PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker Celeste Rodriguez, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Lori D. Wilson, of the 11th Assembly District:

Creator of the Heavens and Earth.

We come before You today with hearts full of gratitude, celebrating and lifting up the women in our lives—mothers, daughters, sisters, friends, and all who reflect Your love and strength.

You have created them in Your image, full of dignity and purpose, called to shine as lights in this world. We thank You for the women who nurture with tenderness, lead with wisdom and serve with compassion. We thank You for the women who fight with courage and assert with care and love with ferocity.

Bless the women who care for families, for those who work tirelessly in homes, for those who deliver in their workplaces, those who teach and encourage, those who uplift the brokenhearted, and those who walk in hope even through trials. Strengthen them in moments of challenges, renew their spirits when they grow weary, and remind them that they are fearfully and wonderfully made.

Lord, we pray for every woman who is serving this great State, every leader whether elected, appointed or designated. May they rise with courage, speak with kindness, and operate with a spirit of boldness. May they continue to walk in Your grace, knowing they are deeply loved, cherished, and empowered by You.

As we, as legislators, gather today to make decisions for our State, we ask for wisdom and discernment for each of us. Although the choices before us may not always be clear, we know that You are not the author of confusion. We rely on Your guidance to lead us on the right path, benefiting the people of California as we strive to build a California for everyone.

In Your power we pray.—AMEN.
