Payments shall be reduced by 5 percent for Medi-Cal program services for dates of service on and after January 1, 2004. However, on the effective date of the act that amended this paragraph during the 2005 Regular Session, the reduction described in this paragraph shall not apply with respect to Medi-Cal program services for dates of service from January 1, 2004, to December 31, 2005, inclusive.

(2) Payments shall be reduced by 5 percent for non-Medi-Cal programs described in Section 14105.18, for dates of service on and after January 1, 2004.

(3) The payments made to managed health care plans shall be reduced by the actuarial equivalent amount of 5 percent at the time of the plan's next rate determination.

(4) Reductions to payments for durable medical equipment shall be made at the discretion of the director. If any reduction is made pursuant to this paragraph, the reduction may not exceed 5 percent.

(c) The services listed below shall be exempt from the payment reductions specified in subdivision (b):

- (1) Acute hospital inpatient services.
- (2) Federally qualified health clinic services.
- (3) Rural health clinic services.
- (4) Outpatient services billed by a hospital.
- (5) Payments to state hospitals or developmental centers.

(6) Payments to long-term care facilities as defined by the department, including, but not limited to, freestanding nursing facilities, distinct-part nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities for developmentally disabled individuals, subacute care units of skilled nursing facilities, rural swing beds, ventilator weaning services, special treatment program services, adult day health care centers, and hospice room and board services.

(7) Clinical laboratory or laboratory services as defined in Section 51137.2 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(9) Supplemental reimbursement provided pursuant to Sections 14105.27, 14105.95, and 14105.96.

(10) Services provided on or after July 1, 2004, through the California Children's Services Program pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 123800) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 106 of the Health and Safety Code, the Genetically Handicapped Persons Program, pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 125125) of Chapter 2 of Part 5 of Division 106 of the Health and Safety Code, the Child Health and Disability Prevention Program pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 124025) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 106 of the Health and Safety Code, the Multipurpose Senior Services Program pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 9560) of Division 8.5, the Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program established pursuant to Article 1.3 (commencing with Section 104150) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 103 of the Health and Safety Code, and the breast cancer programs specified in Section 30461.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(11) Legend and nonlegend drugs dispensed by pharmacy providers reimbursed pursuant to Section 14105.45, effective September 1, 2004.

(d) Subject to the exception for services listed in subdivision (c), the payment reductions required by subdivision (b) shall apply to the services rendered by any provider who may be authorized to bill for the service, including, but not limited to, physicians, podiatrists, nurse practitioners, certified nurse midwives, nurse anesthetists, and organized outpatient clinics.

(e) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the department may implement this section by means of provider bulletin, or similar instruction, without taking regulatory action.

(f) The department shall promptly seek all necessary federal approvals in order to implement this section, including necessary amendments to the state plan.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2007, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2007, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent payment reductions to Medi-Cal providers at the earliest possible time, thereby ensuring the integrity of the Medi-Cal system and the services provided to those receiving services under the system, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 720

An act to amend Section 12012.90 of the Government Code, relating to gaming, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12012.90 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12012.90. (a) (1) For each fiscal year commencing with the 2002–03 fiscal year to the 2004–05 fiscal year, inclusive, the California Gambling Control Commission shall determine the aggregate amount of shortfalls in payments that occurred in the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund pursuant to Section 4.3.2.1 of the tribal-state gaming compacts ratified and in effect as provided in subdivision (f) of Section 19 of Article IV of the California Constitution as determined below:

(A) For each eligible recipient Indian tribe that received money for all four quarters of the fiscal year, the difference between one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) and the actual amount paid to each eligible recipient Indian tribe during the fiscal year from the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund.

(B) For each eligible recipient Indian tribe that received moneys for less than four quarters of the fiscal year, the difference between two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) for each quarter in the fiscal year that a recipient Indian tribe was eligible to receive moneys and the actual amount paid to each eligible recipient Indian tribe during the fiscal year from the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund.

(2) For purposes of this section, "eligible recipient Indian tribe" means a noncompact tribe, as defined in Section 4.3.2(a)(i) of the tribal-state gaming compacts ratified and in effect as provided in subdivision (f) of Section 19 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

(b) The California Gambling Control Commission shall provide to the committee in the Senate and Assembly that considers the State Budget an estimate of the amount needed to backfill the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund on or before the date of the May budget revision for each fiscal year.

(c) An eligible recipient Indian tribe may not receive an amount from the backfill appropriated following the estimate made pursuant to subdivision (b) that would give the eligible recipient Indian tribe an aggregate amount in excess of two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) per eligible quarter. Any funds transferred from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund that result in a surplus shall revert back to the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund following the authorization of the final payment of the fiscal year.

(d) Upon a transfer of moneys from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund and appropriation from the trust fund, the California Gambling Control Commission shall distribute the moneys without delay to eligible recipient Indian tribes for each quarter that a tribe was eligible to receive a distribution during the fiscal year immediately preceding.

(e) For each fiscal year commencing with the 2005-06 fiscal year, all of the following shall apply and subdivisions (b) to (d), inclusive, shall not apply:

(1) On or before the day of the May budget revision for each fiscal year, the California Gambling Control Commission shall determine the anticipated total amount of shortfalls in payment likely to occur in the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for the upcoming fiscal year, and shall provide to the committee in the Senate and Assembly that considers the State Budget an estimate of the amount needed to transfer from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to backfill the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for the next fiscal year. The anticipated total amount of shortfalls to be transferred from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund shall be determined by the California Gambling Control Commission as follows:

(A) The anticipated number of eligible recipient tribes that will be eligible to receive payments for the next fiscal year, multiplied by one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000), with that product reduced by the amount anticipated to be paid by the tribes directly into the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for the fiscal year.

(B) This amount shall be based upon actual payments received into the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund the previous fiscal year, with adjustments made due to amendments to existing tribal-state compacts or newly executed tribal-state compacts with respect to payments to be made to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund.

(2) The Legislature shall transfer from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund an amount sufficient for each eligible recipient tribe to receive a total not to exceed two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) for each quarter in the upcoming fiscal year an eligible recipient tribe is eligible to receive moneys, for a total not to exceed one million, one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) for the entire fiscal year. The California Gambling Control Commission shall make quarterly payments from the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund to each eligible recipient Indian tribe within 45 days of the end of each fiscal quarter.

(3) If the transfer of funds from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund results in a surplus, the funds shall remain in the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for disbursement in future years, and if necessary, adjustments shall be made to future distributions from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Revenue Sharing Trust Fund.

(4) In the event the amount appropriated for the fiscal year is insufficient to ensure each eligible recipient tribe receives the total of two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) for each fiscal quarter, the Department of Finance, after consultation with the California Gambling Control Commission, shall submit to the Legislature a request for a budget augmentation for the current fiscal year with an explanation as to the reason why the amount appropriated for the fiscal year was insufficient.

(5) At the end of each fiscal quarter, the California Gambling Control Commission's Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund report shall include information that identifies each of the eligible recipient tribes eligible to receive a distribution for that fiscal quarter, the amount paid into the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund by each of the tribes pursuant to the applicable sections of the tribal-state compact, and the amount necessary to backfill from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund the shortfall in the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund in order for each eligible recipient tribe to receive the total of two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) for the fiscal quarter.

(6) Based upon the projected shortfall in the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund, for the 2005-06 fiscal year, the sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) is hereby transferred from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund to the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund and is hereby appropriated from that fund to the California Gambling Control Commission for distribution to each eligible recipient tribe pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for eligible recipient Indian tribes to receive moneys from the Indian Gaming Revenue Sharing Trust Fund to provide needed benefits to their tribal members in a timely manner, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 721

An act to amend Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 290.46 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
290.46. (a) On or before the dates specified in this section, the Department of Justice shall make available information concerning persons who are required to register pursuant to Section 290 to the public via an Internet Web site as specified in this section. The department shall update the Web site on an ongoing basis. All information identifying the victim by name, birth date, address, or relationship to the registrant shall be excluded from the Web site. The name or address of the person's employer and the listed person's criminal history, other than the specific crimes for which the person is required to register, the dates of conviction for those crimes, and the dates of release from incarceration for those crimes, shall not be included on the Web site. The Web site shall be translated into languages other than English as determined by the department.

(b) (1) On or before July 1, 2005, with respect to a person who has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in this subdivision or the statutory predecessors of any of these offenses, or any offense which, if committed or attempted to be committed in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in this subdivision, the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site his or her names and known aliases, a photograph, a physical description, including gender and race, date of birth, criminal history, including the dates of conviction for the crimes requiring registration and the dates of release from incarceration for those crimes, the address at which the person resides, and any other information that the Department of Justice deems relevant, but not the information excluded pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses:

(B) Subdivision (b) of Section 209, except kidnapping to commit robbery.

(C) Paragraph (2) or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.

(G) Subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 288, provided that the offense is a felony.

(I) Section 288.5.

(J) Subdivision (a) or (j) of Section 289.

(3) This subdivision shall also apply to any person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) (1) On or before July 1, 2005, with respect to a person who has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in paragraph (2) or the statutory predecessors of any of these offenses, or any offense which, if committed or attempted to be committed in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in this subdivision, the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site his or her names and known aliases, a photograph, a physical description, including gender and race, date of birth, criminal history, including the dates of conviction for the crimes requiring registration and the dates of release from incarceration for those crimes, the community of residence and ZIP Code in which the person resides, and any other information that the Department of Justice deems relevant, but not the information excluded pursuant to subdivision (a). However, the address at which the person resides shall not be disclosed until a determination is made that the person is, by virtue of his or her additional prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290, subject to this subdivision. On or before July 1, 2006, the Department of Justice shall determine whether any person convicted of an offense listed in paragraph (2) also has one or more prior or subsequent convictions of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290, and, for those persons, the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site the address at which the person resides.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses, provided that the person has one or more prior or subsequent convictions of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290:

(C) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), or subdivision (f), (g), or (i), of Section 286.

(d) (1) On or before July 1, 2005, with respect to a person who has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in this subdivision or the statutory predecessors of any of these offenses, or of any offense which, if committed or attempted to be committed in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in this subdivision, the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site his or her names and known aliases, a photograph, a physical description, including gender and race, date of birth, criminal history, including the dates of conviction for the crimes requiring registration and the dates of release from incarceration for those crimes, the community of residence and ZIP Code in which the person resides, and any other information that the Department of Justice deems relevant, but not the information excluded pursuant to subdivision (a) or the address at which the person resides.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses:

(A) Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, with no prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.

(B) Subdivision (a) of Section 243.4, provided that the offense is a felony.

(C) Paragraph (1), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, with no prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.

(G) Section 267.

(H) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), or subdivision (f), (g), or (i), of Section 286, with no prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.

(I) Subdivision (c) of Section 288, provided that the offense is a misdemeanor.

(J) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), or subdivision (f), (g), or (i), of Section 288a, with no prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.

(K) Subdivision (b), (d), (e), or (i) of Section 289, with no prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.

(e) (1) If a person has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in this subdivision or the statutory predecessors of any of these offenses, or of any offense which, if committed or attempted to be committed in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in this subdivision, and he or she has been convicted of no other offense listed in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) other than those listed in this subdivision, that person may file an application for exclusion from the Internet Web site with the Department of Justice. If the department determines that the person meets the requirements of this subdivision, the department shall grant the exclusion and no information concerning him or her shall be made available via the Internet Web site described in this section. He or she bears the burden of proving the facts that make him or her eligible for exclusion from the Internet Web site. However, a person who has filed for or been granted an exclusion from the Internet Web site is not relieved of his or her duty to register as a sex offender pursuant to Section 290 nor from any otherwise applicable provision of law.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses:

(C) An offense listed in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) if the offender is eligible for, granted, and successfully completes probation pursuant to Section 1203.066 of the Penal Code.

(f) The Department of Justice shall make a reasonable effort to provide notification to persons who have been convicted of the commission or attempted commission of an offense specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), that on or before July 1, 2005, the department is required to make information about him or her available to the public via an Internet Web site as specified in this section. The Department of Justice shall also make a reasonable effort to provide notice that he or she may be eligible for exclusion from the Internet Web site if he or she may have been convicted of an offense for which exclusion is available pursuant to subdivision (e).

(g) Notwithstanding Section 6254.5 of the Government Code, disclosure of information pursuant to this section is not a waiver of exemptions under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Title 1 of Division 7 of the Government Code and does not affect other statutory restrictions on disclosure in other situations.

(h) (1) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to the Internet Web site to commit a misdemeanor shall be subject to, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed, a fine of not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(2) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to the Internet Web site to commit a felony shall be punished, in addition and consecutive to any other punishment, by a five-year term of imprisonment in the state prison.

(i) Any person who is required to register pursuant to Section 290 who enters the Web site is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), imprisonment in a county jail for a period not to exceed six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(j) (1) A person is authorized to use information disclosed pursuant to this section only to protect a person at risk.

(2) Except as authorized under paragraph (1) or any other provision of law, use of any information that is disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes relating to any of the following is prohibited:

- (A) Health insurance.
- (B) Insurance.
- (C) Loans.
- (D) Credit.
- (E) Employment.
- (F) Education, scholarships, or fellowships.
- (G) Housing or accommodations.
- (H) Benefits, privileges, or services provided by any business establishment.

(3) This section shall not affect authorized access to, or use of, information pursuant to, among other provisions, Sections 11105 and 11105.3, Section 8808 of the Family Code, Sections 777.5 and 14409.2 of the Financial Code, Sections 1522.01 and 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code, and Section 432.7 of the Labor Code.

(4) (A) Any use of information disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes other than those provided by paragraph (1) or in violation of paragraph (2) shall make the user liable for the actual damages, and any amount that may be determined by a jury or a court sitting without a jury, not exceeding three times the amount of actual damage, and not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and attorney's fees, exemplary damages, or a civil penalty not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(B) Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of misuse of the information available via the Internet Web site in violation of paragraph (2), the Attorney General, any district attorney, or city attorney, or any person aggrieved by the misuse is authorized to bring a civil action in the appropriate court requesting preventive relief, including an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or group of persons responsible for the pattern or practice of misuse. The foregoing remedies shall be independent of any other remedies or procedures that may be available to an aggrieved party under other provisions of law, including Part 2 (commencing with Section 43) of Division 1 of the Civil Code.

(k) On or before July 1, 2006, and every year thereafter, the Department of Justice shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the operation of this section.

(l) The Department of Justice and its employees shall be immune from liability for good faith conduct under this section.

(m) The Department of Justice shall not be required to add to the Web site information regarding the dates of conviction or dates of release from incarceration pursuant to this section unless sufficient funding is available for this purpose and the department has access to complete and accurate information on these dates.

CHAPTER 722

An act to amend Section 2079.10a of the Civil Code, to amend Section 1522.01 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 290, 290.01, 290.4, 290.45, 290.46, 290.5, 290.6, 666.7, and 1170.11 of the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2079.10a of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2079.10a. (a) Every lease or rental agreement for residential real property entered into on or after July 1, 1999, and every contract for the sale of residential real property comprised of one to four dwelling units entered into on or after that date, shall contain, in not less than 8-point type, a notice as specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3).

(1) A contract entered into by the parties on or after July 1, 1999, and before September 1, 2005, shall contain the following notice:

Notice: The California Department of Justice, sheriff's departments, police departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 or more, and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a database of the locations of persons required to register pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.4 of the Penal Code. The database is updated on a quarterly basis and is a source of information about the presence of these individuals in any neighborhood. The Department of Justice also maintains a Sex Offender Identification Line through which inquiries about individuals may be made. This is a "900" telephone service. Callers must have specific information about individuals they are checking. Information regarding neighborhoods is not available through the "900" telephone service.

(2) A contract entered into by the parties on or after September 1, 2005, and before April 1, 2006, shall contain either the notice specified in paragraph (1) or the notice specified in paragraph (3).

(3) A contract entered into by the parties on or after April 1, 2006, shall contain the following notice:

Notice: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c), upon delivery of the notice to the lessee or transferee of the real property, the lessor, seller, or broker is not required to provide information in addition to that contained in the notice regarding the proximity of registered sex offenders. The information in the notice shall be deemed to be adequate to inform the lessee or transferee about the existence of a statewide database of the locations of registered sex offenders and information from the database regarding those locations. The information in the notice shall not give rise to any cause of action against the disclosing party by a registered sex offender.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), nothing in this section shall alter any existing duty of the lessor, seller, or broker under any other statute or decisional law including, but not limited to, the duties of a lessor, seller, or broker under this article, or the duties of a seller or broker under Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1102) of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2.

SEC. 2. Section 1522.01 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1522.01. (a) Any person required to be registered as a sex offender under Section 290 of the Penal Code shall disclose this fact to the licensee of a community care facility before becoming a client of that facility. A community care facility client who fails to disclose to the licensee his or her status as a registered sex offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1540. The community care facility licensee shall not be liable if the client who is required to register as a sex offender fails to disclose this fact to the community care facility licensee. However, this immunity does not apply if the community care facility licensee knew that the client was required to register as a sex offender.

(b) Any person or persons operating, pursuant to this chapter, a community care facility that accepts as a client an individual who is required to be registered as a sex offender under Section 290 of the Penal Code shall confirm or deny whether any client of the facility is a registered sex offender in response to any person who inquires whether any client of the facility is a registered sex offender and who meets any of the following criteria:

(1) The person is the parent, family member, or guardian of a child residing within a one-mile radius of the facility.

(2) The person occupies a personal residence within a one-mile radius of the facility.

(3) The person operates a business within a one-mile radius of the facility.

(4) The person is currently a client within the facility or a family member of a client within the facility.

(5) The person is applying for placement in the facility, or placement of a family member in the facility.

(6) The person is arranging for a client to be placed in the facility.

If the community care facility licensee indicates a client is a registered sex offender, the interested person may describe physical characteristics of a client and the facility shall disclose that client's name upon request, if the physical description matches the client. The facility shall also advise the interested person that information about registered sex offenders is available to the public via the Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code.

(c) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a felony shall be punished, in addition and consecutive to, any other punishment, by a five-year term of imprisonment in the state prison.

(d) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a misdemeanor shall be subject to, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed, a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(e) Except as authorized under another provision of law, or to protect a child, use of any of the information disclosed pursuant to this section for the purpose of applying for, obtaining, or denying any of the following, is prohibited:

- (1) Health insurance.
- (2) Insurance.
- (3) Loans.
- (4) Credit.
- (5) Employment.
- (6) Education, scholarships, or fellowships.
- (7) Benefits, privileges, or services provided by any business establishment.

(8) Housing or accommodations.

(f) Any use of information disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes other than those provided by subdivisions (a) and (b) shall make the user liable for the actual damages, and any amount that may be determined by a jury or a court sitting without a jury, not exceeding three times the amount of actual damage, and not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and attorney's fees, exemplary damages, or a civil penalty not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(g) Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of misuse of the information disclosed pursuant to this section, the Attorney General, any district attorney, or city attorney, or any person aggrieved by the misuse of that information is authorized to bring a civil action in the appropriate court requesting preventive relief, including an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or group of persons responsible for the pattern or practice of misuse. The foregoing remedies shall be independent of any other remedies or procedures that may be available to an aggrieved party under other provisions of law, including Part 2 (commencing with Section 43) of Division 1 of the Civil Code.

(h) The civil and criminal penalty moneys collected pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

SEC. 3. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) (A) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, or while attending school or working in California, as described in subparagraph (G), shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is residing, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is residing in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is residing upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within five working days of coming into, or changing his or her residence within, any city, county, or city and county, or campus in which he or she temporarily resides.

(B) If the person who is registering has more than one residence address at which he or she regularly resides, he or she shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A) in each of the jurisdictions in which he or she regularly resides, regardless of the number of nights spent there. If all of the addresses are within the same jurisdiction, the person shall provide the registering authority with all of the addresses where he or she regularly resides.

(C) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while living as a transient in California shall be required to register, as follows:

(i) A transient must register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, within five working days from release from incarceration, placement or commitment, or release on probation, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), except that if the person previously registered as a transient less than 30 days from the date of his or her release from incarceration, he or she does not need to reregister as a transient until his or her next required 30-day update of registration. If a transient is not physically present in any one jurisdiction for five consecutive working days, he or she must register in the jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present on the fifth working day following release, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). Beginning on or before the 30th day following initial registration upon release, a transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days thereafter. A transient shall register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is physically present within that 30-day period, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is physically present upon the campus or in any of its facilities. A transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days regardless of the length of time he or she has been physically present in the particular jurisdiction in which he or she reregisters. If a transient fails to reregister within any 30-day period, he or she may be prosecuted in any jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present.

(ii) A transient who moves to a residence shall have five working days within which to register at that address, in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). A person registered at a residence address in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), who becomes transient shall have five working days within which to reregister as a transient in accordance with clause (i).

(iii) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration, a transient shall register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in clause (i). A transient shall register in whichever jurisdiction he or she is physically present on that date. At the 30-day updates and the annual update, a transient shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), and the information specified in clause (iv).

(iv) A transient shall, upon registration and reregistration, provide current information as required on the Department of Justice registration forms, and shall also list the places where he or she sleeps, eats, works, frequents, and engages in leisure activities. If a transient changes or adds to the places listed on the form during the 30-day period, he or she does not need to report the new place or places until the next required reregistration.

(v) Failure to comply with the requirement of reregistering every 30 days following initial registration pursuant to clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be punished in accordance with paragraph (6) of subdivision (g). Failure to comply with any other requirement of this section shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (g).

(vi) A transient who moves out of state shall inform, in person or in writing, the chief of police in the city in which he or she is physically present, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, within five working days, of his or her move out of state. The transient shall inform that registering agency of his or her planned destination, residence or transient location out of state, and any plans he or she has to return to California, if known. The law enforcement agency shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of location information to the Department of Justice. The department shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence or location.

(vii) For purposes of this section, “transient” means a person who has no residence. “Residence” means a place where a person is living or temporarily staying for more than five days, such as a shelter or structure that can be located by a street address, including, but not limited to, houses, apartment buildings, motels, hotels, homeless shelters, and recreational and other vehicles.

(viii) The transient registrant’s duty to update his or her registration no less than every 30 days shall begin with his or her second transient update following the date this subdivision became effective.

(D) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration or change of address, the person shall be required to register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in subparagraph (A). At the annual update, the person shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(E) In addition, every person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, after his or her release from custody, verify his or her address no less than once every 90 days and place of employment, including the name and address of the employer, in a manner established by the Department of Justice.

(F) No entity shall require a person to pay a fee to register or update his or her registration pursuant to this section. The registering agency shall submit registrations, including annual updates or changes of address, directly into the Department of Justice Violent Crime Information Network (VCIN).

(G) Persons required to register in their state of residence who are out-of-state residents employed, or carrying on a vocation in California on a full-time or part-time basis, with or without compensation, for more than 14 days, or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). Persons described in paragraph (2) who are out-of-state residents enrolled in any educational institution in California, as defined in Section 22129 of the Education Code, on a full-time or part-time basis, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). The place where the out-of-state resident is located, for purposes of registration, shall be the place where the person is employed, carrying on a vocation, or attending school. The out-of-state resident subject to this subparagraph shall, in addition to the information required pursuant to subdivision (e), provide the registering authority with the name of his or her place of employment or the name of the school attended in California, and his or her address or location in his or her state of residence. The registration requirement for persons subject to this subparagraph shall become operative on November 25, 2000. The terms “employed or carries on a vocation” include employment whether or not financially compensated, volunteered, or performed for government or educational benefit.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, Section 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, or 266c, subdivision (b) of Section 266h, subdivision (b) of Section 266i, Section 266j, 267, 269, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, Section 311.1, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6, former Section 647a, subdivision (c) of Section 653f, subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, any offense involving lewd or lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any statutory predecessor that includes all elements of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any person who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of a trial for an offense for which registration is required by this section but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial.

(D) (i) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, of any offense that, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(ii) Any person ordered by any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, to register as a sex offender for any offense, if the court found at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification.

(iii) Except as provided in clause (iv), any person who would be required to register while residing in the state of conviction for a sex offense committed in that state.

(iv) Clause (iii) shall not apply to a person required to register in the state of conviction if the conviction was for the equivalent of one of the following offenses, and the person is not subject to clause (i):

(III) Incest, pursuant to Section 285.

(IV) Sodomy, pursuant to Section 286, or oral copulation, pursuant to Section 288a, provided that the offender notifies the Department of Justice that the sodomy or oral copulation conviction was for conduct between consenting adults, as described in subparagraph (F) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), and the department is able, upon the exercise of reasonable diligence, to verify that fact.

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(F) (i) Notwithstanding any other subdivision, a person who was convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286, or Section 288a, shall not be required to register pursuant to this section for that conviction if the conviction was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized by Chapter 71 of the Statutes of 1975 or Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976. The Department of Justice shall remove that person from the Sex Offender Registry, and the person is discharged from his or her duty to register pursuant to the following procedure:

(I) The person submits to the Department of Justice official documentary evidence, including court records or police reports, that demonstrate that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized; or

(II) The person submits to the department a declaration stating that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized. The declaration shall be confidential and not a public record, and shall include the person's name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and a summary of the circumstances leading to the conviction, including the date of the conviction and county of the occurrence.

(III) The department shall determine whether the person's conviction was for conduct between consensual adults that has been decriminalized. If the conviction was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized, and the person has no other offenses for which he or she is required to register pursuant to this section, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that he or she is relieved of the duty to register, and shall notify the local law enforcement agency with which the person is registered that he or she has been relieved of the duty to register. The local law enforcement agency shall remove the person's registration from its files within 30 days of receipt of notification. If the documentary or other evidence submitted is insufficient to establish the person's claim, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that his or her claim cannot be established, and that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. The department shall provide, upon the person's request, any information relied upon by the department in making its determination that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. Any person whose claim has been denied by the department pursuant to this clause may petition the court to appeal the department's denial of the person's claim.

(ii) On or before July 1, 1998, the department shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the status of persons who may come under the provisions of this subparagraph, including the number of persons who were convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286 or Section 288a and are required to register under this section, the average age of these persons, the number of these persons who have any subsequent convictions for a registerable sex offense, and the number of these persons who have sought successfully or unsuccessfully to be relieved of their duty to register under this section.

(b) (1) Any person who is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and

Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official shall at the same time forward a current photograph of the person to the Department of Justice.

(2) The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction that makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency that prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall retain one copy.

(c) (1) Any person who is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation, shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the probation department, and a probation officer shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The probation officer shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The probation officer shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is granted conditional release without supervised probation, or discharged upon payment of a fine, shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section in open court by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. If the court finds that it is in the interest of the efficiency of the court, the court may assign the bailiff to require the person to read and sign forms under this section. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of any offense described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraph (3), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Any person described in this subdivision who committed an offense in violation of any of the following provisions shall be required to register pursuant to this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, 266c, or 267, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or Section 647.6.

(C) A violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with the intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289.

(4) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, any person who is subject to registration under this subdivision shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case that are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) On or after January 1, 1998, upon incarceration, placement, or commitment, or prior to release on probation, any person who is required to register under this section shall preregister. The preregistering official shall be the admitting officer at the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment, or the probation officer if the person is to be released on probation. The preregistration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A preregistration statement in writing, signed by the person, giving information that shall be required by the Department of Justice.

(C) Any person who is preregistered pursuant to this subdivision is required to be preregistered only once.

(2) A person described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, upon release from incarceration, placement, commitment, or release on probation pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The registration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as shall be required by the Department of Justice and giving the name and address of the person's employer, and the address of the person's place of employment if that is different from the employer's main address.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by, regularly driven by, or registered in the name of the person.

(D) Notice to the person that, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (4), he or she may have a duty to register in any other state where he or she may relocate.

(E) Copies of adequate proof of residence, which shall be limited to a California driver's license, California identification card, recent rent

or utility receipt, printed personalized checks or other recent banking documents showing that person's name and address, or any other information that the registering official believes is reliable. If the person has no residence and no reasonable expectation of obtaining a residence in the foreseeable future, the person shall so advise the registering official and shall sign a statement provided by the registering official stating that fact. Upon presentation of proof of residence to the registering official or a signed statement that the person has no residence, the person shall be allowed to register. If the person claims that he or she has a residence but does not have any proof of residence, he or she shall be allowed to register but shall furnish proof of residence within 30 days of the date he or she is allowed to register.

(3) Within three days thereafter, the preregistering official or the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) (1) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section and who has a residence address changes his or her residence address, whether within the jurisdiction in which he or she is currently registered or to a new jurisdiction inside or outside the state, the person shall inform, in writing within five working days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she last registered of the new address or transient location and any plans he or she has to return to California, if known. If the person does not know the new residence address or location, the registrant shall inform the last registering agency or agencies that he or she is moving within five working days of the move, and shall later notify the agency or agencies of the new address or location within five working days of moving into the new residence address or location, whether temporary or permanent. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three working days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of address information to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(2) If the person's new address is in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution, an official of the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment shall, within 90 days of receipt of the person, forward the registrant's change of address information to the Department of Justice. The agency need not provide a physical address for the registrant but shall indicate that he or she is serving a period of incarceration or commitment in a facility under the agency's jurisdiction. This paragraph shall apply to persons received in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution on or after January 1, 1999. The Department of Justice shall forward the change of address information to the agency with which the person last registered.

(3) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her name, the person shall inform, in person, the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she is currently registered within five working days. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward a copy of this information to the Department of Justice within three working days of its receipt.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (5), (7), and (9), any person who is required to register under this section based on a felony conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section or who has a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

If probation is granted or if the imposition or execution of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition of the probation or suspension that the person serve at least 90 days in a county jail. The penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(3) Any person determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender or who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of trial for an offense for which registration is required under this section, but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial, or who has had a petition sustained in a juvenile adjudication for an offense for which registration is required under this section pursuant to subdivision (d), but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity, who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year. For any second or subsequent willful violation of any requirement of this section, the person is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony or suffers a juvenile adjudication as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(5) Any person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and who fails to verify his or her registration every 90 days as required pursuant to subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), any person who is required to register or reregister pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail at least 30 days, but not exceeding six months. A person who willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall not be charged with this violation more often than once for a failure to register in any period of 90 days. Any person who willfully commits a third or subsequent violation of the requirements of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision.

(7) Any person who fails to provide proof of residence as required by subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), regardless of the offense upon which the duty to register is based, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months.

(8) Any person who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a continuing offense as to each requirement he or she violated.

(9) In addition to any other penalty imposed under this subdivision, the failure to provide information required on registration and reregistration forms of the Department of Justice, or the provision of false information, is a crime punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not exceeding one year.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, “parole authority” has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as otherwise provided by law, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This subdivision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, “mentally disordered sex offender” includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) (1) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1997, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 14 to 5 working days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 14 days.

(2) Every person who, as a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is required to verify his or her registration every 90 days, shall be notified wherever he or she next registers of his or her increased registration obligations. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notice shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by paragraph (5) of subdivision (g).

(m) The registration provisions of this section are applicable to every person described in this section, without regard to when his or her crime or crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to this section arose, and to every offense described in this section, regardless of when it was committed.

SEC. 3.5. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) (A) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, or while attending school or working in California, as described in subparagraph (G), shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is residing, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is residing in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is residing upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within five working days of coming into, or changing his or her residence within, any city, county, or city and county, or campus in which he or she temporarily resides.

(B) If the person who is registering has more than one residence address at which he or she regularly resides, he or she shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A) in each of the jurisdictions in which he or she regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there. If all of the addresses are within the same jurisdiction, the person shall provide the registering authority with all of the addresses where he or she regularly resides.

(i) A transient must register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, within five working days from release from incarceration, placement or commitment, or release on probation, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), except that if the person previously registered as a transient less than 30 days from the date of his or her release from incarceration, he or she does not need to reregister as a transient until his or her next required 30-day update of registration. If a transient is not physically present in any one jurisdiction for five consecutive working days, he or she must register in the jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present on the fifth working day following release, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). Beginning on or before the 30th day following initial registration upon release, a transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days thereafter. A transient shall register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is physically present within that 30-day period, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, and additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California, the California State University, or community college if he or she is physically present upon the campus or in any of its facilities. A transient must reregister no less than once every 30 days regardless of the length of time he or she has been physically present in the particular jurisdiction in which he or she reregisters. If a transient fails to reregister within any 30-day period, he or she may be prosecuted in any jurisdiction in which he or she is physically present.

(ii) A transient who moves to a residence shall have five working days within which to register at that address, in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). A person registered at a residence address in accordance with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), who becomes transient shall have five working days within which to reregister as a transient in accordance with clause (i).

(iii) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration, a transient shall register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in clause (i). A transient shall register in whichever jurisdiction he or she is physically present on that date. At the 30-day updates and the annual update, a transient shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), and the information specified in clause (iv).

(iv) A transient shall, upon registration and reregistration, provide current information as required on the Department of Justice registration forms, and shall also list the places where he or she sleeps, eats, works, frequents, and engages in leisure activities. If a transient changes or adds to the places listed on the form during the 30-day period, he or she does not need to report the new place or places until the next required reregistration.

(v) Failure to comply with the requirement of reregistering every 30 days following initial registration pursuant to clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be punished in accordance with paragraph (6) of subdivision (g). Failure to comply with any other requirement of this section shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (g).

(vi) A transient who moves out of state shall inform, in person, the chief of police in the city in which he or she is physically present, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is physically present in an unincorporated area or city that has no police department, within five working days, of his or her move out of state. The transient shall inform that registering agency of his or her planned destination, residence or transient location out of state, and any plans he or she has to return to California, if known. The law enforcement agency shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of location information to the Department of Justice. The department shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence or location.

(vii) For purposes of this section, “transient” means a person who has no residence. “Residence” means one or more addresses at which a person regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there, such as a shelter or structure that can be located by a street address, including, but not limited to, houses, apartment buildings, motels, hotels, homeless shelters, and recreational and other vehicles.

(viii) The transient registrant’s duty to update his or her registration no less than every 30 days shall begin with his or her second transient update following the date this subdivision became effective.

(D) Beginning on his or her first birthday following registration or change of address, the person shall be required to register annually, within five working days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in subparagraph (A). At the annual update, the person shall provide current information as required on the Department of Justice annual update form, including the information described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(E) In addition, every person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, after his or her release from custody, verify his or her address no less than once every 90 days and place of employment, including the name and address of the employer, in a manner established by the Department of Justice.

(F) No entity shall require a person to pay a fee to register or update his or her registration pursuant to this section. The registering agency shall submit registrations, including annual updates or changes of address, directly into the Department of Justice Violent Crime Information Network (VCIN).

(G) Persons required to register in their state of residence who are out-of-state residents employed, or carrying on a vocation in California on a full-time or part-time basis, with or without compensation, for more than 14 days, or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). Persons described in paragraph (2) who are out-of-state residents enrolled in any educational institution in California, as defined in Section 22129 of the Education Code, on a full-time or part-time basis, shall register in accordance with subparagraph (A). The place where the out-of-state resident is located, for purposes of registration, shall be the place where the person is employed, carrying on a vocation, or attending school. The out-of-state resident subject to this subparagraph shall, in addition to the information required pursuant to subdivision (e), provide the registering authority with the name of his or her place of employment or the name of the school attended in California, and his or her address or location in his or her state of residence. The registration requirement for persons subject to this subparagraph shall become operative on November 25, 2000. The terms “employed or carries on a vocation” include employment whether or not financially compensated, volunteered, or performed for government or educational benefit.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, Section 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, or 266c, subdivision (b) of Section 266h, subdivision (b) of Section 266i, Section 266j, 267, 269, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, Section 311.1, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6, former Section 647a, subdivision (c) of Section 653f, subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, any offense involving lewd or lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any statutory predecessor that includes all elements of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any person who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of a trial for an offense for which registration is required by this section but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial.

(D) (i) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, of any offense that, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(ii) Any person ordered by any other court, including any state, federal, or military court, to register as a sex offender for any offense, if the court found at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification.

(iii) Except as provided in clause (iv), any person who would be required to register while residing in the state of conviction for a sex offense committed in that state.

(iv) Clause (iii) shall not apply to a person required to register in the state of conviction if the conviction was for the equivalent of one of the following offenses, and the person is not subject to clause (i):

(III) Incest, pursuant to Section 285.

(IV) Sodomy, pursuant to Section 286, or oral copulation, pursuant to Section 288a, provided that the offender notifies the Department of Justice that the sodomy or oral copulation conviction was for conduct between consenting adults, as described in subparagraph (F) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), and the department is able, upon the exercise of reasonable diligence, to verify that fact.

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction or sentencing that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(F) Any person required to register pursuant to any provision of this section, regardless of whether the person's conviction has been dismissed pursuant to Section 1203.4, unless the person obtains a certificate of rehabilitation and is entitled to relief from registration pursuant to Section 290.5.

(G) (i) Notwithstanding any other subdivision, a person who was convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286, or Section 288a, shall not be required to register pursuant to this section for that conviction if the conviction was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized by Chapter 71 of the Statutes of 1975 or Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976. The Department of Justice shall remove that person from the Sex Offender Registry, and the person is discharged from his or her duty to register pursuant to the following procedure:

(I) The person submits to the Department of Justice official documentary evidence, including court records or police reports, that demonstrate that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for conduct between consenting adults that was decriminalized; or

(II) The person submits to the department a declaration stating that the person's conviction pursuant to either of those sections was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized. The declaration shall be confidential and not a public record, and shall include the person's name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and a summary of the circumstances leading to the conviction, including the date of the conviction and county of the occurrence.

(III) The department shall determine whether the person's conviction was for conduct between consensual adults that has been decriminalized. If the conviction was for consensual conduct between adults that has been decriminalized, and the person has no other offenses for which he or she is required to register pursuant to this section, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that he or she is relieved of the duty to register, and shall notify the local law enforcement agency with which the person is registered that he or she has been relieved of the duty to register. The local law enforcement agency shall remove the person's registration from its files within 30 days of receipt of notification. If the documentary or other evidence submitted is insufficient to establish the person's claim, the department shall, within 60 days of receipt of those documents, notify the person that his or her claim cannot be established, and that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. The department shall provide, upon the person's request, any information relied upon by the department in making its determination that the person shall continue to register pursuant to this section. Any person whose claim has been denied by the department pursuant to this clause may petition the court to appeal the department's denial of the person's claim.

(ii) On or before July 1, 1998, the department shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the status of persons who may come under the provisions of this subparagraph, including the number of persons who were convicted before January 1, 1976, under subdivision (a) of Section 286 or Section 288a and are required to register under this section, the average age of these persons, the number of these persons who have any subsequent convictions for a registerable sex offense, and the number of these persons who have sought successfully or unsuccessfully to be relieved of their duty to register under this section.

(b) (1) Any person who is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and

Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official shall at the same time forward a current photograph of the person to the Department of Justice.

(2) The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction that makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency that prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall retain one copy.

(c) (1) Any person who is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation, shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the probation department, and a probation officer shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The probation officer shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The probation officer shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is granted conditional release without supervised probation, or discharged upon payment of a fine, shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section in open court by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. If the court finds that it is in the interest of the efficiency of the court, the court may assign the bailiff to require the person to read and sign forms under this section. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of any offense described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraph (3), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Any person described in this subdivision who committed an offense in violation of any of the following provisions shall be required to register pursuant to this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, 266c, or 267, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or Section 647.6.

(C) A violation of Section 207 or 209 committed with the intent to violate Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, or 289.

(4) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, any person who is subject to registration under this subdivision shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case that are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) On or after January 1, 1998, upon incarceration, placement, or commitment, or prior to release on probation, any person who is required to register under this section shall preregister. The preregistering official shall be the admitting officer at the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment, or the probation officer if the person is to be released on probation. The preregistration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A preregistration statement in writing, signed by the person, giving information that shall be required by the Department of Justice.

(C) Any person who is preregistered pursuant to this subdivision is required to be preregistered only once.

(2) A person described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall register, or reregister if the person has previously registered, upon release from incarceration, placement, commitment, or release on probation pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The registration shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as shall be required by the Department of Justice and giving the name and address of the person's employer, and the address of the person's place of employment if that is different from the employer's main address.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by, regularly driven by, or registered in the name of the person.

(D) Notice to the person that, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (4), he or she may have a duty to register in any other state where he or she may relocate.

(E) Copies of adequate proof of residence, which shall be limited to a California driver's license, California identification card, recent rent

or utility receipt, printed personalized checks or other recent banking documents showing that person's name and address, or any other information that the registering official believes is reliable. If the person has no residence and no reasonable expectation of obtaining a residence in the foreseeable future, the person shall so advise the registering official and shall sign a statement provided by the registering official stating that fact. Upon presentation of proof of residence to the registering official or a signed statement that the person has no residence, the person shall be allowed to register. If the person claims that he or she has a residence but does not have any proof of residence, he or she shall be allowed to register but shall furnish proof of residence within 30 days of the date he or she is allowed to register.

(3) Within three days thereafter, the preregistering official or the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) (1) (A) Any person who was last registered at a residence address pursuant to this section who changes his or her residence address, whether within the jurisdiction in which he or she is currently registered or to a new jurisdiction inside or outside the state, shall, in person, within five working days of the move, inform the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she last registered of the move, the new address or transient location, if known, and any plans he or she has to return to California.

(B) If the person does not know the new residence address or location at the time of the move, the registrant shall, in person, within five working days of the move, inform the last registering agency or agencies that he or she is moving. The person shall later notify the last registering agency or agencies, in writing, sent by certified or registered mail, of the new address or location within five working days of moving into the new residence address or location, whether temporary or permanent.

(C) The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three working days after receipt of this information, forward a copy of the change of address information to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence .

(2) If the person's new address is in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution, an official of the place of incarceration, placement, or commitment shall, within 90 days of receipt of the person, forward the registrant's change of address information to the Department of Justice. The agency need not provide a physical address for the registrant but shall indicate that he or she is serving a period of incarceration or commitment in a facility under the agency's jurisdiction. This paragraph shall apply to persons received in a Department of the Youth Authority facility or a state prison or state mental institution on or after January 1, 1999. The Department of Justice shall forward the change of address information to the agency with which the person last registered.

(3) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her name, the person shall inform, in person, the law enforcement agency or agencies with which he or she is currently registered within five working days. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward a copy of this information to the Department of Justice within three working days of its receipt.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (5), (7), and (9), any person who is required to register under this section based on a felony conviction or juvenile adjudication who willfully violates any requirement of this section or who has a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

If probation is granted or if the imposition or execution of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition of the probation or suspension that the person serve at least 90 days in a county jail. The penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(3) Any person determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender or who has been found guilty in the guilt phase of trial for an offense for which registration is required under this section, but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in the sanity phase of the trial, or who has had a petition sustained in a juvenile adjudication for an offense for which registration is required under this section pursuant to subdivision (d), but who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity, who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year. For any second or subsequent willful violation of any requirement of this section, the person is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony or suffers a juvenile adjudication as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(5) Any person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and who fails to verify his or her registration every 90 days as required pursuant to subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), any person who is required to register or reregister pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail at least 30 days, but not exceeding six months. A person who willfully fails to comply with the requirement that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall not be charged with this violation more often than once for a failure to register in any period of 90 days. Any person who willfully commits a third or subsequent violation of the requirements of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) that he or she reregister no less than every 30 days shall be punished in accordance with either paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision.

(7) Any person who fails to provide proof of residence as required by subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), regardless of the offense upon which the duty to register is based, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months.

(8) Any person who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any requirement of this section is guilty of a continuing offense as to each requirement he or she violated.

(9) In addition to any other penalty imposed under this subdivision, the failure to provide information required on registration and reregistration forms of the Department of Justice, or the provision of false information, is a crime punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not exceeding one year.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as otherwise provided by law, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This subdivision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) (1) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1997, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 14 to 5 working days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 14 days.

(2) Every person who, as a sexually violent predator, as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is required to verify his or her registration every 90 days, shall be notified wherever he or she next registers of his or her increased registration obligations. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notice shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by paragraph (5) of subdivision (g).

(m) The registration provisions of this section are applicable to every person described in this section, without regard to when his or her crime or crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to this section arose, and to every offense described in this section, regardless of when it was committed.

SEC. 4. Section 290.01 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.01. (a) (1) Commencing October 28, 2002, every person required to register under Section 290 who is enrolled as a student of any university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning, or is, with or without compensation, a full-time or part-time employee of that university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning, or is carrying on a vocation at the university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning, for more than 14 days, or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year, shall, in addition to the registration required by Section 290, register with the campus police department within five working days of commencing enrollment or employment at that university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning, on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice. The terms "employed or carries on a vocation" include employment whether or not financially compensated, volunteered, or performed for government or educational benefit. The registrant shall also notify the campus police department within five working days of ceasing to be enrolled or employed, or ceasing to carry on a vocation, at the university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning.

(2) For purposes of this section, a campus police department is a police department of the University of California, California State University, or California Community College, established pursuant to Section 72330, 89560, or 92600 of the Education Code, or is a police department staffed with deputized or appointed personnel with peace officer status as provided in Section 830.6 of the Penal Code and is the law enforcement agency with the primary responsibility for investigating crimes occurring on the college or university campus on which it is located.

(b) If the university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning has no campus police department, the registrant shall instead register pursuant to subdivision (a) with the police of the city in which the campus is located or the sheriff of the county in which the campus is located if the campus is located in an unincorporated area or in a city that has no police department, on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice. The requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) are in addition to the requirements of Section 290.

(c) A first violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). A second violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months, by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. A third or subsequent violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(d) (1) (A) The following information regarding a registered sex offender on campus as to whom information shall not be made available to the public via the Internet Web site as provided in Section 290.46 may be released to members of the campus community by any campus police department or, if the university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning has no police department, the police department or sheriff's department with jurisdiction over the campus, and any employees of those agencies, as required by Section 1092(f)(1)(I) of Title 20 of the United States Code:

- (i) The offender's full name.
- (ii) The offender's known aliases.
- (iii) The offender's gender.
- (iv) The offender's race.
- (v) The offender's physical description.
- (vi) The offender's photograph.
- (vii) The offender's date of birth.
- (viii) Crimes resulting in registration under Section 290.
- (ix) The date of last registration or reregistration.

(B) The authority provided in this subdivision is in addition to the authority of a peace officer or law enforcement agency to provide information about a registered sex offender pursuant to Section 290.45, and exists notwithstanding subdivision (i) of Section 290 or any other provision of law.

(2) Any law enforcement entity and employees of any law enforcement entity listed in paragraph (1) shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for good faith conduct under this subdivision.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to authorize campus police departments or, if the university, college, community college, or other institution has no police department, the police department or sheriff's department with jurisdiction over the campus, to make disclosures about registrants intended to reach persons beyond the campus community.

(4) (A) Before being provided any information by an agency pursuant to this subdivision, a member of the campus community who requests that information shall sign a statement, on a form provided by the Department of Justice, stating that he or she is not a registered sex offender, that he or she understands the purpose of the release of information is to allow members of the campus community to protect themselves and their children from sex offenders, and that he or she understands it is unlawful to use information obtained pursuant to this subdivision to commit a crime against any registrant or to engage in illegal discrimination or harassment of any registrant. The signed statement shall be maintained in a file in the agency's office for a minimum of five years.

(B) An agency disseminating printed information pursuant to this subdivision shall maintain records of the means and dates of dissemination for a minimum of five years.

(5) For purposes of this subdivision, "campus community" means those persons present at, and those persons regularly frequenting, any place associated with an institution of higher education, including campuses; administrative and educational offices; laboratories; satellite facilities owned or utilized by the institution for educational instruction, business, or institutional events; and public areas contiguous to any campus or facility that are regularly frequented by students, employees, or volunteers of the campus.

SEC. 5. Section 290.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.4. (a) The department shall operate a service through which members of the public may provide a list of at least six persons on a form approved by the Department of Justice and inquire whether any of those persons is required to register as a sex offender and is subject to public notification. The Department of Justice shall respond with information on any person as to whom information may be available to the public via the Internet Web site as provided in Section 290.46, to the extent that information may be disclosed pursuant to Section 290.46. The Department of Justice may establish a fee for requests, including all actual and reasonable costs associated with the service.

(b) The income from the operation of the service specified in subdivision (a) shall be deposited in the Sexual Predator Public Information Account within the Department of Justice for the purpose of the implementation of this section by the Department of Justice.

The moneys in the account shall consist of income from the operation of the service authorized by subdivision (a), and any other funds made available to the account by the Legislature. Moneys in the account shall be available to the Department of Justice upon appropriation by the Legislature for the purpose specified in subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a felony shall be punished, in addition and consecutive to, any other punishment, by a five-year term of imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) Any person who, without authorization, uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a misdemeanor shall be subject to, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed, a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) (1) A person is authorized to use information disclosed pursuant to this section only to protect a person at risk.

(2) Except as authorized under paragraph (1) or any other provision of law, use of any information that is disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes relating to any of the following is prohibited:

- (A) Health insurance.
- (B) Insurance.
- (C) Loans.
- (D) Credit.
- (E) Employment.
- (F) Education, scholarships, or fellowships.
- (G) Housing or accommodations.
- (H) Benefits, privileges, or services provided by any business establishment.

(3) This section shall not affect authorized access to, or use of, information pursuant to, among other provisions, Sections 11105 and 11105.3 of this code, Section 226.55 of the Civil Code, Sections 777.5 and 14409.2 of the Financial Code, Sections 1522.01 and 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code, and Section 432.7 of the Labor Code.

(4) (A) Any use of information disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes other than those provided by paragraph (1) or in violation of paragraph (2) shall make the user liable for the actual damages, and any amount that may be determined by a jury or a court sitting without a jury, not exceeding three times the amount of actual damage, and not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and attorney's fees, exemplary damages, or a civil penalty not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(B) Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of misuse of the service specified in subdivision (a), in violation of paragraph (2), the Attorney General, any district attorney, or city attorney, or any person aggrieved by the misuse of the service is authorized to bring a civil action in the appropriate court requesting preventive relief, including an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or group of persons responsible for the pattern or practice of misuse. The foregoing remedies shall be independent of any other remedies or procedures that may be available to an aggrieved party under other provisions of law, including Part 2 (commencing with Section 43) of Division 1 of the Civil Code.

(e) The Department of Justice and its employees shall be immune from liability for good faith conduct under this section.

(f) The public notification provisions of this section are applicable to every person described in subdivision (a), without regard to when his or her crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to Section 290 arose, and to every offense subject to public notification pursuant to Section 290.46, regardless of when it was committed.

(g) On or before July 1, 2006, and every year thereafter, the Department of Justice shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the operation of this section.

SEC. 6. Section 290.45 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.45. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as provided in paragraph (2), any designated law enforcement entity may provide information to the public about a person required to register as a sex offender pursuant to Section 290, by whatever means the entity deems appropriate, when necessary to ensure the public safety based upon information available to the entity concerning that specific person.

(2) The law enforcement entity shall include, with the disclosure, a statement that the purpose of the release of information is to allow members of the public to protect themselves and their children from sex offenders.

(3) Community notification by way of an Internet Web site shall be governed by Section 290.46, and a designated law enforcement entity may not post on an Internet Web site any information identifying an individual as a person required to register as a sex offender except as provided in that section unless there is a warrant outstanding for that person's arrest.

(b) Information that may be provided pursuant to subdivision (a) may include, but is not limited to, the offender's name, known aliases, gender, race, physical description, photograph, date of birth, address, which shall be verified prior to publication, description and license plate number of the offender's vehicles or vehicles the offender is known to drive, type of victim targeted by the offender, relevant parole or probation conditions, crimes resulting in classification under this section, and date of release from confinement, but excluding information that would identify the victim.

(c) (1) The designated law enforcement entity may authorize persons and entities who receive the information pursuant to this section to disclose information to additional persons only if the entity determines that disclosure to the additional persons will enhance the public safety and identifies the appropriate scope of further disclosure. A law enforcement entity may not authorize any disclosure of this information by its placement on an Internet Web site.

(2) A person who receives information from a law enforcement entity pursuant to paragraph (1) may disclose that information only in the manner and to the extent authorized by the law enforcement entity.

(d) (1) A designated law enforcement entity and its employees shall be immune from liability for good faith conduct under this section.

(2) Any public or private educational institution, day care facility, or any child care custodian described in Section 11165.7, or any employee of a public or private educational institution or day care facility which in good faith disseminates information as authorized pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be immune from civil liability.

(e) (1) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a felony shall be punished, in addition and consecutive to any other punishment, by a five-year term of imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a misdemeanor shall be subject to, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed, a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(f) For purposes of this section, “designated law enforcement entity” means the Department of Justice, every district attorney, the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, and every state or local agency expressly authorized by statute to investigate or prosecute law violators.

(g) The public notification provisions of this section are applicable to every person required to register pursuant to Section 290, without regard to when his or her crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to Section 290 arose, and to every offense described in Section 290, regardless of when it was committed.

SEC. 7. Section 290.46 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.46. (a) On or before the dates specified in this section, the Department of Justice shall make available information concerning persons who are required to register pursuant to Section 290 to the public via an Internet Web site as specified in this section. The department shall update the Internet Web site on an ongoing basis. All information identifying the victim by name, birth date, address, or relationship to the registrant shall be excluded from the Internet Web site. The name or address of the person’s employer and the listed person’s criminal history other than the specific crimes for which the person is required to register shall not be included on the Internet Web site. The Internet Web site shall be translated into languages other than English as determined by the department.

(b) (1) On or before July 1, 2005, with respect to a person who has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in, or who is described in, paragraph (2), the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site his or her name and known aliases, a photograph, a physical description, including gender and race, date of birth, criminal history, the address at which the person resides, and any other information that the Department of Justice deems relevant, but not the information excluded pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses and offenders:

(C) Paragraph (2) or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.

(G) Subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 288, provided that the offense is a felony.

(I) Section 288.5.

(J) Subdivision (a) or (j) of Section 289.

(K) Any person who has ever been adjudicated a sexually violent predator as defined in Section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) (1) On or before July 1, 2005, with respect to a person who has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in paragraph (2), the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site his or her name and known aliases, a photograph, a physical description, including gender and race, date of birth, criminal history, the community of residence and ZIP Code in which the person resides or the county in which the person is registered as a transient, and any other information that the Department of Justice deems relevant, but not the information excluded pursuant to subdivision (a). On or before July 1, 2006, the Department of Justice shall determine whether any person convicted of an offense listed in paragraph (2) also has one or more prior or subsequent convictions of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290, and, for those persons, the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site the address at which the person resides. However, the address at which the person resides shall not be disclosed until a determination is made that the person is, by virtue of his or her additional prior or subsequent conviction of an offense listed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290, subject to this subdivision.

- (2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses:
- (A) Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem.
  - (B) Paragraph (1), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.
  - (C) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), or subdivision (f), (g), or (i), of Section 286.
  - (D) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), or subdivision (f), (g), or (i), of Section 288a.
  - (E) Subdivision (b), (d), (e), or (i) of Section 289.
- (d) (1) On or before July 1, 2005, with respect to a person who has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in, or who is described in, this subdivision, the Department of Justice shall make available to the public via the Internet Web site his or her name and known aliases, a photograph, a physical description, including gender and race, date of birth, criminal history, the community of residence and ZIP Code in which the person resides or the county in which the person is registered as a transient, and any other information that the Department of Justice deems relevant, but not the information excluded pursuant to subdivision (a) or the address at which the person resides.
- (2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses and offenders:
- (A) Subdivision (a) of Section 243.4, provided that the offense is a felony.
  - (B) Section 266, provided that the offense is a felony.
  - (C) Section 266c, provided that the offense is a felony.
  - (D) Section 266j.
  - (E) Section 267.
  - (F) Subdivision (c) of Section 288, provided that the offense is a misdemeanor.
  - (G) Section 647.6.
  - (H) Any person required to register pursuant to Section 290 based upon an out-of-state conviction, unless that person is excluded from the Internet Web site pursuant to subdivision (e). However, if the Department of Justice has determined that the out-of-state crime, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable in this state as a crime described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290, the person shall be placed on the Internet Web site as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), as applicable to the crime.
- (e) (1) If a person has been convicted of the commission or the attempted commission of any of the offenses listed in this subdivision, and he or she has been convicted of no other offense listed in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) other than those listed in this subdivision, that person may file an application with the Department of Justice, on a form approved by the department, for exclusion from the Internet Web site. If the department determines that the person meets the requirements of this subdivision, the department shall grant the exclusion and no information concerning the person shall be made available via the Internet Web site described in this section. He or she bears the burden of proving the facts that make him or her eligible for exclusion from the Internet Web site. However, a person who has filed for or been granted an exclusion from the Internet Web site is not relieved of his or her duty to register as a sex offender pursuant to Section 290 nor from any otherwise applicable provision of law.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to the following offenses:

(C) (i) An offense for which the offender successfully completed probation, provided that the offender submits to the department a certified copy of a probation report, presentencing report, report prepared pursuant to Section 288.1, or other official court document that clearly demonstrates both of the following:

(I) The offender was the victim's parent, stepparent, sibling, or grandparent.

(II) The crime did not involve either oral copulation or penetration of the vagina or rectum of either the victim or the offender by the penis of the other or by any foreign object.

(ii) An offense for which the offender is on probation at the time of his or her application, provided that the offender submits to the department a certified copy of a probation report, presentencing report, report prepared pursuant to Section 288.1, or other official court document that clearly demonstrates both of the following:

(I) The offender was the victim's parent, stepparent, sibling, or grandparent.

(II) The crime did not involve either oral copulation or penetration of the vagina or rectum of either the victim or the offender by the penis of the other or by any foreign object.

(iii) If, subsequent to his or her application, the offender commits a violation of probation resulting in his or her incarceration in county jail or state prison, his or her exclusion, or application for exclusion, from the Internet Web site shall be terminated.

(iv) For the purposes of this subparagraph, "successfully completed probation" means that during the period of probation the offender neither received additional county jail or state prison time for a violation of probation nor was convicted of another offense resulting in a sentence to county jail or state prison.

(f) The Department of Justice shall make a reasonable effort to provide notification to persons who have been convicted of the commission or attempted commission of an offense specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), that on or before July 1, 2005, the department is required to make information about specified sex offenders available to the public via an Internet Web site as specified in this section. The Department of Justice shall also make a reasonable effort to provide notice that some offenders are eligible to apply for exclusion from the Internet Web site.

(g) (1) A designated law enforcement entity, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 290.45, may make available information concerning persons who are required to register pursuant to Section 290 to the public via an Internet Web site as specified in paragraph (2).

(2) The law enforcement entity may make available by way of an Internet Web site the information described in subdivision (c) if it determines that the public disclosure of the information about a specific offender by way of the entity's Internet Web site is necessary to ensure the public safety based upon information available to the entity concerning that specific offender.

(3) The information that may be provided pursuant to this subdivision may include the information specified in subdivision (b) of Section 290.45. However, that offender's address may not be disclosed unless he or she is a person whose address is on the Department of Justice's Internet Web site pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c).

(h) For purposes of this section, "offense" includes the statutory predecessors of that offense, or any offense committed in another jurisdiction that, if committed or attempted to be committed in this state, would have been punishable in this state as an offense listed in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 6254.5 of the Government Code, disclosure of information pursuant to this section is not a waiver of exemptions under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Title 1 of Division 7 of the Government Code and does not affect other statutory restrictions on disclosure in other situations.

(j) (1) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a misdemeanor shall be subject to, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed, a fine of not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(2) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a felony shall be punished, in addition and consecutive to any other punishment, by a five-year term of imprisonment in the state prison.

(k) Any person who is required to register pursuant to Section 290 who enters an Internet Web site established pursuant to this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), imprisonment in a county jail for a period not to exceed six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(l) (1) A person is authorized to use information disclosed pursuant to this section only to protect a person at risk.

(2) Except as authorized under paragraph (1) or any other provision of law, use of any information that is disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes relating to any of the following is prohibited:

- (A) Health insurance.
- (B) Insurance.
- (C) Loans.
- (D) Credit.
- (E) Employment.
- (F) Education, scholarships, or fellowships.
- (G) Housing or accommodations.
- (H) Benefits, privileges, or services provided by any business establishment.

(3) This section shall not affect authorized access to, or use of, information pursuant to, among other provisions, Sections 11105 and 11105.3, Section 8808 of the Family Code, Sections 777.5 and 14409.2 of the Financial Code, Sections 1522.01 and 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code, and Section 432.7 of the Labor Code.

(4) (A) Any use of information disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes other than those provided by paragraph (1) or in violation of paragraph (2) shall make the user liable for the actual damages, and any amount that may be determined by a jury or a court sitting without a jury, not exceeding three times the amount of actual damage, and not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and attorney's fees, exemplary damages, or a civil penalty not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(B) Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of misuse of the information available via an Internet Web site established pursuant to this section in violation of paragraph (2), the Attorney General, any district attorney, or city attorney, or any person aggrieved by the misuse is authorized to bring a civil action in the appropriate court requesting preventive relief, including an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or group of persons responsible for the pattern or practice of misuse. The foregoing remedies shall be independent of any other remedies or procedures that may be available to an aggrieved party under other provisions of law, including Part 2 (commencing with Section 43) of Division 1 of the Civil Code.

(m) The public notification provisions of this section are applicable to every person described in this section, without regard to when his or her crimes were committed or his or her duty to register pursuant to Section 290 arose, and to every offense described in this section, regardless of when it was committed.

(n) On or before July 1, 2006, and every year thereafter, the Department of Justice shall make a report to the Legislature concerning the operation of this section.

(o) A designated law enforcement entity and its employees shall be immune from liability for good faith conduct under this section.

SEC. 8. Section 290.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.5. (a) (1) A person required to register under Section 290 for an offense not listed in paragraph (2), upon obtaining a certificate of rehabilitation under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3, shall be relieved of any further duty to register under Section 290 if he or she is not in custody, on parole, or on probation.

(2) A person required to register under Section 290, upon obtaining a certificate of rehabilitation under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3, shall not be relieved of the duty to register under Section 290, or of the duty to register under Section 290 for any offense subject to that section of which he or she is convicted in the future, if his or her conviction is for one of the following offenses:

(S) Section 647.6.

(V) Any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses specified in this paragraph.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), a person described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall not be relieved of the duty to register until that person has obtained a full pardon as provided in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4800) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4850) of Title 6 of Part 3.

(2) This subdivision does not apply to misdemeanor violations of Section 647.6.

(3) The court, upon granting a petition for a certificate of rehabilitation pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3, if the petition was granted prior to January 1, 1998, may relieve a person of the duty to register under Section 290 for a violation of Section 288 or 288.5, provided that the person was granted probation pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1203.066, has complied with the provisions of Section 290 for a continuous period of at least 10 years immediately preceding the filing of the petition, and has not been convicted of a felony during that period.

SEC. 9. Section 290.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.6. (a) Fifteen days before the scheduled release date of a person described in subdivision (b), the Department of Corrections shall provide to local law enforcement all of the following information regarding the person:

(1) Name.

(2) Community residence and address, including ZIP Code.

(3) Physical description.

(b) This subdivision shall apply to any person sentenced to the state prison who is required to register pursuant to Section 290 for a conviction of an offense specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 290.46 and to any person described in those subdivisions.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "law enforcement" includes any agency with which the person will be required to register upon his or her release pursuant to Section 290 based upon the person's community of residence upon release.

(d) If it is not possible for the Department of Corrections to provide the information specified in subdivision (a) on a date that is 15 days before the scheduled release date, the information shall be provided on the next business day following that date.

(e) The Department of Corrections shall notify local law enforcement within 36 hours of learning of the change if the scheduled release date or any of the required information changes prior to the scheduled release date.

SEC. 10. Section 666.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

666.7. It is the intent of the Legislature that this section serve merely as a nonsubstantive comparative reference of current sentence enhancement provisions. Nothing in this section shall have any substantive effect on the application of any sentence enhancement contained in any provision of law, including, but not limited to, all of the following: omission of any sentence enhancement provision, inclusion of any obsolete sentence enhancement provision, or inaccurate reference or summary of a sentence enhancement provision.

It is the intent of the Legislature to amend this section as necessary to accurately reflect current sentence enhancement provisions, including the addition of new provisions and the deletion of obsolete provisions.

For the purposes of this section, the term "sentence enhancement" means an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison added to the base term for the underlying offense. A sentence enhancement is imposed because of the nature of the offense at the time the offense was committed or because the defendant suffered a qualifying prior conviction before committing the current offense.

(a) The provisions listed in this subdivision imposing a sentence enhancement of one year imprisonment in the state prison may be referenced as Schedule A.

SEC. 11. Section 1170.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.11. As used in Section 1170.1, the term "specific enhancement" means an enhancement that relates to the circumstances of the crime. It includes, but is not limited to, the enhancements provided in Sections 186.10, 186.11, 186.22, 186.26, 186.33, 273.4, 289.5, 290.4, 290.45, 290.46, 347, and 368, subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 422.75, paragraphs (2), (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 451.1, paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 452.1, subdivision (g) of Section 550, Sections 593a, 600, 667.8, 667.85, 667.9, 667.10, 667.15, 667.16, 667.17, 674, 675, 12021.5, 12022, 12022.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.53, 12022.55, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.75, 12022.8, 12022.85, 12022.9, 12022.95, 12072, and 12280 of this code, and in Sections 1522.01 and 11353.1, subdivision (b) of Section 11353.4, Sections 11353.6, 11356.5, 11370.4, 11379.7, 11379.8, 11379.9, 11380.1, 25189.5, and 25189.7 of the Health and Safety Code, and in Sections 20001 and 23558 of the Vehicle Code, and in Sections 10980 and 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 12. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) The findings and declarations made by the Legislature in Section 1 of Chapter 908 of the Statutes of 1996, which enacted California's law relating to public notification regarding registered sex offenders, also apply to public notification made via the Internet Web site mandated by this section.

(b) Releasing the home addresses and other information pertaining to specified registered sex offenders is not intended to further punish them for their offenses, but to allow the public to be aware of their presence in the community and take appropriate and lawful safety precautions on behalf of themselves and their children.

(c) The notice concerning sex offender information required by Section 2079.10a of the Civil Code is not expected to change immediately upon the effective date of this act or immediately upon the notification to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 290.47 of the Penal Code, as added by this act. It is expected that forms accompanying real estate transactions may reflect the notice in the prior law for a reasonable period following those dates.

SEC. 13. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 439. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 439, in which case Section 290 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 3 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 439, at which time Section 3.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 14. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to assure that members of the public have adequate information about the identities and locations of sex offenders who may put them and their families at risk, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 723

An act to amend Sections 10123.13, 10123.147, 12921.1, and 12921.3 of, and to add Sections 10123.137, 10133.66, and 10133.67 to, the Insurance Code, relating to health care coverage.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(1) Health care services must be available to Californians without unnecessary administrative procedures, interruptions, or delays.

(2) As of May 2002, the Department of Insurance estimated that it regulated insurers covering 28.79 percent of the total accident and health care market and that, with respect to those commercial products that are comparable between the Department of Insurance and the Department of Managed Health Care regulated products, the Department of Insurance regulated 16.8 percent of the comprehensive commercial health insurance provided to Californians.

(3) With two separate departments responsible for regulating entities that provide health care coverage, patients and their health care providers are often confused about the identity of the appropriate regulator.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to reduce confusion about the identity of the appropriate regulator, to provide all patients who have health care coverage and their health care providers with an easy and effective mechanism within the Department of Insurance to effectively resolve complaints as already intended for health care providers through the Department of Managed Health Care, and to assure the public that the law is properly implemented.

SEC. 2. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Patient and Provider Protection Act.

SEC. 3. Section 10123.13 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10123.13. (a) Every insurer issuing group or individual policies of health insurance that covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, including those telemedicine services covered by the insurer as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 2290.5 of the Business and Professions Code, shall reimburse claims or any portion of any claim, whether in state or out of state, for those expenses as soon as practical, but no later than 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the insurer unless the claim or portion thereof is contested by the insurer, in which case the claimant shall be notified, in writing, that the claim is contested or denied, within 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the insurer. The notice that a claim is being contested or denied shall identify the portion of the claim that is contested or denied and the specific reasons including for each reason the factual and legal basis known at that time by the insurer for contesting or denying the claim. If the reason is based solely on facts or solely on law, the insurer is required to provide only the factual or the legal basis for its reason for contesting or denying the claim. The insurer shall provide a copy of the notice to each insured who received services pursuant to the claim that was contested or denied and to the insured's health care provider that provided the services at issue. The notice shall advise the provider who submitted the claim on behalf of the insured or pursuant to a contract for alternative rates of payment and the insured that either may seek review by the department of a claim that the insurer contested or denied, and the notice shall include the address, Internet Web site address, and telephone number of the unit within the department that performs this review function. The notice to the provider may be included on either the explanation of benefits or remittance advice and shall also contain a statement advising the provider of its right to enter into the dispute resolution process described in Section 10123.137. The notice to the insured may also be included on the explanation of benefits.

(b) If an uncontested claim is not reimbursed by delivery to the claimant's address of record within 30 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue and shall be payable at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30-working day period.

(c) For purposes of this section, a claim, or portion thereof, is reasonably contested when the insurer has not received a completed claim and all information necessary to determine payer liability for the claim, or has not been granted reasonable access to information concerning provider services. Information necessary to determine liability for the claims includes, but is not limited to, reports of investigations concerning fraud and misrepresentation, and necessary consents, releases, and assignments, a claim on appeal, or other information necessary for the insurer to determine the medical necessity for the health care services provided to the claimant. If an insurer has received all of the information necessary to determine payer liability for a contested claim and has not reimbursed a claim determined to be payable within 30 working days of receipt of that information, interest shall accrue and be payable at a rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30-working day period.

(d) The obligation of the insurer to comply with this section shall not be deemed to be waived when the insurer requires its contracting entities to pay claims for covered services.

SEC. 4. Section 10123.137 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10123.137. (a) Each contract between a health insurer and a provider shall contain provisions requiring a fast, fair, and cost-effective dispute resolution mechanism under which providers may submit disputes to the insurer, and requiring the insurer to inform its providers, upon contracting with the insurer, or upon change to these provisions, of the procedures for processing and resolving disputes, including the location and telephone number where information regarding disputes may be submitted.

(b) An insurer shall also ensure that a dispute resolution mechanism is accessible to noncontracting providers for the purpose of resolving billing and claims disputes.

(c) Disputes are to be submitted to the insurer in writing and shall include provider name, provider tax identification number, patient name, insurer's identification information, dates of service, description of dispute, and, if applicable, billed and paid amounts. The insurer shall resolve each provider dispute consistent with applicable law and issue a written determination within 45 working days after the date of receipt of the provider dispute.

(d) On and after July 1, 2007, an insurer shall annually submit a report to the department regarding its dispute resolution mechanism. The report shall be public information and include, at a minimum, information on the number of providers that utilized the dispute resolution mechanism and a summary of the disposition of those disputes. To the extent the commissioner requires detailed information disclosing emerging or established patterns of provider disputes or corrective action by the insurer, the commissioner may maintain the confidentiality of any information found to be proprietary, upon written request of the insurer. In no event shall the commissioner find the required minimum information described in this subdivision to be proprietary.

(e) If an insurer has an affiliated or subsidiary company that is licensed as a health care service plan under Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, the insurer may use the same procedures relating to the provider dispute resolution process established by the affiliated or subsidiary entity pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1367 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 5. Section 10123.147 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10123.147. (a) Every insurer issuing group or individual policies of health insurance that covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, including those telemedicine services covered by the insurer as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 2290.5 of the Business and Professions Code, shall reimburse each complete claim, or portion thereof, whether in state or out of state, as soon as practical, but no later than 30 working days after receipt of the complete claim by the insurer. However, an insurer may contest or deny a claim, or portion thereof, by notifying the claimant, in writing, that the claim is contested or denied, within 30 working days after receipt of the complete claim by the insurer. The notice that a claim, or portion thereof, is contested shall identify the portion of the claim that is contested, by revenue code, and the specific information needed from the provider to reconsider the claim. The notice that a claim, or portion thereof, is denied shall identify the portion of the claim that is denied, by revenue code, and the specific reasons for the denial, including the factual and legal basis known at that time by the insurer for each reason. If the reason is based solely on facts or solely on law, the insurer is required to provide only the factual or legal basis for its reason to deny the claim. The insurer shall provide a copy of the notice required by this subdivision to each insured who received services pursuant to the claim that was contested or denied and to the insured's health care provider that provided the services at issue. The notice required by this subdivision shall include a statement advising the provider who submitted the claim on behalf of the insured or pursuant to a contract for alternative rates of payment and the insured that either may seek review by the department of a claim that was contested or denied by the insurer and the address, Internet Web site address, and telephone number of the unit within the department that performs this review function. The notice to the provider may be included on either the explanation of benefits or remittance advice and shall also contain a statement advising the provider of its right to enter into the dispute resolution process described in Section 10123.137. An insurer may delay payment of an uncontested portion of a complete claim for reconsideration of a contested portion of that claim so long as the insurer pays those charges specified in subdivision (b).

(b) If a complete claim, or portion thereof, that is neither contested nor denied, is not reimbursed by delivery to the claimant's address of record within the 30 working days after receipt, the insurer shall pay the greater of fifteen dollars ($15) per year or interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30-working-day period. An insurer shall automatically include the fifteen dollars ($15) per year or interest due in the payment made to the claimant, without requiring a request therefor.

(c) For the purposes of this section, a claim, or portion thereof, is reasonably contested if the insurer has not received the completed claim. A paper claim from an institutional provider shall be deemed complete upon submission of a legible emergency department report and a completed UB 92 or other format adopted by the National Uniform Billing Committee, and reasonable relevant information requested by the insurer within 30 working days of receipt of the claim. An electronic claim from an institutional provider shall be deemed complete upon submission of an electronic equivalent to the UB 92 or other format adopted by the National Uniform Billing Committee, and reasonable relevant information requested by the insurer within 30 working days of receipt of the claim. However, if the insurer requests a copy of the emergency department report within the 30 working days after receipt of the electronic claim from the institutional provider, the insurer may also request additional reasonable relevant information within 30 working days of receipt of the emergency department report, at which time the claim shall be deemed complete. A claim from a professional provider shall be deemed complete upon submission of a completed HCFA 1500 or its electronic equivalent or other format adopted by the National Uniform Billing Committee, and reasonable relevant information requested by the insurer within 30 working days of receipt of the claim. The provider shall provide the insurer reasonable relevant information within 15 working days of receipt of a written request that is clear and specific regarding the information sought. If, as a result of reviewing the reasonable relevant information, the insurer requires further information, the insurer shall have an additional 15 working days after receipt of the reasonable relevant information to request the further information, notwithstanding any time limit to the contrary in this section, at which time the claim shall be deemed complete.

(d) This section shall not apply to claims about which there is evidence of fraud and misrepresentation, to eligibility determinations, or in instances where the plan has not been granted reasonable access to information under the provider's control. An insurer shall specify, in a written notice to the provider within 30 working days of receipt of the claim, which, if any, of these exceptions applies to a claim.

(e) If a claim or portion thereof is contested on the basis that the insurer has not received information reasonably necessary to determine payer liability for the claim or portion thereof, then the insurer shall have 30 working days after receipt of this additional information to complete reconsideration of the claim. If a claim, or portion thereof, undergoing reconsideration is not reimbursed by delivery to the claimant's address of record within the 30 working days after receipt of the additional information, the insurer shall pay the greater of fifteen dollars ($15) per year or interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30-working-day period. An insurer shall automatically include the fifteen dollars ($15) per year or interest due in the payment made to the claimant, without requiring a request therefor.

(f) An insurer shall not delay payment on a claim from a physician or other provider to await the submission of a claim from a hospital or other provider, without citing specific rationale as to why the delay was necessary and providing a monthly update regarding the status of the claim and the insurer's actions to resolve the claim, to the provider that submitted the claim.

(g) An insurer shall not request or require that a provider waive its rights pursuant to this section.

(h) This section shall apply only to claims for services rendered to a patient who was provided emergency services and care as defined in Section 1317.1 of the Health and Safety Code in the United States on or after September 1, 1999.

(i) This section shall not be construed to affect the rights or obligations of any person pursuant to Section 10123.13.

(j) This section shall not be construed to affect a written agreement, if any, of a provider to submit bills within a specified time period.

SEC. 6. Section 10133.66 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10133.66. On or before July 1, 2006, the commissioner, pursuant to his or her authority under Section 12921.1, shall also complete all of the following duties:

(a) Provide announcements that inform health insurance consumers and their health care providers of the department's toll-free telephone number that is dedicated to the handling of complaints and of the availability of the Internet Web page established under this section, and the process to register a complaint with the department and to submit an inquiry to it.

(b) Establish an Internet Web page located on the department's public Internet Web site dedicated exclusively to processing complaints and inquiries relating to health insurance issues from insureds and their health care providers. The Web page shall provide insureds and their health care providers with information concerning filing a complaint and making an inquiry concerning a health insurer and, at a minimum, shall provide the following information:

- (1) The department's toll-free telephone number.
- (2) A list of all health insurers licensed by the department.
- (3) Educational and informational guides for health insurance consumers and health care providers describing their rights under this code. The guides shall be easy to read and understand and shall be made available to the public, including access on the department's Internet Web site.

(c) An insured or health care provider may file a written complaint with the department with respect to the handling of a claim or other obligation under a health insurance policy by a health insurer or production agency, or with respect to the alleged misconduct by a health insurer or production agency. The commissioner shall notify the complainant of the receipt of the complaint within 10 business days of its receipt. The commissioner shall make a determination on the complaint within 60 calendar days of the date of its receipt, unless the commissioner, in his or her discretion, determines that additional time is reasonably necessary to fully and fairly evaluate the complaint. The commissioner shall notify the complainant of the final action taken on his or her complaint within 30 days of the final action. The notification shall include a summary explaining the commissioner's reasons for the final action.

SEC. 7. Section 10133.67 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10133.67. Pursuant to Section 12921, the commissioner may also agree to payment to a health care provider who submitted a claim for health care benefits provided to an insured that are covered under the insured's health insurance policy.

SEC. 8. Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.1. (a) The commissioner shall establish a program on or before July 1, 1991, to investigate complaints and respond to inquiries received pursuant to Section 12921.3, to comply with Section 12921.4, and, when warranted, to bring enforcement actions against insurers. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A toll-free telephone number published in telephone books throughout the state, dedicated to the handling of complaints and inquiries.

(2) Public service announcements to inform consumers of the toll-free telephone number and how to register a complaint or make an inquiry to the department.

(3) A simple, standardized complaint form designed to assure that complaints will be properly registered and tracked.

(4) Retention of records on complaints for at least three years after the complaint has been closed.

(5) Guidelines to disseminate complaint and enforcement information on individual insurers to the public, that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(B) Number and type of complaints closed within the last full calendar year, with analogous statistics from the prior two years for comparison. The proportion of those complaints determined by the department to require that corrective action be taken against the insurer, or leading to insurer compromise, or other remedy for the complainant, as compared to those that are found to be without merit. This information shall be disseminated in a fashion that will facilitate identification of meritless complaints and discourage their consideration by consumers and others interested in the records of insurers.

(C) Number and type of violations found, by reference to the line of insurance and the law violated. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the department shall separately report this information for health insurers.

(E) Ratio of complaints received to total policies in force, or premium dollars paid in a given line, or both. Private passenger automobile insurance ratios shall be calculated as the number of complaints received to total car years earned in the period studied.

(F) Any other information the department deems is appropriate public information regarding the complaint record of the insurer that will assist the public in selecting an insurer. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to permit disclosure of information or documents in the possession of the department to the extent that the information and those documents are protected from disclosure under any other provision of law.

(6) Procedures and average processing times for each step of complaint mediation, investigation, and enforcement. These procedures shall be consistent with those in Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, consistent with those in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1858) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, and consistent with any other provisions of law requiring certain procedures to be followed by the department in investigating or prosecuting complaints against insurers.

(7) A list of criteria to determine which violations should be pursued through enforcement action, and enforcement guidelines that set forth appropriate penalties for violations based on the nature, severity, and frequency of the violations.

(8) Referral of complaints not within the department's jurisdiction to appropriate public and private agencies.

(9) Complaint handling goals that can be tested against surveys carried out pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12921.4.

(10) Inclusion in its annual report to the Governor, required by Section 12922, detailed information regarding the program required by this section, that shall include, but not be limited to: a description of the operation of the complaint handling process, listing civil, criminal, and administrative actions taken pursuant to complaints received; the percentage of the department's personnel years devoted to the handling and resolution of complaints; and suggestions for legislation to improve the complaint handling apparatus and to increase the amount of enforcement action undertaken by the department pursuant to complaints if further enforcement is deemed necessary to ensure proper compliance by insurers with the law.

(b) The commissioner shall promulgate a regulation that sets forth the criteria that the department shall apply to determine if a complaint is deemed to be justified prior to the public release of a complaint against a specifically named insurer.

(c) The commissioner shall provide to the insurer a description of any complaint against the insurer that the commissioner has received and has deemed to be justified at least 30 days prior to public release of a report summarizing the information required by this section. This description shall include all of the following:

- (1) The name of the complainant.
- (2) The date the complaint was filed.
- (3) A succinct description of the facts of the complaint.
- (4) A statement of the department's rationale for determining that the complaint was justified that applies the department's criteria to the facts of the complaint.

(d) An insurer shall provide to the department the name, mailing address, telephone number, and facsimile number of a person whom the insurer designates as the recipient of all notices, correspondence, and other contacts from the department concerning complaints described in this section. The insurer may change the designation at any time by providing written notice to the Consumer Services Division of the department.

(e) For the purposes of this section, notices, correspondence, and other contacts with the designated person shall be deemed contact with the insurer.

SEC. 8.5. Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.1. (a) The commissioner shall establish a program on or before July 1, 1991, to investigate complaints and respond to inquiries received pursuant to Section 12921.3, to comply with Section 12921.4, and, when warranted, to bring enforcement actions against insurers or production agencies, as those terms are defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1748.5. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A toll-free telephone number published in telephone books throughout the state, dedicated to the handling of complaints and inquiries.

(2) Public service announcements to inform consumers of the toll-free telephone number and how to register a complaint or make an inquiry to the department.

(3) A simple, standardized complaint form designed to assure that complaints will be properly registered and tracked.

(4) Retention of records on complaints for at least three years after the complaint has been closed.

(5) Guidelines to disseminate complaint and enforcement information on individual insurers to the public, that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(B) Number and type of complaints closed within the last full calendar year, with analogous statistics from the prior two years for comparison. The proportion of those complaints determined by the department to require that corrective action be taken against the insurer, or leading to insurer compromise, or other remedy for the complainant, as compared to those that are found to be without merit. This information shall be disseminated in a fashion that will facilitate identification of meritless complaints and discourage their consideration by consumers and others interested in the records of insurers.

(C) Number and type of violations found, by reference to the line of insurance and the law violated. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the department shall separately report this information for health insurers.

(E) Ratio of complaints received to total policies in force, or premium dollars paid in a given line, or both. Private passenger automobile insurance ratios shall be calculated as the number of complaints received to total car years earned in the period studied.

(F) Any other information the department deems is appropriate public information regarding the complaint record of the insurer that will assist the public in selecting an insurer. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to permit disclosure of information or documents in the possession of the department to the extent that the information and those documents are protected from disclosure under any other provision of law.

(6) Procedures and average processing times for each step of complaint mediation, investigation, and enforcement. These procedures shall be consistent with those in Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, consistent with those in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1858) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, and consistent with any other provisions of law requiring certain procedures to be followed by the department in investigating or prosecuting complaints against insurers or production agencies.

(7) A list of criteria to determine which violations should be pursued through enforcement action, and enforcement guidelines that set forth appropriate penalties for violations based on the nature, severity, and frequency of the violations.

(8) Referral of complaints not within the department's jurisdiction to appropriate public and private agencies.

(9) Complaint handling goals that can be tested against surveys carried out pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12921.4.

(10) Inclusion in its annual report to the Governor, required by Section 12922, detailed information regarding the program required by this section, that shall include, but not be limited to: a description of the operation of the complaint handling process, listing civil, criminal, and administrative actions taken pursuant to complaints received; the percentage of the department's personnel years devoted to the handling and resolution of complaints; and suggestions for legislation to improve the complaint handling apparatus and to increase the amount of enforcement action undertaken by the department pursuant to complaints if further enforcement is deemed necessary to ensure proper compliance by insurers or production agencies with the law.

(b) The commissioner shall promulgate a regulation that sets forth the criteria that the department shall apply to determine if a complaint is deemed to be justified prior to the public release of a complaint against a specifically named insurer or production agency.

(c) The commissioner shall provide to the insurer or production agency a description of any complaint against the insurer or production agency that the commissioner has received and has deemed to be justified at least 30 days prior to public release of a report summarizing the information required by this section. This description shall include all of the following:

- (1) The name of the complainant.
- (2) The date the complaint was filed.
- (3) A succinct description of the facts of the complaint.
- (4) A statement of the department's rationale for determining that the complaint was justified that applies the department's criteria to the facts of the complaint.

(d) An insurer shall provide to the department the name, mailing address, telephone number, and facsimile number of a person whom the insurer designates as the recipient of all notices, correspondence, and other contacts from the department concerning complaints described in this section. The insurer may change the designation at any time by providing written notice to the Consumer Services Division of the department.

(e) For the purposes of this section, notices, correspondence, and other contacts with the designated person shall be deemed contact with the insurer.

SEC. 9. Section 12921.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.3. (a) The commissioner, in person or through employees of the department, shall receive complaints and inquiries, investigate complaints, prosecute insurers when appropriate and according to guidelines determined pursuant to Section 12921.1, and respond to complaints and inquiries by members of the public concerning the handling of insurance claims, including, but not limited to, violations of Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1, by insurers, or alleged misconduct by insurers or production agencies.

(b) The commissioner shall not decline to investigate complaints for any of the following reasons:

(1) The insured is represented by an attorney in a dispute with an insurer, or is in mediation or arbitration.

(2) The insured has a civil action against an insurer.

(3) The complaint is from an attorney, if the complaint is based upon evidence or reasonable beliefs about violations of law known to an attorney because of a civil action.

(c) The commissioner may defer the investigation until the finality of a dispute, mediation, arbitration, or civil action involving the claim is known.

(d) The commissioner, as he or she deems appropriate, and pursuant to Section 12921.1, shall provide for the education of, and dissemination of information to, members of the general public or licensees of the department concerning insurance matters.

SEC. 9.5. Section 12921.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.3. (a) The commissioner, in person or through employees of the department, shall receive complaints and inquiries, investigate complaints, prosecute insurers or production agencies when appropriate and according to guidelines determined pursuant to Section 12921.1, and respond to complaints and inquiries by members of the public concerning the handling of insurance claims, including, but not limited to, violations of Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1, by insurers or production agencies, or alleged misconduct by insurers or production agencies.

(b) The commissioner shall not decline to investigate complaints for any of the following reasons:

(1) The insured is represented by an attorney in a dispute with an insurer, or is in mediation or arbitration.

(2) The insured has a civil action against an insurer.

(3) The complaint is from an attorney, if the complaint is based upon evidence or reasonable beliefs about violations of law known to an attorney because of a civil action.

(c) The commissioner may defer the investigation until the finality of a dispute, mediation, arbitration, or civil action involving the claim is known.

(d) The commissioner, as he or she deems appropriate, and pursuant to Section 12921.1, shall provide for the education of, and dissemination of information to, members of the general public or licensees of the department concerning insurance matters.

SEC. 10. Section 8.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 729. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 729, in which case Section 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11. Section 9.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12921.3 of the Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 729. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 12921.3 of the Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 729, in which case Section 9 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 724

An act to amend Section 15627 of, and to add Section 19253 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15627 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

15627. (a) If in the election which is to be recounted the votes were recorded by means of a punchcard voting system or by electronic or electromechanical vote tabulating devices, the voter who files the declaration requesting the recount may select whether the recount shall be conducted manually, or by means of the voting system used originally, or both.

(b) For purposes of direct recording electronic voting systems, “conducted manually” means that either the paper record copies or the voter verified paper audit trail of the electronically recorded vote are counted manually, as selected by the voter who requests the recount.

SEC. 2. Section 19253 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

19253. (a) On a direct recording electronic voting system, the electronic record of each vote shall be considered the official record of the vote, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The voter verified paper audit trail shall be considered the official paper audit record and shall be used for the required 1-percent manual tally described in Section 15360 and any full recount.

(2) The voter verified paper audit trail shall govern if there is any difference between it and the electronic record during a 1-percent manual tally or full recount.

SEC. 3. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 725

An act to add and repeal Article 15.2 (commencing with Section 8335) to Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code, relating to child care, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 15.2 (commencing with Section 8335) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 15.2. Child Care Subsidy Plan for the City and County of San Francisco

8335. The City and County of San Francisco may, as a pilot project, develop and implement an individualized county child care subsidy plan. The plan shall ensure that child care subsidies received by the city and county are used to address local needs, conditions, and priorities of working families in the community.

8335.1. Prior to implementing the local subsidy plan, the City and County of San Francisco, in consultation with the department, shall develop an individualized county child care subsidy plan for the city and county that includes the following four elements:

(a) An assessment to identify the city and county's goal for its subsidized child care system. The assessment shall examine whether the current structure of subsidized child care funding adequately supports working families in the city and county and whether the city and county's child care goals coincide with the state's requirements for funding, eligibility, priority, and reimbursement. The assessment shall also identify barriers in the state's child care subsidy system that inhibit the city and county from meeting its child care goals. In conducting the assessment, the city and county shall consider all of the following:

(1) The general demographics of families who are in need of child care, including employment, income, language, ethnic, and family composition.

(2) The current supply of available subsidized child care.

(3) The level of need for various types of subsidized child care services including, but not limited to, infant care, after-hours care, and care for children with exceptional needs.

(4) The city and county's self-sufficiency income level.

(5) Income eligibility levels for subsidized child care.

(6) Family fees.

(7) The cost of providing child care.

(8) The regional market rates, as established by the department, for different types of child care.

(9) The standard reimbursement rate or state per diem for centers operating under contracts with the department.

(10) Trends in the county's unemployment rate and housing affordability index.

(b) Development of a local policy to eliminate state-imposed regulatory barriers to the city and county's achievement of its desired outcomes for subsidized child care.

(1) The local policy shall do all of the following:

(A) Prioritize lowest income families first.

(B) Follow the family fee schedule established pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 8263 for those families that are income eligible, as defined by Section 8263.1.

(C) Meet local goals that are consistent with the state's child care goals.

(D) Identify existing policies that would be affected by the city and county's child care subsidy plan.

(E) (i) Authorize any agency that provides child care and development services in the city and county through a contract with the department to apply to the department to amend existing contracts in order to benefit from the local policy once it is adopted.

(ii) The department shall approve an application to amend an existing contract if the child care subsidy plan is approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8335.3, or modified pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8335.3.

(iii) The contract of a department contractor who does not elect to request an amendment to its contract remains operative and enforceable.

(2) (A) The city and county shall, by the end of the first fiscal year of operation under the approved child care subsidy plan, demonstrate an increase in the aggregate child days of enrollment in the county as compared to the enrollment in the final quarter of the 2004-05 fiscal year.

(B) The amount of the increase shall be at least equal to the aggregate child days of enrollment in the final quarter of the 2004-05 fiscal year for all contracts amended as provided in subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1), under which the contractor receives an increase in its reimbursement rate, times 2 percent.

(3) The local policy may supersede state law concerning child care subsidy programs with regard only to the following factors:

(A) Eligibility criteria including, but not limited to, age, family size, time limits, income level, inclusion of former and current CalWORKs participants, and special needs considerations, except that the local policy may not deny or reduce eligibility of a family that qualifies for child care pursuant to Section 8353. Under the local policy, a family that qualifies for child care pursuant to Section 8354 shall be treated for purposes of eligibility and fees in the same manner as a family that qualifies for subsidized child care on another basis pursuant to the local policy.

(B) Fees including, but not limited to, family fees, sliding scale fees, and copayments for those families that are not income eligible, as defined by Section 8263.1.

(C) Reimbursement rates.

(D) Methods of maximizing the efficient use of subsidy funds, including, but not limited to, multiyear contracting with the department for center-based child care, and interagency agreements that allow for flexible and temporary transfer of funds among agencies.

(c) Recognition that all funding sources utilized by direct service contractors that provide child care and development services in the city and county are eligible to be included in the child care subsidy plan of the city and county.

(d) Establishment of measurable outcomes to evaluate the success of the plan to achieve the city and county's child care goals and to overcome any barriers identified in the state's child care subsidy system. The State Department of Social Services shall have an opportunity to review and comment on the proposed measurable outcomes before they are submitted to the local child care planning council for approval pursuant to Section 8335.3.

8335.2. To ensure that the annual and final reports required pursuant to Section 8335.4 provide useful comparative information, the Legislative Analyst and the Senate Office of Research shall review the evaluation design, the baseline data, and the data collection proposed in the child care subsidy plan of the City and County of San Francisco before the plan is submitted to the local planning council as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 8499, for approval pursuant to Section 8335.3.

8335.3. (a) The plan shall be submitted to the local planning council as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 8499, for approval. Upon approval of the plan by the local planning council, the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco shall hold at least one public hearing on the plan. Following the hearing, if the board of supervisors votes in favor of the plan, the plan shall be submitted to the Child Development Division of the department for review.

(b) Within 30 days of receiving the plan, the Child Development Division shall review and either approve or disapprove the plan.

(c) Within 30 days of receiving any modification to the plan, the Child Development Division shall review and either approve or disapprove that modification to the plan.

(d) The Child Development Division may disapprove only those portions of the plan or modifications to the plan that are not in conformance with this article or that are in conflict with federal law.

8335.4. (a) Upon approval of the plan by the Child Development Division of the department, the City and County of San Francisco shall annually prepare and submit to the Legislature, the State Department of Social Services, and the department a report that summarizes the success of the pilot project and the city and county's ability to maximize the use of funds and to improve and stabilize child care in the city and county.

(b) On or before December 31, 2010, the City and County of San Francisco shall submit a final report to the Legislature, the State Department of Social Services, and the department summarizing the impact of the plan on the child care needs of working families in the city and county.

8335.5. The City and County of San Francisco may implement its individualized child care subsidy plan until January 1, 2011, at which date the city and county shall terminate the plan. Between January 1, 2011, and January 1, 2013, the city and county shall phase out the individualized county child care subsidy plan and, as of January 1, 2013, shall implement the state's requirements for child care subsidies. A child enrolling for the first time for subsidized child care in the city and county after January 1, 2011, may not be enrolled in the pilot program established pursuant to this article and is subject to existing state laws and regulations regarding child care eligibility and priority.

8335.6. A participating contractor shall receive any increase or decrease in funding that the contractor would have received if the contractor had not participated in the local subsidy plan established by this article.

8335.7. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2013, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2013, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the City and County of San Francisco, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution. Therefore, this act is necessarily applicable only to the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to maintain the integrity of the child care funding system in San Francisco, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 726

An act to amend Sections 2150, 2157, 2160, 2194, and 2202 of, and to add Sections 2157.1, 2157.2, 2188.1, 9607, 9608, 9609, and 9610 to, the Elections Code, and to amend Section 6254.4 of the Government Code, relating to voter information.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2150 of the Elections Code is amended to read:
2150. (a) The affidavit of registration shall show:

- (1) The facts necessary to establish the affiant as an elector.
- (2) The affiant's name at length, including his or her given name, and a middle name or initial, or if the initial of the given name is customarily used, then the initial and middle name. The affiant's given name may be preceded, at affiant's option, by the designation of Miss, Ms., Mrs., or Mr. A person shall not be denied the right to register because of his or her failure to mark a prefix to the given name and shall be so advised on the voter registration card. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the printing of prefixes on an affidavit of registration.
- (3) The affiant's place of residence, residence telephone number, if furnished, and e-mail address, if furnished. No person shall be denied the right to register because of his or her failure to furnish a telephone number or e-mail address, and shall be so advised on the voter registration card.
- (4) The affiant's mailing address, if different from the place of residence.
- (5) The affiant's date of birth to establish that he or she will be at least 18 years of age on or before the date of the next election.
- (6) The state or country of the affiant's birth.
- (7) (A) In the case of an applicant who has been issued a current and valid driver's license, the applicant's driver's license number.
(B) In the case of any other applicant, other than an applicant to whom subparagraph (C) applies, the last four digits of the applicant's social security number.
(C) If an applicant for voter registration has not been issued a current and valid driver's license or a social security number, the state shall assign the applicant a number which will serve to identify the applicant for voter registration purposes. To the extent that the state has a computerized list in effect under this subdivision and the list assigns unique identifying numbers to registrants, the number assigned under this subparagraph shall be the unique identifying number assigned under the list.
- (8) The affiant's political party affiliation.
- (9) That the affiant is currently not imprisoned or on parole for the conviction of a felony.

(10) A prior registration portion indicating whether the affiant has been registered at another address, under another name, or as intending to affiliate with another party. If the affiant has been so registered, he or she shall give an additional statement giving that address, name, or party.

(b) The affiant shall certify the content of the affidavit as to its truth and correctness, under penalty of perjury, with the signature of his or her name and the date of signing. If the affiant is unable to write he or she shall sign with a mark or cross.

(c) The affidavit of registration shall also contain a space that would enable the affiant to state his or her ethnicity or race, or both. An affiant may not be denied the ability to register because he or she declines to state his or her ethnicity or race.

(d) If any person, including a deputy registrar, assists the affiant in completing the affidavit, that person shall sign and date the affidavit below the signature of the affiant.

SEC. 2. Section 2157 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2157. (a) Subject to this chapter, the affidavit of registration shall be in a form prescribed by regulations adopted by the Secretary of State. The affidavit shall:

- (1) Contain the information prescribed in Section 2150.
- (2) Be sufficiently uniform among the separate counties to allow for the processing and use by one county of an affidavit completed in another county.
- (3) Allow for the inclusion of informational language to meet the specific needs of that county, including, but not limited to, the return address of the elections official in that county, and a telephone number at which a voter can obtain elections information in that county.
- (4) Be included on one portion of a multipart card, to be known as a voter registration card, the other portions of which shall include information sufficient to facilitate completion and mailing of the affidavit. The affidavit portion of the multipart card shall be numbered according to regulations adopted by the Secretary of State. For purposes of facilitating the distribution of voter registration cards as provided in Section 2158, there shall be attached to the affidavit portion a receipt. The receipt shall be separated from the body of the affidavit by a perforated line.
- (5) Contain, in a type size and color of ink that is clearly distinguishable from surrounding text, a statement identical or substantially similar to the following:

“Certain voters facing life-threatening situations may qualify for confidential voter status. For more information, please contact the Secretary of State's Safe At Home program or visit the Secretary of State's Web site at www.ss.ca.gov."

(6) Contain, in a type size and color of ink that is clearly distinguishable from surrounding text, a statement that the use of voter registration information for commercial purposes is a misdemeanor pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2194, and any suspected misuse shall be reported to the Secretary of State.

(7) Contain a toll-free fraud hotline telephone number maintained by the Secretary of State that the public may use to report suspected fraudulent activity concerning misuse of voter registration information.

(8) Be returnable to the county elections official as a self-enclosed mailer with postage prepaid by the Secretary of State.

(b) Nothing contained in this division shall prevent the use of voter registration cards and affidavits of registration in existence on the effective date of this section and produced pursuant to regulations of the Secretary of State, and all references to voter registration cards and affidavits in this division shall be applied to the existing voter registration cards and affidavits of registration.

(c) The Secretary of State may continue to supply existing affidavits of registration prior to printing new or revised forms that reflect the changes required pursuant to this section, Section 2150, or Section 2160.

SEC. 3. Section 2157.1 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

2157.1. It is the intent of the Legislature that a voter be fully informed of the permissible uses of personal information supplied by him or her for the purpose of completing a voter registration affidavit.

SEC. 4. Section 2157.2 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

2157.2. In order that a voter be fully informed of the permissible uses of personal information supplied by him or her for the purpose of completing a voter registration affidavit, local elections officials shall post on any local elections official Web site relating to voter information, and the Secretary of State shall print in the state ballot pamphlet and post on his or her Web site, a statement identical or substantially similar to the following:

"Information on your voter registration affidavit will be used by elections officials to send you official information on the voting process, such as the location of your polling place and the issues and candidates that will appear on the ballot. Commercial use of voter registration information is prohibited by law and is a misdemeanor. Voter information may be provided to a candidate for office, a ballot measure committee, or other person for election, scholarly, journalistic, political, or governmental purposes, as determined by the Secretary of State. Driver's license and social security numbers, or your signature as shown on your voter registration card, cannot be released for these purposes. If you have any questions about the use of voter information or wish to report suspected misuse of such information, please call the Secretary of State's Voter Protection and Assistance Hotline.

"Certain voters facing life-threatening situations may qualify for confidential voter status. For more information, please contact the Secretary of State's Safe At Home program or visit the Secretary of State's Web site at www.ss.ca.gov."

SEC. 5. Section 2160 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2160. (a) Each affidavit of registration issued to a deputy registrar of voters shall meet the requirements prescribed by Section 2157, except that the voter registration card shall be modified, pursuant to regulations adopted by the Secretary of State, to reflect the use of a deputy registrar of voters in lieu of mail delivery. A stub, separated from the body of the voter registration card by a perforated line, shall be attached to each affidavit. Upon the stub shall be printed the following:

- (1) The number of the affidavit.
- (2) Blank lines for the following information:
  - (A) The name of the voter.
  - (B) The residence of the voter.
  - (C) The political affiliation of the voter.
  - (D) The signature of the voter.
  - (E) The signature of the deputy taking the registration.
  - (F) The date.

At the time of registering the voter, the deputy shall fill in the blanks in the stub, and require the voter to sign the stub in the place provided. The deputy shall then detach the stub and the informational portion of the voter registration form from the affidavit and hand the stub and information to the voter.

(b) The Secretary of State may continue to supply existing affidavits of registration prior to printing new or revised forms that reflect the changes required pursuant to this section, Section 2150, or Section 2157.

SEC. 6. Section 2188.1 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

2188.1. The Secretary of State shall study the feasibility of inserting fictitious names of voters into the voter registration information database as a possible investigative and enforcement tool for determining inappropriate or unauthorized uses of voter registration information.

SEC. 7. Section 2194 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2194. (a) The voter registration card information identified in subdivision (a) of Section 6254.4 of the Government Code:

(1) Shall be confidential and shall not appear on any computer terminal, list, affidavit, duplicate affidavit, or other medium routinely available to the public at the county elections official's office.

(2) Shall not be used for any personal, private, or commercial purpose, including, but not limited to:

(A) The harassment of any voter or voter's household.

(B) The advertising, solicitation, sale, or marketing of products or services to any voter or voter's household.

(C) Reproduction in print, broadcast visual or audio, or display on the Internet or any computer terminal unless pursuant to paragraph (3).

(3) Shall be provided with respect to any voter, subject to the provisions of Section 2188, to any candidate for federal, state, or local office, to any committee for or against any initiative or referendum measure for which legal publication is made, and to any person for election, scholarly, journalistic, or political purposes, or for governmental purposes, as determined by the Secretary of State.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the California driver's license number, the California identification card number, the social security number, and any other unique identifier used by the State of California for purposes of voter identification shown on a voter registration card of a registered voter, or added to voter registration records to comply with the requirements of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 15301 et seq.), are confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person.

(c) (1) The home address or signature of any voter shall be released whenever the person's vote is challenged pursuant to Sections 15105 to 15108, inclusive, or Article 3 (commencing with Section 14240) of Chapter 3 of Division 14. The address or signature shall be released only to the challenger, to elections officials, and to other persons as necessary to make, defend against, or adjudicate the challenge.

(2) An elections official shall permit a person to view the signature of a voter for the purpose of determining whether the signature matches a signature on an affidavit of registration or a petition, but shall not permit a signature to be copied.

(d) A governmental entity, or officer or employee thereof, may not be held civilly liable as a result of disclosure of the information referred to in this section, unless by a showing of gross negligence or willfulness.

(e) For the purposes of this section, "voter's household" is defined as the voter's place of residence or mailing address or any persons who reside at the place of residence or use the mailing address as supplied on the affidavit of registration pursuant to paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2150.

SEC. 7.5. Section 2194 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2194. (a) The voter registration card information identified in subdivision (a) of Section 6254.4 of the Government Code:

(1) Shall be confidential and shall not appear on any computer terminal, list, affidavit, duplicate affidavit, or other medium routinely available to the public at the county elections official's office.

(2) Shall not be used for any personal, private, or commercial purpose, including, but not limited to:

(A) The harassment of any voter or voter's household.

(B) The advertising, solicitation, sale, or marketing of products or services to any voter or voter's household.

(C) Reproduction in print, broadcast visual or audio, or display on the Internet or any computer terminal unless pursuant to paragraph (3).

(3) Shall be provided with respect to any voter, subject to the provisions of Sections 2166.5, 2166.7, and 2188, to any candidate for federal, state, or local office, to any committee for or against any initiative or referendum measure for which legal publication is made, and to any person for election, scholarly, journalistic, or political purposes, or for governmental purposes, as determined by the Secretary of State.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the California driver's license number, the California identification card number, the social security number, and any other unique identifier used by the State of California for purposes of voter identification shown on a voter registration card of a registered voter, or added to voter registration records to comply with the requirements of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 15301 et seq.), are confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the signature of the voter shown on the voter registration card is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(c) (1) The home address or signature of any voter shall be released whenever the person's vote is challenged pursuant to Sections 15105 to 15108, inclusive, or Article 3 (commencing with Section 14240) of Chapter 3 of Division 14. The address or signature shall be released only to the challenger, to elections officials, and to other persons as necessary to make, defend against, or adjudicate the challenge.

(2) An elections official shall permit a person to view the signature of a voter for the purpose of determining whether the signature matches a signature on an affidavit of registration or a petition, but shall not permit a signature to be copied.

(d) A governmental entity, or officer or employee thereof, shall not be held civilly liable as a result of disclosure of the information referred to in this section, unless by a showing of gross negligence or willfulness.

(e) For the purposes of this section, “voter’s household” is defined as the voter’s place of residence or mailing address or any persons who reside at the place of residence or use the mailing address as supplied on the affidavit of registration pursuant to paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2150.

SEC. 8. Section 2202 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2202. (a) The county elections official shall preserve all uncanceled affidavits of registration in a secure manner that will protect the confidentiality of the voter information consistent with Section 2194.

The affidavits of registration shall constitute the register required to be kept by Article 5 (commencing with Section 2180) of Chapter 2.

(b) In lieu of maintaining uncanceled affidavits of registration, the county elections official may, following the first general election after the date of registration, microfilm, record on optical disc, or record on any other electronic medium that does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document, the uncanceled affidavits of registration. Any such use of an electronic medium to record uncanceled affidavits shall protect the security and confidentiality of the voter information. The county elections official may dispose of any uncanceled affidavits of registration transferred pursuant to this section. The disposal of any uncanceled affidavits shall be performed in a manner that does not compromise the security or confidentiality of the voter information contained therein. Any medium utilized by the county elections official shall meet the minimum standards, guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association of Information and Image Management. For purposes of this section, a duplicate copy of an affidavit of registration shall be deemed an original.

SEC. 9. Section 9607 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9607. The proponents of an initiative measure shall ensure that any person, company, or other organization that is paid, or who volunteers, to solicit signatures to qualify the proposed measure for the ballot shall receive instruction on the requirements and prohibitions imposed by state law with respect to circulation of the petition and signature gathering thereon, with an emphasis on the prohibition on the use of signatures on an initiative petition for a purpose other than qualification of the proposed measure for the ballot.

SEC. 10. Section 9608 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9608. (a) A proponent of an initiative measure shall execute and submit, along with the request for a title and summary for the proposed measure, a signed statement that reads as follows:

I, ____, acknowledge that it is a misdemeanor under state law (Section 18650 of the Elections Code) to knowingly or willfully allow the signatures on an initiative petition to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the proposed measure for the ballot. I certify that I will not knowingly or willfully allow the signatures for this initiative to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the measure for the ballot.

---

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20__

(b) The certification required by subdivision (a) shall be kept on file by the agency authorized to prepare the title and summary for the proposed initiative measure for not less than eight months after the certification of the results of the election for which the measure qualified, or if the measure, for any reason, is not submitted to the voters, eight months after the deadline for submission of the petition to the elections official.

(c) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any signatures on a state or local initiative petition.

SEC. 11. Section 9609 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9609. (a) Prior to allowing a person to circulate an initiative petition for signatures, the person, company official, or other organizational officer who is in charge of signature gathering shall execute and submit to the proponents a signed statement that reads as follows:

I, ____, acknowledge that it is a misdemeanor under state law (Section 18650 of the Elections Code) to knowingly or willfully allow the signatures on an initiative petition to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the proposed measure for the ballot. I certify that I will not knowingly or willfully allow the signatures for this initiative to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the measure for the ballot.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20__

(b) The certification required by subdivision (a) shall be kept on file by the proponents of the proposed initiative measure for not less than eight months after the certification of the results of the election for which the measure qualified, or if the measure, for any reason, is not submitted to the voters, eight months after the deadline for submission of the petition to the elections official.

(c) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any signatures on a state or local initiative petition.

SEC. 12. Section 9610 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9610. (a) Prior to soliciting signatures on an initiative petition, a circulator shall execute and submit to the person, company official, or other organizational officer who is in charge of signature gathering a signed statement that reads as follows:

I, ____, acknowledge that it is a misdemeanor under state law (Section 18650 of the Elections Code) to knowingly or willfully allow the signatures on an initiative petition to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the proposed measure for the ballot. I certify that I will not knowingly or willfully allow the signatures for this initiative to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the measure for the ballot.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20 ____

(b) The certification required by subdivision (a) shall be kept on file by the person, company official, or other organizational officer who is in charge of signature gathering for the proposed initiative measure for not less than eight months after the certification of the results of the election for which the measure qualified, or if the measure, for any reason, is not submitted to the voters, eight months after the deadline for submission of the petition to the elections official.

(c) This section shall not apply to unpaid circulators of state or local initiative petitions.

(d) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any signatures on a state or local initiative petition.

SEC. 13. Section 6254.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254.4. (a) The home address, telephone number, e-mail address, precinct number, or other number specified by the Secretary of State for voter registration purposes, and prior registration information shown on the voter registration card for all registered voters, are confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person, except pursuant to Section 2194 of the Elections Code.

(b) For purposes of this section, "home address" means street address only, and does not include an individual's city or post office address.

(c) The California driver's license number, the California identification card number, the social security number, and any other unique identifier used by the State of California for purposes of voter identification shown on a voter registration card of a registered voter, or added to the voter registration records to comply with the requirements of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 15301 et seq.), are confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person.

(d) The signature of the voter that is shown on the voter registration card is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person.

SEC. 14. Section 7.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2194 of the Elections Code proposed by both this bill and SB 506. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, (2) each bill amends Section 2194 of the Elections Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 506, in which case Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 15. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because, in that regard, this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 727

An act to amend Section 65589.7 of the Government Code, and to add Section 10631.1 to the Water Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65589.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65589.7. (a) The housing element adopted by the legislative body and any amendments made to that element shall be immediately delivered to all public agencies or private entities that provide water or sewer services for municipal and industrial uses, including residential, within the territory of the legislative body. Each public agency or private entity providing water or sewer services shall grant a priority for the provision of these services to proposed developments that include housing units affordable to lower income households.

(b) A public agency or private entity providing water or sewer services shall adopt written policies and procedures, not later than July 1, 2006, and at least once every five years thereafter, with specific objective standards for provision of services in conformance with this section. For private water and sewer companies regulated by the Public Utilities Commission, the commission shall adopt written policies and procedures for use by those companies in a manner consistent with this section. The policies and procedures shall take into account all of the following:

(1) Regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 350) of Division 1 of the Water Code, relating to water shortage emergencies.

(2) The availability of water supplies as determined by the public agency or private entity pursuant to an urban water management plan adopted pursuant to Part 2.6 (commencing with Section 10610) of Division 6 of the Water Code.

(3) Plans, documents, and information relied upon by the public agency or private entity that is not an "urban water supplier," as defined in Section 10617 of the Water Code, or that provides sewer service, that provide a reasonable basis for making service determinations.

(c) A public agency or private entity that provides water or sewer services shall not deny or condition the approval of an application for services to, or reduce the amount of services applied for by, a proposed development that includes housing units affordable to lower income households unless the public agency or private entity makes specific written findings that the denial, condition, or reduction is necessary due to the existence of one or more of the following:

(1) The public agency or private entity providing water service does not have "sufficient water supply," as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 66473.7, or is operating under a water shortage emergency as defined in Section 350 of the Water Code, or does not have sufficient water treatment or distribution capacity, to serve the needs of the proposed development, as demonstrated by a written engineering analysis and report.

(2) The public agency or private entity providing water service is subject to a compliance order issued by the State Department of Health Services that prohibits new water connections.

(3) The public agency or private entity providing sewer service does not have sufficient treatment or collection capacity, as demonstrated by a written engineering analysis and report on the condition of the treatment or collection works, to serve the needs of the proposed development.

(4) The public agency or private entity providing sewer service is under an order issued by a regional water quality control board that prohibits new sewer connections.

(5) The applicant has failed to agree to reasonable terms and conditions relating to the provision of service generally applicable to development projects seeking service from the public agency or private entity, including, but not limited to, the requirements of local, state, or federal laws and regulations or payment of a fee or charge imposed pursuant to Section 66013.

(d) The following definitions apply for purposes of this section:

(1) "Proposed developments that include housing units affordable to lower income households" means that dwelling units shall be sold or rented to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, at an affordable housing cost, as defined in Section 50052.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or an affordable rent, as defined in Section 50053 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) "Water or sewer services" means supplying service through a pipe or other constructed conveyance for a residential purpose, and does not include the sale of water for human consumption by a water supplier to another water supplier for resale. As used in this section, "water service" provided by a public agency or private entity applies only to water supplied from public water systems subject to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 116275) of Part 12 of Division 104 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) This section is intended to neither enlarge nor diminish the existing authority of a city, county, or city and county in adopting a housing element. Failure to deliver a housing element adopted by the legislative body or amendments made to that element, to a public agency or private entity providing water or sewer services shall neither invalidate any action or approval of a development project nor exempt a public agency or private entity from the obligations under this section. The special districts which provide water or sewer services related to development, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 56426, are included within this section.

(f) The Legislature finds and declares that this section shall be applicable to all cities and counties, including charter cities, because the Legislature finds that the lack of affordable housing is a matter of vital statewide importance.

SEC. 2. Section 10631.1 is added to the Water Code, to read:

10631.1. (a) The water use projections required by Section 10631 shall include projected water use for single-family and multifamily residential housing needed for lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as identified in the housing element of any city, county, or city and county in the service area of the supplier.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the identification of projected water use for single-family and multifamily residential housing for lower income households will assist a supplier in complying with the requirement under Section 65589.7 of the Government Code to grant a priority for the provision of service to housing units affordable to lower income households.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that Sections 65104 and 66014 of the Government Code provide local agencies with authority to levy fees sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because a local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code.

However, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 728

An act to amend Section 19605.51 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION. 1. Section 19605.51 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.51. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 19605, and Section 19605.1, any fair in San Joaquin, San Bernardino, Humboldt, or Fresno County may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture and the authorization of the board, subject to the conditions specified in Section 19605.3, operate a satellite wagering facility on leased premises within the boundaries of that fair, but may only operate one such facility.

CHAPTER 729

An act to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 111791) to Chapter 7 of Part 5 of Division 104 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to cosmetics.

[Approved by Governor October 7, 2005. Filed with
Secretary of State October 7, 2005.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Independent testing in the United States and the European Union has determined that some cosmetic products contain substances known or suspected to cause cancer and reproductive toxicity that can harm the mother, fetus, and nursing children.

(b) Neither the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) nor the State Department of Health Services (DHS) require premarket safety testing, review, or approval of cosmetic products. According to the FDA, the regulatory requirements governing the sale of cosmetics are not as stringent as those that apply to other FDA-regulated products.

(c) Under the federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. Sec. 301), cosmetics and their ingredients are not required to be approved before they are sold to the public and the FDA does not have the authority to require manufacturers to file health and safety data on cosmetic ingredients or to order a recall of a dangerous cosmetic product.

(d) Under the state Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, DHS has no authority to identify, review, or regulate ingredients in cosmetic products that may cause chronic health effects, such as cancer and reproductive toxicity.

(e) Cosmetic products are most heavily used by women of childbearing age, increasing the likelihood of exposing mothers, fetuses, and nursing children to substances that can cause cancer and reproductive toxicity.

(f) Beauty care workers, including cosmetologists and manicurists, are most exposed to the potentially harmful effects of carcinogens and reproductive toxins in cosmetics. Cosmetologists and manicurists are dominated by women and minorities, particularly from Southeast Asia. In California, an estimated 80 percent of nail salons are operated by Vietnamese women.

(g) Federal law exempts chemicals used as fragrances or flavoring from being identified as ingredients on the labels of cosmetic products. Laboratory analyses of cosmetic products sold in California have found products that contain substances known to or likely to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity and not identified as an ingredient on the product's label. The law also does not require any ingredient labeling on cosmetic products sold for commercial use, thereby denying any information on ingredients to beauty care workers.

(h) The Division of Environmental and Occupational Disease Control in DHS conducts investigations of toxic materials in the workplace and analyzes data on workplace exposures to toxic materials. The Division of Occupational Safety and Health in the Department of Industrial Relations enforces occupational safety and health standards adopted by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board.

(i) Alternatives to substances that cause cancer or reproductive toxicity are readily available for use in cosmetic products. A number of manufacturers, including both small domestic producers and large multinational corporations, have eliminated substances that cause cancer or reproductive toxicity from their products.

(j) Given the presence of substances in cosmetic products that cause cancer and reproductive toxicity, the heavy use of these products by women of childbearing age, the significant exposure to these products in occupational settings such as nail and beauty salons, the adverse impacts of these substances on human health, the inadequate information about the presence of these substances in products or the extent of their impacts, and the availability of alternatives to the use of these substances, it is in the interest of the people of the State of California to take steps to ensure that cosmetic products sold and used in the state can be used safely.

SEC. 2. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 111791) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 5 of Division 104 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 3.5. Chronic Health Effects of Cosmetics

111791. This article shall be known, and may be cited, as the California Safe Cosmetics Act of 2005.

111791.5. For purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Authoritative body" means any agency or formally organized program or group recognized pursuant to Section 12306 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations as being authoritative for the purpose of identifying chemicals that cause cancer or reproductive toxicity.

(b) “Chemical identified as causing cancer or reproductive toxicity” means a chemical identified pursuant to Section 25249.8 or identified by an authoritative body as any of the following:

(1) A substance listed as known or reasonably anticipated to be a human carcinogen in a National Toxicology Report on carcinogens.

(2) A substance given an overall carcinogenicity evaluation of Group 1, Group 2A, or Group 2B by the International Agency for Research on Cancer.

(3) A substance identified as a Group A, Group B1, or Group B2 carcinogen, or as a known or likely carcinogen by the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(4) A substance identified as having some or clear evidence of adverse developmental, male reproductive, or female reproductive toxicity effects in a report by an expert panel of the National Toxicology Program’s Center for the Evaluation of Risks to Human Reproduction.

(c) “Division” means the Division of Environmental and Occupational Disease Control within the State Department of Health Services.

(d) “Ingredient” has the same meaning as that term is defined in subdivision (e) of Section 700.3 of Part 700 of Chapter 1 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations and does not include any incidental ingredient as defined in subdivision (l) of Section 701.3 of Part 701 of Chapter 1 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(e) “Manufacturer” means any person whose name appears on the label of a cosmetic product pursuant to the requirements of Section 701.12 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

111792. (a) Commencing January 1, 2007, the manufacturer of any cosmetic product subject to regulation by the federal Food and Drug Administration that is sold in this state shall, on a schedule and in electronic or other format, as determined by the division, provide the division with a complete and accurate list of its cosmetic products that, as of the date of submission, are sold in the state and that contain any ingredient that is a chemical identified as causing cancer or reproductive toxicity, including any chemical that meets either of the following conditions:

(2) A chemical identified by the phrase “and other ingredients” and determined to be a trade secret pursuant to the procedure established in Part 20 and Section 720.8 of Part 720 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Any ingredient identified pursuant to this paragraph shall be considered to be a trade secret and shall be treated by the division in a manner consistent with the requirements of Part 20 and Part 720 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Any ingredients considered to be a trade secret shall not be subject to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) for the purposes of this section.

(b) Any information submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall identify each chemical both by name and Chemical Abstract Service number and shall specify the product or products in which the chemical is contained.

(c) If an ingredient identified pursuant to this section subsequently is removed from the product in which it was contained, is removed from the list of chemicals known to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity published under Section 25249.8, or is no longer a chemical identified as causing cancer or reproductive toxicity by an authoritative body, the manufacturer of the product containing the ingredient shall submit the new information to the division. Upon receipt of new information, the division, after verifying the accuracy of that information, shall revise the manufacturer's information on record with the division to reflect the new information. The manufacturer shall not be under obligation to submit subsequent information on the presence of the ingredient in the product unless subsequent changes require submittal of the information.

(d) This section shall not apply to any manufacturer of cosmetic products with annual aggregate sales of cosmetic products, both within and outside of California, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), based on the manufacturer's most recent tax year filing.

111792.5. (a) In order to determine potential health effects of exposure to ingredients in cosmetics sold in the state, the division may conduct an investigation of one or more cosmetic products that contain chemicals identified as causing cancer or reproductive toxicity or other ingredients of concern to the division.

(b) An investigation conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) may include, but not be limited to, a review of available health effects data and studies, worksite health hazard evaluations, epidemiological studies to determine the health effects of exposures to chemicals in various subpopulations, and exposure assessments to determine total exposures to individuals in various settings.

(c) If an investigation is conducted pursuant to subdivision (a), the manufacturer of any product subject to the investigation may submit relevant health effects data and studies to the division.

(d) In order to further the purposes of an investigation, the division may require manufacturers of products subject to the investigation to submit to the division relevant health effects data and studies available to the manufacturer and other available information as requested by the division, including, but not limited to, the concentration of the chemical in the product, the amount by volume or weight of the product that comprises the average daily application or use, and sales and use data necessary to determine where the product is used in the occupational setting.

(e) The division shall establish reasonable deadlines for the submittal of information required pursuant to subdivision (d). Failure by a manufacturer to submit the information in compliance with the requirements of the division shall constitute a violation of this part.

111793. (a) If the division determines pursuant to an investigation that an ingredient in a cosmetic product is potentially toxic at the concentrations present in the product or under the conditions used, the division shall immediately refer the results of its investigation to the Division of Occupational Safety and Health in the Department of Industrial Relations and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment.

(b) Within 180 days after it receives the results of an investigation pursuant to subdivision (b), the Division of Occupational Safety and Health shall, pursuant to Section 147.1 of the Labor Code, develop and present one or more proposed occupational health standards to the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board in the Department of Industrial Relations, unless the Division of Occupational Safety and Health affirmatively determines, in a written finding within 90 days, that a standard is not necessary to protect the health of an employee who has regular exposure to the hazard for the period of his or her working life. The written finding shall identify the reasons for determining the standard is not necessary and the factual basis for the finding.

111793.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(1) The Cosmetic Ingredient Review (CIR) panel is a nongovernmental body established and funded by the cosmetics industry to review the safety of cosmetic ingredients.

(2) According to a 2004 analysis of the 2003 CIR Compendium by the Environmental Working Group, 54 cosmetic products violate the CIR's own safe use recommendations to manufacturers by containing an ingredient that the CIR has found is not safe for the specific use indicated on the product's label.

(3) Federal regulations (21 C.F.R. 740.10) require every ingredient in a cosmetic product and every finished cosmetic product to be adequately substantiated for safety prior to marketing, and state that any ingredient or product whose safety has not been adequately substantiated prior to marketing is misbranded unless it displays a warning statement declaring, "The safety of this product has not been determined."

(b) The division may, as early as feasible within existing resources, determine whether the products identified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) have been adequately substantiated for safety pursuant to Section

740.10 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations. For any product adequately substantiated for safety, the division shall determine if the product contains any ingredient that the CIR has found is not safe for the specific use indicated on the product's label.

(c) If the division finds that a product has been adequately substantiated for safety despite containing an ingredient that the CIR has found is not safe for the specific use indicated on the product's label, the division shall refer its findings to the Attorney General and the federal Food and Drug Administration for possible enforcement action pursuant to this part and the federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. Sec. 301 et seq.).

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 1

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 3—Relative to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State January 13, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Renowned civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr. was born in Atlanta, Georgia on January 15, 1929; and

WHEREAS, In 1948, Martin Luther King, Jr. received his bachelor of arts degree in sociology from Morehouse College, in 1951, he received his bachelor of divinity degree from Crozer Theological Seminary, as valedictorian and student body president, and in 1955, he was awarded a doctorate in systematic theology from Boston University; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King married Coretta Scott on June 18, 1953; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King was ordained pastor of Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama in 1954; and

WHEREAS, Five days after Rosa Parks' arrest for refusing to comply with segregation on buses in Montgomery, on December 5, 1955, Dr. King was elected president of the Montgomery Improvement Association and the Montgomery Bus Boycott began; and

WHEREAS, During the boycott, Dr. King gained national prominence as an exceptional leader with extraordinary oratorical skills and personal courage; and

WHEREAS, On December 20, 1956, the United States Supreme Court declared Alabama's segregation laws unconstitutional and Montgomery buses were desegregated; and

WHEREAS, In 1957, Dr. King and other southern African-American ministers founded the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and elected Dr. King as their president; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King led the 1957 Prayer Pilgrimage for Freedom in Washington, DC, and subsequently published his first book, "Stride Toward Freedom: The Montgomery Story"; and

WHEREAS, In 1959, Dr. King toured India, where he learned more about Gandhian strategies of nonviolence and developed his own theories about achieving social change through nonviolent resistance; and

WHEREAS, During mass demonstrations in 1963 organized by Dr. King and his staff in Birmingham, Alabama, images of brutality inflicted on African-American demonstrators by police using police dogs and firehoses shocked the world; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King delivered his famous "I Have a Dream" speech on August 28, 1963, at the "March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom"; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King received the Nobel Peace Prize in Oslo, Norway in 1964, and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 was enacted as a direct result of his efforts; and

WHEREAS, In 1965, Dr. King led the march from Selma, Alabama to Montgomery, and President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the first Voting Rights Act; and

WHEREAS, On April 4, 1968, while in Memphis, Tennessee assisting striking sanitation workers, Dr. King was assassinated; and

WHEREAS, United States Representative John Conyers introduced legislation in Congress four days later proposing Dr. King's birthday as a holiday; and

WHEREAS, On April 10, 1970, California became the first state to pass legislation making Dr. King's birthday a school holiday; and

WHEREAS, Despite resistance to the creation of a new national holiday, the diligence and perseverance of United States Representative John Conyers and numerous others in pursuing this goal culminated when on November 2, 1983, President Ronald Reagan signed legislation making Dr. King's birthday a national holiday; and

WHEREAS, January 20, 1986, marked the first observance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day; and

WHEREAS, The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. devoted his life to fight segregation and injustice by nonviolent means, and is an outstanding example of courageous leadership in the face of unrelenting violence and harassment by individuals and government institutions; and

WHEREAS, The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is a source of inspiration for all Americans; now, therefore, be it

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 2

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9—Relative to heart disease.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 11, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Cardiovascular disease (CVD) is the nation's number one killer, and

WHEREAS, CVD claims the lives of more women than men each year; and

WHEREAS, Since 1984, more than 500,000 women per year die from CVD, equal to nearly one death every minute; and

WHEREAS, Within six years after a recognized heart attack: 35 percent of women will have another heart attack, 14 percent will develop chest pain, 11 percent will have a stroke, 46 percent will be disabled with heart failure, and 6 percent will experience sudden cardiac death; and

WHEREAS, African-American and Mexican-American women have higher heart disease and stroke risk factors than White women of comparable socioeconomic status; and

WHEREAS, Most women do not realize that CVD is their greatest health threat; and

WHEREAS, Stroke is the nation's number three killer and the number one cause of permanent, long-term disability; and

WHEREAS, Each year approximately 40,000 more women than men have a stroke; and

WHEREAS, Eleven percent of women will have a stroke within six months after a heart attack, 25 percent of women die within one year of their first stroke, and 53 percent of women under 65 years of age who have a stroke die within eight years; and

WHEREAS, Symptoms of CVD in women generally are recognized later in life when other health challenges may also be present; and

WHEREAS, In women, one out of 2.5 deaths are due to CVD and only 38 percent of women report that their doctors have discussed CVD with them when discussing their health; and

WHEREAS, Sixty-three percent of women who die suddenly from coronary heart disease had no previous symptoms of the disease; and

WHEREAS, Each year the economic burden due to CVD is estimated to be over $360 billion nationwide and the economic burden in California is estimated to be over $45 billion; and

WHEREAS, The public does not recognize the fact that each year CVD claims more lives than the next seven causes of death combined; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association is the largest voluntary, not-for-profit organization whose mission is to reduce disability and death from heart disease and stroke; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association is committed to conducting and supporting medical research that advances knowledge in the areas of prevention and treatment of CVD; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association strives to inform all citizens about the critical importance of tools and skills that will increase the survival rate of women from heart disease and stroke; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association launched the Go Red for Women initiative to help raise awareness of women and heart disease and will focus on that theme during American Heart Month in February and on National Wear Red for Women Day, Friday, February 4, 2005; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the month of February 2005, be recognized as American Heart Month in California in order to raise awareness of the effect of heart disease on women; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recognizes February 4, 2005, as Wear Red for Women Day in California and urges all citizens to become aware of the vital issues of women's heart health by wearing and displaying the color red on that day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges public support for Go Red for Women events planned in their community during American Heart Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 3

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6—Relative to the 60th anniversary of the World War II invasion of the Island of Iwo Jima.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 17, 2005.]

WHEREAS, February 19, 2005, marks the 60th anniversary of the World War II invasion of the Island of Iwo Jima; and

WHEREAS, On February 19, 1945, 72,000 U.S. Marines assaulted heavily fortified Iwo Jima Island and engaged in the bloodiest battle the United States Marine Corps has ever fought. More than 6,000 Marines and 900 Navy Corpsmen and other Navy personnel were killed, and nearly 24,000 servicemen suffered casualties in the battle to seize air strips in support of the strategic air war against the Japanese Empire; and

WHEREAS, Major General Harry Schmidt lead the largest contingent of Marines ever to fight a battle. The 3rd, 4th, and 5th Marine Divisions, supported by Force Troops units, provided the landing force, the United States Navy delivered powerful broadsides against the Japanese caves and pillboxes, and two squadrons of Marine F-4U Corsairs swept in low, unleashing rockets and machine gun bullets against the Rock Quarry; and

WHEREAS, When the Japanese army began the bloodiest bombardment the Marines ever suffered in the World War II, the Marines did not panic; the veterans in the ranks steadied the rookies, junior officers took over for fallen leaders, and shot-up units merged quickly to maintain the attack. A veteran Marine combat correspondent reported: "At Tarawa, Saipan, and Tinian, I saw Marines killed and wounded in a shocking manner, but I saw nothing like the ghastliness that hung over the Iwo beachhead"; and

WHEREAS, On the fourth day of the battle, Lieutenant Harold Schrier's combat patrol reached the top of Mount Suribachi and raised a 54-by-28 inch American flag. Several hours later a larger flag was erected, and Associated Press photographer Joe Rosenthal immortalized the second flag-raising scene in the heralded picture that won the Pulitzer Prize and was reproduced around the world as a symbol of Marine fighting tenacity and skill during World War II. However, raising the flag represented only the "end of the beginning," as the bloody battle would rage on without respite for another month; and

WHEREAS, Iwo Jima took such a toll on leaders that junior officers and enlisted men assumed roles of responsibility unimaginable in garrison. The ratio of 1.25 Marine casualties (killed, wounded, missing) for every Japanese killed was the highest in the war. It was the first and only time a Marine landing force suffered greater casualties than they inflicted on the defending garrison; and

WHEREAS, Major General Graves Erskine stated at the dedication of his 3rd Marine Division cemetery at Iwo Jima after the battle: "Victory was never in doubt. Its cost was. What was in doubt was whether there would be any of us left to dedicate our cemetery at the end, or whether the last Marine would die knocking out the last Japanese gunner." Admiral Chester Nimitz's accolade endured longest, now chiseled into the granite base of the enormous bronze statue of the Suribachi Marines and their faithful corpsman at Arlington Cemetery: "Uncommon valor was a common virtue..."; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That in recognition of the historic 60th Anniversary of the World War II invasion of the Island of Iwo Jima on February 19, 1945, the Legislature of the State of California recognizes and honors the thousands of veterans of the United States Marine Corps and Navy who served their country so valiantly and distinguished themselves above the call of duty, and recognizes the integral part they played in helping the Allies to victory in World War II; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 4

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 13—Relative to Spay Day USA 2005.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 24, 2005.]

WHEREAS, At least a quarter million dogs and possibly twice as many cats are euthanized in California each year; and

WHEREAS, In most instances these dogs and cats are young, healthy, and friendly animals who are euthanized simply because there are not enough good homes for them; and

WHEREAS, An additional unknown number of animals die each year due to abandonment, neglect, abuse, starvation, or cruelty because they are unwanted; and

WHEREAS, The spaying or neutering of dogs and cats helps solve this tragic problem by reducing the number of unwanted animals; and

WHEREAS, Californians can contribute to this effort by spaying or neutering their own companion animals and by supporting programs in their communities that offer spay and neuter services; and

WHEREAS, Veterinarians, humane societies, animal control agencies, and national and local animal welfare organizations will join together to advocate the spaying or neutering of dogs and cats on “Spay Day USA 2005”; and

WHEREAS, In particular, the Sacramento area has become a leader in coordination of Spay Day USA events, spaying or neutering nearly 1,000 dogs and cats on Spay Day USA 2004, with over 1,400 dogs and cats scheduled for Spay Day USA 2005; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California declares February 22, 2005, to be Spay Day USA 2005 and that Californians are requested to observe the day by having their dogs or cats spayed or neutered and by contributing to those organizations that provide spay and neuter services, and that California veterinarians are requested to work with animal shelters and rescue groups that provide spay and neuter services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 5

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 2—Relative to Arts Education Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Arts education, which includes dance, music, theater, literature, visual arts, and multimedia, is an essential part of the basic education important to provide balanced learning for all pupils in prekindergarten, kindergarten, and grades 1 to 12, inclusive; and

WHEREAS, Arts education is vital to develop the full potential of young minds; and

WHEREAS, Arts educators recognize that a program of arts education is defined as a comprehensive, balanced, sequential, in-school program of instruction in the arts, taught by qualified teachers, designed to provide pupils of all ages with skills and knowledge in the arts in accordance with high national, state, and local standards; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of arts education standards to guide the development and implementation of arts instruction facilitates a well-planned arts education program and enhances a pupil's opportunity to develop his or her initiative, creative ability, self-expression, thinking skills, discipline, and cross-cultural understanding; and

WHEREAS, For 20 years the State of California, through the California Arts Council, has provided support and assistance to artists and professional arts service organizations and, in partnership with the State Department of Education, provided resources to schools; and

WHEREAS, National standards have been adopted for the visual and performing arts; and

WHEREAS, For 20 years the State of California has recognized the adopted visual and performing arts framework as the definition of arts education; and

WHEREAS, The professional arts education associations of the California Dance Education Association, the California Association of Music Education, the California Educational Theatre Association, the California Arts Education Association, and the California Humanities Association each contribute to the betterment of arts education together and each in their own subject area; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California proclaim the month of March 2005 as Arts Education Month, as a symbol of their support to the value that arts education brings to the pupils' education and to their future contributions as productive citizens within each community of this state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to each school district in the State of California and to the professional arts education associations for their individual action in support of March 2005 as Arts Education Month.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 6

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 6—Relative to Financial Literacy Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Californians' total personal income is 60 percent higher than any other state and accounts for 13 percent of all personal income in the United States; and

WHEREAS, During the past two decades the proportion of households with outstanding debt has risen dramatically, and this increase has been the greatest for the bottom 40 percent of the income distribution; and

WHEREAS, Sixty percent of American households carry forward some portion of their credit card debt every month, with an average balance of more than $4,000, and 20 percent of families with an annual income below $50,000 spend close to one-half of their net income on debt payments; and

WHEREAS, Seventy percent of American households are living paycheck to paycheck; and

WHEREAS, More than 75 percent of all college students have at least one credit card with an average debt of almost $3,000, and some university administrators state that more students drop out due to credit card debt rather than to academic failure; and

WHEREAS, More young adults filed for bankruptcy than graduated from college in 2001, and personal bankruptcy filings increased in 2003 to 1.7 million, with personal nonbusiness bankruptcies accounting for 97.6 percent of all bankruptcy cases, thereby contributing to an alarming decade-long increase in personal bankruptcies of more than 70 percent; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 15 percent of workers in the United States report they are experiencing stress from financial problems that negatively impacts their productivity on the job, more than one-third of the workforce reports that financial worries sometimes hamper job performance, and 34 percent of workers rate their financial stress as high to extreme, while 54 percent worry about the amount they owe; and

WHEREAS, The net worth of the average middle-class American household, excluding equity in a house, is less than $15,000; and

WHEREAS, The average life expectancy in the United States recently reached a record high of 74.1 years for men and 79.5 years for women, 25 percent of women currently retire on an income below the poverty level, and over the next 40 years the number of women over 85 is expected to triple; and

WHEREAS, The United States reportedly has the lowest individual savings rate in the industrialized world, almost one-half of all workers have accumulated less than $50,000 for their retirement, and one-third have saved less than $10,000; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 40 percent of older Baby Boomers are not confident about a secure retirement that is predicted to last up to 35 years; and

WHEREAS, More older Americans will be confronted with the inadequate funding of a much longer retirement, and are going to be relying on second careers, family contributions, charity, or government programs to subsidize retirement programs and savings; and

WHEREAS, High school seniors taking part in a national survey of financial knowledge scored an average of 50.2 percent, a failing grade, continuing a declining trend in scores since 1977; and

WHEREAS, Increasing the financial literacy of all economic and ethnic groups has proven successful in improving attitudes, leading to improved decisionmaking, and providing a more secure future for individuals who have been educated in financial literacy and their families; and

WHEREAS, Financial literacy training may easily be integrated as a valuable component for elementary and secondary schools, colleges and universities, community groups, and citizen town hall meetings; and

WHEREAS, Many groups are dedicated to increasing the financial literacy of Americans and a broad range of quality personal finance instructional materials and curricula have been created for this purpose, but the audience to which this information is vital is not being reached; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares the month of April

2005 as Financial Literacy Month, in order to raise public awareness about the need for increased financial literacy; and be it further

Resolved, That legislators, employers, schools, service groups, community organizations, libraries, financial institutions, and the media, be encouraged to provide opportunities for financial literacy education for all Californians through a variety of means, including collaboration with members of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, California Jump$tart Coalition, and others, in order to provide outreach and education; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 7

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 9—Relative to California Girls and Women in Sports Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, National Girls and Women in Sports Day was created in 1987 to honor Flo Hyman, a volleyball legend, and her dedication to the advancement of equality for women in sports; and

WHEREAS, Since that time women have been making considerable advances in professional, collegiate, club, intramural, masters, high school, junior high school, youth, and recreational sports; and

WHEREAS, Many female athletes have distinguished themselves as representatives of California and the nation in the Olympic games; and

WHEREAS, Childhood obesity has soared, and 26 percent of children statewide and 50 percent in some California school districts are overweight or obese; and

WHEREAS, Overweight and physical inactivity account for 300,000 premature preventable deaths per year in the United States, and cost California an estimated $24.6 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, Participation in sports is acknowledged to be a positive force in developing and promoting the physical, mental, moral, social, and emotional well-being of individuals; and

WHEREAS, The bonds built between girls and women through athletics helps to break down the social barriers of racism and prejudice, and the communication and cooperation skills learned play a key role in the athlete's contributions at home, at work, and to society; and

WHEREAS, There is a continuing need to encourage women of all ages to compete and contribute to sports at all levels of competition and recreation and help to prepare the next generation of female sports leaders; and

WHEREAS, Girls' and womens' athletics at all levels is one of the most effective avenues available through which women in America may develop self-discipline, initiative, confidence, and leadership skills; and

WHEREAS, The combined efforts of Girls Incorporated, the National Association for Girls and Women in Sport (NAGWS), the Women's Sports Foundation, the Girl Scouts of the United States, and the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) of the United States have served to bring needed information and important recognition of this day; and

WHEREAS, The continued support of the NAGWS mission statement by the California Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, the athletic programs for the California Community College Commission on Athletics, and the California Interscholastic Federation have furthered the dreams and inspired today's female athletes; and

WHEREAS, The theme of this year's 19th annual national celebration, "More than a Game," supports the ongoing struggle for access and equality, both on and off the field; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature commemorates the accomplishments of female athletes, coaches, officials, and sports administrators for their important contribution in promoting the value of sports participation in the achievement of full human potential and hereby proclaims February 9, 2005, as California Girls and Women in Sports Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the National Association for Girls and Women in Sport support actions by state and local governments and local educational agencies that will provide for high-quality daily physical education programs, physical activity programs, and sports programs for all children in kindergarten through grade 12; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 8

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 10—Relative to a Day of Remembrance.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On February 19, 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066, pursuant to which 120,000 Americans and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry were incarcerated in internment camps during World War II; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order 9066 deferred the American dream for 120,000 Americans and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry by inflicting a great human cost of abandoned homes, businesses, careers, and professional advancements, and disruption to family life; and

WHEREAS, Despite their families being incarcerated behind barbed wire in the United States, approximately 33,000 veterans of Japanese ancestry fought bravely for our country during World War II, serving in the 100th Battalion, the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and the 522nd Field Artillery Battalion; and

WHEREAS, The 100th Battalion, the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and the 522nd Field Artillery Battalion heroically suffered nearly 10,000 casualties and are honored as being among World War II's most decorated combat teams, having received seven Presidential Distinguished Unit Citations, 52 Distinguished Service Crosses, 588 Silver Stars, 5,200 Bronze Stars, and 9,486 Purple Hearts; and

WHEREAS, On June 21, 2000, President William Jefferson Clinton elevated 20 Japanese Americans who served in the 100th Battalion and the 442nd Regimental Combat Team and were among 52 individuals who received the nation's second highest award—the Distinguished Service Cross—to receive the nation's highest military honor—the Medal of Honor—bringing the total number of recipients who so received the Medal of Honor to 21; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 6,000 veterans of Japanese ancestry served with the Military Intelligence Service and have been credited for shortening the war by two years by translating enemy battle plans, defense maps, tactical orders, intercepted messages and diaries, and interrogating enemy prisoners; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 40 years subsequent to the United States Supreme Court decisions upholding the convictions of Fred Korematsu, Min Yasui, and Gordon Hirabayashi for violations of curfew and Executive Order 9066, it was discovered that the United States War Department and Department of Justice officials had altered and destroyed evidence regarding the loyalty of Americans and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry and withheld information from the United States Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, Dale Minami, Peggy Nagae, Rod Kawakami, and many attorneys and interns contributed innumerable hours to win a reversal in 1983 of the original convictions of Korematsu, Yasui, and Hirabayashi by filing a petition for writ of error coram nobis on the grounds that fundamental errors and injustice occurred; and

WHEREAS, On August 10, 1988, President Ronald Reagan signed into law the Civil Liberties Act of 1988, finding that Executive Order 9066 was not justified by military necessity and, hence, was caused by racial prejudice, war hysteria, and a failure of political leadership; and

WHEREAS, February 19, 2005, marks 63 years since the signing of Executive Order 9066 and a policy of grave injustice against American citizens and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California declares February 19, 2005, as a Day of Remembrance in this state to increase public awareness of the events surrounding the internment of Americans of Japanese ancestry during World War II; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Library, and the State Archives.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 9

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 14—Relative to the recent election in Ukraine.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Since 1993, the State of California, through the State Partnership Program, a program funded by the United States Departments of State and Defense, has enjoyed close cooperation with Ukraine, engaging in civilian-to-civilian, military-to-civilian, and military-to-military interaction designed to build democratic institutions and values, interoperability of military forces, and foster free markets; and

WHEREAS, The California National Guard has actively trained with the armed forces of Ukraine to reinforce military respect for civilian control and rule of law while improving the professionalism of military personnel from both Ukraine and the State of California; and

WHEREAS, A democratic and fair election process for the 2004 presidential election in Ukraine and of a truly democratic political system were crucial for that country's full integration into the world community of democracies; and

WHEREAS, A free and fair election requires the equal treatment before the law of candidates and political parties without government resources being used to the advantage of candidates or political parties; and

WHEREAS, On October 31, 2004, Ukraine held the first round of its presidential election and on November 21, 2004, Ukraine held a runoff presidential election between the two leading candidates, Prime Minister Viktor Yanukovich and opposition leader Viktor Yushchenko; and

WHEREAS, The November 21, 2004, runoff election was marked by illegal voting by absentee ballot, multiple voting, assaults on electoral observers and journalists, and the widespread use of counterfeit ballots with government resources being abused in support of Viktor Yanukovich, in addition to tremendous outside pressure being brought to bear on behalf of Mr. Yanukovich; and

WHEREAS, Following the runoff presidential election, hundreds of thousands of Ukrainian citizens engaged in peaceful rallies in Kiev and other cities to protest the unfair election, with the Ukrainian Supreme Court and Parliament blocking the inauguration of the next president and calling for a new runoff presidential election on December 26, 2004, with new procedures to close loopholes for fraud in preparation for the new election; and

WHEREAS, On December 26, 2004, the people of Ukraine again went to the polls to elect the next president of Ukraine in an election that was more democratic, transparent, and fair leading to the certification, two days later, of the victory of opposition leader Viktor Yushchenko; and

WHEREAS, The runoff presidential election on December 26, 2004, signifies a turning point for Ukraine which offers new hope and opportunity to the people of Ukraine; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California:

(1) Commends the people and Government of Ukraine for their peaceful commitment to democracy in the face of challenge and crisis; and

(2) Congratulates the people and Government of Ukraine for a free and fair runoff presidential election representing the choice of the Ukrainian people; and

(3) Congratulates Viktor Yushchenko on his election as President of Ukraine; and

(4) Congratulates Yulia Timoshenko on her selection as Prime Minister of the Government of Ukraine; and

(5) Welcomes the strong relationship formed between both the citizens and military personnel of Ukraine and the State of California through the tens of thousands of expatriate Ukrainians living in the State of California as well as through California's civilian and National Guard participation in the State Partnership Program since 1993 and expresses its strong and continuing support for the efforts of the Ukrainian people and the new Government of Ukraine to establish an enduring democracy, the rule of law, and respect for the inalienable rights of all people; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of Ukraine, the Governor of the State of California, the United States Secretary of State and the United States Secretary of Defense.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 10

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26—Relative to National Agriculture Week and National Agriculture Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 2005.]

WHEREAS, March 20, 2005, is National Agriculture Day, a day set aside to honor the men and women of agriculture, and to promote an understanding of America's agricultural industry; and

WHEREAS, March 15, 2005, is California Agriculture Day, a day of celebration to commemorate agriculture's vital role in keeping California bountiful and strong; and

WHEREAS, California's agricultural production fuels the state's economy and helps feed the nation and the world; and

WHEREAS, California agriculture provides a vital infrastructure that aids in the exclusion and early detection of plant and animal pests and diseases that impact our human health, commerce, and environment; and

WHEREAS, For approximately 56 consecutive years, California has been the number one agricultural state in the nation, producing more than 350 crop and livestock products and accounting for 40 percent of the nation's supply of fruits, vegetables, and nuts; and

WHEREAS, The tireless efforts of approximately 800,000 farmworkers have contributed greatly to the success of the agricultural industry; and

WHEREAS, With less than 1 percent of California's 33 million people engaged in farming and ranching, each agricultural worker today provides for more than 100 other people, compared to just 13 in 1947; and

WHEREAS, Today's agricultural industry offers over 200 challenging and rewarding career opportunities, from on-farm cultivation, to food science and engineering; and

WHEREAS, Over the past 5 decades, advances in production agriculture have resulted in a drop of consumer spending on food products from 24 percent of disposable income in 1949 to approximately 9 percent today; and

WHEREAS, California is the nation's leader in agricultural exports, annually shipping more than 6.5 billion dollars worth of food and agricultural commodities to regions ranging from Europe to Asia, and from Africa to Latin America; and

WHEREAS, California's agricultural industry constantly seeks to incorporate the latest scientific and technological production and marketing techniques to meet the demands of changing consumer needs and complex world markets; and

WHEREAS, Government-industry partnerships are continually being developed to improve quality and ensure safe handling practices on the farm, in transit, and during processing; and

WHEREAS, "California Grown" is a true public-private partnership campaign that was created to work with hundreds of stores throughout the state to promote California products. The campaign was also created to emphasize our strong ties to the land and to our neighbors; to restore pride in our homegrown products and our work; and to help our economy and our California way of life; and

WHEREAS, A broad approach to agricultural education is vital to ensure that California agriculture continues to flourish; and

WHEREAS, The California 5 A Day For Better Health Campaign, launched in 1988, was the precursor for the National 5 A Day Program, which spreads the message that healthy eating through the consumption of fruits and vegetables can reduce the risk of heart disease and cancer by as much as 30 percent; and

WHEREAS, As our national and global population grows, it is important to recognize the vital role that agriculture plays in our daily lives; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate for all Californians to recognize our farmers, farmworkers, and others involved in providing such a bounty to our nation and the entire world; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That it takes great pleasure in honoring the men and women of California agriculture for their dedication and productivity by observing the week of March 20 to March 26, 2005, as National Agriculture Week and Sunday, March 20, 2005, as National Agriculture Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 11

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 27—Relative to drowsy driver awareness day.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, From 1993 to 2003, according to statistics compiled by the Department of the California Highway Patrol, approximately 100 people were killed each year in California in collisions where a drowsy driver was involved; and

WHEREAS, In that 10-year period, 41,228 people have been injured in California in collisions where a drowsy driver was involved; and

WHEREAS, In that 10-year period, there were 28,533 collisions involving a drowsy driver where no one was injured, but significant property damage occurred; and

WHEREAS, All of these fatalities, injuries, and property damage could have been avoided; and

WHEREAS, A 1999 poll by the National Sleep Foundation discovered that 62 percent of all adults surveyed reported driving a car or other motor vehicle while feeling drowsy in the prior year; and

WHEREAS, The same poll revealed that 27 percent of the adults reported that they had, at some time, dozed off while driving; and

WHEREAS, This poll also found that 23 percent of adults stated that they know someone who experienced a fall-asleep crash within the past year; and

WHEREAS, The United States National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) estimates that approximately 100,000 police-reported crashes annually, that is about 1.5 percent of all crashes, involve drowsiness or fatigue as a principal causal factor; and

WHEREAS, At least 71,000 people are injured in fall-asleep crashes each year; and, NHTSA estimates these crashes represent $12,500,000 in monetary losses each year; and

WHEREAS, Many more people die each year from crashes related to drowsy, sleepy, or fatigued drivers than from many serious illnesses; and

WHEREAS, Many California residents die each year, including Robyn Meryl Amsel Mellon Konstantin, who died in a collision on April 6, 1999, while driving when she was drowsy; and

WHEREAS, This problem can affect every person who operates or rides in a motor vehicle, or who walks, stands, or sits near a roadway; and

WHEREAS, This problem can be solved by making drivers aware of the risks of driving without adequate rest; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That April 6, 2005, is hereby proclaimed by the Legislature as Drowsy Driver Awareness Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor is requested to make a similar proclamation; and be it further

Resolved, That this measure be adopted with urgency as this April 6th marks the sixth anniversary of the death of California resident Robyn Meryl Amsel Mellon Konstantin who died in 1999 on that date; and be it further

Resolved, That April 6th of every year after this resolution is enacted be designated as a memorial day to observe the importance of educating the public on drowsy driving, and to remember those thousands of Californians who have died in collisions related to drowsy driving; and be it further

Resolved, That the observance of Drowsy Driver Awareness Day emphasize the preventability of all crashes related to drowsy driving; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution and to the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 12

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 19—Relative to Irish-American Heritage Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Millions of Irish people, faced with severe hardship due to famine and poverty in their nation, immigrated to the United States over the last several centuries in search of a more promising future for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans initially suffered prejudice and discrimination upon first arriving in the United States. As the years went on, Irish-Americans became very involved in the community and made numerous contributions in all aspects of American society and culture, especially in California; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans played vital roles in the development of the United States. Nine Irish-Americans were signers of the Declaration of Independence, and 19 Presidents of the United States have been of Irish heritage, including John F. Kennedy, Ronald Reagan, and Bill Clinton; and

WHEREAS, Many people of Irish descent have contributed to great movements that have helped to shape our country and its role in the world, including Mother Jones, labor activist; Lucy Burns, activist in the Women's Movement; and Senator George Mitchell, negotiator of the Irish Peace Accord; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans have also played a major role in California politics. Many governors, legislative leaders, city mayors, and other public officials who have shaped the development of California over the years have been of Irish descent; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans were very involved in the development of infrastructure throughout the United States and especially in California. This included work on railroads and bridges that connected the West to the East. The Irish were also instrumental in the building of dams, roads, canals, and buildings that expanded greatly in the late 1800s; and

WHEREAS, Many Irish-Americans have made their mark in pursuit of public safety and have risked or lost their lives on countless occasions in carrying out their duties; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans have served with distinction in every war that this nation has fought. Many of the outstanding soldiers who fought for American freedom in the Revolutionary War were of Irish descent. Since then, Irish-Americans have sacrificed their lives in every other war in which the United States has fought; and

WHEREAS, Many Irish-Americans have contributed greatly to the United States economy in business, including Henry Ford; Alexander Stewart, the inventor of the American department store; and Cathleen Black, president, Hearst Publishing; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans have contributed to the American literary tradition through great authors including Flannery O'Connor, Eugene O'Neill, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Mary McCarthy, Tom Clancy, and Frank McCourt; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans have contributed to American entertainment with such stars as actors Jack Nicholson, John Wayne, and George Clooney, actor and comedian Bill Murray, actress Grace Kelly, actress and comedian Rosie O'Donnell, actor and singer Bing Crosby, actress and singer Rosemary Clooney, and actor and director Edward Burns being of Irish heritage; and

WHEREAS, Today, over 44 million Americans claim Irish heritage, and they continue to contribute to American and California politics, economy, and culture; now, therefore, be it to be Irish-American Heritage Month in California and calls upon the people of the state to observe the month of March with appropriate ceremonies, programs, and activities, especially on March 17, since everyone is Irish on St. Patrick's Day; and be it further

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature, in honor of the multitude of contributions that Irish-Americans have made to make this a better country and state for all people, designates March 2005 and March 2006

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 13

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25—Relative to Rotary International Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Rotary International, founded on February 23, 1905, in Chicago, Illinois, is the world's first, and one of the largest, nonprofit service organizations; and

WHEREAS, There are over 1.2 million Rotary club members consisting of professional and business leaders in over 31,000 clubs in more than 165 countries; and

WHEREAS, The Rotary motto "Service Above Self" inspires members to provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards, and promote good will and peace in the world; and

WHEREAS, Rotary funds club projects and sponsors volunteers with community expertise to provide medical supplies, health care, clean water, food production, job training, and education to millions in need, particularly in developing countries; and

WHEREAS, Rotary in 1985 launched Polio Plus and spearheaded efforts with the World Health Organization, the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and UNICEF to immunize the children of the world against polio; and

WHEREAS, Polio cases have dropped by 99 percent since 1988 and the world stands on the threshold of eradicating the disease; and

WHEREAS, Rotary is the world's largest privately funded source of international scholarships, and promotes international understanding through those scholarships, as well as exchange programs and humanitarian grants; and

WHEREAS, More than 35,000 students from 110 countries have studied abroad since 1947 as Rotary Ambassadorial Scholars; and

WHEREAS, Rotary's Group Study Exchange program has helped more than 46,000 young professionals explore their career fields in other countries; and

WHEREAS, Eight thousand secondary-school students each year experience life in another country through Rotary's Youth Exchange Program; and

WHEREAS, There are 38,672 Rotary club members in 738 clubs throughout California sponsoring service projects to address such critical issues as poverty, health, hunger, illiteracy, and the environment in their local communities, and abroad; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby proclaims February 23, 2005, as Rotary International Day in California, and encourages all residents of the state to join it in recognizing Rotary International for 100 years of service to improving the human condition in communities around the world; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 14

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 31—Relative to Financial Empowerment Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Only 30 percent of those individuals surveyed in a 2004 Employee Benefit Trend Study are confident in their ability to make the right financial decisions for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, Between 25 million and 56 million adults are unbanked, i.e., not using mainstream, insured financial institutions for their financial transactions; and

WHEREAS, Today, more than 42 million people in the United States and over 5 million people in California participate in 401(k) plans; and

WHEREAS, A 2003 Retirement Confidence Survey found that only 32 percent of workers surveyed have calculated how much money they will need to save for retirement; and

WHEREAS, Millions of people in California derive great benefits from the wide variety of products and services offered by the financial services industry in California, and those financial products and services allow individuals and families to buy homes, start businesses, finance an education, buy cars, and meet their needs of everyday life; and

WHEREAS, Expanding access to the mainstream financial system provides individuals with lower cost, safer options for managing their finances, and building wealth; and

WHEREAS, A greater understanding and familiarity with financial markets and institutions will lead to increased economic activity and growth; and

WHEREAS, Financial empowerment has been linked to lower delinquency rates for mortgage borrowers, higher participation and contribution rates in retirement plans, improved spending and saving habits, higher net worth, and positive knowledge, attitude, and behavior changes; and

WHEREAS, Financial empowerment helps an individual make wise financial decisions and reduces the confusion of an increasingly complex economy; and

WHEREAS, An individual who is financially empowered is aware of the availability and significance of credit reports and credit scores in obtaining credit, correcting inaccuracies, and the effect common financial decisions may have on credit scores; and

WHEREAS, Personal financial empowerment is essential to ensure that individuals are prepared to manage money, credit, and debt, and become responsible workers, heads of households, investors, entrepreneurs, business leaders, and citizens; and

WHEREAS, A financial empowerment program is necessary to provide information to individuals who need guidance on making educated financial decisions; and

WHEREAS, A financial empowerment program will cover such important issues as savings and budgeting, investing, obtaining and using credit, home mortgages, repairing credit, saving for retirement, and sending money to relatives abroad; and

WHEREAS, Information about financial empowerment is presented in the most appropriate manner to all audiences, taking age, preferred language, and stage in life into consideration when communicating to various audiences; and

WHEREAS, An effective and long-sustaining financial empowerment program requires the collaborative effort of elected officials, community-based organizations, and financial institutions to provide materials and services that educate individuals about using financial services for immediate and future financial needs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of April 2005 as Financial Empowerment Month, during which time the Legislature encourages the people of the state to raise their awareness of the importance of financial empowerment and the serious consequences that may be associated with a lack of understanding about personal finances; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages financial institutions and consumer groups to work together to provide written materials and services to individuals on an ongoing basis that will allow them to further educate themselves and avail themselves of the financial opportunities and resources that are currently available and further encourages financial institutions and consumer groups to make the goals of financial empowerment a reality by working with community groups throughout the state to assist in the distribution of these materials to the greatest possible audience; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 15

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5—Relative to the Deputy Bruce Lee Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The dedicated men and women who have chosen law enforcement as a career face extraordinary risk and danger in preserving our freedom and security; and

WHEREAS, On May 13, 2003, Deputy Bruce Lee of the Riverside County Sheriff's Department died while responding to a domestic disturbance call. His untimely death at 45 years of age, in pursuit of the highest ideals of public safety, has brought immense sorrow to the people of the community and the state, and to countless individuals whose lives he touched; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate at this time to recognize the hazardous work, serious responsibilities, and strong commitment that Deputy Bruce Lee willingly accepted during his nearly 23 years as a law enforcement officer; and

WHEREAS, Deputy Bruce Lee was recognized throughout the community as a fair man who treated people with respect and always went out of his way to help others, as the friendly officer on the beat, and as the officer who enjoyed his job and liked working for and serving the community; and

WHEREAS, Deputy Bruce Lee began his career with the Riverside County Sheriff's Department on September 2, 1980, and in his assignment to the Indio Station, he demonstrated the highest standards of law enforcement; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the portion of State Highway Route 111 from its starting point at Washington Street in the City of La Quinta to its terminus at Jefferson Street in the City of La Quinta as the Deputy Bruce Lee Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signage requirements for the state highway system, showing these special designations, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 16

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13—Relative to Child Abuse Prevention Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Child abuse and neglect continue to pose a serious threat to our nation's children; and

WHEREAS, In 1996, more than 3,000,000 children were reported to child protective agencies in the United States as having suffered abuse and neglect; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that for every three dollars spent on the prevention of child abuse and neglect, at least six dollars are saved that might be spent on child welfare services, special education services, medical care, foster care, counseling, and the housing of juvenile offenders; and

WHEREAS, Child abuse and neglect is a community problem and finding solutions depends on the involvement of people throughout the community; and

WHEREAS, The first organized statewide Blue Ribbon Campaign was originated in Norfolk, Virginia, by the grandmother of Bubba Dickinson, a child who was murdered by his mother's abusive boyfriend; and

WHEREAS, In recent years, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, the California chapter and other local affiliates, United States military bases, and other groups have organized Blue Ribbon Campaigns to increase public awareness of child abuse and to promote ways to prevent child abuse; and

WHEREAS, The National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, in all its forms, has proclaimed April as National Child Abuse Prevention Month; and

WHEREAS, Blue ribbons are displayed to increase awareness of child abuse and as a strategy for Child Abuse Prevention Month; and

WHEREAS, This year's campaign is entitled Safe Children and Healthy Families are a Shared Responsibility; and

WHEREAS, The flexibility of this program offers numerous opportunities to be innovative and to create partnerships within business, professional, and community organizations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature does hereby acknowledge the month of April 2005 as Child Abuse Prevention Month, and encourage the people of the State of California to work together to support youth-serving child abuse prevention activities in their communities and schools during that month and throughout the year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 17

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14—Relative to California Space Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The satellite industry has been the largest and fastest growing segment of the overall space industry, having tripled in size from over $15 billion in 1996 to over $49 billion in 2002, according to a recent statistics study of the Satellite Industries Association; and

WHEREAS, California's share of this global market is approximately 20 percent, and it is forecasted to be over 30 percent by 2010; and

WHEREAS, Transmission from more than 3,500 satellites currently orbiting in operation above the earth's atmosphere are increasingly making a greater contribution to the everyday lives of consumers and transforming our world into a truly global neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, Satellite technology is an enabler and partner with many other key California industries such as information technology, telecommunications, entertainment, environmental studies, and agricultural management; and

WHEREAS, Average citizens are using satellite based global positioning systems to map themselves to destinations, while businesses are using the same systems to manage trucking fleets and railroad cars; and

WHEREAS, Scientists are using remote earth sensing satellites to monitor erosion and environmental degradation, and for ocean and forest management; and

WHEREAS, Average American families across the country are enjoying television and radio programming brought to them through direct satellite broadcasting; and

WHEREAS, Farmers use satellites to monitor animal herds and to manage crop moisture and pest infestation; and

WHEREAS, Many other applications of satellite technology are being used each and every day; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature acknowledges the growth and contributions of the satellite industry to California and urges the public to recognize the growth of this sector as an important economic and job creation engine that deserves to be nurtured and encouraged to remain and expand in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recognizes April 12, 2005, as California Space Day, in special recognition of how the satellite industry has found a consumer market and is improving the lives of our citizens; and be it further

Resolved, That suitable copies of this resolution be provided to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 18

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16—Relative to Motorcycle Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Motorcycle riding is a popular form of efficient transportation and recreation for more than 1,000,000 people in California; and

WHEREAS, It is important that drivers of all vehicles be aware of one another and learn to share the road and practice courtesy; and

WHEREAS, Motorcycles provide a means of transportation that uses fewer resources, causes less wear and tear on public roadways, and increases available parking areas; and

WHEREAS, The safety hazards created by automobile operators who have not been educated to watch for motorcyclists on the streets and highways of California are of prime concern to motorcyclists; and

WHEREAS, It is especially important that the citizens of California be aware of motorcycles on the streets and highways and recognize the importance of motorcycle safety; and

WHEREAS, The American Brotherhood Aimed Toward Education (ABATE) of California is an organization that is actively promoting the safe operation, increased rider training, and increased motorist awareness of motorcycles; and

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the need for awareness on the part of all drivers, especially with regard to sharing the road with motorcycles, and to honor motorcyclists' many contributions to the communities in which they live and ride; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the month of May 2005, is hereby officially designated Motorcycle Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 19

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21—Relative to nonprofit and philanthropic organizations.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, One of the great strengths of California is the presence of vigorous nonprofit and philanthropic organizations that provide a private means to pursue public purposes outside the confines of either the marketplace or the state; and

WHEREAS, Residents of California have joined together to form over 139,000 nonprofit organizations, including more than 101,000 active charitable nonprofit organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, 5,900 private foundations, and 26,000 religious groups, that employ over 900,000 people and receive and spend over $100 billion per year; and

WHEREAS, Nonprofit and philanthropic organizations touch the lives of every person in California by serving people from all walks of life, socioeconomic groups, political orientations, ethnicities, ages, genders, and cultural backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, Embraced within the nonprofit sector are some of our state's premier universities, hospitals, symphonies, museums, theaters, and grassroots groups as well as thousands of community organizations that channel our impulses for charity, justice, and compassion to serve the common good and support and empower those in greatest need; and

WHEREAS, One-half of all hospital care, most human services, a significant share of higher education, most low-cost housing, almost all arts and culture, and most social justice and environmental programs are provided by nonprofit organizations; and

WHEREAS, Over 15 million California residents volunteer three to five hours per week with nonprofit organizations; and

WHEREAS, The 5,900 independent foundations, including 15 of the nation's largest independent foundations; 100 corporate foundations; and 29 community foundations, including seven of the nation's largest community foundations, with assets of more than $60 billion, annually give $3.6 billion in grants to California nonprofit organizations; and

WHEREAS, Nonprofit social service and philanthropic organizations have helped millions of Americans get back on their feet, enabling them to become active, productive citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the importance and value of nonprofit and philanthropic organizations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby proclaims March 6 to 12, 2005, as California Nonprofit Organizations and Philanthropy Week as presented by the California Association of Nonprofits and its Policy Council; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmits copies of this resolution to the author for appropriation distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 20

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 23—Relative to Lyme Disease Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Lyme disease is caused by the spirochete (a corkscrew-shaped bacteria) called Borrelia burgdorferi and is transmitted by the western black-legged tick. Lyme disease was first identified in North America in the 1970s in Lyme, Connecticut, the town for which it was then named. This disease has since been reported from many areas of the country, including 54 counties in California. Its spread is essentially global, having been reported in 30 countries on 6 continents and several islands. Lyme disease is, thus, not “rare” and 25% of its victims are under 15 years of age; and

WHEREAS, Lyme disease mimics many other diseases and is called the second “great imitator” after syphilis. Patients are often misdiagnosed with more familiar conditions, including chronic fatigue, fibromyalgia, multiple sclerosis, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig’s disease), or Parkinson’s disease, for which there is no cure, only palliative remedies. Manifestations of cognitive and memory impairment from neurological Lyme disease are commonly misdiagnosed as depression or other mental conditions; and

WHEREAS, Prompt treatment with antibiotics during early Lyme disease can cure the infection and prevent complications of progressive Lyme disease. If treatment is delayed, treatment can be difficult and accompanied by progressive debilitation, and recovery will take much longer. Lyme disease inadequately treated can lead to death; and

WHEREAS, In California, the western black-legged tick (Ixodes pacificus) transmits the bacteria that cause Lyme disease. Western black-legged ticks are most common in the coastal regions and along the western slope of the Sierra Nevada range. Ticks prefer cool moist environments such as shaded grasses, shrubs, and leaf litter under trees in oak woodlands; and

WHEREAS, Ticks have three life stages. The larvae and nymphs are found in low, moist vegetation such as in leaf litter. Adults are found on the tips of grasses and shrubs, often along trails. Nymphs and adult females of the western black-legged tick can transmit Lyme disease bacterium to humans. Because nymphs are tiny and difficult to see, they may not be removed promptly. Nymphs are most active in spring and early summer, when people are most likely to be outdoors. Adult ticks are most active from fall through early spring. A blood engorged female tick looks somewhat like a chocolate covered raisin and should be promptly removed by being pulled out and straight up with tweezers from underneath; and

WHEREAS, There are fewer than 40 “Lyme literate” physicians in clinical practice in California, resulting in frequent misdiagnosis and under-treatment of patients. This marginalization has led to broken families, financial hardship, job losses, increased numbers of people on disability or welfare, and even death. We have a hidden public health epidemic in need of being addressed promptly; and

WHEREAS, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) made Lyme disease a nationally notifiable condition in 1982. Over 125,000 cases have since been reported nationwide, making Lyme disease the most frequently reported vector-borne disease. In 2002, the number of cases reported increased by 40% over the prior year to 23,763 cases. The CDC estimates that only 10% of Lyme disease cases are actually reported; and

WHEREAS, The first recognized human case in California occurred in 1978 in a hiker from Sonoma County. Passive surveillance for Lyme disease cases began at the State Department of Health Services in 1989. As of 2002, over 1,700 cases have been reported from 54 of 58 counties, exceeding all other vector transmitted diseases in California; and

WHEREAS, Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations requires that physicians report all newly diagnosed cases of Lyme disease to their local health department. Laboratory reporting of positive Lyme disease tests will begin in early 2005 and is expected to increase the number of patients identified; and

WHEREAS, In 2004, the International Lyme and Associated Diseases Society developed "Evidence-based Guidelines for the Management of Lyme Disease," published in Expert Review and Anti-infective Ther.: 2(1), 2004. These guidelines should be required reading for practitioners treating infectious diseases and a key reference for training future physicians, nurse practitioners, and school nurses. It is now clear that long-term antibiotic treatment of chronic Lyme disease can be effective; and

WHEREAS, In 1999, Senate Bill No. 1115 (Chesbro; Chapter 668 of the Statutes of 1999) established the Lyme Disease Advisory Committee (LDAC) to provide information and service to the Lyme patient community; and

WHEREAS, In 2004, Assembly Bill No. 1091 (Negrete McLeod; Chapter 262 of the Statutes of 2004) revised the method by which the State Department of Health Services may modify the list of reportable diseases. This bill, cosponsored by the Health Officers Association of California and the California Lyme Disease Association, was originally designed to make Lyme disease laboratory reportable but broadened to modernize the existing reporting system; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds that this disease is a hidden epidemic that presents a major health threat to all Californians; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California proclaims May 4 through May 10, 2005, as Lyme Disease Awareness Week.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 21

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 35—Relative to Polio Awareness Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Anyone over the age of 50 years is likely to remember the terror of polio. Beaches were closed at the height of summer because the crippling, contagious disease seemed to spread through contact with water. Adults and children saw their lives become a nightmare of isolation wards, spinal taps, braces, orthopedic surgeries, social stigma, and confinement inside an iron lung — sometimes for years — just to breathe; and

WHEREAS, At the time, polio was seen as a disease of immigrants in primitive, filthy living conditions. Public health officials enacted strict sanitation policies. But as the 20th century progressed, polio (once called “infantile paralysis”) began striking older children and adults, and disproportionately hit the middle class. Scientists now believe that improved sanitation was to blame. When water supplies were consistently contaminated with the poliovirus, as they were in impoverished areas, people were typically infected during infancy, but most suffered little more than diarrhea, and then had lifelong immunity against polio. In contrast, middle-class people with access to clean drinking water might not encounter the virus until later in childhood, when the virus was more likely to spread to the brain and spinal cord and cause paralysis; and

WHEREAS, The so-called iron lung was the first effective treatment for patients so severely paralyzed they couldn’t breathe. First used in 1928 on an 8-year-old girl with polio at Children’s Hospital Boston, it consisted of a tank made by a local tinsmith and a pair of vacuum cleaner blowers. As the machine breathed for her, the girl revived and later asked for ice cream. Later, as demand grew, hospitals moved to room-sized respirators. Former patients can describe living in respirators for months on end, never leaving to be bathed or changed, eating flat on their backs, relying on nurses to feed them and mirrors to see around them. During power outages, hospital staff, including doctors, took turns pumping the respirators with a bellows; and

WHEREAS, A vaccine was desperately needed, but before Dr. Jonas Salk could create one there needed to be a practical way to grow poliovirus in quantity in the lab. In the late 1940s, the virus could only be grown in nerve tissue, which is difficult to maintain, or in live monkeys, a laborious and costly approach. Although Dr. Salk is famous for developing the polio vaccine, John Enders, Thomas Weller, and Frederick Robbins of Children’s Hospital Boston were the first to culture poliovirus in a variety of tissues — under primitive lab conditions — earning them a Nobel Prize in 1954; and

WHEREAS, This critical step, which enabled Salk to develop a vaccine, was accomplished on a shoestring budget in a makeshift lab. John Enders and colleagues initially had no protective apparatus, had no sterile hoods for working with viruses, and had to book glassware for experiments in advance since there was not enough to go around. They made do by being creative: Thomas Weller purchased a $15,000 autoclave at auction for $25, and two craftsmen in the building built them some primitive equipment; and

WHEREAS, On April 12, 1955, the Salk polio vaccine was announced. Within a few years, polio virtually disappeared. Polio was declared eradicated in the United States in 1979. Yet according to the World Health Organization, polio cases worldwide rose by one-third in 2004, due in part to a vaccine boycott; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature declares April 12, 2005, to be Polio Awareness Day, a day to commemorate the development of the polio vaccine and to acknowledge polio survivors; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 22

Senate Joint Resolution No. 2—Relative to the Armenian Genocide.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Armenian people, living in their 3,000 year historic homeland in eastern Asia Minor and throughout the Ottoman Empire, were subjected to severe persecution and brutal injustice by the rulers of the Ottoman Empire before and after the turn of the 20th century, including widespread massacres, usurpation of land and property, and acts of wanton destruction during the period from 1894 to 1896, and again in 1909; and

WHEREAS, The horrible experience of the Armenians at the hands of their oppressors culminated in 1915 in what is known by historians as the “First Genocide of the Twentieth Century,” and as the prototype of modern-day mass killing; and

WHEREAS, The Armenian Genocide began with the arrest, exile, and murder of hundreds of Armenian intellectuals, and political, religious, and business leaders, starting on April 24, 1915; and

WHEREAS, The regime then in control of the empire, known as the “Young Turks,” planned and executed the unspeakable atrocities committed against the Armenian people from 1915 through 1923, which included the torture, starvation, and murder of 1,500,000 Armenians, death marches into the Syrian desert, the forced exile of more than 500,000 innocent people, and the loss of the traditional Armenian homelands; and

WHEREAS, While there were some Turks and others who jeopardized their safety in order to protect Armenians from the crimes being perpetrated by the Young Turk regime, the genocide of the Armenian people constituted one of the most egregious violations of human rights in the history of the world; and

WHEREAS, The United States Ambassador to the Ottoman Empire, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., stated “Whatever crimes the most perverted instincts of the human mind can devise, and whatever refinements of persecutions and injustice the most debased imagination can conceive, became the daily misfortunes of this devoted people. I am confident that the whole history of the human race contains no such horrible episode as this. The great massacres and persecutions of the past seem almost insignificant when compared to the sufferings of the Armenian race in 1915. The killing of the Armenian people was accompanied by the systematic destruction of churches, schools, libraries, treasures of art, and cultural monuments in an attempt to eliminate all traces of a noble civilization with a history of more than 3,000 years”; and

WHEREAS, Winston Churchill wrote: “As for Turkish atrocities: ... massacring uncounted thousands of helpless Armenians, men, women, and children together, whole districts blotted out in one administrative holocaust—these were beyond human redress”; and

WHEREAS, Contemporary newspapers like the New York Times commonly carried headlines such as “Tales of Armenian Horrors Confirmed,” “Million Armenians Killed or in Exile,” and “Wholesale Massacre of Armenians by Turks”; and

WHEREAS, Adolph Hitler, in persuading his army commanders on the eve of World War II that the merciless persecution and killing of Poles, Jews, and other peoples would bring no retribution, declared, “Who, after all, speaks today of the annihilation of the Armenians”; and

WHEREAS, Unlike other peoples and governments that have admitted and denounced the abuses and crimes of predecessor regimes, and despite the overwhelming weight of evidence, the Republic of Turkey has inexplicably and adamantly denied the occurrence of the crimes against humanity committed by the Young Turk rulers, and those denials compound the grief of the few remaining survivors of the atrocities, desecrate the memory of the victims, and cause continuing trauma and pain to the descendants of the victims; and

WHEREAS, Nations that have officially recognized the Armenian Genocide have been subjected to retaliation and condemnation by Turkey; and

WHEREAS, There have been concerted efforts to revise history through the dissemination of propaganda suggesting that Armenians were responsible for their fate in the period from 1915 through 1923 and by the funding of programs at American educational institutions for the purpose of furthering the cause of this revisionism; and

WHEREAS, Leaders of nations with strategic, commercial, and cultural ties to the Republic of Turkey should be reminded of their duty to encourage Turkish officials to desist from efforts to distort facts and deny the history of events surrounding the Armenian Genocide; and

WHEREAS, The accelerated level and scope of denial and revisionism, coupled with the passage of time and the fact that few survivors remain who serve as reminders of indescribable brutality and torment, compel a sense of urgency in efforts to solidify recognition and reaffirmation of historical truth; and

WHEREAS, By honoring the survivors and consistently remembering and forcefully condemning the atrocities committed against the Armenian people as well as the persecution of the Assyrian and Greek populations of the Ottoman Empire, we guard against repetition of the crime of genocide; and

WHEREAS, California has become home to the largest population of Armenians in the United States, and those citizens have enriched our state through leadership in the fields of academia, medicine, business, agriculture, government, and the arts and are proud and patriotic practitioners of American citizenship; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has been at the forefront in encouraging and promoting a curriculum relating to human rights and genocide in order to empower future generations to prevent recurrence of the crime of genocide; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby designates April 24, 2005, as the “California Day of Remembrance for the Armenian Genocide of 1915-1923”; and be it further

Resolved, That the State of California commends its conscientious educators who teach about human rights and genocide; and be it further

Resolved, That the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to act likewise to commemorate the Armenian Genocide; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, Members of the United States Congress, and the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 23

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 4—Relative to Korean-American Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 25, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On January 13, 1903, the history of Korean immigration to America began as 102 courageous Korean men, women, and children ventured across the vast Pacific Ocean aboard the S.S. Gaelic to land in Hawaii; and

WHEREAS, The hopes of these Koreans for the promised land of opportunity was quickly frustrated by social, economic, and language barriers of unforeseen magnitude; and

WHEREAS, They did not falter in their pursuit of the American dream, but through tenacious effort and sacrifice, established a new home in a new land and educated their Korean–American children; and

WHEREAS, While the first Korean immigrants fought for the freedom and independence of their motherland, their children grew up to be patriotic American citizens, served in the Armed Forces of the United States during World War II, and made other important contributions to mainstream America; and

WHEREAS, While the first wave of immigrants gradually made inroads into California society, a timely enactment of the federal Immigration Act of 1965 opened wide doors for a second wave of Korean immigration; and

WHEREAS, Beginning in the 1970s, in search of better opportunities for their children, a multitude of dynamic Koreans joined the increasing flow of immigration to California; and

WHEREAS, With diligence, fortitude, and a strong belief in the American dream, these immigrants turned emergent areas into thriving and respectable California communities while raising children as productive Korean-Americans; and

WHEREAS, Korean-Americans have become an integral part of the State of California and have made important contributions to mainstream American society; and

WHEREAS, In a quarter century, young Korean-Americans joined mainstream society and began to make significant contributions as

Californians in the fields of finance, technology, law, medicine, education, sports, media, the arts, the military, and government, as well as in other areas; and

WHEREAS, As the Korean-American community, with a population of nearly two million, prepares for a new era and creates new history, we must instill in the upcoming generations proper appreciation for the courage and value of their forefathers, a deep sense of their roots, and pride in their own cultural heritage so that they may better contribute to the great State of California, rich with ethnic and cultural diversity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby proclaims January 13, 2005, as Korean-American Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 24

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 32—Relative to West Nile Virus and Mosquito and Vector Control Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 25, 2005.]

WHEREAS, West Nile virus is a mosquito-borne disease that can result in debilitating cases of meningitis and encephalitis and death to humans, horses, avian species, and other wildlife; and

WHEREAS, In 2004, West Nile virus killed 27 people in California and sickened over 800 individuals; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Health Services and the Centers for Disease Control predict West Nile virus poses a grave public health threat in California in 2005; and

WHEREAS, Adequately funded mosquito and vector control, disease surveillance, and public awareness programs are the best ways to prevent outbreaks of West Nile virus and other diseases borne by mosquitoes and other vectors; and

WHEREAS, Mosquitoes and other vectors, including, but not limited to, ticks, Africanized honeybees, rats, fleas, and flies, continue to be a source of human suffering, illness, death, and a public nuisance in California and around the world; and

WHEREAS, Excess numbers of mosquitoes and other vectors spread diseases of humans, livestock, and wildlife, reduce enjoyment of public and private outdoor living spaces, reduce property values, hinder outdoor work, and reduce livestock productivity; and

WHEREAS, Mosquitoes and other vectors can disperse or be transported long distances from their sources and are, therefore, a health risk and public nuisance; and

WHEREAS, Professional mosquito and vector control based on scientific research has made great advances in reducing mosquito and vector populations and the diseases they transmit; and

WHEREAS, Mosquito and vector-borne viruses that can cause human illness or even death have been routinely found in mosquitoes and other vectors in over one-half of the counties in California; and

WHEREAS, Mosquitoes that are commonly found within California are known vectors of the West Nile virus, which has struck with deadly force throughout the United States in recent years; and

WHEREAS, Established mosquito and vector-borne diseases such as plague, Lyme disease, and encephalitis, and new and emerging vector-borne diseases such as hantavirus, arenavirus, babesiosis, and ehrlichiosis cause illness and sometimes death every year in California; and

WHEREAS, Mosquito and vector control districts throughout the State of California work closely with the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the State Department of Health Services to reduce pesticide risks to humans, animals, and the environment while protecting human health from mosquito and vector-borne diseases and nuisance attacks; and

WHEREAS, The public's awareness of the health benefits associated with safe, professionally applied mosquito and vector control methods will support these efforts, as well as motivate the public to eliminate mosquito and vector breeding sites on private property; and

WHEREAS, Educational programs have been developed to include schools, civic groups, private industry, and government agencies, in order to meet the public's need for information about West Nile virus, other diseases, and mosquito and vector biology and control; and

WHEREAS, Adequate funding for mosquito and vector control and for surveillance of vector-borne disease organisms is not being provided in many areas of the state; and

WHEREAS, Public awareness can result in reduced production of mosquitoes and other vectors on private, commercial, and public lands by responsible parties, avoidance of the bites of mosquitoes and other vectors when the risk of West Nile virus and other disease transmission is high, detection of human cases of mosquito and vector-borne diseases that may otherwise be misdiagnosed for lack of appropriate laboratory testing, and the formation of mosquito or vector control agencies where needed; and

WHEREAS, Public awareness can result in action to provide adequate funding for existing mosquito and vector control agencies or to create control agencies in areas where there are no existing controls; and

WHEREAS, “West Nile Virus and Mosquito and Vector Control Awareness Week” will increase the public’s awareness of the threat of West Nile virus and other diseases and the activities of the various mosquito and vector research and control agencies working to minimize the health threat within California, and will highlight the educational programs currently available; and

WHEREAS, The Mosquito and Vector Control Association of California has designated the week of April 25 through May 1, 2005, as “West Nile Virus and Mosquito and Vector Control Awareness Week” in the State of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares that the week of April 25 through May 1, 2005, be designated as West Nile Virus and Mosquito and Vector Control Awareness Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor and the Director of Health Services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 25

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 35—Relative to youth organizations.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 25, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The California Police Activities League was founded in 1971 as a 501(c)(3) Public Benefit Corporation by a group of police officers from Long Beach, Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco, and San Jose whose initial idea was to organize a statewide organization to serve the youth of California through athletic programs; and

WHEREAS, For the first 20 years, these officers, with others from various cities and municipalities around the state, met biannually to share ideas, information, and procedures from their local PAL programs and promote the PAL concept; and

WHEREAS, In 1991, The California Police Activities League, expanded its mission to engage youth by bringing together youth teams from local PAL and Sheriff’s Activities League (SAL) chapters throughout the state and holding its first annual California Police

Activities League Basketball tournament; and building from that successful event, California PAL now sponsors 19 boys and girls youth sporting events and other enriching youth activities that are conducted in a safe, supervised environment; and

WHEREAS, California PAL events are held at various locations throughout the state giving youth the opportunity to visit new places and broaden their horizons; and

WHEREAS, Over the years, California PAL has continued to expand into the largest nonprofit police youth organization in the state, and represents the leading juvenile delinquency prevention effort in California; and

WHEREAS, Thanks to the hard work and efforts of countless police officers and civilians coming together to focus on providing the youth of California with positive alternatives to negative lifestyles, California PAL now includes 130 local Police and Sheriff's Activities Leagues from throughout the State of California, serving over 300,000 California youth annually; making California PAL the largest state PAL in the country; and

WHEREAS, Recently, California PAL has made a concerted effort to provide high-tech opportunities for its local PAL chapter members to communicate, exchange ideas, track, and report data and outcome measures and manage their PAL/SAL chapters more effectively; and

WHEREAS, Those efforts also include providing youth with opportunities to gain essential technology-based training and skills for the 21st century workplace; and

WHEREAS, California PAL, at the request of the youth, instituted a youth leadership program, the Youth Directors Council, to develop youth leaders for each of the member chapters, so they can propose strategy and programming for their PAL/SAL chapters, and a five-day Life After High School experience held at California State University Monterey Bay, which instructs the students about college, careers, life skills, and other important factors necessary for successful entry into adult society; and

WHEREAS, For the past six years, California PAL has annually introduced 200 to 300 youth to Sacramento by holding its annual Sacramento Experience in which youth see the government of California in operation by meeting their local legislators, touring the Capitol, and even going on the Senate or Assembly floor; and

WHEREAS, From its humble beginnings, California PAL has grown into an organization that makes a lasting difference in the lives of California youth and continues to make a strong contribution in reducing juvenile crime and creating a safer environment within the State of California; and

WHEREAS, California PAL's mission is to effect a substantial reduction of juvenile crime in California through proactive community policing, and California PAL's primary goal is to assist Police and Sheriff's departments in establishing and developing PAL/SAL chapters in every community in California, thereby ensuring that all California youth have the opportunity to participate in California PAL programs; and

WHEREAS, California PAL has become California's largest juvenile crime prevention program in the State of California, with the active participation of over 300,000 youth; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, that April 11, 2005, is hereby recognized as California Police Activities League Day in the State of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 26

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 17—Relative to language education.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Americans are exhibiting increased social, cultural, and economic ties to the global community, which presents new opportunities as we seek to communicate with and understand nations and people who have different languages and cultural backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, Studying other languages has been shown to contribute to increased cognitive skills and academic performance and to a greater understanding of others by providing lifelong learning opportunities for people beyond school age; and

WHEREAS, Proficiency in several languages enhances people's careers and provides employers with a workforce with the necessary skills for an international marketplace; and

WHEREAS, Developing skills in a different language fosters personal and intellectual growth of pupils in our schools, while contributing to economic prosperity and world stability; and

WHEREAS, Maintaining proficiency in a heritage language benefits both the pupils in our schools and the people in our nation by ensuring the availability of a pool of potential employees with communicative skills in languages other than English and with the cultural understanding necessary to an increased level of understanding between people of different cultural backgrounds, both at home and abroad; and

WHEREAS, Language educators are working cooperatively to promote the benefits of teaching different languages to pupils, parents, and policymakers, and to business, industry, health, and social service leaders, throughout the nation; and

WHEREAS, Language educators are urging the public to recognize the value of delivering a better education to our pupils, and of expanding the cultural and literary horizons for adult citizens; and

WHEREAS, Language education in the 21st century includes a commitment to the study of world languages, beginning in the primary grades, to enable pupils to develop the levels of proficiency needed to effectively communicate with people from other cultures, whether at home or abroad; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes 2005 as the Year of Languages, and encourages all educational communities to celebrate languages and cultures with meaningful pupil activities and programs that demonstrate learning and understanding of the diversity of languages and cultures in California, and urges all citizens to become interested in, and to give full support to, quality language and cultural programs for all pupils in California schools; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 27

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 27—Relative to National Engineers Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The week of February 20 to 26 is being observed by state and national engineering organizations as National Engineers Week, during which time a number of observances will be taking place throughout California and the nation; and

WHEREAS, During National Engineers Week, students in elementary and high schools are introduced to many facets of the engineering profession through special educational programs; and

WHEREAS, There are approximately 120,000 registered professional engineers in California; and

WHEREAS, Professional engineers have used their scientific and technical knowledge and skills in creative and innovative ways to fulfill society's needs; and

WHEREAS, Engineers practice in a number of important specialties, including aerospace, chemical, metallurgical, civil, industrial, geotechnical, structural, mechanical, and electrical; and

WHEREAS, Engineers are on the leading edge of technology and have helped conquer many frontiers in space, in the operating room, in factories, on the ocean floor, and inside the earth; and

WHEREAS, Society will begin to look more and more to engineers and their knowledge and skills to meet the challenges of the future; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the services bestowed upon the citizens of California by engineers; and be it further

Resolved, That the week of February 20 to 26, 2005, is hereby recognized as National Engineers Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author of this resolution for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 28

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 8—Relative to Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Elder and dependent adult abuse is a serious and growing problem throughout California; and

WHEREAS, Elder and dependent adult abuse is a crime that is indiscriminate in choosing whom it strikes, and factors such as one's socioeconomic status, gender, race, ethnicity, educational background, and geographic location do not provide an impregnable barrier against its broad, horrible reach; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 225,000 Californians are victims of elder and dependent adult abuse every year, including neglect and physical, psychological, emotional, and financial abuse; and

WHEREAS, Victimization levels promise to significantly increase, as the United States Census Bureau projects that California's elderly population will nearly double in the next 20 years, from 3.7 million to over 6.4 million; and

WHEREAS, It has been estimated that only one in five cases of elder and dependent adult abuse is reported because the victims are ashamed, helpless, or afraid of the abuser; and

WHEREAS, Recognizing suspected elder and dependent adult abuse through increased awareness is the first step toward the prevention of this type of abuse; and

WHEREAS, Elder and dependent adults are deserving of special consideration and protection, not unlike the special protections provided for minor children, because they are a vulnerable population that is often targeted by criminal predators; and

WHEREAS, Elder and dependent adults have the right to live safely, whether in their homes or in health care facilities, and to enjoy an optimum quality of life, while being protected from all forms of abuse; and

WHEREAS, Private citizens and public agencies must work both independently and collaboratively to combat crime and violence against elder and dependent adults; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has the responsibility to ensure that our “Greatest Generation,” which has given us so much, can live their lives with the dignity and respect they deserve; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature proclaims the month of May this year and every year thereafter as Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 29

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 12—Relative to California Museum Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Museums significantly enhance the quality of life for California residents; and

WHEREAS, California museums provide their communities with many services and activities that add to and enhance those provided by the public sector; and

WHEREAS, California is home to over 1,300 museums that serve every community and region throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, There is at least one museum in every county of the state, serving a total of over 26 million visitors annually; and

WHEREAS, California museums represent a multitude of disciplines, including art museums, zoos, aquaria, historical societies, science centers, botanical gardens, children's museums, and cultural centers; and

WHEREAS, Museums do important work that helps the state meet its obligations to residents in the field of education; and

WHEREAS, Museums contribute to formal and informal learning at every stage of life, from the education of children in preschool through secondary school, to the continuing education of adults; and

WHEREAS, The vast majority of museums provide invaluable school visits or school programs to millions of children each year; and

WHEREAS, Museums are a significant resource for in-service training of California teachers; and

WHEREAS, Museums act as a repository for California natural and cultural history, and are an important means of making available the best of our society's art, science, history, and culture to California residents; and

WHEREAS, Museums contribute significantly to California's economic activity by providing a huge economic boost to their communities by attracting tourists and local visitors, all of whom create a demand for services; and

WHEREAS, California's museums are a major industry for the state; and

WHEREAS, Museums serve as a source of community pride in a state of rich diversity; and

WHEREAS, Museums are the part of a community that provides a common experience and a safe place that people from all backgrounds can share; and

WHEREAS, California's museums are one of the best bargains around, with half of the state's museums providing free admission to adults; and

WHEREAS, The California Association of Museums will bring important recognition to the diversity of community services that museums provide, by hosting an eclectic array of public programming during the month of May 2005; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the important role that museums have in the state, and proclaims May 2005, as California Museum Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 30

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 21—Relative to Watershed Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California treasures its spectacular landscapes, from the Sierra Nevada to the Pacific Coast, from the big cities to the small towns, from agricultural lands to wilderness; and

WHEREAS, The state's lands, rivers, streams, lakes, wetlands and groundwater resources are interconnected to form a rich mosaic of watersheds; and

WHEREAS, These treasured water resources provide citizens, communities, cities, and the state with clean drinking water and recreation, habitat for rare and endangered species, scenic values, and business opportunities; and

WHEREAS, The State of California contains 194,000 miles of rivers and streams for all to enjoy and treasure; and

WHEREAS, There are significant river basins in California, from the Colorado River in the south to the Klamath in the north, from the Owens in the eastern Sierra to the Salinas flowing into the Pacific Ocean, and including many smaller, but equally important, river basins; and

WHEREAS, There are 1,428 watersheds that serve as the basic building blocks of our natural environment and that influence development throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, The State of California is committed to a watershed approach to the protection and restoration of water quality, wildlife habitat, fish and aquatic habitat, scenic resources, and recreation opportunity; and

WHEREAS, The State of California invests in watershed restoration through voluntary community-based groups in the majority of its watersheds; and

WHEREAS, This voluntary, community-based approach to environmental protection provides cleaner rivers and streams; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 500 active watershed groups in the State of California, and new groups are forming every week; and

WHEREAS, Many voluntary watershed groups designate "creek and watershed days" for volunteer workers and educational forums, both of which connect adults and children to their watersheds, and lead to a commitment to long-term protection for these important and valuable ecosystem resources; and

WHEREAS, The State of California hereby recognizes and celebrates the efforts of hardworking volunteers within watershed groups who improve their communities today and for future generations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of May 2005, be proclaimed “Watershed Awareness Month”; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit sufficient copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 31

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 49—Relative to Caltrans Workers Memorial Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, A total of 161 California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) employees have died in work-related injuries since 1924; and

WHEREAS, William J. Calloway, a Caltrans structural steel painter in the San Francisco Bay Area, fell last year from the Benicia Bridge and died; and

WHEREAS, Chester R. Hawkins, a Caltrans equipment operator II in the Stockton area, was killed a year ago after the truck he was driving left the highway and plunged into the Merced River; and

WHEREAS, Caltrans will remember its fallen colleagues April 14 at 2 p.m. on the west steps of the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Caltrans will honor its dead by featuring 161 cones shaped in a 60-foot caution sign; and

WHEREAS, Each of those cones represent a Caltrans worker who has died on the job the last 81 years; and

WHEREAS, An honor guard from Caltrans District 3 (Marysville) will conduct a ceremony around the cones; and

WHEREAS, For the first time in history, the solemn event will include the National Work Zone Memorial Wall, which identifies and recognizes highway workers who have been killed in maintenance or construction across the country; and

WHEREAS, Caltrans workers, their friends, and families across the state will stop for a moment at 2:30 p.m. to remember the need for safety on the job and the sacrifices that so many colleagues have made over the years; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature acknowledges the sacrifice that all

Caltrans highway workers make on a daily basis to protect and serve the traveling public; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature designates the 15th annual Caltrans Workers Memorial Day on April 14, 2005; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature directs the Department of General Services to place a plaque commemorating the sacrifice of Caltrans workers under the Virginia Live Oak planted on the Capitol grounds; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 32

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4—Relative to public health awareness.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California is experiencing an epidemic of obesity and diabetes, costing the state financially and causing suffering, illness, and death for many Californians; and

WHEREAS, The new year provides an opportunity for individuals and organizations to assess the challenges ahead and make commitments for improvement in their personal and professional lives; and

WHEREAS, State leaders in all branches of government have recognized the problems of the epidemic, and through a bipartisan, inclusive commitment can lead the state toward increased physical activity and improved nutrition and wellness; and

WHEREAS, Cities, towns, counties, and special districts have opportunities to affect the epidemic positively through the built environment through planning and programs that may include the provision of safe and accessible walking and bicycling facilities and infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, Children spend a significant amount of time in school settings, and schools have opportunities to affect the epidemic positively by offering nutritious food and snacks, quality physical education and health studies, after-school programs, and school-based recreational activities; and

WHEREAS, Workplaces can improve productivity, promote health, and reduce liability costs by making available healthy food service and vending choices, increasing access to safe stairways, encouraging bicycling and walking for commuters, and making other changes related to employee health; and

WHEREAS, The state's unique climate and geography provides opportunities for all Californians to engage in recreational and physical activities in neighborhoods and communities, and local, state, and national parks and recreation facilities; and

WHEREAS, The state has widespread access to fresh and healthy food because of its great agricultural production, fine restaurants, creative chefs, and health food advocates; and

WHEREAS, Being overweight or obese is associated with an increased risk of developing serious disease, including diabetes, heart disease, and cancers of the breast, colon, endometrium, gallbladder, esophagus, pancreas, and kidney; and

WHEREAS, Health costs of the epidemic are dramatic, costing the state at least $21.7 billion annually. Efforts to remedy the problem will pay for themselves by reducing these costs; and

WHEREAS, California is a leader in cultural trends throughout the nation and the world, and addressing the epidemic can provide a valuable model for other states and countries; and

WHEREAS, By establishing goals for reversing the epidemic, the state can account for progress by measuring the resources devoted to the problem along with the results of improved health and wellness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature encourages leadership in all branches and levels of government, local action by communities, initiatives by schools and workplaces, increased recreation and physical activity that is accessible for all Californians, expanded healthy food options in restaurants, markets, and homes, and increased emphasis on health education and prevention of obesity and diabetes; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recognizes that the state can be a role model for increased physical activity and improved nutrition and wellness throughout the nation and the world; and be it further

Resolved, That the results of the efforts to reverse the obesity and diabetes epidemic be measured in the years to come; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 33

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 38—Relative to Crime Victims’ Rights Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Violent crime continues to exist in California and crime in one part of the state, or against one person, affects our entire sense of well-being; and

WHEREAS, All Californians are affected by crime, not just the victims of violent crime; and

WHEREAS, The most effective aid that can be provided to victims of crime is to prevent crime from taking place in the first place; and

WHEREAS, The National Crime Victims’ Rights Week is celebrating its silver anniversary from April 10 through April 16, 2005; and

WHEREAS, For the 25 years since 1981, National Crime Victims’ Rights Week has raised awareness of the special needs of crime victims; and

WHEREAS, The theme for this 25th commemoration of National Crime Victims’ Rights Week is “Justice Isn’t Served Until Crime Victims Are”; and

WHEREAS, 2005 is a landmark year for crime victims and survivors and those who serve them; and

WHEREAS, The respect and protection of victims’ rights within the legal process is one of the most critical components of an effective criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, Victims and witnesses of crime require special attention to ensure that they are thoroughly informed about, and participate effectively in, the criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, To the maximum extent allowed by law, victims of violent crime should receive compensation for their losses; and

WHEREAS, Each day, thousands of victims and witnesses receive assistance from victim support organizations, victim-witness assistance centers, private service providers, and state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, The criminal justice system in this state must persist in its effort to better coordinate and improve the quality of services provided to victims and witnesses; and

WHEREAS, California has been a pioneer in victims’ rights and is observing the 40th anniversary of California’s Victim Compensation Program, the first, oldest, and largest in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Since 1965, California has awarded over $1 billion to help crime victims; and

WHEREAS, California citizens enshrined victims' rights in the California Constitution in 1982 through the passage of Proposition 8, the Crime Victims' Bill of Rights; and

WHEREAS, Each year, the observance of the National Crime Victims' Rights Week focuses on the problems confronting victims of crime and the services available to support these victims; and

WHEREAS, The remembrances observed during National Crime Victims' Rights Week promote awareness of victim issues and acknowledge the combined efforts of citizens, government, and the criminal justice system to improve victims' services in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the week of April 10 through April 16, 2005, be recognized as Crime Victims' Rights Week in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 34

Senate Joint Resolution No. 1—Relative to the Lemoore Military Operations Area (MOA) Initiative.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The United States Navy at Naval Air Station (NAS) Lemoore in joint partnership with the California Air National Guard (CANG) 144th Fighter Wing, Fresno, have proposed the establishment of a new Military Operations Area (MOA) over NAS Lemoore to satisfy many critical national defense training requirements, the Lemoore MOA Initiative; and

WHEREAS, The current price of military aircraft training in the existing training environment is substantial. The cost per flight hour of military aircraft is high. The current need to travel long distances to secure needed training requires large amounts of fuel and time to transit to and from the training location. Current training locations are increasingly crowded with other joint users of the training airspaces, which interferes with the quality of training and the safety of these training events. The current need of our military personnel to travel within the United States to secure needed training unavailable in the current training environment increases their time away from home, in a time where they are already overtaxed with overseas commitments; and

WHEREAS, The benefits of training in the new Lemoore MOA would be substantial because pilots would train closer to home base and reduce the costs of longer transits to existing training locations. The establishment of an additional, new training airspace location would relieve the pressure on the existing training locations increasing their training quality and safety. Our military personnel would have reduced requirements to travel away from home to secure needed training. It is estimated that up to 30 million taxpayer dollars annually could be saved or better utilized in training for national defense requirements. The increase in military service member morale resulting from fewer training deployments from home would also be significant; and

WHEREAS, The existing NAS Lemoore Air Traffic Control (ATC) airspace already exists and is approximately 30 nautical miles by 70 nautical miles to support current NAS Lemoore airport operations. The Lemoore MOA Initiative would allow tactical training flights inside this existing airspace. No supersonic, weapons employment, or aggressive maneuvering flights over populated areas will be allowed in the new airspace; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that the high altitudes of the desired training flights and the sparsely populated rural environment of the land below the Lemoore MOA will have minimal environmental impact. To ensure this, the Navy in cooperation with the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is completing an Environmental Assessment (EA). The Lemoore MOA would not increase air emissions for the State Implementation Plan. Military training flights over the Sierra Nevada Mountains, including wilderness areas and the Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Parks, could be reduced if some of these flights were redirected to the Lemoore MOA; and

WHEREAS, The impact of the Lemoore MOA Initiative on the current civilian air traffic environment is considered minimal. The Navy in conjunction with the FAA is completing an operational analysis on both military and civilian air traffic patterns within the vicinity of NAS Lemoore. The footprint of the Lemoore MOA does not impact most air traffic flows; and

WHEREAS, Both the Navy and FAA are conducting outreach programs to the civilian aviation community to explain that the Lemoore MOA Initiative will allow for simultaneous military and civilian use of designated training airspace. These outreach programs are also informing civilian pilots that the Lemoore MOA will be managed in real time in an effort to prevent a conflict between military and civilian aircraft; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly,
That the Legislature of the State of California urges the President and the Congress of the United States to support the establishment of the Lemoore Military Operations Area for joint use by military aircraft from both the Naval Air Station Lemoore and the California Air National Guard, Fresno; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature requests that the Federal Aviation Administration approve the creation of the Lemoore MOA as quickly as possible and that the California Congressional delegation pursue all efforts to ensure that the Lemoore MOA is established; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration, the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Air Force, and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 35

Senate Joint Resolution No. 7—Relative to Equal Pay Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Forty-two years after the passage of the Federal Equal Pay Act of 1963 and forty-one years after the passage of Title VII of the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, American women continue to suffer disparities in wages that cannot be accounted for by age, education, or work experience; and

WHEREAS, According to statistics released in 2004 by the U.S. Census Bureau, year-round, full-time working women in 2003 earned only 76% of the earnings of year-round, full-time working men, indicating little change or progress in pay equity; and

WHEREAS, A General Accounting Office report on women's earnings shows that there exists an inexplicable wage gap of approximately 20 percent between men and women, even after taking into account work experience, education, occupation, industry of current employment, and other demographic and job characteristics; and

WHEREAS, Since the passage of the Equal Pay Act, the gap has narrowed by less than half, from 41 cents per dollar to 22 cents, and research by the Institute for Women's Policy Research finds that recent change is due in large part to men's real wages falling, not women's wages rising; and

WHEREAS, California ranks fifth among all states in equal pay, yet it ranks 39th among all states in progress in closing the hourly wage gap, and at the current rate of change California working women will not have equal pay for another 40 years; and

WHEREAS, The consequences of the wage gap reach beyond working women and extend to their families and the economy to the extent that, in 1999, even after accounting for differences in education, age, location, and the number of hours worked, America's working families lost $200 billion of annual income to the wage gap, with an average of $4,000 per family; and

WHEREAS, Women play a crucial role in maintaining the financial well-being of their families by providing a significant percentage of their household incomes and, in many cases, women head their own households; and

WHEREAS, Pay inequity results in a higher poverty rate for women, particularly in women-headed households, as evidenced by figures from the McAuley Institute which indicate that for families that are headed by a woman and have children under the age of five years, the poverty rate is an astonishing 46.4 percent; and

WHEREAS, Women currently comprise 48 percent of the labor force; and

WHEREAS, Educated women are not exempt from pay disparity; and

WHEREAS, In 2001 the average income for a woman with a bachelor's degree was 24% lower than that of a man with the same level of education—$32,238 versus $42,292; and

WHEREAS, The wage gap is also prevalent within minority communities, as shown by a 2002 report that African-American women earned 91 percent of what African-American men earned, and Hispanic women earned 88 percent of what Hispanic men earned; and

WHEREAS, Even in professions in which women comprise a majority of workers, such as nursing and teaching, men earn an average of 20 percent more than women working in these same occupations; and

WHEREAS, According to the data analysis of over 300 job classifications provided by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, women are paid less in every occupational classification for which sufficient information is available; and

WHEREAS, The average 25-year-old woman who works full time, year round, is projected to earn $523,000 less over the course of her career than the average 25-year-old man who works full time, year round; and

WHEREAS, If women were paid the same as men who work the same number of hours, have the same education and same union status, are the same age, and live in the same region of the country, then the annual family income of each of these women would rise by $4,000, and the number of families who live below the poverty line would be reduced by half; and

WHEREAS, The wage gap continues to affect women in their senior years as lower wages result in lower pensions and incomes after retirement, and affect a woman's ability to save, thereby contributing to a higher poverty rate for elderly women; and

WHEREAS, Half of all older women with income from a private pension receive less than $5,600 per year, as compared with $10,340 per year for older men; and

WHEREAS, Men live an average of 77 years and women live an average of 81.7 years; and

WHEREAS, Assuming men and women retire at age 65, men will rely on their state pensions to help them through 12 years of life, while a woman's pension will have to last 16.7 years; and

WHEREAS, There is a greater likelihood that a female worker would outlive her defined contribution plan; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that it would cost a man $654,000 to purchase an annuity based on 25 years of service and a $6,000 final-month salary, while it would cost a woman over $700,000 to purchase the same annuity with the same monthly benefits; and

WHEREAS, If both a man and a woman invested $750,000 in this same annuity, it is estimated the woman would receive a little under $3,420 per month while the man would receive $3,670, or a 7-percent difference; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature hereby declares April 19, 2004, to be "Equal Pay Day" in California and urges California citizens to recognize the full value and worth of women and their contributions to the California workforce; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully urges the Congress of the United States to protect the fundamental right of all American women to receive equal pay for equal work, and to continue to provide more effective remedies to victims of discrimination in the payment of wages on the basis of sex; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 36

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 33—Relative to California Fitness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 11, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Exercise and fitness activities can increase self-esteem, boost energy, strengthen the heart and muscles, burn calories, and improve cholesterol levels; and

WHEREAS, Exercise and fitness activities are excellent ways to relieve stress, lower the risk of heart disease and diabetes, prevent bone loss, and decrease the risk of some cancers; and

WHEREAS, A person's fitness level has a dramatic effect on the body's ability to produce energy and to reduce fat; and

WHEREAS, A fit person burns a higher percentage of fat not only during activity, but also at rest, fit people have a higher proportion of muscle tissue, which burns more calories than fat, and those with more muscle mass can eat more calories and still maintain a healthy weight; and

WHEREAS, To lose weight and keep it off, one should do an enjoyable, moderate-intensity aerobic activity for 30 to 60 minutes, three to five times a week; and

WHEREAS, A person should also do muscle-strengthening exercises two or three times a week and should concentrate on maintaining a balanced diet; and

WHEREAS, Most popular diet programs cannot produce long-lasting weight reduction results without exercise; and

WHEREAS, There is no age limit for physical activity. Among the elderly, exercise provides cardiovascular, respiratory, neuromuscular, metabolic, and mental health benefits; and

WHEREAS, Fitness activities have been shown to sharpen mental ability in all people and to retard the aging process; and

WHEREAS, Maximizing one's energy level, increasing muscle mass, and reducing body fat increases one's chances of living a longer, healthier life; and

WHEREAS, More than 60 percent of American adults do not get the recommended amount of physical activity, and 25 percent of American adults are not active; and

WHEREAS, Nearly all American youths from 12 to 21 years of age are not vigorously active on a regular basis; and

WHEREAS, The rate of Type 2 diabetes has tripled among American children during the last five years; and

WHEREAS, The United States Surgeon General recently spoke about the “cultural transformation” necessary to reverse the negative health effects of childhood obesity, and the threat to national security that obesity poses for the country; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Education reports that a majority of California’s children are not physically fit; and

WHEREAS, Along with California Fitness Month, the American Heart Association has declared May 2005 to be Stroke Awareness Month and will be collaborating in engaging Californians in fitness and health-related activities; and

WHEREAS, The California Bicycle Coalition, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, and numerous local organizations are coordinating public awareness events to promote Bike-to-Work Week, May 16-20; and

WHEREAS, Health care providers, insurance companies, fitness clubs, and others in the private sector will be collaborating to promote fit living and health improvement activities during May of 2005; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature seeks to advance the physical fitness of all Californians by educating them about the benefits of exercise and a balanced diet; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature will increase public awareness about the benefits of exercise and physical fitness by encouraging its members to host events in their districts that stimulate physical fitness and increase participation by Californians in activities that promote physical health and benefit both mental and physical well-being; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature encourages its members, as well as organizations, businesses, and individuals, to sponsor and attend physical fitness events that are informative, fun, and result in a number of Californians becoming physically fit; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of May 2005, as California Fitness Month, and encourages all Californians to enrich their lives through proper diet and exercise; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 37

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 7—Relative to space travel.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Paul G. Allen, founder and chairman of Vulcan, Inc., in the spirit of generosity as a forward thinking philanthropist, fully financed the SpaceShipOne rocket plane to give a boost to the space tourism industry so that private citizens will be able to explore space firsthand; and

WHEREAS, Burt Rutan, designer of the SpaceShipOne rocket plane and his research team at his company, Scaled Composites, LLC, built the vehicle for the Ansari X Prize flight that took place on October 4, 2004, using a hybrid engine that burns a mixture of rubber and nitrous oxide; and

WHEREAS, SpaceShipOne successfully launched its rocket plane into space, approximately 367,442 feet, or 69.6 miles, above the earth's surface twice within one week from California's Mojave Desert and returned the space vehicle to the ground in about 90 minutes; and

WHEREAS, Mike Melvill, SpaceShipOne's first of two pilots participating in the Ansari X Prize, reached into space at 337,500 feet, passing the internationally recognized boundary of space on September 29, 2004; and

WHEREAS, Brian Binnie, the second pilot to man SpaceShipOne, not only met the altitude requirement to win the Ansari X Prize but also broke the August 22, 1963 record of Joseph A. Walker who flew the X-15 rocket plane to an unofficial world altitude of 354,200 feet; and

WHEREAS, SpaceShipOne, as the first privately built, manned spacecraft, won the $10 million Ansari X Prize and a five foot trophy, further fueling the inspiration of Paul Allen, Burt Rutan, and the space tourism industry to focus on developing spaceships dedicated to carrying commercial passengers into space; and

WHEREAS, The space tourism industry in California has now been elevated into a viable industry that will encourage peoples' desire for space exploration through Paul Allen's and Burt Rutan's dreams, dedication, and hard work and Mike Melvill and Brian Binnie's bravery; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature congratulates and expresses its appreciation for the achievements of SpaceShipOne and the efforts of the team of Paul Allen, Burt Rutan, and pilots Mike Melvill and Brian Binnie in making privately funded manned space flight a commercial reality; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 38

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 41—Relative to California Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, May 6, 2005, is California Peace Officers' Memorial Day, a day Californians observe in commemoration of those noble officers who have tragically sacrificed their lives in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, Although California citizens are indebted to our California peace officers each day of the week, we make particular note of their bravery and dedication and we share in their losses on California Peace Officers' Memorial Day; and

WHEREAS, California peace officers have a job second in importance to none, and it is a job that is as difficult and dangerous as it is important; and

WHEREAS, The peace officers of California have worked dutifully and selflessly on behalf of the people of this great state, regardless of the peril or hazard to themselves; and

WHEREAS, By the enforcement of our laws, these same officers have safeguarded the lives and property of the citizens of California and have given their full measure to ensure those citizens the right to be free from crime and violence; and

WHEREAS, Special ceremonies and observations on behalf of California peace officers provide all Californians with the opportunity to appreciate the heroic men and women who have dedicated their lives to preserving public safety; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That California's peace officers who were killed in defense of their communities in 2004 be recognized;

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 39

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 53—Relative to organ donation.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Organ and tissue transplantation offers us the extraordinary opportunity to share with others one of our most precious gifts—life; and

WHEREAS, By donating tissues and organs, living donors and the families who have lost loved ones are rewarded with the knowledge that they have saved and enhanced many lives; and

WHEREAS, Thanks to the generosity and compassion of donors, transplant recipients across our country are able to work, care for their families, and look forward to a brighter future; and

WHEREAS, Statistics show that approximately 60 Americans receive a transplant every day, however, at the same time, another 17 people die because not enough organs are available; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 87,000 patients waiting for an organ transplant and another person joins the waiting list every 13 minutes; and

WHEREAS, According to the United Network of Organ Sharing (UNOS), in 2001, there were 12,528 deceased and living organ donors, 24,076 lifesaving organ transplants, 84,798 registrations on the waiting list at the end of the year, and 6,439 people who died while waiting; and

WHEREAS, According to Patricia Adams, M.D., the President of UNOS, “We have the know-how to save tens of thousands of lives. What we don’t have is enough donated organs to make it possible”; and

WHEREAS, Minorities make up 46 percent of the waiting list, 26 percent black, 13 percent Hispanic, 5 percent Asian, and 2 percent identified as other, while only 25 percent of all organ donors are minorities; and

WHEREAS, Each person who decides to become an organ donor has the potential of saving and enhancing up to 50 lives and taking up to eight people off the waiting list; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 10,000 Californians need organ transplants, and thousands more need tissue transplants; and

WHEREAS, The future of the thousands of Americans awaiting transplants depends on the willingness of their fellow citizens to become organ and tissue donors; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature proclaims its support for, and observes, National Organ and Tissue Donor Awareness Week during the week of April 20 through 26, 2005, urges every Californian to consider becoming an organ donor, which requires indicating that intention on their driver’s license, or on a donor card that is available from a number of organizations by mail or on the Internet, and notifying their family and friends of their wish to donate, and encourages organ and tissue recipients to tell others how their lives and health have changed because of the generosity of a donor; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 40

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 55—Relative to the Day of the Teacher.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, An educated citizenry serves as the very foundation of our democracy; and

WHEREAS, Today's teachers mold the minds and train the workforce of the future; and

WHEREAS, No other profession touches as many persons with such a lasting effect; and

WHEREAS, Good teaching grows in value and pays dividends far beyond the classroom; and

WHEREAS, California long ago recognized the immeasurable value of our teachers, and the second Wednesday in May has traditionally been recognized as the Day of the Teacher, a special observance that honors teachers and the teaching profession; and

WHEREAS, The Day of the Teacher has been sponsored by the California Teachers' Association and the Association of Mexican American Educators and was first recognized in 1982; and

WHEREAS, California has patterned its celebration after the traditional El Dia del Maestro festivities observed in Mexico and other Latin American countries; and

WHEREAS, The Day of the Teacher should be a day for school districts, parents, public officials, and the community to recognize the dedication and commitment of teachers who are educating our children; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the day of May 11, 2005, be proclaimed the Day of the Teacher; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby urges all Californians to observe the Day of the Teacher by taking the time to remember and honor all individuals who give the gift of knowledge through teaching; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 41

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 39—Relative to Sexual Assault Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 17, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The American Medical Association has stated that a “woman is raped every 46 seconds in the United States” and that sexual assault is a “silent epidemic”; and

WHEREAS, In California, there were 9,918 forcible rapes reported in 2003; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated by the Bureau of Justice Statistics that over 70 percent of rapes are never reported to police; and

WHEREAS, Sixty-seven percent of all victims of sexual assault reported to law enforcement agencies were under 18 years of age, and 34 percent of all victims were under 12 years of age; and

WHEREAS, One of every seven victims of sexual assault reported to law enforcement agencies were under six years of age, and 40 percent of the offenders who victimized children under six years of age were under 18 years of age; and

WHEREAS, Women, children, and men are all victims of sexual assault and it is estimated that one in three women, one in four girls, one in six boys, and one in 11 men will be victims at least once in their lifetimes; and

WHEREAS, Rape and sexual assault impacts women, children, and men of all racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, Women, children, and men suffer multiple types of sexual violence, including acquaintance rape, stranger rape, sexual assault by an intimate partner, gang rape, incest, stalking, serial rape, ritual abuse, sexual harassment, child sexual molestation, prostitution, pornography, and stalking; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the immediate physical and emotional costs, sexual assault may also have associated severe and long-lasting consequences of posttraumatic stress disorder, substance abuse, major depression, homelessness, eating disorders, and suicide; and

WHEREAS, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention have identified sexual assault as a significant, costly, and preventable health issue; and

WHEREAS, Women, children, and men in our state have the right to be safe from sexual violence in their homes, at school, at work, and on the streets; and

WHEREAS, It is our responsibility to support rape survivors by treating them with dignity, compassion, and respect; and

WHEREAS, It is crucially important to hold perpetrators responsible for sexual attacks, and to prevent sexual violence at every opportunity; and

WHEREAS, A coalition of rape crisis centers, known as the California Coalition Against Sexual Assault, has emerged to directly confront this crisis with the cooperation of law enforcement agencies, churches, health care providers, and other helping professionals from California's diverse communities; and

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the compassion and dedication of the individuals involved in this effort, applaud their commitment, and increase public understanding of this significant problem; and

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the strength, courage, and challenges of the victims and survivors of sexual assault and their families and friends as they struggle to cope with the reality of sexual assault; and

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize that not all victims of sexual assault survive, either at the time of the assault or later, due to the horrific long-term trauma that sexual assault often inflicts upon victims; and

WHEREAS, There are rape prevention and education efforts underway throughout California to challenge the societal myths and behaviors that perpetuate rape and to engage communities in a common goal of ending sexual assault; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That, henceforth, the month of April shall be designated as Sexual Assault Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Governor, to the Director of the United States Justice Department's Office for Victims of Crime, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 42

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 3—Relative to California Holocaust Memorial Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Holocaust was a tragedy of proportions the world had never before witnessed; and

WHEREAS, More than 60 years have passed since the tragic events we now call the Holocaust transpired, in which the dictatorship of Nazi

Germany murdered six million Jews as part of a systematic program of genocide known as “The Final Solution of the Jewish Question”; and

WHEREAS, Jews were the primary victims, but they were not alone. Five million others were murdered in Nazi concentration camps as part of a carefully orchestrated, state-sponsored program of cultural, social, and political annihilation under Nazi tyranny; and

WHEREAS, We must teach our children and future generations that the individual and communal acts of heroism during the Holocaust serve as a powerful example of how our nation and its citizens can, and must, respond to acts of hatred and inhumanity; and

WHEREAS, We must always remind ourselves of the horrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny lest these atrocities be repeated; and

WHEREAS, We, the people of California, should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of human rights, individual freedom, and equal protection under the laws of a just and democratic society; and

WHEREAS, Each person in California should set aside moments of his or her time every year to give remembrance to those who lost their lives in the Holocaust; and

WHEREAS, The United States Holocaust Memorial Council has designated the time period of May 2 through May 8, 2005, as the Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust, including the International Day of Remembrance, known as Yom HaShoah on May 5, 2005; and

WHEREAS, According to Elie Wiesel, a Holocaust survivor and nationally recognized scholar, “... a memorial unresponsive to the future would violate the memory of the past”; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the time period of May 2 through May 8, 2005, be proclaimed “California Holocaust Memorial Week,” and that Californians are urged to observe these days of remembrance for victims of the Holocaust in an appropriate manner; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit sufficient copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 43

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 18—Relative to American Stroke Month 2005.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On average, someone in the United States has a stroke every 45 seconds; and

WHEREAS, On average, every three minutes someone in the United States dies of a stroke; and

WHEREAS, Stroke is the third leading cause of death in the United States striking approximately 700,000 Americans each year; and

WHEREAS, Stroke leads to the death of more than 18,000 Californians each year; and

WHEREAS, In 2004, the direct and indirect costs attributable to stroke in the United States exceeded $53 billion; and

WHEREAS, The majority of Americans are unaware of their risk factors for a stroke, nor are they aware of the signs and symptoms of an impending stroke; and

WHEREAS, Warning signs of stroke include sudden numbness or weakness of the face, arm, or leg, especially on one side of the body, sudden confusion, trouble speaking or understanding, sudden trouble seeing in one or both eyes, sudden trouble walking, dizziness, loss of balance or coordination, and sudden severe headache with no known cause; and

WHEREAS, The American Stroke Association, a division of the American Heart Association, strives to reduce disability and death from stroke through research, education, fundraising, and advocacy; and

WHEREAS, The American Stroke Association is celebrating May 2005 as American Stroke Month in California; and

WHEREAS, The theme for American Stroke Month 2005 is "Time Lost = Brain Lost" to offer advocates for stroke awareness an opportunity to educate the public and policymakers about the devastating effects of stroke; and

WHEREAS, New and effective treatments have been developed to treat and minimize the severity and damaging effects of stroke, but much more research is needed; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of May 2005 shall be recognized as American Stroke Month in California in order to raise awareness of the effects of stroke; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all California citizens to familiarize themselves with the warning signs, symptoms, and risk factors associated with stroke so that we might begin to reduce the devastating effects strokes have on our population; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 44

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 54—Relative to Mental Health Occupations Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The month of May is Mental Health Month and mental health is critical for our individual well-being and vitality as well as that of our families, communities, and society at large; and

WHEREAS, Mental disorders affect people of all backgrounds, at all stages of life, and across all socioeconomic, ethnic, cultural, and religious groups; and

WHEREAS, An estimated 20 percent of the population, or one in five people, has some form of serious mental illness during their lifetime; and

WHEREAS, About 18.8 million American adults suffer from a depressive illness and as many as 14 million American children and adolescents age 9 to 17 years have a diagnosable mental or emotional illness; and

WHEREAS, The current shortage of mental health professionals contributes to an inability to screen and treat these disorders early, and symptoms of mental illness in children may persist and lead to a downward spiral of school failure, poor employment opportunities, and poverty in adulthood; and

WHEREAS, The California Mental Health Planning Council has documented vacancy rates of approximately 20 percent in county mental health programs for the following occupations: psychiatrists, licensed psychologists, licensed clinical social workers, registered nurses, and psychiatric technicians; and

WHEREAS, The University of San Francisco Center for the Health Professions has documented the critical shortage of mental health professionals in its report entitled, “The Mental Health Workforce: Who’s Meeting California’s Needs,” in which it states that California will need an additional 13,000 to 20,000 mental health professionals by the year 2010; and

WHEREAS, California businesses lose an estimated $5.2 billion every year to employee behavioral health problems, including losses from absenteeism, sick leave, substance abuse, health insurance claims, accidents, overtime pay, disability payments, and diverted supervisor time; and

WHEREAS, Mental health practitioners provide compassionate, culturally appropriate, and comprehensive care to an increasingly diverse population, but there is a lack of awareness about mental health occupations, especially among ethnically diverse youth, and a critical need to increase the diversity of the mental health workforce; and

WHEREAS, Mental health occupations are stigmatized, and public awareness and educational campaigns are an effective response to overcoming barriers to individuals choosing to pursue mental health occupations; and

WHEREAS, Mental health professionals, persons with mental illness, family members, schools, academic institutions, and policymakers must work together to develop outreach and education programs during this special week in May to promote and encourage the pursuit of mental health occupations by all residents; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California does hereby recognize the week of May 15 through May 21, 2005, and every third week of May of every year thereafter, as Mental Health Occupations Week.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 45

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 60—Relative to National Day of Prayer.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The National Day of Prayer is an annual event established by an act of Congress that encourages Americans to pray for our nation, its people, and its leaders; and

WHEREAS, The first National Day of Prayer was called for in 1775, when the Continental Congress designated a time to seek wisdom and guidance in the founding of the United States; and

WHEREAS, This tradition continued when President Abraham Lincoln, in 1863, called for a day of “humiliation, fasting, and prayer”; and

WHEREAS, The official National Day of Prayer was established as an annual event by an act of Congress in 1952 and was signed into law by President Harry Truman. The law was amended in 1988 and signed by President Ronald Reagan, establishing the first Thursday of May each year as the National Day of Prayer; and

WHEREAS, The National Day of Prayer has great significance for us as a nation, enabling us to recall and to teach the way in which our founding fathers sought wisdom when faced with critical decisions; and

WHEREAS, The National Day of Prayer stands as a call to us to humbly come before God, seeking His guidance for our leaders and His grace upon us as a people; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes May 5, 2005, as a National Day of Prayer; and be it further

Resolved, That all the people of California are encouraged to gather together in homes and places of worship to pray, each according to his or her own faith, for their God's blessings upon our state and our nation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 46

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 61—Relative to the National Law Enforcement Museum.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On November 9, 2000, President Clinton signed into law (P.L. 106-492), legislation passed by the United States Congress authorizing a National Law Enforcement Museum to be built on federal property in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, The National Law Enforcement Museum will be privately funded and will be designed, constructed, and operated by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund (NLEOMF); and

WHEREAS, The State of California has lost nearly 1,400 law enforcement officers in the line of duty, which is more than any other state in the nation; and

WHEREAS, More than 17,000 federal, state, and local law enforcement officers have been killed in the line of duty nationwide dating back to the first death in 1792; and

WHEREAS, More than 800,000 law enforcement officers are courageously serving across the United States, and putting themselves in harm's way for the safety and protection of others; and

WHEREAS, The National Law Enforcement Museum will be conveniently located directly across the street from the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial and will be the perfect complement to that memorial in commemorating law enforcement's extraordinary record of service and sacrifice; and

WHEREAS, The National Law Enforcement Museum will greatly enhance the public's understanding and appreciation of law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, The National Law Enforcement Museum will include a research repository devoted to promoting law enforcement safety; and

WHEREAS, The National Law Enforcement Museum is expected to include 90,000 square feet of space and cost approximately $80 million; and

WHEREAS, The National Law Enforcement Museum will be funded solely through private donations; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting at this time to recognize and support the National Law Enforcement Museum because of two major law enforcement memorial events taking place in May: National Police Week, May 15 - 21, 2005, which includes May 15, National Peace Officers Memorial Day, and the 29th Annual California Peace Officers Memorial Ceremony, May 5 and 6, 2005; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement organizations throughout the State of California and around the nation have provided vital leadership and raised substantial funds to establish the National Law Enforcement Museum; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature fully endorses the effort to build the National Law Enforcement Museum and encourages individuals and organizations throughout the State of California to support this worthy cause.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 47

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 62—Relative to recognizing May 2005 as Asian and Pacific Islander American Heritage Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The earliest Asian Americans immigrated to the United States in the 1800s; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans have played a critical role in the social, economic, and political development of California throughout its history; and

WHEREAS, The 4.22 million Asian and Pacific Islander Americans in California are one of the fastest growing ethnic populations in the state; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans represent over 12 percent of California's population and represent ancestries that include Burmese, Cambodian, Chinese, East Indian, Filipino, Guamanian, Hawaiian, Hmong, Indonesian, Iu-Mien, Japanese, Korean, Laotian, Singaporean, Thai, Tongan, and Vietnamese; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander American entrepreneurs have led many of California's businesses to the pinnacle of their respective industries; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander American communities throughout California actively promote their cultural heritage and promote cross-cultural understanding; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans will continue to be an important part of California's diverse tapestry of cultures and ideas; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander American immigrants have contributed greatly to California's economic success, rural growth, and urban development; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander American refugees have revitalized many of California's communities, while bringing in new ideas and economic opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander American immigrants and refugees had to overcome tremendous odds and cultural barriers to establish a better life for their families; and

WHEREAS, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans have a proud legacy of service and dedication to the state and to the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature commends Asian and Pacific Islander Americans for their notable accomplishments and outstanding service to the state, and recognizes the month of May 2005 as Asian and Pacific Islander American Heritage Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 48

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 44—Relative to Minority Health Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 16, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Overall life expectancy for minorities is less than the general population by approximately five and one-half years; and

WHEREAS, The current state of medical practice, education, research, and leadership in the United States is problematic for minorities because of its tradition of ignoring the unique and widespread health needs of minorities; and

WHEREAS, Obstacles for minority men and women include inadequate numbers of primary care physicians; and

WHEREAS, These physicians tend not to practice in either rural or urban low income areas in which many minorities live; and

WHEREAS, There is an absence of nearby health care facilities; and

WHEREAS, There exist communication barriers presented by physicians who do not speak or understand the native language of their patients; and

WHEREAS, Minority men and women who live in poverty face additional problems such as receiving care in community health centers, hospital outpatient clinics, or other facilities with high-volume practices thus having less one-on-one time with physicians, and therefore less preventative care counseling; and

WHEREAS, Medical training offers little in the way of providing for cultural competence and traditions, from which a proper diagnosis and appropriate treatment can be made; and

WHEREAS, Only recently has medical education promoted community-based training and focused its attention on primary care, a much-needed service in underserved communities; and

WHEREAS, Few minorities participate in research studies thereby resulting in inadequate or inaccurate data; and

WHEREAS, Too few minorities become physicians, administrators, or other health care providers, which can lead to a lessened sensitivity of minority patients and increased stereotyping; and

WHEREAS, More minorities are low-income, which is strongly associated with the decreased use of health services and poor health outcomes. Oftentimes, the economically disadvantaged population wait to seek treatment which then further stresses the need for early prevention efforts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of August of each year as Minority Health Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Governor of the State of California, the Director of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 49

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 66—Relative to California Wetlands Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 16, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Wetlands are wonderlands and a part of our wilderness; and

WHEREAS, Wetlands are homes for several endangered species; and

WHEREAS, Wetlands provide calm water and protected areas that are used as nurseries by many type of fish that live in the ocean; and

WHEREAS, Many birds use wetlands to rest and feed as they migrate along the Pacific Coast from Alaska to South America while other birds live there year round; and

WHEREAS, More than a third of Americans hunt, fish, crab, hike, walk, and boat in wetlands, and even more birdwatch and photograph wildlife there; and

WHEREAS, Wetland plants help provide air for people and animals to breathe; and

WHEREAS, Wetland plants and bacteria work together to remove waste and pollutants in the water, thereby maintaining a healthier habitat for fish and other tidal creatures; and

WHEREAS, The root systems of wetland plants work like a sponge to absorb large amounts of water and hold the soil in place; and

WHEREAS, By soaking up water during heavy rains, wetlands help the surrounding areas to avoid flooding and erosion damage; and

WHEREAS, Over 90 percent of the wetlands in California have been destroyed; and

WHEREAS, Wetlands throughout California have been severely threatened by a variety of factors; and

WHEREAS, The preservation of our wetlands resources depends on us as citizens; and

WHEREAS, California Wetlands Month celebrates the vital role that California's and the nation's wetlands play in our ecological and economic systems; and

WHEREAS, The observance of California Wetlands Month can do more than any other single event to raise the public consciousness about wetland values, and broaden our understanding and appreciation of our natural resources; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the importance of California wetlands to the state's ecological, environmental, and economic health; and be it further

Resolved, That May of 2005 is hereby proclaimed by the Legislature as California Wetlands Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 50

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 71—Relative to Yellow Ribbon Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 16, 2005.]

WHEREAS, May 31, 2005, is being recognized as Yellow Ribbon Day in California, in support of military families and our troops who are defending our country; and

WHEREAS, It is very difficult for military families who have loved ones in the very dangerous conflict in Iraq and Afghanistan who are fighting for freedom for all; and

WHEREAS, Because of the importance of demonstrating support for military families and troops during this very difficult time, May 31, 2005, has been designated to publicly show support for these individuals; and

WHEREAS, Ceremonial activities have been planned to bring people together to commemorate Yellow Ribbon Day in support of our military families and our troops; and

WHEREAS, Californians are proud of our troops and their families, and appreciate the great sacrifice they are making to assure freedom for all; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, in support of military families and their loved ones who are defending our country and fighting for the preservation of freedom for all, does hereby proclaim May 31, 2005, Yellow Ribbon Day, a special day for Californians to extend their sincerest appreciation for the sacrifices military families and our troops are making and to commemorate our troops and their families with ceremonial activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 51

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 36—Relative to the Alzheimer’s Association.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 17, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On April 10, 1980, the Alzheimer’s Association was legally incorporated in New York with seven groups nationwide, including volunteers in San Francisco, and established as its mission the elimination of Alzheimer’s disease through the advancement of research and the enhancement of care and support for individuals, their families and caregivers; and

WHEREAS, Since its founding, the association has been the largest private funder of Alzheimer’s disease research in the country, having awarded $165 million to more than 1300 research investigations; and

WHEREAS, The association created the Safe Return program to assist in the identification and safe, timely return of individuals with Alzheimer’s disease who wander and become lost; and

WHEREAS, The association operates an awareness campaign that identifies 10 warning signs for families to help recognize symptoms of Alzheimer’s disease that should prompt consultation with their physician; and

WHEREAS, The association maintains a Medicare Advocacy Project with the American Bar Association’s Commission on the Legal Problems of the Elderly to improve Medicare coverage of care and treatment for beneficiaries with dementia; and

WHEREAS, The association maintains a 24-hour national contact center that enables families living with Alzheimer’s to always have access to trained staff; and

WHEREAS, The association has 300 points of service nationwide where families living with Alzheimer’s disease and other dementia disorders receive information and referral, education, care consultation, and access to support groups; and

WHEREAS, The association began its work targeting those already diagnosed with Alzheimer’s disease, and has since broadened its activities to targeting those showing early symptoms of the disease and to prevention. In fact, the association will convene in June 2005 the first-of-its-kind conference on prevention—International Conference on Prevention of Dementia: Early Diagnosis and Intervention; and

WHEREAS, The association has provided a voice for people with Alzheimer’s and their families and, through its advocacy in California, has fostered the development, expansion, and continued funding of the Alzheimer’s Day Care Resource Centers, a national model for preventing the institutionalization of persons with moderate to severe Alzheimer’s; and

WHEREAS, Through its advocacy in California, the association has created statutory authority for a tax checkoff for research in Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia disorders that has raised more than $7 million to fund California-based research and generated millions in federal research dollars that have enabled Alzheimer’s research centers to be established throughout California; and

WHEREAS, The California chapters of the association, through the leadership of the Los Angeles/Riverside/San Bernardino chapter, developed for physicians, “Guidelines for Alzheimer’s Disease Management” and for families, “Working with Your Doctor When You Suspect Memory Problems,” which became a national model for creating family partnerships with physicians and promoting appropriate treatment and family support; and

WHEREAS, The California chapters of the association have taken a leadership role in developing model programs to provide services to people living with dementia in diverse and underserved communities; and

WHEREAS, Through its advocacy in California, the association has created statutory requirements for dementia training in long-term care settings, developed model training guidelines, and provided training to long-term care staff throughout California in order to improve the quality of care for people with Alzheimer’s and other dementia disorders; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature commends the Alzheimer’s Association for its many accomplishments and service to families living with Alzheimer’s disease and other dementia disorders on the occasion of the Association’s 25th anniversary; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 52

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 43—Relative to Autism Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 17, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Autism Society of America, Cure Autism Now, the National Alliance for Autism Research, Unlocking Autism, and numerous other organizations commemorate April as National Autism Awareness Month; and

WHEREAS, Autism is a developmental disorder that is typically diagnosed during the first three years of life and limits an individual's ability to communicate and interact with others; and

WHEREAS, Autism is four times more likely to occur in boys than in girls, but can affect anyone, regardless of race, ethnicity, or other factors; and

WHEREAS, The number of persons with autism in California doubled between 1998 and 2002, and approximately 3,000 individuals with autism are newly diagnosed and served by regional centers each year. The State Department of Developmental Services has developed and published Autistic Spectrum Disorders: Best Practice Guidelines for Screening, Diagnosis and Assessment to address the needs of this population; and

WHEREAS, Early intervention behavior analysis programs have shown that a program of intensive early intervention treatment that focuses on a multidisciplinary approach, relying in large part on family and community participation, can produce a positive outcome; and

WHEREAS, There is a significantly greater proportion of families with young children with autism requesting intervention services, and there is a great need for qualified professionals capable of diagnosing autism in a timely and accurate manner. The State Department of Developmental Services developed and implemented its Learning Collaborative model to efficiently promote diagnostic best practices through the 21 regional centers; and

WHEREAS, Current research being conducted into the biological causes and treatment regimens for autism, like that being undertaken at the Medical Investigation of Neurodevelopmental Disorders (M.I.N.D.) Institute at the University of California, Davis, is showing great promise and should be encouraged and supported; and

WHEREAS, The California Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities Research and Epidemiology (CADDRE) in the Environmental Health Investigations Branch of the State Department of Health Services is working in partnership with the State Department of Developmental Services (DDS), Regional Centers, Northern California

Kaiser Permanente, clinics, and other providers throughout California to build a comprehensive surveillance system to count children with autism spectrum disorders (ASDs). California CADDRE also conducts studies in California to investigate possible causes and risk factors associated with autism; and

WHEREAS, People with autism need additional special education teachers, curriculum, behavioral specialists, occupational speech therapists, and medical professionals to ultimately enable them to function in the least restrictive environment; and

WHEREAS, Parental involvement, community integration, early intervention, increased acceptance of people with special needs, and systematic treatment are all key components that would help make a more favorable future likely for people with autism; and

WHEREAS, Heightened awareness of and education about autism helps to achieve these components; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of April 2005 as Autism Awareness Month and acknowledges the contributions made in the area of early autism intervention treatment by experts in the field as well as the families involved; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recognizes and commends the parents and relatives of children with autism for their sacrifice and dedication in providing for the special needs of children with autism and for absorbing significant financial costs for specialized education and support services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature supports the goal of increasing federal funding for aggressive research to learn the root causes of autism, identify the best methods of early intervention and treatment, expand programs for individuals with autism across their lifespan, and promote understanding of the special needs of people with autism; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature continues to support research into the causes and treatment of autism by the University of California, Davis M.I.N.D. Institute, as well as the work of California CADDRE and others; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature commends the United States Department of Health and Human Services for the swift implementation of the Children's Health Act of 2000, particularly for establishing four "Centers of Excellence" at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to study the epidemiology of autism and related disorders and the proposed "Centers of Excellence" at the National Institutes of Health for autism research; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature stresses the need to begin early intervention services soon after a child has been diagnosed with autism, noting that early intervention strategies are the primary therapeutic options for young people with autism, and early intervention significantly improves outcomes for people with autism and can reduce the level of funding and services needed later in life; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the State Department of Developmental Services, the State Department of Health Services, Area Boards V and VIII, the State Department of Education, local chapters of the Autism Society, regional centers, the Association of Regional Center Agencies, Protection and Advocacy, Inc., the University of California, Davis M.I.N.D. Institute, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, the National Institutes of Health, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the California School Boards Association, the State Council on Developmental Disabilities, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 53

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 45—Relative to International Building Safety Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 17, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The safety of the buildings we occupy daily is essential to the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of California; and

WHEREAS, Among the world's most fundamental laws and ordinances are those which provide standards for the safe construction of buildings in which people live, work, and play; and

WHEREAS, Local building departments are engaged in an ongoing effort to ensure that residents and individuals patronizing business within California are afforded the highest construction standards available; and

WHEREAS, Building Safety Week emphasizes the important role local building departments play in the development and maintenance of safe buildings in our communities; and

WHEREAS, Local building departments are helping to ensure the public's health, safety, and general well-being by reviewing building construction plans, issuing building permits, inspecting buildings during and after construction to ensure that they comply with the minimum necessary health and safety regulations, and enforcing the preventative work that contributes to the success of keeping the occupants of the structure safe during an emergency; and

WHEREAS, For construction and building codes to be effective and enforced, understanding and cooperation must exist between code officials and the people they serve; and

WHEREAS, Through the efforts of code officials worldwide and their cooperative relationship with the construction industry, the administration of these health and life-safety standards is assured; and

WHEREAS, Cities and counties across California are joining to promote building safety through the observation of International Building Safety Week; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature does hereby proclaim the week of May 8 to 14, 2005, as International Building Safety Week and urges all residents to participate in International Building Safety Week activities to help promote building safety, to create awareness as to the importance of construction and building codes, and to spotlight the role of the dedicated code official in administering those codes; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 54

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 30—Relative to the civic mission of schools.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Preparing each generation to understand and support democratic principles is the responsibility of all of our institutions and was a primary reason for the creation of public schools; and

WHEREAS, Our citizens have overwhelmingly agreed over the course of 33 years of Gallup polling that “educating young people for responsible citizenship” should be the primary purpose of our schools; and

WHEREAS, Research demonstrates that our schools are an effective place to provide systematic and sustained instruction in and opportunities for the application of democratic principles and that early adolescence is a particularly critical time for civic education; and

WHEREAS, The democratic principles that underlie our society, the structure, and functions of government, and the rights, responsibilities, and participation of citizens should be a continual and meaningful part of instruction throughout every child's education; and

WHEREAS, The importance of pupils' grasp of the concepts of civic responsibility and respect for others cannot be underestimated; and

WHEREAS, The history-social science framework goals now guiding California schools call for the integration of knowledge and cultural understanding, democratic understanding, civic values and skills attainment, and social participation at every grade; and

WHEREAS, State law requires that secondary pupils complete only a single semester-long course in government/civics; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature urges the State Board of Education and all local school governing bodies to examine current practice and develop plans to increase and broaden emphasis on principles and practices of democracy in the schools of this state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the State Board of Education and to the author for distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 55

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 40—Relative to the 85th Anniversary of the League of Women Voters.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, In the year 1911, California became the sixth state to give women the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, In the year 1920, after decades of fighting for the right to vote, women believed they had a responsibility to participate in public debate, and to educate voters about the important issues of the day; and

WHEREAS, On February 14, 1920, at the final convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association in Chicago, the League of Women Voters was born, in anticipation of the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution, which would provide a constitutional guarantee of a woman's right to vote; and

WHEREAS, In the 1920's, the League of Women Voters secured passage of the first federal maternal and infant health care program, the Sheppard-Towner Act; and

WHEREAS, In the 1930's, the League worked diligently on American foreign policy and received an award for its efforts from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation; and

WHEREAS, In the 1960's and 1970's the League fought against discrimination in education, employment, and housing and built citizen support for economic opportunities; and

WHEREAS, The League is a nonpartisan organization that has fought for a wide-variety of issues, from free trade and the creation of the United Nations to civil rights and compulsory public education; and

WHEREAS, Other causes the League has championed include education programs to counter attacks on civil liberties, nuclear arms control, environmental regulation, a responsible state budgeting process, and protection of the rights of voters; and

WHEREAS, The League continues to battle for campaign finance reform, United States support of emerging democracies, universal healthcare, and reform of the electoral system; and

WHEREAS, The League may best be known for its sponsorship of political debates, and providing voters with a nonpartisan, issue-oriented forum from which they may make informed decisions; and

WHEREAS, In California, the League of Women Voters has continually provided reliable nonpartisan information to voters through its printed Pros & Cons on ballot measures, through its debates for certain elected offices, through its forums held throughout the state on critical topics such as state and local finance, growth and infrastructure, and constitutional revision, and through its creation of the internationally honored online election guide, Smart Voter, promoting informed citizen participation at all levels of government; and

WHEREAS, Across the United States, the League has 900 local and state Leagues, including 69 local Leagues and more than 11,000 members in California; and

WHEREAS, The commitment of its members has transformed the League of Women Voters from "the mighty political experiment" that began in 1920, when it was designed to help 20 million newly enfranchised women carry out their voting responsibilities, to what it is today: a unique, nonpartisan organization of men and women recognized as a force in mentoring political leaders, shaping public policy, and promoting informed citizen participation at all levels of government; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the people of California hereby recognize the important and unique contributions of the League of Women Voters during its 85-year history as a nonpartisan organization dedicated to increasing voter awareness and participation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit sufficient copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 56

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 48—Relative to the Girl Scouts.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Wednesday, March 12, 2005, marks the 93rd anniversary of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, In 1912, Juliette Gordon Low founded the Girl Scouts with just 18 girls and a dream in which she envisioned “something for all the girls,” to enable them to better serve their communities, experience the outdoors, and contribute to national and international social development; and

WHEREAS, Ninety-three years later, her efforts are responsible for creating the largest girl-serving organization in the world with membership surpassing 2.8 million nationally, of which 343,000 are girls in California; and

WHEREAS, Nationwide 233,000 troops provide opportunities for girls between 5 and 17 years of age to discover the fun, friendship, and power of girls together, as Daisy Girl Scouts, Brownie Girl Scouts, Junior Girl Scouts, Cadette Girl Scouts, and Senior Scouts; and

WHEREAS, During the 1960s, the Girl Scouts began programs and projects focused on overcoming prejudice and building relationships with those of all ages, religions, classes, and races; and

WHEREAS, That same social consciousness continues today as the Girl Scouts promote the ideals of acceptance, understanding, cultural awareness, and tolerance; and

WHEREAS, The Girl Scouts is an organization with a proud history of inclusion and acceptance, and has historically promoted diversity in its membership by accepting all girls and women, regardless of their religion, nationality, economic background, or sexual orientation; and

WHEREAS, In addition to their focus on the world around them, the Girl Scouts strive to develop each girl’s potential through skill building, technological awareness, self-esteem and image promotion, and countless other opportunities that motivate and empower girls to grow and become leaders in their own right; and

WHEREAS, Because of this focus, Girl Scouts will lead businesses and communities and take active roles in mathematics, science, technology, and the arts and are striving to fulfill our country's economic needs; and

WHEREAS, One in four American women has been a Girl Scout and the organization is committed to outreach efforts reflective of their theme "Girl Scouting: For Every Girl, Everywhere"; and

WHEREAS, Some 50 million women have enjoyed the benefits of the Girl Scout program, as an American tradition, for 93 years; and

WHEREAS, Of the 37 women currently serving in the California Legislature, at least 11 were members of, or leaders in, the Girl Scouts of the United States of America, including Assembly Members Chu, Daucher, Karnette, Lieber, Pavley, and Runner, and Senators Alquist, Bowen, Escutia, Migden, and Romero; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature acknowledges with pride the significant role the Girl Scouts has played in mentoring young women throughout California and the nation, as an organization "where girls grow strong"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature commends the Girl Scouts of the United States of America for 93 years of service and for inspiring millions of girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, and patriotism; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages the people of California to participate in activities and celebrations appropriate to this occasion; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 57

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 6—Relative to Darfur.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Sudan's government and southern rebels have come to an historic, long-awaited agreement that ends Africa's longest civil war and brings hope to millions of exiled Sudanese yearning to return home; and

WHEREAS, Continued violence in the troubled region of Darfur, Sudan, previously described by the Bush administration as genocide, cast a shadow over the agreement, which does not cover the Darfur conflict; and

WHEREAS, Darfur, an area of 256,000 square kilometers constituting the western region of the Sudan, is home to an estimated five million people, a population made up of a complex tribal mix; and

WHEREAS, Large swathes of Darfur have been prone to drought and desertification, intensifying demands on its more fertile lands, making areas of Darfur subject to sporadic intertribal clashes over use of resources in recent decades; and

WHEREAS, The government of the Sudan appears to have sponsored a militia composed of a loose collection of fighters, apparently of Arab background, known as the “Janjaweed”; and

WHEREAS, With the active support of the regular army, the Janjaweed have attacked villages, targeting those suspected of supporting the rebels and committing numerous human rights violations; and

WHEREAS, The humanitarian consequences of the situation in Darfur are grave, with an estimated 70,000 innocent civilians brutally murdered, and according to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, an estimated 1,600,000 people internally displaced, and more than 200,000 people forced from their homes and fleeing to neighboring Chad; and

WHEREAS, The government of the Sudan should, at the highest levels, publicly and unequivocally condemn all violations of human rights and international humanitarian law, investigate those violations, and bring the perpetrators to justice; and

WHEREAS, The Janjaweed and other militias should be immediately disarmed and disbanded, and humanitarian workers must be given full and unimpeded access to Darfur; and

WHEREAS, Refugees and displaced persons should be permitted to return to their lands and homes voluntarily, and should receive restitution or fair compensation for their losses; and

WHEREAS, Fundamental human rights must be respected in times of peace and in times of armed conflict; and

WHEREAS, The Sudan is a party to several core human rights treaties, including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD), the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), and the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That it is the sense of the Legislature of the State of California that the government of the Sudan should, at the highest levels, publicly and unequivocally condemn all actions and crimes committed by the Janjaweed, ensure that all militias are immediately disarmed and disbanded, and pursue a policy of national reconciliation, ending impunity and ensuring the rule of law and the protection of minorities; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the further sense of the Legislature that humanitarian workers must be given full and unimpeded access to Darfur in order to ensure that there is no blockage in the delivery of much-needed humanitarian assistance; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the further sense of the Legislature that the government of the Sudan should put in place measures to ensure that human rights abuses, war crimes, and crimes against humanity are not repeated in the future and that the rule of law is restored in Darfur in conformity with internationally agreed standards; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully requests that the President and Congress of the United States continue to take all prudent and necessary steps to ensure that these matters are addressed at the highest levels of the federal government; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the United States Secretary of State, and to the Secretary General of the United Nations.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 58

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 7—Relative to ZIP Codes.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Many communities in California have the advantage and convenience of possessing ZIP Codes that are unique to their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, The private development sector measures economic feasibility for investing in local communities based on data collected by ZIP Codes; and

WHEREAS, Sales taxes, franchise fees, federal funding, and other city revenue sources are traced through ZIP Codes; and

WHEREAS, Cities who share ZIP Codes may lose a portion of their revenue stream to other jurisdictions which the post office recognizes as the primary geographic area for that particular ZIP Code; and

WHEREAS, Unique ZIP Codes help to develop a city's identity so that citizens can rightfully participate in their local election processes holding their own elected officials accountable; and

WHEREAS, Local political and fiscal accountability is the cornerstone of democracy; and

WHEREAS, The ZIP Codes have a wider application than the delivery of mail to the cities in California; and

WHEREAS, The United States Postal Service advises residents and businesses to identify their address by post office address rather than city address to ensure proper mail delivery; and

WHEREAS, Several cities in California also contain shared ZIP Codes and may not be aware of the negative impact such an arrangement may have on their community; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature urges the United States Postmaster to create ZIP Codes that do not encompass more than one municipality; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, to the Minority Leader of the Senate, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and the United States Postmaster.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 59

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16—Relative to fair and equitable treatment for truck and bus drivers.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Through the enactment of Assembly Bill No. 3049 of the 2003–04 Regular Session (Chapter 952, Statutes of 2004), California has adopted legislation that places strict standards on the holders of commercial driver’s licenses; and

WHEREAS, These state-adopted standards were approved in an effort to remain in compliance with federal requirements, but these standards may place an undue burden on commercial truck and bus drivers in certain settings; and

WHEREAS, Other states have imposed their own sets of regulations to conform with federal law, and there is no uniformity among these sets of regulations, even though uniformity should exist insofar as disqualification of commercial truck and bus drivers is concerned; and

WHEREAS, One of these “conformance/compliance” provisions of California state law is a requirement that a person who holds a commercial driver's license, and drives a passenger car on a highway at a speed exceeding 15 miles per hour above the posted speed limit, be considered to have committed a serious traffic violation under the new law and be subject to having his or her commercial driver's license revoked, thus taking away the person's livelihood; and

WHEREAS, Until recently, all drivers had the option of attending traffic violator school or a court-supervised program of traffic safety instruction to mitigate traffic offenses, but this law does not provide that option to persons holding a commercial driver's license to attend those schools or programs for minor traffic infractions; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to take into account the adverse impact this law has on the livelihoods of commercial drivers and take the action necessary to amend the federal statutes in an expeditious manner to allow for the equal treatment of commercial drivers who are off duty and using a private vehicle when they incur minor traffic infractions; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, to the Senate Majority Leader, to the Senate Minority Leader, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 60

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 19—Relative to reauthorization of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 is one of the Nation's most important civil and human rights victories leading to political empowerment and voter enfranchisement; and

WHEREAS, Section 5 of the act requires specified local jurisdictions to obtain approval from the United States Department of Justice or from the United States District Court for the District of Columbia before effectuating any changes to voting practices or procedures, based on historical patterns of discrimination in those specified jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, Sections 6 to 9, inclusive, of the act authorize the federal government to send federal election examiners and observers to the specified jurisdictions when there is evidence of attempts to deny minority voters the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, Section 203 of the act requires certain jurisdictions to provide bilingual language assistance to voters, based on those jurisdictions having a specified concentration of citizens with limited proficiency in English; and

WHEREAS, The foregoing provisions of the act are designed to periodically expire and be renewed after the United States Congress holds hearings and makes legislative findings that the provisions remain necessary to protect the voting rights of historically disenfranchised groups; and

WHEREAS, Those provisions of the act are currently scheduled to expire in 2007 unless Congress extends them; and

WHEREAS, There is concern that making those provisions of the act permanent or applicable to all local jurisdictions equally may make it vulnerable to constitutional challenge on the grounds that the act is no longer “narrowly tailored” to address the specific injuries it was designed to remedy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to declare their public support for reauthorizing the Voting Rights Act of 1965 as written, with jurisdiction-specific provisions designed to expire after a set period of time subject to renewal; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 61

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24—Relative to wildfire protection.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Southern California experienced devastating wildfires in the fall of 2003 that consumed nearly 750,000 acres, destroyed nearly 3,700 dwellings, and resulted in the tragic deaths of 24 persons. Property losses in excess of $2 billion dollars made the fires the most costly natural disaster in the state’s history. Compounding the damage caused by wildfire were the mudslides that took human life, caused significant property damage, and polluted rivers and reservoirs with tons of sediment and other material. The fires reinforced the importance, for public safety, of adequate early warning of the approach of fire, and the need for evacuation, especially in remote areas; and

WHEREAS, California has the highest population in the United States that is situated in fire-prone wildland and urban-interface areas, of which 31 million acres are located in southern California. Large numbers of isolated communities, many of which have limited firefighting capability, remain particularly at risk; and

WHEREAS, Numerous well-known factors contributed to the devastating loss of life and property. Particularly in the autumn, dry winds, blowing coastward from the desert, and accelerating through narrow passes in the southern California mountain ranges, undergo compressional heating. Furthermore, a seven-year drought has caused the chaparral and forested areas to become tinder dry. Drought-stressed pine trees have succumbed to bark beetle infestation. Only 7 percent of the dead trees were burned in 2003, so these remain a major fire hazard in several southern California counties. Ignitions, whether initiated by arson, accident, or act of nature could result in a complex of large-area fires, which could spread across the typically hilly terrain, at a catastrophically rapid rate; and

WHEREAS, The rains of 2004 and early 2005, if sustained over time, may relieve drought conditions, even as they will certainly regenerate the very types of vegetation that burned in the 2003 fires. Accordingly, the fire season that ravaged southern California in 2003 should be viewed as cyclical, and part of the natural system. However, whereas major fires occurred once in a score of years during the early and mid 20th century, they now are experienced much more frequently. Thus, unlike other natural disasters, a return of investment in wildfire-loss mitigation is anticipated to be realized frequently, even annually; and

WHEREAS, To help deploy resources to fight wildland fires, a key decision is how optimally to deploy manpower, ground equipment, and aerial resources. This decision centers on anticipating where the fire perimeter will be at specific times in the future based on its condition, size, and predicted rate of advance. The local rate of firefront advance depends on the local topography, which changes very slowly the local vegetation, which changes, mainly seasonally, and the local meteorology, which changes often in minutes. The expanded use of remote-sensing technologies, such as unmanned aerial vehicles (UAV's) with infrared-imaging capability, in conjunction with the use of Geographic Information Systems (GIS) that can identify the current firefront position has already been recommended by the Governor's Blue Ribbon Commission. It is also critical to focus on the meteorological parameters that affect the deployment of resources, because these are the factors that change the most rapidly; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That, in light of the annual losses in the state of life, property, and natural resources resulting from wildland fire, the California Legislature urges the federal government to provide California with federal financial assistance to be used to predict wildfire behavior. This assistance should entail the development of frequently updated, high-spatial-resolution weather forecasting during periods when disastrous large-scale fires are imminent or already burning, and would provide benefits not only to California, but to the many other states with significant risk from wildland fire; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature respectfully requests that the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) undertake the development of a National Fire Weather Center, which would allocate resources to provide rapid and accurate meteorological information that is useful for predicting the movement of wildfire perimeters, guiding evacuations, and enabling government officials to make informed decisions about how to most effectively attack a wildfire and deploy resources. The California Legislature strongly believes that this federal investment, in conjunction with the steps underway at the state level, is a wise allocation of resources that will provide multiple long-term benefits in the future; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 62

Senate Joint Resolution No. 14—Relative to the Ben Clark Public Safety Training Center.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 27, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Ben Clark Public Safety Training Center (BCTC) was established in 1996, and is the first operational joint public safety training center in California, located on 375 acres adjacent to March Air Reserve Base in Central Riverside County, the center of the Inland Empire and home to the first Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission peace officer training academy; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC's current training facilities include over 100,000 square feet of classroom and office space, onsite food and lodging facilities, an emergency dispatch and communications center, a physical training complex, and interactive driving and force simulators; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC is fully operational and has been providing public safety training for over eight years, including advanced training to over 6,000 first responders from federal, state, county, and municipal governments as well as military and specialized personnel; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC has an approved Phased Master Plan complete with an approved Environmental Impact Report for the expansion of its existing campus into an area of undeveloped land which provides a natural buffer from civilian uses; and

WHEREAS, Construction is underway for a multimillion dollar Force Continuum Center, and the approved Master Plan includes training complexes for underwater dive, rescue and recovery, canine training, emergency driver training, fire rescue, corrections training, equine training, and scenario training for large scale incidents like train derailment and aircraft disasters; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC has established a series of interrelated and joint-use training partnerships with adjacent county agencies, to include the Sheriffs' Offices of San Bernardino, Orange, and San Diego Counties, that provide specialized training in a number of key security missions; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC has a strong working relationship with each branch of the Armed Forces, including the guard and reserve components. The BCTC has been utilized as a scenario village and training center by the Department of the Navy-United States Marine Corps. This training provided for timely and tailor-made combat training of our Armed Forces deploying to Afghanistan and Iraq; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC is the home of Riverside Community College and Southern Illinois University, providing fully accredited institutions of higher learning to staff and students; and

WHEREAS, Riverside Community College currently operates a state-of-the-art facility at the BCTC for the training of public safety and criminal justice professionals, including the Basic Law Enforcement Academy, Fire Technology Academy, Emergency Dispatcher Academy, Probation Officer Academy, and Correctional Officer Academy; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC and March Hospital are well located for the training of first responder personnel to terrorist attacks and other public disasters; and

WHEREAS, This training of first responder personnel benefits from convenient access to a fully equipped medical facility, a central location for the staging of interagency drills and public emergency response and training scenarios, advanced training facilities that meet time-critical needs and continuing education requirements, and onsite health professionals and educators; and

WHEREAS, These amenities provide the federal and state government the unique opportunity to implement training mandates with minimal cost; and

WHEREAS, The BCTC, and its many active assets and surrounding training centers within the Inland Empire, can partner with the California Office of Emergency Services, the State Office of Homeland Security, and the United States Department of Homeland Security's Office of Domestic Preparedness, to receive state-directed federal funding available for national scope training initiatives that prepare the nation to prevent, deter, respond to, and recover from incidents of terrorism; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the President and the Congress of the United States to recognize the Ben Clark Public Safety Training Center, located at March Air Reserve Base in Riverside County, as a leader in homeland security training throughout southern California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of the United States Office of Homeland Security, the Secretary of Defense, and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 63

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 21—Relative to port customs revenue.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The State of California is committed to protecting and preserving its ports, and those employed in and around the ports; and

WHEREAS, The state supports the safe and reliable transportation of goods into and through the state; and

WHEREAS, California is home to more than 12 percent of the nation's population; and

WHEREAS, The Ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach, which together transport 43 percent of the nation's trade, 1 million cruise passengers, and more than $200,000,000,000 in trade annually, comprise the largest port complex in the United States and the Western Hemisphere; and

WHEREAS, California serves as an international commerce gateway between the nation and most of its trade partners and, according to the California Transportation Commission, California moves over $400,000,000,000 in goods annually with a source or destination outside of California; and

WHEREAS, Forecasts predict that the amount of trade transported through the state's ports will triple by 2020 if adequate infrastructure improvements are completed; and

WHEREAS, California is the single largest trading entity in the United States, and three of the four largest volume container ports in the United States are located in California; and

WHEREAS, California ports, harbors, and businesses that depend on federal channels and breakwaters contribute more than $40,000,000,000 per year to national economic output, 1.6 million jobs, and approximately $21,000,000,000 annual personal income to the United States economy; and

WHEREAS, Federal grants for security upgrades mandated by the United States Department of Homeland Security amount to just over $51,000,000, while it is estimated that these security upgrades will cost California's three major container ports an estimated $200,000,000 to install; and

WHEREAS, The American Association of Port Authorities has called for the federal government to provide $400,000,000 in port security funds annually; and

WHEREAS, The United States Coast Guard has additionally estimated that it will require $7,300,000,000 in federal funds for its own maritime security duties during the 10-year period of 2003 to 2012, inclusive; and

WHEREAS, Limited federal port security funds have fallen short of fully funding port security needs throughout the nation; and

WHEREAS, On August 25, 2004, Stephen E. Flynn, the Jeanne J. Kirkpatrick Senior Fellow for National Security Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations testified to the House Subcommittee on Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation on the risk of terrorist attacks, stating that "the risk of harm is great or greater in the maritime and surface transportation modes"; and

WHEREAS, An internal audit report produced by the United States Department of Homeland Security entitled "Review of the Port Security Grant Program" criticized the ineffectiveness of the federal port security grant program stating, in part, that the "current design of the program compromises the program's ability to direct resources toward the nation's highest priorities"; and

WHEREAS, A Public Policy Institute of California study entitled, "Federal Formula Grants and California: Homeland Security," has found that California receives only $5 per person to distribute to first responders in the state, while other states, such as Wyoming, received more than $38 per capita in 2004; and

WHEREAS, California received only $23.71 per capita in Homeland Security grant funding during fiscal years 2002-03 and 2003-04, ranking 44th in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Federal port security grants cannot be used for maintenance and operations expenditures related to security, thereby complicating emergency communications and operations duties expected of first responders; and

WHEREAS, A number of ports are located on state tidelands and, therefore, must act as stewards of the land and manage those lands in a manner that benefits all Californians; and

WHEREAS, A shut down of the ports can result in an estimated loss to the national economy of more than $1,000,000,000 per day, as demonstrated during the shutdown of the west coast ports in 2002; and

WHEREAS, California ports are responsible for $8,000,000,000 of the $20,000,000,000 that the United States Customs Service collects annually in fees and duties, and none of that revenue is reinvested in the state's or country's system for moving goods because customs fees are deposited into the General Fund; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to increase federal funding for California's ports for infrastructure and security improvements; and be it further

Resolved, That legislation be enacted, in recognition of the unique role served by ports in California, to ensure a return of an equitable share of the customs revenues generated by, and collected from, this state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature supports efforts by California's congressional and senate representatives to obtain an equitable share of federal port security and goods movement infrastructure funding and encourages those representatives to support measures that will guarantee that California has the funds necessary to secure and facilitate commercial activity at its many ports; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Director of the Department of Homeland Security.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 64

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 5—Relative to the Abiel Barron Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The calling to be a peace officer is one of the highest vocations of public service, and any individual who accepts this calling is worthy of the highest respect and honor the community, state, and nation can provide; and

WHEREAS, Los Angeles Police Department Detective Abiel Barron, Serial Number 24314, was killed in the line of duty during the evening hours of June 25, 2003. Detective Barron was conducting a followup investigation in the Palmdale/Lancaster area and was traveling on State Highway Route 138 near its junction with State Highway Route 15 at Mormon Rocks when a driver attempting to pass slower moving vehicles on the two-lane highway collided head-on with Detective Barron's police vehicle; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron succumbed to injuries as a result of the collision; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron is survived by his wife Anne Marie Barron, daughter Lauren Barron, mother Magda Barron, brothers Sam and Arnold Barron, sister Magda Barron, and many beloved family members and friends; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron was born November 27, 1953, and lived in the Fontana area with his wife. Abiel Barron attended and graduated from high school in the southern California area and after high school worked as an auditor for a financial institution in San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron began his career with the Los Angeles Police Department after graduating from the police academy in 1983, and after successfully completing probation was assigned to field duties in Newton Street Division in South Los Angeles; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron made significant contributions to public safety while assigned to the Newton Street Division for the next 12 years; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron was promoted to the rank of detective in 1995 and served in the capacity of an investigator in the Los Angeles Police Department's Gun Detail. After successfully completing his detective probationary period, Detective Barron returned to his assignment of choice, that of a homicide investigator in the Newton Street Division; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron provided distinguished service to that community until he attained a new assignment as a detective at the Los Angeles Police Department's northeast area in 2000; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron continued to serve with distinction as a sex crimes investigator until his assignment to the Northeast Area homicide detail in 2001; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron distinguished himself as a superior homicide investigator in 2002, and was nominated for an award for bravery in saving the life of a despondent woman attempting to commit suicide by jumping from a bridge at the Los Angeles River. Detective Barron was awarded the Los Angeles Police Department's "Police Medal" for bravery that was presented to his wife posthumously; and

WHEREAS, Abiel Barron served 19 years and 7 months as a sworn peace officer for the Los Angeles Police Department and was known and respected by his fellow peace officers for his dedication to the Los Angeles Police Department and to the citizens of our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates, in acknowledgment of the many years of dedicated public service to the citizens of California provided by Abiel Barron, that portion of State Highway Route 138 from Lone Pine Canyon Road to Kruse Road as the Abiel Barron Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs at those mile markers on State Highway Route 138, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 65

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 20—Relative to CHP Officer Merle L. Andrews Memorial Interchange.

WHEREAS, The calling to be a peace officer is one of the highest vocations of public service and any individual who accepts this calling is worthy of the highest respect and honor the community, state, and nation can provide; and

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol Officer Merle L. Andrews was killed in the line of duty on December 20, 1967. Officer Andrews was attempting to arrest a man wanted in connection with a stolen vehicle, robbery, and kidnapping when the man opened fire on Officer Andrews; and

WHEREAS, Merle L. Andrews succumbed to his injuries as a result of the shooting; and

WHEREAS, At the time of his death, Merle L. Andrews was survived by his wife, Sandy Andrews, son, Carl J. Andrews, father, Carl J. Andrews, mother, Margaret C. Andrews, brother, Neil Andrews, niece, Margaret A. Cady, nephew Peter Beaver, and many beloved friends; and

WHEREAS, Merle L. Andrews was born on February 4, 1928, in Redondo Beach, California, to Carl and Margaret Andrews. His family settled in Compton where he graduated from Compton High School and attended Compton Junior College; and

WHEREAS, Merle L. Andrews took great pride in serving the United States of America by enlisting in the United States Navy serving from 1945 through 1949; and

WHEREAS, Prior to beginning his career with the California Highway Patrol, Merle L. Andrews followed in the footsteps of his father and brother by joining the Compton Police Department; and

WHEREAS, Merle L. Andrews joined the California Highway Patrol on July 8, 1958. After successfully completing his academy training, he reported to the South Los Angeles area on October 3, 1958; and

WHEREAS, During his CHP career, Merle L. Andrews made significant contributions to traffic safety and assisting the motoring public and was known by his fellow officers for his dedication to the department and to the protection of the citizens of our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the interchange of Interstate 405 and Interstate 110 in the City of Carson in the County of Los Angeles, as the CHP Officer Merle L. Andrews Memorial Interchange; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the costs of erecting the appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing these special designations, and upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 66

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 46—Relative to California Highway Patrol Officer David W. Copleman Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, David W. Copleman was born March 7, 1958, in Little Rock, California; and

WHEREAS, His parents were Ron and Betty Copleman; and

WHEREAS, David W. Copleman attended elementary and middle school in Little Rock and attended high school in Palmdale, California; and

WHEREAS, David W. Copleman entered the California Highway Patrol Academy on the 18th of October, 1982, and graduated and was assigned to the Ventura Area Highway Patrol on the 3rd of March, 1983; and

WHEREAS, David W. Copleman was killed in the line of duty on the 6th of April, 1985, when he was in pursuit on State Highway Route 126 and was struck head-on by an uninvolved vehicle; and

WHEREAS, David W. Copleman was married to Arlene Copleman and had two children, Lajetta and Brandon; and

WHEREAS, David W. Copleman was a dedicated officer who loved his job and enjoyed the people he worked with. He was a wonderful father and husband and his greatest joy was spending time with his family. In his spare time, David W. Copleman served the community of Little Rock, California, as a volunteer firefighter; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the portion of State Highway Route 126 from Hallock Drive to the city limit of the City of Fillmore in the County of Ventura as the California Highway Patrol Officer David W. Copleman Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the costs of erecting the appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing these special designations, and upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 67

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1—Relative to Dr. Dalip S. Saund.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Dr. Dalip S. Saund immigrated to the United States from India at a time when Indian nationals were denied eligibility for American citizenship; and

WHEREAS, Thanks to his initiative and the help of Indians in California and New York, Congresswoman Clare Booth Luce and Congressman Emanuel Celler were convinced to jointly introduce a bill in the United States Congress to allow Indian nationals to become American citizens, and after a long and hard struggle the bill was signed by President Truman on July 3, 1946; and

WHEREAS, Though Dr. Saund had started as a farmhand, he obtained a Ph.D. from the University of California at Berkeley, and as a naturalized citizen started taking an active role in the political process of his adopted homeland; and

WHEREAS, In June 1950, he won his first political battle when he ran for and won a seat on the Imperial County Democratic Central Committee; and

WHEREAS, In November 1950, he was elected as a judge in Westmorland due to his exemplary grassroots campaign, but because he had not been a citizen for one full year the judgeship was denied him; and

WHEREAS, In 1952, he ran again for the judgeship against the incumbent and won, serving as judge in Westmorland for four years; and

WHEREAS, In October 1955, Dr. Saund became a candidate for Congress from the 29th Congressional District, facing a highly celebrated opponent who had rich supporters and who was a personal friend of the then President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, With the help of dedicated volunteers, Dr. Saund carried out an intensive campaign of voter registration, passed out thousands of “Saund circulars,” visited thousands of homes, and thus made a definite impact on voters, resulting in the election of the “first native of Asia” to the United States Congress on November 6, 1956; and

WHEREAS, Today, the population of Asian Americans in the United States is in excess of 10 million, and Asian Americans, and particularly Indian Americans, seeking political office invoke Dr. Saund's name, much the same way as Dr. Saund himself invoked President Lincoln's name, as a source of inspiration and a worthy role model; and

WHEREAS, November 6, 2006, marks the 50th anniversary of the historic election of Dr. Saund to the United States Congress; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to urge the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee and the United States Postal Service to issue a commemorative stamp to honor the first Asian member of Congress, Dr. Dalip S. Saund; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to celebrate September 20 of each year, Dalip S. Saund's birthday, in recognition of his outstanding achievement as the first native of Asia to be elected to Congress; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, and to the United States Postal Service.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 68

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 10—Relative to foster care services.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Funds available under Title IV-E of the federal Social Security Act are the largest source of federal funding for our state's foster care system, accounting for over one-third of all federal foster care funding in California; and

WHEREAS, Title IV-E funds may only be accessed when a child has been removed from his or her home and placed in foster care; and

WHEREAS, Under the current funding structure, a state has no ability to use Title IV-E dollars to provide services that will work to prevent child abuse, protect children within their homes, strengthen fragile families, and divert families from the foster care system; and

WHEREAS, Existing federal funding eligibility requirements, which tie monetary allocations to the placement of children in out-of-home care and the length of time a child spends in foster care, create disincentives to service children within their homes; and

WHEREAS, There are not enough programs, either long-term or on an emergency basis, that enable social workers to provide immediate stabilization and family maintenance services to a child at risk within his or her family of origin, even when it might be safe and in the child's best interest to keep the family intact; and

WHEREAS, Current financing restrictions can leave children who are at a low level of risk for abuse unattended until the point in time when the risk to the child is so great that removal from the home is necessary; and

WHEREAS, Title IV-E funding mechanisms encourage large caseloads at the county level, leave counties without funds to provide services unless the child enters the foster care system, and cause families that could be kept together with the provision of services to instead be separated; and

WHEREAS, The California Title IV-E Waiver Demonstration Project Application (the Title IV-E Waiver) sought by the state will allow California counties more flexibility in the use of foster care funds. Specifically, the waiver will allow social workers to provide front-end services to help attend to the needs of children and families without removing the child from the home or initiating a judicial proceeding, thereby maintaining the family unit when appropriate, focusing dependency judicial and governmental interventions on children and families most at risk, and decreasing child welfare and judicial caseloads; and

WHEREAS, The Title IV-E Waiver will enable California counties to better support vulnerable children and families and will create a vehicle for providing a full range of cost-effective services, rather than limiting the use federal foster care moneys to those children who have been placed in foster care; and

WHEREAS, States that have received waivers and thereby are released from federal funding constraints have exhibited positive results and have implemented innovative programs that provide a continuum of service shown to have significant success, including the following: (a) Illinois has used its Title IV-E Waiver to improve foster care services and has dramatically decreased the number of children in foster care from over 50,000 foster youth to 19,000 in just five years. Social worker caseloads consequently dropped from an average of 45-60 cases to 14-18 cases, enabling those on the front line to focus their time and attention on children and families most in need. (b) Delaware used waiver authority to help parents overcome substance abuse problems, reducing by nearly one-third the amount of time children spent in foster care. (c) Maryland used waiver-based innovations to move more than 300 children from foster care limbo to permanent homes or guardianship. (d) Connecticut used the waiver process to develop intensive mental health services, reducing the duration and number of youth in highly restrictive settings and helping kids return to home more quickly. (e) Most recently, Ohio was granted waiver authority to enhance an array of services to help facilitate reunification and to increase prevention services; and

WHEREAS, The Counties of Alameda, Humboldt, Los Angeles, Orange, Placer, Sacramento, San Francisco, Santa Clara, and Yolo seek the opportunity to work together with the state to create improved child welfare services through the use of a Title IV-E waiver; and

WHEREAS, The 2003 federal review of California's foster care system found that California failed all seven outcome measures. If the state does not improve its services, it will incur up to $18 million in penalties; and

WHEREAS, The Pew Commission on Foster Care, an independent entity chaired by the Honorable Bill Frenzel and the Honorable William Gray, recommended that federal funds for foster care be reformed to increase programmatic flexibility and reliability of federal funding. A report released by a related Pew initiative similarly found that "current federal funding mechanisms encourage an over-reliance on foster care at the expense of services that move children to permanent families and help keep families safely together"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature declares its strong support for, and urges federal approval of, the California Title IV-E Waiver Demonstration Project Application (the Title IV-E Waiver) submitted to the United States Department of Health and Human Services on May 24, 2004; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the State Department of Social Services to work with counties and others to address ongoing issues and to promptly submit a final revised Title IV-E Waiver application addressing those issues; and be it further

Resolved, That the California State Legislature urges the United States Department of Health and Human Services to expeditiously approve the Title IV-E Waiver, thereby allowing the State of California to make changes and innovations necessary to improve outcomes and services for vulnerable at-risk, abused, and neglected children; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States, and urges states and counties, to enact laws and policies that will allow for more flexible use of federal child welfare funding to support the needs of children and families at risk, even if the child is not removed from the home or formally made part of the child welfare system.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 69

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 41—Relative to school crossing guards.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, School crossing guards have played a vital role in ensuring the safety of children for many years; and

WHEREAS, School crossing guards are responsible for reporting to a designated street corner, safely escorting children across busy crosswalks or intersections, and monitoring the flow of traffic to ensure the safe passage of children; and

WHEREAS, School crossing guards exercise sound independent judgment in their conduct of work, interact with, and enjoy a high degree of respect from, children, parents, and all other members of our community, are responsible, and display enthusiasm in working with children; and

WHEREAS, According to the United States Department of Transportation, children ages 5 to 15, inclusive, have the highest pedestrian injury rates in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Elementary school children are of particular concern because they are often deficient in cognitive skills necessary to successfully interact with traffic; and

WHEREAS, Men and women who serve as school crossing guards have the important task of ensuring the safety of schoolchildren; and

WHEREAS, Serving as a school crossing guard is often dangerous, as evidenced by the death of Byron G. “Bud” Brown Sr.; and

WHEREAS, Byron G. “Bud” Brown Sr., an 85-year-old man who began serving as a school crossing guard in the 1980s, was fatally injured near Westmore Oaks Elementary School in West Sacramento on October 9, 2003; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brown had just guided several Westmore Oaks Elementary School pupils across the street when he was struck by a car on Park Boulevard; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes the significant task of men and women who serve as school crossing guards of ensuring the safety of schoolchildren; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 70

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 16—Relative to the CHP Sergeant Gary R. Wagers Memorial Interchange.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol Sergeant Gary R. Wagers died in a patrol vehicle collision in the line of duty while pursuing a traffic violator at high speed in the early morning hours of March 15, 2001, on State Highway Route 113 at the interchange with State Highway Route 5, in Woodland; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wagers graduated high school in Allegan, Michigan and was a graduate of California State University, Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wagers joined the California Army National Guard in 1970 and retired in 1998 at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, after receiving many awards, including the Army Achievement Medal, Reserve Commendation Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, and National Defense Medal; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wagers graduated from the California Highway Patrol Academy and was appointed as a State Traffic Officer on August 9, 1979; and

WHEREAS, Officer Wagers was promoted to the rank of State Traffic Sergeant on March 1, 1992; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wagers was an admired and respected 22-year veteran of the California Highway Patrol, having served in the West Los Angeles, Westminster, South Sacramento, Riverside, Santa Ana, and Woodland Areas as well as at California Highway Patrol Headquarters and California Highway Patrol Air Operations; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Gary R. Wagers, as a result of his steadfast dedication to the citizens of the State of California, and his commitment and contributions to the safety of the motoring public, represented the Department of California Highway Patrol in an outstanding manner; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wagers is survived by his wife, Linda, his daughter Shelly Wagers, his son and daughter-in-law Garrett and Christine Wagers, his stepdaughter and son-in-law Carrie and Kevin Fellhoelter, and his mother Joyce Wagers; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wagers had many close friends in the California Highway Patrol who were shocked and saddened by the loss of their fellow officer; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of his ultimate sacrifice for the citizens of the state, it would be a fitting tribute to Sergeant Wagers to designate the interchange of State Highway Route 5 and State Highway Route 113 as the “CHP Sergeant Gary R. Wagers Memorial Interchange”; and

WHEREAS, This memorial interchange will continue to remind us of the sacrifices that California Highway Patrol and other peace officers make on a daily basis; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the interchange of State Highway Route 5 and State Highway Route 113 be designated the “CHP Sergeant Gary R. Wagers Memorial Interchange”; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate plaques and markers, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing that special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover that cost, to erect those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 71

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 68—Relative to the Tall Ships Challenge 2005.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 2005.]

WHEREAS, During California’s Sesquicentennial Celebration in 1999, and then again in 2002, tall ships from maritime nations around the world visited the California ports of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego; and

WHEREAS, Beginning with California’s Sesquicentennial in 1999, the Tall Ships, such as the Guayas (Ecuador), Gloria (Columbia), Kaiwo Maru (Japan), R Tucker Thompson (New Zealand), Amerigo Vespucci (Italy), Europa (the Netherlands), Concordia (Canada), Batkishvna (Ukraine), Nippon Maru (Japan), Cuauhtemoc (Mexico), Esmeralda (Chile), Juan Sebastian de Elcano (Spain), and Kaisei (Antigua) have visited California’s ports; and

WHEREAS, These foreign tall ships were joined in the celebrations by several of California's own tall ships from our own ports; and

WHEREAS, These tall ship visits were aided by funding from the state to assist these ports in hosting these vessels; and

WHEREAS, California has seen an increase in foreign tall ship visits as a result of the efforts of the sponsors of these events and their port cities; and

WHEREAS, These visits were a financial boost to these ports by drawing record breaking crowds to visit the ships; and

WHEREAS, These visits received widespread national and international media coverage and boosted California's status as a worldwide, international, economic power; and

WHEREAS, The visits of these tall ships increased California's appreciation for its rich maritime history and traditions dating back to the earliest days of California's recorded history; and

WHEREAS, The international sail training movement has served to bring tall ships and young sailors from North America and around the world to the shores and harbors of the United States each year in friendly international competition and in celebration of the enduring values of teamwork, adventure, and courage that built a great society in North America; and

WHEREAS, The San Diego Maritime Museum, the Los Angeles Maritime Institute, and Sail San Francisco have joined together to bring the tall ships to California once again in 2005; and

WHEREAS, Many of these tall ships will follow an historic route that takes them around the Pacific Rim; and

WHEREAS, Tall ships events bring local people together with visiting sailors from across the ocean in a shared sense of excitement that is truly unique, joining appreciation for maritime history and traditions in celebrations that are an extraordinary cross-cultural experience; and

WHEREAS, The great historic port cities of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego, California will serve as hosts to these gatherings of tall ships, which evoke the history of California in the climactic phase of the heroic age of sail; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California commends the Ports of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego and their continuing commitment to the values that built a great nation and brought the peoples and cultures of the world together, and their dedication to the personal growth and development of the young people who will lead the nation and the world in the next generation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California congratulates the nonprofit organizers of the host ports, namely, the San Diego

Maritime Museum, the Los Angeles Maritime Institute, and Sail San Francisco on their efforts to provide a warm California welcome to the tall ships of the Tall Ships Challenge 2005, and for their commitment to the important work carried on by those ships; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California commends the State Coastal Conservancy for its steadfast encouragement and support for these tall ship events as part of its mission; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California commends those nations who are participating in the Tall Ship Challenge 2005 and invites all tall ships to continue to visit California for the mutual benefits derived by these visits; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 72

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8—Relative to the Pearl Harbor Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On December 7, 1941, just before 8 a.m. on a Sunday morning, the first wave of bombers began the attack on Pearl Harbor that led the United States into World War II. It was an unforgettable day for those who lived through it and one which called America forth to defend itself, and in so doing, inspired a generation of Americans to rise and lead the defense of freedom around the world; and

WHEREAS, On December 7th, 1941, 2,335 people were killed in action and 1,178 were wounded; and

WHEREAS, The majority of the Pacific Fleet that was damaged and sunk in the attack was at one time home ported in California, but was deployed to Pearl Harbor by President Franklin D. Roosevelt just prior to the war; and

WHEREAS, California is home to about 2000 brave and patriotic survivors and it is their desire to honor both those that lost their lives and those that went on to protect the United States; and

WHEREAS, It is important and fitting that we pay tribute to and commemorate the gallant men and women who defended our country in its darkest hour; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the portion of Interstate Highway 10 located in California from its starting point at

State Highway Route 1 in the City of Santa Monica to its terminus at the Arizona state line at the Colorado River as the Pearl Harbor Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signage requirements for the state highway system, showing these special designations, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 73

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 12—Relative to CHP Officer Artie J. Hubbard Memorial Freeway.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol Officer Artie J. Hubbard, was born on December 17, 1951, in Stockton, California; and

WHEREAS, Officer Artie J. Hubbard graduated from East Union High School in Manteca, California in 1970. After high school, Officer Hubbard attended Delta College and graduated in 1973 with an AA degree in Criminal Justice; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hubbard joined the California Highway Patrol in January of 1974. After completing academy training, he reported to the Central Los Angeles Office. Throughout Officer Hubbard's years in Central Los Angeles, he was assigned to motorcycle patrol, as a field training officer, and worked protective services details. In 1984, Officer Hubbard was voluntarily transferred to the South Sacramento Office; and

WHEREAS, On April 5, 1985, Officer Hubbard was involved in a serious car accident, where he sustained major head injuries. While bravely responding to an 11-99 (officer needs help) call, Officer Hubbard failed to negotiate a curve and his CHP Mustang slid off the roadway and struck a utility pole; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hubbard was placed on life support and was cared for in his parents' home for more than ten years. Tragically, on December 8, 1995, Officer Hubbard, 43, succumbed to his injuries as a result of the collision; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hubbard is survived by his mother Helen Hubbard, his sister Roseada Beggs, his brother Mike Hubbard, and many beloved family members and friends; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hubbard will always be admired for his hard work and dedication to the California Highway Patrol. Officer Hubbard was an outstanding man and will never be forgotten; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of his ultimate sacrifice for the citizens of the state, it is befitting that, on northbound and southbound portions of State Highway Route 5, from Pocket Road to the southern boundary of the City of Sacramento, appropriate signs be placed to honor the memory of this selfless officer; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the portion of State Highway Route 5 from Pocket Road to the southern boundary of the City of Sacramento in the County of Sacramento as the CHP Officer Artie J. Hubbard Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements, for the state highway system, showing this special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 74

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 18—Relative to California Indian Heritage Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, President George W. Bush proclaimed November 2003 as National American Indian Heritage Month in recognition of American Indians and Alaskan Natives; and

WHEREAS, California Indians, through their rich cultural traditions and proud ancestry, have made vital contributions to the strength and diversity of our society; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of the sovereignty of the California Indian nations to be self-governing, self-supporting, and self-reliant, we are working to protect and enhance tribal resources; and

WHEREAS, As of the last census, over 330,000 American Indians were living in California, more than any other state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature proclaims that the month of November 2005 be recognized as California Indian Heritage Month, encourages the observance of this event with activities that celebrate our uniqueness as Americans, and takes this opportunity to commend California Indian nations for their outstanding contributions to this great state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 75

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22—Relative to California Hispanic Heritage Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, President Lyndon B. Johnson first proclaimed and designated the week that included September 15 and 16 in 1968, as National Hispanic Heritage Week, as a result of a Joint Resolution approved by Congress on September 17, 1968, in recognition of the contributions of Hispanic Americans to American culture and history; and

WHEREAS, The original weeklong commemoration was changed by Public Law No. 100-402, which took effect on January 1, 1989, to National Hispanic Heritage Month that is to include the 31-day period beginning September 15 and ending on October 15; and

WHEREAS, The objectives of National Hispanic Heritage Month are to create a greater awareness of the contributions of Hispanic Americans to American culture, to illustrate the diversity of the Hispanic American community, and to encourage a greater curiosity within young people about the rich history and cultural heritage of Hispanic Americans; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic influence is evident in American culture in, among other things, music, art, science, food, humanities, and business and trade; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic Americans from the time of the Revolutionary War to the War on Terrorism subsequent to September 11, 2001, have proudly served this country in the Armed Forces, and, during their course of service, 38 Hispanic Americans, including nine from California have been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest honor conferred for military bravery and heroism above and beyond the call of duty; and

WHEREAS, There are nearly 11 million Hispanic Americans in California; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic Americans have contributed to the development and success of California by playing major roles in building this state through agriculture, medicine, science, entertainment, business, education, civil rights, politics, and sports; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims September 15 to October 15, 2005, inclusive, as California Hispanic Heritage Month, and encourages all Californians to observe this event in communities throughout the state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 76

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 40—Relative to preservation of state authority over siting of liquefied natural gas facilities.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The California Constitution establishes the Public Utilities Commission, with jurisdiction over all public utilities; and

WHEREAS, The California Constitution grants the commission certain general powers over all public utilities subject to its jurisdiction, including the ability to establish rules, subject to control by the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The California Constitution provides that all private corporations and persons that own, operate, control, or manage a line, plant, or system for the production, generation, transmission, or furnishing of heat, light, or power directly or indirectly to or for the public are public utilities subject to control by the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Under the Public Utilities Act, a gas corporation is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, and includes every corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any gas plant for compensation within the state, with certain exceptions; and

WHEREAS, Under the Public Utilities Act, a gas plant includes all real estate, fixtures, and personal property, owned, controlled, operated, or managed in connection with, or to facilitate the production, generation, transmission, delivery, underground storage, or furnishing of, gas, natural or manufactured, except propane; and

WHEREAS, Under the Public Utilities Act, the commission is authorized, after a hearing, to require every public utility to construct, maintain, and operate utility facilities in a manner so as to promote and safeguard the health and safety of its employees, customers, and the public, and every gas corporation is required to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity before constructing any gas plant, line, or extension; and

WHEREAS, California natural gas consumers may receive substantial benefit from a liquefied natural gas (LNG) facility in California and those consumers have a direct interest in the siting of an LNG facility; and

WHEREAS, It is in the public interest for the state to conduct an orderly and comprehensive public assessment of the impacts of the construction and operation of LNG facilities on the economy, consumers, the environment, and the public health and safety; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) is composed of five commissioners appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate, for five-year terms, and each commissioner has an equal vote on regulatory matters; and

WHEREAS, Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 717f) authorizes FERC certification of onshore LNG facilities involving interstate pipelines; and

WHEREAS, FERC's opposition to meaningful state and local involvement in LNG facility siting has led to a dispute with the California Public Utilities Commission over the extent of FERC's jurisdiction over onshore LNG facilities serving intrastate pipelines, and the issue is currently before the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit for resolution; and

WHEREAS, Eighteen members of the Congress of the United States have filed an amicus (friend of the court) brief on behalf of the Public Utilities Commission in its dispute with FERC; and

WHEREAS, In the amicus brief, Congressman Ed Markey writes: "... While my 1979 LNG siting bill clearly envisioned a federal role in the siting of new LNG facilities, it also directed that such facilities be remotely located. Unfortunately, the Transportation Department and FERC have failed to follow that directive. At the same time, my bill never preempted State public safety and emergency response authorities, reflecting Congress' view that State Governments needed to be able to take action to protect their populations from hazards represented by proposals to site new LNG facilities in densely populated urban areas. The amicus brief that we've filed reflects Congressional support for retention of such authorities by the States.”; and

WHEREAS, FERC's opposition to meaningful state and local involvement in LNG facility siting has led it to also seek legislation in Congress to grant FERC unambiguous control, including the power of eminent domain, over the siting of LNG import terminals; and

WHEREAS, There exists proposed federal legislation intended to grant FERC exclusive jurisdiction over all LNG facilities and to therefore preclude any state or local government from having any decisionmaking authority with respect to the siting of LNG facilities; and

WHEREAS, The proposed federal legislation, if enacted, would prohibit state or local officials from independently conducting safety inspections of LNG facilities and enforcing safety violations; and

WHEREAS, There is currently pending a proposal to construct and operate a LNG terminal at the Port of Long Beach, to be located on state tidelands operated by the City of Long Beach through the Port of Long Beach, as a public trust granted by the state; and

WHEREAS, If there were an accidental release or catastrophic event, such as a terrorist attack, upon a LNG terminal at the Port of Long Beach, it could have disastrous consequences; and

WHEREAS, States should be regulating the safety and siting of LNG facilities in their states, which do not involve interstate pipelines, because the states regulate the intrastate pipelines that interconnect with the LNG facilities; and

WHEREAS, States have a much better understanding than the FERC of the natural physical aspects of a location, such as the effects from a major earthquake on a proposed LNG facility; and

WHEREAS, To grant FERC exclusive control over the siting of LNG import terminals would be inconsistent with numerous federal regulatory systems in which Congress has respected the rights of states to protect their coastlines, to protect their environment, and to protect the safety of their citizens, including the Coastal Zone Management Act, the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act, the Clean Water Act, and the Clean Air Act; and

WHEREAS, To deprive citizens of a state forum within which to resolve concerns over safety and injury to the environment is contrary to the public interest; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes

the President and Congress to take necessary action to preserve state and local authority over the siting of liquefied natural gas facilities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to all Members of the Congress of the United States, and to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 77

Senate Joint Resolution No. 12—Relative to wine labeling.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California is the fourth largest wine producer in the world after France, Italy, and Spain; and

WHEREAS, The California wine industry has an annual impact of $45.4 billion on the state's economy, and produces the number one finished agricultural product in the state; and

WHEREAS, The California wine industry creates more than 200,000 jobs, billions of dollars in economic activity, and preserves agricultural land and the family farm; and

WHEREAS, The California wine industry generates higher taxes than most industries because, as a regulated industry, it pays excise taxes to state and federal governments on every bottle of wine; and

WHEREAS, California receives over $2 billion in taxes and other business licenses and fees from the wine industry; and

WHEREAS, The federal government, other states, and local municipalities collect an additional $3.7 billion in tax revenues a year from the California wine industry; and

WHEREAS, Winery tourism is very popular and contributes significantly to the rural economy, as many state tourism departments feature their wineries as major tourist attractions and prompt tourism expenditures of some $1.3 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, The California wine industry is a leader in the stewardship of natural resources and the environment, preservation of agricultural land and open space, and overall enhancement of Californians' lifestyles; and

WHEREAS, Wineries are almost always located in rural areas, near the source of the winegrapes, and the combination of vineyards and wineries provides a stable, year-round, and flexible base of rural employment; and

WHEREAS, Wineries and winegrape growers have made a major commitment to implement sustainable practices, that are environmentally sound, economically viable, and socially responsible; and

WHEREAS, Despite the challenges of intense global competition, trade barriers, agricultural pests, and the constant threat of increased taxes and regulations, the state's wine industry is strong and is a major contributor to the economic vitality of California; and

WHEREAS, The federal 2006 budget proposes $29 million in user fees to be collected by the Department of the Treasury's Tax and Trade Bureau for wine label, formula, and permit applications and administrative costs; and

WHEREAS, Federal law requires Tax and Trade Bureau approval for any changes to wine labels, including any changes in vintage dating, blending requirements, source of grapes, and alcohol content, resulting in virtually all wine labels needing annual federal approvals; and

WHEREAS, Since 80 percent of the 110,000 labels approved annually by the federal Tax and Trade Bureau are submitted by wineries, this proposal would have a serious impact on the nation's 4,000 small family-owned wineries; and

WHEREAS, Most of California's 1,100 wineries are small family-owned businesses and will shoulder a disproportionate share of this new cost; and

WHEREAS, Congress would have to pass authorizing legislation to implement the new fee proposed in the 2006 federal budget; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to protect and preserve the ability of small family-owned wineries to contribute to the economy of California and the nation by opposing and defeating the 2006 budget proposal for $29 million in user fees to be collected by the Department of Treasury's Tax and Trade Bureau for label, formula, and permit applications and administrative costs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, and to all members of the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 78

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 46—Relative to the Ruben Salazar Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Ruben Salazar was born in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, across the Rio Grande from El Paso on March 3, 1928. Eleven months later his parents, Luz Chavez and Salvador Salazar, a watch repairman, moved across the river to El Paso, Texas, where Ruben was raised. After high school he entered the United States Army, where he served a two-year tour of duty just before the Korean conflict. Out of the service and now an American citizen, Salazar entered the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) and received his bachelor of arts in journalism in 1954. During his last two years as a student at UTEP he worked as a reporter for the El Paso Herald Post, where he demonstrated both great interest and skill in investigative reporting; and

WHEREAS, While working as a reporter at the El Paso Herald Post, he became deeply aware of police mistreatment of Mexicans and wrote extensively on the brutality against Mexican-Americans in Texas prisons. After graduation, Salazar took a job with the Press Democrat in Santa Rosa, California. Three years later, he left the staff of the Press Democrat for a reportorial position with the San Francisco News. Having served his seven years of apprenticeship, in 1959 he moved south as a reporter on the city staff of the Los Angeles Times; and

WHEREAS, During his six years at the Los Angeles Times in the city room, he persuaded his superiors to allow him to write a column, sometimes troublesome for the Times, in which he gave voice to the problems and concerns of eastside Chicanos. He continued to give evidence of his ability as a reporter, writing a series of articles on the Los Angeles Latino community in 1963, for which he received an award from the California State Fair, the Los Angeles Press Club, and the Equal Opportunity Foundation. In addition to his awards, the series also earned him a well-deserved reputation for conscientious and objective reporting. In 1965, Salazar was sent to cover the civil war in the Dominican Republic, where he described the views of the rebels and the reaction to the U.S. involvement. Later that year, Salazar was sent by the Times to Vietnam as a foreign correspondent to cover the rapidly escalating American involvement there, of special interest to the Latino community because of the proportionately large number of Mexican-Americans in the U.S. forces and among the casualties. He was one of two Times correspondents in Vietnam during the period of increased U.S. involvement; and

WHEREAS, In late 1966, Ruben Salazar left Vietnam and was called back by the Times and placed as the bureau chief in Mexico City, thus becoming the first Mexican-American to hold such a position at a major newspaper. He covered stories throughout Latin America including the first conference of the Latin American Solidarity Organization in Cuba in 1967. In 1968, he covered a student demonstration in Mexico City when Mexican soldiers opened fire; and

WHEREAS, In late 1968, Salazar returned to Los Angeles with a special assignment to cover the Mexican-American community, in which the Chicano movement was beginning to move into high gear. Aware of the increasing importance and rising militancy of Mexican-Americans, in the following year the Times took steps, involving Salazar, to focus more sharply on the Chicano community. In early 1970, he began writing a weekly column featured on the Friday Opinion page explaining and interpreting Chicano life and culture to the greater Los Angeles community; and

WHEREAS, In January of 1970, Salazar decided to accept a position as news director of station KMEX-TV and planned to leave the Times. The response of the Times was to suggest that in his new position Salazar continue writing his weekly column. He decided he could handle both jobs and subsequently used both forums to articulate the many grievances that Mexican-Americans had nursed for so long. A political moderate, he nevertheless spoke out fearlessly, condemning racism, prejudice, and segregation. Abuses by the police became the special target of his hard-hitting weekly essays, and he repeatedly pointed out in his column the much higher than average Mexican-American casualty rate in the Vietnam War. As a result of his articles, he was under investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department and the FBI, and pressure was put on him to tone down his language; and

WHEREAS, When the National Chicano Moratorium, a committee of Chicanos who opposed the Vietnam War, called a march for August 29, 1970, in Los Angeles, Ruben Salazar naturally was present at the event in his dual capacity. Approximately 20,000 members from all over the United States had gathered to decry the Vietnam War since Chicanos had the highest number of casualties in proportion to their population. With his crew from KMEX he covered the march from Belvedere Park to Laguna Park. As trouble began at a nearby liquor store, it quickly led to a confrontation between the police and marchers, which led to rioting and looting covering 28 blocks. The violence led to 200 arrests, 60 injured, and three deaths. As the day grew late into the afternoon, the riot moved east on Whittier Boulevard toward the Silver Dollar Café. Attempting to avoid the riot-ridden streets, Ruben Salazar and his news crew stopped to have a drink in the Silver Dollar Café. Shortly after they entered the Silver Dollar Café, a deputy fired a high-velocity 10-inch tear gas projectile meant for piercing walls, into the café and hit Salazar in the head. Ruben Salazar was killed instantly, suffering a projectile wound of the temple area causing massive injury to the brain. The subsequent 16-day coroner's inquest ruled Salazar's death a homicide, but there was never any legal action; and

WHEREAS, Salazar's tragic death was a consequence of the contentious and often racially heated period of time. His informed, articulate, and level-headed voice for social change inspired many in the Latino community, and his legacy has encouraged Latinos to enter the field of journalism. In 1971, he was posthumously awarded a special Robert F. Kennedy Journalism Award for his columns, which communicated the culture and alienation of Chicanos effectively and compassionately. He received the highest Raza accolade, a corrido describing his contributions to La Raza. Ruben Salazar's life and death has been recognized and honored with awards, scholarships, public schools, and community centers in his name. Most notably, after the controversy of his death had subsided, Laguna Park was renamed Salazar Park in his honor. In July of 1976, Salazar was honored by the California State University of Los Angeles in the renaming of South Hall to Ruben Salazar Memorial Hall. On the 10th anniversary of his death, his widow, Sally Salazar, was the guest of honor at the dedication of the Ruben Salazar Library in Santa Rosa, California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby officially designates that the portion of State Highway Route 710 between East Cesar E. Chavez Avenue and State Highway Route 60 located in the County of Los Angeles as the "Ruben Salazar Memorial Highway"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this special designation, and upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover that cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 79

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 22—Relative to the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science and the Martin Luther King General Hospital.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Assembly Concurrent Resolution 139, which was passed by the Legislature in 2004 (Resolution Chapter 43 of the Statutes of 2004), has been one of the instruments through which the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science and the Martin Luther King General Hospital are being reorganized; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to the advice of the five medical schools of the University of California, the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science is being upgraded; and

WHEREAS, The California Endowment's Steering Committee on the Future of Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science has made some constructive recommendations; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees of the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science has new members of national stature; and

WHEREAS, There have been numerous efforts to improve the operations of the Martin Luther King General Hospital; and

WHEREAS, The Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science and the Martin Luther King General Hospital are known as the King/Drew Medical Center; and

WHEREAS, The future of the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science and the Martin Luther King General Hospital looks bright; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles and the Board of Trustees of the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science to enter into a joint agreement to name a Chief Executive Officer to administer the university and the Martin Luther King General Hospital, and that the Chief Executive Officer be granted full authority over the joint operations of the university and the hospital; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to each member of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles and each member of the Board of Trustees of the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 80

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 42—Relative to the Province of Jeju, Republic of Korea.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The sister city-state program, inaugurated in 1956 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, has resulted in greater friendship and understanding between the people of the United States and other nations through direct contact, formal declarations of goodwill, and a spirit of cooperation; and

WHEREAS, We live in an interconnected world with a global economy, in which international friendship, collaboration, and cultural understanding are of the utmost importance; and

WHEREAS, The Republic of Korea is one of California's largest export markets, although Korean investment in California is relatively small; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 25 percent of the world's population resides in Northeast Asia, and the Province of Jeju, Republic of Korea, is geographically situated in the heart of Northeast Asia within a two hour flight time of 18 major Asian cities with populations over five million; and

WHEREAS, The South Korean government has designated Jeju City a Free International City in order to foster tourism and trade in the Province of Jeju, reduced tariffs and barriers to foreigners entering the Province of Jeju, and implemented a number of measures to promote foreign direct investment into the Province of Jeju; and

WHEREAS, The Province of Jeju was designated World Peace Island by the South Korean government in 2004 and has since hosted international conventions and forums by organizations such as the Asian Development Bank, the Pacific Asia Travel Association, and the United Nations Environmental Program for leading domestic and international figures; and

WHEREAS, The South Korean government is investing in the Province of Jeju for the development of a tourism port as well as complexes dedicated to tourism, resort-style residences, and the development of science and technology; and

WHEREAS, California and the Province of Jeju have much in common, including a strong tourism industry, a specialized agricultural industry important to the region's economy, and a desire to protect the local ecology; and

WHEREAS, The Cities of Los Angeles and Santa Rosa are already cultivating sister city relationships with Jeju City and Bukjeju City, respectively, in the Province of Jeju; and

WHEREAS, A sister-state relationship between California and the Province of Jeju would promote international trade, commerce, and tourism, increase the potential for commercial relationships, and foster cultural exchanges; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, on behalf of the people of the State of California, extends to the people of the Jeju Province, Republic of Korea, through the Governor of Jeju Province, an invitation to join the State of California as a sister state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 81

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 43—Relative to labor.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article XIV of the California Constitution declares, “The Legislature may provide for minimum wages and for the general welfare of employees and for those purposes may confer on a commission legislative, executive, and judicial powers”; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to this constitutional authorization, the Legislature enacted Section 1173 of the Labor Code, conferring upon the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) the authority “to ascertain the hours and conditions of labor and employment in the various occupations, trades, and industries in which employees are employed in this state, and to investigate the health, safety, and welfare of those employees”; and

WHEREAS, The California Supreme Court has affirmed that the IWC “is the state agency empowered to formulate regulations (known as Wage Orders) governing employment in the State of California” (Tidewater Marine Western, Inc. v. Bradshaw (1996) 14 Cal.4th 557, 561); and

WHEREAS, Exercising its statutory powers, the IWC has promulgated 17 industry and occupational Wage Orders regulating the wages, hours, and working conditions of California employees and these Wage Orders are required by law to be posted at every workplace in California; and

WHEREAS, The IWC must follow the procedures set forth in Sections 1171 to 1188, inclusive, of the Labor Code to promulgate regulations through convening wage boards consisting of equal representation of employers and employees in a particular industry or occupation, except in instances where there has been a specific legislative mandate to follow other procedures; and

WHEREAS, By establishing the detailed IWC process the Legislature has ensured that the commission charged with establishing workplace protections for California workers does so only after a comprehensive process ensuring participation of equal numbers of employers and employees is completed in compliance with Sections 1171 to 1188, inclusive, of the Labor Code; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has conferred upon the citizen members of these wage boards the unique authority to recommend changes in wage and hour law which are binding upon the IWC when enacted by a two-thirds vote of the wage board; and

WHEREAS, No other agency, department, or division, including the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (DLSE), has been additionally delegated these powers to regulate wages, hours, and working conditions; and

WHEREAS, In Section 516 of the Labor Code, the Legislature reiterates this explicit grant of power to the IWC to “adopt and amend working condition orders with respect to break periods, meal periods, and days of rest for any workers in California consistent with the health and welfare of those workers”; and

WHEREAS, The DLSE has recently proposed a meal and rest break regulation at Section 13700 of Title 8 of the California Code of Regulations that would significantly diminish long-standing protections in California wage and hour law concerning the provision of meal and rest periods to employees; and

WHEREAS, The DLSE does not have the authority to promulgate a regulation that weakens the substantive protections and remedies afforded to California employees under Sections 226.7 and 512 of the Labor Code and the 17 Wage Orders; and

WHEREAS, The proposed regulation is inconsistent with existing law and regulations which require, among other protections, that the employer provide a meal break to all employees within the first five hours of work unless a statutory waiver is entered into between the employer and the employee; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has granted DLSE discrete rulemaking authority that is limited in scope to the internal operations of DLSE and to areas of labor law enforcement that are not expressly delegated to another officer, board, or commission and the Legislature has expressly delegated authority to regulate wages, hours, and working conditions to the IWC; and

WHEREAS, Two separate entities promulgating contradictory regulations on the same subject will create confusion concerning an employee’s right to meal and rest breaks; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby declares that the DLSE does not have the authority to promulgate the proposed regulation concerning meal and rest periods; and be it further

Resolved, That this authority rests exclusively with the Legislature or, in the alternative, the IWC, pursuant to legislative delegation of power; and be it further

Resolved, That the proposed regulation on meal and rest breaks is inconsistent with existing law and will create confusion concerning these rights; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California, to the Secretary of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, and to the State Labor Commissioner.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 82

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 69—Relative to the Boy Scouts of America.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Since the founding of the Boy Scouts of America, millions of Boy Scouts have taken the experience of scouting and gone on to contribute great things to society; and

WHEREAS, A Boy Scout can be followed, as he is a leader in his troop and community, regardless of the scout's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, or disability; and

WHEREAS, The list of former Boy Scouts includes diverse role models and leaders; and

WHEREAS, A Boy Scout lives honorably, not only because honor is important to him, but because of the significant example he sets for other scouts; and

WHEREAS, Loyalty to his troop and brother scouts makes him "pitch-in" and carry his share of the load, recognizing the devotion to his family and the community in which he lives; and

WHEREAS, A Boy Scout's courage means standing up for what he believes in without compromising his own beliefs; and

WHEREAS, A Boy Scout looks forward to each day, seeking his share of the world's work to do; and

WHEREAS, Honor, loyalty, and courage are hallmarks of scouts who admirably represent the community, council, and troop in their daily lives; and

WHEREAS, A Boy Scout always wears a smile as a constant reminder of cheerfulness; and

WHEREAS, A Boy Scout is helpful in service and will always “Be Prepared” to put forth his best; and

WHEREAS, The character traits represented by Boy Scouts are symbols present in the Boy Scout badge, worn proudly on the uniform, by youth in this state and across the country; and

WHEREAS, It is the mission of the Boy Scouts of America to serve others by helping to instill values in young people, and in other ways to prepare them to make ethical choices over their lifetime in achieving their full potential; and

WHEREAS, The values that the Boy Scouts of America strives to instill are found in the Boy Scout Oath and Law; and

WHEREAS, Boy Scouts are required to abide by the Scout Law and Scout Oath, which proudly uses such terms as “honor,” “trustworthy,” and “loyal”; and

WHEREAS, Many Boy Scouts have been forced to hide their identity in contradiction to the Scout Mission, Law, and Oath, and Boy Scouts and scout leaders who were open about their sexual orientation have been expelled from scouting; and

WHEREAS, The policy of the Boy Scouts of America to bar from membership or leadership positions otherwise qualified individuals solely on the basis of their sexual orientation or religious belief causes harm to the innumerable boys and men such as James Dale who, regardless of their hard work and merits, are denied the opportunity to hold the rank of Eagle Scout or participate in any way in the Boy Scouts of America; and

WHEREAS, Many former Boy Scouts have left scouting and formed their own inclusive organization, Scouting for All, in an effort to bring the values of scouting to youth without discrimination; and

WHEREAS, The discriminatory policy of the Boy Scouts of America is contrary to the policy of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Other similar organizations such as the Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Boys and Girls, and the Boys and Girls Club serve as role models for the Boy Scouts of America because they do not discriminate against youth and adults; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the outstanding efforts of Boy Scouts who, through persistence and hard work, earn the rank of Eagle Scout; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages the Boy Scouts of America to accept for membership and leadership positions, including the rank of Eagle Scout, all qualified boys and men, without discriminating on the basis of sexual orientation or religious belief; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 83

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 3—Relative to the 32nd anniversary of Roe v. Wade.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, January 22, 2005, is the 32nd anniversary of the historic United States Supreme Court decision in Roe v. Wade (1973) 410 U.S. 113, guaranteeing women's reproductive rights, an occasion deserving of celebration and special public commendations; and

WHEREAS, The 1973 decision in Roe v. Wade established constitutionally based limits on the power of states to restrict the right of a woman to choose to terminate a pregnancy; and

WHEREAS, Roe v. Wade is one of the most significant Supreme Court decisions in the 20th century promoting women's rights; and

WHEREAS, Reproductive rights are central to the ability of women to exercise their full rights under federal and state law; and

WHEREAS, It is the right of every American woman to determine when, if, and with whom to have children, and how many children to have; and

WHEREAS, Women's ability to control their reproductive lives has facilitated their equal participation in the economic and social life of the nation; and

WHEREAS, The state should not interfere with a woman's decision to either bear a child or terminate a pregnancy through a safe and legal abortion; and

WHEREAS, Women should not be forced into illegal and dangerous abortions, as they often were prior to the Roe v. Wade decision; and

WHEREAS, During the first half of the 20th century, illegal abortions accounted for about 50 percent of all maternal deaths; and

WHEREAS, Roe v. Wade has significantly reduced the mortality rate for women terminating their pregnancies; and

WHEREAS, Roe v. Wade continues to protect the health and freedom of women throughout the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to protect and uphold the intent and substance of the 1973 United States Supreme Court decision in Roe v. Wade; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States and to all Members of the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 84

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 5—Relative to corporate average fuel economy standards.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California has more than 26 million registered motor vehicles; and

WHEREAS, California represents at least 12 percent of the light-duty vehicle market in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Californians consume more than 18 billion gallons of motor fuel annually; and

WHEREAS, A study adopted by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (California Energy Commission) and the State Air Resources Board (California Air Resources Board) projects that demand for onroad gasoline fuel will increase by about 1.6 percent annually between now and 2020; that onroad diesel demand will increase by about 2.4 percent annually between now and 2020; and that the number of miles that Californians drive is growing at a rate greater than the population growth; and

WHEREAS, California's refineries are operating at near capacity, and California is importing more gasoline and diesel fuel annually to meet this growing demand; and

WHEREAS, The combination of greater dependence on imported fuels and vulnerability to refinery outages exposes California's economy to more frequent and higher fuel price spikes; and

WHEREAS, Fuel price spike vulnerability creates a business climate with diminished certainty about anticipated expenses; and

WHEREAS, Petroleum extraction, refining, and use are significant sources of pollution and environmental degradation in California and around the world; and

WHEREAS, Motor vehicle fuel economy dramatically affects fuel demand; and

WHEREAS, A study adopted by the California Energy Commission and the California Air Resources Board determined that doubling the fuel economy of the nation's light-duty motor vehicle fleet is technically achievable and will result in important reductions in consumer demand for fuel; and

WHEREAS, Only the federal government has the authority to require motor vehicle fuel economy improvements through the corporate average fuel economy (CAFE) standard; and

WHEREAS, In recent years, the nationwide motor vehicle fleet fuel economy has declined as motor vehicles have become larger, heavier, and less aerodynamic; and

WHEREAS, The United States Congress, through its legislative powers, and the President of the United States, through the President's administrative powers, are in position to require a significant increase in the CAFE standard; and

WHEREAS, The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's current rulemaking raising CAFE standards for light-duty trucks and sport utility vehicles by just 1.5 miles per gallon above the 1996 levels, over three years, bringing total requirements far below requirements for passenger cars, is insufficient to address the critical need to improve fuel economy and reduce fuel demand; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to take necessary action to increase CAFE standards by at least 1.5 miles per gallon per annum until total average fuel economy for the new light-duty motor vehicle fleet sold in California is double today's average; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to all Members of the Congress of the United States, and to the Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 85

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 13—Relative to Social Security.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Social Security's income protections, guaranteed, lifelong benefits, cost-of-living adjustments to guard against inflation, increased benefits for families, greater income replacement for low-income workers, and disability and survivor benefits are the backbone of retirement security and family protection in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Social Security provides crucial, often indispensable income protection for the 47 million individuals, one in every six Americans, receiving benefits; and

WHEREAS, Social Security is the nation's most successful and most important family income protection program; and

WHEREAS, Social Security is not in crisis. Social Security can pay full benefits all the way to 2042, and, even at that point, can pay 73 percent of promised benefits. Adjustments need to be made, but the solution cannot be worse than the problem; and

WHEREAS, Some policymakers propose to address these needs by cutting guaranteed benefits and partially privatizing Social Security, that is, diverting one-third or more of workers' payroll tax contributions out of the Social Security Trust Fund and into private investment accounts; and

WHEREAS, Privatization will worsen Social Security's funding needs by draining resources from the Social Security Trust Fund into private accounts, increasing the federal deficit by $2 trillion over the first decade alone and more in the future and putting us in deeper debt; and

WHEREAS, Privatizing Social Security will cut guaranteed benefits by 30 percent for young workers, denying those workers benefits they have earned and imperiling their economic security; and

WHEREAS, Cutting guaranteed benefits will hurt the elderly because Social Security is the only secure source of retirement income for most Americans, providing at least half the income of nearly two-thirds of older American households and lifting more than 11 million seniors out of poverty; and

WHEREAS, Cutting guaranteed benefits will hurt women and people of color, as they are more likely to rely on Social Security for most of their retirement income, they earn less than white men and are thus less able to save for retirement, and they are less likely than white men to receive job-based pensions in retirement; and

WHEREAS, Diverting resources from Social Security to fund private accounts will threaten guaranteed survivor and disability benefits, thus harming working families, particularly African-Americans, as roughly one in five workers dies before retiring and nearly three in 10 become too disabled to work before reaching retirement age; and

WHEREAS, Privatizing the social security system will burden state and local governments, as cuts in guaranteed benefits will increase demands for public assistance at the very moment growth in the federal deficit due to privatization induces the federal government to shift greater responsibilities onto states and localities; and

WHEREAS, Partial privatization of Social Security will require considerable borrowing by the federal government, which will pass a legacy of debt onto future generations; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States should not rush through drastic and damaging changes in Social Security that undermine its family income protections, but, instead, should take the time needed to develop careful and thoughtful reforms that address Social Security's funding needs without slashing benefits or exploding the current deficit; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature memorializes the Congress of the United States to carefully study a variety of potential changes that will address Social Security's problems, while ensuring that the program will continue to meet its purpose of providing income protection and economic security for America's families; and be it further

Resolved, Any changes adopted by the Congress of the United States must strengthen social security's family income protections without slashing guaranteed benefits or exploding the deficit; and be it further

Resolved, The Congress of the United States should reject proposals to divert money out of Social Security to fund private accounts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 86

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 15—Relative to the Mag Instrument flashlight patent.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Mag Instrument Company is headquartered in San Bernardino County and it produces the Maglite flashlight at its facility in Ontario, California; and

WHEREAS, In the 1970's, the Mag Instrument Company invented the anodized aluminum flashlight that we know today as the Maglite which is widely used by police officers, firefighters, and mechanics; and

WHEREAS, Unlike many companies, Mag Instrument has chosen to keep its production facility in California rather than transferring the production work overseas; and

WHEREAS, The Mag Instrument Company currently employs 900 persons at its factory, offices, and distribution center in Ontario, California; and

WHEREAS, These facilities and jobs are jeopardized if Congress allows the expiration of Mag Instrument's flashlight patent; and

WHEREAS, During the weeks following the September 11, 2001 attack, the Mag Instrument Company donated thousands of flashlights to aid in the rescue efforts at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon; and

WHEREAS, The Mag Instrument Company is in the process of constructing an integrated manufacturing facility in Ontario, California, at the cost of $80 million, that may create an additional 2,400 jobs and contribute an estimated $260 million per year in purchases, capital investments, and research, if the patent is extended; and

WHEREAS, The Mag Instrument Company experienced a 13-year delay, from 1990 to 2003, in receiving a reissue patent, the Patent and Trademark Office cannot issue any more extensions, and any extensions of reissued patents must be accomplished through the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Joe Baca has introduced House Resolution 607 to extend Mag Instrument's flashlight patent for two years, from 2005 to 2007; and

WHEREAS, In the absence of congressional action to extend the patent, the likely outcome is that foreign companies would begin to produce imitations and knockoffs; and

WHEREAS, If Congress fails to act on House Resolution 607, it will jeopardize more than 900 jobs and the viability of the Maglite Instrument Company as well as harm the economy of the San Bernardino County; and

WHEREAS, Retaining more than 900 jobs in San Bernardino County and the production, office, and distribution facilities of the Mag Instrument Company are in the interest of the State of California because they aid the county's economy and enhance the quality of life for the people of the Inland Empire; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to take necessary action to extend by two years Mag Instrument's flashlight patent by approving House Resolution 607 and thereby protecting this highly valued manufacturing company and prized employment for the citizens of the Inland Empire; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, to the Senate Majority Leader, to the Senate Minority Leader, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 87

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 50—Relative to Disneyland.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Disneyland first opened its doors on July 17, 1955, in Anaheim, California; and

WHEREAS, When Walt Disney formally dedicated Disneyland on July 17, 1955, he stated that he hoped the park would be "...a source of joy and inspiration to all the world"; and

WHEREAS, The Disneyland Resort has grown from a single theme park with one hotel into a full-scale resort with two world-class theme parks, 2,200 hotel rooms, and 40 restaurant and retail locations; and

WHEREAS, The Disneyland Resort is California's number one tourist destination; and

WHEREAS, The Disneyland Resort is the leading employer in Orange County, directly employing 20,000 individuals and supporting an additional 45,700 jobs; and

WHEREAS, The Disneyland Resort generates $3.6 billion annually to the Southern California economy; and

WHEREAS, The Disneyland Resort and charitable giving by its cast members provides millions of dollars in cash, in-kind services, and volunteer services to hundreds of nonprofit groups, touching the lives of thousands of California residents; and

WHEREAS, The success of Disneyland launched an industry and sparked an empire of fun that now spans the globe, attracting 200 million visitors on three continents every year and growing; and

WHEREAS, The creation of Disneyland was, perhaps, the single greatest family entertainment achievement of the 20th century, introducing an entirely new concept in outdoor entertainment and establishing an icon of fun and magic known around the world; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California congratulates Disneyland and the Walt Disney Company on the 50th anniversary of

Disneyland, “the happiest place on earth,” and declares July 17, 2005, as Disneyland Day in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 88

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 54—Relative to Valley Fever Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Valley fever (coccidioidomycosis), a progressive, multisymptom, respiratory disorder, is a debilitating disease; and

WHEREAS, It is caused by the inhalation of tiny airborne fungi that live in soil, but are released into the air by soil disturbance or wind; and

WHEREAS, Valley fever attacks the respiratory system, causing infection that can lead to symptoms that resemble a cold, influenza, or pneumonia-like symptoms; and

WHEREAS, Left untreated or mistreated, infection can spread from the lungs into the bloodstream, causing inflammation to the skin, permanent damage to lung and bone tissue, and swelling of the membrane surrounding the brain, leading to meningitis, which can be devastating and even fatal; and

WHEREAS, Once serious symptoms of valley fever appear, including pneumonia and labored breathing, treatment must be prompt with antifungal drugs that are disagreeable and often toxic, especially for patients who have it injected beneath the base of their skulls for meningitis, causing side effects such as nausea, fever, and kidney damage; and

WHEREAS, Within California alone, valley fever is found in portions of the Sacramento Valley, all of the San Joaquin Valley, desert regions, and portions of southern California; and

WHEREAS, Valley fever most seriously affects the young, the elderly, those with lowered immune systems, and those of African-American and Filipino descent; and

WHEREAS, Valley fever has been a disease studied for the past 100 years, but still remains impossible to control and difficult to treat; and

WHEREAS, There is no known cure to date for valley fever; however, researchers are closer than they ever have been in finding a much needed vaccine to cure this devastating disease; and

WHEREAS, The research effort to find a vaccine and the funding partnership, including funding from the State of California, was approved by the Legislature and signed by Governor Wilson in 1997; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature does hereby proclaim August 2005, as Valley Fever Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 89

Senate Joint Resolution No. 9—Relative to Medicare funding for military treatment facilities.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The State of California has one of the largest retired military communities in the United States; and

WHEREAS, California includes among its population over 181,000 retired military personnel, in addition to their dependent families; and

WHEREAS, These military retirees receive over $285,000,000 per month in retired military pay, which equates to over $3,400,000,000 annually, much of which provides for the daily living expenses of the retired military community and thus helps support the economy of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that the contributions of the retired military community to this state and nation are beyond most people's realization; and

WHEREAS, The importance of health care to our retired military community was recognized by Congress in the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2001 (Public Law 106-398) in a program titled "TRICARE For Life"; and

WHEREAS, TRICARE For Life substantially improves access to health care for most Medicare-eligible military retirees; and

WHEREAS, TRICARE For Life is a Medigap type wrap-around coverage; and

WHEREAS, When a Medicare-eligible military retiree uses a civilian facility, TRICARE For Life becomes the second payee to Medicare; and

WHEREAS, When the retiree uses a military treatment facility (MTF), Medicare pays nothing; and

WHEREAS, The addition of trained medical personnel and the authorization of Medicare funds for patients in an MTF could accommodate retired military personnel and their dependents and support active-duty military personnel and their dependents; and

WHEREAS, Providing Medicare funds to MTFs will provide jobs for qualified military and civilian medical personnel, which will assist the economy of this state; and

WHEREAS, Only the United States Congress can make good on the good faith promises recruiters made to those that served their country for at least 20 years on the understanding that, when they retired, they and their dependents would receive full health care for life; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully requests the President and Congress of the United States to enact legislation recognizing the medical needs of retired military personnel and their dependents who meet Medicare age standards and provide Medicare payments directly to the MTF when an individual is in the hospital, so that, with the hiring of qualified medical personnel and the creation of new jobs, Medicare eligible retirees can utilize MTFs under TRICARE for Life, augmented by Medicare payments, and be assured timely access to quality health care; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California supports the enactment of legislation to address these matters; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, the Chairpersons of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the House Armed Services Committee, and the Chairperson of each committee of the House of Representatives and the Senate for consideration of this legislation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 90

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 23—Relative to commercial truck traffic.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 17, 2005.]

WHEREAS, There is a need to determine the most available cost-effective means to reduce four- and five-axle commercial truck traffic from congested urban freeways and city and county streets and roads by efficiently and responsibly managing commercial vehicle routing through the state, cities, and counties which could have a direct benefit to all traffic during peak commute hours; and

WHEREAS, The effect of changing traffic management techniques on commuters, employees, employers, producers and receivers of shipments by truck, and commercial trucking companies will reduce congestion and pollution from commercial trucking in cities and counties; and

WHEREAS, The identification of gridlock routes and feasible alternative routes that may be utilized for demonstration projects will aid cities and counties and the Department of Transportation in determining trucking routes for the most direct movement through each city and county; and

WHEREAS, The use of alternative routes and the rerouting of truck traffic through surrounding areas that are outside specific congested areas in cities and counties will reduce accidents during peak hour traffic; and

WHEREAS, The reduction of urban gridlock in California and the adoption of traffic improvement techniques will reduce the time that trucks are in city limits and county areas and the levels of pollutants that are discharged in urban areas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature strongly urges regional transportation planning agencies, in consultation with the cities and counties of the state and the Department of Transportation, to examine the flow of traffic to develop commercial trucking routes that provide for the most direct movement through a city and county in order to reduce the time that trucks are in city limits and county areas and the level of pollution that is created; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature strongly urges cities and counties to incorporate this process as part of their revisions to their general and specific plans respectively; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 91

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 33—Relative to the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California.

WHEREAS, Human trafficking is pervasive and damaging, yet remains an unrecognized problem facing our country and our state; and

WHEREAS, Human trafficking is present-day slavery, involving the recruitment, transportation, or sale of persons for forced labor, and through the use of violence, threats, and coercion, enslaved persons may be forced to work in the sex trade, domestic labor, factories, hotels or restaurants, agriculture, peddling, or begging; and

WHEREAS, The problem of human trafficking has reached epic proportions, and is the fastest growing criminal industry in the world; and

WHEREAS, The federal government and several states recognize the grave human rights, health, and security implications of human trafficking in the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, In 2000, the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (22 U.S.C. Sec. 7101 et seq.) was enacted by the federal government to “combat trafficking in persons, a contemporary manifestation of slavery whose victims are predominantly women and children, to ensure just and effective punishment of traffickers, and to protect their victims”; and

WHEREAS, In June 2004, the United States Department of State reported that 14,500 to 17,500 people are trafficked annually into the United States, having been bought, sold, transported, and held in inhumane conditions for forced use as prostitutes or laborers; and

WHEREAS, California’s port cities have received a particularly high number of victims of trafficking brought over for sexual slavery; and

WHEREAS, Women and children comprise the majority of trafficking victims; the low social status of women in many parts of the world facilitates a thriving trafficking industry; and

WHEREAS, International trafficking victims come predominantly from Asia, Latin America, and Eastern Europe; in their home countries, victims of trafficking commonly experience poverty, oppression, persecution, bonded labor, armed conflict, civil unrest, and lack of opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Domestically, drug and alcohol addicts, the homeless, and runaways are prime targets of traffickers; and

WHEREAS, Members of these vulnerable populations are actively recruited by traffickers, some of whom are connected to organized crime, and trafficking recruiters often mislead victims into believing that the opportunities recruiters offer will bring the victims and their loved ones a better life; and

WHEREAS, Children are not safe from trafficking and exploitation—victims of trafficking report children as young as four years of age being sold into slavery, often for sexual purposes—and in 2001, the United States Department of Justice concluded that between 300,000 and 400,000 American children are victims of sexual exploitation every year, many as young as 11 or 12 years of age, and some even younger; and

WHEREAS, In addition to being forced to work as prostitutes, farmworkers, or maids, victims of human trafficking live daily with inhumane treatment, including physical violence, psychological violence, sexual abuse, food deprivation, sleep deprivation, threats to a victim's family, and destruction of a victim's dignity and self-worth; and

WHEREAS, Traffickers also use techniques such as debt bondage, isolation from the public, and confiscation of passports, visas, or other pieces of identification, to keep victims enslaved; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California is hereby established; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California shall consist of 10 members, who shall include five Assembly Members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and five Senators appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California shall be under the direction of an Assembly Chair, appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and a Senate Vice Chair, appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as those rules are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to the committee and its members; and be it further

Resolved, That the Assembly Committee on Rules may make money available from the Assembly Operating Fund, as it deems necessary, to share expenses of the joint committee and its members; and any expenditure shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by, and shall be subject to the approval of, the Assembly Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California shall study and investigate issues including, but not limited to, the training of law enforcement agencies regarding trafficking, education efforts on identifying trafficking victims, the coordination among programs serving victims of trafficking, the development of culturally appropriate services, and obtaining better data regarding the number of victims and their locations, especially children; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California shall submit a report to the Legislature on September 30, 2006, including its findings and recommendations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Human Trafficking in California is authorized to act until November 30, 2006.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 92

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 50—Relative to Pope John Paul II.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Karol Jozef Wojtyła, known as John Paul II since his October 16, 1978, election to the papacy until his death on April 2, 2005, was born in Wadowice, Poland, on May 18, 1920, the day of the “Polish Miracle,” that nation’s first military victory in 200 years and a day that set in motion events that briefly restored Poland’s independence; and

WHEREAS, He made his First Holy Communion at age 9, was confirmed at 18, and saw his mother, father, and eldest brother all die before he turned 21, and upon graduation from Marcin Wadowita High School in Wadowice, he enrolled in Krakow’s Jagiellonian University in 1938 and in a school for drama; and

WHEREAS, The Nazi occupation forces closed Krakow’s Jagiellonian University, where he was enrolled in 1939, and forced him to work in a lime quarry and then in a chemical factory; and

WHEREAS, In 1942, aware of his call to the priesthood after nearly being killed by a Nazi, he began courses in the clandestine seminary of Krakow, run by Cardinal Adam Stefan Sapieha, archbishop of Krakow, and at the same time, Karol Wojtyła participated in the Polish resistance against the occupying Nazis as one of the pioneers of the Rhapsodic Theatre, which performed clandestinely in order to keep Polish culture alive; and

WHEREAS, In 1948, upon his return to Poland after studying theology in Rome, he served as vicar of several parishes in Krakow and the surrounding area, as well as chaplain for the university students until 1951, when he took up again his studies on philosophy and theology; and

WHEREAS, He was a distinguished professor of moral theology and social ethics in the major seminary of Krakow and in the Faculty of Theology of Lublin; and

WHEREAS, He resisted his nation's communist government by leading his students on clandestine camping trips into the Polish mountains, which those students later described as the only times they ever felt truly free; and

WHEREAS, On July 4, 1958, Pope Pius XII appointed Wojtyła auxiliary bishop of Krakow, for which he was consecrated on September 28, 1958, in Wawel Cathedral, Krakow, by Archbishop Eugeniusz Baziak; and

WHEREAS, On January 13, 1964, he was nominated Archbishop of Krakow by Pope Paul VI, who made him a cardinal June 26, 1967; and

WHEREAS, As archbishop of Krakow he forced the communist government to build a church in a formerly churchless town; and

WHEREAS, On October 16, 1978, Karol Wojtyła began his pontificate as Pope John Paul II; and

WHEREAS, His first words as pope were, "Be not afraid"; and

WHEREAS, He was the first non-Italian pope since the 1522 election of Adrian VI and the first Pole to ever sit on the Throne of Peter; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II used his pontificate in a unique fashion, emerging as more than just the leader of the Catholic Church, but a global voice against communism, oppression, and tyranny, and working both in public and private to exercise his influence against the forces of injustice; and

WHEREAS, In the 1980s, Pope John Paul II was a vocal supporter of the Polish Solidarity movement and his support for striking workers at the Gdansk Shipyard was a key to the downfall of communism in Poland, which in turn began a chain of events ultimately leading to the dissolution of the Soviet Union and the Warsaw Pact; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II was acknowledged by Mikhail Gorbachev to have played an essential role in the liberation of those who lived under European communism when he stated "everything that happened in Eastern Europe . . . would have been impossible without this Pope"; and

WHEREAS, His criticism of dictators in countries such as Poland and the Soviet Bloc, Paraguay, Chile, Nicaragua, and the Philippines encouraged opposition movements that eventually brought down those governments; and

WHEREAS, In 1998, Pope John Paul II visited Cuba to speak directly to the Cuban people and their Communist rulers, calling for political and religious freedom, the release of political prisoners, a recognition of the right to express one's faith "in the context of public life," and the importance of fundamental human dignities, including that "each person enjoying freedom of expression, being free to undertake initiatives and make proposals within civil society, and enjoying appropriate freedom of association” is a necessity; and

WHEREAS, His was the third longest pontificate in the history of the papacy; and

WHEREAS, In his 26 ½ years as Pope, John Paul II held nine consistories in which he created 232 cardinals, including all but two of the 115 Cardinal Electors who entered the Conclave and elected his successor, Pope Benedict XVI, previously known to the world as Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger; and

WHEREAS, During his pontificate, the Holy Father named over 3,500 of the world’s nearly 4,200 bishops; and

WHEREAS, He wrote 14 encyclicals, 14 apostolic exhortations, 11 apostolic constitutions, 42 apostolic letters and 28 Moto proprio, in addition to hundreds of other messages and letters; and

WHEREAS, He wrote five books: Crossing the Threshold of Hope (1994), Gift and Mystery (1996), Roman Triptych (poetry, 2003), Rise, Let Us Be On Our Way (2004) and Memory and Identity (2005); and

WHEREAS, He planned and inaugurated the Great Jubilee Year of 2000; and

WHEREAS, The 84-year-old Pope presided over 15 synods of bishops: six ordinary (1980, 1983, 1987, 1990, 1994, 2001), one extraordinary (1985) and eight special assemblies (1980, 1991, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998 (two synods) and 1999); and

WHEREAS, The Holy Father undertook 104 pastoral visits outside Italy, the last of which was to Lourdes in August 2004, and 143 trips within Italy and nearly 700 within his diocese of Rome, including visits to 301 of the 325 diocesan parishes, in addition to religious institutes, universities, seminaries, hospitals, rest homes, prisons and schools; and

WHEREAS, With his 247 foreign and Italian pastoral visits, Pope John Paul II logged 700,380 miles, which equals 28 times the earth’s circumference or three times the distance between the earth and moon; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II delivered his message of hope to millions of Americans during his five trips to the United States, including two trips to California; and

WHEREAS, While he was in Rome, the Pope welcomed an average of one million people per year, including 500,000 who attended the weekly general audiences and Angelus addresses, in addition to those who came for special liturgical functions such as Christmas and Easter Masses, beatifications and canonizations; and

WHEREAS, He also received approximately 150,000–180,000 people per year in audiences granted to particular groups, heads of state and governments; and

WHEREAS, In 1981, Pope John Paul II survived an assassination attempt after being shot twice by Mehmet Ali Agca in St. Peter's Square, whom the Pope later personally met and forgave; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II, a survivor of fascism, communism, and terrorism, was a tireless voice for morality, decency, and human rights; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II served as more than just a spiritual leader for the world's Catholics, but as one of the most influential and inspirational world leaders of the 20th and 21st centuries; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II ministered to Catholic and non-Catholic alike, providing a personal example of grace, endurance, compassion, courage, sacrifice, and foresight; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II sought to heal divisions between the Catholic Church and other Christian denominations and confessions, Judaism, and Islam, expressing sadness and regret for the individual sins of present and former Catholics and promoting reconciliation and dialogue through the first-ever papal visits to synagogues and mosques, as well as visits to areas of historic conflict, including the Holy Land; and

WHEREAS, In 1995, Pope John Paul II wrote of "the incomparable worth of the human person," noting that "Even in the midst of difficulties and uncertainties, every person sincerely open to truth and goodness can, by the light of reason and the hidden action of grace, come to recognize . . . the sacred value of human life . . . and can affirm the right of every human being to have this primary good respected to the highest degree"; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II carried on an active correspondence with world leaders during the 1980s, involving the Church in efforts to promote peace by reducing tensions, and exerting his moral authority to persuade the superpowers to engage in a "dialogue" that succeeded in reducing conventional and nuclear weapons and helped to avert nuclear war; and

WHEREAS, During his 1979 visit to Ireland, Pope John Paul II made an impassioned plea for an end to violence in Northern Ireland, saying, "On my knees, I beg you to turn away from the path of violence and to return to the ways of peace"; and

WHEREAS, He was a consistent voice for peace, opposing wars such as those in Iraq and Chechnya and urging mediation, because respect for and development of human life require peace; and

WHEREAS, He called for respect of the environment and noted that man's dominion over nature is not absolute, while reminding us that nature was destined for the common good of past, present, and future humanity, and that the use of natural resources cannot be divorced from respect from moral imperatives; and

WHEREAS, He stood up for organized labor, the unborn, the aged, the infirm, the disabled, the family, marriage, the hungry and the poor, and against euthanasia, tyranny, assisted suicide, the violation of human persons, diseases, materialism, consumerism, and oppression; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II changed the course of history, leading the Catholic Church through a dramatic and remarkable period, and into Christianity's third millennium; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II devoted his life to the amelioration of the human cost of terror and oppression through his dedication to truth, forgiveness, and the development of a vibrant public moral culture; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II articulated the importance of undergirding individual liberty with a "moral order," embraced the poor and oppressed masses of the world, and encouraged governments and the faithful to attend to the needs of those who are less fortunate; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II changed the lives of millions of people across the globe; and

WHEREAS, Even in his last days, Pope John Paul II offered an example of unselfish service to his fellow man; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II died on April 2, 2005, after heroically proclaiming the value and dignity of human life through his long physical illness and suffering; and

WHEREAS, The passing of Pope John Paul II has been mourned by billions of people around the world; and

WHEREAS, Pope John Paul II is already being referred to as Pope John Paul the Great; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature:

(1) Notes with deep sorrow and solemn mourning the death of His Holiness Pope John Paul II;

(2) Extends its heartfelt sympathy to all people who have been touched by the passing of Pope John Paul II;

(3) Commends Pope John Paul II for his ability to transcend the bounds of religion, race, and political thought, becoming a formidable champion, uniter, and defender in humanity's struggle for peace and basic human rights; and

(4) Calls on all the people of California to reflect on the life and legacy of Pope John Paul II during this international period of remembrance; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Apostolic Nuncio at the Nunciature of the Holy See in Washington, DC, the President of Poland, the Governor of the State of California, and the United States Secretary of State.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 93

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 8—Relative to marine pollution.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, An international treaty, the Protocol of 1978 relating to the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships, 1973, as amended at London in February 1978, is known as the MARPOL 73/78 Convention (hereafter Marpol 73/78). Annex VI of MARPOL 73/78 (hereafter Annex VI) defines and sets standards for the regulation for the prevention of exhaust emissions from ships; and

WHEREAS, Having been ratified by 15 nations representing over one-half of the world's shipping tonnage, Annex VI went into effect May 19, 2005; and

WHEREAS, Annex VI will acquire the force of law in the United States only after the Senate concurs in the treaty and the United States deposits its instrument of ratification with the International Maritime Organization, a branch of the United Nations; and

WHEREAS, The United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee has delayed for several years the ratification of Annex VI; and

WHEREAS, Included within Annex VI is a provision for signatory states to petition the International Maritime Organization to designate areas within their jurisdiction as a Sulfur Emission Control Area or SECA. Although California and local governments in the state are seeking to reduce exhaust emissions from ships, once an area is designated a SECA by the United States, a specified cap on sulfur levels in marine fuels for sale and combustion can also be stipulated for the SECA. The Baltic and North Seas have been designated as SECAs and consequently all ships operating in those areas must use heavy fuel with no more than 1.5 percent sulfur content. If using marine diesel fuel, the sulfur content must be 0.2 percent or below; and

WHEREAS, The United States Environmental Protection Agency has stated its intent to pursue, in cooperation with Canada and Mexico, a North America SECA and is already in the process of collecting the requisite data necessary to support a petition to the International Maritime Organization; and

WHEREAS, The California Air Resources Board estimates that sulfur reduction in marine fuels will reduce particulate matter by approximately 20 percent and additionally provide a benefit in mitigation of NO<sub>x</sub>; and

WHEREAS, The reduction of sulfur content in fuel also provides for corresponding reductions in emissions of oxides of sulfur (SO<sub>x</sub>) and diesel particulate matter (PM); and

WHEREAS, Reductions in NO<sub>x</sub>, SO<sub>x</sub>, and diesel PM promote direct and indirect environmental and public health benefits; and

WHEREAS, The creation of a North America Sulfur Emission Control Area will lead to the expanded availability of low sulfur fuel for the international maritime trade, and maintain the competitive standing of California's ports; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to ratify Annex VI of MARPOL 73/78, and the Environmental Protection Agency to pursue the creation of a North America Sulfur Emission Control Area; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the United States Environmental Protection Agency, to the United States Coast Guard, and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 94

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 14—Relative to offshore oil drilling.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 2005.]

WHEREAS, A bipartisan consensus in Congress has protected the California coastline from expanded offshore drilling for the past 24 years, renewing this protection each year in the form of a legislative moratorium contained in the appropriations bill for the Department of the Interior. This offshore leasing moratorium also protects the coastline of Oregon and Washington, the entire United States eastern seaboard, and the southwest coast of Florida; and

WHEREAS, President George W. Bush's current White House budget for fiscal year 2006, released in January 2005, supports a continuation of this congressional offshore leasing moratorium; and

WHEREAS, A complementary measure, put in place by Executive action in 1991 by former President George H.W. Bush protects the same areas through enactment of the “Presidential Offshore Leasing Deferrals,” which President William J. Clinton subsequently extended until 2012 to ensure that protected coastal areas would not be threatened by offshore drilling impacts; and

WHEREAS, The House Resources Committee, now considering a federal omnibus energy bill that would curtail California’s legitimate role in energy facility siting decisions, has prepared draft legislation, “State Enhanced Authority for Coastal and Offshore Resources Act (SEACOR),” which, if adopted, would immediately void the entire bipartisan congressional offshore leasing moratorium and the longstanding presidential offshore drilling deferrals, while undermining state’s rights by pressuring coastal jurisdictions to facilitate new federal offshore drilling by making states’ shares of the federal revenues from these activities contingent on state approval of new and expanded federal offshore leasing; and

WHEREAS, Additional provisions in the draft federal omnibus energy bill would centralize unilateral authority with the Secretary of the Interior over a broad range of offshore oil and gas support facilities, and other major industrial installations, within the entire 200-mile United States exclusive economic zone; and

WHEREAS, Following the infamous 1969 oil spill that resulted in the spillage of 3,200,000 gallons of crude oil, fouling Santa Barbara County’s ocean beaches, Californians became even more wary about offshore oil drilling, continuing with the passage of additional oil and gas leasing prohibitions in 1969, 1970, and 1971; and

WHEREAS, In 1994, the California Coastal Sanctuary Act of 1994 (Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 6240) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Public Resources Code), became law, creating a comprehensive statewide coastal sanctuary that prohibits future oil and gas leasing in state waters, from Mexico to the Oregon border, in perpetuity, and adding leases to the sanctuary as they are quitclaimed to the state; and

WHEREAS, In addition, the protection of California’s spectacular 1,100-mile coastline is of the utmost importance to a number of our state’s coastal and ocean-dependent industries, including tourism and commercial fishing, which contributed over fifty billion dollars ($50,000,000,000) to California’s economy in 1999; and

WHEREAS, California’s ocean waters are also home to four important sanctuaries, the Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary, the Gulf of the Farallones National Marine Sanctuary, the Cordell Bank National Marine Sanctuary, and the Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary which, by definition, are areas of special conservation, recreational, ecological, historical, cultural, archaeological, scientific, educational, and esthetic qualities and, as such, are particularly sensitive to the impacts of oil development; and

WHEREAS, Additional offshore oil leasing and production would degrade the quality of our air and water, and adversely impact our marine resources, including severe impacts from seismic surveys on marine mammals, that could involve threatened and endangered species as blue and humpback whales; and

WHEREAS, Offshore oil development poses a serious risk of oil spills, especially with the introduction of deepwater drilling technologies and floating oil storage and processing vessels, thereby threatening marine ecosystems, and could have devastating effects on the southern sea otter, listed as a threatened species since 1997, as well as onshore wildlife, birds, and their habitats in the ocean, in estuaries, and on beaches; and

WHEREAS, Offshore oil development also leads to the industrialization of the shoreline, creating land use conflicts, visually degrading coastal areas, and posing potentially life threatening public safety risks; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully requests that Congress continue the federal offshore oil and gas leasing moratorium for fiscal year 2006 and beyond; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully opposes the damaging coastal provisions of proposed federal energy policies, including, but not limited to, the adoption of SEACOR or any other coastal provisions that weaken California's legitimate role in energy siting decisions due to the threat posed by this legislation to the economic integrity of California's coastal-dependent tourism and fishing economies, and any consolidation of centralized offshore authority with the federal government; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 95

Senate Joint Resolution No. 8—Relative to the federal Enhancing Education Through Technology Act.

WHEREAS, All California school districts receiving funds from federal Enhancing Education Through Technology (EETT) Act grants utilize those funds to close the achievement gap, enhance data systems to support accountability, and provide the training necessary for teachers to become highly qualified users of technology, in order to support pupil learning; and

WHEREAS, Federal EETT Act funds are the primary source of technology funds for school districts; and

WHEREAS, Professional development for teachers to effectively use technology and high-speed networks is well-documented and the need for that training is addressed with federal EETT Act funding; and

WHEREAS, Evaluations show that federal EETT Act fundings results in measurable improvements in teaching practice and pupil learning; and

WHEREAS, Access to software, Web courses, virtual learning, and other technology-based learning solutions that are aligned to standards strengthen basic skills and increase academic achievement; and

WHEREAS, Federal EETT Act funding has increased access to, and the effective use of, technology by rural and underserved pupils; and

WHEREAS, The federal EETT Act has provided models for effective instructional practices with technology; and

WHEREAS, The federal EETT Act is increasing the use of technology to support, and align with, California content standards; and

WHEREAS, Federal EETT Act projects have consistently and significantly expanded and enriched learning opportunities for pupils; and

WHEREAS, Technology is critical in implementing major federal education programs, including the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act of 1998; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature requests Congress and the President to fully restore federal Enhancing Education Through Technology Act funding to the amount originally authorized under the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 96

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 12—Relative to military base retention.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The federal Department of Defense conducted base realignment and closure (BRAC) rounds in 1988, 1991, 1993, and 1995. The previous BRAC rounds resulted in the closure of 97 major bases, the realignment of 55 major bases, and the closure or realignment of 235 minor bases across the United States; and

WHEREAS, Congress has authorized a fifth BRAC round for 2005 in the National Defense Authorization Act of FY 2002 (Public Law 107-107); and

WHEREAS, In March 2004, the Department of Defense released a congressionally mandated document, the Force Structure Plan, which estimates a 24 percent excess installation capacity. Due to the reported excess installation capacity as well as the escalating costs associated with ongoing United States military missions, the Secretary of Defense has indicated that the Department of Defense is seeking to drastically reduce its military infrastructure this year; and

WHEREAS, For over half a century, California's workers, businesses, industries, and universities have contributed to our national security, utilizing their talents, capital, and skills to develop and manufacture new technologies, aircraft, satellites, missiles, and advanced weapons systems; and

WHEREAS, California has been the state hardest hit by the Department of Defense's previous BRAC rounds. In the four BRAC rounds conducted since 1988, California has had 29 bases closed or significantly realigned; and

WHEREAS, California lost more federal payroll jobs from the closure of its 29 military bases under rounds one to four, inclusive, than all of the rest of the states put together. The reduced military payroll in California, including military and civilian employees, is approximately 101,000 jobs. Additionally, 300,000 private sector defense industry jobs in California have been eliminated as a result of base closures; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Defense and the defense industry represent the second largest industrial complex in California today, totaling more than $40 billion a year. There are currently 62 bases remaining in California that could be closed or realigned as a result of the 2005 BRAC process; and

WHEREAS, California simply cannot afford the next round of base closures to impact our state as significantly as the prior rounds did. In previous BRAC rounds, more than 20 percent of the nation's total base cuts came from California. If California again assumes 20 percent of the nation's cuts, the effects on our state's economy could be devastating; and

WHEREAS, Having been the leader in the nation's defense effort, it is now time for California to assume the role as leader in defending existing military installations within its borders; and

WHEREAS, In an effort to be proactive in retaining military facilities within California that are essential to national security, and to provide for a single, focused strategy to defend these installations, the Legislature created the Office of Military and Aerospace Support, under the direction of the Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing, with the passage of SB 926 in 2004; and

WHEREAS, Military installations provide the foundation for United States defense efforts. Maintaining these installations is, therefore, critical to supporting America's national security. California is vital to the mission and might of our United States military. Our seaports and airports, bases and equipment, research labs and testing grounds support the finest fighting force in the world; and

WHEREAS, As our nation faces new security threats in the 21st century, California is ready to confront these dangers. In space, over land, and at sea, California is helping the military meet the challenges of tomorrow. From troop deployment to systems development, training to logistics, the future of our military is right here in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That California's military installations possess critical military value in a manner consistent with the congressionally approved 2005 BRAC Closure and Realignment Selection Criteria and that California is ready to help the Department of Defense meet its goals now and in the future; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President, the Congress of the United States, and the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission to not only recognize the unique military value of California's installations, but also to vigilantly examine additional criteria, including, but not limited to, all of the following, before officially recommending any California base for closure:

(a) California's ability to recruit and train highly skilled and educated personnel.

(b) The existing synergies between military installations and the private sector.

(c) The economic impact on existing communities in the vicinity of military installations.

(d) Our incomparable quality of life which enhances personnel retention.

(e) The technological capability to effectively place superior equipment in the hands of the warfighter.

(f) The vast intellectual capital that has been developed in California over the last half century.

(g) California's unparalleled ability to train all kinds of forces, year round, in every type of warfare effectively, efficiently, and economically.

(h) California's strategic location on the Pacific Coast, which allows for rapid deployment to trouble spots in Asia and the Middle East.

(i) The disproportionate sacrifices California has endured in previous BRAC rounds; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the members of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission following their appointment by the President, and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 97

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 47—Relative to Health Care Decisions Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 2005.]

WHEREAS, It is important for people to make health care decisions before they are needed; and

WHEREAS, Health care planning is a process, rather than a single decision, that helps people think about the kind of care they would want if they become seriously ill or incapacitated, encourages them to talk with their loved ones and doctors, and assists them in writing down their wishes; and

WHEREAS, Advance directives give people the ability to document their wishes and identify the person to speak for them should they become unable to speak for themselves; and

WHEREAS, Introducing these issues in community settings can help people begin conversations about their health care wishes with a family member, close friend, physician, or faith leader; and

WHEREAS, California has a number of local coalitions throughout the state that are working to involve individuals and families in health care planning through educational forums, discussion groups, speaker's bureaus, and training; and

WHEREAS, The California Coalition for Compassionate Care and over 50 of the coalition's member organizations representing health care providers, consumers, regulators, and local coalitions have joined together to sponsor a weeklong focus on health care decisions; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the week of October 24 through 30, 2005, be recognized as Health Care Decisions Week in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages all citizens to think and talk with loved ones about their wishes for medical care; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 98

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 11—Relative to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The government of Sudan and the southern opposition signed a peace agreement on Sunday, January 9, 2005, in Kenya, Africa; and

WHEREAS, The peace agreement is expected to put a stop to Sudan's cruel treatment of southerners; and

WHEREAS, The rebel south will not have to redeploy an army consisting of children; and

WHEREAS, Secretary of State Colin Powell, on behalf of the United States, with Ambassador John C. Danforth, U.S. Representative to the United Nations, assisted in negotiating the peace agreement; and

WHEREAS, Stopping the conflict in western Darfur is not part of the peace agreement, however; and

WHEREAS, The Sudan government is suspected of a policy of genocide in western Darfur; and

WHEREAS, There is a need for the United States and the United Nations to continue to put pressure on the Sudanese government to stop supplying arms to the Janjaweed; and

WHEREAS, The State of California is deeply concerned over the poor human rights situation in Sudan; and

WHEREAS, The State of California calls for stepped-up international efforts to end the crisis in Sudan's Darfur region, and concurs with United States policy, which has officially declared that genocide is ongoing in the Darfur region of Sudan; and

WHEREAS, Despite significant pressure from the United States government, the government of Sudan has not taken all the necessary actions to disassociate itself fully from the fighting in Darfur; and

WHEREAS, The 2002 Machakos Protocol, signed by both sides in the civil war in Sudan, has recognized that "Sudan is a multi-cultural, multi-racial, multi-ethnic, multi-religious, and multi-lingual country," and that there "shall be freedom of belief, worship and conscience for followers of all religions or beliefs or customs and no one shall be discriminated against on such grounds" once a peace agreement is signed; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature encourages the Public Employees' Retirement System and the California State Teachers' Retirement System, whenever feasible and consistent with their fiduciary responsibilities, to encourage companies in which employee retirement funds are invested and that are doing business in Sudan, as identified by the Department of Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, to act responsibly and not take actions that promote or otherwise enable human rights violations in the Sudan; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 99

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29—Relative to Access Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On July 26, 1990, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) was enacted, which prohibits discrimination and ensures equal opportunity for persons with disabilities in employment, state and local government services, public accommodations, commercial facilities, and transportation; and

WHEREAS, The ADA affirmed the civil rights of millions of Americans, following in the footsteps of such civil rights achievements as the 15th and 19th Amendments to the United States Constitution,

Brown v. Board of Education, and passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; and

WHEREAS, The brief history of the United States has been enriched by the vision of inspirational leaders who have embraced the ideals set forth by our founders and have acted to break down barriers in order to unite all Americans; and

WHEREAS, 54 million Americans are disabled, 3.8 million of whom reside in California; and

WHEREAS, The ADA has been successful in changing the perception of people with disabilities by developing a deeper understanding that disabilities do not diminish a person's right to a full life; and

WHEREAS, The ADA has improved access to public accommodations across the nation and notable businesses such as Sears, Hewlett-Packard, and Sprint have been proactive in creating better access for people with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Continued education and increased awareness of the ADA is necessary to ensure that people with disabilities and business communities in California work together to strengthen compliance across the state; and

WHEREAS, Current leaders and policy makers must remain diligent so that the spirit of the ADA is protected, complied with, and properly implemented in our own time; and

WHEREAS, July 2005 is the 15th anniversary of the enactment of the Americans with Disabilities Act, which is an important milestone that reminds us all that America continues to advance and protect the civil rights of its citizens and that this state must play a role in facilitating broader awareness of the need to be in compliance with the ADA; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature takes great pleasure in recognizing July 2005, as Access Awareness Month, urges all citizens to join in the recognition of the 15th anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, and encourages businesses and the disabled to work together in the same bipartisan spirit that accompanied the original enactment of this act, in order to achieve a greater cooperation towards compliance in this state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 100

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 67—Relative to the Wadie P. Deddeh State Office Building.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Wadie P. Deddeh, a former Member of the California Senate and Assembly, was born in Baghdad, Iraq, on September 6, 1920, as the oldest boy in a family of six children; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Deddeh spent much of his early life in Ahwaz, Iran, where his father worked for a British shipping company; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Deddeh was encouraged by his mother to get an education, and he graduated from high school and was accepted to Baghdad College, where he earned a degree in English and a teaching credential; and

WHEREAS, In 1947, after waiting nine years, Mr. Deddeh obtained a visa to the United States, residing first in Detroit, where he worked in grocery stores, and later in Monterey, where he became a teacher of Arabic at the United States Army Language School; and

WHEREAS, While in Monterey, Mr. Deddeh met his future wife, Mary-Lynn Drake, who was also a teacher, and they married in 1951 and eventually moved to Detroit, where Mr. Deddeh earned a master's degree in education from the University of Detroit; and

WHEREAS, In 1956, the Deddehs were blessed with the birth of their only child, Peter, who is now a San Diego Superior Court Judge; and

WHEREAS, In 1959, the Deddehs returned to California, settling in Chula Vista, and Mr. Deddeh returned to teaching, first at Sweetwater Union High School and later at Southwestern Community College, where he taught political science; and

WHEREAS, In 1966, following through on his long-time interest and passion for American government and politics, Mr. Deddeh sought and won election to the Assembly, representing the 77th District, serving 16 years in that capacity; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Deddeh developed an expertise in transportation, sponsoring legislation to enhance transportation funding and creating the Department of Transportation, among various other achievements; and

WHEREAS, In 1982, Mr. Deddeh was elected to the Senate, representing the 40th District upon the retirement of Senator James Mills, where he served until 1993, chairing committees related to transportation, commerce, and international trade and border issues; and

WHEREAS, Since his retirement, Mr. Deddeh has been a college professor, a governmental affairs consultant, and a representative of the

Titan Corporation, serving as a liaison with Arab-American groups and structuring training programs for interpreters serving with the United States military in Iraq; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to commemorate Mr. Deddeh's years of public service to California and the nation through the naming of a state transportation office building in his honor; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation District 11 office building in San Diego shall be designated as the Wadie P. Deddeh State Office Building; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be provided by the Secretary of the Senate to the Director of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 101

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22—Relative to school records.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Existing law authorizes each county to establish an interagency child death team to assist local agencies in identifying and reviewing suspicious child deaths. Those teams coordinate and integrate state and local efforts to address fatal child abuse or neglect and create a body of information to help prevent child deaths; and

WHEREAS, Interagency child death teams have been used successfully to ensure that incidents of child abuse or neglect are recognized and that other siblings and nonoffending family members receive appropriate services in incidents in which a child has expired; and

WHEREAS, Child death teams may include forensic pathologists, pediatricians with expertise in child abuse, coroners and medical examiners, prosecutors, members of law enforcement, child protective services staff, representatives of local agencies involved with child abuse or neglect reporting, and county health departments; and

WHEREAS, Members of child death teams may share relevant, confidential information within the multiagency setting; and

WHEREAS, Educational agencies, which could provide valuable school record information to child death teams, are not authorized to share such information with child death teams; and

WHEREAS, The federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) does not provide an exception allowing schools to share relevant pupil records with child death teams and a violation of FERPA could result in the loss of federal funding; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature urges the Congress of the United States to immediately enact an exception to FERPA to permit schools to share with child death teams any relevant pupil records; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the President of the United States to immediately sign the enactment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 102

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 23—Relative to Japanese internment.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On February 19, 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066, pursuant to which 120,000 Americans and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry were incarcerated in internment camps during World War II; and

WHEREAS, The internment deferred the American dream for these Americans and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry by inflicting a great human cost of abandoned homes, businesses, careers, and professional advancements, and disruption to family life; and

WHEREAS, During this regrettable era in our nation's history, Japanese-Americans were held at internment camps, including camps at Tule Lake and Manzanar in California, and a host of additional sites, including 17 assembly centers in such places as the old Tanforan racetrack in San Bruno, and at sites in Stockton, Salinas, and Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, United States Representative Bill Thomas of Bakersfield has introduced House Resolution No. 1492, a bill that would authorize $38 million in federal funds to preserve the camps where Japanese-Americans were interned during World War II; and

WHEREAS, That bill would require the Secretary of the Interior to create a program within the National Park Service to work with other federal agencies, state, local, and tribal governments, other public entities, educational institutions, and private nonprofit organizations "for the purpose of identifying, researching, evaluating, interpreting, protecting, restoring, repairing, and acquiring historic confinement sites in order that present and future generations may learn and gain inspiration from these sites and that these sites will demonstrate the nation's commitment to equal justice under the law"; and

WHEREAS, A preservation committee in Tule Lake, which already has reclaimed three wooden sheds that were camp barracks, would be among the entities eligible for funding under the legislation; and

WHEREAS, The Manzanar camp site on Highway 395 in the eastern Sierra, which the National Park Service already has designated a historic site, and which attracts more than 80,000 people a year, also would be eligible for funding under this bill; and

WHEREAS, Among the cosponsors of the legislation are United States Representative Doris Matsui of Sacramento, who was born in the Poston internment camp in Arizona, and Representative Mike Honda of San Jose, who spent his early childhood in a Colorado camp; and

WHEREAS, California, home to many Japanese-American citizens, has been resolute in its commitment to honor the contributions and leadership of these citizens and to not forget the dark period of our history when Japanese-Americans were sent to internment camps; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges Congress, including all members of the California delegation, to vote for passage of legislation that would accomplish the goals stated in this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California urges President Bush to support this legislation and to sign it into law; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to Representative Thomas and every other member of the California delegation to the United States Congress and to the President of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 103

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 27—Relative to federal legislation protecting the right of laborers to organize.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 2005.]

WHEREAS, In the National Labor Relations Act of 1935 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 151 et seq.) the United States Congress declared it to be the policy of the United States to encourage the practice of collective bargaining by protecting the exercise by workers of full freedom of association, self-organization, and designation of representatives of their own choosing for the purpose of negotiating the terms and conditions of their employment or other mutual aid or protection; and

WHEREAS, The freedom to form or join a union is recognized as a fundamental human right; and

WHEREAS, Union membership provides workers with better wages, benefits, and protection from discrimination and unsafe workplaces; and

WHEREAS, Unions benefit communities by strengthening tax bases, promoting equal treatment, and enhancing civic participation; and

WHEREAS, Fifty-seven million United States workers have indicated that they would join a union if given the opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Even though the nation's workers ostensibly have the freedom to choose whether to organize, in reality they are routinely denied that right; and

WHEREAS, When the right of workers to form a union is violated, wages decline, race and gender pay gaps widen, workplace discrimination increases, and job safety standards lapse; and

WHEREAS, Each year, 20,000 of America's workers are illegally threatened, coerced, or terminated for attempting to form a union; and

WHEREAS, Most violations of workers' freedom to join a union occur behind closed doors, and each year millions of dollars are spent to frustrate workers' efforts to organize; and

WHEREAS, A worker's fundamental right to join a union is a public issue that requires public policy solutions, including legislative remedies; and

WHEREAS, Federal legislation has been introduced in the United States Congress in order to restore workers' freedom to join unions; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact the pending federal legislation that would protect and preserve the freedom of America's workers to organize and join unions by authorizing the National Labor Relations Board to certify a union as the bargaining representative when a majority of employees voluntarily sign authorization cards (commonly known as "card check" recognition), providing for first contract mediation and arbitration, and establishing meaningful penalties for violations of a worker's right to join a union; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 104

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10—Relative to Hansen Way.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 6, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Hansen family is well known and respected in Grass Valley for their contributions to the community and for their building supply company, Hansen Brothers, that was established in 1953; and

WHEREAS, The Hansen family historically has been very civic minded and has contributed community service and philanthropic gifts to the community; and

WHEREAS, It is important that the Hansen family, a family that has provided significant energy and time to the community, be honored; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Highway Route 20/49 northeast bound frontage road in Grass Valley from its intersection with South Auburn Street to its intersection with Bennett Street be officially designated “Hansen Way”; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements, for the state highway system, showing this special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 105

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 25—Relative to safety in employment.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 6, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The chief cause of skin cancer is exposure to ultraviolet rays (UV) from natural sunlight and artificial sources and UV rays in sunlight cause 90 percent of all skin cancer; and

WHEREAS, According to the American Cancer Society, skin cancer is the most common cancer in the United States; and

WHEREAS, One in five Americans will develop skin cancer in his or her lifetime and one American every hour dies from the disease; and

WHEREAS, Unprotected exposure to sunlight over time is pathologic in some cases, as demonstrated by reputable sources including the California Department of Health Services, the United States Army Center for Health Promotion and Prevention Medicine, the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, the United States National Institutes of Health, the United States Occupational Health and Safety Administration, and the World Health Organization; and

WHEREAS, During April 2000, the United States Department of Health and Human Services in its Ninth Report on Carcinogens, classified solar radiation as a “known human carcinogen” or cancer-causing agent; and

WHEREAS, Building on this declaration, the federal Office of Safety and Health Administration, in July 2000, released formal sun-safety protection guidelines for outdoor workers, which are summarized in a pocket card entitled, “Projecting Yourself Against Harmful Sunlight”; and

WHEREAS, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the World Health Organization, and the California Department of Health Services Skin Cancer Prevention Program have published guidelines for sun safety and skin cancer prevention for outdoor workers; and

WHEREAS, The Labor Code requires employers to establish an effective system to identify and correct unsafe and unhealthy work practices; and

WHEREAS, According to the Occupational Health and Safety Administration created in the United States Department of Labor, “unprotected employees working in sunlight risk exposure to UV radiation, which can cause eye damage, premature aging of the skin, and skin cancers, such as melanoma, the most serious type of skin cancer, which accounts for more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the deaths due to skin cancer”; and

WHEREAS, Skin cancer is highly preventable when specific sun safety behaviors such as the use of wide-brimmed hats, UV-protective sunglasses, long clothing, and sunscreen are adopted, supplemented by environmental supports such as the provision of shade and the adoption and implementation of sun protection guidelines and policies; and

WHEREAS, Businesses, organizations, and individuals need to understand why and how to guard against unprotected exposure to sunlight; and

WHEREAS, Safety and health precautions add value to business, the workplace, and human life; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That employers are urged to ensure that their injury prevention programs and other systems for identifying and correcting workplace hazards consider the pathologic effects of UV radiation and ensure, as appropriate, that skin cancer prevention policies for outdoor workers are put into operation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the appropriate state agencies to utilize existing means of communication with employers on workplace safety issues to advise employers of the importance of sun safety and skin cancer protections in the workplace.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 106

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 29—Relative to the Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Services and Homeland Security.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 6, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California is the site of some of the most extraordinary natural disasters in North America, including fires, earthquakes, floods, landslides, mudslides, insect infestations, and drought; and

WHEREAS, California is the nation's most populous state, home to many of the nation's most desirable tourist destinations, and home to many of the nation's most critical military installations, and as such California is especially sensitive to the threat of terrorism; and

WHEREAS, In October 2003, southern California experienced the most devastating wild land/urban interface fire in the history of California; nearly 740,000 acres burned, 246 people were injured, and 24 Californians lost their lives, including one firefighter, and more than 3,600 homes, 36 commercial properties, and 1,169 outbuildings were destroyed; and

WHEREAS, On November 2, 2003, then-Governor Gray Davis and then-Governor-elect Arnold Schwarzenegger established a Blue Ribbon Fire Commission representing federal, state, and local agencies, the firefighting community, and affected communities; and

WHEREAS, The Blue Ribbon Fire Commission was charged with hearing testimony on what worked and what did not work in the efforts to fight the October 2003 fires and with reviewing and providing recommendations on necessary improvements to prevent and better respond to these fires in the future; and

WHEREAS, The commission, in its report to the Governor, made a number of recommendations and prioritized their importance, including the establishment of a permanent Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Services and Homeland Security; and

WHEREAS, The joint committee has explored the report of the Blue Ribbon Fire Commission and has taken action in support of the commission's findings and recommendations; and

WHEREAS, The members of the joint committee recognize that the work of the joint committee needs to continue; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Services and Homeland Security is hereby established; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee shall consist of 14 members, who shall include seven Assembly Members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, four from the party having the largest number of Members in the Assembly and three from the party having the second largest number of Members, and seven Senators appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, four from the party having the largest number of Members in the Senate and three from the party having the second largest number of Members; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee shall be under the direction of a chairperson and vice chairperson that shall alternate between the Assembly and the Senate from session to session and that initially the joint committee shall be under the direction of a Senate Chairperson and an Assembly Vice Chairperson, appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly, respectively; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee may provide a public forum for discussion of California's emergency services and homeland security and related issues to natural or human-caused threats to California; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee, in order to assist it in carrying out its duties, may form technical advisory committees, including representatives from the public safety and emergency services disciplines, to help evaluate federal, state, and local strategies, provide technical assistance on an ongoing basis, and take active roles in supporting the passage of any necessary legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee may work in cooperation with the Governor and the standing committees and subcommittees of the Legislature to address the level of support necessary for public safety and related agencies to implement essential emergency services and homeland security policies; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee may periodically report its progress and make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Assembly and Senate as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules may make moneys available from the Senate Operating Fund, as it deems necessary, to pay expenses of the joint committee and its members, and that any expenditure of moneys shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the Senate Committee on Rules and shall be subject to the approval of the Senate Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint committee is authorized to act until November 30, 2006, when its existence shall terminate; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 107

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 58—Relative to Assisted Living Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 6, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Older Californians are a vital portion of our population; and

WHEREAS, California's elderly population is expected to grow more than twice as fast as the total population; and

WHEREAS, The number of Californians in need of care and services in order to remain as independent as possible will continue to grow; and

WHEREAS, Assisted living helps individuals live as independently as possible while enjoying a meaningful quality of life in an attractive residential environment; and

WHEREAS, California's more than 6,000 assisted living communities are meeting consumer demand by offering a variety of services, programs, and amenities; and

WHEREAS, The members of the California Assisted Living Association are proud to sponsor Assisted Living Week 2005 and celebrate the thousands of caregivers, residents, and volunteers in assisted living communities throughout the state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature does hereby proclaim the week of September 11 to September 17, 2005, as Assisted Living Week and encourages all residents to visit friends and loved ones who reside in assisted living communities and to learn more about this valuable service; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 108

Senate Joint Resolution No. 11—Relative to the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” military policy.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 6, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Since the 1994 codification into law by the United States Congress, and by the signature of the President, the policy now known as “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell, Don’t Pursue, Don’t Harass” (National Defense Authorization Act of 1994 (Public Law 103-160)), has led to the discharge of a great number of lesbian and gay service members, thus ending their careers and burdening them with a lifelong stigma; and

WHEREAS, The capacity of the Armed Forces of the United States to carry out its missions, like the Global War on Terror, is hindered when competent and qualified individuals are involuntarily discharged from those forces; and

WHEREAS, The Armed Forces of the United States have been forced to retain Reserve and National Guard service members on active duty past standard deployment lengths in order to carry out its missions during the Global War on Terror; and

WHEREAS, The ability of the Armed Forces to recruit and retain the best and brightest Americans is hindered by excluding a section of the population solely because of sexual orientation; and

WHEREAS, Lesbian and gay service members have served honorably throughout United States history and continue to serve with distinction on active duty in the Global War on Terror, including in Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan and Operation Iraqi Freedom in Iraq; and

WHEREAS, These men and women have achieved military honors, decorations, and promotions to the highest ranks of their respective services for their valor and service to the people of the United States; and

WHEREAS, America's allies in the war on terror, like the United Kingdom, Australia, and Israel, all allow lesbian and gay service members to serve openly; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Homeland Security, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Defense Intelligence Agency, the National Security Agency, the Central Intelligence Agency, and other federal departments handling national security allow their lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender personnel to serve openly; and

WHEREAS, A February 2005 Government Accountability Office report shows that more than 9,488 service members have been discharged under the "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy, including at least 757 service members in "critical occupations," such as counterintelligence experts, at a cost to taxpayers of more than $190 million; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Defense reported that 209 language specialists have been discharged from the military under the "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy, including 54 Arabic and 9 Farsi translators, vitally important positions to intelligence gathering and in critical shortage; and

WHEREAS, Evidence from a study conducted by the Center for the Study Of Sexual Minorities in the Military suggests that the "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy increases gay troops' stress levels, lowers their morale, impairs their ability to form trusting bonds with their peers, restricts their access to medical care, psychological services and religious consultations, and limits their ability to advance professionally and their willingness to join and remain in the services; and

WHEREAS, Every Department of Defense authorized study has shown that there is no correlation between sexual orientation and unit cohesion in the Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, The majority of American citizens support keeping trained and skilled openly gay and lesbian service members in the military; and

WHEREAS, The United States military's readiness to protect and defend our nation is severely compromised because of the discriminatory "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy that is arbitrarily enforced by commanders whose personal beliefs may influence their disciplinary action; and

WHEREAS, Discharges under "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" are historically fewer when troop strength is low, as in times of war, which denotes the tacit recognition by the military that lesbian and gay service members are fit and capable of military service, thereby further illustrating the arbitrary enforcement of this policy; and

WHEREAS, California has 26 military bases which are home to tens of thousands of military personnel and their families, and, according to a 2004 Urban Institute study, an estimated 137,000 lesbian and gay veterans live in California; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature and courts of the State of California have extended protections based on sexual orientation and gender identity that affirm the equality under the law of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender citizens in order to prevent invidious discrimination; and

WHEREAS, In 2004 the California Legislature passed, and the Governor signed, legislation that protects nonfederally recognized personnel in the California State Militia from the threat of “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell”; and

WHEREAS, Military readiness is enhanced when every qualified, capable American, regardless of sexual orientation, is welcomed into our Armed Forces and has their talents utilized in the best interest of our national security; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully urge the President and the Congress of the United States to adopt the Military Readiness Enhancement Act of 2005 (H.R. 1059) to end the discriminatory federal policy of “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell”; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to each Senator and Representative in the Congress of the United States, and to the presiding officer of each house of each state legislature of the several states.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 109

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17—Relative to stem cell research.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 6, 2005.]

WHEREAS, An estimated 128 million Americans suffer from the crippling economic and psychological burden of chronic, degenerative, and acute diseases, including diabetes, Parkinson’s disease, cancer, and Alzheimer’s disease; and

WHEREAS, Chronic, degenerative, and acute diseases result in extreme human loss and suffering for those who suffer from them and their families and caregivers, and result in hundreds of billions of dollars annually in medical treatment and lost productivity costs; and

WHEREAS, Stem cell research offers immense promise for developing new medical therapies for these debilitating diseases and a critical means to explore fundamental questions of biology and could lead to improved treatments and potential cures for diabetes, Parkinson's disease, Alzheimer's disease, spinal cord injuries, burns, cancer, heart disease, and other diseases; and

WHEREAS, The United States has historically taken a leading role in funding biomedical research and has been a haven for open scientific inquiry and technological innovation, and, as a result, is the preeminent world leader in biomedicine and biotechnology; and

WHEREAS, On August 9, 2001, the President adopted a policy that restricts federal funding for embryonic stem cell research to a limited number of embryonic stem cell lines that were in existence as of that time, and subsequent research has found those existing stem cell lines to be significantly limited in their ability to support stem cell research; and

WHEREAS, The United States House of Representatives has twice passed legislation to prohibit some forms of stem cell research, but voted on May 24, 2005, to allow federal funding for stem cell research using excess embryos from fertility clinics; and

WHEREAS, California voters approved Proposition 71 in November 2004, which will provide $3 billion over 10 years for stem cell research in California; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has enacted legislation declaring that research involving the derivation and use of human stem cells, human embryonic germ cells, and human adult stem cells from any source, including somatic cell nuclear transplantation, shall be permitted in California, calling for the development of ethical guidelines for stem cell research, and prohibiting human cloning; and

WHEREAS, In 2005, the National Academy of Sciences issued guidelines for conducting human embryonic stem cell research in an ethical and responsible manner; and

WHEREAS, Similar guidelines are being developed by the California Institute for Regenerative Medicine and the State Department of Health Services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby memorializes Congress and the President of the United States to: (1) lift restrictions on federal funding for stem cell research; (2) not impair the ability of researchers to conduct stem cell research applications that hold promise for developing therapies for treating and curing chronic diseases; (3) develop ethical guidelines for federally funded stem cell research; and (4) prohibit human cloning; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 110

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 2—Relative to Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Home should be a place of warmth, unconditional love, and security; however, for many Americans, home is tainted with violence and fear; and

WHEREAS, Domestic violence is much more than the occasional family dispute; and

WHEREAS, According to the Surgeon General, United States Public Health Service, domestic violence is a societal problem of epidemic proportions; and

WHEREAS, According to experts, between 2 and 4 million American women are battered every year, and between 3.3 and 10 million children witness violence in their homes; and

WHEREAS, According to the United States Department of Labor, 1,000,000 people are assaulted and injured every year as a result of workplace violence, 1,000 people are killed every year due to workplace violence, and 30 percent of battered women lose their jobs due to harassment at work by abusive husbands and boyfriends; and

WHEREAS, Battering affects families across America in all socioeconomic, racial, and ethnic groups; and

WHEREAS, More than one-half of the number of women in need of shelter from an abusive environment may be turned away from a shelter due to a lack of space; and

WHEREAS, Women are not the only targets of domestic violence: young children, elderly persons, and men are also victims in their own homes; and

WHEREAS, Emotional, physical, and psychological scars are often permanent; and

WHEREAS, A coalition of organizations has emerged to confront this crisis directly. Law enforcement agencies, domestic violence hotlines, battered women and childrens' shelters, health care providers, faith-based organizations, the courts, and the volunteers that serve those entities are helping in the effort to end domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the compassion and dedication of the individuals involved in that effort, applaud their commitment, and increase public understanding of this significant problem; and

WHEREAS, The first Day of Unity was celebrated in October 1981 and was sponsored by the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence for the purpose of uniting battered women's advocates across the nation in an effort to end domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, That one day has grown into a month of activities at all levels of government, aimed at creating awareness about the problem and presenting solutions; and

WHEREAS, The first Domestic Violence Awareness Month was proclaimed in October 1987; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of October 2005 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Governor of the State of California, the Director of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 111

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 24—Relative to the California Council on Science and Technology.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California is home to many of the world's top research universities, national laboratories, and leading-edge high technology companies that generate significant intellectual property; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the state to ensure that the results of state-funded research are promptly protected and developed; and

WHEREAS, The commercialization of technology developed with the investment of taxpayer dollars in the form of contracts, grants, and agreements could generate some public benefit, including, but not limited to, state revenues, favorable pricing, revenue sharing, and reinvestment into research; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the state to facilitate, promote, and enhance technology transfer programs that will facilitate the transfer of technology into the marketplace for the public benefit; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports the use of efficient models to develop and streamline infrastructures, policies, and processes for the management of intellectual property developed under state funding in order to stimulate economic development in the state similar to the approach used by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, The voters approved the passage of Proposition 71, California Stem Cell Research and Cures Act, which establishes the California Institute for Regenerative Medicine to regulate stem cell research and provide funding, through grants and loans, for this research and research facilities; and

WHEREAS, The passage of Proposition 71 heralds a new era for the future of medicine and the way diseases are treated; and

WHEREAS, Proposition 71 contemplates that the state will receive public benefits from the commercialization of research funded with Proposition 71 dollars in the form of patent royalties and license revenues; and

WHEREAS, Provisions of the Internal Revenue Code governing the use of proceeds of tax-exempt bonds significantly limit the state's ability to directly receive economic benefit in the form of royalties and license revenues from research funded under Proposition 71; and

WHEREAS, The people of the state should derive a substantial public benefit from the commercialization of state-funded research; and

WHEREAS, There are currently no general guidelines or standards defining public benefits derived from research funded by the state; and

WHEREAS, Receipt of economic benefit in the form of favorable pricing on therapies and treatments developed with Proposition 71 funds may be achievable using tax-exempt bonds for research; and

WHEREAS, A number of organizations funding biomedical research, including the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative, have successfully implemented intellectual property policies that commit funding recipients and entities seeking to commercialize research to ensure that resulting therapies and products are accessible and affordable to designated low-income populations; and

WHEREAS, Use of tax-exempt bonds for research under Proposition 71 is fiscally prudent for the state and is consistent with taxpayers' expectations in approving Proposition 71; and

WHEREAS, The development of innovative technologies is fundamental to the California economy; however, lack of understanding about the research enterprise and technology transfer, as well as lack of clarity concerning the role of the state government, if any, in developing intellectual property into marketable products make it difficult for the state to design an effective intellectual property policy; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature approved Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 252 of the 2003–04 Regular Session, which requests the California Council on Science and Technology to establish a study group to develop recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature on how the state should treat intellectual property made under state contracts, grants, and agreements; and

WHEREAS, The scope of the study does not include the contracts, grants, and agreements developed under Proposition 71; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature requests the California Council on Science and Technology to expand the scope of the study group on how the state should treat intellectual property created under state contracts, grants, and agreements, to include contracts, grants, and agreements developed under Proposition 71; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests the study group to study how the commercialization of technology developed with the investment of taxpayer dollars in the form of contracts, grants, and agreements could generate some public benefit, including, but not limited to, state revenues, favorable pricing, revenue sharing, and reinvestment into research; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests the study group to develop general guidelines or criteria to define how the state can achieve maximum public benefit from research funded under Proposition 71; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests that the options and recommendations identified by the study for Proposition 71-funded research reflect the constraints posed by the use of tax-exempt bonds for research and represent options and recommendations that are consistent with the goal and intent of using tax-exempt bonds to fund the research, including options and recommendations for achieving accessibility and affordability of treatments, products, and therapies resulting from Proposition 71-funded research; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests that the California Council on Science and Technology establish a review group to include representatives of bond counsel firms, the Legislative Analyst, the Treasurer, consumer and public interest groups, and foundations engaged in funding biomedical research, to review and comment on the study and options and recommendations for generating public benefit from commercialization of technology developed with Proposition 71 funds prior to their release, and that the council compile those comments in the report; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Legislature requests that this report and the interim version of it released by the council be viewed as an informational and preliminary tool and as such not be the only source used in the development of intellectual property policy or guidelines by the California Institute for Regenerative Medicine regarding contracts, grants, and agreements made pursuant to Proposition 71, and that further consideration be given to the significant policy, legal, and fiscal issues associated with development of intellectual property policy and guidelines under Proposition 71; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests that the California Council on Science and Technology complete its study by November 1, 2005, and report its options and recommendations for generating public benefits from the commercialization of technology developed with Proposition 71 funds to the health committees of the Senate and Assembly no later than January 1, 2006, for consideration in developing further policies in this area; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Attorney General, the Department of General Services, and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 112

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 36—Relative to Breast Cancer Awareness and Prevention Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, According to the American Cancer Society, with the exception of skin cancer, breast cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer among American women; and

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is second only to lung cancer as the leading cause of cancer-related deaths among women; and

WHEREAS, In 2003, it is estimated that 211,300 new cases of invasive breast cancer were diagnosed among women, and an estimated 39,800 died of breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, The five-year survival rate for localized breast cancer is 97 percent; and

WHEREAS, Heightened public awareness and education can improve early detection efforts and survival rates with respect to breast cancer; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of October 2005 is hereby declared “Breast Cancer Awareness and Prevention Month” in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 113

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 57—Relative to automated external defibrillator programs.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On any given day, 20 percent of the population, both adults and children, occupy our nation’s schools according to the National Athletic Trainers Association; and

WHEREAS, Nationwide over 250,000 Americans die each year from sudden cardiac arrest; and

WHEREAS, Eighty percent of sudden cardiac arrests are caused by ventricular fibrillation, a heart rhythm where defibrillation is the only effective treatment; and

WHEREAS, For every minute that passes while a person is in ventricular fibrillation, chances of survival decrease by 10 percent. After six minutes, according to studies conducted by the Mayo Clinic, the chance of resuscitating a sudden cardiac arrest victim is near zero; and

WHEREAS, The average national survival rate for out-of-hospital sudden cardiac arrests is only 5 percent; and

WHEREAS, Automated external defibrillators (AEDs) make it possible for nonmedical rescuers to deliver potentially lifesaving defibrillation to victims of sudden cardiac arrest; and

WHEREAS, The federal government has already mandated every commercial airplane to have an AED on board. A sudden cardiac arrest event is 30 times more likely to occur in a school than on an airplane; and

WHEREAS, In the United States, one out of every 100,000 to 300,000 high school athletes will die each year from sudden cardiac arrest. A recent study conducted by the Centers for Disease Control showed a total of 23,320 young adults died of sudden cardiac arrest between 1989 and 1996; and

WHEREAS, New York, Nevada, and Ohio require certain schools statewide to implement AED programs, and several states, including Illinois, New Hampshire, and Pennsylvania, encourage or provide funding for school AED programs. In the State of New York, the lives of a growing number of schoolage children are being saved through the use of AEDs; and

WHEREAS, The National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute recently published the findings of a renowned three-year Public Access to Defibrillation study, which concluded that AEDs double the chance of survival; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That, in order to save the lives of pupils, teachers, staff members, and visitors suffering from sudden cardiac arrest in schools, the Legislature urges all California public schools maintaining kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive to implement an automated external defibrillator program; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 114

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 59—Relative to California Native American Indian History Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Native American Indians are the earliest settlers of the territory of the United States; and

WHEREAS, This Earth has been home to millions of native people since the beginning of known time; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians believe that they emerged into life and movement out of and into this place, and their rich oral narratives offer an ancient voice to life in this land before the arrival of immigrants from Europe, Africa, and Asia; and

WHEREAS, Long before the voyages of Christopher Columbus or the development of the first English settlement at Jamestown, diverse Native American Indian groups and tribes developed their own language, literature, history, government, dance, music, art, agriculture, and architecture; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indian languages are sophisticated and rich in words that denote unique elements of Native American Indian culture such as snowshoes, cedar plank houses, toboggans, tobacco, sun goggles, cultural attire, and other items; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 300 different languages existed in the area that is now the United States and Canada, and there were many other dialects of these original languages; and

WHEREAS, Many Native American Indians still speak their native languages, thus enriching the vocabularies of all peoples; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians gave our country words such as Massachusetts, Mississippi, Alabama, Ohio, Iowa, Dakota, Oklahoma, and Wyoming, and Native American Indian languages also included a variety of words for agricultural produce native to this land, including, but not limited to, corn, squash, beans, potato, tomato, peanut, pumpkin, and watermelon; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians developed the first agricultural processes of our nation, including irrigation farming that made the deserts, prairies, and plateaus blossom with abundance; and

WHEREAS, The first literature and history of this land originated from ancient stories about plant, animal, mountain, river, and lake “peoples” who interacted with each other at the beginning of time to make the world ready for human beings, and these stories remain a part of American culture to this day; and

WHEREAS, Rabbit, Coyote, Wolf, Bear, Mountain Lion, Eagle, Raven, and a host of other stories appear in Native American Indian literature, and that literature speaks to us about a creative time that was and is a part of the United States; and

WHEREAS, In ancient songs, Native American Indians still sing of the creative time, and songs of mountains, rocks, rivers, lakes, forests, and birds ring out across the land to this very day; and

WHEREAS, It is through song, dance, and music that people recreate their attachment to the land they consider sacred, and that they believe was placed here at the beginning of time by a great and wondrous spirit that is manifested to this day in our country; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indian forms of art and architecture have influenced our nation’s heritage, and longhouses, Quonsets, A-framed lodges, pueblos, hogans, tepees, and others are a part of the unique American experience; and

WHEREAS, Beadwork, quillwork, sculpture, painting, rock art, bows, arrows, quivers, dresses, leggings, coats, baskets, jewelry, and many other art forms emerged out of the Native American Indian tradition and are still highly prized in our nation today; and

WHEREAS, For thousands of years before the arrival of other groups of settlers, Native American Indians established intricate modes of transportation, communication, and commerce, and some of those forms of transportation, communication, and commerce spanned huge portions of North America from California to Texas, Washington to Minnesota,

Oregon to Missouri, Louisiana to South Carolina, and Wisconsin to New York; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians established trails that are still used today as interstate, state, and county highways, and merchants, farmers, artists, hunters, and musicians used these and other arteries of travel to support their families and people; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians continue to traverse these routes, and remember through stories, songs, and music the significance of places and peoples that have affected their lives; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians enjoy many forms of government, and continue to revere the principles that have always been held so dear to their cultures; and

WHEREAS, An emphasis on freedom, justice, patriotism, and representative government have always been elements of Native American Indian culture; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians have shown their willingness to fight and die for the United States; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians honor the American flag at every powwow, at council meetings, and at many gatherings, and remember veterans through song, music, and dance; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians use songs to honor the men and women of this country who have fought for freedom; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians love the land that has nurtured their parents, grandparents, and elders since time began, and they honor the Earth that has brought life to the people since time immemorial; and

WHEREAS, California is home to more Native American Indian tribes than any other state in the United States, and their history forms an integral part of California history and needs to be told; and

WHEREAS, California Native American Indian people suffered numerous atrocities and strife as various cultures converged; and

WHEREAS, Native American Indians have given much to the United States and to California, and in recognition of this fact, it is fitting that we return the honor and recognize Native American Indians for all of their offerings to this beloved land; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California recognizes the month of November 2005 as California Native American Indian History Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 115

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 63—Relative to the CYA Counselor Ineasie M. Baker Memorial Freeway.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Peace officers in California's Department of the California Youth Authority (CYA) are recognized as working in an environment that is both professionally challenging and potentially dangerous, as demonstrated by tragic events; and

WHEREAS, Ineasie M. Baker was born in Keachie, Louisiana, on October 12, 1953, and at the age of 17 she moved with her family to Los Angeles and graduated from Freemont High School in 1971; and

WHEREAS, In 1975, Ineasie M. Baker, graduated from California State University, Fullerton with a degree in Physical Education; and

WHEREAS, After graduating from California State University, Fullerton, Ineasie M. Baker worked as a supervisor for Laura Scudders for more than 10 years before gaining an interest in criminal justice. After successfully graduating from the academy, she became a correctional officer and was later promoted to a counselor. She was employed by the CYA for 13 years; and

WHEREAS, Ineasie M. Baker was highly respected and often worked long hours to fulfill the needs of others. She was known as a "dedicated and inspirational counselor whose main concern was the wards"; and

WHEREAS, On August 9, 1996, Ineasie M. Baker was slain at the Heman G. Stark Youth Correctional Facility, an institution for young adult criminals, where she worked; and

WHEREAS, The homicide is the first ever of a peace officer at a CYA facility; and

WHEREAS, Ineasie M. Baker made her family her most important priority, and her family was her joy, and she enjoyed shopping, playing bingo, attending concerts, spending time with her mother, Mary Maxie, and taking trips to Las Vegas with her husband, Donald Baker; and

WHEREAS, Ineasie M. Baker is survived by her husband Donald Baker, daughter Tiffany Baker, stepdaughter Cynthia Baker, granddaughter Bria Ineasie Boone, stepgrandsons Dominic Cloy, Kelvin Owens, and Qwaylie Owens, and parents Fred D. Maxie and Mary Maxie; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to memorialize the sacrifice of CYA Counselor Ineasie M. Baker by naming State Highway Route 60 from Milliken Avenue to Euclid Avenue the CYA Counselor Ineasie M. Baker Memorial Freeway; and

WHEREAS, The recognition of Ineasie M. Baker by this resolution is an expression of the Legislature's gratitude for both her service to California and for giving the greatest measure of sacrifice, her life, while serving in her professional capacity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates State Highway Route 60 from Milliken Avenue to Euclid Avenue the CYA Counselor Ineasie M. Baker Memorial Freeway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover that cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 116

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 75—Relative to California Chronic Kidney Disease Education Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Chronic kidney disease is estimated to be present in more than 4 percent of adults in California, many of whom are unaware of the problem; and

WHEREAS, Chronic kidney disease can progress to end stage renal disease (ESRD), which requires a continuous course of dialysis therapy or a kidney transplant to maintain life; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 35,000 people with ESRD in the state; and

WHEREAS, There is no cure for chronic kidney disease, but there is abundant medical evidence showing that its recognition and treatment can delay or prevent the onset of ESRD; and

WHEREAS, ESRD is usually the result of years of chronic kidney disease caused by diabetes mellitus, high blood pressure, inherited conditions, or other insult to the kidneys; and

WHEREAS, Diabetes is the number one cause of chronic kidney disease in the United States, accounting for more than 43 percent of new ESRD cases in 1999; and

WHEREAS, Uncontrolled high blood pressure is the second leading cause of chronic kidney disease in the United States, accounting for 26 percent of new ESRD cases in 1999; and

WHEREAS, Severe high blood pressure causes kidney malfunction over a relatively short period of time, but even mild forms of high blood pressure can damage kidneys over several years, with no symptoms evident until there is serious damage; and

WHEREAS, Chronic kidney disease causes high blood pressure or worsens existing high blood pressure and accelerates damage to the kidneys; and

WHEREAS, Cardiovascular disease is the leading cause of death in patients with chronic kidney disease; and

WHEREAS, Public policy initiatives targeted at early identification, controlling cardiovascular risk factors, an early intervention in those with diabetes mellitus and high blood pressure can reduce the serious long-term effects of chronic kidney disease on the population, and the significant economic burden on individuals and society; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes August 8 through 12, 2005, as California Chronic Kidney Disease Education Week, and urges all Californians to familiarize themselves with the causes of chronic kidney disease and the importance of intervention to promote sustained health and a better quality of life; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 117

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 2—Relative to the full benefits of Filipino–American veterans of the United States Armed Forces.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On July 26, 1941, when the Philippines were under the sovereignty of the United States, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, pursuant to the Philippines' Independence Act, issued an Executive order that called all organized military forces of the Philippines into the service of the United States; and

WHEREAS, President Roosevelt's Executive order enabled over 200,000 Filipino soldiers to be inducted into the United States Armed Forces in the Far East (USAFFE); and

WHEREAS, On December 8, 1941, just 10 hours after Japan attacked the United States at Pearl Harbor, Japan bombed United States military bases located in the Philippines and consequently brought the Filipino people into World War II; and

WHEREAS, On March 27, 1942, the United States Congress passed Title 8 of the Second War Powers Act, which granted noncitizens who served in the United States Armed Forces during the war United States citizenship status and subsequently provided every member of the USAFFE, certain individuals who served in the Commonwealth Army of the Philippines, and certain Philippine Scouts equal treatment under the law as provided by the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, On April 9, 1942, the United States surrendered the Philippines to Japan which led 75,000 USAFFE, Commonwealth Army of the Philippines, Philippine scouts, and other soldiers on the Bataan Death March, whereby nearly 10,000 Filipino soldiers perished in route to internment; and

WHEREAS, On September 2, 1945, Japan surrendered the Philippines back to the United States and effectively ended World War II on the islands of the Philippines; and

WHEREAS, Despite the promise to provide citizenship status and equal protection under the 14th Amendment, in November 1945, the United States State Department and the United States Immigration and Naturalization Services placed a moratorium on all applications for naturalization by Filipino war veterans; and

WHEREAS, One month after the start of the moratorium, Congress passed the Rescissions Act of 1946, which proclaimed that the service of the Filipino veterans in World War II who served under President Roosevelt's Executive order were no longer deemed to have been active military, naval, or air service for the purposes of any law of the United States; and

WHEREAS, In October 1990, nearly 45 years after the passage of the Rescissions Act, the Congress passed and President George H.W. Bush signed into law, the 1990 Immigration and Naturalization Act which finally granted United States citizenship status to all Filipino veterans; and

WHEREAS, Despite being granted citizenship status, surviving Filipino-American veterans have not been provided equal treatment, recognition, or benefits for their service; and

WHEREAS, As of September 2004, the number of surviving Filipino-American veterans was approximately 28,000 (8,000 of whom live in the United States) with a large population living in California; however, this total is less than one-half of Filipino-American veterans estimated to be living just four years ago and the numbers continue to decline rapidly as nearly all of the veterans are in their 70s and 80s; and

WHEREAS, Many of these veterans are disabled, low income, and in desperate need of existing services available to other veterans and that were promised to them approximately 60 years ago; and

WHEREAS, These Filipino-American veterans served the United States during World War II and came to our aid in a time of need and the failure to pay these benefits reflects poorly on the honor of our country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to honor the contributions of our Filipino-American veterans and direct the federal government to immediately pay them the veteran's benefits as promised as the first order of business when the 190th Congress convenes in January 2005; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 118

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 17—Relative to child support penalties.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California and other states have been subject to federal penalties since 1998 due to their failure to fully implement a certified statewide child support automation system and these penalties, which have increased from 4 percent to 30 percent of the federal share of the Department of Child Support Services program's administrative costs, are levied against the state until the state has a certified statewide automation system in place; and

WHEREAS, California reached the 30 percent penalty level in the 2002 federal fiscal year and has incurred a total penalty of $754 million through the 2004 federal fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, California's child support automated system is expected to be operational by the 2006 federal fiscal year, by which time California's cumulative penalties will have reached $1.2 billion; and

WHEREAS, California entered into a contract in July 2003 with a team of vendors led by IBM for development of the child support enforcement system component of the California Child Support Automation System, California entered into a services contract in December 2004 with Bank of America to operate the State Disbursement Unit, the second component of the California Child Support Automation System, and California is well along the way toward securing a statewide automation system that will comply with all the federal certification requirements and improve program performance; and

WHEREAS, The federal penalties no longer serve their intended purpose and in fact: (a) penalize the state for increasing its spending on program improvements and automation development; (b) force system procurement and technology decisions to focus on avoiding federal penalties, rather than prudent technology goals and system objectives; and (c) reduce the ability of the program to continue to collect child support payments for largely low-income families who have left the welfare system or are able to avoid relying on welfare; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports the policy directives of the National Governors Association, the National Conference of State Legislatures, the American Public Human Services Association and other organizations that urge penalty reinvestment to help states both complete automation and improve child support performance; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature supports changing the penalty structure to ensure that states are not penalized for increased investment in the program and for system development costs by imposing penalties based on the year prior to the year penalties were first imposed, rather than the prior year; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Matsui has introduced the Child Support Reinvestment Act of 2005 which would allow for penalty reinvestment in the program and would change the penalty structure to ensure that states are not penalized for increased investment in the program and for system development costs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States to enact the Child Support Reinvestment Act of 2005 which (a) allows states that have been assessed federal penalties to reinvest those child support automation penalties in child support program improvements and automation system development, which would allow California and other states to enhance and improve their child support automation systems; and (b) imposes the penalty based on the year prior to when penalties were first imposed, as opposed to the prior year, to avoid penalizing states for increased program investments and system development costs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 119

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 18—Relative to passenger rail service.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The voters of the State of California have adopted certain bond measures to implement passenger rail service across the state; and

WHEREAS, Those passenger rail systems have now largely been constructed and services are operating, as defined in the voter-approved ballot measures; and

WHEREAS, Key elements of California's transportation system are the three intercity passenger rail corridor services (the Pacific Surfliner, the Capitol Corridor, and the San Joaquin routes); and

WHEREAS, These three intercity passenger rail corridor services now transport some 4.5 million passengers annually within California, in large part due to the successful partnership with the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak); and

WHEREAS, The partnership with Amtrak brings certain significant operating, financial, and liability benefits to the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The federal budget recently proposed by the President includes "zero funding" for the continuation of Amtrak and its services; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak has undergone a major reform of its business during the last two and one-half years, resulting in substantial progress in renewing its assets and stabilizing its costs; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak is the only entity in the nation with a statutory right-of-access to the private freight railroads for the purpose of providing passenger rail services; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak-operated intercity and commuter passenger services within California in 2004 transported 9.3 million passengers, making California second only to the State of New York in the number of passengers transported on Amtrak operated trains; and

WHEREAS, The State of California's capital investments to date for intercity passenger rail services, based upon the voter approved bonds, are approximately $1.7 billion, with most of these funds providing new rolling stock and track capacity improvements in the private freight railroads; and

WHEREAS, The current freight rail network is failing to keep pace with goods movement demand in the ports throughout the state and any improvements in the passenger rail network benefit freight rail mobility; and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the State of California to protect these public investments for their intended purpose as expressed by the voters who approved the bond measures that provided the initial funding for these investments; and

WHEREAS, It is the expressed will of the Legislature to continue to provide, improve, and expand California's intercity passenger rail program; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to do all of the following:

(a) To provide adequate operating and capital funding for Amtrak in the federal fiscal year 2006 budget to allow uninterrupted continuation of California's Amtrak operated services at the levels proposed to Congress in the federal budget proposal for federal fiscal year 2005, which specified that an annual request would be made of Congress for $1.82 billion annually for Amtrak.

(b) To preserve and improve the four national network Amtrak trains currently serving California (California Zephyr, Coast Starlight, Southwest Chief, and Sunset Limited) as these trains stretch across the United States, uniting California and our state-supported trains with the rest of the nation.

(c) To establish a multiyear capital funding program available to the states on a matching basis to initiate, improve, or expand passenger rail services and to provide an adequate level of capital funding for Amtrak to sustain the mandated rail passenger services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader in the United States Senate, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Chairperson of each congressional committee that has jurisdiction over Amtrak and the national passenger rail system, to the United States Transportation Secretary, to the Governor, and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 120

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 24—Relative to Ryan White CARE Act.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2005.]

WHEREAS, In California, as of January 1, 2005, more than 136,198 individuals have been infected with the expanding pandemic known as acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) and more than 35,945 individuals have been infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV); and

WHEREAS, The State of California created an Office of AIDS within the State Department of Health Services to proactively address issues relating to the HIV and AIDS; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to Section 100119 of the Health and Safety Code the Office of AIDS has lead responsibility for coordinating state programs, services, and activities relating to HIV and AIDS; and

WHEREAS, The mission of the Office of AIDS is to assess, prevent, and interrupt the transmission of HIV and provide for the needs of infected Californians by identifying the scope and extent of HIV infection and the needs which it creates, and disseminating timely and complete information; to assure high-quality preventive, early intervention, and care services that are appropriate, accessible, and cost effective; to promote the effective use of available resources through research, planning, coordination, and evaluation; and to provide leadership through a collaborative process of policy and program development, implementation, and evaluation; and

WHEREAS, This office directly administers the expenditure of federal and state funds to combat the disease; and

WHEREAS, For many, the progression from HIV to an AIDS diagnosis has slowed considerably as a result of these therapies; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that more than 57,021 California residents are currently living with AIDS, 15 percent of the nationwide total of 405,926; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention that there are 40,000 new HIV infections annually in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Approximately one-third of Californians with HIV disease are unaware of their diagnosis and tens of thousands of individuals know they are HIV-positive but are not receiving care regularly; and

WHEREAS, The number of annual AIDS deaths in California dropped 51 percent between 1996 and 1997; however, between 1997 and 1998, deaths dropped by only 27 percent. The number of annual deaths among AIDS cases has declined each year since its 1994 peak. The number of deaths in 1997 was about one-half that of 1996, and since 1997 the number has remained in decline, except for 2001, though the rate of decline has decreased; and

WHEREAS, HIV/AIDS in California has a significant impact on communities of color, gay and bisexual men, and women, as well as low-income and other underserved communities; and

WHEREAS, In California, individuals diagnosed before the age of 29 years comprise 26 percent of cumulative HIV cases; and

WHEREAS, Increasingly, some individuals with HIV disease have also been diagnosed with substance abuse or mental illness; and

WHEREAS, Substance abuse is a factor in well over 50 percent of new HIV infections in some cities; and

WHEREAS, California looks to the federal government to assist the state in meeting the expanding health care and social service needs of people living with HIV disease; and

WHEREAS, The Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency (CARE) Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 300ff et seq.) was first adopted by the Congress in 1990; and

WHEREAS, The Ryan White CARE Act was reauthorized in 1996, and again in 2000.

WHEREAS, The Ryan White CARE Act expires on September 30, 2005; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, the Ryan White CARE Act has ensured the delivery of medical care and treatment as well as essential support services to tens of thousands of Californians including medical examinations, laboratory procedures and evaluations, drug therapy, dental care, case management, home health and hospice care, transportation, housing, legal assistance, benefits education and assistance, treatment education and adherence, nutrition therapy, and mental health and substance abuse counseling; and

WHEREAS, Under federal law, the services provided under the Ryan White CARE Act are for the provider of last resort; therefore, the act is recognized as a critical safety net program for low-income, uninsured, or underinsured individuals; and

WHEREAS, The federal budget for the 2005 fiscal year contains increased funding for the Ryan White CARE Act, a significant portion of which is dedicated to California; and

WHEREAS, Title I of the Ryan White CARE Act currently provides emergency assistance to the 51 United States metropolitan areas most heavily impacted by the AIDS epidemic, of which nine are in California, the most in any state; and

WHEREAS, The Ryan White CARE Act has enabled local communities receiving Title I funding to tailor the delivery of services that best meet the needs of their residents who are affected by HIV/AIDS; and

WHEREAS, California receives funding under Title II of the Ryan White CARE Act for care and treatment and social services, a significant portion of which pays for life-extending and life-saving pharmaceuticals under California's AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP); and

WHEREAS, Title III of the Ryan White CARE Act provides funding to public and private nonprofit entities for outpatient early intervention and primary care services; and

WHEREAS, Title IV of the Ryan White CARE Act has focused on women, children, youth, and families, and has increased access to medical care and support services for persons under 25 years of age living with HIV or AIDS; and

WHEREAS, The Ryan White CARE Act Dental Reimbursement Program (Title VI) reimburses eligible dental schools and postdoctoral dental education programs for the reported, uncompensated costs of oral health care to people living with HIV; and

WHEREAS, The goal of the Ryan White CARE Act Special Projects of National Significance (SPNS) Program (Title VI) is to advance knowledge about the care and treatment of persons living with HIV/AIDS by providing time-limited grants to assess models for delivering health and support services, and SPNS projects have supported the development of innovative service models for HIV care to provide health and social services to communities of color and hard-to-reach populations in California; and

WHEREAS, A network of 14 regional AIDS Education and Training Centers (AETCs), along with local performance sites, were funded under Title VI of the Ryan White CARE Act; and

WHEREAS, These AETCs train clinical health care providers, provide consultation and technical assistance, and disseminate ever-changing information to health care professionals on the effective management of HIV infection; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature affirms its support of the Ryan White CARE Act, and urges the Congress and the President of the United States to expeditiously reauthorize the Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency (CARE) Act in order to ensure that the expanding medical care and support service needs of individuals living with HIV disease are met; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Senate Majority and Minority Leaders, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the House Minority Leader, the chairpersons and ranking minority members of the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions, Appropriations, and Budget Committees, to the chairpersons and ranking minority members of the House Commerce, Appropriations, and Budget Committees, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 121

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11—Relative to Tinloy Street.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Tinloy family has Chinese roots and its presence in Grass Valley dates back to the 19th century; and

WHEREAS, John Tinloy was born to Kan Tinloy who immigrated to Nevada County from the Canton Province in China during the Gold Rush in the 1880's and owned and operated a store offering Chinese traditional food and artifacts, and this store evolved into a social place, bank, and an employment bureau; and

WHEREAS, John Tinloy married Alice Chen Shee, and together they raised one daughter and three sons, and the family opened and operated a fine women's apparel store and a grocery store in Grass Valley; and

WHEREAS, The Tinloy family was active in the Methodist Church in Grass Valley; and

WHEREAS, The Tinloy family, stemming from the community activism of John Tinloy, has historically been very civic minded and contributed community service and philanthropic gifts to the community; and

WHEREAS, It is important that John Tinloy, in addition to his family, a family that has provided significant energy and time to the community, be honored; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Highway Route 20/49 southwest bound frontage road in Grass Valley from the intersection of East Main Street and Idaho Maryland Road to its intersection with South Auburn Street be officially designated "Tinloy Street;" and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this special designation and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 122

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 42—Relative to the California Law Revision Commission.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The California Law Revision Commission is authorized to study topics approved for study by concurrent resolution of the Legislature; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the California Law Revision Commission shall, in consultation with the Senate and Assembly Judiciary Committees, do the following:

(1) Conduct a comprehensive study, and prepare a report, concerning the apparent advantages and disadvantages of the state's no contest clause provisions, set forth in Part 3 (commencing with Section 21300) of Division 11 of the Probate Code.

(2) Review the various approaches in this area of the law taken by other states and proposed in the Uniform Probate Code, and present to the Legislature an evaluation of the broad range of options, including possible modification or repeal of existing statutes, attorney fee shifting, and other reform proposals, as well as the potential benefits of maintaining current law.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 123

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 49—Relative to medication errors.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Numerous studies establish that medication errors cause injury and death to patients and consumers; and

WHEREAS, The Institute of Medicine estimates the cost for treatment of drug-related morbidity and mortality may run nearly $77 billion a year nationally; and

WHEREAS, Research demonstrates that most injuries resulting from medication errors are not the fault of any individual health care professional, but rather represent the failure of a complex health care system; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Food and Drug Administration has approved 122 chemical compounds since 2002, and over 17,000 existing trade and generic names of products exist, many of which sound alike or are spelled alike; and

WHEREAS, These products are also packaged and distributed in similar shapes and forms; and

WHEREAS, The demand for prescription drugs is expected to substantially increase; and

WHEREAS, Medication errors occur in all settings in which prescription drug products are prescribed, dispensed, furnished, ordered, or otherwise provided; and

WHEREAS, Many factors contribute to a poor understanding by many consumers and patients about their prescriptions, including frequent switching of generic brands that are each different colors and shapes so that the same drug looks different and confuses the patient making it hard to easily spot mistakes; overworked pharmacists; reduced time with physicians for patients to be given important drug information; patients seeing multiple physicians that may be unaware of each other's care plans; patients often using vitamins, herbs, and over-the-counter drugs that can react with the medications they take and that both the physician and pharmacist do not know about; and

WHEREAS, Research has demonstrated that improved communication between patients and their health professionals is the most effective means of reducing errors and drug misadventures and improving health care outcomes; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That a special panel be formed to study causes of medication errors; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature shall convene the panel no later than October 1, 2005; and be it further

Resolved, That the panel shall recommend improvements, additions, or changes to be constructed and implemented for the significant improvement of the health care system by reducing errors associated with the delivery of prescription and over-the-counter medications to consumers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint to the panel a member of the faculty of a school of pharmacy, a representative of the California Pharmacists Association, a representative of the California Association of Health Plans, a representative of the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, a member of the California Medical Association, a member or representative of the Assembly Democratic Caucus, a member or representative of the Assembly Republican Caucus, and a consumer representative; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules shall designate the chair and appoint to the panel a representative of the California Retailers Association Chain Drug Committee, a member of the California Society of Hospital Pharmacists, a representative of the Generic Pharmaceutical Association, a representative of a public health organization, a member of the California Nurses Association, a representative of AARP, a representative of the Consumer Health Care Products Association, a member or representative of the Senate Democratic Caucus, and a member or representative of the Senate Republican Caucus; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of the panel shall not receive compensation, but shall be reimbursed from private sources for necessary travel expenses for the purpose of attending meetings of the panel, including any public meetings that the panel schedules, and the panel shall be funded by private sources; and be it further

Resolved, That the panel shall submit to the Senate Committee on Health and the Assembly Committee on Health a preliminary report of its conclusions and recommendations by March 1, 2006, and a final report of its conclusions and recommendations no later than June 1, 2006; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 124

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 51—Relative to autism spectrum disorders.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Autism and autism spectrum disorders, or ASD, are neurodevelopmental disorders of unknown etiology that may cause significant impairments in language, communications, social interactions, abnormalities in behaviors, and other physical manifestations; and

WHEREAS, Autism spectrum disorders are abnormalities of brain development and function that are typically diagnosed during the first three years of life, are four times more likely to occur in males than females, and impact all segments of California's population regardless of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, or other factors; and

WHEREAS, Autism is the fastest growing serious developmental disability in California. Presently, one out of every 166 children is afflicted with some form of autism spectrum disorder; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Developmental Services (DDS) has established that California's autism caseload increased by 634 percent from 1987 to the end of 2002. In the four years between 1998 and 2002, the total number of persons with autism served by the regional centers had more than doubled and had reached 20,377. Presently, there is a net increase of approximately 3,000 persons with autism added to the DDS service delivery system annually; and

WHEREAS, The percentage increase in the number of individuals with autism who received services from DDS during the first quarter of 2005 more than tripled the percentage increase in the number of individuals for the three other primary types of developmental disability combined; and

WHEREAS, At present, approximately 77 percent of all individuals with autism served by DDS are under the age of 18 years; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Education reported that in the 1992-93 school year, there were 1,982 students enrolled with autism in grades K-12, while in 2004, the number of students with autism had increased to 21,948; and

WHEREAS, The number of students with autism enrolled in grades K-12 has increased over 1,000 percent during the past 22 years; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Education reports that nearly every part of California has seen a doubling of the incidence of students with autism in grades K-12 over the past four years alone; and

WHEREAS, The number of students with autism in proportion to the total student enrollment, and also in proportion to students enrolled in special education, has more than quadrupled during the last nine years; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Education reports that not only are there drastically more K-12 students afflicted with autism, but the students with autism comprise a significantly greater proportion of the special education population; and

WHEREAS, The economic impact of autism in the United States is more than $90 billion annually and is expected to more than double in the next decade; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislative Blue Ribbon Commission on Autism is hereby established to study and investigate issues, including, but not limited to, the early identification and intervention of autism spectrum disorders (ASD). Further, the commission shall identify gaps in programs, services, and funding related to the early identification of ASD and provide recommendations to close the identified gaps; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall identify gaps in programs and services related to the education and treatment of children, adolescents, transitional youth, and adults with autism spectrum disorders. Further, the commission shall provide recommendations for the planning of a comprehensive and integrated continuum of programs, services, and funding that will be required to address the “aging out” of children who comprise the current autism epidemic; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall consist of 16 members, who shall include eight members appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules and eight members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall be under the direction of a chair, selected from among its members and appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and a vice chair, selected from among its members and appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall submit one or more reports to the Legislature and to the Governor, including its findings and recommendations by no later than September 30, 2007; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission is authorized to act until November 30, 2007; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall seek funding, technical assistance, and other resources from foundations and other organizations as long as that support would not pose any conflict of interest and would be deemed as consistent with the goals and objectives of the commission; and be it further

Resolved, That the work of the commission may be supported by legislative staff and services as determined by the respective rules committees; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission and its members shall have and exercise all the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon commissions and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and the Assembly, as they are adopted and amended from time to time, and the pertinent provisions of the Joint Rules shall be applicable to this commission and its members.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 125

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 56—Relative to Latino AIDS Awareness Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Local social marketing efforts with appropriate AIDS education to reach Latinos need to be expanded; and

WHEREAS, Latinos make up 14 percent of the population of the United States and United States territories, but account for 20 percent of AIDS cases nationally; and

WHEREAS, AIDS and HIV pose a threat to national public health and there are more than 130,000 people presently living with AIDS in California; and

WHEREAS, The proportion of newly diagnosed Latino AIDS cases in California has been increasing over the last decade and in 2002 they represented 22,594 cumulative AIDS cases; and

WHEREAS, Among anonymous testers, Latino men who have sex with men have the highest rate of new HIV infections of all racial or ethnic groups and make up the second highest number of AIDS cases diagnosed in 2002; and

WHEREAS, Among male-to-female transgendered persons, Latinas are a high-risk group for HIV/AIDS; and

WHEREAS, National rates of Latinas exposed to AIDS has climbed from 15 percent to 23 percent over the last 12 years; and

WHEREAS, Among people 13 to 24 years of age, Latino youth in California make up the highest percentage of AIDS cases diagnosed since the beginning of the AIDS and HIV epidemic; and

WHEREAS, Latinos see AIDS as one of the most important health issues facing the Nation. Yet many Latinos have misconceptions about HIV transmission that must be addressed through targeted prevention efforts using culturally and linguistically appropriate health information; and

WHEREAS, Many Latinos lack health insurance and are not connected to traditional social service and health care networks, thereby making them more vulnerable to this epidemic; and

WHEREAS, Latino AIDS Awareness Day brings an opportunity to increase community awareness and dialogue, to commemorate those lost, and to bring leaders together to advocate for greater services and community involvement to fight this epidemic; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby proclaims October 15 as Latino AIDS Awareness Day in California, and urges all community-based organizations, religious communities, civic groups, health care providers, elected officials, and government agencies to utilize this day to raise awareness of the impact of HIV and AIDS in the Latino community; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 126

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 59—Relative to Pain Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Pain is one of our nation's serious health problems. More than 75 million Americans live with chronic pain caused by various diseases or disorders, and each year nearly 25 million Americans suffer with acute pain; and

WHEREAS, Though medical knowledge and technology exist to relieve or greatly ease pain, most pain is untreated, undertreated, or improperly treated, and many health care professionals are still unaware of how to effectively treat pain. Most people with pain, including those at the end of life, get little or no relief; and

WHEREAS, People who suffer from chronic pain are often stigmatized and marginalized and are often not informed about the right to effective pain assessment and management; and

WHEREAS, The California-based Partners for Understanding Pain is a growing coalition of pain sufferers, physicians, nurses, social workers, pharmacists, therapists, civic leaders, nonprofit organizations, and health care businesses whose mission is to improve the quality of life for people in California experiencing pain; and

WHEREAS, It is the collective mission of this movement to provide practical information for people with pain, inform health care professionals about pain management, and serve as an advocate for people experiencing pain; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the month of September 2005 is hereby proclaimed as Pain Awareness Month, and that all Californians are hereby respectfully requested to improve the quality of life for people in California suffering from pain; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 127

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 61—Relative to Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Ovarian cancer is the deadliest of all gynecological cancers, and the reported incidence of ovarian cancer is increasing over time; and

WHEREAS, Ovarian cancer is the fifth leading cause of cancer deaths among United States women; and

WHEREAS, All women are at risk for ovarian cancer, and 90 percent of women diagnosed with ovarian cancer do not have a family history that puts them at higher risk; and

WHEREAS, The Pap smear is sensitive and specific to the early detection of cervical cancer, but not to ovarian cancer; and

WHEREAS, There is currently no reliable and easy-to-administer screening test used for the early detection of ovarian cancer; and

WHEREAS, Many people are unaware that the symptoms of ovarian cancer can often include persistent abdominal pressure, bloating, abnormal bleeding, and unexplained weight loss or gain, among several other symptoms that are easily confused with other diseases; and

WHEREAS, Due to lack of a reliable early screening test, 75 percent of ovarian cancer cases are detected at an advanced stage, when the five-year survival rate is only 25 percent, a much lower rate than for many other cancers; and

WHEREAS, If diagnosed and treated at an early stage before the cancer spreads outside of the ovary, the treatment is potentially less costly, and the five-year survival rate is as high as 90 percent; and

WHEREAS, There are factors that are known to reduce the risk for ovarian cancer and play an important role in the prevention of the disease; and

WHEREAS, Awareness and early recognition of ovarian cancer symptoms are currently the best way to save women's lives; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has responded to the need for increased education and information about these cancers and in 1997 created the Gynecologic Cancer Information Program within the State Department of Health Services' Office of Women's Health to produce and distribute patient education materials; and

WHEREAS, The State of California currently operates the Cancer Research Program within the State Department of Health Services, which was established in 1998 and provides critical funds for innovative and needed cancer research in California with an emphasis on gender-specific cancers, such as ovarian, cervical, and prostate cancers; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has, pursuant to Resolution Chapter 132 of the Statutes of 1999 (SCR 46), designated the month of September of every year as Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month throughout the State of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby recognizes September 2005 as Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month throughout California, and encourages and promotes the efforts of the people and the health care practitioners of the state to increase their awareness of this disease and to educate themselves about its early detection and prevention, the risk factors involved in its development, and the early warning symptoms and signs thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 128

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 1—Relative to Proposition 71 the California Stem Cell Research and Cures Act.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The citizens of California approved Proposition 71 creating the California Stem Cell Research and Cures Act (the act) and authorizing the issuance of $3 billion in bonds to support stem cell research as a means of finding cures and treatments for devastating diseases and injuries that are currently incurable, such as cancer, diabetes, heart disease, Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease, spinal cord injuries, blindness, Lou Gehrig's disease, HIV/AIDS, mental health disorders, multiple sclerosis, Huntington's disease, and more than 70 other diseases and injuries; and

WHEREAS, The act creates the Independent Citizen's Oversight Committee (the committee), and three working groups and two subcommittees in a formal advisory role, to administer the $3 billion in bond funds that will cost the taxpayers an estimated $6 billion when interest payments are included in the total costs, and further requires the members of the committee and working groups to be individuals with specific backgrounds and interests that may also include potential recipients of loans, grants, and contracts from bond funds; and

WHEREAS, The act requires the committee and working groups to develop standards that will guide their decisions to award loans, grants, and contracts but does not require these standards to be developed and adopted in a manner that prevents conflicts of interest in the award of taxpayer funds, as required by the Public Contract Code and the Political Reform Act, and further allows these standards to be developed by the working groups without complying with the requirements of the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act and the California Public Records Act; and

WHEREAS, The act establishes limited guidance pertaining to patents and intellectual property arising from research funded under the act and the guidance may conflict with the state's ability to use tax-exempt financing for stem cell research under the act; and

WHEREAS, In order to protect the public trust, it is imperative that the committee develop robust conflict-of-interest standards for its members and the members of the working groups that will genuinely prevent an unfair advantage to institutions and entities with ties to members of the committee and the working groups, as well as policies to ensure that the business of the committee, the California Institute for Regenerative Medicine (institute), and committee working groups is conducted to the greatest extent possible in public, and that the state receives real and demonstrable return on its investment in stem cell research; and

WHEREAS, These conflict-of-interest standards, open meeting and public record policies, and intellectual property policies, and subsequent standards developed for stem cell research and for the award of bond funds, should be developed in compliance with open meeting standards set forth in the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act and that the records of those efforts should be made available pursuant to standards set forth in the California Public Records Act; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby strongly urges the committee to develop, prior to the award of loans, grants, and contracts for stem cell research and research facilities, robust conflict-of-interest standards for its members and members of the working groups that will prevent an unfair advantage to institutions and entities with ties to members of the committee and the working groups; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby strongly urges the committee to include in its conflict-of-interest standards: (1) Requirements that members of working groups appointed to assist the institute disclose to the ICOC their income and investments in any entity that has sought funding from the institute or that is engaged in biomedical research; (2) Requirements that the ICOC provide the disclosures to the State Auditor, who shall be requested to review them and report to the Legislature on whether any of the votes made by these members constituted a conflict of interest that should have required the members to recuse themselves from consideration of an application or standard; and (3) Requirements that the definition of a "conflict of interest" be defined to include a financial or other interest in an application or standard that is known to the member, including a direct benefit of any amount deriving from an application or standard, or a financial benefit of any type from an applicant institution of over five thousand dollars ($5,000) per year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby strongly urges the committee to develop policies that provide that the institute, and any working or advisory group appointed to assist the institute is subject to California open meeting and public record laws that are applicable to state agencies, with exceptions to allow for scientific evaluation of any application for research, training, or facility grants, loans, or contracts and consideration of matters relating to patient or medical privacy, intellectual property or work product, prepublication, confidential scientific information, and personnel matters, and that any working or advisory group that is charged with reviewing and recommending applications for research, training, or facility grants, loans, or contracts shall produce a written summary that shall be a public record of the reasons for recommending or not recommending any application for funding; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby strongly urges the committee to additionally adopt a policy committing itself, when negotiating or overseeing intellectual property agreements associated with technologies or inventions derived from grants awarded pursuant to the California Stem Cell Research and Cures Act, to seek to ensure that treatments, therapies, products, and services resulting from or utilizing these technologies and inventions are accessible and affordable to low-income residents, including those residents eligible for state- and county-funded health care programs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature strongly urges the committee that these conflict-of-interest standards, open meeting and public record policies, intellectual property policies, and subsequent standards be developed in compliance with standards set forth in the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act and the California Public Records Act; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature strongly urges the committee to report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2006, regarding the implementation of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to each member of the committee and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 129

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 15—Relative to In-Home Supportive Services Home Care Worker Recognition Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, For over a quarter of a century California has provided home care services to a very high proportion of its residents through a unique, fiscally sound alternative to institutional care; and

WHEREAS, That home care program, In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS), is now recognized nationally and is being replicated in other states as the preferred way to provide assistance to people who need long-term care; and

WHEREAS, IHSS is estimated by the State Department of Social Services to serve 374,986 aging, disabled, and blind residents in the 2005–06 fiscal year at one fifth of the cost to taxpayers as care provided in nursing homes; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 325,000 IHSS home care workers provide home care services and support, making it possible for approximately 375,000 low-income disabled and elderly residents in California to remain living independently in their homes; and

WHEREAS, In 2004, numerous national organizations joined together in declaring the month of November as National Home Care Month to recognize, honor and support the valuable contributions of home care workers; and

WHEREAS, Providing services and support for the disabled and elderly to remain living in their homes is a humane, dignified, and compassionate alternative to hospitalization or other institutional placement; and

WHEREAS, The work of California's IHSS home care workers requires great sensitivity, honesty, patience, trust, commitment, dedication, and compassion; and

WHEREAS, The work of California's IHSS home care workers is both physically demanding and emotionally challenging; and

WHEREAS, The work of California's IHSS home care workers promotes independence, dignity, and quality-of-life for California's disabled and elderly residents; now, therefore, be it

Resolved By the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the second week of November as In-Home Supportive Services Home Care Worker Recognition Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recognizes and commends the contributions of IHSS home care workers who give their time, patience, care, and support to their families and the entire community.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 130

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 37—Relative to public broadcasting.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Public broadcasting provides great benefits to the residents and governmental agencies of the state, because it does all of the following:

(a) Assists in informing and educating residents concerning public issues and thereby helps them participate in the democratic process.

(b) Provides time for extended debate of political issues and for political candidates to explain their positions to the voters.

(c) Provides educational basic skills programming that prepares young people for school and assists schools in their primary mission.

(d) Provides high school equivalency education and advanced skills education to the residents of this state, delivered directly to their homes, thus providing additional opportunities for workers and assistance to industry in maintaining a highly skilled workforce.

(e) Respects the cultural diversity of this state by producing and distributing programs and educational materials that reflect many points of view.

(f) Assists in the economic development of this state by providing basic training, adult education, and literacy training for adult workers.

(g) Provides cost-effective educational resources to colleges and universities and assists in management of explosive college enrollment patterns.

(i) Provides mechanisms for statewide delivery of emergency information and dissemination of instructions for maintenance of public safety.

(j) Brings general educational and cultural programming, enriches the quality of life, and makes lifelong learning opportunities available to all Californians; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California recognizes the considerable contribution that the public broadcasting stations of this state make in educating and informing the residents of our state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all state agencies to consider and explore partnerships with these stations that might assist in effectively and efficiently carrying out the responsibilities and mandates of those state agencies without increasing existing state expenditures; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 131

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 51—Relative to State Employee Appreciation Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Firefighters keep our communities safe and for firefighters and their families, death and disability benefits are not frills, extras, or perks. These benefits are the modest safety net that catches firefighters when their dangerous jobs catch up with them and their loved ones. The only real security for firefighters and their families comes in knowing that every month, should the unthinkable happen, a check will be there ... to pay the mortgage, to buy food, and to keep the family going; and

WHEREAS, We should honor all of our future firefighters just as we honor those serving in the fire service today and should give every firefighter and his or her family the security they deserve for the dangers they endure. That safety net should not be taken from firefighters and their families; and

WHEREAS, Never before in the history of the fire service has it been more evident that firefighters are California's first response officers. They know there is a chance that when the alarm bell rings, they may not return home. Commitment and self-sacrifice are the essence of the fire service profession. Firefighters risk their lives daily for our safety. These men and women on the front lines selflessly protect our families, our homes, and our dreams; and

WHEREAS, Many firefighters are state employees; and

WHEREAS, The California Highway Patrol officers maximize both service to the public in need of aid or information, and assistance to other public agencies when appropriate; and

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol officers manage traffic and emergency incidents and in so doing, promote the safe and efficient movement of people and goods throughout California, and minimize the exposure of the public to unsafe conditions resulting from emergency incidents and highway impediments; and

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol officers protect public and state assets by protecting the public, public property, state employees, and the state's infrastructure and collaborating with local, state, and federal public safety agencies to protect California; and

WHEREAS, Two hundred one California Highway Patrol officers have lost their lives over the last 75 years while serving and providing safety to the citizens of California; and

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol officers are state employees; and

WHEREAS, During major emergencies, the Office of Emergency Services (OES) may call upon all state agencies to help provide support. Due to their specialized capabilities and expertise, the California National Guard, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, the California Conservation Corps, the State Department of Social Services, the State Department of Health Services, and the Department of Transportation are the state agencies most often asked to respond and assist in emergency response situations; and

WHEREAS, The OES Earthquake Program provides specialized earthquake preparedness planning and technical assistance to local governments, businesses, schools, hospitals, the public, and other groups; and

WHEREAS, The OES coordinates search and rescue missions through its Law Enforcement Branch's Search and Rescue Program to locate individuals lost in the mountains or wilderness. Through its Fire and Rescue Branch's Urban Search and Rescue Task Force Program, the OES coordinates missions for those trapped by collapsed structures or in other high risk situations. The OES also provides search and rescue task force training for local fire personnel, governments, and volunteers; and

WHEREAS, Nurses assume responsible leadership in our community, in the nursing field, and work together with other organizations in order to provide all people have the best possible nursing care and health protection; and

WHEREAS, Nurses promote, advance, and ensure safe, therapeutic, and effective health care for all; and

WHEREAS, Registered nurses, licensed vocational nurses (LVN's), and clinical laboratory technologists provide critical care in, among other facilities, state hospitals for the developmentally disabled, facilities for military veterans, and state correctional institutions; and

WHEREAS, Academic and vocational teachers work in special schools for the deaf and blind, state correctional facilities, and developmentally disabled hospitals; and

WHEREAS, Engineering technicians in Department of Transportation, the Department of Water Resources, the State Water Quality Control Board, and the Air Resources Board inspect state highways, water, and water quality, and air testing projects to ensure the safety, security, and quality of the state's infrastructure and to ensure that the state meets environmental quality standards and requirements; and

WHEREAS, Employment program and disability program representatives are responsible for all of the state's unemployment and disability insurance claims and payments and workers' compensation representatives provide insurance coverage for thousands of small to large size businesses in California; and

WHEREAS, State auditors ensure that the state's revenue programs are fairly and consistently enforced. Also for the consumer's benefit, state auditors supervise banking and insurance operating in California but who have headquarters throughout the country; and

WHEREAS, Employees of the Department of Fish and Game annually raise millions of fish for planting in streams and lakes for the enjoyment of, and recreation for, citizens of California; and

WHEREAS, Employees of the Department of Food and Agriculture work on pest exclusion programs to protect the viability of the state's agricultural industry and the consumers ability to rely on stable food protections at affordable costs; and

WHEREAS, The OES staff provides financial recovery services to citizens who are impacted by earthquakes, fires, floods, and other natural disasters. They have provided much needed funds for clean up and rebuilding, including funds for hazard mitigation to thousands of California citizens and to public entities including cities, counties, hospitals, and schools; and

WHEREAS, The state information technology staff has the very difficult job of providing and maintaining information systems hardware and software necessary to manage the states massive and very complex informational needs; and

WHEREAS, State employees from other state agencies provide assistance to the public and perform many functions to ensure that the state operates smoothly; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes and declares October 2005, as State Employee Appreciation Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 132

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 70—Relative to Westminster Police Officer Steven L. Phillips Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Westminster Police Officer Steven L. Phillips died in an on-duty traffic accident on January 29, 2004, at the intersection of Trask Avenue and Jackson Street in the City of Westminster; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips was the first officer in the Westminster Police Department's 46-year history to die in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips was born on June 5, 1957, in Los Angeles, California. Officer Phillips graduated from Edgewood High School in the City of West Covina and joined the United States Air Force in 1976. He completed four years of service as a military police officer; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips continued his service with the Air Force as a reserve military police officer assigned to the 30th Security Forces Squadron at Vandenberg Air Force Base in Lompoc, California. He was called back to active duty for a year after the World Trade Center attacks on September 11, 2001, and served his time at Vandenberg; and

WHEREAS, In 1986, Officer Phillips entered the Rio Hondo Police Academy. The City of Westminster then hired Officer Phillips as a police officer; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips was a very well-respected member of the Westminster Police Department; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips served in the Westminster Police Department for 18 years and he was a motor officer since 1991. He was an experienced motor officer and he was responsible for training new motor officers; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips is survived by his wife Sandy, his father Robert Phillips, and his brothers Robert Phillips, Jr. and Ken Phillips; and

WHEREAS, Officer Phillips will be dearly missed by his family and by all who knew him; and

WHEREAS, It would be a fitting tribute to Officer Phillips to designate the portion of State Highway Route 39 (Beach Boulevard) between Interstate 405 and State Highway Route 22 within the boundaries of the City of Westminster as the Westminster Police Officer Steven L. Phillips Memorial Highway; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the portion of State Highway Route 39 (Beach Boulevard) between Interstate 405 and State Highway Route 22 within the boundaries of the City of Westminster be designated the Westminster Police Officer Steven L. Phillips Memorial Highway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing that special designation, and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover that cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 133

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 74—Relative to Title IX of the federal Education Amendments of 1972 to the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, On June 23, 1972, President Richard M. Nixon signed into law the Education Amendments of 1972, which amended the Civil Rights Act of 1964, a bill that had been previously passed by both houses of the 92nd Congress; and

WHEREAS, The landmark legislation that was enacted into law that day by the president's signature included Title IX, which provides, in part, that: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance"; and

WHEREAS, While Title IX applies to all aspects of educational opportunity, it is especially well-known for opening the door to athletic opportunities for girls and women throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, The enactment of Title IX has enhanced the academic lives of millions of American girls and women by allowing them to more fully participate in all campus activities, including athletics; and

WHEREAS, Title IX has been a major factor in the rapid growth of levels of participation in girls' and women's athletics in this country and the resulting high profile of an ever-increasing number of outstanding female athletes in every region of the United States; and

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the state to provide opportunities and encourage participation in athletics programs at all educational institutions in California, including K–12, California Community Colleges, campuses of the California State University, and campuses of the University of California on an equal basis to male and female students; and

WHEREAS, In June 2002, the United States Secretary of Education created the Secretary's Commission on Opportunity in Athletics which met for eight months and heard public testimony from around the nation, including in San Diego, California, about the need to protect and preserve Title IX. Given the strong public support for furthering the goal of increasing athletic opportunities for girls and women, the department's July 11, 2003, policy letter reaffirmed the importance of Title IX and promised enforcement of the three-prong test for compliance; and

WHEREAS, On March 18, 2005, the United States Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, without warning, or any opportunity for public comment, issued a revision to its policy relating to Title IX intercollegiate athletics entitled "Additional Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy. Three Part Test—Part Three" that allows institutions to demonstrate compliance with Title IX requirements relating to intercollegiate athletics by relying on the results of a single survey of students, which may be administered by electronic mail, to determine whether the institution is fully and effectively accommodating the athletic interests and abilities of the underrepresented sex. This revision ignores the recommendation of the 2003 Secretary of Education's Commission on Opportunity in Athletics that "the Department of Education should not change policies in a way that would threaten any progress in creating athletic opportunities for women"; and

WHEREAS, The reliance on a single survey, whether administered by electronic mail or not, rather than the continued reliance on various sources of information to determine whether educational institutions are fully and effectively accommodating the athletic interests and abilities of the underrepresented sex will severely jeopardize athletic opportunities for women and girls at all educational levels in California; and

WHEREAS, The use of surveys alone as a means of determining in the first instance whether a school is fully and effectively accommodating the athletic interests and abilities of the underrepresented sex has been rejected by a federal court (Cohen v. Brown University, (1st Cir. 1996) 101 F.3d 155, 179-180); and

WHEREAS, Through the enactment of Assembly Bill No. 833 of the 2003–04 Regular Session (Chapter 660, Statutes of 2003), California adopted legislation that expressly establishes the use of the three-part test articulated in the policies and regulations of the United States Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, as it existed and was interpreted on January 1, 2003, as the basis for determining whether a postsecondary educational institution has effectively accommodated the athletic interests and abilities of members of both sexes; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That, on the occasion of the 33rd anniversary of the enactment of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 as an amendment to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Legislature of the State of California acknowledges the many ways in which that landmark enactment has enriched the lives of millions of Americans, and urges all Californians to appropriately recognize this anniversary in the inclusive spirit of Title IX; and be it further

Resolved, That all educational institutions in California, including the California Community Colleges, the California State University, the University of California, and private institutions of higher education in California are urged to refrain from relying on a single method of determining female student interest in athletics as provided by the revised Title IX policy released by the United States Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly present a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 134

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 76—Relative to Microenterprise Development Month.

WHEREAS, Microenterprises are the small businesses of fewer than five employees that comprise over 19 percent of California's employment, providing jobs for more than three million; and

WHEREAS, Eighty-eight percent of businesses in California are microenterprises; and

WHEREAS, Microenterprises produce jobs through all economic cycles, accounting for 77 percent of all new employment growth in the state from 2000 to 2003, when larger employers lost 444,000 jobs; and

WHEREAS, Seventy-eight percent of those benefitting from microenterprise development are women entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, California recognizes that microenterprises stabilize the economies of California communities with local ownership and homegrown products and services; and

WHEREAS, California recognizes the contributions of microentrepreneurs who come from diverse cultures and backgrounds to build the American dream of owning their own business; and

WHEREAS, California treasures the social, economic, and environmental contributions of its microentrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, California recognizes the importance of microenterprise development, training, business counseling, and accessible credit as key to the success of microentrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, The California Association for Microenterprise Opportunity is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization founded in 1993 to build the capacity of California microenterprise development; and

WHEREAS, Microenterprise development is an essential component of every community hoping to inspire and promote entrepreneurship; and

WHEREAS, Globally, microentrepreneurs use loans as small as one hundred dollars ($100) to grow their businesses and support their families and local economies; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations has declared 2005 as International Year of Microcredit; and

WHEREAS, California communities can stimulate the growth and success of entrepreneurship by fostering microenterprise development and by working together to promote outreach, advocacy, and education to encourage the growth of microenterprise and microentrepreneurship opportunities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature acknowledges the contributions of microentrepreneurs and the value of microenterprise development to the California economy, and recognizes the month of October 2005 as Microenterprise Development Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 135

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 83—Relative to White Cane Safety Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The white cane or guide dog, which every blind person of our state has the right to use, demonstrates and symbolizes his or her ability to work productively in competitive employment; and

WHEREAS, The white cane or guide dog, by allowing every blind person to move freely and safely from place to place, makes it possible for him or her to participate fully in and contribute to our society; and

WHEREAS, Motorists should be aware that the law requires that blind pedestrians carrying a white cane or using a guide dog be given the right-of-way; and

WHEREAS, California law calls upon public and private employers to be aware of and utilize the skills of blind persons and to recognize their worth as individuals and their productive capacities as employees; and

WHEREAS, Through the public education and outreach efforts of the National Federation of the Blind of California, citizens of the state can look forward to a continued expansion of employment opportunities for and greater acceptance of blind persons in the competitive labor market; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims October 15, 2005, as White Cane Safety Day for the purpose of bringing a greater understanding of blindness and what it means to be blind and calls upon our schools to offer full opportunities for training to blind persons, public and private employers to utilize the skills of competent blind persons and open new opportunities for the blind in our rapidly changing society, and all citizens to recognize the white cane and guide dog as instruments of safety and self-help for blind pedestrians on our streets and highways.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 136

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 85—Relative to Court Adoption and Permanency Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Each year in California, there are more than 490,000 reports of child abuse and neglect and approximately 27,000 children enter foster care; and

WHEREAS, Almost 85,000 children in California are living apart from their families in out-of-home care; and

WHEREAS, Thirty-four percent of the children in foster care in California have been away from their families in out-of-home care for four or more years; and

WHEREAS, Of the more than 35,000 children exiting foster care between January and December 2004, 52 percent reunited with their families and 20 percent were adopted; and

WHEREAS, The Judicial Council is committed to working with the Governor, the Legislature, and local courts and communities to bring about permanency for children who have been abused and neglected; and

WHEREAS, Local courts and communities throughout California have created programs promoting adoption and permanency that have resulted in a decrease in the number of children waiting for permanent, safe homes; and

WHEREAS, The Assembly and Senate are committed to working together to improve outcomes for children in the child welfare system; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That November 2005, is hereby proclaimed to be Court Adoption and Permanency Month, in which the courts and their local communities are encouraged to join together in activities to expedite permanency; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 137

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 86—Relative to emergency assistance.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, In 2003, there were approximately 6,328,000 car accidents in the United States and 42,643 persons killed and 2.9 million persons injured in these accidents; and

WHEREAS, The federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported that in 2003, 900,000 emergency room patients could not provide contact information because they were incapacitated; and

WHEREAS, There are over 192,000,000 cell phones in the United States and they are accessories that most people have with them at all times; and

WHEREAS, The addition of an emergency contact number in a person's cell phone memory under the heading "ICE" (In Case of Emergency) would enable paramedics and police to contact designated persons or obtain medical information in an emergency situation; and

WHEREAS, ICE is the brainchild of a British ambulance service paramedic and the campaign for its use has rapidly spread throughout the world as a particular consequence of the terrorist attacks in London; and

WHEREAS, In addition to medical history bracelets and identification cards, ICE is a resource for first responders and emergency professionals in the event of an emergency; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby urges all Californians to participate in the ICE campaign by entering ICE information into their cell phone memory, thereby assisting medical and other emergency personnel to contact designated persons and access medical data; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 138

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 87—Relative to blood cancers.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Blood cancers currently afflict more than 700,000 Americans, with an estimated 110,000 new cases diagnosed each year; and

WHEREAS, Leukemia, lymphoma, and myeloma will kill an estimated 60,500 people in the United States this year; and

WHEREAS, The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, through voluntary contributions, is dedicated to finding cures for these diseases through research efforts and the support of those that suffer from them; and

WHEREAS, The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society maintains seven chapters and three satellite offices in the State of California to support patients with these diseases and their family members; and

WHEREAS, The State of California is similarly committed to the eradication of these diseases and supports the treatment of its citizens that suffer from them; and

WHEREAS, The State of California encourages efforts to enhance research funding and education programs that address these diseases; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That Members of the Legislature join with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society in designating the month of September 2005, as “Leukemia, Lymphoma, and Myeloma Awareness Month,” in order to enhance the understanding of blood cancers and to encourage participation in voluntary activities to support education programs and the funding of research programs to find a cure for them; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 139

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 88—Relative to California Firefighters Memorial Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The California Firefighters Memorial, located on the grounds of the State Capitol, serves as a lasting reminder of the heroism embodied in the firefighting profession and the anguish that is felt by a family, colleague, and community when a firefighter falls in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, Etched on the brushed limestone walls of the memorial are the names of nearly one thousand men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice as firefighters, reflecting nearly two centuries of selfless contributions made by the finest and bravest of our state; and

WHEREAS, On October 15, 2005, firefighters from across the state will gather in Sacramento with their fellow Californians for the 2005 California Firefighters Memorial Ceremony; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates Saturday, October 15, 2005, as California Firefighters Memorial Day, and urges all Californians to remember firefighters who have given their lives in the line of duty and express appreciation to those who continue to protect our families, hopes, and dreams; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 140

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 89—Relative to Constitution Week and Constitution Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, The Constitutional Convention was held in Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. The delegates ratified the Constitution on September 17, 1787, and submitted it to the states for approval; and

WHEREAS, The United States Constitution is the most enduring written Constitution in world history; and

WHEREAS, The framers of the Constitution wisely crafted a government that balances the functions and authority of a federal system among three separate, but equal branches—the executive, legislative, and judicial; and

WHEREAS, Our forebears pursued a more perfect Union as abolitionists, suffragists, and civil rights activists, and successfully amended the Constitution to strengthen the protections provided to all Americans under law. In so doing, they rendered the moral resolve of our nation stronger and clearer; and

WHEREAS, President George W. Bush signed into law on December 8, 2004, Public Law 108-447, and Section 111 of that public law which is codified as Section 106 of Title 36 of the United States Code established September 17th as Constitution Day and Citizenship Day, and requests an educational program in all federally funded institutions; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate and fitting that Californians commemorate the historical contributions that the United States Constitution has made to citizens and its significance in preserving the individual freedoms, liberties, and common welfare of the people who live in the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby declares the third week in September as Constitution Week and September 17 as Constitution Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor and transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 141

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 90—Relative to Red Ribbon Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Californians for Drug-Free Youth, Inc. (CADFY), a statewide parent-community organization, the office of the Governor, the office of the Attorney General, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, the State Department of Education, the California Parent Teacher Association, and over 100 other statewide agencies, departments, and organizations are cosponsoring October 23 through 29, 2005, as Red Ribbon Week; and

WHEREAS, The National Family Partnership, Inc. initiated the Red Ribbon Campaign after Drug Enforcement Administration Agent Enrique “Kiki” Camarena was killed in Mexico by drug traffickers in 1985; and

WHEREAS, Parents, youth, schools, businesses, law enforcement, religious institutions, service organizations, senior citizens, medical and military personnel, sports teams, and individuals throughout the State of California will demonstrate their commitment to drug-free, healthy lifestyles by wearing and displaying red ribbons during this weeklong celebration; and

WHEREAS, The theme of this year’s effort is “Freedom is Drug-Free, Plant the Promise”; and

WHEREAS, Drug abuse stands as one of the major challenges our state faces in securing a safe and healthy future for our children; and

WHEREAS, The objective of Red Ribbon Week 2005 will be to promote this view through drug prevention, education, parental involvement, and communitywide support; and

WHEREAS, The Assembly of the State of California has further committed its resources to ensure the success of the Red Ribbon Week celebration; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims its support for the Red Ribbon Week celebration by proclaiming October 23 through 29, 2005, as Red Ribbon Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages all Californians to help build drug-free communities and to participate in drug prevention activities by making a visible statement that we are firmly committed to healthy, productive, and drug-free lifestyles; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California, and to the author for appropriate distribution throughout the community.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 142

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 92—Relative to California Rice Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, California rice is produced on over 500,000 acres annually, by approximately 2,500 family farmers; and

WHEREAS, California rice benefits the state's economy by providing over five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) in annual revenue to the state, and creates high paying jobs in rural California and across the state in the processing, shipping, ocean cargo, and supporting industries; and

WHEREAS, California rice is shipped to 17 countries accounting for over two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000) in exports, with Japan, Taiwan, South Korea, and Turkey being top export destinations; and

WHEREAS, California ricelands provide habitat for 235 species of wildlife, supporting the Pacific Flyway's migration of ten million ducks and geese, and have been designated as Shorebird Habitat of International Significance; and

WHEREAS, The value to the public of the wetland-like habitat provided by California ricelands is estimated at six hundred million dollars ($600,000,000) to replace and twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) annually to maintain; and

WHEREAS, California rice is found in almost all sushi served in the state and across the nation, and is the basis for cuisine from around the world including risotto, paella, and Turkish pilaf; and

WHEREAS, Rice was first produced in California as a result of the diverse cultures that came to California during the Gold Rush, and today rice feeds one-third of the world's population; and

WHEREAS, The California rice industry has significantly reduced rice straw burning and has for 20 years implemented water quality programs that have substantially reduced pesticides in the water; and now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California Legislature hereby recognizes the significant and lasting contribution of the rice industry to California's economy, environment, cuisine, and support of diversity and also recognizes that rice is an essential part of every Californian's life; and be it further

Resolved, That the month of September is hereby designated as California Rice Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 143

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 93—Relative to California Economic Literacy Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, Young people should understand our economic system to perform effectively as workers, consumers, savers, and citizens; and

WHEREAS, In turn, this state's economy depends on economically informed and educated citizens to maintain its competitive edge; and

WHEREAS, Unfortunately, adults and high school pupils do not have a grasp of rudimentary economic concepts, according to a recent Louis Harris poll surveying 1,000 adults and 1,000 high school pupils nationwide; and

WHEREAS, While those polled were nearly unanimous in their belief that basic economics should be taught in high school, both pupils and adults lack a fundamental understanding of scarcity, money, and inflation, with less than half of the participants demonstrating knowledge of these concepts; and

WHEREAS, Legislation in the 1984–85 Regular Session established a one-semester course in economics as a requirement for graduation from high school; and

WHEREAS, New standards, adopted by the State Board of Education in November 1988, include an economics strand integrated into the social science curriculum, kindergarten through grade 11, inclusive; and

WHEREAS, The California Council on Economic Education works with the California State University system, other colleges and universities and Centers for Economic Education to help teachers implement new standards; and

WHEREAS, With the leadership of the California Council on Economic Education, the State Board of Education adopted new history social science standards that promote economic reasoning and an understanding of the United States economy in a global setting; and

WHEREAS, An understanding of economics helps pupils view history not as a series of random events, but as the result of decisions made by individuals; and

WHEREAS, These concepts help pupils evaluate major decisions that will affect them for the rest of their lives, including decisions relating to schooling, careers, and marriage; and

WHEREAS, California has made great progress in economic education and is one of only 17 states that include an economics course in the high school graduation requirements; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of the 1998 history social science standards has resulted in economics playing a greater role in classrooms from kindergarten to grade 12; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of October 24, 2005, through October 28, 2005, be recognized as Economic Literacy Week in this state, and urges Californians to observe these days by working for a better understanding of our economic system; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 144

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 26—Relative to the continued existence and funding of the federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search.

WHEREAS, The 2006 budget proposal of the President of the United States requests the nationwide elimination of the federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search; and

WHEREAS, The federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, were authorized under the Higher Education Act of 1965, continuing President Lyndon B. Johnson's declaration of "War on Poverty"; and

WHEREAS, The federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, are educational opportunity outreach programs designed to assist and prepare low-income, first generation college students, and veterans of the military to continue their studies from high school to postbaccalaureate programs; and

WHEREAS, The federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, put into practice the cornerstone concept that the federal government can reduce poverty within the United States by increasing the number of low-income students that receive a postsecondary education; and

WHEREAS, The federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, foster skills and motivation among low-income, first generation college students necessary to increase the rates of their enrollment in and graduation from institutions of postsecondary education; and

WHEREAS, The federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, annually serve over 450,000 students nationwide, 47,000 of them in California; and

WHEREAS, The federal government currently allocates $460 million nationwide to implement the federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, with $45 million of the total going to California programs; and

WHEREAS, The federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, provide disadvantaged California students with essential services such as instruction in a core curriculum subject, academic advising, tutorial services, mentoring programs, assistance in completing college and financial aid applications, and support in preparing for college entrance exams; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That, because the federal government can continue to employ the cornerstone concept of reducing poverty by increasing the number of disadvantaged students who receive a postsecondary education, the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress to remove the recommendation in the President's 2006 budget proposal calling for the elimination of the federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature calls upon the President and Congress to continue to fund the federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound and Talent Search, that have helped countless numbers of Californians overcome the class, social, academic, and cultural barriers that often come between them and their academic goals; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 145

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 30—Relative to Women’s Equality Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2005.]

WHEREAS, August 26, 2005, marks the 85th anniversary of passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and is Women’s Equality Day, a day deserving of celebration and special public commendation; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, Martha C. Wright, Mary Ann McClintock, and Jane Hunt organized the first Women’s Rights Convention in 1848 in Seneca Falls, New York, where 100 women and men from all walks of life affixed their signatures to the Declaration of Sentiments, which proclaimed that “all men and women are created equal” and are “endowed with certain inalienable rights” (including elective franchise); and

WHEREAS, Several generations of suffragists fought for the right for women to vote and few early participants in this massive civil rights movement lived to see the victory in 1920.

WHEREAS, On August 26, 1920, after a 72-year struggle, the Nineteenth Amendment was added to the United States Constitution, securing a woman’s right to vote; and

WHEREAS, In 1971, the United States Congress designated August 26 as Women’s Equality Day to commemorate the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and as a reminder of the need for continuing efforts for women to achieve full equality; and

WHEREAS, Since 1920, women have made tremendous gains in society, including the right to vote, the right to be free from discrimination in employment, and the right to equal access to education, including sports; and

WHEREAS, Despite these gains, women still need to make great strides in order to achieve civic, economic and social equality; and

WHEREAS, Women still earn only 76 cents to every dollar earned by a man, women disproportionately live in poverty, women are more likely to be victims of domestic violence than men, female athletes have fewer participation opportunities than male athletes, and far fewer dollars are spent on women's athletics than on men's athletics programs; and

WHEREAS, On August 26, 2005, Women's Equality Day and the anniversary of the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment, the women and men who have worked tirelessly to secure equality for women are to be commended for what they have achieved thus far and supported in their continued efforts to champion the rights of women; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the United States Congress and the President of the United States to do all of the following:

(1) Dedicate themselves to upholding the current legal protections of equality for women.

(2) Continue to pioneer new protections of equality for women until women achieve parity with men.

(3) Encourage all Americans to participate in the national celebration of Women's Equality Day in recognition of the 85th anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and its historic importance in promoting women's rights; and be it further

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION SPECIAL RULES OF EFFECTIVENESS

Except for a statute calling an election, a statute providing for a tax levy or an appropriation calling for the usual current expenses of the state, and an urgency statute, all of which take effect immediately following enactment, a statute adopted during an extraordinary session takes effect on the 91st day following the adjournment of the special session (see subdivision (c) of Section 8 of Article IV of the California Constitution). The effective date of a concurrent or joint resolution is the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

The 2005–06 First Extraordinary Session convened on January 6, 2005. This Extraordinary Session had not been adjourned prior to publication of this Statutes and Amendments to the Codes. Please refer to the succeeding year’s Statutes and Amendments to the Codes.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

WHEREAS, an extraordinary occasion has arisen and now exists requiring that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in extraordinary session; now therefore,

I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Section 3(b) Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in extraordinary session at Sacramento, California on the 6th day of January, 2005, at a time to be determined, for the following purpose and to legislate upon the following subjects:

1. To consider and act upon a Constitutional amendment to be placed before the voters and related legislation to reform the State's budget process so that government will be better able to keep spending within the amount of available revenues and thereby avoid budget deficits, and to require reductions in state expenditures when they exceed State revenues; and
2. To consider and act upon a Constitutional amendment to be placed before the voters and related legislation to reform the pension systems for future government employees from one that provides retirees a defined retirement benefit, to one that requires the state to pay a defined or fixed contribution each year into employee pension accounts; and
3. To consider and act upon a Constitutional amendment to be placed before the voters and related legislation to reform education by basing employment decisions concerning school teachers and administrators, including their compensation, on their successful performance not their longevity of service and to require more fiscal transparency and accountability on the part of local school districts; and
4. To consider and act upon a Constitutional amendment to be placed before the voters and related legislation that will reform the process of drawing California's legislative, congressional and Board of Equalization districts in order to ensure that the process of apportioning legislative, congressional and Board of Equalization districts is fair and equitable and free of undue political or partisan influences.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 5th day of January, 2005.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER
Governor of California

PREFACE

Digests

The Summary Digest consists of a short summary of each law enacted, and of each concurrent or joint resolution adopted by the Legislature in 2005.

The text of the Summary Digest is arranged numerically by chapter number.

Superior numbers following the title refer to a Governor's Message affecting that law. These are printed after the digests in the "Digest Chapters Superior Numbers" section.

Cross Reference Tables

Cross reference tables are arranged numerically by bill or resolution number and indicate the chapter number of each.

New General Laws

Lists new general laws passed in the years 1999–2005 which do not specifically amend, add to, or repeal any existing code or general law.

Index

A subject matter index to all measures, including constitutional amendments and resolutions, is included.

Statutory Record

This edition of the Summary Digest includes a statutory record for 1999–2005. Superior numbers following the Effect refer to a special condition affecting that section.

Cumulative statutory records for 10-year periods, 1989–1998, 1979–1988, 1969–1978, 1959–1968 and 1949–1958, and for the 16-year period, 1933–1948, are published in separate volumes, which supplement the original statutory record, 1850–1932, published in 1933.

EFFECTIVE DATES

Regular Session

The 2005–06 Regular Session convened on December 6, 2004, and the interim study recess commenced on September 8, 2005. Statutes enacted in 2005, other than those taking immediate effect, will become effective January 1, 2006. In absence of other considerations, the provisions of a statute become operative on the date it takes effect. Digests indicate statutes taking immediate effect.

An urgency statute, and a statute calling an election, providing for a tax levy, or making an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state may take effect immediately. Such a statute becomes effective on the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

However, any statute may, by its own terms, delay the operation of its provisions until the happening of some contingency, until a specified time, or until a vote of the electors at a statewide election. Also, a later statute or a general provision in a particular code may delay the operation of a statute to a time after its effective date.

The effective date of a joint or concurrent resolution is the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

A constitutional amendment proposed by the Legislature and adopted by the people takes effect the day after the election unless the measure provides otherwise.

Extraordinary Sessions

An urgency statute enacted at a special session of the Legislature takes effect immediately, as outlined above, and the same rules apply with respect to a delayed operative date. A nonurgency statute takes effect on the 91st day after adjournment of the special session at which the bill was passed. The effective date of a concurrent resolution is the date it is filed with the Secretary of State.

The 2005–06 First Extraordinary Session convened on January 6, 2005. This Extraordinary Session had not been adjourned prior to publication of this Summary Digest; please refer to the succeeding year's Summary Digest.

ENACTED IN 2005

2005–06 REGULAR SESSION

BILL CHAPTERS

Ch. 1 (SB 28) Poochigian. Human remains: the Metropolitan Anthony Gerigiannakis.

Existing law requires the local registrar of births and deaths, if the certificate of death is properly executed and completed, to issue a permit for disposition that specifies where the burial or interment will take place.

This bill, notwithstanding the above requirement or any other provision of law, would authorize the local registrar of births and deaths in the County of Fresno to issue a disposition permit for the burial of the Metropolitan Anthony Gerigiannakis on the grounds of the St. Nicholas Monastery in the County of Fresno and would permit those remains to be so interred.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 2 (SB 16) Alquist. Criminal procedure.

Existing law provides various statutes of limitation for various offenses. Existing law, operative until March 2005, does not include certain provisions of law reviving expired statutes of limitation for certain sex offenses that have been held to be unconstitutional and reorganizes certain other provisions relating to time limitations on filing criminal charges. Other provisions of law effective March 2005, which contain those unconstitutional provisions, also provide that the applicable period of limitations does not begin to run on a violation of prohibitions against engaging in certain transactions involving monetary instruments connected to criminal activity until the offense has been, or reasonably could have been, discovered.

This bill would provide that the provisions of existing law described above that delete unconstitutional provisions regarding the statute of limitation for specified sex offenses and reorganize other provisions remain in effect.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 3 (SB 22) Migden. DNA Identification Fund.

Existing law requires the Legislature to loan the Department of Justice $7,000,000 for purposes of implementing the DNA, Fingerprint, Unsolved Crime and Innocence Protection Act, enacted by voters at the November 2, 2004, general election, to be repaid from revenue generated by the act. Existing law establishes a state DNA Identification Fund to support DNA testing and related purposes.

This bill would loan $7,000,000 from the General Fund to the Department of Justice, and would appropriate that amount to the Department of Justice for purposes of implementing the act.

The bill also would also appropriate $4,000,000 from the state DNA Identification Fund to the Department of Justice for purposes of implementing the act.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 4 (SB 29) Perata. Budget Trailer Bill: Tobacco Surtax Fund.

Existing law, the Budget Act of 2004, appropriates funds from the Hospital Services Account and the Physician Services Account of the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund to the State Department of Health Services for local assistance.

This bill would reappropriate certain amounts from these accounts, so appropriated in the Budget Act of 2004, to the California Healthcare for Indigents Program and the rural health services program.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 5 (SB 50) Campbell. Income and corporation taxes: contributions deduction: tsunami victims.

The Personal Income Tax Law and the Corporation Tax Law, in specified conformity to federal income tax laws, allow a deduction for charitable contributions, as defined, made during the taxable year.

This bill would, under both laws, allow any cash charitable contribution made in January 2005, for the relief of victims in areas affected by the December 26, 2004, Indian Ocean tsunami to be treated as if made during the 2004 taxable year.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.

Ch. 6 (AB 42) Nunez. Secretary of State and State Archives Building Complex: museum.

Existing law requires the Secretary of State to administer, protect, and develop the Secretary of State and State Archives Building Complex and authorizes the Secretary of State to enter into an agreement with the Golden State Museum Public Benefit Corporation for the operation of the Golden State Museum within the complex. The board of trustees of the corporation is the governing authority for operations funded through moneys received by the corporation and is required to perform specified activities, including the submission of an annual audit to the Secretary of State, and copies to specified entities. The board of trustees of the corporation includes the Chairperson of the California Heritage Preservation Commission as an ex officio voting member. Certain individuals working with or for the corporation for purposes consistent with the mission of the corporation are considered volunteers for specified purposes.

This bill would additionally authorize the Secretary of State to enter into an agreement with the corporation's successor for the operation of a museum located within the complex, and make various conforming changes. It would specify that the governing board of the corporation is the governing authority for operations funded through moneys received by the museum and would encourage the board to conduct its activities according to specified criteria. The bill would remove the Chairperson of the California Heritage Preservation Commission from ex officio board membership and instead make the Director of Parks and Recreation or his or her designee an ex officio voting member. It would require the Secretary of State to submit copies of the annual audit to the specified entities, and delete the provisions designating the individuals working with or for the corporation as volunteers. The bill would declare that the corporation or its successor is a private nonprofit corporation and would prohibit it from being considered a state, local, or other public body for any purpose.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 7 (AB 156) Committee on Budget. Budget Act of 2004: contingencies and emergencies.

The Budget Act of 2004 appropriated specified amounts from the General Fund, unallocated special funds, and unallocated nongovernmental cost funds for expenditure for contingencies or emergencies upon written notification from the Director of Finance. The Budget Act of 2004 also appropriated specified amounts for loans to state agencies for contingencies or emergencies.

This bill would appropriate $31,585,927, as scheduled, in augmentation of these Budget Act appropriations.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a statute providing for the usual current expenses of the state.

Ch. 8 (SB 121) Committee on Local Government Validations.

This bill would enact the First Validating Act of 2005, which would validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of the state and counties, cities, and specified districts, agencies, and entities. This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 9 (SB 424) Poochigian. Armenian Genocide.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

Existing law requires the Governor to proclaim certain days every year for specified reasons.

This bill would establish April 24 of each year as the “California Day of Remembrance of the Armenian Genocide” and the period beginning on the Sunday before that day through the following Sunday as the days of remembrance of the Armenian Genocide.

Ch. 10 (SB 737) Romero. Corrections.

Existing law establishes the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, which consists of the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the Board of Prison Terms, the Board of Corrections, the Youth Authority Board, and the Narcotic Addict Evaluation Authority.

This bill would abolish those departments and boards, and instead create the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, which would consist of the Division of Adult Operations, the Division of Adult Programs, the Division of Juvenile Justice, the Corrections Standards Authority, the Board of Parole Hearings, the State Commission on Juvenile Justice, the Prison Industry Authority, and the Prison Industry Board. The department would be headed by the Secretary of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, who would be appointed by, and hold office at the pleasure of, the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate. The bill would authorize the Governor to appoint, an undersecretary, and would require the Governor to appoint 3 chief deputy secretaries, and an assistant secretary for health care policy, all subject to Senate confirmation. It would also authorize the Governor to appoint assistant secretaries for victim and survivor rights and services and for correctional safety.

The bill would create the Division of Adult Institutions and the Division of Adult Parole Operations under the Chief Deputy Secretary for Adult Operations. Each division would be headed by a division chief, appointed by the Governor, and subject to Senate confirmation. The bill would require the Governor to appoint 5 subordinate officers to the chief of the Division of Adult Institutions, subject to Senate confirmation, to head identified areas of adult institutions.

The bill would create the Division of Community Partnerships, the Division of Education, Vocations, and Offender Programs, and the Division of Correctional Health Care Services under the Chief Deputy for Adult Programs, each to be headed by a chief who is appointed by the Governor and subject to Senate confirmation.

The bill would create the Division of Juvenile Facilities, the Division of Juvenile Programs, and the Division of Juvenile Parole Operations under the Chief Deputy of Juvenile Justice, each to be headed by a chief who is appointed by the Governor and subject to Senate confirmation.

The bill would authorize the Governor to request the State Personnel Board to use extensive recruitment and merit selection techniques and procedures to provide lists of persons qualified for appointment to all of the above positions.

The bill would vest the new department with all the powers, functions, duties, responsibilities, obligations, liabilities, and jurisdiction of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the Commission on Correctional Peace Officer Standards and Training, the Board of Corrections, and the State Commission on Juvenile Justice, Crime and Delinquency Prevention. The bill would maintain the existing functions, powers, responsibilities, and jurisdiction of the Council on Mentally Ill Offenders, Prison Industry Authority, Prison Industry Authority Board, California Council for Interstate Adult Offender Supervision, and the Joint Venture Policy Advisory Board under the new department.

Under existing law, the Board of Prison Terms is comprised of 9 members, appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, each for a term of 4 years and until the appointment of a successor.

Under this bill, the Board of Parole Hearings would be comprised of 17 commissioners, appointed by the Governor, subject to Senate confirmation, for 3-year terms. Of those commissions, 12 would be appointed and trained to hear only adult parole matters, and 5 would be appointed and trained only to hear juvenile parole matters. The board would be vested with all of the powers, duties, responsibilities, obligations, liabilities, and jurisdiction of the Board of Prison Terms, the Narcotic Addict Evaluation Authority, and the Youth Authority Board. This bill would authorize the Governor to appoint an executive officer of the board, subject to Senate confirmation.

Existing law prescribes the procedures for holding en banc hearings of the Board of Prison Terms.

This bill would define an en banc hearing of the Board of Parole Hearings to mean a hearing conducted by a committee of 9 randomly selected commissioners who are specifically appointed to hear adult parole matters.

The bill would prescribe specified backgrounds of, and training for, persons appointed to be commissioners of the board.

Under existing law, the Board of Corrections is comprised of 15 members.

Under this bill, the Corrections Standards Authority would be comprised of 19 members. The bill would vest the new authority with all of the duties, functions, and responsibilities of the Board of Corrections and the Commission on Correctional Peace Officer Standards and Training.

Existing law prescribes the duty of the wardens to supervise the government, discipline and policy of the prisons, and to enforce all orders and regulations, subject to the orders and the policies established by the Department of Corrections.

This bill would repeal that provision.

Under existing law, the Inspector General is responsible for reviewing departmental policy and procedures for conducting audits of investigatory practices and other audits, as well as conducting investigations of the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the Board of Prison Terms, the Youth Authority Board, the Board of Corrections, the Narcotic Addict Evaluation Authority, the Prison Industry Authority, and the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, as requested by either the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency or a Member of the Legislature.

This bill would also require the Inspector General to review, confidentially, every candidate warden, in order to determine the qualifications of each candidate, and to give a recommendation of whether or not each candidate is qualified for the position.

Existing law establishes the State Commission on Juvenile Justice, Crime, and Delinquency Prevention.

This bill would abolish that commission and instead create the State Commission on Juvenile Justice, to provide comprehensive oversight, planning, and coordination of efforts leading to the improvement of juvenile justice among state and local agencies.

The bill would make other related changes to implement the creation of the new department.

The bill would state the intent of the Legislature that the changes made in the bill supplement and refine Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 1, and to the extent that any conflicts exist between that measure and this bill, the changes made in this bill will prevail. The bill would become operative only if Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 1 becomes effective in which case it would become operative on July 1, 2005.

This bill would also specify that the program budget structures for the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation shall not go into effect until a process for making a transition to a new program budget structure is approved by the Legislature, as specified.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 11 (SB 94) Migden. Claims against the state: appropriation.

Existing law requires the Attorney General to report to the Legislature when there is no sufficient appropriation available for the payment of a claim against the state.

This bill would appropriate $45,000,000 from the General Fund to the Attorney General to pay a specified judgment.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 12 (SB 295) Chesbro. Pierce's Disease Control Program.

Existing law provides that there is within the Department of Food and Agriculture the Pierce's Disease Control Program. Existing law also creates the Pierce's Disease Management Account to be used for the costs that are incurred by the state or by local entities for research and other efforts to combat Pierce's disease and its vectors.

Existing law provides that there is in the Department of Food and Agriculture the Pierce's Disease and Glassy-winged Sharpshooter Board which may collect, enforce, deposit, and handle annual assessments upon grape producers. Existing law provides that all proprietary information obtained by the board is confidential and shall not be disclosed except when required by a court order. Existing law provides that a court may issue a temporary order restraining parties to a judicial proceeding involving these provisions from disseminating proprietary information which shall terminate upon the conclusion of the action.

This bill would provide that a court may issue more than one order and would remove provisions specifying that such an order would terminate upon conclusion of the action.

Existing law, operative until March 1, 2011, provides that the secretary shall appoint an advisory task force to advise him or her on the control and management of Pierce's disease.

This bill would provide that this provision would remain in effect notwithstanding the repeal of other provisions of law. This bill would make other conforming changes.

Existing law provides for the organization of districts to respond to, and distribute information about, the spread of the glassy-winged sharpshooter and Pierce's disease, by filing a petition with the county board of supervisors to form a district. Further, a fee may be charged to reimburse the county for expenses to organize the district and the subsequent election.

This bill would delete the reference to reimbursement for costs of an election.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 13 (AB 65) Daucher. Medi-Cal: health care benefits.

Existing law provides for the Medi-Cal program, which is administered by the State Department of Health Services and under which qualified low-income persons are provided health care services.

Existing law authorizes a county or counties to establish, by ordinance, a special commission in order to meet the problems of the delivery of publicly assisted medical care and to demonstrate ways of promoting quality care and cost efficiency, and to negotiate an exclusive contract with the California Medical Assistance Commission to provide or arrange for the provision of health care services provided under the Medi-Cal program.

This bill would additionally authorize a county, by ordinance, to authorize the special commission to provide delivery systems for persons eligible to receive health care services under the Medicare program and under both the Medi-Cal program and Medicare program. This bill would require a special commission providing delivery systems pursuant to this provision to obtain a license under the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act under certain circumstances, to conform to applicable state licensing and freedom of choice requirements as directed by the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, and to provide notice that includes eligibility and enrollment information for those persons who are dually eligible to receive medical benefits under both the Medi-Cal program and the Medicare program. This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 14 (SB 88) Ducheny. Fiscal affairs: health care funding: Proposition 99.

The Cigarette and Tobacco Products Tax Law imposes a tax on every distributor of cigarettes and tobacco products at specified rates, including additional taxes imposed under the law enacted by the Tobacco Tax and Health Protection Act of 1988 (Proposition 99) an initiative measure approved by the electorate, November 8, 1988.

Existing provisions of the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Tax Law establishes the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, consisting of revenues derived from the imposition of the Proposition 99 surtax, and provides that those revenues allocated to the Physician Services Account and the Hospital Services Account in the fund shall be used for the treatment and provision of services to people who cannot afford them and for whom payment will not be made through any program funded in whole or in part by the federal government. The fund also contains the Unallocated Account, from which funds may be made available for appropriation for any purpose authorized for any of the other accounts contained in the fund.

This bill would eliminate the prohibition against the use of funds in the Physician Services Account and the Hospital Services Account in the fund to provide health services funded through any program funded in part by the federal government.

Proposition 99 prohibits the Legislature from amending provisions of the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Law except by a  $\frac{4}{5}$  vote of the membership of both houses of the Legislature and then only if consistent with the act.

This bill would contain declarations of the Legislature that it is consistent with Proposition 99.

This bill would also appropriate $3,631,000 from the Hospital Services Account and $42,473,000 from the Unallocated Account to the State Department of Health Services for 2004-05 fiscal year enhancements to hospital outpatient reimbursement rates under Medi-Cal.

This bill would require the Director of Finance to make all necessary budgetary adjustments to implement the bill and other changes identified in the Governor's 2004-05 fiscal year May Revision.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 15 (SB 130) Margett Works of improvement: stop notices.

Under existing law relating to works of improvement, neither the owner nor the original contractor may waive, affect, or impair the claims and liens of other persons except by their written consent, and any term of the contract to that effect is null and void. However, a waiver and release is binding and effective to release the owner, construction lender, and surety on a payment bond from claims and liens if it follows substantially one of the forms provided by existing law, and if it is signed by the claimant, and in the case of a conditional release, if there is evidence of payment to the claimant. Existing law further provides that no oral or written statement purporting to waive, release, impair or otherwise adversely affect a claim is enforceable or creates any estoppel or impairment of a claim unless it is pursuant to a waiver and release form provided by existing law, or the claimant had actually received payment in full for the claim.

This bill would provide that nothing in the above provisions precludes a stop notice claimant from reducing the amount of, or releasing in its entirety, a stop notice that has been served upon an owner. The bill would also specify that the reduction or release of a stop notice shall be in writing and may be served in a form other than those forms set forth in that provision of law. The bill would provide that the reduction or release of a stop notice shall not preclude the service of a subsequent stop notice that is timely and proper, shall release the owner of an obligation to withhold money on account of the stop notice, shall release the claimant's right to enforce the notice, and shall not release any right that the claimant may have other than the right to enforce the stop notice, as specified.

Ch. 16 (AB 279) Calderon Limited liability companies: eligible securities.

Under existing law, a limited liability company is authorized to engage in any lawful business activity, with specified exceptions.

This bill would authorize a limited liability company to operate as a health care service plan if certain conditions are satisfied.

Existing law specifies the types of securities that are eligible for the investment of surplus state funds, including commercial paper, meeting specified conditions, of an issuing corporation or trust.

This bill would also include within the types of securities that are eligible for the investment of surplus state funds commercial paper, meeting the conditions specified in existing law, of an issuing limited liability company.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 17 (AB 1305) Sharon Runner Wiretaps.

Existing law defines "wire communication" as any transfer of the human voice made with the aid of specified connections between the point of origin and point of reception, furnished by specified persons or facilities. The definition also includes the electronic storage of these communications.

This bill would delete storage of these communications from the definition.

Ch. 18 (AB 557) Karnette Criminal procedure: testimony of retired peace officers.

Existing law, enacted by initiative measure, authorizes a finding of probable cause to be based in whole or in part upon the sworn testimony of a law enforcement officer relating the statements of declarants made out of court offered for the truth of the matter asserted. Existing law provides for amendment of these provisions by a  $\frac{2}{3}$  vote of each house of the Legislature.

This bill would extend that authorization to include testimony by an honorably retired law enforcement officer, as specified.

Ch. 19 (SB 170) Vincent School employees: termination.

Existing law permits a school district or county superintendent of schools to reduce its number of employees, subject to certain requirements, if its pupil enrollment drops below certain levels, and requires a school district or county superintendent of schools to give notice to the employee before the 15th of May that his or her services will be terminated at the close of the current school year.

Existing law authorizes a county superintendent of schools in a county that meets certain population requirements, for the purpose of making reductions initiated during the 2004-05 school year in the number of county employees because of a reduction in services or elimination of a juvenile camp program, to retain the county employees until the effective date of the closure or reduction in services of that juvenile camp program.

This bill would extend that authority to the 2005-06 school year.

Ch. 20 (SB 405) Battin Library district: Banning Unified School District.

(1) Existing law authorizes the Board of Trustees of the Santa Paula Union School District in Ventura to provide, by resolution, that the Santa Paula Union High School Public Library District shall be governed by a separate board of trustees, as specified.

This bill would authorize the Board of Trustees of the Banning Unified School District to provide, by resolution, that the Banning Unified School District Library District shall be governed by a separate governing board, as specified.

(2) The bill would state the findings and declarations of the Legislature as to the necessity of special laws with respect to the Banning Unified School District.

Ch. 21 (SB 911) Dunn Telecommunications: 911 system.

Existing law requires the Public Utilities Commission to require that every facilities-based commercial mobile radio service provider, as defined in specified federal law, provide access for end users on its system to the local emergency telephone services described in a specified provision of the Warren-911-Emergency Assistance Act, that they utilize the “911” code as the primary access number for those services, and that “911” calls from commercial mobile radio service units be routed to the nearest appropriate Department of the California Highway Patrol communications center. Existing law requires that a provider of commercial mobile radio service not charge any airtime, access, or similar usage charge for any “911” call placed from a commercial mobile radio service telecommunications device to a local emergency telephone system. Existing law provides that a “911” call from a commercial mobile radio service telecommunications device may be routed to a public safety answering point other than the Department of the California Highway Patrol only if the alternate routing meets specified requirements. One of the requirements is that the “911” call originate from a location other than from a highway or county road under the jurisdiction of the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

This bill would provide with respect to the above-described requirement, that the “911” call originate from a location other than from a freeway, as defined, under the jurisdiction of the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

Ch. 22 (SB 1108) Committee on Judiciary Maintenance of the codes.

Existing law directs the Legislative Counsel to advise the Legislature from time to time as to legislation necessary to maintain the codes.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes in various provisions of law to effectuate the recommendations made by the Legislative Counsel to the Legislature.

Ch. 23 (AB 794) Chu Health care funding: aliens: Access for Infants and Mothers Program (AIM).

Existing law provides for the Healthy Families Program, administered by the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board, to arrange for the provision of health care services to children under 19 years of age. The Healthy Families Program is supported from allocations from the federal State Children’s Health Insurance Program (S-CHIP).

Existing law establishes the Access for Infants and Mothers (AIM) Program, administered by the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board, to provide health insurance coverage for certain eligible persons who pay a subscriber contribution. The AIM Program provides coverage, at a minimum, to subscribers during one pregnancy, and for 60 days thereafter, and to children less than 2 years of age who were born of a pregnancy covered under this program to a woman enrolled in the program before July 1, 2004.

Existing law provides for the Medi-Cal program, which is administered by the State Department of Health Services and under which qualified low-income persons receive health care benefits.

Existing law provides that any alien who is otherwise eligible for Medi-Cal services, but who does not meet certain federal residency requirements, is only eligible for care and services that are necessary for the treatment of an emergency medical condition and medical care directly related to the emergency and for medically necessary pregnancy-related services. However, the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 makes any alien who is not a qualified alien, as defined, ineligible for federal public benefits, including medical assistance under the federal Medicaid Program for assistance other than care and services necessary for the treatment of an emergency medical condition. Federal law also prohibits a state from providing defined state public benefits to certain aliens, unless state legislation is enacted subsequent to the effective date of the act, August 22, 1996.

This bill would provide that the department may accept or use federal moneys allocated to the state under SCHIP to fund the medically necessary pregnancy-related services provided to aliens under the Medi-Cal program, and would authorize the board to accept and use these moneys for women in the AIM Program, only when, during the period of coverage under these programs, the woman is the beneficiary. This bill would provide that it is a declaration of existing law.

Ch. 24 (SB 125) Dutton Mobilehome parks: fees and charges.

(1) Existing law regulates the terms and conditions of residencies in mobilehome parks. Existing law prohibits the management of a mobilehome park from charging a fee for the enforcement of a rule or regulation of the park, except that management may charge a reasonable fee for the maintenance of the land and premises where the mobilehome is situated if the homeowner fails to do so, as specified.

This bill would specify that the management of a mobilehome park may charge a reasonable fee for cleanup of the land and premises if the homeowner fails to do so.

This bill would also permit management, upon its good faith determination, to remove and store homeowner and resident personal property, after specified notice, if it is necessary to bring the premises into compliance with the reasonable rules and regulations of the park or state law. The bill would provide that the homeowner or resident is responsible for reimbursing to management the actual, reasonable costs of removing and storing the property. The bill would provide that these costs are deemed reasonable incidental service charges, which management can collect pursuant to a specified process. The bill would permit the management to dispose of the property in any manner if the homeowner or resident does not claim the property and reimburse management within 60 days. The bill would provide a process for applying the proceeds of any sale or auction of the property to the costs described above.

(2) Existing law prohibits termination of a tenancy in a mobilehome park except for specified reasons. Existing law requires management of a mobilehome park to fulfill specified notice provisions when terminating a tenancy. Existing law prohibits management of a mobilehome park from charging a fee for other than rent, utilities, and incidental reasonable charges for services actually rendered.

This bill would provide that the cost incurred by management of a mobilehome park in obtaining a title search on a homeowner's mobilehome for the purpose of complying with the notice requirements, as described above, is recoverable as a cost of suit if management obtains a court judgment against the homeowner or resident.

Ch. 25 (SB 416) Ackerman. Grand juries.

Existing law authorizes the presiding judge of the superior court in any county or city and county to impanel an additional grand jury, as specified.

This bill would instead provide that the presiding judge or the judge appointed by the presiding judge to supervise the grand jury may impanel an additional grand jury upon the request of the Attorney General or the District Attorney.

Ch. 26 (AB 188) Nakanishi. Vehicles: golf carts: low-speed vehicles: special crossing.

Existing law authorizes, until January 1, 2006, a golf cart or a low-speed vehicle to cross State Highway Route 16 at certain intersections, if the crossing is controlled by an official traffic control device and is at an angle of approximately 90 degrees to the direction of the highway.

Existing law authorizes the Rancho Murieta Community Services District to take any reasonable measures within its jurisdiction that are necessary to ensure that golf carts and low-speed vehicles may cross safely and that highway traffic is not unreasonably impeded thereby.

This bill would extend the repeal date specified in existing law to January 1, 2007.

Ch. 27 (AB 796) Wolk. Library districts.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

Existing law requires library districts to be designated using specified name and style guidelines.

This bill would allow the selection of a name for a library district that sufficiently distinguishes the library district from an existing school district.

Ch. 28 (AB 882) Nation. School facilities: contracts with certified architects or structural engineers.

Under existing law, contracts entered into by and between a school governing board and any certified architect or structural engineer are required to provide that plans, specifications, and estimates are the property of the school district. Existing law provides that a school district that proposes to reuse the plans within the school district is required to specify the terms and conditions for the reuse in the contract entered into between the school district and the architect or engineer.

This bill would provide that a school district that reuses the plans prepared by the certified architect or structural engineer and retains another certified architect or structural engineer for the preparation of those plans for the reuse would be required to indemnify and hold harmless the original certified architect or structural engineer, and their consultants, agents, and employees, from and against any claims, damages, losses, and expenses arising out of or resulting from, in whole or in part, the reuse.

Ch. 29 (AB 1075) Blakeslee. County organized health systems: Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority.

Existing law authorizes the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Barbara to order the formation of the Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority that shall include all of the areas of the county. Existing law separately establishes procedures for providing California Children's Services (CCS) covered services, in accordance with Medi-Cal managed care contracts.

This bill would provide that the authority shall not be limited to areas of the county, provides for the provision of services by the authority within a service area, and defines service area to mean the geographical area where the authority provides a health care system. The bill would require the services provided in a county other than the County of Santa Barbara to be authorized by resolution of the other county's board of supervisors.

This bill would provide that the bill should not be construed to supersede the existing law provisions relating to providing CCS covered services, in accordance with Medi-Cal managed care contracts.

Ch. 30 (AB 1130) Ruskin. Regional center employee liability.

Existing law, the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, requires the State Department of Developmental Services to allocate funds to private nonprofit regional centers for the provision of community services and support for persons with developmental disabilities and their families.

Existing law, operative until January 1, 2006, limits the liability of a regional center employee for civil damages on account of an injury or death resulting from the employee's discretionary act or omission.

This bill would extend the repeal date until January 1, 2009.

Ch. 31 (AB 835) Huff. School districts: organization: governing board trustees.

Existing law authorizes a county committee on school district organization, except as specified, to establish, rearrange the boundaries of, and abolish trustee areas, and to make specified changes to the governing boards of school districts.

Existing law authorizes a county committee on school district organization to establish a common governing board for a high school district and an elementary school district within the boundaries of the high school district by presenting the issue to the qualified registered voters within those boundaries, as specified.

This bill would extend these provisions to the abolition of a common governing board.

Existing law provides that a proposal to make any of the changes described above may be initiated by the county committee or made to the county committee either by a petition signed by a certain number of qualified registered voters residing in the district, as provided, or by resolution of the governing board of the district.

This bill would require that the necessary signatures for a petition be obtained within a period of 180 days before the submission of the petition to the county committee.

Ch. 32 (AB 174) Salinas Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency: eminent domain.

Existing law, the Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency Act, authorizes the Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency, with a certain exception, to acquire by eminent domain property within the boundaries of the agency that is necessary to carry out the powers and purposes of the agency.

This bill would authorize the agency to acquire, by eminent domain, property outside the boundaries of the agency, other than property of another public agency, for the purpose of constructing a specified pipeline and related appurtenant facilities to deliver supplemental water to the agency, upon receiving the approval, by resolution, of the board of supervisors of the county in which the affected property is situated.

Ch. 33 (AB 1270) Gordon School facilities: modernization reimbursement: El Segundo Unified School District.

Existing law, the Leroy F. Greene School Facilities Act of 1998, requires the State Allocation Board to allocate to applicant school districts, prescribed per-unhoused-pupil state funding for construction and modernization of school facilities, including hardship funding, and supplemental funding for site development and acquisition.

This bill would permit modernization grant funding for a modernization project of the El Segundo Unified School District if the school district executed a construction contract for that project after May 27, 1998.

This bill would make certain findings and declarations regarding the inapplicability of a general statute within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

Ch. 34 (AB 248) Tran Fraudulent transfers.

The Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act defines the conditions under which a transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is fraudulent as to a creditor, and sets forth the remedies of creditors with respect to a fraudulent transfer or obligation. The act further provides defenses to the transferee, and specifies the liability of transferees and the time for commencing action pursuant to these provisions.

This bill would make technical changes to these provisions to correct obsolete cross-references.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 35 (SB 237) Migden Mobilehome parks: transfers of mobilehomes.

The Mobilehome Residency Law regulates the terms and conditions of tenancies in mobilehome parks and prohibits a mobilehome park rental agreement from containing a provision by which the homeowner waives the rights provided by it. The Mobilehome Residency Law provides certain parties specified rights in connection with the transfer of mobilehomes in the park and grants to park management the right of prior approval of a purchaser of a mobilehome to remain in the park.

This bill would prohibit a mobilehome park rental agreement entered into or renewed on and after January 1, 2006, from including any other provision that grants to management the right of first refusal to purchase a homeowner's mobilehome that is in the park and offered for sale to a third party, as specified. The bill would also specify that it does not preclude a separate agreement for separate consideration granting the park owner or management a right of first refusal to purchase a homeowner's mobilehome that is in the park and offered for sale.

Ch. 36 (SB 330) Cedillo Criminal proceedings: mental competency.

Existing law requires a court, unless good cause to the contrary is shown, to order a criminal action to be dismissed in certain circumstances, including when a defendant in a misdemeanor or infraction case is not brought to trial within a specified period.

This bill would, in addition, require an action to be dismissed if a defendant in a misdemeanor or infraction case is not brought to trial within 30 days after the date of the reinstatement of criminal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of law governing the mental competency of defendants.

Ch. 37 (SB 853) Kehoe Common interest developments.

(1) The Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act defines and regulates common interest developments. Existing law requires that when a common interest development association's governing documents require association approval before an owner may make a physical change to the owner's separate interest or to the common area, the association must satisfy specified provisions. Among these provisions is a requirement that a decision on a proposed change be consistent with any governing provision of law, including the Fair Employment and Housing Act.

This bill would specify that the requirement that a decision on a proposed change may not violate any governing provision of law, described above, and is not affected by contrary provisions in the association governing documents. The bill would also provide other examples of law that a decision of the association may not violate, and would make a conforming change.

(2) Existing law provides that a common interest development association has standing to institute, defend, settle, or intervene in specified civil proceedings in its own name, and addresses the reduction of damages for comparative fault in this context.

This bill would delete erroneous cross references and make nonsubstantive, technical changes in reference to these provisions.

Ch. 38 (SB 77) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review. 2005-06 Budget. <sup>1</sup>

This bill would make appropriations for support of state government for the 2005-06 fiscal year.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 39 (SB 80) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Budget Act of 2005. <sup>2</sup>

SB 77, as proposed to be amended by Conference Report No. 1 on June 13, 2005, would make appropriations for the support of state government during the 2005-06 fiscal year.

This bill would amend the Budget Act of 2005 by revising items of appropriation for support of the judicial branch; the Office of Emergency Services; the Secretary for Business, Transportation, and Housing; the Secretary for Resources; the State Teachers' Retirement Fund; the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection; the Department of Fish and Game; the Department of Parks and Recreation; the Department of Water Resources; the State Water Resources Control Board; the State Department of Social Services; the State Department of Education; the University of California; the California State University; the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges; local government financing; the Gap Repayment Fund; and Vehicle License Fee gap loan transfers, as specified, and by authorizing unallocated reductions.

This bill would become effective only if SB 77, as proposed to be amended by Conference Report No. 1 on June 13, 2005, is enacted on or before January 1, 2006.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 40 (AB 662) La Suer Construction defects: County of San Diego: fires.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

(1) Existing law specifies the rights and requirements of a homeowner of a new residential unit to bring an action for construction defects, including applicable standards for home construction, the statute of limitations, the burden of proof, the damages recoverable, a detailed prelitigation procedure, and the obligations of the homeowner.

On or before January 1, 2008, this bill would authorize a homeowner and a contractor, as defined, to agree by contract to be governed by the above-described construction defect provisions with regard to the free rebuilding of residential homes destroyed in the Cedar Fire of October 2003, in the County of San Diego, and any construction defects therefor.

(2) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 41 (AB 1304) Calderon Bank deposits and collections: return of paid items: substitute checks.

Existing commercial law governs the payment of checks by banks. Existing law requires a bank, if it does not return paid checks to its customer, to retain the items for 7 years after receipt, and to furnish, on request, at least 2 items or legible copies of those items to a customer with respect to each statement of account sent to the customer.

This bill would alternatively allow a customer to request a substitute check, as defined, under those circumstances.

Ch. 42 (AB 299) Maze Mandatory reporting.

Existing law requires that reports of suspected child abuse or neglect be made by mandated reporters, via telephone and written report, following specified procedures and timelines, to any police department or sheriff's department, county probation department, as specified, or the county welfare department.

This bill would permit child abuse or neglect reports to be made via fax or electronic transmission.

Ch. 43 (AB 238) Harman Fraudulent transfers: personal property.

Existing law provides generally that a transfer of personal property not accompanied by delivery and change of possession of the property is void against the transferor's creditors, except for certain specified transfers or types of property.

This bill would additionally exempt the transfer of property by any governmental entity.

Ch. 44 (AB 1567) Torrico State employees: memorandum of understanding.

Under existing law, a provision of a memorandum of understanding reached between the state employer and a recognized employee organization representing state civil service employees that requires the expenditure of funds does not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

This bill would approve provisions that require the expenditure of funds of a memorandum of understanding entered into between the state employer and Bargaining Unit 18, and would provide that these provisions will become effective even if these provisions are approved by the Legislature in legislation other than the annual Budget Act.

The bill would provide that provisions of the memorandum of understanding approved by this bill that require the expenditure of funds will not take effect unless funds for these provisions are specifically appropriated by the Legislature, and would require the state employer and the affected employee organization to meet and confer to renegotiate the affected provisions, or by mutual agreement of the parties, all or a portion of the memorandum of understanding, if funds for these provisions are not specifically appropriated by the Legislature.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 45 (SB 108) Lowenthal Health care service plans: procedures for participation by subscribers and enrollees.

Existing law, the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975, provides for the licensure and regulation of health care service plans by the Department of Managed Health Care. Existing law requires a health care service plan to establish procedures to permit subscribers and enrollees to participate in establishing the plan's public policy, as defined, and specifies that compliance with the federal Health Maintenance Organization Act of 1973 is deemed sufficient compliance with that requirement.

This bill would delete the provision making compliance with the Health Maintenance Organization Act of 1973 sufficient compliance.

Ch. 46 (SB 184) Murray Talent agencies.

Existing law requires talent agencies to deposit with the Labor Commissioner, prior to the issuance or renewal of a license, a surety bond in the amount of $10,000.

This bill would instead require talent agencies to deposit a surety bond in the amount of $50,000.

Ch. 47 (AB 270) Leslie California Tahoe Conservancy: eligible expenses: soil erosion grants.

Existing law establishes the California Tahoe Conservancy and authorizes the conservancy to award grants to local public agencies, state agencies, federal agencies, federally recognized Indian tribes, the Tahoe transportation district, and nonprofit organizations to carry out the purposes of the conservancy. Existing law requires that the relocation by a local public agency of a water or sewer-related infrastructure owned by a publicly owned utility be considered an eligible expense by the conservancy for the purpose of awarding soil erosion grant funds, if that relocation is intended to control or reduce soil erosion caused by the infrastructure to be relocated.

This bill would revise that requirement to specify that a public agency is eligible to receive soil erosion grant funds for up to  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the costs of relocating a water or sewer-related infrastructure owned by a publicly owned utility, if specified conditions are met.

Ch. 48 (SB 1113) Committee on Business, Professions and Economic Development Professions and vocations.

(1) Existing law provides for the licensing and regulation of landscape architects by the California Architects Board. Existing law exempts landscape contractors from regulatory and licensing provisions governing landscape architects under certain conditions.

This bill would revise and recast this provision.

(2) The Professional Engineers Act provides for the licensing and regulation of professional engineers and land surveyors until July 1, 2006, by the Board for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors. The board is authorized to appoint an executive officer until July 1, 2005.

This bill would authorize the board to appoint an executive officer until July 1, 2006.

(3) Existing law provides for licensing and regulation of contractors by the Contractors' State License Board. Existing law requires a home improvement contract to be in writing and to contain certain information, notices, and disclosures, including a statement that a consumer has a right to cancel or rescind the contract. Existing law also requires certain disclosures with respect to a service and repair contract. The provisions governing home improvement contracts and service and repair contracts become operative on July 1, 2005.

This bill would instead provide that these provisions become operative on January 1, 2006. The bill would revise and recast certain of these provisions and make other related changes in other provisions of law.

Ch. 49 (AB 1489) Calderon Point-of-sale systems.

Existing law requires that, whenever a point-of-sale system is changed or modified to include a video touch screen or nontactile keypad, the point-of-sale device also be equipped with a tactually discernible numerical keypad meeting specified requirements that enables a visually impaired person to enter personal information necessary to process a transaction. Existing law requires certain existing point-of-sale systems and certain systems to be sold on and after January 1, 2006, that include a video touch screen or nontactile keypad to be equipped with a tactually discernible keypad satisfying those requirements.

This bill would require the point-of-sale devices to be equipped with either a tactually discernible keypad or other technology.

Ch. 50 (AB 200) Leslie Renewable energy resources: California Renewables Portfolio Standard Program.

The Public Utilities Act imposes various duties and responsibilities on the Public Utilities Commission with respect to the purchase of electricity and requires the commission to review and adopt a procurement plan and a renewable energy procurement plan for each electrical corporation pursuant to the California Renewables Portfolio Standard Program. The program requires that a retail seller of electricity, including electrical corporations, community choice aggregators, and electric service providers, but not including local publicly owned electric utilities, purchase a specified minimum percentage of electricity generated by eligible renewable energy resources, as defined, in any given year as a specified percentage of total kilowatthours sold to retail end-use customers each calendar year (renewables portfolio standard). The renewables portfolio standard requires each electrical corporation to increase its total procurement of eligible renewable energy resources by at least an additional 1% of retail sales per year so that 20% of its retail sales are procured from eligible renewable energy resources no later than December 31, 2017.

This bill would adopt certain modifications to the renewables portfolio standard program that are applicable only to an electrical corporation with 60,000 or fewer customer accounts in California that serves retail end-use customers outside California.

Ch. 51 (SB 296) Campbell Trusts.

Existing law generally requires a trustee to allocate money received from an entity to income. However, existing law requires a trustee to allocate money received in total or partial liquidation of an entity to principal. Existing law also provides that money is received in partial liquidation if the total amount of money and property received in a distribution or series of related distributions is greater than 20% of the entity's gross assets, as shown by the entity's year end financial statements immediately preceding the initial receipt.

This bill would revise the latter provision to specify that money is received in partial liquidation if the total amount of money and property received by all owners, collectively, in a distribution or series of related distributions is greater than 20% of the entity's gross assets, as determined in the manner described above. The bill would also provide that if that receipt is allocated between December 2, 2004, and the operative date of this bill, a trustee shall not be liable for allocating the receipt to income if the amount received by the trustee, when considered together with the amount received by all owners, collectively, exceeds 20% of the entity's gross assets, but the amount received by the trustee does not exceed 20% of the entity's gross assets.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 52 (AB 999) La Malfa Attempted murder: custodial officers.

Existing law provides that an attempt to commit willful, deliberate, and premeditated murder, as defined, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life with the possibility of parole. Existing law further provides that an attempted murder of a peace officer or firefighter, as defined, committed under specified circumstances, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life with the possibility of parole, or by 15 years to life if it is also proven that the attempt was willful, deliberate, and premeditated.

This bill would provide that the elements defining the crime of attempted murder of a police officer or firefighter, and the penalties therefor, also apply to the attempted murder of a custodial officer, as defined.

By expanding the scope of an existing crime this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 53 (AB 988) Bogh Criminal profiteering.

Existing law specifies various offenses for purposes of defining criminal profiteering activity, and patterns of criminal profiteering activity. Existing law also provides for the forfeiture of specified assets for persons who engage in a pattern of criminal profiteering activity, upon conviction of an underlying offense, as specified.

This bill would add to those specified offenses, the offense of theft of personal identifying information, as specified.

By expanding the list of offenses that may subject a person to prosecution for criminal profiteering activity, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 54 (AB 663) La Suer Offenses relating to prisons and prisoners.

Existing law provides that a city, county, or superior court is entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and necessary costs connected with prison or prisoners, as specified. Existing law authorizes reimbursement of, among other things, the costs of investigating and prosecuting cases related to state prisons or prisoners.

This bill would authorize reimbursement of costs incurred for providing training in the investigation or prosecution associated with any matters related to state prisons or prisoners.

Ch. 55 (AB 102) Cohn Parole: High-risk sex offenders.

Existing law requires the Department of Corrections to ensure that all parolees deemed to pose a high risk to the public of committing a violent sex crime are placed on an intensive and specialized parole supervision caseload. This provision is repealed as of July 1, 2006.

This bill would eliminate that repeal date.

Ch. 56 (AB 1376) Harman Long-term health care facilities: violations.

The existing Long-Term Care, Health, Safety, and Security Act of 1973 establishes an inspection and reporting system and a provisional licensing mechanism to ensure that long-term health care facilities, as defined, are in compliance with state statutes, regulations, and standards pertaining to patient care. The act establishes a citation and appeals process.

This bill would make changes to the judicial appeals process.

Ch. 57 (AB 1707) Chan Medi-Cal financing.

Existing law creates the continuously appropriated Medical Providers Interim Payment Fund, for the purposes of paying Medi-Cal providers, providers of drug treatment services for persons infected with HIV, and providers of services for the developmentally disabled, for services provided on or after July 1 of the fiscal year for which a budget has not yet been enacted or there is a deficiency in the Medi-Cal budget in any fiscal year, and appropriates, for each fiscal year in which these payments are necessary, up to $1,000,000,000 from the General Fund, in the form of loans, and $1,000,000,000 from the Federal Trust Fund to the Medical Providers Interim Payment Fund.

---

This bill would delete the limitation on the application of the continuously appropriated funds to services provided. By expanding the scope of the application of the continuously appropriated funds, this bill would result in an appropriation.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 58 (AB 1711) Strickland Health facilities: immunizations.

Existing law provides for the licensure and regulation of health facilities by the State Department of Health Services. Existing law regulates the procedures to be performed on a patient of a health facility, including the administration of medication, upon the specific authorization in the patient medical record or a standing order prepared by authorized medical personnel.

Existing regulations of the department authorize the use of standing orders for specified patients when authorized by a person licensed to prescribe and prohibit the use of standing orders in skilled nursing facilities.

This bill would authorize a registered nurse or licensed pharmacist to administer in skilled nursing facilities influenza and pneumococcal immunizations to a patient over 50 years of age, pursuant to standing orders and without patient-specific orders, if the immunization standing orders that are not patient specific meet prescribed federal recommendations and are approved by the medical director of the facility.

Ch. 59 (AB 575) Wolk Electronic waste recycling.

Existing law, the Electronic Waste Recycling Act of 2003, requires a retailer selling a covered electronic device in this state to collect a covered electronic waste recycling fee from the consumer, as specified. Under existing law, the fees are deposited in the Electronic Waste Recovery and Recycling Account, and the California Integrated Waste Management Board and the Department of Toxic Substances Control are continuously appropriated the money in the account to make electronic waste recovery payments and recycling payments to cover the net cost of an authorized collector in operating a free and convenient system for collecting, consolidating, and transporting covered electronic wastes, and to make electronic waste recycling payments to cover an e-waste recycler's net cost of receiving, processing, and recycling covered electronic waste. Existing law defines the term "retailer" as a person who makes a retail sale of a covered electronic device.

This bill would define the term "vendor" as a person who makes a sale of a covered electronic device for the purpose of resale to a retailer who is the lessor of the device to a consumer under a lease that is a continuing sale and purchase. The bill would allow a retailer to elect to pay the covered electronic waste recycling fee on behalf of the consumer by paying the covered electronic waste recycling fee to the retailer's vendor. The bill would provide that if the retailer makes this election, the covered electronic waste recycling fee is a debt owed by the vendor to the state, and the retailer is not liable for the fee. The bill would provide that if the retailer makes this election, the vendor may retain 3 percent of the covered electronic waste recycling fee for costs associated with the collection of the fee.

This bill would authorize the State Board of Equalization to disclose the name, address, account number, and account status of a person registered with the State Board of Equalization to collect and remit the covered electronic waste recycling fee.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 60 (AB 70) Maze Vehicles: license plates: rape victims.

Existing law provides for the assignment of a specific license number to a motor vehicle, which may be changed only upon application to the Department of Motor Vehicles, and under certain circumstances. Existing law requires the department to provide a new and different set of license plates to a registered owner of a vehicle who appears in person and submits a completed application and also presents to the department the previously issued plates, proof of identity and vehicle ownership, and evidence of victimization by a domestic abuser, evidence of efforts to get assistance in regard to the domestic abuse, as specified, or evidence that the applicant is the subject of stalking, as specified.

This bill would include a victim of rape or sexual battery, as specified, within the provisions requiring the department to provide a new set of license plates to a registered owner of a vehicle who appears in person and submits an application, as described above, including certain evidence identifying the applicant as the victim of rape or sexual battery.

Ch. 61 (AB 461) Shirley Horton Department of Motor Vehicles: transactions: electronic transmissions.

Existing law authorizes the Department of Motor Vehicles to allow a person to submit any document required to be submitted to the department by using electronic media deemed feasible by the department instead of requiring the actual submittal of the original document. Existing law authorizes the department, under certain circumstances, to waive for electronically submitted documents any legal requirement that the document be signed in order to complete a transaction.

This bill, instead of authorizing the department to waive the signature requirement specified above, would authorize that requirement to be satisfied for an electronically submitted document if the signature is also submitted electronically and the department retains information verifying the identity of the person submitting the electronic signature. The bill would make a conforming change.

Ch. 62 (AB 111) Koretz Alcoholic beverage control: event permits.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Act authorizes the issuance of an event permit to any licensee under either an on-sale general license, or an on-sale beer and wine license, authorizing the sale of beer, wine, and distilled spirits at specified events only for consumption on property adjacent to the licensed premises and owned or under the control of the licensee, as specified. Existing law provides that these specified events may only be held for one day in any single calendar quarter, as defined.

This bill would, instead, provide that these specified events may be held for a total of 4 days during any calendar year.

Ch. 63 (AB 538) Harman County employees' retirement: rate adjustments.

Existing law requires an actuarial valuation to be conducted at least every 3 years with respect to any retirement system established under the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937. The assumptions and calculations of the actuary are excepted from specified requirements connected with public employee labor relations. Following the actuarial valuation, the board of retirement of the system is required to recommend to the county board of supervisors any change in interest rates, contribution rates, or appropriations that is necessary. The board of supervisors is further required to adjust the rates of contribution of members and of appropriation in accordance with these recommendations.

This bill would require the board of retirement to recommend to the governing body of a district within the county system that is not governed by the board the changes in rates of contributions of district members and in district appropriations, based upon the actuarial valuation described above. The bill would require the governing body of a district within the county system that is not governed by the board of supervisors to make adjustments in rates of contributions and appropriations in accordance with the recommendations of the board of retirement, as specified. The bill would make conforming changes in provisions excepting actuary information from requirements connected with public employee labor relations. The provisions of the bill would only be operative in a county upon a majority vote of the governing body of the county.

Ch. 64 (AB 719) Canciamilla County retirement boards: alternate members.

The County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 sets forth the membership composition requirements for the board of retirement of counties subject to certain provisions regarding safety members. The 4th, 5th, 6th, and 9th members are required to be qualified electors of the county who are not connected with the government, except that one may be a member of the county board of supervisors. Existing law authorizes a retirement board, in specified instances, to appoint an alternate retired member to the office of the 8th member of the board.

This bill would permit the Board of Supervisors in Contra Costa County, by resolution adopted by majority vote, to appoint an alternate member for the 4th, 5th, 6th, or 9th member of the board of retirement. The bill would require that the alternate member have the same compensation, term of office, except as specified, and voting privileges as his or her counterpart, as specified. The bill would prohibit an alternate member from serving for a supervisor who has been appointed as the 4th, 5th, 6th, or 9th member until service of this type is approved by a majority of the electors in the county.

Ch. 65 (AB 1054) Bogh Political parties: Republican Party.

Existing law requires that candidates for Republican county central committee appear on the local ballot and specifies the manner of their election. It requires that in a county containing fewer than 5 Assembly districts, a committee be elected by supervisor districts, in accordance with a specified formula. It requires that in a county containing more than 4 and fewer than 20 Assembly districts the county central committee be elected from Assembly districts.

This bill would impose a state-mandated local program by requiring that, notwithstanding the above, a committee of not fewer than 30 members be elected in San Bernardino County. The bill would require members to be elected by supervisor district, and would require that the number to be elected from any supervisor district be determined in accordance with a specified formula.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

Ch. 66 (AB 637) Huff Vehicles: driver's license endorsements: certificates.

(1) Existing law requires the Department of Motor Vehicles to deny, or to revoke or suspend an ambulance driver certificate under certain, listed circumstances. Existing law authorizes the person involved in the refusal to issue or renew, suspension, or revocation of an ambulance driver certificate to submit a written request for a hearing to the department within 10 days after receiving the notification of refusal, revocation, or suspension.

This bill, instead, would authorize the request for a hearing to be submitted within 15 days after the notice has been mailed by the department. Failure to request a hearing within that time period would constitute waiver of the right to a hearing.

The bill would authorize reapplication following a refusal or revocation to be made one year after the effective date of the refusal or revocation, except as specified. The bill would authorize reapplication following a refusal or revocation to be made if a felony or misdemeanor conviction supporting the refusal or revocation is reversed or dismissed, as specified.

(2) Existing law requires the department to revoke, or refuse to issue or renew certain listed driver's certificates for 3 years if the certificate holder has received a positive test result for a controlled substance, as specified, following an opportunity to challenge the validity of the testing.

This bill, additionally, would require the department to revoke or refuse to issue or renew the listed certificates if the certificate holder refuses to submit to a test for, or fails to comply with the testing requirements for, controlled substances. The bill would include vehicles used to transport developmentally disabled persons within the listed certificates. The bill would delete the provision requiring an opportunity to challenge the validity of the testing.

(3) This bill would also make technical, nonsubstantive, and conforming changes in these provisions of existing law.

Ch. 67 (AB 837) Benoit Insurance: unemployment.

Existing law regulates the issuance of life insurance policies, as specified.

This bill would authorize an insurance policy or endorsement issued by an admitted life and disability insurer to contain a provision for a waiver of premium payments in the event of involuntary unemployment of the insured. The bill would require an insurer issuing policies or endorsements containing the waiver provision to establish reserves and file reports that the Insurance Commissioner may require.

Ch. 68 (AB 764) Calderon Alcoholic beverages: proof of age: military identification cards.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Act makes it a misdemeanor for any person under the age of 21 years to purchase any alcoholic beverage or consume any alcoholic beverage in any on-sale premises. The act also subjects a holder of a license to sell alcoholic beverages to criminal prosecution and suspension or revocation of that license if the licensee sells any alcoholic beverages to any person under the age of 21 years. Existing law provides that a licensee's acceptance of bona fide evidence, as defined, constitutes a defense to any action against the licensee. Existing law requires that evidence to contain a description of the person.

Existing law includes a military identification card issued to a member of the Armed Forces as an eligible identification card so long as that card includes a description of the cardholder. Identification cards issued by the Armed Forces no longer contain a physical description of the cardholder. For security purposes, that information is electronically encrypted in order to avoid tampering with the card.

This bill would authorize the acceptance of a military identification card as bona fide evidence that a person is 21 years of age, provided that proof of majority is further substantiated with other identification, as specified.

Ch. 69 (AB 110) Ruskin Public education: reporting requirements.

Existing law requires the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commission on Teacher Credentialing to compile certain reports relating to various matters involving pupils.

This bill would provide the intent of the Legislature with regard to these reports. The bill would delete certain reporting requirements contained in existing law, and would modify procedures that apply to data collection relating to pupil expulsions.

Ch. 70 (AB 1373) Umberg State employees: memoranda of understanding.

Under existing law, a provision of a memorandum of understanding reached between the state employer and a recognized employee organization representing state civil service employees that requires the expenditure of funds does not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

This bill would approve provisions that require the expenditure of funds of a memorandum of understanding entered into between the state employer and State Bargaining Unit 7, and would provide that these provisions will become effective even if these provisions are approved by the Legislature in legislation other than the annual Budget Act.

The bill would provide that provisions of the memorandum of understanding approved by this bill that require the expenditure of funds will not take effect unless funds for these provisions are specifically appropriated by the Legislature, and would authorize the state employer and the affected employee organization to reopen negotiations on all or part of the memorandum of understanding if the Legislature does not approve or fully fund any provision of the memorandum of understanding that requires the expenditure of funds.

This bill would appropriate $15,652,000 from the General Fund, unallocated special funds, and other unallocated nongovernmental cost funds, as scheduled, in augmentation of specified items in the Budget Act of 2005 for state employee compensation to implement the memorandum of understanding approved by this bill.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a statute providing an appropriation for the usual and current expenses of the state.

Ch. 71 (AB 144) Hancock Bay Area state-owned toll bridges: financing.

(1) Existing law specifies the powers and duties of the Department of Transportation, the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, and the Bay Area Toll Authority with respect to the collection and expenditure of toll revenue from the 7 state-owned toll bridges within the geographic jurisdiction of the commission. Existing law provides for a uniform $3 auto toll on those toll bridges. Under existing law, this toll revenue, other than revenue from a $1 seismic surcharge, is deposited into the Bay Area Toll Account and is controlled by the authority. Existing law requires the department and the authority to enter into a cooperative agreement that makes the department responsible for operating the bridges and for constructing improvements to the bridges financed by toll revenues. Existing law estimates the cost for seismic retrofit or replacement work on the Bay Area state-owned toll bridges at $4,637,000,000 and identifies funding to be made available for this purpose from various sources, including imposition of a $1 seismic surcharge. Under existing law, this surcharge revenue is deposited into the Toll Bridge Seismic Retrofit Account for expenditure by the department until completion of the seismic projects and payment of the bonds issued to finance those projects. Existing law specifies a particular single cable tower suspension replacement design for the eastern portion of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. Existing law prescribes a specified formula for paying the maintenance costs of the Bay Area state-owned toll bridges from the State Highway Account and toll revenues.

This bill would state the Legislature's findings that the amount previously identified for seismic retrofit and replacement of the state-owned toll bridges is insufficient and would identify additional funding sources of $3,600,000,000 for those projects, including revenues from an additional surcharge to be imposed by the authority, refinancing of existing bridge toll bonds, and various state funds, and would require a schedule to be adopted by the California Transportation Commission for allocation of those state funds. The bill would appropriate $75 million of specified Motor Vehicle Account funds and $125 million of other specified funds in that regard. The bill would authorize the authority to increase tolls on Bay Area state-owned toll bridges no earlier than January 1, 2007, for the purpose of completing the seismic program and for its other obligations under this bill, and would authorize the authority to refinance bridge toll bonds. The bill would require the existing seismic surcharge to be paid to the authority and deposited into the Bay Area Toll Account, except as necessary for payment of existing bond debt, and thereafter would require the department in that regard to transfer to the authority, for deposit into that account, all revenue from the surcharge. The bill would specify a formula for sharing of any future cost savings between the state and the authority and would require the authority to be responsible for any future cost overruns. The bill would require maintenance of each Bay Area state-owned toll bridge to be funded from toll revenues upon the completion of seismic work, other than from the seismic retrofit surcharge during the period that certain bond debt remains outstanding.

The bill would require the department and the authority to amend their cooperative agreement to incorporate certain oversight and control responsibilities of each agency with respect to the seismic and other bridge construction projects. The bill would require the department to obtain the prior approval of the authority for contract specifications and bid documents and would authorize the department to include provisions to maximize the number of bidders for toll bridge seismic retrofit and replacement projects and to encourage the timely completion of those projects. The bill would also require the authority and the department to form a Toll Bridge Program Oversight Committee to review those projects. The bill would impose various risk management duties on the department. The bill would require the department to regularly report to the Toll Bridge Program Oversight Committee and the Legislature on various matters. The bill would specify the rate of overhead costs that may be charged by the department to the authority for toll bridge work. By requiring the authority to perform additional duties, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(2) Existing law, until June 30, 2005, exempts toll bridge seismic projects from various requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act and the Public Contract Code.

This bill would provide that those exemptions shall continue to govern the toll bridge seismic program until that program is completed.

(3) The bill would enact other related provisions.

(4) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

(5) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 72 (AB 138) Committee on Budget State mandates.

(1) Existing law requires local elections officials to notify voters of the location of their polling places. These notices are required to inform the voter as to whether the polling place is accessible to the physically handicapped and inform the voter of his or her right to assistance in voting, if applicable.

This bill would instead authorize, but not require, local election officials to make these notices.

(2) Existing law requires, among other things, that election officials transmit to the Secretary of State in the prescribed manner prior to each election and within 35 days of the election, a copy of the results at the presidential primary for candidates for President to whom delegates of a political party are pledged.

This bill would repeal this requirement. It would state the intent of the Legislature to repeal the presidential primary's reimbursable state mandate imposed by a specified statute.

(3) Under the California Constitution, whenever the Legislature or a state agency mandates a new program or higher level of service on any local government, including school districts, the state is required to provide a subvention of funds to reimburse the local government, with specified exceptions. Existing law establishes a procedure for local governmental agencies to file a test claim for reimbursement of these costs with the Commission on State Mandates.

This bill would require the commission to review its statement of decision regarding the Peace Officer Procedural Bill of Rights test claim and make any modifications necessary to this decision to clarify whether the subject legislation imposed a mandate consistent with the California Supreme Court Decision in San Diego Unified School Dist. v. Commission on State Mandates and other applicable court decisions.

(4) Under the California Constitution, whenever the Legislature or a state agency mandates a new program or higher level of service on any local government, including school districts, the state is required to provide a subvention of funds to reimburse the local government, with specified exceptions.

Existing law provides that no local agency or school district is required to implement or give effect to any statute or executive order, or portion thereof that imposes a mandate during any fiscal year and for the period immediately following that fiscal year for which the Budget Act has not been enacted for the subsequent fiscal year if specified conditions are met, including that the statute or executive order, or portion thereof, has been specifically identified by the Legislature in the Budget Act for the fiscal year as being one for which reimbursement is not provided for that fiscal year.

Existing law also requires that the total amount due to each city, county, city and county, and special district, for which the state has determined, as of June 30, 2005, that reimbursement is required under the California Constitution for payable state-mandated claims incurred prior to the 2004-05 fiscal year, shall be appropriated for payment to these entities over a period of not more than 5 years, commencing with the Budget Act for the 2006-07 fiscal year and concluding with the Budget Act for the 2011-12 fiscal year.

This bill would extend the repayment date to these entities to the 2020-21 fiscal year.

This bill would provide that, under these provisions, the mandate also could be specifically identified by the Legislature in the Budget Act by reference to the commission's test claim number.

(5) Existing law establishes procedures for making reimbursement to local government whenever the Legislature or a state agency mandates a new program or higher level of service and defines a reasonable reimbursement methodology for this purpose.

Existing law establishes the Commission on State Mandates to determine whether costs mandated by the state require reimbursement to local agencies, including a school district, requires the commission to adopt parameters and guidelines for reimbursement to local agencies and school districts of claims for reimbursement for state mandates pursuant to statute, and requires the commission to not find costs mandated by the state for specified claims, if the commission, after a hearing, makes a specified finding.

This bill would provide that the commission shall not find costs mandated by the state if the commission finds that the statute or executive order imposes duties that are necessary to implement, reasonably within the scope of, or expressly included in a ballot measure.

(6) The Ralph M. Brown Act (Brown Act) requires that all meetings of a legislative body of a local agency be open and public, except that closed sessions may be held under prescribed circumstances. The act also requires that the agenda be posted and include a general description of items to be discussed in closed session, and that the legislative body of a local agency publicly report any action taken in closed session, as prescribed.

The California Constitution also provides that the people have the right of access to information concerning the conduct of the people's business, and therefore, the meetings of public bodies and the writings of public officials' agencies shall be open to public scrutiny.

This bill would state legislative findings that these agenda and closed session reporting requirements of the act are necessary to implement, and reasonably within the scope of, the above-described provision of the California Constitution. The bill would require the Commission on State Mandates to set-aside all decisions, reconsiderations, and parameters and guidelines on the Open Meetings Act and Brown Act Reform test claims. The bill would require the commission to amend the appropriate parameters and guidelines, and would require the Controller to revise the appropriate reimbursement claiming instructions, as necessary to be consistent with this bill.

(7) The Community Redevelopment Law requires the county auditor to prepare on or before August 15 of each year, a statement for each project area that provides the amount of disbursements made in the prior fiscal year pursuant to specified provisions relating to tax-increment revenues and related provisions.

This bill would repeal this requirement.

(8) The California Constitution provides that whenever the Legislature or any state agency mandates a new program or higher level of service on any local government, the state shall reimburse the local government. Existing statutory provisions establish procedures requiring the Commission on State Mandates to determine when reimbursement is required and providing for reimbursement.

This bill would require the Commission on State Mandates, no later than June 30, 2006, to reconsider its decision regarding whether the statutory reimbursement procedure constitutes a reimbursable mandate in light of federal and state statutes enacted and federal and state court decisions rendered since these statutes were enacted.

(9) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 73 (SB 63) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Education finance.

(1) Existing law requires a revenue limit to be calculated for each school district and each county superintendent of schools and requires the amount of the revenue limit to be adjusted for various factors. Existing law requires the Superintendent of Public Instruction to take into account the revenue limit of a school district and county superintendent of schools when apportioning funding to school districts and county superintendents of schools. Existing law reduces the revenue limit for the 2005-06 fiscal year by a deficit factor of 0.323% for both county superintendents of schools and school districts, and further reduces that revenue limit for those entities for the 2004-05 fiscal year by a deficit factor of 1.826%. Existing law requires the revenue limit computation for the 2006-07 fiscal year to be made as if the revenue limits for the 2003-04, 2004-05, and 2005-06 fiscal years had been determined without being reduced.

This bill would instead reduce the revenue limit for a county superintendent of schools and school district for the 2005-06 fiscal year by a deficit factor of 0.901%, reduce the revenue limit for a school district for the 2005-06 fiscal year by 0.909%, further reduce the revenue limit for each county superintendent of schools for the 2006-07 fiscal year by a 0.901% deficit factor, and for each school district by a 0.909% deficit factor, and, as to a county superintendent of schools and a school district, would postpone to the 2007-08 fiscal year the requirement that revenue limits be computed as if the reductions had not been made.

(2) Existing law establishes the After School Education and Safety Program to create incentives to establish locally driven before and after school enrichment programs for pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 to 9, inclusive.

Existing law states the intent of the Legislature that federally funded 21st Century Community Learning Centers complement the existing After School Education and Safety Program by utilizing the existing funding provided under that existing program, and to provide the local flexibility needed to implement the federal 21st Century Community Learning Centers program through direct grants. Existing law, in accordance with the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program contained in the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, allocates funds appropriated by the Budget Act of 2002 and prescribes requirements related to the allocation of funds, including that a core funding grant conform to the per pupil rate established by the After School Education and Safety Program, that funding for a grant be allocated in annual increments for a period not to exceed 5 years, that 2nd year core funding be fully allocated if a program achieves no less than 85% of the proposed pupil attendance, and that subsequent year core funding be fully allocated if a program achieves no less than 100% of the proposed pupil attendance.

This bill would make an appropriation by instead permitting 15% of the initial annual grant to be utilized for startup costs, and 15% of each annual grant for administrative costs, as specified.

(3) Existing law requires, for the 1990-91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, that moneys to be applied by the state for the support of school districts and community college districts be distributed in accordance with certain calculations governing the proration of those moneys among the 3 segments of public education. Existing law makes this provision inapplicable to the fiscal years between the 1992-93 and 2003-04 fiscal years, inclusive.

This bill would, in addition, make this provision inapplicable to the 2005-06 fiscal years, inclusive.

(4) Existing law requires the Commission on Teacher Credentialing to meet at least once each month in no fewer than 10 months each year and authorizes the chairperson of the commission, with the approval of the commission, to call additional meetings.

This bill would instead require the commission to meet as deemed appropriate and necessary by the chairperson and the executive committee to accomplish its duties, but to meet no fewer than once each quarter of the year.

(5) Existing law authorizes the Commission on Teacher Credentialing to approve any institution of higher education whose teacher education program meets the standards prescribed by the commission and the institution to recommend to the commission the issuance of credentials to persons who have successfully completed those programs.

This bill, in addition, would require an institution of higher education whose teacher education program has been accredited by the commission to approve and electronically submit credential applications to the commission, and would require the commission to grant credentials to these applicants based upon that approval.

(6) Existing law requires that each allegation of an act or omission by an applicant for, or holder of, a credential for which he or she may be subject to an adverse action be presented to the Committee of Credentials for an investigation, as specified.

This bill would provide that an applicant, as defined, who is subject to investigation by the committee is required to receive notice of the investigation and an opportunity to respond to the allegations in writing. The bill would require the committee to grant or recommend denial of the application based on the information discovered during the investigation and the applicant's response. The bill would provide that the applicant may appeal the committee's recommendation of a denial of the application.

(7) Existing law authorizes the Committee of Credentials to conduct an initial review, as provided, regarding an allegation of misconduct of an applicant for, or holder of, a credential. Existing law requires a formal review to be held no later than 6 months after the commencement of the initial review and requires the committee to make its recommendation in writing and to deliver a copy of the recommendation to the credential holder or applicant personally or sent to him or her by registered mail within 14 days after the formal review.

This bill would delete the requirement that the mail be registered.

(8) Existing law establishes the High Priority Schools Grant Program within the Public Schools Accountability Act of 1999. Existing law requires the Superintendent to allocate $400 per pupil, from funds made available for purposes of the program, including funds received for the federal Comprehensive School Reform Demonstration Program, to eligible schools for implementation of a school action plan approved pursuant to the program.

This bill would authorize a schoolsite, in the first year of participation, to receive a total of $33.33 per pupil for each month remaining in any fiscal year, beginning in the month immediately following the date of approval by the State Board of Education of the action plan, instead of $400 per pupil.

(9) Under the High Priority Schools Grant Program, the Superintendent, with the approval of the state board, is required to identify schools ranked in deciles 1 to 5, inclusive, on the Academic Performance Index (API), and to invite those schools to participate in the program. Under the existing program, in order to be eligible for funding from the program, a school is also required to participate in the Immediate Intervention/Underperforming Schools Grant Program.

This bill would require the Superintendent, if funds are available for this purpose, to invite a second cohort of schools identified pursuant to the above provisions to be ranked in deciles 1 to 5, inclusive, to participate in the High Priority Schools Grant Program beginning in the 2005-06 fiscal year, and would not require these schools to participate in the Immediate Intervention/Underperforming Schools Grant Program in order to be eligible for funding.

Existing law establishes a system of priority for participation in the program, with highest priority given to the schools ranked in API decile 1.

This bill would provide that schools either receiving or that have received funding pursuant to this program or the Immediate Intervention/Underperforming Schools Program are ineligible to participate in a subsequent cohort of schools funded pursuant to this program.

(10) Existing law requires the Superintendent to establish a procedure for the approval of applications and school actions plans pursuant to the High Priority Schools Grant Program.

This bill would establish deadlines for school districts to submit applications and school action plans to the Superintendent with respect to the second cohort of schools.

(11) Existing law establishes timeframes within which a school, after receipt of funding for implementation of the action plan, is required to meet its growth targets under the High Priority Schools Grant Program.

This bill would revise those dates, and would also establish growth target deadlines for a school that receives funds pursuant to the program during the 2005-06 or 2006-07 fiscal year.

(12) Existing law requires the Superintendent to develop, and the state board to approve, the guidelines for a request for proposal for an independent evaluator to prepare a comprehensive evaluation of the implementation, impact, costs, and benefits of the Immediate Intervention/Underperforming Schools Program and the High Achieving/Improving Schools Program, and to disseminate the results of that report to the Legislature, the Governor, and interested parties, as prescribed. Existing law requires biennial evaluations of those programs established under the Public Schools Accountability Act of 1999.

This bill would delete those provisions of existing law.

(13) Existing law requires school districts, county offices of education, and special education local plan areas to comply with state laws that conform to the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, in order that the state may qualify for federal funds available for the education of individuals with exceptional needs.

Existing law provides procedural safeguards, including mediation and due process hearings, for the resolution of complaints regarding alleged violations of the law relative to special education. Existing law requires the State Department of Education to contract with a single, nonprofit organization or entity to conduct mediation conferences and due process hearings.

This bill would instead require the department to enter into an interagency agreement with another state agency or contract with a nonprofit organization or entity to conduct mediation conferences and due process hearings. The bill would require the agency or contractor to provide hearings and mediations consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations, and any other applicable legal authorities. The bill would require the Superintendent of Public Instruction to adopt regulations that establish standards for components of this interagency agreement or contract, as specified in the bill.

(14) Existing law provides a method of determining the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas for the 1999-2000 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter.

This bill would provide a method of determining, for the 1999-2000 fiscal year to the 2004-05 fiscal year, inclusive, for the 2005-06 fiscal year, and for the 2006-07 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the statewide target amount per unit of average daily attendance for special education local plan areas for the purpose of computing a certain inflation adjustment and growth.

(15) Existing law adjusts funding for individuals with exceptional needs based on an incidence multiplier, as defined, for each special education local plan area.

This bill would continue the current special education incidence factor formula through the 2005-06 fiscal year.

(16) Existing law requires the Superintendent to, for the 2004-05 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, calculate for each special education local plan area a certain amount based on, among other things, the number of children and youth residing in foster family homes and foster family agencies.

This bill would also include those residing in small family homes.

Existing law also requires the above calculation to be based on the number of youth ages 18 through 21 referred by the State Department of Developmental Services who are residing in community care facilities licensed by the State Department of Social Services.

This bill would change the age reference to children and youth ages 3 through 21.

Existing law requires the State Department of Education to calculate, for each fiscal year, an out-of-home care funding amount for each special education local plan area, as provided.

This bill would revise that method of calculation to include the number of children and youth residing in small family homes and to include the number of children and youth ages 3 through 21 referred by the State Department of Developmental Services who are residing in licensed community care facilities.

(17) Existing law establishes the Student Aid Commission as the primary state agency for the administration of state-authorized student financial aid programs available to students attending all segments of postsecondary education. Existing law authorizes the commission to carry out prescribed tasks, and authorizes the commission to establish an auxiliary organization for the purpose of providing operational and administrative services for the commission's participation in the Federal Family Education Loan Program.

Under existing law, the operations of the auxiliary organization are required to be conducted in conformity with an operating agreement approved, for a period not to exceed 5 years, by the commission. Existing law requires the commission to provide a copy of the proposed operating agreement to the Department of Finance for its review and comment prior to the approval of that agreement.

This bill would also require the commission to provide a copy of the proposed operating agreement to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

(18) Existing law establishes an assumption program of loans for education, administered by the Student Aid Commission, under which any person enrolled in a participating institution of postsecondary education, or any person who agrees to participate in a teacher trainee or teacher internship program, is eligible to receive a conditional warrant for loan assumption, to be redeemed pursuant to a prescribed procedure upon becoming employed as a teacher. One of the conditions of eligibility in this loan assumption program is that the applicant agrees to teach in a public school for at least 3 consecutive academic years after obtaining a teaching credential. The program provides for a progressive assumption of the amount of the loan over 3 years of teaching service, up to a total loan assumption of $8,000.

This bill would establish the State Nursing Assumption Program of Loans for Education (SNAPLE), to be administered by the commission, under which any person enrolled in an institution of postsecondary education and participating in the loan assumption program established under the bill would be eligible to receive a conditional warrant for loan assumption, to be redeemed pursuant to the bill upon becoming employed as a full-time nursing faculty member at a California college or university. The bill would, among other things, establish eligibility requirements, limit each participant in the program to one loan assumption agreement, and provide for a progressive assumption of the amount of the loan over 3 years of teaching, up to a total loan assumption of $25,000. The bill would require the commission to report annually to the Legislature and would state the intent of the Legislature that, commencing with the 2006-07 fiscal year, funding necessary for the administration of the program shall be included within the annual budget act of the commission.

(19) Existing law authorizes the establishment of community college districts under the administration of community college governing boards, and authorizes these districts to provide instruction at community college campuses throughout the state. An item of the Budget Act of 2004 appropriated, among other amounts, $193,591,000 from the General Fund to the board of governors for allocation to community college districts for general apportionment funding.

Existing law requires the board of governors to provide recommendations, based on information to be developed in a study to be conducted by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, to the Legislature and the Governor regarding the design of a workable structure for the annual evaluation of district-level performance in meeting statewide educational outcome priorities, including the priorities consistent with the appropriation referenced above.

This bill would require that, as a condition of receiving specified funds in the annual Budget Act to encourage district-level accountability efforts, community college districts provide data, in a format and according to a schedule to be specified by the chancellor's office, for the purpose of an annual report that the bill would require the chancellor to provide to the Legislature, the Governor, the Department of Finance, and the Office of the Legislative Analyst. This data would also be provided for purposes of providing the means for both internal and external assessment of the district's educational offerings in meeting the high-priority educational goals of the state. The bill would authorize the chancellor to withhold, delay, or reduce specified funds provided in the annual Budget Act to encourage district-level accountability efforts.

(20) Under the California Constitution, whenever the Legislature or a state agency mandates a new program or higher level of service on any local government, including school districts, the state is required to provide a subvention of funds to reimburse the local government, with specified exceptions.

Existing law provides that a school district may not be required to implement or give effect to a statute imposing a state mandate for a specified period if it is identified by the Legislature in the Budget Act as being suspended. Existing law provides that this suspension provision is applicable only to specified mandates.

This bill would additionally make this suspension provision applicable to state mandates relating to certain grand jury proceedings.

(21) Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to license community care facilities, including facilities that provide foster care services for children. Existing law regulates foster family homes and provides for their licensure by certified foster family agencies, the county, or the State Department of Social Services.

Existing law requires the Department of Child Support Services to authorize the quarterly transfer of any portion of an amount equivalent to the "state share of collections" attributable to the enforcement of parental fiscal liability and requires the department to authorize the transfer of any portion of that amount for any particular fiscal year exceeding $3,750,000 to the Treasurer for deposit in the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund, except as specified. Under existing law, if sufficient moneys are available in the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund, up to $3,000,000 shall be allocated for the support of foster parent training programs conducted by community colleges, and the chancellor is required to use those funds exclusively for foster parent training, as specified.

This bill would provide that the above provisions of existing law are operative through the 2004-05 fiscal year and, thereafter, operative only if specified in the annual Budget Act, thereby deleting the above-described appropriation after the 2004-05 fiscal year.

Existing law requires, in addition to the foster parent training provided pursuant to the above-described existing law, that foster family agencies supplement the community college training by providing a program of training for their certified foster families.

This bill would eliminate from these provisions reference to the above-described existing law authorizing a quarterly transfer of any portion of an amount equivalent to the "state share of collections" and the allocation of up to $3,000,000 from the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund for the support of foster parent training programs conducted by community colleges, and would require foster family agencies to provide a program of training for their certified foster parents, in addition to the foster parent training provided by community colleges.

(22) Under existing law, the Public Utilities Commission has regulatory authority over public utilities, including telephone corporations. Existing law authorizes the commission to fix just and reasonable rates and charges. Existing law establishes the California High-Cost Fund-A Administrative Committee Fund, the California High-Cost Fund-B Administrative Committee Fund, the Universal Lifeline Telephone Service Trust Administrative Committee Fund, the Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program Administrative Committee Fund, the Payphone Service Providers Committee Fund, and the California Teleconnect Fund Administrative Committee Fund in the State Treasury.

Existing law requires that the moneys in these funds may be expended pursuant to specified law, upon appropriation in the annual Budget Act.

Until January 1, 2006, existing law provides that moneys in each of the above-described funds may not be appropriated, or in any other manner transferred or otherwise diverted, to any other fund or entity, except to accomplish specified telecommunications universal service programs. Commencing on January 1, 2006, existing law requires moneys in each of the above-described funds may not be appropriated, or in any other manner transferred or otherwise diverted, to any other entity or fund.

This bill, in addition, would authorize the appropriation, transfer, or diversion of moneys in these funds to another fund or entity pursuant to existing law that authorizes the State Librarian to provide specified toll-free telephone services for registered patrons of the federally designated regional libraries for the blind and physically handicapped, to provide toll-free telephone access to telephonic reading systems for individuals with print disabilities who are registered patrons of the federally designated regional libraries for the blind and physically handicapped, or to operate a telephonic reading system or to fund the operation of telephonic reading systems operated by qualifying entities, or both, pursuant to an appropriation in the annual Budget Act and in accordance with the above-described funds, the telephonic reading system is to be funded from the Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program Administrative Committee Fund.

(23) This bill would require the Superintendent to reduce, by $1,126,000, funding for basic aid school districts from categorical education funds that are appropriated in the Budget Act of 2005. The bill would require the Superintendent by June 26, 2006, to report to the Controller and the Director of Finance the amount to be reduced from each categorical education program and identify the corresponding item of appropriation in the Budget Act of 2005. The bill would provide that on June 30, 2006, the amounts appropriated by those items are reduced by the amounts reported by the Superintendent. The bill would require that the reductions be reductions in the amounts appropriated for purposes of satisfying the minimum annual funding obligation for school districts and community colleges required under the California Constitution for the 2005-06 fiscal year.

(24) This bill would provide that the cost-of-living adjustment for specified items of the Budget Act of 2005 is 4.23%, and that all funds appropriated in those items are in lieu of the amounts that would otherwise be appropriated pursuant to any other law.

(25) This bill would make specified funds appropriated pursuant to the Budget Act of 2004 available for liquidation through July 31, 2007, and the Budget Act of 2005 available for liquidation through July 31, 2008. The bill would revert the funds unexpended after those dates to the Proposition 98 Reversion Account.

(26) This bill would appropriate $605,094,000 from the General Fund to the State Department of Education for expenditure during the 2006-07 fiscal year, in specified amounts, for apprentice programs, supplemental instruction, regional occupational centers and programs, home-to-school transportation, the Gifted and Talented Pupil Program, the Targeted Instructional Improvement Block Grant, adult education, community day schools, categorical programs for charter schools, the School Safety Program, and the Pupil Retention Block Grant, and $200,000,000 would be appropriated for the 2006-07 fiscal year to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for general apportionments, as specified in the Budget Act of 2005.

The bill would appropriate $16,811,000 for the 1995-96, 1996-97, and 2002-03 fiscal years to the Controller to pay for prior year state obligations for K-12 and community college mandate claims and interest, as provided. The bill would provide that these funds are deemed to be in partial satisfaction of certain outstanding balances and in lieu of certain amounts.

The bill would provide that for the purposes of satisfying the minimum annual funding obligation for school districts and community college districts required under the California Constitution, these amounts are General Fund revenues appropriated for school districts and community college districts.

(27) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 74 (AB 139) Committee on Budget State government.

(1) Existing law creates various boards and other entities under the jurisdiction of the Department of Consumer Affairs with certain licensing and regulatory functions relative to various professions and vocations. Existing law, with respect to the funds created for certain of these entities, provides that the money in those funds is continuously appropriated for particular purposes.

This bill would delete the continuous appropriations applicable to certain funds. The bill would make other related changes.

(2) Existing law, the Medical Practice Act, regulates the practice of medicine in this state. Existing law establishes the Medically Underserved Account in the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California. Under existing law, specified moneys in the account are continuously appropriated to repay loans per agreements with physicians who practice in underserved areas.

This bill would continuously appropriate all funds in the account for these purposes.

(3) Existing law authorizes the Attorney General and other public prosecutors to bring an action for relief from an act of unfair competition, as defined. Under existing law, a civil penalty may be assessed in the action that is designated for the exclusive use of a public prosecutor, including the Attorney General, for enforcing consumer protection laws.

This bill would create the Unfair Competition Law Fund and would require that the civil penalty recovered by the Attorney General in unfair competition and unfair business practice actions be deposited into the fund and expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for investigation and prosecution of these actions, and various other activities.

(4) Existing law regulates persons engaged in the business of making or negotiating deferred deposit transactions and requires every check casher to post a complete and detailed schedule of all fees for cashing checks, drafts, money orders, or other commercial paper, and the sale or issuance of money orders.

This bill would additionally require a check casher who cashes checks for the same person in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 within one calendar year, as provided, to file an informational return with the Franchise Tax Board, as specified. This bill would impose civil penalties on persons who fail to file these returns or fail to supply all of the information required by these returns. In the case of willful failures, this bill would make these failures a new criminal felony and would thereby impose a state-mandated local program.

(5) Existing law provides for the creation, maintenance, and authority of the Sixth District Agricultural Association, which is known as the California Science Center, and which is a tax-exempt organization and instrumentality of the state.

This bill would authorize the center to enter into a site lease and lease-purchase agreement with the California Science Center Foundation for the purpose of constructing and funding of the Phase II Project of the center, as specified.

(5.5) The Enterprise Zone Act requires the Department of Housing and Community Development to administer the act and to designate no more than 42 enterprise zones at any one time that may be proposed by a city, county, or city and county from applications selected on the basis of the most effective, innovative, and comprehensive regulatory, tax, program, and other incentives in attracting private sector investment in the zone proposed. The act also requires the department to provide technical assistance to the enterprise zones and authorizes the department to establish, charge, and collect a fee as reimbursement for the costs of its administration of the act.

Existing law allows a credit against the net tax, as defined, to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the taxable year.

Existing law requires the Department of Housing and Community Development, until July 1, 2006, to assess an enterprise zone a fee of not more than $10 for each application it accepts for issuance of a tax credit certificate.

---

This bill would extend the assessment of this $10 fee until January 1, 2007.

(6) Existing law generally sets forth the duties of the Director of Homeland Security in overseeing homeland security activities in the state.

Existing law sets forth the duties of the State Department of Health Services in allocating specified federal funds for activities related to bioterrorism preparedness and response.

This bill would require the director, in collaboration with the department, to annually report to the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairperson of the budget committee of each house of the Legislature, on their respective expenditures of federal homeland security and bioterrorism funds.

(7) Existing law requires generally that moneys received from the disposition of state property shall be paid into the General Fund.

This bill instead would require that the net proceeds, as defined, that are received from any state real property disposition be paid into the Deficit Recovery Bond Retirement Sinking Fund Subaccount, a continuously appropriated fund, until the bonds issued pursuant to the Economic Recovery Bond Act are retired, thereby making an appropriation, and thereafter be deposited in the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties. The bill would authorize the Director of Finance to approve loans from the General Fund to the Property Acquisition Law Money Account, which would be created by this bill and would be available for expenditure by the Department of General Services upon appropriation by the Legislature. The bill would provide that these changes are effective retroactively to November 3, 2004.

(8) Existing law authorizes the Director of General Services, with the consent of the state agency involved, to let for a period of not to exceed 5 years, any real or personal property that belongs to the state, subject to specified conditions. Any money received in connection with these leases is required to be deposited in the General Fund for appropriation to the department for specified purposes.

This bill instead would require that any money received in connection with these leases be deposited in the Property Acquisition Law Money Account and be available to the department upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(8.5) Existing law provides that no state agency is required to use the Office of State Publishing for its printing needs until the effective date of the Budget Act of 2005 or July 1, 2005, whichever is later and this provision of existing law is repealed on January 1, 2006.

This bill would continue to provide that no state agency is required to use the Office of State Publishing for its printing needs until the effective date of the Budget Act of 2006 or July 1, 2006, whichever is later, and would repeal this provision on January 1, 2007.

(9) Existing law generally makes the Attorney General responsible for representing state agencies in litigation matters. Under existing law, revenues in the Litigation Deposits Fund are continuously appropriated to the Department of Justice for litigation purposes.

This bill would create the Legal Services Revolving Fund and require state agency payments for legal services rendered by the Attorney General to be deposited in that fund. The bill would authorize the Attorney General to expend the money in the fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for litigation activities. The bill would further provide that revenues transferred to the Legal Services Revolving Fund from the Litigation Deposits Fund may be expended by the Department of Justice only if approved by the Department of Finance.

(10) Existing law requires the Controller, after work is performed, services are rendered, or materials or equipment are furnished by one state agency to another state agency through the advancement or transfer of funds, to transfer the amount ordered by the Director of General Services and adjust the accounts relative to the advancements or transfers to credit the appropriate fund or appropriation.

This bill would require the Controller, instead, to process transfers from time to time as requested by the state agency that performed the work.

(11) Under existing law, the Supervision of Trustees and Fundraisers for Charitable Purposes Act governs charitable corporations, unincorporated associations trustees, commercial fundraisers, fundraising counsel, commercial coventurers, and other legal entities who hold or solicit property for charitable purposes over which the Attorney General has enforcement and supervisory powers. Under the act, the Attorney General is also required to establish and maintain a register of charitable corporations, unincorporated associations, and trustees subject to the act and copies of specified financial reports required to be filed under the act.

This bill would establish the Registry of Charitable Trusts Fund in the State Treasury, as specified. The bill would require that moneys in the fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, be used by the Attorney General solely to operate and maintain the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts and provide public access via the Internet to reports filed with the Attorney General.

(12) Existing law authorizes the Department of General Services to procure prescription drugs on behalf of specified state agencies through bulk purchasing and to investigate and implement other strategies to achieve the greatest savings on prescription drugs with prescription drug manufacturers and wholesalers.

This bill would state the intent of the Legislature that the Department of General Services, University of California, and the Public Employees' Retirement System regularly meet and share information regarding each agency's procurement of prescription drugs in an effort to identify and implement opportunities for cost savings in connection with this procurement. It would require the department to annually develop a work plan and to report, no later than January 10, 2006, and annually thereafter, to the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the chairs of the fiscal committees of the Legislature on any joint activities of these agencies in connection with procurement of prescription drugs and any resulting cost savings.

(13) Existing law authorizes the State Public Works Board to issue bonds, notes, or other obligations to finance the acquisition or construction of a public building, facility, or equipment as authorized by the Legislature in the total amount authorized by the Legislature, and any additional amount authorized by the board to pay the cost of financing. The additional cost may include, among other things, interest during acquisition or construction of the public building, facility, or equipment.

This bill would additionally include interest prior to and for a period of 6 months after construction of the public building, facility, or equipment within the additional cost of financing that the board may authorize.

The bill would specify that notwithstanding any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, any specific grant of authority on or after June 30, 2001, the board may issue bonds, notes, or bond anticipation notes for any and all phases of specified types of capital outlay projects.

(14) Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2, as submitted to the Legislature on May 9, 2005 (GRP 2), created the Department of Technology Services Revolving Fund in the State Treasury, which is continuously appropriated for specified purposes with respect to the administration of a Department of Technology Services.

This bill would, as of the date that GRP 2 goes into effect, provide that these provisions would not be operative. The bill would, as of that date, instead create the fund in the State Treasury for these purposes, subject to appropriation by the Legislature.

(15) Existing law establishes the Trial Court Trust Fund, the proceeds of which are apportioned for the purposes of funding trial court operations. Existing law specifies certain fees that are to be collected in a special account in the county treasury and transmitted monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

This bill would expand the fees to which that provision applies, to include, among other things, court transfer filing fees, hearing date postponement filing fees, appeals filing fees, judgment debtor filing fees, court order violation fees, judgment creditor filing fees, and contempt of court fees.

The bill would also delete language contained in that provision crediting amounts transmitted from certain recording and indexing fees during a specified time frame against the total amount the county is required to pay to the state.

(16) Existing law specifies that money in the Trial Court Trust Fund is to be invested in the Surplus Money Investment Fund and all interest earned is to be allocated to the Trial Court Trust Fund semiannually.

This bill would instead require that interest earned to be allocated quarterly.

(17) Existing law provides that certain court fees and fines that are not subject to a local revenue sharing agreement or practice, as specified, except as to costs incurred by and services provided by the superior court which are transmitted monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund, are required to be deposited in a special account in the county treasury. Existing law provides, until July 1, 2005, for the distribution of the revenue from these fees and fines.

This bill would provide for the distribution of these fees and fines commencing July 1, 2005.

(18) Existing law provides, commencing January 1, 2004, for a county-by-county transfer to the Trial Court Trust Fund each fiscal year of the difference between $31,000,000 and the amount already transmitted to the Trial Court Trust Fund for costs incurred by and services provided by the superior court as described in (1).

This bill would provide, commencing July 1, 2005, that the counties' obligation to remit to the Trial Court Trust Fund each fiscal year the amount described above shall expire. Instead, the counties would be obligated to remit reduced amounts, as specified, to the Trial Court Trust Fund each fiscal year through the 2008-09 fiscal year, in accordance with specified procedures.

The bill would impose new administrative duties on the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) and the California State Association of Counties (CSAC), including, among other things, determining the portion of these reduced amounts to be paid by each county. The AOC and the CSAC would be required, by December 31, 2005, to complete an initial review of the impact upon individual counties and courts of the above changes in revenue distribution and payment obligations for the purpose of correcting inequities, as specified, and, by June 30, 2006, to agree upon a methodology to determine whether a reduction in the counties' obligation should be recommended to the Legislature.

This bill would require counties that have not paid amounts billed for the 2003-04 or 2004-05 fiscal year to pay the amounts still owing to the Trial Court Trust Fund by September 1, 2005, and would provide for the calculation of penalties for late payments.

(19) Existing law requires, on or before January 1, 2005, the AOC and the CSAC to jointly propose to the Legislature a long-term revenue allocation schedule, to take effect on July 1, 2005, for specified fees and fines.

This bill would delete this provision.

(20) Under existing law, a court may impose a civil assessment of up to $250 against a criminal defendant who fails to appear in court, as specified.

This bill would increase the maximum amount that may be assessed under that provision to $300. The bill would also require each court and county to maintain the collection program that was in effect on July 1, 2005, unless otherwise agreed to by those entities. The bill would further require the court to deposit the money collected under that provision as soon as practicable into a bank account specified by the AOC, for transmission to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund in accordance with specified procedures.

(21) Existing law requires, commencing in the 1999-2000 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, each county to remit specified amounts to the Trial Court Trust Fund, including an amount based upon the amount of fine and forfeiture revenue remitted to the state pursuant to specified provisions during the 1994-95 fiscal year.

This bill would, commencing July 1, 2005, reduce each county's annual fine and forfeiture remittance by the amount that the county received from the civil assessments described in (20), after deducting the cost of collecting those civil assessments, in the 2003-04 fiscal year. The bill would require the AOC and CSAC to determine the amount of this reduction for each county, as specified.

(22) Existing law imposes a surcharge of $20 for court security in addition to the total court fees collected pursuant to specified provisions and also authorizes the collection of an additional surcharge in certain cases filed from January 1, 2004, to June 30, 2005, inclusive.

This bill would extend that additional surcharge until June 30, 2006, as specified.

(23) Until January 1, 2008, or earlier, as specified, the Rural Health Care Equity Program, as administered by the Department of Personnel Administration, provides subsidies and reimbursements for certain health care premiums and health care costs incurred by state employees and annuitants in rural areas in which there is no board-approved health maintenance organization plan available for enrollment. Moneys in the program are disbursed to reimburse eligible employees for, among other things, a portion or all of his or her deductible, coinsurance, and other out-of-pocket health-related expenses that would otherwise be covered if the employee and his or her family members were enrolled in a board-approved health maintenance organization.

This bill would continuously appropriate an unspecified sum from the General Fund to reimburse those eligible employees for a portion or all of his or her out-of-pocket health-related expenses in excess of $1,500 per fiscal year, not to exceed a total of $15,336,000 for all fiscal years combined.

(24) Existing law, the Housing and Emergency Shelter Trust Fund Act of 2002, transfers $910,000,000 from the money deposited in the Housing and Emergency Shelter Trust Fund from the sale of bonds to the Multifamily Housing Program, with certain exceptions, including that $45,000,000 of that amount is required to be transferred to the Preservation Opportunity Fund and is continuously appropriated for the preservation of at-risk housing pursuant to the Preservation Opportunity Program, a short-term capital loan program established to ensure that the supply of affordable housing is not depleted by the conversion of existing government-assisted rental housing to market-rate housing. Existing law requires that money received in repayment of loans from the Preservation Opportunity Fund, including interest from that money, be deposited in the Preservation Opportunity Fund. Any funds not encumbered for the Preservation Opportunity Program within 30 months of their transfer to the Preservation Opportunity Fund revert to the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

This bill would, instead, require that all money received in repayment of loans made under the Preservation Opportunity Program be deposited into the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund for use in the Multifamily Housing Program, except for $5,000,000. By adding a new source of revenue for deposit into this continuously appropriated fund, the bill would make an appropriation. The $5,000,000 remaining in the Preservation Opportunity Fund and subsequent interest payments on loans made from this amount is required to be made available for the purposes of the Preservation Opportunity Program through at least December 31, 2008, at which time the California Housing Finance Agency may, based on an analysis of need, either continue to make the funds available for the Preservation Opportunity Program or transfer the funds to the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund for use in the Multifamily Housing Program, thereby constituting an appropriation.

(25) Existing law requires the Department of Housing and Community Development to make matching grants and loans from the Joe Serna, Jr. Farmworker Housing Grant Fund, for specified purposes, and authorizes matching grants and loans to be made from the fund for other purposes.

Existing law, the Housing and Emergency Shelter Trust Fund Act of 2002, authorizes, for purposes of financing various existing housing and code enforcement programs, the issuance of bonds in the amount of $2,100,000,000 pursuant to the State General Obligation Bond Law. Existing law provides that $25,000,000 of these funds be used for projects that serve migratory farmworkers and specifically authorizes the department to receive

$5,500,000 of these funds for the purpose of reconstructing migrant centers operated through the Office of Migrant Services that would otherwise be scheduled for closure due to health or safety considerations or are in need of significant repairs to ensure the health and safety of the residents.

This bill would increase the amount of the $25,000,000 appropriation that the department may use from $5,300,000 to $15,000,000 and would require the department to make at least $8,159,000 of that amount available for flexible loans and grants for projects that serve migratory agricultural workers under a program provided for under the Joe Serna, Jr. Farmworker Housing Grant Program that uses innovative, cost-effective mechanisms to provide migrant farmworkers with affordable, durable, low-maintenance housing options, as specified. By requiring the department to use these funds for a new purpose, the bill would make an appropriation. The bill would declare that the changes made by this act are consistent with the Housing and Emergency Trust Fund Act of 2002 and the Joe Serna, Jr. Farmworker Housing Grant Fund.

(26) Existing law authorizes the Department of Housing and Community Development to increase rents for a migrant farm labor center assisted by the Office of Migrant Services above those charged at other such centers under specified circumstances.

This bill would prohibit a rent increase above 30% of the average annualized household incomes of residents of any such facility without legislative authorization.

(27) Existing law requires the Labor Commissioner to, after investigation and determination that wages or benefits are due to an unpaid worker, collect the wages or benefits on behalf of the worker, as specified. Existing law requires that whenever the balance in the Industrial Relations Unpaid Wage Fund is in excess of $200,000 the Labor Commissioner transmit the excess to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund.

This bill would instead require the Controller, at the end of each fiscal year, to transfer to the General Fund the unencumbered balance of the fund, less 6 months of expenditures as determined by the Director of Finance.

(28) Existing law requires the Department of Veterans Affairs, in voluntary cooperation with the Shasta County Board of Supervisors and the boards of supervisors of specified northern California counties, to design, develop, and construct the Northern California Veterans Cemetery. Existing law requires that all moneys received for the design, development, and construction of the cemetery are to be placed in the Northern California Veterans Cemetery Master Development Fund, a continuously appropriated fund. Existing law provides that specified moneys received for the maintenance of the cemetery are to be deposited to the credit of the Northern California Veterans Cemetery Perpetual Maintenance Fund for expenditure, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

This bill would authorize the administrator of the Northern California Veterans Cemetery to accept donations for the maintenance and beautification of the cemetery, as provided, and would provide that these donations are to be deposited to the credit of the Northern California Veterans Cemetery Perpetual Maintenance Fund. This bill would require that all donations deposited to that fund for the maintenance and beautification of the cemetery be continuously appropriated to the department.

This bill would also provide that any proposal for the construction, placement, or donation of monuments or memorials to the cemetery are to be reviewed by an advisory committee, as specified, and that all proposals are subject to the approval of the director of the department.

(29) Existing law provides that expenditures for the maintenance of the Northern California Veterans Cemetery may not exceed $600,000 per calendar year.

This bill would instead provide that the total expenditures for both the operations and the maintenance of the cemetery should not exceed $600,000 per fiscal year, as appropriated in the annual Budget Act.

(30) Existing law requires each state department or agency awarding a contract or procuring goods or services, and each local agency receiving state funds, to report annually to the Governor and Legislature on the level of participation by specified business enterprises in contract and procurement activities. Existing law requires the Department of General Services to submit an annual report to the Legislature with respect to, among other things, procurement categories, construction contract categories, and contracts awarded to specified business enterprises. Existing law requires the Department of Veteran's Affairs to make an annual report to the Governor and Legislature regarding the participation by specified business enterprises in contracts with the department, requires awarding departments to identify steps to meet goals of contracting, and requires the Department of General Services to prepare a summary regarding those goals. Existing law authorizes the Department of General Services, relative to certain contracts, to use a negotiation process if certain conditions exist.

This bill would repeal all of those provisions as of January 1, 2007. This bill would, commencing January 1, 2007, require the department, as defined, to make available a report on contracting activity containing specified information, as provided.

(31) Existing law requires the money in the Hazardous Waste Reduction Loan Account to be expended by the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency to make loans for equipment, projects, or facilities for the reduction of hazardous waste.

This bill would repeal the provisions authorizing that account and would transfer the amount remaining in the Hazardous Waste Reduction Loan Account on January 1, 2006, to the Chrome Plating Pollution Prevention Fund, which this bill would create in the State Treasury, and would require the money in the account be expended by the agency, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

The bill would require any amounts paid to the state for a loan issued pursuant to those former provisions to be transferred to the fund.

The repeal of that account and transfer the money to the fund would become operative only if legislation is enacted and becomes operative on or after June 1, 2005, but before July 1, 2006, that requires the funds so transferred to be expended for environmental control technologies for chrome and metal plating related activities.

(32) Under existing law, the Public Utilities Commission has regulatory authority over public utilities and can establish its own procedures, subject to statutory limitations or directions and constitutional requirements of due process. Existing law directs the Public Utilities Commission to require specified highway carriers for whom the commission does not establish minimum or maximum rates to pay specified reduced fees, and authorizes the commission to increase the fees on other carriers whose minimum or maximum rates are established by the commission, up to a maximum of  $1/2\%$  of reported gross operating revenue, if necessary, to maintain adequate financing for the purposes of the Transportation Rate Fund. The fees are deposited in the Transportation Rate Fund and are continuously appropriated to the commission for specified regulatory purposes.

This bill would permit the commission to increase these fees on carriers for whom the commission establishes minimum or maximum rates, up to a maximum of 0.7%, thereby making an appropriation.

(33) The Sales and Use Tax Law requires any person whose estimated tax liability averages $20,000 or more per month to remit amounts due by electronic funds transfer, as provided. That law imposes specified penalties with respect to payment by electronic funds transfer. That law also imposes specified penalties with respect to nonpayment of taxes in general.

This bill would require any person whose estimated monthly tax liability averages $10,000 or more to remit amounts due by electronic funds transfer, as provided.

(34) Existing income and corporation tax laws impose a penalty of not more than $5,000 on any person that, among other things, fails to file a return or to supply any information required, or make, render, sign, or verify any false or fraudulent return or statement, or supply any false or fraudulent information.

This bill would impose the penalty only if those violations occur repeatedly over a period of 2 years or more and result in an estimated delinquent tax liability of at least $15,000.

(35) Existing income and corporation tax laws provide, in the case of willful failure to pay estimated taxes, that the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine or imprisonment, as provided.

This bill would provide that the misdemeanor, fine, or imprisonment provisions do not apply to any person who is mentally incompetent or suffers from dementia, Alzheimer's disease, or a similar condition.

(36) Existing tax laws impose various taxes and fees, and authorize the Franchise Tax Board to administer the assessment, audit, and collection of various taxes and fees.

This bill would require the Franchise Tax Board to suspend or disbar a person from practice, as defined, before the Franchise Tax Board, as provided, if that person has been suspended or disbarred from practice, as defined, before the United States Department of the Treasury, and would require a person who practices before the Franchise Tax Board and is suspended or disbarred from practice before the United States Department of the Treasury to notify the Franchise Tax Board of the suspension or disbarment in writing within 45 days of the issuance of the final order by that department.

(37) Existing property tax law requires the county auditor, in each fiscal year, to allocate property tax revenue to local jurisdictions in accordance with specified formulas and procedures, and generally requires that each jurisdiction be allocated an amount equal to the total of the amount of revenue allocated to that jurisdiction in the prior fiscal year, subject to certain modifications, and that jurisdiction's portion of the annual tax increment, as defined. Existing law also provides, commencing with the 2004-05 fiscal year, for allocations of ad valorem property tax revenue to each city, county, and city and county in the form of a "vehicle license fee adjustment amount," calculated by the Controller in accordance with statute. Existing law requires the Controller to determine the "vehicle license fee adjustment amount" for each city, county, and city and county for the 2005-06 fiscal year by September 1, 2005.

This bill would instead require the Controller to calculate the "vehicle license fee adjustment amount" for each city, county, and city and county by October 15, 2005, in consultation with the Bureau of State Audits.

(38) Existing law imposes various duties upon the Employment Development Department, including the implementation of various programs with respect to workforce training and development.

This bill would, to the extent that funds are appropriated for this purpose in the annual Budget Act, authorize the Employment Development Department to award grants to regional collaboratives for the creation of regional nursing simulation laboratories, as provided, that will provide additional nursing students with access to clinical education facilities. This bill would limit the amount of any grant so made to $250,000.

(39) Existing law authorizes, upon adoption by the board of supervisors, a county to establish an At-Risk Youth Early Intervention Program designed to assess and serve families with children who have chronic behavioral problems that place the child at risk of becoming a ward of the juvenile court.

This bill would establish a schedule for the allocation of funds to county probation departments from funds appropriated by the Legislature to provide services for children who are habitual truants, runaways, at risk of being wards of the juvenile court, or under juvenile court supervision or the supervision of the probation department, and would require the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to administer the funding allocations.

(40) Existing law requires that the investigation and enforcement of the certain provisions of law by the Attorney General and the Commissioner of Corporations be accomplished without duplication of effort. Existing law further provides that to the extent that the Attorney General exercises that authority, it shall be done using existing resources, and no future budget augmentations be made for that purpose.

This bill would revise those provisions to provide that to the extent the Attorney General exercises that authority, no General Fund budget augmentations would be made for that purpose.

(40.5) Under existing law, the Franchise Tax Board is authorized to prescribe all rules and regulations necessary for the enforcement of the Personal Income Tax Law and the Corporation Tax Law.

This bill would authorize the board to continue to implement the ReadyReturn pilot program, available to specified taxpayers, for the 2005-06 fiscal year and would require the pilot program to be operated in the same manner it was operated during the 2004-05 fiscal year.

(40.7) The Budget Act of 2005 appropriates specified amounts from the General Fund for local assistance to be paid by the State Controller to local governments for the costs of homicide trials, with specified limitations on these reimbursements.

This bill would specify that these funds shall be available for 100% of any extraordinary costs incurred by the County of Stanislaus related to a specified homicide trial.

(40.8) Existing property tax law authorizes grants, under the State-County Property Tax Administration Grant Program, to provide funding for the local administration of property taxes for those counties that elect to receive the grants.

This bill would suspend those grants for the 2006-07 fiscal year.

(41) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

(42) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 75 (AB 145) Committee on Budget Budget Act of 2005: Court fees.

(1) Existing law establishes various court fees to be collected for services provided in conjunction with the operation of the courts, as specified.

This bill would enact the Uniform Civil Fees and Standard Fee Schedule Act of 2005, which would, as of January 1, 2006, establish a uniform schedule of filing fees and other civil fees for the superior courts. Among other things, the bill would generally increase the filing fees for civil actions and proceedings, including, but not limited to, those fees related to small claims court, motions, appeals, judgments, the filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the superior court, in a limited civil case, and in complex cases, and in family law and probate matters, and fees for various certifications, recordings, filings, and the authentication of documents. The bill also would authorize the court to charge a reasonable fee for videoconferencing, providing services or products, if approved by the Judicial Council, and handling funds held in trust for noncourt parties or entities. The bill would provide that none of these civil fees may be changed before January 1, 2008, except as specified.

The bill would require the Judicial Council to establish a Task Force on Civil Fees to make recommendations on the effectiveness of the uniform fee structure and other fee related issues on or before February 1, 2007. The bill would revise and increase other duties of the Judicial Council, including duties relating to the adoption of a schedule for the allocation of funds to trial courts for the development and implementation of automated systems.

The bill would further revise and recast provisions relating to the distribution of the above-described fees, affecting, among other things, dispute resolution programs, court reporter services, small claims advisory services, and law library funds, and would make specified findings and declarations with regard to the above-described provisions.

The bill would shift various duties relating to the administration of court fees and would make additional technical and conforming changes.

(2) Existing law authorizes certain surcharges to be added to specified court-related fees, including, among others, a state surcharge of 10%, until July 1, 2007, and an additional surcharge of $20 to ensure and maintain adequate funding for court security, until July 1, 2005, or the enactment of a uniform filing fee, and provides for these amounts to be transmitted to the Trial Court Trust Fund.

This bill would revise these provisions to make them operative until December 31, 2005.

(3) Existing law requires, for the purposes of funding trial court operations, each board of supervisors to establish in the county treasury a Trial Court Operations Fund, into which all funds appropriated in the Budget Act and allocated and reallocated to each court in the county by the Judicial Council shall be deposited.

This bill would authorize the Judicial Council to establish bank accounts for the superior courts and to require the courts to deposit moneys for trial court operations, and any other moneys under the control of the courts, into those accounts, as specified. The bill would further provide that money, excluding restitution to victims, that has been deposited with a superior court, or that a superior court is holding in trust for the lawful owner, in a court bank account or in a court trust account in a county treasury, that remains unclaimed for 3 years, is the property of the superior court if not claimed after specified notice and if no verified complaint is filed and served.

The bill would impose a state-mandated local program by requiring new duties of local officers.

(4) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

(5) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 76 (SB 62) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Transportation.

(1) Existing law provides that the Department of Finance may establish the accounting and reporting system used to determine the expenditures, cash needs, and balance of the State Highway Account, the Public Transportation Account, the Toll Bridge Seismic Retrofit Account, and the Traffic Congestion Relief Fund.

This bill would instead authorize the department to adjust the budgeting, accounting, and reporting system for those accounts so that unliquidated encumbrances are not reflected in the fund balance or financial statements.

(2) Existing law, Article XIX B of the California Constitution, dedicates certain gasoline sales tax revenues to transportation purposes, unless this provision is suspended by a 2/3 vote of the Legislature. Existing law, prior to Article XIX B, had provided for the transfer of certain General Fund revenues attributable to the sales tax on gasoline to the Transportation Congestion Relief Fund for expenditure on specified transportation capital improvement projects. Existing law authorizes money in the Transportation Congestion Relief Fund derived from the General Fund and not immediately needed for expenditures on projects to be loaned to the General Fund through the annual Budget Act, subject to a requirement that the loaned funds be repaid when needed for projects as determined by the Director of Finance, but not later than June 30, 2006.

This bill would delete the requirement for the loaned funds to be repaid by June 30, 2006. The bill would instead require the loaned funds to be repaid from proceeds of bonds sold by the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank as a result of the securitization of moneys paid by certain Indian tribes that have gaming compacts with the state. To the extent that the proceeds from those bonds are insufficient to repay the loans, the bill would require repayment of any remaining loan amount from future tribal gaming revenues, additional securitizations against those revenues, or the General Fund.

(3) Existing law provides for payment to the state of certain amounts under tribal-state gaming compacts, and provides for the issuance of bonds secured by those compact assets, with specified amounts of the net proceeds to be transferred to various transportation accounts.

This bill would revise those amounts.

(4) Existing law, pursuant to Proposition 116 of 1990, creates the Public Transportation Account as a trust fund, and provides that funds are to be deposited in the account from certain sales taxes on fuels, and are available for expenditure only for transportation planning and mass transportation purposes. These provisions are an initiative act that may be amended by the Legislature only by a 2/3 vote of both houses and only if the amending statute is consistent with, and furthers the purposes of, the initiative act.

This bill would provide for the transfer of certain revenues from sales taxes on fuels in the 2005-06 fiscal year and in the 2006-07 fiscal year to the General Fund instead of depositing them in the Public Transportation Account.

(5) Existing law, pursuant to Article XIX B of the California Constitution, provides that revenues derived from motor vehicle fuel sales taxes in the General Fund that are transferred to the Transportation Investment Fund are subject to appropriation by the Legislature.

This bill would appropriate the moneys transferred to the Transportation Investment Fund for the 2005-06, 2006-07, and 2007-08 fiscal years for disbursement in the manner and for the purposes set forth in a specified statute.

(6) Existing law, on and after January 1, 2006, requires the Department of Motor Vehicles to suspend, cancel, or revoke the registration of a vehicle when it is determined that the vehicle registration was attained by providing false evidence of financial responsibility or upon notification by an insurance company that the required coverage has been canceled.

Existing law, on and after January 1, 2006, and for the duration of certain low-cost automobile insurance pilot programs, requires the department to provide residents of Los Angeles County and San Francisco County with specified information regarding affordable automobile insurance on the suspension, cancellation, or revocation notification document, in plain, bold type not less than 12 point in size, and in both English and Spanish.

This bill would require the department to implement these requirements in existing law on January 1, 2006, except as specified.

The bill would require the Director of Finance, on January 1, 2006, to determine whether the department has commenced implementation of these notification requirements on that date. If the department has not commenced implementation of those requirements on that date, the bill would require the director to determine whether the failure to implement was due to circumstances beyond the control of the department. The bill would require the director to report to the Governor and the Legislature on February 1, 2006, regarding his or her findings regarding the department's implementation or failure to implement.

The bill would extend the date for implementation of these provisions from January 1, 2006, to March 1, 2006, if the director's report states that the department did not implement the specified requirements on January 1, 2006, and the failure to implement was due to circumstances beyond the control of the department.

The bill would require the director to make similar determinations and reports every 60 days upon finding that the department has not met with the prior established implementation date and would extend that deadline in 60-day increments if the director's latest report states that the department did not meet that implementation date, and the failure to implement was due to circumstances beyond the control of the department.

(7) The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 77 (SB 64) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review State boards and commissions.

(1) Existing law provides for the regulation of real estate licensees by the Real Estate Commissioner. Existing law requires the commissioner to appoint a Real Estate Advisory Commission. The commission makes recommendations and suggestions on the functions and policies of the Department of Real Estate.

This bill would abolish the Real Estate Advisory Commission.

(2) Existing law establishes the Interagency Aquatic Invasive Species Council, consisting of specified representatives, and requires the Department of Fish and Game, in cooperation with the council, to support and coordinate the development of a comprehensive plan for dealing with aquatic invasive species in California. Existing law requires the council to submit its first working version of the plan on or before January 1, 2004. Existing law requires the council to meet at least twice annually to ensure that state agency activities concerning aquatic invasive species are coordinated, complementary, cost-efficient, and effective. Existing law also requires the department to work cooperatively with specified state agencies to implement the Ballast Water Management Program.

This bill would abolish the Interagency Aquatic Invasive Species Council, and would repeal a provision relating to the department's duty under the Ballast Water Management Program.

(3) Existing law establishes the Agriculture Cooperative Bargaining Advisory Committee, and charges it with reporting on specified matters to the Secretary of Food and Agriculture.

This bill would repeal those provisions.

Existing law charges the advisory committee with recommending to the Department of Food and Agriculture, a conciliation service to be appointed by the department, in the event parties to a conciliation cannot agree on a conciliator, in the context of a specified conciliation scheme relating to cooperative bargaining associations and processors.

This bill would delete the requirement that the advisory board make that recommendation to the department.

(4) Existing law generally sets forth the membership of the Commission of the Californias. Existing law establishes the Office of California-Mexico Affairs, provides that the office succeeds to, and is vested with, all the duties, powers, purposes, and responsibilities vested in the commission, and generally sets forth the duties and authority of the office with respect to California-Mexico relations.

This bill would repeal provisions governing the Commission of the Californias, and make various conforming changes. It would also make specified changes in the duties and authority of the Office of California-Mexico Affairs.

(5) Existing law, the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975, provides for the licensure and regulation of health care service plans by the Department of Managed Health Care. The act establishes the Advisory Committee on Managed Health Care and the Clinical Advisory Panel within the department to assist and advise the department's director regarding specified functions of the department.

This bill would abolish the Advisory Committee on Managed Health Care and the Clinical Advisory Panel. The bill would delete a provision that required the director to report to the Legislature on health insurer regulation before January 1, 2002.

(6) Existing law creates a Governor's Small Business Reform Task Force, chaired by the Director of the Office of Small Business Advocate, in order to identify problems and ideas from the small business community concerning regulation, communications, and assistance of state government with small business.

This bill would repeal the provisions creating this task force.

(7) Existing law creates the Departmental Transportation Advisory Committee which acts in an advisory capacity to the Department of Transportation relative to the preparation of various transportation reports prepared by the department and other matters, including designation of scenic highways.

This bill would abolish the committee and provide that the department succeeds to its duties and responsibilities.

(8) This bill would delete references in existing law to the California Heritage Preservation Commission.

(9) Existing law establishes the California Medical Assistance Commission and provides that the commission be reimbursed at the annual salary of members of the Legislature.

This bill would, beginning January 1, 2006, provide that the commission be reimbursed at the annual salary of $50,000, and would require an increase in compensation if state employees receive a salary increase.

Ch. 78 (SB 68) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Human services.

The Child Care and Developmental Services Act, administered by the State Department of Education, provides that children up to 13 years of age are eligible, with certain requirements, for child care and development services.

Existing law provides for child care alternative payment programs, the purpose of which is to provide for parental choice in child care.

This bill would impose new requirements on the State Department of Education, on the alternative payment program, and on child care providers under alternative payment programs relating to the establishment of waiting lists.

Under existing law, the preferred placement for children who are 11 and 12 years of age and who are otherwise eligible for subsidized child care services is in an after school program.

This bill would instead provide that the preferred placement for these children is in a before or after school program.

The bill would make other revisions to the act pertaining to requiring contractors to provide an option of combining care provided in a before or after school setting program with subsidized child care in another setting, requiring the department to develop a form on which a parent may certify that a before or after school program is not available, requiring savings generated by the implementation of the bill to remain with each alternative payment program, child development center, or other contractor, with certain exceptions, and requiring each contractor to annually report these savings to the department and the department to annually report these savings to the Legislature.

This bill would require, to the extent that funding is available for this purpose through the annual Budget Act, the alternative payment agency in each county to design, maintain, and administer a system to consolidate local child care waiting lists to establish a countywide centralized eligibility list and would establish a procedure for assigning this responsibility to a lead agency in those counties with more than one alternative payment agency. The bill would provide that to be eligible to enter into an agreement with the department to provide subsidized child care, a provider shall participate and use the centralized eligibility list.

Existing law establishes the Child Support Payment Trust Fund in the State Treasury for the deposit of certain child support payments, for the purpose of processing and providing child support payments. That fund is continuously appropriated for the purpose of distributing child support payments.

This bill would provide that an ongoing loan shall be made available from the General Fund, from funds not otherwise appropriated, to the Child Support Payment Trust Fund, not to exceed $150,000,000, to ensure the timely disbursement of child support payments when funds have not been recorded to the Child Support Payment Fund or due to other fund liabilities, thereby making an appropriation.

Existing law establishes within the California Health and Human Services Agency the California Health and Human Services Agency Data Center.

This bill would transfer to the California Health and Human Services Agency the Systems Integration Division of the California Health and Human Services Agency Data Center, also known as Systems Management Services, which would be known as the Office of Systems Integration.

Existing law requires that data center, among other things, to implement a statewide automated welfare system for 6 public assistance programs and annually report on the system to the appropriate committees of the Legislature.

This bill would transfer to the Office of Systems Integration requirements for this statewide automated system, but would eliminate this reporting requirement.

Existing law establishes in the State Treasury, the California Health and Human Services Agency Data Center Revolving Fund, which is continuously appropriated and consists of, among other moneys, moneys received for electronic data-processing services and other services rendered by the data center.

This bill would establish the Office of Systems Integration Fund, which would consist of the balance of all moneys available for expenditure by Systems Integration Division and all moneys appropriated to the fund. The fund would, subject to appropriation by the Legislature, be available for expenditure by the office for the office's support. The bill would authorize transfers to the fund from the Health and Human Services Agency Data Center Revolving Fund and the Department of Technology Services Revolving Fund, as determined by the Department of Finance.

The California Community Care Facilities Act provides for the licensure and regulation of community care facilities by the State Department of Social Services. The department also licenses and regulates child day care centers.

Existing law prohibits the Department of Justice and the State Department of Social Services from charging a fee for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license or special permit to operate or manage a community care facility or child day care facility, or for obtaining a criminal record of these applicants, except during the 2004-05 fiscal year.

This bill would authorize these departments to also charge these fees during the 2005-06 fiscal year.

The Comprehensive Drug Court Implementation Act of 1999 provides grants to counties under which the county alcohol and drug program administrator and the presiding judge in the county develop and submit a plan for local drug court systems. Existing law repeals the act as of January 1, 2006.

This bill would extend the repeal date of the act to January 1, 2007.

This bill would require the State Department of Social Services, in collaboration with the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs and the Judicial Council, to conduct an evaluation of cost avoidance with respect to child welfare services and foster care and provide a report to the Legislature, during the budget hearings for the 2006-07 budget, on the outcomes of dependency drug court programs and the amount of savings realized in foster care out-of-home placement and child welfare services.

Existing law, the Song-Brown Family Physician Training Act, declares the intent of the Legislature to increase the number of students and residents receiving quality education and training in the specialty of family practice and as primary care physician's assistants and primary care nurse practitioners. Existing law establishes, for this purpose, a state medical contract program with accredited medical schools, programs that train primary care physician's assistants, programs that train primary care nurse practitioners, hospitals, and other health care delivery systems.

This bill would expand this program to include increasing the number of students and residents receiving quality education and training as registered nurses and would include within the state medical contract program, contracts with "programs that train registered nurses," as defined for purposes of the act.

Existing law establishes the California Healthcare Workforce Policy Commission, which is composed of 10 members.

This bill would increase the membership of the commission from 10 to 15 members, to include 3 representatives of practicing registered nurses and 2 representatives of students in a registered nurse training program.

Existing law requires the commission to identify specific areas of the state where unmet priority needs for primary care family physicians exist, establish standards for family practice training programs, family practice residency programs, primary care physician assistants programs, and programs that train primary care nurse practitioners, and review and make recommendations to the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development concerning the funding of those programs that are submitted to the Health Professions Development Program for participation in the contract program established under these provisions.

This bill would require the commission similarly to identify specific areas of the state where unmet priority needs for registered nurses exist, establish standards for registered nurse training programs, and review and make recommendations to the director concerning funding of registered nurse training programs submitted to the Health Professions Development Program.

Existing law requires the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development to make determinations as to whether program proposals submitted for participation in the state medical contract program meet the standards established by the commission and to select and contract with entities on behalf of the state for the purpose of training undergraduate medical students and residents in the specialty of family practice.

This bill would also require the director to make these determinations with respect to registered nurse training program proposals, and select and contract on behalf of the state with programs that train registered nurses.

The bill would require the State Department of Health Services to adopt emergency regulations, as necessary to implement the bill's changes to the Song-Brown Family Physician Training Act, no later than September 30, 2005. The bill would require the department to notify the Chair of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of a delay prior to this deadline.

Existing federal law provides for allocation of federal funds through the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) block grant program to eligible states. Existing law provides for the California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids (CalWORKs) program for the allocation of federal funds received through the TANF program, under which each county provides cash assistance and other benefits to qualified low-income families.

Existing law authorizes the Legislature to appropriate $56,432,000 in the Budget Act of 2004 from the Employment Training Fund to fund the local assistance portion of welfare-to-work activities under the CalWORKs program.

This bill would authorize the Legislature to appropriate $37,930,000 in the Budget Act of 2005 from the Employment Training Fund to fund the local assistance portion of welfare-to-work activities under the CalWORKs program.

The Mello-Granlund Older Californians Act establishes the Community-Based Services Network, administered by the California Department of Aging, which among other things, requires the department to enter into contracts with local area agencies on aging to carry out the requirements of various community-based services programs. The act requires the department to maintain a management information and reporting system.

This bill would require the department to annually submit, in conjunction with the management information and reporting system, beginning in the 2006 calendar year, to the budget, fiscal, and appropriate policy committees of the Legislature and the Legislative Analyst, information regarding state and federally funded programs and services administered by the department.

Existing law establishes within the California Department of Aging a senior wellness program called the StayWell Program, which is required to carry out various functions primarily related to promoting a healthy lifestyle and wellness among, and a greater appreciation of, California's seniors.

This bill would delete the name "Stay Well Program" and refer instead to the senior wellness program.

Existing law requires the California Department of Aging to assess annually a fee of not less than $0.70, but not more than $1.20, on a health care service plan for each person enrolled in a health care service plan as of December 31 of the previous year under a prepaid

Medicare Program that serves Medicare eligible beneficiaries within the state, and on a health care service plan for each enrollee under a Medicare supplement contract, including a Medicare Select contract, as of December 31 of the previous year, to offset the cost of counseling Medicare eligible beneficiaries on health maintenance organizations instead of the traditional Medicare provider system. Existing law requires all fees collected to be deposited into the State HICAP Fund for the implementation of the Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program (HICAP). Existing law declares the Legislature's intent in funding HICAP to maintain a ratio of $2 collected from the Insurance Fund to every $1 collected pursuant to the above annual fee.

This bill would change the fees that department is required to assess annually to not less than $1.40, but not more than $1.65. The bill would declare the Legislature's intent that, starting in the 2005-06 fiscal year, $2,000,000 of additional funding shall be made available to local HICAP programs, to be derived from an increase in the HICAP fee and the corresponding Insurance Fund match. The bill would require the additional funding to be used only for local HICAP funding and would prohibit the use of that funding for department or local area agencies on aging administration. The bill would require the department to issue a supplemental billing during the 2005-06 fiscal year to generate additional revenue as authorized under these provisions.

Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to contract with an appropriate and qualified entity to conduct an evaluation of the adequacy of the child welfare services budgeting methodology and make recommendations for revising the budgeting methodology.

This bill would require the department, on an annual basis, at the time of budget hearings, to provide information to the budget committees of the Legislature comparing the Governor's proposed statewide budget for the child welfare services program to the caseload standards recommended by the evaluation required under these provisions.

Existing law provides for the CalWORKs program, under which each county provides cash assistance and other benefits to qualified low-income families and individuals. Existing law continuously appropriates moneys from the General Fund to defray a portion of county costs under the CalWORKs program.

Existing law, with certain exemptions, requires a prescribed sequence of employment-related activities by participants in the CalWORKs program, including job search, assessment, work, and community services activities. Existing law establishes requirements for participation in core welfare-to-work activities.

This bill would revise the standards applicable to activities that count toward satisfying core activity requirements, thereby imposing a state-mandated local program.

By enabling certain individuals to remain eligible to receive benefits under the CalWORKs program under additional circumstances, this bill would result in an appropriation.

Under existing law, cash assistance under the CalWORKs program is provided by each county through a combination of county, state, and federal funds. State funds are continuously appropriated to pay for a share of CalWORKs program aid grant costs.

Under existing law, with specified exceptions, an annual cost-of-living adjustment is required to be provided in maximum aid payment amounts prescribed under the CalWORKs program.

This bill would provide that no adjustment to the maximum aid payment shall be made under this provision for the purpose of increasing benefits under CalWORKs for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 fiscal years.

Existing law, pursuant to the Aid to Families with Dependent Children-Foster Care (AFDC-FC) program, requires that foster care providers licensed as group homes have rates established by classifying each group home program and applying the standardized schedule of rates. Existing law establishes a standardized schedule of rates for the 2002-03, 2003-04, and 2004-05 fiscal years.

This bill would extend the standardized schedule of rates to the 2005-06 fiscal year.

Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to ensure that a comprehensive, independent statewide evaluation of the CalWORKs program is undertaken and that accurate evaluative information is made available to the Legislature in a timely fashion.

This bill would require the department, in conjunction with representatives of counties and the Legislature, to develop approaches to improving data collection and management information reporting in the CalWORKs program.

Existing law provides for the State Supplementary Program for the Aged, Blind and Disabled (SSP), which requires the State Department of Social Services to contract with the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services to make payments to SSP recipients to supplement supplemental security income (SSI) payments made available pursuant to the federal Social Security Act.

Under existing law, benefit payments under the SSP program are calculated by establishing the maximum level of nonexempt income and federal (SSI) and state (SSP) benefits for each category of eligible recipient. The state SSP payment is the amount, when added to the nonexempt income and SSI benefits available to the recipient, that would be required to provide the maximum benefit payment.

Existing state law provides, except in certain calendar years, for the annual adjustment of the total level of combined state and federal benefits as established by statutory schedule to reflect changes in the cost of living, as defined.

Existing law provides that, for the 2004 calendar year, no cost-of-living adjustment shall be made to the state portion of SSI/SSP benefits.

This bill would provide that, for the 2006 and 2007 calendar years, no cost-of-living adjustment shall be made to the state portion of SSI/SSP benefits.

Existing law has provided that, with respect to certain calendar years, there shall be no cost-of-living adjustment to the payment schedules, but that with respect to those calendar years, there shall be a pass along of the increase in federal SSI benefits. Existing law provides that, commencing with the 2004 calendar year and thereafter, in any calendar year in which no cost-of-living adjustment is made to the payment schedules, there shall be a pass along of any cost-of-living increases in federal SSI benefits.

This bill would provide, with certain exceptions, that for the 2006 calendar year, the federal pass along shall not become effective until April 1, 2006, and for the 2007 calendar year, the federal pass along shall not become effective until April 1, 2007.

Existing law provides for the county-administered In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) program, under which qualified aged, blind, and disabled persons are provided with services in order to permit them to remain in their own homes and avoid institutionalization.

Existing law establishes the federal Medicaid Program, which is administered by each state. California's version of this program is the Medi-Cal program, which is administered by the State Department of Health Services and under which qualified low-income persons receive health care benefits.

Existing law provides for the payment of a supplementary benefit under the IHSS program to any eligible aged, blind, or disabled person who is receiving Medi-Cal personal care services and who would otherwise be deemed a categorically needy recipient under the IHSS program.

This bill would extend application of this provision to any aged, blind, or disabled person who is receiving Medi-Cal benefits and eligible for services under a federal waiver program known as the IHSS Plus waiver, and who would otherwise be deemed a categorically needy recipient under the IHSS program.

Existing law declares the intent of the Legislature to appropriate funds in a single allocation to counties for the support of county administration activities to provide benefit payments under the CalWORKs program. Existing law requires the State Department of Social Services to estimate the amount of unspent funds appropriated in the 2003-04 fiscal year in the CalWORKs single allocation and provides for the reappropriation of the unspent amount, not to exceed $40,000,000 to be provided to the counties in a planning allocation. Existing law requires the department, in consultation with the County Welfare Directors Association, to develop an allocation methodology for purposes of these provisions.

This bill would require the State Department of Social Services, no later than 30 days after the enactment of the Budget Act of 2005, to estimate the amount of unspent funds in the CalWORKs single allocation. The bill would require the unspent amount, not to exceed $50,000,000, to be reappropriated to, and in augmentation of, a specified item in the annual Budget Act, and provided to the counties in a planning allocation no later than 30 days after the enactment of the Budget Act of 2004. The bill would require the department, in consultation with the County Welfare Directors Association, to develop an allocation methodology for purposes of these provisions. The bill would require the department to work with the County Welfare Directors Association to develop an estimate for the cost of eligibility activities and the impact of quarterly reporting/prospective budgeting on county workload.

This bill would establish a Pay for Performance Program to provide additional funding for counties that meet specified standards in implementing welfare-to-work programs under the CalWORKs program that would apply to the 2006-07, 2007-08, and 2008-09 fiscal years and would be contingent upon a Budget Act appropriation.

Existing law requires the state, through the State Department of Social Services and county welfare departments, to establish and support a public system of statewide child welfare services.

Existing federal law, the Indian Child Welfare Act, governs the proceedings for determining the placement of an Indian child when that child is removed from the custody of his or her parent or guardian.

This bill would require the department to establish one full-time position, within the office of the director, to assist counties in complying with the provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act and related state laws, regulations, and rules of court.

Existing law requires the department to implement a single statewide Child Welfare Services Case Management System in order to protect children and effectively administer and evaluate California's Child Welfare Services and foster care programs.

This bill would require the department, on or before December 1, 2005, to develop, and provide to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, a Child Welfare Services/Case Management System system performance commitments plan. The bill would require the department to develop the plan in conjunction with the Office of System Integration, Department of Technology Services, and County Welfare Directors Association.

Existing law provides for payment for out-of-home care for seriously emotionally disturbed children who have been placed in out-of-home care as part of the child's individualized education plan. Existing law also provides for the reimbursement of local agencies for state-mandated local programs.

This bill would preclude a county from claiming reimbursement under the state-mandated local program provisions for costs paid for under the 24-hour out-of-home care reimbursement provisions.

Existing law provides for the federal Food Stamp Program, under which each county distributes food stamps provided by the federal government to eligible households. Existing federal regulations limit participation in the Food Stamp Program for certain participants to 3 months during any 3-year period, unless a designated exemption, waiver, or other exception applies.

This bill would require the State Department of Social Services to seek a waiver from this limitation on participation in the Food Stamp Program. The bill would authorize any county to decline to participate in this waiver upon submitting documentation from its board of supervisors to that effect.

Because counties administer the Food Stamp Program, this bill would increase county duties by potentially extending the period of eligibility for certain recipients, and would thereby impose a state-mandated local program.

Existing law, the Substance Abuse and Crime Prevention Act of 2000 (Proposition 36), an initiative measure approved by the electorate, November 7, 2000, requires parolees and persons convicted of nonviolent drug possession offenses to participate in and complete an appropriate drug treatment program as a condition of receiving probation, under certain circumstances.

The bill would require the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs to conduct and submit to the Legislature a study of the effectiveness of the act, including a benefit-cost analysis, by April 1, 2006, and would require the Employment Development Department to provide to the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, by January 1, 2006, any information requested by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs necessary for the completion of the benefit-cost analysis.

This bill would require the State Department of Social Services to provide, by September 30, 2005, information to the chairpersons of designated legislative committees on the distribution and programmatic impact of the unallocated reduction included in the Budget Act of 2005.

The bill would require the California Health and Human Services Agency to periodically brief stakeholders in the 2005 and 2006 calendar years to review options to streamline and standardize criminal background check requirements and processing.

The bill would require the State Department of Health Services to periodically brief stakeholders in the 2005 and 2006 calendar years to discuss the community care licensing visit process and consider implementation of the substitute child care employee registry program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 79 (SB 91) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Budget Act of 2004: contingencies and emergencies.

The Budget Act of 2004 appropriated specified amounts from the General Fund, unallocated special funds, and unallocated nongovernmental cost funds for expenditure for contingencies or emergencies upon written notification from the Director of Finance. The Budget Act of 2004 also appropriated specified amounts for loans to state agencies for contingencies or emergencies.

This bill would appropriate $261,046,000 as scheduled, in augmentation of these Budget Act appropriations.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a statute providing for the usual current expenses of the state.

Ch. 80 (AB 131) Committee on Budget Budget Act of 2005: omnibus health trailer bill.

Under existing law, the State Department of Health Services has licensing authority over several categories of clinics and other health facilities. Existing law requires the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the regulations adopted by the department to prescribe standards for adequacy, safety, and sanitation of the physical plant, of appropriate staffing, and of services, based on the type of health facility and the needs of the persons served. These regulations are required to permit program flexibility in various contexts, as long as statutory requirements are met, and the use has the prior written approval of the department or of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

This bill would expand the program flexibility permitted under the department's regulations to include bulk purchasing of pharmaceuticals.

Existing law, the Emergency Medical Services System and Prehospital Emergency Medical Care Personnel Act, establishes the Emergency Medical Services Authority within the California Health and Human Services Agency to, among other things, provide statewide coordination of county EMS programs, and to administer the Trauma Care Fund.

Existing law establishes the Trauma Care Fund within the State Treasury and continuously appropriates the fund to the authority for distribution to local EMS agencies. Existing law requires local EMS agencies that receive funding to distribute those funds to eligible trauma centers and authorizes the local EMS agencies to utilize a grant-based system, a reimbursement-based system, or other appropriate methodology to do so. Existing law requires local EMS agencies to determine the distribution amounts for each trauma center and requires minimum distributions for certain trauma centers to assist those centers in ensuring their viability.

This bill would repeal all minimum distribution requirements, require local EMS agencies to utilize a competitive grant-based system for allocating the funds, and require local EMS agencies to determine distribution of funds based on new criteria.

By requiring that local entities comply with these requirements, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

Existing law authorizes the Director of Health Services, to the extent that state and federal funds are appropriated in the annual Budget Act for these purposes, to establish and administer a program to provide drug treatments to persons infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), the etiologic agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS). Under the program, known as the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP), the State Department of Health Services subsidizes the cost of drugs for the treatment of persons infected with HIV. Under existing law, moneys from the AIDS Drug Assistance Program Rebate Fund, a continuously appropriated fund, are used to cover costs related to the purchase of drugs and services provided through ADAP.

This bill would authorize the department to also subsidize cost-sharing requirements for persons otherwise eligible for the ADAP, up to, but not exceeding, the amount of the person's cost-sharing obligation, in accordance with conditions prescribed in the bill. By expanding the purposes for which moneys from the AIDS Drug Assistance Program Rebate Fund may be expended, the bill would make an appropriation.

Existing law provides for the California Children's Services Program (CCS program), which is administered by the State Department of Health Services and counties, under which services are provided to physically handicapped children under 21 years of age.

This bill, with certain exceptions, would require prior authorization for CCS program services. The bill would authorize, effective July 1, 2004, treatment of, and provider reimbursement for treatment of, certain children participating in the Healthy Families Program, with respect to CCS-eligible medical conditions.

Existing law establishes the Healthy Families Program, administered by the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board, to arrange for the provision of health care services to children less than 19 years of age who meet certain criteria, including having a limited household income.

Existing law authorizes, until January 1, 2006, a health, dental, or vision plan participating in the Healthy Families Program to provide application assistance directly to an applicant under designated conditions.

This bill would delete the January 1, 2006, termination date for authorizing application assistance under these conditions.

Existing law requires participating health, dental, and vision plans that contract with the program and are regulated by either the Insurance Commissioner or the Department of Managed Health Care to be licensed and in good standing with their respective licensing agencies. Existing law authorizes local initiatives, county organized health systems, and special health care authorities that contract with the program, but that do not meet certain licensing requirements, to contract with the board for a limited time period if they are making a good faith effort to meet those licensing requirements.

This bill would delete this limited exemption from licensing requirements for local initiatives, county organized health systems, and special health care authorities.

Existing law provides that it is the intent of the Legislature that the Healthy Families Program comply with the federal State Children's Health Insurance Program.

Existing law establishes the County Health Initiative Matching Fund within the State Treasury to accept intergovernmental transfers as the nonfederal matching fund requirement for federal financial participation through the federal State Children's Health Insurance Program. Existing law authorizes an applicant for an intergovernmental transfer under these provisions to submit a proposal for funding to provide comprehensive health insurance coverage to any child or adult who meets citizenship and immigration status requirements established under federal law, and who meets certain income requirements.

This bill would also authorize proposals for funding to provide comprehensive health insurance coverage to children whose coverage is not eligible for funding under the federal law or to a combination of children, some of whose coverage is eligible for that funding and some of whose coverage is not eligible for that funding. The bill would make conforming changes. The bill would make other revisions to the provisions that authorize local contracts to provide health care benefits through the intergovernmental transfer of funds as the nonfederal matching fund requirement.

Existing law requires each health care service plan and specialized health care service plan that contracts to provide health care benefits under the Healthy Families Program to be licensed by the Department of Managed Health Care or be a county organized health system.

This bill, instead, would require each health care service plan, health insurer, or specialized health care service plan that contracts to provide health care benefits under the program to be licensed either by the Department of Managed Health Care or the Department of Insurance.

Existing law requires that all Healthy Families Program administrative expenses incurred by the board and the department be paid from the County Health Initiative Matching Fund.

This bill would authorize these administrative expenses to be paid directly by applicants, would provide that certain expenses be included as administrative for purposes of this provision, and would authorize the board to accept funding from not-for-profit groups or foundations or governmental entities to administer the program.

Existing law provides that the state shall be held harmless for any federal disallowance resulting from the Healthy Families Program.

This bill would provide that the state shall also be held harmless for any other expenses or liabilities, including, but not limited to, the cost of processing or granting appeals.

This bill would authorize the board to adopt emergency regulations to implement designated provisions of the bill relating to the Healthy Families Program.

Under existing law, the State Department of Developmental Services provides funding for regional centers for the provision of services and supports to persons with developmental disabilities.

Existing law provides that any person believed to have a developmental disability, and any person believed to have a high risk of parenting a developmentally disabled infant shall be eligible for initial intake and assessment services in the regional centers. Existing law requires that if assessment is needed, prior to July 1, 2005, the assessment shall be performed within 120 days following initial intake, and on and after July 1, 2005, the assessment shall be performed within 60 days following intake.

This bill would permit initial intake to be performed within 120 days following intake prior to July 1, 2006, and would require initial intake to be performed within 60 days following intake on and after July 1, 2006.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

Existing law prohibits, during the 2004-05 fiscal year, a regional center from paying any provider of 11 services and supports a rate that is greater than the rate that is in effect on or after June 30, 2004, with exceptions.

This bill, instead, would apply this prohibition during the 2005-06 fiscal year.

Existing law prohibits, during the 2004-05 fiscal year, a regional center from approving any service level for a residential service provider that would result in an increase in the rate to be paid that is greater than the rate that is in effect on or after June 30, 2004, with exceptions.

This bill, instead, would prohibit, during the 2005-06 fiscal year, a regional center from approving any service level for a residential service provider that would result in an increase in the rate to be paid that is greater than the rate that is in effect June 30, 2005, with exceptions.

Existing law requires the department to conduct a pilot project to enhance the ability of a consumer and his or her family to control the decisions and resources required to meet all or part of the objectives of his or her individual program plan. The law requires the department to permit the continuation of the project in 5 regional centers, and expand it to others if certain conditions are met, including, but not limited to, consistency with federal waivers and no impact in the aggregate to the General Fund.

This bill would repeal those provisions. The bill would establish, contingent upon approval of a federal waiver, the Self-Directed Services Program, which would be available in every regional center catchment area to provide participants, within an individual budget, greater control over needed services and supports, consistent with the requirements set forth in the bill.

Existing law prohibits, during the 2004-05 fiscal year, the department from establishing any permanent payment rate for a community-based day program or in-home respite service agency provider that has a temporary payment rate in effect on June 30, 2004, if that permanent payment rate would be greater than the rate in effect on or after June 30, 2004, except as prescribed. Existing law also prohibits, during the 2004-05 fiscal year, the department from approving an anticipated rate adjusted for a community-based program or in-home respite service agency provider that would result in a similar increase, except as prescribed. Existing law prohibits, during the 2004-05 fiscal year, the department and a regional center from approving any program design modification or revendorization for a community-based day program or in-home respite service agency provider that would result in a similar increase, except as prescribed.

This bill, instead, would apply these prohibitions and exceptions to the 2005-06 fiscal year and to rates in effect on June 30, 2005, if the rates would be greater than the rate in effect on or after June 30, 2005.

Existing law prohibits, during the 2004-05 and 2005-06 fiscal years only, a regional center from expending any purchase of service funds for the startup of any new program, with exceptions.

This bill would limit this prohibition, instead, to the 2005-06 fiscal year.

Existing law specifies that designated habilitation services be provided to adults with developmental disabilities. Under existing law, these services include group job coaching services, in a group supported employment placement at a job coach-to-consumer ratio of not less than 1-to-4 nor more than 1-to-8, where services to a minimum of 4 consumers are funded by the regional center or the Department of Rehabilitation.

This bill would lower the above participant ratio for group services to not less than 1-to-3 nor more than 1-to-8, where services to a minimum of 3 consumers are funded by the regional center or the Department of Rehabilitation.

Existing law requires the establishment of a standard set of guidelines that governs the provision of managed Medi-Cal mental health services at the local level, consistent with federal law. Under existing law, regulations adopted pursuant to this requirement to implement the second phase of mental health managed care are to remain in effect until January 1, 2006.

This bill would require these emergency regulations to remain in effect until permanent regulations are adopted, or June 30, 2006, whichever occurs first.

Under existing law, a person who is committed as a sexually violent predator is required to be provided with programming by the State Department of Mental Health, to afford the person with treatment for his or her diagnosed mental disorder.

This bill would require a sexually violent predator who has been committed and who declines treatment to be offered the opportunity to participate in treatment on at least a monthly basis. The bill would authorize the department to provide mental health treatment programming using an outpatient/day treatment model in accordance with requirements set forth in the bill. In implementing these provisions, the bill would authorize the voluntary suspension of health facility beds at Coalinga State Hospital for a period of up to 6 years, and would authorize the hospital to return the suspended beds to active license status upon request to the State Department of Health Services, if they comply with current operational licensure requirements. This bill would require the State Department of Mental Health to conduct monthly treatment planning conferences with each patient who has chosen not to participate in a specific course of offender treatment.

Existing law provides for various health and public social services programs.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services and State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, for prescribed programs, and Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board, State Department of Developmental Services, State Department of Mental Health, Department of Rehabilitation, and Department of Child Support Services to submit to the Department of Finance for its approval all assumptions underlying all estimates used to develop the departments' budgets, by September 10 of each year, and as revised by March 1 of the following year. The bill would provide that the assumptions would be deemed accepted by the Department of Finance if not approved, modified, or denied within 15 days of submission. The bill would also require each of these entities to submit to the Department of Finance an estimate of expenditures for each of the categorical aid programs in its budget by November 1 of each year, and as revised by April 20 of the following year.

Existing law provides for the Medi-Cal program, which is administered by the State Department of Health Services and pursuant to which health care benefits are provided to qualified low-income persons. The Medi-Cal program is, in part, governed and funded by federal Medicaid provisions.

Existing federal law requires, as a condition of the state plan and receipt of federal financial assistance for purposes of the Medi-Cal program, the state to comply with requirements relating to Medicare prescription drug low-income subsidies and Medicare transitional prescription drug assistance.

This bill would require the department to implement these federal requirements. The bill would provide that eligibility and enrollment functions required under these provisions shall be a county function and responsibility, subject to the direction, authority, and regulations of the department. The bill would require the department to seek federal approval of any amendments to the state plan necessary to implement these provisions and would provide that these provisions shall be implemented only to the extent that federal financial participation is available.

Because this bill would require each county to perform new eligibility and enrollment functions, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

This bill would require the state to administer, to the extent allowed under federal law, and only if federal financial participation is available, the Medi-Cal to Healthy Families Accelerated Enrollment program, to provide certain low-income children with temporary health benefits for the period during which the child has an application pending for coverage under the Healthy Families Program. The bill would require the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board to consult and coordinate with the State Department of Health Services to implement the program. The bill would require the department seek approval of any necessary amendments to its state plan and to obtain all necessary federal approvals before implementing the Medi-Cal to Healthy Families Accelerated Enrollment program. This bill would require the department to implement the program on the first day of the 3rd month following the month in which federal approval is received, or on August 1, 2006, whichever is later. Because the bill would impose additional requirements on counties administering the Medi-Cal program, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

Existing law, the California Adult Day Health Care Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of adult day health centers, with administrative responsibility for this program shared between the State Department of Health Services and the California Department of Aging. The Adult Day Health Medi-Cal Law establishes adult day health care services as a Medi-Cal benefit for Medi-Cal beneficiaries who meet certain criteria. Existing law authorizes the department to implement a one-year moratorium on the certification and enrollment into the Medi-Cal program of adult day health care centers on a statewide basis or within a geographic area. Existing law exempts, or in some cases authorizes the department to exempt from the moratorium, applicants that meet certain conditions.

This bill would add to the types of facilities to which the moratorium would not apply.

Under existing law, one of the services provided under the Medi-Cal program is dental services, subject to limitations.

This bill would limit, with certain exceptions, reimbursement to providers of dental services provided to individuals 21 years of age and older at the time of the service to not more than $1,800 per beneficiary in any calendar year, commencing January 1, 2006. The bill would require the department to pursue any state plan amendment or other federal approval necessary and would provide that this provision shall be implemented only to the extent that federal financial participation is available and necessary to implement this provision. The bill would repeal these provisions as of January 1, 2009.

Existing law permits hospitals contracting with the department to provide Medi-Cal services that meet the criteria for disproportionate share hospital status to be eligible to negotiate with the California Medical Assistance Commission for distributions from the Emergency Services and Supplemental Payments Fund.

Existing law requires, however, that, in order to qualify for distributions from that fund, a hospital to meet specified criteria, including being able to demonstrate a purpose for additional funding, including proposals relating to emergency services and other health care services.

This bill would specify that these proposals may include infrequent yet high-cost services, such as anti-AB human antitoxin treatment for infant botulism (Baby-BIG).

Existing law provides for various options for the provision of Medi-Cal services pursuant to a managed care plan, including managed care pilot projects in designated geographic areas.

This bill would require the department to perform an evaluation to determine the readiness of an affected Medi-Cal managed care plan to commence operations based upon the action of the director that expands the geographic area of Medi-Cal managed care. The bill would specify the minimum contents of the evaluation.

Existing law authorizes a county board of supervisors, by ordinance, to establish a commission to negotiate the exclusive contract with the California Medical Assistance Commission to provide, or arrange for the provision of, health care services provided under the Medi-Cal program.

This bill would additionally authorize the commission operating in Santa Cruz and Monterey Counties pursuant to the above provisions to enter into contracts for the provision of health care services to persons who are eligible to receive medical benefits under any publicly supported program, if the commission and participating providers acting pursuant to subcontracts with the commission agree to hold harmless the beneficiaries of the publicly supported programs if the contract between the sponsoring government agency and the commission does not ensure sufficient funding to cover program costs.

Existing law prohibits, until September 1, 2008, any California Children's Services (CCS) covered services from being incorporated into any Medi-Cal managed care contract entered into after August 1, 1994, with the exception of contracts entered into for county organized health systems or the Regional Health Authority in the designated counties.

This bill would impose various requirements on any managed care contractor authorized to provide CCS-covered services pursuant to the above provisions that proposes to expand to other counties, including, among others, demonstrating how the contractor will maintain and comply with designated CCS program standards and Medi-Cal eligibility regulations. The bill would provide that a child enrolled with a managed care contractor that is seeking CCS program benefits would retain certain appeal and fair hearing rights. The bill would also require the state, in consultation with stakeholders, to develop unique pediatric plan performance standards and measurements.

Existing law establishes provider reimbursement rates for covered services.

This bill would prohibit reimbursement under the Medi-Cal program for portable X-ray transportation services from exceeding 100% of the lowest maximum allowance for California established by the federal Medicare Program for the same or similar services.

This bill would authorize clinics and hospital outpatient projects, except for emergency rooms, owned or operated by Los Angeles County that participated in the California Section 1115 Medicaid Demonstration Project for the county and received 100% cost-based reimbursement pursuant to the special terms and conditions of that waiver to continue to be reimbursed under a cost-based methodology on and after July 1, 2005.

Existing law requires the department to establish a list of covered services and maximum allowable reimbursement rates for durable medical equipment, as defined. Under existing law, specific reimbursement requirements apply with respect to wheelchairs and wheelchair accessories.

This bill would also apply the reimbursement requirements applicable to wheelchairs and wheelchair accessories to speech-generating devices and related accessories.

Existing law requires the director to update allowable drug product prices no less often than every 30 days, with these updates to include any prior change in drug product price of which the director has received notice.

This bill would, instead, require the director to update allowable drug product prices within 7 days of receiving notice of a drug product price change.

Existing law requires the department to amend the Medicaid state plan with respect to the billing option for services by local education agencies to ensure that schools are reimbursed for all eligible services that they provide that are not precluded by federal requirements. Existing law establishes other duties of the department with respect to Medi-Cal billing and reimbursement pertaining to local education agencies and public schools. Certain of these provisions become inoperative on January 1, 2006.

This bill would, instead, provide for the repeal of these local education agencies' billing provisions on January 1, 2010.

Existing law sets forth a schedule of benefits that are covered under the Medi-Cal program, and the conditions pursuant to which these benefits are covered. Under existing law, covered benefits include, among others, prosthetic and orthotic devices, eyeglasses, and orthopedic and conventional shoes.

This bill would also include as a Medi-Cal covered benefit therapeutic shoes and inserts for beneficiaries with diabetes, subject to utilization controls, and to the extent that federal financial participation is available.

Existing law provides various health care benefits under the Medi-Cal program, including drug benefits.

This bill would prohibit, commencing January 1, 2006, drug benefits from being provided under the Medi-Cal program to a full-benefit dual eligible beneficiary, except at the election of the department, upon the approval of the Department of Finance, and to the extent that federal financial participation is available. This bill would also provide for emergency drug benefits for a full-benefit dual eligible beneficiary, including, commencing January 1, 2006, drug benefits for which federal financial participation is not available, if the Legislature has made a specific appropriation for that purpose. The bill defines a full-benefit dual eligible as an individual who is eligible for full scope services under the Medi-Cal program and coverage for drugs under a prescription drug plan or Medicare Advantage prescription drug plan under the federal Medicare Program. This bill would require the department to seek approval of any amendments to the state plan necessary to implement this provision.

Existing law establishes the Medi-Cal-to-Healthy Families Bridge Benefits Program to provide any child who meets certain criteria with 2 months of health care benefits in order to provide the child with an opportunity to apply for the Healthy Families Program.

This bill would require a child who is determined to change from no share of cost under the Medi-Cal program to a share of cost who meets certain eligibility criteria for the Healthy Families Program to be placed in the Medi-Cal-to-Healthy Families Bridge Benefits Program and would require that 90% of those families be notified about the Healthy Families Program. The bill would establish other requirements and standards for notifications and requests for consent to send Medi-Cal annual redetermination forms to the Healthy Families Program on behalf of these families. The bill would impose related procedural requirements on the department.

By imposing notification requirements upon each county, this bill would create a state-mandated local program.

Existing law requires the department to establish a pilot program to provide continuous skilled nursing care as a benefit under the Medi-Cal program when those services are provided pursuant to a federal waiver. This provision is repealed as of January 1, 2006.

This bill would extend this repeal date to January 1, 2008.

Existing law provides that the board of supervisors of a county that contracted with the State Department of Health Services pursuant to a specified provision of law during the 1990-91 fiscal year and any county with a population under 300,000, as determined in accordance with the 1990 decennial census, by adopting a resolution to that effect, may elect to participate in the County Medi-Cal Services Program for state administration of health care services to eligible persons in the county.

This bill would revise, for the 2005-06 fiscal year, state and counties financial responsibilities for certain increases in costs in the County Medi-Cal Services Program.

Existing law, the Mental Health Services Act, was approved by the voters in November 2004 as Proposition 63, an initiative measure. Under the act, the State Department of Mental Health is required, among other things, to distribute funds for local assistance for designated mental health programs.

This bill would require the Director of Mental Health, at the time of the release of the January 10 budget plan and the May Revision, to submit information to the Legislature regarding the expenditure of Proposition 63 funding for each state department and each major program category. The bill would also require the director to submit to the fiscal committees of the Legislature each fiscal year written notice of the intention to spend Proposition 63 local assistance funding in excess of the amounts presented in the department's May Revision projection for that fiscal year.

Existing law authorizes the State Department of Health Services, in administering the Medi-Cal program, to contract with any qualified individual, organization, or entity to provide services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries, including the delivery of services on a managed care basis. Under existing law, Medi-Cal services may be provided to a beneficiary or eligible applicant by an individual provider, or through a prepaid managed health care plan, pilot project, or fee-for-service case management provider.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services to provide the fiscal and policy committees of the Legislature with quarterly updates, commencing January 1, 2006, regarding core activities to improve the Medi-Cal Managed Care Program and to expand to 13 new counties, as directed by the Budget Act of 2005. The bill would set forth the topics to be included in the quarterly updates, including information regarding state plan amendments and federal waivers.

Existing law, which becomes inoperative on September 1, 2007, imposes various requirements on the State Department of Health Services with respect to the implementation of a plan and the allocation of federal funds to local health jurisdictions for bioterrorism preparedness. Existing law separately requires the department to establish and administer a permanent California Office of Binational Border Health to facilitate cooperation between health officials and health professionals in California and Mexico, to reduce the risk of disease in the California border region, and in those areas directly affected by border health conditions.

This bill would require the department to coordinate its federal bioterrorism activities, as applicable, with the California Office of Binational Border Health as the single point of coordination on border health activities. This bill would separately declare legislative intent that the department audit the cost reports submitted by local health jurisdictions every 3 years, commencing in January 2007, to determine compliance with federal requirements and consistency with local health jurisdiction budgets, contingent upon the availability of federal funding for both these auditing activities and bioterrorism preparedness.

This bill would require the State Department of Developmental Services to include explicit language in its contracts with regional center agencies requiring each regional center to use funds allocated in the Budget Act of 2005 to comply with Medicaid Home and Community-Based Services Waiver requirements for the 2005-06 fiscal year and thereafter. The bill would authorize the department to take disciplinary action against a regional center that expends these funds for a purpose other than compliance with the waiver requirements. The bill would impose related reporting requirements on each regional center.

This bill would require the State Department of Health Services and the California Medical Assistance Commission to provide annual fiscal information to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee on the funds provided to the contract hospitals participating in the Medi-Cal program and the health plans participating in the Medi-Cal managed care program, for implementation of nurse-to-patient ratios.

This bill would also require the department to provide the Legislature, by July 1, 2009, with data comparing the University of California, Davis baseline study released in May 2002 of nurse staffing levels to staffing of registered nurse and other licensed nurse staffing subsequent to the full implementation of the licensed nurse-to-patient ratios on January 1, 2008, in accordance with the UC Davis study.

Existing law establishes the Major Risk Medical Insurance Fund in the State Treasury, that is continuously appropriated to the Major Risk Medical Insurance Board for specified purposes. Existing law requires, after June 30, 1991, that specific dollar amounts are to be deposited annually in the fund from the Hospital Services, Physician Services, and Unallocated accounts in the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund.

This bill, notwithstanding the above provisions, would require the Controller, upon order of the Director of Finance, to make specified one-time reductions in the amounts deposited into the fund from these accounts into the fund for the 2005-06 budget year. The bill would reappropriate certain amounts from these accounts, so appropriated in the Budget Act of 2005, to the California Healthcare for Indigents Program and the rural health services program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 81 (SB 71) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Resources.<sup>3</sup>

(1) Existing law establishes the Salton Sea Restoration Fund administered by the Director of Fish and Game for purposes related to restoring the Salton Sea. Existing law also provides for the continuous appropriation of $140,000,000 from the Water Security, Clean Drinking Water, Coastal and Beach Protection Fund of 2002 to the Wildlife Conservation Board, for expenditure by the board and for grants, for the acquisition from willing sellers of land and water resources to protect regional water quality, to protect and enhance fish and wildlife habitat, and to assist local agencies in improving regional water supply reliability.

This bill would require that $12,000,000 be made available from that continuously appropriated fund for transfer or direct expenditure for acquisition, grants, or other activities that directly restore the Salton Sea and its transboundary watersheds.

(2) The existing Carpenter-Presley-Tanner Hazardous Substance Account Act imposes liability for hazardous substance removal or remedial actions and requires that the costs incurred by the Department of Toxic Substances Control to carry out the act be recoverable from the liable person. The act also defines the term "liable person," for purposes of that act, with reference to the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA).

Existing law provides that the standard of liability for the recovery of those costs or expenses is strict liability and provides that an indemnification or other agreement is not effective to transfer liability. Existing law also provides for the apportionment of costs and expenditures under the act and allows a person who has incurred removal or remedial action costs to seek indemnity or contribution from other liable persons.

This bill would provide that the costs incurred by a state agency to take a hazardous substance response action at the BKK Landfills Site in West Covina would be deemed to be a contribution towards any potential liability for response costs or damage imposed pursuant to the state law upon a state agency that arranged for the disposal or treatment of a hazardous substance at that site. The bill would also declare the intent of the Legislature that those costs be deemed to be a contribution towards any potential liability under CERCLA.

(3) Existing law requires the Secretary for Environmental Protection to adopt implementing regulations and implement a unified hazardous waste and hazardous materials management regulatory program. A city or local agency that meets specified requirements is authorized to apply to the secretary to implement the unified program, and every county is required to apply to the secretary to be certified to implement the unified program as a Certified Unified Program Agency (CUPA). Existing law requires the secretary, if no local agency has been certified in a county by January 1, 2000, to determine the methods by which the unified program shall be implemented and to select any combination of specified implementation methods. Existing law requires the secretary to establish the amount of the fee to be paid when the unified program agency is a state agency.

This bill would establish the State Certified Unified Program Agency Account (SCUPA Account) in the General Fund and would require the SCUPA Account to be administered by the Department of Toxic Substances Control. The bill would require the fees specified above and other funds and civil, criminal, and administrative penalties to be deposited into the SCUPA Account. The bill would authorize the department to expend the funds in the SCUPA Account, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to implement the unified program in those counties for which the secretary has designated the department as a CUPA.

(4) Existing law, the Surface Mining and Reclamation Act of 1975, governs surface mining operations and reclamation of mined lands. Existing law requires the first $2,000,000 of certain moneys from mining activities on federal lands disbursed by the United States each fiscal year to be deposited in the Surface Mining and Reclamation Account in the General Fund, which account is authorized to be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for purposes of that act. Existing law also allows only the first $1,100,000 of that money to be deposited in the account, if the amount of that money disbursed by the United States to the state is less than $20,000,000.

This bill would delete the prohibition limiting the deposit of that money in the account to $1,100,000 when the amount of money disbursed is less than $20,000,000.

(5) Existing law provides for the distribution of oil and gas revenues from tide and submerged lands granted to the City of Long Beach between the city and the state.

This bill would prohibit the City of Long Beach from retaining out of oil revenue any money for deposit in a reserve fund to be used for future tidelands oil administrative costs or future costs related to the extraction or disposition of oil or other hydrocarbons, including, but not limited to, future costs for the plugging and abandonment of wells and removal of production facilities, even if the future costs are certain to occur and can reasonably be estimated.

The bill would establish the Oil Trust Fund (fund) in the State Treasury and would appropriate the money in the fund to the commission commencing when specified requirements are met. The bill would require the City of Long Beach, on or before March 1, 2006, to pay to the State Lands Commission as remaining oil revenue from the Long Beach tidelands free from the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fisheries, all money, including both principal and interest, in a specified abandonment reserve fund that the city created in 1999.

The bill would require the Controller to transfer these moneys to the fund. The bill would also require the Controller to transfer additional prescribed amounts to the fund and to the General Fund. The bill would require the commission to expend the money in the fund to finance the costs of well abandonment, pipeline removal, facility removal, remediation, and other costs associated with removal of oil gas facilities from the Long Beach tidelands.

The bill would require the commission, by January 1, 2007, to submit a specified report to the Director of Finance and specified legislators regarding tidelands oil field mitigation.

(6) Under the Public Utilities Act, the Public Utilities Commission (commission) requires electrical corporations to identify a separate rate component to fund cost-effective energy efficiency and conservation activities, public interest research and development, and development of renewable resources technology. This rate component is a nonbypassable element of local distribution and collected on the basis of usage. Existing law requires specified electrical corporations to collect specific amounts to support each of these programs. Existing law also requires the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (Energy Commission) to transfer funds collected for these programs to specified funds, including requiring that funds transferred to the Energy Commission for purposes of public interest research, development, and demonstration be transferred to the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Fund in the State Treasury. Existing law requires the Energy Commission to develop, implement, and administer the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Program.

This bill would require the Energy Commission, on or before March 15, 2006, to prepare and submit to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature, a report setting forth a long-term research priority, program management, and staffing plan for the Public Interest Energy Research Program that is part of the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Program.

(7) Existing law requires the State Water Resources Control Board (board), on or before January 1, 2007, to adopt principles and guidelines for maintaining instream flows in certain coastal streams in accordance with state policy for water quality control, and authorizes the board to adopt principles and guidelines for maintaining other instream flows in accordance with that state policy.

This bill, instead, would require the board, on or before January 1, 2008, to adopt principles and guidelines for maintaining instream flows in certain coastal streams as part of that state policy, and would authorize the board to adopt principles and guidelines for maintaining other instream flows as part of that state policy.

Ch. 82 (AB 987) Frommer Vehicle rental agreements: disclosures.

Existing law, operative January 1, 2006, prohibits an automobile rental agency from renting or leasing a motor vehicle unless the agency discloses both orally and in writing to the customer that the collision damage waiver protection may be duplicative of coverage the customer currently has through his or her automobile insurance policy. However, until January 1, 2006, existing law instead only requires oral notice be given to all renters who are not participants in the rental company's membership program.

This bill would repeal those provisions that would be operative January 1, 2006, and instead make those provisions relating to oral notice, except to members of the rental company's membership program, operative indefinitely. Additionally, the bill would require written notice to be given to all renters who are not participants in the rental company's membership program that the damage waiver may be duplicative of coverage that the customer maintains under his or her own policy of motor vehicle insurance.

Existing law regulates an automobile renter's liability for loss due to theft, a rental company's loss of use, or damage or loss to a rental vehicle, a renter's credit card liability, the submission of insurance claims, damage waivers and damage waiver fees, and the notice to a renter regarding financial responsibility and optional damage waivers. Existing law also provides that a waiver of these provisions is void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy. However, until January 1, 2006, existing law provides an exception to these provisions with respect to renters who are members of the rental company's membership program, as defined, if specified conditions are met.

This bill would make that exception with respect to members of the rental company's membership program operative indefinitely.

Ch. 83 (SB 987) Migden County transportation authorities.

The Bay Area County Traffic and Transportation Funding Act authorizes each of the 9 counties in the bay area to impose a 1/2 or 1% sales tax for transportation purposes, subject to voter approval. Existing law provides for the establishment of a county transportation authority in each county imposing a sales tax under these provisions, requires the development of a county transportation expenditure plan, and specifies the powers and duties of a county board of supervisors and the county transportation authority in this regard. Existing law generally requires the proceeds of the tax to be expended in the county of origin, except that the County of San Mateo may spend a portion of its tax proceeds in another county if so provided in its county transportation expenditure plan.

This bill would authorize any of the 9 counties to spend a portion of its tax proceeds in another county if so provided in its county transportation expenditure plan. The bill would also authorize the membership of the county transportation authority to be specified in the tax ordinance, would authorize the authority to be the sponsoring agency for projects included in the expenditure plan, and would change the existing threshold for contracts to be competitively bid to $75,000.

Ch. 84 (AB 544) Vargas Insurance solicitors: appointment.

Under existing law, an insurance solicitor may be appointed by an insurance agent or broker to aid in transacting insurance other than life insurance. Existing law prohibits a notice of appointment of a solicitor from being filed with the Insurance Commissioner unless a notice of termination of appointment has been filed with the commissioner for any previously filed notice of appointment of the solicitor.

This bill would set forth specified circumstances in which a notice of appointment appointing a solicitor may be filed by a 2nd or subsequent fire and casualty broker-agent.

Ch. 85 (AB 1008) Richman County employees' retirement: supplemental benefits.

Existing law permits Ventura County, upon adoption of a specified resolution by the board of retirement, to elect to provide for a vested supplemental benefit of $108.44 per month to all current and future retired members and their survivors who are eligible, as specified.

This bill would require, in Ventura County, if the board of retirement adopts or has adopted a resolution to provide a vested supplemental benefit, as described above, that for employees first employed on or after January 1, 2006, the supplemental benefit shall be paid only to retirees who have accrued at least 5 years of service in the retirement system with the county, except for members on disability retirement connected to their service, as specified.

Ch. 86 (SB 443) Committee on Elections, Reapportionment and Constitutional Amendments Elections.

Existing law sets forth the procedures for declaring candidacy for a district office, including the availability of forms and the dates on which the declarations of candidacy are due to the county elections official.

This bill would prohibit a person from filing nomination papers for more than one district office or term of office for the same district at the same election.

This bill would make corrections to erroneous cross-references.

Ch. 87 (SB 1054) Soto Charter schools: California Building Standards Code.

Existing law, the Field Act, requires the Department of General Services to supervise the design and construction of any school building or the reconstruction or alteration of or addition to any school building, if not exempted, to ensure that plans and specifications comply with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the act and building standards published in the California Building Standards Code and to ensure that the work of construction has been performed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, for the protection of life and property.

Existing law, the Charter Schools Act of 1992, permits any one or more persons to submit a petition to the governing board of a school district to establish a charter school that operates independently from the existing school district structure as a method of accomplishing specified goals. Existing law provides that a charter school is exempt from the laws governing school districts, except for specified laws relating to the State Teacher's Retirement Plan, loans from the state, and all laws establishing minimum age for public school attendance.

This bill would expressly include the California Building Standards Code, as adopted and enforced by a local building enforcement agency, amongst those state laws from which a charter school is not exempt. The bill would require charter schools to be in compliance with those provisions by January 1, 2007. The bill would also provide that a charter school is exempt from this requirement if it complies with the requirements of the Field Act, or if the school is exclusively owned or controlled by the federal government or other entity that is not subject to the California Building Standards Code.

Under existing law, the Drug Dealer Liability Act, a person who knowingly participates in the marketing of illegal controlled substances within this state is liable for civil damages, as specified. Existing law defines "marketing of illegal controlled substances" to mean the possession for sale, sale, or distribution of a specified illegal controlled substance.

This bill would revise that definition to include the manufacture of the illegal controlled substance. The bill would make a conforming change to a related provision and would declare that the changes made by the bill do not constitute changes in, but are declaratory of, existing law.

Ch. 89 (AB 571) Levine Vehicles: DUI: blood-alcohol concentration: sanctions.

When a person is convicted of violating specified driving-under-the-influence (DUI) provisions, existing law requires a court to consider a concentration of alcohol in a person's blood of 0.20% or more, by weight, or the refusal of the person to take a chemical test, as a special factor that may justify enhancing the penalties in sentencing, in determining whether to grant probation, and, if probation is granted, in determining additional or enhanced terms and conditions of probation.

This bill, for the purposes of the above determination, would decrease the required blood-alcohol concentration (BAC) from 0.20% to 0.15%.

Ch. 90 (SB 906) Ashburn Calico: official state silver rush ghost town.

Existing law designates Bodie as the official state gold rush ghost town.

This bill would designate Calico as the official state silver rush ghost town.

Ch. 91 (SB 76) Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review Energy.

(1) Existing law requires the Department of Food and Agriculture to adopt specifications for gasoline or automotive spark-ignition fuels for use in internal combustion engines and motor vehicles and to use by reference the latest standards of the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM). Existing law also makes it unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or cause or permit to be sold or offered for sale, or deliver or offer for delivery, any petroleum product as a fuel for internal combustion engines at any place where petroleum products are kept or stored for sale, which does not conform to these provisions, unless specified requirements are met.

This bill would add hydrogen fuels to these provisions for use in internal combustion engines and fuel cells in motor vehicles. By expanding the definition of a crime, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The bill would require the department, by January 1, 2008, with the concurrence of the State Air Resources Board, to establish specifications for hydrogen fuels for use in internal combustion engines and fuel cells in motor vehicles until a standards development organization accredited by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) formally adopts standards for hydrogen fuels for use in internal combustion engines and fuel cells in motor vehicles. It would require the department, at that time, to adopt those standards, except as specified.

The bill would, until January 1, 2007, appropriate the sum of $6.5 million from the Motor Vehicle Account to the State Air Resources Board to fund the state's share of various activities relating to hydrogen-powered vehicles. The bill would require the board to prepare certain reports and take other specified actions with respect to hydrogen fuel.

(2) Existing law provides for the collection of funds to provide funds for the Public Interest Research Development, and Demonstration Fund, pertaining to public interest research, development, and demonstration.

This bill would provide that those funds may be expended for transportation related public interest energy research if it provides an electricity ratepayer benefit.

(3) Existing law defines interest of ratepayers in connection with public utilities.

This bill would provide that interests of ratepayers also includes activities that benefit ratepayers and that promote energy efficiency, reduction of health and environmental impacts from air pollution, and greenhouse gas emissions related to electricity and natural gas production and use, and increased use of alternative fuels.

(4) Existing law provides for a surcharge on natural gas to provide low income assistance, energy efficiency and conservation activities, and public interest research and development.

This bill would provide that the funds for public interest energy research and development shall be administered by the Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for specified purposes, including specified transportation related purposes. The bill would repeal these provisions on January 1, 2009.

(5) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 92 (AB 584) Blakeslee Seismic safety.

Existing law required that an Earthquake Research Evaluation Conference be held to critique existing and emerging technologies for earthquake research and recommending a comprehensive plan for earthquake research.

Existing law creates the continuously appropriated Alfred E. Alquist Earthquake Fund to award a maximum of 5 grants for the 1991–92 fiscal year to commercialize technologies that will predict earthquakes or mitigate their impact.

This bill would delete an obsolete cross-reference, repeal an obsolete grant program, transfer funds remaining in the Alfred E. Alquist Earthquake Fund to the Seismic Safety Account in the Insurance Fund, appropriate those funds to the Seismic Safety Commission for expenditure in the 2005–06 fiscal year, and repeal the provision creating the Alfred E. Alquist Earthquake Fund.

Ch. 93 (AB 641) Montanez Real estate time-shares.

Existing law, operative July 1, 2005, establishes the Vacation Ownership and Time-Share Act of 2004. The act requires a time-share plan developer to prepare, for issuance by the Real Estate Commissioner, a public report that fully and accurately discloses certain facts concerning the time-share developer and time-share plan. The act also requires an applicant preparing a public report for a time-share plan to present specified evidence for each accommodation of the time-share plan.

This bill would instead require an applicant preparing a public report for a time-share plan to present the evidence for each accommodation in each time-share property that is, or will be, offered for sale in California. The bill would also require an applicant preparing a public report for a multisite, time-share plan consisting of specific time-share interests affiliated with sites operated through the time-share plan's reservation system to make certain certifications regarding accommodations and improvements.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 94 (AB 434) Parra Credit unions: trusts and custodial agreements.

Existing law, the California Credit Union Law, provides for the regulation of credit unions by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions. The law authorizes a credit union to act as a trustee or custodian under a written trust instrument or custodial agreement created or organized in the United States that is part of a pension plan for its members, or groups or organizations of its members, and that qualifies or has qualified for specific tax treatment.

This bill would also authorize a credit union to act as a trustee or custodian under a written trust instrument or custodial agreement created or organized in the United States that is part of an education or medical plan for its members, or groups or organizations of its members, and that qualifies or has qualified for specific tax treatment.

Ch. 95 (AB 1761) Committee on Insurance Insolvency: deductible agreements.

Existing law generally regulates the liquidation of insolvent insurers. Existing law establishes the California Insurance Guarantee Association for purposes related to the payment of covered claims of certain insolvent insurers.

This bill would provide that any collateral held by or for the benefit of, or assigned to, an insurer or liquidator pursuant to these provisions to secure the obligations of a policyholder under a deductible agreement, as defined, and any reimbursement payments to the liquidator under a deductible agreement, shall be considered property of the liquidated company, but shall not be general assets of the liquidated company. The bill would impose certain requirements on the liquidator and the policyholder with respect to the payment of claims from this collateral, and would specify the obligations of the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or another guaranty association, regarding claims covered by this collateral. The bill would require that it be construed such that the claim payment obligations of the guaranty associations arising from deductible agreements will be substantially equivalent to those of the insurer, except as specified, had the insurer continued in business and not become subject to a liquidation proceeding.

Ch. 96 (AB 449) Plescia Horse racing.

Existing law provides for the deduction of a portion of the proceeds of horse races as purses for the benefit of horsemen and horsewomen at the racing meeting, and provides for specific deductions from this portion for the benefit of owners' and trainers' organizations, administrative expenses, and for other purposes as specified, depending on the type of horse race involved. Under existing law, "trainer" is defined for these purposes as a person currently licensed by the board as a trainer. These provisions are to remain in effect until January 1, 2006, at which time the definition of "trainer" will include a person currently licensed by the board as an owner and a trainer or as a trainer.

This bill would repeal the provision set to go into effect January 1, 2006, and amend the provision set to go into effect January 1, 2008, to maintain the definition of trainer, for these purposes, to mean a person currently licensed by the board as a trainer.

Existing law provides for the recognition of horsemen's and horsewomen's organizations by the California Horse Racing Board. Each organization, except for the thoroughbred horsemen's and horsewomen's organizations, and except an organization that solely represents owners, or solely represents trainers, shall provide for the representation of owners and trainers on its board of directors. Each thoroughbred horsemen's and horsewomen's organization, except one that solely represents trainers, shall provide for the representation of owners and owner-trainers on its board. Existing law provides that the organization representing owners who are also licensed as trainers, and their spouses who are licensed as owners, shall comprise a class of owner-trainers, which may elect 3 of its members to the board of directors of the owner's organization, while all other directors shall be owners and not owner-trainers. The board of the thoroughbred owners' organization shall not exceed 15 members and all members shall have equal standing. Existing law further provides that the thoroughbred trainers' organization may appoint 3 persons who qualify as owner-trainers, to the board of the thoroughbred owners' organization. This provision will be repealed as of January 1, 2006, unless a later enacted statute, enacted before January 1, 2006, deletes or extends that date.

This bill would maintain these provisions in effect until January 1, 2007.

Ch. 97 (AB 1303) Daucher School finance: emergency apportionments and lease financing.

Existing law authorizes a school district to receive a 2-part financing designed to provide an advance of apportionments owed to the school district from the State School Fund and requires the initial emergency apportionment to be an interim loan from the General Fund to the school district. Existing law requires the school district to enter into a lease financing arrangement with the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank (the bank) for the purpose of financing the emergency apportionment and requires the term of the lease not to exceed 20 years.

This bill would require the term of the lease to be extended for a period not to exceed 10 years if at the end of the lease term any rent payable is not fully paid or if the rent payable has been abated.

Existing law requires notification by the school district to the Controller of the lease financing, along with a schedule of rent payments to become due to the bank from the school district and identifying the bond trustee. Existing law requires the Controller to make the apportionment to the bond trustee of those amounts on the dates shown on the schedule. Existing law provides that the bank may further authorize that the apportionments be used to pay or reimburse the provider of any credit enhancement of bonds issued by the bank.

This bill would also authorize those apportionments to be used to pay or reimburse the provider for other ongoing or periodic ancillary costs of the bond financing. The bill would require the bank to provide notification of the lease financing to the Controller and the school district.

Existing law requires the bank to issue separate bonds for the West Contra Costa Unified School District and the Oakland Unified School District for lease financing and requires those school districts to use the proceeds to repay the existing apportionments. Existing law requires the terms of those leases not to exceed 20 years.

This bill would require the terms of the leases to be extended for a period not to exceed 10 years if at the end of the lease terms any rent payable is not fully paid or if the rent payable has been abated.

Existing law requires the Controller to annually transfer from Section A of the State School Fund the amount of funds necessary to pay certain warrants so that the effective cost of the lease financing provided to specified school districts is equal to the cost of the emergency loan made to each district at a certain annual rate.

This bill would instead require the Controller to make that transfer pursuant to a schedule provided to the Controller by the bank, would provide that the effective cost of the lease financing is equal to the cost of the original emergency loan, and would specify the applicable interest rate for each district, as provided.

Existing law requires the executive director of the bank to annually notify the Controller of certain amounts relating to the lease financing and requires the Controller to annually issue a warrant to certain school districts in that amount.

This bill would instead require the executive director or chair of the bank to periodically provide a schedule to the Controller and each school district of the certain amounts relating to the lease financing and require the Controller to issue warrants to each school district pursuant to the schedule.

Existing law provides that a financing of emergency apportionments upon the request of a school district, as provided, is deemed to be in the public interest and eligible for financing by the bank. Existing law authorizes the bank to issue revenue bonds and provide the proceeds to a school district pursuant to a lease agreement, as provided.

This bill would declare that the state pledges that it will not alter a certain directive and will not amend or repeal certain provisions of existing law in any manner that would materially impair the security or other interests of the bondholders.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 98 (AB 1732) La Malfa Natural gas: Gas Consumption Surcharge Fund.

Under existing law, the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) has regulatory authority over public utilities, including gas corporations. Existing law establishes a surcharge on all natural gas consumed in the state to fund certain low-income assistance programs, cost-effective energy efficiency and conservation activities, and public interest research and development. Existing law requires a public utility gas corporation, as defined, to collect the surcharge from natural gas consumers, as specified. The moneys from the surcharge is deposited in the Gas Consumption Surcharge Fund and is continuously appropriated to specified entities, including the CPUC, or an entity designated by the CPUC, to fund low-income assistance programs, cost-effective energy efficiency and conservation activities, and public interest research and development not adequately provided by the competitive and regulated markets.

The existing Warren-Alquist State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Act establishes the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (Energy Commission) and requires it to develop, implement, and administer the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Program.

This bill would provide that if the Energy Commission is designated by the CPUC to receive funds from the Gas Consumption Surcharge Fund for public interest research and development, the Energy Commission is authorized to administer the program pursuant to the Public Interest Research, Development, and Demonstration Program.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 99 (SB 647) Margett Parole revocation.

Existing law provides that a parolee or his or her attorney may, in parole revocation proceedings, receive copies of any police, arrest, crime report, or child abuse report, as specified, that pertain to the proceeding. Confidential portions need not be disclosed if the parolee or his or her attorney has been notified of the omission.

This bill would extend these disclosure provisions to parole revocation extension proceedings, and would make criminal history information available as well.

Existing law requires the Department of Justice to furnish various agencies and entities with a person's state criminal history information for certain purposes, as specified.

This bill would expand the list of persons entitled to receive criminal history reports to include the attorney of record in a parole revocation or revocation extension proceeding.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 100 (SB 754) Poochigian Unitrust conversions.

Existing law governs proceedings for the administration of trusts.

This bill would authorize a trustee, unless prohibited by the governing instrument, to convert a trust into a unitrust, pursuant to specified procedures. The bill would permit the trustee to convert a trust into a unitrust without a court order if specified conditions and requirements are satisfied, the trustee gives written notice of the intent to convert in accordance with certain notice requirements, and no beneficiary objects to the proposed action in writing during a specified timeframe. The bill would give the trustee the power, after a trust is converted to a unitrust, to make regular distributions of trust income in accordance with specified provisions. The bill would also establish procedures by which a trustee may reconvert from a unitrust to a trust and change the distribution payout percentage of a unitrust. The bill would require a fiduciary administering a unitrust, reconverting a unitrust, or changing the percentage payout from a unitrust to administer the trust impartially. The bill would make other conforming changes to related provisions of law related to trust administration.

Ch. 101 (SB 1036) Perata State scenic highway system.

Existing law creates the state scenic highway system, implemented by the Department of Transportation and composed of specified highway routes.

This bill would designate State Highway Route 13 between Route 24 and Route 580 as a state scenic highway.

Ch. 102 (SB 119) Ackerman Corporations: board meetings.

Existing law provides that an action required or permitted to be taken by the board of a corporation may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board consent in writing to that action.

This bill would generally provide until January 1, 2011, that "all members of the board" includes an "interested director" or a "common director" who abstains in writing from providing consent if specified disclosures have been made to noninterested or noncommon directors, the disclosures are included in the written consent, and the noninterested or noncommon directors approve the action by a specified vote.

Ch. 103 (SB 101) Battin Employee compensation.

(1) Existing law requires an employer to furnish each employee with an accurate itemized statement showing, among other things, the name of the employee and his or her social security number, except that, by January 1, 2008, existing law requires the employer to include no more than the last 4 digits of the employee's social security number or an existing employee identification number other than a social security number on any check provided to an employee. Existing law requires the state, or any city, county, city and county, district, or any other governmental entity, if it furnishes its employees with a check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, to, by January 1, 2008, use no more than the last four digits of the employee's social security number or to use an existing employee identification number other than the social security number on that check, draft, or voucher. Existing law provides that a knowing and intentional violation of this provision is a misdemeanor.

This bill would clarify existing law to require that an employer, by January 1, 2008, include on the itemized statement provided to an employee the last 4 digits of the employee's social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number. The bill would further clarify existing law to require, by January 1, 2008, that the state, or any city, county, city and county, district, or any other governmental entity, if it furnishes its employees with a check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, to use no more than the last four digits of the employee's social security number or to use an employee identification number other than the social security number on an itemized statement to accompany the check, draft, or voucher. By imposing new duties on employers, the violation of which is a misdemeanor, this bill imposes a state-mandated local program.

(2) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 104 (SB 278) Cedillo Boxing pensions.

Existing law, the Boxing Act, provides for the licensure and regulation by the State Athletic Commission of boxing, kickboxing, and martial arts contests and makes a violation of the act a crime. The act creates the Boxers' Pension Fund where certain revenue is deposited and continuously appropriated for pension fund purposes. Under the act, a person who conducts a contest is required to report to the commission the amount of gross receipts from the contest and to pay the commission a fee of 5% of that amount. The act requires until January 1, 2006, that the balance of the fee from any one boxing contest exceeding $70,000 be paid 1/2 to the commission and 1/2 to the Boxers' Pension Fund.

This bill would require these payments to the Boxers' Pension Fund to continue to be paid after January 1, 2006. Because the bill would continue the deposit of these fee proceeds into the Boxers' Pension Fund, it would make an appropriation. Because failure to comply with this payment obligation would be a crime, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 105 (SB 816) Kehoe Electric service providers: net metering.

Existing law requires every electric service provider, as defined, to develop a standard contract or tariff providing for net energy metering, and to make this contract available to eligible customer generators, upon request, on a first-come-first-served basis until the total rated generating capacity used by eligible customer generators exceeds 0.5% of the electric service provider's aggregate customer peak demand.

This bill would establish for the San Diego Gas and Electric Company a separate limit of 50 megawatts.

The bill would make a finding and declaration of the Legislature regarding the inapplicability of a general statute within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

Ch. 106 (SB 548) Morrow State construction projects: insurance.

Existing law generally prohibits property belonging to the state from being insured against risk of damage or destruction by fire, with specified exceptions.

This bill would, notwithstanding this general prohibition, authorize the Director of General Services to establish a master builders' risk insurance program for all state construction projects during construction and would require that program to provide that if a master policy is issued, that policy would require a deductible of at least $25,000 from the contractor.

Ch. 107 (SB 245) Battin Department of General Services: use of state property.

Existing law generally sets forth the duties and authority of the Department of General Services in acquiring, assigning, and maintaining state property on behalf of state agencies.

This bill would provide that final determination of the use of existing state-owned or state-leased facilities that are currently under the jurisdiction of the Department of General Services by state agencies shall be made by the Department of General Services. It would provide that the request of an agency that is required to be made to and approved by the department to acquire new facilities through lease, purchase, or construction shall first consider the utilization of existing state-owned, state-leased, or state-controlled facilities before considering the leasing of additional facilities on behalf of a state agency. It would also require that when tenant state agencies located in existing state-owned facilities vacate their premises, they continue to pay rent for the facilities unless and until a new tenant can be assigned or until the Department of General Services can negotiate a mutual termination of the lease, unless the department has generated the tenant's relinquishment or the tenant is vacating in accordance with the provisions of its lease agreement.

Ch. 108 (SB 1092) Maldonado Community services districts: East Garrison.

Existing law provides that the people of any unincorporated territory may petition the board or boards of supervisors for the formation of a community services district to provide various services, and that a proposal to form a new district may also be made by the adoption of a resolution of application by the legislative body of any county or city that contains territory proposed to be included in the district.

This bill would provide that in the case of the proposed formation of the East Garrison Community Services District in Monterey County if the local agency formation district finds that the affected territory contains no registered voters and no landowners that are not public agencies, the commission may dispense with an election, order the board of supervisors to adopt a specified resolution, and designate the members of the initial board of directors of the district. The bill would also provide that the board of directors of the district shall be the Board of Supervisors of Monterey County until conversion to a directly elected board of directors pursuant to a specified procedure.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 109 (SB 597) Torlakson Good driver discounts: drunk drivers.

Existing law provides that a person is qualified to purchase a Good Driver Discount auto insurance policy if he or she meets specified criteria, including not having been convicted of specified offenses relating to driving while intoxicated during the previous 7 years. The above provisions are amendments of Proposition 103, an initiative statute that may be amended by the Legislature only by a 2/3 vote and in furtherance of its purposes.

This bill would change the period during which a person must not have been convicted of one of these offenses to the period commencing on January 1, 1999, or the date 10 years prior to the date of application for the issuance or renewal of the Good Driver Discount policy, whichever is later, and ending on the date of the application for the issuance or renewal of the Good Driver Discount policy.

Ch. 110 (SB 447) Poochigian Youth authority.

NOTE: Superior numbers appear as a separate section at the end of the digests.

Existing law requires the Director of the Youth Authority to request the prosecuting attorney to petition the committing court for an order seeking the extended detention of certain persons who would otherwise be discharged from the Youth Authority if the Department of the Youth Authority determines that those persons would be physically dangerous to the public because of the person's mental or physical deficiency, disorder, or abnormality.

This bill would limit the application of those sections to persons who are physically dangerous to the public because of a mental or physical deficiency, disorder, or abnormality which causes them to have serious difficulty controlling their dangerous behavior.

The bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 111 (AB 254) Nakanishi Emergency medical services: automatic external defibrillators.

Existing law, the Emergency Medical Services System and the Prehospital Emergency Medical Care Personnel Act, permits each county to establish an emergency medical services program under which the county is required to designate a local emergency medical services agency (EMS agency). The act authorizes the local EMS agency to implement a trauma care system if the system meets the minimum standards set forth in the regulations established by the Emergency Medical Services Authority and the authority has approved a plan.

Existing law authorizes the authority to establish minimum training and other standards for the use of automatic external defibrillators and requires persons or entities that acquire the defibrillators to comply with maintenance, testing, and training requirements, which are scheduled to change on January 1, 2008. Existing law, until January 1, 2008, provides immunity from civil damages for those persons or entities, and sets forth tenant notice and other requirements for building owners in which an AED is placed.

This bill would set forth a principal's staff-notification and other duties for an AED placed in a public or private K-12 school.

Ch. 112 (SB 387) Ducheny New River.

Existing law provides that specified law relating to the maintenance of flow in streams shall not prevent the use or enlargement of any natural channel for municipal purposes or for use in connection with any artificial system of drainage, irrigation, or flood control that does not cause the flow of water in the channel at the intake of the canal to be less than the quantity of water the owners and appropriators have the right to divert into the intake.

This bill, only as applied to the New River in Imperial County, would define the phrase "use or enlargement of any natural channel for municipal purposes" to include sewage treatment and pollution prevention and the encasing and piping of the New River to protect human health and the natural environment.

The bill would make a finding and declaration of the Legislature regarding the inapplicability of a general statute within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

Ch. 113 (SB 39) Murray Absentee voting.

Existing law requires that a voter's name be deleted from the permanent absent voter list if he or she fails to return an absentee ballot for any statewide general election.

This bill would instead require that a voter's name be deleted only if he or she fails to return an absentee ballot for 2 consecutive statewide general elections.

Ch. 114 (SB 140) Margett Subsurface installations: excavation.

Existing law requires an excavator to determine the exact location of subsurface installations that are in conflict with the excavation before using any power-operated or power-driven excavating or boring equipment within the approximate location of the subsurface installation, with a specified exception. The excavator is required to use hand tools to determine the location of subsurface installations, as specified. Existing law requires the operator of a subsurface installation that receives timely notice of proposed excavation work to make a reasonable effort to field mark the location of the installation using specified colors.

This bill would allow the utilization of vacuum excavation devices or power-operated or power-driven tools, provided that an express written mutual agreement exists, as specified. This bill would also require operators to use the uniform color code of the American Public Works Association when making field markings.

Ch. 115 (SB 396) Battin Telecommunications: toll call pricing.

Existing law authorizes the Public Utilities Commission to regulate telephone corporations.

This bill would require the commission to examine the impact of toll call pricing in the Coachella Valley and to consider whether additional options are needed to serve that area. The bill would require the commission to consider whether any additional steps are necessary to encourage innovative pricing plans by incumbent and competitive carriers and would authorize the commission to consider whether customer education efforts or other measures that are in the public interest are necessary. The bill would require the commission to prepare and submit a report to the Legislature on or before July 1, 2007, regarding these issues.

The bill would provide that its provisions would be repealed on January 1, 2008.

Ch. 116 (SB 702) Ackerman Associations.

Existing law sets forth certain requirements and other provisions applicable to unincorporated associations. Existing law exempts a member, director, officer, or agent of a nonprofit association from liability for contractual obligations of the association if specified requirements are satisfied.

This bill would add provisions governing unincorporated associations, including provisions relating to termination or suspension of membership, member voting, amendment of governing documents, merger, and dissolution. The bill would also provide that a member, director, officer, or agent of a nonprofit association shall be liable for injury, damage, or harm caused by an act or omission of the association or an act or omission of a director, officer, or agent of the association if certain conditions are met.

Ch. 117 (AB 480) Plescia horse racing: advance deposit wagering.

Existing law authorizes advance wagering accounts to provide a full accounting of deposits and wagers, as specified. After the payment of winning wagers and the deduction of contractual compensation and a host fee, where applicable, existing law requires payments to various racing entities in California, payment of certain percentages of the amount handled on advance deposit wagers paid for specific funds, and the remaining money to be distributed as commission, purses, and incentive awards, as specified. Further, existing law exempts market access fees from advance deposit wagering from the calculations pursuant to Section 19616.51. This section remains in effect only until January 1, 2008, and as of that date is repealed.

This bill would provide that in the event of a reduction in satellite wagering facility commissions, the benefits would then be distributed equally as purses and commissions to all associations and racing fairs that generate advance deposit wagers, in proportion to the handle generated.

Ch. 118 (AB 831) Committee on Education Education.

(1) Existing law requires a county superintendent of schools to conduct an annual review of the use of textbooks and instructional materials within the 1st 4 weeks of the school year.

This bill would, instead, require that review to be completed by the 4th week of the school year, and would permit the county superintendent of schools in a county with 200 or more schools that are ranked in any of deciles 1 to 3, inclusive, of the 2003 base Academic Performance Index to utilize a combination of visits and written surveys of teachers for the purpose of determining sufficiency of textbooks and instructional materials.

(2) The existing School Safety and Violence Prevention Act declares the intent of the Legislature that public schools serving pupils in kindergarten or any of grades 8 to 12, inclusive, have access to supplemental resources to establish programs and strategies that promote school safety and emphasize violence prevention among children and youth in the public schools. Existing law requires the Superintendent of Public Instruction to provide funds to school districts serving those specified pupils. Existing law makes the act inoperative on July 1, 2005, and repeals it on January 1, 2006.

This bill would delete the inoperative and repeal dates, extending the operation of the act indefinitely.

(3) Existing law requires a school district to use its uniform complaint process to help identify and resolve any deficiencies related to instructional materials, conditions of facilities that are not maintained in a clean and safe manner or in good repair, and teacher vacancy or misassignment. Existing law requires a notice to be posted in each classroom in each school in the school district notifying parents and guardians that there should be sufficient textbooks or instructional materials, school facilities must be clean, safe, and in good repair, and the location to obtain a form to file a complaint in case of a shortage.

This bill would, in addition, require that notice to contain a statement informing parents and guardians that there should be no teacher vacancies or misassignments, as defined.

(4) Existing law, the Pupil Nutrition, Health, and Achievement Act of 2001, prohibits the sale of certain beverages and food items at elementary, middle, and junior high schools. Existing law requires the State Department of Education to monitor the implementation of that act and report its evaluation to the Legislature by January 1, 2005.

This bill would instead require the department to report its evaluation to the Legislature by May 1, 2005.

(5) Existing law establishes within the Public Schools Accountability Act of 1999 the High Priority Schools Grant Program and requires a school district that has a school participating in the program to submit a report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that includes specified information, including, but not limited to, information regarding the availability of certain instructional materials.

This bill would, for a school district that initially applies to participate in the High Priority Schools Grant Program during the 2004–05 fiscal year, or any fiscal year thereafter, apply the definition of “sufficient textbooks or instructional materials” from the Pupil Textbook and Instructional Materials Incentive Program Act to these provisions.

(6) Existing law establishes the Education Technology Grant Program of 2002 to provide grants to eligible school districts, county offices of education, and charter schools for purposes of implementing and supporting a comprehensive system that effectively uses technology to improve pupil academic achievement. Existing law requires that the minimum amount of a grant for a region be at least $1,000,000 or 2% of available grant funds, whichever amount is greater.

This bill would modify that minimum grant amount to $500,000 or 2% of available grant funds, whichever amount is greater.

(7) Existing law, for the 2004–05 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, requires the Superintendent of Public Instruction to calculate for each special education local plan area an amount based on (a) the number of children and youth residing in foster family homes and foster family agencies, (b) the licensed capacity of group homes licensed by the State Department of Social Services, and (c) the number of children and youth ages 3 through 21 referred by the State Department of Developmental Services who are residing in certain skilled nursing or intermediate care facilities and the number of youth ages 18 through 21 referred by the State Department of Developmental Services who are residing in certain community care facilities.

This bill would require the Superintendent of Public Instruction to continue to apportion funds from Section A of the State School Fund to each special education local plan area equal to the amount apportioned at the advance apportionment for that fiscal year.

(8) Existing law, the Pupil Textbook and Instructional Materials Incentive Program Act, requires the governing board of a school district to hold a public hearing and make a determination as to whether each pupil in each school in the district has sufficient textbooks or instructional materials, as defined, in each subject that are consistent with the content and cycles of the curriculum framework adopted by the State Board of Education.

This bill would, in addition, require the governing board of a school district that makes that determination to provide information relating to the percentage or number of pupils who lack sufficient textbooks or instructional materials to classroom teachers and the public, thereby creating a state-mandated local program.

(9) Existing law appropriates certain funds for the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program contained within the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (20 U.S.C. Sec. 6301 et seq.) and specifies the purposes for which each appropriation may be used.

This bill would make an appropriation as it would authorize any recipient of a grant award from these funds during the 2004–05 fiscal year to use those awarded funds for other purposes contained in existing law, if the recipient submits documentation as part of its expenditure report that reasonably justifies to the State Department of Education that, subsequent to the grant award, it became impractical or no longer feasible to fully earn or expend those funds for the purpose for which those funds were originally granted to the recipient.

(10) Existing law, for the 2003–04 fiscal year, appropriates the sum of $138,000,000 to the State Department of Education for transfer to the Instructional Materials Fund to be apportioned to school districts on the basis of an equal amount per pupil enrolled in schools in decile 1 or 2 of the Academic Performance Index (API).

For these purposes, this bill would base enrollment on the number of pupils reported for purposes of the 2003 base API. The bill would specify that these funds may only be used to purchase instructional materials for schools in decile 1 or 2 of the Academic Performance Index (API).

(11) Existing law makes certain appropriations to the State Department of Education for the acquisition of instructional materials for school districts and for allocation to county offices of education to review, monitor, and report on teacher training, certification, misassignment, hiring and retention practices of school districts, and to oversee the compliance of schools with instructional materials sufficiency requirements. Existing law provides that, for the purpose of making the computations required by Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, these appropriations are deemed to be “General Fund revenues appropriated for school districts” for the 2004–05 fiscal year, and included within the “total allocations to school districts and community college districts from General Fund proceeds of taxes appropriated pursuant to Article XIII B” for the 2004–05 fiscal year.

This bill would, instead, include those appropriations in the calculations for the 2003–04 fiscal year.

(12) Existing law authorizes the State Department of Education to cooperate with the federal government and its agencies in securing the expeditious and equitable distribution of surplus food commodities donated by the federal government to public agencies, institutions, and organizations in California. Existing law requires the cash resources of the Donated Food Program to be deposited into the Donated Food Revolving Fund.

This bill would appropriate $1,200,000 from the Donated Food Revolving Fund for support of the State Department of Education for purposes of the Donated Food Program.

(13) This bill would also make various technical, nonsubstantive changes to existing law.

(14) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

(15) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 119 (AB 834) Jones Horse racing.

Existing law defines various types of parimutuel pools, as specified.

This bill would permit harness racing results to be included in proposition parimutuel pool wagers.

Existing law requires the California Horse Racing Board to allocate racing weeks as it deems appropriate, while generally limiting harness racing in the northern zone to 25 weeks per year. Existing law provides a separate general limitation on racing by each fair of 14 days, or 3 weeks in certain circumstances. However, existing law provides that, notwithstanding these general limitations, the board may allocate additional weeks of harness racing to a lessee of the California Exposition and State Fair in Sacramento to be raced at the California Exposition and State Fair in Sacramento.

This bill would authorize the board to allocate these additional weeks of harness racing to the California Exposition and State Fair in Sacramento or to its lessee, to be raced at the California Exposition and State Fair in Sacramento.

Existing law permits the board, upon the request of the association or fair accepting the wager, and the organization of participating horsemen and horsewomen, to set the percentage deducted from the parimutuel pool for any new wager introduced after January 1, 2004, as specified, to be distributed as specified.

This bill would include proposition wagers with any new wager introduced for which the board sets the percentage deducted, and would prescribe an alternate distribution scheme for quarter horse racing commissions and purses.

Under existing law, revenues distributed to the state as license fees from horse racing are required to be distributed in the Fair and Exposition fund and are continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for various regulatory and general governmental purposes.

By providing for state license fees of 3% for new types of wagers that otherwise would be subject to lower state license fees as exotic wagers, this bill would increase the amount of continuously appropriated license fees, thereby making an appropriation.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 120 (AB 428) Gordon Alcohol Beverage Control Fund: grant assistance program.

Existing law requires all money collected as fees under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund for specified purposes.

This bill would make legislative findings regarding the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's grant assistance program and provide, upon appropriation by the Legislature, that money in the fund shall also be used in an amount necessary for the support of the program, as provided.

Ch. 121 (AB 1741) Committee on Judiciary Voter information: privacy.

Existing law sets forth the requirement for an application for voter registration information, including a statement of the intended use of the information requested.

The bill would prohibit the requester of voter information or of signatures or other information collected for an initiative, referendum, or recall petition from sending the information outside of the United States, as specified, and would state findings and declarations regarding the protection of voter-related identities and personal information of Californians.

Ch. 122 (AB 981) Negrete McLeod Joint powers authority: Los Angeles.

The Joint Exercise of Powers Act authorizes 2 or more public agencies, by agreement, to exercise any power common to the contracting parties. The act also provides that 2 or more public agencies having the power to conduct agricultural, livestock, industrial, cultural, or other fairs or exhibitions shall be deemed to have common power with respect to any such fair or exhibition conducted by any one or more of those public agencies or by an entity created pursuant to a joint powers agreement entered into by those public agencies.

This bill would provide that, notwithstanding any other provision of the act, a private, nonprofit corporation that conducts fairs and other events and exhibitions on land leased from the County of Los Angeles may enter into a joint powers agreement with a public agency for mutually beneficial uses of the public land.

This bill would state the finding and declaration of the Legislature that, due to unique circumstances applicable to the County of Los Angeles, a statute of general applicability cannot be made applicable.

Ch. 123 (AB 378) Chu Statute of limitation: protected classes.

Existing law provides that all persons within this jurisdiction have the right to be free from any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or property because of their race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, or position in a labor dispute, or because another person perceives them to have any of those characteristics. Among other things, a civil penalty of $25,000 may be awarded to the person denied this right in any action brought by the aggrieved party, the Attorney General, a district attorney, or a city attorney.

Existing law generally prescribes a one-year statute of limitation for the commencement of any action brought upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, and 3 years for an action upon a liability created by statute.

This bill would provide for a 3-year statute of limitation for the commencement of any action brought pursuant to the above provision.

Ch. 124 (AB 351) Chu State claims.

Existing law requires the Attorney General to report to the Legislature when there is no sufficient appropriation available for the payment of a claim against the state.

This bill would appropriate $2,400,000 from the General Fund to the State Department of Education, $220,000 from the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Fund of 1990 to the Department of General Services, and $14,067,219.89 from the General Fund to the Department of General Services to pay the judgments and settlement claims in specified cases. The bill would provide that any funds appropriated in excess of the amounts required for the payment of the judgment or settlement costs in these cases shall revert to the fund from which it is appropriated on June 30 of the fiscal year in which the final payment is made.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 125 (AB 99) Cohn Protective orders: expiration.

Under existing law, in the discretion of the court, the personal conduct, stay-away, and residence exclusion orders contained in a court order issued after notice and a hearing may have a duration of not more than 3 years, subject to termination or modification by further order of the court, as specified. These orders may be renewed either for 3 years or permanently.

This bill would provide that these protective orders may have a duration of not more than 5 years, in the discretion of the court, and may be renewed either for 5 years or permanently. The bill would make an additional conforming change.

Ch. 126 (AB 56) Wolk Transportation: bicycles.

Existing law, until January 1, 2005, applies color-lighted bicycle symbols shown by official traffic control signals to operators of bicycles. Existing law authorizes those bicycle signals to be used only at locations that meet specified standards adopted by the Department of Transportation.

This bill would extend those provisions indefinitely. Because this bill would expand the scope of an existing crime, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 127 (AB 8) Chu Medi-Cal: AIDS and cancer treatment drugs: manufacturer rebates.

Existing law provides for the Medi-Cal program, under which qualified low-income persons receive health care benefits. Existing law authorizes the State Department of Health Services to enter into contracts with manufacturers of single source and multiple source drugs on a bid or nonbid basis and to maintain a list of contract drugs for purposes of the Medi-Cal program.

Existing law prescribes conditions under which certain drugs for use in the treatment of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) or an AIDS-related condition or cancer are deemed approved for addition to the Medi-Cal list of contract drugs or considered a Medi-Cal benefit.

Existing law requires, commencing July 1, 2002, all pharmaceutical manufacturers to provide to the department a state rebate, in addition to rebates pursuant to other provisions of state or federal laws, for any drug products that have been added to the Medi-Cal list of contract drugs pursuant to the above-described provisions related to drugs used to treat AIDS and cancer. This provision becomes inoperative on July 1, 2005, and is repealed on January 1, 2006.

This bill would delete the inoperative date and the repeal date, thereby extending the provision indefinitely.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Ch. 128 (AB 68) Montanez Motor vehicle sale contracts: Car Buyer's Bill of Rights.

Existing law governs motor vehicle conditional sale contracts, as defined. These provisions require sellers of motor vehicles to make certain disclosures to buyers, including that existing law does not provide for a "cooling off" period, and to disclose certain information under the label "itemization of the amount financed." A violation of these provisions is a misdemeanor.

This bill, operative July 1, 2006, would enact the Car Buyer's Bill of Rights.

The bill would require a conditional sale contract for a motor vehicle to include a specified notice to inform the buyer of a used vehicle with a purchase price of less than $40,000 of his or her right to obtain a contract cancellation option agreement. The bill also would require the conditional sale contract to include the amount charged for a theft deterrent device, as defined, the amount charged for a surface protection product, as defined, and the amount charged for a used vehicle contract cancellation option agreement, within the listing of "itemization of the amount financed."

The bill would require a seller to provide the buyer with a specified disclosure if a conditional sale contract is used disclosing, as specified, the charge for a service contract, an insurance product, a debt cancellation agreement, a theft deterrent device, a surface protection product, and a vehicle contract cancellation option agreement.

The bill would prohibit a seller, in consideration of an assignment of a conditional sale contract, from receiving or accepting from the assignee any payment or credit based upon any amount collected or received under the contract, or to be collected or received, in excess of specified amounts.

Existing law makes it a violation, punishable as a misdemeanor, for the holder of a dealer's license to do, or fail to do, specified actions with regard to the advertising and sale of motor vehicles.

This bill would expand those provisions to prohibit a dealer from advertising or selling a vehicle as "certified," or using similar descriptive terms to imply that the vehicle meets the terms of a used vehicle certification program, unless that vehicle meets specified criteria. The bill would make violations of this provision actionable under the Consumers Legal Remedies Act and the Unfair Competition Law, and as false advertising. The bill would also prohibit a dealer from adding charges to a sale or lease contract without the buyer's consent or inflating a payment or extending the maturity of a contract for the purpose of disguising the actual charges for goods or services.

The bill would require a dealer that obtains a consumer credit score, as defined, from a consumer credit reporting agency, as defined, for use in connection with an application for credit initiated by a consumer for the purchase or lease of a motor vehicle for personal, family, or household use to provide specific information to the consumer prior to the sale or lease of that vehicle.

The bill would prohibit a dealer from selling a used vehicle, as defined, having a purchase price of less than $40,000, at retail, to an individual for personal, family, or household use without first offering the buyer a contract cancellation option agreement that contains specified information. The bill would specify the rights and duties of a buyer and dealer under a contract cancellation option agreement.

Because the violation of these provisions would be a misdemeanor, the bill would create a new crime, thereby imposing a state-mandated local program.

The bill would make other technical and conforming changes.

This bill would make these provisions inapplicable to the sale or lease of a motorcycle, as defined, and an off-highway motor vehicle that is subject to identification.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Ch. 129 (AB 852) Leno Ports and harbors: San Francisco Bar Pilots.

Existing law requires every vessel spoken inward or outward bound to pay a rate of bar pilotage through the Golden Gate and into or out of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun of $8.11 per draft foot of the vessel's deepest draft and fractions of a foot pro rata, and an additional charge of 73.01 mills per high gross registered ton, as specified.
