Bismillah ir-Rahman ir-Rahim—In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

God of love and justice, as we gather on this day honoring the life and legacy of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who said that life's most persistent question is, "What are you doing for others?" He taught us that progress is made not through rhetoric, but through action, through the real work of serving others.

We pray today for our communities, for the poor and the unprotected, for the sick and the suffering, and for those incarcerated and forgotten. May we labor toward what Dr. King called the beloved community, where the dignity of every child of God is honored, and where nonviolence is not weakness, but the redemptive power of love made visible in public life.

Help us to know the right path, have the courage to walk it, and the humility to serve others with compassion, so that justice becomes real in our communities today. "Justice at its best is power correcting everything that stands against love."

Que tu amor y tu pas nos gíen siempre. En el nombre de Dios.—May your love and peace guide us always, in the name of God. "Justice at its best is power correcting everything that stands against love."

Upon request of Acting Speaker Bauer-Kahan, Assembly Member Sharp-Collins then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
